PERSUASIVE SET FOR HER DAY IN THE ‘SUN’

Persuasive could have her last chance of a Group 1 win on Saturday | Racingfotos.com

Saturday’s G1 Kingdom of Bahrain Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket is the probable swansong of Cheveley Park Stud’s Persuasive (IRE) (Dark Angel {IRE}) and there is a sense that it will be her moment at last after some near-misses at this level. While she was no match for Alice Springs (IRE) (Galileo {IRE}) when runner-up in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown last September, the homebred was an eye-catching fifth on her subsequent comeback in the July 30 G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville before again staying on strongly to be third in the last edition of the Matron four weeks ago. “It’s been a little bit frustrating with her, but she goes there in great form and we’ll roll the dice,” Cheveley Park’s managing director Chris Richardson said. “We felt she was a bit unlucky because of the draw and the slow pace in Ireland last time. Mr and Mrs Thompson will make the final decision on whether this will be her final run, but I suspect it will be and it would be great if she can go out in a blaze of glory.”

Sixth in the Matron after wins in the G1 Falmouth S. on the July Course here July 14 and in the Rothschild, ‘TDN Rising Star’ Roly Poly (War Front) represents a Ballydoyle stable on an inexorable march towards a world record of group and grade one wins in a season.

ZARAK RETIRES TO HARAS DE BONNEVAL

The Aga Khan’s homebred Group 1 winner Zarak (Fr) (Dubawi {IRE}–Zarkava {IRE}, by Zamindar) has been retired from racing and will take up stud duties at his owner’s Haras de Bonneval in France. The regally bred 4-year-old enjoyed his finest hour this year when a cosy winner of the G1 Grand Prix de Saint Cloud in July and he made his final start in the G1 Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe at Chantilly last weekend. Zarak, whose brilliant dam Zarkava capped an unblemished racecourse career when winning the ‘Arc’ in 2008 was a debut winner of his only start at two at Deauville in 2015, a performance that earned him a ‘TDN Rising Star’ tag. He made a successful reappearance in 2016 and despite not adding to that victory he posted some high class efforts at the top level, none more so than when runner up to Almanzor (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club. Zarak also made a winning seasonal debut in 2017 when scoring easily in the G3 Dubai Millennium S. at Meydan in February before running an unlucky second to Cloth Of Stars (IRE) (Sea The Stars {IRE}) in the G1 Prix Ganay at Saint Cloud in May. Upped again to a mile and a half for the Grand Prix de Saint Cloud, Zarak came from last to first under regular partner Christophe Soumillon to beat Silverwave (Fr) (Silver Frost {IRE}) by three quarters of a length. Her quality and toughness is already established, while Saleh Al Hogan and Imad Al Sagar’s Aljazzi (GB) (Shamardal) is a filly on a sharp rise, with her latest impressive success in the G3 Atalanta S. at Sandown Sept. 2 marking her out as a live contender here. Trainer Marco Botti believes that the homebred has improved from her penultimate showing when second at 40-1 to Qemah (IRE) (Danehill Dancer {IRE}) in the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. at Royal Ascot June 21. “The Sun Chariot has been the target for Aljazzi for some time and I am very pleased with her,” he said. “She was very impressive at Sandown, that form is working out quite well and the way she won suggested she is on the up and entitled to step up to group one company. The Duke of Cambridge was not officially a group one, but it had the quality of a group one and I would be hopeful that Aljazzi can reverse those placings with Qemah. The going shouldn’t be a problem, as she has won on fast and soft and seems to handle anything.”

Qemah, who was subsequently fourth in the Rothschild and fifth in the Matron, heads a habitually strong French challenge in this race and tries again. “It looks a tremendous race. It must be one of the most competitive Sun Chariots there has been for a few years,” Al Shaqab’s racing manager Harry Herbert commented. “We know our filly is pretty good on her day and Jean-Claude is very happy with her. She’s a group one winner, so these are the races she needs to be running in. She just seems to be one of those fillies that needs things to go her way on the day. We know she has the ability to be extremely competitive if the cards fall right.” Siyoushake (IRE) (Siyouni {Fr}) was third in the Rothschild and trainer Freddy Head said, “She was fourth in the race last year and I think she is even better this year. She’s run well in two group one races in Deauville in the summer.”
LESS RISK

MORE REWARD

Nowhere is the relationship between risk and reward more in your favour when buying colts than in Australia. Our top colts are more affordable than other markets and, if you buy a stallion prospect, the returns are better than elsewhere.

You also have a better chance of buying the next generation of sire star here. Some 67 per cent of top class winners in Australia were available at auction before their Group One win, compared to 46 per cent in Europe.*

SHARPENED POINT

After trading blows with Harry Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), ‘TDN Rising Star’ Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) returns to Ascot for some respite on Saturday in the G3 John Guest Bengough S. Since his defeat of that dominant sprinter in the G3 Pavilion S. receiving four pounds over this course and distance May 3, he has been third behind him and Caravaggio (Scat Daddy) in the Royal meeting’s G1 Commonwealth Cup June 23 and fourth when Harry Angel stamped his authority on the scene in the Sept. 9 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup.

‘He’s in really good form. We’ve been delighted with him since Haydock,’ trainer Charlie Appleby said. ‘That was his first run since Royal Ascot and he’d probably done a bit too well over the summer. We think he’s definitely improved from that run going into Saturday. Getting back on a bit better ground will definitely help and if he can reproduce any of his previous runs at Ascot it will put him right in the mix. Rather than throw ourselves back in at the deep end again and go straight to Champions Day, we thought we’d go to Ascot and take it from there.’

Last of 11 in the Haydock Sprint Cup, Kennet Valley Thoroughbreds’s Magical Memory (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) was fourth in the Aug. 6 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest over 6 1/2 furlongs at Deauville and is certain to be suited by this drier surface. ‘Charlie [Hills] thinks he’s been in as good a form as he’s been in all season,’ the syndicate’s racing manager Sam Hoskins said. ‘He has to put that Haydock run behind him, but he should run a really good race.’

WALDGEIST SIGN-OFFS AT ASCOT

Gestut Ammerland’s Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo (Ire)) is a welcome visitor to Ascot on Saturday for what will be his seasonal finale in the G3 Gigaset Cumberland Lodge S. Last year’s G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud hero is without a win in 2017, but he was a short-head second to Brametot (Ire) (Rajsaman (Fr)) in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly June 4 before finishing fourth in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh at the start of July.

“He hasn’t run for quite a long time, but he is in good form and I am happy with him going into the race,” trainer Andre Fabre commented. “He has had no problems since the Irish Derby. We just wanted to give him plenty of time. I wanted to avoid the big races with him, as I think he will be a good four-year-old. I didn’t want to run him in the Arc and races like that, as hopefully he will stay in training and have a good campaign next season. This will be his last run of the season.”

Godolphin’s Secret Number (GB) (Raven’s Pass) captured this prize four years ago and showed he is as good as ever on his last two starts when winning the G2 International Bosphorus Cup at Veliefendi Sept. 3 and finishing third in the G3 Dubai Duty Free Legacy Cup at Newbury Sept. 23. “Secret Number won nicely out in Turkey and ran a good race last time at Newbury, when he was a little unlucky,” trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. “He has won this race in the past and a mile and a half around Ascot suits him well.”

There’s a new star juvenile sire and his name is Poet’s Voice

Only Kodiac has more juvenile winners this season.
And not even Kodiac can match his 50% two-year-old winners/runners strike rate: that’s the best there is.

MORE MAGIC?

Charlie Appleby has enjoyed a fruitful run with his juveniles in France this season and bids to continue the sequence with Stage Magic (Ire) (Dark Angel (Ire)) in Saturday’s G3 Prix de Conde at Chantilly. Having beaten the subsequent G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere runner-up and TDN Rising Star Olmedo (Fr) (Declaration of War) in the G3 Prix des Chenes over a mile here Sept. 3, he has invaluable experience against a clutch of unproven performers. “Stage Magic has to carry a penalty for his victory in the Prix des Chenes, but I feel that soft ground and stepping up in trip is going to suit him,” his handler explained. “He brings a good level of form to the race, with Olmedo having gone on to finish second in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere last weekend, and looks the one to beat.”

Of the unexposed types, Susan Magnier’s King of Camelot (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) warrants respect as an Andre Fabre trainee despite having significant improvement to find on his latest conditions win over a mile at Lyon-Parilly Sept. 7, while His Highness The Aga Khan’s Parabak (Fr) (Maxios {GB}) comes here off a five-length win over this distance at Evreux Sept. 10.

He is a dream come true for a breeder, being a Group 1 winner out of a champion and by an excellent stallion. He was a top class racehorse who showed a great turn of foot and he is an attractive individual who is short coupled and strongly built. We are delighted to offer such an exciting stallion to breeders. Zarkava’s legacy is set to continue through her son.”

Zarak’s lineage can be traced back to the foundation mare Mumtaz Mahal who was purchased as a yearling by the Aga Khan III in 1922. This family has been nurtured through generations and has produced multiple champions such as Petite Etoile (GB), Shergar (GB), and more recently, Golden Horn (GB). Zarak retires with a race record of 13-4-3-1 for earnings of over €1.3m while a covering fee and syndication options will be announced in due course. (Return to p1) global equine industry - can we collaborate to overcome the challenges?" This will be chaired by Leo Powell, editor of The Irish Field and features Brian Kavanagh, CEO Horse Racing Ireland; Ronan Murphy, CEO Horse Sport Ireland; Noel Cawley, Chairman Teagasc and Meta Osborne, senior steward of The Turf Club.

The purpose of the Equine Summit is to reinforce the importance of the equine industry to the overall Irish economy from an employment, export, marketing and education point of view and another session chaired by Lorna Fowler, of Rahinstown Stud is titled, “What does success look like for thoroughbred breeders, an international viewpoint.” Participants in this session include Jim Bolger, Joe Foley, Brendan Holland and Richard Aston of UK based Goldford Stud.

Brian Kavanagh, who recently took part in the IFHA Conference in Paris said, “I’m really looking forward to participating in the Equine Summit. It is through events like this that new ideas are exchanged and discussed and I’m sure it will be a very welcome addition to the equine calendar as we plot our way through the opportunities provided by globalisation and the challenges offered.”

The Equine Summit will kick off at 3pm, Thursday, Nov. 9 in the Keadeen Hotel in Newbridge with a welcome address from Glanbia Group Chairman Henry Corbally followed by a keynote address from Founder and President of Alltech, Dr. Pearse Lyons. Industry statistics will then be presented by Sasha Kerins, Partner, Head of Agri Food, Grant Thornton before the central plenary discussion commences. Dinner will be served following Minister Creed’s address and the breakout sessions will commence at 6.30pm. Tickets for the event cost €55 (including dinner, booking fee and VAT) and are available to purchase online here.

GOFFS UK TO HOST DISPERSAL

Richard Kelvin-Hughes, owner of Trull House Stud has decided to disperse of his national hunt stock with 25 horses coming under the hammer from Trull House at the Goffs UK January Sale Jan. 23-24. The dispersal is made up of nine mares, many of which are in foal to leading sires, as well as five foals, five yearlings and six 2-year-olds. Kelvin-Hughes has enjoyed great success with many Nicky Henderson trained horses such as Chomba Womba (Ire) (Fourstars Allstar) and Vaniteux (Fr) (Voix Du Nord (Fr)) and he commented, “We have made the decision to disperse our National Hunt breeding operation through the sale of all fillies and mares. We enjoyed immediate success with our homebreds and we believe the best is yet to come. The timing is now right for a dispersal, we see the Goffs UK January Sale at Doncaster as the ideal place to hold it and we hope that others will have the same success that we have started.”

He continued, “We will continue to race the colts and geldings that we have in training as well as on the ground and we look forward, with mixed emotions, to purchasing future winners from these bloodlines at the sales as part of our ongoing support to National Hunt breeding and racing.”

Goffs UK have set up a dedicated page on its website to showcase the dispersal which can be accessed here.

Friday’s Results:

2nd-MLF, €44,000, Cond, 10-6, 2yo, c/g, 7fT, 1:28.67, hy.

CASCADIAN (GB) (c, 2, New Approach (Ire))--Falls of Lora (Ire) (GSW-UAE & SW-Eng, $246,417), by Street Cry (Ire)) earned a ‘TDN Rising Star’ for his July 9 debut performance at Chantilly, before running second in Deauville’s Aug. 14 Listed Prix Francois Boutin last time, and raced in fourth through the initial fractions of this one. Easing into second at halfway, the 3-5 chalk was stoked up approaching the final eighth and kept on well away, despite jinking left at the break, to lead from flagfall home. In control throughout, the 1-2 chalk was nudged along at the outset of this debut. Scrubbed along to lead passing the two pole, the 22-5 chance was untroubled thereafter and ran on strongly in the latter stages to safely assert by two lengths from El Indio (Fr) (Meshaheer). Kin to a yearling colt by Hello Is You (Fr) (Anodin (Ire)), he is the third scorer from as many foals to race out of an unraced daughter of Listed Prix de la Seine victress Hostessante (Pleasant Colony). He shares his MGSW third dam Fabulous Hostess (Fabulous Dancer) with MG1SW sire River Keen (Ire) (Keen (GB)). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,500. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O-Novum Stables SL; B-Mrs Diane Williams (IRE); T-Pia Brandt.

4th-MLF, €27,000, Mdn, 10-6, unraced 2yo, f, 7 1/2fT, 1:39.14, hy.

OMAHA BEACH (IRE) (f, 2, Epaulette (Aus)--Hundredsntheousands (Ire), by Thousand Words) broke in the second rank and raced in fourth after the initial exchanges of this unveiling. Turning for home in third, the 61-10 chance quickened to challenge with 300 metres remaining and was ridden out inside the final furlong to prevail by 1 1/2 lengths from Adhere (Mizzen Mast). She is the second representative and winner for her dam and she is a half-sister to G3 Prix Sigy third Spanish Fly (Ire) (Iffraaj (GB)), a yearling filly Libourne Lad (Ire) and a filly foal by Anjaal (GB). Hundredsntheousands is a half-sister to Listed Roses S. victor and G2 Flying Childers S. third New Planet (Ire) (Majestic Missile (Ire)), from a family which includes MG1SW sire River Keen (Ire) (Keen (GB)). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,500. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O-Novum Stables SL; B-Mrs Diane Williams (IRE); T-Pia Brandt.

1st-ANG, €24,000, Cond, 10-6, 2yo, 10fT, 2:06.18, g/s.

SAHELIAN (IRE) (c, 2, Sea the Stars (Ire)--Sahel (Ger), by Monsun (Ger)), who defeated Bimini Twist (Fr) (Falso) by four lengths in testing conditions at Chloet last time Sept. 16, was well away, despite jinking left at the break, to lead from flagfall here. In control throughout, the 1-2 chalk was nudge down at the top of the straight and pushed ever clear thereafter to easily account for the reopposing Bimini Twist by six lengths. Sahelian is a full-brother to the yearling filly Soudanija (GB) and a half to G1 Premio Lydia Tesio-winning German and Italian highweight Sortilege (Ire) (Tiger Hill (Ire)) and Listed Prix Coronation third 2016. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O/B-Godolphin (GB); T-Andre Fabre.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON IN JOCKEY CLUB GOLD CUP?

Keen Ice training through the rain at Saratoga | Sarah K Andrew

By Alan Carasso

A little more than 10 years ago, Curlin outfought favored Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr) by a neck to win the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park before wrapping up the first of his two Horse of the Year titles with a smashing success through sloppy conditions in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic at Monmouth Park. Donegal Racing and Calumet Farm’s Keen Ice (Curlin) will look to follow in his sire’s considerable hoofprints as the class of the field in the 10-furlong test that serves as a ‘Win and You’re In’ qualifier for this year’s Classic in four weeks’ time.

Conqueror of Triple Crown and future Breeders’ Cup Classic hero American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in the 2015 GI Travers S., Keen Ice—himself bred like Curlin—was switched to the barn of Todd Pletcher following the 2016 G1 Dubai World Cup and managed a distant third to Arrogate (Unbridled’s Song) at Santa Anita last fall. The handsome bay was snapping a 10-race skid dating back to the Travers when taking down the colors of Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) in a paceless renewal of this track’s GII Suburban H. in July and exits a never-nearer second to Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the GI Whitney S. Aug. 5.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR IN ALCIBIADES

Debby Oxyey’s Heavenly Love (Malibu Moon) gave her sire his 14th Grade I winner and, along with ‘TDN Rising Star’ Moonshine Memories, will give the Spendthrift stalwart a formidable 1-2 punch in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies following a powerhouse 5 1/2-length victory in Friday’s GI Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland.

Sent off at odds of 5-1 on the heels of an impressive five-length maiden victory over the rolling hills at Kentucky Downs Sept. 7, Heavenly Love landed in a perfect spot chasing her stablemate Dancing (Bernardini) from second through even early fractions. With Julien Leparoux sitting hard against the homebred rounding the far turn and with the short stretch looming, Heavenly Love quickly put three or four lengths on her rivals and widened to the wire. Princess Warrior (Midshipman), favored at 3-2 off a big-figure maiden win at Churchill Downs Sept. 16, rallied from behind to be second best.

28-year-old Jason Barkley, most recently an assistant to Wesley Ward and the son of veteran conditioner Jeff Barkley, celebrated his first win as a trainer on opening day at Keeneland Friday when first-off-the-claim Stella Nova (Astrology) scored a 2 1/4-length victory for Tommy Todd’s Oakview Stable in the fourth. | Coady Photography
"We’re looking forward to getting him back at a mile and a quarter," said Pletcher, who has finished second in the Jockey Club Gold Cup on five occasions and is still looking for his first win in the race. "He’s been training well and we hope he can give us the same kind of effort he did in the Suburban."

Pletcher will also be represented by Rally Cry (Uncle Mo), who thrashed lesser rivals in the Aug. 6 Alydar S. and was no closer than 10 1/4 lengths behind Gun Runner in the GI Woodward S. Sept. 2. The third of the Pletcher entrants is Destin (Giant’s Causeway), who took an excruciating defeat in last year’s GI Belmont S. and most recently got back to winning ways with a battling allowance score at Saratoga Aug. 23.

Should Keen Ice falter, ‘TDN Rising Star’ Diversify (Bellamy Road) could prove that he’s this good while making his graded-stakes debut. Winner of six from nine lifetime, the bay has proved far too tough for his fellow New York-breds with daylight and big-figure wins in the Saginaw S. and Evan Shipman S. in his two most recent runs. The waters are much deeper and the barn is eager to see how he matches up.

"He was so impressive in his last start and he seems to be gaining confidence as his career has progressed so we feel he’s deserved an opportunity to see what he can do against open company," said Rick Violette Jr., who trains the 4-year-old for Ralph and Lauren Evans.

Curlin and Summer Bird (Birdstone, 2009) are the two most recent sophomores to win the Gold Cup, and trainer Doug O’Neill sends in Pavel (Creative Cause) to try elder stakes competition. Named a ‘TDN Rising Star’ off a romping Santa Anita debut July 1, he was only beaten a little more than five lengths by Good Samaritan (Harlan’s Holiday) in the GII Jim Dandy S. and overwhelmed his peers by a half-dozen lengths in the GIII Smarty Jones S. at Parx Sept. 4. Is he up to the task? O’Neill sees that glass as half-full.

“...you like to keep them in their own age group obviously as long as you can, but we thought it was a good opportunity,” he said. “We like the spacing to this race and we know it’s going to be the toughest race of his short career, but we really feel timing-wise, he’s coming into it in great shape. Hopefully he can make that leap.”

Highland Sky (Sky Mesa) has raced exclusively on the turf in his career, and while he is bred to handle the main track, he is the deserved outsider in the field.

MISS TEMPLE CITY OPTS FOR ROAD LESS TRAVELED IN SHADWELL MILE by Alan Carasso

In 2016, Miss Temple City (Temple City) accomplished a double that few have managed, forgetting altogether that it’s a filly we’re talking about. The dark bay audaciously defeated Heart To Heart (English Channel) in the GI Maker’s 46 Mile in April, he was run over late and finished third in the GI Shoemaker Mile at Santa Anita June 3 but had things his own way when winning Sararoga’s GII Bernard Baruch H. over rain-affected ground Sept. 4.

Ballagh Rocks (Stormy Atlantic) looms an intriguing price play at his pet distance. Fourth, beaten a half-length in the Maker’s 46, he annexed Belmont’s GIII Poker S. June 18 and a latest third to subsequent GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile scorer World Approval (Northern Afleet) in the GI Fourstardave H. at the Spa Aug. 12.

Mondialiste (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) makes his third start at Keeneland, having finished second to Tepin in the 2015 GI Breeders’ Cup Mile and a close fourth in this race 12 months ago. Somewhat surprisingly, regular rider Danny Tudhope ends up on stablemate Suedois (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}).
FEARSOME FOURSOME TOP FIRST LADY

by Alan Carasso

For the first time in its history, Saturday’s GI First Lady S. at Keeneland is a qualifying race for the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf and the race has attracted a field relatively short on numbers, but very high on quality.

Dona Bruja (Arg) (Storm Embrujado {Arg}) was nearly perfect in her native Argentina and made a seamless transition to American racing from a class standpoint with effortless wins in the GIII Mint Julep H. and GIII Modesty H. in her first two trips to the post stateside. Sent off the 23-10 favorite for the GI Beverly D. S. Aug. 13, she made something of a premature move and displayed her trademark sharp turn of foot, but could not resist the late surge of Dacita (Chi) (Scat Daddy) and settled for a dead-heat for second. Dona Bruja is not yet nominated to the Breeders’ Cup.

Roca Rojo (Ire) (Strategic Prince {GB}) missed by a nose to Miss Temple City (Temple City) in last year’s GI Matriarch S. and resumed with a victory in the GII Distaff Turf Mile at Churchill May 7.

Last of seven as the favorite in the GI Just a Game S. June 10, she endured a troubled trip when third to stablemate Lady Eli (Divine Park) and Dickinson (Medaglia d’Oro) in the GII Ballston Spa S. Aug. 26.

The latter defeated Lady Eli in this track’s GI Jenny Wiley S. this past April and set leisurely fractions in the Ballston Spa, but was no match late for the eventual winner.

Hawksmoor (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}), winner of the 2016 G2 German 1000 Guineas, was beaten a head into third behind Time and Motion (Tapit) in the GI QE II Challenge Cup at this venue last October. She posted front-running wins in the GIII Beaugay S. and GII New York S. when allowed soft leads each time, but was no better than seventh in the Beverly D. after racing prominently.

SHORT BUT LOADED FIELD SET FOR SA SPRINT

A small, but intriguing and competitive field is set to go in Saturday’s GI Santa Anita Sprint Championship S., a “Win & You’re In” for the GI TwinSpires Breeders’ Cup Sprint.

The top two finishers from an eventful renewal of the GI Bing Crosby S. at Del Mar July 29 return and break on opposite sides of the gate. Ransom the Moon (Malibu Moon), who exits from the rail, notched his first Grade I victory that day over Roy H. (More Than Ready), who will go postward from the six-hole. The former also captured the GI Kona Gold S. at Santa Anita May 20 while the latter scored impressively in Belmont’s GI True North H. June 9. The complexion of the Bing Crosby was changed dramatically, however, when the talented Drefong (Gio Ponti) ducked in at the gap and tossed Hall of Famer Mike Smith.

Giant Expectations (Frost Giant) had to face the likes of Arrogate (Unbridled’s Song) and American Freedom (Pulpit) as a maiden 3-year-old last year before finally graduating in his first start of 2017 at Belmont Park and has really taken off from there. The $135,000 OBS March buy has gone from the maiden special weight ranks to capturing the GI Pat O’Brien S. at Del Mar in a matter of three months.

American Anthem (Bodemeister) has found his niche sprinting for Hall of Famer Bob Baffert. Since taken off the GI Kentucky Derby trail following his 12th-place finish in the GI Santa Anita Derby, the bay has rattled off wins in the GII Lazaro Barrera S. and the GII Woody Stephens S., both at seven furlongs. American Anthem comes into this off a third-place finish in the Aug. 26 GI H. Allen Jerkens S. behind MGISW Practical Joke (Into Mischief) and last weekend’s GI Vosburgh S. winner Takaful (Bernardini). The $435,000 OBS March purchase has blazed three consecutive bullets since returning from New York, with the latest going four furlongs in :46 3/5 (1/100).

TWELVE JUVENILES LOOK TO POP CHAMPAGNE

A wide-open field of 12 promising 2-year-olds will line up for Saturday’s one-turn mile GI Champagne S. at Belmont Park, a ‘Win and You’re In’ contest for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile.

The unbeaten New York-bred Aveenu Malcainu (Into Mischief), an impressive last out winner of Saratoga’s Funny Cide S. Aug. 25, was scratched out of last weekend’s New York Breeders’ Futurity S. at Finger Lakes in favor of this.

“We originally were looking at the Hopeful in Saratoga, but we felt the state-bred stakes would give us extra preparation time for the Champagne,” trainer Jeremiah Englehart said of the Gold Square colorbearer. “We felt all along he can [handle] open company.”

Hazit (War Front) and $1-million KEESEP graduate Good Magic (Curlin) re-engage after putting on a show in the curtain raiser on the loaded GI Travers S. card Aug. 26. The former earned ‘TDN Rising Star’ honors that day with a wire-to-wire performance going 6 1/2 furlongs.

Gary and Mary West homebred Full of Run (Power Broker) heads straight to the big leagues after posting a ‘TDN Rising Star’ performance at first asking going 5 1/2 furlongs at Monmouth Aug. 26.

The maiden of two starts Bahamian (Freedom Child) ships in from Southern California. He dueled and finished a good second behind subsequent GI FrontRunner S. runner-up Solomini (Curlin) at Del Mar last time Sept. 2.

The field’s lone graded winner Firenze Fire (Poseidon’s Warrior), upset winner of Saratoga’s GIII Sanford S., looks to get back on track following a fourth-place finish in the GI Hopeful S. Sept. 4.
BAKER’S DOZEN SET FOR BREEDERS’ FTY

Headed by the second and third-place finishers of Saratoga’s GI Hopeful S., there looks to be plenty of potential on display in Saturday’s GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity S. at Keeneland, a ‘Win and You’re In’ contest for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile.

Free Drop Billy (Union Rags), favored at 2-1 on the morning-line, should appreciate this first attempt around two turns off the heels of rallying runner-up efforts in the GIII Sanford S.

FINLEY’S LUCKYCHARM ONE TO BEAT IN TCA

The speedy Finley’sluckycharm (Twirling Candy) will look to take the field gate-to-wire in search of her third graded stakes win of the year in the GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. at Keeneland Saturday, a “Win & You’re In” event for the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint.

Minus a loss to Paulassilverlining (Ghostzapper) by a mere neck last out in the GII Honorable Miss H. July 26 at Saratoga, the $77,000 Keeneland September purchase would be undefeated in 2017. It was her only loss at this six-furlong distance in her six career attempts. Last term’s GI La Brea S. runner-up is looking to add her first Grade II to her resume along with wins in the 2017 GIII Chicago H. and GIII Winning Colors S., both at Churchill Downs. Her only off-the-board finish in 11 career starts came in her lone attempt around two turns in last year’s GI Rachael Alexandra S. at Fair Grounds.
The main threats to the 3-5 morning-line favorite will break to her inside. Vertical Oak (Giant Oak) is fresh off a runaway score in the GII Prioress Sept. 3 at Saratoga. She added that win to the GIII Miss Preakness S. earlier in the year.

Claiborne Farm's 'TDN Rising Star' Bendable (Horse Greeley), third in the GIII Rancho Bernardo H. at Del Mar last out Aug. 3, will look to settle just off the early pace and make one good run from her rail draw. That's how she notched her first graded stakes win of her career in the GIII Desert Stormer S. in her first start of the year off a 7 1/2-month layoff. She was also a close third in last year's TCA behind MG SWs Stonetastic (Mizzen Mast) and Irish Jasper (First Defence).

BRICKS AND MORTAR SEeks REBOUND IN HILL PRINCE

Klaravich Stables and William H. Lawrence’s Bricks and Mortar (Giant’s Causeway) looks to get back to the winner's circle in the GII Hill Prince S. at Belmont Park Saturday.

The $200,000 Keeneland September pickup was undefeated through his first four starts, including a win in the GII Hall Of Fame S. at Saratoga Aug. 4. His lone loss came in his most recent try in the GIII Saranac S. at Saratoga Sept. 2, finishing third by less than a length to Voodoo Song (English Channel), who won four races at the meet. He returns to Belmont where he earned his first stakes win in the Manila S. July 4.

Another runner coming out of the Saranac and Hall Of Fame is Yoshida (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)), a ‘TDN Rising Star’ who finished a close second in both events. The bay's lone stakes win came on the GI Preakness S. undercard at Pimlico in the James W. Murphy S., where he broke last and kicked into gear late scoring by an impressive four lengths.

Green Lantern's Frostmourne (Speightstown) goes for his third consecutive graded stakes win after decisive victories in the GII Penn Mile S. at Penn National June 3 and GIII Kent S. at Delaware Park July 15.

ANOTHER POSSIBLE MONGOLIAN SATURDAY AT KEENELAND

In the field of nine set for Saturday’s GII Woodford S., only Mongolian Saturday (Any Given Saturday) has found success over the Keeneland turf and looks to continue it this weekend.

The top two finishers out of the GII Kentucky Downs Turf Sprint face off again as 5-2 morning-line favorite Hogy (Offlee Wild) got the better of co-second choice Commend (War Front) in the final yards Sept. 9.

Gary Barber’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Conquest Panthera (Kitten’s Joy) ships down from Woodbine where he won the seven-furlong GII Play The King S. two starts back before a seventh-place finish in the GI Woodbine Mile behind MGISW World Approval (Northern Afleet).

“We had a great trip, sitting second,” said Leparoux, winning the Alcibiades for the second time in four years (Peace and War, 2013). “She exploded [and took the lead around the final turn] but we still had some left. When she gets to the lead, she kinda looks around. She’s still a little baby, but she’s a very nice filly. She impressed me at Kentucky Downs. She repeated it today.”

Pedigree Notes:

Of her sire’s 14 Grade I winners, no fewer than 10 have been females. Heavenly Love was bred by Debby Oxley from her $300,000 Keeneland September yearling Darling My Darling (Deputy Minister), runner-up in the GI Matron S. and GI Frizette S. and fifth to Surfside (Seattle Slew) at 7-2 in the 1999 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies. Darling My Darling went on to become a Keeneland horse for the course, with victories in the 2000 Raven Run S. and the 2001 Doubledogdare S. Darling My Darling was herself a daughter Roamin Rachel (Mining), winner of Keeneland’s GII Beaumont S. in 1993 and subsequently the dam of 2004 Japanese Horse of the Year and G1 Japan Cup hero Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) (Sunday Silence). Heavenly Love is kin to a yearling colt by Oxley’s star juvenile Sky Mesa, but Darling My Darling aborted her foals in each of the last two years. NEW ASTERN
Medaglia d’Oro – Essaouira (Exceed And Excel)
Off to a sizzling start this season, Whitmore idled a bit through the summer months, but resurrected his season with a battling success in Friday’s GII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S., a “Win and You’re In” event for the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint at Del Mar Nov 4.

Drawn widest in this field of 11 short-trackers, Whitmore jumped alertly and was able to get over into about the three path with cover as Awesome Banner breezed along on the front end after leaving the inside stall. Committed to a deep run on the turn, Whitmore was traveling nicely and was pulled off heels nearing the stretch, but had plenty of company in the form of perfect-trip Threefiveindia (Street Boss) just to his inside and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Uncontested (Tiz Wonderful) and horse-for-course Limousine Liberal widest out. Awesome Banner fought on gamely at the fence and was clinging on stubbornly, but under vigorous urging from New York-based Manny Franco, Whitmore refused to go away and was the beneficiary of a favorable head bob. Limousine Liberal, who just missed winning this 12 months back, was off a bit slowly and at the back of the pack early. He rallied on the turn and kicked hard through the final furlong, but was not quite good enough.

“He broke sharp,” said Franco, who was earning his first graded win at Keeneland. “[Trainer] Ron [Moquett] and I spoke before the race. I was two to three lengths behind. When I made my move, he was game. Never give up. Still running. We did it.”

Placed in all three legs of the 3-year-old series at Oaklawn in 2016, Whitmore was well-beaten in the GI Kentucky Derby, but won his first three starts of this year in Hot Springs—all sprinting—including the GIII Maryland Sprint H. the following month, but was no better than third when heavily favored in the GII True North H. on Belmont S. day June 10 and again in the DeFrancis Dash at Laurel Sept. 16.

Also Ran: Threelfiveindia, Loose On the Town, Uncontested, Favorite Tale, Richard the Great, Mr Manning, It’s the Journey, Seventh Sense (Tur). Click for the Equibase.com chart, the TJCIS.com PPs or the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree. VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Pedigree Notes:
Whitmore is one of seven graded winners for his sire, winner of the 2003 GI Breeders’ Cup Classic and sire of 2010 GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf winner Shared Account from his first crop. Whitmore is kin to a yearling Atreides filly who sold to Joe Minor’s JSM Equine for $135,000 at this year’s Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July Yearling Sale. Melody’s Spirit was most recently bred to GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile winner Liam’s Map.

HANA SUGGESTS BOYCOTT OF KEENELAND MEET
Citing a much-publicized and criticized increase in the Keeneland takeout rate despite increased revenue from historical racing machines at The Red Mile, officials at the Horseplayers’ Association of North America (HANA) have implored gamblers to boycott wagering on the Keeneland Fall meeting, which began Friday in Lexington.

"Keeneland decided to hit horseplayers with a takeout increase," HANA President and Playersboycott.org spokesman Jeff Platt said. "Keeneland claims they are going to use money raised by the takeout increase to boost purses. But higher takeout in the name of bigger purses has been tried before and it has failed, big time."

According to information disseminated by HANA, horseplayers boycotted Santa Anita and Golden Gate in the early months of 2011 as a result of takeout increases there.

Instead of bigger purses the result was purse cuts and layoffs. In October 2011 the local paper in Arcadia, CA, reported Santa Anita was cutting one third of its staff.

HANA claimed that Churchill had a takeout increase for their spring 2014 meet. Handle fell by 25% outside of the Derby and Maggi Moss reported on her Twitter account that Churchill had quietly announced a 20% purse cut for their fall 2014 meet.

"None of this would have happened if higher takeout was the answer. Keeneland is doubling down on the same bad idea."

Platt said, "I reached out to Bob Elliston of Keeneland and we had a 90-minute phone call. We discussed the actual outcomes that arose from the above takeout increases. But it became obvious that Keeneland believes players would support a takeout increase because money raised by the takeout increase would being going to bigger purses. I did my best to make it clear that takeout increases lead to the opposite of bigger purses. In the end we agreed to disagree."

In response to the HANA announcement, Keeneland issued a statement late Thursday that read:

"Keeneland, since its inception in 1936, has operated toward a singular mission to invest all profits above what is necessary to operate our company back into the industry to benefit all who are part of it. We have never wavered from our founding principles, and we will never do so. This price increase, the first in decades, keeps us within the five lowest blended rates of all major U.S. racetracks and is necessary to continue to fulfill our mission. Cont. p14"

Keeneland’s mission stands for fan development, safety and welfare initiatives, developing racing across the world and delivering the highest quality and most competitive racing product to our horsemen and fans. Horsemen from across the U.S. and Europe have entered an average of 100 horses in each of the three days of our Fall Stars Weekend; assembling some of the best race cards available to fans this year. We trust that those who we exist to serve—our owners, breeders, trainers, jockeys, fans and yes, handicappers, will continue to support the mission that has guided our actions since our inception.”

For Keeneland’s opening-day program Friday, Keeneland reported on-track wagering of $1,470,920, an increase of 8% over last year. All-sources handle reached $8,756,822, an increase of 2% over last year.

NY-BASED STABLE TO DONATE EARNINGS TO LAS VEGAS VICTIMS by Ben Massam

Linette Stables, a New York-based ownership group operated by Graig Couton and his family, is donating a portion of its horses’ earnings to help aid victims of Sunday’s deadly mass shooting in Las Vegas. For Couton, a former Las Vegas resident and a 2012 graduate of UNLV, the attack hit uncomfortably close to home.

“UNLV is a three-minute drive from where the shooting took place,” Couton said. “I drove past that area every day on my way to school.”

In response to the tragedy, Couton said his family’s stable will contribute 10% of their share of the earnings accrued by their horses for the remainder of the 2017 calendar year to the Las Vegas Victims Fund set up by Steve Sisolak, the Clark County Commission Chair from Las Vegas. Although Couton relocated to New York in 2016, he said Las Vegas is never far from his mind—particularly in the wake of recent events.

“Las Vegas will always be my second home, and watching all of the coverage on TV made me wish I was still living there so I could have provided more help,” Couton said. “At this point, donating money is the best way that we can do that.”

Couton stressed that Linette Stables is by no means a large-scale operation, and understandably, their donations will likely max out at a few thousand dollars. The fledgling stable launched in late 2016 and scored its first victory soon after the calendar flipped to 2017 when the hard-knocking gelding Chelios (Distorted Humor) captured a claiming race at Aqueduct Jan. 2. Linette has only registered seven starts in 2017, but their runners have hit the board in six of those tries—a more-than-respectable rate for an outfit that competes exclusively on the hyper-competitive New York Racing Association circuit.

Re-connecting with the Las Vegas community from afar, Couton said the outpouring of kindness and goodwill in the aftermath of the shooting played a major role in his family’s decision to join the cause.

“The Las Vegas residents and first responders have done an incredible job in response to this tragedy,” Couton added. “The videos showing these huge lines of people waiting to donate blood and supplies are inspiring.”

Couton said his hope is that others will follow their lead and consider donating to the victims fund. The co-owner noted that Gary Contessa-trained veteran turfer Aire Bueno (Chi) (Ivan Denisovich {Ire})), owned in partnership with Winning Move

Heavenly Love (Malibu Moon) runs away from her rivals in the GI Darley Alcibiades S.
Stables and Saltor Thoroughbred Stables among others, will likely be ready to compete at Belmont later this month.

While Sunday's tragedy makes a slow gate break or a lost photo finish seem trivial, one can only hope that the Linette Stables colorbearers receive a healthy dose of luck as they race to help the city of Las Vegas heal.

ASTERN TO SHUTTLE TO JONABELL FARM

Astern (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro–Essaouira (Aus), by Exceed and Excel (Aus)), winner of five of his first six career trips to the post culminating with a victory in the G1 Golden Rose S. at Randwick last September, will stand the 2018 Northern Hemisphere breeding season at Darley USA's base at Jonabell Farm in Lexington. He is currently standing his first season at Darley Kelvinside in New South Wales.

Trained by John O'Shea, Astern annexed the G2 Silver Slipper S. after annexing his career debut and closed a successful freshman campaign by dead-heating with Winx (Aus) (Street Cry (Ire))’s half-brother, the 'TDN Rising Star' El Divino (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}), in the G3 Kindergarten S. Resuming from a 4 1/2-month break with a victory in the G2 Runto Rose S., Astern ran out the 2 1/4-length winner of the Golden Rose, the Australian equivalent of the GI H. Allen Jerkens S., becoming the best-rated winner of that 1400-meter test. Astern was also a solid runer-up in the G1 Coolmore Stud S. and G2 Roman Consul S. He retired to the breeding shed with five wins from nine outings and earnings of A$1,179,550. His 126 Timeform rating makes him Medaglia d’Oro’s top-rated son in either hemisphere.

"I just returned from seeing Astern in Australia, and I was blown away by his tremendous physique," said Darren Fox, Darley's sales manager in the U.S. "I couldn't be more excited to get him to Kentucky. Medaglia d'Oro has been such an important stallion for us in both hemispheres, and as his best son, Astern has all the credentials to follow in his father's footsteps."

Astern is a half-brother to Alizee (Aus) (Sepoy {Aus}), recent winner of the G1 Flight S. His stud fee has been set at $15,000, stands-and-nurses terms and he will breed a limited book of 120 mares.

BOB KULINA RETIRING FROM MONMOUTH

Bob Kulina, the president of Monmouth Park operator Darby Development, has decided to retire after a 45-year career at the New Jersey racetrack. Kulina made the announcement Friday morning.

"I have been wrestling with the decision for some time," Kulina said. "I'm 68 and it's just time. I felt this was the time to announce it so that the new team will have plenty of time to prepare for the 2018 meet. I first came here when I was 13 years old with my dad [trainer Joe Kulina] and I've been here ever since. I've never had a summer off. I always wanted that, to be able to get away for a month in the summer, but that wouldn't have been fair to Monmouth or the people who work here."

Kulina’s first major job at Monmouth was as the racing secretary, a role he took over at age 27.

"This has been more than a job for me," he said. “It has been a way of life. I feel so fortunate to have been here all these years and we’ve ad a great run." Cont. p16

During his tenure in the Monmouth Park racing office, Kulina developed the popular overnight stakes program, which has become a standard in the industry. After 15 years as racing secretary, Kulina was named General Manager/Thoroughbred Racing at Monmouth in 1991. Soon thereafter he added that title at the Meadowlands and oversaw Thoroughbred operations for the New Jersey Sports & Exposition Authority racetracks until 2012. During that time he was instrumental in developing the Haskell Invitational into a race of national prominence and the next stop for 3-year-olds following the Triple Crown.

Upon the signing of a lease of Monmouth Park to the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association in 2012, Kulina was named President of Darby Development, LLC, the management company for the racetrack.

“For the past six years, and decades before that, Bob has embodied everything that is good about Monmouth Park and horse racing in New Jersey,” said Dennis Drazin, Chairman and CEO of Darby. “Through his stewardship, Monmouth Park and our racing brand have enjoyed exponential growth and continue to be a premier destination for horsemen and racing fans. I thank him for his years of service to this industry and his dedication to ensure its success for many years to come.”

Kulina said he would like to remain on at Monmouth in some capacity, perhaps as a consultant, but stressed that he will fully step aside from the day-to-day operations of the racetrack.

PRELIMS CONCLUDE AT THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER by Jen Roytz
LEXINGTON, Ky—Day two of preliminary competition concluded on Friday at the Retired Racehorse Project Thoroughbred Makeover in Lexington, KY. The top five finishers in each division will be invited back to compete in the finale on Saturday, where divisional winners will be named and the overall champion will be crowned.

Included in the 50 horses that will return for the finale are Mister Marti Gras (Belong to Me), a graded stakes-winning millionaire who this week added a winning performance in the Field Hunter preliminary competition to his long list of credits with rider Mandy Alexander in the irons. Bred and raced by Lothenbach Stables, Mister Marti Gras won 11 of 58 starts. After earning $1,194,027 on the track, he retired in the fall of 2016 and began his retraining earlier this year with Alexander.

Also making it to Saturday’s finale is Lindsey Partridge, who won the 2015 Thoroughbred Makeover with Soar (Trajectory). Since winning the Makeover, Partridge has gained an impressive following, traveling throughout the U. S. and around the world to give demonstrations and seminars on horse training. Partridge was also the on-set trainer for the motion picture Unbridled (2017) and the upcoming movie The Farmer and the Belle (2018).

“There’s becoming an event the equestrian world watches,” said Partridge, who trains out of her Partridge Horse Hill base in Pontypool, Ontario. “This year I’m seeing more people from farther away, including more competitors from Canada. There are so many good amateurs and juniors competing alongside world-class pros like Ian Roberts (Olympian), Elisa Wallace (Rolex Kentucky Three-Day Event competitor, short listed for the Olympics) and Nick Larkin (Rolex Kentucky Three-Day Event winner).”

Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance ambassador third year Thoroughbred Makeover competitor Jordan Pruiksma is back in the finals as well, this time riding Bandit City (Congaree).

“I’m so proud and impressed by how much the event has grown. Every year the caliber of horses and riders gets better, and the competition gets tougher,” said Pruiksma. “This year there are a lot of racing connections here supporting their horses. I think it’s really helping people to see that if they stop earlier on their horses, they hold value and can go on to be successful in other arenas.”

Trainer Michael Blake was one of many who came out to see his former charges. In from his base at Fort Erie to look at a horse running at Keeneland on Friday, Blake decided to add the Kentucky Horse Park to his itinerary and cheer on Sambrook and The Bowie Van, who he trained and re-homed upon their retirement.

“Events like this have really helped to raise awareness for retired racehorses and all they can do after they’re done running, and the more we know about what options are out there for them, the better we can be about knowing what each one will be best suited for,” said Blake. “I’d say the majority of trainers work hard to do right by their horses when it’s time for them to retire, and events like this have definitely make it easier to find them homes.”

The Retired Racehorse Project began in 2010 with the mission of increasing demand, and ultimately value, for Thoroughbred ex-racehorses in equestrian sports. Many of the horses that compete in the Thoroughbred Makeover each year, including 120 of the 385 entered this year, are offered for sale in the event’s sale showcase on Sunday.

Based on the demographics and motivations of many of the spectators in attendance, the organization is accomplishing its mission.

“This is a great place to shop for young horses with upper level potential,” said internationally competitive four-star eventing competitor William Hoos. “Usually you have to travel to California to see one horse, Canada to see another. Here, you have so many quality horses in one spot. This is a great horse shopping opportunity. It makes things so much simpler and easier.”

Added Hoos's son, Josh, who is also a professional trainer and was shopping for prospects: “I've been very impressed with the quality of horses here. There are so many good horses in one spot, and the atmosphere is great. I hope to compete in it next year.”

The Thoroughbred Makeover competition concludes Saturday with the Finale beginning at 9:00 a.m. at the Kentucky Horse Park. After divisional winners are announced, all will return for the crowning of America's Most Wanted Thoroughbred. Live streaming of the event will be available here and live scoring can be viewed here.

IMPROV (m, 5, Distorted Humor--One Caroline (MGSW,$317,962), by Unbridled's Song) entered off her first win in 2017, a 1 1/2-length score going the one-turn mile at Churchill Downs Sept. 15. She had missed by a neck when second in the GII Matron S. under the Twin Spires in May. Regular rider James Graham had the gray on the lead in the first furlong and opened a bit of daylight. She felt the pressure from Mioety (Bernardini) and Kinsley Kisses (Congrats) as the three were across the track heading for home, but Improv was able to hold off both challengers in the final furlong to post the 3/4-length score. Mioety completed the exacta with Kinsley Kisses third. One Caroline, a winner of the first five starts of her career for these connections, including the 2009 GII Sabin S and the GII Rampart S., has an unraced 2-year-old filly named East (MGSW,$317,962), by Unbridled's Song)

5th-KEE, $56,306, Msw, 10-6, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 3/16mT, 1:58.68, fm.
MAGICAL SKY (f, 3, Sky Mesa--Athena's Gift, by Fusaichi Pegasus) was leading at the top of the stretch in her latest at Kentucky Downs Sept. 7, but couldn't hold off the late closing winner and settled for second. Having hit the board in three of her first four races, she was the 8-5 favorite to finally break through. The $150,000 Keeneland September pickup settled in fifth, less than two lengths off the lead in the long run to the first turn. She was able to split horses and take the lead midway around the far turn before holding off a sustained run from runner-up Sapphire Jubilee (Northern Afleet) to secure the 1 3/4-length win. Magical Sky is a half-sister to We Miss Artie, (Artie Schiller), GISW, $738,843, who won the GI Dixiana Graduate of SBM Training & Sales (Susan Montanye)

COPPER TOWN (Speightstown), a debut second behind ‘TDN Rising Star’ Blue Buff (Unbridled’s Song) at Gulfstream Feb. 25, earned his own ‘TDN Rising Star’ designation with a runaway maiden tally going a mile at Belmont Sept. 10. Owned in partnership by WinStar Farm LLC, Head of Plains Partners LLC, China Horse Club and SF Racing LLC, the sophomore is trained by Todd Pletcher. The 4-year-old Patternrecognition (Adios Charlie), a sharp debut winner for Chad Brown at the Big A in the spring, has finished second in his last three attempts at this level behind ‘TDN Rising Stars’ Coal Front (Stay Thirsty), Takaful (Bernardini) and Mr. Crow (Tapizar). He is the 6-5 morning-line favorite. TJCIS PPs

All eyes will be on $2.45-million OBS April topper CONQUISTADOR (Tiznow) as he lines up for the first time here. Owned in partnership by Magnier, Tabor, Oxley, Smith and Jooste and trained by Mark Casse, the striking bay zipped through an eighth in a bullet :8 4/5 (1/73) at Churchill Downs Sept. 24. Fellow newcomer Tricks to Doo (Into Mischief), a $600,000 OBSMAR graduate (:9 4/5), also looks well-meant. The Lael Stables colorbearer has been working bullets at Fair Hill for trainer Arnaud Delacour. TJCIS PPs

6th-BEL, $75K, Msw, 2yo, 7f, post time: 3:03 p.m. ET

The highly regarded MONTAUK (Medaglia d’Oro) launches his career against this salty looking group. The bay was knocked down to Robert LaPenta, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Twin Creeks Racing Stables, et al, for $850,000 at the OBSAPR 2-Year-Old Sale after covering an eighth in :10 1/5. The bay, produced by the talented Indian Vale (A.P. Indy), MGWS & MGISP, $838,601, has been working bullets at trainer Todd Pletcher’s Belmont Park base. Stuart S. Janney III and Phipps Stable homebred Personal Time (Malibu Moon), a full-brother to GI Kentucky Derby hero Orb, also makes his career debut. Their 3-year-old full-brother Emancipation lit up the tote board with a ‘TDN Rising Star’ performance at first asking with a 29-1 upset at Belmont Park in early June. Labeq (Tapit), a son of 2009 GI Breeders’ Cup Ladies’ Classic heroine Life Is Sweet (Storm Cat), debuts for Shadwell Stable and trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. The gray brought $575,000 as a KEESSEP yearling. TJCIS PPs

“An Evening With Joe Palmer” at Country Life Oct. 13:
Edited Press Release

“By Any Other Name” is the name of a New York Herald Tribune column in the 1940’s by legendary Turf Writer Joe Palmer, whose soul is being reincarnated on Friday night, October 13, 6-8 pm, on the front porch at Country Life Farm by one-man-show performer Walter May.

In the kickoff for Maryland Million Week, Mr. May will entertain a cocktail crowd at The Big House, with proceeds from the $30 tickets to benefit the Maryland Horse Industry Foundation and the Harford Historical Society. Joe Palmer often wrote about Maryland farms, about Pimlico and Laurel and Bowie, with irreverent insight. Marylander Alfred Vanderbilt was a frequent subject.

In “By Any Other Name,” Mr. Palmer wrote:

“On the score of good taste, by which The Jockey Club means any (horse name) that would have been acceptable to Queen Victoria in her declining years, the Registrar tries to hit all curve balls thrown at him, but he misses some. One of the best curve-ball pitchers he has to contend with is a Jockey Club member himself, Alfred Vanderbilt. I can remember when a New York delegation to Pimlico made a moderate killing on one of the Mr. Vanderbilt’s horses, False Front. The plunge was taken partly because we admired the subtlety of the name. The dam’s name was Superficial.”

Mr. May’s performance of Mr. Palmer’s words played to standing-room-only crowds at the National Museum of Racing in Saratoga and at Keeneland Race Course.

Holy Boss Retired to Maryland’s Anchor & Hope Farm:

'TDN Rising Star' Holy Boss (Street Boss--Holy Grace, by Holy Bull), winner of the 2015 GI Amsterdam S. and third in that year’s GI King’s Bishop S., has been retired from racing and will enter stud for 2018 at Anchor & Hope Farm.

Bred by Adena Springs, Holy Boss graduated by better than 10 lengths at first asking, earning the Rising Star designation, and won his first four starts at three, capped by a 2 1/4-length victory in the Amsterdam. He was behind champion Runhappy (Super Saver) in the King’s Bishop and again when a creditable fourth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint. Runner-up to A. P. Indian (Indian Charlie) in the 2016 GI A. G. Vanderbilt H., Holy Boss added a victory in the Duncan F. Kenner S. at the Fair Grounds earlier this winter. He heads to stud with six wins from 22 starts and earnings of $771,527.

A half-brother to 2017 Queen’s Plate winner, the filly Holy Helena (Ghostzapper), Holy Boss is out of a half-sister to three full stakes winners, including GSWs Mark One (Alphabet Soup) and Rookie Sensation (Unbridled’s Song).

“Holy Boss is one of those unique stallion prospects that has precocity, speed, soundness, depth of family and the physicality to match,” said the farm’s Louis Merryman. “Adding him to the roster to be available to Mid-Atlantic breeders was an easy choice.”

Record Handle for Spring/Summer Meet at Gulfstream:

Officials at Gulfstream Park announced that total handle for the spring/summer meeting at the Hallandale oval reached $603 million, an increase of $46.9 million over 2016 despite five fewer racing days. That total represented a 9% increase over the $556 million realized last year.

Daily average handle was $5.444 million, an increase of $639,678, or 12.5 percent, over 2016 when average handle was $4.801 million. Gulfstream raced 111 days this spring and summer compared to 116 in 2016.
This marks the third consecutive year total and daily handle has risen during Gulfstream’s spring and summer meets. In 2015, total handle was $490 million.

“It’s clear that Thoroughbred racing in Florida is being revitalized at Gulfstream Park by The Stronach Group as well as by the support of horsemen throughout North America and our great racing fans,” said P.J. Campo, Vice President of Racing for The Stronach Group. “We are now the third-most watched and wagered signal during the summer, and horsemen continue to see the benefits of racing year-round in South Florida. While we have done a lot these past three years, there’s still much to do and more to grow. We believe this is only the beginning. More horsemen have spoken to us about remaining in South Florida year-round or keeping a part of their stable at Gulfstream or our training center Palm Meadows. While we prepare for our Championship Meet beginning Dec. 2, we’re already looking at ways to improve our spring and summer race programs. We’re very excited about the future at Gulfstream Park.”

Tyler Gaffalione, the nation’s leading rider in total wins, swept the jockey title from Edgard Zayas and Emisael Jaramillo while Todd Pletcher and Victor Barboza won training titles.

LIBERTY PARK (c, 3, Tapit—Quiet Romance, by Bertrando) entered this off a fourth-place finish at Del Mar Aug. 25. The homebred was unhurried through the first half mile before swinging four-wide on the turn and into the clear. He was only a head off the lead into the straightaway, took command at the eighth pole, and ground out a 1 1/2-length victory. He is a full to Prospect Park, GSW, $539,770; and a half to Proposed (Benchmark), MGSW, $567,600 and Silent Sighs (Benchmark), GISW, $442,700. Quiet Romance has a yearling colt by Curlin. Belterra Park Hosts Best of Ohio Series:
Belterra Park near Cincinnati, Ohio, plays host to the $750,000 Best of Ohio series Saturday afternoon. Five races, each worth $150,000, are restricted to Ohio-breds, with horse of the year honors on the line. The Chris Hartman-trained millionaire Rivers Run Deep (Ready’s Image) will be favored to win the Best of Ohio Sprint for the fourth year in a row as he goes for career victory number 20. Loooch Racing’s Mo Dont No (Uncle Mo) is the reigning Ohio horse of the year and will look to take his batting average to .700 when in search of a second straight success in the Best of Ohio Endurance. Two-year-olds males and females will contest the Best of Ohio Juvenile and John W. Galbreath Memorial S., respectively, while the fifth event is the Best of Ohio Distaff.

GAMBLE'S GHOST (f, 4, Ghostzapper--Gambling Girl (SW, $209,073), by Secret Claim) scratched out of the H.B.P.A. S. at Presque Isle Downs Thursday to run in this spot. A MGSW at Woodbine with victories in the GII Mazarine S. as a juvenile and GII Selene S. last year, she entered off a win in the Belle Mahone S. over the local Tapeta track Sept. 2. Breaking as the heavy 4-5 favorite, Gamble’s Ghost sat at the back of the six-horse field in the early stages before making her move around the far turn. She went by leader Moms Choice (Kitten’s Joy), but had to hold off a bid from Ice Festival (Awesome Again), who rallied to her inside, and beat that foe by a neck. Gambling Girl has an unraced 2-year-old filly named Scat Gamble (Scat Daddy).

Spector Wins Rippey Award for Derby Pace Analysis:
Edited Press Release
Michael Spector, a freelance writer who grew up going to racetracks with his father, is the winner of the fourth annual Ron Rippey Award for Handicapping Media for his “A 2017 Kentucky Derby Pace Thesis” that appeared on RacingDudes.com ahead of this year’s Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands.

The native of Mechanicville, New York, will accept the award and $1,000 cash prize at the National Turf Writers and Broadcasters (NTWAB) Awards Dinner Thursday, Nov. 2, at the Brigantine restaurant and bar that overlooks both the Pacific Ocean and Del Mar Thoroughbred Club--site of this year’s Breeders’ Cup World Championships Nov. 3-4.

Spector describes himself as most interested in handicapping topics related to pace, fan education, and Thoroughbred aftercare.

“A lot of work went into this to explain a complex topic clearly and keep the reader interested and engaged,” said Jessie Oswald, the NTWAB secretary who served as a Rippey Award judge along with Team Valor’s Jeff Lowe. “This was written about the Kentucky Derby, but there was an education element to it that could apply to any race.”

An additional entry received an honorable mention from Oswald and Lowe: “Inside Horse Racing’s ‘Hunger Games’” by Alex Scordelis that appeared on RollingStone.com. The Rippey Award is open to any article, blog post, or video pertaining to a handicapping topic published (in print or online) in the past year.

“Handicapping horse races is both an art and a science, and the ability to produce compelling content about the topic is a specialty that deserves recognition,” Brisnet.com Director of Marketing Ed DeRosa said. “We not only want to acknowledge the good work done in this regard but also encourage people to continue to produce this type of content. Who better to honor than successful handicapper and newspaper columnist Ron Rippey? Ron’s enthusiasm for both playing the game and writing about it was infectious,” DeRosa said. “He wanted to beat you, but he wanted everyone to have fun, too, which is the essence of a good day at the races.”

Rippey won the 2006 NHC and was a 10-time qualifier for the prestigious event. He also contributed his handicapping thoughts to the Newark Star-Ledger and Brisnet.com. Rippey passed away in 2014.
