Neither an eight-month absence nor a 10-furlong trip could derail ‘TDN Rising Star’ Elate (Medaglia d’Oro) in Saturday’s GII Delaware H.

He’s a very good horse to come back from a tough campaign like that. The plan was to rest him after this and train him for The Everest. In all fairness to him, he deserves a rest.”

Aidan O’Brien’s relatively quiet week at Newmarket suddenly burst into life where it really mattered on Saturday as U.S. Navy Flag (War Front) made all to capture the festival’s feature G1 Darley July Cup. Positively ridden as usual by Ryan Moore, the 8-1 shot who had completed the rare Middle Park-Dewhurst double on the Rowley Mile here in the autumn but who was saying goodbye to a mile after his ninth in the G1 St James’s Palace S. at the Royal meeting, was given most to think about by Brando (GB) (Pivotal (GB)) inside the final furlong. Drawing on the inherent valour he possesses and stamina that had seen him finish second in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, he pulled away to win by 1 3/4 lengths as stablemate Fleet Review (War Front) grabbed third, a further 3/4 of a length away. The 5-2 favourite Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) looked a dubious stayer in seventh.

“What threw us was he was able to win a Dewhurst making the running and nearly got the trip in an Irish Guineas, so we had to go a mile [in the St James’s Palace] at Ascot,” Aidan O’Brien explained. “Ryan looked after him there, but he’d had tough races and we were afraid that they had left a mark. He’s a very good horse to come back from a tough campaign like that as a 3-year-old. The plan was to rest him after this and train him for The Everest. In all fairness to him, he deserves a rest.”

U.S. Navy Flag is targeting Australia’s The Everest after winning the July Cup | racingfotos.com

U.S. Navy Flag is in the mould of the stable’s previous 3-year-old winners of this contest, Stravinsky and Mozart (Ire) who were also coming back from a mile when victorious in 1999 and 2001. Like the latter, he was caught late on in the Irish Guineas when asked to make all over The Curragh’s demanding mile May 25 but connections had opted to go again for conclusive proof in the St James’s Palace on June 19. They got that as he faded out of the race, having set a formidable tempo, and in many ways this was just a belated return to his optimum a year on from his first demonstration of his inherent ability when second in the G2 July S. at this meeting. Also fifth when stumbling on the bend in a dramatic renewal of the G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouilains at ParisLongchamp on May 13, the bay is now firmly set to navigate the world’s top sprints.

Aidan O’Brien, who was also close-up fifth with the patiently-ridden Sioux Nation (Scat Daddy), was full of praise for the winner’s temperament as well as class. “It was unbelievable for him to do that, as to nearly make all at The Curragh you have to nearly be a nine- or ten-furlong horse, but he has a very strong mind and it was obviously courage that got him to where he was in the Irish Guineas,” he said. “He was a little bit on the bridle at Ascot, so we had to give him a chance here and he got into a lovely rhythm here.”

He is out of a Galileo mare and with any horse that has that Galileo in them, they flatten down on the ground when you go after them--their stride doesn't shorten and they keep going. He has loads of speed and is able to drag horses. Physically he’s not very high, but he has length and has a well-balanced blend of War Front and Galileo in his pedigree. He had a gruelling season at two and even ran on the dirt then, but came back smiling after dancing every dance. For a horse to take that much hardship and come back is rare, but he obviously has an unbelievable constitution.”

With regards to his tilt at the Oct. 13 A$13-million Randwick bonanza, he added, “The weight-for-age is probably a bit wrong in both hemispheres and this horse will probably be a bit wrong when he goes down there, so that’s something to look at in the future. Australia is a young, progressive racing country and the racing is getting very strong and competitive down there, so we’re really looking forward to it.”

Sioux Nation, who had the winner behind in last year’s G1 Phoenix S., is staying closer to home after his encouraging effort. “He’s very fast and is probably a five-furlong horse, but as he’s a big horse who has taken time to get fit the plan was to let him run here and then go back [to five] for the [G1] Nunthorpe [at York on Aug. 24]. We don’t think we’ll see the best of him until he goes back.”

Blue Point was unable to become the first to complete the King’s Stand S.-July Cup double since Never So Bold (Ire) in 1985 and trainer Charlie Appleby is looking at returning to five furlongs now. “William said he over-raced and was keen enough for the first two [furlongs],” he commented. “We were obviously disappointed, but we’ll drop him to five and go for the Nunthorpe and [the Sept. 16 G1] Flying Five at The Curragh and then head back to Ascot for the [Oct. 20 G1] British Champions Sprint. As William [Buick] just said, for whatever reason this horse turns up at [Royal] Ascot--that’s his gig and he seems to like it there.”

Brando was placing in this for the second consecutive year and seemed to be disadvantaged by having to race towards the stand’s rail with all the action away from him. Tracking the again-disappointing Australian challenger Redkirk Warrior (GB) (Notnowcato {GB}) only took him so far and jockey Tom Eaves was rueing his fortune. “He’s run a blinder and we’re very happy with him, but as it turns out we were probably drawn on the wrong side,” he said. “I thought I had the winner going to the furlong pole, but all credit to him as he pulled out more.”

U S Navy Flag’s dam Misty For Me (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was a leading performer for this stable, taking the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at two and the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Pretty Polly S. the following season. Her first foal Cover Song, a daughter of Fastnet Rock (Aus), took the GIII Autumn Miss S. before her attentions were turned towards War Front. Her first produce by that sire was in her mould. Roly Poly proved as tough, genuine and consistent a performer as she had been and her unflinching travails last season earned her victories in the G1 Sun Chariot S. and G1 Falmouth S. before U S Navy Flag came along to trump her. The unraced second dam Butterfly Cove produced another Marcel Boussac heroine in Misty For Me’s sister Ballydoyle (Ire), who was also third in the G1 1000 Guineas and another full-sibling of merit in the SW and MGSP Twirl (Ire). MIDSUMMER BLOOM

Aidan O’Brien had spoken at Newmarket on Saturday afternoon of his stable’s regime slipping into place and a few hours after U S Navy Flag (War Front) conquered there it was the re-energised Kew Gardens (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) who delivered a Group 1 double to Ballydoyle in ParisLongchamp’s Juddmonte Grand Prix de Paris. In some ways, this colt is the epitome of how dramatic a turnaround his trainer can generate in one of his charges as he was at best lethargic and at worst dismal on his first three starts this term which included a 27-length eclipse in the G1 Epsom Derby. At last there was the revival of the colt who had destroyed Dee Ex Bee (GB) (Farhh (GB)) in Newmarket’s Listed Zetland S. in October as he dominated the 14-furlong G2 Queen’s Vase at Royal Ascot June 20 and hold-up tactics were employed once again here as he was served up another relentless gallop by stablemate Nelson (Ire) (Frankel (GB)).

Ryan Moore covered the move of Neufbosc (Fr) (Mastercraftsman (Ire)) passing the two-furlong pole and under driving the 7-5 favourite began to edge ahead of that leading domestic hope and on to an ultimately authoritative 1 1/4-length success. The G1 Epsom Derby runner-up Dee Ex Bee was eventually three lengths away in third, after another workmanlike effort which may be down to the summer ground.

Breaking his maiden on soft ground at Killarney in August, Kew Gardens was second to Nelson in the G3 Golden Fleece S. on Irish Champions Day at Leopardstown and fourth to Saxon Warrior (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)) in the G2 Beresford S. at Naas in September prior to his tour de force in the Zetland over 10 furlongs at Newmarket the next month. His comeback effort when third in the nine-furlong Listed Feilden S. back at the latter venue on Apr. 17 suggested he was some way off a peak and while he was initially sluggish and eventually well beaten into second by Knight To Behold (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in the Listed Lingfield Derby Trial over an extended 11 furlongs on May 12, it transpired after that he had lost a shoe there and he received a favourable mention from Michael Tabor in pre-Derby discussions. His run in the blue riband was characterised by aggressive early tactics and it may be a combination of that and his dislike of undulating tracks that saw him trail in ninth, but when this stable’s runners go out of TV shot in that race it almost means nothing as he proved in the Queen’s Vase just days later.

With Dee Ex Bee lifeless on ground that was probably too quick and Nelson being sacrificed for the winner, this renewal may not be worth taking too seriously but Kew Gardens is a colt on the upgrade now and his trainer is looking to put a cat among the older pigeons in the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. in a fortnight. “We came here to see if he could go on to the King George,” O’Brien explained. “That was the idea. Royal Ascot first, then back over a mile and a half in the Grand Prix de Paris and then the King George according to this result. Ryan took his time and Kew Gardens is a beautiful colt who moves very well and needs good ground. That’s why Ascot could be for him. He’s easy to ride, he’s good in his head and he stayed 14 furlongs at Royal Ascot.”

Neufbosc’s trainer Pia Brandt is thinking of longer-term targets for the runner-up and said, “I am very proud of my colt. He gave everything today—I thought he could pull it off, but I can’t say I am disappointed because he tried his best. He will now be aimed at the [Sept. 16 G2] Prix Niel on his way to the [Oct. 7 G1] Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe.”

Kew Gardens has now joined his dam in the Group 1-winning club, with Chelsea Rose (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}) having proven more precocious in gaining her top-level success in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. From the family of the G2 Prix Eugene Adam winner and GI San Juan Capistrano Invitational H. runner-up River Warden (Riverman) and the GIII Hoist the Flag S. scorer Sweettuc (Spectacular Bid), her other two black-type performers include the speedy G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis winner and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest third Thawaany (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}). She also has a 2-year-old full-brother and yearling full-sister to the winner to come. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

ENCORE, MARMELO!
One of those older horses in love with the French way of things, Maranello (GB) (Duke of Marmalade (Ire)) notched up another win in a gallic race of prestige when surviving an inquiry after Saturday’s G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil at ParisLongchamp. Again paired with Christophe Soumillon as he had been when successful in last year’s G3 Prix de Barbeville and G2 Prix Kergorlay, the 9-10 favourite tracked the pace in second throughout before committing with 300 metres to race.

Jinking across the path of compatriot Algometer (GB) (Archipenko) soon after and causing the interference which prompted the officials’ investigation, the bay stayed on to score by 3/4 of a length and had sufficient dominion at the line to be allowed to keep it. The winner is yet another with G1 Melbourne Cup pretensions, having already been there when ninth in November. “He obviously loves racing in France, but he is still entire so we must try and upgrade his profile in England,” the winning syndicate’s Edward Goodwin said. “The Melbourne Cup definitely remains his target. Last year he ran twice in Australia and we won’t make the same mistake again, so he’ll just run straight there. He could run again beforehand, maybe in the [G2 Prix] Kergorlay [at Deauville on Aug. 19 or the Ebor [H. at York on Aug. 25].”

Maranello, whose Prix de Barbeville win came in track record time at Chantilly last April before finishing second to Talismanic (GB) (Medaglia d’Oro) in this race staged at Saint-Cloud 12 months ago, had been committed to a Melbourne Cup challenge after his defeat of the subsequent G2 Doncaster Cup hero Desert Skyline (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) in Deauville’s Kergorlay. On the face of it, his effort when dead-heating for sixth in the 12-furlong G1 Caulfield Cup looked an ideal warm-up for the “race that stops a nation”, but it proved counter-productive as he ran flat as the 6-1 joint-favourite in the main event. Second to Vazirabad (Fr) (Manduro {Ger}) in this track’s G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier on May 27 before beating the progressive Juddmonte stayer Weekender (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in York’s Listed Grand Cup over nearly 14 furlongs last time on June 16, Maranello will again figure as one of the main protagonists for the Australian showcase after proving his wellbeing in this race in which last year’s G1 Prix Royal-Oak winner Ice Breeze (GB) (Nayef) was all but pulled up.

DUBAWI II

Backed with conviction for Saturday’s G2 bet365 Superlative S. at Newmarket, Godolphin’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Quorto (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) gave his supporters few concerns as he emerged clear best in this important juvenile staging post. Showing dash to win a six-furlong novice stakes here on debut on June 22, the son of the dual Oaks-placed Volume (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}) was always going to be stronger over this extra furlong and was duly sent off the 5-4 favourite with punters uninterested in anything else. Racing enthusiastically in the hands of William Buick as Cape of Good Hope (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) led at a steadily-increasing tempo, the handsome bay initially followed Blown By Wind (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) away from that full-brother to Highland Reel (Ire) but his rider was forced to angle him over as his lead began to flounder. Phoenix Thoroughbred Limited’s Neverland Rock (GB) (No Nay Never) loomed to Ballydoyle’s representative against the stand’s rail with just over a furlong remaining, but Quorto was on both their cases and quickly had their measure. Despite not looking entirely comfortable on the fast ground, he stayed on to register a 3 3/4-length success from Cape of Good Hope and provide a passable impression of his sire who took off for the first time in this race in 2004. “He really impressed me there and has done everything right,” Buick said. “He’s very natural and it was lovely the way he did that today. He was green, but travelled so well and ideally I’d have liked to have something to follow for a bit longer. He has plenty of speed, so he doesn’t need to go any further for now and he’ll make into a lovely 3-year-old as well.”

Trainer Charlie Appleby has another strong team of juveniles and can dream of the 2019 Classics now. “We were confident coming here today that he had come forward and that the step up in trip was going to suit,” he said. “He has shown some gears there. William got off and said he has a great racing mind. He travels very sweetly in your hands and he picked up well when he hit the rising ground. He is an exciting horse, for sure. Being by Dubawi one would hope we will see a bit more improvement, with a bit of luck. I would say the [G1 Goffs Vincent O’Brien]
National S. [at The Curragh on Sept. 16] is the more likely target.
Seven looks to be his trip, but hopefully further down the line a mile will be for him.” Aidan O’Brien said of Cape of Good Hope, “He ran a lovely race and we couldn’t be happier. We are going gently with him and you can see that with every run he is getting a bit better. I think he is still a baby, so he is progressing.
Physically he is strong, but mentally he is still a baby. I don’t think a mile will be a problem when that time comes, but we’ve plenty of time for that and we don’t need to go there yet.”

Quorto, who was the first juvenile by his sire to win in 2018, is du Cadran who later produced the G2 Prix Hubert de Chaudenay and G3 Prix du Lys winner and G1 St Leger runner-up Vertical

BEATING THE TREND

Out of luck on his three previous visits to Ascot when contesting straight-track events, King Power Racing’s Beat the Bank (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}) enjoyed better fortunes on the round course on Saturday when swooping late to win the G2 Fred Cowley MBE Memorial Summer Mile. Compromised by traffic problems when under two-lengths sixth in the Royal meeting’s G1 Queen Anne S. on June 19, the bay who had also been 10th in both the G3 Jersey S. and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. here last term was settled behind the leading duo early. Benefiting from the strong pace, the 11-4 favourite took time to pick up in the straight and was momentarily denied a clear run again as Eminent (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) checked out to his left. When out of trouble, he was able to grind down the David O’Meara pair Lord Glitters (Fr) (Whipper) and Suedois (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) in the final yards and prevail by a neck and a nose. “I’m a huge fan of his—he’s not a very big horse and doesn’t work like an impressive one, but he has a huge heart and is special,” jockey Oisin Murphy said.

Finally dropping his Ascot voodoo was important with so many feature mile contests staged in Berkshire, but Andrew Balding was always convinced that there had been extenuating circumstances for his flops here. In between last year’s Royal meeting and Champions Day, he had won the Listed Sir Henry Cecil S., G3 Thoroughbred S. and G2 Joel S. by a cumulative margin of 11 lengths and had gone to post for the QEII as short as 4-1.

DYLAN’S CUP DREAM IS STILL ALIVE

Much water has flowed under the bridge since Dylan Mouth (Ire) (Dylan Thomas [Ire]) took the 2014 G1 Derby Italiano, but Earle Mack’s veteran proved on Saturday that he is still able to pull a rabbit out of the hat as he battled to success in York’s G3 John Smith’s Silver Cup. Whether this and other races in this staying category actually warrant their new upgrades by the European Pattern Committee is a matter for debate, but it at least provided a feast for the eyes with the first three fighting in a line throughout the dying yards. In the end, it was the 8-1 shot who gave marginally more than last year’s winner Dal Harraild (GB) (Champs Elysees (GB)) to score by a neck, with Scotland (Ger) (Monsun (Ger)) 3/4 of a length away in third. “He’s been a great horse for the family,” trainer Marco Botti said. “He won Group 1 races in Italy for my brother [Stefano] before he joined us. It was the owner’s dream last year to run him in the Melbourne Cup. He needed to win today to go up enough in the handicap and it will now be strongly considered.”

Dylan Mouth, whose exploits in his native Italy included successes in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano, G1 Premio Roma and G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club as well as the Derby, had been 25-1 when taking Haydock’s Old Newton Cup H. with real authority last July. With a tendency to be an in-and-out performer, the bay came here on the back of a second in the 12-furlong Listed Fred Archer S. at Newmarket on June 30 but punters were reluctant to put full faith in him. Brought from rear with perfect timing by Dane O’Neill to gather in Dal Harraild inside the last furlong, he was in determined mood this time as the race to Flemington gathers pace.

Pedigree Notes...

The first foal out of the G3 Premio Verziere winner Cottonmouth (Ire) (Noverre), Dylan Mouth is a half-brother to the listed-placed Per Un Dixir (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor (Ire)) and Henry Mouth (Ire) (Henrythenavigator), who like him was successful in the G2 Gran Premio d’Italia but only second in the G2 Derby Italiano. The dam’s 2-year-old filly by Lope de Vega (Ire) named Poetic Legacy (Ire) was bought by Ballyhane Stud for €70,000 at Goffs November, while her yearling son of Kodiak (GB) fetched €72,000 when purchased by Azienda Agricola Mariano Spa at the most recent edition of that auction. Louis in World Cup Warm-Up

Sunday’s action is low-key in Europe and Maisons-Laffitte starts early with France in the World Cup Final in the afternoon. Centre stage is occupied by the G2 Prix Eugene Adam, or Grand Prix de Maisons-Laffitte, where the G1 Prix du Jockey Club third Louis D’Or (Ire) (Intello {Ger}) bids to become the fourth group winner to emerge from that 10 1/2-furlong Chantilly Classic on June 3. Interestingly, Khalid Abdullah has shown a preference for this race which he has won five times and it is worth noting that the Juddmonte silks are carried this time by the June 21 G3 Hampton Court S. runner-up Crossed Baton (GB) (Dansili {GB}). In the G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis, France’s sprinting stalwarts Finsbury Square (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) and Signs of Blessing (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) race under penalties against some unexposed rivals including Godolphin’s G1 Prix Jacques le Marois runner-up Inns of Court (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

“We don’t see the step down to six furlongs as being a problem—he is a horse who likes a strong pace, so we hope that this will play to his strengths,” the operation’s Lisa-Jane Graffard said of the latter. “This is a completely different task, but he ran well over the straight mile at Deauville last year and this is a straight six furlongs. He is in good form and we hope that he can show the promise of his races last year.”

With Ed Harper

With a pair of black-type juveniles to his credit already this season, Showcasing (GB) sits third on the European 2-year-old sire list, and is very much building on the foundation laid by champion sprinter Quiet Reflection (GB) from his second crop. That standout mare was conceived at just £4,500 at Whitsbury Manor Stud, and in the six years since Showcasing’s fee has climbed to £35,000. Cont. p11
Fresh off wins by Showcasing’s Soldier’s Call (GB) in Royal Ascot’s Listed Windsor Castle S. and Advertise (GB) just last week in the G2 Arqana July S., TDN’s Alayna Cullen caught up with Whitsbury Manor’s Ed Harper to talk about Showcasing, and we have an excerpt from her video interview here.

AC: So far, 2018 has been an exciting year for Showcasing. Can you tell us a little bit about his successes on the track so far?

EH: 2018 was always going to be the year that people were really putting the spotlight on him, as it’s the first year the 2-year-olds have been bred from a slightly increased fee. The 2-year-olds this year were bred on a £15,000 fee. He's already had a couple of stakes winners; he had the Royal Ascot winner for Archie Watson and now he’s had the July S. winner. He's had a lot of very promising 2-year-olds run. He's had seven individual 2-year-old winners already this year, but a number of seconds first time out that I've been equally excited about. I couldn't be happier.

EH: He's had a host of group winners this year. I've never been one to sound too smug over the phone when you book a big one in, because I think they could come from all sorts of places. But he has covered quite a few Pivotal mares this year, which is encouraging with Advertise being out a Pivotal mare. He's also beginning to have a nice record with Dansili mares, I think. He got sent quite a few of them. So, it was a nice book across the board, and we sent I think 20 of our own group mares to him."

Solid and consistent throughout his career, Mr Lupton took the Weatherbys Hamilton £300,000 2-Y-O S. at Doncaster and was second in Redcar’s Listed Two-Year-Old Trophy in 2015, ran fifth in the following year’s G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and captured Newmarket’s competitive Longholes H. last May. This term, the best of his efforts came when runner-up in the Listed Cammidge Trophy back at Doncaster on Mar. 24 and when successful again in a big-field handicap over this course and distance on May 26 and he finally gained the black-type win he deserved here. Enjoying a 12th jockey change as Jack Garrity stepped in, the chestnut was held up in customary fashion and after inching ahead approaching the furlong marker dug deep to hold Alpha Delphini in the drive to the line.

Harmless, Anodin’s first stakes winner

"He’s a nice precocious horse who has been doing well," trainer Christophe Ferland said. “Last time at Toulouse, he had to give a lot of weight to the second but still managed to win and I was afraid he had had a hard race there, but he recovered well and was in top form today. I like the way he controlled the race when he got to the front and you will not see much of him now until September, when he will be back for the [Sept. 2 G3 Prix la] Rochette. If he is good enough, he’ll then go for the [G1] Grand Criterium.” The owners’ racing manager Pierre-Yves Bureaux added, “He is from the first crop of Anodin, so obviously it is a nice start for him. This is especially pleasing, as he is not a homebred and we bought him.”

Harmless is out of an unraced daughter of the listed-winning Snow Gretel, who is a half-sister to the G2 Royal Lodge S. winner and G1 2000 Guineas runner-up Snow Ridge (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}). Her dam is Snow Princess (Ire) (Ela-Mana-Mou {Ire}), who was runner-up in the 1997 G1 Prix Royal-Oak at this venue.

Labeled a ‘TDN Rising Star’ following her taking debut success over an inadequate mile at this circuit Apr. 19, Zarkamiya took a backward step next time when only fourth in a 10 1/2-furlong conditions event at Chantilly May 18 and reappeared with questions to answer. Anchored in mid-division early by Christophe Soumillon, the bay had to navigate her way around the errant long-time leader Aumale (GB) (Dansili {GB}) inside the final quarter mile as fellow ‘TDN Rising Star’ Enchanting Skies got first run on her. Finding some of her brilliant dam’s famous acceleration to close the gap, she managed to join that rival in the last 50 metres before asserting for a vital first black-type success.

Trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre is hoping she can still measure up to her outstanding pedigree. “She’s a sweet filly, but she has a tendency to worry about everything and her rider has to manage her stress,” he explained. “He did that very well today and she was able to show her true quality. Of course, you would expect there is improvement to come as she is very lightly-raced and so well-bred, so we’ll see how she comes out of this. The [Aug. 12 G3 Prix] Minerve at Deauville is a possibility.” The Aga Khan’s racing manager Georges Rimaud added, “This is obviously a nice stallion and mare combination. She was sore in her back after last time and she took a long while to come back. She also likes an even track like this.”

Zarkava, whose best days were reserved for this track, requires no introduction as the ground-breaking unbeaten heroine of the Arc and G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane. This is her sixth foal and second winner alongside the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud hero and G1 Prix du Jockey Club runner-up Zarakh (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}). Her 2-year-old colt by Invincible Spirit (Ire) is named Zarakhani (Fr), while she also has a yearling filly by Siyouni (Fr).

Zoustyle Wins Again; To Spell

Zoustyle (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}) earned ‘TDN Rising Star’ status with a five-length maiden score at Doomben on June 27, and the dark bay followed up on the Sunshine Coast on Saturday with another facile front-running score, stopping the clock in :58.66 for the five furlongs over soft going. Trainer Tony Gollan told Racing Queensland that the 2-year-old will sit out the spring before aiming at a Sydney autumn campaign.

“He ran a good time again, which is good and he was very impressive once again,” Gollan said. “The spring has probably come a bit too early for him this time so I’ll put him away for a decent spell. This is his first preparation so I’ll let him enjoy it and he can come back matured and a lot stronger. He’s a good horse in the making and deserves to be looked after.”

“He’ll come back after a break and have one or two runs and possibly in a stakes before we look at the Sydney autumn with him.”

Zoustyle is one of a handful of standouts for the dominant leading first-season sire by prizemoney, Zoustar, who stands at Widden Stud and will shuttle for the first time to Tweenhills Stud in Britain next year.

ELATE OUTCLASSES ‘EM IN DEL ‘CAP

She’s still got some work to do if she’s going to catch up with the accomplishments of former fellow Bill Mott trainee and two-time Delaware H. heroine Royal Delta (Empire Maker), but Claiborne Farm and Adele Dilschneider’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Elate (Medaglia d’Oro) kicked off her 4-year-old season with her own emphatic score at the Wilmington oval Saturday. Off at even-money in this first running of Delaware’s signature race since it lost Grade I status, last year’s GI Alabama S. and GI Beldame Invitational S. romper was making her first afternoon appearance since finishing fourth as the favorite in the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff at Del Mar in November.

Void of early speed behind a tempo that was very slow for the opening half-mile, the dark bay was clicked up by rider Jose Ortiz with about five furlongs to race and was in a share of the lead as they entered the turn. Held together as long as possible, Elate was allowed to open up at the top of the lane and proved not for catching from there as she cruised away by 3 1/4 lengths. Sneaky Betty (Mineshaft) plugged away for second at better than 85-1 ahead of Teresa Z (Smart Strike) in third.

“The horse outside of me [Nikki My Darling {Creative Cause}], I thought she had speed, but she stumbled out of there so I didn’t know what to do—whether to go or take back,” said Ortiz. “But then I saw her rushing up there so I kind of took back. I had Johnny [Velazquez on Unbridled Mo {Uncle Mo}], the other horse to beat, in front of me; and Mario [Gutierrez on Mopotism {Uncle Mo}] in front of me, so I was looking at them. On the backside, I thought they were going really slow, so I decided to make a move.”

‘RISING STAR’ RELISHES TWO TURNS

‘TDN Rising Star’ Once On Whiskey (Bodemeister) was let go at odds of 7-1 trying a route of ground for the first time in Saturday’s GIII Los Alamitos Derby in Orange County, but belied his inexperience at two turns to peg back Draft Pick (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the shadow of the wire. Exiting an apparently excuse-free third in a seven-furlong Churchill allowance test May 5, the $150,000 Keeneland September purchase raced at the back of the Los Al Derby field alongside Blended Citizen (Proud Citizen) as favored stablemate Ax Man (Misremembered) set the pace from Draft Pick in the middle and a three-wide King Cause (Creative Cause). Ax Man was never given a breather and Draft Pick put him to the sword with three-eighths of a mile to travel, having won that battle. Once On Whiskey picked up the slack for his fading stablemate, and soon emerged as the fresh challenge entering the final furlong. Draft Pick kept plugging away as he was looking for the line, but Flavien Prat shoved Once On Whiskey home narrowly in front.

Ortiz continued, “She’s a really big filly, so I wanted her to find her stride on the backside before we hit the far turn. So, that’s what I did, and when I asked her to go she responded really well. All the credit to Bill Mott to have her ready and a great job by the whole staff.”

A head-turning debut winner at Aqueduct in November of her juvenile season, Elate would fail to return to the winner’s circle in any of her next four outings, and as the favorite each time. The light seemed to come on when she aired by 5 1/2 lengths in this venue’s Light Hearted S. last June, and she went straight to Saratoga’s GI Coaching Club American Oaks from there, coming up a head short of eventual champion Abel Tasman (Quality Road) in a roughly run race. She relished this 10-furlong distance when easily defeating subsequent GI Cotillion S. winner It Tiz Well (Arch) and this year’s GI La Troienne S. heroine Salty (Quality Road) in the Alabama in August, and crushed an admittedly soft group of older foes in the Beldame at Belmont Sept. 10.

Once On Whiskey

Turning in just an even effort at the Breeders’ Cup, she’d been prepping for this up at Saratoga’s Oklahoma Training Track with a tab that included a stamina-building seven-furlong drill in 1:26 2/5 two works back June 30.

Pedigree Notes:
Elate is the second Medaglia d’Oro-sired 4-year-old filly in as many years to take the Delaware H.--champion Songbird grabbed last year’s renewal in what would be her final career victory. She hails from an extremely productive Claiborne family riddled with noteworthy individuals, including Grade I winners Eastern Echo and Sea Hero and standout sires and full brothers Congrats and Flatter. Her unraced 2-year-old full-brother Haunt (Ghostzapper) breezed three panels in :37.73 (12/27) at the Oklahoma Saturday morning. She has a yearling half-brother by Blame, but her speedy, stakes-winning dam failed to produce a live foal after being bred back to Medaglia d’Oro last year.

Axelrod broke his maiden for a $50,000 tag at Del Mar last August, but he had steadily improved and climbed the class ladder from there. That ascent culminated in a 12-1 upset in this lucrative event under the Indiana Grand lights Saturday night. Fourth off his graduation score in the Oak Tree Juvenile at Pleasanton in September, Axelrod his the bench after a starter/optional claimer at Santa Anita the following month. He resurfaced down the hill there Apr. 6, finishing a very close third before checking in fourth–again not far from a victory–under identical conditions May 17. Cont. p6

The Florida-bred returned to dirt and a route in the GII Affirmed S. June 10, and outran his 23-1 odds to be second behind Saturday’s GII Los Alamitos Derby runner-up Draft Pick.

Squeezed out at the start and back to third last while saving all the ground early, Axelrod sat in a joint last down the backside as Trigger Warning showed the way. The pacesetter threatened to run away from them as he opened up through six furlongs in 1:11.52, but Axelrod made a big move to slingshot past foes heading for home. He sliced through a seam inside of favored King Zachary (Curlin) at the head of the stretch, and kicked on resolutely to make it just in time.

“I thought he broke sharp. It looked like there was plenty of pace up in front of him,” said winning trainer Mike McCarthy, who had stayed back home in California to attend his 7-year-old daughter’s swim meet. “I saw the opening quarter in :23 2/5. Florent [Geroux] seemed to be fairly content with his position. Turning up the backside, he was able to save some ground. Coming to the three-eighths pole, it didn’t look like anyone was really running away from him. He was able to maintain his position. Obviously, when Florent wheeled him outside around the turn and switched leads and kind of started picking off horses at the quarter pole, I thought he was liable to go ahead and get a check. And then coming to the eighth pole, it looked to me like he was able to find that extra gear and get his nose down at the wire—and I couldn’t be happier. I’m very happy for the horse, very happy for my whole team and very thankful that Florent rode him with some confidence, and that made all the difference for us.”

King Zachary, a seemingly breakout winner of the GIII Matt Winn S. last out, seemed to be run off his feet early and couldn’t muster enough late.

“He broke good,” said rider Robby Albarado. “I shoved on him to get him some position there. It seemed like it was conducive to speed all day. I didn’t think they went overly quick, but I caught myself kind of chasing a little bit up the backside just trying to keep him in the race. He felt great physically. By all means, I didn’t lose any confidence. I do believe he’s a top horse. I’m going to stick with that and hope they continue on the plan to go after the big fish with him, because he’s a big horse. I think when you see him go a mile and an eighth, a mile and a quarter, you’ll see him start to spread himself out a little bit.”

Pedigree Notes:

Axelrod was the third U.S. graded winner Saturday by Medaglia d’Oro or a son of Medaglia d’Oro, following a win by Elate (Medaglia d’Oro) in the GII Delaware H. earlier in the day and a convincing tally by Talk Veue to Me (Violence) in the GII Indiana Oaks one race earlier. Figarella’s Queen (Medaglia d’Oro) was second in the Oaks. Axelrod has a Kantharos half-brother who was a $65,000 OBS Winter Mixed short yearling earlier this year and a foal half-sister by Overanalyze.

Golden Brown had only been on the grass once before--when second in the Dan Horn S. for New Jersey-breds last out June 17--but that didn’t stop him from kicking away and pulling off the double-digit upset here. A third-out graduate sprinting in the Parx slop Feb. 24, he was fourth first off the bench back in state-bred company May 5 and wheeled back in three weeks to get a narrow win in a similar restricted spot. He was 16-1 in the Dan Horn, and sported just two very slow breezes in the interim.

Tugging his way up to sit second in the two path into the first turn, Golden Brown dropped out a bit down the backside and was fifth in between foes as they spun for home. Shifted outside for clear sailing, he leveled off powerfully once his feet were completely under him and kicked away decisively.

It was a trouble-filled stretch run for some of the Kent also-rans–namely favored Untamed Domain (Animal Kingdom), who bounced off of Hot Springs and into the rail. In a somewhat surprising decision, the stewards ruled that pacesetting Archaggelos (Temple City) had caused the chain reaction, and he was taken down and put behind Untamed Domain.

“His last race--even though it was in Jersey-bred company--came against an older horse and Jersey-bred champion [in GSW Irish Strait (English Channel)],” noted winning conditioner Pat McBurney when asked of the decision to try this tougher spot with Golden Brown. “We figured if we could repeat that race, we might get a piece of it. It worked out today.”

Pedigree Notes:

Golden Brown is the eighth graded or group winner for late stallion Offlee Wild. His hard-knocking dam was a course record setter sprinting on the Meadowlands turf, and is a half to French GSW Arcadia’s Angle (Aldebaran). Suzee Sunrise’s Flatter colt sold for $90,000 as a 2017 Keeneland November weanling, and she produced a Tapizar filly Mar. 24.

Second in two tough spots in her last two outings, ‘TDN Rising Star’ Talk Veuve to Me made the grade Saturday night as an overwhelming favorite. Away without incident, the dark bay chased in second under a firm hold through splits of :23.17 and :46.66. She took over with total ease midway on the bend, and rider Julien Leparoux hadn’t moved a muscle as they straightened. Figarella’s Queen looked for a brief second like she might make the favorite work for it, but Talk Veuve to Me hit another gear when called upon and she cruised away to score as she pleased while wrapped up late.

“I’ve been watching her races--she’s got that tactical speed,” said Julien Leparoux, who was partnering with Talk Veuve to Me for the first time. “[Molecules] wanted to be on the lead, but [Talk Veuve to Me] relaxed beautifully off of [that one]. She’s push button. On the second turn, I just let her go on her own. I didn’t really ask her. She went to the lead and relaxed again and went on in the straight again. She’s a very nice filly.”

Second behind Harbor Lights (Shackleford) in her Ellis unveiling some 11 months ago, Talk Veuve to Me resurfaced at Fair Grounds Mar. 25 to romp by 11 1/4 lengths ahead of two next-out graduates including now two-for-three stablemate Abounding Joy (Quality Road). Team Valor International bought in off of that race, and the investment looked a promising one when the she completed the exacta in the GII Eight Belles S. May 4. She was second last time in the GI Acorn S. June 9 behind GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Monomoy Girl (Tapizar), and was testing two turns for the first time here.

“She showed what I was expecting her to show,” said trainer and co-owner Brisset. “It was maybe a little quicker than what I was thinking on paper. But she took the lead pretty easy. You could see that she was looking around a lot, just went to the wire cruising.”

He continued, “She’s very unlucky being born in one of the best years--how many good fillies do we have this year, between Monomoy Girl, Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute) and Red Ruby (Tiznow) and I’m sure I’ve left out some. It’s a very, very strong year for 3-year-old fillies. I don’t know where everybody wants to go. She may have to face them and turn the table on some to be in the top three. But we are what we are.”

Pedigree Notes:
Talk Veuve to Me is the seventh stakes winner and second graded winner for her second-crop sire (by Medaglia d’Oro). Her dam, a full-sister to SW and MGSP Winning Point, sold for $40,000 at the 2014 Keeneland November sale with the winner in utero. She sold a year later to Korea Bloodstock for just $1500 in foal to Shackleford.

GUNNEVERA GEARING UP FOR RETURN

MGSW Gunnevera (Dialed In) fired a five-furlong bullet in 1:00 flat (1/16) at Gulfstream Park West Saturday morning as he prepares for a first start since exiting an eighth-place finish in the Mar. 31 GI Dubai World Cup with a hoof injury. “The horse worked very well,” trainer Antonio Sano said. “He went :23, :36, :48 1/5, and five furlongs in a minute flat.” The near $3-million earner had been freshened in Ocala for two months before returning to Sano’s stable. Saturday’s spin was his fourth since getting back into serious training. Gunnevera is expected to use a race at Gulfstream some time next month as a springboard to the Sept. 1 GI Woodward S. at Saratoga. A graded winner at two and three, Gunnevera was second in last year’s GI Travers S. and third in the lucrative GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational S. this January. “I’ve never had a horse like him before in my life,” said Sano. “I don’t have the words to say how great Gunnevera has been for me and my family. I am very proud of what he has accomplished. To run in the Kentucky Derby, the Breeders’ Cup, the Pegasus and then Dubai, it’s been amazing.”

NEW INDUCTEES TO "HOOFPRINTS WALK OF FAME"

The Saratoga 150 Committee announced the two newest inductees to the Hoofprints Walk of Fame at Saratoga Race Course: champion Checkmate (Glen Athol--Full Cry, by Vandal) and 1979 GI Travers S. winner General Assembly (Secretariat--Exclusive Dancer, by Native Dancer). Horses are considered for the Hoofprints Walk of Fame based on their accomplishments in major stakes races at Saratoga Race Course throughout its 150-year history. The selection committee considers additional horses for the Walk of Fame on an annual basis. The selection committee consists of National Museum of Racing Librarian Allan Carter, racing historian and author Ed Bowen, and turf columnist Michael Veitch.

"We are thrilled to welcome these champion Thoroughbreds to the outstanding class of horses who make up the Hoofprints Walk of Fame at Saratoga Race Course," said Saratoga 150 Honorary Chair John Hendrickson, who conceptualized the project in conjunction with the Saratoga 150 committee. "These equine athletes competed at their highest level and have become part of the rich history of Saratoga Race Course. It’s a privilege to recognize the real stars of this sport at the Hoofprints Walk of Fame where they are permanently enshrined."

Modeled after the Hollywood Walk of Fame, the Hoofprints Walk of Fame was installed outside the clubhouse gates to Saratoga Race Course in 2013 in conjunction with the sesquicentennial celebration of the first organized race meeting in Saratoga Springs.

Owned by James T. Williams, Checkmate was trained by James Rowe and ridden by Edward Feakes and Isaac Murphy. A multiple stakes winner in 1880, he won seven of his eight races at Saratoga--including four stakes--the following season.

A homebred for Bertram and Diana Firestone, General Assembly was trained by LeRoy Jolley and ridden by Darrel McHargue and Jacinto Vasquez. His memorable wins include the GI Hopeful S. and GII Saratoga Special S. in 1978; and in 1979, he took the GII Gotham S. and GII Vosburgh S. before taking the Travers in course record time, a record that stood until 2016. He also finished runner up to Spectacular Bid in the 1979 GI Kentucky Derby. The additions of Checkmate and General Assembly bring the total number of inductees to 40. Among the notable Thoroughbreds inducted to the Walk of Fame include Affirmed, Man O’ War, Native Dancer and Secretariat.

MRC MAKING AFTERCARE FUNDS AVAILABLE

The Minnesota Racing Commission is soliciting 501 (c) (3) non-profit racehorse aftercare organizations in operation for a minimum of one year to be considered for funding. The funds come from legislation drafted in 2015 that channels fines collected via rulings issued at Canterbury Park and Running Aces to be used towards racehorse adoption, retirement and repurposing.

The application can be downloaded here. Up to $40,000 will be distributed to organizations that care for and repurpose Standardbreds, Quarter horses and/or Thoroughbred racehorses. The application for racehorse aftercare funds includes a questionnaire, limited financial reporting information, and documentation of 501(c) (3) status. Organizations must submit applications by Aug. 15, 2018 to be considered for funding. For more information visit: https://www.mrc.state.mn.us/.

Assuming his customary position at the head of affairs early, Voodoo Song recorded his seventh lifetime tally in Saturday’s Forbidden Apple S. Easily assuming the lead after fellow speedster Blind Ambition (Tapit) stumbled significantly at the start, Voodoo Song carved out honest splits as the Todd Pletcher runner tried to overcome his unfortunate beginning. In the meantime, favored GSW Disco Partner (Disco Rico) was comfortably back in third, about three lengths behind the frontrunners. Voodoo Song shook clear of the tiring Blind Ambition turning for home while Disco Partner loomed but failed to close on the outside in the stretch as the Chad Brown pair of Projected and Offering Plan closed steadily from the far outside. In the late stages, Voodoo Song kept up the tempo and had enough left in reserve to fend off Projected and Offering Plan. Disco Partner was fifth and Blind Ambition checked home sixth.

“The plan was to let him do what he wanted to do,” said winning rider Manny Franco. “He went to the lead. I tried to slow him down a little bit and he did, it worked out. The last time, he went a little [fast], I figured this time if I went around :46 [seconds], that was my goal. He is game all the time. He always keeps trying. He gave me all he had.”

Added winning trainer Linda Rice, “He was coming into this race really well and I wanted to run him. On paper there were three speeds in the race and you would think it was going to set up for a closer like Disco Partner, but fortunately it worked out. He was able to get on the lead and settle. As a 4-year-old he's really matured. Last year, running from the dirt and switching to turf he was really rank and running at two-turns has really benefitted him. Going forward, we'll certainly take the [GI] Fourstardave [Aug. 11] into consideration. Also the West Point [S. Aug. 24]."

Mystic Chant, a half-sister to stakes winner and graded-placed Mystic Soul (Bahri), is represented by a pair of colts, juvenile Worth a Shot (English Channel) and a yearling by Japan. The stakes-winning mare foaled a filly by Flatter early this season.

Pinch Hit, dropped in for a $40,000 tag early in her 3-year-old season, concluded 2017 with a quartet of victories, including a narrow score in the seven-furlong Dogwood S. at Churchill Downs last September. Fourth in her seasonal reappearance in Churchill’s GIII Winning Colors S. at six furlongs May 26, she was a narrowly beaten second going a mile in an $80,000 optional claimer at the Louisville oval June 23. Solidly-backed here, she was a well-placed third behind Awestruck through a pedestrian opening quarter in :25.12. Pinch Hit, who kept the leader in her cross hairs as she doled out a half in :49.26, was asked for more in the stretch, battled with her game foe all the way home, inching clear late to record a narrow win.

The winner’s dam, Change Up, responsible for the 3-year-old filly Good Move (Broken Vow), has an unraced juvenile colt by Sky Mesa and a yearling colt by Country Day. She foaled a filly by Majesticperfection this term. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Barry K. Schwartz homebred La Fuerza built on a 7 3/4-length debut success over 5 1/2 furlongs of the Belmont main track June 22 with another facile victory in Saturday’s state-bred restricted Rockville Center S. in Elmont. Favored at 45 cents on the dollar to take this next step, La Fuerza was off far better than he was in his bow and took up a spot from fourth behind a trio of front-runners. Idling a bit on the turn, he felt a crack of Manny Franco’s whip nearing the stretch, switched out and around first-time starter Red Zinger (Will Take Charge) at the top of the lane and kicked it in from the eighth pole to score by a handy four lengths. Bustin Mach Four (Bustin Stones) outfinished Red Zinger for second. The 46th black-type winner for his Claiborne-based sire, La Fuerza is out of a half-sister to SW & GISP Pinch Pie (Victory Gallop) and hails from the family of GI Breeders’ Cup Classic hero Volponi (Cryptoclearance). La Fuerza is kin to a colt foal of this year by Mizzen Mast.

"I thought he broke well,” said Byron Hughes, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. “There was a little more speed in the race than we expected. They kind of went ahead of him and he was down there on the inside on the rail. Manny did a good job being patient and when the outside opened up, he veered him there and he kicked on in the stretch. It was a good race for him. Coming into today, we were hoping he would break a little better. He broke a little slow and got pinched his first start and it turned out to be okay. In similar fashion, here he ended up getting behind horses but handled taking the dirt well and was able to get up." Cont. p3

Heavily favored Armistice Day closed for second. “He’s been a phenomenal baby to train, just the easiest horse you ever wanted to have in your stable,” said conditioner Teresa Connelly, who celebrated her first Woodbine win. “Pablo [Morales] loves him as much as I do so I was just ecstatic that he would come ride him and I didn’t even expect to be on the lead.” The winner has a yearling half-brother by Mark Valeski. Majestic Dunhill graduated at third asking on the Saratoga lawn Aug. 23 and checked in third behind talented NY-bred Therapist (Freud) in the Laurel Futurity S. Sept. 16. Fading to 10th in the Juvenile Turf Sprint at Del Mar Nov. 4, he returned to winning ways in a course-and-distance allowance June 23. Favored to earn his black-type badge here, the dark bay raced in a ground-saving fourth early and kicked it into another gear rounding the far turn to sit on the leader’s heels. He split horses in the lane and charged clear to score. “I was concerned coming back after just three weeks,” said trainer George Weaver. “He ran a pretty hard race off the bench.”

Weaver continued, “I really don’t like coming back like that in three weeks, but when you sort out where you want to go for the summer and fall this fit the schedule and was showing h was ready. Prince of Hempt quietly went unbeaten in 2017, with two scores over an extended mile at Parx before cutting back to seven-eighths to post a mild 5-1 upset in Laurel’s City of Light S. in November. He found some trouble when a comebacking fourth-two-turning in Parx allowance company June 30, but had his supporters in his return to stakes competition. Trapped out four deep into the first turn, Prince of Hempt settled in the three path on the backstretch run and made a bold bid to lead with a quarter mile to travel. Monongahela came with a rush from the tail of the field and shot right past Prince of Hempt at the three-sixteens, but he could not sustain the run and Prince of Hempt fought back gamely underneath him for the victory. A half-brother to a yearling Revolutionary filly, the winner is also kin to a filly of this year by Momba (Maria’s Mon). EPPING FOREST (f, 4, Exchange Rate--Andraste, by Pulpit) was on the board in five of seven starts last term, including a win over this course and trip Oct. 14. Shelved for the remainder of the year, she returned with a fifth in a $62,500 optional claimer at Aqueduct Apr. 6, but rebounded to score while returning under similar conditions to Belmont June 3. Sent off the 9-5 slight second choice here, Epping Forest stalked the early pace in fourth behind favorite Malibu Stacy (Tizway) through early splits of :21.68 and :44 flat. Swung wide for the stretch drive, the Waterville Lake homebred overtook the leader in the final strides and was 1 1/2-lengths clear at the wire. Lifetime Record: 11-6-1-1, $305,500. WICKED STORM (f, 3, Stormy Atlantic--Wicked Delight, by Carson City) completed the trifecta in her first two attempts in restricted company at Santa Anita Jan. 11 and Feb. 4, respectively. Subsequently shelved, she wired the field in her return over the Golden Gate synthetic June 9 and was given a 9-2 chance in this return to the dirt. Stumbling at the start, she quickly got her hooves beneath her, avoiding trouble as her outside neighbor veered in at the break, and moved up to stalk from second through swift opening fractions of :21.89 and :45.07. Overtaking the leader in early stretch, the chestnut easily extended clear under a hand ride from Rafael Bejarano to win as she pleased by four lengths. Hot Autumn (Tiz Wonderful) completed the exacta. The winner’s dam produced a Mineshaft filly in 2016 and a colt named Beer Thirst (Stay Thirsty) in 2017. Wicked Storm hails from the family of HOTY & Ch. Older Horse Mineshaft (A.P. Indy). Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-2, $55,560. TERM OF ART (c, 4, Tiznow--Miles of Style, by Storm Cat), winner of the GIII Cecil B. DeMille S. at Del Mar in 2016, finished third in a pair of Santa Anita stakes—the GI San Felipe S. and GII Affirmed S.—last season before concluding an otherwise modest campaign with a lackluster ninth in the GI Pennsylvania Derby at Parx in September. Off for the remainder of the season, the $220,000 KEEESEP yearling was given a 5-2 chance for his 2018 debut. Settled in a stalking position behind modest early splits, the powerful bay took aim three wide approaching the quarter pole, drove to the front midstretch and drew clear en route to a 1 3/4-length score over favored South Beach (Tapit). Term of Art’s dam Miles of Style, who is out of dual Grade I winner Tomisue’s Delight (A.P. Indy), is a half-sister to Grade I scorer Mr. Sidney (Storm Cat). The 11-year-old mare, who has a 3-year-old colt by Kitten’s Joy and yearling colt by Empire Maker, was bred to Union Rags this term. This represents the family of HOTY & Ch. AND SO IT GOES — Kalarouna

4th-Woodbine, C$66,480, Msw, 7-14, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:33.66, fm.

AND SO IT GOES (f, 3, Blame—Kalarouna [Ire], by Selkirk) made decent late headway to finish third in a swifly run 6 1/2-furlong maiden June 9 and took some action from 8-1 into 9-2 for this stretch out to the one-turn mile. Pinched back at the break and giving her rivals a decent head start, And So It Goes settled in the latter third of the field early on, looked to be held up for a run on the turn and was forced to shift widest into the lane.

Gaining with every stride into the final eighth of a mile, she needed every last yard to peg back Ambitious Moon (Malibu Moon) to win by a nose. Out of a half to European and U.S. champion Kalanisi (Ire) (Doyoun [Ire]), GSW & MG1SP Kalaman (Ire) (Desert Prince [Ire]) and SW & GSP Kaloura (Ire) (Sinndar [Ire]), And So It Goes was RNA'd for $45,000 at KEESEP in 2016 and was scooped up for $2,500 as a horse of racing age earlier this year at KEEJAN. Kalarouna is the dam of U.S.-bred Hard Spun winner for freshman sire (by Indian Charlie).

Peace Control kicked clear to win by 4 1/4 lengths and become the second stretch, the bay swept past the leader in the final furlong and opening quarter in :22.33. Ranging up two wide at the top of the rail in mid-pack early as the pacesetter zipped through an 1:41.76, fm.

GINS AND TINS (g, 2, Scat Daddy—High Walden {SW & GSP-US, GSP-Eng, $250,620}, by El Gran Senor), a $250,000 KEESEP yearling, was slightly disappointing in two runs at Belmont to date, finishing a debut fourth May 25 before dropping one spot June 17. Even money against decidedly easier rivals here, Gins and Tins pressed through at the fence to lead hooking up with the course proper, galloped them along at a good pace, kicked further in front off the final corner and proved four lengths too strong. Fellow Belmont shipper Strike Play (Haynesfield) was second best. Gins and Tins is out of a half-sister to champion and 1997 G1 Epsom Oaks winner Reams of Verse (Nureyev) and Group/Grade I winner and multiple champion Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream [GB]), who provided the late Sir Henry Cecil with his lone Breeders’ Cup winner in the 2009 GI Filly & Mare Turf at Santa Anita. PASSIVE (f, 2, Violence—Ennis Lady, by Speightstown) gave her sire a second Canadian-bred debut winner following on the success of the British Columbia-bred filly Denver Tesoro Saturday in Japan. Fastest into stride from gate two, the homebred cut out an easy pace, expanded on her lead on the second turn and jogged home to score by 4 3/4 lengths as the 13-10 chalk. The winner is out of a full-sister to GSW Despite the Odds and a half to Sovereign Award-winning turf female GSW & GISP Chopinina (Lear Fan) and SW & GSP Karra Kul (Strawberry Road {Aus}). The further female family includes Canadian Horse of the Year Benburb (Dr. Carter). Ennis Lady, bought for $40,000 carrying this foal in utero at KEENOV in 2015, produced fillies by Highfield stallion Exhi (Maria’s Mon) in each of the last two years. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $8,436. Click for the Equibase.com chart.
