VALUE SIRES, PART IV: FIRST JUVENILES IN ’22

Accelerate | Lane's End

by Chris McGrath

Though the first three installments of this series have featured the stallions with most to prove, we know that they will collectively be dominating commercial traffic in the new covering season. But today we come to the group that has just completed that first, critical market cycle--and finally stands on the brink of testing their stock where it really counts.

Or should count, anyway. The sad reality is that they have already exhausted their usefulness to a lot of breeders, many of whom will meanwhile have ridden the carousel through two subsequent intakes of rookies and will now be sizing up a third.

Even the rest of us, as a result, face a challenge in seeking that delicate value equilibrium between market energy, which will keep that famous “pipeline” loaded, and keeping the faith with those we think will come good on the racetrack. The second part of the equation demands particular perseverance, of course, when it comes to those whose stock may require a second turn and maturity to approach their full potential. By the same token, as such types almost inevitably tend to lose numerical support, so they offer the potential of increased reward for those that do hang in there. By the time the yearlings conceived next spring come to market, this group will have sent a second sophomore crop into the fray. If those first couple of crops come good, then there’s potential for demand greatly to exceed supply.

PERFECT FIT FOR ‘OLD-SCHOOL’ SILVER STATE AT CLAIBORNE

by Katie Petrunyak

According to Walker Hancock, Silver State (Hard Spun – Supreme, by Empire Maker) has been an easy sell as breeders have stopped by Claiborne Farm in the past few weeks to see the new, Grade I-winning arrival.

“Everyone who has come to see him has absolutely loved him,” Hancock reported. “They can’t get enough of him. We’ve even sold shares to him just with people who have come out to see him. The comments we get are that people didn’t realize how big he is. He’s 16'3 and is dappled out right now, so he looks fantastic.” Cont. p8

DWOSKIN HONORED AT FLORIDA HBPA AWARDS 9

The Florida HBPA held its annual General Nominating Meeting and Awards Dinner Saturday night, during which it honored the Florida-based champions of 2021. The organization also honored longtime Florida owner/trainer Steven Dwoskin with its first 'Person of Distinction' Award. Dwoskin, who lost his father and brother to cancer, has long been a partner with Sylvester Comprehensive Care Center, a part of the University of Miami Health System.

Needless to say, that's not a gamble too many commercial breeders are inclined to make, when it can be so much easier to make a fast buck from sires whose ability to recycle their excellence on the racetrack remains more or less completely unknown. It's not as though we ever learn as much as we might think from the market's reception of first weanlings and yearlings. In most years, averages tend to replicate pretty scrupulously the rankings implied by fees, with only marginal deviations indicating one or two whose stock has either disappointed or surpassed expectations.

This lot, however, have experienced a little more volatility. The averages achieved by first yearlings in 2021 disclose a couple of pretty blatant disasters, as well as a couple of equally conspicuous outliers in a positive direction--one of which duly retains a place on the value podium.

As with the previous intake, several of these were given fee cuts last year by farms making a really substantial gesture to breeders facing the uncertainties of the pandemic economy.

Given that these sires have meanwhile reached a notoriously vulnerable moment in their careers, some have been trimmed again; while others who have performed very well in the sales ring remain pegged at a rate that has come to seem pretty indulgent with the market having rallied so powerfully since. In other words, there should be plenty of value around.

One young stallion, admittedly, has proved such a smash at the sales that--most unusually, for one at this tricky crossroads--access will cost 50% more than last spring ahead of the launch of his first juveniles. City of Light, now up to $60,000, sold 67 of 75 for a spectacular average of $337,698. We'll have to see whether he can keep up that kind of momentum as these animals proceed to the track, not having been the most precocious himself, but he basically hasn't stopped glittering between his first career and the start of his second. Cont. p4

City of Light is a compliment to one of those farms that believes its clients' interests best served by restrained book sizes. In fairness, however, both Justify and Mendelssohn showed that the more industrial model can also function at ringside. It did feel almost shocking that both should have covered as many as 252 mares in their debut seasons, but each achieved the necessary dividends at the sales. Indeed, value being a relative concept, you could even make a case for Justify to be on the podium now that he has had consecutive cuts from $150,000 to $125,000 and now $100,000.

But those who can afford to operate at that kind of level can clearly make those judgements for themselves! So here, as subjectively as ever, are our suggestions for three more accessible steps of the pyramid. Once again, no apologies for fidelity to stallions we've liked all along. Though too much of this business operates as though their work is already done, they actually haven't even started yet--and they certainly haven't done anything to warrant desertion.

Bubbling under: For a stallion who has apparently been tough to handle at times, Bolt d'Oro is certainly getting with the program where it counts: he got the big numbers through that revolving door at Spendthrift, with 214 mares in his debut book at $25,000, and his $155,097 average edged out two $35,000 start-ups in Mendelssohn and Good Magic. Having participated in his farm's big gesture last year when slashed to $15,000, he is actually restored to $20,000 this time around--but is plainly entitled to make that fee work if he gets juveniles as accomplished as he was himself.

At the same farm, Cloud Computing processed his first crop at a brisk rate (53 sold of 60 at $45,783) and we've spoken previously in this series of trying to catch a rising tide with his sire Maclean's Music. A feasible roll of the dice at $5,000.

Bronze: ARMY MULE (Friesan Fire--Crafty Toast by Crafty Prospector)
$7,500 Hill 'n' Dale

Okay, so sire and damsire together hardly represent an obvious commercial formula, while his career was confined to four minutes. But there's no denying that this was a pretty wild talent. He won each of his three starts, by an aggregate 22 lengths, smashing the GI Carter H. on his stakes debut by half a dozen lengths in 1:20.94.

What would the market make of this meteor? Well, his opening book of 140 slumped to 47 next time round and he was trimmed from $10,000 to $7,500. Maybe those who responded, with 83 covers last spring, had noticed his weanlings had shown something of the physical majesty that underpinned his bullet time as a $825,000 F-T Midlantic sale-topping juvenile. Cont. p5

Army Mule winning the Carter | Coglianese

With that profile, he always seemed an obvious pinhooking medium and doubtless that helped to drive a stunning debut at the yearling sales. With a colt and filly both hitting $400,000, he shifted 63 of 76 at $91,809--nine times their conception fee! One way or another, the genes were certainly functioning in this freak: remember that his sire has an aristocratic pedigree, while his first three dams respectively scored at stakes, Grade III and Grade II level. John Sikura is building something special on a far narrower foundation, in Maclean's Music, and I suspect that those who get aboard with Army Mule now will already find themselves ahead of the curve at the 2-year-old sales--never mind once the freshmen's championship begins to take shape.

TDN VIDEO: Army Mule at Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa

Silver: MO TOWN (Uncle Mo--Grazie Mille by Bernardini) $7,500 Ashford

Now here's a guy whose every trajectory is climbing sharply--with the solitary exception of his fee, which is 40% down on his opening $12,500. Time, in other words, for breeders to catch a rising tide.

Having stayed in training at four, only to disappear after a single start in the spring, he was rather a forgotten horse when assembling a debut book of 144. In 2020, down to $10,000, he received 108 partners. Last spring, however, came a transformation: encouraged by Uncle Mo's flying start as a sire of sires, no fewer than 204 mares profited from another reduction in his fee (partly, of course, a Covid concession). So whatever Mo Town can do with his first couple of crops, he is going to be far better placed than most to consolidate.

Cont. p6

Mo Town | Coolmore

In the meantime, moreover, Mo Town has made a fine debut at the yearling sales, processing 70 of 78 at an average $60,250. And his stock is entitled to land running, Mo Town having won the GII Remsen S. at two. Though he had to regroup the following year, he eventually did so with a dashing turn of foot to land his Grade I on turf (his half-sister by War Front was runner-up in an Irish Classic).

And, actually, let's just forget Uncle Mo for a minute. For the bottom half of this horse's pedigree has been beautifully seeded, with his first five dams by Bernardini, Carson City, Danzig, Sir Ivor and Native Dancer, the fifth being a full-sister to Raise A Native. (As such, the purchase of the Grade I-placed granddam as a bargain weanling showed a typically alert Gunther touch, her sire Carson City being a grandson of Raise A Native.)

But nobody, of course, is going to forget Uncle Mo for terribly long. His stratospheric pricing will surely direct the farm's less affluent clients towards an alternative so eligible to emulate those already making Uncle Mo well-named as a young sire of sires. Momentum is exactly what Mo Town has now, at a stage in his career when most rivals are nervously treading water.

Accelerate winning the Breeders' Cup Classic | Coady

That told us much that was wrong with our business, as this was a model racehorse whose soundness and attitude underpinned a $6.7-million career of inexorable improvement, crowned by what would have been a Horse of the Year campaign but for the claims of a historic Triple Crown winner (five Grade Is interrupted only by a neck defeat at nine furlongs by the dasher City Of Light). But the strategy paid off with an opening book of 167, really pushing the boundaries by the laudably conservative standards of this farm. He has been ticking over nicely enough over the two seasons since, too, with another 213 mares; and processed his first yearlings at a perfectly respectable rate, rehousing 70 of 88 at $72,831.

Even from such a terribly low base, Accelerate has been consecutively eased to $17,500 and now $15,000. He's an unbelievable amount of horse for that kind of money. We know that his own sire remains scandalously under-rated, but turn that round and ask yourself what kind of physique he must be recycling to raise $380,000 as a yearling from one of the best judges in the game.

That's all packaged with brothers placed at Grade I and Grade III level, their dam a stakes-placed half-sister to a Grade I winner; he's also inbred to Broodmare of the Year Smartaire. Not a chink in his armor, then, and you'll be sorry to have turned down this insulting fee when foals bred at much higher cost start being crushed by his stock.

TDN New Stallions

"He's a really smooth-walking horse and he has this presence about him," Hancock continued of the Stonestreet-bred who brought $450,000 at the 2018 Keeneland September Sale. "He just kind of knows that he's a cool dude and he had the miler speed, which is what breeders are looking for, so there's a lot to like about Silver State."

Campaigned by Winchell Thoroughbreds and Willis Horton Racing, Silver State won on debut at two for trainer Steve Asmussen and was competitive on the Triple Crown trail at three with a runner-up performance in the 2020 GIII Lecomte S. and third-place finish in one division of the GII Risen Star S., but he incurred a setback in the GII Louisiana Derby and was forced to watch from the sidelines until the fall.

The strapping bay reemerged at Keeneland's fall meet with a seven-length romp against allowance company that proved to be the start of a six-race win streak. After another dominating performance at Churchill Downs, the colt kicked off his 4-year-old season with a pair of wins at Oaklawn Park in the Fifth Season S. and Essex H.

Returning to graded company, Silver State took the GII Oaklawn H. by half a length before earning his signature win in the GI Metropolitan H., defeating the likes of MGSWs By My Standards (Goldencents) and Mischevious Alex (Into Mischief), plus future GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Knicks Go (Paynter).

"He had been on our radar for quite a while, but his win in the Met Mile solidified him as a serious stallion prospect for us," Hancock explained. "He had the miler speed, but he was a big horse that was able to carry that speed, which I think says a lot about him."

After running in the money in the GI Whitney S. behind Knicks Go and GISW Maxfield (Street Sense) and again in the Parx Dirt Mile S., Silver State retired with earnings of nearly $2 million.

"He had five six-figure Beyer Speed Figures and was only off the board twice, so he was a model of consistency," Hancock noted. "His six-race win streak was something you hardly ever see anymore."

As a grandson of Claiborne legend Danzig, Silver State was a natural fit for the farm's stallion program.

"He's by Hard Spun, who I think is a tremendously-underrated sire, and we look forward to him carrying on his grandfather's legacy," Hancock said. "His dam [Supreme] is by Empire Maker, who is obviously a great broodmare sire."

Supreme (Empire Maker), a full-sister to 2001 GI Kentucky Derby winner Monarchos (Maria's Mon), was a stakes winner on turf and was runner-up in the GIII Royal North S. She sold for $800,000 to Stonestreet at the 2013 Keeneland January Sale and has since produced two additional winners who have both achieved six figures in earnings. Cont. p9

"One of the reasons that we really thought he could be a successful stallion here is that we think he will nick really well with a lot of our mares," Hancock explained. "The Danzig over Blame and Arch nick is one that we're really high on, so we think Silver State will complement them really well."

Hancock added that Winchell Thoroughbreds and breeder Stonestreet Farms are committed to supporting the young stallion as he begins his stud career.

"We're thankful to partner up with Ron Winchell. They know how to make a great stallion obviously, as Gun Runner is one of the hottest freshman sires that we've seen in quite some time. They have a great program and are going to support Silver State just like they did for Gun Runner. Stonestreet is going to be a big supporter of him as well and they definitely know what they're doing, so we're glad to have them on board. He will be well-supported by a lot of great breeders."

Silver State joins Claiborne's cornerstone stallion War Front, proven sire Blame and War Front's young son War of Will as descendants of Danzig in the stud barn of the historic Paris, Ky. farm. The new addition will stand for a fee of $20,000 in 2022.

"Someone mentioned to me that he's a bit of a throwback-type horse," Hancock said. "He is kind of an old-school horse and he's at an old-school farm, so he seems like a perfect fit."

FLORIDA HBPA HONORS 2021 AWARD WINNERS

The Florida HBPA held its annual General Nominating Meeting and Awards Dinner Saturday night at Gulfstream Park, with nearly 100 owners, trainers, jockeys, grooms and racing executives in attendance at Ten Palms. The guest speaker was the new President and CEO of the NTRA, Tom Rooney and the evening closed with the annual FHBPA Awards Ceremony.

"Each year, the Florida HBPA recognizes the horses that shine not just during the Championship Meet, but year-round in South Florida," FHBPA President Stephen Screnci said. "All of our Champions competed at Gulfstream during the Royal Palm and Flamingo Festival meets that run from April through November. We also changed it up a little this year to honor one of our owners or trainers not just for their accomplishments on the racetrack, but also for their contributions to our community. Steve Dwoskin is our first FHBPA 'Person of Distinction,' and we couldn't have found a worthier candidate for the award."

An owner and trainer in South Florida since 1969, Dwoskin has long been a partner with Sylvester Comprehensive Care Center, a part of the University of Miami Health System (UHealth). A generous donation to Sylvester helped to fund the Dwoskin Proton Therapy Center, which began treating patients with advanced and precise radiation therapy last September. Dwoskin is also the owner/trainer of this year's Florida Champion Older Filly/Mare Choose Joy (Munnings).

Dwoskin, who lost his father and brother to cancer, was emotional when he said, "I can handle most anything, but I couldn't handle it when my brother and my father got cancer. When I first got involved [with Sylvester], it was strictly for research, trying to find a cure for cancer. But I got pretty strong there, and I started helping people, friends and family. If anyone from the horse industry ever needs help, I'm here for you. Helping people--that's what makes me feel really good."

The night's other winners were:

- Two-Year-Old Colt/Gelding: Octane (Brethen) Arindel, Owner; Carlos David, Trainer
- Two-Year-Old Filly: Outfoxed (Valiant Minister) LNJ Foxwoods, Owner; Bill Mott, Trainer
- Three-Year-Old Colt: Papetu (Dialed In) Magic Stables LLC, Owner; Antonio Sano, Trainer
- Three-Year-Old Filly: Con Lima (Commissioner) Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Joseph F. Graffeo, Eric Nikolaus Del Toro & Troy Johnson, Owner; Todd Pletcher, Trainer

A homebred for Jim Rome's Jungle Racing, Straight Up G became the first black-type winner from the first crop of Jungle and partners' 'TDN Rising Star' Straight Fire (Dominus) with a convincing victory in Sunday's King Glorious S. at Los Alamitos.

A debut fourth behind Saturday's GII Los Alamitos Futurity hero Slow Down Andy (Nyquist) as the even-money chalk in an Oct. 9 Cal-bred maiden at Santa Anita, the bay got it right last time, graduating by 5 1/4 lengths at Del Mar Nov. 21 and was back on reasonably short rest for this.

Sent along to make the running into the first turn on the stretchout in distance, Straight Up G went along under a hold, was asked to quicken from between rivals in upper stretch and stayed on nicely to best favoored Finneus before galloping out strongly.

"This horse has a lot of natural speed," said winning trainer Richard Baltas. "I left it up to [jockey Ricardo Gonzalez]. I told him just break well and go from there. He's always worked really, really well. He's a good horse and he's got a good mind."

CORE CONVICTION (g, 4, American Pharoah--Paradise Playgirl, by Speightstown), a $435,000 Keeneland September yearling in 2018, came back Nov. 11 after a 10-month layoff following his belated career debut behind GSW & GISP Gear Jockey (Twirling Candy) with a 5 1/2-length score going seven furlongs at the Big A. Sent as the 2-1 choice here, Core Conviction rushed up to contest the lead but had it all to himself by the time the first quarter ticked by in :22.70. The dark bay dictated the pace, got the half in :45.36, and sailed for home, holding off a late-surging Three Jokers (Twirling Candy) by three-quarters of a length. Core Conviction is a half to Summer Reading (Hard Spun), MSP, $238,217; and to additional GSP Heart of Paradise (More Than Ready). Paradise Playgirl, a half to GSW Megascape (Cape Canaveral), has a placed juvenile colt named Big Skipper (Arrogate), who brought $50,000 from Judge Lanier Racing at Keeneland's sale last month. The mare was bred to Dads Caps for next term. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $91,100. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

PARK AVENUE (f, 3, Quality Road--Remarkable, by Indian Charlie) put it all together Oct. 29 at Santa Anita, finally breaking her maiden in her fifth try to win by five lengths and register a 78 Beyer Speed Figure. The bay made it back-to-back victories, despite leaving the outside 11 post and being floated at least six wide around the first turn. Still wide through fractions of :22.85 and :46.70, Park Avenue tackled the leaders on the final turn--while still very wide--and quickened down the stretch, striding to a facile, geared-down win under a hand ride. The 2-1 second choice left Fi Fi Pharoah (American Pharoah) five lengths back in second. The winner's dam has the 2-year-old colt Exceptional (Speightstown), who hammered for $23,000 at OBS this past spring and was unplaced in his Oct. 24 Belmont debut, as well as a yearling colt named Premium (Mastery). She was bred to Munnings for next term. Sales History; $450,000 Ylg '19 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 6-2-2-1, $104,700. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

TIESTO (c, 4, Tiznow--Marquee Delivery {MGSP, $264,901}, by Marquetry), second in the 2020 GIII Palm Beach S. on the lawn and eighth behind GISWs Art Collector (Bernardini) and Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) in the 2020 GII Blue Grass S. on the dirt while trained by Bill Mott, has had a stuttered career since. Eight months after the Blue Grass, Tiesto reappeared to win a turf allowance at Gulfstream, then spent another eight months out of sight until showing up for an off-the-board finish at Woodbine Nov. 14 for new trainer Jose Carroll. Off as the 5-2 favorite Sunday, the bay broke alertly, settling into a comfortable midpack spot while in the clear. Moving closer through the :23.86 quarter and :47.43 half, he was poised three or four wide on the outside coming off the turn and rallied down the lane to best a closing Fort Moultrie (Mosler) by a half-length. Tiesto is a half to Promises Fulfilled (Shackleford), GISW, $1,455,530; to Marquee Miss (Cowboy Cal), MSW & GSP, $373,516; to Marquee Cal Gal (Cowboy Cal), MSP, $249,209; and to unplaced juvenile filly Jag Warrior (Shackleford). HOMBRE (c, 3, Tourist--Classic Soul, by Perfect Soul {Ire}), last seen fifth Nov. 11 at Aqueduct two starts after his initial July 4 Belmont win, left the gate widest of all at 3-1 in the Gulfstream feature. Drafting while fourth from last behind :20.68 and :44.78 fractions, Hombre tipped out on the final turn and mowed down the leaders, just getting up to notch a head victory over Sigrun Fast Boy (Malibu Moon). The dark bay Hombre is a half to Speedy Soul (Souper Speedy), MSW & GSP, $369,249; and hails from the same family as Canadian champion Skywire (Afleet Alex). His third dam is blue hen No Class (Nodouble), dam of Canadian champions Sky Classic (Nijinksky II), Regal Classic (Vice Regent), Grey Classic (Grey Dawn II), and Classy 'n Smart (Smarten). TAYLOR'S SECRET (f, 2, Vancouver {Aus}--Gypsy Sage, by Hennessy), a first-out winner at Prairie Meadows in July, ran off the board in the Prairie Gold Lassie S. there in August and was 11th trying the Kentucky Downs turf in an optional claimer Sept. 12. Upped to a mile at Churchill on Halloween, she reported home seventh, and was 9-2 in this return to the turf. At the back of the field with joint-entry Splenda Gail (Neolithic), she remained there behind splits of :22.30. Asked for her effort on the far turn, she swept up the center of the course to win going away by 1 3/4 lengths. Kit Keller (Ghostzapper) was second. ## MAIDENS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
6th-Oaklawn, $84,000, Msw, 12-12, 2yo, 6f, 1:10.47, ft, neck.
BACK TO NORMAL (c, 2, Liam's Map--Bernatina, by Bernardini), a distant fourth to 'TDN Rising Star' and future Grade I winner Jack Christopher (Munnings) in an Aug. 28 Saratoga maiden, was a pacesetting third behind a pair of next-out winners--including Street Sense S. hero Howling Time (Not This Time)--at Churchill Sept. 25, failed to handle a rain-affected strip last time in Louisville Nov. 14. Getting the benefit of the doub t from the bettors, the 9-5 chalk skipped away to an early advantage, covering the opening quarter in :21.95. Confronted in upper stretch by a three wide Bet He's Ready (More Than Ready), he stiff-armed that bid then held on to best the rail-rallying Mamzooj (Daaher) by a neck.

Back To Normal | Coady

The first foal for his dam, Back to Normal has a yearling half-sister by Klimt and a weanling full-brother that sold for $115,000 at KEENOV last month. Bernatina was covered by Frosted this past year. Sales history: $140,000 Wlg '19 KEENOV; $125,000 Ylg '20 FTKSEL; $200,000 2yo '21 OBSMAR. BENCH (g, 3, Skipshot--Queen to Be {SP, $121,949}, by Flatter) earned a lofty 79 Beyer for a debut second sprinting on the turf at Santa Anita Mar. 26 and was adding blinkers for this return as the 17-5 second pick. Alertly away from the widest gate in a field of 12, Bench--whose name seems befitting of a runner at a Cincinnati-area track--raced in a handy fourth through the early stages, bid three deep leaving the quarter pole and kicked on nicely to take it by 2 1/2 lengths. Disco Pharoah (American Pharoah) was a non-threatening second. The winner's dam failed to get in foal to this sire the last two seasons. HALO OF FIRE (f, 2, Munnings--Awesome Fire {SW, $329,495}, by Strong Contender) made a belated rally in her Saratoga grass debut to take fifth Aug. 26 and improved to second switched to the Keeneland dirt Oct. 8. A bit one-paced in the mud there when fourth Oct. 30, the 4-5 favorite was slow to begin, but soon switched to the outside in midpack after a quarter in :24.75. Under a ride on the far turn, she dove back towards the fence and outbattled Bali Baby (Bal A Bali {Brz}) to win by a facile two lengths. Canadian Classic heroine Awesome Fire is a half-sister to GIII British Columbia Derby and GIII Canadian Derby victor Academic (Henny Hughes), as well as SW Secret Wish (Street Cry {Ire}), the dam of MGSW & MGISP Sharp Samurai (First Samurai). # Relief for Western Kentucky

Kentucky has suffered from major loss of life and property damage in Western Kentucky due to unprecedented tornadoes in the early hours of December 11th.

In times of need, like the flooding in Southeastern Kentucky, the Thoroughbred industry has stepped to the plate financially to assist with rebuild efforts for the most vulnerable. Only fourteen days from Christmas, we have created a GoFundMe page for members to donate for disaster relief. (By Pat McDonogh, 12/11/2021 Courier-Journal)

LOVES ONLY YOU GOES OUT ON TOP AS TRAGEDY BEFALLS LONGINES HKIR

by Alan Carasso

Making the final appearance of her illustrious career, Japan's Loves Only You (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) displayed the same refuse-to-lose attitude that carried her to a history-making success in last month's GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf, snatching victory from the jaws of defeat in Sunday's G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup, at HK$30 million the richest of the four events that make up the 'Turf World Championships'--the Longines Hong Kong International Races.

Glory Vase (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), one of three Japanese winners in 2019, took home a second G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase, defeating a game G1 Coronation Cup hero Pyledriver (GB) (Harbour Watch {Ire}), while Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) proved too tough for the 16th consecutive time and for the 19th time in 20 starts, successfully defending his title in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile. A horrific spill stripped much of the lustre off the running of the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint, won by 21-1 Sky Field (Aus) (Deep Field {Aus}), but the greater concern was for the two horses--Amazing Star (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}) and Naboo Attack (Aus) (Warhead {Aus})--who suffered catastrophic injuries, and three riders who were taken to nearby Prince of Wales Hospital for treatment.

HONG KONG HISTORY FOR GOLDEN SIXTY

by Alan Carasso

Twelve months after Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) made the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile his 11th straight victory, the reigning Horse of the Year was at his brilliant best in defending his title Sunday under a sublime ride from his constant mate Vincent Ho.

A horse that is happy to sacrifice ground loss for a unimpeded run when push comes to shove, Golden Sixty's task Sunday was a bit 'tricky' in the words of Ho, owing mostly to the fact that the 6-year-old had drawn gate two, and also because there did not appear to be an abundance of speed signed on. Golden Sixty has been known to overrace when the pace doesn't suit, but he settled kindly enough, a touch keenly in midfield in the early stages of Sunday's Mile, as Salios (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) speared through at the rail to take up the running from longshot Lucky Express (Aus) (Toronado {Ire}). # WORLDWIDE NEWS

Given the green light by the HKSAR government to conduct the meeting in a racing 'bubble', the Hong Kong Jockey Club welcomed 18,600 fans to the races Sunday afternoon. Total turnover for the afternoon was HK$1.728 billion, a new record.

"Today is a day which had tremendous sporting success and this is something everybody in the Club should be proud of," said HKJC CEO Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges. "There are people you do not see who make a big commitment to the Club and to this event.

"As wonderful as the racing was today, we also had the unfortunate and tragic circumstances in the Longines Hong Kong Sprint, where there was an accident. Our thoughts are with the injured jockeys and we wish Zac Purton, Lyle Hewitson and Yuichi Fukunaga a speedy recovery. Nobody likes to see these accidents and the owners of the horses involved are also in our thoughts."

All You Need Is 'Loves'...

A spectacular career and truly marvelous season came to a thrilling conclusion in the Longines Hong Kong Cup, as Japan's Loves Only You jumped out of the ground in the final 100 metres and outslugged her heavily backed compatriot Hishi Iguazu (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) to score narrowly. It was a second straight Cup success for a Japanese-bred female, following on from Normcore (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}), who swan-songed in the same event last December.

Straight into a forward position from her low draw, Loves Only You settled in about fifth, as Bolshoi Ballet (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) rolled up deep to set the pace from G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Mac Swiney (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) and Ka Ying Star (GB) (Cityscape {GB}). Holding her spot one off the fence and racing in the slipstream of Bolshoi Ballet into the final three furlongs, Loves Only You kicked, but found herself in tight between the pacesetters at the 300-metres, as Russian Emperor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) got first run and shot to the lead after covering Loves Only You on the turn. Hishi Iguazu was winding up down the centre and it looked desperate for the bonny mare, but, same as she did at Del Mar, she took one more determined deep breath and sliced through dramatically for the win. Cont. p3

"She jumped well. The pace was a bit slow but then she relaxed and I was able to find a good position," said winning rider Yuga Kawada, whose mount in the Sprint, Danon Smash (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) hurdled the stricken Amazing Star. "She's given me two big presents and is the best female horse I've ever ridden. I hope she will be a good mother."

The 2019 G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) winner, Loves Only You was campaigned ambitiously in 2021, winning the G2 Kyoto Kinen in February ahead of a very game third to Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. Victorious in the G1 FWD QE II Cup over this course and distance the following month, she was runner-up to fan-favourite Sodashi (Jpn) (Kurofune) in the G2 Sapporo Kinen at home ahead of her landmark score at the Breeders' Cup meeting.

Pedigree Notes

The unraced Loves Only Me was acquired by Katsumi Yoshida for $900,000 in foal to Danehill Dancer (Ire) at the 2009 Keeneland November Sale and came with plenty of pedigree appeal, as her dam Monevassia was a full-sister to dual GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Miesque (Nureyev)'s son Kingmambo and had produced champion and future Broodmare of the Year Rumplestiltskin (Ire) (Danehill)--subsequently the dam of G1SW Tapestry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and GSW John F Kennedy (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). In addition to Kingmambo, Miesque was also responsible for G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane heroine East of the Moon (Private Account); GSW Mingun (A.P. Indy); and GSW/MG1SP Miesque's Son (Mr. Prospector), sire of 2006 Breeders' Cup Mile hero Miesque's Approval.

Loves Only Me is the dam of seven winners from eight to race, all bar the in-utero foal by Deep Impact, and with Sunday's win, has progeny earnings of nearly $20 million. Cont. p4

The cross of the late Shadai inmate over Storm Cat and Storm Cat-line dams has been sensationally productive, accounting for nearly 20% of the stallion's 53 worldwide Grade I/Group 1 winners, including recent G1 Yasuda Kinen hero Danon Kingly (Jpn), Hong Kong Cup-winning sire A Shin Hikari (Jpn), Satono Aladdin (Jpn) and French 1000 Guineas heroine Beauty Parlour (Jpn), among others.

Loves Only Me has also been a commercial success at the JRHA Select Sales. Loves Only You fetched ¥160 million ($1,404,800) as a yearling at the 2017 sale, while a Heart's Cry (Jpn) half-brother to Loves Only You made ¥280 million ($2,537,293) as a foal at this year's sale. Loves Only Me is also represented by a yearling colt by Duramente (Jpn), who passed away this past September.

Slipped a bit of rein at the 1000-metres, Golden Sixty tip-toed into an above-average handy position for him, about five lengths from the speed, readying himself for the sprint when the cue was given.

Tracking Lucky Express into the stretch, Golden Sixty was jerked back to the inside nearing the quarter pole, came off Salios's heels with a furlong and a half to race and proved comfortably best. More Than This (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), who nearly defeated the champ in last year's G1 Champions' Mile, rattled home for second ahead of Salios in third. Mother Earth (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) attacked the line nicely to be fourth. Cont. p5

Golden Sixty | HKJC

With the victory, Golden Sixty surpasses two-time Mile hero Beauty Generation (NZ) and Silent Witness (Aus) as the winningest horse in Hong Kong history with 19. He is all but certain to supplant the former as the richest horse in Hong Kong history--he is now within just HK$10 million--and has Silent Witness's 17-race winning streak in the crosshairs.

"I knew he was at his best, gate two was a little bit tricky, I didn't want to be stuck on the inside, but eventually the race panned out well and the pace was genuine," Ho said. "It was much better today because the pace was on, he actually relaxed very well and as a 6-year-old he's more mature, so it's even better."

Pedigree Notes

Bred in Kentucky by Manganaro LLC, Gaudeamus was purchased by Newmarket International from the Lane's End consignment for $60,000 at the 2005 Keeneland September sale. Trained by Jim Bolger for his wife Jackie, Gaudeamus posted her most important victory in the 2006 G2 Debutante S. at Leopardstown. Bred to the late Pivotal (GB) to Southern Hemisphere time in 2007, Gaudeamus produced her first foal, a colt, for Bob and Rosemary Scarborough's Wood Nook Farm in the Australian winter of 2008.

Gaudeamus was purchased for A$160,000 by Josh Hutchins Bloodstock carrying the foal that would become Golden Sixty at the 2015 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale. The mare's first Australian foal of note was Igitur, who went on to be third in the 2017 Listed Tasmanian Derby, and a few months later, Gaudeamus was bought back on a bid of A$75,000 in foal to Choisir at the National Broodmare Sale. That offspring, Rainbow Connection (Aus), was runner-up in the 2021 G3 Hawkesbury Guineas, and the decision to retain the mare looks sufficiently wise in retrospect.

Gaudeamus's yearling filly by Capitalist (Aus) sold to All Winners Thoroughbreds for A$425,000 at the 2021 Magic Millions Gold Coast sale. Gaudeamus missed to Trapeze Artist (Aus) for 2020 and was bred to Wootton Bassett (GB) in October. This is also the female family of champion Bosra Sham (Woodman), her champion full-brother Hector Protector and French Classic winner Shanghai (Procida).

Shinn Shines, But Heavy-Hearted Following Sprint...

A little more than two years after riding his first winner in Hong Kong in September 2019, well-traveled Australian jockey Blake Shinn partnered with the Caspar Fownes-trained Sky Field (Aus) (Deep Field {Aus})--the horse that late last season provided him with his first victory at group level in the jurisdiction--to take out an injury-marred and ultimately sombre renewal of the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint.

Shinn, who won the 2008 G1 Melbourne Cup with Viewed (Aus) (Scenic {Ire}) for the legendary Bart Cummings, settled Sky Field last but two in the Sprint field, as Computer Patch (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) showed the way from Courier Wonder (NZ) (Sacred Falls {NZ}), with Amazing Star (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}) tracking three deep.

There was a dramatic and tragic turn of events as the field neared the final corner, as Amazing Star went wrong, casting Lyle Hewitson heavily to the turf, and favoured Lucky Patch (NZ) (El Roca {Aus}) with Zac Purton fell right in his wake. The massive Naboo Attack (Aus) (Warhead {Aus}) (Karis Teetan) was also brought down, as was Japan's Pixie Knight (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) (Yuichi Fukunaga). Sadly, the injuries to Amazing Star and Naboo Attack proved fatal, while Lucky Patch emerged apparently unscathed. Netkeiba reported that Pixie Knight has a left fore knee fracture and a sprain in the right hind.

Teetan was passed fit to ride the remainder of the card, but Hewitson, Purton and Fukunaga were taken to Prince of Wales Hospital not far from Sha Tin.

"The three jockeys are all in a stable condition and they were conscious when they were transported to hospital. Zac and Lyle are in ICU, they're conscious and their vitals are all stable," Jockey Club executive director of racing Andrew Harding told South China Morning Post.

Down inside, Sky Field avoided the pile-up, raced past a wandering Courier Wonder at the sixteenth marker and was home first, as Resistencia (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}), bothered by the winner in upper stretch, charged at him late.

"I have mixed emotions for winning this race today," Shinn said. "Obviously, the first emotion is that my feelings are with the fallen jockeys and horses out there. It's gut-wrenching for any rider to see a horse go down. What's happened today, it's a real bitter-sweet win and in a way it's a hard win to take in the circumstances. All credit to Caspar Fownes, he's given me the opportunity to ride this lovely animal over the previous season and this season."

Pedigree Notes...

Sky Field is the second top-level scorer and one of 12 black-type winners overall for Deep Field, the sire of 14 Hong Kong winners overall. The chestnut is one of five winners from six to race from his dam, a winning daughter of Mer du Sud, whose son The Duke (Aus) (Danehill) won the 2006 Hong Kong Mile after placing in the event the two years prior. Mer du Sud is also the granddam of GSW/G1SP Keen Array (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) and SW & G1SP Chambord (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}). Laravissante is the dam of the 3-year-old filly Jolie Christine (Aus) (Pride of Dubai {Aus}) and a yearling filly by Pariah (Aus). Her foal of 2021, a full-sister to Sky Field, unfortunately passed away and she was given the current breeding season off.

More Vase 'Glory' For Japan, Moreira...

For the third time in the last six years, jockey Joao Moreira teamed up with a shipper from Japan to scoop the first of the day's four Group 1s, the Longines Hong Kong Vase, in this case with the same horse he guided to victory two years back, Glory Vase (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). European raider Pyledriver (GB) (Harbour Watch {Ire}) made a bold bid in upper stretch, but couldn't quite see it out, while Aga Khan homebred Ebaiyra (Distorted Humor) turned in a cracking effort to be third.

Glory Vase stepped away neatly and eased down onto the fence while tossing his head about, as Reliable Team (NZ) (Reliable Man {GB}) lobbed them along with mild pressure from Stay Foolish (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) with a circuit to travel. Settled on the back of defending champion Mogul (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) rounding the first bend at the 1600 metres, Glory Vase switched off well as the speed remained even up front. Cont. p7

Unhurried into the final half-mile, Glory Vase was set alight by Moreira off the home corner and had Pyledriver to catch after the latter claimed the front-runners in upper stretch. Pyledriver pinched what appeared to be a commanding advantage with a bit more than a furlong to gallop, but Glory Vase had the better late kick and raced away to a popular score.

"I had a smooth run, going to the fence and saving ground," said Moreira. "I just made sure I got into the clear and I know he's a very strong horse at the finish and there was not a fight. He has proven to be the best horse today."

Of the valiant runner-up, Martin Dwyer said: "Really pleased, good run but I think the winner is very good."

Glory Vase | HKJC

Only lightly raced, with now 17 starts nearing the end of his 6-year-old campaign, Glory Vase made his seasonal debut in the 2000-metre G2 Kinko Sho Mar. 14, finishing a close fourth before traveling back to Hong Kong to round out a Japanese exacta behind Loves Only You (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the FWD QE II Cup the following month. He would have taken plenty of benefit from his lone run since, a third in the G2 Sankei Sho All Comers S. Sept. 26 in which he made multiple moves and ran right through the line.

Pedigree Notes...

Glory Vase has a twice-raced 3-year-old half-sister named Ohagi (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) and his yearling half-brother by Heart's Cry (Jpn)--already named Ezo Daimon (Jpn)--sold to Susumu Fujita for ¥165 million (about $1,496,804) at this year's JRHA Select Sale. Mejiro Tsubone foaled another colt by Heart's Cry this year and was most recently bred to the late Duramente (Jpn).

EPIPHANEIA FILLY LANDS GROUP 1 AT HANSHIN by Heather Anderson

Circle of Life (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}) became the third Group 1 winner for her sire in the G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies at Hanshin on Sunday. A third-generation homebred for Masatake Iida of Chiyoda Farm, the bay was also the race's 4-1 number three pick and likely sewed up 2021 Japanese Champion Juvenile Filly honours.

Near the tail of the field as Dark Page (Jpn) (Dark Angel {Ire}) zipped through a solid half-mile in :46.40, she began to make up ground with 1000 metres remaining. Camped six deep as the field reached the stretch, she spun even wider out into the centre of the course for her bid, and overhauled the leaders in the final 25 metres for a half-length win. A trio of horses had briefly appeared to have the race at their mercy late, but Lovely Your Eyes (Jpn) (Logotype {Jpn}) settled for second, with G3 Fantasy S. victress Water Navillera (Jpn) (Silver State {Jpn}) third, the same margin back. Race favourite Namur (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) closed resolutely with a rails run, but could not master the top three and was a neck behind in fourth. Cont. p8

"She was great today, she had a good break, and we had a smooth trip," said Mirco Demuro. "We went wide at the stretch but the track was really good on the outside and the horses (in previous races of the day) seemed to stretch well along that path. My filly has closed well over the smooth track so I trusted her to make it and indeed she exhibited strong finishing speed. I was certain in the last 200 meters that she would win. I've ridden her since her debut and she really takes it in her stride in new surroundings and unfamiliar tracks so she has plenty of energy to use in the race. I'm sure she can further extend her distance in future races so I'm really looking forward that too."

Third in a Niigata newcomers' race over 1800 metres when unveiled in August, the bay graduated cut back to 1600 metres at Nakayama on Sept. 20. She captured her first black-type race, the G3 Artemis S. at Tokyo on Oct. 30.

Pedigree Notes

Already one of five black-type winners (four group) for her 11-year-old sire, Circle of Life joins MG1SWs and Classic scorers Daring Tact (Jpn) (2020 Japanese Fillies Triple Crown Winner) and Efforia (Jpn) (2021 Japanese St. Leger Winner) as Group 1 progeny of the Shadai resident.

The fourth foal, fourth runner and third winner out of the triple winner Sea Breeze Life, Circle of Life has yearling and weanling Declaration of War half-siblings. After producing a colt in 2020 and a filly this term, the dam returned to Declaration of War this spring. Circle of Life's third dam, Star My Life (Storm Cat), was a half-sister to American Horse of the Year and MG1SW Lady's Secret (Secretariat). She was purchased for $350,000 out of the Keeneland July Sale in 1995 by Iida prior to winning one of six starts in her adopted country, a 1000-metre dirt maiden in 1997.
