CHANGING OF THE GUARD AT THOMASTOWN CASTLE

By Daithi Harvey

There will be a new name on the trainer's license at Thomastown Castle Stables in the New Year, and if James Stack doesn't sound familiar to some people, that's because he has been known as 'Fozzy' for pretty much as long as he can remember. Stack officially takes over the baton from his father Tommy, who partnered the legendary Red Rum to his third Grand National victory in 1977, and who has been based at the picturesque Thomastown Castle in Tipperary since taking over the yard from the late Phonsie O'Brien in the mid-eighties. The passing of the reins will not see a seismic change in operations; Stack junior has played a pivotal role in the business since his father got struck down with meningitis in 1998, an event that forced his son to abandon his then-role as assistant to John Dunlop and return home at the tender age of 19 to oversee the training of one of Ireland's leading flat stables.

The year of 2016 hasn't been one of the more successful seasons, with Stack bemoaning the fact they had "more seconds than winners," and he said he is hopeful that among the fresh intake of 30 or so yearlings they might in 2017 unearth another Myboycharlie (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}), the now-respected stallion that the Stack team trained to win the G1 Darley Prix Morny in 2007. To offset a small decrease in the number of winners, Stack continues to augment his business through trading horses to countries such as America and Hong Kong. Cont. p2

ROSEHILL TRIALS TO PRODUCE SOME STARS

by Alan Carasso

It was a busy Friday morning at Rosehill Gardens, as the track hosted no fewer than 18 barrier trials, and there was no more successful collaboration than that of Team Hawkes and jockey Tommy Berry. They teamed to win three of the trials, while Berry added a fourth for trainer Michael Freedman.

Perhaps the star of the morning was the 2-year-old colt Eden Roc (Aus) (Star Witness (Aus)), an A$750,000 purchase from the Widden Stud consignment at the 2016 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale who quickened home to take the day's seventh trial (900m) by 3 1/4 lengths in :53.90. Alertly away, Eden Roc set a pressured pace before swatting away his rival en route to a facile success before galloping out with good energy (video).

"We had quite a good year selling horses," he said. "A recent example being Tooreen Dancer (Ire) (Vale Of York {Ire}), who won her maiden first time out at Dundalk last month. A California-based agent rang me about her soon after and she has gone out there to be trained by Phil D'Amato."

As a €6,500 yearling, one can be sure Tooreen Dancer enhanced her resale value significantly through her Dundalk victory. Stack isn't shy either about traveling his own horses abroad if he thinks they can be competitive. Success for Alexander Tango (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the GI Garden City S. at Belmont in 2007 and a win for Waltzing Matilda (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the GI New York S. also at Belmont in 2015 are two prime examples, and he came close to plundering another nice pot with Diamond Fields (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) earlier this year. The Mary Slack-owned 3-year-old was a model of consistency throughout the summer, and following stakes placings over six furlongs at Navan and over a mile at Royal Ascot in the Listed Sandringham H., Stack sent her to Saratoga, where a slipped saddle ruined her chance on her first run there in the GII Lake George S. in July. Turned out a month later in the GII Lake Placid S., the filly finished a good third to Time And Motion (Tapit). Stack then pointed Diamond Fields to the GII Sands Point S. at Belmont Sept. 16 and she again acquitted herself well, finishing second to On Leave (War Front).

"She's back here now and stays in training next year, which is great," Stack says. "Obviously it would be great to win a stakes race with her, so that will be the objective and if we have to travel to do so then so be it. I'm not sure she fully got the nine furlongs in Belmont, so it may be a case of limiting her to a mile, but we'll see, she's quite adaptable."

Another benefit of racing them in America is the prize money," Stack adds. "Diamond Fields won $130,000 out there and even though it costs a bit to ship them, the gains are still significant. With fillies, they are also adding value to themselves. If the owner was a seller she could have gotten a lot of money for her over there."

That owner, South Africa-based Mary Slack, has half a dozen horses with Stack, a link that came about through Stack's friendship with Mike De Kock. This in turn has also led to the trainer receiving patronage from another significant South African figure, Gaynor Rupert. In addition to the above clients, Stack can also count on support of owners from New Zealand, Japan, Hong Kong, Britain and of course Ireland, where he has a number of syndicates on board as well as the Coolmore team maintaining historic links with the yard, even more so now with the recent retirement of his friend David Wachman.

"Thank God we're not too heavily reliant on one owner, we have a good mix of clients and fingers crossed it continues that way," he says.

In addition to a strong squad of juveniles, Stack's team for 2017 is also bolstered by a few smart older horses, headed by Onenightidreamed (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), a soft ground-specialist who is a dual Group 3 winner on his favoured surface. Given he won the Irish Lincolnshire on the opening day of the flat season in 2015, Stack already has one eye on the 2017 opener, though it will be staged in Naas due to the The Curragh redevelopment. "He might be a bit high for the Lincoln this year so we'll have to see," Stack said. "As long as the ground is soft he'll run away in whatever he can."

Another one the trainer is keen on is Son Of Rest (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who remains a maiden after two promising juvenile efforts this year. Second at Tipperary on debut, he certainly wasn't disgraced when making eye-catching late headway to finish fourth to Churchill (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. at The Curragh in September.

"He's not a bad horse and could end up being a smart sprinter. He might get a mile, but I would say we will go down the sprinting route with him," Stack explains.

Stack will also begin the new season with a new stable jockey, though he will have to share him with one of Ireland's senior statesmen Kevin Prendergast. "Chris [Hayes] will start when he gets back from Dubai, he'll come down here Tuesdays and Fridays, the days we do fast work," he says. "There shouldn't be much overlap with Kevin, only I suppose if we both run something we really fancy in the one race, but I can't imagine that'll happen too often."

In conjunction with a thriving racing stable, the Stacks also run a breeding programme that has produced some stellar results in recent years, though the new trainer will be the first to admit that it could have been more beneficial to their training enterprise had some different decisions been made. Cont. p3

“We sold both The Wow Signal (Ire) (Starspangledbanner (Aus)) and The Last Lion (Ire) (Choisir (Aus)) as yearlings in recent years so I guess that mightn’t have been the smartest thing in the world to do,” he notes. “Although we did well out of a Power (GB) yearling half-brother to The Last Lion that we sold this year in Goffs, so that made up for it a bit.”

The family also made up for selling The Wow Signal by cashing in his dam, Muravka (Ire) (High Chaparral (Ire)), after the John Quinn-trained horse won the G1 Prix Morny. The Last Lion, bred by the Stacks in partnership with Barronstown Stud, is out of Mala Mala (Ire) (Brief Truce), who hails from a family that the Stacks know well, being a half-sister to Tarascon (Ire) (Tirol (Ire)), who they trained to win the G1 Moyglare Stud S. in 1997 and the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas the following year.

“Mala Mala has been a great broodmare, producing eight winners from eight runners, including three black-type winners,” Stack said. “She’s in foal to No Nay Never, but unfortunately she’s not young so we could do with a filly from her at this stage.”

In addition to this year’s G1 Middle Park S. winner and now Darley stallion The Last Lion, Mala Mala has also bred the stakes winners Contest (Ire) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)) and Russian Rock (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire)), as well as the 16-time winner Silvanus (Ire) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)). In total her progeny have won over 40 races.

Training, however, remains the major focus for Stack, and recalling his baptism of fire into the training game all those years ago he reflects, “I didn’t think I was going to be back in Tipperary at 19 years of age; I had literally gone straight from school to Dunlops via the yearling sales in Newmarket. I always thought I’d do a year or two in Australia or America, but it was needs must at the time. I suppose I was always going to be a trainer anyway, so when my father got his setback it just fast-tracked it a bit.”

Eden Roc is out of a half-sister to Bell’s GSW & G1SP Star Turn (Aus) (Star Witness (Aus)), who will stand at Vinery upon completion of his racing career, it was announced this week. Team Hawkes and Berry were also represented by Spendthrift Australia’s 3-year-old colt Spirit and Fire (Aus) (More Than Ready) in trial 12 (video) and the sophomore filly Fleur (Aus) (Not a Single Doubt (Aus)) (video) in the following heat.

Trainer Michael Freedman accounted for a pair of the morning’s 2-year-old trials. Berry was in the irons for trial six for fillies which was won in impressive fashion by Yu Long Investments et al’s Yulong Xingsheng (Aus) (I Am Invincible (Aus)), who was outsprinted through the first three furlongs, but leveled off beautifully in the final 200 metres to win the trial by 3/4 of a length (video). An A$37,500 Magic Millions National Weanling purchase, the October foal fetched A$55,000 at the Inglis Sydney Classic yearling sale. Yzerman (Aus) (Uncle Mo), an A$36,000 purchase from the Classic sale, took out heat number eight, holding off a strong late bid from Newburgh (Aus) (All Too Hard (Aus)) (video).

Corumbene Stud’s 2-year-old colt Menari (Aus) (Snitzel (Aus)) recorded his second win in a trial in the space of 10 days at the midpoint of Friday’s flurry of activity. Trained by Gerald Ryan, the flashy bay was soon in front while taking some heat to his outside from Travers (Aus) (Exceed and Excel (Aus)). Menari cut the corner into the stretch and raced away to score by 3 3/4 good-looking lengths (video). China Horse Club’s San Marco (Aus) (Smart Missile (Aus)) touched Travers out of second, while Merovee (Aus) (Frankel (GB)), the son of MGSW & G1SP More Strawberries (Aus) (More Than Ready), missed the break and finished with some interest to be fourth. Travers topped the 2015 Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale on a bid of A$300,000, then fetched A$800,000 as a Gold Coast yearling. He is owned in part by and carried the colors of Hong Kong trainer John Moore, who will race the colt with China Horse Club, Newgate Stud Farm, Aquis Farm and WinStar Farm.

Making her first trip to the trials, Divine Messenger (Aus) (Star Witness (Aus)) gave her sire his second winner on the morning in trial number five. Trained by Tony Gollan and ridden by Blake Shinn, the chestnut came through to take up the running after about 100 metres, was taken on by Lipizzan (Aus) (Sebring (Aus)) inside the final furlongs and sprinted well to take it by 1 1/4 lengths (video). Divine Messenger, a daughter of SW & G1SP Ladys Angel (Aus) (Arena (Aus)), was an A$80,000 graduate of the 2016 Magic Millions Gold Coast sale, where she, too, was consigned by Widden Stud.

The veteran Straturbo (Aus) (Stratum (Aus)) got the morning off on a winning note for trainer Gary Portelli and earned himself a shot at the Magic Millions Sprint with a handy success over 1030m. Sent immediately into the lead by jockey Deanne Panya, the 7-year-old, recent winner of the Listed Bribie H. at Doomben, was under a stranglehold in the lane, but nevertheless streaked in by 4 1/2 lengths (video). Another Widden Stud grad, Straturbo, winner of the MM Sprint in 2015, was knocked down for A$45,000 at the 2011 Magic Millions National Yearling Sale.

‘MARK’ EYES RAILWAY DOUBLE

by Heather Anderson

Since taking the 2015 edition of the 1200-metre NZ$200,000 G1 Sistema Railway S. with Natuzzi (NZ) (Coats Choice (Aus)) third, Ryan Mark (NZ) (Thorn Park (Aus)) has yet to return to the winner’s enclosure in six subsequent appearances and is looking for redemption on New Year’s Day. The 6-year-old gelding trailed in seventh after an awkward beginning in a Ruakaka handicap going this trip upon resuming Aug. 6. Runner-up to Nov. 9 G3 Lindauer Stewards Stakes hero Reilly Lincoln (NZ) (Pins (Aus)) in a similar contest at Hastings Sept. 17, Ryan Mark filled the same position in the wake of Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder (NZ)) in the 1200-metre Listed Legacy Lodge Sprint S. at Te Rapa Nov. 5. He enters on the back of a 10th-place finish in Ellerslie’s G3 J.A. Russell Ltd. Concorde H. to one-two finishers Natuzzi and Irish Moon (NZ) (O’Reilly (NZ)) Dec. 3.

2016 G1 NZ Thoroughbred Breeders’ S. heroine Perfect Fit (NZ) (Elusive City) will also attempt to regain the winning thread, as she has been winless since her April success, reporting home 10th in the June 11 G2 Mirvac QTC Cup at Eagle Farm and improving to third—her lone run of the season—in the 1100-metre Listed Haunui Farm Counties Bowl behind MGSW Shezhardtocatch (NZ) (Elusive City) and MSP Snowdrop (NZ) (Pins (Aus)) Nov. 19.

Star Wondering, ninth in going he disliked with GSP Summer’s Day (NZ) (Darci Brahma (NZ)) second in the Listed Chainey’s Panasonic Levin S. at Otaki Nov. 25, is also looking to bounce back.

“There’s no doubt he’s spot on,” co-trainer Evan Rayner said of Start Wondering, who trains with his daughter J. J., to Racing And Sports. “He looks great and he’s working and eating well. He just didn’t handle it [the heavy going found in the Listed Chainey’s Panasonic Levin S.] at all.”

G1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas fifth-place finisher Astara (NZ) (Dalghar (Fr)) could also have a say in the outcome, victorious in the Listed Soliloquy S. at Ellerslie in October, she makes the field with only 112 pounds.

BROWN HEADING BACK TO AUSTRALIA
by Alan Carasso

Jockey Corey Brown, among the leading riders since shifting his tack to Singapore 3 1/2 years ago, has informed officials at the Singapore Turf Club that he would not be returning for the 2017 season, citing family reasons.

Winner of the 2009 G1 Melbourne Cup astride Shocking (Aus), Brown booted home a total of 251 winners during his Kranji sojourn, 17 of those in feature races, including the 2014 Longines Singapore Gold Cup and 2015 Emirates Singapore Derby with Quechua (Arg).
PACKED HOUSE FOR FINAL GRADE I OF THE YEAR

With a trio of Grade I placings under her belt, including near misses in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 20 and GI Matriarch S. Dec. 4, 7-2 morning-line favorite Stays in Vegas (City Zip) is a good place to begin for Saturday’s newly positioned GI American Oaks at Santa Anita.

The GIII Senorita S. heroine, trained by Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer, returns to the 3-year-old ranks after finishing within a head of Miss Temple City (Temple City) and Roca Rojo (Ire) (Strategic Prince {GB}) in a thrilling renewal of the Matriarch.

B’MARE OF THE YEAR CARA RAFAELA DIES

Cara Rafaela (Quiet American--Oil Fable, by Spectacular Bid), the Grade I-winning dam of champion Bernardini (A.P. Indy), has been euthanized due to the infirmities of old age, Godolphin announced Friday. She was 23.

Bred in Kentucky by Mike Rutherford, Cara Rafaela was a $70,000 purchase by Goncalo Borges Torrealba at the 1994 Keeneland September Sale. Conditioned by D. Wayne Lukas, the grey was second in the 1995 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies before annexing the GI Hollywood Starlet that season. She hit the board in five more Grade I races at three--including a third in the Kentucky Oaks--and retired in 1997 with earnings of $884,452 from an overall record of 24-4-8-2. Cont. p3

Queen Blossom finished a distant sixth when last seen in the G3 Irish National Stud EBF Blue Wind S. at Naas May 11.

“She’s trained well coming into this,” said Aimee Dollase, assistant to trainer Graham Motion. “She’s had two good works here [at Santa Anita] and we’ll see what happens. It’s a tough race, but she acts like she’s worked well. She’s been here a little over three weeks, and we’ve got [Joel] Rosario to ride.”

Sassy Little Lila (Artie Schiller) makes her graded stakes debut after finishing a good second in Aqueduct’s Winter Memories S. Nov. 25. She previously delivered in an optional claimer at this 1 1/4-mile distance at Belmont in late October.

Decked Out (Street Boss), just a head short when second in the Del Mar Oaks, was freshened after a 12th-place finish in the GI Rodeo Drive S. at Santa Anita Oct. 1. She was an impressive winner of the GIII Providencia S. over this course in April.

Cara Rafaela’s first foal was Ile de France (Storm Cat), who was GISP for the Borges Torrealba family’s Stud TNT and eventually produced GISW Love and Pride (A.P. Indy). Her second foal, Bold Legacy (Seattle Slow), was a $1.35-million Keeneland July yearling. Sheikh Mohammed purchased Cara Rafaela privately in 2002 while she was carrying Bernardini, who would go on to annex the 2006 GI Preakness S., GI Jim Dandy S., GI Travers S. and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup before finishing second in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic and eventually earning champion 3-year-old honors.

Reeves Thoroughbred Racing, a private racing stable owned by Dean and Patti Reeves of Atlanta, GA., is one of a dozen stakeholders in the $12-million GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational, the world’s richest horse race to be run Saturday, Jan. 28 at Gulfstream Park.

The Reeveses, who formed their stable in 2009 with trainer Kathy Ritvo and campaigned 2013 GI Breeders’ Cup Classic winner Mucho Macho Man, are currently searching for a horse to contest the 1 1/8-mile Pegasus.

Dean Reeves shares his thoughts on the process of acquiring a participant for the Pegasus World Cup as well as participating in this unique event.

It is now down to about five of us looking for horses for the $12-million Pegasus World Cup Invitational, but there are still some quality horses out there and I think you will see some deals done over the next four or five days. We have offers out for some horses and I've had some long conversations with owners, so the ball is in their court to see what they want to do.

We've narrowed things down. We've all got to make decisions because time is of the essence. The trainer and owner need to know if they're going in this race because now is the time they have to focus and prepare the horse, so there is a need for movement. I know some people I've talked to want to make a decision by the weekend.

You know, when I first got into this, I thought this would give me an opportunity to talk to other owners I wouldn't necessarily talk to...to have a conversation with them. And it's been exactly that. I have talked to owners all across the country, some internationally, and it's been a great experience. Cont. p5
The owners I have talked to have just been very nice, very business-like, about the whole process. The stakeholders have all done a nice job. Nothing has been cutthroat. The main thing is they really know their horse and they want what's best for the horse. Sure, they want good deals--some different in terms--but they also know where and when they want to run their horse. I've really enjoyed the conversations and feel like wherever I go in my travels, we'll talk more and this will open things up for next year.

The other thing about this race is the fans will get their race if it all unfolds like it looks like it will. They got their big race with the two big horses, California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) and Arrogate (Unbridled's Song). Plus, there's some pretty nice horses in there that might shock them if things don't go just right for them or if they don't bring their 'A' game.

I'm really looking forward to Pegasus. It's going to be a fun week, a heck of a race, and the start of great opportunities in 2017.

NYRA ANNOUNCES ENHANCED SPRING 2-YEAR-OLD PROGRAM

The New York Racing Association will card eight maiden races worth $100,000 each during the spring leading up to Belmont’s June 8 Astoria S. and June 9 Tremont S. in an ongoing effort to build up its early juvenile program. Fillies may run in the Astoria Trial A, 4 1/2 furlongs at Aqueduct Apr. 19; Astoria Trial B and C, contested at Belmont over five furlongs May 3 and May 17, respectively; and Astoria Trial D over five furlongs of Belmont turf May 25. Male juveniles will contest the Tremont Trial A over 4 1/2 panels at Aqueduct Apr. 20; the Tremont Trial B and C at Belmont going five furlongs May 4 and May 18, respectively; and the Tremont Trial D on the turf May 26. Fields for each trial are limited to 10 starters, with $50,000 to the winner. All runners will be paid. If 10 runners start, the second through sixth-place horses would receive $20,000, $10,000, $7,500, $5,000 and $4,000, respectively, with the remaining $3,500 divided among the seventh through 10th-place finishers.

Additionally, bonuses of up to $20,000 will be available to owners and trainers of New York-breds who finish second or third in any state-bred or open maiden juvenile race held during the Aqueduct spring or Belmont spring-summer meets. The bonuses, offered in partnership with the New York Breeding Fund, stipulate that owners will receive $7,000, $4,500 and $2,500 bonuses for first, second and third, respectively. Trainer bonuses will be $3,000, $2,000 and $1,000.

According to a release, NYRA ran 26 juvenile maiden races during the spring and summer in 2016—up from 16 in 2015. Those races attracted 222 total starters, a 65.57% increase year-over-year, and averaged 8.54 starters per race.

“A strong 2-year-old program is important to the Aqueduct and Belmont spring meets and the high demand for the bonus program in 2016 shows us that we’re moving our racing program in the right direction,” said Martin Panza, NYRA’s Senior Vice President of Racing Operations. “It’s one thing to offer races, but it’s another thing to make sure they go. We want our horsemen to feel confident when they send their 2-year-olds to New York in April, May, or June, that we will make every effort to be sure these races are used.”

Bonita Bianca rallied from well off the pace to score in the state-bred Friday feature East View S. at Aqueduct, earning her second stakes tally in four starts.

Off the mark on debut at almost 11-1 sprinting against New York-breds Sept. 22 at Belmont, the chestnut was a commanding winner of the Empire-bred Maid of the Mist S. in the Elmont slop one month later before breaking poorly and closing to be third in the GII Demoiselle S. on the local main Nov. 26. Taking all the money in this short field, Bonita Bianca dropped out to run a detached last as Tiznow’s Smile showed the way through a strong pace of .23.68 and .48.59. Gradually getting closer down the backside, the favorite launched a strong four-wide move on the far turn and easily overtook the pacesetter approaching the eighth pole, kicking away from there to a convincing success.

The victress’s dam, a GISW sprinter on this circuit, is responsible for a yearling Simmard filly named Friendly Simmard and was bred to Paynter this term. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

JAIME’S ANGEL (c, Mission Impazible--Our Perfect Ten, by Medaglia d’Oro) finished last of 12 in his career bow Oct. 16 at Belmont, but improved to be fifth on the main track here Nov. 19 before going one better sprinting over the inner Dec. 10. Stretching out to two turns at 14-1 in this spot, the chestnut was caught four-wide on the clubhouse turn while racing in fifth past a :23.81 quarter. Pulling to within a length of the lead after a :48.36 half, he challenged favorite Sicilia Mike (Girolamo) three-deep on the latter half of the far bend and dueled that one down by the eighth pole to triumph going away by 5 3/4 lengths. The winner, the eighth for his freshman sire (by Unbridled’s Song), has a yearling full-sister and a weanling full-brother. His dam visited Mr. Sidney this spring. DANEBURY (c, Super Saver--That’s Ok, by Not For Love) was runner-up at 15-1 on debut last November over the Aqueduct main, but failed to hit the mark in three starts this fall before transferring from the Eddie Kenneally barn and running a game second here last out Dec. 2. Crushed down to 3-4 in this spot, transferring from the Eddie Kenneally barn and running a game main, but failed to hit the mark in three starts this fall before being paired with Afleet Alex. Sales History: $85,000 KEESEP buy broke alertly at 27-1 and checked a bit going into the clubhouse turn to sit seventh along the rail behind a :22.93 quarter. Dropping back a few spots by a :47.90 half, the dark bay steadily inched up at the fence on the far turn and smoothly split horses in the two-path at the top of the lane. Surging to the lead just inside the eighth pole, Scheme edged clear from there to earn a 1 3/4-length victory over Ritzy Rose (Hat Trick {Jpn}). The winner’s dam is a half to Mirai (Trappe Shot), SW, $133,800. His dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Overanalyze and a weanling filly by Cairo Prince. Edging away from his pace foe into the stretch, Derek’s Smile drew clear by the eighth pole and found the wire 2 1/2 lengths in front despite swapping leads greely in the closing strides. MUSICAL AMERICA (c, 2, Malibu Moon--Pussycat Doll {MGISW, $797,183}, by Real Quiet) showed mild late interest when running sixth in his career bow sprinting on the Laurel dirt Sept. 11 and was bet to 13-5 favoritism stretching out and switching surfaces in this spot. Reined in to travel in third at the rail through a :23.17 quarter, the homebred was given a nudge after a :47.99 half, awaited racing room on the far turn and exploded clear once finding daylight in the three-path at the top of the lane, running away to a promising 5 1/4-length victory. Clutch Catch (Tiznow) completed the exacta. Pussycat Doll, a three-time GISW in her racing career, is a half to GISW Jimmy Creed (Distorted Humor) and is out of GISW Hookedonthefeelin (Citidancer). TERESA Z (f, 2, Smart Strike--With Flying Colors {SW, $139,683}, by A.P. Indy) was fifth as the favorite in her debut June 12 on the Belmont main and went one better July 24 on the Saratoga lawn before filling out the superfecta once more back on dirt at the Spa Sept. 4. Switched from the Todd Pletcher barn for this start, the $635,000 Keeneland September purchase was off a bit hesitantly at 33-10 and dropped back to run eighth behind a :22.92 quarter. Stymied in traffic for much of the far turn run, the chestnut shifted out four-wide at the quarter pole and wore down favored pacesetter Schema (Gemologist) to wear a half-length decision. The winner's third dam is a stakes-winning half to champion Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat) out of four-time GISW My Flag (Easy Goer). Who doesn’t love a new year? A clean slate? A chance to see the world with fresh eyes. And show you the world we will in this month’s TDN Weekend, taking you to five countries on four continents to talk to some of racing’s most interesting people and go to some of its most interesting destinations. Listen to the energy of Gerry Harvey and you’ll be on the next plane to Magic Millions; read Lucas Marquardt’s up close and personal (actually, quite personal) encounters with South Africa’s wildlife; traipse across France with Emma Berry in her quest to see every French stallion in two days during that country’s fabulous Route des Etalons; and dine with Tony Ricci in his Lexington steakhouse. Finally, ‘Harry Herbert’ and ‘Wild West’ aren’t two terms one normally puts together, but in this month’s The Last Word, he’ll show you why one should.

Middleburg Training Center Donated to TRF:

Horseman and real estate entrepreneur Randy Rouse has donated the historic Middleburg Training Center in Virginia to the Thoroughbred Retirement Fund (TRF), the Fauquier Times reports. The transaction was completed Thursday, and Rouse, a prominent figure in the local horse community, turned 100 years old Friday. Originally built by the great owner/breeder Paul Mellon in the 1950s as a private training facility, the training center was purchased by Rouse in 2006 and has been on the market in recent years. About 80 horses are currently based at the center, and TRF President and COO Lenny Hale said that current operations will continue. He also told the Fauquier Times that there are plans to renovate the property to prepare for an expected 90 retired Thoroughbreds that will be housed there. “We’re hoping that it will eventually support itself,” said Hale. “We’d also like to involve the community, use it for riding for the disabled and wounded veterans. We have a lot of options and it will take a little time to get it done.” TRF Director, External Affairs Diana Pikulski told the TDN, “The training center is in the heart of some of the nicest horse country in America. It will be a beautiful place to showcase the work of the TRF and brilliance of the Thoroughbred in many disciplines.”

Bad Ju Ju continued to be a fruitful claim and stepped up into stakes waters with aplomb to capture the Kalookan Queen S. at Santa Anita.

Plucked for $40,000 from the Doug O’Neill barn out of a third-place effort in optional claimer here Oct. 8, the dark bay scored at the same level Nov. 6 and annexed a higher priced optional claimer Nov. 24 at Del Mar. Made the distant second choice in this class jump, Bad Ju Ju fell back to run last of eight as a three-way speed duel developed through a sharp :21.44 quarter. Brainspin, the middle marker in that battle, put away 1-2 favorite Fantastic Style (Harlan’s Holiday) in early stretch, but Bad Ju Ju, who had weaved her way into contention on the turn, came calling nearing the furlong marker and easily swept on by to score going away. The frontrunner did well to hold for second. The winner’s dam was bred to Champ Pegasus this spring.

“I was very confident going into the race and I was confident during the race,” said winning rider Norberto Arroyo, Jr. “I’ve been going down to San Luis Rey to work her and I knew she was doing well.”

Miller added, “She was down inside and then [Arroyo] was able to tip outside coming to the quarter pole. I could see he was loaded, but I was afraid he was going to get stopped. We’ll nominate to the [GII] Santa Monica [S. Jan. 21], but she’s Cal-bred and we’ll look at all those races as well.”
