ALSON DOMINATES CRITERIUM MATCH

Alson | Scoop Dyga

Already shorn of G1 Dewhurst S. third Wichita (Ire) (No Nay Never), Sunday's G1 Criterium International at ParisLongchamp was reduced to a match race when Phoenix Thoroughbred Ltd's recent acquisition Lady Penelope (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) reared in the stalls, leaving Gestut Schlenderhan's Alson (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) and Susan Magnier's dual Group 1 placegetter Armory (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to duel for Europe's penultimate juvenile top-level event of the season. The pair were separated by a short neck when contesting the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere over one mile at the Bois de Boulogne venue on Arc day earlier this month, but it was the Aug. 31 G3 Zukunftsrennen victor who extended his margin of superiority with a daylight score in this seven-furlong test. Armory broke well and enjoyed a slender advantage during the opening exchanges before Alson seized control and led thereafter. Untroubled throughout, the 1-2 pick was shaken up soon after passing the quarter-mile marker and lengthened ever clear before gearing down to defeat his sole rival by a facile 20 lengths.

It was a pyrrhic victory for conditioner Jean-Pierre Carvalho, who explained, "I was informed that Gestut Schlenderhan is closing its training establishment in Germany and I won't be training for the operation any more. There had been rumours for a while and it became official last week. The horses will be spread across trainers in France and Germany and I've been told Alson will be transferred to Andre Fabre, but I don't know if that's true or not. I shall continue training for my other clients, but I need to find a new base." Cont. p2

TATTERSALLS HIT SALE STARTS TODAY

More than 1,500 lots have been catalogued to sell over the next four days at the Tattersalls Horses-in-Training Sale. The largest of its kind in Europe, it is an auction which draws buyers from across the globe, with competition routinely fierce for horses with the potential to make it to the major carnivals in Dubai, Hong Kong and Australia.

Last year took a round bid of 1 million gns to secure the 5-year-old Aljazzi (GB) (Shamardal) from the reduction of the Blue Diamond Stud racing and breeding stock, and she joined the broodmare band at Newsells Park Stud. The entire sale last year grossed just shy of 27 million gns.

One of the potential headline acts of this year, the Irish Derby-placed Norway (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), has been withdrawn from the Ballydoyle consignment, but since the catalogue was published there have been six wild-card entries, which include listed-winning juvenile Summer Sands (GB) (Coach House (Ire}) who was recently third in the G1 Juddmonte Middle Park S. at Newmarket. Cont. p5

Reflecting on the winner's performance, Carvalho continued, "It's a great moment to win a Group 1 race and the best way for me to go out on a high note. Alson was the legitimate favourite and he obliged in style. I would have preferred more runners in the race, but I shall nonetheless savour the moment."

Winning rider Frankie Dettori, who claimed a 19th Group 1 victory of the year with the win, added, "Both horses had form from the Jean-Luc Lagardere, but I thought Armory would make it more of a contest. We had his measure by halfway and it was like a piece of exercise for my fellow in the straight. He stays well, he enjoyed the [very heavy] ground and I imagine he'll be a horse for the [G1 Poule d'Essai des] Poulains next year."

Pedigree Notes

Alson, one of two scorers for dual winner Assisi (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}), becomes the first Group 1 winner for his sire (by Big Shuffle) and is kin to last term's G2 German 2000 Guineas and G2 Oettingen-Rennen hero Ancient Spirit (Ger) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), a yearling colt by Guiliani (Ire) and a 2019 colt by Holy Roman Emperor (Ire). The homebred bay's unbeaten G1 Preis der Diana-winning second dam Amarette (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) produced two stakes performers and is herself a full-sister to G1 Prix du Jockey Club third Arras (Ger) and a half to the stakes-winning dam of G1 Melbourne Cup and G1 H E Tancred S. hero Almandin (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and G2 Gerling-Preis victor Atempo (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}).

TECHNICIAN SOLID IN OAK TEST

Team Valor's Technician (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) posted victories at each of the lower stakes levels this term, in tandem with tackling increasing trips in his five latest starts, and went postward for Sunday's G1 Prix Royal-Oak at ParisLongchamp returning off a win over the Bois de Boulogne venue's same 15 1/2-furlong trip in the Oct. 5 G2 Prix Chaudenay on Arc weekend. Encountering much softer conditions than ever before here, he maintained his perfect record at the track and the in-form streak of Pierre-Charles Boudot with a hard-fought 1 1/4-length tally from last year's G1 Prix du Cadran hero Call the Wind (GB) (Frankel {GB}) with defending champion Holdthasigreen (Fr) (Hold That Tiger), who annexed last month's G1 Prix du Cadran, 3 1/2 lengths back in third. The 5-2 second choice had previously annexed this term's June 13 Listed Prix Ridgway here, and the Aug. 17 G3 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury, and ran sixth in Doncaster's Sept. 14 G1 St Leger in his only prior start at the highest level. Tracking the leaders in fourth until making ominous headway once into the home straight, he seized control with 300 metres remaining and was ridden out thereafter to secure a personal best in game fashion.

"He's developed into a really nice stayer and has been better and better with each race this term," beamed assistant trainer Freddie Meade. "He's been a fantastic servant to the yard this year and has gone right through the ranks from a listed win to, now, a Group 1 win. I imagine he will stay in training, I certainly hope so, and his target will be the top staying races next year if he does. That is the plan at this stage and he'll have a good break now."

LIPS IS HANNOVER QUEEN

Rennstall Germanius's Lips Queen (Ger) (Kamsin {Ger}) was an unconsidered 57-1 outsider for Sunday's G3 Grosser Preis des Gestuts Ammerland at Hannover, but upset the odds in style to secure a career high in her stakes debut. The May-foaled dark bay had backed up a brace of wins at Dresden and Hoppegarten during the midsummer period with a handicap sixths in returns to both venues last month and was detached in rear through the initial fractions. Last until picking off rivals on the home turn, she made continued headway in the straight to launch her challenge approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under urging in the closing stages to triumph with something in hand.

Pedigree Notes

Lips Queen, half to a yearling filly by Amaron (GB), is the second pattern-race winner for her sire (by Samum {Ger}) this month and she becomes the first stakes scorer out of Lady Lips (Ger) (Zinaad {GB}). Lady Lips, a daughter of G3 Premio Dormello placegetter Lips Plane (Ire) (Ashkalani {Ire}), is kin to G2 German 1000 Guineas heroine Lips Poison (Ger) (Mamool {Ire}) and MSW G3 Lotto Hamburg Trophy second Lips Arrow (Ger) (Big Shuffle), who in turn produced G1 Bayerisches Zuchtrennen and G2 German 2000 Guineas hero Lucky Lion (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}), who also ran second in the G1 Deutsches Derby. Lips Plane is herself kin to MGSW G3 Horris Hill S. victor Beacon Lodge (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) and Listed Knockaire S. victress Sugarhoneybaby (Ire) (Docksider), from a family featuring GSW GI Del Mar Oaks third Reine de Romance (Ire) Vettori {Ire}).

ONE MASTER LIKELY TO RETURN AT SIX

MG1SW One Master (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) is likely to stay in training as a 6-year-old. Trained by William Haggas to win the last two renewals of the G1 Prix de la Foret, the Lael Stable-owned mare was also second in the G1 Falmouth S. over a mile and also the G1 British Champions Sprint at Ascot over six furlongs. With the decision on her future left up to Haggas, not surprisingly he is keen to have her around--although she will not be going on her travels during the remainder of this year.

"I would think she'll stay in training. I think Mr. and Mrs. Jackson [owners] are keen to do it if I am, and I think I'd be mad not to do it," said Haggas. "She won't be going to the Breeders' Cup or Hong Kong like last year, though. Last year the Breeders' Cup was at Churchill, which is not dissimilar weather to England. This year it's in California which is more akin to Barbados.

"We decided against Hong Kong, too, because I think it's proved now that when there's cut in the ground she can put in a really good performance, she's so much better with cut in the ground."

Another second for Haggas at Ascot was MGSW Addeybb (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) in the G1 Champion S., and while the mud-loving gelding has nothing left for him this season, globe-trotting plans are in the pipeline.

"There's nothing left for Addeybb, but in the back of my mind for the last six months I've been planning on taking him to Sydney in April," said Haggas. "Addeybb came out of the Champion S. really well, so well I wish there was another race for him, but there isn't."

POWERFUL BREEZE SHELVED, WILL GO STRAIGHT TO GUINEAS

G2 May Hill S. victress Powerful Breeze (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) will head straight for the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas rather than run in a trial next spring. Trainer Hugo Palmer does not see the need to run the G1 Fillies' Mile runner-up before the Classic, with such a well-stocked programme of races over her preferred distance.

"She's gone back to where she was foaled, just for three weeks before it gets too cold--I just want her to switch off with everything going on around her," said Palmer of the Dr. Ali Ridha colourbearer." Cont. p6

He added, "She'll come back in three or four weeks and we'll start gradually preparing her for May then. She won't run in a trial. The trials come soon enough. She's already a Group 2 winner and two-thirds of her racing has been over a mile so to drop her down in grade and distance--if we were to get beaten it would be a disappointing way to start the season.

"There's a lovely programme for the fillies over a mile. From the Guineas to the G1 Irish Guineas, to the G1 Coronation to the G1 Falmouth, to the G1 Matron and the G1 Sun Chariot, it's wonderful. We'll take it one race at a time, obviously, but I don't really want to be starting in April."

ALMAREEKH (War Front) was one of the star turns at Keeneland September when selling to Shadwell for $950,000 and debuts for the Sir Michael Stoute stable on the Polytrack. A full-sister to the Listed European Free H. winner and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere third Whitecliffsofdover and a half to the GI Beldame S. third Endless Chatter (First Samurai), the January-foaled bay is out of a full-sister to Pulpit and meets 13 rivals.

6.00 Kempton, Mdn, £6,000, 2yo, 8f (AWT)
GALATA BRIDGE (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}) is another Sir Michael Stoute debutante on this card, being a Cheveley Park Stud half-brother to the star pair Mutakayyef (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) and Veracious (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Out of the G3 Nell Gwyn S. winner and G1 Coronation S. and G1 Falmouth S. runner-up Infallible (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), the April-foaled bay meets another unraced son of Golden Horn in Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum's Nova Roma (GB), a John Gosden trainee whose dam is a group-placed half to Dubai Millennium (GB).

6.30 Kempton, Mdn, £6,000, 2yo, 8f (AWT)
NASHY (IRE) (Camelot {GB}) was a €400,000 Arqana August purchase by Saeed Suhail who is a third Sir Michael Stoute newcomer of note on an intriguing card. Out of the dual group winner and G1 Irish Oaks runner-up Venus de Milo (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}), the February-foaled bay faces 10 rivals on this Polytrack bow.

LEICESTER'S MONDAY CARD ABANDONED

Monday's meeting at Leicester has become the latest victim of the wet spell after being abandoned due to waterlogging. High-profile Flat fixtures at Doncaster and Newbury were called off on Saturday, while Monday's card at Redcar had already been cancelled. Officials at Leicester announced an inspection for midday on Sunday, but made an early decision to draw stumps, with the course deemed unfit for racing due to areas of false ground.

Tuesday's meeting at Bangor is already under threat, with an inspection called for 8 a.m. on Monday. The going is described as heavy, waterlogged in places--and while the forecast is for predominantly dry weather, course officials felt it prudent to call an early check.

ALMOND EYE IMPERIOUS IN TENNO SHO

2018 Japanese Horse of the Year Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) returned after a lengthy absence with a three-length score in the G1 Tenno Sho Autumn in Tokyo on Sunday. Her time of 1:56.20 was only a 10th of a second slower than the stakes record set by Tosen Jordan (Jpn) (Jungle Pocket {Jpn}) in 2011. It was trainer Sakae Kunieda's 16th JRA victory and pilot Christophe Lemaire's 27th.

Deservedly taking all the money at the windows and sent off at 3-5, the Japanese Filly Triple Crown heroine was away without issue and Lemaire guided the 4-year-old to the fence for a rails run sitting about fifth through the early going. Group 1 winner Aerolithe (Jpn) (Kurofune) was shadowed by Group 2 victor Stiffelio (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) and Saturnalia (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) through the opening furlongs. 2019 Classic hero Saturnalia dropped back as the field entered the stretch, while Almond Eye bulled her way through a gap at the fence inside the final quarter mile. The Silk Racing runner drew clear of Japanese champion juvenile colt Danon Premium (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), who had moved up to second at the head of the lane besting Aerolithe by a neck. The latter stayed on grittily for third, another neck ahead of the rallying MGSW You Can Smile (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}).

Almond Eye | Horsephotos

"She was well rested after a long break and showed her true strength today," said Lemaire regarding his mount's 155-day break since her third in the G1 Yasuda Kinen in June. "We were able to follow Aerolithe and Saturnalia in a good position, found a good opening on the rails and she just stretched beautifully from there. Personally, I'm delighted to have won the last Tenno Sho of the Heisei era and the first of the Reiwa era."

Despite losing her debut in August of 2017, Almond Eye posted a seven-straight string of wins until her Yasuda Kinen third. Among her victories was the G1 Japanese 1000 Guineas, G1 Japanese Oaks, and G1 Japanese Fillies St Leger. She saluted in the G1 Japan Cup over this course at the end of November in 2018, and resurfaced with a win in the G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan on Mar. 30. Cont. p10

One of seven winners from seven runners and by a large margin the best produce of her MSW dam who also ran second in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Commemorative Cup, Almond Eye is followed by the year younger winning Unakite (Jpn) (Johannesburg) and the unraced juvenile colt Satono Esperanza (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}). Her second dam is a half-sister to the high class Northern Dancer champions and sires El Gran Senor) and Try My Best.

REG INGLIS: TITAN OF THE BLOODSTOCK WORLD

Jon Kelly & Reg Inglis | Bronwen Healy

By Jo McKinnon

Almost eight months after being struck down by a near-fatal stroke, Reg Inglis musters to meet for a coffee down at one of his favourite Double Bay haunts. Walking into the cafe it's hard to know what to expect. Punctual and looking dapper as always, he's seated in the corner waiting patiently. Already one coffee down, he welcomes me with his famous charm.

Whilst nothing appears to have changed too much in his character, there's evidence of paralysis down one side of his upper body. He tells me he cannot remember the five weeks of his life after the stroke that was spent lying flat on his back in a hospital.

"The doctors thought I would be a vegetable," said Reg.

Through extraordinary determination, top medical assistance and the support of a tight and loyal network of friends and family, he's defying that grim prognosis. Daily speech therapy lessons have enabled him to regain his ability to communicate and next month he will take his biggest step yet on the journey towards recovery and embark on a trip to the US to visit his great friend Jon Kelly and attend the Breeders' Cup.

"I have always been a positive person and continue to be that way. I never look back. Back's history and forward is the future. I don't dwell on things. I'm lucky."

Reg has been a towering figure in Australian bloodstock for decades. In 1971 he first began working at his family's sales company, William Inglis, and by 1989 he was appointed Managing Director.

"When I was about five or six years-old I used to notice Dad going to the yearling sales and I thought how wonderful it would be. It's always been my great passion. I think the actual auctioneering and the theatre of it is what I love and seeing one fine thoroughbred after another going through the ring."

The Drama of Auction

Reg got his auctioneering start selling calves at Camden.

"Dad said to me, OK you are having a go today, and I thought to myself well here goes."

And, so began a journey that would see him take centre stage of the major sales rings. For many years his distinctive voice could be heard echoing through the auditoriums at Newmarket and Oaklands where he brought down the gavel on some of the best horseflesh in Australia.

"I was lucky enough to have a good voice. You can't make an auctioneer."

He says the support and encouragement of his late father Dick during that early period of his life and career had a significant impact.

"He was a marvellous man. He let me be myself. He always advised me of what I had done wrong but his greatest advice was to be fair." Cont. p2

Reg Inglis & John Messara | Bronwen Healy

Reg took that sage advice on board and there was no greater test of exercising fairness than in 1989 when the late Bart Cummings and two accounting firms, Coopers & Lybrand and Peat Marwick, designed a horse syndication scheme based around a tax break for investment in racehorses that existed at the time.

Urged on by the success of a $6-million syndicate in 1988, Bart bought $22 million worth of yearlings at sales in the space of just a few months. At the Inglis Easter sales alone, he spent $13.6 million on 43 yearlings, including $1.5 million on a single horse. Units in the syndicates were then offered at $49,446, plus $10,284 for the first year's running expenses--for an estimated tax saving of $7,462. Prospectus documents for the scheme weren't ready until late June and Bart needed to settle with Inglis by June 30.

He overestimated how well the economy was breaking back from the 1987 Stockmarket crash and selling the units in the horses was not as easy as he'd hoped. With soaring interest rates the money had dried up everywhere. Subsequently, Bart didn't get close to selling the 160 units he needed to, however, Inglis, which had extended credit to him, still had to pay the vendors of the yearlings.

Barry Bowditch & Vin Cox | Bronwen Healy

"He got himself into a hole. We had the option to pursue bankruptcy and we didn't. We didn't get the credit due to us. They (journalists) kept siding with Bart.

"He got let off with a five-year payment scheme to us. No more than $500,000 was paid back and he owed us $15 million. So, we had to bear a debt of close to $15 million and that was a bit in those days."

Reg openly admits the biggest disappointment was Bart's lack of gratitude after the whole saga.

"He never acknowledged us. Had he come to me and said, Reg, I'm sorry, I would have forgiven him but he never did."

Impressionable Men

At the time Reg had a number of very impressionable young men working in his team including Jonathan D'Arcy who is currently Inglis General Manager of Bloodstock Operations. Jonathan vividly recalls what was a highly stressful period for Inglis.

"Reg showed a great deal of common sense. He had to find alternative banking arrangements and that solidified our position in the industry. A lot of people had no idea what was going on behind their backs and it's made the company as strong as it is today.

"Some people are aware of how much he (Bart) paid us back and it was not very many cents in the dollar. Whilst the company has done well over the years, back then every dollar was important. "To find money to pay out to breeders and not get that money back was a burden to the company and shareholders over the years," said Jonathan.

Godolphin Managing Director, Vin Cox, who was also working closely with Reg at the time, speaks highly of his ability to navigate through challenging times.

"There were a number of crises over the years, none more so than the collapse of the market in the late 80s and the Botulism outbreak at the 1993 Easter Yearling sale. Not only did Reg lead Inglis through these delicate times, but the business flourished enormously afterwards," said Vin.

The leadership shown by Reg through the Botulism outbreak also made a huge impression on Jonathan D'Arcy.

"The telling point was that Reg pulled everyone together the afternoon of the outbreak," recalled Jonathan. "All the breeders had attended the meeting and lots of people said the sale had to be stopped and cancelled.

"He was a very strong voice and said we have all the buyers from around the world we need breeders to stand behind their product. If a horse falls ill after it's sold, they must agree to take it back at no risk to the purchaser. Many of the horses here are 100% sound and healthy and we are not going to get these buyers back in two weeks-time or a month to re-run this sale. The only chance of the sale being a success is to keep going.

"It was an incredible show of leadership in what was a high-pressure situation. I always look back at how Reg took control when there were a lot of loud voices in the room that wanted to choose the more conservative route. The path he chose was very much the right path for everyone. The buyers stood up and the sale was strong and successful," said Jonathan.

A Mentor

Vin and Jonathan are just two shining examples of key people in the Australian racing and breeding industry today that have been mentored by Reg. Others include Magic Millions Managing Director Barry Bowditch, Sky Racing's Richard Haynes and highly respected bloodstock advisor Trevor Lobb.

"That was one of my goals, to mentor people. I told them to own up to your mistakes and be honest. That's the main thing. I was very lucky to have the staff around me that wanted to work hard and play hard. Work hard and play hard and don't get them mixed up," said Reg.

He's proud of his proteges and what they have gone on to do since the days back at Inglis.

"Vin was always someone that stuck out. It was his manner. He could get on so well with people. He is a genuinely good guy and he's not corruptible."

Of Jonathan he says, "He's a remarkable bloke. Honesty seems to come up a lot in this but he's absolutely honest and a great judge. He's the driving force of William Inglis in my opinion. A person of the highest quality."

After 36 years, including 18 as Managing Director, Reg was forced to resign from Inglis in 2006 following a change in shareholding control between different members of his family.

"That was very traumatic," he summarises.

He explained how valiantly he tried to keep the business with the moral and financial support of his US friend and businessman Jon Kelly.

"He rang me and said I'm coming to help you. I said there's little you can do and he said I'm on a plane tomorrow. I picked him up and he said have you considered this and considered that. I offered $110 million for the business and they knocked it back."

With takeovers and serious health problems including a bout of cancer to contend with, it hasn't been an easy 10 years for Reg but his spirit is as strong as ever.

"The Reg today is the same person I met years ago. Respect, integrity and honesty are the things he values in people and if you show him that he will return it in spades," said Jonathan.

Vin Cox will be forever thankful for the influence he had on his career.

"Reg has a sixth sense around judging character, whether it be giving a new client some leeway or selecting staff, he rarely got it wrong. That served him enormously well over the years, where you will find many careers or businesses were started because Reg gave them a go, not least my own career," said Vin.

Whilst still keeping in touch with and a close eye on the progress of the likes of Vin and Jonathan, Reg is now mainly focused on rebuilding his own physical health.

"It's been a battle. The plan is I am going to wait until after Christmas to determine what I want to do. I'm here to get better," he said, with positivity and that trademark glint of excitement in his eye.

BAFFERT RUNNERS TUNE UP FOR CUP DATES

Eight Rings | Horsephotos

Trainer Bob Baffert sent out a trio of Breeders' Cup contenders to work at Santa Anita Sunday. Leading the way was GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile contender Eight Rings (Empire Maker). Working in company with unraced 2-year-old Azul Coast (Super Saver), the GI American Pharoah S. winner went four furlongs in :47.20 (2/62).

"It was a good work, I'm happy with him," trainer Bob Baffert, shooting for his fifth Juvenile victory, said. "He worked with a maiden who hasn't started. I wanted to give him a little target to run at."

Evin Roman was aboard for the 7:45 a.m. drill.

"He's healthy and he looks good," Baffert added of Eight Rings. "The track's pretty deep today. It's different, a lot deeper, than it was yesterday...overall, it was a very good work. Now we just wait, buy our tickets, enter and hope we get a good draw."

GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies hopeful Bast (Uncle Mo), winner of the GI Chandelier S. and GI Del Mar Debutante, worked five furlongs in 1:01.60 (14/42) in company with 5-year-old gelding Hot Sean (Flatter).

Improbable (City Zip), aiming for the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, earned the five-furlong bullet Sunday, covering the distance in :59.20 (1/42).

Baffert's GI Breeders' Classic hopeful McKinzie (Street Sense) is expected to have his final major work ahead of the $6-million race Monday. Cont. p3

QUALITY ROAD TO $200,000; GAME WINNER TO LANE'S END

Quality Road will join Tapit and Medaglia d'Oro as the second highest-priced stallions in the country with a 2020 stud fee of $200,000, Lane's End Farm announced Sunday. That news was announced in tandem with that of a new stallion addition: the 2018 champion 2-year-old Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}--Indyan Giving, by A.P. Indy) will join the farm's roster, along with the previously announced Catalina Cruiser (Union Rags), upon his retirement.

"We are very excited to have the opportunity to stand Game Winner upon retirement in 2021," said Lane's End's Bill Farish. "Champion 2-year-olds are hard to come by and we are honored that Gary and Mary West have entrusted Lane's End with his stallion career."

Game Winner, who has earned over $2 million from four graded stakes wins, is by perennial leading sire and Lane's End stallion Candy Ride. Cont. p6

THOROUGHBRED DAILY NEWS

Monday, October 28, 2019

SPENDTHRIFT ACQUIRES INTEREST IN MR. MONEY 4

B. Wayne Hughes's Spendthrift Farm has acquired an interest in multiple graded stakes winner Mr. Money (Goldencents). The 3-year-old is expected to go postward in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, a race his sire, who stands at Spendthrift, won twice.

THE WEEK IN REVIEW 8

The book on Maximum Security (New Year's Day), who returned to the races with a win in Saturday's GIII Bold Ruler S., is still a work in progress, T.D. Thornton writes in The Week in Review.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN: OCT. 27

● Claiborne Farm and Adele Dilschneider's Elate (Medaglia d'Oro), coming off runner-up efforts in the GI Personal Ensign S. and GI Juddmonte Spinster S., tuned up for Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic with a three-furlong drill in :36.80 (5/12).

Elate will be trying to join Zenyatta as the only females to win the 1 1/4-mile Classic.

"The fact that she is three-for-three at 1 1/4 miles is the reason why we chose the Classic," explained trainer Bill Mott. "She's a top-class mare and she's run very well at the distance, and we want to give her the best opportunity we can at that trip. It just seems--for whatever reason--that she cruises along very well and still has run in her going a mile and a quarter. Some horses, they'll tend to flatten out a little bit at that distance. But she seems to be always coming on strong."

Elate | Horsephotos

Elate won Saratoga's GI Alabama S. at 10 furlongs as a 3-year-old and has taken the GII Delaware H. at that same distance the past two years, all three victories coming by open lengths.

"We're throwing her in deep water," Mott acknowledged. "We very seldom run the fillies against the colts unless we think we have a top-class horse and one that would fit the race. I think she fits the conditions of the race very well. She's proven it. It's not like it's a guessing game at a mile and a quarter. Of course we're running against good competition, so she still has to run her very best race to compete."

Mott also sent Classic hopeful Yoshida (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) out to work Sunday at Santa Anita. The 5-year-old, most recently third in the GI Woodward S., went four furlongs in :50 flat (39/62). The Mott-trained GI Breeders' Cup Turf contender Channel Maker (English Channel) went the same distance in :49.80 (36/62).

- Also working for the Classic, GI Awesome Again S. winner Mongolian Groom (Hightail) went five furlongs in 1:02 flat (17/42) for trainer Enebish Ganbat.
- GI Zenyatta S. winner Paradise Woods (Union Rags), aiming for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, went five furlongs in 1:00 flat (2/42) under Abel Cedillo for trainer John Shirreffs.
- GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf contender Mirth (Colonel John) went five furlongs over the training track in 1:01.80 (1/7) for trainer Phil D'Amato. The Little Red Feather Racing colorbearer is coming off a win in the Sept. 28 GI Rodeo Drive S.

- The Rood & Riddle Breeders' Cup Post-Position Draw for the 2019 Breeders' Cup World Championships will be shown live Monday from the Trackside Breakfast Marquee at Santa Anita Park starting at 3:30 p.m. PT, with the first race drawn at 4 p.m. All 14 Breeders' Cup races will be drawn and announced on TVG, along with the Breeders' Cup website, Official Mobile App and YouTube, Twitter, and Facebook pages.

B. Wayne Hughes's Spendthrift Farm has acquired an interest in GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile contender Mr. Money (Goldencents--Plenty O'Toole, by Tiznow). The 3-year-old, campaigned by Chester Thomas's Allied Racing Stable and trained by Bret Calhoun, won this year's GIII Indiana Derby, GIII West Virginia Derby, GIII Pat Day Mile S., and GIII Matt Winn S. He was most recently second in the Sept. 21 GI Pennsylvania Derby.

"We are very excited to partner with Chester Thomas and his entire team on Mr. Money, who we believe to be one of the most talented colts of this year's 3-year-old crop, with the potential of becoming a leading handicap horse in 2020," said Ned Toffey, Spendthrift general manager. "Obviously, we believe in the sire line and know it very well. Mr. Money is a fantastic physical representation of Goldencents and Into Mischief, and he has that tremendous desire to compete, which we've come to know from this sire line. We think it's only a matter of time before he gets his Grade I."

Both two-time GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Goldencents and his sire, Into Mischief, stand at Spendthrift.

In preparation for championship weekend, Mr. Money worked four furlongs over a sloppy Churchill track in :49.80 (26/34) Saturday. He is expected to ship to Santa Anita Tuesday and long-term plans call for a 4-year-old campaign in 2020.

"We are excited to bring in Spendthrift as a partner on Mr. Money," said Thomas, who will remain the majority, managing owner on the colt. "Mr. Hughes and his team have a proven track record and we are thrilled to be in the Breeders' Cup and have them with us."

Mr. Money | Coady

Calhoun added, "Mr. Money has gotten better and better as the year has gone on and continues to breeze sensationally. He's coming into the Breeders' Cup in top form. We are really excited to see him face some of the top older horses in the country, and, hopefully, there's a little extra luck on our side with his dad, Goldencents, being a two-time Dirt Mile winner at Santa Anita. We also have quite a bit of excitement about racing him as a 4-year-old and think he can be one of the top older horses in the country next year."

On the board in eight of 11 starts to date, Mr. Money has five wins and earnings of $1,277,220.

BREAKDOWN AT SANTA ANITA

Bye Bye Beautiful (Flatter) was humanely euthanized after the third race Sunday at Santa Anita. After being pulled up past the half-mile pole, Bye Bye Beautiful was immediately evaluated by a team of on-track veterinarians, led by Santa Anita Park veterinarian Dr. Dana Stead, and transported in the equine ambulance. Stead observed that the filly had suffered a right forelimb lateral condylar fracture with medial sesamoid involvement and, because of the severity of the injury, made the decision to humanely euthanize the horse. Jockey Tiago Pereira was uninjured.

As mandated by the California Horse Racing Board, Bye Bye Beautiful will undergo a necropsy at the University of California-Davis School of Veterinary Medicine.

During his championship season, Game Winner remained unbeaten with victories in the GI Del Mar Futurity, GI American Pharoah S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Churchill Downs. As a 3-year-old, Game Winner was fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby. Wide throughout, he finished fifth beaten just 3 3/4 lengths and was good enough to earn the best Thoro-Graph figure of .25 of the field. Also this year, he was second in the GII Rebel S. and GI Santa Anita Derby. He was most recently seen winning the GIII Los Alamitos Derby.

"It's not easy to find good horses; it's even harder to find champions," said trainer Bob Baffert. "I've been fortunate to have a few good horses, and even a few champions, but the champions really stick out. Horses like Game Winner and Pharoah; to do what they did and to be champion 2-year-olds, they're the best of the best."

Game Winner will remain with Baffert and target a spring campaign. Cont. p7

Game Winner | Coady

Quality Road's fee, increased from 2019's $150,000, was bolstered by a list-leading four Grade I winners in 2019 to bring his total from six crops to 11.

This year, his Dunbar Road, City of Light, Bellafina and Roadster won at the highest level. He also had a $1-million 2-year-old at OBS April, and a $950,000 yearling at Keeneland September and an overall yearling average of $325,317.

"Quality Road has sired an amazing number of Grade I winners out of only six crops of racing age," Farish said. "He is an elite stallion by any measure, and he will never see the large book sizes that many of his peers are faced with."

Other stallions getting a bump in fees were Candy Ride, who went from $80,000 to $100,000 on the strength of a strong 2019 with Grade I winner Ollie's Candy, and a $1-million yearling at Keeneland September.

Liam's Map, with two Grade I winners in his first crop, has gone from $20,000 to $35,000; City of Light has seen an increase from $35,000 to $40,000, and Twirling Candy from $25,000 to $40,000.

The complete Lane's End roster appears below.

THE BOOK ON MAXIMUM SECURITY? THANKFULLY, IT'S STILL A WORK IN PROGRESS

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

It's quite possible there's an enterprising turf writer out there compiling notes for a book about Maximum Security (New Year's Day). If so, two literary cautions are in order: 1) The final version of this horse's story might end up being so unbelievable that it will never pass for non-fiction; 2) The aspiring author had better have more than a few blank notebooks on hand, because the end of this far-fetched tale does not yet appear to be in sight.

A Grade III seven-furlong win at Belmont Park in late October hardly seems like a plausible plot point in a compelling yarn about a potential champion racehorse. But right now, you can safely slip your bookmark into the spot after Maximum Security's polished and professional win in Saturday's Bold Ruler H. at Belmont Park, go watch this weekend's Breeders' Cup, and then return to his still-developing narrative in a few weeks knowing "Max" will be the headline horse who provides the most intrigue as the sport heads into 2020.

Let's recap the unlikely story arc so far: A homebred debuts in a $16,000 maiden-claimer. He wins by 9 3/4 lengths with no takers at the claim box, then runs up the score in two subsequent starts by a combined 24 3/4 lengths. Somewhat dismissed as an overachieving speedball in the GI Florida Derby, the colt wires that race too, stamping his ticket to the GI Kentucky Derby.

Sent straight to the front in America's most important horse race, he leads nearly every step of the trip and swats away all stretch challengers to cross the wire first, only to have his Derby win snatched away because of a questionable foul and stewards' disqualification, with the whole agonizing and confusing affair playing out on international TV.

The colt then sits out the remaining two legs of the Triple Crown while his owners file a lawsuit to contest the Derby DQ (the case is still pending). He gets beaten only a length in a gritty comeback prep, his only on-the-track loss to date. Then he fights through three distinct instances of in-race adversity to win the GI Haskell Invitational S., which is run under bizarre circumstances in front of a sparse crowd when searing summer heat causes Monmouth Park to abandon most of its biggest day of racing while pushing the Haskell post time back to nearly nightfall.

Heavily favored to win the GI Pennsylvania Derby in September, the colt is forced to scratch the week of the race after suffering a severe and acute bout of colic. He survives, but the training setback derails his chances of making the Breeders' Cup.

Rerouted to a different stakes, he wires the field despite facing older horses for the first time and being pressed through fast fractions over a distance (seven furlongs) that is not optimal for him--and with his trainer declaring post-race that the colt was not 100% conditioning-wise.

Maximum Security | Coglianese

That's the believe-it-or-not story so far for Maximum Security. Even before this past weekend's emphatic Bold Ruler win, the plot thickened considerably when co-owners Gary and Mary West publicly declared they intend to race Max at age four in 2020.

You might not agree with the Wests' attempt to litigate the Kentucky Derby decision, and you might dismiss as bluster the outlandish $5-million side bets Gary West proposed to the owners of rival racehorses over the summer. But the Wests relish seeing their horses in action, and it's worth noting that they also recently said 2018 juvenile champ Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) will similarly pursue a racing campaign at age four. Both decisions are likely to bolster America's older male dirt division, which right now lacks star power.

Next up for Maximum Security is either the GI Cigar Mile H. Dec. 7 at Aqueduct Racetrack or (less likely) the GI Clark H. Nov. 29 at Churchill Downs. The mid-range goal is the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational S. (PWC) at Gulfstream Park Jan. 25.

Although the sport's crystal ball has been a bit warped of late, let's allow ourselves the luxury of looking ahead three months: Assume Max wins his next stakes assignment, which is highly likely considering most of his A-list peers are opting for the Breeders' Cup instead. He will then presumably have two top-notch tighteners under his belt prior to the PWC, which will be run over a speed-conducive surface that plays directly to Maximum Security's tactical strength.

Also consider that this relatively fresh and still-maturing powerhouse is four-for-four lifetime at Gulfstream, winning those starts by a combined 38 lengths.

Come January, Gulfstream officials might have as much difficulty getting 11 other ownership groups to commit to a $500,000 PWC starting berth as Gary West has had in finding takers for those wacky $5-million side wagers.

ST. LUCIA RACETRACK TAKES NEXT STEP

By Christie DeBernardis

VIEUX FORT, ST. LUCIA--The Royal St. Lucia Turf Club (RSLTC) took the next step towards its Dec. 13 grand opening earlier this week with the arrival of 40 Thoroughbreds from America. The delivery of the horses via an IRT plane was unlike anything the Caribbean nation had ever seen and brought chills to many witnesses.

"What most people didn't think would happen is happening," St. Lucia Prime Minister Allen Chastanet said. "The track is here, the horses are here, the facilities are ready to go."

A press conference was held at the new track to give the media a chance to tour the facility and learn more about the upcoming race day, which will be headlined by the $150,000 Pitons Cup. The horses were still in the track's quarantine facility, but were available for viewing on a live stream during the event.

"The Caribbean Equine Cultural Festival will be the region's first lifestyle and racing event," said Eden Harrington, RSLTC Director and China Horse Club Vice President. "It will commence on Thursday, the 12th of December with an investment and welcome party before moving to the National Day with CECF Race day."

He continued, "On every Sunday of next month, we will hold open days here. It will be a chance to see the facilities and these horses. These horses are all for sale. It will be a chance for St. Lucians, as individuals or in groups up to 30, to be owners. These horse will be given preference to compete in the CECF for purses from $20,000 to $40,000."

St. Lucian Kirley Trim leading a horse just off the plane | RSLTC

The majority of the horses are unraced 3-year-olds purchased by the Royal St. Lucia Turf Club at last year's OBS June Sale, but there are a few older horses mixed in as well. The group has been in training with Brandon and Ali Rice at RiceHorse Stables in Florida as they prepared for their journey to St. Lucia and each horse is for sale at a flat fee of $20,000.

"Brandon and Ali Rice are third generation horsemen and were chosen because of their excellence to prepare the horses for training and travel," Harrington said. "These horses have been sourced out of the U.S. and have been trained for over a year at our expense. They are being supervised by two top vets and trainer Deon Visser. It is not our intention to make a profit on these horses. It is our intention to introduce St. Lucians to horse racing."

The RSLTC's goal is not just to introduce St. Lucians to horse racing, but also to educate them and provide them with job opportunities in the Sport of Kings. This was the main goal of St. Lucian native Winston Trim, who worked tirelessly for decades to bring racing to his native land.

A lifelong horseman, Trim spent several years studying American racing under New York-based conditioner Robert Barbara. He had spent most of his adult life trying to bring his dream of an international horse racing facility in St. Lucia to life and finally achieved it with the help of the China Horse Club's Teo ah Khing.

Unfortunately, Trim passed away after a motor cycle accident in March of 2017, so he will be not be there to see his dream become a reality. However, his brother Kirley Trim will be working at the facility and his family was on hand for the media event, where Winston Trim was given plenty of recognition.

"Winston had this dream and he followed it up," Chastanet said as he took to the podium to address the group, while Teo and Trim's family looked on from the front row. "That is the unique part because all of us have dreams, but how many of us have that go-getter attitude of thinking that dream could actually be a reality. He did his research and tracked down Teo ah Khing and it can't be easy to find him. When you do find him, he is so busy, holding him steady even for a minute to be able to convince him to even come to St. Lucia is a hard task."

The RSLTC has started an initiative appropriately named the Winston Trim Training Programme to educate and train St. Lucians as grooms, exercise riders, jockeys, trainers, etc. The internationally accredited training program's first wave of participants were trained in the skills necessary to be a racetrack groom. The first graduates were present at the event and have been helping to care for the 40 American horses since their arrival on the island.

"The Winston Trim Training Programme is an ongoing initiative. It is not a one-off exercise," Harrington said. "It is a road to greater opportunity and self fulfillment. It is named after the late Winston Trim, who was instrumental in bringing horse racing to this nation. This initiative has been approved by the government of St. Lucia and is supported by the Royal St. Lucia Turf Club and its affiliate the China Horse Club. Anyone wishing to support this program should know 100% of the donations go straight to the program." Cont. p11

He continued, "The Winston Trim Training Programme is an umbrella title and we want everything under that in recognition of Winston and his mentality of trying to use horse racing as an opportunity for employment for St. Lucians that he didn't have here."

The RSLTC also aims to help St. Lucians move into other roles surrounding the racetrack, such as veterinarians, stewards, administration, etc. The club currently has top professionals in their fields from around the world, such as Director of Integrity David Loregnard and COO Robert Butcher.

"We are all replaceable here," Harrington said. "That is the intention. We are not all meant to be here long term. This is a long term investment, but we have to put the right pieces of the puzzle in place. Today has been five years in the making. The importance of St. Lucians being involved from the very first opportunity is immeasurable. More than 200 additional St. Lucians are predicted to be employed on CECF race day, mostly from Vieux Fort and surrounding areas."

A graduate of the Winston Trim Training Programme | RSLTC

Trim will also be remembered on the inaugural race day with a sprint race named in his honor. The RSLTC hopes to turn the Winston Trim Memorial Trophy into a premier international sprint event. The purse currently stands at $40,000, but the club plans to increase it in the future.

The press conference also offered updates on highlight of the opening day card, the $150,000 Pitons Cup. Four of the 12 slot holders have already been announced: WinStar Farm; Taylor Made; Todd Pletcher, Sol Kumin & Brad Weisbord; and Dan Schafer. Harrington unveiled four more slot holders in top Jamaican trainer Anthony Nunez, who is teaming up with Barry Irwin's Team Valor; Trinidadian owners Merlin Samlalsingh and Wilfred Acham; a group from Australia that includes Henry Field of Newgate Farm, Telluride and Richard and Michael Freedman; and California-based owners Rockingham Ranch and David Bernsen.

Chapalu settled for second after contesting the pace in his 5 1/2-furlong debut over the Laurel turf Aug. 1 and graduated with a 3 3/4-length victory going one mile over the Keeneland lawn Oct. 6. The bay colt, who has been working steadily over the Tapeta track at Fair Hill, was making his first main-track appearance over Woodbine's all-weather surface here.

Chapalu broke alertly and, rank early, pulled his way to the front. Well held, the 8-5 favorite tugged his way through fractions of :24.45 and :48.17. Given his cue entering the far turn, he skipped further clear into the lane, only to see his four-length advantage nearly disappear late as he drifted out in the final strides.

"He was doing it so easy," said winning rider Patrick Husbands. "When I got going in the first turn and he gave me his ears, I knew he wasn't going too fast. And they by the five-eighths pole, his ears were still pricked, so I knew he wasn't going too fast. Then by the three-quarter pole, his ears were still pricked and I said, 'You know what? He's the real deal.'"

Pedigree Notes:

Albaugh Family Stables acquired Chapalu's half-brother by Street Sense for $225,000 at last month's Keeneland September Yearling Sale. His stakes-placed dam Panther Strike, a half-sister to graded stakes winners Sky Treasure (Sky Mesa) and Surgical Strike (Red Giant), produced a filly by Lemon Drop Kid this year.

Sky Treasure's unraced 2-year-old Azul Coast (Super Saver) worked in company with GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile contender Eight Rings (Empire Maker) at Santa Anita Sunday.

BROWN LEADS TRAINERS AT BELMONT

Trainer Chad Brown led all conditioners with 28 wins, and jockey Manny Franco, with 44 wins, picked up his first-ever riding title at Belmont Park as the 38-day fall meet concluded with an abbreviated card Sunday.

Klaravich Stables registered 10 wins to pace all owners, outlasting Peter Brant (nine victories) and Repole Stable (eight) for the top spot.

The 24-year-old Franco, the New York Racing Association's leading rider in 2018, won the GI Champagne S. aboard Tiz the Law (Constitution).

"I couldn't ask for more and I just want to thank all the trainers and owners for trusting me and giving me the opportunities," Franco said. "I'm pretty happy with what I'm doing right now, but I just want to keep going and keep working hard and keep grinding. I want to stay here for my entire career, if I can. I'm just trying to do the same things going forward and keep my mind on business."

NYRA cancelled live racing at Belmont Park Sunday after the first race due to reduced visibility caused by high winds and torrential rainfall forecast to impact Long Island throughout the day.

LOPEZ EARNS MONMOUTH RIDING TITLE

Paco Lopez earned his sixth riding title on Sunday's closing day of Monmouth Park's 2019 meet. With two winners on the final card of the 61-day meet, Lopez finished with 109 victories for the meet, two more than Nik Juarez in the closest rider's race in track history. Jorge Navarro extended his record with his seventh straight training title with 68 winners, while Joseph Besecker, with 23 winners from 72 starters, was the meet's leading owner.

The 34-year-old Lopez last won the riding title at Monmouth Park in 2016.

"It means a lot," Lopez said. "I think as you get older, you appreciate it more. I wish I could be like Joe Bravo and win 13 titles here, but I don't think anyone is ever going to catch him. I'm happy with what I've done."

Lopez and Bravo are the only riders in Monmouth Park history to win six or more titles.

CAMPBELL JOINS FTBOA BOARD; WHEELER NAMED PRESIDENT

Marilyn Campbell, co-owner of Stonehedge Farm, has been named to the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association board of directors, while Valerie Dailey, Brent Fernung, and Dr. Phil Matthews remain on the board for their second terms. After a one-year absence as a member on the board due to term limits, Joe O'Farrell, III returns to the board. Each will serve three-year terms that will run through 2022.

Greg Wheeler was elected as the president of the association at the board meeting that followed the FTBOA annual meeting Friday.

"This is a diverse board that represents the members of our association across all spectrums of our industry," Wheeler said. "We have representation from the large, historically significant 'anchor' farms. We have representation of those who breed for the sales and those who breed to race. We have representation from breeders who are also consignors. We have representation of the small farm and 'backyard' breeders, as well as the larger commercial operations. This board literally illustrates the concerns/ideas from a new generation all the way through the long established breeders and owners. We have enjoyed several significant accomplishments and we have overcome many hurdles in the recent past. We are now going to lean heavily on the talents, components and connections of this board, management and advisors to move the Florida Thoroughbred industry forward legislatively, at the track and on the farm."

PALACE FILLY EARNS TDN RISING STAR STATUS AT SANTA ANITA

Auberge | Benoit

Speedway Stable LLC's Auberge (Palace) made short work of five others to become a 'TDN Rising Star' at Santa Anita Sunday. Sent off at 3-5 for this unveiling, Auberge shot out of the gate to challenge Parkour (Carpe Dieme) through a swift quarter in :22.21. Ready to dispense with that rival exiting the backstretch, she extended her advantage through the hometurn, continued to draw away while under a hand ride and crossed the wire 7 3/4 lengths over Parkour. Cosmic Cowgirl (Malibu Moon) was 3/4 of a length back in third. This is the sixth winner for Auberge's freshman sire (by City Zip). The most expensive yearling for the MGISW Palace in 2018, Auberge was scratched out of this year's Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream Sale, and reappeared at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale, summoning $570,000--top juvenile for the sire in 2019--after breezing in :10 1/5. (For story click here). She is a half to dual stakes winner Theperfectvow (Majesticperfection) and hails from the family of champion Banshee Breeze (Unbridled). Prenuptial Vow produced a filly by Super Saver in 2018 and was bred to Mendelssohn this season.

South Bend took his record to a perfect three-for-three with a victory in Sunday's Street Sense S. at Churchill Downs. Sharp at the start, favored South Bend settled in a rail-skimming fourth as Silver Prospector--with Carpe Victoriam (Carpe Diem) alongside--carved out a quarter in :22.37. As American Butterfly (American Pharoah) challenged for the lead on the outside, taking control heading into the home turn, South Bend was forced momentarily to bide his time and wait for a seam to open up. As soon as he saw daylight in the stretch, the bay dove through and drew clear to win by a length over Fighting Seabee. Silver Prospector rounded out the trifecta.

"It's always nice to have a horse show this much talent early in his career," said trainer Stanley Hough. "He hasn't shown me anything yet that he can't stretch out around two turns, so the [GII] Kentucky Jockey Club [S. Nov. 30] at the end of the meet would make sense."

Sandra's Rose, who is also responsible for a yearling by Into Mischief, was bred back to Distorted Humor.

Margins: 6, 6, HF. Odds: 2.90, 20.40, 14.90.

Also Ran: Lucky Jingle, Curlinesque, Spotted Ghost, Specially.

Finite opened her career with a pair of runner-up efforts sprinting over the Saratoga main track before graduating with a front-running tally over the lawn at Kentucky Downs Sept. 12. The chestnut filly pressed pacesetting Specially (Tapiture) through fractions of :22.87 and :45.78. She stuck her head in front after three-quarters in 1:10.37 and powered clear down the lane, crushing Monomoy Girl's 2017 stakes record of 1:36.29 by clocking one mile over a fast track in 1:35.53.

"She relaxed so comfortable for me today after breaking so well," winning rider Ricardo Santana said. "I got her in the perfect spot and she responded every step of the way to the finish. She's a very nice filly and I think she can go longer."

Next up for Finite is expected to be the Nov. 30 GII Golden Rod S., according to trainer Steve Asmussen.

"She definitely passed the test today stretching out in distance," Asmussen said. "She's a very quality filly and had a nice win at Kentucky Downs coming into this race. The Golden Rod is definitely the right race for her after this type of performance, so it was encouraging to see her stretch out."

After setting a swift early pace, 'TDN Rising Star' and even-money favorite Specially faded to seventh and last.

"She came back a little quickly in this race today in only three weeks," David Carroll, assistant to trainer Mark Casse, said. "She trained really well out of that race, but it was pretty quick to come back."

Remit, a full-sister to multiple graded stakes winner Tapiture and graded-placed Rotation, produced a filly by Candy Ride (Arg) last year and a colt by Gun Runner this year. She was bred back to Gun Runner. Debbie Easter signed the ticket at $200,000 following Finite's :10 2/5 work at this year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May Sale. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Midcourt collected his third consecutive victory with a come-from-behind score in Sunday's Comma to the Top S. Unhurried after the start, the gelding caboosed the field through a respectable opening quarter and started to take closer order leaving the backstretch. Taken to the outside by Victor Espinoza, he was five wide on the turn, eyeballed the game Two Thirty Five down the lane and inched ahead in the final strides to collect his first taste of black-type. Favored Leading Score was a clear third.

Off the board in two starts for Peter Eurton in 2017, Midcourt spent the following season on the sidelines and was gelded prior to his 2019 reappearance, this time under the care of John Shirreffs. Second going a mile over this track Feb. 24, he came back over the same track and trip June 2 before adding another to the win column in a $40,000 optional claimer at Del Mar Aug. 18.

"In the afternoon, he shows up," said Shirreffs. "We think the farther he goes, the better he'll get. When this horse applies himself, he's a really good horse. We'll probably run next in the [GIII] Native Diver at Del Mar [1 1/8 miles Nov. 23]."

Midcourt hails from the family of Canadian champion juvenile filly Honky Tonk Tune (Cure the Blues).

CREATIVE INSTINCT (f, 3, Creative Cause--Teacher Teacher, by Swiss Yodeler), a winner of the state-bred Generous Portion S. as a juvenile, ran third routing in the slop locally three back in early February. Unplaced in her latest, including a seventh-place run in an optional claimer here Oct. 6, the 9-1 shot was not the quickest into stride, but soon stuck her neck in front and set a contested pace through fractions of :21.85 and :45.60. Shaking loose inside the final quarter mile, the grey was given some left-handed taps and had built up enough cushion to deny the rapidly closing Persepolis (War Front) to win by 1 3/4 lengths on the line. The winner has a yearling full-brother and a weanling half-sister by Empire Way. Teacher Teacher was covered by Creative Cause in 2019. Sales history: $50,000 Ylg '17 BARSEL; $285,000 2yo '18 OBSMAR. FLOWER POINT (f, 3, Point of Entry--Fab Flowers {MSP, by Lewis Michael), a winner first out over this turf course back in April, finished off the board in her next three starts before closing to be third sprinting in a Kentucky Downs allowance going 6 1/2 furlongs Sept. 8. Stretched to a mile last time, she came home and even fourth and was given a 9-2 chance to return to the winner's circle here. Off a step slow, the bay was far back in ninth through quick early splits. Angled out while three wide turning for home, Flower Point gradually closed on the leaders and was up in the final jumps to score by a neck over Miss Hot Legs (Verrazano). BEAUTIFUL TRAUMA (f, 2, Tapiture--Wild Debutante, by Forest Wildcat), fourth at first asking at Ellis Park after hitting the gate Aug. 9, went two better going a mile here despite another bumpy beginning Sept. 13. Tabbed the 9-5 crowd's pick, the juvenile was under a ride to maintain her midpack position from the bell. In between horses as noses pointed toward home, she found a good rhythm and edged up to fourth with three furlongs remaining. Spun three wide into the stretch, she burst through a seam and forged to the front. By herself the last 150 yards, she crossed the wire 2 3/4 lengths to the good of Never Forget (War Front). She is the 18th winner for her freshman sire (by Tapit). Her dam, a full-sister to SW and GI Vosburgh S. third Wildcat Brief (Forest Wildcat), has a yearling colt by Morning Line and was bred this spring to Temple City. OFF THE MEDS (c, 2, Medaglia d'Oro--Sky High Lady {SW, $266,406}, by Sky Mesa) never factored in his debut, crossing the wire eighth going a mile on the Keeneland turf Oct. 6. Near the back early as Continental Clash (Tiznow) carved out an opening quarter in :22.19, Off The Meds remained covered in the second draft as 3-5 choice Blood Moon (Malibu Moon) took over through a half in :45.04. Making progress approaching the quarter pole, Off The Meds was three wide off the turn, reached new leader Gold Endeavor (Declaration of War) in the stretch and was a length clear of that rival at the wire. The victory marked the second on the card for trainer Ian Wilkes and the third for Lothenbach Stables, which closed out Keeneland's Fall meeting Saturday as the track's leading owner. Sky High Lady, who produced an Uncle Mo filly this season, was bred back to Into Mischief. Sales history: $300,000 Ylg '18 KEESEP. ANSWER IN (g, 2, Dialed In--D'ya Knowwhatimean {MSP, $125,520}, by Broken Vow) was second by a nose in his unveiling going a furlong shorter over this track, making him an easy choice as the 1-2 chalk. He didn't break alertly and found himself second-to-last in the early strides, but it was a tight pack and he steadily moved up. Third on the outside by the time the field left the backstretch after a quarter in :22.81 and a half in :45.74, Answer In took command in upper stretch and powered clear.

SHE CAN'T SING (f, 2, Bernardini--Distorted Music, by Distorted Humor) was a nose short while second in her debut going one mile over the turf at Arlington Aug. 10 and was fourth at that same distance over the Keeneland lawn Oct. 4. Let go at 11-1 in her first start on the main track, the bay filly pulled her way to the lead going into the first turn and was under a snug hold while setting fractions of :24.86 and :50.23. She skipped clear nearing the stretch and bound home a 7 1/4-length winner. Favored Tempers Rising (Bayern) overcame a troubled trip to be second. Bob Lothenbach purchased Distorted Music for $190,000 at the 2011 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. The mare, a daughter of multiple Grade I winner Music Note (A.P. SHARECROPPER (c, 2, Pioneerof the Nile--Blue Violet {SW & MGSP, $237,356}, by Curlin) was a non-factor eighth after a slow start in his seven-furlong debut at this oval Sept. 29. Stretching out for this second start, the 19-1 longshot was rated well back in the field early. He inched closer down the backstretch, was tipped out to the center of the track at the top of the lane and, despite racing greenly, drove to the lead in deep stretch to graduate by a neck over pacesetting Sounion (Liam's Map). Sharecropper was a $600,000 FTSAUG yearling. WinStar Farm purchased his dam, Blue Violet, for $350,000 at the 2015 Keeneland November sale. ELUSIVE KNIGHT (c, 2, Ghostzapper--Blue Enzian, by Street Cry {Ire}) had been working steadily for this debut, notching seven consecutive five-furlong works since late August. He didn't show any speed out of the gate and raced closer to the back than the front, but inched up with every stride, split horses in upper stretch with plenty of room to spare, and came home on the rail to score by three lengths. He paid $9.70. Union Colonel (Colonel John) was runner-up. Blue Enzian's only other reported foal is a yearling colt by Animal Kingdom who sold at Tattersalls Ireland in September for $12,104. LIAR LIAR (IRE) (c, 2, Dream Ahead--Rubileo {GB}, by Galileo {Ire}) made his American debut over this course and distance Sept. 28, finishing well to nab the runner-up spot under new conditioner Richard Baltas. While under the care of Jessica Harrington in Ireland, he had finished off the board in his only other career start, an Apr. 13 maiden at Naas over five furlongs on a yielding course. Parked mid-pack on the inside as the lukewarm 2-1 favorite, Liar Liar tracked fractions of :22.97 and :46.49. He switched from the rail to several paths out on the turn and was headed toward the wire with the leaders in his sights when he steadied off heels and switched leads extremely awkwardly, but recovered to win by a neck. K P All Systems Go (More Than Ready) completed the exacta.
