THE PERFECT STORM

Stormello (Stormy Atlantic), a colt owned and bred in partnership by trainer Bill Currin with Al Eisman, held off a game Liquidity (Tiznow) to take the GI Hollywood Futurity in Inglewood. Third in the Aug. 13 GII Best Pal S. and the GII Del Mar Futurity Sept. 6, the chestnut with more chrome than a '57 Chevy earned his wings with a game neck victory in the GII Norfolk Breeders' Cup S. at Santa Anita Oct. 8. He set a demanding pace in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 4 and his fifth-place effort doesn't look that bad, considering the winning margin of 10 lengths. With a series of solid works since, including a tremendous mile in 1:38 1/5 Dec. 5, he was sent off the second choice to GIII Hollywood Prevue hero Belgravia (Mr. Greeley).

WILL STARLET SUN SHINE ON LITTLE MISS?

She'll be making her third start in just over six weeks' time, but racing experience seems to be agreeing with Quick Little Miss (Freud), part of an evenly matched field in this afternoon's GI Hollywood Starlet S. at Hollywood Park. After struggling for her first three trips to the post, the bay filly surprised the Fairplex crowd in the Sept. 16 Barretts Debutante S., coming from 13 lengths out of it to win by 4 1/2 lengths at odds of 29-1. A respectable third in Santa Anita's GI Oak Leaf S.

Quick Little Miss Benoit photo

Sept. 30, she drew 13 for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and was wide throughout while finishing 10th. Wheeled back just 15 days after the trip to the Midwest, the $40,000 Barretts March purchase rallied strongly to take the Nov. 19 Moccasin S. over seven furlongs of the Cushion Track and sports field-best earnings of $164,230. She is one of seven fillies to be supplemented to today's race for $20,000.

STORM MAYOR REPEATS IN PELLEGRINI

Stud Starlight's Storm Mayor (Arg) (Bernstein) became just the sixth horse overall and the first since Filon (Arg) in 1944-1945 to register back-to-back victories in Argentina's premier Thoroughbred horse race, the G1 Gran Premio Internacional Carlos Pellegrini at San Isidro in Buenos Aires. Stormello jumped right into the bit and pulled jockey Kent Desormeaux to the front and set fractions of :23.57 for the opening quarter and :47.62 to the half-mile. He was joined to his outside by the maiden Liquid-ity as they raced into and around the far turn, and the less-experienced rival actually got half a head in front at the eighth pole. But Stormello called on his reserves and rebroke inside the final 100 yards to record a well-deserved Grade I victory. "I didn't expect to be on the lead," the winning trainer admitted. "Kent said he was going so easy, he didn't dare disturb him. I think he'll be a champion horse." Belgravia, drawn outside for his first two-turn endeavor, settled in midpack and was in some traffic on the far turn, but finished with good interest to finish fourth. "He ran good," trainer Patrick Biancone said. "He's a young horse. Today gave him some experience. We haven't lost the war yet."

Making his first start on the main track, Devil's Preacher wore down pacesetter Bob's Proud Moment for his first stakes success. After missing by a neck in the GIII Saranac S. on the Saratoga lawn Sept. 3, the bay was sixth in a Belmont allowance Sept. 23 and fourth in the GII Jamaica BC H. in Elmont Oct. 14. Most recently second in a first-level allowance on the Aqueduct lawn Nov. 5, the new gelding was the third choice in a scratched-down field. Always within striking distance, he responded when set down for the drive and outstayed Bob's Proud Moment for the victory. "Now we know we have the option of running on the main track if a turf race comes off," said winning trainer George Weaver. "Let's just call this an early Merry Christmas!" A Group 1 winner in her native Argentina on both turf and dirt, Safari Queen made the most of her first start over a sloppy surface, leading past every pole to take this event, washed off the turf. The chestnut caught a pair of toughies in her first two U.S. starts, finishing runner-up to Pommes Frites at Gulfstream in February and fourth to Gorella (Fr) at Keeneland in April, but broke through with a Belmont allowance tally May 25. Fourth in the Politely S. at Monmouth July 16, the Arindel Farm runner took Saratoga's restricted Rumpipumpy S. Aug. 28, but could do no better than seventh in the one-mile GIII Noble Damsel BC H. back at Belmont Sept. 23. In her most recent appearance, Safari Queen stretched back out in distance to take the 1 1/2-mile GII Long Island H. over the Aqueduct turf and was a warm item here. On the engine throughout, she was allowed a soft time of it on the front end and was never seriously menaced. "There was no speed in the race at all, so we thought we could take advantage of that," said winning rider John Velazquez. "We got away with very slow fractions and she handled the wet track without any difficulty." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

 July 15, Weigelia was third in the Troy S. sprinting over the Saratoga turf Aug. 14. A game runner-up in the Sept. 4 Icecapade S. at Monmouth Park, the bay an-nexed the Oct. 14 Hockessin S. at Delaware Park, but faltered in his attempt to win a third consecutive renewal of the Jack Dudley Sprint H., finishing fourth in that Nov. 11 event. Drawn widest of all in this nine-horse field, Weigelia jumped best, but was quickly joined by How's Your Halo, who hounded him through an opening quarter in :22.35. Weigelia disposed of that rival with relative ease turning for home and was ridden out to the wire. It was his seventh win from 16 starts at Calder. "He's a nice horse everywhere, but at his best here," said trainer Michael Trombetta. The winner could go next in the GIII Mr. Prospector H. at Gulfstream Jan. 7. Favored Nightmare Affair, most recently third in the GI De Francis Dash, raced in midfield, but offered no late rally and settled for sixth.

Saratoga allowance test July 29, but came back down to earth when fourth, beaten 14 3/4 lengths, by Bernardini in the GI Travers S. Aug. 26. A respectable third in the GIII Pegasus S. at The Meadows Oct. 6, the Live Oak runner was coming into this off an eighth-place effort in the Commonwealth Turf S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 11. Facing older stakes horses for the first time, Hesanoldsalt broke well from the inside, but was content to lay second, as Siphon City (Siphon {Brz}) ran off on the front end. The Cornhusker winner packed it in after five furlongs, landing Hesanoldsalt on the lead entering the far turn and he stayed on gamely in the stretch to record a first stakes victory. "He's a quality horse, but just didn't have it all together earlier this year to run with the Barbaros and Bernardinis, but he ran good in the Pegasus and looks like he might be coming around," commented trainer Nick Zito, winning his third consecutive Hooper. The victor could make his next appearance in the Jan. 7 GIII Hal's Hope H. at Gulfstream Park.

Storm Mayor held off the gallant late bid of the filly Shuaily to successfully defend his title in the Carlos Pellegrini. The dark bay colt posted a head score in the event a year ago, then was given a break. He returned to finish a disappointing 10th in the Mar. 18 Gran Premio Asociacion Latinoamericana de Jockey Clubes E Hipodromos in Uruguay before disappearing for nearly seven months. Proving he was back on top his game, the colt produced an eight-length triumph in the Oct. 7 G1 Gran Premio de Honor and made it two in a row in the Nov. 18 G1 Gran Premio Copa de Oro-Don Alfredo Lalor over this track and trip. Storm Mayor was the crowd's choice to make it three in a row and he didn't let them down. Allowed to settle in second as Cirque du Soleil (Lode) set the pace on a daylight lead, he edged closer on the far turn and collared the speedster in the stretch. His advantage dwindled in the final yards, but Storm Mayor denied the Peruvian invader to earn the narrow decision. Click for a video replay.

All carry 120 pounds.

Runway Rosie is another to show late-season improvement. Off the board in her first two tries, the gray filly switched to the downhill turf course at Santa Anita and got up for a head victory Oct. 14. She was able to transfer her form to this track's artificial surface in her latest, coming from close range to win the Nov. 5 Sharp Cat S. by a half-length. She's Included goes for the Chris Paasch stable, responsible for last year's upset winner Diplomat Lady. A maiden winner at Del Mar July 30, she was a good third in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. Sept. 4. Her two performance at a route of ground--an eighth in the GII Darley Alcibiades S. Oct. 6 and a sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies--have been subpar, and she will need to step it up here.

Barcola Purchased by Reddam:

Barcola (Old Trieste), a recent 16 1/2-length allowance winner over the Aqueduct inner track (video), has been purchased privately by California-based owner J. Paul Reddam and is now stabled with trainer Mark Hennig in South Florida. "Mark had called me and said, 'You should watch this,'" Reddam told Daily Racing Form. "Certainly his last race was pretty outstanding. You have to wonder if there was something odd with the track; was it the level of competition? What made him wake up?" Reddam added that the colt could be trained up to the GI Donn H. in early February. Barcola previously ran in the colors of Steven Sigler's Winning Move Stable, which acquired the chestnut son of Myrtle Beach (Kingmambo) from Sheikh Mohammed's Darley Stable along with Habsburg, an allowance winner Friday at Aqueduct.

Trainer Ken Nesky Dies:

Longtime trainer Kenneth Nesky died Friday morning due to complications from diabetes. He was 64 years old. A native of Long Island, New York, Nesky was a steeplechase jockey at the beginning of his career before exiting the saddle to become a trainer. He saddled his first winner in 1974 at Liberty Bell and the best horse he trained was New York-bred Shopping for Love, a multiple stakes winner of over $600,000. "He was a great guy," said fellow trainer Tom Walsh, a rival steeplechase rider in the 1960s. "He got along with everyone. If you knew Kenny, you liked him." Nesky is survived by his wife, Gretchen, and a son, Chris. Family members are holding a private funeral service.

NYTB Announces Election Results:

The New York Thoroughbred Breeders Inc. has announced the results of recent elections, with five seats filled from a ballot of 12 candidates. Joining or remaining on the board of directors for the period of Jan. 1, 2007 to December 31, 2008 are Stephen A. DiMauro, Thomas J. Gallo, Vivien Malloy, Michael McMahon and Dr. Chris Purdy. Each was either currently on the board or had previously served on the board in the past. Continuing on the board for the upcoming year are Dr. Frank Ariosta, Chester Broman, Joanne Nielsen, Suzie O’Cain, Barry Ostrager and Becky Thomas. A record number of candidates participated in the election and a record number of members took part in the voting.

Victory Pool had hit the board in each of her five previous starts over the inner track and picked a good time to earn her first victory with this determined effort. Runner-up in three straight outings last winter, the chestnut returned from a three-month break to land an optional claimer at Delaware June 6 before finishing fourth in the Monmouth Beach H. July 9. She mirrored that effort in an allowance at Monmouth Sept. 10 and hadn’t faced the starter since. Settled in midpack as Samsincharge led up front, Victory Pool collared the pacesetter in midstretch and drove clear for her first stakes victory.

Andy Kure Passes Away:

Andy Kure, the head of the simulcasting department for Magna Entertainment and Santa Anita Park, died Thursday from complications due to cancer. He was just 49 years old. A native of Seattle, Washington, Kure joined Magna seven years ago. "Andy was such a special person and he was the best in the [simulcasting] business," said Santa Anita President Ron Charles. "Andy had a wealth of experience and although he worked primarily behind the scenes, we all benefitted from his knowledge of the simulcasting business. Andy's passing is a huge loss for all of his friends, Santa Anita and the entire racing industry." Memorial services will be private.
