SECOND STARLET FOR STUTE?

Trainer Mel Stute will be looking to win his second GI Hollywood Starlet S. Sunday when he saddles supplementary entry Quick Little Miss (Freud) in the 1 1/16-mile race for juvenile fillies. The 79-year-old conditioner capped a career year in 1986 when subsequent Quick Little Miss Benoit coming off a come-from-behind win in the seven-furlong Moccasin S. at Hollywood Nov. 19. "I think Quick Little Miss deserves to be mentioned in the same breath as Brave Raj, Very Subtle and Buffythecenterfold, another nice filly I trained, and I hope she proves it Sunday," Stute said. "A couple of newsmen have told me they think she is just a late-running sprinter, but I don't think so. I think she can handle a mile and a sixteenth." Preparing for the Starlet, GIII Miesque S. runner-up Mystic Soul (Bahri) worked five furlongs in 1:00.80 Wednesday for her Cushion Track debut for trainer Jeff Mullins. Stakes-placed Tizthen (Tiznow) blew out three furlongs for trainer Bill Currin in a bullet :34.60.

KASTORIA TO DUBAI?

His Highness the Aga Khan's Kastoria (Ire) (Selkirk), an unlucky runner-up in last Sunday's G1 Hong Kong Vase, could rematch with the victorious Collier Hill (GB) (Dr Devious {Ire}) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 31 before heading off to her stud career. "She's definitely going to be covered next year, because she'll be six and no final decision has been taken if we can fit in the Sheema Classic or not," trainer John Oxx told Racing Post. "I believe she'll be covered by Gone West, but after March 31 would be getting on a bit into the stud season, so we'll have to wait and see." The blaze-faced chestnut won a trio of staying events in Ireland over the summer, capped by a half-length victory in the G1 Irish St Leger S. Sept. 16. She struggled over soft ground when eighth to Collier Hill in the G1 Canadian International S. at Woodbine Oct. 22 and was likely the best in the Vase, only to fall just short. "Kastoria just had an unfortunate bump at a crucial stage which cost her the race, I suppose, but the way she ran and the way she finished, she ran a real good race," Oxx added.

Kastoria (outside)

HALF OURS WINS IN THE FOG

Under a heavy veil of fog which obscured most of yesterday's eighth race at Aqueduct yesterday afternoon, Half Ours (Unbridled's Song) marked his much-anticipated return to the races with a workmanlike victory over 4-1 chance City Attraction (Vicar). Up with the leading group in the early stages, the grey emerged from the fog with a narrow advantage and dug in gamely to record his first victory in seven months. A $625,000 KEESSEP yearling purchase in 2004, the colt aired by 10 3/4 lengths at Keeneland at two before adding a victory in the Three Chimneys Juvenile S. at Churchill last May. Sidelined since, the Todd Pletcher trainee was put up for sale by Aaron and Marie Jones and Barry K Schwartz to dissolve their partnership and the Joneses won the day, and the three-year-old colt, with a $6.1-million final bid at the Keeneland November sale.

465 ENTERED FOR 2008 EPSOM DERBY The barns of Godolphin and Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum boast the highest number of entries, with 44 each, among a 465-strong list of possibles of the £1.25 million 2008 G1 Epsom Derby it was announced Wednesday. Among the Godolphin contingent is the $11.7-million Kingmambo colt, who became the second highest-priced yearling ever sold at public auction when passing through the ring at Keeneland September; a $9.2-million colt from the final crop of Danzig purchased at the same venue; and a Pivotal half-brother to George Washington (Ire) and Grandera (Ire), bought for 1.2-million guineas at Tattersalls' October Sale. Sue Magnier has 30 horses entered, plus one in partnership with Fittocks Stud, while Coolmore associates Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith have 15 and nine entries, respectively, making a total of 55. The Coolmore contingent includes a Hawk Wing colt out of 1996 Oaks victress Lady Carla, a half-brother to Hawk Wing himself and a Montjeu (Ire) three-parts brother to last year's Oaks heroine Alexandrova. International interest comes in the form of entries from Ireland, France and Germany, as well as a nine-strong team from Japanese owner Hidetoshi Yamamoto. Yamamoto's entries include a colt by Red Ransom out of Oaks winner Love Divine, the dam of G1 St Leger winner Sixties Icon. There are two further entry opportunities for the 2008 Vodafone Derby; the Apr. 9, 2008 second stage costing £8,000 and the June 2, 2008 supplementary stage at £75,000.

NEW PILOT FOR MASTERPIECE G1 Sussex S. winner Court Masterpiece (GB) (Polish Precedent) will be ridden for the first time by Olivier Peslier in Sunday's inaugural G2 Hanshin Cup over 1400 meters. "It's the first time he has ridden him in a race, but he actually rode a piece of work on him last Tuesday," trainer Ed Dunlop told Racing Post. The six-year-old, who will retire to stud in Japan, has remained on the island since his close seventh to Daiwa Major (Jpn) in the G1 Mile Championship at Kyoto Nov. 19. "Everything has been fine," Dunlop continued. "He's been there five weeks now and has settled in well. Court Masterpiece has a lead horse and three members of our staff to keep him company and he had a slight excuse about the ground last time." Court Masterpiece contests the 1400-meter distance for the first time since taking the 2005 running of the G1 Prix de la Foret. "Returning to seven furlongs should suit and they say the track is great," Dunlop said.

PHILLY PARK JOCKEYS TAB LABOR UNION FOR REPRESENTATION

by Jason Shandler, courtesy The Blood-Horse

In a continuing effort to increase catastrophic on-track accident insurance for riders, Philadelphia Park Jockeys has taken the unprecedented step of affiliating itself with a labor union to help resolve the issue. Philadelphia Park Jockeys president and longtime rider Anthony Black said Dec. 13 the decision to join the International Union of Journeyman Allied Trades was necessary because of the lack of progress over the past eight months. Philadelphia Park currently offers jockeys only $100,000 in catastrophic on-track accident insurance coverage, believed to be the lowest of any major racetrack in the country. Philadelphia Park Jockeys are asking for a $1-million minimum policy similar to those at tracks around the country. "We are at an absolute deadlock with management," said Black, the Bensalem Township, Pa.-based racetrack's all-time leading rider who continues to recover from an on-track accident suffered in November. "This step hasn't been taken before that I know of, but it was worth investigating. It still might not help, but we wanted to explore the possibility of jockeys belonging to a union. We can't resolve the issue, so we had to take another step. "This is a 70,000-person strong union that also represents the Philadelphia blacksmiths. We hope that they can help us get what we deserve." The IUJAT was established in 1874 and is one of the oldest labor organizations in the United States. Based out of New York, IUJAT has a special chapter set up just for the equine trade, though it has never represented jockeys before. "We are putting in a petition on the jockeys' behalf," said Gloria Lorrando, president of IUJAT local 947. "One of disputes is whether or not jockeys are considered independent contractors. Our contention is that they are acting as an employee of the racetrack. "We'd like to do everything we can to help the jockeys get what they deserve. They sacrifice a lot and are at high risk, but do not receive the recognition they deserve by the industry. "There are many things that they are entitled to, not just (additional insurance) coverage. MAYOR BOZARTH (Deputy Commander) was a huge 89-1 bomb when he tried the turf for the first time at Churchill Nov. 18, but belied his odds that day and ran a very good second in a 12-horse field. The Sexton homebred will be shorter today. Starwick (Forest Wildcat) is an interesting runner. The dark bay tired after making a middle move on the turn in his bow over Keeneland's Polytrack Oct. 25, but tired and trailed home ninth. He moves to the sod today and should approve of the surface switch, being a half-brother to the talented grass star Man From Wicklow (Turkoman), a Grade I winner on the green stuff; as well as the Wild Heart Dancing (Farma Way), a MGSW on grass. Get Rich Quick (Seeking the Gold), who comes off a third in a turf maiden at Woodbine, is a half to Bedanken.

DANZIG COLT BOUND FOR DONCASTER

The Doncaster Breeze-Up Sale, to be held next April 3 through April 5, will feature a colt by the late Danzig from Vantive (Mr. Prospector), it was announced yesterday. A full brother to the dual Listed winner and Group 2-placed Wasseema, the Apr. 22 colt was purchased by Ruthyn Bloodstock for $180,000 from the Four Star Sales consignment at last year's Keeneland September Yearling Sale. The bay colt will be offered at Doncaster by Kirrimuir Stud, as agent. "This is undoubtedly one of the nicest colts we've seen in a long time," commented the Stud's Bobby O'Ryan. "He is an exceptional athlete and has turned inside out since arriving from America. He's a serious colt and as an individual he is very much in keeping with the other members of his top-class family." In addition to his multiple stakes-winning half-sister, the colt also hails from the immediate family of American champion two-year-old filly Althea.

JOCKEYS TO APPEAL

Brian Reilly and Dean Williams, the jockeys issued with 18-month bans from racing at the conclusion of a long-running inquiry Monday, are to appeal the verdicts according to Racing Post. The pair face racing's ultimate sanction for involvement in a race-fixing operation and Williams is also set to lose a £5,000 prize and the chance to ride in South Africa for trainer Mike de Kock after winning a Betfair-sponsored apprentice series. He told the trade daily, "I am pretty disappointed with the way things have gone, but hopefully my appeal will go well and I will get some time knocked off. I know that when you are warned off you are excluded from racing, but I'm hoping the HRA will allow me special dispensation to continue working in a yard because I have no other means of making a living. I have a wife and young child to support and I'm not qualified to do anything else."

ALAN SWINBANK

This week's accomplishment: Saddled eight-year-old globe-trotter Collier Hill (GB) to a nose victory in Sunday's G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin.

Birthdate: April 25, 1955

Birthplace: Teesside, England

Current Residence: North Yorkshire, England

Who was your biggest racing idol growing up? Lester Piggott. I even got to shake his hand when he congratulated me after Sunday's win.

What is your favorite racetrack? Newmarket's July Course. Quite simply, the racecourse is very good and it's always well maintained. It's a fair test of a horse and the atmosphere is great. In Scotland, Hamilton Park does a very good job.

What circuit's fans are most knowledgeable? The Scottish have a good knowledge of the game.

What's playing on your CD player right now? Christmas carols.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Barbados first, New Zealand second. Sandy Lane Hotel in Barbados is the best in the world.

Favorite food or meal? Grouse.

What's your favorite movie? Fatal Attraction (laughs).

What is your drink of choice? A Grand Premier Cru Chablis or Bollinger Champagne.

Perfect Day? As long as I get up in the morning, every day's a perfect day.

Swinbank, who also trains national hunt horses, received his trainer's licence on Feb. 1 2001 and saddled 20 flat winners that first season. This season has been the best domestically, both in number of wins (50) and earnings (£537,386). He has recorded 116 flat winners in Britain to date and a further 63 jumps wins for good measure.

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's Own Graded Stakes Winning Stars:

AMORAMA (FR) Winner of the GIII My Charmer H. 12/2	SAINT STEPHEN Winner of the GIII Native Diver H. 12/10
