LUCKY 13 IN THE OAKS

Godolphin's G1 1000 Guineas winner Blue Bunting (Dynaformer) heads the baker's dozen remaining in tomorrow's G1 Investec Oaks at Epsom, and connections are expecting a bold show as she bids to emulate the operation's 2002 Guineas and Oaks heroine Kazzia (Ger) (Zinaad {GB}). "We've got to be very hopeful--she hasn't done a great deal as she was very fit for Newmarket, but her work has been very nice indeed and she seems on good terms with herself," Racing Manager Simon Crisford explained. "We'd been really pleased with her in the build-up to the Guineas and it looked wide-open, so we took a chance, as it's always been a great Oaks trial. She was doing all her best work at the finish and was impressive." Trainer Mahmood Al Zarooni added yesterday, "Blue Bunting is doing very well and she has improved since her victory at Newmarket. The most surprising thing about her winning the 1000 Guineas was that she coped so well with the ground. Her two wins last season came on a softer surface, and we were a little concerned about how she would run on faster going, but Blue Bunting showed that she is a classy and versatile filly. We have always regarded her as a nice filly. She made most of the running twice as a juvenile, and it's hard to do that, especially over a straight mile at Newmarket. We decided to try and shield her in the 1000 Guineas and let her finish the race to try and get placed. They went a good pace and the strong wind made it very difficult for the horses at the front, which also played to her stamina. I think that the best thing to do on Friday will be to drop her in at first. It takes her a long time to get going in her races--we saw that at Newmarket, when she was outpaced at the start, but started to get going in the second half of the race. The course is a bit of an unknown, but she is a well-balanced filly, and I am hopeful that she can cope with the track. It won't be easy to win, but she is a classy filly and has already won a Classic. She has the best jockey riding her and we have every chance of winning another big race." Cont. p2-3

LATE DECISION ON CARLTON HOUSE

Connections of Carlton House (Street Cry {Ire}) yesterday stated that a final decision on the colt's participation in Saturday's G1 Investec Derby could wait until Friday. With no signs that the filling in the near-fore fetlock joint is representative of anything sinister, Sir Michael Stoute is continuing training the G2 Dante S. winner towards Epsom. The Queen's Racing Manager John Warren said yesterday, "We've got the next few days to see if it is cooling itself down--that's going to be key. The good thing is the horse is sound and he's moving well. He's on trotting exercise, but, of course, Sir Michael Stoute would love to be getting some good cantering into him at this point. Luckily, we've got the most experienced trainer in the country and the best rider in the country. We've got a chance. It's not without a possibility that he'll stand in the line-up. He won't run unless the trainer is completely content that he's sound. By Friday, we'll know more." Derby news cont. p3

There were no surprises at yesterday's declaration stage, with Aidan O'Brien slimming his team down to four after scratching Look At Me (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Spin (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). He has booked Kieren Fallon for the ride on the May 4 Listed Cheshire Oaks heroine Wonder of Wonders (Kingmambo), while Seamie Heffernan retains the ride on the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Misty For Me (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Mickael Barzalona will ride for Ballydoyle for the first time as he gets a sighter of Epsom prior to his Derby ride on the likely outsider Why (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), while Joseph O'Brien will be legged up on his mother Anne Marie O'Brien's Eirnin (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Meon Valley Stud are still chasing a first winner of this prestigious contest, and Izzi Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) will start a live outsider for the Weinfeld family operation. She beat Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) by a head when annexing the May 13 Listed Swettenham Stud Fillies' Trial S. and is drawn in the same stall two as the 2005 Oaks heroine Eswarah (GB) (Unfuwain), who also took that Newbury prep en route. Dancing Rain was having only her third start at Newbury, and trainer William Haggas is hoping she can hold her own in this company. "I think she'll run a nice race and she's in great form," Haggas said.

Positive Signals from the Vadamar Camp

Trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre yesterday issued an upbeat bulletin on His Highness The Aga Khan's Vadamar (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}) ahead of Saturday's G1 Investec Derby. Successful in the Listed Prix Francois Mathet at Saint-Cloud Apr. 3, the homebred was only third behind Pour Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) when sent off the 4-5 favorite for that track's G2 Prix Greffulhe May 7. His conditioner yesterday revealed that he had an excuse for that flop. "He looks in very good condition and is perfect now, having suffered a cut to his leg in his last race," de Royer-Dupre said. "He didn't run his race there and, although he is better on soft, he can go on any ground and is very easy to ride. He is a beautiful horse, who stays well and has a big acceleration, so I think he has a chance. He is an interesting runner and there is not so much between him and Pour Moi as it looks."

TIN HORSE HEADS TO CHANTILLY

The Marquesa de Moratalla's Tin Horse (Ire) (Sakhee) is set to contest Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly, connections announced yesterday. Successful in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp, the Didier Guillemin-trained grey is set to step up in trip after his career-high in that May 15 mile Classic, forsaking a crack at the G1 St James's Palace S. in the process. "He's never had any experience of running in England, and I think the longer trip in France might be better for him," the owner's Racing Manager Gilles Forien told PA Sport. "There is a lot of money on offer in Chantilly and it's a good race for him. He finished his serious work on Tuesday morning, which went very well, and he's in top form. He's a very good horse who will win more races. It is also very exciting for his trainer, as this is a new venture for him. We think he should go very well. I think we will stop with the horse for a little bit after the Prix du Jockey-Club and then return in the autumn in France or England. He won't be going to America." A total of 17 colts remain in Sunday's 1 5/16-mile Classic, with today's forfeit and supplementary stage likely to clear the picture, but Godolphin and Ballydoyle have already committed Casamento (Ire) (Shamardal) and Roderic O'Connor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), respectively. Also among the home team will be a pair from the Alain de Royer-Dupre stable in His Highness The Aga Khan's May 20 Listed Prix de Pontarme winner Sandagiyr (Fr) (Dr Fong) and the Pride Racing Club's unbeaten Reliable Man (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}). Their trainer said yesterday, "Reliable Man has been specially prepared for this race, but we have not decided about Sandagiyr yet." The Aga Khan will be represented by the Apr. 10 G3 Prix la Force winner Baraan (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}) from Jean-Claude Rouget's barn after his Racing Manager Georges Rimaud told the Racing Post, "Baraan is in good form and worked very well last week. The trainer is very pleased with the colt. He will go into the Jockey-Club a fresh horse and, hopefully, that will be an advantage." Others of note include Ecurie Wildenstein's May 15 G2 Prix Hocquart hero Prairie Star (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) from the Elie Lellouche stable, Godolphin France's Apr. 24 G2 Prix Noailles winner Grand Vent (Ire) (Shirocco {Ger}) and Scuderia Effevis's May 7 G2 Derby Italiano hero Crackerjack King (Ire) (Shamardal). Watering is set to start, with the forecast dry and the going currently good.

TEMPS TO FACE FRANKEL

Temps Au Temps (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is due to clash with Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the June 14 G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot. Last seen finishing strongly to be fourth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 15, the Mikel Delzangles trainee is one of few challengers to the brilliant 2000 Guineas winner in the mile contest. "We are definitely going to run him in the St James's Palace S.," Gilles Forien, racing manager to owner Marquesa de Moratalla, told PA Sport yesterday. "He's in very good form and we could not be happier with him. He has lots of speed and lots of class and I think he will run with great honour at Ascot. You should not be frightened of one horse, and we are not frightened of Frankel."

SARAFINA CONFIRMED FOR SAINT-CLOUD

His Highness The Aga Khan's Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}) will run in the June 26 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre announced yesterday. While her conditioner was keen not to commit the dual Group 1-winning four-year-old to the 12-furlong contest in the immediate aftermath of her latest success in the May 23 G2 Prix Corrida, plans have been cemented now. "She is going to run in the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and after that we have to wait for the end of the season," de Royer-Dupre explained. "She will maybe run in the G1 Prix Jean Romanet [at Deauville Aug. 21], the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 11] and the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [at Longchamp Oct. 2]. She was very impressive in her last race and showed a very good turn of foot--she looked better than last year."

EMIRATES AIRLINE SPONSORING TRUE NORTH

Edited press release

Emirates Airline, a long-time partner of The New York Racing Association, will serve as the presenting sponsor of the $250,000 GII True North H., which will be contested on the GI Belmont S. undercard June 11. On that afternoon, Emirates Airline will conduct a "Get to know Emirates Airline" contest and award the winner with two business class tickets to Dubai, the hub of the airline's many destinations in 66 countries. Entry forms and drop boxes will be available in the clubhouse near the Belmont Room on the second floor and the Turf and Field Club on the fourth floor. In addition, Emirates Cabin Crew will assist with the distribution of entry forms. Contest entries will be accepted until one hour before the True North. Contestants who answer the questions correctly will be selected in a draw for the grand prize. Following the running of the True North, Emirates Cabin Crew will visit the winner's circle and present the trophy for the six-furlong dash. "This Emirates competition captures the excitement of the True North," said the airline's Nigel Page. "This will be a unique opportunity for customers to test their knowledge of Emirates through simple trivia to win a trip to Dubai and experience our world-class service." Emirates has been a partner of NYRA and the Belmont Stakes since 2005, the same year they began their partnership with the Breeders' Cup World Championships as the title sponsor of the Emirates Airline BC Turf and Emirates Airline BC F/M Turf.

The airline is an ardent supporter of racing around the globe, sponsoring the Dubai World Cup, Melbourne Cup, Champion Stakes, Yorkshire Cup, Singapore Derby, Godolphin Racing, and the Australian Turf Club. "We are thrilled to continue our longstanding partnership with Emirates Airline, a company that strongly supports racing around the world," said NYRA President and CEO Charles Hayward. "Their fun and innovative Belmont Stakes Day contest will allow racing fans to learn about the world-class service that Emirates provides and offer an opportunity to win an exciting trip to Dubai."

DUTROW HEARING BEGINS

Trainer Richard Dutrow Jr., accompanied by his lawyer Michael Koenig and assistant Michelle Nevin, appeared at a hearing held by the New York State Racing and Wagering Board at its offices in Schenectady Tuesday. The hearing, which will ultimately determine whether the New York horseman's license would be revoked or suspended because of earlier drug offenses, lasted 4 1/2 hours and is expected to continue today and tomorrow. Representing the Racing and Wagering Board was Clem Parente, a hearing officer, and Schenectady lawyer Rick Goodell. Two witnesses were called by the Racing and Wagering Board: John James, a supervisor's assistant who works at the Test Barn at New York Racing Association, and Angel Gonzalez, an investigator for the Board.

Previously, Dutrow was handed a 60 day suspension after one of his horses tested positive for the illegal drug Butorphanol following a win at Aqueduct Nov. 20. The trainer was given an additional 30 days after three syringes with an the illegal drug xyzaline were found in his Aqueduct barn on Nov. 3. Dutrow, who appealed both charges, has yet to serve the suspensions. According to Koenig, the board's decision to call the hearing resulted because of the trainer's decision to appeal.

"Seeking revocation is punishment for pursuing his appeal," Koenig told Daily Racing Form. "It's an affront to due process."

The Board has also charged Dutrow with conduct deemed "improper, obnoxious, unbecoming and detrimental to the best interests of racing" at New York race tracks.

"I'm hoping that it went good for us," Dutrow told Daily Racing Form following the hearing. "I want to be cleared up from everything. I've always had a bad reputation--always. Like I've told you guys all along, I've done wrong things in the past so that follows me around."

He has been sanctioned at least 64 times for various rules violations in nine different states and at 15 racetracks. Upon conclusion of the hearings, a decision will not be expected for several weeks.

ILLINOIS SENATE PASSES GAMBLING BILL;

GOV. NEXT Illinois moved one step closer to expanded gaming at its racetracks Tuesday after the state Senate joined the House in approving a bill that permits a broad expansion of gambling in the state, but there are still doubts about whether Gov. Pat Quinn will sign off on the bill. Yesterday, Quinn called the legislation 'excessive,' saying that while he would support the creation of a casino in Chicago, he questioned the portions of the bill that allowed for four other casinos to be built in Illinois and for slot machines at racetracks and, possibly, Chicago's two airports. "I have told the legislators over and over again the people of

Illinois Gov. Pat Quinn

Illinois do not want an excessive gambling bill that's top heavy, and I think I reflect the public sentiment on that," Quinn told the Chicago Sun-Times. "In Chicago, I have said I can see, if it's properly done, an opportunity for a gambling casino. But once the General Assembly got this subject, both House and Senate, it got more and more top heavy. Well my job is to make sure the people of Illinois come first, not the gamblers, not the insiders." Quinn has yet to threaten an outright veto of the bill, but his words were cause for concern for horse racing participants in the state who support expanded gaming at tracks like Arlington Park and Hawthorne Racecourse. Budgetary concerns--Illinois is currently looking at an annual budget shortfall of $1.2 billion--will undoubtedly play a role in Quinn's final decision.

GAYA (f, 3, Quest--Saint Royal, by Saint Ballado) finished second in a pair of starts for trainer Mike Stidham to begin her career, but was no better than seventh in her debut for this barn over the Fair Grounds turf Jan. 15. She overcame a world of trouble to graduate by 3/4 of a length in New Orleans Feb. 18 and closed fast for a Mar. 19 allowance score. Looking to make it three straight with jockey James Graham shipping in from Chicago, the grey filly had one behind her on the backstretch run before being relegated to last with a half-mile to race. Put to a drive on the turn, she still had them all to pass turning for home and looked hopelessly beaten, but came with a tremendous late turn of foot on the grandstand side to take it by a length at odds of 6-5. STORMY GOING (g, 3, Stormy Atlantic--Goin Bear, by Gone West) belied debut odds of 14-1 to score in a one-mile maiden at Tampa Bay Downs Jan. 9, and was the early pacesetter in the Feb. 6 Hallandale Beach S. at Gulfstream Park before drifting back to finish eighth. Fastest into the first turn, Stormy Going had pressure to his outside through a half in a strong :46.74. He began to get away approaching the stretch and, despite swapping leads a few times, stayed on strongly for a 3 1/4-length success as a 5-1 chance. The winner is out of an unraced half-sister to champion Chief Bearhart (Chief's Crown), who was bred by Richard Maynard. Maynard also bred Island Sand (Tabasco Cat), who was raced by owner James Osborne's B A Man Stable to five wins from 19 starts, including the GI Acorn S. back in 2004. ARTISTE ROYAL TO STAND IN URUGUAY

Multiple Grade I winner Artiste Royal (Ire) (Danehill--Agathe, by Manila), who began his stud career last year at Haras d'Etream in France, has reportedly been purchased by Haras Viejo Miolino, Maria Isabel, Flaqueadores and Estrella del Sur to stand at Haras Rapetti in Uruguay. The deal was brokered by Stud&Haras and Haras Rapetti veterinarian Dr. Nicolas Barrenechea. "In the last few years, our country has imported an important roster of stallions, many of them from North America, as well as from Argentina and Brazil," Barrenechea told El Pais. "We felt it was necessary for Uruguay to have a European stallion, so we have been seeking a top-class son of Danehill, who is without a doubt the most important sire of sires in Europe at the present and has been for many years. It took us some time to find a top-line European pedigree and a top-class campaigner combined in one stallion, but fortunately we were able to find the horse we've been very much looking for." A full-brother to three-time Group 1 winner Aquarelliste (Fr), Artiste Royal won the 2007 GI Clement L. Hirsch Turf Championship and the 2008 GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. He also won the 2005 G3 La Coupe at Longchamp. On the board in 23 of 34 starts, Artiste Royal won seven times and earned $997,686.
