

FASIG SAVES BEST FOR LAST AT ACTION-PACKED JULY SALE

Tuesday's topper, Hip 302 | Fasig-Tipton

By Christie DeBernardis & Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY--Yearling sale season started with a bang Tuesday at Fasig-Tipton's July Selected Yearling Sale. The auction house saved the best for last with the final horse through the ring, a son of Curlin (Hip 302), topping the day on a $600,000 bid from the Green family's DJ Stable. Last year's leading freshman sire Gun Runner accounted for the day's second-highest seller, a $430,000 colt (Hip 153) sold to de Meric Sales. Both colts came from the Gainesway consignment, which was responsible for four of the top 10. Antony Beck's operation sold a total of nine youngsters for $2.335 million.

The sale kicked off with the freshman sire showcase, which proved popular as always. This year's new class of sires was led by MGISW Omaha Beach, whose daughter (Hip 90) brought $400,000 from Solis and Litt. Other popular first-crop stallions included Audible, Vino Rosso and Mitole, who all had yearling sell for over $200,000.

"We got excited about it when we're seeing them on the farms," Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning said of the freshman sires. "Vino Rosso was a tremendous racehorse. We saw him put his head down in the [GI Breeders' Cup] Classic and refuse to lose. Omaha Beach was a horse who had tremendous talent with an amazing pedigree." Cont. p3

THE CHAD AND TODD SHOW RETURNS TO THE SPA by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY--For the last dozen or so years, the competition for the training title at Saratoga Race Course has become the Todd and Chad Show. The next round of the now-annual summer showdown of heavyweights in upstate New York between Todd Pletcher and Chad Brown begins Thursday, the opening day of the 154th season of racing at Saratoga. Pletcher, 55, the all-time leader, will seek his 15th championship, named to honor the late great H. Allen Jerkens. Brown, 43, who just completed a record-smashing Belmont spring/summer season, is seeking his fifth, all since he ended a six-year run by Pletcher in 2016. Winning the training and riding titles at Saratoga has always been a big deal and great sport at America's most important meet. Finishing atop the standings at the Spa has often helped make careers and provided credentials for Eclipse Awards and later the Hall of Fame. Cont. p11

“I think there was great anticipation for horses like that, but it's also really rewarding and I think it shows you the strength of the marketplace when you see Flameaways sell really, really well and you see horses like Copper Bullet and Maximus Mischief sell really well on modest stud fees. So it shows you that the marketplace is really looking for quality, and they respect the really strong individuals, which is kind of the trademark of our July sale.”

A total of 189 yearlings sold Tuesday for a gross of $21,763,500. The average was the second highest of the sale's history at $115,151 with the highest being $115,954 in 2006.

It was a record median at $90,000, tying that 2006 sale. There were 59 horses who failed to meet their reserves. In 2021, 208 youngsters brought $21,608,500 with an average of $103,887 and median of $80,000. There were 69 RNAs.

“It was a terrific start to the 2022 yearling season,” Browning said. “We're very happy with the activity across the board today. Average was up about 12% medians up 12%, certainly a respectable RNA rate for the first yearling sales for the year and I think there's a sense of relief. You know, despite what we tell everybody on the pre-sale prognostications and how great it's going to be and how optimistic we are, there's always a little uncertainty. We've certainly seen some changes in the financial marketplace in the last six months. Overall, we were confident. We've seen plenty of interest and we saw the 2-year-old folks had a really good sales season.” Gainesway's Brian

Graves was equally pleased with what he saw in the market Tuesday. “The market is alive and well,” he said. “You know, there were some hesitations, but it looks like it's the same as last year.”

“I haven't seen the final numbers, but the appetite to buy horses is the same at least whether it's up or down a little bit. I don't know. I'm just happy that people want to trade.”

Donato Lanni said there was a horse for everyone, which was represented in a deep a diverse buying bench. Each of the top 10 lots were purchased by individual buyers and were a mix of end users and pinhookers.

“The good ones are standing out and separating themselves,” Lanni said. “It's a very good sale. There are a lot of people here. There are horses here for just about everybody.”

Late Fireworks for Curlin Colt

Jon Green and Brian Graves | Fasig-Tipton

The final horse through the ring at Tuesday's Fasig-Tipton July sale brought the day's biggest fireworks when selling for $600,000 to the Green family's D J Stable. By Curlin, the colt (hip 302) is out of Four Sugars (Lookin at Lucky) and is a half-brother to multiple Grade I-placed Gronkowski (Lonhro {Aus}).

“When you come to a sale like this, you want to try to take a shot at a stallion prospect, which obviously he is, being a half to Gronkowski and by Curlin,” Jon Green, who did his bidding in the balcony alongside bloodstock agent Kim Valerio, said. “It's just the kind of family we look for. We just wanted to take a full swing at a horse like this because they don't come along all that often. We've been doing this a long time and I can honestly say you don't have a horse who checks all the boxes like this colt.”

It wasn't the first member of the family the Greens have bid on. “We were outbid on the half-sister, the Nyquist filly, a little while ago,” Green said.

The sale-topper was consigned by Gainesway on behalf of his breeder, Adam Bowden's Diamond Creek Farm, which purchased Four Sugars, carrying that Nyquist filly for $375,000 at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton November sale. The filly sold for $200,000 at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton October sale.

"We knew that we had a chance to top the sale," admitted Gainesway's Brian Graves. "We brought him here to try to be one of the best colts in the sale. You know how that sometimes works out, sometimes it doesn't. But it worked out in this case. So, yeah, it's a good one when it goes as planned."

Of plans for the yearling, Green said, "He'll go to Gainesway and rest and relax there for a couple of weeks and then we will send our first yearling group down to Mark Casse in Ocala and he will break them down there. We just have to think of a good stallion name for him now."

DJ Stable purchased four yearlings at the July sale, going to $200,000 for a colt by Bolt d'Oro (hip 206); $100,000 for a filly by Mucho Macho Man (hip 292); and $50,000 for a colt by Preservationist (hip 227).

"We bought a couple of other horses, but this horse was always on the radar," Green said. "He was the last horse in the sale and we were going to stay until the bitter end. That was literally our last bid, so I am glad we did get him. Anytime you raise your hand for a four-legged animal at this level, it's always nerve-racking, but I feel like if he fulfills his potential, he's going to be a stallion. And that's why we do this, to try to race the great ones on the First Saturday in May." @JessMartiniTDN

Gun Runner Colt in High Demand at Fasig

It was no surprise to see a fury of bidding when the only offering by last year's leading freshman sire Gun Runner entered the ring. When the dust settled it was de Meric Sales' Tristan de Meric left holding the winning $430,000 ticket on Hip 153.

"He is for a pinhooking group," de Meric said. "We love the horse. He was our pick of the sale. We knew we'd have to stretch on him. I'm just happy to have the horse."

Bred by Fern Circle Stable and consigned by Gainesway, Hip 153 is out of SW Perfect Wife. Fern Circle retained his full-sister Runaway Wife, who finished second in last weekend's GIII Indiana Oaks for trainer Ken McPeck. "The sire speaks for himself," de Meric said. "It is unbelievable what he has done with his first crop. We think the horse is a top individual, beat mover in the sale. Hopefully, he goes the right way for us."

The de Merics were quite busy Tuesday, acquiring a total of four yearlings. Their other purchases were:

- Hip 133, Into Mischief colt, $260,000
- Hip 185, Into Mischief colt, $235,000
- Hip 47, Audible filly, $70,000

Omaha Beach Filly to LNJ Foxwoods

A filly by Omaha Beach (hip 90) attracted the highest bid for a first-crop sire when selling for $410,000 to bloodstock agents Jason Litt and Alex Solis, acting on behalf of the Roth family's LNJ Foxwoods, at Fasig-Tipton Tuesday.

"Omaha Beach was a great racehorse. I wasn't looking exactly for one, but we were looking for a really good filly in the sale," Solis said. "I thought she was one of the top fillies in the sale. The mare could run, a graded stakes winner, who had speed and was an early type. That's kind of what everyone is drawn to lately."

Consigned by Woodford Thoroughbreds on behalf of her breeder, Spendthrift Farm, hip 90 is the second foal out of GIII Beaumont S. winner Gas Station Sushi (Into Mischief). Spendthrift purchased the mare for $675,000 at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton November sale.

Gas Station Sushi's first foal, a colt by Lord Nelson, sold for $200,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale and was acquired for $80,000 at this year's OBS March sale.

Hip 90: Click here to watch Ned Toffey discuss early results from first-year sire Omaha Beach, including the $410,000 sale of his filly out of Gas Station Sushi | Fasig-Tipton

Now named Wasabi Boy, he has opened his career with two runner-up efforts at Belmont Park and Monmouth Park.

“It was a filly we would have been very happy to keep,” Spendthrift’s Ned Toffey said. “She is really a nice filly, but we wanted to showcase the stallion, so we brought her out here so breeders could see what Omaha is capable of doing.”

Of Tuesday’s result, Toffey said, “That was probably a little bit beyond what we were thinking coming out here, but she was placed here because we felt like she could be a standout in the sale. And it looks like that was borne out.”

Spendthrift hit a homerun last year with first-crop sire Bolt d’Oro and the operation’s first-crop sires look to be carrying on from those results with a strong showing at the July sale.

Omaha Beach had five yearlings sell Tuesday for an average of $236,000, while sprint champion Mitole had five sell for an average of $108,400 and GI Breeders’ Cup Classic winner Vino Rosso had 11 sell for an average of $135,455.

“I am really pleased with how all of our first-year stallions have done so far,” Toffey said. “Vino has three horses over $200,000, one of which we bought and we were happy to get for that. Mitole’s gotten off to a great start, he had a $250,000 filly and we also sold a $140,000 filly, hip 2. You always worry about being that early in the sale, but that was a fair price for her, we thought. So we are really, really happy with how the first-year horses are doing.” @JessMartiniTDN

Arrogate Filly Headed to Her Sire's Former Stomping Grounds

A filly from the final crop of the late champion Arrogate (Hip 247) will walk a shedrow familiar to her sire next year when she is ready to join Bob Baffert's barn after being purchased by bloodstock agent Donato Lanni for $400,000. He was acting on behalf of an undisclosed client.

"I love the sire," said Lanni, smiling ear-to-ear as he signed the ticket outside of the pressbox. "We have been looking for a really good Arrogate. I am happy that we found a nice Arrogate at this sale. She was really a good representation of Arrogate. She's nice."

Consigned by Wynnstay Sales, Hip 247 was also bred by Tim and Nancy Hamlin's operation in partnership with Donna Moore and Jim Richardson. Out of Attempt to Name (Consolidator), she is a half-sister to MSW Gray Attempt (Unbridled's Song).

"The sibling was on the Derby trail for a while," Tim Hamlin said. "When Arrogate came to be, they called and said, 'We would love to have your mare to breed to Arrogate.' So, we did and this is the result."

He continued, "Everybody loved her on the farm. You didn't even know she was there really. She was just always class. She kept herself out of trouble and did everything right always."

Hip 247 is from the third and final crop of four-time Grade I winner Arrogate, who died in June 2020 at age seven after a sudden illness. His top runners this year include GI Kentucky Oaks winner Secret Oath and 'TDN Rising Star' Artorius.

Rudy Delguidice

Our good friend and fellow horseman Rudy Delguidice was seriously injured in a riding accident last weekend. He will require intensive care once released from the hospital, and we are seeking support to assist in offsetting the high cost of his rehabilitation.

As you all know, Rudy is one of the most accomplished hands-on horseman in the Ocala area and his love for the horses is clearly shown in how horses respond to him. Rudy has touched us all in one way or another with his genuine smile and is a true mentor and teacher to anyone wanting to work in the horse industry.

Rudy is a strong individual but will require our support to get him back to work continuing doing what he loves best - working with horses.

Any and all support is much appreciated.

Thank you

Lanni In Action for Glassmans

Hip 193 | Fasig-Tipton

Bloodstock agent Donato Lanni, bidding on behalf of Karl and Cathi Glassman, went to $400,000 to acquire a colt by Uncle Mo (hip 193) from the St George Sales consignment Tuesday in Lexington. “I like the sire and he looked like a good Uncle Mo,” Lanni said of the yearling’s appeal. We were looking for a two-turn looking Uncle Mo. That’s what the clients wanted.”

Bred by T. F. VanMeter, hip 193 is out of multiple stakes winner Super Saks (Sky Mesa).

Of immediate plans for the yearling, Lanni said, “He will go to Barry Eisaman [in Ocala] and will hang out there for a bit.”

Legion Reputation Continues to Grow

The burgeoning Legion Bloodstock, formed just last year by partners Travis Durr, Evan Ciannello, Kristian Villante and Kyle Zorn and already represented by eight 2-year-old winners, hit a homerun in the sales ring Tuesday when selling a colt by Bolt d’Oro (hip 214) for $240,000 to Lynnhaven Racing. The bay had been purchased by Villante for $20,000 as a short yearling at this year’s Keeneland January sale.

“We have a weanling-to-yearling pinhooking partnership with Legion,” Villante explained. “We bought him for that and pieced him out to partners that always support us through the pinhooking. They each bought a leg of him.”

The colt, consigned by Stuart Morris, is out of Ultimate Prize (Smart Strike), a half-sister to stakes winner Goin to the Window (Tapit).

“He was a big, immature framed horse that was kind of backward,” Villante said of his impressions of the colt in January. “As soon as we got him back home, he just started to blossom and fill out. He’s always been a beautiful horse and very straightforward. I was surprised to get him for $20,000. I didn’t think we would be able to get him for that.”

With freshman sire Bolt d’Oro already proving a success in the sales ring and on the racetrack, the group decided to send his yearling son through the ring at the July sale.

“With Bolt d’Oro being on a tear right now, we figured the market really loves him and he’s off to a great start,” Villante said. “We’ve bought a number of Bolt d’Oros that we like ourselves. Fasig does a great job, so we figured this would be a good spot to bring him and let the market appraise him.”

Among Legion Bloodstock’s early success stories is Song Parody (Practical Joke). Purchased for $25,000 at last year’s OBS October sale, the filly was a first-out winner for Matt Hand, Dick Nicolai and Bob Hahn and trainer Kelly Breen before selling for $360,000 during Monday’s Fasig-Tipton Horses of All Ages Sale.

Of Tuesday’s pinhooking score, Villante said, “It was awesome. We are very happy with that. Hopefully, he goes on and proves everyone right.” @JessMartiniTDN

Stoneriggs Hits the Ground Running with First Consignment

Robert Slack’s Stoneriggs Farm was making their sales debut at Fasig-Tipton July with a two-horse consignment and they came out of the gate running with their Audible colt (Hip 4) summoning $220,000 from Pete Bradley.

“We are really happy,” said Stoneriggs General Manager Martin Keogh. “We knew coming up here that we had a really nice colt. He definitely exceeded expectations. He was really popular at the barn, had been vetted a lot. He was just a horse that spoke for himself. He did not miss a beat the whole few days here. Every day he came out and just marched up and down.”

When asked his impressions of the first crop of GI Florida Derby winner Audible, Keogh said, “We are big fans of the stallion. When we were looking in November, we short-listed a lot of them, but I kept telling the boss I thought we had a better one at home. He is very typical of his sire, Into Mischief.”

Hip 4 is out of I’m Guilty (Verrazano), a half-sister to GSW Ready To Please (More Than ready), who is the dam of Japanese GSW Nac Venus (Daiwa Major). Stoneriggs other offering was also by a first season stallion in champion Vino Rosso (Curlin). Their homebred daughter of that GI Breeders’ Cup Classic winner brought $45,000 from James Connors. Hip 53 is out of the Hard Spun mare Twisted Adage.

“We have 30 yearlings this year and have 60 mares to foal next year, so we are going to keep building,” Keogh said. “We are going to be a commercial operation. We are going to evaluate all them and decide whether to sell them as foals or keep some for yearling sales. We are going to do a bit of it all.”

Venosa Well-Armed at Fasig-Tipton

Three yearlings by Darby Dan's first-crop stallion Copper Bullet sold during Tuesday's Fasig-Tipton July sale and Steve Venosa's SGV Thoroughbreds went home to Ocala with two of them.

"You can never have too many bullets," the pinhooker quipped after signing the ticket on hip 64 at $160,000.

Consigned by Darby Dan Farm, the colt is out of Amazement (Bernardini), who is also the dam of multiple Grade I winner Colonel Liam (Liam's Map).

Earlier in the session, Venosa paid $80,000 for hip 32, a son of Quite a Secret (Liaison) bred by Outfoxed Farm and consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency.

"They look very balanced, very athletic and they look like they are going to be very precocious," Venosa said of his impression of Copper Bullet's first yearlings.

Copper Bullet (More Than Ready) won the 2017 GII Saratoga Special S. and was second in the 2019 GIII Razorback H. He stands at Darby Dan for $7,500.

Ciaran Dunne's Waves Bloodstock purchased the third Copper Bullet to sell Tuesday, going to $48,000 to acquire hip 11 from Stuart Morris's consignment.

 Pletcher served notice that he was a budding superstar when he won the Saratoga crown in 1998 as a 31-year-old in his third full season as a head trainer. Brown grew up in nearby Mechanicville and embraced racing at the Spa, earned the first of his four-consecutive Eclipse Awards a few months after securing his title at the age of 37. According to stats provided by Equibase, Pletcher and Brown have finished either first or second in the Saratoga standings since 2011. During that stretch, Pletcher won seven times, but Brown has won four of the last six, including a record 46 in 2018. Starting in 2008, Brown's first full season as a trainer, Pletcher has won 416 of 1,950 Saratoga starts. He has won 103 stakes, 60 of them graded. Brown has produced some big numbers in recent years, four times finishing with 40 or more. He has 392 victories from 1,600 starts, with a total of 90 stakes wins, 48 of them graded.
 Pletcher has found the bulk of his success on the dirt, winning 292 of 1,197 starts. He has 124 wins in 753 races on grass. Brown's stats are in sharp contrast: he has 128 wins from 542 dirt starts while securing 264 victories from 1,058 starts on the turf courses. In stakes, Pletcher has 76 wins on dirt and 27 on turf. Brown has 25 stakes win on dirt and 65 on grass.

Todd Pletcher | Sarah Andrew

Pletcher said that Brown might have the upper hand entering the season and said that he checks the standings that the New York Racing Association publishes during the 40-day meet.

"Oh, yeah. You've got to watch the scoreboard," he said.

"That's part of the fun. If you didn't do that you wouldn't care at all. Chad has built a very, very powerful stable. Saratoga is his hometown and he loves to win there. Looking at the situation right now, he's going to be very difficult to beat, for sure."

Brown has always acknowledged that his success at Saratoga has been vitally important for his career and has said that winning GI Travers S. would be more personally satisfying for him than a victory in the GI Kentucky Derby. After initially being turned down for stalls in 2008, he won with the first horse he saddled at Saratoga in the first race on opening day. He said the six wins from 18 starts that summer gave him credibility and brought him new clients.

Entering this meet he is second to Steve Asmussen in 2022 earnings with $14.9 million, has GI Preakness S. winner Early Voting (Gun Runner) in his career-best group of 3-year-old colts, a slew of graded stakes winners and comes in from the impressive Belmont Park performance. Long the pursuer of Pletcher at the meet, Brown smiled and agreed that he is now the one being pursued, but said it will be a challenge to repeat after claiming his seventh-straight Belmont crown.

"It's hard to sustain," he said. "I think you'll see last year we had a big Belmont meet, might not have broke the record, but a big Belmont meet. And then we started off Saratoga a little slow, we won some races, we had some stakes and stuff, but, really, we picked up the second half of the meet and we had a couple of huge days in that last third of the meet. Then we really ended up being strong and in front. I could see similar. I have some nice races marked early in the meet, but it's so hard to sustain this because you have to keep the horses in good form, you have to keep them healthy. When you win this many races, you're moving out of conditions, right? So you're moving up in class. Every horse, that won is going to go up now and the races are going to get harder. When you move up a class, move into a more difficult meet and moving up in class for the first time those races can be difficult for those horses."

Brown said that while he aims for Saratoga, he did not pump the brakes at Belmont. "I went all in at Belmont because, the old saying is 'you make hay when the sun shining,'" he said. "And when you're on the turf, and it's firm, and the races are going and the horses are healthy you run because the purses are very good at Belmont. They're not as high as these record purses that are going to be offered at Saratoga in all these conditions. This is amazing. And it's great for all the horsemen and our clients that pay all the bills."

Since his initial championship 24 years ago, Pletcher has never been worse than third at Saratoga. He has been the runner-up seven times. He arrives at this meet ranked third in the national standings for earnings at $14.4 million. Like Brown, he saddled a Triple Crown series winner, Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo), the GI Belmont S. champ, who is injured and won't run at Saratoga. The Hall of Famer, who is the sport's leading career money winner, said he is still interested in winning the Spa meet.

"It's always fun to compete at Saratoga. It certainly means something," he said. "I wouldn't say it means quite the same as the first one did. That one was extra special and unexpected in a lot of ways. Wouldn't have anticipated that could happen the third year there. "I've always said, I have a great appreciation for how difficult it is to win at Saratoga. And we don't take anything for granted. As always, a lot of our success will depend on how our 2-year-olds run. I feel like we have a nice group, but I'm not positive that a lot of them are July types, probably more like mid- to late-August or even September, October types. We'll just have to see how they pan out."

Even with Mo Donegal on the sidelines, Pletcher has a strong bench of stakes runners. In the last two weeks at Belmont he won the GII Suburban with Dynamic One (Union Rags), the GIII Dwyer S. with Charge It (Tapit) the GII John Nerud S. with Life is Good (Into Mischief), the Manila S. with Annapolis (War Front) and the Perfect Sting S. with Joustier (Noble Mission). In addition, he now trains Corniche, last year's 2-year-old champion, who is expected to make his first start for Pletcher at Saratoga.

"I obviously love the way July started out for us," he said. "It's always good when you have the quality of horses that we ran and we've got some big targets of Saratoga so that that's exciting."

PENNY BREAKAGE TO BEGIN ON KENTUCKY RACES JULY 15

From the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation

Racing at Ellis Park | Coady

Bettors wagering on racing from Kentucky will enjoy returns paid to the penny beginning Friday, July 15. The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission confirmed to the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation (TIF) the shift will take effect this week, three months after legislation enabling the change to penny breakage was passed by the Kentucky General Assembly and signed into law.

"This is a welcome and long overdue shift in pari-mutuel wagering to pay bettors the entirety of their duly deserved winnings," said Patrick Cummings, TIF's Executive Director. "Kentucky is leading the way, and if a horseplayer wants to enjoy the entirety of a winning dividend, they should be betting on races run in Kentucky."

"This will be the first time in American history a racing jurisdiction is requiring payment to the penny for all wagers and we hope it will not be the last. This should put more money in the hands and accounts of horseplayers and inspire additional churn, something everyone across the sport should seek, yet remarkably eludes us as churn-killing super exotic bets and jackpot bets have expanded. We are incredibly thankful for the efforts of Kentucky Representative Adam Koenig, bill co-sponsor Representative Al Gentry and Senator Damon Thayer for their support over the years to bring this topic to the fore. They continue to look out for the best interests of horseplayers and the greater sport."

For the modern history of pari-mutuel wagering in American racing, winning dividends have generally been rounded to the lowest 10-cent unit, with limited exceptions. Going forward, the dividend is rounded to the lowest penny.

Until now, if the unbroken return on a show bet was $1.4854928, the return for every $1 unit was rounded down to $1.40. A $2 bet returned $2.80.

Beginning Friday, in the above example a winning bettor would receive $1.48 for every $1. A $2 bet in this example would return $2.96, a meaningful increase in the profit returned to customers.

The campaign to bring penny breakage to horseplayers was the topic of the first white paper in TIF history. It can be reviewed by clicking here.

"This effort would not have been possible without the tireless support of TIF Founder and Glen Hill Farm President & CEO Craig Bernick, who has been so remarkably driven to improve American horse racing for its voluntary financial participants--horseplayers and horse owners," Cummings said. "If we make the sport better for them, the benefits trickle to every corner of the industry."

An estimated $35 million was collected and retained as breakage from Kentucky races over the last five, full fiscal years. Under the new law, nearly all of that money would go back to winning bettors.

"Breaking to the penny will put millions of dollars back into the hands of horseplayers each year, wherever they are betting on Kentucky racing," Cummings added. "Until other states make the change, Kentucky will have the advantage."

Kentucky tracks and horsemen split on-track breakage in the past, while off-track bets and ADW bets saw breakage retained by the respective bet-taker. Going forward, all bettors of races run in Kentucky will enjoy a full winning dividend rounded to the penny. Sub-penny breakage will still be retained.

Q&A WITH RILEY MOTT

by Jen Roytz

Riley Mott | Sarah Andrew

Riley Mott, a longtime assistant to his Hall of Fame father, Bill Mott, recently announced he was going out on his own. The 30-year-old will hang his own shingle after taking out his training license. Jen Roytz sat down with the younger Mott for this Q&A.

JR: What has it been like coming up under your father?

RM: To be honest, it's been like going to Harvard for horse training. Not only learning from him but from everyone involved in our operation, all the way up and down the ladder. I've gained knowledge from everyone in our barn at one point or another in my life. I have a great blueprint on how to run my business and feel very equipped for what lies ahead.

JR: Describe the type of horseman you are?

RM: I try to be patient and understanding towards the horses first and foremost. It's quite amazing what they allow us to do with them when you take a step back and think about it. They're such amazing animals. All horses learn and adapt at their own pace and I find it helpful to be cognizant of that while training.

JR: Describe the responsibility that comes with being a trainer.

RM: As a trainer you are the absolute insurer, so you have all of the responsibility. I've learned that you have to follow your gut and be confident in the decisions you make. Attention to detail and surrounding yourself with good staff can't be overstated.

JR: What is your favorite aspect of horse racing?

RM: I would say the lead up and anticipation of a race is my favorite aspect. It's basically a crescendo of blood, sweat and tears from the breeders, sellers, breaking farms and trainers (and many more parties in between) to get a horse in the starting gate for a race. And if you win, even more thrilling.

JR: What horses have had the biggest impact on your life?

RM: My dad has always said Theatrical (Ire) probably had the biggest impact on his life. The horse paid for my parents' first house in New York and they were able to start our family from there. Maybe if it weren't for Theatrical I wouldn't exist, so for that reason, Theatrical.

JR: Talk about some of the horses that have taught you the most?

RM: We've had a number of horses who I would consider "projects," whether it be for soundness or temperamental reasons. There have been times where I've only seen a dead end with them, but we've given them the time required to get right and it's worked out well. I've learned that if they can go on and win a race down the line, it's worth giving the horse a fair chance, even if the end goal is well in the future.

JR: What is one of your biggest professional accomplishments?

RM: I've been involved in a number of champions, classic winners, Grade I winners, etc. I would consider all of those team accomplishments rather than my own accomplishments. There's no one person who is responsible for any of those successes, but I take a lot of pride in the horses our team has been able to develop.

JR: What are some ways trainers and their staff can improve the racehorse ownership experience?

RM: It depends on the ownership group. Some owners are happy to let you do your thing and see you over in the paddock for the race. Others enjoy being more involved in the day-to-day happenings. I believe in flexibility and having an open door for your clients. We're not just in the horse training business, but the service business as well. My goal is to get creative and introduce some new ways to involve our clients.

JR: In what ways do you think HISA will change racing in the coming years?

RM: I think it will ultimately create a more level playing field, which I would say most people are in favor of. In theory, horsemanship and skill will be rewarded. Some of the bookkeeping requirements appear to be rather tedious, but I'm confident the rules will evolve over time and the record-keeping system will be a bit more realistic. It would be nice to see uniformity without getting too radical.

JR: What (so far) has been your most memorable moment in racing?

RM: Country House's [Kentucky] Derby was quite wild. Not because that's how we wanted to win the race, but the roller coaster of emotion it took us on was pretty unique. From one extreme to another and everything in between. Experiencing it with my wife Megan was also very special. Both the positives and the negatives of the situation are something I'll never forget.

Mott with MGISW Yoshida (Jpn) | Emma Berry

JR: What do you think horse racing is doing right?

RM: One thing that appears to be regularly overlooked is the amount of jobs our industry provides. Between the backstretch workers, administrative workers, frontside workers, maintenance teams and so on, it takes armies to operate a race meet. That's something I've been so proud of in regard to my parents' business over the years. Providing work for families is very honorable and something I hope to do in the same capacity going forward.

JR: Do you ride, and if so, what is your riding background?

RM: I ride the pony every day, that's the extent of it. His name is Round, a Claiborne homebred who we raced. By Arch, out of Enth, half to multiple stakes winners. He catches the eye.

Think Fast...

JR: Most used app on your phone

RM: Dark Sky

JR: What is a good book you've read lately

RM: More of a past performance guy

JR: Favorite racing movie

RM: Seabiscuit

JR: What do you enjoy doing outside of work

RM: Golf and family time

JR: What is the last thing you Googled

RM: Best brand of electric scooter

JR: What do you wish you learned sooner

RM: I didn't learn how to ride a bike until I was about nine

JR: What skill are you still honing

RM: Everything. You're never a finished product.

JR: What trait most defines who you are

RM: Positive

JR: Favorite quote or motto

RM: Hindsight is everything in the game of horse racing

JR: What food (or drink) can you not live without

RM: Erma Scott's shepherd's pie

JR: What is a nickname that people call/have called you?

RM: Riles

JR: Go-to breakfast

RM: Coffee

JR: Go-to cocktail

RM: Casamigos margarita

JR: Go-to karaoke song

RM: Whatever song my 10-month-old daughter has been listening to

JR: What sports teams do you follow

RM: Kentucky Wildcats basketball/football. Cam Smith is my favorite golfer.

JR: What was the last show you binge watched

RM: Too embarrassed to say

JR: If you could have one super power, what would it be?

RM: Teleport

JR: What is the worst fashion (or hair) decision you've ever made?

RM: Middle school: surfer hair. Polo shirt with gym shorts.

The four-time graded winner failed to show her best when seventh in her 2022 debut in Monmouth's GIII Eatontown S. June 18, but atoned for that with style, flashing home a facile repeat three-length winner in Tuesday's GIII Dr. James Penny Memorial S. at Parx. Taken immediately to the front by Florent Geroux, she led Love in the Air and Runaway Rumour (Flintshire {GB}) through a poky quarter in :24.2. Still cruising on top following a :49.08 half, the 5-year-old was in control turning for home, sprinted clear in the lane to win by a comfortable margin over the oncoming Flirting Bridge (Ire), 3 3/4 lengths behind the runner up.

Princess Grace, winner of the GII Mrs Revere S. at three, added wins in three consecutive graded tries the following season--headed by the 2021 renewal of this test followed by Del Mar's GII Yellow Ribbon H. and GIII Ladies Turf S. at Kentucky Downs. In her final two starts of the season, she finished third in both the Nov. 6 GII Goldikova S. and the GI Matriarch S. Nov. 28.

FISHMAN HAS BEEN SENTENCED. IS THAT THE END OF THIS STORY?

By Bill Finley

Having been convicted of two counts of drug adulteration and misbranding, with intent to defraud and mislead, Dr. Seth Fishman was sentenced Monday to 11 years in prison, by far the longest sentence handed down to anyone among the many people tied up in a far-reaching doping scandal that has shaken the Thoroughbred and Standardbred industries. He will soon call a federal penitentiary home, and for a long time. Good. He got what he deserved.

But is this the end of his story or a precursor to what's to come? Are the arrests of Fishman, Jason Servis, Jorge Navarro and some 25 others just the first chapter in scandal that will bring down dozens, maybe even hundreds, of others? Some say that is inevitable.

“I have no doubt there are many arrests pending,” Jockey Club Chairman Stuart Janney III said at the 2020 Jockey Club Round Table. “Fortunately they will happen, just not as soon as we would like.”

Despite Janney’s assurances, nothing is certain here. Nothing is clear cut.

Fishman is a key figure. Surely, he was dealing performance-enhancing drugs to far more people than those who were targeted, indicted and convicted of doping horses by the federal government. It can’t just be Servis, Navarro and a handful of others.

In February, a list of Fishman’s clients was released. But that raised more questions than it answered. There were more than 2,000 individuals on the list, and virtually all of them were from the Standardbred industry. The list included hundreds of people whose integrity has never been questioned and who have spotless records. That may be because some of those whose names were on the list purchased legal medications from Fishman. We just don’t know.

So the list did not answer the key question: who was buying performance-enhancing drugs from Dr. Fishman? Fishman may decide to answer that question, to tell all. Maybe he already has. Then again, maybe that’s not necessary. Is there a paper trail of not only who he sold drugs to but which drugs? One would think that would be the case. There’s also the case of Louis Grasso. Another veterinarian who dealt primarily with Standardbreds, he entered a guilty plea in May on the charges of one count of drug adulteration and misbranding conspiracy. What does he know? Who, beyond those already caught up in the scandal, was he dealing his drugs to? Will we ever find out? Nailing a bunch of other cheats would seem to be a case of low-hanging fruit.

“I hope there will be more arrests and indictments,” said Meadowlands owner Jeff Gural, who has played a large part in the effort to catch the worst of the worst when it came to racing’s cheats. “I would hope we will be able to find out who bought what from Fishman and Grasso. Because, clearly, they know who bought what. I am sure people bought legitimate medications, but I’m also sure others bought performance-enhancing drugs. I don’t think this is the end of it at all.”

One school of thought is that the government is waiting, that it wants to first resolve all the cases against all the alleged cheaters from the original March, 2020 indictments. That includes Servis, who is set to go on trial in January. After Servis’ trial is over and, if he is found guilty, and his sentence has been announced, maybe that’s when there will be a fresh and lengthy list of additional horsemen, trainers and vets that have been indicted.

But here’s another scenario, one that I believe is most likely.

The government probably already has a laundry list of people who bought PEDs from Fishman and Grasso. It wouldn’t be hard to come up with one. And maybe Fishman and Grasso, in hopes of getting a lighter sentence, have cooperated with the authorities and named names. That’s entirely possible, if not plausible. But that doesn’t mean that the government has to act on that.

Does the government really want to use up even more resources on something, that in the grand scheme of things, isn’t that big of a deal? Every minute they spend trying going after people who may have cheated in what is not a major sport is one less minute they can devote to going after drug dealers, money launderers, gang leaders and the likes of Ghislaine Maxwell. As much as we care about our sport and as much as we want to rid ourselves of the cheats, we really are small potatoes.

The hope is that there are a bunch more bad guys out there who are going to face the consequences for doping horses. I just don’t think that’s going to happen. Sure hope I am wrong.

NORTH AMERICAN RACING

3rd-Parx Racing, $52,580, Alw (NW2L)/Opt. Clm ($40,000), 7-12, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:10.99, ft, 5 1/2 lengths.

GUNFYRE GAL (f, 3, Gun Runner--Frost Fire, by Medaglia d'Oro)

popped out to the front from the rail, shook off a challenge on the turn and widened to a six-length debut victory over track and trip June 14, and was backed down 1-2 to repeat here. Breaking from the outermost draw this time, the homebred pressed the pace from second through a sharp :21.86 quarter, poked her head in front passing the five-sixteenths pole, edged clear into the lane and had it all to herself from there, staying unbeaten with an easy 5 1/2-length success. Pistol Liz Ablazen (Daredevil) completed the exacta. The winner is a half to Streetwithaname (Street Sense), SW, $113,985. Her third dam is GISW La Gueriere (Lord At War {Arg}), who produced GISW Icon Project (Empire Maker) as well as the dam of MGSW/MGISP star sire Munnings (Speightstown). Frost Fire is responsible for a juvenile Liam's Map filly named Precipice and a yearling colt by Munnings. Sales History: $250,000 RNA Ylg '20 EASOCT. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $55,680. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O/B-Jon A. Marshall (PA); T-John C. Servis.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

3rd-Colonial Downs, $60,000, Msw, 7-12, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:09.08, ft, 3 1/2 lengths.

PURRFECT (f, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Felini, by Bernardini) showed a sharp Delaware worktab for this debut, highlighted by a best-of-44 bullet half-mile from the gate in :47 4/5 June 8, and was supported to 6-5 favoritism in an iffy-looking maiden bunch. Traveling in a joint third behind a :22.10 quarter split, the Godolphin homebred ranged up to challenge for the lead three deep past a :45.36 half, took charge soon thereafter and kept clear to score a 3 1/2-length graduation over Love of My Life (Practical Joke). The first foal out of a half-sister to MGSW It's Tricky (Mineshaft), the victress is followed by a 2-year-old Uncle Mo colt named Tio Gato who most recently breezed a half-mile at Delaware in :50 1/5 (10/14) June 30. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $36,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

NAVAL EMPIRE (f, 2, Empire Maker--In the Navy Now {SW, $253,020}, by Midshipman) displayed a nondescript worktab at Fair Hill for this unveiling before stepping it up a bit in a :49 flat (7/28) four-furlong move there July 5, and was made the distant 17-5 second choice behind 2-5 firster La Tache (Good Samaritan). Away sharply, the dark bay tracked from a close-up second with the favorite shadowing her through :23.07 quarter, and was losing ground to that rival midway around the turn. Looking to be in deep water as the half went up in :46.45, Naval Empire appeared energized by the closing bid of Livana (Aldrin) to her outside passing the furlong grounds, overhauled the chalk outside the sixteenth pole and outran a green Livana late to prevail by two lengths. La Tache settled for third. The winner is the first foal out of her dam, who was purchased by her breeder for $170,000 as a juvenile in 2015 and is responsible for a yearling Gun Runner filly. FIRE BABY (g, 2, Unified--Greely's Comet, by Greeley's Conquest), given a 19-2 debut chance off a modest-looking worktab, tracked sparring leaders from third through a :23.20 quarter. Traveling greenly in the stretch, the homebred began to reel in odds-on Mo Moves (Mo Town), who also had some issues keeping a straight course down the lane, nearing the sixteenth pole, and surged past that rival in the closing strides to score a three-quarter length upset. The victor has a yearling full-brother and a foal half-sister by Goldencents. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $20,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

GRAND ISLE (c, 2, Always Dreaming--Grand Mere {SP, $114,479}, by Bob and John) chased the pace before flattening out to finish third when unveiled over a furlong shorter here June 29 and was pounded down to 1-5 as part of an entry in this spot. Catching a flier out of the gate, the homebred dueled through a :22.84 quarter, crept away from his pace rival entering the turn and quickly slammed the door after straightening for home en route to a 9 3/4-length romp. His entrymate Need to Know Basis (Overanalyze) was second. The third winner for his freshman sire (by Bodemeister), Grand Isle is from the family of English MG1SW Ad Valorem (Danzig). He has a yearling half-sister by National Flag and a Yoshida (Jpn) half-sister foaled this season. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $23,980. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

JAPANESE GLOBETROTTERS BOOST RECORD JRHA SELECT SALE

The top-priced foal is a son of the late Duramente out of Champagne Anyone | JRHA

By Emma Berry

Clearance rates narrowly in excess of 95% for both days of the Japan Racing Horse Association (JRHA) Select Sale speak to the consistent demand for fledgling racehorses in the country where the leading bloodstock auction has once again set new high markers in all sectors of the market.

At the final count, 447 foals and yearlings (from 469 offered) changed hands for a new record aggregate of ¥25,762,500,000 (£159m/€187m), up 14% on last year's previous high. The average also increased significantly, by 12%, to ¥57,634,228 (£355,000/€419,000) for the sale as a whole. The foal session's contribution to that overall tally on Tuesday was ¥12,892,500,000 (£98m/€116m) spent on 225 foals from the 236 offered. That figure represented an 18% increase, while the average of ¥57,300,000 (£353,000/€417,000) was up by almost 12%.

"It was a record-breaking market here last year and I did not expect to beat it this year," said leading breeder Teruya Yoshida of Shadai Farm, who is also the chairman of the JRHA. "The market was very strong from the top end through to the bottom end, and I am very impressed with the depth of buyers. High demand for young horses was kept throughout the two days and the clearance rate of 95.3% is unbelievable." Cont. p2

DISQUALIFICATION OPTION INTRODUCED IN BHA WHIP REVIEW

The British Horseracing Authority (BHA) has published its much discussed Whip Consultation Report, which, in a first for major racing jurisdictions, introduces the potential for a horse to be disqualified if a jockey has used the whip four or more times above the permitted level. The ProCush whip can be used seven times in a Flat race and eight times over jumps, and the current rules will be amended to restrict use for encouragement in the backhand position only.

Twenty recommendations were submitted by the Whip Consultation Steering Group to the board of the BHA and all were given approval. The key recommendations will lead to the development of a review panel responsible for evaluation of all rides and any necessary sanction or action, and increased penalties for offences. Cont. p6

WORLDWIDE NEWS

He added, "I am very happy to see that so many people are interested in enjoying ownership of racehorses and very glad to witness that they are very keen to make a big investment in the bloodstock market."

Just as Ireland and Britain have lost the influential Galileo (Ire) and Pivotal (GB) from the stallion ranks in recent years, the Japanese breeding scene is now contemplating life after the big-hitters Deep Impact (Jpn) and King Kamehameha (Jpn), both of whom died in 2019.

Duramente (Jpn), a Classic-winning son of King Kamehameha, had been starting to hint at his own prowess, but he was lost to an attack of colitis last August leaving 629 foals from his four seasons at stud. With his eldest runners now four, Duramente is responsible for this season's G1 Japanese 1000 Guineas and G1 Oaks winner Southern Stars (Jpn), as well as Titleholder (Jpn), a member of his first crop who claimed last year's G1 Japanese St Leger and has added another two Group 1 wins to his record this season in the Tenno Sho and Takarazuka Kinen.

The late stallion featured prominently among Monday's yearling results and, with a member of his final crop he topped the final day when the second foal of the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks winner Champagne Anyone (Street Sense) brought the hammer down at ¥320 million (£1.97m/€2.33m). The colt (lot 393) was offered by Shunsuke Yoshida, the son of Northern Farm owner Katsumi Yoshida who is now in his second year consigning, and was bought by Red Horse.

The death of Giant's Causeway was also much lamented, and this year's Select Sale has featured the first yearlings of his talented son Bricks And Mortar, a four-time Grade I winner, including the Breeders' Cup Turf, and one of four sires imported to Japan from America for the 2020 breeding season. His 11 yearlings in the sale were led by lot 104, a colt from the dual Group 3 winner and Classic-placed Maximum De Paris (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) who sold for ¥135 million (£831,400/€982,800) from Shadai Farm to Hiroasaki Toshihiro.

The 8-year-old stallion was also represented by 13 foals on Tuesday and these included the day's second-top lot (325). The graduate of Northern Farm was offered alongside his dam Awake (Jpn), a Group 2-placed daughter of Daughter Impact (Jpn) from the family of the globetrotting Stella Veloce (Jpn) (Bago {Fr}), and was sold for ¥310 million (£1.9m/€2.25m) to Tetsuhide Kunimoto.

"I visited Northern Farm several times in the last few months and found that this colt, out of Awake, kept improving. That is what I like about him," said Kunimoto. "To be frank, I do not know who [will be] the next leading sire, though I think Bricks And Mortar is a very suitable stallion for racing in Japan, as he is a turf champion himself and most of his yearlings look like sharp and speedy turf horses. This colt lets me have a dream."

The Australian four-time Group 1 winner Mosheen (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) had her name in lights on Monday when her Maurice (Jpn) colt topped the yearling session at ¥450 million (£2.7m/€3.25m), and she made an appearance herself on Tuesday in the company of her colt foal by Epiphaneia (Jpn). Offered as lot 367 by breeder Katsumi Yoshida of Northern Farm, her youngest offspring was also in demand and sold for ¥300 million (£1.84m/€2.18m) to Ver Co Ltd. Epipheneia, whose leading offspring include the Fillies' Triple Crown winner Daring Tact (Jpn), was also the sire of another of the day's bestsellers, lot 353, another from Northern Farm and out of the GI Del Mar Debutante S. winner She's A Tiger (Tale Of The Cat). The top-priced filly among the foals, she was knocked down to Hiroyasu Takeuchi, racing manager of Nicks Co Ltd for ¥280 million (£1.72m/€2.03m).

"I studied her pedigree and am convinced she should have inherited a lot of speed," said Takeuchi. "She is very valuable as future broodmare as well and I believe she is worth paying this amount of money."

Fifteen foals by Epiphaneia were sold on Tuesday for an average price of ¥111,100,000 (£684,000/€808,800).

Fourteen members of the first crop of G1 Japanese 2000

Guineas winner Saturnalia (Jpn) were for sale on Tuesday and the stock of the son of Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) received a thumbs-up from buyers, with two ending up among the top 10 lots of the day. These included lot 339, a three-parts-brother to G1 Mile Championship winner Stelvio (Jpn) (Lor Kanaloa {Jpn}) who fetched ¥300 million (£1.84m/€2.18m). Their dam L'Archetto (Jpn) (Falbrav {Ire}) had also provided one of the leading yearlings of the opening day--a colt by Rey De Oro (Jpn) who sold for ¥220 million. Both youngsters were bought by Kaneko Makoto of Deep Impact fame.

Concluding his review of the two-day sale, Teruya Yoshida added, "The quality of mares we have in Japan is very high and the quality of young horses offered here yesterday and today was very high as well. Japanese-bred horses are running very well in international races in the USA and Middle East, and I understand that it helps to boost this market."

This will include the doubling of jockey suspensions in major races when the whip is used above the permitted level.

The steering group was comprised of a range of industry professionals, including jockeys, trainer, members of the media and representatives of government and horse welfare bodies. According to a press release by the BHA, the panel's recommendations are "designed to be considered as a package of measures based on the following core principles and objectives".

These are listed as:

- Developing rules which foster more considered and judicious use of the whip for encouragement.
- Improving the style and perception of whip use.
- Greater focus on education and improving standards.
- Greater consistency in application of the rules.
- Introducing a penalty framework which acts as an effective deterrent against misuse.

Further technical discussions will now take place with jockeys and industry participants to consider practical or logistical considerations relating to the new rules, which are likely to come into force in the autumn, though no specific date has yet been fixed.

The discussion period will finalise details such as the exact working of the review panel, and the training and education required for both jockeys and stewards ahead of the new rules coming into play. There will also be a 'bedding-in' period to allow for a transition once the new rules have been implemented.

David Jones, chair of the Whip Consultation Steering Group, said, "I would like to offer my thanks to everyone who took part in this process, from the members of the Steering Group who brought their considerable, wide-ranging expertise to the table in a manner of collaboration and positivity, through to everyone who took part in the consultation.

"It is our view that, as a result of this process, we are continuing to evolve standards of whip use, through a regulatory approach that will be demonstrably and visibly fair in terms of what they ask of our horses and the spirit of fair sporting competition." Cont. p7

The Whip Consultation Report was published on Tuesday. | BHA

He continued, "It is inevitable that there will be those who think we have gone too far, and those who think we have not gone far enough. I ask only that the considerable expertise that has provided its input to this process, and the scale of the task in finding consensus across such a broad range of complex factors, be considered as part of any discussion about these proposals."

PJ McDonald, one of two jockeys on the steering group along with Tom Scudamore, commented, "While as jockeys we would prefer not to have seen penalties for whip offences significantly increased, we also have to accept that steps needed to be taken to prevent breaches of the whip rules."

"I am pleased that the introduction of the review panel will increase consistency of officiating, and focus not only on penalties but also improving standards of riding. The introduction of disqualification for certain offences is a major step, but I think we all share the same hope and expectation which is that it is a rule that will rarely, if ever, need to be used as it will serve as a significant deterrent to jockeys using the whip too frequently."

The review has also been welcomed by World Horse Welfare's chief executive Roly Owers, another member of the steering group, who said, "It would have been easy for racing to carry out this review in its own bubble, but by including an equine welfare organisation within the steering group itself they showed they were willing to consider other views and be asked some fundamental questions. While the group did not agree unanimously on all the decisions which were made, the whole process was a thorough one and racing should be commended for this approach."

With a note of caution, he added, "Racing of horses, like all horse sport, can only continue to take place if the sport maintains the support of the public, which will require everyone in racing to justify their use of the whip in the context of horse welfare, and show that they can be trusted to adhere to and enforce these rules."

by Tom Frary

Thursday's G1 Grand Prix de Paris at ParisLongchamp has attracted a tight field of six, with Flaxman Stables' supplemented Piz Badile (Ire) (Ulysses {Ire}) bringing the G1 Irish Derby form into play in what should prove one of the key pointers to the course-and-distance Arc. TATTERSALLS ASCOT JULY SALE TOPPED BY RESILIENCE

Aclaim (Ire)'s Resilience (GB) (lot 55) topped the one-day Tattersalls Ascot July Sale on Tuesday. The 3-year-old gelding, consigned by Mill House Racing, Ltd., was snapped up by Nick Bradley Racing bidding online for £60,000. Rated 85, he won over five furlongs at Windsor in June for previous trainer Tony Carroll, who had bought Resilience originally for 20,000gns out of the Tattersalls February Sale.

Bradley, who was at Beverley races with two runners, said, "He has been bought to go to new trainer Craig Lister, who is based near York.

"Craig was at the sale and looked at our short list. This horse is a real speed ball and is qualified for the Windsor £75,000 series. We might start him off at Goodwood over five furlongs in a race for 3-year-olds rated 0-95. Further down the line he could be one for races like the Epsom Dash.

"Craig is in need of Saturday horses and this could be one."

The second dearest lot on the day was Crush And Run (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) (lot 45), who sold for £38,000 to Al Jasra Stud. Consigned by Weathercock House Stables, he has won once over the all-weather at Lingfield in February and is a half-brother to listed winner Primo Uomo (Ire) (Strategic Prince {GB}).

"Crush And Run might run once or twice more in the UK and then will ship to Qatar," said Ahmad Kobeissi, the father of Newmarket trainer Hilal Kobeissi. "The boys liked him and he looks the sort to go on faster ground and cope with the sharp tracks."

Resilience | Tattersalls Ascot

Headed for the jumping sphere, Jimmy Fyffe picked up Vintage Valley (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) (lot 22) for £32,000. Lightly raced with only three starts to his name for Andrew Balding's Park House Stables, the grey gelding is rated 65 and is from the family of G3 Lillie Langtry Fillies' S. heroine Gravitation (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

"I have a number of jumpers for this upcoming season and I wanted a 3-year-old to go juvenile hurdling," said Fyffe, who was bidding online. "I watched this horse's races online and he looks as though a bit of softer ground will suit. Andrew Balding recommended him highly, and he goes now to Donald McCain. He looks a scopey type and hopefully he can jump."

Of the 77 lots offered, 70 sold (91%) for a gross of £468,000. The average was £6,686 and the median was £3,200. This was the first Ascot July Sale conducted since 2019 due to the covid pandemic.

Making her third visit to this venue coming back off a third in May's G2 Dahlia S. at Newmarket, the former Alain de Royer-Dupre trainee returned to the winner's circle for the first time since annexing last year's G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud with a decisive success in the day's feature event. Positioned fifth until making smooth headway into contention in the straight, the 2-5 favourite quickened to lead passing the quarter-mile marker and was pushed out inside the final furlong to comfortably register a fifth black-type triumph.

Ebaiyra | Scoop Dyga

"This is exactly what I wanted for her, an easy race and a confidence booster after three tough races earlier this year," revealed Graffard. "She shows that she still has the desire and this will do her a lot of good. The target is to win a Group 1 with her and I think she has the potential for that. There is a Group 1 in Germany in August [Hoppegarten's Aug. 14 G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin] or the [Aug. 21 G1 Prix] Jean Romanet in Deauville next. Then, eventually, some travelling later in the season."

Ebaiyra is one of two black-type winners produced by G2 Prix de Royallieu victrix Ebiyza (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). The February-foaled homebred chestnut is a half-sister to the dual stakes-winning G2 Prix de Malleret, G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris and G3 Prix de Psyche second Edisa (Kitten's Joy) and a yearling colt by Sea The Stars (Ire). GOOD GUESS (GB) (c, 2, Kodiak {GB}--Zykina {GB}, by Pivotal {GB}), who made all to garner a June 5 newcomers' test over 5 1/2 furlongs here last time, adopted different tactics this time and was steadied to stalk the leaders in fourth after the initial strides. Bustled along to close with 350 metres remaining, the even-money pick quickened to the fore passing the furlong pole and kept on strongly in the latter stages to comfortably outpoint Kokachin (Ire) (Kodiak {GB}) by 1 3/4 lengths.

Good Guess | Scoop Dyga

"He's a typical Kodiak, very mature physically with a lovely temperament," said trainer Fabrice Chappet. "This is a very nice horse, but he was green and in front too soon first time out. He has obviously learnt from that experience and won very well. The [Aug. 2 G3] Prix de Cabourg [at Deauville] is next and, at this stage, there is no point trying to stretch him further [than six furlongs]." Good Guess is the latest of six foals and one of five scorers produced by an unraced daughter of multiple Group 1-winning G1 1000 Guineas heroine Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo).
