by Brian DiDonato & Jessica Martini

The dollars will be flying as buyers from around the world descend on Fasig-Tipton's Newtown Paddocks for Tuesday's November Sale, dubbed the "Night of the Stars."

The typically strong catalogue kicks off at 3 p.m. with weanlings, followed by high-level broodmares and broodmare prospects and/or racing stock. Supplemental entries added to the back of the catalogue include additional weanlings, plus racing/broodmares prospects with recency appeal.

"We've got an outstanding catalogue--we're very, very pleased and honored and privileged to have the opportunity to sell a lot of horses in that catalogue," said Fasig-Tipton President and CEO Boyd Browning, Jr. "We're really excited about the group that we're going to offer. It's certainly got a niche in the worldwide marketplace. One of the things we're really proud of is that there are buyers from all over the world who have that date circled on their calendar and will find some opportunities to buy some of the finest fillies and mares and mares in foal and some really outstanding weanlings. It's a quality group, and our market right now thrives on quality."

FEINSTEIN RENEWS CALL FOR RACING SUSPENSION AT SANTA ANITA

Saying that horse racing "failed a critical test" during this past weekend's Breeders' Cup meeting at Santa Anita, United States Senator Dianne Feinstein (D-California) issued a statement late Monday afternoon, renewing her call for the suspension of racing in her state. The statement was precipitated by the catastrophic injury suffered by Mongolian Groom (Hightail) in the closing stages of Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

This past June, Feinstein said in a statement that racing needed "to take a long, hard look at [its] future in this country and we need to do it before more horses needlessly die." On Oct. 31, Feinstein said that the weekend ahead represented "a critical test for the future of horse racing in California and the United States."

The glittering catalogue includes a pair of 6-year-old mares who added to their value with victories during the Breeders' Cup Saturday at Santa Anita. Belvoir Bay (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) will sell as hip 96 with Bluewater Sales following her win in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint, while GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Blue Prize (Arg) (Pure Prize) sells as hip 98 with Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services. Belvoir Bay will be making her second straight appearance in the Fasig-Tipton November sales ring. The bay mare brought a final bid of $625,000 a year.

"Being a Grade I winner obviously helps her selling prospects," said Bluewater's Meg Levy. "She is somewhat of a unicorn, I'd say, in this sale with her breeding and just coming off a Breeders' Cup win."

While connections have decided to withdraw Midnight Bisou

(Midnight Lute) from the sale with an eye towards racing the filly next year, Taylor Made Sales Agency will offer the Distaff runner-up's dam, Diva Delite (Repent), in foal to Triple Crown winner Justify, as hip 173.

Another high-profile defection from the catalogue is GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint runner-up Bellafina (Quality Road), who is also expected to race in 2020.

But there remain plenty of horses with Breeders' Cup connections in the sale, including a weanling half-brother by Mohaymen (hip 71) to GI Breeders' Cup Mile runner-up Got Stormy (Get Stormy); Laffina (Arch), the dam of Bast (Uncle Mo), as well as that GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies third-place finisher's half-sister by Pioneer of the Nile (hip 140 and hip 141);

GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf runner-up Vasilika (Skipshot) (hip 193); and Sweet N Discreet (Discreet Cat) (hip 216), dam of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf third-place finisher Sweet Melania (American Pharoah).

Demand for top-level horses has been high and consignor Sandy Stuart of Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services expects that trend to continue Tuesday.

“I personally am always a little nervous that the prices can hold up when they are strong as they are,” Stuart admitted. “But we haven’t seen a big change in the larger economy and, from two Triple Crown winners, to what was largely a great Breeders’ Cup, and with handle increases, etc., it sure seems like there are a lot of highlights in horse racing right now.”

The Fasig-Tipton November sale was moved back a day to give buyers attending the Breeders’ Cup in California extra time to finish their shopping in Lexington.

“This is as busy of a two or three-day period as we have all year, for sure,” Stuart said of the extra day before the sale. “If you do what I do—and it has to be the same for most people here—it can be exhausting. And these are critical decisions to your entire year that you are making at a breeding stock sale. So I think the extra day has been a huge help.”

Last year’s sale topper was the brilliant multiple Group 1 winner and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Lady Aurelia (Scat Daddy), who sold for $7.5 million to Stonestreet’s Barbara Banke as she was buying out a partner. The 2018 sale produced a record gross of $89,473,000, and featured 22 horses who sold for seven figures.

The 2018 average was $639,093 and median was $327,500. The RNA rate was 27.5%.

Feinstein’s Monday statement reads as follows:

"It breaks my heart to hear that another horse died because of injuries sustained during the Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita Racetrack. This year, 37 horses have died at Santa Anita, seven of those since racing resumed in September. That's simply unacceptable.

"This problem is not unique to Santa Anita. More than 3,000 horses have died at California racetracks in the past two decades, and thousands more at racetracks throughout the country. Unfortunately, most states lack sufficient reporting requirements, so we may never know the exact numbers of horses that die nationwide as part of the horse racing industry. This is a gap that should be closed.

"Before the Breeders' Cup, I wrote to the California Horse Racing Board that this weekend would be a critical test for the future of horse racing. Despite increased scrutiny and additional measures that have been put in place, the horse racing industry was unable to make it through a single weekend without a critical injury and euthanized horse.

"In the past, I've called for horse racing to be suspended at Santa Anita until it could ensure the safety of horses would be protected. With continued racetrack deaths, it's clear that not enough has changed, so I renew that call.

"I will work with Governor [Gavin] Newsom to look at all options to protect racehorses and increase transparency at racetracks. If the horse racing industry is unwilling to treat these magnificent creatures humanely, it has no business operating in the United States."

On Sept. 23, Newsom told the New York Times in an interview that, "What happened last year was unacceptable, and all of the excuses be damned. We own that going into the next season, and we're going to have to do something about it. I'll tell you, talk about a sport whose time is up unless they reform. That's horse racing. Incredible abuses to these precious animals and the willingness to just to spit these animals out and literally take their lives is a disgrace."

CAREN CONTINUES TO REWARD MARZILLI

by Jessica Martini

Toronto businessman Rob Marzilli got into the racing game in 2014 and enjoyed almost instantaneous success with Canadian Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old filly Caren (Society's Chairman). Marzilli, who operates Ram Contracting, a company that deals with custom homes, residential and commercial construction, will send Caren's first foal, a filly by Curlin (hip 6), through the ring as part of the South Point Sales consignment Tuesday afternoon at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale.

The Curlin filly is well made with a great hip and good angles," said South Point co-owner Arika Everatt-Meeuse. "She covers good ground and has more substance than her mom at this stage. I really like her. She shows a lot of Smart Strike. She's been well received so far."

In regard to her alliance with Marzilli, she added, "Rob and I met through Caren at the races and when she retired, he sent her to our farm to start her next career. He has a nice broodmare band of seven mares. I help with matings and care for the mares and foals to the yearling stage. I consider him a friend."

Through trainer Mike DePaulo, Marzilli purchased Caren for $45,000 at the 2014 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Yearling Sale.

“Caren was the second horse I bought,” said Marzilli, who was driving down from Canada for the sale with DePaulo Monday. “My daughter wanted a horse as a pet and we didn’t have the room for it. We were sitting down at Thanksgiving dinner and somebody said, ‘Well, why don’t you just buy a racehorse. That’s how it started.’”

It was family that got Marzilli into racing and Caren’s name was an homage to them, combining the first letters of wife Anna, daughters Carmfaye, Elizabeth and Natalia, as well as Rob himself. The bay went on to win eight stakes, including the 2016 GIII Ontario Colleen S. On the board in 13 of 17 starts, she retired in 2017 with nine wins and earnings of $821,790.

“She was awesome,” Marzilli said of Caren. “She was like no other, for sure.”

After watching Caren’s success on the track, was it an emotional decision to offer the mare’s first foal at auction? Marzilli said no.

“If I don’t get good money for her, I’ll just keep her,” Marzilli said. “It’s exciting to see what she brings, but if she doesn’t do well, I’ll just hold on to her.”

Marzilli went back to the Society’s Chairman well when purchasing then 4-year-old Code Warrior for $190,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November Sale. The dark bay went on to win the 2018 GIII Hendrie S. and GIII Seaway S. in Marzilli’s colors and now both she and Caren are part of his 10-strong broodmare band.

“Caren’s success together with his other ‘daughter’--Code Warrior--really jump started the stud. Obviously, I have a close connection there and now this Curlin filly is pretty exciting. If Society’s Chairman fillies can become good producers that would be wonderful and with the Sadler’s Wells and Northern Dancer influence, it’s what we are hoping for. Rob is certainly giving his mares every chance to make it as moms!”

Code Warrior was bred to Speightstown this year and Caren was bred back to Medaglia d’Oro.

In addition to the broodmare band, Marzilli also has about 15 horses in training.

Asked if planned on expanding that number, Marzilli laughed and said, “If I was a smart businessman, I’d get rid of all of them.” But he added, “We’ll play it by ear.”

Marzilli said he sees similarities between Caren and her first foal.

“She doesn’t have the white on her that Caren has, but she is built very similarly,” he said.

DePaulo added, “We hope she has her heart, that’s for sure.”

TOTAL WAGERING HANDLE UP FOR '19 BC

Total handle for the 2019 two-day Breeders' Cup World Championships held at Santa Anita Park Nov. 1-2 was $174,000,574, up from last year's $157,445,842 recorded when the Breeders' Cup was contested at Churchill Downs. Total common pool handle on Friday's 10-race program was $56,517,228, while total handle for Saturday's 12-race program was $117,483,346.

Saturday's on-track attendance at Santa Anita was 67,811, completing a two-day attendance total of 109,054. A total of 41,243 attended on Friday. The two-day attendance in 2018 was 112,667.

Breeders' Cup Chairman Fred Hertrich III said, "Breeders' Cup would like to thank the staff and management at Santa Anita Park and The Stronach Group for their hard work and support of the 2019 World Championships, along with Arcadia, Pasadena and the surrounding communities, our loyal fans around the world and, especially, the owners, breeders and nominators who make our event possible. Last, but certainly not least, Breeders' Cup would like to recognize our Equine athletes, the horsemen and women, grooms, jockeys, trainers, veterinary teams, security personnel and all volunteers for their tireless efforts and dedication to our event."

This year was the 10th time the Breeders' Cup was held at Santa Anita. The 2020 Breeders' Cup will be held at Keeneland Race Course in Lexington, Kentucky, and the 2021 event at Del Mar racetrack in Del Mar, California.

HAS WOODBINE BECOME A GOOD FIT FOR THE BREEDERS' CUP?

By Bill Finley

It wasn't that long ago that Woodbine CEO Jim Lawson was convinced that the Breeders' Cup would never return to Toronto. He didn't believe it would ever again be held at a track that did not feature a traditional dirt surface. Now, he's not so sure. "The climate has changed, the dialogue has changed and people are saying, 'You know what? It might make sense to race these horses on a synthetic track because it is a safer surface,'" Lawson said. It's an argument that probably would have gone nowhere prior to this year. But the sport has had to look inward in the face of the rash of breakdowns earlier this year at Santa Anita, the death of Mongolian Groom (Hightail) during the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and the ensuing maelstrom.

The idea that synthetic surfaces are safer than dirt surfaces and that they need to be given a second chance after the sport's brief fling with them is back on the table.

What does that mean for the Breeders' Cup? Lawson chooses his words carefully and says that Woodbine is not campaigning to bring the Breeders' Cup back to Canada. It's more a matter of putting out a trial balloon, the idea being to spark debate as to whether or not holding the Breeders' Cup over a synthetic surface makes sense in light of the vow the sport has made to become safer.

"I actually think it is a plus that we have a synthetic track," Lawson said regarding whether he thought the Breeders' Cup would return to Woodbine. "The world is changing and we have to recognize the change. The industry has made a statement that we are concerned about horses first and safety first. If you look at our safety record over the last 10 years, we are the probably the highest ranked racetrack or close to it. The numbers don't lie."

The Breeders' Cup was last held at Woodbine in 1996. Despite fears that having a Breeders' Cup in late October or early in November in Canada was risking bad weather, the temperature was moderate that day and Woodbine received favorable reviews as a host site. Woodbine installed the synthetic Polytrack surface in 2006, replacing its dirt track. With the Polytrack having been worn down by time, management decided it was time to put down a new surface and elected to go with another synthetic track, a Tapeta surface, in 2016.

“We debated and studied for a long time whether to put in a dirt surface or Tapeta surface,” Lawson said. “One of the negatives at the time was we felt we might be disqualified from hosting a Breeders’ Cup again if we put Tapeta in. We shrugged and said the Breeders’ Cup was two days a year, we run 133 days a year, and we can’t let one or two days a year every five or 10 years dictate what kind of surface we put in for our horsemen and for safety reasons. Because of the weather we have late in the year and early in the year, it’s a better surface for us than dirt.”

In the latest figures available from the Jockey Club’s Equine Injury Database, in 2018 there were 1.86 fatalities per 1,000 starters on the dirt. On synthetic tracks, the rate was 1.23. In every year studied, synthetic tracks have proven to be safer than dirt tracks. The

Tapeta surface at Woodbine got off to a strong start so far as safety goes, as there were 0.86 fatalities per 1,000 starters over it in 2016 and 0.56 in 2017. It didn’t hold up as well in 2018, as the fatality rate was 1.30 per 1000 starters.

“I think a Breeders’ Cup at Woodbine would work,” said trainer Mark Casse, whose vast stable includes a string at Woodbine. “You’re touching on a subject that is very dear to me. I’ve probably run more horses on synthetic and dirt than maybe anyone in the world. I do my own studies all the time. There are not a lot of things I know for sure in this game, but I definitely know that the synthetic is better on the horses. With all the trouble we’re facing now with our great sport, we have to continue to look at what is best for horse racing. I think it would be nice for people to see how things are done at Woodbine on the Tapeta.”

If not for questions regarding the track surface, Woodbine would seem to be an ideal track to host a Breeders' Cup. It is a large facility located just outside a major North American city and is close to the airport. It has a solid reputation when it comes to amenities, food service and handling major events. By 2022, the first year a Breeders' Cup location is available, Woodbine is expected to have two hotels on the grounds and a 5,000-seat auditorium. The track has two grass courses and the main course is similar to a typical European track, which makes it an enticement for overseas stables to ship in.

"For a whole lot of reasons, Woodbine is a great choice," Lawson said. "You have Toronto as the host city, the proximity of Woodbine to the airport and the facilities we have here."

If the Breeders' Cup would decide to give the green light to hosting the event at a track with a synthetic surface, Woodbine would be the only option. Arlington also has a synthetic surface and has hosted a Breeders' Cup, but that track's future is very much up in the air. The scenario could change if Santa Anita converts its main track to a synthetic surface, which management there as said is a possibility.

Not that this would be an easy decision. Trainers, owners, breeders and gamblers all grumbled constantly about synthetic tracks when they were in place at Santa Anita, Del Mar, Hollywood and Keeneland and some traditional dirt horses might stay home if the Breeders' Cup were held over the Tapeta track. Those are factors the Breeders' Cup will have to consider, but so, too is safety.

"People are saying maybe it's time we start to look at synthetics if racing wants to show the world that it is concerned about safety," Lawson said. "Maybe we should be thinking about Woodbine. We're not pitching or campaigning for the Breeders' Cup. We are reacting to what we hear and the current situation racing faces and saying, 'Yes, coming back here is certainly something worth considering.'"

PEDIGREE INSIGHTS

by Andrew Caulfield

In the battle to attract more European buyers back to the American sales, the weekend's action represented a solid advance. Of the seven turf races at the Breeders' Cup, as many as five were sired by American-based stallions and there was also an American-bred winner, Kameko, of the rescheduled G1 Vertem Futurity Trophy on Tapeta in England.

Of course, Europeans are fully aware of the turf talents of Kameko's sire Kitten's Joy and of the veterans Speightstown and More Than Ready, sires respectively of the GI Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine Sharing and of that remarkable mare Uni, who was such a stylish winner of the GI Mile. The late Giant's Causeway, sire of the Grade I Turf winner Bricks And Mortar, is another with a strong association with success on European turf, with his son Shamardal being responsible for five Group 1 winners in 2019.

It can do no harm that two of the U.S.'s leading first-crop sires, American Pharoah and Palace Malice, also seized a piece of the action. American Pharoah landed the first blow, with his sons Four Wheel Drive and Another Miracle taking first and third places in the GI Juvenile Turf Sprint, before his daughter Sweet Melania finished third, after a bold bid for victory, in the GI Juvenile Fillies Turf. The turf potential shown by so many of American Pharoah's 20 winners hasn't gone unnoticed in Europe, where Maven became his first Group/Graded winner with his victory in the G3 Prix du Bois in June and Monarch of Egypt became his first Group 1 performer, when runner-up to Siskin in the Phoenix S. Perhaps significantly, Maven's win came on good to soft ground and Monarch of Egypt's Group 1 second was on soft going. With his Breeders' Cup trio shining on the exceptionally fast ground at Santa Anita, it looks as though the progeny of the 2015 Triple Crown winner are admirably versatile when it comes to underfoot conditions.

Palace Malice's son Structor maintained his unbeaten record in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf to initiate a fine family double, with Palace Malice's sire Curlin being responsible for Vino Rosso, a decisive winner of the GI Classic. Vino Rosso was following in his sire's footsteps in taking the Classic.

Palace Malice was also following in Curlin's footsteps in siring a major winner in his first crop, a role which Palace Malice played in Curlin's story when he landed the 2013 Belmont S. Curlin, whose previous Breeders' Cup success had come with Good Magic in the 2017 Juvenile, has gradually become one of the U.S.' highest-priced stallions, at $175,000, and his reputation is such that he had eight yearlings sell for $1 million or more this year.

Curlin once finished second to Red Rocks in the GI Man o'War S. on turf and he has been represented by some smart American turf runners, such as the Grade II winners Texas Ryano, Diversy Harbor and Moulin de Mougine. Even so, European owners and breeders have been wary of him, to the extent that he has had only half a dozen runners in Britain and one in Ireland.

Perhaps Palace Malice will fare better in winning European support (though I rather doubt it in our rigidly polarized industries). After all, he has a major British winner - Royal Anthem - as his broodmare sire. A son of the champion turf performer Theatrical, Royal Anthem was a very tall, leggy horse standing nearly 17 hands. His pedigree reinforced the possibility that Royal Anthem would be a late developer, as both his sire Theatrical and broodmare sire Ack Ack had been at their most effective at the age of five. To his credit, Royal Anthem proved more precocious, numbering the G2 King Edward VII S. and GI Canadian International among his four successes at three. Predictably, he was even more impressive at four, when he boosted his Timeform rating from 129 to 135. That rise reflected his spectacular performance in the GI Juddmonte International, which he took by eight lengths.

Royal Anthem looked set for another good year when he took the GI Gulfstream Park H. in February 2000, but wasn't able to race again. His main achievement as a stallion was to sire that very good turf performer Presious Passion, winner of the GI United Nations S. in 2008 and 2009 before his second in the Breeders' Cup Turf. However, that gelding's success came too late, as Royal Anthem had been switched to Ireland to cover jumping mares in 2007.

Bearing in mind that Palace Malice ran only twice as a 2-year-old, when he won a maiden special weight at Saratoga, he has done well to sire a Breeders' Cup 2-year-old winner in Structor, as well as Crystalle, who contested the Juvenile Fillies Turf following her second to Selflessly in the GII Miss Grillo S.

His bright start is arguably all the more creditable because his racing career ended disappointingly, with just two starts and no victories as a 5-year-old. Consequently, there was a risk that some of the gloss would have been knocked off his glowing record as a 4-year-old, when a victory over Goldencents in the GI Metropolitan H. was part of a run of four straight graded stakes successes.

Fortunately, the anti-climactic end to his racing career seemed not to have any effect when he commenced his stallion career at a fee of $20,000 at Three Chimneys Farm. He started with a book of 158 mares in 2016, but keeping him in the forefront of breeders' minds then proved more difficult, with his 2017 book standing at 117 mares and the following year's at 65. There was a bit of a revival this year, with 91 mares in Palace Malice's fourth season.

Perhaps that revival owed something to Structure, who was bought by Mike Ryan for no less than $850,000 at the Ocala March sale, having been a $160,000 yearling. Another first-crop son of Palace Malice made $550,000 the following month.

Structor is out of a winning sister to More Than Real, who had the distinction of winning the GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf in 2010. His broodmare sire More Than Ready has a terrific record at the Breeders' Cup, having also scored with Pluck (2010 Juvenile Turf), Regally Ready (2011 Turf Sprint), Roy H (2017 and 2018 Sprint), Rushing Fall (2017 Juvenile Fillies Turf) and most recently with Uni in the Mile. As that list highlights, More Than Ready is tremendously effective as a turf sire, but he has also been represented by such high-class dirt performers as Verrazano, Roy H and the versatile Catholic Boy, who enjoyed Grade I success on dirt and turf). Perhaps Structor, with a dirt horse as his sire, will prove similarly versatile.

GISW YOSHIDA RETIRES TO WINSTAR FARM

Yoshida (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}--Hilda's Passion, by Canadian Frontier) has been retired and will stand the upcoming breeding season at WinStar Farm. He will stand for $20,000 S&N.

Campaigned by WinStar Farm, China Horse Club, and Head of Plains Partners and trained by Bill Mott, Yoshida earned $2,505,770 from age two through five. A four-time stakes winner on dirt and turf, Yoshida recorded his career best victories last season in Saratoga's GI Woodward S. and the GI Old Forrester Turf Classic S. at Churchill Downs.

"We are excited about his next chapter," said Elliott Walden, president, CEO, and racing manager of WinStar Farm. "He's a horse who competed with the best of the best on both surfaces.

Yoshida earned 'TDN Rising Star' status when breaking his maiden at Keeneland in his second career start in 2017. A winner of the GIII Hill Prince S. over Bricks and Mortar later that season, Yoshida more recently finished runner-up to McKinzie in this summer's GI Whitney S. before coming home third in the GI Woodward S.

Bred in Japan by Katsumi Yoshida's Northern Farm, ¥94 million (about $850,000) JRHA Select Sale purchase is the second foal produced from Hilda's Passion, who captured the 2011 GI Ballerina S. at Saratoga before selling for $1.2 million at that year's Fasig-Tipton November sale. Yoshida is a half-brother to Sanctuaire (by Deep Impact), a debut 2-year-old winner in August.

"Yoshida proved to be a versatile racehorse, winning prestigious Grade I races on dirt and turf," said Sean Tugel, director of bloodstock services and assistant racing manager at WinStar. "He is out of a very fast Grade 1-winning mare and brings back the Sunday Silence/Halo blood to America through his sire Heart's Cry. He is an outstanding physical that possesses heart as a racehorse that everyone is looking to breed into their foals."

Out of Briviesca (GB) (Peintre Celebre), who won at the listed level in both France and the U.S. and was placed twice at the Grade III level in the latter, the dark bay also captured the G3 Prix de Psyche at Deauville from nine starts. She has accrued $452,712 in earnings and is a half-sister to MSP Aguafria (More Than Ready). Her third dam is Group 3 winner Kiliniski (Ire) (Niniski), runner-up in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks and fourth in both the G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club e Coppa d'Oro. Madame Chiang (GB) (Archipenko), successful in the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S., is also under Kiliniski.

VILLA MARINA SOLD, WILL CONTINUE

CAREER STATESIDE

G1SW Villa Marina (GB) (Le Havre {Ire}), who ran seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf Nov. 2, has been purchased by Jon Clay's Alpha Delta Stables, Jour de Galop reported Monday. The 2019 G1 Qatar Prix de l'Opera heroine, previously raced by Dario Hinojosa of Darpat France--who also bred the 3-year-old--and trained by Carlos Laffon-Parias, will be trained by Chad Brown.

"She didn't appreciate the 10-furlong course at Santa Anita on Saturday and I think that was the case for many Europeans," Laffon-Parias told Jour de Galop. "It's a very unusual challenge, where the horses start almost on a turn, but there's no reason why she couldn't adapt to American racing."

CORRECTION: In Bill Finley's story about Mongolian Groom in Monday's TDN, he said that the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission had voted down a proposal to phase out Lasix. In fact, the vote has not yet come before the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission. It was the Equine Drug Research Council which makes recommendations to the Commission that voted against the measure. Additionally, the members who voted against the measure were not all practicing veterinarians, as the story stated. We regret the error.

PALACE MALICE UPPED TO $25,000

Three Chimneys Farm's Palace Malice (Curlin--Palace Rumor, by Royal Anthem), who celebrated his first Grade I winner with GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf and GIII Pilgrim S. victor Structor Nov. 1, will command $25,000 in 2020. An $850,000 OBSMAR juvenile, Structor also won the GIII Pilgrim S. at Belmont. A winner of the GI Belmont S. and GI Metropolitan H., the freshman sire also has 13 winners to date, including SW and II Miss Grillo S. bridesmaid Crystalle and the SP Spitefulness. He stood for $15,000 in 2019.

"We have always had a strong belief in Palace Malice's chances of developing into an important sire," said Three Chimneys owner Goncalo Torrealba.

"He was an immensely talented horse who Todd Pletcher described as the most versatile horse he had ever trained. He is cut in the mold of his Classic sire Curlin, one of the most desirable stallions in the breed today. In setting his stud fee, we wanted to keep to our philosophy of providing fellow breeders with exceptional value."

OVER $110K RAISED FOR NEW VOCATIONS BC PLEDGE

New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program announced that over $110,000 in funds were raised during the 2019 Breeders' Cup Pledge. Vino Rosso (Curlin), winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, was one of six winning pledges during this season's championship series. Both of the colt's owners--Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable--participated as did trainer Todd Pletcher. Additional pledges and final donations are still being received. Now in its 10th year, the Pledge has raised over $650,000, with 100% of funds going directly to support the program's rehabilitation, retraining and re-homing efforts.

"This year's Pledge has been by far been our most successful, as we saw an increase in participation and doubled the funds raised," explained New Vocations Program Director Anna Ford. "We are so grateful for all the owners, trainers and jockeys who generously joined the Pledge. All of the funding raised will go directly to support our aftercare efforts and will allow us to increase the number of horses we serve."

A total of 50 Championship contenders pledged a percentage of their Breeders' Cup earnings, including Leigh Anderson-Butler, Bethlehem Stables LLC, Bob Baffert, Calumet Farm, Cheyenne Stables, China Horse Club International Ltd, Crawford Farms, Sophie Doyle, Donegal Racing, Michael Dubb, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, John D. ## LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

By Jerry Brown

Jerry Brown | Courtesy Jerry Brown

I've known Bill Finley a long time, and consider him a friend. But the comments he made about Lasix recently are misguided, and dangerous for our industry. I wrote an Op-Ed for TDN a while back which went into some of the many reasons why banning Lasix is a very bad idea, but in light of the current dialogue, which has gotten panicky and semi-hysterical, I feel compelled to make a few reality-based points.

1--There is no scientific evidence of correlation between Lasix use and unsoundness, as veterinarians have made clear (click here for an April ARCI report). Breakdowns are an extremely serious problem, both in fact and in public perception, and the industry needs to do everything it can to address it. But Lasix has zero to do with that problem. And before someone says something about horses making fewer starts, so are Major League pitchers, for the same reason--they are stronger, throw harder, and place more stress on bones and tendons.

Horses are much faster and stress themselves much more, but you can't tell because tracks are much slower, for safety reasons. (Trust me, I do this for a living). Both need more time than previous generations did to recover from extreme, taxing efforts.

2--Those of you old enough might remember the 1987 Kentucky Derby, and those of you who didn't see it should find a way to watch the ABC broadcast, which won an Emmy. One reason was the drama they captured when the favorite, Demons Begone, came back with blood all over him after bleeding through his nostrils. If you see it you won't forget it.

One thing that is absolutely 100% true is that if Lasix is banned, more horses will bleed. And in today's environment, do you know how often what happened with Demons Begone would have to happen to create a public relations problem that will make the recent breakdown incidents look trivial? Exactly once, if there's a photographer or someone with a cell phone around. And it won't have to happen in the Derby, or any big race, it could be in a bottom-level claimer. Within 72 hours that photo would be shown in every media outlet in the country. PETA would see to it.

When that happens, you know what PETA WON'T be saying? Bring back Lasix. You know what they will be saying? Ban racing. We would be playing Russian Roulette, on a daily basis.

3--The movement to ban Lasix is being driven by "sportsmen" (i.e., those who don't make their living in racing), and a group with a profit motive, commercial breeders, who also don't make their living in racing. They make their living selling a product (unfortunate term, I know, but that's the reality) that is used by those that do make a living in racing, and they think making racing "clean" will raise the value of that product. Letting those people make policy for racing would be like letting Lockheed-Martin decide military policy.

THREE CHIMNEYS

In other words, as Sid Fernando has pointed out, this is straight-up class warfare, and as I said in my earlier Op-Ed, the ones getting hurt if Lasix is banned would be bettors, trainers, owners, and those trying to fill races. And that would in turn lead to a reduction in handle, then a reduction in purses, owners (and then trainers) leaving the game, tracks closing, and eventually yearling prices going down.

4--If the goal is to keep the majority of horses, the ones that DO NOT need Lasix, from running on it, there is an effective way to do it. It's explained at the end of the earlier piece I wrote. To those who do not have an agenda, but want both this business and sport to survive, please read and think about it. If we don't succeed as a business, there will be no sport of racing, either. This industry is in a precarious position, and in many places now exists only because it's being subsidized. The last thing we need is a major self inflicted wound.

BOOK REVIEW: EDDIE OLCZYK-BEATING THE ODDS IN HOCKEY AND IN LIFE

By Bill Finley

Eddie Olczyk's new book, "Eddie Olczyk-Beating the Odds in Hockey and in Life" is about hockey and horse racing, but to call it a horse racing or a hockey book is to miss the heart beat of the tale he has to tell with co-author and TDN contributor Perry Lefko. The book covers all the bases when it comes to his two passions and the two sports in which he has carved out a career, but it really hits its stride when Olczyk recounts his brave fight against colon cancer. It is here where we find out what kind of person he truly is as Olczyk opens up about the cancer and what it took to beat it.

A revered retired hockey player and broadcaster who was brought in to be part of NBC's horse racing coverage, Olczyk was leading what seemed like the perfect life. That was until Aug. 4, 2017 when he was diagnosed with Stage 3 colon cancer. With no promise that he would be cured, Olczyk agreed to undergo chemotherapy treatments, 12 treatments, each one two weeks apart. The treatments were pure hell.

"Pretty soon, the side effects had worn me down," he wrote. "I was vomiting badly, had no control of my bowels, and had nose bleeds, headaches and neuropathy, which is coldness in the nerve endings in the fingers and feet...It was just terrible. How was I going to make it to the final treatment on February 21? I had basically had enough and wanted to pull the port out of my chest and quit."

But Olczyk didn't quit. With the help of family and friends and gathering up every ounce of resolve he had, he got through the treatments and was declared cancer free after they were over.

"If it wasn't for my family, there was no way I could have gone through this," he wrote. "We all beat this. And I said we have done enough crying to last me a lifetime."

Olczyk returns to the cancer narrative in the final chapter, which is titled "Thank God I Got Sick." It is here that he admits he contemplated suicide and that the experience changed him for the better. "Before I got sick, I thought I was in a good place in life, content and at peace with where I was," Olczyk writes.

HUGE UPDATE: Valiant runner-up effort in the Breeders' Cup F&M Turf (G1)

“So, I don’t appreciate anything more. But it reassured me I was in a good place. I was at peace because the most important people in my life knew how I felt about them.”

Olczyk didn’t need to let the public know about his struggles or write this book, but it is part of a vow he took after beating cancer that he would be a messenger of hope for those who are going through what he went through. It’s obvious from reading the book that this is not a shallow promise, but something he will devote himself for the rest of his life.

By the time you get to the chapters that discuss his cancer, you already know that this is the type of person who might have what it takes to fight and win such a battle. Olczyk did have a charmed life. Just 17 at the time, he began his career with his hometown Chicago Blackhawks, he played on the 1984 U.S. Olympic hockey team, won a Stanley Cup with the Rangers in 1995 and has been inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame. He has become one of the most respected broadcasters in hockey and has parlayed that into a high-profile spot on the NBC horse racing broadcasts. But all his good fortune was of his own making. He worked hard to accomplish everything he has and did so with an unflagging sense of optimism and an unrelenting drive. That is why he is so well-liked within both hockey and horse racing.

The racing fan who is not into hockey might want to skim through the chapters about his life and times on the ice, which, at times, gets bogged down in recapping games and scores. There’s plenty of horse racing in this book.

Olczyk is very much a horse racing guy. While playing, he snuck out to the racetrack every chance he got and became a serious handicapper starting with the day a father’s friend took him to Arlington Park when he was 12. He is every bit as proud of hitting a $497,000 Pick Six at Hollywood Park as he is of any goal he has scored.

Olczyk got his start in racing broadcasting when the Meadowlands asked him to join their television team during the NHL lockout in 1994. In Twenty years later, he signed on to be part of NBC’s racing crew. Among his main duties is handicapping the races the network is covering, something he takes very seriously.

“To stand up there in front of millions of people watching the race worldwide and pick the top three felt great,” Olczyk says of his winning trifecta selection in the 2018 GI Kentucky Derby.

His enthusiasm for the sport is clear every time he and Lefko venture away from hockey and to racing. He sums his professional role up perfectly at the end of Chapter 23 writing, “Pucks and ponies, you gotta love it.”

She led throughout to graduate by 5 1/2 lengths over this track and trip on the GI Pennsylvania Derby undercard Sept. 21 and was looking to become the second winner in two days from that program to add stakes wins next time out. Into the bit early, Project Whiskey chased the pace three deep on the track and poked her nose in front at the 2 1/2-furlong pole.

Racing in the colors of Triple Crown participant Master Fencer (Jpn) (Just a Way {Jpn}), the 7-10 chalk was one of the first into stretch and was content to stalk the early pace from second. Held together into the long Tokyo stretch, American Baby was asked to quicken with a little more than 300 meters to travel and raced a touch greenly late, but came home a five-length winner. American Baby was purchased in utero for $525K at the 2016 Keeneland November Sale and is out of a winning half-sister to Exaggerator (Curlin), a three-time Grade I winner earlier that year, including the GI Preakness S. A Feb. 27 foal, American Baby was re-offered at the 2017 JRHA Select Foal Sale and fetched a final bid of ¥29 million ($254,330). A winner of the G2 Qatar Richmond S., Land Force will command £6,500.

“Cable Bay is clearly upgrading his stock, his track results have been outstanding and we are hopeful of another strong season next year as he covered a big second book and those yearlings sold for blow away prices,” said Highclere’s Jake Warren. “Land Force is the most precocious son of sire sensation No Nay Never at stud, he has an enormous pedigree and is a stonking looker, we’ll be sending masses of our own mares to him as he’s such a commercially attractive stallion.”

MATHUNA

By Alayna Cullen

Mare Of The Moment is a TDN feature that looks to highlight the success of a broodmare and give her and her owner recognition for those achievements. In association with the Irish National Stud, the mare will receive a personalised headcollar and this month Mathuna (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) is the recipient of Mare Of The Moment.

The first race on QIPCO British Champions Day was won in such style that there was little doubt as to who was the best horse in the race. Despite the heavy ground, a large field of 16 started for the G1 QIPCO Champions Sprint S. Although it looked like anyone's race within the final furlong, it was the King Power-owned Donjuan Triumphant (Ire) (Dream Ahead) who overcame a hampered run to win by a length. This was clearly an emotional score for the connections, with trainer Andrew Balding showing the poignancy of the success in a post-race interview, a victory which came roughly one year on from the loss of King Power Racing's Chairman Vichai Srivaddhanaprabha.

Donjuan Triumphant is one of nine foals for the broodmare Mathuna. The dam of four winners, including listed winner Caledonian Spring (Ire) (Amadeus Wolf {GB}), she has proven a shrewd purchase by Kilcarn Park and Patrick Cosgrove having been bought as a 3-year-old for €15,500 at the Goffs November Breeding Stock Sale in 2007. In Donjuan Triumphant, she has bred a horse of soundness and class. The 6-year-old entire-bred by Cosgrove and the Dream Ahead Syndicate--made 37 starts, won on seven of those occasions including the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte at two and his Group 1 win in October, and filled the frame a further 14 times.

For a breeder, there surely can be no greater achievement than breeding a horse whose career spans five years and who possesses the temperament to remain an entire horse and continue to compete at the top level. Donjuan Triumphant's win on Champions Day proved an extremely timely update for his half-brother, by Invincible Spirit (GB), who is due to be sold at the Goffs November Foal Sale as lot 728.

Donjuan Triumphant's future lies in France where he will take up stud duties at Haras de la Barbottiere. While a mare can only produce one foal each year for her breeding life, a stallion can have multiply progeny on the ground each breeding season. This is perhaps the greatest way for a mare to leave her mark on the breed, you only have to look at the dominance of Urban Sea (Miswaki) in pedigrees to see that. Whatever Donjuan Triumphant achieves as a sire, his dam will always be the producer of a Group 1 winner who gave his connections a win to remember.

Young Rascal garnered four of five starts last term, suffering his lone sophomore defeat in the G1 Epsom Derby, but was below par when off the board in Newbury's Apr. 13 G3 John Porter S. and Newmarket's May 4 Jockey Club S. last time. Gelded since that latest effort, last term's three-time Group 3 winner was handily placed in third until improving into second with a half mile remaining here. Routed along at the top of the straight, he launched his challenge approaching the final furlong and stayed on resolutely under continued urging in the closing stages to prevail in ultimately comfortable fashion.

"He's a talented horse, who lost his way in the spring, so we cut him and gave him a lot of time off," explained trainer William Haggas. "He's come back well and has been training very well. We had him in the [G3] St Simon S. at Newbury, but it was abandoned and this race fitted in quite kindly so it worked well for him. He's probably run to his mark, but I feel he raced a bit rustily when he came off the bridle and Tom [Marquand] had to get into him a bit. Once he did, he went away nicely. He doesn't do anything too quickly, but he's a nice, staying horse and a pretty smart horse. My plan was always to give him the summer off and then try to get invited to Hong Kong for the [G1] Vase and then go to Australia for the [G1] Sydney Cup with a prep run in the [G1] Ranvet [S.]. Now he's gelded we are going to race around the world for some money. He's a very sound horse and will have bigger challenges to come, but let's get on with it. Saudi Arabia have put a spanner in the works by putting on a $2.5-million staying handicap over 15 furlongs so that might be very tempting. I need to go over and have a look at their track, but I gather it's a big, galloping track. That would be good and there's the [G1] Sheema Classic and [G1] Dubai Gold Cup in Dubai too. We have a lot of options and the great thing is we've jumped the first hurdle. If he can jump all the others then we'll be very pleased."

Young Rascal is the second of six foals and lone winner to date out of MSW G3 Prix Allez France placegetter Rock My Soul (Ire) (Clodovil (Ire)), herself a half-sister to G3 Preis der Winterkonigin victress Rock My Love (Ger) (Holy Roman Emperor (Ire)), Listed Oster-Stutenpreis winner Rock My Heart (Ger) (Sholokhov (Ire)), G2 Union-Rennen second Rapido (Ger) (Rock of Gibraltar (Ire)) and this term's G3 Prix des Reservoirs runner-up Run Wild (Ger) (Amaron (GB)). Cont. p7

JOHNSON HUNTS FOR NEXT G1SW AFTER DERBY WIN

Will Johnson & Postponed | TDN AusNZ

By Bren O'Brien

Young bloodstock agent Will Johnson had barely had time to celebrate Warning's win in the G1 Victoria Derby when his thoughts turned to finding his next Group 1 winner. As Will Johnson celebrated the G1 Victoria Derby win of Warning (Declaration Of War {USA}) on Saturday night, the advice of his old boss Roger Varian kept ringing in his head.

Bloodstock agent Johnson had just realised a childhood dream along with his great mate Sam Freedman, having selected and purchased Warning as a yearling and remained in the ownership with a bunch of friends. They were understandably keen to mark the occasion of a Victoria Derby win with a celebration but in the back of Johnson's mind was finding the next Group 1 winner.

"When Postponed won the Coronation Cup, I was in the car with Roger and having won a Group 1 on Epsom Derby day, you'd think you'd let your hair down. I just remember how hungry he was for more success," Johnson told TDN AusNZ. "It wasn't about going out and having a big night, it was about how we can improve. It was about the other horses on the day and what we could have done better.

"As much fun as I had on Saturday night, I was thinking this is great, but you are only as good as your last horse. Straight away you need to find another one. I felt a bit like Roger, in that today was great, but it's about tomorrow."

The advice is particularly sage for Johnson at this stage of his career. He returned to Australia just six weeks ago having spent two years working for Hubie de Burgh, having previously spent two years working as an assistant trainer to Varian.

Johnson is in the process of setting up a bloodstock consultancy in his own right, a next chapter of his career.

"I'm in the process of setting up my own business now and I'm looking forward to the yearling sales in the coming months," he said. "I'm just in the process of setting up the business and the website and all the branding."

The timing of Warning's success could not have been better in that regard. Johnson has sourced Group 1 winners for clients all around the world in his time with de Burgh Equine and handled some champions of the turf when working for Varian, including as travelling foreman with Postponed (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) when he won the Sheema Classic in Dubai. But success on arguably Australia's greatest day of racing puts him on the forefront of minds of potential clients ahead of next year's yearling sales season.

Realising a Childhood Dream

It also fulfilled a dream he has had since he was a kid watching Derby Day on TV as his parents Tim and Lisa, then running Ealing Park, headed off to the races and left him in the care of his grandmother.

"I used to watch the races with my sister and I always wanted to either own or train a Victoria Derby winner at some stage and to have done it with a close group of friends and especially Sam Freedman, who I worked with and went to school with, was very exciting and a lot of fun," he said. Cont. p2

To say Will was born into Thoroughbred racing is probably an understatement. His great grandfather Walter had first been involved in breeding in the 1930s and in 1966 bred the champion Vain (Wilkes {Fr}). The maternal line was just as strong with his grandmother Mary descending from the famous family of WS Cox.

"I grew up on Ealing Park, which was my grandparents' stud. My great grandfather had bred Vain and when you grow up with a Golden Slipper on the mantelpiece, you just get the sense of how great it would be to win a race like that," he said. "When I went to boarding school, Ben Hayes was the year above me and I used to go in with him on a Saturday morning and watch trackwork, and I used to get a really big kick out of that.

"I worked with Lindsay Park and then Robert Smerdon, on Saturday and Sunday mornings, Henry Dwyer would pick me up for work and I started out by mucking out and riding trackwork, more or less thinking I'd like to be a trainer."

What had been a bit of a side interest to earn some 'extra drinking money' while he completed his marketing degree at Monash University, then became a serious career option.

It was a dinner at a Chinese restaurant in 2014 with David Eustace, then a travelling foreman for Varian, that proved the breakthrough moment. Two months later he was on a flight to England to work for Varian at Newmarket, graduating to assistant trainer and handling topline horses such as Belardo (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Postponed.

From Training to Trading

Johnson's time with Varian ended as his working visa expired for the United Kingdom but Hubie de Burgh, based in Ireland, was keen to give him a chance to show his aptitude in the bloodstock side of the business.

"I went from training horses to trading horses," he said.

Hubie's expert eye is renowned across the Thoroughbred industry and Johnson had a rapid education in the game, working at yearling sales in Australia and Europe as well as in the private sales space where he was dealing mainly with fillies and mares, with a strong client base in Japan.

It was in that capacity that he and Freedman, who had both attended Melbourne Grammar and had strengthened their friendship when Johnson secured a job for Freedman at Varian's Newmarket stables, came together to buy a yearling in 2018.

"We had tried to buy a horse at the Melbourne Inglis Sale and we were outbid on a couple and we turned our attention to Adelaide," he said. "Mill Park has a record that is second-to-none in terms of producing stakes horses and Harry Perks as a breeder is very astute particularly with horses by shuttle stallions."

Buying a Derby Winner

Lot 101 from Mill Park's draft and bred by Perks, was a colt by Declaration Of War (USA), the son of War Front (USA) who had shuttled for two seasons to Coolmore in Australia, out of a Galileo (Ire) mare called Livia.

"Working in Europe, I had noticed that War Front across Galileo was looking quite strong given Coolmore and John Magnier's influence," Johnson said. "Funnily enough Euan White bred Livia and that whole family for a couple of generations back and they were all based at Ealing Park. So I grew up with a few of those mares on the farm."

Sam's dad, Anthony, also liked the colt and saw the potential if he was given time and signed off on the decision to bid for him.

"He was a little more backward and not the colonial speed type. But Sam and I from the outset were trying to find a horse that was potentially tradable to Hong Kong, that had a bit of size and strength that would be more of a 3-year-old than a 2-year-old," Johnson said.

That was pretty much the message to the group of friends who got into the horse having paid $65,000 for him.

"To go from that to a Derby winner was very special."

Johnson is still not sure that Warning is a horse that is a natural stayer and his dominant performance on Saturday was as much a tribute to the Freedmans' conditioning and an outstanding ride from Damien Oliver.

The Next Group 1 Winner?

Warning is the only horse Johnson and Sam Freedman have purchased at the yearling sales but he expects after Saturday's success, there will be a few more joining the club.

"I hope we can go to the yearling sales next year and put a few more syndicates together of mates from school and the wider friendship group," he said.

And Johnson is not yet finished with Cup week with unbeaten filly The Mobot (Uncle Mo {USA}), purchased for $50,000 at the 2018 Melbourne Premier Sale, to contest the G3 Red Roses S. on Thursday. She was purchased with and is trained by good friend Eustace as well as his training partner Ciaran Maher, and has won her four starts to date for another large syndicate.
