LETRUSKA BELONGS IN THE CLASSIC

Letruska | Coady Photography

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

Minutes after another easy win by Letruska (Super Saver), this time in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. Sunday at Keeneland, trainer Fausto Gutierrez told reporters that the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, and not the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, would be next for his 5-year-old mare. That was hardly a surprise. Gutierrez and German Larrea, the Mexican billionaire businessman who owns the horse, are looking to play it safe. Letruska is simply better than every other filly and mare in the sport and shouldn't have any problem winning the Distaff. The Distaff is an easier assignment than the Classic. Perhaps much easier.

That's racing in 2021. Don't take a chance. Don't test your horse. Always go for the softest spot. The problem is that she has nothing to gain by winning the Distaff. That is, outside of the purse money, which can't possibly matter to Larrea. She's already clinched the older filly and mare championship and there's nothing that can happen in the race to embellish her reputation. She's 6-for-7 on the year while racing exclusively against fillies with four Grade I wins and has traveled all over the country. For her, the Distaff is pretty much just another race.

She deserves a chance to prove her greatness and that can only happen with a start in the Classic. Win the Distaff and she's just another very good filly. Win the Classic and she can be mentioned in the same breath as a Rachel Alexandra or a Zenyatta. Cont. p3

A Jan. 24, 2022 start date for the hearing process to determine whether the New York Racing Association (NYRA) can exclude trainer Bob Baffert from racing at its three tracks was mutually agreed upon by the two parties during a Monday videoconference.

A NYRA spokesperson confirmed to TDN that the schedule was established during the Oct. 11 conference by hearing officer O. Peter Sherwood.

Baffert must answer to a three-count complaint filed against him by NYRA in the form of a "statement of charges." Those three counts correspond to Baffert's alleged conduct that is or has been "detrimental" to three entities: 1) "the best interests of racing"; 2) "the health and safety of horses and jockeys"; 3) "NYRA business operations." Cont. p5

JIMMY BELL SET TO RETIRE FROM GODOLPHIN 6

Jimmy Bell, who has served as president and racing manager for Godolphin's U.S. division since Sheikh Mohammed's operation acquired Jonabell Farm in 2001, will retire by the end of the year.

OBS OCTOBER SALE STARTS TUESDAY 7

The OBS October sale begins Tuesday with a select session of yearlings. Bidding begins Tuesday at 1 p.m. Wednesday's open session begins at 11 a.m.

It may also be her only real chance of becoming Horse of the Year. Should any of the top three or four horses in the Classic go on to win, they will be named Horse of the Year. For Letruska to win the title, she would need to win the Distaff and have an outsider win the Classic.

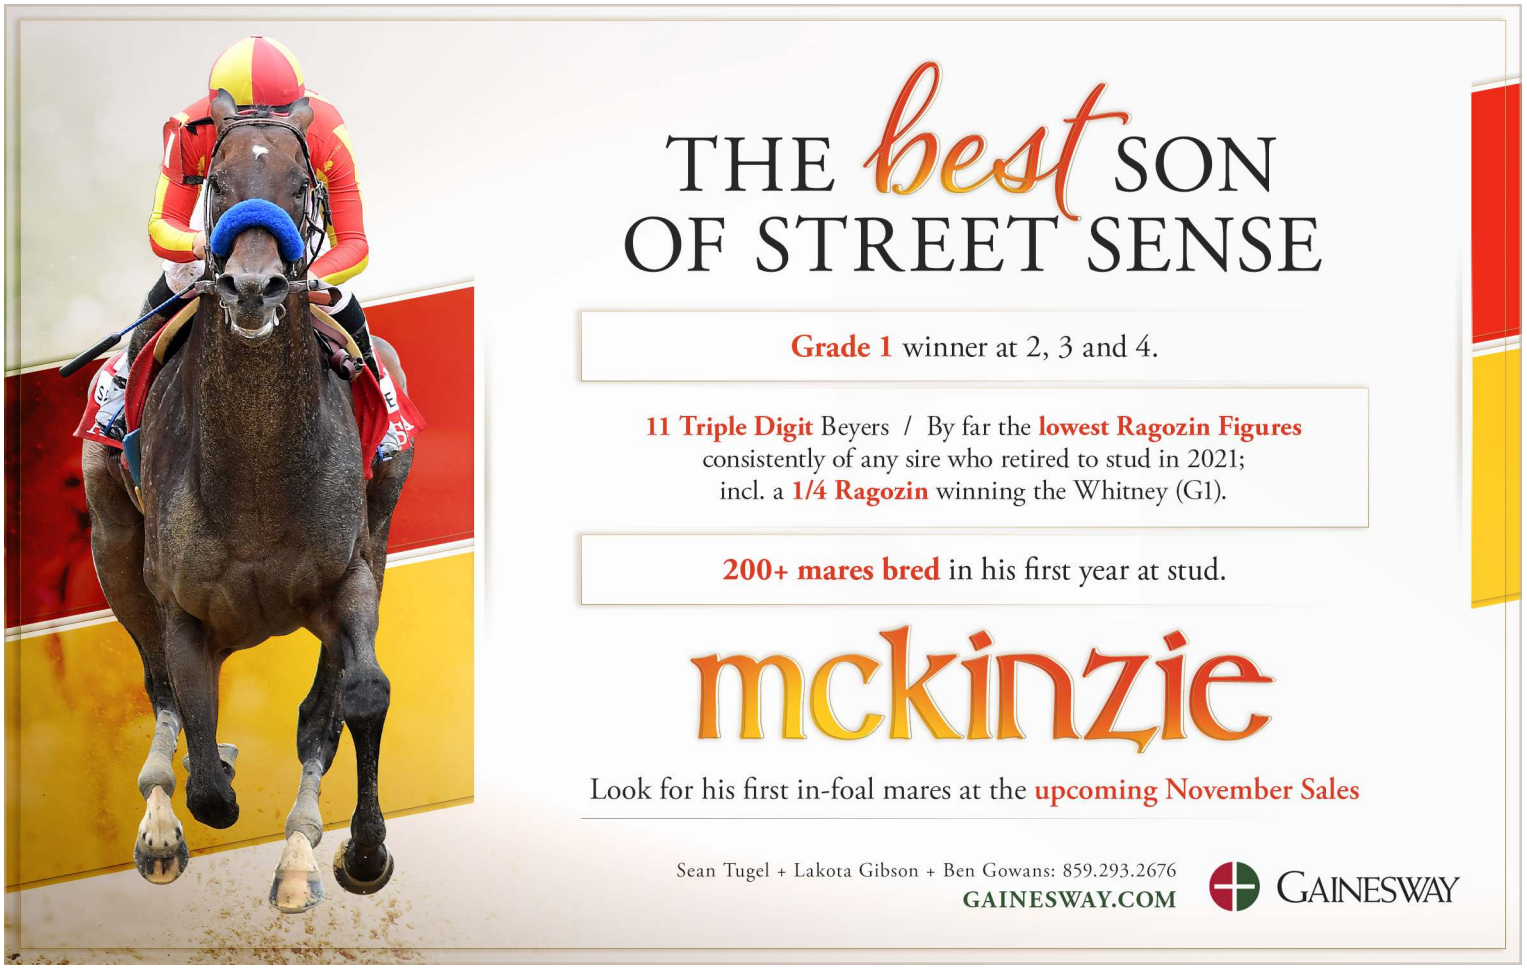
Knicks Go | Coady Photography

This year's Classic is loaded. Knicks Go (Paynter), Essential Quality (Tapit), Hot Rod Charlie (Oxbow), Medina Spirit (Protonico), Art Collector (Bernardini), Max Player (Honor Code) and Maxfield (Street Sense) headline one of the deepest fields ever assembled for the race. There's also the matter of Letruska's running style. She is a front-runner, which means she'd either have to alter her style in the Classic or go to the lead and risk getting into a suicidal early duel with Knicks Go.

No one is saying this would be easy. As talented as Letruska is, she simply may not be good enough to beat the very best males. But the potential rewards outweigh the risks and this terrific mare deserves every opportunity to truly show what she is made of. Is Letruska a great horse? Is she among the best fillies of her era? Give her the chance to answer that question.

Win and You're Not In

The "Win and You're In" program leading up to the Breeders' Cup has been a success. Not only are the races important preps for the Breeders' Cup, but several top trainers have said they gravitate toward these races because a win in one of these races cuts way down on the expenses normally involved with getting a horse into a Breeders' Cup race. Win one of the "Breeders' Cup Challenge" races and pre-entry and entry fees are paid and any horse based outside of the home state for that year's Breeders' Cup will have its travel expenses paid.



Most of the races that are part of the program make perfect sense. Obviously, races like the GI Runhappy Travers S., the GI TVG Pacific Classic, the GI Champagne S., etc., belong. But there are some notable races missing from the series.

Saturday's GII Vosburgh S. at Belmont, which attracted just four starters, is a Win and You're In race. But on the same day, the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic S. is not. The Sept. 18 Jockey Club Derby Invitational, for 3-year-olds on the grass, qualifies, but the Jockey Club Oaks Invitational, run the same day for 3-year-old turf fillies, does not. The other notable omission is the Grade I races at Parx. The GI Pennsylvania Derby has become a very important race, but is not a Win and You're In. Neither is the GI Cotillion S. for 3-year-old fillies. Both deserve to be included.

Lugo Deserved More Than 30 Days

It was announced last week that jockey Carlos Lugo was suspended 30 days by the Gulfstream stewards for failing to persevere when riding Princess Tereska in the fourth race on Oct. 3.

The race was won by Princess Tereska's stablemate Rubysa, who was hammered down from 15-1 on the morning line to 5-2. Though a $12,500 maiden claiming race, the six-furlong event handled more than any other race on the card. Both horses are trained by Juan Reveriego.

That the Gulfstream stewards took action against Lugo is commendable. A lot of tracks would have just looked the other way. But, under the circumstances, 30 days doesn't seem like enough. And what about Reveriego? If there was a betting coup and he was in on any part of it, he would certainly seem to deserve some sort of stiff penalty.

Though the West Virginia Breeders' Classic card at Charles Town was overshadowed by the many Breeders' Cup preps run the same day, it featured one of the standout training and riding feats of the year.

Trainer Jeff Runco won seven races on the nine-race card, all of them stakes. The list includes a win by Muad'dib (Fiber Sonde) in the $300,000 West Virginia Breeders' Classic S. The 4-year-old is 8-for-8 lifetime.

And Runco's regular rider, Arnaldo Bocachica won eight races, a Charles Town record. Bocachica finished fourth in the third race aboard Aaron's Tap (Northern Afleet) for his only loss on the night. It was also a big night for owner David Raim, who had five winners.

Runco is largely unknown outside of West Virginia, but his numbers are noteworthy. He has 4,494 career wins from 20,992 starters, 12th best among all trainers.

Medina Spirit and the Eclipse Awards

If a horse were to win the GI Kentucky Derby, the Shared Belief S, the GI Awesome Again S. and the GI Breeders' Cup Classic would that be enough to be named Horse of the Year or, perhaps, 3-year-old champion? Normally, the answer would be yes. Four horses have won the Kentucky Derby and the Classic in the same year and three (Authentic, American Pharoah and Sunday Silence) were named Horse of the Year and 3-year-old champion. The fourth, Unbridled, was named 3-year-old champion, but lost out on Horse of the Year to Criminal Type.

So what should voters do with Medina Spirit in the case that he wins the Classic? The way things are dragging along with his betamethasone positive from the Derby, it's entirely possible that the matter will be unresolved by the time voters must make their choices for the Eclipse Awards. That would mean that, technically, Medina Spirit would still be the winner of this year's Derby.

Would that mean he should be given credit for winning the Derby, at least until the matter is resolved? Most voters will likely assume that he will eventually be disqualified from the Derby and vote for someone else. But a case could be made that Medina Spirit would at least deserve serious consideration for year-end honors.

NYRA is already defending itself in a federal lawsuit initiated by the Hall of Fame trainer with the well-publicized history of equine drug positives over whether or not NYRA violated Baffert's constitutional rights by trying to ban him outright without any type of hearing back on May 17.

On July 14, the United States District Court (Eastern District of New York) granted Baffert a preliminary injunction that allowed him to race at New York's top-tier tracks pending the resolution of his overall case.

While that ruling allowed Baffert to start horses at Saratoga Race Course, Belmont Park and Aqueduct Racetrack, NYRA additionally took the judge's order to mean the association could move forward with drafting a new set of procedures for holding hearings that could suspend licensees who engage in injurious conduct.

After those rules were made public, NYRA, on Sept. 10, wrote a letter summoning Baffert to appear at just such a hearing, presenting him with the statement of charges.

On Sept. 22, Baffert filed a motion asking a federal judge to hold NYRA in civil contempt for trying to schedule any sort of hearing that could once again bar him from participating at NYRA's tracks. He claimed NYRA's move to initiate that sort of hearing was in violation of the preliminary injunction.

But on Oct. 5, a federal judge dismissed Baffert's "contempt" allegations, underscoring that NYRA could, in fact, move forward with its newly created hearing process because it was entirely separate from NYRA's original May 17 attempt at banishing Baffert.

BELL SET TO RETIRE FROM GODOLPHIN

Jimmy Bell, president and racing manager for Godolphin's U.S. division, will retire from his day-to-day involvement with the operation by the end of the year.

"Jimmy Bell is the bedrock that Godolphin USA is built upon," said Dan Pride, Chief Operating Officer of Godolphin, USA. "His history with Jonabell is well known and he has faithfully served 20 years molding us into what we are today. He is a friend to many of us and always an example of how to live your life and focus on what is important."

The Bell family's Jonabell Farm was acquired by Sheikh Mohammed in 2001 and Jimmy Bell was retained in his current position at that time.

"My 20 years with Godolphin have been nothing short of a dream come true," Bell said. "More special have been the friendships and fellowships I've developed with so many folks here at Team Godolphin. It's been my privilege and pleasure to work alongside so many wonderful colleagues."

Jimmy Bell | Sarah Andrew

Bell said he plans to remain active with Godolphin as a representative on several industry boards. He currently serves as President of the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance and is a member of the board of the Breeders' Cup and the Fayette Alliance, as well as the Keeneland Advisory Board.

Michael Banahan, currently the Director of Farm Operations and the longest-serving Darley/Godolphin USA employee, will transition to the role of Director of Bloodstock by the end of the year. This new role will encompass Bell's racing responsibilities as well as overseeing all aspects of managing the Godolphin USA horse population.

Pride said, "Michael is an integral part of the success of the entire operation here in the U.S. His knowledge base covers everything from farm infrastructure needs, our stallion program, to planning the matings of such horses as Essential Quality and Maxfield."

Pride continued, "I know he's excited to assume this new and important responsibility."

Banahan, who was named Kentucky Farm Manager of the Year in 2019, began his tenure with Darley in 1993.

"For 20 years I've had the honor to work alongside Jimmy, and while there's going to be quite a void with his departure, I am very glad for him as he enters a new phase of life," Banahan said. "Godolphin USA has a strong team and I'm excited about taking on this new challenge."

OBS OCTOBER KICKS OFF TUESDAY

The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's October Yearling Sale begins with a session of selected yearlings Tuesday and continues Wednesday with an open session. Bidding will begin at 1 p.m. Tuesday, with a total of 152 yearlings--including 17 supplemental offerings--catalogued, with an additional 395 head--including 32 supplements--catalogued for the second day, which starts at 11 a.m.

The two-day auction comes in the midst of a yearling sales season which has featured competitive bidding at auctions across the country.

"It certainly has been competitive all year long and we hope that competitive market continues here," OBS Director of Sales Tod Wojciechowski said on a picture-perfect fall day in Ocala Monday.

OBS sales grounds | Photos by Z

"We are seeing a lot of activity in the barns," Wojciechowski continued. "Most of the people started showing Sunday and it was very active with a lot of consignors telling me that they are showing as many horses as they've ever shown. I am out in the barn area now and it looks like the barns are quite active. We've seen some newer players here and a lot more people with intention looking at horses."

During last year's select session of the October sale--held amidst the uncertainty of the ongoing pandemic--86 horses sold for $3,397,000 for an average of $39,500 and a median of $28,000. A filly by Not This Time brought the top price of $225,000. In 2019, 130 select yearlings sold for $5,689,200 for an average of $43,763 and a median of $30,000.

Included among October sale graduates, Exline-Border Racing LLC, SAF Racing and Richard Hausman's Lady Mystify (Bernardini) took the Sept. 26 GIII Remington Park Oaks. The OBS graduate realized $120,000 for consignor Summerfield (Francis & Barbara Vanlangendonck) at the 2019 renewal of the October Selected Yearling Sale before selling for $325,000 the following April.

LNJ Foxwoods' Outfoxed (Valiant Minister), who broke her maiden in Gulfstream's FTBOA Florida Sire Susan's Girl S. in August, returned to Hallandale Sept. 25 to post a 9 1/4-length victory in the FTBOA Florida Sire My Dear Girl S. The Bill Mott trainee, who sold for $27,000 out of the Abbie Road Farm consignment at the 2020 October Yearling Sale, later brought $360,000 at OBS in April. Another recent winner to exit the October sale, Monarch Stables Inc.'s Last Leaf (Not This Time) led an OBS sweep of Saturday's Hollywood Beach S. The two-time OBS graduate was sold by Sharon Biamonte at the 2020 Winter Mixed Sale and then purchased for $23,500 out of the Kaizen Sales consignment at the 2020 October Sale.

Rounding out the sale's successful recent graduates, Full of Run Racing, LLC and Madaket Stables LLC's Dreamalildreamofu (Commissioner), a $65,000 October purchase in 2018, won the $100,000 Twixt S. at Laurel Sept. 18.

OBS will again offer online bidding and buyers may register for bidding approval, then access the OBS Bidding Screen with their credentials. For complete information on registration and online bidding, visit www.obssales.com.

The sale, which will be streamed live via the OBS website, will also be available on the TDN site.

New JOB OPENINGS

ForeverSpring FARM

Assistant Broodmare Manager

Forever Spring Farm is a 310-Acre, state-of-the-art thoroughbred boarding and breeding facility in central Kentucky's thoroughbred country. We are a science-based facility, offering the latest in nutrition science and specially formulated, individually customized, equine care. Forever Spring Farm is located thirty-five minutes away from Keeneland, in Boyle County, home of one of Kentucky's top four school systems and the active community of Danville.

We are actively seeking an Assistant Broodmare Manager to play a hands-on role in providing the highest quality of care for our customers' equine investments. The Assistant Broodmare Manager will participate in the daily care of mares and foals, work with our veterinary team in breeding and foaling, and provide leadership to our mare care team.

This position will be a great opportunity for someone to build experience and make connections in the thoroughbraed industry. Our compensation package includes comfortable housing, utilities, dental plan, vision coverage, disability and life insurance, employer-matched IRA and a competitive salary based upon experience.

Interested applicants should forward a cover letter and resume via email to Farm Manager, Tim Fazio: tfazio@foreverspringfarm.com.

Longshadow, a dominant 10 1/2-length wire-to-wire victor debuting over 5 1/2 furlongs Aug. 5 at Delaware, showed speed before retreating to finish seventh behind Sunday's GII Castle & Key Bourbon S. hero Tiz the Bomb (Hit It a Bomb) in the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Mile S. Sept. 6. Turning back to a sprint in this first synthetic try, the $7,000 Keeneland September buy was made the fourth choice in a field of nine and found a perfect spot in third as heavy favorite Nobals went at it with a longshot through a :22.65 quarter. Picking it up a bit while drifting four wide off the turn, the chestnut nevertheless appeared to be repelled by the chalk until the sixteenth pole before surging late to just nail that rival on the wire.

The 10th stakes winner for his sire, Longshadow is the first foal to race out of his dam, who produced a filly by Dolphus this season before being bred to Free Drop Billy. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

MAIDENS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

1st-Santa Anita, $63,000, (S), Msw, 10-11, 2yo, 5fT, :56.25, fm, 1/2 length.

BILLY'S BET (g, 2, Unusual Heatwave--Generals Promise, by General Meeting) drilled a pair of bullets over the local main track in preparation for this debut, including a best-of-28 five-furlong move in :59 3/5 from the gate Sept. 30, and was backed to 3-1 from a 6-1 morning-line quote. Winning a three-way tussle for the lead, the chestnut skipped clear through a scorching :21 flat quarter, drew further away nearing the lane and held sway late from odds-on chalk Oubabe (He Be Fire N Ice) for a half-length victory. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $36,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O-William Gerard & Teresa McWilliams; B-Leigh Ann Howard (CA); T-Alexis Barba.

8th-Delaware, $41,950, Msw, 10-11, 2yo, 6f, 1:10.95, ft, 3 lengths.

AMAZING ALEX (c, 2, Twirling Candy--Uncontrolled, by Unbridled's Song) ran third on debut in the restricted First State Dash S. here Sept. 25 and was crushed down to 1-5 against straight maidens here. Edging clear through a :22.70 quarter, the gray saw off a brief stretch bid from Invective (Holy Boss) and re-broke in the final furlong to best that rival by three lengths. The winner's dam produced his yearling full-sister this term before being paired with Omaha Beach. Sales History: $45,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $37,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O-Rose Petal Stable LLC; B-KatieRich Farms (KY); T-Gary Capuano.

5th-Fresno, $26,624, Msw, 10-10, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.67, ft, 3/4 length.

I AM YOURS (f, 2, Quality Road--Dad's Princess {GSP, $155,330}, by Mineshaft) showed a sharp Golden Gate worktab for this unveiling, capped by a half-mile spin in :48 1/5 (7/83) Oct. 3, and was backed to narrow 8-5 favoritism as the field's lone firster. Tracking dueling leaders from third through a :23.43 quarter, the $100,000 Keeneland September buy drew on even terms with main market rival Delia Mo (Outwork) passing a :46.53 half and wore that foe down in final sixteenth to score by three-quarters of a length. Cont. p2

The winner's third dam is 1983 GI Kentucky Oaks winner, 1984 Champion Older Mare and inaugural GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Princess Rooney (Verbatim). The first foal out of her three-time stakes-placed dam, I Am Yours is followed by a yearling American Pharoah colt in Russia named Argun. Dad's Princess was bred to Omaha Beach this spring. Sales History: $100,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $15,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

NEFERTARI (JPN) (f, 3, American Pharoah--What a Spot, by Arch), purchased in utero for $225,000 at Keeneland November in 2017, was an easy maiden winner at the fifth time of asking in May, but had struggled in two allowance tries since. Sent off at odds of 37-5 to snap the skid, Nefertari was aggressively ridden from the stalls and raced three wide to the backstretch. Accelerating to the front fully 800 meters from home, Nefertari cut the corner into the stretch, pinched a break and held sway by a tight length. The late April foal is out of a winning daughter of Glen Hill Farm's Eversmile (Theatrical {Ire}), the dam of MGISW Coil (Point Given), the late GI Hollywood Derby hero Chiropractor (Kitten's Joy), MGSP Decorating (Galileo {Ire}) and MSP Ellyb (Pioneerof the Nile). The third dam includes champion Possibly Perfect (Northern Baby). What a Spot is the dam of a yearling filly by Heart's Cry (Jpn) and a weanling Kizuna (Jpn) colt that fetched $344,347 at this July's JRHA Select Sale. OKAMMO SHACHO (f, 2, Lord Nelson--Appealing Stella {SW, $187,455}, by Closing Argument) was well-beaten in turf maidens over 1600m and 1400m in her first two trips to the post but woke up some with a close fifth going six furlongs Sept. 26. Cutting back to the minimum distance, the blaze-faced chestnut took up a forward position from gate nine, was roused a quarter mile from home, took command at the eighth pole and kicked home to score by two lengths in good time at odds of 93-10. The fourth winner from the first crop of her ill-fated stallion (by Pulpit), Okammo Shacho is kin Isshin (Take Charge Indy), a three-time winner in Japan of over $400,000. Appealing Stella did not produce a foal in 2020, but dropped a colt by Catalina Cruiser this past March and was bred back to Bolt d'Oro. JASPER GREAT (c, 2, Arrogate--Shop Again {SW, $122,274}, by Wild Again) became the first Japanese winner and third winner overall for his late stallion (by Unbridled's Song) with a towering debut victory. The 6-1 third choice was sent straight to the front from his low draw, galloped along at a leisurely clip and turned it on through the lane to crush by 10 lengths as the 6-1 third favorite.

Jasper Great is a half-brother to Power Broker (Pulpit), GISW, $865,612; Fierce Boots (Tiznow), SW, $103,147, the dam of GSP Portos (Tapit); and SP Smart Shopping (Smart Strike), whose yearling daughter by Uncle Mo made $435K at FTSAUG this summer. The stakes-winning Shop Again is a half-sister to GISW Miss Shop (Deputy Minister), the dam of MGSW Tin Type Gal (Tapit); GSW & MGISP Trappe Shot (Tapit); and SW & GSP Bought In Dixie (Dixieland Band). Shop Again was barren to Union Rags last year, but foaled a colt by the Lane's End sire this term and visited Oscar Performance this past breeding season. Sales history: $200,000 Ylg '20 FTKSEL. RECORD SESSION KICKS OFF TATTERSALLS BOOK 2

Dwayne Woods signed for the session-topping Night Of Thunder colt, which will be trained by his brother Sean Woods | Tattersalls

By Kelsey Riley

NEWMARKET, UK–the middle market has flourished at the yearling sales transatlantically thus far in 2021, and that trend proved out again on Monday during the first of three sessions of Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, where figures were not only well up on the remarkably strong 2020 renewal staged in the midst of the pre-vaccine pandemic, but at this stage also trending ahead of 2019's record edition. The first day of Book 2 saw records for turnover, average and median for a session at Book 2. Of the 247 yearlings offered, 212 found new homes (86%) for an aggregate of 18,935,500gns that was up 24% on last year's corresponding session. The average jumped 27% year on year to 89,318gns, while the median climbed 35% to 70,000gns. The average for the whole of Book 2 in 2019 was 78,224gns, and the median 55,500gns.

Sean Woods made his return to the Newmarket training ranks this season after nearly 20 years in Hong Kong. He has notched 10 wins this season and will have a serious bullet to fire sometime next year in the form of a Night Of Thunder (Ire) colt (lot 604) picked up by his brother Dwayne Woods for 375,000gns on Monday. Cont. p2

STARMAN OUT OF CHAMPIONS SPRINT; RETIRES TO TALLY-HO STUD

Starman (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}--Northern Star {Ire}, by Montjeu {Ire}), who was favourite for Saturday's G1 QIPCO British Champions Sprint S., has been retired from racing after suffering a minor injury. He will stand next season at Tally-Ho Stud in Ireland.

"It's a huge shame as we were really looking forward to Saturday and confirming him to be the champion that he is," said Starman's trainer Ed Walker. "I've always thought he was the best around and he's certainly the best I've ever trained."

Bred and raced by David Ward, the 4-year-old has enjoyed a successful season, with his standout victory coming in the G1 Darley July Cup. He also won the G2 Clipper Logistics Duke of York S. on his seasonal debut and has been placed in both the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G1 Betfair Sprint Cup. That last run at Haydock saw him beaten just a short-head when second to Emaraaty Ana (GB). Cont. p13

TAKEAWAYS
Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2

- The session was topped by a 375,000gns colt by Night Of Thunder who will be trained by Sean Woods.
- Records for turnover, average and median were set for a Book 2 session.
- Stats are trending well ahead of 2020, and 2019's record renewal: the average was up 27% year on year to 89,318gns, and the median was up 35% to 70,000gns. The clearance rate was 86%.
- Sioux Nation provided the top price for a first-season sire with a colt sold to MV Magnier for 215,000gns. Fellow first-season sire Cracksman (GB) had a colt sell for 200,000gns.
- Lot 676, a Le Havre (Ire) colt, provided an excellent pinhooking result for Jamie Railton's Cill Dara Bloodstock; bought for 58,000gns in December, he sold for 230,000gns.
- Lope De Vega (Ire) had six sell on the day, including two of the top eight, for an average of 164,167gns.
- Ballyhimikin Stud leads all vendors after the first day with five sold for 1,035,000gns.
- SackvilleDonald ended the first day of Book 2 as leading buyer with 12 purchased for 1,412,000gns.

Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2 Day 1 Cont. from p1

"He was stunning; to me he was the best colt in the sale," Dwayne Woods said after signing the ticket. "He's very strong, probably the cleanest Night Of Thunder I've ever seen--conformationally, strength, everything. Night Of Thunder is a wonderful sire, but they are a little bit incorrect in front as he is. This was the most beautiful model. I see him as being a six furlong horse to a miler, or more like seven furlongs to a mile–a Guineas horse if I ever saw one, and hence we went that strongly on him."

Sean Woods added: "he'll have a bit of time now and come to us in January. He's for one of my existing owners."

Bred by Cranford Bloodstock, the colt was offered by Rathbarry Stud. He is out of Harlequin Girl (GB) (Where Or When {Ire}) and his 2-year-old full-brother Hanaady (Ire), who was bought by Shadwell for 110,000gns at this sale last year, won on Sept. 29 for trainer Ed Dunlop. Harlequin Girl is a half-sister to three stakes horses, including G2 Gimcrack S. scorer Blaine (GB) (Avonbridge {GB}), and also to the dam of this year's G3 Chester Vase winner Youth Spirit (Ire) (Camelot {GB}).

There is perhaps nothing to keep buyers around until late into the evening quite like a Galileo (Ire) filly out of a young stakes-winning mare, and that is exactly what materialized when Manister House Stud's filly out G3 Cornwallis S. winner Mrs Danvers (GB) (Hellvelyn {GB}) (lot 768) strolled into the ring four lots from the end of the session. Bids flew from throughout the ring, but the final blow was at last landed online by BBA Ireland/Yulong Investments at 320,000gns.

It would be rare indeed to see a mare who couldn't find a home for £1,000 as a 2-year-old among Galileo's mates, but Mrs Danvers has punched remarkably above the weight of her page. Unsold at the Tattersalls Ireland Ascot February Sale four months before making her racecourse debut for owner/trainer Jonathan Portman, Mrs Danvers soon caused her value to skyrocket when winning at first asking at Lingfield by 3 1/4 lengths. She would proceed to sail unbeaten through a five-race juvenile campaign culminating in Newmarket's Cornwallis. Mrs Danvers has visited Galileo in her first three seasons at stud, and with her first foal, a colt, having unfortunately died, this filly will be the first to try to bolster the black-type on the page.

"She was an exceptional filly, especially for her age," said Manister House Stud's Luke Barry in reference to the fact that the filly is a May 4 foal. "She had all the qualities of her sire but most importantly she very much looked like Mrs Danvers. Even for a May foal she looks sharp. We brought her here to stand out and we're thrilled that she sold very well. She has great quality, as will come with a Galileo, but Mrs Danvers has put a lot of strength and sharpness into her."

Another son of the Juddmonte supremo is bound for Hong Kong, with the Hong Kong Jockey Club's representative Mick Kinane going to 300,000gns for lot 617 from Ballyhimikin Stud.

"He's by a great stallion and he's a lovely, correct model, which is what I want," Kinane said. "I liked him from the first day I saw him and when he settled in up here he was a lovely colt."

Commenting on the market, Kinane added, "It's like anything, good horses are hard to buy. This is the first one I've tried on today. We bought five last week, so we were happy."

Lot 617 is the first foal out of Hunaina (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}), who was bred by the Aga Khan Studs and raced by the Aga Khan through her first two seasons on the track. She was bought by Trevor Stewart through Stroud Coleman Bloodstock for €140,000 from the 2017 Goffs November Mares Sale, and went on to win the Listed Snowdrop Fillies' S. and G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil Longines in Stewart's colours for trainer Henri Devin. This colt, her first foal, was bred by Stewart with James Hanley and Anthony Stroud. Hunaina is from the family of the dual Derby winner Harzand (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and this year's G1 Irish Derby, G1 St Leger and G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Hurricane Lane (Ire) (Frankel {GB}).

"We bought the mare as a 3-year-old in training and sent her to trainer Henri Devin and she won a listed race and a Group 3," said Stewart. "We are very happy with the result. He is a really nice first foal; a good walking, strong individual. It is a nice start for the mare, who is at Ballyhimikin, and she had a colt by Sea The Stars this spring."

There were seven Kingmans offered during the opening session of Book 2 and they filled two of the top three spots on the leaderboard. A filly by Kingman (lot 739) joined Ballyhimikin's colt late in the session at the 300,000gns mark when bought by Blandford Bloodstock's Richard Brown standing alongside John Gosden, who trained the sire through his Horse of the Year campaign.

Lot 739 was offered by breeder Appletree Stud, a Gloucestershire-based nursery run by former leading National Hunt rider Robert "Choc" Thornton that brought a three-horse draft to Book 2. She is the fifth foal out of the Moyglare Stud-bred Midnight Thoughts, who is unraced and was a high-profile buyback at the 2014 Keeneland November sale when led out unsold at $975,000. That valuation was based on the fact that Midnight Thoughts is a daughter of G2 Ribblesdale S. victress Irresistible Jewel (Ire) (Danehill), the dam of G1 Irish St Leger winner Royal Diamond (Ire) (King's Best), Ribblesdale winner Princess Highway (Street Cry {Ire}) and G3 Gladness S. winner Mad About You (Ire) (Indian Ridge). Cont. p5

Midnight Thoughts was acquired by Appletree Stud privately thereafter, and her third foal, Tomorrow's Dream (Fr) (Oasis Dream {GB}), was a winner and placed in Newmarket's Listed Rosemary S. while racing as an Appletree homebred with trainer William Haggas. Midnight Thoughts has a foal full-brother to Tomorrow's Dream, and was covered by Pinatubo this season.

"It's a fantastic result, in the region of double what we thought," Thornton said. "Going into the ring, we knew we had good people behind us but we didn't expect that. It's a complete credit to Jonny Sutton, the stud groom. He has done a hell of a job with her and turned her inside out. If you look at the pictures of her online, and look at her now, they were only taken 10 days ago; she has really changed. She is by far the best daughter out of Midnight Thoughts and, as this is a business, we have put her in the sale and we have got a great result."

Brown said after signing the ticket, "She was an extremely attractive filly. She's come from a very good, young farm in Gloucestershire. She had a fantastic shape. I've seen her quite a lot; she put on a great show out there. I bought her for John Gosden for a client of ours and we were both extremely keen to get her. John thought she was the outstanding Kingman filly in the sale and so did I. He probably knows more about Kingman than me. She's a lovely, classy, elegant filly by a proper stallion and it's a proper page."

Brown, who picked up a daughter of Gleneagles two lots later, admitted the strength of the market had made for a difficult start to the day.

"We had to go strong, but the market has been very strong today," he said. "It was a very frustrating morning; I bid on a lot of horses before lunch time and it wasn't going very well, but we got a couple there and she was at the top of the list." Cont. p6

It's A Yes For No Nay Never Filly

Andrew Balding has trained one of the best yet by ascendant young sire No Nay Never in this season's G1 Coronation S. and G1 Sussex S. winner Alcohol Free (Ire), and Balding secured another by the Coolmore sire for Kingsclere when going to 260,000gns on Monday for lot 561, a colt from Newsells Park Stud.

"We thought he was a lovely colt and we've had some success with the stallion," Balding noted, saying the purchase was made on behalf of an undisclosed client. "We're thrilled to get him."

As detailed last week in the TDN, Balding is assisted at the sales by the formidable team of Emma Balding, his mother, and racing manager Tessa Hetherington, and Balding noted the colt passed inspection by each of his discerning team members.

"He was one of our top picks of the ones we've seen over the three days, so we're delighted to have him," he said.

Andrew Balding | Tattersalls

Jeff Smith's Alcohol Free, who also won last year's G1 Cheveley Park S., is entered in Saturday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. on Champions Day at Ascot, and Balding said it is "all systems go" for the 3-year-old filly. Alcohol Free looks to bounce back from a sixth-place finish behind Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) in the G1 Juddmonte International, and she drops back to her favoured mile trip.

Balding has enjoyed a remarkable season with the likes of Sandrine (GB), Spanish Mission, Berkshire Shadow (GB) and Bangkok (Ire) also among his group winners. Balding lost his top spot in the trainers' championship to Charlie Appleby after a great last weekend for latter, but Balding was philosophical about the demotion.

"It was inevitable, I am afraid," he smiled. "We were probably punching above our weight for a good while there, but it is what it is and natural order has been restored. We have had a wonderful season."

Lot 561 is the first foal out of Fleeting Fancy (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a placed daughter of the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial winner and G1 Irish Oaks and G2 Ribblesdale S.-placed Just Pretending (Giant's Causeway). Fleeting Fancy is likewise a full-sister to the black type-placed Persia (Ire) and Visage (Ire). She was bought for €480,000 at Arqana December in 2019, carrying this colt, by Dean Hawthorne on behalf of the Australian-based Jonathan Munz of GSA Bloodstock, who bred him.

Wilson Broadening His Racing Horizons

Lope De Vega had two yearlings feature among the top eight on Monday and one of those is headed Down Under, with owner Noel Wilson signing the docket on lot 657, a colt from Ballyhimikin Stud, at 250,000gns while seated alongside his French-based trainer Eoghan O'Neill.

Wilson, who is based in Kent and is a former Sun racing editor who is also involved in property and other investments, has horses in training with O'Neill as well as Francis Graffard and Christophe Ferland under his Just Wow Ltd. banner and has taken shares of horses in Australia to get his feet wet in the business there. Wilson also bought an Australia (GB) colt out of G3 Sweet Solera S. winner Nations Alexander (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) from Book 1 last week for 200,000gns, and said he hopes to send his new purchases to British-born, Australian-based trainer Annabel Neasham.

Of the Lope De Vega colt, Wilson said, "He's very classy. He vetted superbly, he was a standout at the sale. I'm just looking for a good horse. There is quite a bit of stamina in the two I've bought–this one has a bit more speed, maybe a mile and a quarter. You never know."

"I live in Kent but I've never had a horse in England," Wilson said. "I've had horses in Australia come tenth and pick up 1500-quid. That's not the deciding factor, but it's indicative of what's going on. If you look at Australia, I've seen 90-rated horses place in Group 1s, and the money--if you have a horse that does have ability, you only have to look at some of the examples recently. I'm not really rich enough to support British racing."

The complication of not being able to regularly see his runners isn't a problem, either, for Wilson.

"I set the alarm and I can see them," he said. "I have Equidia in the kitchen. I don't need to go and watch them physically. When they lose its nice to turn around and make a cup of tea rather than having to get in a car and drive to a different country to get home." Cont. p8

"He's come to see me once in 15 years," O'Neill confirmed.

Wilson's Lope De Vega colt continued a good day for Ballyhimikin Stud and co-breeders James Hanley, Trevor Stewart and Anthony Stroud, who also sold lot 617, the 300,000gns Kingman colt, to the Hong Kong Jockey Club. The Lope De Vega colt is out of the listed-winning and Group 3-placed Kambura (Fr) (Literato {Fr}), who was bought by Stroud Coleman Bloodstock for €220,000 at Arqana December in 2016. She is a half-sister to four stakes horses and the Lope De Vega colt is her third foal. She produced a colt by Night Of Thunder this year and was covered by Pinatubo (Ire).

New England Stud and partners picked out the Intello (Ger) mare Ionic (GB) in foal to Lope De Vega for 450,000gns at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale of 2019, and the mare's first foal, a filly (lot 635), went some way toward repaying that investment when making 270,000gns from SackvilleDonald at Tattersalls on Monday. While Ionic was but a minor winner in France, her considerable value stems from the fact that her immediate family is steeped with high-quality black-type winners and producers. Ionic is a half-sister to listed winner Prudenzia (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), who is now best known as the dam of Group 1 winners Chicquita (Ire) and Magic Wand (Ire) as well as current Group 3-winning and Classic-placed 3-year-old Philomene (Ire). Another half-sister, Pacifique (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), has left behind the G3 Prix de Lutece victress Paix (Ire), while the listed winner and former Derby favourite English King (Fr) is also a sibling to Ionic.

The proficiency of the line appears already very much to be trickling down to the next generation; Chicquita's first two foals are group placed, including this season's G1 Irish Oaks third Nicest (Ire) (American Pharoah).

Ionic produced a filly by Too Darn Hot this spring, and was bred back to Night Of Thunder.

Star Filly For Winning Partnership

The stakes-placed Fasliyev mare Greenisland (Ire) has been a very useful producer for the Jennings Family's Stonethorn Stud. The 15-year-old mare is the dam of the listed-winning Boerhan (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Shamshon (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who has run a remarkable 102 times for 16 wins, mostly for trainer Stuart Williams, winning as recently as August as a 10-year-old. Three of her progeny have sold for six figures at the sales, including a filly foal by Sea The Stars bought by SackvilleDonald for €350,000 at Goffs November in 2019, and her latest filly by Starspangledbanner (Aus) was added to that list on Monday when Hugo Merry went to 220,000gns for lot 600. The agent was acting on behalf of Andrew Rosen, who will partner with Andrew and Madeleine Lloyd Webber's Watership Down Stud, who consigned the filly. Rosen and the Lloyd Webbers currently race the winning 3-year-old filly Theory Of Music (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) together with trainer Jessica Harrington. Theory Of Music is a full-sister to triple group winner Turret Rocks (Ire), whose Kingman colt was among the leading lights at Book 1 last week when selling to MV Magnier and Peter Brant's White Birch Farm for 1.1-million gns. Theory Of Music cost 290,000gns at Book 1 last year.

"She's been bought for my very good client Andrew Rosen to partner with the Lloyd Webbers," said Merry. "We bought a filly last year that's won and [Rosen] is a longstanding friend and client of the farm, so we've seen this filly around. She's bred by the Jennings' who have bred a lot of good horses. We were just trying to find a really nice filly who might work out, then have some residual value to go back to the farm to breed together."

"The flaxen mane," Merry quipped when asked what about the filly appealed to him. "Our sight is deteriorating, so the instruction was to get one we could see out in the field."

"She was just a lovely shape," he added. "The sire has had a great year. We would have liked to have had her for a bit less but it wasn't to be. The good ones are making the money."

Le Havre Colt A Pinhooking Home Run

"Some of these foals turn around, and some don't," Railton said. "I particularly liked him as a foal and some of them work and some of them don't. The life of a pinhooker is not a straightforward one, and I am incredibly lucky to be surrounded by some exceptional people who keep me upright. I feel very privileged to have the people around me that I do. It is the people who show faith in us as a company and our organization. We have some loyal supporters, both involved in this horse and other horses. I am very grateful for all the people who support us in the good times and the bad times."

It was 14 years ago at this sale during Book 1 that breeder Floors Stud parted with Lady Francesca for 21,000gns. She was scooped up by David Joseph, who raced her to one win and a pair of listed placings with trainer William Muir. Newsells Park Stud plucked her out of the 2009 Tattersalls December Mares Sale, and bred the Le Havre colt out of her before selling her for 40,000gns back at Park Paddocks last year, where she was bought by John Hammond. The page, meanwhile, had continued to improve, with Lady Francesca's half-sister Purr Along (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}) winning Group 3s in Ireland and France and another sister Katawi (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) winning at listed level.

He cost 1.3-million gns at Book 1 two years ago, and a pair of colts by his sire Siyouni (Fr) featured among the leading lights early in Monday's session when selling for 200,000gns apiece.

First up was lot 537, Whatton Manor Stud's first foal out of Faay (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). The 6-year-old mare was placed on the racecourse herself, but holds plenty of residual value being a full-sister to the speedy pair of Mecca's Angel (Ire) and Markaz (Ire). The former won the G1 Nunthorpe S. twice, while Markaz was a multiple Group 3-winning sprinter. Faay was a 400,000gns purchased by Charlie Gordon-Watson on behalf of Abdullah Saaed al Naboodah at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, and her first foal appears bound for the breeze ups, having been bought by Mick Murphy of Longways Stables. Murphy has already had success re-selling Siyounis; he and his partner Sarah O'Connell pinhooked Al Raya (GB) and Le Brivido (Fr) by the sire, and both went on to be Group 3 winners.

Jamie Railton | Tattersalls

Lot 576, meanwhile, has already provided an excellent pinhooking return. The son of the placed Fusion (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) was the selection of Liam and Jenny Norris at last year's Tattersalls December Foal Sale for 92,000gns, and he rewarded that roll of the dice with a winning bid of 200,000gns from John Dance's Manor House Stud on Monday. Fusion is a half-sister to the champion and multiple stakes producer Attraction (GB) (Efisio), with a further two of her sisters having produced stakes horses. Fusion's 2-year-old filly Atomic Lady (Fr) has won twice this season and has been listed-placed since the catalogue was printed. The Siyouni colt was bred by Floors Farming.

"He's been a very straightforward horse and we're absolutely delighted for the client," said Jenny Norris. "He's a very good mover and a beautiful individual. He vetted well and he's been going down well right from the start and he's behaved impeccably. There are some nice little updates in the pedigree too. So those all help and it's good to see trade is strong."

Currently rated the top sprinter in Europe, Starman is a son of the late Montjeu (Ire) mare Northern Star (Ire), a winner over 10 furlongs in Ward's colours and the dam of two multiple winners from only three foals. He won his first three starts as a 3-year-old, including the Listed Garrowby S., and retires with earnings of £476,380 from his five wins and two places from eight starts.

Starman | Scoop Dyga

Paying tribute to his Group 1 winner, breeder David Ward said, "I knew this day was coming for him to retire, which would have always been difficult, but we were looking forward to Saturday and the weather has come good for him. He worked the best he's ever worked in midweek but it's just one of those things.

"We sent him for an MRI scan for slight lameness in his fetlock and he's going to be fine. He just needs three or four weeks of walking rather than galloping just to give it a chance to heal but time is going to overtake us." Cont. p14

He added, “We thought about going to The Everest or to Hong Kong but with Covid, and not being allowed to go, that put an end to that and we just felt that this was the right thing to do."

Ward keeps his broodmares at Whatton Manor Stud, including Starman's half-sister Lodestar (GB) (Kingman {GB}), who is in foal to Dutch Art and thus carrying a three-part-sibling to the sprinter.

He continued, "I am excited that he's going to be a stallion but at the moment there's also a bit of sadness that he's not going to be an hour and a half away so I can go to see him easily. He's more than a racehorse to me. As brilliant as he's been, I've probably had even more joy from him away from the racecourse, seeing him when he was half an hour old, watching him grow, going to visit him and sitting with him with him falling asleep with his head on my lap."

Ward added, "He's going to Tally-Ho and I know them well. My first horse was by Kodiac and I feel he's going to the right place. I feel proud and blessed to have bred him and hopefully it's just the next chapter for him. I'm now trying to get my mares together for him, so that's going to be a new thing for me in the future, and something to look forward to. It will be amazing for us all to have some of his offspring on the track, and I have an arrangement with Tally-Ho that he can come home when he retires.

"Ed Walker has done a great job with Starman is difficult times. The last 18 months have been difficult for everyone and I think it has helped us having a horse like him around."

Starman joins a strong roster of stallions at the O'Callaghan family's Tally-Ho Stud led by Kodiac (GB), who is backed up by the promising young sires Mehmas (Ire), Galileo Gold (GB) and Cotai Glory (GB). Yet to have their first runners are Kessaar (Ire) and Inns Of Court (Ire).

"We are grateful to Ed Sackville for arranging the deal for Star-man to stand at Tally-Ho and we are delighted to welcome a horse of his calibre," said Roger O'Callaghan. "He's a really high-class horse that caught everybody's attention this year."

Slated to sell on Dec. 4, the G1 Prix Jean Roment heroine and G1 Prix de Diane third also won the G3 Prix de Flore as a 4-year-old and the G3 Grand Prix de Vichy this term. In her most recent start, the Haras de Bourgeauville-bred was second by a nose in the G1 Prix de l'Opera on Oct. 3.

The daughter of the placed Madonna Lily (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) was picked up for just €18,000 out of the Arqana October Yearling Sale in 2017. Madonna Lily is a half-sister to GII Canadian S. winner Minakshi (Fr) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}). Grand Glory's stakes-placed second dam Maria de La Luz (GB) (Machiavellian) is a half-sister to Happy Heart (Fr) (Exit to Nowhere), herself the dam of G1 Crown Oaks heroine Arapaho Miss (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Arapaho Miss, in turn, has foaled G1 VRC Oaks victress Miami Bound (NZ) to the cover of Reliable Man (GB).

ROYAL PATRONAGE CONFIRMED FOR VERTEM FUTURITY

Two-time group winner Royal Patronage (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) will take part in the Oct. 23 G1 Vertem Futurity Trophy at Doncaster. The Mark Johnston trainee won the G3 Acomb S. two starts back on Aug. 18 and defeated subsequent G3 Autumn S. victor Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Newmarket on Sept. 25.

"We're heading to the Vertem Futurity," said Harry Herbert, racing manager for owners Highclere Thoroughbred Racing. "Mark and Charlie [Johnston] are very happy with him--I've seen them at the sales--and the form is very much the hottest in the book, so we're going to give it our best.

"He got unbalanced going into the dip in the Royal Lodge, then he very much powered home but his form all the way ties in, and you can't take that away from the horse."

The colt ran second to future G1 National S. and G1 Dewhurst S. winner Native Trail (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in just his second start, a Sandown maiden in June. He was off the mark at Epsom on July 29 prior to his group race heroics.

He added, "We're excited to see him take his chance at Doncaster, he very much deserves to run. If it went soft it wouldn't really worry us, it was good to soft at Epsom when he won and he powered through that. I don't think ground is an issue to him.

"He was second to Native Trail in a maiden but they were meeting at different points in their careers, ours has improved with every run significantly."

HM THE QUEEN INDUCTED INTO BRITISH HORSERACING HALL OF FAME

Her Majesty The Queen has become the first entry into the QIPCO British Champions Series Hall of Fame within the Special Contributor category for her "unwavering commitment and longstanding patronage of the sport".

From celebrating her first winner in 1949, the Queen has been a consistent presence in racing as an owner/breeder through eight decades, as well as acting as an unofficial figurehead for the sport in Britain, particularly though its globally recognised flagship Flat meeting, Royal Ascot.

"I suspect that The Queen will have a lot of inner pride in being invited into the Hall of Fame," said Her Majesty's bloodstock and racing advisor John Warren. "The Queen's contribution to racing and breeding derives from a lifelong commitment. Her love of horses and their welfare comes with a deep understanding of what is required to breed, rear, train and ride a thoroughbred."

He added, "Her Majesty's fascination is unwavering and her pleasure derives from all of her horses--always accepting the outcome of their ability so gracefully."

Sir Francis Brooke, The Queen's Representative at Ascot Racecourse, said, "The inclusion of The Queen within the Hall of Fame recognises her unique contribution to the world of racing, not only as an enthusiast, but also as a successful owner and breeder and as its most important patron."

The Queen has been represented by more than 1,800 winners, including the Classic winners Carrozza (GB), Highclere (GB), Pall Mall (GB) and Dunfermline (GB). She has twice been Champion Flat Owner in Britain, in 1954 and 1957. In 2022, The Queen will become the first monarch to celebrate a Platinum Jubilee, with the Derby at Epsom set to form part of the official celebration of her historic 70-year reign.

Sir Michael Stoute, the 10-time champion trainer whose many successes for The Queen include training her Gold Cup winner Estimate (Ire), said, "Her Majesty will be thrilled to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. She richly deserves it because her contribution has been enormous. She loves it so much.

"I've found that training for The Queen comes with no pressure. Because of her understanding, her deep knowledge and her thirst for more. She's always thinking ahead––what I'm going to do with this animal, am I going to breed it, who should I breed it to, temperament, speed, stamina. She's fascinated with the whole idea and we must remember it's a very long time that she's been doing it."

Recalling Estimate's famous Royal Ascot victory, Ryan Moore, who has ridden 71 winners for The Queen, added, "The thing I remember most about that day is the cheering. I probably hadn't ever received a reception like that at the Royal Meeting, or any time before really. It was different on that day––you can see with The Queen how much it means to her; the way she smiles when she's looking at her horses, the enjoyment she was getting out of that. People want to see her do well and winning the Gold Cup, it's hard to top that. It was such a special day."

LORD OF ENGLAND EUTHANISED AT 18

Group 1 winner Lord of England (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}--Loveria {GB}, by Los Santos {Fr}), was euthanised due to persistent heart problems at Gestut Etzean in Germany. Galopp Online reported the news on Monday morning.

Bred by Stall Pontresina and raced by Stall Lucky Owner, the chestnut began his career at two with two wins in Italy, including the Listed Premio Giuseppe de Montel and placed third two starts later in the G1 Gran Criterium. Making his debut in Germany at three for trainer Mario Hofer, Lord of England ran second in the G3 Dr. Busch-Memorial in April of 2006 and third in the G2 German 2000 Guineas that May. Successful in the G3 Grosser Preis der Wirtschaft that June, his final start was a one-length win in Munich's G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis Bayerisches Zuchtrennen. Named the top colt in Germany from 9 1/2-11 furlongs for his efforts, his record at retirement was 8-4-1-2, with $281,575 in earnings.

Sold to Gestut Etzean for stallion duty, the half-brother to multiple German stakes winner and Group 3-placed Loriango (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) has left 21 stakes winners, 12 at the group level so far.

Isfahan, the best colt sired to date by Lord of England, after winning the 2016 G1 German Derby | Racingfotos.com

Just as Lord of England was the best colt by his sire Dashing Blade, 2016 G1 German Derby hero Isfahan (Ger) is the standout among Lord of England's male progeny. Isfahan is responsible for this year's German Derby victor Sisfahan (Ger) and German Oaks second, the late Isfahani (Ger). Lord of England has also sired two other Group 1 winners–Palmas (Ger) and Feodora (Ger), winners of the G1 Preis der Diana in 2021 and 2014, respectively. As a broodmare sire, Lord of England has four black-type winners to his name, among them group winners Ladykiller (Ger) (Kamsin {Ger}) and Sea Bay (Ger) (New Bay {GB}), the winner of Sunday's G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at Cologne.

INJURED SEA BAY HAS SUCCESSFUL OPERATION

Fresh off his nine-length victory in the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten on Sunday, Sea Bay (Ger) (New Bay {GB}) was diagnosed with a fracture in his left foreleg about an hour after that win. The operation, to insert four screws to stabalise the limb, was successful on Monday morning Galopp Online reported.

"He's back in his box," trainer Henk Grewe told Sport-Welt later that day. "It's still plastered, we hope that the plaster will come off quickly. The forecast is very positive that next year we will see the same Sea Bay we saw this year."

A winner at first asking at Hannover, the Gestut Winterhauch runner was fourth in the Listed Grosser Preis des Laki's im Ko-Quartier in September before Sunday's win.

2.7-MILLION GUINEAS COLT SET FOR LEICESTER DEBUT

13.00 Leicester, Nov, £10,000, 2yo, 7fT

KHK Racing's AKHU NAJLA (GB) (Kingman {GB}), who secured the third-highest price when knocked down for 2.7-million guineas at Tattersalls's October Book 1 sale last year, is a half-brother to G1 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S.-winning sire Galileo Gold (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}). The April-foaled bay debuts for Roger Varian and his 10 rivals include Godolphin's Charlie Appleby-trained fellow newcomer Yukon Star (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who is out of a half-sister to MG1SW sire Mount Nelson (GB); and Sheikh Juma Dalmook Al Maktoum's Knight of Honour (Ire) (Decorated Knight {GB}), who is an unraced son of G1 Cheveley Park S. second Princess Noor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), representing John and Thady Gosden.

Monday's Results:

1st-Great Yarmouth, £10,000, Nov, 10-11, 2yo, 7f 3yT, 1:26.92, g/s. SAMBURU (GB) (c, 2, Kingman {GB}--Tempera {GB}, by Dansili {GB}) was under a firm grip off the pace in rear after an impeded getaway in this debut. Coaxed into contention approaching the quarter-mile pole, the 11-1 chance quickened smartly for his challenge out wide entering the final furlong and was pushed out to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from Brilliant Blue (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}). "I rode him at work last week and I really liked him," commented rider Kieran O'Neill. "The ground was on the easy side of good and he was quite green early, but he finished his race off well. It was a good performance and, as soon as I gave him some daylight and had grabbed hold of him, he quickened up nicely and put the race to bed in a couple of strides. I think he'll be put away for next year and should get a mile no problem." Samburu, full-brother to a weanling filly, is the first of two foals produced by a winning full-sister to GII Wise Dan S. victor and GI Fourstardave H. runner-up Set Piece (GB) (Dansili {GB}). The February-foaled bay's dam Tempera (GB) (Dansili {GB}) is also a half-sister to dual stakes-winning G3 Prix Six Perfections and G3 Prix Texanita runner-up Alocasia (GB) (Kingman {GB}). Nosing ahead before halfway, the 11-8 favourite was last to come off the bridle when shaken up soon after passing the two pole and kept on strongly under mild coaxing in the latter stages to hit the line with a comfortable two-length advantage from Star Zinc (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). "He's fast and it's very exciting to have a horse with such a pedigree in the yard so thank you to the owner [Raed El Youssef] for sending him to us," said trainer Tom Clover. "He's very straightforward and a horse we've always liked at home. He has shaped up well since his last run, he behaved so well and I'm thrilled he was able to put the race to bed so well today." Winning rider Jack Mitchell added, "With a better draw and a bit of luck, he'd have gone very close to winning last time. I really like him and have liked him all the way through. He's a tank and something to look forward to next year." Al Barez is the second of three foals and first scorer for G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Jet Setting (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}), herself the leading performer produced by a winning daughter of Listed Fairy Bridge S. victrix Plume Rouge (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). WALLER DOMINATES AUSTRALIAN AWARDS

Chris Waller | Bronwen Healy

by Bren O'Brien

The grand night of Australian racing awards took place on Monday evening, with the Waller stable--both horse and human--dominating results.

The stable of champion trainer Chris Waller has dominated the Australian Racehorse of The Year Awards, with star mare Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}) claiming three different awards, including the main honour of the night, while Nature Strip (Nicconi) was again crowned Champion Sprinter Of the Year.

Waller also received the Bart Cummings Award and the TJ Smith Award as well as the award for being the leading Group 1 trainer, while Hungry Heart (Frankel {GB}) was crowned as Champion 3-year-old Filly and Waller employee Clare Heuston, the Sydney Strapper of the Year.

Verry Elleegant, winner of both the Champion Stayer and Champion Middle Distance categories, was an obvious choice as Australian Racehorse of the Year in a season where she won five Group 1 races, starting with the Winx S., then the Turnbull S., the Caulfield Cup, the Chipping Norton S. and the Ranvet S.

She becomes the first New Zealand-bred horse to win the Australian Racehorse of the Year Award since Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}), who won it three years in a row, 1999/2000, 2000/2001 and 2001/2002.

It is the sixth successive time that a Waller-trained runner has won it after Winx's (Street Cry {Ire}) four successive wins were followed up by Nature Strip's success last year.

Nature Strip was not able to defend his title but as a winner of both the G1 Lightning S. and G1 TJ Smith S. was crowned Champion Sprinter for a second-straight season.

Waller's Yulong-bred and owned filly Hungry Heart was a winner of both the G1 Australian Oaks and G1 Vinery Stud S. in the autumn and fought off competition from the likes of stablemate September Run (Exceed And Excel), to be honoured as the Champion 3YO Filly.

The Champion 2YO Award went to G1 Golden Slipper S. winner Stay Inside (Extreme Choice). The Richard and Michael Freedman-trained star faced stiff competition in that category from the winners of the four other Group 1 juvenile races, Anamoe (Street Boss {USA}), Captivant (Capitalist), Converge (Frankel {GB}) and Artorius (Flying Artie) as well as several others.

Ole Kirk, the regally bred son of Written Tycoon who is now completing his first season at Vinery Stud, was confirmed as Champion 3YO Colt or Gelding off the back of his heroics last spring when he won both the G1 Golden Rose S. and the G1 Caulfield Guineas for trainers Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes.

Also acknowledged at the ceremony was James McDonald as the leading Group 1-winning jockey and Written Tycoon as Australia's Champion Sire.
