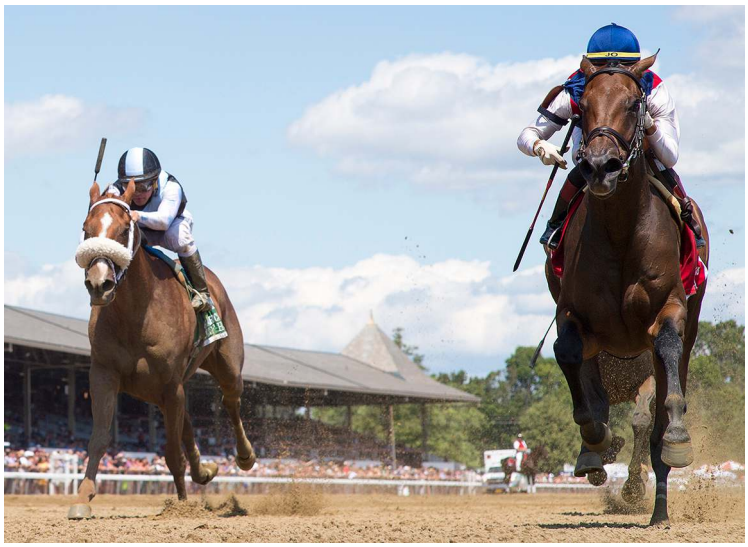
GUARANA TAKES THEM ALL THE WAY IN CCA OAKS



Guarana (right) holds off Point of Honor | Sarah Andrew

Exhibiting sheer brilliance in her first two outings, 'TDN Rising Star' Guarana was more workmanlike Sunday at Saratoga, but got the job done in her two-turn debut with a wire-to-wire success in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks.

Unveiled as a 4-5 favorite Apr. 19 in the Keeneland slop, the Three Chimneys Farm homebred blew her competition away to the tune of a 14 3/4-length romp, easily good enough for 'Rising Star' honors. Her rider, Jose Ortiz, made the difficult decision to give up the mount on GI Kentucky Oaks winner Serengeti Empress (Alternation) to ride Guarana in the GI Acorn S., and she rewarded him, tracking a supersonic pace and drawing off in the stretch to a dazzling six-length triumph.

Recording four powerful breezes in the interim, capped by a local half-mile move in :48 3/5 (36/127) July 13, the bay was pounded down to 1-4 favoritism in the CCA, pushed back one day due to Saturday's heat cancellation, and broke on top from her rail draw. Hugging the rail going into the clubhouse turn as the other four fillies drifted a bit wide, Guarana held a measured half-length advantage over Champagne Anyone (Street Sense) through soft fractions of :24.27 and :49.49. Nudged along a bit as the quintet bunched up through three-quarters in 1:13.58, the big favorite shook loose once set down at the top of the lane. Point of Honor, last behind the slow pace, swung to the center of the track to make her run and started to get to the leader inside the eighth pole. Cont. p3

OP/ED: THE STRESS, ANXIETY AND CRAZINESS OF HASKELL 2019: WELCOME TO RACING'S NEW NORMAL

by Bill Finley

It may or may not have been the hottest Haskell Day ever, but it certainly wasn't the first time the race had been run amid blistering heat. That's what happens when you race horses in late July or early August.

It was a pretty rough day when Forty Niner (Mr. Prospector) won the 1988 GI Haskell S. by a nose over Seeking the Gold (Mr. Prospector). According to the charts, it was 94 degrees when the first race began and it likely got hotter as the day went on.

(On Saturday, it was 96 degrees when the first race went off).

But the two degrees in temperature is not what separates those two days. Cont. p4

GOLDEN AWARD SHINES IN THE SHUVEE 10

Guarana, despite drifting out briefly from a lefty whip, kept to her task, however, and held sway late from the game Point of Honor by a length. An owner's objection was lodged into Guarana's drifting on behalf of the runner-up, but it was quickly dismissed.

"She handled a mile and an eighth well," said winning trainer Chad Brown. "I thought she got a really good ride from Jose. Nice, comfortable fractions and had enough to get to the wire. The runner-up ran terrific as well. It was a good horse race. I think she got a little lonely out there towards the wire, but like Jose indicated to me, she was starting to get a little tired. She did overreact to the stick a little bit. It caused her to briefly come out, but she was well clear. I'll talk to [Three Chimneys Chairman] Mr. [Goncalo] Torrealba and his team about what's next."

Pedigree Notes:

Guarana is one of 11 Grade I winners for 2004 Horse of the Year Ghostzapper, eight of which are fillies or mares. Her dam, a winner once in seven starts for Phipps Stable and Shug McGaughey, is also responsible for Magic Dance (More Than Ready), who captured the Debutante S. June 29 at Churchill, and a yearling colt by Pioneerof the Nile. Second dam Pleasant Home pulled a 30-1 upset by a remarkable 9 1/2 lengths in the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. That mare is also a full-sister to MGSW/MGISP Country Hideaway, as well as Matlacha Pass, producer of MGISWs Point of Entry (Dynaformer) and Pine Island (Arch). Third dam Our Country Place was an unraced half-sister to champion Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}), who captured the CCA Oaks in 1993 as one of eight career Grade I victories.

Thirty-one years ago, that it was a very hot day was not an issue. I read as many stories as I could find on the race and not one even mentioned the weather. When the 2019 Haskell was completed, some two hours and 42 minutes after its original post time, Monmouth had somehow navigated through a day that neared crisis proportions, all because it was a hot day.

The first race was delayed by 38 minutes, six races were cancelled and the racetrack sat empty for about four hours before racing continued amid hopes that it would cool down a couple of degrees. When racing resumed a little after 6 p.m., only the stakes races that were left on the card were held. All of this was preceded by a phone call from New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy to Monmouth's de facto CEO Dennis Drazin. Murphy had heard from those screaming about the supposed cruelty of asking horses to race under such conditions and he was well aware of the firestorm surrounding the sport. He did not want the headline on the stories written about one of the most important sporting events in his state being all about a horse or two dying in the heat at Monmouth Park.

That bears repeating: a state governor actually got involved in the decision over whether or not a racetrack should or should not hold a scheduled day of racing. Cont. p5

Should Monmouth have cancelled the entire card a few days earlier, like so many other tracks in the East had done? Should they have just kept going after the second race, the last one held before the delay, particularly when you consider the early double went off without a hitch? Did they do the right thing by delaying the card and holding the Haskell while the sun was setting on the Jersey Shore? Considering that no horses broke down during the day and there were no reports of any suffering any severe heat-related problems, arguably Drazin picked the right choice among his many options.

But that was only a footnote when you consider what this day was really all about, that horse racing in 2019, post-Santa Anita, is facing a level of scrutiny far beyond anything it has ever faced before. And it cannot afford to make any mistakes.

"Five years ago, if we had this heat, nobody would have said a word or asked us to cancel and we wouldn't have canceled," Drazin said. "But now, because of what happened at Santa Anita, there is heightened attention when it comes to people paying attention to horse racing. Look at that Real Sports show they had on HBO with Bryant Gumbel. Look at everything that PETA keeps saying and doing. It's a big issue with the public that has all of us concerned because we want to protect the industry. Do I think PETA, in and of itself, can take the industry down? No. But people need to be sensitive to doing the right things."

If you look at things that way, maybe the animal rights activists have done racing a favor. Way back in 1988, was it the right thing to do to hold the Haskell card on such a hot day and not come up with some sort of outside-the-box plan like Monmouth did this year? And what about the 1991 Monmouth Oaks, where the temperature was 95? On the same day, they ran a $500,000 race at Rockingham Park called the New England Classic. A wire service report of the race noted that it was 100 degrees with "high humidity." I know. I was at Rockingham that day and, looking back, they never should have run. Cont. p6

Though it's very difficult to know where to draw the lines and what issues are real and what are not, the industry, as Drazin said, does need to be sensitive to doing the right things. Take that approach and nothing bad can come from that.

Things were a lot easier for horse racing on that sweltering day when Forty Niner nosed out Seeking the Gold in the Haskell. People may long for a time when you could run a race on a hot day and not have protestors, calls from a governor and media there more interested in whether or not there would be a calamity than the story of who won the Haskell. But those days are long gone and they are never coming back.

Fate was on Monmouth's side Saturday as management tried its best to make decisions based on the best interests of the horses while also realizing the tremendous pressures that came with the possibility of something going terribly wrong on the racetrack. They took a risk by running, one I would not have taken if the call were left up to me. But in the end, it all worked out fine.

Still, with everything that went on, it was a tough day for the sport. You don't have to like it. But you had better get used to it.

HASKELL NO BREEZE, BUT OVERACHIEVING 'MAX' KEEPS SCORCHING FOES

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

Maximum Security (New Year's Day) doesn't catch many breaks.

Luckily--for him at least--the gutsy bay is pretty adept at grinding out his own special brand of mojo that nearly always gets his nose down in front at the wire.

I'm not entirely sure that Maximum Security's 1 1/4-length slugfest score in Saturday's GI TVG.com Haskell Invitational edged him any closer to laying claim to an eventual Horse of the Year title, or even to bragging rights of being the current divisional leader of a schizophrenic sophomore class.

But the 5-for-7 former $16,000 maiden-claimer who crossed the finish line first and was controversially disqualified from a front-running win in the GI Kentucky Derby sure gets my vote for the most accomplished elite-level overachiever we've seen in years.

Putting aside for the moment the bizarre heat-related delay and partial cancellation of the card on Monmouth Park's biggest day of the summer (colleague Bill Finley was on the scene and described it in detail here), Maximum Security stood out on Saturday for fighting through three distinct instances of in-race adversity that could have derailed his chances of winning his second Grade I stakes of the year (technically his third if a federal judge ever sides with the colt's owners, who are suing the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission, et al, over the precedent-setting Derby DQ).

The first tactical obstacle Maximum Security had to overcome was at the gate break of the Haskell, when he bounced out alertly from the outside stall in the six-horse race but was denied an inside position by two dueling leaders. Cont. p7

Jockey Luis Saez also couldn't tuck in right behind the speed setup, because another rival had snagged that stalking spot, so he opted for a three-deep position through the clubhouse turn and onto the back straight. It was only the second time in his career that Maximum Security was not leading a quarter mile into the race.

Maximum Security crept closer as the field bunched nearing the half-mile pole, but Saez waited for the stronger of the two duelers, King for a Day (Uncle Mo), to peel away from the pack three-eighths out before cueing his 4-5 favorite to go after the 5-2 shot.

For about half a furlong this tandem accelerated in earnest, but "Max" (in the two path) was already in the process of cracking "King" (at the rail) as they neared the five-sixteenths pole and a fresh challenge loomed in the form of 'TDN Rising Star' Mucho Gusto (Mucho Macho Man), the 3-1 third choice.

This threesome tightened up as the field spun off the far turn, with the tiring King for a Day bailing out of the battle by checking while closest to the fence.

Now the Haskell was clearly down to Maximum Security and Mucho Gusto. If you could have stopped the race right there, knowing that Max already didn't get his own way on the lead and that he had expended a big burst of mid-race energy in 93-degree heat by gunning for first run at the main speed threat--and further knowing that the horse taking dead aim on him was trained by eight-time Haskell winner Bob Baffert--which would have gotten your money to prevail in the final quarter mile?

Mucho Gusto might have been the logical choice. But every time he edged within striking distance through the length of the stretch, Maximum Security dug in and fought harder, incrementally widening the margin so that finally there was daylight (even at 8:14 p.m.) between them at the wire.

Max also survived a stewards' inquiry into the far-turn logjam, but no foul or DQ was ruled.

Trainer Jason Servis told Daily Racing Form Sunday that Maximum Security was "pretty tired" the day after his Haskell score, but that the next-race target would still be the Aug. 24 GI Travers S. if the colt rebounded well in training up at Saratoga. He added that the GI Pennsylvania Derby at Parx Sept. 21 was a secondary option.

Just the knowledge of how sapping the stifling heat was on Saturday might be reason enough for many bettors to try and take a swing against Maximum Security if he starts back on five weeks' rest in the Travers.

But wager against this admirable overachiever at your own peril, because Maximum Security continues to outrun expectations and--more importantly--most of his competition.

Does Lasix reduction help in heat?

Although no one is claiming that several months worth of anecdotal evidence equates to a scientific study, an interesting side note emerged from last Thursday's California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) meeting: The house-rule reduction of the maximum allowable race-day Lasix dosage from 500 mg to 250 mg at Santa Anita the last several months of the spring meet resulted in fewer horses having problems related to heat.

Some context is in order here. Dionne Benson, DVM, the chief veterinary officer for The Stronach Group, which owns Santa Anita, told the CHRB at that meeting that since the board approved the reduced Lasix policy earlier this year, only one horse had an instance of epistaxis, or bleeding from the nostrils.

That one case, Benson said, "is not outside of the numbers that we would expect with full doses on Lasix, so clearly horses are able to run under" the reduced dosages.

When asked by one CHRB member if she was surprised at that result, Benson said no, but added that "I will tell you one thing that I found surprising: We didn't see that many heat exhaustion cases."

When a CHRB member postulated that might be related to lower-dosed Lasix horses being able to retain more fluids, thus allowing them to better combat extreme heat, Benson said "That's perhaps the case. And hopefully it will be the case in the future."

Droning on…

One of the aspects of the Haskell inquiry that was debated online in the aftermath of Saturday's non-DQ was the fact that the far-turn spot where King for a Day checked is not very well covered by traditional patrol camera angles. The Monmouth pan shot in that area is partially blocked by infield trees, and the rear-view and head-on shots are not always definitive. Similar blind spots exist at just about every track in the nation.

So what about the idea of using an overhead drone camera to assist in officiating?

Indiana Grand might be the first U.S. Thoroughbred track to test out that idea.

According to an online job posting on Indeed.com that popped up last week, the track is seeking a drone pilot whose chief task will be "capturing quality footage of fast moving horses, while flying steadily at a safe distance away from horses."

The ad further states, "This job will assist the A/V Department, and will help the Stewards of the Indiana Horse Racing Commission complete their task of determining that each race is run fairly, cleanly, and with integrity. Video from a drone is necessary to cover approximately 100 yards of the race course that is underserved by current video installations."

Last week TDN emailed Jon Schuster, the track's general manager, asking for details about the concept. That query has yet to be answered. The guess here (forced pun very much intended) is that the drone project is still up in the air.

Bowie's Hero, winless since capturing the GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile last March, rallied to score as much the best in the GII Eddie Read S. Sunday at Del Mar.

Fifth in the GI Shoemaker Mile after his Kilroe heroics last May, the bay was fourth in this event and a dull 11th as the favorite in the GII Del Mar Mile H. Laid up for over eight months after that, he returned to be sixth in the GIII San Francisco S. before waking up with a third at 18-1 in the Shoemaker last out May 27.

Made the public's third choice to get back on track here, Bowies Hero broke alertly and traveled second last of a tightly-packed group as longshot Ritzy A.P. led them along through moderate fractions of :24.38 and :48.16. Race favorite Catapult, who was tracking from a close second, turned the pressure up passing three-quarters in 1:11.71 and appeared to have the race to win or lose at the top of the lane, but was quickly set upon by Bowies Hero, who swept to the fore outside the furlong grounds. Kicking clear strongly from there under Flavien Prat, the Phil D'Amato trainee powered under the line a convincing winner. Marckie's Water rallied from last to just edge Ritzy A.P. in a photo for place, while Catapult finished a no-excuse fifth.

"The trip set up nicely," said winning rider Tyler Gaffalione, who picked up his first graded stakes win at Saratoga. "She broke alertly and put herself in a good position. She was kind of keen a little bit down the backside but we were going awfully slow, so I just let her out a little bit and put my hands down and she just kept reaching and reaching. When I asked her coming into the stretch, she really exploded and finished the job."

Pedigree Notes:

Golden Award is the 130th stakes winner and 67th graded stakes winner for Medaglia d'Oro and is a half-sister to 2012's champion 3-year-old colt and GI Kentucky Derby/GI Preakness S. winner I'll Have Another. Her dam, who won her only start for Harvey Clarke and Kiaran McLaughlin at 27-1 in 2005, is responsible for a juvenile American Pharoah filly named All American Gal and returned to Medaglia d'Oro this spring.

Win machine Summer Sunday picked up her second consecutive graded stakes and ran her record at Woodbine to a perfect 7-for-7 while making her turf debut in Sunday's GII Royal North S. at the Toronto oval.

A victress of three straight to start her career two summers ago, including scores in the restricted Nandi S. and Muskoka S., the bay suffered her first defeat when last in the GIII Beaumont S. in her sophomore bow last April at Keeneland.

Bouncing back to take the Ontario-bred Fury S. here next out, she was forced to miss almost a full year and once again was last at Keeneland, this time in an optional claimer Apr. 11. Annexing the restricted Ballade S. in sharp time locally May 11, she repeated in the GIII Hendrie S. June 9 and was made the third choice in this sextet while stepping on turf for the first time.

Dueling with longshot Veil (Hat Trick {Jpn}) through a modest :22.96 quarter, Summer Sunday inched away from her pace foe in early stretch, but immediately was confronted with a two-pronged challenge from Ruby Notion (Great Notion) and Oleksandra (Aus) (Animal Kingdom) on the far outside as the half went up in :45.09. Ruby Notion was the first to give way at the eighth pole, but Magic Spell quickly took up the chase and posed the biggest threat to the frontrunner once Oleksandra flattened past the sixteenth marker. Summer Sunday kept finding to keep that one at bay though, and hit the wire a comfortable 1 1/4 lengths to the good.

"It's getting a little scary, she's got a little streak going," said winning trainer Stuart Simon. "She's just so genuine, she's been a gift. She'll just do whatever you want of her. She's just got such a fantastic head on her that she knows when it's go time. She just naturally does things that you need her to do to be successful."

Pedigree Notes:

Summer Sunday, one of seven graded/group stakes winners for MGSW/MGISP Silent Name, is one of two multiple stakes winners from three foals to race out of Canadian champion Dancing Allstar, following up Trini Brewnette. Dancing Allstar, who captured the GIII Whimsical S. here in 2009 as one of eight career stakes tallies, has a yearling colt by Tale of Ekati and foaled a Bernardini filly this term.

Third last out in the Politely S. May 18 at Monmouth over this distance, Mominou last visited the winner's circle two back, again at this trip, at Keeneland in an Apr. 20 allowance. Her only other start at this distance or over Saratoga's lawn had come a year ago when she was the beaten favorite in the Coronation Cup.

Sent straight to the lead, Mominou kept the others on her heels through fractions of :21.94 and :44.50. She changed leads on cue leaving the turn, but switched back to the wrong lead down the stretch as she dug in. The bay was never headed, crossing the wire 1 1/4 lengths the best as she paid $61.50 for the win.

"[Trainer] Jimmy [Toner] gave me the option of how I want to ride her and I figured the best way we could win was to take the race to them out of the gate," said winning jockey Kendrick Carmouche. "We broke good and she never relented. She was ready the whole way."

Seven Trumpets had a busy 2018, registering a sophomore campaign last year with nine of his 10 starts taking place in black-type events at nine different tracks around the country. He danced a lot of dances, coming away with placings in the GI H. Allen Jerkens S., the GIII Dwyer S., the GIII Gallant Bob S., and the Jerome S. Last seen when faltering in the GI Malibu S. at Santa Anita Dec. 26, Seven Trumpets got an extended break before reappearing here at the Pea Patch.

The bay chased the pace off of fractions of :22.11 and :44.75. He collared leader Done Deal coming off the turn while Guest Suite loomed up on the outside. Between horses, Seven Trumpets edged clear and held firm to record his first black-type victory.

Seven Trumpets' dam, Angel Trumpet, was second in Saratoga's GII Schuylerville S. in 2004 and later added a couple of listed stakes wins to her ledger. Like Seven Trumpets, Angel Trumpet's half-sister, Lakeside Cup (Salt Lake), placed in three graded stakes but earned her biggest victory at Ellis Park when taking the 2001 Ellis Park Debutante S. Last seen getting a career-high Beyer Speed Figure of 93 when third in the GI Woody Stephens S. June 8, he tuned up for this allowance with a blistering half-mile bullet of :45 4/5 (1/91) here July 13. Among the early speed, Borracho relaxed and dropped back to the second flight of horses on the outside. He made his move on the turn, powering to the front while four wide and beating his elders by 1 3/4 lengths on the wire as the 2-1 favorite. Identity Politics (Into Mischief) was second. PENALTY (c, 4, Blame--Amazing Shoes {SP}, by Empire Maker) hadn't won since February of 2018, but has hit the board in four of six starts since, including his most recent when second going 8 1/2 furlongs on the Churchill turf in May. Made the lukewarm 3-1 second choice this time, the handsome bay settled in a midpack fifth as Saintly Samurai (First Samurai) and Halladay (War Front) led the way. Those two continued to head the field through a half in :49.75, Penalty began to pick off rivals leaving the backstretch and was within a striking position at the quarter pole. Three wide into the stretch, he had dead aim at leading Halladay, overtook him midstretch and inched ahead late to score by a neck. Favored Hoboe (Macho Uno) never factored and finished fifth. Penalty also has a 3-year-old sister by Flatter named Heels and a juvenile brother by Declaration of War. Additionally, Amazing Shoes foaled a colt and filly, respectively, by War Front over the past two seasons. She was bred back to Mastery. Sales history: $390,000 Ylg '16 KEESEP. GOLD STANDARD (f, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Mi Vida {SP}, by Distorted Humor), who co-topped last year's Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream sale off a :10 flat breeze, made it two-for-two on the dirt Sunday while winning as she pleased. Beaten a head after rallying from far back on the Fair Grounds grass Mar. 23, the dark bay settled for third in a similar spot at Churchill on GI Kentucky Derby day May 4. She broke through by an emphatic 7 1/2 lengths in the Louisville slop in an off-the-turfer June 8, and was 1-2 this time while looking like a major standout on paper. Tucked in along the fence in third early, the dark bay was tipped out into the clear heading for home and took over midway on the turn for home. She ran up the score from there, cruising away to a no-doubt-about-it nine-length drubbing. Devilite (Tapit) was second best. The winner's second dam is SW Crystal Current (A.P. Indy), a full-sister to Grade I winner Majestic Warrior out of MGISW Dream Supreme (Seeking the Gold). She has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother by Tapit and a yearling full-sister. BASIN (c, 2, Liam's Map--Appenzell, by Johannesburg) kicked off his career with a close-up second behind By Your Side (Constitution) in a June 14 maiden at Churchill and was flattered when that rival came back to take the GIII Sanford S. here last weekend.

Basin | Sarah K Andrew

Installed the 2-1 second choice behind fellow second timer Three Technique (Mr Speaker), Basin took to the front early and slugged it out with Federale (Dsicreetly Mine) through an opening quarter mile in :22.32. Federale was soon spent, but Basin continued on as Three Technique and another foe began to make their presence known. Turning for home, Basin was in the clear and Three Technique was doing his best running up along the inside, but the frontrunner had too much left in reserve and powered home a 1 1/4-length winner over the chalk despite lugging in. With the victory, Basin became the first winner for his freshman sire (by Unbridled's Song). He is a half to bullring-loving Rise Up (Rockport Harbor), GSW, $1,225,540 and a yearling colt by Orb. Sprinting 6 1/2 furlongs in his May 12 debut, he pressed the pace before folding, then came back at a mile June 16 where he got caught in traffic and didn't find a seam until it was too late. Sent off at nearly 5-1 here, the chestnut let the speed go and settled mid-pack. Parked on the inside, just off the rail, he began moving towards the vanguard leaving the final turn. Tipped out extremely wide, he rolled down the center of the track as Tyler Gaffalione lost his whip, but it didn't matter as Scars Are Cool mowed down frontrunning Majority Rules (Tiznow) and kicked away by four lengths. Scars Are Cool is the first foal for his dam, who has a yearling full-sister to the winner and a 2019 filly by Candy Ride (Arg). The mare was bred to Medaglia d'Oro for next term. She didn't have much early speed leaving the gate here either, but did make an early move on the backstretch, getting caught in traffic and shuffled back. Undaunted, the 5-1 shot re-rallied, muscling her way through horses to the outside, where she powered her way down the center of the lane with front-running favorite Sequin (Bayern) squarely in her sights. With a determination that belied her inexperience, Fly So Pretty got up just in time to pass Sequin by a neck at the wire. She paid $13.20 for the win. 5th-Woodbine, C$84,438, Msw, 7-21, 2yo, 6fT, 1:09.65, gd. BARILKO (c, 2, Elusive Quality--Reason, by Quiet American) had been working steadily for this unveiling since April, including a five-panel spin in 1:00 3/5 over the turf training course July 13. He broke sharply here as the 3-1 second choice, stalking the early pace in a hard-held second through fractions of :23.53 and :46.70. He collared the pacesetter at the top of the lane and put 2 1/2 lengths of daylight on the field as longshot Fantastic Breeze (Stormy Atlantic) chased him home. Barilko ran greenly down the stretch, switching to his wrong lead and drifting in, but held the win by a neck. The first foal for his young dam, Barilko has a yearling half-brother by Mineshaft and a 2019 half-brother by Nyquist. The mare, who has been bred back to Nyquist for next year, is out of a half-sister to GIII winner Antoniette (Nicholas), the dam of MGISW Switch (Quiet American). Tracking from second as the favorite enjoyed a clear lead, Pleasecallmeback was scrubbed on a bit to keep up with that foe heading for home. Tapit It to Win was still going strongly at the head of the lane as Pleasecallmeback tried to figure things out, but the latter hit another gear and powered to the front to don cap and gown by three lengths while still showing that he has some more learning to do. The winner's dam produced a Malibu Moon filly last term and a Curlin colt earlier this season. Sales history: $200,000 Ylg '18 KEESEP. PIONEER MAN (c, 3, Pioneerof the Nile--Causeway Lady, by Giant's Causeway), given a 4-1 chance in this career opener, was one-paced soon after the start and was eased back into fifth as Get the News (Tapit) rolled along through an initial quarter in :23.15. Taken off the rail and settled between rivals down the backstretch, Pioneer Man appeared to lose focus momentarily, and was shuffled back to sixth, while losing some ground on the frontrunners. Re-engaged by Eurico Da Silva approaching the quarter pole and swung out several paths wide for the stretch drive, Pioneer Man dug in while racing down the middle of the course, ground his way to the front late and proved a head best over Just Like Larry (Langfuhr). Favored Tracking Gold (Animal Kingdom) closed to be third. Following Pioneer Man, Causeway Lady, a $450,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, produced a colt by Bernardini in 2017 followed by a colt by American Pharoah. She is a daughter of multiple graded stakes winning millionaire Mystic Lady (Thunder Gulch). This represents the extended family of Group 1 winner Fourstars Allstar and the graded winning millionaire Fourstardave. COLLUSION ILLUSION (c, 2, Twirling Candy--Natalie Grace, by First Dude), a $50,000 Keeneland September Yearling who flourished into a $300,000 OBS April juvenile off a :10 flat breeze, was given a 5-1 chance following a pair of sharp morning works, including the most recent going four panels in :48.00 (4/35) July 16. The Florida-bred was far back in the early going as favored Bronn (Conveyance) and Disco Ball (Orb) duked it out through fractions of 22:27 and :46.08. Turning for home, Bronn was already working hard to keep position and Disco Ball wrested the advantage along the inside. However, moving fastest of all was Collusion Illusion, who swung out well wide into the stretch and was closing with purpose on the front runner down the center of the track. Also rallying from behind, Defense Wins (Flatter) cut his way through the center of the pack, however, it was Collusion Illusion who was moving fastest of all and was a half-length ahead of his grey rival at the wire. Disco Ball held on for third over Bronn. The winner's unraced and now deceased dam was a half-sister to the good Don Dizney sprinters Bahamian Squall (Gone West) and Apriority (Grand Slam). DIENDA (f, 2, Kantharos--Cristal Causeway, by Giant's Causeway) was a neck second in her debut going 4 1/2 furlongs against Florida-bred maidens May 11 before finishing in the same spot last time while adding a sixteenth of a mile in open company June 8. Installed the even-money choice in this third go, she broke quickly and assumed a comfortable lead through honest early splits. Clear of nearest pursuer Addilyn (Palace Malice) at the head of the lane, she strode under the wire a 2 1/2-length winner over that rival. Hartling (Mucho Macho Man) was third. Cristal Causeway has a stakes-placed, 3-year-old full sister to the winner in addition to a yearling half-sister by Jess's Dream. The 13-year-old mare is a half sister to Chilean champion juvenile Crisantemo (Chi) (Fappavalley) and Group 1 winner Cefalu (Chi) (Dushyantor). Away in good order from her outside draw, the bay tracked from fourth out in the clear as a pair of foes sped off into the turn. She crept closer into a sharp :44.02 half, and kicked on sweetly over the top before fending off fast-finishing Ask Bailey (Run Away and Hide) by a head. The winner's dam is a half to three-time South African champion sprinter Overarching (Arch); U.S. GSW Temeraine (Arch); the dam of another Grade 1 winner in South Africa; and the dam of MGSW and GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf third Cambodia (War Front). FAIR MAIDEN (f, 2, Street Boss--Shieldmaiden, by Smart Strike) debuted June 23 over this course at 4 1/2 furlongs with a strong second behind the chalk after being in tight quarters and besting all but the winner. Jumping out of the gate here with a slight rear and bumping the horse to her inside, Fair Maiden blasted right to the front at 6-5 and never looked back, setting fractions of :22.92 and :45.39. Wrapped up before the wire, Fair Maiden earned her first win by open daylight with Pixelate (City Zip) 14 1/4 lengths back in second. Dam Shieldmaiden, who sold for $30,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale while in foal to Animal Kingdom, lost that foal in 2018 but had a Passion for Action colt this year and has been bred back to that sire for next term. A'ALI TRIUMPHS IN THE PAPIN

A'Ali | Scoop Dyga

Stepping up from a June 5 debut second at Ripon to garner Royal Ascot's June 20 G2 Norfolk S. in his only other start last time, Shaikh Duaij Al Khalifa's A'Ali (Ire) (Society Rock {Ire}) maintained a rich seam of form and justified odds-on favouritism with a snug victory in Sunday's G2 Darley Prix Robert Papin at Deauville. The bay was steadied at the break and settled off the pace towards the rear through halfway in the straight 5 1/2-furlong dash. Making smooth headway out wide inside the final quarter mile, the 3-5 pick kept on strongly under mild urging in the closing stages to prevail by an ultimately comfortable 3/4-of-a-length from My Love's Passion (Fr) (Elvstroem {Aus}).

"He showed an impressive turn of foot there so we might come back here for the [Aug. 18 G1] Prix Morny and that is under strong consideration," revealed trainer Simon Crisford. "He's really straightforward, a very easy colt to deal with and he has a nice turn of foot. Luckily, he has all the right attributes and is a very good racehorse. I think a really hard-run five furlongs is a really good trip for him and six [furlongs] shouldn't be too much of a problem either. He's in the [Aug. 23 G1] Nunthorpe S. [at York], but I'm not sure he should be taking on the likes of Battaash at this stage of his career. He's also in the [Aug. 9 G1] Phoenix S. [at The Curragh], and the Morny, and he'll take in one of those Group 1 races next time." Cont. p2

ANTHONY VAN DYCK TO RUN IN KING GEORGE

2019 G1 Investec Derby hero Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who ran second to stablemate Sovereign (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby on June 29, will take part in the July 27 G1 King George V and Queen Elizabeth QIPCO S. at Ascot, O'Brien confirmed to Racing Post on Sunday.

O'Brien told Racing Post, "The plan is to run Anthony Van Dyck on Saturday--we're happy with him. Sovereign, who won the Irish Derby, is on a break and won't be running and neither will Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who is also on a break. Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Norway (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) are all entered and are possible runners, although we won't be finalising plans until later in the week."

At Ascot, the Derby victor will face dual Arc heroine Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), as well as recent G1 Prince Of Wales's S. victor Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

SOFFIA SO GOOD

Lady Chryss O'Reilly's Soffia (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) was rewarded for her consistency with a first black-type score in the May 19 Listed Sole Power Sprint S. at Naas, doubling up in the June 7 G3 Ballyogan S. upped to six furlongs at The Curragh last time, and continued on the upgrade with an impressive performance back down to five returning to the Co. Kildare venue in Sunday's G2 Friarstown Stud Sapphire S. Positioned behind the leaders in a share of fourth until making smooth headway into contention approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 6-1 chance quickened smartly to challenge entering the final furlong and powered clear under a drive to secure a career high by 3 1/2 lengths from El Astronaute (Ire) (Approve {Ire}).

"I thought she was good, but I didn't know she was that good!" said trainer Eddie Lynam, who won this contest in 2013 with MG1SW speedster Slade Power (Ire) (Dutch Art {GB}). "Declan [McDonogh] always said she wanted 'English' speed and to run her in England, but I'm a slow learner and took my time. There were no prisoners there today and I'd say a few of them picked up penalty points [for going too fast] in the first couple of furlongs as they were winging it. She got there easy, she won easy and, it's stating the obvious, but that's her most impressive performance. Being a pessimist I thought this was a big step up, but I thought she was entitled to take it and she was very good today. The yard is not flying so it's great to get it and gives us a boost. She's not in the Nunthorpe and will have two more entries, the [Sept. 15 G1] Flying Five [here] and the [Oct. 6 G1 Prix de] l'Abbaye [at Longchamp]." Cont. p3

Rainbow Crossing is herself the leading performer out of G3 Debutante S. winner Rainbows For All (Ire) (Rainbows For Life), while the next dam Maura's Guest (Ire) (Be My Guest) is kin to three stakes winners headed by G2 Premio Umbria and G3 Prix du Petit Couvert heroine Bold Apparel (Fr) (Bold Forbes) and G3 Premio Omenoni victor Conte Grimaldi (Ire) (Astronef {Ire}). TIME FOR TEA

Three withdrawals including the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. winner Move Swiftly (GB) (Farhh {GB}) took much away from Sundays' renewal of the G2 Kilboy Estate S. at The Curragh, but connections of Red Tea (GB) (Sakhee) were not dwelling on the whys and wherefores as they celebrated a breakthrough success. Having cost the Capel Street Syndicate a modest 42,000gns at the Tattersalls Autumn Horses-In-Training Sale in October, the former Peter Hiatt-trained mare has turned herself inside out since joining Joseph O'Brien's ranks. Bouncing back from a latest eighth in the Duke of Cambridge at Royal Ascot June 19, the 11-10 favourite was sent straight to the front by Donnacha O'Brien and maintained the momentum to inflict a two-length defeat on 'TDN Rising Star' Goddess (Camelot {GB}).

SARACEN HORSE FEEDS

Red Tea began to show improved form as a 4-year-old when climbing up the handicap ratings in Britain and won off her highest mark at Nottingham and Newbury last May and July. Sold after a well-beaten sixth in the British EBF Breeders' Fillies' Series Mile H. in which Move Swiftly was runner-up at Newmarket in October, the bay took to her new base with a new lease of life and took just two starts to win a mile handicap here May 6. Third in the G2 Ridgewood Pearl S. over the same track and trip 19 days later, she showed her liking for this venue with another solid effort which proved enough in this depleted affair.

"She's been improving and improving and to be a Group 2 winner now she is hugely valuable," her trainer said. "It cut up a little bit in fairness, but still she had to go and do it and she's done it well. She's a filly that could maybe travel a little bit. The [G2] Blandford S. [back at The Curragh on Sept. 15] could be another option."

Pedigree Notes

Red Tea's dam Maimoona (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) is a granddaughter of Harmless Albatross (Pas de Seul {GB}) who took the G3 Prix des Chenes and was third in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. Her five stakes winners are headed by the GII Bernard Baruch H. winner Volochine (Ire) (Soviet Star), while this is also the family of the G2 Grosse Europa Meile winner Combat Zone (Ire) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}). Maimoona has the unraced 2-year-old gelding by Helmoona (GB) (Helmet {Aus}).

IMPULSIF STREAK

As he had in a conditions race over a mile at Maisons-Laffitte last time June 15, Godolphin's upwardly-mobile Impulsif (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) grabbed the early lead and never looked back en route to a career-best in Sunday's G3 Prix Messidor at Deauville. Turning back the 2018 G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Study of Man (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) inside the final two furlongs, the homebred who traded as the 9-5 second favourite hit the line with a half-length to spare over stablemate Trais Fluors (GB) (Dansili {GB}), with Study of Man fading disappointingly to be a further 1 1/4 lengths back in third.

Lightly-raced and unexposed at this trip, Impulsif came off the all-weather to win by eight lengths over a mile on the round track at Saint-Cloud May 27 prior to upsetting the useful pair Stunning Spirit (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Mer Et Nuages (Fr) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) on Maisons-Laffitte's straight course, in the process earning a tilt at this acid test.

"Impulsif has found his way over a mile and for his last three runs he has really enjoyed being in front," jockey Mickael Barzalona commented. "I knew the horse we had to beat was Study of Man and when he tried to put the pressure on Impulsif was going much better. I think this horse is going to be very competitive, but I will leave the next target to the trainer and the owner."

Pedigree Notes

Impulsif has the pedigree to be top-class, being out of a full-sister to the listed-winning and group-placed Reunite (Ire) and a half to the G1 Prix du Jockey Club-winning sire Anabaa Blue (GB) (Anabaa) as well as the Listed Newbury Fillies' Trial S. winner Measured Tempo (GB) (Sadler's Wells). Their dam is the G3 Prix de Flore winner Allez Les Trois (Riverman), in turn a half-sister to the G1 2000 Guineas-winning sire King's Best who shares Kingmambo as a sire with Violante and also the outstanding G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine and broodmare supreme Urban Sea (Miswaki). She requires no introduction as the dam of Galileo (Ire), Sea the Stars (Ire) and ancestress of last year's G1 Epsom Derby hero Masar (Ire) who shares New Approach as a sire with Impsulsif. Violante also has yearling and foal fillies by Shamardal.

ROBIN OF NAVAN BOUNCES BACK IN DUSSELDORF

Having spent a period in the wilderness, Harry Dunlop's stalwart Robin of Navan (Fr) (American Post {GB}) returned to winning ways in Dusseldorf's G2 Meilen-Trophy. Four years after his success in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud, the 6-year-old who had captured only one race in the interim in the 2017 G3 La Coupe at Chantilly was written off by the locals at almost 16-1 coming off a no-show in Royal Ascot's Royal Hunt Cup June 19. Ridden positively by Alexander Pietsch, the chestnut who sported first-time cheekpieces lobbed along in happy mood with no rivals applying any pressure. Kicking in early straight, he was clear by the furlong pole and only compatriot Indian Blessing (GB) (Sepoy {Aus}) emerged from the pack to give any sort of meaningful pursuit.

Despite his seasonal form figures reading an impoverished 87370, the third placing in the middle had come against the classy Zaaki (GB) (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) and Barney Roy (GB) (Excelebration {Ire}) in Ascot's Listed Paradise S. May 1. If the headgear reignited his enthusiasm, he was always going to be a dangerous proposition as a horse that relishes foreign travel. His record outside of his native England is impressive, with the aforementioned Criterium de Saint-Cloud and La Coupe victories backed up by four other wins and seven placings in 21 overseas starts.

Pedigree Notes

Maybe Robin of Navan just feels more at home outside of Britain, given that he is a French product of Cloghran (Fr) (Mutathir {GB}) who is kin to three black-type performers in the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani winner Ming Zhi Cosmos (Fr) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}), the Listed Prix Zeddaan scorer Melodyman (Fr) (Green Tune) and the triple listed-placed Good Bye My Friend (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}). This is also the family of the listed-winning Liliside (Fr) and Lily America (Fr) by Robin of Navan's sire American Post (GB). Liliside went on to produce the G1 Takarazuka Kinen and G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup heroine Lys Gracieux (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}), while another half-sister Golden Lily (Fr) (Dolphin Street {Fr}) is responsible for last year's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac scorer Lily's Candle (Fr) (Style Vendome {Fr}). Cloghran also has a yearling filly by Muhaarar (GB) named Borana (Fr).

ANAPURNA CAMP EYEING SEVERAL OPTIONS

The Aug. 22 G1 Darley Yorkshire Oaks is one of the options under consideration for G1 Investec Epsom heroine Anapurna (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Having run out an impressive winner of the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial in May, the daughter of Frankel claimed Classic glory with a narrow success at Epsom--since which she has enjoyed a mid-season break. Trainer John Gosden has a strong batch of top-class fillies this year--with dual Arc heroine Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) supported by Anapurna, Coronet (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Saturday's G1 Kerrygold Irish Oaks winner Star Catcher (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), among others. The Clarehaven maestro will be keen to split his aces, where possible, and connections of Anapurna are happy to wait and see where she fits in.

Mark Weinfeld, of owners Helena Springfield, Ltd., told Sky Sports Racing, "We're looking at the Yorkshire Oaks as a possibility, the [Sept. 15 G1] Prix Vermeille and possibly the race at Ascot at the end of the year [the Oct. 19 G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies' And Mares' S.) We'll have to see closer to the time what we do."

PRETTY POLLYANNA BIDS FOR MAURICE DE GHEEST

G1SW Pretty Pollyanna (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) will bid for a second Group 1 victory at Deauville next month in the Prix Maurice de Gheest on Aug. 4. Michael Bell's filly claimed top-level honours in the Prix Morny at the Normandy circuit last summer. The daughter of Oasis Dream emerged with plenty of credit when runner-up in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas on her seasonal reappearance--and although she then finished down the field in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot, she bounced back to be fourth in last weekend's G1 July Cup at Newmarket.

Bell said, "It was a very good run in the July Cup, and the plan is the Maurice de Gheest. She obviously likes Deauville, and that is the plan as we stand. The unfortunate thing in the July Cup was that she missed the break so badly. That didn't help--and although I'm not saying she would have beaten the winner, she would have been two or three lengths closer.

FRENCH RAIN (IRE) (f, 2, Siyouni {Fr}--Evening Rain, by Raven's Pass) was well away to race fourth through the early strides of this unveiling. Taking closer order on the bridle approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 3-1 favourite was stoked up for her effort with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and pushed out in the closing stages to comfortably account for Blissful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by 1 3/4 lengths. "We liked her at home, she was very professional there and did it well," said assistant trainer Shane Lyons. "She'll improve plenty for the run, ours normally do, and she'll improve for a step up in trip as well. She holds all the early-closing entries for the good races, mainly because we have to do it early." Kin to a yearling colt by Fascinating Rock (Ire), French Rain is the first foal and scorer produced by a winning sibling of Listed UAE Oaks victress and GI Darley Alcibiades S. third Devotee (Elusive Quality) and the dam of stakes-winning G3 Silk Road S. runner-up Lady of Opera (Jpn) (Singspiel {Ire}). Twist 'n' Shake who shed maiden status at Nottingham in her third start May 10, posted a neck second in York's May 19 Listed Michael Seely Memorial S. and was a commendable fourth in Royal Ascot's June 21 G1 Coronation S. last time. Racing under a firm hold in third until sent on to lead at halfway, she was shaken up when safely clear approaching the final furlong and easily extended her advantage in the latter stages to secure a career high by daylight.

"She came very close once before at York and we're absolutely delighted to get proper black-type with her," commented Mark Weinfeld.

ASIA

Sun Marshal (Aus) (Sepoy {Aus}), a 23-1 outsider, starred in a rain-soaked Singapore Derby at Kranji on Sunday, heading a quinella for ex-pat Australian trainer Lee Freedman and delivering a first domestic Group 1 win for jockey Joe Azzopardi.

23-year-old West Australian jockey Joe Azzopardi played his part brilliantly in the S$1-million feature, bringing Sun Marshal across from a wide gate for a perfect run just behind the leaders. Sun Marshal surged to the lead in the straight, and despite tiring in the wet ground over the last 150 metres, he held on grimly to beat his fast-finishing stablemate and 2018 Singapore Guineas hero Mr Clint (NZ) (Power {GB}) by a neck. King Louis (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) ran on well for third.

"What a buzz," said Azzopardi, who began his Singapore riding stint in April of this year. "I'm nearly lost for words. My parents are great supporters of mine, and they would have torn the house down back home--my sister too [fellow jockey Chloe]."

While Sun Marshal was an upset winner, Azzopardi was confident he was riding a genuine contender. That confidence only grew after the first 200 metres of the race.

"It panned out perfectly," he said. "They went hard in front, and we were able to get a good run one off the fence. The horse trucked up and took the lead, and he was really strong in the fight to the line, just like I knew he'd be."

Pedigree Notes

Sun Marshal is the 13th black-type winner for Darley's Sepoy and is a half-brother to 3-year-old Light Exceed (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), who carried the Evergreen Rich silks to a maiden victory at Kembla Grange July 11. Sun Marshal's dual stakes-placed second dam is a full-sister to the outstanding stallion Fastnet Rock (Aus) and is herself responsible for SP Emotional Circus (Aus)–a daughter of Sepoy's sire Elusive Quality–and MGSP Twirl (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}). Dam of a weanling filly by Sizzling (Aus), Mysterious Light was covered by the late Sebring (Aus) in September 2018. (Pedigree Notes by Alan Carasso)

AGENT PULLING OUT ALL STOPS

by Paul Vettise

A familiar face in Australian racing circles is forging a new career as a bloodstock agent from his Newmarket base with Shadn (Ire) (No Nay Never {USA}) recently providing Billy Jackson-Stops with his first stakes winner. Jackson-Stops enjoyed a successful and highly enjoyable stint with Godolphin before he decided to return home to England and, while he didn't necessarily intend to move into the world of bloodstock so soon, he hasn't regretted his decision to strike out on his own.

From an equestrian background, he furthered his Thoroughbred experience with renowned bloodstock agent James Delahooke and subsequently prepared yearlings for sale at the Oppenheimer family's Hascombe and Valiant Stud.

He spent time as an assistant trainer to Olly and Hetta Stevens and with the Group 1 conditioner Ralph Beckett before an approach from John Ferguson, then Godolphin's Racing Manager.

"I got head-hunted by John to go and become assistant trainer for them," Jackson-Stops said. "It was just brilliant, what a spot. I was in Australia from 2015 to 2017 and was assistant trainer to John O'Shea."

Group 1 Stars

During his time in Sydney, stars of the stable included Group 1 winners Hartnell (GB) (Authorized {Ire}), Alizee (Sepoy) and Astern (Medaglia d'Oro {USA}) and Jackson-Stops went on to manage Godolphin's yard of 70 horses at Flemington before returning home in late 2017.

"I started out with my own agency last year. I just couldn't get a job as an assistant trainer or with another agency," he said. "I was 27, turning 28 so I pulled a couple of things together and decided to go out on my own. It's gone forward since then and I've had a couple of lucky turns."

One was the purchase of Apamurra (USA) (Lonhro), a half-sister to the dam of Astern and Alizee, for 58,000 guineas at the Tattersalls February Sale. She was sent to Australia to be sold at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale where she realised A$300,000 to the bid of New Zealand-based agent Ric Wylie.

That result led to the establishment in 2018 of JS Bloodstock Consultancy and Jackson-Stops is hoping the contacts and friendships made during his Australian tenure will lead to further business Down Under.

"One of my great mates is David Eustace, who trains with Ciaron Maher, and we're intending to do a bit together in the future, which is great," he said. "Obviously, I stay very much in touch with John O'Shea and I'm quite good mates with Henry Field. You try and make a bit of your own luck and see how you get on, touch wood it's going well." Cont. p2

Shadn is a member of the first group of yearlings he purchased and the Andrew Balding-trained 2-year-old provided a significant return with her last-start victory in the Listed Rose Bowl S. at Newbury.

"I bought 15 yearlings last year and we've had five runners for three winners," Jackson-Stops said. "They were all fairly cheap and there was one I got for 10 grand that has won for Mick Bell so it's going pretty well."

Smart Purchase

Shadn was bought for £42,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland Ascot Yearling Sale on behalf of Al Rabban Racing, who Jackson-Stops has struck up a good relationship with.

"I got her for a guy called Abdulaziz Al Rabban. He's a young Qatari fellow and I was very fortunate to meet him and I now look after him," he said. "We're about the same age and he's only got a handful of horses in training here. He's breeding here and in Qatar and he's got 40 horses in total.

"He's over the moon and this is only his second year in the game and he's loving it. It was a really good result."

The winner of two of her three starts, Shadn is a daughter of the Listed One Thousand Guineas Trial winner and G1 One Thousand Guineas runner-up Amethyst (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), who has produced eight winners from 10 foals to race. She is a sister to the G1 Two Thousand Guineas and G1 Curragh National S. winner King Of Kings (Ire), whose leading representatives were the Group 1 winners King's Chapel, Ike's Dream and Reigning To Win.
