NYRA HEARING OFFICER RECOMMENDS TWO-YEAR SUSPENSION FOR BAFFERT

Bob Baffert | Benoit

by Bill Finley

Judge O. Peter Sherwood, the retired New York Supreme Court justice who served as the hearing officer in NYRA's dispute with Bob Baffert, has issued his report, recommending that Baffert receive a two-year suspension.

"NYRA has reasonably concluded that it will not condone Baffert's reckless practices, outrageous behavior and substance violations, each of which compromises the integrity of the sport," Sherwood wrote. "I conclude that NYRA has reasonably determined that he should be excluded from the Racetracks for a lengthy period."

The report has been sent to a three-person panel that has been convened to consider whether or not Baffert should be penalized by NYRA. Each side will have 14 days to respond to the report. After the 14 days, the panel will have 10 days to make a final decision.

The panel consists of attorney John Carusone Jr., New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association Executive Director Will Alempijevic and Humberto Chavez, who heads the New York Racetrack Chaplaincy of America program.

TDN WRITERS' ROOM HITS THE ROAD, TALKS SALES WITH TONY LACY

In advance of the April Horses of Racing Age sale, the writers ventured to Keeneland this week for in-person chats with Keeneland's Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy and Grovendale Sales' Chance Timm. Trainer Michael Stidham was also featured on the TDN Writers' Room presented by Keeneland. The upcoming sale features a number of new concepts, including dropping a requirement that horses in the sale be present at Keeneland. The sale will also take place on a racing day, after the conclusion of the card on Friday, the last day of the meet.

"I started almost a year ago and the first thing we did was look at everything so far as how do we better service our clients?" said Lacy, who, along with Timm and Stidham were the Green Group Guests of the Week. "What is the best way to do things? So at Keeneland that embodies everything in the industry."

On May 17, NYRA suspended Baffert, but had to drop the ban when a federal judge ruled that NYRA could not take such steps without first holding a hearing for Baffert or for anyone else the racing organization sought to suspend. Because of its affiliation with the state of New York, NYRA, unlike privately owned tracks like Churchill Downs, does not necessarily have the right to ban someone without due process. Churchill's two-year ban of Baffert is currently in place. He is also currently serving a 90-day suspension handed down by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission. The hearing commenced in January with NYRA attorney Henry Greenberg stating that Baffert had taken a "wrecking ball" to the sport's integrity because of his record of repeated drug violations. NYRA charged that during a 14-month span, Baffert-trained horses tested positive for prohibited medications seven times. The most high-profile offense occurred in the 2021 GI Kentucky Derby in which Medina Spirit (Protonico) tested positive for betamethasone.

NYRA released Sherwood's 54-page report Wednesday.

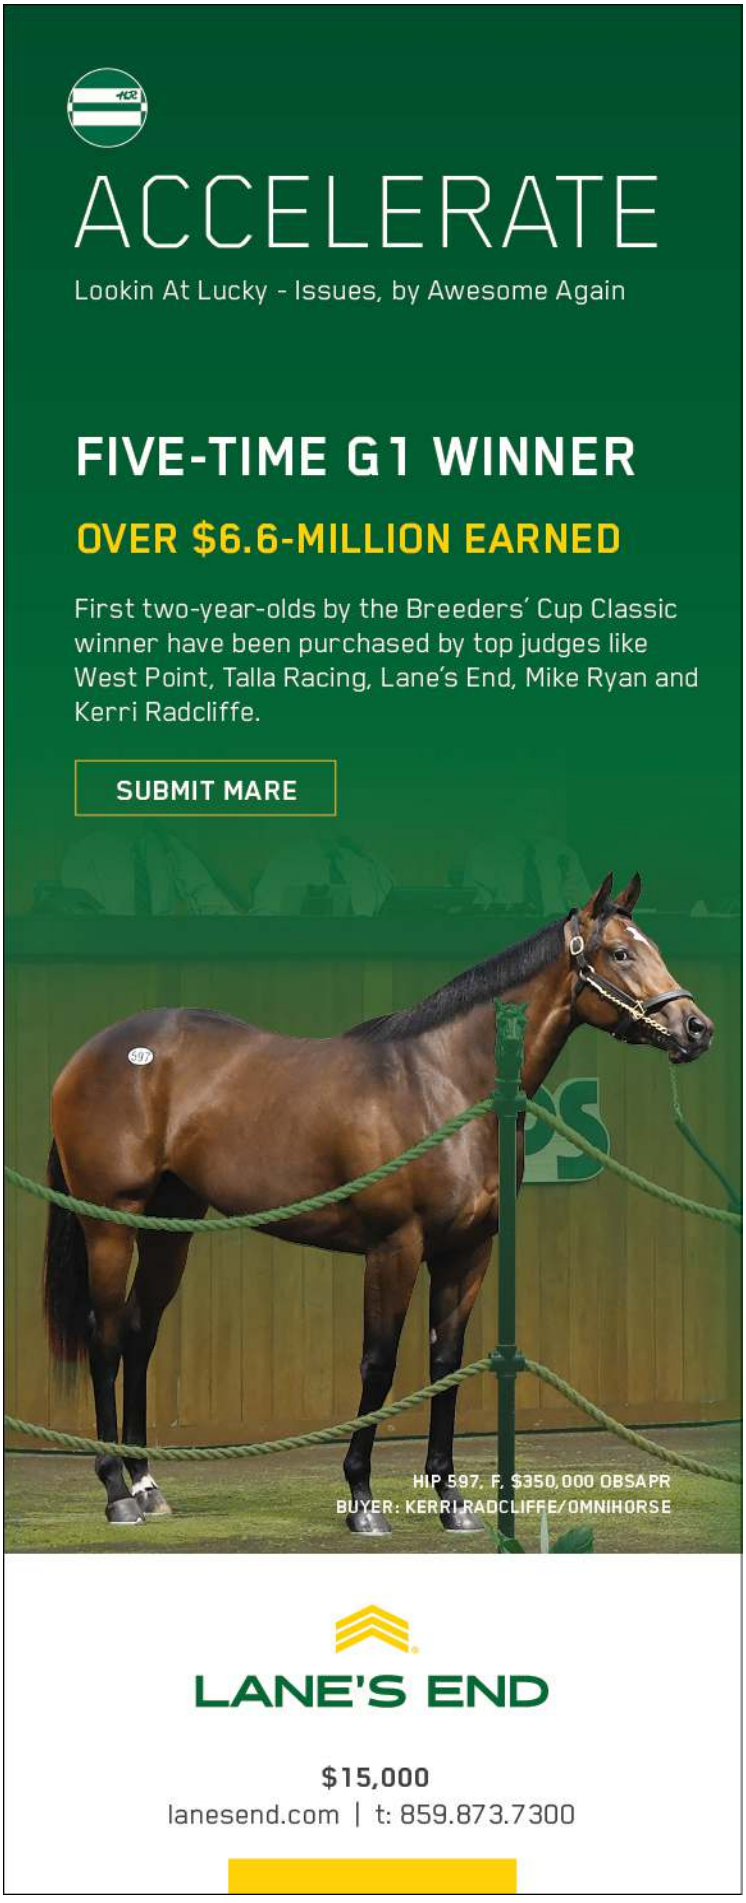
In asking the hearing officer to recommend a suspension for Baffert, NYRA said that his conduct was detrimental to the best interests of racing, the health and safety of the horses and NYRA business operations. Baffert's team countered, arguing that NYRA's characterizations of the offenses were misleading and that NYRA "grossly overstates" the seriousness of the substances involved in the many positive drug tests. Citing expert testimony presented at the hearing, Baffert contended that the substances were not performance-enhancing and would not mask injury.

Sherwood did not seem to give much merit to those arguments or any others made by the Baffert team, writing that NYRA had met its burden of proof in respect to all charges it made against Baffert.

"NYRA maintains (and the record shows) that Baffert has engaged in a pattern and practice of unlawful conduct that has no parallel in the modern history of Thoroughbred racing," Sherwood wrote. "NYRA also proved that each time Baffert was charged with a violation he provided an implausible excuse, and blamed others for conduct that he, as the trainer, was responsible for as a matter of law."

Sherwood agreed with NYRA's contention that a failure to suspend Baffert would have negative consequences for the racing association and the sport in general.

"In NYRA's reasonable judgment, a failure to suspend Baffert could result in public scandal and ultimately a decrease in spectatorship, loss of revenues to the State and NYRA's racetracks and even a decline of Thoroughbred racing as a sport," Sherwood wrote. "I find that NYRA need not continue to suffer Baffert's defaults and to bear the risk of loss of public confidence."



NYRA had proposed that Baffert be banned for “a lengthy period” and did not suggest a specific length of suspension. Citing the Churchill suspension and writing that “Baffert has not established grounds for any shorter period of exclusion at the NYRA Racetracks,” Sherwood recommended the two-year suspension. The panel could give Baffert credit for the 59 days he was suspended before the judge ruled that NYRA had to give him a hearing. Should the panel vote to suspend Baffert, his NYRA ban would go into effect on July 2, following the end of his 90-day suspension issued by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission. That would mean the next running of the GI Belmont S. that he can participate in would be in 2025.

A statement by Clark Brewster, Attorney For Bob Baffert, read: “Despite the fact that Bob has never had a single medication violation in New York, we expected this interim recommendation to the panel, which is not NYRA’s final decision. We will contest this recommendation until we ultimately find a neutral, detached decision-maker that doesn’t rubber stamp the NYRA lawyers’ demands.”

All the sales companies had to make adjustments due to the pandemic, and one was an increased emphasis on online bidding. Once again, in Friday's sale, prospective buyers can bid on their computers from the comforts of their homes.

"The pandemic has forced a lot of innovation that may have taken a lot longer to initiate otherwise," Lacy said. "The horse industry is not something that really embraces change really quickly. So as we have learned from a lot of our customers, they have really appreciated the fact of being able to bid online. They also need to do their homework, so Information transparency is incredibly important. That's why we're trying to be flexible as much as possible and are trying to find ways to make it all convenient. A traditional auction is absolutely something that's not going to go away. But we've got to find a way of modernizing it and finding a way that better suits the modern way of doing business." Timm, who has had many roles in the industry, recently announced that he has joined forces with James Keogh at Grovendale, a Thoroughbred consignment based in Versailles, Kentucky. The April Horses of Racing Sale will mark the first time the newly formed team would be selling horses together. Elsewhere on the show, which is also sponsored by Coolmore, XBTV, Lane's End Farm, West Point Thoroughbreds, Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders and Legacy Bloodstock, writers Joe Bianca, Bill Finley and Jon Green discussed the win by Letruska (Super Saver) in the GI Apple Blossom H. and her prospects for another stellar campaign in 2022. ## LISA GIANNELLI TRIAL BEGINS by Robert Gearty

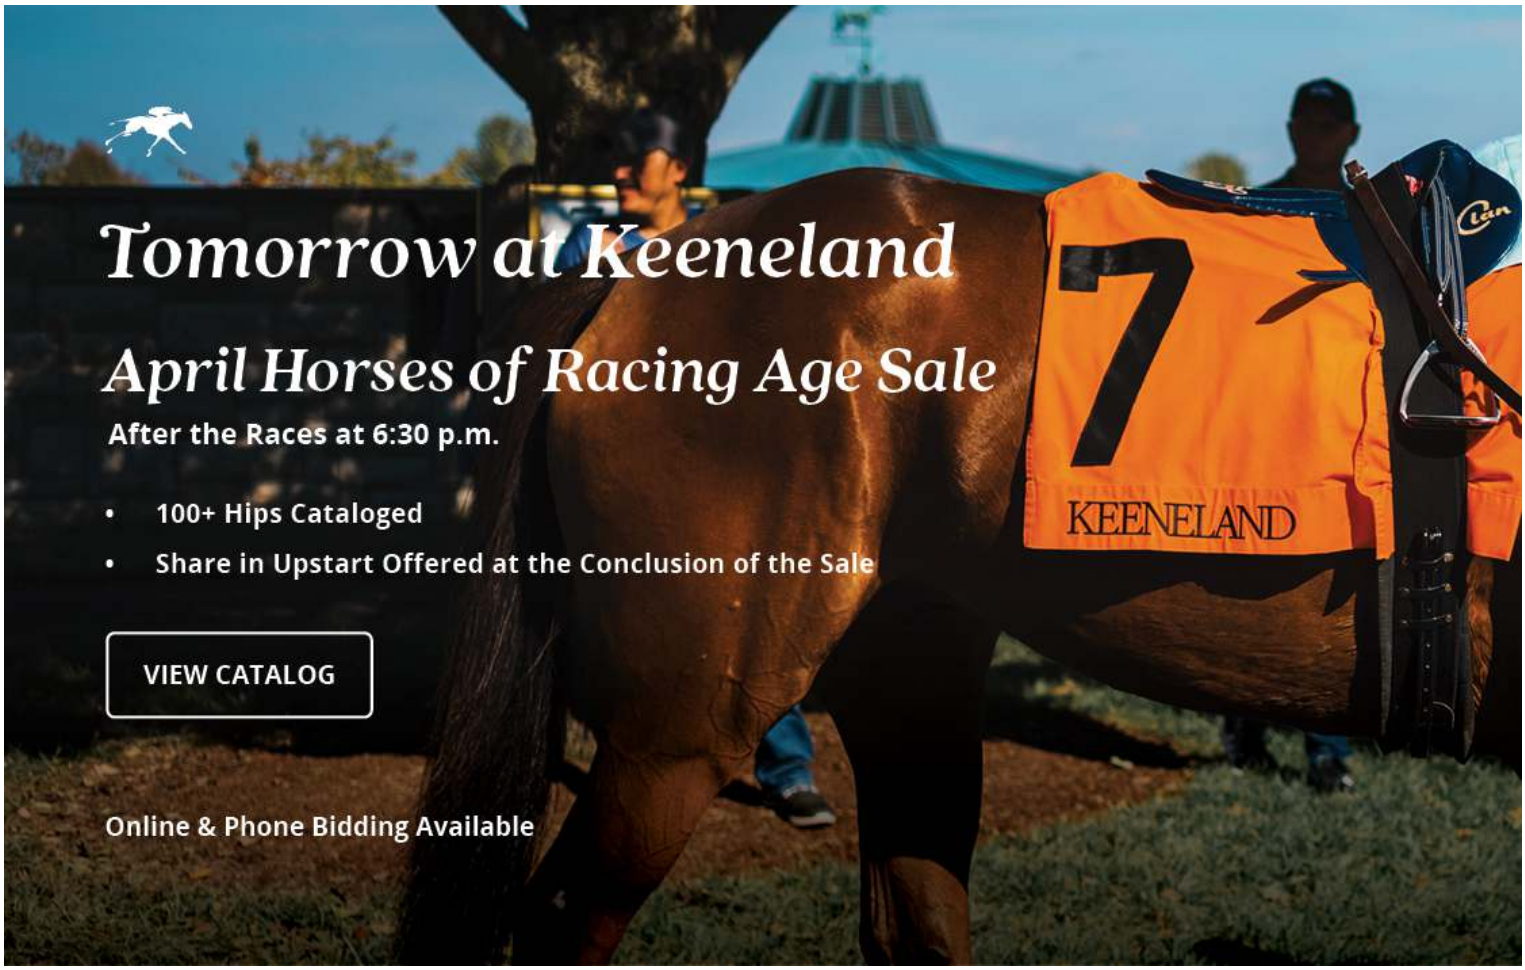
Jury selection kicked off Apr. 27 in the trial of a Delaware woman who prosecutors say helped veterinarian Dr. Seth Fishman supply illegal performance-enhancing drugs to trainers. By day's end, a jury of eight men and four women was sworn in to hear the case against Lisa Giannelli in U.S. District Court in New York. Judge Mary Kay Vyskocil scheduled opening statements for April 28. The government has two FBI agents lined up to testify as their first witnesses. Giannelli was in court for the jury selection. One of the jurors chosen is a 60-year-old woman who said during voir dire that she has attended the GI Kentucky Derby "numerous times." Giannelli, of Felton, worked for Fishman and his Florida company Equestology as a sales representative. They were arrested two years ago following a lengthy FBI investigation into suspected backstretch horse doping that nabbed more than two dozen others. Those charged included prominent Thoroughbred trainers Jorge Navarro and Jason Servis. Navarro pleaded guilty last year and was sentenced to five years in prison. Servis is awaiting a trial that has been pushed back to early 2023.



Giannelli's case is being heard in the same courthouse where Fishman was convicted Feb. 2 on two counts of conspiracy to violate adulteration or misbranding laws after an 11-day trial. She is charged with one of those crimes.

Fishman and Giannelli have been the only ones in the case to take their chances at trial. There have been nine other guilty pleas since the arrests, including Navarro's.

Giannelli was to be tried with Fishman, but after opening statements and testimony from the government's first witness, a mistrial was declared in her case after her lawyer Louis Fasulo tested positive for COVID-19, preventing him from proceeding.

She faces five years in prison if convicted. She is free on $100,000 bond.

At a conference April 25, Fasulo said his client would be testifying in her own defense. He also said she would be his only witness. Fishman didn't testify, and his lawyers called no other witnesses.

Fasulo told Vyskocil that he was "100% certain" Gianelli would take the stand.

"I never make that commitment, but we know it's going to happen," he said.

In court papers last month, prosecutors spelled out their case against Giannelli.

They said she had traveled to racehorse training facilities in the northeast U.S., offering to sell Fishman's drugs "on demand, without regard to the existence of any prescription, the medical need for such drugs or the legality (or propriety) of selling such drugs directly to racehorse trainers."

In court papers, Fasulo has signaled his intent to put on a "good faith" defense.

"A person acts in good faith when he or she has an honestly held belief, opinion, or understanding that as part of her experience in the horse racing industry veterinarians were allowed to sell drugs they compounded or manufactured and it was the trainer's responsibility to follow withdrawal times, even though the belief, opinion or understanding turns out to be inaccurate or incorrect," Fasulo wrote in a proposed instruction that he wants the jury to hear before it begins deliberations.

At the previous trial, Fasulo sought to distance his client from Fishman, a tactic he is expected to take this time around.

"We sit here today after hearing the government's opening statement that Lisa Giannelli is a lone wolf in a herd of sheep," he said as he began his opening remarks to the prior jury. "This case will prove that Lisa was a sheep herded by the sheep master."

Fasulo said then that Giannelli had been a groom and a trainer before she went to work for Fishman. He said they had worked together for 18 years.

Fasulo said his client had no ability to create the products that Fishman manufactured and had no ability to label them.

"She took no responsibility as to the products as they were presented to her, other than they were presented by a veterinarian who was licensed in the states in which she was dealing," he said.

At the end of his remarks, he said they don't hide from the fact that Giannelli worked for Fishman.

"What the government found in her home were products given to her by Seth Fishman, the veterinarian, and you will hear that she believed those products to be okay to transport to others," he said.

The trial is expected to last two weeks.

BIDDING OPENS FOR TODD DISPERSAL ON FASIG-TIPTON DIGITAL

Bidding for Phase I of the dispersal of the Estate of Glen Todd is now open at digital.fasigtipton.com. This first phase of the dispersal includes horses of racing age, 2-year-olds in training and yearlings. Pegasus Training Center will be acting as agent for the dispersal.

A fixture on the racing scene in British Columbia, Canada, John Glendon 'Glen' Todd passed away Mar. 27 at the age of 75. Todd was involved with Thoroughbred racing for the better part of 50 years and since 2006, campaigned nearly 50 black-type winners in the name of North American Thoroughbred Horse Co., as well as in his own name and in partnership.

“Glen Todd was a titan of the British Columbia Thoroughbred industry and a wonderful supporter of Thoroughbred racing and breeding as a whole,” said Leif Aaron, Fasig-Tipton Director of Digital Sales. “We are honored that his estate has entrusted Fasig-Tipton Digital with the dispersal of his stable.”

THE EVOLUTION OF THE NURSEMARE BUSINESS by Jen Roytz

From the moment a newborn foal enters the world, it has a bevy of hopes and dreams riding on its back. Ideally a newborn overcomes life's first few challenges in short order--it is delivered without incident, gets to its feet and nurses for the first time, consuming the colostrum and receiving the vital antibodies necessary for the foal to develop its immune system. Unfortunately, things don't always go as planned. Whether due to dystocia, a lack of milk production or a mare who is simply not the motherly type and rejects the foal, scenarios may play out that prevent a foal's biological dam to adequately care for it, necessitating the immediate need for a surrogate mare to step in and take the place of the foal's actual mother.

For decades, the nursemare business has been a vital part of the breeding industry, proving a life-saving service at a critical time. But, it has also been rife with controversy.

Traditionally, in order to bring the nursemare into lactation, the mare was bred and its biological foal was taken away so the mare could care for the newborn in need. In the best-case scenarios, these foals were bottle fed and raised as orphans, however many were simply thought of as a byproduct of the business and ended up neglected or killed.

Hormonally Induced Lactation

In recent years, an alternative to traditional nursemare practices has been developed; one that allows the mare to be brought into lactation without having to produce a foal as a byproduct of the process. In its simplest sense, hormonally induced lactation tricks a mare's body into producing milk without the mare having to be pregnant.

Lauren Phoenix, owner of Nursemares of the Northeast and Nursemares of Kentucky, provides hormonally induced nursemares for Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri. They can also make special accommodations for needs outside of their regular service area or can refer people to other such providers throughout the country.

"Typically, through hormonally induced lactation, we can get a mare to produce really good milk within 11 to 14 days," said Phoenix. "Every mare is different and it's a very regimented process to get them induced to lactate and often we need to adapt to the individual and think outside of the box."

Phoenix and her team take a hands-on approach, managing and overseeing the introduction of the foal to the nursemare and troubleshooting any potential issues.

"We go through the same procedures and precautions for each mare, whether it's her first time being a nursemare or she's been doing it for years. It's an intricate process and we wait for certain signs and signals at every step of the introduction before proceeding," said Phenix. "Thanks to these decisions made in the moment based on what I've learned over the years, we can pretty much get any mare to not just take a baby, but to love, protect and care for it as if it's truly their own."

According to Phoenix, she and her team have a near 98-percent success rate. In the event that issues arise, they work with the foal owner to either work through the challenges or deliver a replacement mare from their herd.

What Makes a Good Nursemare

Being a nursemare isn't a role for which all mares are well suited. It takes a kind and adaptable mare to take on another's foal and raise it as her own.

Phoenix looks for mares that have had a few foals in the past and have proven to be a good mother and seemed to enjoy raising a foal.

"We look for mares who are kind, easy to handle and don't have any major bad habits or dangerous behaviors," said Phoenix. "While we serve major breeding operations, we also provide mares to private people as well, so it is important for the mares to be safe and easy for anyone to handle."

The majority of the mares in Phoenix's herd are adopted from previous clients or from rescues or Thoroughbred aftercare organizations, offering such horses a unique opportunity for a second, third or even fourth career.

"The business of providing nursemares used to be rather secretive due to what happened with the nursemares' biological foals. They often weren't cared for very well and there was no honor being given to these mares who were literally saving lives," said Phoenix. "We take very good care of our mares. They're vaccinated, well-handled and loved, and it shows."

A New Age of Nursemares

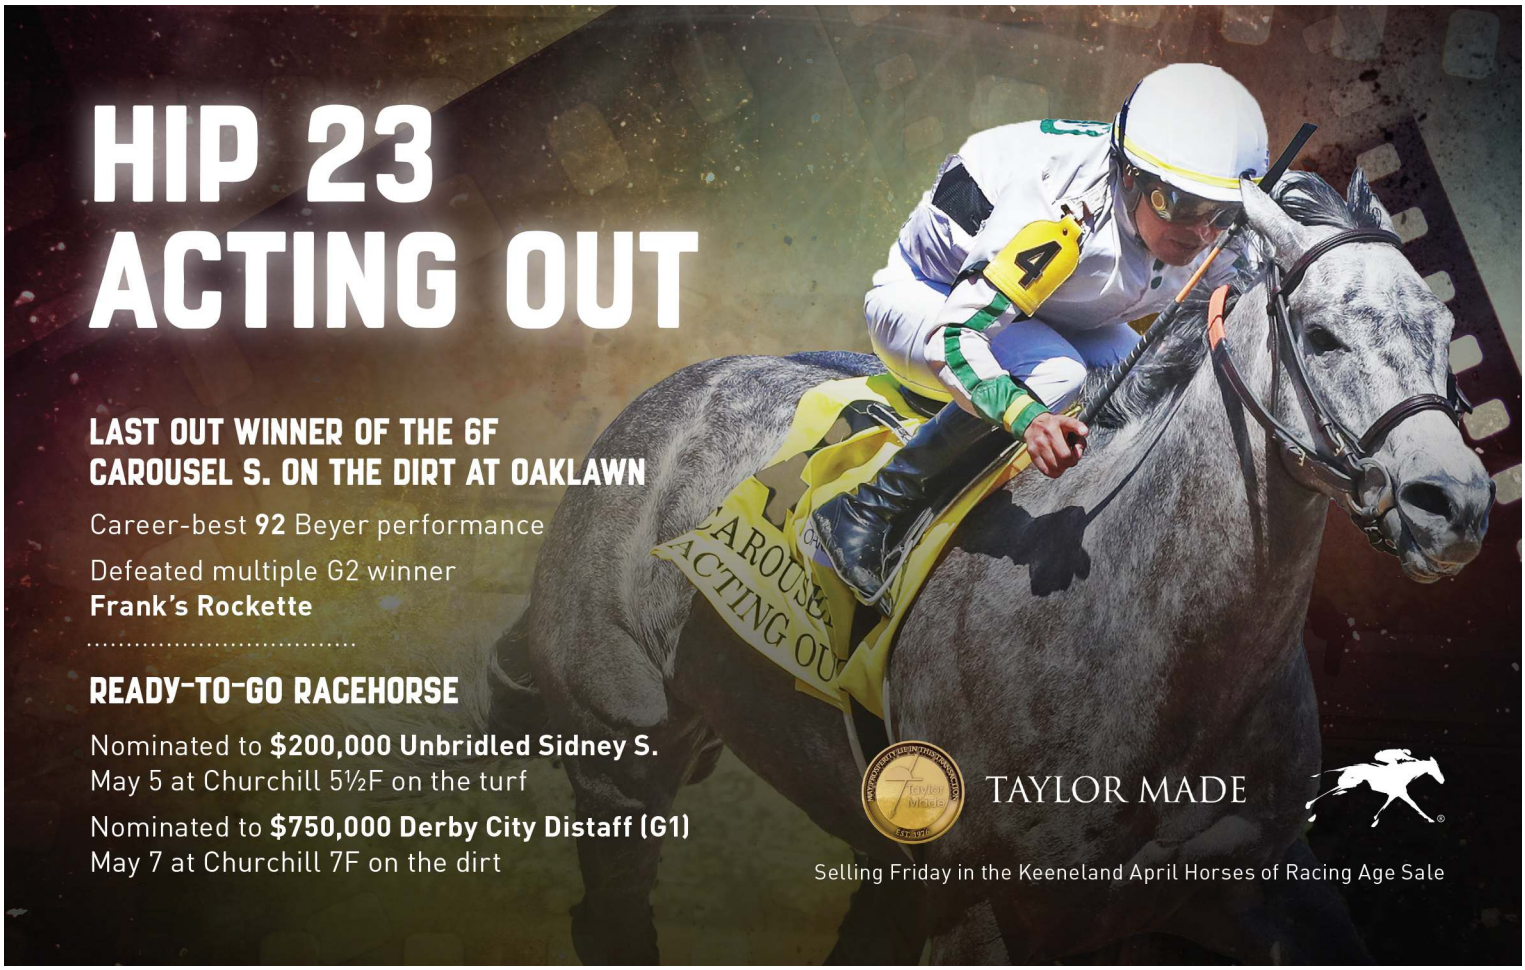
Phoenix originally started her groundbreaking approach with Nursemares of the Northeast, a New York-based farm that serves as her homebase to this day. As demand grew and she was getting more calls from breeders in Kentucky and the surrounding states, she decided to expand and opened up a second facility, Nursemares of Kentucky.

"When I started in New York, my goal was to perfect the practice of hormonally inducing mares to lactate and over the years we've perfected how we introduce the mares and foals," she said.



One of many farms that has utilized Phoenix's services this season is Win-Mick Farm in Versailles, Kentucky. After seeing several posts about people utilizing the services of hormonally-induced nursemares, farm manager Justina Severni reached out to Phoenix about reserving a nursemare to step in for one of their mares who has a history of rejecting her foals. Little did she know, that would be one of two nursemares she would need this season. "We made plans to have a nursemare on hold for a mare we have who is aggressive toward her foals, but then we had a second mare whose uterus tore during delivery and needed surgery. With the trauma and recovery, she was not producing enough milk, so after five days we went ahead and got a nursemare for her foal." Severni said Phoenix's staff at Nursemares of Kentucky were extremely responsive and attentive, managing the bonding process between the mares and their adopted foals. "They came out and stayed with the mare and foal until they were fully bonded and the foals were nursing. It took a bit longer with the five-day-old foal, but they knew exactly how to handle it," said Severni. "Their approach is a much more ethical way to produce a nursemare and their customer service was incredibly helpful. They followed up numerous times afterward to make sure things were continuing to go smoothly and to answer any questions we might have." Phoenix says she and other hormonally induced nursemare providers have seen a steady uptick in their business in recent years. People are eager to learn more about her approach and, when the unfortunate need arises, utilize a nursemare option that is more ethical. “One day I was in the stall with one of our mares and was thinking about that saying, ‘Blessed are the broodmares,'" she recalled. "Then it hit me, and in that moment I thought about the follow-up, ‘but heaven-sent are the nursemares.'"

DERBY HOPEFUL CROWN PRIDE WORKS

Crown Pride at Churchill Downs Wednesday morning | Coady

Teruya Yoshida’s Crown Pride (Jpn) (Reach the Crown {Jpn}) worked a bullet half-mile in :46.40 at Churchill Downs Wednesday morning in advance of the May 7 GI Kentucky Derby. With regular morning partner Masa Matsuda aboard, Crown Pride cut out fractions of :11.60, :23.20 and :46.40, galloping out in 1:00.20 and 1:14.80 while working in company with the Dale Romans-trained 4-year-old Southern Passage.

Crown Pride left Japan Mar. 17 to travel to Dubai where he won the G2 UAE Derby before arriving in Louisville Mar. 30. Wednesday’s work was his fourth since his arrival in Kentucky. Before the work, Crown Pride warmed up in the mile chute while the track was undergoing a harrow break and following the work had a leisurely trip back to the quarantine barn.

“That is a typical Japanese training regimen,” said Kate Hunter, Japan-based representative for the Kentucky Derby. “Masa was very pleased with the work. He said Crown Pride moves well over the surface with no extra effort.”

Crown Pride's previous works here were six furlongs in 1:18.60 Apr. 16, a half-mile in :49.80 Apr. 19 and a half-mile in :49.20 Apr. 24. He is scheduled to work again Sunday.

Trainer Koichi Shintani is scheduled to arrive in Louisville Sunday night and will be in attendance at the post position draw Monday afternoon. Jockey Christophe Lemaire is scheduled to arrive in Louisville on Monday.

SECRET OATH COULD TRY THE PREAKNESS AFTER KY OAKS

Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas indicated Secret Oath (Arrogate) may take another shot against the boys in the GI Preakness S. at Pimlico May 21 following tilt at the May 6 GI Kentucky Oaks. Secret Oath finished third in the GI Arkansas Derby in her first start against males.

"We had no intention of running in the [GI Kentucky] Derby; running a mile and a quarter, in a 20-horse field," Lukas said. "Whether you could make a case or not that she's one of the better 3-year-olds in the country--which you can--we had no intention of that."

He continued, "We were running in the Arkansas Derby because the race was [worth] $1.25 million. That in itself was the incentive. If she had won the Arkansas Derby, we wouldn't have run in the Kentucky Derby. We were pretty adamant that we were going to run in the [Kentucky] Oaks and have the best filly in the country."

YEARLING SALE NOTICE:
NTRA CHECK-OFF PROGRAM ENROLLMENT UNDERWAY

Yearling sales entry deadlines are fast approaching and that means now is the time for sellers to enroll in the NTRA ¼% Check-off Program. This voluntary program, supported by the NTRA's sale company partners*, helps fund NTRA federal legislative advocacy in Washington, D.C.

Click here to access the Check-off Program enrollment form and other Program information.

The NTRA's federal legislative team focuses on issues that have a direct and material effect on Thoroughbred industry participants and on their business activities. Yearling sellers can show their support of the team by voluntarily contributing $2.50 for every $1,000 of a yearling's sale price.

The second jewel in the American Triple Crown is contested over 9 1/2 furlongs.

"That's what the nomination was for," Lukas said. "That's what we thought: if we have a big Oaks, now we cut back in distance. We go to a 14-horse field versus 20. We go on a different surface, tight turns, where speed would be good. It changes the whole game when you go to the Preakness."

Lukas has won the Preakness on six occasions, most recently with Calumet Farm's Oxbow in 2013. The Preakness also gave Lukas his first Triple Crown victory, that coming with Codex in 1980.

"I have good luck at the Preakness," said Lukas, who also has won the Derby and GI Belmont S. four times apiece. "I always have had."

Secret Oath, by champion Arrogate, won the Martha Washington S. and GIII Honeybee S. this winter at Oaklawn earlier this season. She ranks with 80 points for the May 6 Oaks.

EARLY VOTING TARGETS PREAKNESS

Klaravich Stables' Early Voting (Gun Runner) is possible to make his next start in the May 21 GI Preakness S. at Pimlico, although trainer Chad Brown may opt to enter the GIII Withers S. winner Monday in the GI Kentucky Derby if there is a strategic defection. The four-time Eclipse Award-winning trainer will be represented by Keeneland's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. winner Zandon at Churchill Downs for the Derby.

"Right now the horse is still in New York preparing for the Preakness," Brown said of Early Voting. "If the complexion of the Derby field changes a certain way before the race, it's not out of the question that I go ahead and ship him over to Churchill and enter him in the Derby. But right now we're planning on running in the Preakness."

He continued, "We have the points [to get in the Derby]. The horse is doing well. We have the flexibility to keep it as an option. No one is forcing us to make a decision earlier than we want. I don't want to make a 'final' decision and then change your mind. That's worse than delaying. Things happen. Horses drop out, the pace scenario could change, things like that. Seth [Klarman] and I want to handle it intelligently. We want the flexibility. But if everything stays the way it is right now with the field, I plan on running the horse in the Preakness."

Early Voting has raced only three times: winning a one-mile maiden race at Aqueduct Dec. 18, followed by a 4 1/2-length victory over Un Ojo (Laoban) in the Withers Feb. 5 before finishing second to Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo) in the GII Wood Memorial Apr.9. Un Ojo subsequently won the GII Rebel S. at odds of 75-1 at Oaklawn Feb. 26.

Early Voting | Sarah Andrew

"With only three starts under his belt, putting him in a 20-horse field not even knowing what post you're going to draw and bringing him all the way over here [to Churchill], I didn't feel was a good gamble for the future of the horse. Seth feels the same way. However, if the field changes in such a way where it looks like he's moving up to be one of the main contenders and maybe one of the only pace horses in the race, then I would change my mind." Early Voting's path to the Preakness is similar to that of former Brown charge, Cloud Computing (Maclean's Music), who captured the Classic in 2017. Also owned by Klaravich, Cloud Computing also ran three times, winning his debut at Aqueduct in February, finishing second in the GIII Gotham S. before coming home third in the Wood. He also skipped the Derby before winning the Preakness.

"We've won the Preakness before, obviously," Brown said. "With Seth being a Baltimore native, it's a very important race to him and he'd be honored to win it a second time, he tells me. So it's not a disappointing goal to shoot for. We hold the race in high regard, and we want to do the right thing for the horse for the future, too, beyond the Derby and the Preakness."

He added, "This horse has a big career ahead of him. Right now he's a beautiful, sound, improving horse. We want to continue to develop him."

JOCKEYS' GUILD REINSTATES BENEFITS FOR MONMOUTH RIDERS

Equi-Photo

With the New Jersey Racing Commission (NJRC) last week voting to rescind the whip ban, which had been in place at Monmouth Park since the 2021 season, the Jockeys' Guild Board of Directors has voted to reinstate benefits to its members who choose to ride at Monmouth in 2022. The Guild had not been covering insurance policies for Monmouth riders since July 1. New Jersey was the only state in the country where whipping was banned.

The NJRC had adopted Monmouth's request for a "House Rule," allowing riders to utilize the riding crop in an overhand fashion for six times in a race, though not more than two times in succession without a pause. The House Rule is in line with the Use of Riding Crop Regulation established by the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA), which is set to supersede regulations put in place by state racing commissions this summer.

"While the Monmouth Park House Rule for the riding crop addresses our safety concerns, the decision by the NJRC to implement the House Rule's more extreme penalties than those called for under the HISA Riding Crop Rules are a concern," said Terry Meyocks, President and CEO of the Jockeys' Guild. "Members should be aware of these excessive penalties should they choose to ride at Monmouth Park."

The 2022 Monmouth meet begins May 7.

AQUEDUCT SPRING MEET DRAWS OVER $115M IN ALL-SOURCES HANDLE

Edited Press Release

The recently concluded 15-day spring meet at Aqueduct Racetrack generated $115,750,073 in all-sources handle, a 35.5 percent increase over the 11-day spring meet held in 2021, according to The New York Racing Association, Inc. Wednesday.

On-track handle for the 2022 Aqueduct spring meet, which includes wagering from New York State residents utilizing NYRA Bets, was $11,332,663. The 2021 Aqueduct spring meet, which was conducted without fans in attendance, saw on-track handle of $5,734,531. Average daily handle for the spring meet was $7,716,672 compared with $7,765,368 in 2021. The 2022 Aqueduct meet included 134 races with 37 on the turf. A total of 95 races were held with 29 on the turf. Average field size was 7.00 in 2022 compared with 7.16 in 2021.

The spring/summer meet at Belmont Park kicks off Apr. 28. First post is 1:20 p.m. EST.

CHURCHILL UNVEILS NEW DERBY DAY MULTI-RACE WAGERS

As part of its wagering menu for Kentucky Derby day May 7, Churchill Downs will offer an 'All 3-Year-Old' Pick 3 and an all-dirt Pick 5 wager, both of which close with the Run for the Roses. The 3-year-old Pick 3 will have a minimum $3 stake and includes the $500,000 GII American Turf and the GII Pat Day Mile before concluding with the Derby. Like all rolling 50-cent Pick 3s, the wager will have a 22% takeout.

An all-dirt, all-stakes Pick 5 will have a 50-cent minimum and 15% takeout while including the $160,000 Knicks Go S., the $750,000 GI Derby City Distaff, the $750,000 GI Churchill Downs S., the Pat Day Mile and the Derby.

Along with the track's jackpot bet, the Derby City 6, Churchill will once again offer the two-day Oaks/Derby Pick 6 with a $2 minimum (2019 handle $479,561). The wager begins on Friday, May 6 with the $750,000 GI La Troienne S. and the $1.25-million GI Longines Kentucky Oaks before concluding on Saturday with the Derby City Distaff, Churchill Downs S., the $1-million GI Old Forester Bourbon Turf Classic and the Derby.

There will be four traditional Pick 5 and Pick 4 wagers on Kentucky Derby Day. The third Pick 5 (2019 handle: $3,980,809) and third Pick 4 (2019 handle: $4,091,771) will feature an all-stakes sequence and culminate in the Derby.

Superfecta wagers will be a $1 minimum on Kentucky Derby and Oaks days but will be a 10-cent minimum on all other days.

JOCKEY CLUB'S SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS NAMED

RTIP's Eric DeCoster wins a Jockey Club scholarship for the third straight year | Steve Chadwick Photography

The Jockey Club (TJC) has selected the recipients of its five annual academic scholarships, which will be awarded for 2022-23. TJC's college scholarships total $76,000 for the upcoming academic year that begins in the fall.

"We received a deep pool of applicants for this cycle of scholarship applications and are pleased to be able to assist the five selected individuals in funding their education," said James L. Gagliano, president and chief operating officer of The Jockey Club.

"Our goal in administering these awards is to support dedicated individuals from a range of backgrounds to reach their academic and career goals."

The Jockey Club Scholarship, which provides $15,000 to a student who is pursuing a bachelor's degree or higher at any university and has demonstrated interest in pursuing a career in the Thoroughbred industry, will go to Julia DiFiore. The veterinary student at Mississippi State University hopes to focus her practice on Thoroughbreds.

The $20,000 Jockey Club Advancement of Women in Racing Scholarship will be given to Elisabeth Carter. Carter graduated with honors from the University of Arizona in 2020 with bachelor's degrees in veterinary science and law. She will begin law school this fall, with an interest in equine regulatory law.

Autumn Charley will be awarded $20,000 The Jockey Club Vision Scholarship for students from a minority racial or ethnic group who are pursuing a career in the Thoroughbred industry. Charley is working toward her Master of Business Administration through an online program at Arizona State University while working as a racing official at tracks around the country and hopes to focus on marketing upon graduation.

The Jockey Club Benevolence Scholarship, worth $15,000, is a need-based award to enable a student to attend a full-time program at a college, university, or trade program, with preference given to children of backstretch and farm workers. The winner, high school senior Efrain Cortes, Jr., whose family works on the New York racing circuit, is interested in becoming a physical therapist.

For the third straight year, Eric DeCoster has been selected for The Jockey Club Jack Goodman Scholarship. Worth $6,000, it is awarded annually to a student enrolled in the University of Arizona Race Track Industry Program (RTIP). DeCoster is currently a sophomore in the RTIP and would like to pursue a career in racing operations.

ALLOWANCES

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

6th-Keeneland, $120,000, Alw, 4-27, (NW2$X), 4yo/up, 1 1/16mT, 1:42.96, gd, 1/2 length.

FLORIFORM (c, 4, Into Mischief--July Jasmine {MSP-Eng}, by Empire Maker) broke his maiden at fourth asking at Gulfstream last February and followed suit with an allowance win at Keeneland that April. Sidelined for the rest of the season, he was third behind next-out GI Maker's Mark Mile winner Shirl's Speight (Speightstown) in the GIII Tampa Bay S. Feb. 5. Ninth of twelve at the break at odds of 8-5, he tracked the pace wide down the backstretch. The Juddmonte homebred was in the six path turning for home, still only fifth, and continued to race wide into the final furlong, only getting past Cellist (Big Blue Kitten) in the final jumps to win by a half-length. Floriform has a 2-year-old half-sister by Noble Mission (GB) and a yearling half-sister by Tizway. Lifetime Record: GSP, 7-3-1-1, $164,868. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

2nd-Keeneland, $110,000, Alw, 4-27, (NW1X), 4yo/up, f/m, 1 1/2mT, 2:33.24, gd, 3 1/4 lengths.

FEDERALIST PAPERS (f, 4, More Than Ready--Infamous {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) closed 2021 with a third in an Aqueduct allowance Nov. 26 going long on turf and was third last out over 12 furlongs in an off-the-turf event at Gulfstream Feb. 10. Heavily favored at 4-5 here, she sat fourth early behind the pace set by Three Tipsy Chix (Medaglia d'Oro) through leisurely early fractions. She swung four-wide turning for home, bumped with Met in Miami (Upstart) at the top of the stretch and drove clear into the final furlong to beat Noble Enterprise (Noble Mission {GB}) by 3 1/4 lengths. Federalist Paper's dam last produced a now 2-year-old filly by Fastn Famous (Tur). Sales history: $250,000 Wlg '18 KEENOV. ## MAIDENS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

8th-Keeneland, $100,000, Msw, 4-27, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:35.97, fm, 8 lengths.

SAFFRON MOON (f, 3, Malibu Moon--Crocus Hill, by Medaglia d'Oro) was a well-beaten fourth on debut sprinting on the Saratoga main track Aug. 22. Extended to two turns next out at Belmont a month later, she stumbled at the start and lost her rider in a race won by GI Central Bank Ashland S. romper Nest (Curlin). Setting the pace in a 1 1/16-mile event on the dirt at Belmont last time Oct. 22, the $80,000 KEESEP buy faded to third behind recent GIII Gazelle S. winner Nostalgic (Medaglia d'Oro). Receiving Lasix for the first time in this switch to the grass, the 9-2 shot rushed up from the nine hole to contest the pace and was sandwiched between rivals rounding the first turn. Maintaining her position, she tracked from second through a :24.57 opening quarter and :49.07 half-mile. Drawing even approaching the far turn, Saffron Moon sprung to the lead at the top of the stretch and cruised clear with ease to graduate by eight lengths. Spare Cash (Quality Road) was best of the rest in second. Crocus Hill had a Speightstown filly in 2020 and a Yoshida (Jpn) filly last year. The daughter of GISW Vacare (Lear Fan) was bred back to Echo Town. Sales history: $80,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-1, $74,150. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

4th-Keeneland, $75,045, Msw, 4-27, 3yo/up, f/m, 5 1/2fT, 1:03.01, gd, 1/2 length.

CHARDY PARTY (IRE) (f, 3, Dark Angel {Ire}--Spiritual Lady {GB} {SW-Eng}, by Pastoral Pursuits {GB}), off a step slow from the inside gate at 4-5 in this unveiling, raced mid-pack along the rail behind early front-runner Peligroso (Honor Code). She remained stuck inside of traffic into the far turn. Passing the eighth pole and still several lengths off the lead, the Stonestreet runner swung out off the rail into the four path and kicked on, catching the pace-setting Peligroso in the final strides to get up by a half-length. Chardy Party (Ire) is the third winner for owner Stonestreet Stables procured from the Tattersalls October Sale by Ben McElroy. Cont. p2

NOSILVERSPOONSHERE (f, 3, Connect--Grand Style {SW, $184,721}, by Giant's Causeway), off at 5-2 in this career bow, set the pace from the start along the inside with pressure from Beautiful Farewell (Frosted) through the opening half-mile in :45.77. She opened up turning for home and was unchallenged to the wire, winning geared down by 8 3/4 lengths over Beautiful Farewell. She was claimed following the race by Rocket Ship Racing LLC and trainer Jeff Hiles. Nosilverspoonshere is out of a stakes-winning half-sister to Danceforthecause (Giant's Causeway), the dam of Canadian champion turf male and GISW Say the Word and who was purchased by Gainesway for $925,000 in foal to Twirling Candy to rank as the joint top-priced horse (with Regal Glory) and top-priced broodmare at the 2021 Keeneland January sale. # GUINEAS WEEKEND BEGINS IN THE SALES RING

Mickey Cleere | Tattersalls

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK––The profile of breeze-up sales has changed over the years, and perhaps nowhere is this more obvious than at the Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-Up, which can count top-class stayers Trip To Paris (Ire) (Champs Elysees {GB}) and Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) among its graduates. There will doubtless be a helping of whizz-bang juvenile types but, overall, the sale is better known as one at which you might find a horse with a more progressive outlook who still has the potential to take you to all the best places, just perhaps a year or so later.

As has already been well documented in these pages we are in the middle of a stellar year for the breeze-up sector, with graduates Native Trail (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), Cachet (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}) and Perfect Power (Ire) (Ardad {Ire}) having all recently won formal Classic trials and about to line up for the Guineas this weekend in Newmarket. Underlining the truly international aspect of the bloodstock industry more generally, next week's Kentucky Derby line-up is likely to feature Summer Is Tomorrow (Summer Front). Bred in the U.S. by Brereton C Jones, the colt was bought privately by Mickey Cleere when unsold at $14,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Exported to Ireland, he was then presented in Cleere's draft for last year's Arqana Breeze-Up Sale, which was held in Doncaster as Covid restrictions continued to make travel tricky. Cont. p2

GO BEARS GO BACK TO BUSINESS

Sent off the 5-4 favourite as the class act in Wednesday's G3 Merriebelle Stables Commonwealth Cup Trial at Ascot, Amo Racing and Peter Waney's Go Bears Go (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) was able to make his edge tell as Rossa Ryan kept it simple from the front.

Looking to add to his tally which includes last year's G2 Railway S., the David Loughnane trainee had Ehraz (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) on his case approaching the final two furlongs but shook him off to assert for a 1 1/2-length success from Hierarchy (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}).

Admirably consistent at a level a notch higher than this at two, Go Bears Go was runner-up in the G2 Norfolk S. and GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint over five and third in the G1 Phoenix S. and fourth in the G1 Middle Park S. over this six-furlong trip but Loughnane is not ruling out going over further at the Royal meeting. Cont. p4

The multiple UAE champion jockey Tadhg O'Shea visited the sale on behalf of trainer Bhupat Seemar and signed for the colt for the Burke family at £120,000. Following yet another move for the horse, this time to Dubai, O'Shea subsequently rode Summer Is Tomorrow in his first five starts at Meydan but was aboard his better-fancied stablemate when Summer Is Tomorrow took second in the G2 UAE Derby, thus earning crucial points for a trip 'back home' to Churchill Downs.

It was only just over a month ago that the breeze-up season kicked off in Dubai, with Cleere faring well from the off when selling two of that sale's six top lots. Two more sales have been consigned to the books since then, and his M.C. Thoroughbreds operation is represented again at Tattersalls on Thursday by three juveniles, including another colt picked up in America. Lot 167 is from the first crop of Spendthrift Farm's dual Grade I-winning juvenile Bolt d'Oro, a son of the widely popular Medaglia d'Oro, and he was bought inexpensively at the Fasig-Tipton October Yearling Sale for $5,500.

"He's a nice horse and I hope someone good gets him because he's very genuine," said Cleere of the half-brother to Grade III winner Take Charge Paula (Take Charge Indy). "I try to base myself on getting horses together without bursting the clock. It's a fine line, but I like to get them to point their toe."

Casting his mind back to his star graduate of last year, Summer Is Tomorrow, Cleere added, "He had a great mind in everything he did. He was such an intelligent horse and a good ride. He was one of those horses that you were hoping he had a bit of speed because he had the mind to match."

He continued, "It's absolutely brilliant that he's going there. I've been in touch with everyone and the horse has now been in Kentucky for a few days. I'm told he travelled well.

"You could't write it really, and if he ran well it will just be fantastic. It's great for the breeze-up industry."

As for the prospects of this week based on the season so far, Cleere said, "There's definitely an appetite still for good horses. As always the middle market is more difficult. The prize-money really needs to improve and until that happens it will be harder. There'll be plenty of nice horses at this sale but I feel it will be a buyers' market.

"I had a great sale in Dubai and it was great to get off to a good start. It relieves some of the pressure."

Another half-brother to a stakes winner is set to pass through the ring just ahead of Cleere's colt. Lot 161 is offered by Roderick Kavanagh's Glending Stables and is by Time Test (GB) out of the listed-placed Noah's Ark (Ire) (Charnwood Forest {Ire}), and thus a sibling to the Listed Prix Herod winner Temps Au Temps (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The colt's half-sister After (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) also earned black type when placing in three Group 3 races and now features as the dam of dual Group 2 winner Armory (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Cont. p3

Street Cry (Ire) has featured as the broodmare sire of at least two stakes winners worldwide in the last week, and he performs that role for lot 168, a daughter of leading young sire Mehmas (Ire) offered by Tally-Ho Stud. The filly's unraced dam Peronism is a half-sister to one of the best older horses in training in Europe, the treble Group 1 winner Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

In Platinum Jubilee year, the monarchists among the buyers at Tattersalls on Thursday may feel like treating themselves to a colt from one of the Queen's families, and they need look no further than lot 182, from the A. C. Bloodstock draft. The first-crop son of Cracksman (GB) is a half-brother to Listed Fairway S. winner Peacock (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}) and his dam Rainbow's Edge (GB) (Rainbow Quest) is a half-sister to Her Majesty's Royal Ascot winner Free Agent (GB) (Dr Fong).

Bushypark Stables claimed the top spot at last week's Goffs UK Breeze-Up when turning a 14,000gns Tasleet (GB) yearling into a £230,000 breezer, and Matt Whyte's team has brought two juveniles to Tattersalls this week, including a filly with justifiably Classic pretensions. Lot 212 is from the first crop of the 2000 Guineas winner Saxon Warrior (Jpn) and is a granddaughter of the champion racemare Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), whose finest moment also came on the Rowley Mile when winning the G1 Champion S.

As ever, the Guineas Breeze-Up Sale is preceded by a morning session of horses in training, with around 80 set to go under the hammer from 9:30 a.m. A further 190 breezers will follow during the afternoon and evening.

"I think he could go to either the Jersey or the Commonwealth Cup," he said after admitting nerves watching this contest traditionally known as the Pavilion S. "If the Jersey was a Group 1, we would go there."

Wherever Go Bears Go heads over seven furlongs at Royal Ascot for the G3 Jersey S. or heads to the course-and-distance Group 1 for which this is named, his tenacity will stand him in fine stead. Loughnane was quick to pay tribute to his stable star's chief quality.

"He is honest as the day is long and he would run through a brick wall for you," he added. "We've done enough to make sure we could get the job done today, but he is still not fully furnished. We believe he is a Group 1 horse and he's entered himself now as a future stallion. He's won on soft ground and he's won on fast ground, so I don't care what the ground is. I have so much faith in this horse it is not even funny."

Pedigree Notes

It is unsurprising that Go Bears Go looks as if he will comfortably go further than sprint trips, given that he hails from a family with stamina over middle distances. He is the last known foal out of In Dubai (Giant's Causeway), a daughter of the G2 Ribblesdale S. and G3 Musidora S. winner and G1 Epsom and Irish Oaks-placed Bahr (GB) (Generous {Ire}). She produced the G1 Prix de l'Opera and GI Flower Bowl Invitational heroine Nahrain (GB) (Selkirk), who is in turn the dam of the G1 Dubai Turf, G1 Caulfield S. and G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis hero Benbatl (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). One speedy member of the family is Bahr's descendant, the G3 Palace House S. winner Far Above (Ire) (Farhh {GB}).

PRINCESS ZOE PREVAILS IN SAGARO THRILLER

Winless in seven starts since capturing ParisLongchamp's 2020 G1 Prix du Cadran, last term's G1 Gold Cup runner-up Princess Zoe (Ger) (Jukebox Jury {Ire}) bounced back in style on seasonal return to claim a thrilling victory in Wednesday's two-mile G3 Longines Sagaro S. at Ascot.

The 7-year-old mare claimed a rail position after the early strides and raced third passing the judge first time. Biding her time throughout, the 17-2 chance was bustled along to find an open lane off the home turn and stayed on relentlessly under a drive inside the final quarter mile to hit the line with a head advantage from Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) with Queen's Cup winner Enemy (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) a further neck adrift in third. Wordsworth (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was bidding to provide his sire with a world record 348th stakes winner, went off as the 2-1 favourite and finished another neck away in fourth.

"I think she likes to come into her races, she is just a warrior and loves a battle and I will never have the like of her again," commented trainer Tony Mullins of his stable star. "When you have trained ordinary horses for 25 or 30 years and then you have one like this it is special. She is just part of the family. I was anxious about the ground and was a little surprised they didn't water last night as it would still have left it good-to-firm, but not quite as quick as that. Everyone believes she is a heavy-ground mare and I'm bringing her here on good-to-firm." Cont. p6

He added, "I know if she was well beaten that everyone would say I was wrong and made a big mistake. We came here today to win, she was fit enough to win and she is going to improve for Royal Ascot. The extra half-mile [of the G1 Gold Cup] is going to make a difference and I feel there is more in the tank. Hopefully, she will be fine in the morning and then the whole build-up to the Gold Cup begins."

Pedigree Notes

Princess Zoe is one of five winners, from six foals, produced by a multiple-winning half-sister to MGSW sire Peppercorn (Ger) (Big Shuffle), G2 Oettingen-Rennen victor Pepperstorm (Ger) (Big Shuffle), G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten winner Peppershot (Ger) (Big Shuffle) and the dual stakes-placed Pepperjuice (Ger) (Big Shuffle). The March-foaled grey is a half-sister to MGSW G1 Deutsches Derby runner-up Palace Prince (Ger) (Areion {Ger}). Her second dam Pasca (Ger) (Lagunas {GB), broodmare of the year in 2003, is a half-sister to G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Padang (Ger) (Ile de Bourbon).

ANGEL BLEU TO WAIT FOR THE FRENCH GUINEAS

Dual Group 1 winner Angel Bleu (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) will pass on the G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas on Apr. 30 and wait for the May 15 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains in France. Successful in the G2 Vintage S. in July, the grey earned a pair of Group 1 wins in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at ParisLongchamp and in the Criterium International at Saint-Cloud, both in October. The Marc Chan silkbearer resumed with a third-place effort in the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury on Apr. 16.

Trainer Ralph Beckett said, "Angel Bleu certainly won't run [in the Guineas]. He is going to go to France. He is in good shape. It is just the ground.

"There is the slight element that the form book indicates all his best form is round a bend. There is an element of that as well."

In other Guineas news, trainer Dermot Weld indicated that Apr. 2 G3 Ballylinch Stud "Priory Belle" 1000 Guineas Trial S. victress Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) would skip the fillies' equivalent in Newmarket and wait for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches.

"I just feel that she might appreciate more time since her group win at Leopardstown and her style of running might suit Longchamp better than Newmarket," Weld told Racing Post of the Moyglare Stud homebred on Wednesday.

VERRY ELLEEGANT TO SKIP ARC FOR CHAMPIONS DAY

Champion mare Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}), who had been under consideration for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, will instead target the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. over 12 furlongs at Ascot on Oct. 15.

The 2021 Australian Horse of the Year and 11-time Group 1 winner won the G1 Melbourne Cup in style at Flemington last November, and added the G1 Chipping Norton S. at Randwick two starts later on Feb. 26. Cont. p8

She was then second in the G1 Ranvet S. at Rosehill in March and fifth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. in heavy going at Randwick on Apr. 9.

"After a really good discussion with the ownership group, it has been decided that Verry Elleegant will have a five-week spell and resume pre-training to be prepared first up, for the Winx S.," trainer Chris Waller said on Twitter.

"Whilst running her in the Arc would be a dream come true for all of us, we just felt that it would come around too soon to enable her to have a proper spell and be fully prepared in Australia for the assignment. However, a trip to Europe a little later in the spring is still strongly on the cards providing she returns to the form she showed in the spring when dominating the Melbourne Cup.

"A race that we have identified as a prospective target is the 2400-metre Fillies and Mares Group 1 race on Champions Day at Ascot, one of the most prestigious race days in the world and a worthy stage to showcase her talents."

Waller added of the mare's early-season targets, "It is likely that she will have three runs in Australia in the spring, with the Winx S., the Chelmsford, the Kingston Town and the Underwood all being considered prior to the decision being made on a Melbourne Cup defence or a trip to Europe."

HERON S. NEXT FOR INSPIRAL

Cartier Champion 2-Year-Old Filly Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who will miss the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas on May 1, will instead make her next start in the Listed Coral Heron S. at Sandown Park on May 19. Four-for-four at two including a victory in the G1 bet365 Fillies' Mile at Newmarket in October, Inspiral missed several days of training in the lead up to the Guineas. Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S. in June is the long-term target for the Cheveley Park homebred.

John Gosden, who trains the filly with his son Thady, said, "In the case of Inspiral, all being well, she will run in the Heron S. as a prep for the Coronation S. at Royal Ascot.

"She missed those critical eight to 10 days of training during trials week here and from that point of view I couldn't run her at 80% as that wouldn't be very clever.

"It was a straightforward decision in the end not to run in the Guineas when you miss that period of training. You have got to be at full match fitness for a Guineas.

"You can't miss two critical bits of work and think you are going to be there so to that extent it was not a difficult decision. You do the right thing by the filly and the right thing was not to run.

"I was just going through the book last night and there are no fillies' race for her in this country. She can't [go] for the Michael Seeley Memorial S. at York as she is not eligible and consequently the Heron comes at the right time."

3--Intellogent (Ire), 126, h, 7, Intello (Ger)--Nuit Polaire (Ire), by Kheleyf. (€320,000 Ylg '16 ARAUG). O-Fiona Carmichael; B-Ecurie des Monceaux (IRE); T-Jane Chapple-Hyam. £5,595.

Margins: NK, 3/4, 3/4. Odds: 6.00, 2.25, 8.50.

Also Ran: Valiant Prince (Ire).

High-class at two when taking the Listed Flying Scotsman S. at Doncaster and G2 Royal Lodge S. at Newmarket, New Mandate's two subsequent outings had seen him well-beaten and this was his first appearance since running in Royal Ascot's G3 Jersey S. in June. Always travelling easily in behind, the bay was able to work his way past Sir Busker inside the final furlong and assert under hand riding late on. "He was a very sick horse after the Jersey last year and spent two and a half months in a field, trainer Ralph Beckett explained. "We never really got to the bottom of what was wrong, but Dr. Green sorted him out and I hadn't done a whole lot with him this spring. I have left him in the Lockinge and the Queen Anne and we will see how we go."

The dam is a half to the G2 Rockfel S. third Puggy (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), who achieved renown as the dam of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane heroine Avenir Certain (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). Also connected to the G2 Richmond S.-winning sire Mehmas (Ire) and the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine Queen's Trust (GB) (Dansili {GB}), her 2-year-old filly is by Camacho (GB).

3rd-Ascot, £20,000, Cond, 4-27, 3yo, f, 7f 213yT, 1:41.66, g/f.

GRANDE DAME (GB) (f, 3, Lope de Vega {Ire}--Minwah {Ire}, by Oasis Dream {GB}) tracked a modest pace in fourth, but slipped to fifth at halfway in this debut. Coming under pressure to close passing the quarter-mile pole, the 3-1 joint favourite quickened to launch her challenge on the outside at the furlong marker and was ridden out to deny market rival Mukaddamah (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) by 1 1/4 lengths. Grande Dame is the fourth of six foals and second scorer from as many runners for the unraced Minwah (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}). The March-foaled bay is half to a 2-year-old colt by Roaring Lion and a yearling filly by Too Darn Hot (GB). Minwah is kin to four black-type performers, including stakes-winning G3 Nell Gwyn S. third Festivale (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), and to the dam of G1 2000 Guineas contender Eydon (Ire) (Olden Times {GB}). 1ST-TIME STARTER. O-Mrs Tabor, Mrs M V Magnier & Mrs Shanahan; B-Whatton Manor Stud (GB); T-J & T Gosden.

2nd-Ascot, £15,000, Cond, 4-27, 2yo, 5fT, 1:00.82, g/f.

BAKEEL (GB) (c, 2, Sioux Nation--Volute {Fr}, by Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) edged right leaving the outside gate, but recovered to stalk the pace in a close third through halfway in this debut. Shaken up passing the quarter-mile marker, the 15-2 chance gained a narrow advantage approaching the final furlong and was ridden out in the closing stages to assert by 1 1/4 lengths from Whistle and Flute (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}), becoming the third winner for his freshman sire (by Scat Daddy). Bakeel, kin to a yearling filly by Sea The Moon (Ger), is the first of two foals produced by a dual-winning half-sister to G3 Prix Fille de l'Air runner-up Vespera (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). The January-foaled chestnut's second dam Plain Vanilla (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}) is a half-sister to GSW G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix Rothschild placegetter Volta (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), MGSW G1 Dubai Sheema Classic third Calvados Blues (Fr) (Lando {Ger}) and G3 Prix des Chenes runner-up Scherzo (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). Sales history: €31,000 Wlg '20 ARQDEC; €77,000 Ylg '21 ARAUG. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $10,186.

1ST-TIME STARTER. O-Sheikh Abdullah Almalek Alsabah; B-Volute Partnership (GB); T-Andrew Balding.

2nd-Pontefract, £11,100, Nov, 4-27, 2yo, 5f 3yT, 1:03.60, g/f.

YAHSAT (IRE) (f, 2, Dandy Man {Ire}--Barqeyya {Ire}, by Shamardal), who was denied by a head going five furlongs in her Apr. 12 debut at Newmarket last time, was sharply into stride and led all three rivals throughout this return. Comfortably on top turning for home, the 4-9 lock was clear approaching the furlong pole and kept on strongly, despite drifting right in the latter stages, to easily account for Gulmarg (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) by an impressive five lengths. Yahsat, a full-sister to Listed Criterium de Vitesse victrix Royal Address (Ire), is the latest of four foals and third scorer produced by a daughter of the dual stakes-winning Almass (Ire) (Elnadim). Almass is one of seven black-type performers, headed by GSW sire Volochine (Ire) (Soviet Star), out of G3 Prix des Chenes winner and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac third Harmless Albatross (GB) (Pas de Seul {GB}). 2nd-Fontainebleau, €28,000, Cond, 4-27, 3yo, c/g, 8fT, 1:40.88, g/s. TUMBLER (FR) (c, 3, Kingman {GB}--Distortion {GB}, by Distorted Humor), who gained TDN Rising Star status with a 10-length debut win over seven furlongs at Saint-Cloud in October, was a disappointing fourth when too free as the hot favourite for the nine-furlong G3 Prix la Force at ParisLongchamp Apr. 10 and was anchored in last early in a bid to counter that tendency. Cruising into contention approaching the final two furlongs, the 7-10 favourite was workmanlike from there but had enough in reserve to score by 1 1/4 lengths from Hollyhock (Fr) (Attendu {Fr}). The dam, a half to three stakes winners including the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains-winning sire Falco (Pivotal {GB}) and the G3 Prix Eclipse scorer Iron Lips (GB) (Iron Mask), has also produced the listed-placed Twist (Fr) by Falco's sire and Kertez (GB) (Intello {Ger}). Connected to the G2 Prix de Malleret winner Legerete (Rahy) and the G3 Prix Noailles and G3 Prix Exbury winner Soleil Marin (Ire) (Kendargent {Fr}), Distortion is also responsible for the 2-year-old colt Slack (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}), a yearling filly by Siyouni (Fr) named Solinah (GB) and a filly foal by Nathaniel (Ire) named Contorsion. Extending from two out, the 6-5 second favourite beat Chantarella (Fr) (Charm Spirit {Ire}) by 3 1/2 lengths. The winner is the second of two foals out of a full-sister to the group-placed Granddukeoftuscany (Ire) and a half to the G3 Sandown Classic Trial winner Above Average (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), the G3 Prestige S. scorer Sent from Heaven (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) and the Listed James Seymour S. winner Freyja (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}). # HOME AFFAIRS DEBUTS AT $110,000

Home Affairs will stand for $110,000 inc GST | Coolmore Australia

by Jessica Owers

Coolmore Australia has released its 2022 stallion roster and the major talking point is the dual Group 1-winning, Royal Ascot-bound Home Affairs, who will stand his first season at Jerrys Plains this spring for $110,000 (inc GST), alongside European champion St Mark's Basilica (Ire) and brilliant colt Acrobat.

The superb rise of Home Affairs took a notable leap this week, with Coolmore Australia announcing on Wednesday its roster for the upcoming spring. Among its 17-strong stallions that will stand in the Hunter Valley, the top colt of three outstanding additions is Home Affairs, who will debut at $110,000 (inc GST).

It propels the young horse into exclusive company because, in recent history in Australia, no horse has retired to stud at a fee remotely close to that.

Stay Inside will emerge this season at $77,000 (inc GST), while fellow Slipper winner Farnan debuted at $55,000 (inc GST) last season. In 2019, Trapeze Artist served his first season at $88,000 (inc GST) at Widden Stud, while The Autumn Sun debuted for Arrowfield at $77,000 (inc GST).

It's a strong show of faith by Coolmore in Home Affairs, who still has Royal Ascot to come and who has done most things right on his way to Jerrys Plains.

The horse won the G2 Silver Slipper S. as a juvenile, then at three, the sire-making G1 Coolmore Stud S. into the G1 Lightning S. against older horses at Flemington. He won the Listed Heritage S. in the middle, putting away a smart field that included Paulele (Dawn Approach {Ire}), King Of Sparta (I Am Invincible) and Sword Of State (Snitzel).

"It's with the utmost excitement that we welcome Home Affairs to Coolmore for the upcoming season," said Tom Moore of Coolmore Australia. "His perfect blend of speed, pedigree and physique have seen him become one of the best stallion prospects to retire to stud in Australia for many years."

The Stuff Of Dreams

Home Affairs belongs to an important family in the modern Australian Stud Book. By I Am Invincible, he was the second foal from the Torryburn mare Miss Interiors (Flying Spur), who is a half-sister to both exciting young sire Russian Revolution and the Group 3 winner Turbo Miss (Sebring).

As a yearling, he was a strong and strapping colt with character and definition, and, with a pedigree proving very contemporary, he was bought from Torryburn by Tom Magnier at the 2020 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. Magnier paid $875,000.

"He was a magnificent-looking individual," Moore said. "He was a big, strong and imposing colt with immense quality, very much in the mould of his own sire.

"I Am Invincible is the most commercial stallion in Australia, and it's a sireline that is known for producing good-looking stock. Home Affairs is certain to impress everyone that inspects him at the farm."

Moore said that the colt throws right back to the great family of Fanfreluche (Can) (Northern Dancer {Can}), which down its line has produced stallions of the calibre of Encosta De Lago and Flying Spur, not to mention the emerging Russian Revolution.

"We see Home Affairs as a vitally important stallion for the future of the Australian breeding industry, and he'll be supported accordingly," he said.

At the time of his purchase, Home Affairs was a 'must-have' for Coolmore. At $875,000, he was widely admired by leading judges around the complex, and it was no surprise that he paid himself off, and then some, on the racecourse.

Through nine starts for four wins and two placings, Home Affairs has raced for trainer Chris Waller to $2.3 million in prizemoney. At the time of his remarkable G1 Lightning S. victory, when he became the first colt to complete the Coolmore Stud S.-Lightning S. double since Zeditave in 1988/89, Coolmore's Racing Manager, Rob Archibald, said the horse was the stuff that dreams are made of.

"He really is everything you hope to have in a stallion, and it's incredible," he said. "It's what every stud dreams of, owning a horse like him."

In The Footsteps Of History

Home Affairs will head to Royal Ascot next month for a tilt at the G1 Platinum Jubilee in June. Thereafter, he will return to Australia before letting down and settling in at Jerrys Plains.

It's a path that Coolmore has tread with its colts before.

In 2018, Merchant Navy's fee was set in the April before his departure to the European Flat season. He subsequently won two group races in the Northern Hemisphere, including the G1 Diamond Jubilee.

As such, Coolmore is laying down its faith in these prolific colts before any Northern Hemisphere results, and Moore said that already, there has been large enquiry about Home Affairs.

"It's to be expected with a horse of his profile," he said. "Already, we've had significant interest in him from leading breeders throughout Australasia. He became the first 3-year-old since Fastnet Rock to win the Lightning S., so he's an extremely rare offering, a commercial breeder's dream really, and he has everyone talking about him."

In 2018, on his return from Royal Ascot, Merchant Navy served his first book of mares at $55,000 (inc GST), and they numbered 247 in an explosive debut at stud.

So You Think (NZ), retiring to Jerrys Plains in 2012 after his impressive European racing exploits added to a steller Australian record, covered 168 in his first book at $66,000 (inc GST).

Coolmore will shuttle Home Affairs to its Northern Hemisphere operation, with those details still to be worked out. Albeit the sireline is wildly successful in Australia, it has also been wildly successful in Europe through Invincible Spirit (Ire).

Moore said that so much of the success of Coolmore's product has been based on that intercontinental mix of local and shuttle stallions, going right back to Danehill (USA) in the past, and now Invincible Spirit.

It bodes well for any success expected of the brilliant Home Affairs, and there is plenty.

The Established Brigade

Of the 17-strong stallion roster announced by Coolmore this week, Home Affairs sits behind only Fastnet Rock by fee. Fastnet, who is rising 21 years of age after a dazzling 17 years at stud, will command an unchanged service fee of $165,000 (inc GST) this spring.

The consistent Pierro will stand for $99,000 (inc GST), which is a reduction on his fees of the last two years. The son of Lonhro stood for $110,000 (inc GST) last year, and $137,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

Thereafter, along comes So You Think, who has had an excellent a season as any stallion can deliver. On Day Two of The Championships at Randwick this month, he had three individual Group 1 winners, which in part propelled him to the top of the sires' premiership in Australia, marginally ahead of I Am Invincible.

So You Think will stand the upcoming breeding season at $93,500 (inc GST), which is a justified lift on last year's fee of $77,000 (inc GST). According to Colm Santry, Coolmore's nominations and sales manager, it was to be expected.

"He's had yet another phenomenal season on the track," Santry said. "He has long established himself as one of Australia's elite sires and, as the current leader on the Australian general sires' table, he's well and truly earned a fee increase."

Santry doesn't believe that So You Think's spike puts him out of range among value sires.

St Mark's Basilica | Coolmore Australia

Adrian Bott & Colm Santry | Bronwen Healy

"We still see him as tremendous value for breeders who have been served so well by him over the years," he said. "He's such a consistent sire and we genuinely believe that the best is yet to come for So You Think, who has covered in excess of 200 mares for each of his last four seasons."

With three months to go in the racing calendar, it remains to be seen if So You Think will clinch his first Champion Sire title. If he does, he'll be the first New Zealand-bred horse since Zabeel (NZ) to do so.

He's clear of I Am Invincible by about $250,000 on the sires' table by earnings, with his best result to date in the premiership being his fifth-place finish last year to Written Tycoon.

Justify This

There were few surprises among the shuttle options when Coolmore announced its roster this week. Magna Grecia (Ire) will return for his third book at an unchanged fee of $19,250 (inc GST), while his prolific half-brother, the accomplished five-time Group 1 winner St Mark's Basilica (Fr), will bring the Siyouni (Fr) sireline to Jerrys Plains at a previously announced fee of $44,000 (inc GST).

Both of Coolmore's Triple Crown winners, American Pharoah (USA) and Justify (USA), will return, with both fees respectively remaining unchanged. The former will stand his sixth Australian season at $49,500 (inc GST), while Justify will cover his fourth book, off the back of his first yearlings this year, for $55,000 (inc GST).

"Justify was met with huge enthusiasm by local breeders when he first came to Australia," Santry said. "He received a similar level of interest from buyers at the sales this year. They sold for top prices of $1 million, $950,000 and $900,000 to join all the leading stables throughout the country."

Justify's first-crop, million-dollar yearling was a colt from Maastricht (NZ) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) that sold to Hawkes Racing at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale this month. He was a half-brother to the dual Group 1 winner Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible).

"The quality of mares that Justify covered in his first season is well-documented, but there's been great continuity too," Santry said. "His second-crop progeny is from the likes of Sunlight, Invincibella, Nakeeta Jane, Srikandi, Formality and Champagne Cuddles."

Added to that list was Charmont (High Chaparral {Ire}), a Group 1 winner in New Zealand, and the dual Group 3 winner Tulip (Pierro).

"Forward-thinking breeders will recognise the significant upside in supporting Justify this season as his first and second crops will be three and four years of age when this season's matings are sold as yearlings," Santry said.

Justify is among the seven Northern Hemisphere-based stallions on the Coolmore roster this upcoming season, with Churchill (Ire), Saxon Warrior (Jpn) and the immensely popular Wootton Bassett (GB) all returning.

Wootton Bassett will stand at $71,500 (inc GST), unchanged from last year, while Churchill is only slightly down at $22,000 (inc GST) and Saxon Warrior, at $19,250 (inc GST), is up on last year's fee of $13,750 (inc GST).

Australian-based stallions make up the remaining 10 horses on the roster, among which are Acrobat, the son of Fastnet Rock, at a debut fee of $13,750 (inc GST), plus King's Legacy unchanged at $33,000 (inc GST), while Merchant Navy has dropped slightly to $27,500 (inc GST).

Pride Of Dubai has dropped to $16,500 (inc GST), and The Everest winner Yes Yes Yes whips them in at an unchanged $38,500 (inc GST) ahead of his first yearlings selling next year.
