ARIMA-DERCI FOR DEEP IMPACT

Over 150,000 are expected to flock to Nakayama Racecourse for this afternoon's Arima Kinen, which marks the final career start for Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) before he heads off to stud. The 2005 Japanese Triple Crown winner entered this event a year ago undefeated and the heavy chalk to stay that way,

Deep Impact beats Dream Passport in the Japan Cup

japanracing.jp

but Heart's Cry (Jpn) got the jump on his younger rival and went on to hand the colt his lone defeat on domestic soil. Racegoers will have to deal with having lost the chance to see the rematch, as Heart's Cry was retired following his disappointing 10th-place effort to the favorite in the G1 Japan Cup Nov. 26, but every other noteworthy middle-distance horse from the island nation will take their crack at spoiling the Deep Impact party. Three-year-old Dream Passport (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}) has yet to miss the frame in any of his 12 career starts, but has yet to break through at the top level. Runner-up in the Japanese 2000 Guineas and third in the Japanese Derby, he was second in the Japanese St. Leger prior to his runner-up effort in the Japan Cup, where he had Ouija Board (GB) directly behind him.

Daiwa Major (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) took the Tenno Sho (Autumn) in late October, but passed on the Japan Cup, instead shortening up to take the G1 Mile Championship Nov. 19. He should really appreciate the added real estate today. Delta Blues (Jpn) (Dance in the Dark {Jpn}) and Pop Rock (Jpn) (Helissio {Fr}) represented the Land of the Rising Sun with distinction in Australia last month, as the pair finished noses apart in the G1 Melbourne Cup over 3200 meters. Meisho Samson (Jpn) (Opera House {GB}) will challenge Dream Passport for year-end honors as Japan's leading sophomore off his wins in the Japanese 2000 and the Derby. He is perfect in two tries at Nakayama to boot. Cosmo Bulk (Jpn) (Zagreb) represents Japan's minor-league NAR, but proved his mettle on the international stage earlier this year, taking the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup in May. Arima Kinen field p2

LUTE LINES UP FOR MALIBU LOOT

Having accomplished most everything in the Thoroughbred business, a victory in the GI Malibu S. has eluded trainer Bob Baffert. That could all change during

Midnight Lute Horsephotos

Tuesday's opening-day feature, when the silver-haired conditioner sends out the uncoupled duo of GIII Perryville S. hero Midnight Lute (Real Quiet) and four-time stakes winner Da Stoops (Distorted Humor) in the seven-furlong event.

Three-for-four in his career, the dark bay colt suffered his lone defeat at the hands of Sailors Sunset (Petionville), going down by a half-length in an entry-level allowance at Del Mar July 28. Midnight Lute rolled to a 4 3/4-length victory in the Oct. 13 Perryville and has torn up the Santa Anita main track in his morning trials since. Da Stoops is looking for his first open stakes success as he makes his final racetrack appearance. Off the board in just one of his 15 career starts, the dark bay has proved very tough in Cal-bred company and comes into his first Grade I test off a 2 1/4-length victory against his elders in the Cal Cup Sprint H. over this surface Oct. 28. Da Stoops will enter stud at Sequel Stallions in Ocala as the property of Stonewall Farm.

Jay Em Ess Stable's Arson Squad indicated his readiness for the Malibu, drilling a half-mile in a scintillating :45.20 Friday morning beneath exercise rider Jack Stack. It was the fifth bullet from the last seven works turned in by the Pennsylvania-bred, winner earlier this summer of the GII Swaps Breeders' Cup S. at Hollywood Park. "It was fabulous. He's lived up to expectations. He's as good as any horse I've ever had," said trainer Bruce Headley, who most famously tightened the girth around champion Kona Gold. Jockey Alex Solis explained his reasoning for landing on Arson Squad over Brother Derek in the Malibu. "It was a tough decision," the rider admitted, adding that agent Scott McClellan played a big role. "They are two really good horses. You don't want to lose any of them, but I think it was more or less that we gave Bruce a call. We thought Brother Derek was going to run on the grass [in Tuesday's GIII Sir Beaufort S.], but that didn't happen.

Sweetnorthernst Drills Bullet for Hal's Hope:

Graded-stakes winner Sweetnorthernst (Sweetnorthernst), slated to make his four-year-old debut in the GII Hal's Hope H. at Gulfstream Jan. 6, breezed a bullet five-eighths in :58.60 yesterday at the Hallandale Beach track. Hero of the GII Illinois Derby, the dark bay was given some time off following a second to Bernardini in the GI Preakness S. May 20. He resumed with an allowance victory at Laurel Oct. 19 and added a score in Delaware's Odessa S. Nov. 11. Trainer Mike Trombetta sent his charge to Florida to prepare for the Hal's Hope and the $1-million Sunshine Millions Classic Jan. 27 at Gulfstream. "We haven't looked past those two races," Trombetta explained. "He has responded to everything we have asked all year. Our plan was to get two races into him after his summer break, and then two breezes at home before shipping him to Florida. We wanted to get him over the track before the race. My assistant [Fernando Juarez] said the work went well."

*La Chica Rica was DQ'd from first and placed second.

Yolanda B. Too showed promise as a three-year-old, finishing third in the GI Gazelle S. and second by a nose in the GII Cotillion H., but closed out the season with a dismal 12th in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Belmont Park. The West Point Stable colorbearer began her four-year-old campaign with back-to-back optional claiming tallies at Belmont June 8 and July 14, then placed second in Saratoga's Ashado S. Aug. 4. She crossed the line fourth, beaten 15 lengths, in the GI Personal Ensign S. Aug. 25. Making her Laurel debut in the Oct. 14 Maryland Million Distaff H., the dark bay came home second best as the 3-5 favorite and was most recently fourth in Aqueduct's GII Top Flight H. Nov. 24. Heavily favored to get back on track here, Yolanda B. Too was third as La Chica Rica led through an opening quarter of :23.37, but took over from that one to lead by 1 1/2 lengths through a :46.65 half mile. A resurgent La Chica Rica re-rallied in the stretch to take the lead, but was disqualified from first after drifting in on Yolanda B. Too in deep stretch.
