BAFFERT BIG GUNS, TIZ THE LAW, SWISS SKYDIVER, MAGICAL HEAD BREEDERS' CUP PRE-ENTRIES

Authentic & Tiz the Law heading to the finish line in the Kentucky Derby | Coady

Eclipse Award winner Maximum Security (New Year's Day), GI Kentucky Derby hero Authentic (Into Mischief), GI Belmont S. victor Tiz the Law (Constitution), Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil), who beat the boys in the GI Preakness S., and European star mare Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) are among the over 200 horses pre-entered for the Breeders' Cup World Championships to be held at Keeneland Race Course Friday and Saturday, Nov. 6-7.

Maximum Security makes his first appearance at the Breeders' Cup and is one of an imposing trio in the $6-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic for trainer Bob Baffert. Winner of the GI TVG Pacific Classic in August, the Gary and Mary West runner was second to stablemate and 'TDN Rising Star' Improbable (City Zip) in the GI Awesome Again S. Authentic will try to become the first 3-year-old to win the featured event since the Baffert-trained Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) in 2016 and makes his first appearance since finishing second to Swiss Skydiver at Old Hilltop Oct. 3. The latter was also entered for the Classic by trainer Ken McPeek, but has a first preference for the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff.

LIVELY TRADE AT DAY 3 OF OCTOBER SALE

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - During a session punctuated by several break-out horses and spirited trade seemingly throughout the market, the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky October Yearlings Sale produced strong results Wednesday. Bloodstock agent Donato Lanni, bidding on behalf of Karl and Cathi Glassman, made the auction's highest bid so far, going to $600,000 to acquire a colt by Uncle Mo from the Lane's End consignment.

"The smart men and women who were out there looking at horses said today was a really, really strong group of horses, particularly the top end and that was accurate," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. "It's always fun to sell some expensive, top-quality horses, and we were fortunate enough to have several in our catalogue today."

During Wednesday's session, 237 yearlings grossed $9,062,300 for an average of $38,238 and a median of $17,000. Cont. p15

*Jeff Bloom reflects on the upcoming sale of his champion Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute) at the FTKNOV Sale.

SAM-SON FARM TO DISPERSE STOCK 22
Top Canada-based racing and breeding operation Sam-Son Farm will be dispersing of their stock over the next 12-18 months, starting at the upcoming FTKNOV Sale and KEEJAN.

Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) looks to double up in the latter event, having defeated her elders two years ago to cap off her championship 3-year-old season. She faces a maximum field of 11, though Harvey's Lil Goil (American Pharoah), last-out winner of the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup on the grass, has a first preference for the GI Maker's Mark Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf.

Magical | Racing Post

Of the 11 pre-entered horses for the $4-million GI Longines Breeders' Cup Turf, six are from overseas, headed by Ballydoyle's outstanding mare Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Trainer Aidan O'Brien is also set to be represented by G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Mogul (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), while John Gosden also has a pair entered, including G1 Prince of Wales's S. hero Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Mehdaayih (GB) (Frankel {GB}) holds an entry for the turf, but is cross-entered with a first preference against her peers in the Filly & Mare Turf.

The GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile also has significant European flair, with five overseas-based runners among the main body of 14 and another two among the four horses that were not selected into the field. European 3-year-old form is represented by G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Siskin (First Defence) as well as Kameko (Kitten's Joy), victorious in the G1 English 2000 Guineas in his first start of the season in June and a latest winner of the G2 Shadwell Joel S. over a mile Sept. 25. The home team is headed by defending champion Uni (GB) (More Than Ready), one of three entered by trainer Chad Brown, who will also send out Digital Age (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}), both Grade I winners this season.

Championship Saturday kicks off with the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint for which 'TDN Rising Star' Gamine (Into Mischief) figures to go favored cutting back to one turn.

Frank's Rockette | Sarah Andrew

Top 3-year-old filly sprinter Frank's Rockette (Into Mischief) is likely to pass the Filly & Mare Sprint in favor of a start against the boys in the six-furlong GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. There she will likely face GI Runhappy Met Mile victor Vekoma (Candy Ride {Arg}), who also has a second preference in the GI Dirt Mile.

The 'Future Stars Friday' program features five championship events restricted to juveniles. Undefeated MGISW Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music) will start a warm favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, while the 2-year-old filly counterpart feels a more wide-open affair, with the unbeaten Dayoutoftheoffice (Into Mischief) opposing GI Darley Alcibiades S. winner Simply Ravishing (Laoban) and the undefeated, West Coast-based 'TDN Rising Star' Princess Noor (Not This Time). Full fields are anticipated for the GI Juvenile Turf, GI Juvenile Fillies Turf and GII Juvenile Turf Sprint.

LANE'S END

BBN RACING

OFF TO A SIZZLING START AS A BROODMARE, PARIS BIKINI TO SELL AT FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER

It didn't take long for Paris Bikini (Bernardini) to show what she can do as a broodmare. Her very first foal, Paris Lights (Curlin), became a Grade I winner this year when she captured the GI Coaching Club American Oaks at Saratoga. Paris Lights accomplished the feat in just her fourth lifetime start, which came after maiden and allowance wins at Churchill Downs.

"I'd say she's a pretty accomplished filly for the lack of seasoning," trainer Bill Mott said after the Coaching Club. "She's gained our confidence that she has some grit and she has some quality."

Right behind Paris Lights are progeny that could easily send Paris Bikini's value into the stratosphere.

Paris Lights wins this year's GI CCA Oaks. | Susie Raisher

She now has a 2-year-old colt by Into Mischief, a yearling filly by Distorted Humor and a weanling colt from the first crop of GI Kentucky Derby winner Always Dreaming.

Paris Bikini is also a three-quarter sister to America (A.P. Indy), the winner of the GIII Turnback the Alarm S. who was third in the GI Delaware H.

That Paris Bikini has had such early success is hardly a surprise. She hails from one of the best female families in the sport. Her third dam is Blush With Pride, who produced broodmare of the year Better Than Honour, responsible for Champion Rags to Riches, Jazil, Mayinsky, and other stellar performers and producers.

Her sire, Bernardini, is rapidly developing a reputation as one of the sport's top broodmare sires. In a little more than five years since Bernardini started his run as a sire of broodmares, his daughters have produced no fewer than 40 stakes winners and 21 graded stakes winners.

She sells as hip 196 from the Taylor Made consignment, as a young, 8-year-old mare is in foal to Uncle Mo, who is enjoying another stellar season at stud.

MONOMOY GIRL PRIMED FOR BIG EFFORT IN DISTAFF, BUT WILL IT BE HER LAST RACE?

By Bill Finley

Two years since Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) won the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and after a lost 2019, the 5-year-old mare is apparently doing so well that trainer Brad Cox said she is better now than she was in 2018 when she crossed the wire first in all seven of her races. That could mean a second Distaff win. Could it also mean that she will be back for a third try in 2021? Monomoy Girl has been entered in the Fasig-Tipton November sale and it was widely believed that she would be retired after this year's Breeders' Cup. But on a teleconference Wednesday to announce the pre-entries for the Breeders' Cup, Cox said the possibility of her racing next year has been raised.

Monomoy Girl | Sarah Andrew

"I just think [the owners] have if it in the back of their minds that if she shows up and runs extremely well in the Distaff it could be a possibility that they'd like to campaign her in 2021," Cox said. "Given the fact that she did not race as a 4-year-old, this is basically her 4-year-old season. For a mare who is five and about to turn six, she is somewhat lightly raced. I think a lot of it will hinge on what happens Breeders' Cup day. I think there will be a meeting at some point after the Breeders' Cup, either that night or the next day. At some point we are going to have to get a game plan ready. A lot of it will hinge on her performance Breeders' Cup day."

After her outstanding 3-year-old campaign, Monomoy Girl dealt with a few setbacks last year that kept her from making a start. The ownership group, which consists of Michael Dubb, The Elkstone Group LLC, Monomoy Stables and Bethlehem Stables LLC, patiently waited for Cox to ger her ready for her return. She came back with a win in a May 16 allowance race at Churchill Downs and then won the GII Ruffian S. and the GI La Troienne S. Cont. p13

"As far as getting her back to the races it was a long road," Cox said. "We had a couple of setbacks in '19. For her to be able to compete at the Grade I level and win a Grade I was really amazing for us as a team. We feel like she is better this year than she was in 2018. It means a lot to us and our staff and the owners for her to not only make it back but to compete at the Grade I level."

Monomoy Girl's task in the Distaff will be made tougher if GI Preakness S. winner Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) runs in that race over the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The 3-year-old filly has been pre-entered in both races, with the Distaff listed as the first preference. Trainer Ken McPeek said Wednesday that he and owner Peter Callahan have yet to choose which race she will go in, but he hinted that it may be the Distaff.

"We went ahead and took advantage of the fact she can pre-enter in both races without having to pay any fees," McPeek said. "We figured we would take a look and see what the Classic looks like. We haven't had an opportunity to sit down and study the past performances yet. We are going to do that in the next 24, 48 hours and get some clarity on what direction we will go in.

"I do think the Distaff is the first logical choice if you don't know who all the competitors are in the Classic. It isn't a decision set in stone yet. This gives us the ability to look and check out the other race. I have said all along the Distaff is the likely spot. But we are not going to rule out the other race until we've had a chance to analyze who all is running and how the pace scenario may set up. There is still a little bit of time and we don't have to make a firm decision until the second of November, but I assume we will probably make it over the next couple or three days."

McPeek said there were pluses and minuses when it came to both races.

"I really like her at a mile-and-a quarter," he said. "That would be the pro for the Classic. But I also know it is a deeper race on paper. Another pro would be that she would get a bit of weight off [Swiss Skydiver would get a three-pound weight allowance in the Classic] in that race. That's a couple of reasons to go in that direction. Monomoy Girl will definitely be the horse to beat in the Distaff. She is certainly a top filly, so you wouldn't think that race would be easy. We have to study it and we will come to a conclusion soon."

The Classic looks like the more imposing spot. The race has drawn a who's who of the top male horses in training, including Authentic (Into Mischief), Improbable (City Zip), Maximum Security (New Year's Day), Tiz the Law (Constitution) and Tom's d'Etat (Smart Strike).

Cox said he would be excited to see Swiss Skydiver in the Distaff.

"I think it would be fantastic for racing if they were to meet up in the Distaff," he said. Cont. p14

Cox continued, "Obviously, you are talking about our horse already being a champion and that filly is definitely on the leader board and will probably take home champion 3-year-old filly honors this year. It would be a really good match up from the standpoint of being a fan. And I am a fan of racing and I think it would be a tremendous match up and I am looking forward to the possibility."

BELLAFINA & DONNA VELOCE RETIRED

Bellafina | Benoit

MGISW Bellafina (Quality Road--Akron Moon, by Malibu Moon) was pre-entered for the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint Monday, but was scratched Tuesday and is now retired after developing a minor issue in her Oct. 24 breeze at Keeneland (five furlongs in 1:00.60), according to owner Kaleem Shah.

Shah noted that 'TDN Rising Star' Donna Veloce (Uncle Mo--Coin Broker {Ire}, by Montjeu {Ire}) has been retired as well. Both mares will join Shah's broodmare band with Bellafina set to visit Uncle Mo and Donna Veloce booked to Justify. The news was first reported by the Daily Racing Form.

"Bellafina had a small issue after the work and since it is so close to the Breeders' Cup, we thought it was best to have her go and be a momma," Shah said when reached by phone Wednesday. "She has been super good to us all of these years, winning multiple Grade Is as a 2-year-old and winning the [GI] Santa Anita Oaks. She has had a wonderful career, but we always err on the side of caution and never take any chances with any of our horses. She will be bred to Uncle Mo next year."

Bred by JSM Equine, Bellafina was purchased by Shah for $800,000 at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream 2-Year-Old Sale and turned over to trainer Simon Callaghan. Earning her diploma at second asking in the 2018 GII Sorrento S., the bay won both the GI Del Mar Debutante S. and GI Chandelier S. that season. She kicked off 2019 with a trio of victories in the GII Santa Ynez S., GII Las Virgenes S. and GI Santa Anita Oaks. Flying late to be a close second to dual champion Covfefe (Into Mischief) in last year's Breeders' Cup, Bellafina was also second in the GI La Brea S. The 4-year-old won the GIII Desert Stormer S. in May was second in both the GII Great Lady M. S. July 4 and GI Ballerina S. Aug. 8. She retires with a record of 18-7-5-1 and earnings of $1,617,975.

Donna Veloce | Horsephotos

A $450,000 KEESEP yearling buy, Donna Veloce was also bought for $800,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream Sale and joined Bellafina in Callaghan's shedrow. Earning the 'Rising Star' nod off a dazzling debut win at Santa Anita last September, she was a neck second to champion British Idiom (Flashback) as the favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, after which she was bought into by the Coolmore contingent. Second to Bast (Uncle Mo) in the GI Starlet S. in December, the bay captured the GII Santa Ysabel S. Mar. 8 and was given a brief freshening, but made the GI Kentucky Oaks Sept. 4, where she finished eighth.

"Donna Veloce has also been retired," Shah said. "After the Oaks, she came up with a small injury. We had given her plenty of time off after her race in March to recover from that and she seemed a little ouchy again [after the Oaks]. We thought it was best for her to become a momma and she is going to be bred to Justify next year."

Hip 1131 topped FTKOCT Wednesday | Fasig-Tipton

Through three sessions of the four-day auction, 726 horses sold for $25,452,800. The cumulative average of $35,059 dipped 5.9% from last year's figure and the median of $15,000 is up 15.4%. The buy-back rate stands at 22.2%. It was 26.2% at this point a year ago.

"Overall, trade continued to be good at pretty much all levels," Browning said. "The RNA rate was down this year compared to last year, the median was up. As we came into this sale, my fear was that the bottom end of the market might be decimated--particularly with some travel restrictions in place for a lot of our friends from South America and we have virtually no Canadian participation at the sale because of the travel restrictions--but it's held up. Nobody wants to talk about the lower end of the market, but it's held up really well."

Browning continued, "Clearly we sold two horses for over $500,000 so far and there is plenty of money here for a nice horse. It is continuing the trends of 2020. It's not irrational, there is no craziness happening, but it's a fairly consistent marketplace. And most importantly, a reasonable marketplace does exist for the men and women selling horses."

Reiley McDonald of Eaton Sales was satisfied with the commerce conducted this week at Newtown Paddocks.

"I think the market has been very good for clean, above average horses," McDonald said. "There are a lot of horses in the sale and the lower end horses have suffered quite a bit, but at the end of the day, that's the nature of the horse business. I think the October sale has proven itself over the last five years to be as solid an option as there is in the country."

The October sale's final session begins Thursday at 10 a.m.

Uncle Mo Colt for Glassmans

Bloodstock agent Donato Lanni, shopping on behalf of Karl and Cathi Glassman for the first time at the October sale, went to a sale-topping $600,000 to acquire a colt by Uncle Mo (hip 1131) from the Lane's End consignment Wednesday at Fasig-Tipton. The yearling, bred by Kinsman Farm, was bought back at $325,000 at the Keeneland September sale. He is out of A. P. Dream (A.P. Indy) and is a half to multiple group placed Wind Fire (Distorted Humor). Out of multiple Grade I winner Dream Supreme (Seeking the Gold), the mare is a full-sister to Grade I winner Majestic Warrior.

"He's an Uncle Mo with a good pedigree," Lanni said of the youngster. "He's a nice horse and he had all the criteria Mr. Glassman wanted. He was locked in and they really wanted the horse. We're just happy to get him."

Karl Glassman is chairman of the board of the Missouri-based manufacturing company Leggett & Platt, Inc. He and his wife campaigned stakes winner April Gaze (High Cotton), as well as stakes-placed current 2-year-old Restofthestory (Jess's Dream) with trainer Eddie Plesa.

The Glassmans also purchased a filly by Distorted Humor (hip 124) for $140,000 during Monday's first session of the October sale.

Donato Lanni | Fasig-Tipton

More Mischief for Spendthrift

Ned Toffey | Fasig-Tipton

B. Wayne Hughes's Spendthrift Farm got into action to secure a colt by its star stallion Into Mischief (hip 1147) for $475,000 late in Wednesday's third session of the October sale.

"He was certainly a nice colt and we're happy to have him," said Spendthrift manager Ned Toffey. "He does look a lot like Into Mischief. He stands over a lot of ground and he's marked similarly. He's a nice colt."

Of the yearling's final price, Toffey said, "It's Into Mischief, nothing surprises me. He just continues to amaze us year after year. We thought we'd have to pay something for him. That was probably somewhere beyond where we thought we'd need to be, but if he can run it will look cheap."

The Florida-bred yearling is out of Ashlee's Lady (Gilded Time) and is a half-brother to graded winner Yara (Put It Back). Ashlee's Lady is a half to Grade I winner Healthy Addiction (Boston Harbor). He was consigned by Paramount Sales and was co-bred by Paramount's Gabriel Duignan and Jean White's Bulldog Racing.

"It was a foal share with Jean White," Duignan said. "She had the mare, she did all the work and she needs all the credit. She did a great job with the horse. She brought him to me at the sale and I did the easy part. He's a lovely and I'm very happy with that result."

Ashlee's Lady has a weanling filly by Violence bred by White in partnership with Steven Marshall's Black Rock Thoroughbreds, which campaigned that stallion.

Mohaymen Colt Draws a Crowd

Hip 844 | Fasig-Tipton

Tom D'Ambra's Trade Winds Farm added a son of Mohaymen to its roster Wednesday at Fasig-Tipton when bloodstock agent Frank Smith made a final bid of $315,000 to secure a first-crop yearling of the graded stakes winner (hip 844) from the Hunter Valley Farm consignment.

"His pedigree," Smith, owner of Elloree Training Center in South Carolina, said when asked what had attracted him to the yearling. "The Tapits look like they want to run no matter who they are. The mare has had a Grade I horse, so she's proven herself, too. That's about as good as you'll find in today's sale."

The gray colt is out of Super Phoebe (Malabar Gold), the dam of multiple Grade I winner Got Stormy (Get Stormy).

Also this week at Fasig-Tipton, D'Ambra's upstate New York-based Trade Winds Farm purchased a colt by Quality Road (hip 539) for $100,000, a colt by Frosted (hip 470) for $75,000 and a colt by Tonalist (hip 673) for $20,000.

The yearlings will be trained by Dale Romans.

D'Ambra, who is co-founder of Albany Medical Research, Inc., has campaigned stakes winners Bounding Charm (Boundary) and Clifton Park (Allen's Prospect).

Hip 844 was a pinhooking score for the partnership of Ted Campion, Gabriel Duignan, Adrian Regan and Pat Costello, which purchased the gray colt for $145,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton November sale.

"He was just a beautiful mover," Campion said of his impressions of the colt as a weanling. "He had all the pieces in the right places. Spider [Duignan], Adrian, myself and Pat buy 10 or 12 horses a year and we just all landed on him last year and we all loved him. He just got stronger and in the last month he's done really, really well."

Of his placement in the October sale, Campion added, "He's a May 10 foal and he really thrived in the last month. Just physically, he needed that extra month. He was nice in September, but he has grown in the last month."

The yearling's final price exceeded expectations.

"We put a hefty reserve on him--he cost a lot of money, he cost $145,000 as a foal," Campion said. "So we put $174,000 on him and we had plenty of live people after that. It was great to see. We were delighted with that."

The colt is Mohaymen's highest-priced yearling to date.

"I actually was underbidder on two of them last year," Campion said of the Shadwell stallion. "They looked very precocious. I know this guy is a late foal, but I bet he'll be a nice 2-year-old--maybe he won't be April early, but middle of the summer, I bet he'll be very good. I thought they were very athletic and he was a good racehorse. And for a son of Tapit, they've got great minds."

Maclean's Music Filly Rewards McDonald

Reiley McDonald included a small group of homebred fillies among his Eaton Sales consignment at the October sale and the well-received group was highlighted by a daughter of Maclean's Music (hip 1040) who sold to Richard Rigney on a phone bid of $280,000 Wednesday in Lexington.

"She was always a very nice filly," McDonald said. "As a weanling, we knew she was something special, but she's done nothing but get better the entire time."

The chestnut filly is out of multiple stakes-placed Wind Caper (Touch Gold) and is a half-sister to stakes-placed Travelling Midas (Quality Road). McDonald's Athens Woods purchased the mare for $37,000 at the 2016 Keeneland November sale.

Of the yearling's final price, McDonald said, "It would have shocked me to death when I brought her in here, but she was so pretty and she showed herself so well, that I thought she could bring $200,000 to $300,000 by the time we got here today. I had 47 vet hits on her. We had to cut her scopes off. She was just a solid, clean filly."

McDonald, who maintains a broodmare band of some 20 head, also sold a homebred daughter of Lookin at Lucky (hip 229) for $150,000 during Monday's first session of the auction.

"I held some of my lesser bred homebreds that I really liked for this sale," McDonald said. "It's turned out to be a very good sale for clean, nice horses, so I'm glad I did it."

Indian Creek Yearlings in Demand

Shack Parish's Indian Creek consignment had a pair of standout results back-to-back Wednesday at Fasig-Tipton, with Vinnie Viola's St Elias Stables securing a colt by Distorted Humor (hip 1067) with a $270,000 internet bid and just a few hips later What Time Is It Racing paying that same amount for a daughter of More Than Ready (hip 1079). Cont. p18

Sarah Sutherland | Fasig-Tipton

"Both of these horses were May foals, so we just wanted to give them as much time as possible," explained Indian Creek's Sarah Sutherland. "That's why they came here."

Of the results, Sutherland added, "We knew they had been well received, but you never know where they will land. So we try to place them and reserve them where we can people involved to bid. They are here to sell."

Hip 1067 is a son of stakes winner and multiple graded placed You Bought Her (Graeme Hall). The yearling was bred by Meg Dumaine, who purchased the mare for $250,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale.

Hip 1079 is a daughter of Zondaq (Bernardini), a half-sister to graded winners Discreet Dancer (Discreet Cat) and Travelin Man (Trippi). The mare's half-sister Sweet N Discreet (Discreet Cat) is the dam of multiple graded stakes winner Sweet Melania (American Pharoah), who was third in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

"We had hoped she would be in this range, but she definitely exceeded our expectations a bit," Sutherland said. "It's a beautiful pedigree that suits end users well and it's an active family as well with Sweet Melania."

Trainer Dan Blacker and bloodstock agent Conor Foley did their bidding upstairs for the filly, purchasing her on behalf of a fledgling owner who races as What Time Is It Racing.

"He has six or seven now," Blacker said, while declining to name the client. "We have a mixture of yearlings, 2-year-olds and older horses. He's just really passionate about the Thoroughbred business and he's really excited to get involved in all aspects. I am really thrilled to get this filly."

Asked what type of horses they were seeking for the operation, Foley said, "I think just the best athlete possible. And sometimes for a nice pedigree you have to pay a little more."

It was the second time this fall Blacker had purchased a filly from an Indian Creek consignment for What Time Is It Racing. He went to $1.1 million to acquire a filly by Medaglia d'Oro (hip 443) at the Keeneland September sale.

What Time Is It Racing has one starter to date, Johan Zoffani (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}), a 3-year-old European import who was fifth in his stateside debut at Del Mar in August. The gelding is expected to go postward again this Sunday in a maiden race at the oceanside oval.

Gun Runner Colt to Rivelli

Larry Rivelli has been active at Fasig-Tipton this week purchasing yearlings on behalf of Vince Foglia's Patricia's Hope and the trainer made his highest bid of the auction when going to $235,000 to secure a colt from the first crop of champion Gun Runner.

"I think it's slim picking at this sale and you are digging through a lot of horses, but this was a beautiful horse," Rivelli said after signing the ticket on hip 813. "Except for being gray, he looks a lot like Gun Runner."

The yearling, bred by Nancy Shuford, is out of stakes-placed Stayclassysandiego (Rockport Harbor) and is a half-brother to multiple graded stakes winner Pretty N Cool (Scat Daddy).

Florida-based Beryl "Sonny" Stokes purchased the colt for $170,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale. The yearling was consigned Wednesday by Eaton Sales.

"We have had a little bit of luck with Rockport Harbor as a broodmare sire," Rivelli said. "So we were taking a shot. I was prepared to pay in between $150,000 and $250,000. The horse vetted clean and that's 75% of it. I'm pretty particular on scoping. The throat has to be perfect because if there is a little bit of this or that, it's only going to get worse, in my eyes."

On behalf of Foglia, Rivelli also purchased a filly by Nyquist (hip 626) for $170,000, a colt by First Samurai (hip 550) for $62,000, and a colt by Trappe Shot (hip 782) for $21,000.

AN UNEXPECTED STORYBOOK ENDING FOR MIDNIGHT BISOU

By Katie Ritz

Click here to watch as Jeff Bloom talks on the unforgettable campaign of Midnight Bisou.

What was it, many have asked, that drew Jeff Bloom to Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute) at the 2017 OBS April 2-Year-Old Sale?

While it surely wasn't her unmet reserve from the Keeneland September Sale, where bidding stalled at $19,000, perhaps it was her three-time stakes-winning dam. Diva Delite (Repent) had yet to produce a winner, but as a racehorse she had claimed the GIII Florida Oaks and earned over $300,000.

On the other hand, maybe something in the filly's :10 1/5 breeze at the sale had caught his eye.

Bloom has been asked the question innumerable times over the past three years. There's really only one thing he can put his finger on.

"At the end of the day, it was really her presence," Bloom said. "She had a way about her--her eye, such a smart, keen, personal, friendly touch about her. I was just drawn to her from the second I laid eyes on her. At the breeze show, she really leveled out and had such an efficiency of motion about her that made it clear there was more there. This is the type of horse that you think you can go on with. Of course, you never know for sure, but, as it turns out, it worked out."

It would have been impossible for anyone to have predicted the ride on which Midnight Bisou would take Bloom, his family and his partners. But now, after a four-year campaign, the daughter of Midnight Lute will sell at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale as a five-time Grade I winner, an Eclipse champion and the highest-earning dirt mare of all time.

With two runner-up efforts behind eventual Grade I winner Dream Tree (Uncle Mo) at two, Midnight Bisou dominated the 3-year-old filly division at Santa Anita with three graded wins, culminating in a 3 1/2-length come-from-behind victory in the GI Santa Anita Oaks. Cont. p21

"The Santa Anita Oaks was a huge accomplishment," Bloom said. "To win as dominantly as she did was really one of those things that gives you goose bumps. At that point, we thought, 'Wow, we've got arguably one of the best fillies in the country and it looks like there's no stopping us now.'"

Midnight Bisou wrapped up her 3-year-old season with two more graded victories, never finishing out of the money in her nine starts. But she upped her game further at four, finishing first in seven of eight starts and adding a trio of Grade I wins, highlighted by one of the most heart-pounding stretch battles of the year in the GI Personal Ensign S. with Elate (Medaglia d'Oro).

"The Personal Ensign is one of my all-time favorite races for us with Midnight Bisou, but as a racing fan, to me it's one of the most special races," Bloom said. "When they crossed the wire, I thought the nose went to us but it was so hard to tell. Time just stands still. When they flashed our number up there, I can tell you I was floating on air. Really more than anything, I was so happy for Midnight Bisou. It's what horse racing is all about."

After connections made the decision to race one more season, scratching her from the 2019 Fasig-Tipton November Sale on the morning of the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff, the newly-crowned Eclipse winner crossed the globe to make her 5-year-old debut this year in the $20-million Saudi Cup, where she closed to finish an ultra-game second behind fellow champion Maximum Security (New Year's Day).

"That was one of the most thrilling, rewarding experiences of my lifetime to see her show up and go across the world and run second against the best racehorses," Bloom said. "It made us feel like, yeah, this is all working out the way it's supposed to."

Fate soon intervened.

After another win in the GII Fleur de Lis S. June 27 and a close second in the Personal Ensign Aug. 1, Midnight Bisou was expected to prime for a final appearance in the Breeders' Cup with a match-up against rival Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) in the Distaff, or perhaps even a start in the GI Classic. But during her final work before shipping to Lexington for the GI Juddmonte Spinster S., an injury forced her connections to choose an early retirement.

"We were devastated," Bloom said. "We had more to do. She deserved to have that Breeders' Cup trophy sitting on the mantle. It's hard to get your head around that this is how it's finishing. But at the end of the day, we found out she's going to be fine and this in no way is going to affect anything as it relates to her being a broodmare, so we'll take advantage of knowing that we had an incredible ride and she's going to be happy and be able to shine at the Night of Stars and hopefully have a banner second career."

Midnight Bisou retired with earnings well over $7 million and never finished out of the money in any of her 22 career starts for co-owners Bloom Racing, Madaket Stables LLC and Allen Racing LLC.

The champion has had several pedigree updates since her last time through the auction ring, with her half-brother Stage Left (Congrats) now a black-type-placed winner. Her dam, Diva Delite, sold for $1.2 million at last year's Fasig-Tipton November Sale, carrying a colt by Justify, and this year was bred to Medaglia d'Oro.

When Midnight Bisou sells as Hip 185 with the Elite Sales consignment Nov. 8, Bloom said he won't be unsettled by what could have been the day before at the Breeders' Cup, but instead will find peace in remembering the ride of a lifetime he enjoyed with his family and his $80,000 purchase-turned-over $7-million dollar earner.

"It's impossible to put into words what this ride has meant," he admitted. "This game is my whole life. She changed my life, my family's life, my partners' lives. There isn't a day that goes by that I don't appreciate and understand how fortunate I am that this came, that this experience was handed to me, and I'll forever be grateful and appreciative."

SAM-SON TO DISPERSE BREEDING & RACING STOCK

By T.D. Thornton

Sam-Son Farm, whose Thoroughbred racing and breeding operation dates back to 1972 and is considered a pillar of the sport in Canada, will be dispersing its stock over the next 18 months, primarily through public auctions handled by Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton.

The liquidation of racing and breeding stock was announced via press release Oct. 28. Sam-Son executives did not cite a specific reason beyond saying in a prepared statement that:

"After serious consideration and discussion, the owners have unanimously decided to initiate an orderly dispersal and to step back from active participation in the racing and breeding world."

The fate of Sam-Son's two equine properties--a 200-acre breeding and foaling farm in Milton, Ontario and 160-acre training facility in Ocala, Florida--were not addressed in the press release. Nor was the status of the operation's employees.

A voicemail message left for Sam-Son's Ontario farm manager, Dave Whitford, did not yield a return phone call prior to deadline for this story.

Sam-Son Farm has bred and raced 12 horses who made it into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. The stable's iconic red-and-gold silks were carried by five Queen's Plate S. winners, two Breeders' Cup winners, and 14 Grade I winners overall. The operation has garnered 84 Sovereign Awards and won four Eclipse Awards, including a pair of 2019 Sovereign Awards for Owner and Breeder of the Year.

Both Ernie Samuel, who founded Sam-Son and ran it until his death in 2000, and his daughter, Tammy Samuel-Balaz, who led the farm until her own passing in 2008, are enshrined in the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame as "Thoroughbred Builders."

Today Sam-Son is the property of president Rick Balaz (the late Tammy's husband), plus Ernie's children, chief executive Mark Samuel and co-owner Kim Samuel.

Shared Account will be offered in the first part of the Sam-Son dispersal at FTKNOV | Sarah Andrew

Sam Son's press release is billing the liquidation as a "rare opportunity for buyers to acquire world-class racing talent and breeding stock from one of the true breed-to-race operations in the business."

The dispersal will begin at the upcoming Fasig-Tipton November Sale with two racing/broodmare prospects and two in-foal mares. Sam-Son will present its remaining (currently 21) in-foal mares at the Keeneland January Horses of all Ages Sale.

The Samuel/Balaz families commented jointly as follows: "We are enormously proud of the quality and longevity of Sam-Son Farm and have enjoyed nurturing and celebrating every stage of the equine cycle from breeding, to raising, to racing, to retirement and often, returning to the breeding shed. Our horses have given generations of our family such fulfillment and excitement over the years and we felt that the time had come, after five decades, to now share that legacy with the world. It was a bittersweet decision but one that we are committed to pursuing with integrity, transparency and respect. Our horses and our amazing, dedicated employees deserve no less."

Desert Ride | Hodges

The great-grandson of a steel-and-aluminum magnate, Ernie Samuel started Sam-Son in the 1960s, initially as a hunter/jumper stable that quickly competed at the Olympics level, with one of its horses a member of the Canadian Equestrian Team that won gold at the 1968 Games.

With Thoroughbreds already in the barn as sport horses, Sam-Son transitioned to racing shortly thereafter, claiming a filly named Takaring at Fort Erie who would go on to be Sam-Son's first stakes winner.

In 1975, Samuel purchased two yearlings, No Class and Loudrangle, at the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society sale. Over the next four decades, those two fillies became the foundation of the Sam-Son broodmare band. According to the farm's website, more than half of the mares currently in Sam-Son's band are descendants of No Class.

Sam-Son bred and raced champion Dance Smartly, the first Canadian-owned and bred horse to win a Breeders' Cup race (the GI Distaff), and who, in her undefeated 3-year-old season of 1991, became just the second filly in history to win the Canadian Triple Crown.

Other Sam-Son champions include GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Chief Bearhart, Eclipse Award winner Sky Classic; Dancethruthedawn, Quiet Resolve, Rainbows for Life, Ruling Angel, Silken Cat, Soaring Free, Wilderness Song, and many more. Sam-Son also bred and raced Grade I winner and influential sire-of-sires Smart Strike, a half-brother to Dance Smartly.

At Fasig-Tipton November, the Sam-Son consignment consists of 2019 Canadian champion 3-year-old filly Desert Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}) (Hip 187); recent Grade II winner Rideforthecause (Candy Ride {Arg}); stakes winner and track record holder Desert Isle (Bernardini) in foal to American Pharoah (Hip 264), and GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf winner Shared Account (Pleasantly Perfect) (Hip 207), who is in foal with a full-sibling to fellow Breeders' Cup winner Sharing (Speightstown).

Boyd Browning, Fasig-Tipton's president and chief executive officer, said, "Sam-Son Farm has been an iconic name in Thoroughbred racing and breeding for nearly half a century. This program has produced numerous Grade I winners, champions and Hall-of-Fame racehorses. Sam-Son horses have had a profound influence in top pedigrees around the world and will continue to do so for many generations. Although saddened to see them dispersing their Thoroughbred holdings, we are honored to assist them in this process."

At Keeneland January, the projected consignment includes Grade I producers Danceforthecause (Giant's Causeway) and Song of the Lark (Seeking the Gold), as well as stakes winners Checkered Past (Smart Strike), Dance Again (Awesome Again), Deceptive Vision (A.P. Indy), Mythical Mission (Giant's Causeway), Smartyfly (Smart Strike) and Southern Ring (Speightstown). Covering sires include American Pharoah, Candy Ride (Arg), Into Mischief, Kitten's Joy, Speightstown. and Street Sense.

Shannon Arvin, Keeneland's president-elect, said, "Keeneland and Sam-Son Farm have enjoyed a long, successful relationship. Over the years, a number of Sam-Son horses have raced here, and the farm received the prestigious Keeneland Tray during the 2005 Spring Meet to recognize its graded stakes success-a milestone that only 20 owners have reached in track history. We are privileged that Sam-Son has entrusted Keeneland to offer this distinguished group of mares at the January Sale." Cont. p24

Sam-Son has been a seller at public auctions only peripherally through the years. It sent a consignment of five to the 2009 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga select yearling auction, but for the most part has limited its offerings during the past decade to small consignments at all-ages sales to cull broodmares that no longer fit the program.

That changed last September at Keeneland, when Sam-Son offered six yearlings, selling two fillies by Curlin and Empire Maker for a total of $380,000.

In a Feb. 27, 2020, pre-pandemic article published in Canadian Thoroughbred that profiled Sam-Son as a "Top 25 Influencer" in Canadian racing, Balaz, the farm's president, was asked what needs to change about the industry in the next five to 10 years.

"To speak from our perspective, one of the biggest challenges is that the game is becoming unaffordable for the average horse owner," Balaz replied. "It's very difficult from a financial perspective. I don't know how you overcome that based on the world we live in. You have to be in it for the love of it-which is a great thing-but it used to be easier for a smaller guy to be involved. Now that's becoming much more difficult. I don't know how that gets reversed and we get back to the point where more people can be involved in the game."

DARBY DAN RELEASES 2021 STALLION ROSTER, FEES

Dialed In | Matt Goins

Darby Dan Farm has set 2021 stud fees for its roster of 12 stallions that will stand the upcoming breeding season, led by Dialed In (Mineshaft), who will stand for $15,000 S&N, down from $20,000 a season ago.

The roster also features Tapiture (Tapit), Klimt (Quality Road), and GI Breeders' Cup Classic contender Higher Power (Medaglia d'Oro), new for 2021, who will each stand for $10,000 S&N. GI Kentucky Derby winner Country House (Lookin At Lucky), also new for 2021, Flameaway (Scat Daddy), and Copper Bullet (More Than Ready) will stand for $7,500 S&N, while Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat) and Bee Jersey (Jersey Town) will stand for $5,000; rounding out the roster will be Sky Kingdom (Empire Maker) at $2,500, S&N, Tale of Verve (Tale of Ekati) at $2,000 S&N, and Dolphus (Lookin At Lucky) who will stand for private treaty.

Dialed In, leading freshman sire of 2016 and a perennial leading sire of his crop ever since, is represented in 2020 by GI American Pharoah S. winner Get Her Number. Tapiture's Hopeful Growth was a four-length winner of this year's GII Monmouth Oaks and placed in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. He is also represented by 'TDN Rising Star' Premier Star, winner of the Jersey Shore S. and placed in the GII Amsterdam S. A top-five first-crop sire of 2019 by earnings and second-ranked first-crop sire by winners with 27, Tapiture leads second-crop sires by winners (68) and is second in black-type winners (five) and black-type horses (12).

Klimt, Quality Road's fastest Grade I-winning 2-year-old, saw first-crop yearlings sell for $160,000, $120,000, $115,000, etc. this year. Klimt was a powerful winner of the GI Del Mar Futurity, where he ran seven furlongs in 1:21.80, marking the second-fastest time since 2004, behind only American Pharoah.

Higher Power, a dominant 5 1/4-length winner of the 2019 GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar, has earned more than $1.5 million heading into this year's Breeders' Cup and boasts graded stakes placings in the Breeders' Cup Classic, GI Gold Cup S., GI Awesome Again S. and GII San Diego H.

New to the roster, Country House earned more than $2.1 million, and in addition to his Derby victory, finished second to eventual Classic winner War of Will in the GII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds and was third in the GI Arkansas Derby.

Darby Dan will once again be offering various incentive programs in 2021 to provide value to breeders, including Profit Protection, Share the Upside, Black-Type Bonanza, and Goldmine 20/20 Match Program.

THOROUGHBRED INDUSTRY EMPLOYEE AWARDS PRESENTED BY Godolphin USA 2020

MEET THE TIEA FINALIST

DENALI STUD'S ALEXIS KOLASA NAMED FINALIST FOR NEWCOMER AWARD

Alexis Kolasa | Courtesy of TIEA

Congratulations to Alexis Kolasa, one of three finalists in the Newcomer Award category of the Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards (TIEA), presented by Godolphin. Currently an administrative assistant at Denali Stud, Kolasa has been involved with horses her entire life and was captain of her college equestrian team. Her first exposure to Thoroughbreds was through an internship at Southern Illinois University during which she spent a semester at Lane's End Farm. She went on to work for Juddmonte and then found her way to Denali Stud, taking on various responsibilities, including communicating with clients, staff, and managers, as well as answering phones and farm scheduling. Denali Stud COO, Craig Bandoroff, describes Kolasa as "Our Swiss Army knife; she has lots of different skills and assets rolled into one."

Click for the video feature on Kolasa done by TIEA.

Other finalists for the Newcomer Award are Robert Cole of FTBOA and Aaron West of Bradley Thoroughbreds LLC, who will be recognized on these pages tomorrow. The Newcomer Award is presented annually to an individual who has been in racing or breeding for under five years and has shown ambition to continue a career in some facet of the Thoroughbred industry while also improving his or her skills and knowledge.

A total of seven award categories will be honored by TIEA for 2020. Maria Cristina Silva of New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (NYTHA) has already been announced as the winner of the Community Award, while the winners in the other categories will be announced live in a virtual ceremony hosted by Jill Byrne and streamed at the TDN homepage Thursday, Nov. 5, at 12:00 p.m. ET. All finalists will be spotlighted in TDN in the days leading up to the ceremony.

EINSTEIN EUTHANIZED

Five-time Grade I winner Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck--Gay Charm {Brz}, by Ghadeer {Fr}) was euthanized at Park Equine Hospital Wednesday due to complications from cancer. He had been pensioned at Old Friends since 2019.

Trained by Helen Pitts, Einstein captured the 2009 GI Santa Anita H. and four Grade I stakes on turf. In all Einstein made 27 starts, winning 11 races. He won or placed in 13 stakes, all of which were graded, and his career earnings totaled $2,703,324.

Einstein retired from racing in 2010 to stand at Adena Springs in Kentucky. He later stood at Adena Springs North in Ontario, Canada, and at Magali Farms near Santa Ynez, CA. His top runners include Grade III winner Rankhasprivileges and multiple-stakes-placed E Equalsmcsquared.

"When we first retired Einstein, he was diagnosed with a tumor," noted Old Friends's Michael Blowen. "Dr. Rhodes Bell of Park Equine performed a delicate operation and removed the tumor. The procedure allowed Einstein to enjoy more than a year of happy life with Old Friends before the fast-growing tumors re-occurred over the weekend.

"Einstein was as classy and smart as he was handsome," Blowen added. "He was a farm favorite, and he was especially fond of John Bradley. I wished we could have taken care of him for another decade."

JOURNEYMAN STUD FEES REMAIN UNCHANGED FOR 2021

Stud fees for Khozan (Distorted Humor), St. Patrick's Day (Pioneerof the Nile) and Fury Kapcori (Tiznow) well remain unchanged for 2021, Journeyman Stud announced Wednesday. Khozan will stand for $10,000, St. Patrick's Day for $5,000 and Fury Kapcori for $2,500.

"We had so many requests for Khozan in 2020 that we were forced to turn away a lot of mares," Journeyman's Brent Fernung said. "Khozan certainly has accomplished enough to justify raising his fee for 2021 under normal circumstances, but with the current uncertainty caused by the pandemic, Crystal and I decided that leaving his fee at $10,00 was the proper thing to do."

AMERICAN ANTHEM TO STAND IN NEW MEXICO

MGSW American Anthem (Bodemeister--Indy's Windy by A.P. Indy) has been purchased by Reliance Ranches, in a sale brokered by Pat Morelli, and will stand stud at Sierra Blanco Equine in New Mexico.

Bred by WinStar Farm, he was purchased by Aron Yagoda's E.J. Stable for $180,000 at KEESEP and resold to his breeder in partnership with China Horse Club for $435,000 at OBS March. He won three graded events, including the GII Woody Stephens S., and placed in multiple Grade Is for those connections and trainer Bob Baffert, before selling to Don Tiger for $145,000 at last year's KEENOV sale. American Anthem's record stands at 21-6-3-4 with earnings of $848,490.

DELTA DOWNS KICKS OFF '20-'21 SEASON NOV. 24

Delta Down's 2020-21 season Thoroughbred season, which had been set to begin Oct. 6, has been rescheduled for Nov. 24 because of the damaging storms that have rolled through the area over the past two months. Hurricane Laura, which struck the Vinton, Louisiana area Aug. 27 as a Category 4 storm with winds of nearly 150 miles per hour, caused extensive damage to the facility before Hurricane Delta struck nearly the same area as a Category 2 storm Oct. 9.

The 84-day meeting will continue through Apr. 16 and feature live racing each Monday through Thursday following opening week. Post times for the season have been moved up to 12:55 p.m. CST daily as a result of the damage sustained by the lighting system, making nighttime racing impossible.

Additionally, the stakes schedule has been revised from 2019 with the track offering 22 added-money races worth a total of $1.745 million, including a pair of $60,000 races opening weekend. The track will be closed Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26 before the week wraps up with a pair of $100,000 events, the Treasure Chest S. and the Delta Mile S.

The richest race day of the year, scheduled for Feb. 10, features 18th edition of Louisiana Premier Day. The program includes 10 stakes for Louisiana-bred horses and a total of $805,000 in total purse money. The featured race on Louisiana Premier Day will be the $125,000 Louisiana Premier Day Championship for older horses.

ABR ANNOUNCES FAN CHOICE AWARDS

America's Best Racing will hold its second annual Fan Choice Awards in partnership with the Secretariat Vox Populi Award. The 2020 Fan Choice Awards will open to fans for online voting on ABR's website Thursday, Nov. 12, and be open through Nov. 30. Three new categories have been added to the lineup for the 2020 Fan Choice Awards, which will feature a total of 10 award categories. At the conclusion of the open fan voting period, four lucky voters will be randomly selected and each awarded a $1,000 Amazon gift card. Voting will be limited to one vote per email address.

The categories for the 2020 Fan Choice Awards are the following:

Secretariat Vox Populi Horse of 2020
Favorite Race of 2020
Favorite Jockey of 2020
Favorite Racetrack to Bet
Favorite Racing Radio Show or Podcast of 2020
Favorite Racing Analyst of 2020
Favorite Race Call of 2020
Favorite Betting Site (New Category)
Favorite "Horse Country" Experience (New Category)
Favorite OTTB in Equine-Assisted Therapy (New Category)

Voting for the Vox Populi Horse of 2020 will be jointly available at both AmericasBestRacing.net and Secretariat.com, while voting for the nine remaining categories will be exclusively hosted at AmericasBestRacing.net. Winners for all 10 award categories will be announced on ABR's website and social media channels Thursday, Dec. 3.

WAR LIKE GODDESS (f, 3, English Channel--Misty North, by North Light {Ire}) was a good-looking, come-from-behind winner

on debut going 1 1/8 miles over this turf course Sept. 26 and was off at 6-1 to put them back to back. Trailing all but one while saving ground in ninth through a half-mile in :52.95 over the off going, she began to advance down the backstretch. Locked and loaded on the far turn in some traffic, the bay found room along the rail in the stretch and ran to daylight from there to win by 3 1/4 lengths. Three Flamingos (English Channel) completed the exacta for her sire. Progeny in the pipeline for Misty North include: the unraced 2-year-old Market Economy (Optimizer), a yearling filly by Red Rocks (Ire) and a colt by Bal a Bali (Brz) of this year. DRAIN THE CLOCK (c, 2, Maclean's Music--Manki, by Arch) romped by six lengths in front-running fashion in his debut in a sloppy off-the-turfer at Gulfstream Sept. 12. Favored at even-money to stay perfect, he chased on the outside in third, made a three-wide bid passing the quarter pole, and, after switching to his right lead in deep stretch, wore down his stablemate Worlds On High (Shanghai Bobby) to take it by a length. The winner's dam had a colt by Mineshaft this year and was bred back to Vino Rosso. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $45,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

7th-Churchill Downs, $85,566, Msw, 10-28, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:46.98, gd, 4 1/4 lengths.

LAKER MAMBA (c, 2, Nyquist--Disturbingly Hot, by Unbridled's Song) rallied from eighth to complete the trifecta going a one-turn mile in an off-the-turfer on debut at Churchill Downs Sept. 2. The 3-1 chance hit the gate at the start in his grass debut here and saved ground in fifth passing the grandstand for the first time. Working out a good trip just behind the leaders while racing under cover, Laker Mamba cruised up to take on the pacesetting Incitatus (Ironicus) as they straightened for home and took off over the 'good' going in the stretch to graduate by 4 1/4 lengths. Incitatus stayed on for second. Laker Mamba, a half-brother to Gotta Go (Shanghai Bobby), SW & GSP, $200,852, is the 11th winner for his freshman sire (by Uncle Mo). The winner's dam had a colt by Candy Ride (Arg) in 2020 and was bred back to that same sire for next year. Sales history: $235,000 Ylg '19 KEESEP. IRISH HONOR (c, 2, Honor Code--Irish Lute {GISP, $165,968}, by Midnight Lute), overlooked at 11-1 for this debut run, vied for command in the early stages and began to drop back on the far turn. He got back into the race, however, as they passed the quarter pole, and, after splitting horses in deep stretch, rallied to a 1 3/4-length score over Capo Kane (Street Sense). Irish Lute was bred to Bernardini for 2021. Sales history: $90,000 2yo '20 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

6th-Indiana Grand, $31,000, Msw, 10-28, 2yo, f, 1m 70y (off turf), 1:44.54, sy, 3 1/4 lengths.
STAGE FRIGHT (f, 2, Bernardini--Estelle, by Distorted Humor) didn't show much in her unveiling, reporting home seventh over the Churchill Downs grass Sept. 19. Favored at 3-5 in this off-the-turfer with first-time Lasix and a pair of bullets in the interim, she stalked and pounced her way to a 3 1/4-length graduation in the slop over Carson's Princess (Tale of the Cat). Stage Fright's third dam MGISW Golden Ballet (Moscow Ballet) produced GI Breeders' Cup Classic and GI Belmont S. winner Drosselmeyer (Distorted Humor). Estelle is also responsible for a Bernardini colt of 2019 and a Hard Spun colt of this year. She was bred to Astern (Aus) for 2021. 8th-Indiana Grand, $31,000, Msw, 10-28, 2yo, 1m 70y (off turf), 1:43.54, sy, 6 lengths.
CAVE HILL (c, 2, Frosted--Painted Lady, by Broad Brush) rallied to split the field with a fifth-place finish in his Indiana debut on the lawn Oct. 6. Given a 2-1 chance in this rained-off affair, the rail-drawn gray vied for early command, took a narrow lead through a half-mile in :49.35, and increased his advantage from there to win by six lengths over longshot Kantpaythetoll (Kantharos). Cave Hill, a half-brother to Skylighter (Sky Mesa), MGSW, $489,892, becomes the 10th winner for his freshman sire (by Tapit). Painted Lady, a daughter of MGISW Nastique (Naskra), is also represented by a Bodemeister filly of 2019. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $18,910. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

925,000GNS ENGLISH KING SENT TO RULE AUSTRALIA

by Chris McGrath

NEWMARKET, UK—There are obviously lessons to ponder, regarding the divergent economies of British and Australian racing. But first and foremost, let's pause and give due credit to those who brought English King (GB) (Camelot {GB}) to the point where he could on Wednesday become much the most expensive colt ever sold at Europe's premier horses-in-training sale.

After all, when auctioneer John O'Kelly tried to coax one last effort out of underbidder Ted Voute for lot 1153a, he told him: "There's only one chance to buy English King."

But Jeremy Brummitt could tell you otherwise, having picked him out as a yearling at the Arqana October Sale for €210,000. As a result, following a dazzling rehearsal in the Lingfield Trial, patron Bjorn Nielsen was able to savour the exhilaration of fielding the leading home-trained colt for the G1 Investec Derby itself—an experience that very pardonably, given the vagaries of the game, eludes many a lifelong investor.

Things did not play out on the day quite as hoped, English King finding himself adrift with most of the field early before staying on for fifth. But all the embryonic attributes perceived by Brummitt have now matured to the point that Armando Duarte was prepared to see off Voute at 925,000gns and send English King from the Tattersalls Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale to the Ballymore Stables Australia of Mike Moroney. Cont. p2

DARK ANGEL LEADS YEOMANSTOWN ROSTER AT €60K

Dark Angel (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) leads the 2021 Yeomanstown Stud roster at €60,000, as the County Kildare-based stud released their fees for next season. All fees have been reduced by 25% due to the ongoing coronavirus pandemic.

The grey has enjoyed a great season, and sits eighth on the TDN European General Sires List, with Group 1 winners Battaash (Ire) and Raging Bull (Ire) on top of younger horses of the quality of G1 Prix Morny third Rhythm Master (Ire), SW Fantasy Lady (Ire) and G3 Somerville Tattersalls S. runner-up Dark Lion (Ire).

Also on the roster at €7,500 is Invincible Army (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The MGSW and G1 Derrinstown Stud Flying Five S. third covered 143 mares–60 of which were stakes performers or producers–in his first year at stud, with his first foals on the ground in 2021.

American MGSW El Kabeir (Scat Daddy), who ran third in the GI Wood Memorial S., is represented by his first juveniles next season and is priced at €6,000. Rounding out the quartet is the veteran Camacho (GB) (Danehill) at €5,000.

Brummitt, moreover, can also take credit for amplifying the marketability of the colt's sire in Australia. For it was in this ring, 12 days before his Deauville coup, that the agent found another son of the Coolmore stallion for 120,000gns out of Book 1. As Russian Camelot (GB), that colt has this year become the pioneering winner of two Group 1 prizes Down Under for trainer Danny O'Brien, before finishing third in the G1 Ladbrokes Cox Plate only last weekend.

Others have played their part. The Cox Plate winner, Sir Dragonet (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), is himself a recent import and also gave a boost to the profile of their sire. And then there is the work of trainer Ed Walker, who understandably described the sale of his most cherished charge as a "very bittersweet" spectacle.

"I'd far rather have won the same money on the track," Walker admitted after congratulating Duarte. "I'd far rather have won it in the Derby, obviously. But it was all a bit of a perfect storm. I suppose in a normal year, Bjorn may have sold more yearlings, and might have been up for competing internationally with this horse. But when I tried to persuade Bjorn to keep him, and aim for all these big races in Australia and Hong Kong and around the world, quite rightly he was worried as to whether we'd be able to race in those races. Will racing be happening? Will we be able to travel? Will the horse?

"But look, it's a great result. Bjorn puts a lot into the game. So I do take great pride. A lot of trainers nowadays are selling through professional consignors. But Luca [Cumani, whom Walker served as assistant] used to take a lot of pride in preparing his horse for the sales, and I try to replicate that. When Luca retired, I wrote and asked for his spot in the Somerville Paddock and Tattersalls kindly gave it to me. We try to produce our horses sound and well, and it's always good to get a result.

"And this has all been a great journey. English King made lockdown a bit more interesting, that's for sure. Obviously it didn't end as we hoped. I'm still looking for my first Group 1 winner. I was absolutely certain it would be him, but things just played against him."

The eccentric way in which the Derby unfolded this year certainly made strenuous demands of English King, and Walker is certain that he will regroup for his new connections after twice disappointing since.

"He'd had a couple of hard races," he said. "You don't break a 30-year-old track record, like he did at Lingfield, without giving your all. And he had a very hard race in the Derby when he ran an absolute blinder. His next two races weren't up to that level, but he's not the biggest horse and those probably took their toll. For me, he's tailormade for the Melbourne Cup."

He added, “He stays, he travels, and he loves that fast ground. I am very grateful to the guys who bought him, and wish them every bit of luck."

This transaction set a spectacular seal not just on Duarte's purposeful shopping for brothers Mike and Paul Moroney over the preceding couple of days, but on the critical value of the Australian export market this week.

Duarte admitted that this was a real stretch but had anticipated a price between 750,000gns and 1,000,000gns and played his cards accordingly. Voute, seated to the right of the rostrum, was on a video call to his client in Saudi Arabia as Duarte lurked outside the ring, bidding through a spotter. At 875,000gns, Voute appeared to quit, only to bounce back just as the gavel was coming down with a last-ditch sally of 900,000gns. That caused a chuckle around the ring, but Duarte quickly closed in for the kill.

Paul Moroney outlined his thinking from home. "English King's track-record performance at Lingfield, beating [G1] St Leger runner-up Berkshire Rocco (Fr) (Sir Percy {GB}), was one of the most breathtakingly dominant performances anywhere this year," he said.

"He is clearly a highly talented colt with loads of quality and we are thrilled to have secured him. Through their joint sire Camelot, and with similar race records at the same stage, English King maps the same as Sir Dragonet.

"We've bought him for a syndicate headed by two New Zealand businessmen and a collection of Ballymore Stables' Australian clients. He's certainly an exciting addition to the team, and our first time playing at this very high level, so one could say the pressure is on for him to perform.

"He will head Down Under in December to join Mike's Flemington stable early January and [we'll] play things by ear. He will likely race in our autumn but next spring will be the main focus going forward." Cont. p4

Congratulations to all concerned, then, most obviously to Nielsen himself. It was a bold idea to come here, as a wildcard, and presumably there was an equally bold reserve. But the reward was a deal that blew the previous record for a colt at this auction—the 625,000gns paid by Joseph O'Brien for Summer Sands (GB) (Coach House {Ire}) last year—out of the water. But Royal Ascot winner Aljazzi (Shamardal) retains the record after her 1,000,000gns transfer, as a broodmare prospect, to Newsells Park in 2018.

Following hard on the heels of the Juddmonte draft, English King duly completed the predicted rally in the third session of the sale. Turnover of 9,779,600gns represented a 19% gain on 8,206,000gns last year, driving the average up 15% to 34,803gns from 30,393gns. Clearance was strong even by 2020 standards at 92%.

With a fairly low-key finale anticipated for Thursday, year-on-year comparisons have meanwhile now levelled off more validly. And while aggregate business is down to 20,488,800gns from 24,037,000gns, the 26,748gns average dipped from 30,235gns last year; and the median dropped to 12,000gns from 16,000gns.

Bullfinch Joins the Migration

With stronger domestic prizemoney apparently reserved for Shangri-La, this sale has certainly reiterated how precious is the symbiosis between the British and Australian Turf; between the heritage of one, and the quality of stock duly attracted, and the prosperity of the other.

As John Ferguson stressed, after signing a 370,000gns docket on behalf of Chris Waller for Bullfinch (GB) (Kodiac {GB}), "The minimum prizemoney at an Australian city track at the weekend is Aus$125,000. The minimum! That does make a difference, you know."

The 3-year-old Bullfinch (offered as lot 1100 by The Castlebridge Consignment) is a classic example of the value that can be established even in winning barely £25,000—his nugatory reward for winning three of just five starts for Roger Charlton. The colt was homebred by the Rothschilds, at a stud with a venerable history now undergoing dispersal; he has been brought along expertly on the historic Beckhampton gallops by Roger Charlton; and he has been measured against competition that far surpasses the rewards contested.

"From an Australian point of view, there are a lot of reasons why a horse like this could be a lot of fun," Ferguson said. "Kodiac has already sired a [G1] Caulfield Cup winner in Best Solution (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), who we bought a few years ago, and the dam [Group 1 winner Thistle Bird (GB) (Selkirk)] was a champion older mare. This is a progressive horse, with undoubted ability, that has been quite beautifully trained."

Best Solution, a 90,000gns find in Book 2, shows the range of Ferguson's long service for Godolphin and Waller could hardly have entrusted his recruitment to more seasoned judgement. Each of Bullfinch's wins was marked by real flair, and he clearly can't be judged on a disappointing stakes debut at Goodwood last time, having raced freely over a new trip. Ferguson and Waller had teamed up for three other attractive lots the previous day, for an aggregate 520,000gns.

Emissary Acts as Pathfinder for King

Duarte and the Moroney brothers had shown the vigour of their interest just minutes before topping the sale. Having given 200,000gns for Ballydoyle's Keats (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) the previous day, they invested in another elite draft—Juddmonte—when paying 350,000gns for Emissary (GB) (Kingman {GB}).

A half-brother to Derby winner Workforce (GB) (King's Best) and winner of his only start at two for Hugo Palmer, Emissary (lot 1126) returned to form to win a York handicap last month.

"Physically, he's a very nice horse," Duarte said. "He's 16.2, has not had many runs, is improving all the time, and there's plenty more to come. It is the same story as yesterday."

Cont. p5

Ronald Rauscher | Tattersalls

He added,"We probably had to pay a bit more than we expected, but he could be a special horse in Australia next year. This sort of horse does not come onto the market very often. The background family, the first dam and second dam, is very important to the buyers; and this horse passed the vet too, which is very hard."

Australian Bloodstock/Ronald Rauscher meanwhile crowned their own brisk investment through the sale when giving 180,000gns for Fifth Position (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who has achieved a mark of 104 for Roger Varian and was sold as lot 1107.

In terms of prizemoney, it was much the same story as Bullfinch. Fifth Position leaves Britain with the metre stopped at just over £30,000; and Emissary, not quite £25,000.

Urban Opportunity Finally Cashed in

Having been coolly retained for no less than 340,000gns at this sale last year, when he included sixth in the G1 2000 Guineas among his accomplishments for Richard Hannon, Urban Icon (GB) (Cityscape {GB}) was back as lot 1052.

In the meantime he had maintained his rating at 110, notably in winning his first stakes race at Wolverhampton in March; and, with everything else that has happened, had arguably done just as well to maintain broadly the same value.

Certainly Ted Voute's bid of 320,000gns represented a very satisfactory dividend for owner Michael Pescod, as the colt had been picked out as a yearling for just £23,000 by Peter & Ross Doyle at the Tattersalls Ireland Ascot Sale.

Voute was operating for the emerging Saudi venture, Najd Stud, as when buying five lots at the inaugural August Horses-in-Training Sale here.

"He's a big, robust horse who should stand a lot of training out there," he said. "He's tough and consistent and will go on quicker ground. He'll ship out and we'll see how he adjusts and acclimatises, but ideally he'll go the normal route through the Cup races and then see if he can be good enough for the big Saudi international day."

Voute also gave 340,00gns for Derevo (GB) (Dansili {GB}) (lot 1130). Having won three times for Sir Michael Stoute last year, Derevo has found a plateau in the mid-90s though beaten under a length in a Doncaster handicap last month. He should find new horizons in the desert.

"We like to buy from the Juddmonte draft and Dansili is a big plus in Saudi Arabia," Voute said. "This horse has good form and has been well produced."

Underbidder Ed Dunlop did at least manifest plenty of appetite and perseverance for the locals, throughout the Juddmonte draft, and finally got his reward when landing Derevo's younger brother Society Lion (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) (lot 1132) for 180,000gns.

Fight Opening a New Front in Dubai

The Middle East also beckons for Fight Zone (War Front), two of whose siblings have already proved effective in the U.A.E.

It has been quite an odyssey for the 2-year-old, as he had failed to meet his reserve at $120,000 as a Keeneland September yearling; and was then scratched from Lynn Lodge's draft at the Arqana Breeze-Up Sale in July. Instead he surfaced in the care of Ger Lyons, for whom he has steadily improved to win a Naas maiden last month and a Dundalk nursery a few days later.

Everything finally came together when, presented by The Castlebridge Consignment as lot 1068, he brought 290,000gns from Victoria de Sousa and Chris Dwyer. Cont. p6

Ted Voute | Tattersalls

"He'll be going out to Dubai for Sheikh Rashid and will hopefully be one for the Carnival," de Sousa said. "I'd say he'll probably go to one of the lads based at Meydan. He's a lovely, scopey horse, well put together, and vetted very clean. It's hard to get all that here, along with good form, and Chris really liked him."

Festival Day Back to Her Roots

The fireworks later in the day were preceded by a rather torpid morning, but proceedings were enlivened by the appearance of Festival Day (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) as lot 912. Despite regressing at three, she did win a maiden by six lengths for Mark Johnston last year and would have been a valuable proposition had she never even made the track.

That's because she is out of a Storm Cat daughter of the mighty Miesque, who matched her stellar track career in establishing a wonderful dynasty through the likes of Kingmambo (Mr. Prospector) and East Of The Moon (Private Account). The family continues to thrive, the latter's daughter Alpha Lupi (Ire) (Rahy) having produced two of the last three winners of the G1 Coronation S., while Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) and Study Of Man (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) are now trying to establish branches of their own at stud.

Any breeder would relish access to those bloodlines, but Festival Day turned out to be returning to the Niarchos fold after a 170,000gns docket was signed by Martin Buick. Himself of a notable Turf family, of course, Buick has had "the huge privilege" of working for the Flaxman bloodstock empire for around five years.

"It's obviously one of the best pages in the Stud Book," Buick reasoned. "And the Niarchos family were keen to get back in. The pedigree speaks for itself, it's just amazing how it keeps repeating."

This was not the first time his employers had reclaimed this blood. Festival Day's dam, having been placed in a light career in France, was recruited by Godolphin on her retirement for 1,800,000gns at the December Sale here in 2007. She was culled 10 years later, however, when Flaxman Stables were able to retrieve her for just 160,000gns; yet all six foals of racing age have won.

Buick was wearing a Ulysses (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) baseball cap and evidently that was instructive of his employers' intentions for Festival Day.

PUBLIC VOTING NOW OPEN FOR CARTIER AWARDS

The public is now able to vote on the 2020 Cartier Racing Awards at www.cartierracingawards.co.uk. Forms for those wishing to vote by post will be available in the coming days in the Daily Telegraph and Racing Post. All current standings across all Cartier Award divisions are available at the Cartier Racing Awards website above.

"It has been an incredible sporting season, albeit an unusual one in light of the new regulation the racing world has adapted to," said Cartier UK Managing Director Laurent Feniou. "I am truly inspired by these displays of resilience, capturing the true essence and spirit of the sport."

ADAYAR (IRE) (c, 2, Frankel {GB}--Anna Salai {GSW-Fr, G1SP-Ire, SP-Eng, $158,818}, by Dubawi {Ire}), fourth on debut over this course and distance a fortnight earlier, tracked the pace staying wide in fourth throughout the early stages. Committed on the front end with three furlongs remaining, the 3-1 second favourite stayed on strongly to record a nine-length success from Alpine Stroll (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}). "He was very green first time out, but has come on for that experience and stepped up nicely," William Buick said. "He's a lovely-looking colt, well-bred and will be a nice horse for next year." Adayar is the third foal and first winner for the talented dam, who captured the G3 Prix de la Grotte and was second in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. She is a daughter of the G3 Prix d'Aumale winner Anna Palariva (Ire) (Caerleon) who threw three other black-type performers and the dam of the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere scorer National Defense (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The G3 Park Hill S.-winning third dam Anna of Saxony (GB) (Ela-Mana-Mou {Ire}) is the ancestress of the GI Flower Bowl Invitational heroine Ave (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Anna Salai's yearling is a filly by Teofilo (Ire), while she also has a 2020 full-brother to the winner. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $10,521.

WORLDWIDE NEWS

DESPITE ONGOING PANDEMIC, HKIR RETAINS MASS APPEAL by Alan Carasso

A total of 162 nominations from 10 racing jurisdictions, including no fewer than 61 Group 1/Grade I winners, have been received by the Hong Kong Jockey Club for the HK$95-million Longines Hong Kong International Races at Sha Tin Racecourse Dec. 13.

"We are delighted to have such strong nominations for our four Group 1 races in December," said Andrew Harding, Executive Director, Racing for the HKJC. "Considering the current climate in regard to the COVID-19 situation, it just reiterates that the Longines Hong Kong International Races are recognised the world over as one of the global sport's truly great events. This is something that we are extremely proud of and this year we anticipate another phenomenal day of elite sport."

Japan fields a top-class team year in and year out and the 23-strong challenge could be headed by former Horse of the Year Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}). Withdrawn on the eve of last year's G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup, the 5-year-old resumes in defence of her crown in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) this weekend, having defeated the Cup-nominated Danon Premium (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) at Tokyo 12 months ago. The globetrotting Addeybb (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) holds an entry for the day's richest race and has three Group 1s to his name this season, the Ranvet S. and Longines Queen Elizabeth S. on a very successful Australian raid and a latest tally in the G1 QIPCO British Champions S. at Ascot. Aidan O'Brien has entered five for the Cup, including last year's runner-up Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}); third to Addeybb last time and headed to the Breeders' Cup meeting; G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero Mogul (GB) (Galileo {Ire}); and MGSW Armory (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who exits a second in the G1 W S Cox Plate at Moonee Valley. Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who beat Addeybb in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, is also engaged.

Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) has yet to strike at the top level, but nevertheless looms the favourite for the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile. Winner of nine straight and 12 of 13 overall, he could square off against defending champion Admire Mars (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}), the O'Brien-conditioned G1 Queen Anne S. winner Circus Maximus (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Australia's Alligator Blood (Aus) (All Too Hard {Aus}), whose top-level success came in the Australian Guineas at the 1600-metre distance. Two-time Mile winner Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock {Aus}) also represents the home team. Cont. p10

The locals struck their lone blow in last year's G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint, a race they have dominated down the years, and Beat the Clock (Aus) (Hinchinbrook {Aus}) and Hot King Prawn (Aus) (Denman {Aus}) could square off again. That duo could be threatened by the very talented Classique Legend (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}), exiting a towering victory in The Everest, while four-time G1SW Nature Strip (Aus) (Nicconi {Aus}) is the lone Australian speedster entered. Olekasandra (Aus) (Animal Kingdom), who carried the Team Valor silks to a defeat of the boys in the GI Jaipur Invitational S. in June, and 2019 GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint winner Four Wheel Drive (American Pharoah) are the two HKIR entrants from America. Inferno (Aus) (Holy Roman Emperor {Aus}) who cemented his status as the top horse in Singapore in last weekend's Lion City Cup, has also been entered, as has Glen Shiel (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), who carried Hollie Doyle to a 16-1 upset of the G1 QIPCO British Champions Sprint Oct. 17.

Four Wheel Drive | Eclipse Sportswire/Breeders' Cup

Reigning Hong Kong Horse of the Year Exultant (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) kicks off a Longines Hong Kong Vase preparation in Sunday's G3 Sa Sa Ladies' Purse H. as he looks to add to his victory on HKIR day in 2018. The form of the Oct. 17 G1 Caulfield Cup could be on display in the Vase, as that event's top two placegetters--Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}) and Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) (Galileo {Ire})--could each press on to Sha Tin. In Swoop (Ire) (Adlerflug {Ger}), winner earlier this season of the G1 Deutsches Derby, is a potentially very interesting raider for Francis-Henri Graffard, having run Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) to a neck in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 4, while G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Prix de l'Opera victress Tarnawa (Ire) (Shamardal) could represent the Dermot Weld yard.

Added Harding, "To attract global stars like Almond Eye and Magical, is testament to how appealing Hong Kong racing is in the eyes of the world's leading horsemen. Hong Kong stages superb sport with excellent prize money and on 13 Dec., Sha Tin will take centre stage with the excitement of four world class championship races."

CLASSIC WINNER SOVEREIGN SUPPLEMENTED FOR BAHRAIN INTERNATIONAL TROPHY

Sovereign (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the 2019 G1 Irish Derby hero for Aidan O'Brien and the Coolmore partners, is a late supplement to the 2000-metre £500,000 Bahrain International Trophy on Nov. 20, the Rashid Equestrian & Horseracing Club announced on Wednesday. Also second in this term's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth QIPCO S., Sovereign will be O'Brien's first Bahraini runner.

"Sovereign is a strong mile and a quarter horse," O'Brien told the Rashid Equestrian & Horseracing Club notes team. (Click here to view the interview.) "He is a very strong galloper who likes to go forward in his races and we think the Bahrain International Trophy will suit him. He is a big genuine, sound horse. He's an Irish Derby winner. We saw what he did in the Irish Derby and he ran a massive race in the King George where he was second to Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), so we think the race will suit him and we are looking forward to seeing him run."

The supplementary stage closes on Nov. 3, with a max field of 14 allowed (12 Europeans and two Bahraini horses).
