SECOND THAT "NOTION"

A field of 10 will line up for today's GI Hollywood Futurity, including unbeaten GIII Hollywood Prevue S. winner Belgravia (Mr. Greeley). The 5-2 morning-line favorite has been assigned the 10 hole for his two-turn debut. "Good horses overcome anything," trainer Patrick Biancone told Daily Racing Form. "They overcome the trainer, they overcome the jockey, they overcome the draw. If he's a good horse, he'll have to overcome it." Notional (In Excess {Ire}), third as the 6-5 chalk in the Nov. 18 Prevue, also tries a route for the first time here. The J Paul Reddam colorbearer earned the second-highest Beyer for a two-year-old this season when breaking his maiden at first asking Oct. 21. He was awarded a 105 Beyer for that effort. Stormello (Stormy Atlantic) and Principle Secret (Sea of Secrets) both make their first starts since unplaced efforts in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Churchill. The former defeated Principle Secret by a neck in the Oct. 8 GII Norfolk Breeders' Cup S. prior to finishing a well-beaten fifth in the Juvenile. Principle Secret was eased in the Juvenile after dueling through :23 and :46 3/5 fractions.

SCOTTY SCHULHOFER PASSES AWAY

Hall of Fame trainer Flint "Scotty" Schulhofer died Thursday night in a South Florida hospital following a bout with cancer. He was 80 years old. Schulhofer trained six champions, including 1990 champion two-year-old Fly So Free, 1992 champion sprinter Rubiano and 2000 champion older horse Lemon Drop Kid. The former steeplechase jockey began his training career in 1962 and retired in 2001 with 1,119 victories from 7,157 starters. His horses earned more than $52 million on the racetrack. He was inducted into the Thoroughbred Racing Hall of Fame in 1992. Jockey Jose Santos was the regular rider of Fly So Free and Rubiano, as well as Lemon Drop Kid during his sophomore season. "It definitely hurts," Santos said of Schulhofer's passing. "I had a great relationship with Scotty when I came to New York in 1985. He put me on a lot of winners. He had a heart of gold and he was a great horseman. He always spoke the truth and always told you in black and white what was going on. My condolences go to his family." Schulhofer is survived by his wife Stephanie; daughters Margaret and Susan; and son and former trainer Randy. A funeral service is scheduled for Monday morning at Shellhouse Funeral Home in Aiken, South Carolina.

Four-year-old Storm Mayor will have to handle a host of talented rivals if he is to defend his title in this contest, one of the most prestigious in South America. After a poor effort on the dirt in Gran Premio Asoc. Latinoamericana Mar. 18 at Maronas in Uruguay, the bay returned to thump his rivals by eight lengths in the G1 Gran Premio de Honor at Palermo and added the G1 Copa de Oro Don Alfredo Lalo over this course and distance Nov. 18. A pair of three-year-olds could spoil Storm Mayor's party, however. Cirque du Soleil stepped up to take the G2 Clasico Provincia de Buenos Aires Nov. 24 over course and distance and will be in receipt of 13 pounds from the favorite. The sophomore filly Emotion Parade has dominated her division this season, stringing together victories in the G1 Gran Premio Polla de Potrancas Sept. 9, the G1 Gran Premio Seleccion - Copa San Isidro Oct. 16 and the G1 Gran Premio Enrique Acebal Nov. 4 over 10 furlongs on San Isidro's turf course.

GENERAL MEETING EUTHANIZED Golden Eagle Farm's General Meeting (Seattle Slew--Alydar's Promise, by Alydar) was euthanized yesterday due to complications of cancer, according to a press release. The 18-year-old stallion had been pensioned during the 2005 breeding season when skin cancer was detected in his testicular area. "We tried to allow him a comfortable retirement, but when the cancer flared up again and treatments were not helping, he just showed us he was in too much pain to enjoy any quality of life," said Janine McCullough, the farm's business manager. The bay will be buried next to another Golden Eagle homebred, Best Pal. "It's a sad day for me and the entire farm staff," said Golden Eagle owner Betty Mabee. "This stallion was loved by so many and has been a permanent fixture at the farm for over 17 years, and he will be missed. We could only be so lucky to come across another sire of his ability, and we will cherish the many memories he afforded us through the years." Second in the GI Hollywood Futurity at two, General Meeting captured the GIII Volante H. as a three-year-old and earned $441,125 for the Mabees. He entered stud in California and sired some of Golden Eagle's finest runners, including three-time Grade I winner General Challenge, who earned over $2.8 million; and four-time Grade I winner Excellent Meeting, an earner of over $1.4 million. General Meeting also sired Grade I winner Magical Allure as well as graded-stakes winners Yearly Report, Career Collection and Classy Cara. From 12 crops of racing age, he has been represented by 22 stakes winners to date; his progeny have earned over $25.7 million.

MAYOR BOZARTH (c, 2, Deputy Commander--Unique Millie R., by Olden Times) was a dismal 10th in his Oct. 29 bow racing a mile over the main track at Churchill, but turned things around in his latest, finishing second at 89-1 in his turf and two-turn debuts in Louisville Nov. 18. Favored at 2-1, the half to Morris Code (Lost Code), MSW & MGSP, $745,167, was a forward factor for the opening six furlongs, came three wide for the drive and outfinished Get Rich Quick (Seeking the Gold) for a 3/4-length victory. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $29,970. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Jockey Nichols Killed in Car Accident:

Jockey Jerri Nichols was killed in a car accident Wednesday night on Interstate 10 near Lake Charles, Louisiana. She was 35. A jockey since 1988, Nichols was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, fellow jockey Kirk LeBlanc, when the car struck an 18-wheeler on the side of the road. She was pronounced dead at the scene. LeBlanc was released from a local hospital after being treated for minor injuries. The Louisiana-based rider had won 1,466 races during her career, and her mounts had earned $10,543,728. Her most recent trip to the winner's circle came aboard R T's Magic, who won at Delta Downs Nov. 9. Nichols injured her wrist the following day and hadn't ridden since. Funeral arrangements have not yet been finalized.

Claiming Crown Heading to Ellis Park:

The 2007 Claiming Crown will be held Aug. 4 at Ellis Park, according to a press release. Seven of the previous eight renewals of the $600,000 event had been held at Canterbury Park in Minnesota. The Claiming Crown will consist of seven races in various divisions for horses which have started at least once in the past year for a claiming price ranging from $7,500 to $35,000. "Everyone at Ellis Park is excited about hosting this unique day of racing which annually has brought together hard-knocking horses from all sections of the country," said Ron Geary, the track's owner.

RTCA Launches Disaster Aid:

The Race Track Chaplaincy of America has launched White Horse Riders, a group of specially trained RTCA chaplains who will assist racing-related victims during disasters in areas where racing workers and racetracks are affected, according to a press release. The announcement was made Thursday at Fair Grounds, which recently reopened after sustaining damage during Hurricane Katrina in 2005. "From tornadoes in Central Kentucky to Gulf Coast hurricanes, massive barn fires and even plane crashes, racing industry workers and their families have suffered through a variety of disasters in recent years," said RTCA Executive Director Dr. Enrique Torres. "In this post 9/11 world, we want to be alongside other first responders during a disaster of any kind that affects racetracks and racing workers."

Keeneland Passes $1 Million in Contributions in 2006:

Keeneland has given more than $1 million in contributions to more than 80 charitable organizations in 2006, according to a press release. Since its inception in 1936, Keeneland has contributed more than $15 million to charity.

NTRA Website to Offer Graded Stakes Replays:

Starting Dec. 26, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association's website will begin to provide video replays of all graded stakes races run in North America free of charge. "We are delighted to offer our fans this free video library of what will be more than 400 of our sport's very best races," said Keith Chamblin, NTRA's senior vice president of communications. "Whether you are a handicapper, a horseman or simply a passionate observer, www.ntra.com will make it easy for you to go back and review these key events at your convenience."

IGLESIA EUTHANIZED Leading young sire Iglesia (Aus) (Last Tycoon {Ire}--Yodells {Aus}, by Marscay {Aus}) was euthanized Dec. 11 at Oaklands Stud in Queensland, Australia. The 11-year-old stallion sustained a hind leg injury last month and recently developed complications. He had stood for A$22,000 this year. Winner of the G2 Silver Slipper S. at two, the half-brother to MG1SW Yippyio (Aus) set a track record of 1:07.16 for 1200 meters in winning the G3 Standish H. in 2001. He was the leading freshman sire in Queensland for 2004/05 and has been represented by five stakes winners to date, including Group 2 winners Nova Star (Aus) and Written Tycoon (Aus).

STARK SOUTH DIES

Grangewilliam Stud stallion Stark South (Dixieland Band--Miss Stark, by His Majesty) was found dead in his paddock last Sunday, according to New Zealand Thoroughbred Update. He was 18. A multiple graded stakes winner in the U.S., the chestnut earned $722,074 and was imported to New Zealand by David and Masey Benjamin of Fayette Park. Among his leading representatives on the track were Group 1 winners Bodie (NZ) and Hail (NZ). "We were always very proud of him," David Benjamin told NZTU. "He was the friend of the small breeder who could send their mares to him and make a profitable return at yearling sales time."
