WELL-BALANCED FIELD SET FOR LA BREA

A full field of 11 will line up for today's GI La Brea S. at Santa Anita, including a pair of fresh faces. Balance (Thunder Gulch) rattled off consecutive victories over this strip in the Feb. 11 GI Las Virgenes S. and the Mar. 12 GI Santa Anita Oaks, but has been out of action since emerging from an 11th-place finish in the May 5 GI Kentucky Oaks with a bone chip in an ankle. "She's matured," trainer David Hofmans told Daily Racing Form. "She's stronger, smarter and a more relaxed filly. She looks fresh and strong. She's coming up to it well." Squallacious (Summer Squall) gained plenty of attention after beginning her career with a pair of sharp Hollywood tallies Apr. 29 and May 31. She suffered her first career defeat last time when second-best in the GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks June 11. "She'll be just fine on Saturday," trainer Mike Puype told DRF. "I've been pointing to this forever. It's a big race for her." The speedy Win McCool (Giant's Causeway) ships in from New York following a second-place finish in Aqueduct's GII First Flight H. Nov. 4.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY...

December 31, 1966...Buckpasser won the 13th consecutive race of his three-year-old campaign, taking the Malibu S. at Santa Anita Park. He was voted Horse of the Year and champion three-year-old and handicap horse.

CORRECTION...A quote attributed to trainer Doug O'Neill in yesterday's TDN indicated that GI La Brea S. hopeful Vague (Elusive Quality) was bought by J Paul Reddam after racing in Dubai. In fact, Jamie McCalmont purchased Vague on behalf of Reddam for 300,000gns at the 2005 Tattersalls December Sale. She went on to win the UAE 1000 Guineas for Reddam in February.

Coa Wins 300th New York Race of '06:

Eibar Coa became the fourth jockey in history to win 300 races in one year at New York Racing Association tracks when he guided Significant Other to victory in yesterday's fourth race at Aqueduct. The 35-year-old Venezuelan joins Hall of Fame riders Steve Cauthen, Angel Cordero, Jr. and Mike Smith. "I don't think this was something that I had in my mind in the beginning of the year," Coa said yesterday. "It's an honor to get it with Cordero, Mike Smith and Cauthen. Everybody knows it's not something that's easy to do. Hopefully, I'll do it again." Since beginning his career in the U.S. in 1993, Coa has won 3,194 races from over 16,600 starts and his mounts have earned over $86 million.

Holy Ground to Bridlewood:

Four-year-old Holy Ground (Saint Ballado--La Ville Rouge, by Carson City), a stakes-winning half-brother to GI Kentucky Derby hero Barbaro, will enter stud in 2007 at Bridlewood Farm in Ocala, Florida. His stud fee will be $5,000. "Holy Ground has three key ingredients that I look for in a stallion: family, ability, and class," said George G. Isaacs, Bridlewood's general manager. "We are proud to bring a horse with this much potential to the Florida breeders. A half-brother to Barbaro by the successful stallion Saint Ballado, out of a proven graded stakes-placed and Grade I stakes-producing Carson City mare--which should add the speed and precociousness the Florida market is looking for." The chestnut captured three of nine career starts, including Delaware's Stanton S. by 13 1/4 lengths in his penultimate outing in August 2005. Holy Ground also posted thirds in the Woodlawn S. and Mel's Hope S. He is the first foal from La Ville Rouge, who earned $262,594 while placing in four graded stakes.

"I know he's good at one turn," Frankel told DRF. "If we can win the Met Mile, it would be a real bonus."

Swiss Diva was dismissed at 30-1 odds by the Santa Anita faithful in her Oct. 21 debut versus $40,000 maiden claimers, but made 'em all pay, scoring by 3 1/2 lengths. Trying starter allowance foes at Hollywood Nov. 23, the chestnut got the job done again and was backed as the second choice to stay perfect here. Sent to the lead from the eight post, Swiss Diva battled through :22.54 and :45.57 fractions and powered clear to win for fun. "She was traveling well all the way around there," jockey Agapito Delgadillo said. "She wanted to go early, but I just took a little hold of her and we got a good position. At the quarter pole, I was pretty confident. I asked her a little bit and she just opened up."

2nd-SAX, $50,300, Alw, NW1X, 2yo, 7f, 1:23 4/5, ft. CHIEF'S MAGIC (g, 2, Chief Seattle--Abby's Magic, by Silver Deputy) aired by 7 1/2 lengths in his debut at Del Mar Sept. 2 and came back to run a game second in the Barretts Juvenile S. at Fairplex Sept. 17. The bay didn't start again until Nov. 18, when he weakened to be seventh as part of a 2-1 entry in the Gill Hollywood Prevue S. The 2-1 third choice here, he came away well from his rail post and was pressed throughout, but kept finding more to deny Hurry Up Austin (Lake Austin) by a half-length. Chief's Magic was a $6,000 FTKOCT yearling and a $50,000 BESMAY two-year-old. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-2-1-0, $85,488. O-Triple S Racing. B-April Fool's Partnership (KY). T-Bob Baffert.

HIT SHOW (f, 2, Horse Chestnut {SAf}--Hit, by Seeking the Gold), a $120,000 KEESEP yearling, made two previous six-furlong attempts on the Hollywood Cushion, including a second-place finish last time Nov. 25. Making her two-turn and grass debut here, the 5-2 chance settled in third as 25-1 Kilmartin Hall (Flying Continental) set an uncontested pace. Sent three wide for the turn for home, Hit Show rallied in the stretch and was up in time to nose out 23-1 Exploittress (Exploit) on the wire. Kilmartin Hall completed the trifecta. TWO MORE FACE CORRUPTION CHARGES

Tony Culhane and one other unnamed jockey will be charged by the Horseracing Regulatory Authority following the organisation's security department investigations into alleged corruption. Although the HRA are not set to announce the charges until early next month, Culhane yesterday confirmed to PA Sport that he was one of the riders approached by the ruling body. "Tony has informed me of the charges made against him by the HRA," his agent Mark Gilchrist revealed. "He strongly denies all charges and has the full support of myself and all the trainers he rides for and will be contesting them strongly." The move follows the warning-off for 18 months of jockeys Brian Reilly and Dean Williams and the charges against Robert Winston, Robbie Fitzpatrick, Fran Ferris and Luke Fletcher.
