BAFFERT DERBY HOPEFULS MOVING TO OTHER TRAINERS

Messier | Horsephotos

Four of Bob Baffert's GI Kentucky Derby prospects will be transferred to other trainers, according to a press release issued by Baffert Thursday morning.

'TDN Rising Stars' Messier (Empire Maker) and Doppelganger (Into Mischief) and McLaren Vale (Gun Runner) are being sent to trainer Tim Yakteen, and will remain in Southern California. Blackadder (Quality Road) has already left California and will be sent to the barn of Rodolphe Brissett in Kentucky.

Yakteen is a longtime former assistant of Baffert's, having last worked for him in 2004.

Under the suspension imposed upon Baffert by Churchill Downs stemming from Medina Spirit's betamethasone positive in the 2021 Derby, the four horses would not have been eligible to earn Kentucky Derby qualifying points or to race in the Derby had they remained with Baffert.

All four are owned in partnership by the conglomerate nicknamed The Avengers, which includes SF Bloodstock, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables et al.

"The most important thing to me is that Messier, Doppelganger, McLaren Vale, and Blackadder--some of the top talents in racing this year--are able to compete," said Baffert

"I encouraged the owners to move them, not only because it is best for these horses and their future in racing but also for fans of the sport who are excited to watch them run. I know that they are in good hands training with Tim and Rudy, and I look forward to cheering them on," Baffert added. Cont. p3

FASIG ADDS APRIL DIGITAL SELECTED SALE

After launching their digital platform last week, Fasig-Tipton has added an April Digital Selected Sale set for Apr. 21-26. Nominations will close Apr. 14, although the company will still accept approved selected nominations after that date.

"We were very pleased with the debut of our digital platform earlier this week," said Leif Aaron, Fasig-Tipton's Director of Digital Sales. "We received positive feedback from both buyers and sellers about both the platform and quality of offerings. They conveyed to us their desire to see more Fasig Digital auctions in the near term, which was highly encouraging. We also received a number of helpful suggestions on how to improve the platform, adjustments that will be implemented for this upcoming April auction."

Fasig-Tipton's March Digital Selected Sale concluded this past Tuesday with 10 offerings sold for a gross of $856,000, an average price of $85,600 and a median price of $55,000.

BAFFERT, ZEDAN ESCALATE APPEALS 3

Trainer Bob Baffert and owner Amr Zedan filed motions with the Kentucky Court of Appeals Thursday in an attempt to legally block a series of looming penalties related to the equine drug positive rulings of Medina Spirit in the 2021 GI Kentucky Derby.

Reached by phone Thursday, SF's Tom Ryan said that the decision came at the behest of Baffert.

"Bob was very influential in this decision," he said. "He felt these horses were primed to take on the challenges ahead in the next round of Derby preps, and Bob felt strongly that for the horses--first and foremost--and for the sport that if these horses have the level of talent they believe they have it's only right that they have a berth in the starting gate the first Saturday in May. The Kentucky Derby is an important race."

Messier, winner of the GIII Robert B. Lewis S. in dominating fashion, is expected to go next in the GI Runhappy Santa Anita Derby Apr. 9 at Santa Anita; McLaren Vale, third in the GII San Vicente S., will likely head to the same race, said Ryan. Doppelganger, coming off a second-place finish in the Mar. 5 GII San Felipe S., is being pointed to the Apr. 2 GI Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn.

"The Santa Anita Derby will probably be the best prep of the season," said Ryan. "McLaren Vale is a big, 16' 3", 1,300-pound colt and he's quite claustrophobic. We tried to put him on an airplane to Arkansas and he didn't tolerate it, so he'll probably stay home and run there."

The Arkansas Derby was also once under consideration for Messier.

"Part of the decision was would Doppelganger or Messier go there," said Ryan. "The right thing to do is to give them individual targets. He's a very nice colt, and it feels like he's come out of his last race very well and is moving forward. Johnny [Velazquez] will ride."

Blackadder, who broke his maiden on the dirt and won the El Camino Real Derby at Golden Gate on synthetic, will either target the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland Apr. 9 on the former or the Apr. 2 Jeff Ruby Steaks at Turfway on the latter.

"He's a versatile colt, bred to go on both surfaces," said Ryan, noting that the team was probably leaning toward the Turfway race.

As for the long-term future of the horses, Ryan said he couldn't predict if they would return to Baffert or stay in their new barns.

"This is week by week," he said. "It's a big decision. For today, we'll continue to monitor the situation as time unfolds. We'll see what happens."

Baffert and his legal team have filed suit against Churchill Downs over the ban, along with Churchill CEO Alex Rankin.

BAFFERT, ZEDAN ESCALATE APPEALS TO HIGHER KENTUCKY COURT by T.D. Thornton

Trainer Bob Baffert and owner Amr Zedan filed motions with the Kentucky Court of Appeals on Thursday in an attempt to legally block a series of looming penalties related to the equine drug positive rulings of Medina Spirit in the 2021 GI Kentucky Derby.

The most severe of those sanctions is a 90-day suspension for Baffert that is set to start Apr. 4.

The Mar. 24 filing came barely 72 hours after a lower court rejected Baffert and Zedan's plea for a stay or temporary injunction that would have kept the suspension and a $7,500 fine for Baffert, plus the forfeiture of Zedan's purse winnings, from going into effect while the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (KHRC) appeals process plays out.

The KHRC has a history of routinely granting stays while cases are under appeal, but it didn't in Baffert and Zedan's instance, which dates to now-deceased Medina Spirit's betamethasone positive in last year's Derby.

"Here, the KHRC has refused to follow standard procedure and stay the Stewards Rulings pending appeal," court documents stated. "In fact, in its history, the KHRC has never denied a trainer's request to stay implementation of preliminary stewards penalties while those rulings are appealed. Never. Not once. Until now. This fact was recognized by the Franklin Circuit Court, but the Court erroneously refused to grant a stay... Absent a stay of the Stewards Rulings before April 4, 2022, the Plaintiffs will suffer immediate and irreparable harm."

Separately on Thursday, Baffert publicly disclosed that four of his top Derby candidates are in the process of being transferred to other trainers so they can try and earn qualifying points and enter the Derby.

Even if Baffert prevails in this Court of Appeals attempt, he is still barred from having horses qualify for and run in the Derby based on a separate, private-party prohibition issued by the gaming corporation that owns Churchill Downs. But Baffert is also fighting that banishment in federal court and seeking a speedy ruling that could let him participate in the Derby while that litigation plays out.

Thursday's documents stated that the Franklin Circuit Court "abused its discretion in disregarding the immense and irreparable prejudice" to Baffert with regard to his pending suspension, offering four planks to that argument.

"First, the lower court failed to appreciate the purpose of the voluminous case precedent holding that missed professional sporting events are irreparable injuries for purposes of temporary injective relief," the documentation stated. "According to the Circuit Court, those cases are inapplicable because 'Baffert is not an athlete,' whose career is 'subject to a small window of eligibility or period of peak performance.'

"This is misguided even on the Court's own terms. Baffert is 69 years old; not unlike an ordinary professional athlete, Baffert's window of future opportunities is similarly limited.... There is no way to remediate Baffert's lost opportunity to participate in the prestigious races that define his reputation and the success of his career."

The documentation continued: "Second, the lower court substantially erred in concluding that 'any harm that Baffert will suffer from not participating in the 2022 Triple Crown or other races during his suspension will result in monetary loss' and thus are not sufficiently irreparable injuries. [This mischaracterizes] the fact that money damages are typically completely quantifiable and thus, reflect adequate remedies on appeal...

"Baffert's income from racing is almost entirely linked to a horse's performance in a given race. There is simply no way to conclusively determine how his horses would have performed in the races taking place during his suspension. Missing out on the prestigious Triple Crown races (and many others) in 2022 is irreparable harm to a trainer like Baffert as the opportunity to compete in them can never be regained and the lost opportunity is not subject to remuneration," the documentation stated.

The legal filings raised two other arguments related to the alleged abuse of discretion: That "the lower court similarly overlooks the extreme harm to Baffert's entire livelihood if [he is] forced to immediately serve the suspension," and that the Circuit Court "abused its discretion in failing to recognize that forcing Baffert to immediately serve the suspension defeats the entire purpose of his appeal."

The documentation summed up by alleging that "the Circuit Court misframed the issue and misunderstood the scope" of its own review.

"[Baffert and Zedan] are not, as the Circuit Court contended, attempting to 'force [the KHRC] to automatically issue stays.' Movants merely contend that when the KHRC departs from its universal practice; it must do so for valid reasons based on evidence on the record.

"In other words, the KHRC must apply the same standard that has been applied to every medication positive case to date,' the documentation stated.

Aaron took some time to talk to the TDN about what went right and what they learned from their March 22 Selected Digital Auction.

"Overall, the first sale was a success," he said. "We had users from all over the globe looking at the horses online. We had a substantial number of registered bidders who were serious buyers. They were looking at every level and type of horse. It was interesting to me that the most affordable horse on the site had the most bids, which shows me that there is a real hunger for ready-to-run racehorses as well as other segments of the market."

The short time frame to assemble the catalogue proved to be the biggest obstacle, he said. "I think the timing of the sale was always going to be the biggest hurdle for Fasig-Tipton to overcome. We announced we were having our first sale Feb. 28, and we had a little over one week to gather the catalogue. The quality of the catalogue that was put together showed the strength of the Fasig-Tipton team as a whole. We had a marketing campaign that made everyone aware what was happening and we were able to facilitate a really healthy digital auction for our sellers and our buyers. To me, it showed a real desire for owners to be able to buy and sell when the time was right. As Kiki Courtelis of Town and Country Farm said about the digital auction, `The best time to sell is when someone wants to buy.'"

And what did they learn, he was asked?

"We had a lot of input from buyers, sellers, consignors and veterinarians," Aaron replied. "We are currently making those changes to cater to the entirety of our core customer base. Digital.fasigtipton.com is a place for them and we have to make sure that they are comfortable on our platform. The longer this goes on, the more comfortable people will be with it. I look in the TDN today and see that a major stud farm in Australia, Arrowfield is having a broodmare reduction on a digital platform in Australia. There is no reason that sort of thing can't be done here. As I said when we released the platform, this is the place for people with ideas and I want to encourage that entrepreneurial spirit. We are going to stick to our plan of recruiting quality horses that all segments of the market will want."

KEY RACE FOR TURNERLOOSE IN FAIR GROUND OAKS

Turnerloose claims the GII Rachel Alexandra at 17-1 odds
Hodges Photography

by Katie Petrunyak

It's a tough spot, going up against Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks, but as owner Ike Thrash puts it, it's not every day that you get to take on the Eclipse Award-winning champion 2-year-old filly.

So Ike and his wife Dawn are eager to make the two-hour trip from their home in Mississippi to Fair Grounds on Saturday to watch their filly Turnerloose (Nyquist) go up against a talented field of sophomore fillies vying for points on the road to the Kentucky Oaks. Thrash is confident in his filly's potential upside.

"It wouldn't surprise me if she improved in her second time on dirt," Thrash said.

The Brad Cox-trained dark bay pulled off the upset in the GII Rachel Alexandra S. last month, stalking along the inside with Florent Geroux aboard and digging in down the lane to win by half a length.

Turnerloose was successful on the grass as a juvenile. After winning on debut, she claimed the Aristocrat Juvenile Fillies S. and placed third in the GII Jessamine S. Following an unplaced finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf and a brief layoff, she returned to the racetrack for her sophomore campaign in the Rachel Alexandra.

"Of all the crazy stuff we've tried, running for the first time on dirt after a layoff in a Grade II is not the recommended path, but it worked out this time," Thrash joked. "She had to tap on the breaks a few times and I was just sitting there the whole time with one eye closed hoping that she would like the dirt, but she ran really well."

Ike and Dawn Thrash have been involved in horse racing for 35 years. They've made it to the winner's circle with several Grade I winners, including GI Arkansas Derby winner Line of David (Lion Heart), who took them to the 2010 GI Kentucky Derby, 2015 GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. winner Her Emmynency (Successful Appeal) and 2010 GI Debutante S. victress Tell a Kelly (Tapit).

Today, the Thrash racing stable includes eight horses at the track and another nine 2-year-olds training with Paul Sharp in Ocala. While the Thrashes were prominent owners in California for many years, they have since relocated their stable to circuits closer to home.

The couple takes pride in the fact that they pick out all of their racing prospects themselves, attending the various sales and making up their short lists together.

"I always say that I know a lot about horse racing and Dawn knows more about horses," Thrash explained. "She zeros in on a couple and I just try to get a short list and pick the ones that the universe lets you have. For us, 99% of it is how they are physically. I'm sure that is the opposite of what other people with good sense do, but the last thing we look at is the page. I'm happy if they have a good family, but I'd rather buy a nice individual."

Turnerloose was the exception to this rule. At the Keeneland September Sale, the Nyquist filly had a nice physical, but also an impressive female family as the granddaughter of GISW Game Face (Menifee). They were expecting that she might be out of their budget, but were surprised when they had the winning $50,000 bid.

"You always think that you're paying too much or that the world knows more than you do, but this was one of those times where I looked at my wife when they brought the hammer down and thought that we must have missed something," Thrash recalled.

Turnerloose was never a standout during her early training, so it wasn't until she made her debut that her connections realized her potential.

"Some of them just don't jump out of you," Thrash said. "We had another Nyquist filly who we thought was prettier than Turnerloose, so every time we had a conversation [with Cox], it was about the other Nyquist filly. Now Turnerloose could beat her for fun, so it's funny how it worked out."

As the daughter of an A.P. Indy mare, debuting the filly on the turf was far from the original plan.

"When she got to Ellis Park, the only choices we had were five furlongs on dirt or a mile on the grass," Thrash explained. "People ask us why we ran her on grass, well it was the only thing there. Then when they had the race with the big purse at Kentucky Downs [the Aristocrat Juvenile Fillies S.], you feel silly not to go there."

Rolling the dice to let the filly try the dirt paid off, and now Turnerloose could take her owners to their third Kentucky Oaks. Their first was with Dawn After Dawn (Successful Appeal), who ran fourth in the 2007 edition, and in 2018 they were represented by Kelly's Humor (Midnight Lute).

"The year before Dawn After Dawn ran in the Oaks the horse paid like $40 to win, but of course we picked to run our first Oaks when Rags to Riches was there and I don't think I could have beat her with my car," Thrash said with a laugh. "I've always said that if we are going to win one of these, it's more likely to be the Oaks because we buy 10 fillies for every colt."

Like all of the horses in the Thrash racing stable, Turnerloose is named after a member of the family.

"Turner is my grandson," Thrash explained. "We have four children and their spouses and then 12 grandchildren, so we don't run out of names."

Thrash said that if they can break even in this business while having some fun, campaigning the occasional standout runner is an added bonus.

"When our horse Her Emmynency sold for over $1 million a few years ago, my CPA called and told me that I almost did it. After 30 years in the business, I was only $8,000 behind. I told him that was great; it was a lot better than I expected. It's a tough business and we try as hard as we can to break even, but it's been a lot of fun. You don't win many of those big races. We've done well over the years, but it's always exciting to get there."

LAOBAN CO-OWNER SUES MORTALITY INSURERS OVER ALLEGED 'WRONGFUL DENIAL' by T.D. Thornton

A co-owner of the deceased stallion Laoban (Uncle Mo) is suing a collective of insurance providers in an alleged wrongful denial of coverage case for failing to pay out on mortality policies in the aftermath of the 8-year-old's sudden death 10 months ago.

The civil complaint was filed Mar. 22 in Kentucky's Fayette Circuit Court. Paulick Report first broke the story.

According to the court filing, Cypress Creek Equine, LLC, wants the defendants--North American Specialty Insurance Company, XL Specialty Insurance Company and Underwriters at Lloyd's, London and Lloyd's Kentucky, Inc.--to pay an undisclosed sum that includes mortality coverage, compensatory damages, court costs and attorney fees.

According to the lawsuit, "On May 24, 2021, the healthy stallion Laoban, partially owned by Cypress, died unexpectedly in Fayette County, Kentucky, after being given vitamin and mineral supplements."

Laoban, whose only win from nine starts came in the 2016 GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga, retired after that season with earnings of $526,250 and stood at Sequel Stallions in New York. As TDN's Sid Fernando recently reported, Laoban "initially stood for $7,500, but he was a hit with his first 2-year-olds--ending up second on the 2020 first-crop list behind Uncle Mo's Nyquist--and was moved to WinStar in Kentucky for the 2021 season at a $25,000 fee."

The sire of 10 black-type winners, Laoban's first crop included Grade I winner Simply Ravishing and Grade II winner and multiple Grade I-placed Keepmeinmind.

Laoban is also the sire of Un Ojo, who upset the GII Rebel S. last month at 75-1 odds. That one-eyed gelding is currently listed as an "on the bubble" horse in the most recent TDN Top 12 rankings for the GI Kentucky Derby, but he is third on the official qualifying points list. Cypress Creek Equine owns Un Ojo.

"At the time of the death, Cypress was insured for the death by mortality insurance policies issued and/or adjusted by the Insurers," the filing stated.

"In a letter dated August 4, 2021, the Insurers wrongfully denied Cypress mortality coverage and therefore an actual controversy exists pursuant to [Kentucky state law]," the filing stated.

"The denial was alternatively based on provision(s) in the policies which are ambiguous and/or must be construed to afford coverage to Cypress pursuant to its reasonable expectations of coverage," the filing stated.

The defendants could not be reached for comment prior to deadline for this story. They have 21 days from the filing of the suit to respond in court.

FORMER CHRB CHAIRMAN WINNER DIES

Courtesy California Horse Racing Board

Chuck Winner, an internationally recognized expert in public affairs, crisis communications, and campaign management, who served on the California Horse Racing Board from 2012 to 2019, five of those years as chairman, passed away Thursday morning, Mar. 24, from natural causes at the age of 81.

Mr. Winner guided the CHRB through difficult times, most notably during the winter of 2019 when a rash of equine fatalities at Santa Anita Park attracted worldwide scrutiny. He led the push for improved safety measures to protect horses and riders, which resulted in greater equine health and welfare throughout California.

After advising Governor Gavin Newsom's office that he would not be seeking reappointment after he completed his second term as a racing commissioner on July 26, 2019, Mr. Winner said, "It's been a challenging yet fulfilling seven years. My colleagues and I have faced some challenging and critical issues. I hope that we have made a positive difference."

Mr. Winner is survived by his wife, Annie, and four children: Justyn, Ethan, Nicole, and Zach. Private funeral arrangements are pending.

CHRB ADDRESSING RECENT LOS AL DEATHS

The California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) issued a release Thursday addressing a spate of recent deaths at Los Alamitos. The track is currently holding its traditional mixed-breed meet of predominantly Quarter Horses and lower-level races with Thoroughbreds.

The CHRB release read as follows:

"The California Horse Racing Board has been in contact with personnel and executives at Los Alamitos Race Course concerning the four recent catastrophic injuries of horses at that facility:

"The 6-year-old mare Ballet Royalty finished fifth (last) in the first race at Los Alamitos on March 12. She galloped back and was unsaddled, but then she collapsed while walking off. This is termed a 'sudden death.' As always, a postmortem examination will be performed to provide more insight.

"The 3-year-old filly Fastidious pulled up before the wire in the seventh race March 19 at Los Alamitos. The injury required euthanasia.

"The 5-year-old horse Stolen Lives pulled up while galloping out after the ninth race at Los Alamitos on March 20. The jockey dismounted, then the horse was vanned off. The injury required euthanasia.

"The unraced 3-year-old colt See You At Front sustained an injury while galloping during training on the morning of March 23, requiring euthanasia.

"In recent days Los Alamitos has taken four steps to help improve safety: (1) Eliminated the breaking bar in quarter-horse races; (2) Eliminated high toe grabs on hind shoes; (2) Consulted a racing surface expert regarding the track; and (4) Contacted the University of California, Davis, to fund a study of lumbar fractures in quarter horses.

"These safety measures are particularly applicable to a lumbar (back) fracture, which led to the death of Fastidious. However, it is believed that breaking bars and toe grabs could be a contributing factor to lower leg injuries, which resulted in the deaths of Stolen Lives and See You At Front. Sudden deaths (Ballet Royalty) are a phenomenon among horses (and humans) throughout the world and are the subject of numerous ongoing studies.

"The CHRB will continue to closely monitor and scrutinize activities at Los Alamitos and will take appropriate action as needed."

T.I.P. REVEALS 2021 WINNERS

The Jockey Club Thoroughbred Incentive Program (T.I.P.) has revealed the winners and other placings from its 2021 performance awards program and the T.I.P./United States Polo Association (USPA) annual polo awards.

The awards recognize Thoroughbreds that have accumulated the most points at all horse shows through a variety of disciplines and experience levels. In 2021, 726 Thoroughbreds from 42 states and four provinces competed in more than 15,000 classes, divisions, and events. Division awards were calculated in 14 discipline categories, 92 discipline divisions, and eight junior rider divisions.

In addition, Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA) sponsored awards for a green OTTB category, the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) sponsored an award for horses adopted from TAA-accredited organizations, and the Retired Racehorse Project (RRP) provided awards for top-placing RRP Makeover alumni. The T.I.P./USPA Thoroughbred Polo Awards were also added in 2020 and awarded for the second year.

The complete list of winners and participants is available at tjctip.com/PerformanceAwardsWinners.

Performance awards will be available again in 2022 and will be based on show results from Dec. 1 of last year through Nov. 30, 2022.

RISING EMPIRE (c, 4, Empire Maker--Smart Farming, by Smart Strike), a distant third behind subsequent GSW & MGISP Following Sea (Runhappy) sprinting at Oaklawn last April, closed out his tenure for Larry Jones with a fifth-place finish at Churchill June 3. Transferred to Brendan Walsh and stretched to two turns, he broke through off the bench over track and trip last time Feb. 13. The $700,000 OBS April graduate (:10 1/5), off at odds of 8-5 to make it two straight, rated behind Willy Mc (Overanalyze) and narrow 2019 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile runner-up Anneau d'Or (Medaglia d'Oro) in a joint third. Racing under a nice hold rounding the far turn back a spot in fourth, he swung to the outside in the stretch and rolled past Koolhaus (Nyquist) to win by 1 3/4 lengths. The winner is a half to Rocketry (Hard Spun), MGSW, $811,577. Rising Empire is his dam's last reported foal. Sales history: $275,000 Ylg '19 KEESEP; $700,000 2yo '20 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-1, $78,800. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

CANDY LANDING (r, 3, Twirling Candy--Pearl Bay, by Rush Bay), a sharp debut winner at 17-1 at Churchill Downs last June, got his second career win after four consecutive off-the-board finishes while making his turf debut here. Candy Landing was a non-competitive sixth in both the GIII Sanford S. at Saratoga July 17 and Runhappy Ellis Park Juvenile S. Aug. 15. He followed with back-to-back fourth-place finishes Jan. 15 and Feb. 12 at the Fair Grounds. Adding blinkers for this, the 11-1 shot pressed Prayforpeace (Liam's Map) through the opening half-mile. He challenged for command as they straightened, fought his way to the front while getting floated out down the stretch and had 2 1/4 lengths over Burninhunkoflove (Munnings) at the wire. It was another head back Prayforpeace in third. Candy Landing has a 2-year-old half-sister by Cross Traffic and a yearling half-brother by Classic Empire. DEPENDABLE HUKUM SPEAKS VOLUMES FOR BURROWS

By Emma Berry

DUBAI, UAE––In the week building up to Dubai's major race day, a growing throng of owners and trainers arrive at Meydan to see their horses in action, and perhaps shoot the breeze with the press pack gathered trackside. At a quiet remove behind the back stretch is the training track favoured by the European horses, with a grass circuit and a Tapeta surface, each to be enjoyed without the hullabaloo of the main racecourse, and with few onlookers present.

It is here on Thursday morning that Sheikha Hissa Hamdan Al Maktoum arrives with Shadwell's racing manager Angus Gold and advisor Richard Hills to watch her homebred Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) have his penultimate exercise under Jim Crowley before his start in the G1 Longines Dubai Sheema Classic on Saturday. It is a poignant moment, as a year ago to the day the racing world was saddened by the death of Sheikha Hissa's father, Sheikh Hamdan, a man revered and admired across the industry as one of loyalty and modesty. The latter is borne out by the fact that his many runners over his 40-year involvement with horseracing ran in the name of Hamdan Al Maktoum--his regal title dropped for his involvement in the sport he loved the most. Cont. p2

NEWBLOODS SET FOR SATURDAY LAUNCH

By Tom Frary

Thursday saw the final fields take shape for Saturday's flat turf season prologues at Doncaster and The Curragh and with them the sensation of new winds careening the established order. While the hardened tifosi look to the established pillar of the Town Moore fixture, the Lincoln Handicap, the breeding merchants will pivot toward the arrival of untested and unproven stock in the card's "Brocklesby" and in the Co. Kildare venue's opening maiden. These two juvenile medleys contain the first runners for some of Europe's most enticing first-season sires, with the Brocklesby featuring progeny by Expert Eye (GB), Havana Grey (Ire) and Massaat (Ire) and the Curragh's curtain-raiser boasting a daughter of Sioux Nation.

And a glance back over the many tributes paid to Sheikh Hamdan this time last year is a reminder of how frequently the word loyal occurred when those closely associated with him, particularly his trainers, recalled their relationship.

It is not difficult to imagine that Sheikh Hamdan appreciated and rewarded loyalty in others. Over the years when visiting Sir Michael Stoute's Freemason Lodge in Newmarket he would have had many opportunities to witness Stoute's longtime assistant trainer Owen Burrows at work, and when the time came for Burrows to start training under his own name, it was Sheikh Hamdan who installed him as a private trainer, in 2016, at Kingwood House Stables in Lambourn.

Hukum & Jim Crowley on Meydan's training track Thursday
Dubai Racing Club

It is no secret that, with the horses now running under the banner of Shadwell Stable, the operation is significantly smaller than in Sheikh Hamdan's time, and it is a reduction that will be felt by a number of stables. It has precipitated a slight change of scenery for Burrows, his wife Lynn and their two children to Farncombe Down Stables, still in Lambourn, and a smart 40-box yard previously used by Shadwell as a spelling and rehabilitation facility. Though Burrows is now a public trainer, support from the Maktoum family remains, through Sheikh Ahmed, and also his niece Sheikha Hissa, the owner of the regally-bred stable star Hukum.

"I have a huge amount to be thankful to Sheikh Hamdan for, he was such a good man, you only had to hear the way people talked about him," says Burrows a couple of hours after overseeing Hukum's morning exercise alongside his ownership team.

Hukum | Dubai Racing Club

"Like him, Sheikha Hissa is really keen on racing," he adds. "Before Super Saturday she came and watched Hukum a few times and the other morning she came out to the yard and was feeding him Polos. She's very passionate about it, which is brilliant.

"We all understood the operation had to trim right back but it is wonderful to hear that she wants to come to England and go racing. Richard Hills said after the first conversation he had with her that it was just like speaking to a female version of her father and, to me, that is almost the biggest compliment you could give her."

Sheikha Hissa doubtless has much to look forward to this season back in Europe. The five-time Group winner Hukum and his even starrier full-brother Baaeed (GB)--the pair descending from Height Of Fashion (Fr), the bedrock of Sheikh Hamdan's breeding operation--will be at the forefront of her equine team. Hukum has stolen a march on the unbeaten Baaeed so far in 2022 as he has run once and won once, securing his place in the Sheema Classic line-up with his victory in the G2 Dubai City of Gold. He will be one of six runners for the Shadwell Stable on Dubai World Cup night.

Hukum is an important flag-bearer for Burrows. He was his first Royal Ascot winner when landing the King George V S. on only the third start of his life, helping to make Sheikh Hamdan the leading owner at the Royal meeting of 2020. His victory earlier this month at Meydan means that Burrows now boasts a perfect record in Dubai from his sole runner there.

"He's been so consistent, he's always run well," says the trainer, "The Sheema Classic is a very strong race but I think he deserves his chance back in Group 1 company. We've only tried him in it once--in the St Leger as a 3-year-old--and he didn't quite get home. He won over a bit further last year but I never really felt he was going to be a Cup horse; he's got a bit more speed than people give him credit for."

Reflecting on his Super Saturday victory, Burrows adds, "That was obviously massive for me, and also for the whole operation."

"That was the first horse we brought out here since Sheikh Hamdan passed and for him to go and do that was perfect. It was a prep run, and obviously on ratings he was the best horse, but he was drawn 14 of 14 and that made it a but more difficult. I'm glad we decided to come out for that race. I felt it would have been asking a lot to bring him here just a week before the Sheema Classic." Now five, Hukum is exactly the type of horse with which Sir Michael Stoute would have excelled. Having made just two starts at two, he went straight to Royal Ascot for his first run at three. The 12 years spent with Stoute provided a valuable lesson for Burrows, and hopefully through his progressive campaigner he will reap the rewards of that as this season gets properly underway. "Covid interrupted Hukum's 3-year-old season a little bit," Burrows says. "He was rated 91 so he was thrown in for the George V but he got quite badly struck into at Royal Ascot so had to have a bit of time off. "We're under no illusion, we know he has to find seven pounds, but having had a prep run here and some sunshine for three weeks it has brought him forward. I was talking to Richard and Angus yesterday, and we agreed that if we are competitive on Saturday I think it lets us know where we sit back home in England, because these are the best in the world. It will help us to know whether we are looking later in the year--at the King George, or possibly the Arc at the end of the season. It's exciting." On the other side of the world on Saturday, another former Burrows star, the 2000 Guineas runner-up Massaat (Ire), will be represented by his first two runners in the Brocklesby S., the opening 2-year-old race of the British turf season. In the trainer's yard currently, there are 17 juveniles, constituting roughly half the team. There is no son or daughter of Massaat there yet, but the breeze-up sales are just around the corner. "This has to be a building year," he says. "We will be trying to get the numbers back up. There's room to put some more boxes in and I'd love to get up to around 60 horses." Burrows admits that he is not the most tech-savvy pop trainers, and he is currently learning to embrace the joys, and otherwise, of social media. "Being Sir Michael's assistant for all those years, obviously we didn't do that kind of thing," he says with a smile. But even without that association, it is hard to imagine the modest Burrows enjoying the often brash, look-at-me era of Twitter and Instagram. As one who grew up in a National Hunt stable when his father was Head Lad to David 'The Duke' Nicholson, and who then rode as a conditional for such luminaries of the jumping world as Martin Pipe and Josh Gifford, Burrows seems more at home in the school of traditional horsemanship, where the horses do the talking for you. Hukum has already done just this, and it would be no surprise to see him trumpeting his likeable trainer's abilities a little louder through this year.

Juddmonte's Expert Eye was precocious enough himself and being by Acclamation (GB) from the immediate family of the top-class 2-year-old Special Duty (GB) (Hennessy) it would be no surprise to see the Ian Williams-trained I Still Have Faith (GB) out of the fast The Thrill Is Gone (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) supply a champagne launch at Doncaster. Mickley Stud's Massaat has a pair in the same race in Evolicatt (GB)--from the David Evans yard always to be feared and respected in equal measure in these early speed tests--and the Adrian Nicholls-trained Mascapone (GB), while that also applies to Whitsbury Manor Stud's Havana Grey. His two are the geldings Knowwhatimeanharry (GB), from the Bill Turner stable successful in the Brocklesby in 2013, and Rocking Ends (GB) who represents Brett Johnson's Epsom establishment.

EUROPEAN NEWS

IRISH EBF CONTINUES €2.6 MILLION SPONSORSHIP

The Irish European Breeders' Fund will continue with their record sponsorship of €2.6 million in 2022, bringing the overall contribution to nearly €54 million since the formation of the Irish European Breeders' Fund in 1983. The spend encompasses nearly 500 races, both flat and National Hunt, that will carry EBF conditions throughout the year.

"The owners of every stallion standing in Ireland, big or small, Flat or National Hunt, have contributed to this amount and as chairman, I'd like to thank them for their contributions," Joe Foley, Irish EBF Chairman said. "We worked hard to increase our funding to record levels during the last few years to enable prize-money to remain as high as possible through pandemic times and we're pleased to maintain this contribution this year, when we welcome everyone back to the racetracks of Ireland."

Among events highlighted by the Irish EBF sponsorship are 2-year-old maidens, with 95% of all maiden races carrying EBF conditions and benefitting from added prize-money among the 52 series races worth a total prize-fund of about €1.4 million. The Median Sires Series will feature 26 races while the EBF Auction Series will offer 24 races and two finals, including the Irish EBF Auction Series Final of €120,000 at Naas in October. The €300,000 Irish EBF Ballyhane S., a showcase for median races, will take place on the August Bank Holiday Monday at Naas. Additionally, the support given to National Hunt races includes 22 series races worth over €480,000.

IRE INCENTIVE SCHEME EXPANDED

Richard Fahey, winner of three IRE Incentive vouchers in 2021
John Grossick

The IRE Incentive scheme, an initiative designed to support Irish Thoroughbred breeding, racing and sales, will expand to include over 200 races in Ireland and Britain in 2022, according to Horse Racing Ireland (HRI). The IRE Incentive scheme awards a bonus of €10,000 to owners of Irish-bred winners of selected races across the Irish and British Flat and National Hunt programmes which will be spent on Irish-breds at Irish sales. In its first year, the IRE Incentive scheme awarded over €1,000,000 to over 90 individual owners, contributing to more than €4,000,000 in sales of Irish-breds. Qualifying races in Ireland are 2-year-old fillies' maidens; 2-year-old auction maidens and median auction races; 3-year-old median auction maidens; and National Hunt auction races. Scheme races in Britain include maidens for all sexes; novice races and fillies listed races. The owners of each eligible winner--those carrying the (IRE) suffix and Foal Levy compliant--have until the end of the following year to spend their voucher.

MOLLY DINGWALL APPOINTED HAYDOCK GM

The Jockey Club has appointed Molly Dingwall as the new General Manager of Haydock Park Racecourse. Over four years as the GM of Carlisle, Dingwall played a pivotal role in strengthening ties with the local community and promoting its broad range of racedays, including the unique Ladies' Night fixture each August. Dingwall will take over as GM at Haydock in the coming week during which time The Jockey Club will begin the process to recruit a new General Manager at Carlisle.

Cont.

"Anyone who has met Molly will know the energy, enthusiasm and passion she has for horseracing and I'm really looking forward to her taking over at Haydock Park, which has a catchment area full of really knowledgeable sports fans and loyal racegoers," said Dickon White, North West Regional Director at The Jockey Club. "Running a dual Flat and Jumps track provides extra challenges and Molly's experience of this at Carlisle will prove invaluable as she takes on her new role."

She launched her career with The Jockey Club as a Business Development Executive in 2015 and was appointed Group Trainee General Manager the following year.

ALKUMAIT SPONSORSHIP HEADS FIRST 2YO RACE OF IRISH SEASON

As part of the IRE Incentive Scheme, Curragh hosts the first juvenile race of the Irish racing season Saturday. The five-furlong test is sponsored by Castlefield Stud on behalf of G2 Mill Reef S. winner Alkumait (GB) (Showcasing {GB}--Suelita {GB}, by Dutch Art {GB}), who stands at the nursery for €5,000. Highlighting the sponsorship, the connections of the first season sire are offering a €100,000 bonus to the connections of the first black-type winner from the stallion's first crop of 2-year-olds.

"We have long-term ambitions, and we are going to be there to support breeders in the ring and on the racetrack," said Jack Tuohy, who was behind the deal. "This is evident at the Curragh on Saturday where we are sponsoring the opening 2-year-old maiden of the year we are putting the foundations in place to make Alkumait a long-term success."

Sheikh Abdulla bin Khalifa Al Thani had already enjoyed success in the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin and in two renewals of the H.H. The Emir's Trophy with French King and in his full-brother Mutabahi he has another potential highflyer following this dynamic European comeback. Runner-up to Outbox (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the latest edition of that Doha contest Feb. 19, the chestnut was always travelling comfortably in the wake of the leader before taking control 500 metres from the post and stretching clear to break 35 seconds for the final three furlongs. The winner is currently the last-known foal out of the listed-winning dam, who is a half to the G2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 1 scorer Military Law (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}).

2nd-Saint-Cloud, €27,000, Debutantes, 3-24, 3yo, c/g, 10fT, 2:11.16, g/s.
DEMARCAY (GB) (c, 3, Postponed {Ire}--Europium {GB}, by Frankel {GB}), a G1 Grand Prix de Paris entry, raced worse than mid-division early racing wide before moving with ease to shadow the leader Ingres (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Earning the advantage two out, the 2-1 favourite looked set to be swamped by Mascagni (Fr) (Siyouni {Ire}) a furlong later but kept finding to inch back in front near the line and record a nose verdict. Ingres, the first foal out of the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois, G1 Sun Chariot S. and G1 Prix Rothschild heroine Esoterique (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), held every chance on the lead in early straight but failed to find the extra gears of the first three home. The winner is the first foal out of a half to the G3 Autumn S. scorer Commemorative (GB) (Zamindar). From the family of the G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine Promising Lead (GB) (Danehill) and similarly top-class Visit (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) descended from the remarkable foundation mare Sookera, her 2-year-old filly Warrior Maid (GB) is by Sea the Moon (Ger) while she also has a yearling daughter of Calyx (GB). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,500. Video, sponsored by TVG.
O/B-Juddmonte Farms Ltd (GB); T-Francis-Henri Graffard.

Making up ground wide approaching the home turn, the chestnut produced a sustained surge out deep to collar Silver Sign (Fr) (Reliable Man {GB}) close home and score a shade snugly by 3/4 of a length. The dam, who proved a classy performer in her native Germany when capturing the prestigious G3 Preis der Winterkonigin and G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen prior to running second to Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G1 Preis der Diana, produced a trio of black-type performers from her first three foals. They were the listed-placed pair Djumay (Ger) (Shamardal) and Duchess of Danzig (Ger), by Sea the Moon's sire Sea the Stars (Ire), and also Djukon (GB) (Jukebox Jury {Ire}), who was runner-up in the G3 Deutsches St Leger and G3 Colin Stephen Quality. From the family of the G3 Greenham S. winner and G1 2000 Guineas third Barathea Guest (GB) (Barathea {Ire}), her 2-year-old colt is by Almanzor (Fr). Sales history: €160,000 Ylg '20 ARQSEP.
