ALL EYES ON FLIGHTLINE IN PACIFIC CLASSIC

by Alan Carasso

There is no such thing as a sure thing in horse racing, but 'TDN Rising Star' Flightline (Tapit) will be bet as if Saturday's GI TVG Pacific Classic—a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland Nov. 5—is already the proverbial fait accompli. (Click here to watch the TDN Weekend Preview, sponsored by Three Chimneys).

And why not, really?

His four towering victories in as many trips to the races have come by an average winning margin of better than 13 lengths. His lowest Beyer Speed Figure is a downright pedestrian 105 earned for his debut just 18 months ago at Santa Anita, but certainly that number could have been at least a few points stronger had Flavien Prat asked him for any sort of effort.

FLIGHTLINE READY FOR MORE ALTITUDE

by Chris McGrath

The race is not always to the swift. Pretty old news, by this stage: it’s right there in Ecclesiastes and, nearly as long ago now, you could see as much when More Than Ready cut the last corner in the Kentucky Derby. He transparently didn’t get home, flattening into fourth behind Fusaichi Pegasus. But the brilliance of that move was instead sustained through his second career, where he just kept on going—whether measured by years, or air miles—and proved a far more potent force than the rest of that Derby field put together.

While he certainly maximized his legacy, famously shuttling 19 consecutive seasons to Australia, his loss at 25 still leaves a challenging void. Few stallions today are embraced with the same conviction in such diverse environments and, if his service as a domestic conduit for the Halo line is to be prolonged, then we appear precariously dependent on one of his later sons: Daredevil has just produced his first crop since repatriation; Funtastic had a timely first winner last weekend; while Catholic Boy and Copper Bullet are making their debut at the yearling sales.

Catholic Boy would be an especially apt heir, as only the third American sophomore to win Grade Is on both dirt and turf. Don’t forget that he had already won graded stakes on both surfaces as a juvenile. Cont. p7

Sure, he was judiciously managed with only two subsequent appearances at three, but they were no less monstrous, including an 11 1/2-length thumping of a field including not only the hard-knocking Stilleto Boy (Shackleford), but also Dr. Schivel (Violence), who endured a dirty beat in the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint on his previous start.

The only spot of true adversity Flightline—his $1-million Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling pricetag now looking an outright steal—has faced came when drawn the rail at 45 cents on the dollar in the GI Hill ‘n’ Dale Metropolitan H. at Belmont June 11. Not the first horse to fluff the start over that track’s one-turn mile, the bay settled kindly enough off chief market rival and big-figure GI Carter H. hero Speaker’s Corner (Street Sense), but claimed that one at will—the six-furlong split of 1:08.54 was almost an afterthought—and scampered home by a half-dozen lengths.

While a trip to Saratoga and a possible clash with fellow ‘Rising Star’ Life Is Good (Into Mischief) in the GI Whitney H. was mooted, connections have decided on the Del Mar centerpiece.

With the start of the Classic at the top of the chute, there will be plenty of time for each of the six entrants to find their spot. Trainer John Sadler will not be using the draw as any sort of alibi if things don’t go well Saturday.

"You have about a quarter of a mile run into the first turn so you have time to work out a nice trip," said the conditioner, who sent out Hronis Racing’s Tripoli (Kitten’s Joy) to upset last year’s Classic. "We thought most of the posts would have been good because of the relatively small field and he’s tactical, he doesn’t have to have the lead and he doesn’t have to be way back either."

Country Grammer (Tonalist) will look to become the first since California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) in 2016 to win the G1 Dubai World Cup and Pacific Classic in the same season. Cont. p4

The bay prepped for this with a useful runner-up effort to Royal Ship (Brz) (Midshipman) in the GII San Diego H. July 30, but the two hole left trainer Bob Baffert a bit out in the cold.

“I’d have preferred a middle to outside post,” said Baffert, currently tied with Bobby Frankel on six Classic victories. “He runs better when he’s on the outside. Frankie Dettori was inside the whole way and he got to the outside. That’s why he won the Dubai World Cup. If he had been on the outside [when second] in [the Saudi Cup], I think he would have won.”

Flightline’s presence is unlikely to trouble trainer Richard Mandella, who is not only a four-time winner of the Classic, but was the architect of one of racing’s greatest upsets. Few will confuse Royal Ship and Extra Hope (Shanghai Bobby) with Dare and Go and Siphon (Brz), but the former’s defeat of Cigar here in 1996, aided massively by his front-running stable companion, is not soon to be forgotten.

The Classic field is completed by Express Train (Union Rags), who figures no better than a distant fourth favorite, but whose credentials include a tough win in this year’s GI Santa Anita H., so the distance is clearly up his alley.

Elsewhere at the Seaside Oval...

A trio of Grade II stakes support the undercard, and the top two finishers from last year’s Classic are engaged, albeit on the turf. Tizamagician (Tiznow) is not known for his grass prowess, but he does enjoy a staying trip and ends up in the GII Del Mar H. over 11 furlongs, which offers the winner a fees-paid berth into the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Turf at Keeneland Nov. 5. The race looks to go through the Michael McCarthy-trained Master Piece (Chi) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), who went within a half-length of upsetting last year’s renewal and who exits a 16-1 upset of the mile-and-an-eighth GII Eddie Read S. July 31. The aforementioned Tripoli cuts back in trip for the GII Del Mar Mile, where the chestnut looks for a first turf win. In a race lacking California’s top grass milers, the 5-year-old takes on Eddie Read second and third Hong Kong Harry (Ire) (Es Que Love {Ire}) and Cathkin Peak (Ire) (Alhebayeb {Ire}), last year’s DMR H. upsetter Astronaut (Quality Road) and the progressive Goliad (War Front).

Nine sophomore turf gallopers are set for the GII Del Mar Derby, led by the outposted Balnikhov (Ire) (Adaay {Ire}), impressive winner of his local debut in the restricted Oceanside S. on opening day July 22. Posing the biggest threats are GIII La Jolla H. hero Cabo Spirit (Pioneerof the Nile); War At Sea (War Front), who bested the latter in the June 4 Cinema S. at Santa Anita; and last-out allowance scorer Dandy Warhol (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}). Catch 'Pletch' To Win the Gold Cup...

Saratoga plays only a slight second fiddle to Del Mar Saturday, but hosts a pair of Breeders’ Cup qualifiers of its own as well.

Even with ‘TDN Rising Star’ Life Is Good (Into Mischief) remaining in the shedrow, trainer Todd Pletcher fields half of the eight runners for the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, with a berth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic to play for. The shortest-priced of the quartet is last year’s GI Cigar Mile H. hero, the New York-bred horse of the year Americanrevolution (Constitution), who won the Albany S. over this strip last year and will look to reverse form with Olympiad (Speightstown), who had a convincing 2 1/4-length bulge on him in the GII Stephen Foster S. at Churchill July 2.

“He’s proven versatile enough at a mile and an eighth and a mile, but he gives you the impression that he’s still finding more at the end of a mile and an eighth,” the Hall of Famer said. “Hopefully, that means he can carry it on to a mile and a quarter.”

The distance is no query for stablemate Dynamic One (Union Rags). Also a Saratoga stakes winner, having taken out last year’s Curlin S., the $725,000 KEESSEP yearling has posted solid form this term and enters the Gold Cup off a battling nose defeat of ‘TDN Rising Star’ First Captain (Curlin) in the GI Suburban S. downstate July 9.

“More than anything, he’s just become a little more professional in his races and he’s figured it out,” Pletcher said of the 4-year-old. “I would say he’s made quite a bit of mental progress.”

Not surprisingly, trainer Shug McGaughey gives First Captain a “big chance” to turn the tables this weekend.

“It’s a very good race,” McGaughey said. “In his continued career, it would be a big thing to win it. We’re looking forward to running him.”

Pletcher also saddles two outsiders in Untreated (Nyquist) and 2021 GI Runhappy Travers S. runner-up Keepmeinmind (Laoban).

The GII Flower Bowl S., whose winner earns a spot in the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf, features heavily favored War Like Goddess (English Channel), an easy winner when contested as a Grade I last term and subsequently an unlucky third to Loves Only You (Jpn) (Deep Impact Jpn) in the FM Turf at Del Mar. Temple City Terror (Temple City) and Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow GB) were second and third, respectively, behind War Like Goddess in the 12-furlong GII Glens Falls S. Aug. 6 and look likeliest to fill out the minors. Cont. p6

'Rising Star' Annapolis (War Front) shapes as a tough nut to crack in the afternoon's other graded event, the GI Saranac S. The Bass homebred cuts back to the mile and a sixteenth off an excellent second-place effort behind the classy Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the GI Saratoga Derby Invitational S. Aug. 6. Connections opt for this shorter trip instead of stretching out farther for the 12-furlong GI Caesars Jockey Club Derby Sept. 17.

"We wanted to back him up a little bit and it’s a better distance than the mile and a half at Aqueduct. He's doing well and ready to run," Pletcher said.

A 'Million' Reasons to Play...

Saturday's final graded stakes takes place at the Kentucky/Tennessee border with the running of the $1-million GIII WinStar Mint Million S.

Godolphin's Pixelate (City Zip) returns to the galloping layout at Kentucky Downs in search of a successful defense of his title, having defeated Somelikeithotbrown (Big Brown) by 2 1/2 lengths this time last year. Atone (Into Mischief) draws outside, and though winless from five starts this season, has run some races that would factor here. Kentucky Ghost (Ghostzapper) was second in a division of the TVG S. last season and can go a better race down in trip here.

His failure to kick on after the GI Travers S., bombing out at the Breeders’ Cup and then confined to a fitful campaign at four, shouldn’t efface a pretty extraordinary career to that point.

In terms of carrying forward the More Than Ready legacy, Catholic Boy also has a suitably eclectic background: his first two dams by Bernardini and Seeking The Gold; his third, by Nijinsky II; while his fourth is the Argentinian champion La Sevillana (Arg). She starts a chain of seven native mares tracing back to a daughter, delivered in 1890, of one of Argentina's great foundation mares, Ante Diem. This is just the kind of sturdy backbone at an urgent premium in the modern breed.

More Than Ready himself, of course, was by a stallion who did so well in Argentina that he reverse shuttled to Kentucky—and what a blessing that was, given that Southern Halo replicated the great Almahmoud as granddam of both his sire Halo and dam sire Northern Dancer.

WICKED HALO WINS THE GRADE 2 $250,000 PRIORESS STAKES AT SARATOGA

Coming off a 4 3/4 length stakes victory last out, WICKED HALO held tough in deep stretch to win the PRIORESS (G2). A Grade 2 winner at the Spa at two, the ultra consistent daughter of GUN RUNNER has been off the board only once in 9 lifetime starts.

Congratulations to Wicked Halo's connections: Owner/Breeder Winchell Thoroughbreds LLC, and Hall of Fame Trainer Steve Asmussen.
These timeless genetic brands were never about brute size, one of many misplaced obsessions of commercial breeders today, and More Than Ready was built on corresponding lines. But he still stood out a mile to J.J. Pletcher, the day he found him way out the back hill at Keeneland. Endorsed by another outstanding judge in Eddie Rosen, More Than Ready became so versatile an influence that we tend to forget what a commercial paragon he was on the track, all precocity and speed. His 10-length romp in the GII Sanford S. was already his fifth straight win, and he cut back to sprinting when returning to Saratoga the following summer to win the GI King = Bishop S.

In between, it had felt pretty well obligatory to roll the two-turn dice for the Derby, and perhaps it’s going to prove a similar story at Del Mar on Saturday when Flightline (Tapit) stretches out for the GI TVG Pacific Classic.

This horse is already doing great things, but that doesn’t yet make him a great horse. If we’re seriously supposed to reconcile ourselves to the miserable possibility that Flightline might be wilfully confined to half a dozen starts, then at least we must thank his connections for exploring his talent so far as that meteoric passage would permit. He crossed the continent for the GI Hill ‘n’ Dale Met Mile off a long layoff, for instance, and now takes on some hard-knocking stayers at their own game. And, as with More Than Ready, not to mention a horse that once brought a Citation-sized streak into the Pacific Classic, the race is not always to the swift. Even to the very swift. Flightline, to this point, is a phenomenon that couldn’t really happen in Europe. His serene indifference to the upgrading of his opposition has merely served to confirm what his speed figures had already told the handicappers. The fact is, however, that the test anticipated at Belmont didn’t really materialize. And he will no longer be measured only against the clock, now that he is set so very different an examination.

Nobody would deny that he appears to have the stuff of greatness. To European sensibilities, however, 312 seconds is an insufficient body of evidence for his elevation to the pantheon. And actually, even if he were to smash up these horses the way he has all others, I would be reserving my first plaudits for a trainer who could win the premier summer prize of his home state with four different horses in five years—-with Hronis Racing, moreover, a fortunate party to each.

That run was initiated by the late-blooming Accelerate, who the previous year had joined Arrogate (another cautionary precedent among perceived invincibles) in taking a rear view of Collected. Nobody needs to tell John Sadler or his clients, then, about the fulfilment available when a horse is permitted to mature to the peak of his powers. But the opinion that Flightline is the most valuable stallion prospect ever to go to stud, while pardonable in one fortunate to have a stake in whatever his value proves to be, would certainly not have been aired in times when the measure of greatness was rather more exacting.

Nearly all the names you might sensibly shortlist for the top dozen American Thoroughbreds of all time underpinned their brilliance with competitive longevity. Whether the horsemen of today are nervous of real or perceived deficiencies in their charges, I guess we just have to get used to it. But unless and until horses are again asked to demonstrate their resilience, then even horses as infectiously exciting as Flightline will never again reach the same kind of public; and nor will breeders of the future know quite what they’re getting. In which case, never mind the race going to the swift. Everybody, after all, knows what a fast horse looks like. But how on earth can we know whether or not the battle is to the strong?
Wicked Halo kept her win streak going and took her Saratoga record to two-for-two with a win in the GII Prioress S. Friday. Away in good order from her rail draw, the gray was quickly out-footed by a trio of eager rivals and settled in a ground-saving fourth as favored Hot Peppers (Khozan) was hounded by 17-1 shot Mischievous Diane (Practical Joke) and Union Lake through a sharp :21.97 opening quarter. Union Lake briefly stuck her head in front approaching the far turn, but Hot Peppers reassessed herself at the top of the lane as Wicked Halo switched out three wide to launch a bid. Wicked Halo drew alongside Union Lake and Hot Peppers and quickly shook off those foes. The Winchell Thoroughbreds homebred extended clear in the final sixteenth, holding off a late surge from Sterling Silver to score.

“[For Wicked Halo] to have a nice break and come back and still be such a quality filly is very rewarding,” winning trainer Steve Asmussen said. “Last year with the Gun Runners, we tried [Gun Runner as a stallion] and were extremely aggressive with them. We were rewarded for it, but [Winchell Thoroughbreds]’ Ron [Winchell] and David [Fiske] run a considerable amount of horses and just felt it was best for them [to have some time off].

Capping off 2021 with a win in this venue’s GII Adirondack S., Wicked Halo checked in fourth in Oaklawn’s Dixie Belle S. Feb. 19 and was third in both the Mar. 26 Purple Martin S. and May 6 GIII Eight Belles S. She entered this test off back-to-back wins at Churchill Downs in the Leslie’s Lady S. June 12 and Tepin S. July 2.

Pedigree Notes:

Wicked Halo is one of eight graded winners for her sensational young sire Gun Runner and his second graded winner of the Saratoga meet, following GII Amsterdam S. victor Gunite, who was second in last weekend’s GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial S.

The Three Chimneys stallion was also represented last Saturday by GI Runhappy Travers S. runner-up Cyberknife. Wicked Halo is bred on the same Gun Runner/Tapit cross as stablemate and recent GIII Iowa Oaks heroine Society. Winchell Thoroughbreds picked up Wicked Halo’s stakes-winning second dam Wicked Deed for $280,000 at Fasig-Tipton’s July Sale. The winner’s dam Just Wicked, a full-sister to GSW My Miss Lilly, also won the Spa’s Adirondack S. back in 2015. The 9-year-old mare is also responsible for the unraced juvenile colt Wicked Again (Gun Runner) and a yearling filly by the same sire. Just Wicked failed to get in foal to Gun Runner for a 2022 foal, but was sent right back to him for 2023.
ON EVE OF PACIFIC CLASSIC, SADLER JUST DOING HIS JOB

By Dan Ross

Four years ago on the eve of the GI TVG Pacific Classic, the hunt for the heavy favorite amid the lettered labyrinth of Del Mar’s backstretch ended at Barn J. The stall, of course, belonged to Accelerate (Lookin At Lucky), a sleek, shiny copper penny of a colt, who carried weighty expectations that this was the year his trainer, John Sadler, would finally shrug off the voodoo that had cursed his previous attempts at the coveted prize.

It was also viewed as a new high altitude for a horse whose climb to the summit of the sport had been distinguished not by a dizzying free-climb to the top, but by careful, steady progress. Each foothold earned and true. A trail of sweat left behind at each contour.

The team wasn't without worries. The horse’s regular rider, Victor Espinoza—widely seen as something of a key to Accelerate’s latent talent—had that July taken a crunching fall aboard the Peter Miller trained Bobby Abu Dhabi, whose sudden death during training left Espinoza with a broken C3 vertebrae in his neck and fears, miraculously temporary, of paralysis.

In the end, Espinoza’s replacement, Joel Rosario, has probably ridden no easier winner before or since, quickly putting what looked like the length of a football pitch between him and his dumbstruck rivals with a stunning kick around the home turn.

Four years on, and the hunt for this year’s heavy favorite on the eve of the Del Mar showpiece once again leads to Barn J. “Right now I’m excited, but I’m not overly excited,” said Sadler, Wednesday morning in his office, of Flightline (Tapit), whose stall-padded floor to ceiling as though housing a madman, faces the office door.

To be fair to Flightline, we’re not talking Hannibal Lecter. "He's very content here,” Sadler said. “Loves Del Mar. He’s just a nice horse to be around. But you know, he has his quirks. He can be a little aggressive in the stall."

As for Sadler’s declaration of studied equilibrium, it provides a measured counter-point to the celebrity fandom that follows each rare race-day sighting of the horse. "We’ve got a couple more days," Sadler added. "When you get in race week and everything’s gone well, you just want to maintain that. That's really the message coming out of here this week. He doesn't have to run any faster. He's just got to run the same as he’s been running."

Words to strike fear into the heart of this weekend’s competitors, all of whom will have witnessed Flightline’s clinical evisceration of the 21 hapless victims strewn in his wake between races one to four.

If indeed Flightline turns up on Saturday and runs the same as he’s been running, the race will prove a fascinating bookend to Sadler’s own trajectory these past few years, catapulting a stellar record into even higher orbits.

Accelerate, of course, subsequently secured Sadler his first Breeders’ Cup victory, in the GI Classic and a Horse of the Year garland would surely have followed were it not for a Triple Crown that went the way of Justify (Scat Daddy).

Hitherto winless in the Pacific Classic prior to Accelerate, the trainer has since secured another two victories in the race, courtesy of Higher Power (Medaglia d’Oro) in 2019 and Tripoli (Kitten’s Joy) last year.

The GI Santa Anita “Big Cap” H. was another West Coast landmark oddly absent from Sadler’s travel card until Accelerate righted that wrong. Stablemates Gift Box (Twirling Candy) and Combatant (Scat Daddy) followed up over the next two years. The likes of Catalina Cruiser (Union Rags), Rock Your World (Candy Ride), Cistron (The Factor) and Flagstaff (Speightstown) each have played a part in keeping the heat turned on full.
Then came Flightline, a stratospheric talent from whatever plain you're on. A big long-striding and magnificent comet, blink and you'll miss him bright. The numbers have been crunched, cogitated and digested. Four races, four wins. Average distance of victory is 10.9 lengths. Beyers from a Death Valley summer of 105, 114, 118, and 112.

"Is this the best horse I've ever trained? I say, yes. I don't hesitate," Sadler said. "I've never trained a horse like this in my 30, 40-odd year career. But I don't compare him to other great horses. That's for the sports writers and the handicappers and Timeform."

Which piqued this writer's curiosity. What kinds of stresses come with the responsibility of a horse who draws inevitable comparisons to the likes of Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire})? What new instruments has he brought to the trainer's toolbox? Would he have had the skills to harness Flightline's talents if the horse had landed in his barn, say, 20 years prior?

"The horse is teaching me all the time," Sadler said, before extolling the virtues of patience.

The horse's coterie of owners--Hronis Racing, Summer Wind Equine, West Point Thoroughbreds, Siena Farm, and Woodford Racing--all receive a gold star.

Despite their multitude, "the owners always allow me to do as I see fit," he said. "It's all worked so far. So far so good."

Pressed further, the trainer threw up his hands--the wrong week to wheel out the therapist's couch.

"You're asking me to be super reflective and conceptualize a lot of that stuff, but right now I don't allow myself to do that. I just do my job right now," Sadler said. "Might be a better interview next week."

Fair enough stick with the tangibles, like Flightline's last race, the GI Hill 'n' Dale Met Mile on GI Belmont S. day, when a sticky break propelled the horse into stop-start opening furlongs.

Given Flightline's lack of match practice, could the events of the Met Mile have been a blessing in disguise?

"People say that, which is fine. It probably was. But I sure like to break clean. I don't like to put any, you know," Sadler said, pausing either for effect or the right words, "obstacles in the way." This explains Flightline's homework assignments at Del Mar this summer, which included a five-furlong bullet from the gate at the end of July.

Then comes another tangible--the as yet unchartered distance of the Pacific Classic. "It's a big ask, you know, to go from a mile to a mile and a quarter," Sadler said.

Though the stamina of lesser horses can be stretched out, explained the trainer, "when I talk about really good mile-and-a-quarter horses, first of all, they have to have the innate ability to run that far."

With Flightline, "I've just got to hold him where he is," he added. "On breeze days, you'll note that his gallops out are very good."

Much has been made of the team's efforts at reining in Flightline's innate exuberance--a balancing act perhaps too easily under-appreciated.

Stifling too much of a horse's natural quirk and athleticism of a morning can sour them as fast as cream left out in the sun. Let the throttle out too far too often, just watch as the wheels fall off.

Juan Leyva, Sadler's assistant, has done a "beautiful job with him" of a morning, says the trainer, calling it a case of "two minds meeting."

"He's getting more relaxed, you know," Sadler added, of Flightline. "He is maturing. He's showing he can carry himself in a more relaxed manner. That's what we're seeing, which is a normal progression." Cont. p11

As for Saturday, "I see a small field, but a very good field. I know these horses intimately and they're very good," said Sadler. "We have a lot of respect for every horse in there."

The Bob Baffert-trained Country Grammer (Tonalist), this year's G1 Dubai World Cup winner given a timely pipe-opener in the GII San Diego H. early in the meet, receives plaudits for his prior top-flight victories over the trip.

Sadler has watched the John Shirreffs-trained Express Train (Union Rags) "throughout his career," he said. "He's a very nice horse."

As for Ed Moger's Stilleto Boy (Shackleford), vanquished in Flightline's GI Malibu S. last December, "I like him a lot," said Sadler.

But talk switches back to the horse mere feet away, saved from himself by padded walls and kept from the public's gaze by a series of well-documented issues and events. Sadler has kept the door open to a 5-year-old campaign. How serious are those overtures?

"We'll get into Saturday and then see how it goes."

Now, about that interview next week...

LUKAS 'HOPEFUL' ON FINAL WEEKEND AT THE SPA

LUKAS 'HOPEFUL' ON FINAL WEEKEND AT THE SPA

D. Wayne Lukas ponying Naughty Gal | Sarah Andrew

By Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY - Here we are on the final weekend of the Saratoga season and--no surprise--D. Wayne Lukas is ready to take swings in both of the historic Grade I races for 2-year-olds.

The Hall of Fame trainer, who turned 87 Friday, will saddle Holy Cow Stable's Naughty Gal (Into Mischief) Sunday in the GI Spinaway S. The next afternoon, Lukas will send out BC Stable's Bourbon Bash (City of Light) and Western Ghent (American Pharaoh) in the GI Hopeful, the final stake of the 154th season of Saratoga racing.

Lukas skipped the last two years because of a combination of Covid-19 and a downturn in the quality of his stable, but came back to Saratoga this summer with 16 horses for what has been a productive meet. Through Friday, the Lukas stable had a record of 4-6-2 from 23 starts with earnings of $607,889. During the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale, he signed the tickets for five yearlings for $2.725 million.

Three of Lukas' Saratoga wins came from his stakes starters. Bourbon Bash handled a maiden special weight field by eight lengths Aug. 13. Western Ghent, co-owned by Lukas and his wife Laurie, won a $75,000 maiden claimer Aug. 25. Naughty Gal, the GIII Adirondack winner Aug. 7, prevailed by 2 1/4 lengths despite running greenly and drifting out in the stretch under Luis Saez.

"She's corrected that, for sure, and I feel comfortable," Lukas said, "And, of course, Luis is going to be a lot more familiar with who she is. The power steering kicked in and she overreacted to what he was trying to do. We wanted to be in the four or five-hole and we didn't want to be an eight or nine. He ended up there so quick it surprised him."

Lukas and his former assistant and fellow Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher top the Spinaway trainers's standings with six victories each. In 23 starts, Lukas has a 6-5-3 record in the seven-furlong race. He won with Tiltalating (Tilt Up) in 1984, the first year he ran at the track. His most recent winner was Golden Attraction in 1995.

Figuring out who belongs in a graded stake, Lukas said, comes down to experience.

"Well, if you've been doing it for 60 years, you get a pretty good cross section of what works and what won't," he said.

"I've been guilty my whole career of entering in stakes that I have no idea what the competition's ability is. That goes for everyday races. I'll enter in non-winners of two and somebody will say this or that about the race and I have no idea. But I know what wins non-winners of two. I've seen it enough that I know that I'm competitive in a non-winners of two unless Secretariat shows up or Ruffian."

Before the 40-day meet July 14, Lukas expected BC Stable's Summer Promise (Uncle Mo) to be his Spinaway horse. However, she finished second in the GII Schuylerville on opening day and Naughty Gal moved up in the pecking order in the stable with her Adirondack triumph.

"She's going into it and the other one's not," Lukas said. "I'm running the best one I've got at this point."

Lukas said Naughty Gal is an obvious standout.

"Awful strong. Big, powerful filly," he said. "One of the best horsemen I know called me the other day and said 'Boy, that's a good-looking (SOB) you ran in the Adirondack. He was watching on television. She's a picture of conformation. For her age, her development, strength, size is incredible. She's really a study. You want to study one how they're supposed to look, she's it in every way. That's why I say the seven furlongs should just be right in her wheelhouse."

Never shy about promoting his horses, Lukas said Naughty Gal is a filly with a future.

"Big time. And I'm anxious to run her two turns," he said. "That's where I really want to see her run."

If things go well in the Spinaway, Lukas said Naughty Gal is on the road to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in November at Keeneland.

"No bones about it," he said. "I'm pointing her right there."

Lukas is the career leader in Hopeful wins with eight from 32 starts. Pletcher and Steve Asmussen are next with three each.

Bourbon Bash was a well-beaten second to the Chad Brown-trained Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) in his first try July 24, but earned his trip to the Hopeful with the romp in his second start.

"He's a real immature colt, but I think he'll also relish the seven-eighths," Lukas said. "He was getting in cruise control the race was slow. Of course, it wasn't slow for him. When they say the race was slow, I always say, 'Well, he beat everybody that showed up.' I wondered about the time a little bit. I'm talking to Chad Brown and he said, 'You know, my colt is the one that beat yours' when I first started him. I said, 'well, it will be interesting the next time.'"

DRAFTED OWNERS APPEAL HISA RULING

by Bill Finley

The owners of Drafted (Field Commission) have appealed a ruling handed down by the Horse Racing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) that could cost them $26,000 in purse money because their jockey Luis Castro violated HISA rules regarding the use of the whip. The incident occurred in the GI Forego S., where Drafted finished fifth.

NYRA stewards determined that Castro hit the gelding 10 times during the race. Under HISA regulations that have been in place since July 1, a rider cannot whip a horse more than six times.

According to the Daily Racing Form, under HISA rules, if a jockey strikes a horse seven to nine times during a race, there is no loss of purse. Instead, the rider is fined and suspended for one day. And when a jockey hits a horse 10 to 13 times, the jockey receives a three-day suspension and the horse is disqualified when it comes to purse earnings.

The owners are Thomas O'Keefe, Truls Engebretsen and Kevin Hilbert and they are seeking a reinstatement of the purse. The trainer is David Duggan. The group is being represented by attorney Andrew Mollica. Mollica contends that the owners' rights to due process have been violated because there was no hearing and no appeal process.

"My clients are making a serious appeal here," Mollica said. "The loss of purse money by owners for alleged crop violations is not only unconstitutional it is flat our wrong. My clients are fighting this not only for themselves but all owners who race in New York. It is a cause that frankly all NYTHA should join because all of its members will one day or another be adversely effected."
PARX-BASED TRAINER PEARCE HIT WITH 1,950-DAY SUSPENSION

by Bill Finley

Trainer Penny Pearce has been issued a suspension of 1,950 days and fined $23,500 by the Pennsylvania Racing Commission after six horses under her care tested positive for clenbuterol during out-of-competition tests.

The penalties were announced after her barn at Parx was inspected June 22. During the inspection, investigators also found hypodermic needles, syringes and injectable substances. The suspension is scheduled to run from Sept. 11, 2022 through Jan. 12, 2028.

The Paulick Report was first with the story and has also reported that Pearce has filed an appeal.

Pearce began training in 2012 and, prior to 2021, never won more than 16 races in a year. During the 2012-to-2020 period, her winning rate was 11%. That changed in 2021 when she went 32-for-137 (23%). Her success has continued this year as she has posted a record of 23-for-84 (27%).

In June of 2021, Pearce reportedly hired former trainer Ramon Preciado as a groom. In 2016, Preciado's owner and trainer licenses were revoked after a horse he trained named Purcell (Jump Start) tested positive for clenbuterol in a post-race test. In the ruling covering Purcell, the racing commission noted that Preciado had a record of violations, the racing commission decided to grant him a groom's license and he went to work for Pearce.

The Pearce-trained horses that tested positive for clenbuterol were Mischievous Jones (Smarty Jones), Musamaha (Jack Milton), Relativlea (Lea), Call Me GQ (Weigelia), Market Maven (Super Ninety Nine) and an unnamed horse. Had there been just one clenbuterol positive, Pearce would have received a suspension of just 30 days. Instead, the commission used an escalating scale, with the number of days she was suspended increasing with each subsequent positive. For the sixth positive, she was suspended for 960 days.

"In accordance with ARCI medication and penalty guidelines, based upon the number of medication positives, the board of stewards finds aggravating circumstances in these matters," the ruling reads.

In June, Monmouth Park stewards suspended Pearce for 15 days and fined her $500 after a horse she trained tested positive for clenbuterol following a May 29 race at the Jersey Shore track.

OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

By Price Bell

This weekend the baton will be handed off from our traditional summer focal points of Del Mar and Saratoga to Franklin Kentucky and the Kentucky Downs meet. Full fields, big crowds, and a vibrant atmosphere made possible by Historic Horse Racing (HHR) machines, and an ownership group willing to invest in its potential. Kentucky Downs embodies great hope for Kentucky racing and our industry’s future, and it was almost taken away Feb. 10, 2021.

It was a cold, nasty February evening in Kentucky, when the Kentucky House of Representatives took up debate on Senate Bill 120, the legalization of HHR machines. The intellectual property argument, which created HHR, was brilliant as it guaranteed revenue generated from the machines would flow through the Horsemens' purse account to supplement purse money. Lessons learned from other state's "racino" experiments were applied in Kentucky and masterly played by our industry leaders, to whom I am forever grateful.

It goes without saying, we are enjoying a boom period since the passage of HHR. Purse money is skyrocketing, handle increasing with more full fields, and investments being made around the Commonwealth in our racing product. This boom period is thanks to our industry leaders and lobbying organizations who spent time in Frankfort, and across Kentucky, to secure HHR's passage, and it was not a small feat.

If you recall that night, many floor speeches were given from various representatives around the Commonwealth, and many were not in favor of support. Many opposing our industry, took the opportunity to declare to their constituents why they "could not support" our industry. Many who supported the passage of HHR have since been voted out by their constituents. Let me say that again...many who voted to support HHR have since been voted OUT by their constituents. I would bet that if HHR was that again...many who voted to support HHR have since been voted OUT by their constituents. I would bet that if HHR was brought to the floor today, it would not pass...how's that for sobering.

In Kentucky alone, there are dozens of newly elected people who ultimately make the rules for our industry: HHR, taxes, workers comp, etc. Expect them to support us because "we are Kentucky's signature industry," and know this "boom period" will quickly bust. Many who supported us, in Frankfort, have been voted out. We cannot sit idly and expect their replacements to make their same choices.

We are enjoying this period of incredible growth thanks to the tireless work of our industry leaders, however, for many years we have let too few carry our water. We are harvesting their hard work and it's time for more of us to engage. Cont. p14

PENNSYLVANIA’S MICHAEL P. BALLEZZI PASSES AWAY

Michael P. Ballezzi, who retired last year after 25 years as executive director of the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (PTHA), passed away Aug. 31.

“We've lost not only a great horseman, but also a great friend and leader,” said PTHA board of directors president Salvatore DeBunda. “Mike dedicated 25 years of his life to championing the well-being and care of equine athletes, as well as championing the interests of horsemen at Parx Racetrack and across Pennsylvania. When he retired, Mike left behind an incredible legacy at the PTHA.”

A graduate of Widener Law School, an attorney, and a District Justice in Pennsylvania, Ballezzi’s contributions to Pennsylvania racing were extensive. He was instrumental in the passage of the Pennsylvania Race Horse Development and Gaming Act, which legalized slot machines in the Commonwealth and set aside a percentage of the revenues for purses, breeding incentives, and health and pension benefits; advocated for Parx Racing backstretch improvements; and helped start Turning for Home, the non-profit track-based racehorse retirement program that has placed more than 3,200 horses. He also created The Granny Fund, which provides scholarships to Parx stable employees to continue their education in college and night classes.

Ballezzi had been a licensed Thoroughbred owner since 1973 and was also a former trainer. He served as a member of the national Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (THA) board of directors and was recognized in 2020 for outstanding service to the racing industry. He was honored in 2019 by Parx with the naming of the M.P. Ballezzi Appreciation Mile. Ballezzi was named 2008 PTHA Man of the Year and was inducted into the Parx Racing Hall of Fame in 2014.

“Mike Ballezzi’s impact on Pennsylvania racing, horsemen, and our retired race horses will live on for many years to come,” said Jeffrey Matty, executive director of the PTHA. “But his impact extends far beyond the policies and programs he championed. He touched so many people on and off the track on a personal level, and that may be his greatest legacy.”

CJ JOHNSEN JOINS BETTOR THINGS WITH JOE BIANCA

On this week's episode of Bettor Things with Joe Bianca, the host talks to handicapper, owner/breeder and former racetrack executive CJ Johnsen about betting, sports, music and more.

Johnsen, who is currently the vice president at CJ Thoroughbreds, is best known for guiding the remarkable transformation of Kentucky Downs from an afterthought on the racing calendar to a marquee stand with what equates to paradise for horseplayers: big fields and low takeout. Then, in the latest installment of his Breeders’ Cup handicapping series, Bianca lays out plays for Saratoga's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and GII Flower Bowl S., two Breeders’ Cup “Win and You're In” challenge races to be contested Saturday. Click here to watch the show; click here for the audio-only version or find it on Apple Podcasts or Spotify.
FINGER LAKES THOROUGHBRED ADOPTION PROGRAM AWARDED TCA GRANT

Finger Lakes Thoroughbred Adoption Program (FLTAP) was advised by the Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA) that it would be receiving a 2022 grant in support of FLTAP’s work to transition racehorses to a productive life after their time competing on the track. As part of the evaluation process, FLTAP received a designation from Irish Hill and Dutchess Views Stallions, and a portion of the grant is made possible by the Race to Give. The Race to Give is an online giving and awareness campaign designed to raise money for Thoroughbred aftercare programs and initiatives, created by the Hagyard Equine Medical Institute. The grant marks the 11th time that the TCA has recognized FLTAP since its inception.

“We are honored and appreciative of the TCA’s continued support of our commitment to give Thoroughbreds a second chance at a productive career after their racing days,” stated FLTAP Board President Kim DeLong. “These funds will support our daily operations that support the health and well-being of Thoroughbreds currently in our care while we transition them to their next home.”

PRICEY JUVENILES DEBUT ON BOTH COASTS

6th-SAR, $105K, Msw, 2yo, 7f, 2:51 p.m. EDT

Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable's $725,000 KEESEP acquisition MINDTAP (Tapit) makes his career bow in this spot for trainer Todd Pletcher. Hailing from the same breeding program that produced unbeaten sensation Flightline (Tapit), the gray is a half to MGISW Curalina (Curlin), who summoned $3 million from Shadai Farm at the 2016 FTKNOV Sale. Summer Wind Farm's Jane Lyon purchased their Grade II-winning dam Whatdreamsmadeof for $1.65 million at that same auction carrying a full-sibling to Curalina. The resulting colt, now named Curlingo, brought $900,000 at the 2018 KEESEP sale. Whatdreamsmadeof is also a half to GSW Dream Spinner (Hard Spun). Rosedown Racing Stables Champions Dream (Justify) also debuts here. A $25,000 KEESEP yearling buy, the son of GSW Dancinginherdreams (Tapit) developed into a $425,000 OBSMAR juvenile after breezing in :20 4/5. TJCIS PPs

8th-SAR, $105K, Msw, 2yo, 7f, 3:58 p.m. EDT

Shug McGaughey unveils an expensive and well-bred son of Medaglia d'Oro in JUAN VALDEZ. Picked up by Hoby & Layna Kight for $225,000 at KEESEP, the dark bay brought $900,000 from a partnership led by West Point and Woodford Racing at the FTFSAR sale after breezing in :10 flat. He is a half-brother to MGISW sire Constitution (Tapit), GSW Jacaranda (Congrats) and GSW Boynton (More Than Ready). His GSP dam Baffled (Distorted Humor) brought $3.5 million from Bridlewood Farm and Don Alberto at the 2016 FTKNOV sale carrying a full-sibling to Constitution. Don Alberto bought out that partnership for $1.8 million with Juan Valdez in utero at the 2019 renewal of that auction. Baffled is a half to GSW Emcee (Unbridled's Song) and a full to GSW & GISP Surfer. Todd Pletcher unveils another expensive juvenile buy in Robert and Lawana Low's $550,000 EASMAY acquisition Fantasist, who is the most expensive offspring thus far for his freshman sire Always Dreaming. The $40,000 KEESEP buy breezed in :21 2/5 in Timonium and enters off a bullet work for Todd Pletcher in 1:00 flat (1/25) at this oval Aug. 28. He is out of SW Saritta (Indygo Shiner). West Paces Racing bought first timer Dubuynell (Good Magic) for $400,000 at KEESEP and breeder Stonestreet Stables stayed in as a partner. Barbara Banke's operation went to $1 million to acquire his MGSM & GISW dam Wild Gams (Forest Wildcat) at the 2008 KEENOV sale. She is responsible for GSW Cazadero (Street Sense) and SW Mt. Brave (Malibu Moon).

6th-DMR, $80K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 6:30 p.m. EDT

DON CORLEONE (More Than Ready) topped the OBS March Sale when summoning $1.2 million from Kaleem Shah earlier this year and he debuts in this spot for Simon Callaghan. Picked up by Ciaran Dunne on behalf of his Lehigh Bloodstock... pinhooking group for $120,000 at KEESEP, the dark bay topped the year’s first juvenile sale after breezing in a sharp :9 4/5. He is a half-brother to MSP Broad Approval (Carpe Diem). His second dam, SW & GISP Featherbed (Smart Strike), produced graded winners Dynamic Impact (Tiznow) and Mo Strike (Uncle Mo). The powerhouse ownership group dubbed “The Avengers” are represented here by first timer National Treasure (Quality Road). The $500,000 FTSAUG acquisition is out of a half-sister to SW & GSP Silver City (Unbridled’s Song) and Elope (Gone West). The bay enters off a best-of-97 five furlongs in :59 flat at Del Mar Aug. 28 and gains the services of John Velazquez, who is in town to ride this colt’s stablemate Country Grammer (Tonalist) in the GI TVG Pacific Classic. Hawker (Justify), who was recently featured in Steve Sherack’s Second Chances column, makes his second start here after missing by a neck in his career bow going five panels at this oval Aug. 6. The $675,000 KEESEP buy is a half to MGSW & GISP Commissioner (A.P. Indy), GSW & GISP Laugh Track (Distorted Humor) and the dam of champion Vino Rosso (Curlin). TJCIS PPs

YOU’RE MY GIRL (f, 2, Overanalyze--Peace Queen, by Indian Charlie), a $130,000 purchase out of the OBS June Sale (:21), raced in a stalking position in third outside of longshot pacesetter Ma Mi Jo Dreams (Freud). She began to make up ground entering the far turn, and without ever being asked by jockey Joel Rosario, took command passing the three-eighths pole and immediately went clear of the field. A pair of rivals closed down the lane to battle for the minor placings but You’re My Girl was long gone, finishing under a motionless ride to win gereed down by 14 1/2 lengths. My Sweet Summer (Accelerate) got the best of 49-1 shot Lavon (Paynter) for the placing. Out of a half-sister to MGSW Tizaqueena (Tiznow), You’re My Girl has only one younger sibling—a yearling half-sister by Daddy Long Legs. Peace Queen was bred to Classic Empire for the 2023 season. Sales History: $130,000 2yo ‘22 OBSOPN. Lifetime

SECURITY CODE (f, 2, Frosted–Stopspendingmaria {GSP}, by Montbrook) reported home five lengths back of next-out Seeking the Ante S. winner Maple Leaf Mel (Cross Traffic) on debut at Saratoga Aug. 10 and returned Friday over the same track and distance as the 3-2 second choice. A handful behind the gate before the start, Security Code chased four wide up the backstretch and took the overland route turning for home.
Under an all-out drive in upper stretch, she took control from pacesetter Stonewall Star (Flatter) with a sixteenth to run and edged clear late to score by 1 3/4 lengths. Stopspendingmaria, already responsible for Blewitt (Uncle Mo), SP, $360,765, last produced a weanling filly by Malibu Moon. She was sent to 1st-Monmouth, $54,450, Msw, 9-2, 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:37.24, fm, 4 1/4 lengths.

PRIVATE CREDIT (f, 2, Into Mischief--Haveaniceweekend, by Adios Charlie) chased the speed and held on for third at first asking at Saratoga Aug. 4 and returned Friday stretching to a mile. Using Lasix for the first time, the 3-5 choice set an easy tempo from just off the rail and raced mostly unchallenged through mild fractions into the far turn. Chased by a pair of rivals, she came under a ride in upper stretch and responded well, clearing down the lane to go on to win by 4 1/4 lengths over Video Princess (Kantharos). Haveaniceweekend, a full-sister to GI Cigar Mile H. winner Patternrecognition, hails from the family of GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile victor Battle of Midway (Smart Strike). She produced a yearling colt by Audible and a weanling filly by Tiz the Law before being bred back to Improbable for 2023. Sales History: $260,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $45,600.

STANDOFF (f, 3, Quality Road--Eternal Bounty {Ire} {GSP-Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), given a 3-1 shot on debut, settled patiently off the pace in fourth, tracking the leaders from the rail while saving ground. Still tucked in around the far turn, Standoff waited until nearly the quarter pole before angling out for a three-wide rally at the top of the stretch. As pacesetter Judgement Time (Optimizer) gave way, she assumed command into the final sixteenth and pulled away convincingly to win by 3 1/2 lengths over favored Gold Watch (Not This Time) and bossy Bossyness (Holy Boss). From the extended female family of MGISW Society Selection (Coronado's Quest), Fabulous Candy's only younger sibling is a yearling half-sister by Texas Red. Her dam was sent to Gift Box for the 2023 season after not getting in foal to Competitive Edge last year. Sales History: $30,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP; $40,000 2yo '22 EASMAY. FABULOUS CANDY (f, 2, Twirling Candy--Fabulous Devotion, by Tapit) was making up ground late but just missed by a neck in a 5 1/2-furlong sprint when debuted over this same track Aug. 10. With only two horses beat through the opening furlong Friday, she settled behind a pair of dueling leaders in fourth. Angled out four wide on the far turn, she quickened past the leaders and opened up down the lane, widening her margin substantially before hitting the line geared down to win by 10 1/2 lengths as the 3-5 favorite. Bossyness (Holy Boss) was the best of the rest. From the extended female family of MGISW Society Selection (Coronado's Quest), Fabulous Candy's only younger sibling is a yearling half-sister by Texas Red. ATOMICALLY (f, 2, Girvin--Shesunbelievable, by Uncaptured), just a nose out of second place two weeks ago on debut, returned Friday with an extra 1 1/2 furlongs to work with. Away alertly from an outside gate, she quickly cleared to the rail to set the tempo with little pressure as rival Kitty Quick (Adios Charlie) was always at least one length back in second. Still in command turning for home, Atomically drew off down the stretch, leaving the closers to duke it out for the minors as she hit the line for a seven-length win as the 4-5 favorite. Kitty Quick held off Stuck In Malibu (Sky Kingdom) by a head for second. Girvin's (by Tale of...
Ekati) 12th winner, Atomically’s only younger sibling is a yearling half-sister by Khozan. His dam was sent to Uncle Chuck for a 2023 foal. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $28,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Midnight Parade (f, 2, Hoppertunity--Bank’n On Gold, by Banker’s Gold), away as a 10-1 longshot for her career bow, raced three wide up the backstretch, keeping pressure on Hot Fudge Warrior (Warrior’s Reward). Racing between rivals to take command around the far turn, Midnight Parade dashed clear once given her cue as the field straightened for home and drew off under a right-handed ride, hitting the line much the best while seven lengths ahead of favored Confirmed Star (Uptowncharlybrown), who closed from last to fill out the exacta. Her sire (by Any Given Saturday)'s third winner, Midnight Parade is a half-sister to Jw'strickymischief (Into Mischief), MSP, $262,824. FAHRHOF'S DAY AS BBAG RING IS LITT BRIGHT

By Emma Berry

BADEN-BADEN, Germany—A German breeder, a British stallion, an American buyer. In a fully reopened world, the international participation that had been anticipated ahead of BBAG’s major yearling sale was played out as Jason Litt made a splash on his first visit to Baden-Baden when signing for the sole Kingman (GB) yearling in the sale, offered by the day’s leading vendor Gestut Fahrhof and commanding the top price of €450,000.

Along with Litt, buyers from Britain, China, Ireland, France, Italy, Dubai, Hong Kong, the Czech Republic, and of course Germany underlined a diverse and vibrant market which led to gains of 24% for both aggregate and average. Of the 204 horses offered through the one-day sale, 157 (77%) found a buyer, with the clearance rate dropping just slightly from 80% last year, but the average up to €53,258 with the overall turnover at €8,361,500.

Fahrhof to the Fore

It has been quite the week for the partnership of Gestut Fahrhof and Kingman, with the stallion reaching a new high of 50 stakes winners and 30 group winners courtesy of the stud’s homebred Habana (Ger).

CLOUDS GATHER OVER HAYDOCK BONANZA

by Tom Frary

Britain’s prolonged dry spell could be about to end on Saturday, with various connections either beckoning the rain gods or praying the wet stays away for another action-packed afternoon. Haydock’s G1 Betfair Sprint Cup has often been played out on rain-softened conditions in the past and, given the time of year it is staged, some give underfoot is to be expected but whether there will be enough moisture to alter the current quick ground remains to be seen. One who has proven form on all types of going is Shadwell’s Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), who had five of his opponents behind when taking Newbury’s G3 Hackwood S. on good-to-firm over this six-furlong trip July 16 and who was equally at home when it was testing as he ran third in Ascot’s G1 Qipco British Champions Sprint S. in October.

WIN WIN WIN

Again and again.
Yearlings offered at Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton.

IN TDN AMERICA TODAY

Brian Sheerin speaks with Willie Browne of Mocklershill on new ‘TDN Rising Star’ Sakheer (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}).

Classic winner Adayar (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) will make his long-awaited 2022 debut in a conditions race next week at Doncaster.

Al Wukair (Ire) sired the first and third home in the Listed Prix Millkom at La Teste de Buch on Friday.

Dream Of Dreams (Ire) (Dream Ahead) won the 2020 G1 Betfair Sprint Cup S. for Sir Michael Stoute and owner Saeed Suhail. There are 17 signed on for the 2022 edition.

That 'TDN Rising Star' went on the land the G3 Zukunfts-Rennen at Baden-Baden on Wednesday.

In the sale ring two days later, Kingman's son (lot 62) from the family of this year's G1 Deutsches Derby winner Sammarco (Ire) was the draft's leading light when topping the sale, selected by a first-time visitor to the auction.

"I'm really happy right now," said American agent Jason Litt. "We got the one we wanted. We came here trying to buy what we thought was the best horse in the sale, and we thought he was the best horse in the sale.

"He's likely to stay in Europe but it is all to be determined. He has a great attitude and great balance."

Litt added with a laugh, "He checked all the boxes, as everyone hates to hear."

The colt's relative Sammarco, who is now a dual Group 1 winner, returns to the track on Sunday to take on Torquator Tasso (Ger) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, and plenty of other members of the close family have won stakes races in Britain, Ireland, France, and Australia. His dam Sarandia (Ger) (Dansili {GB}) was herself narrowly denied a Classic win when second in the G1 Preis der Diana, and three of her five wins came in listed races.

The Fahrhof draft was also represented among the top lots by a Frankel (GB) half-brother to Group 1 winner Potemkin (Ger) (New Approach {GB}), who will race in Germany for Eckhard Sauren, the President of the Cologne Race Club who bought lot 58 for €210,000. The colt's dam Praia (Ger) (Big Shuffle) was herself a winner and listed-placed and is a half-sister to Paita (GB) (Intikhab), a former champion 2-year-old filly in Germany.

An international bidding skirmish was in play later in the day for another Fahrhof consignee, the first foal of Listed Diana Trial winner Realeza (Ger) (Maxios {GB}) by Darley's Night Of Thunder (Ire). Anthony Stroud was involved for a while, but it was Andreas Suborics who had the last word at €325,000, with Michael Donohoe the unlucky underbidder from outside the ring. Suborics confirmed that he will train the chestnut colt (lot 156) for owner Jurgen Sartori. Cont. p4

The mixing of Dubawi and Monsun bloodlines has worked well in this family already, with Realeza's three-parts sister Rumh (Ger), a listed-winning daughter of Monsun, having produced the multiple Group 1 winners Yibir (GB) and Wild Illusion (GB), both of whom are by Dubawi.

Gestut Fahrhof, which has also consigned yearlings at the Tattersalls October Sale in the past, offered all its yearlings for sale at BBAG this year, and was the sale's leading vendor with 12 sold for €1,420,000 at an average price of €118,333.

Reflecting on a good day for his team, Fahrhof's owner Andreas Jacobs said, "It is a fantastic sale, a boutique sale at a wonderful location. It's wonderful because of great food, great restaurants, great hotels, but also a great sales crowd. This year we had some good genuine prices, so expectations from the vendors were reasonable, and I think the catalogue was better than last year."

He continued, "On the Farhrhof side we had better horses in the sale because we didn’t send any to Tattersalls, so that helped our sale. I'm very proud to have sold the most expensive Kingman. I've loved Kingman since he was a racehorse and I think he was one of those that has everything you want to have—good character, a good scope, and he improved with the work every minute."

"The Night Of Thunder we sold was equally smart and everyone was on him which was why he generated an exceptional price. We’re very happy with the day's results, and also with the Baden-Baden race results. To have a Kingman filly; there’s nothing better than to have a 2-year-old group-winning filly. I’m very excited about her and very proud."

Prize Fillies for Owner-Breeders
Out of luck with bidding on Fahrhof's Night Of Thunder colt, Michael Donohoe was successful only a short while later when buying the only Frankel filly in the catalogue for €250,000 for Yuesheng Zhang of Yulong Investments. Lot 161, who was offered by Ronald Rauscher, is the third foal of the Acclamation (GB) mare Vagabonde (Ire), a dual winner in France and a half-sister to a pair of Group 3 winners in Kalahara (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Sasparella (Fr) (Shamardal).

"Mr. Zhang has had plenty of luck with the sire and I thought she was lovely," said Dononhoe. The Yulong Investements silks have been carried to Group 1 glory in Australia by a homebred daughter of Frankel in the Chris Waller-trained Hungry Heart (Aus), winner of the Australian Oaks and Vinery Stud S.

He continued, "There's a nice bit of Acclamation about her and she looks like she might be quite a forward Frankel. We loved the pedigree and thought she represented good value." Cont. p5

He added, "I was underbidder for different clients on the Kingman and the Night Of Thunder. It's a really strong market."

A bidding tussle between Tina Rau and Ronald Rauscher saw the latter come out on top for Haras de l'Hotellerie's filly by Sea The Stars (Ire) out of the listed winner Imagery (Ger) (Monsun (Ger)) (lot 44) at €250,000.

A pedigree with roots in Gestut Schlenderhan, which includes three black-type half-siblings for the yearling, and another four of the same for her dam, was enough to persuade Rauscher's client, one of Germany's leading breeders, to purchase the filly with her future broodmare career in mind.

"She's been bought for my main partner, Christoph Berglar," Rauscher confirmed. "He loves Sea The Stars and he loves that Schlenderhan family, and there's Monsun in there. She's very nice, I liked her a lot."

Guillaume Garcon of Haras de l'Hotellerie offered the filly on behalf of her breeder Leopoldo Fernandez Pujals of Yeguada Centurion, who bought Imagery at Tattersalls four years ago for 95,000gnns. The mare also has a colt foal by Sea The Stars.

A good day continued for the Hotellerie team when the Bated Breath (GB) half-sister to Group 3 winner Noble Heidi (Fr) (Intello (Ger)) sold for €130,000 to Stall Salzburg. Extra black type has been provided for their dam Noble Pensee (Fr) (Orpen) by her 3-year-old listed-placed daughter Noble Star (Fr) (Zarak (Fr)), while Noble Heidi, now four, added the Listed Baden-Baden Cup to her tally of victories on Wednesday. The granddam of lot 151, Turning Leaf (Ire) (Last Tycoon) was placed in the G2 German 1,000 Guineas.

Franco-Irish Alliance for Le Havre Filly

One of the 'talking horses' of the sale was the sole yearling by the late Le Havre (Ire), who, catalogued as lot 61, was offered by Stauffenberg Bloodstock on behalf of her breeder Gestut Honyhof. The flashy chestnut is a granddaughter of the G1 Preis der Diana winner Salve Regina (Ger) (Monsun (Ger)), who was also runner up in the Deutsches Derby, a race also won by her full-brothers Samum (Ger) and Schiaparelli (Ger). More recently, the family has been boosted by the yearling's Group 3-winning half-brother Sea Of Sands (Ger) (Sea The Stars (Ire)), who triumphed in the Derby-Trial and is one of five winners for their dam Salve Haya (Ire) (Peintre Celebre).

The well-established partnership of Ireland's Ballylinch Stud and France's Ecurie des Charmes had the final say for the filly at €205,000, with Ghislain Bozo signing the docket in the company of John O'Connor.

"She was a really nice filly, we think Le Havre is a plus as well and it's a very nice staying family, a very strong German family," Bozo said. "She's a lovely mover and well-balanced, the type of physique we like, and should be a lovely broodmare in the future. She may go to Ballylinch first, they have a really lovely pre-training facility."

Bozo had earlier signed for Gestut Hof Ittlingen's colt by the late Lord Of England (Ger) at €180,000. Bought for an undisclosed client, lot 47 is a half-brother to Loft (Ger) (Adlerflug (Ger)), winner of the G1 Belmont Gold Cup S. in America as well as the G2 Oleander-Rennen is his home country. The pair emanate from Hof Ittlingen's signature family of the homebred champion Lando (Ger), whose seven Group 1 wins included the Japan Cup, and who is a brother to the colt's granddam Laurella (Ger) (Acatenango (Ger)). Waldgeist Filly to Wohler

Gestut Ammerland’s half-sister to Blue De Vega (Ger) (Lope De Vega (Ger)) from the first crop of Arc winner Waldgeist (GB) (lot 79) is to be trained by Andreas Wohler for a "well-established French owner-breeder" after being signed for at €160,000 by Alexandra Saint Martin of ASM Bloodstock.

Unable to divulge the name of her client, the agent added, "She is a lovely filly with a great page and she has been bought as a broodmare prospect. She will be trained in Germany."

The filly was the most expensive yearling of the day by Waldgeist, who was well represented at BBAG with eight of his yearlings sold for an average of €63,750.

Another of this year’s freshman sires, Darley’s Too Darn Hot (GB), featured just once in the catalogue but his yearling colt, who is a half-brother to the German champion 3-year-old sprinter Namos (GB) (Medicean {GB}), found favour with breeze-up pinhooker Tom Whitehead of Powerstown Stud.

“He’s a good, racy colt and I like the sire. I think he has a good chance,” said Whitehead, who has done well buying breezers from this sale in the past and paid €150,000 for lot 54 from breeder Gestut Brummerhof.

There was plenty to recommend the Ronald Rauscher-consigned colt beyond his sire, however, as he is out of Nightlight Angel (Manduro {Ger}), a winning three-parts-sister to Dr. Christoph Berglar’s champion colt Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), a Group 1 winner in three different countries who is now at stud in Japan. The family has been given another major boost this season by the Irish Oaks victory of Novellist’s half-sister Magical Lagoon (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Elliott also went to €165,000 for Haras de Grandcamp’s Wootton Bassett (GB) half-brother to G3 Prix des Chenes winner Evasive’s First (Fr) (Evasive), who was appropriately, consigned as lot 165.

Holger Faust of the HFTB Agency was the sale’s busiest buyer, signing for 11 yearlings for a total of €568,000. The group included Intisar (Ger) (Isfahan {Ger}), who will race in the same Darius Racing colours as her sister, the G1 Preis der Diana runner-up Isfahani (Ger), and was bought from Gestut Karlshof for €120,000.

New Bay an Old Friend for Elliott

Alex Elliott is another regular visitor to BBAG and secured two six-figure lots on Friday, the first being lot 53, bought for the Chelsea Thoroughbreds syndicate at €120,000.

The colt by New Bay (GB) is to be trained by Ralph Beckett, a stallion with whom Elliott and Beckett have enjoyed previous success courtesy of his first-crop son New Mandate (Ire), winner of the G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge S. as well as a pair of listed races.

His final three-furlong sectional of :33.05 in the Hackwood was bettered only by the mercurial but highly-talented Rohaan (Ire) (Mayson {GB}), who registered an eye-watering :10.26 penultimate split only to pay for it late and fade to fourth.

Time For Kinross To Shine?
Tried over this trip on only two occasions, Marc Chan’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) looks ideal for this type of test following his smooth win in the seven-furlong G2 City of York S. Aug 20. He had Art Power (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Rohaan in fourth and seventh respectively as he registered a personal best on fast ground there and has always looked a deeply-talented performer who is awaiting his turn. “There’s no seven-furlong race before the Foret and he’s in good shape, so we are inclined to run for that reason,” trainer Ralph Beckett told QIPCO British Champions Series. “It’s possible he might be going forward, as the ratings suggest it was a career-best when he beat Pogo at York. We’ll see.”

Power Play
Haydock’s fixture gets underway with the Listed Ascendant S., with Godolphin’s unbeaten Naval Power (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) moving up to a mile rather than tackling the Irish colts in next Sunday’s G1 Goffs Vincent O’Brien National S. Anything other than an easy success for the 6 1/2-length Listed Pat Eddery S. winner will serve as an anti-climax and he should extend a rich spell in juvenile black-type races for Charlie Appleby after the yard’s G2 Gimcrack S., Listed Stonehenge S., G3 Solario S. and G3 Prestige S. wins. He also has the impressive Goodwood and Newmarket winner Mischief Magic (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) in Kempton’s G3 Sirenia S., proof of the stable’s incredible strength-in-depth among its 2-year-olds.

September Send-Off For Gear Up
Another set to join the Australian exodus is Teme Valley’s Aug. 4 G3 Ballyroan S. winner Gear Up (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), but first the capable Joseph O’Brien-trained 4-year-old is pitched against Mohamed Obaida’s G1 Champion S. runner-up Dubai Honour (Ire) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) in Kempton’s G3 September S. on Saturday. “This will be his last run in Europe for some time. He’ll go to Australia after this and we’ll be racing him in Australia with some new partners once he’s flown down there,” Teme Valley’s Racing manager Richard Ryan explained. “We’d have liked to have raced him in the Caulfield Cup this year from Joseph’s yard, but there was a small issue on the import restrictions which prevented us from doing that.” Cont. p8

He added, “We still had some interested parties that wanted to be involved so we decided to take that up and race him ourselves for the forthcoming year. He will probably go to Annabel Neasham. Joseph’s done a fantastic job getting the horse’s enthusiasm back and putting his mojo back. It’s not easy with an older horse to put the want back in and Joseph seems very good at that. He won’t be racing in the Melbourne Cup or the Caulfield Cup this year but next year who knows, we’ll make a plan and take it from there.”

Flying High?

In the aforementioned Sirenia at Kempton, Juddmonte’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Flag Flying (GB) (Starspangledbanner (Aus)) takes on Mischief Magic and co. on his eagerly-awaited reappearance following his emphatic Goodwood novice success over this six-furlong trip June 5. “There has been no particular reason why he hasn’t run since Goodwood,” Harry Charlton said. “He was ready to run a month ago, but he has just missed targets and subsequently we have ended up coming here. He is a beautiful mover and will love the all-weather, so I’m not worried about the switch of surface and a flat track should be better for him. He is a big trier and he wants to please.”

Ten For Moulin

Sunday’s G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp has attracted 10, with Godolphin’s 2000 Guineas and St James’s Palace S. hero Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) looking to bounce back from his fifth in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville last time Aug. 14. Al Asayl France’s G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. hero The Revenant (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) is back off a lay-off with big autumn targets ahead, while Ballydoyle’s stalwart Order Of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}) bids to go one better than when second to Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) 12 months ago.

‘THE DREAM IS ALIVE’ - WILLIE BROWNE ON TDN RISING STAR SAKHEER By Brian Sheerin

Breeze-up king Willie Browne, who sold G1 1000 Guineas heroine Speciosa (Ire), G1 Ascot Gold Cup winner Trip To Paris (Ire) and many more top-notchers, is allowing himself to believe that recent graduate Sakheer (Ire) (Zoffany (Ire)) could be the real deal after he coasted to an effortless victory at Haydock on Thursday.

The 76-year-old bought Sakheer for $65,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sales in 2021 before producing the colt to top the Arqana Breeze-up Sale in May of this year. Sakheer was bought by Oliver St Lawrence for €550,000 on behalf of KHK Racing Ltd. and went some way in justifying that price tag when bolting up by six lengths second time out at Haydock under David Egan for Roger Varian.

It was a performance that left tongues wagging, with the G1 Middle Park S. entrant earning himself a ‘TDN Rising Star’ badge in victory, and Browne hopes that Haydock triumph can prove a launchpad for Sakheer’s career.

He said, “Visually, it looked very good and we’d like to think he’s smart. The third horse was a winner and the time looked good considering he could have gone faster if he [Egan] pressed a button.”

Browne added, “He was always a nice horse and he breezed very well for us. I think he breezed in the top four or five at Arqana and obviously we got well paid for him. He looked a special horse and hopefully he will go on and be that for his connections.”

Operating under the Mocklershill banner, Browne has been breezing horses since 1978 and described the current landscape of the profession as the best it’s ever been.

Thursday represented a good day for his renowned Tipperary-based operation, not only because Sakheer lived up to the high opinion he had always been held in by Brown, but because fellow Arqana graduate Ensued (Lemon Drop Kid) posted an encouraging debut at Salisbury.

He said, “We get it right a fair bit but we have also had quite a lot of horses through our hands so we need to produce a few good ones. Sakheer is one of them.

“I went out and bought him by chance at Keeneland last year. He was an expensive foal [80,000gns] in Europe and then the vendors brought him to America to re-sell him for whatever reason.” Cont. p9

Browne said, “He did have a sibling [half-sister Lemista (Ire) (Raven’s Pass)] who did well out there so maybe that was part of the thinking in bringing him to America but he didn't make his reserve in the ring and we got him outside it [for $65,000].”

Browne added, “He was a beautifully put together horse and it wasn't rocket science. The fact that he could gallop, though, there was a certain amount of good fortune in that. Sometimes you can buy beautiful-looking horses and they might not be able to gallop. He could.

“The plus about Arqana is, even though this horse breezed very well and we got well paid, we'd another horse there, a Lemon Drop Kid, and we got well-paid for him even though he didn't break the clock.

“He [Ensued] actually ran yesterday, was a very good third on debut at Salisbury for James Fanshawe, and he's a good middle-distance horse going forward. He breezed like a middle-distance horse but the people who buy in Arqana can see beyond speed and that's a plus for us.”

Browne has been breezing horses ever since it was a thing and Mocklershill is recognised as one of the premier consignors of 2-year-olds in Europe. He has overseen a kaleidoscope of change in the industry and admits that, in order to get well paid, you don't always need to break the clock anymore.

He explained, “A fast horse will always get you money, no matter where you go, but the Lemon Drop Kid was a good example of a middle-distance horse making good money at the breeze-ups, as we got €260,000 for him.

“If yesterday's run is anything to go by, he's also an exciting horse in his own right, so there's two horses at the opposite end of the stick. The fast horse, Sakheer, who showed up well, and the middle-distance horse, Ensued, who may not have been as fast, but showed different qualities and made a good price.

“It's a great thrill opening the paper every morning and seeing the percentage of 2-year-old winners who are graduates from the breeze-ups. It's just off the charts. It’s unbelievable what’s going on in the breeze-ups at the moment. There’s a lot of good people breezing horses and they know what they’re doing.”

Asked where Sakheer may rank in the pantheon of top-notchers to have graduated from Mocklershill, he replied, “When he wins a group race, come back to me. He needed to do what he did yesterday. It gives you great satisfaction when you produce a good horse, it's as much relief as anything else, but when they cost what Al Sakheer did, you like to see them go on and be good.

“Sometimes it happens and other times it doesn't but the dream looks well and truly alive right now. If he goes and wins a group race, maybe we'll be able to put our chest out a little bit more.”

Browne has already been making his presence felt at the yearling sales and has been busy re-stocking for next year's breeze-ups.

He said, “I didn't go to the August Sale at Arqana this year. Maybe I should have, but I didn't. We went to Doncaster and bought a few there alright. “We gave a good few quid for a Showcasing (GB) horse, we gave 140,000gns for him, which is plenty of money for a breeze-up horse, but he looks a fast horse to me. I'm hoping the money is well spent.

“We bought a Ten Sovereigns (Ire) for 50 grand as well, so that's the start of it all. We’re getting old but sure we’ll try to keep going for as long as we can. It's hard to stop.”
FIRST-SEASON SIRES WITH RUNNERS

DERBY AND KING GEORGE HERO ADAYAR RETURNS AT DONCASTER

Godolphin’s 2021 G1 Derby and G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. hero Adyar (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) has been entered in the 10-furlong Hilton Garden Inn Conditions S. at Doncaster on Sept. 8. After taking the King George last June, the bay was fourth in the G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe in October and dropped to fifth in Ascot’s G1 Champion S. on QIPCO British Champions Day on Oct. 16.

The 4-year-old’s 2022 campaign has not been straightforward, however. Adyar had been due to make his 2022 bow in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom, but then was re-routed to Royal Ascot. That race appearance did not pan out either, and the G1 Eclipse S. was touted as his new starting point, before being ruled out.

Next Thursday’s conditions race will be his 4-year-old bow. The 10-furlong race has 10 entered, including fellow Charlie Appleby trainees Dhahabi (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Ottoman Fleet (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Warren Point (GB) (Dubawi {Ire})

OBSERVATIONS on the European racing scene

GORESBRIDGE STAR DEBUTS AT ASCOT
2.00 Ascot, Novice, £15,000, 2yo, 7f
ROYAL JET (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) made a splash at the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale in May, when a bid of €260,000 meant that he finished up the auction’s top-priced colt. Owned by Michael Blencowe and Anthony O’Callaghan, the Andrew Balding-trained half-brother to the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert dead-heater Dibajj (Fr) (Iffraaj {GB}) and Listed Prix Francois Mathet scorer Black Sea (Fr) (Dubai Destination) from the family of the G2 King’s Stand S. hero Chineur (Fr) (Fasliyev) meets eight rivals on this debut.

HOW THEY FARED
14.35 Ascot, Mdn, £20,000, 2yo, 7f
Aidan O’Brien trainee Paddington (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}), who is a G1 Dewhurst S. entry from the family of Dewhurst second Fencing Master (GB) (Oratorio {Ire}), was unable to land a telling blow at the business end and finished eight lengths off the winner in fifth.

15.10 Ascot, Nov, £15,000, 2yo, f, 7f 213yT
Coolmore & Westerberg’s hitherto unraced Red Riding Hood (Ire) (Justify), a daughter of G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine and G1 1000 Guineas runner-up Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), was under pressure a long way from home and kept on relentlessly under continued rousting in the straight to finish three lengths behind the winner in second.

In command passing halfway, the 11-10 favourite readily drew away to score by four lengths from Bonny Power (Ire) (Twilight Son {GB}). In doing so, she was providing her first-season sire (by Scat Daddy) with his 29th winner of the campaign. “It is Al Shira’a Racing Limited’s first winner in Ireland, so I’m delighted about that,” trainer Willie McCreery said. “They have bought another few yearlings for this year, so they will have more horses racing in Ireland. She is a lovely filly and we will step her up, maybe this year, but we will take our time because she is still growing a lot. She has always worked nicely and she did everything nicely.” The listed-winning and group-placed dam, who has a full-brother to Mother Earth due to sell at this month’s Goffs Orby, is also responsible for the G2 Premio Dormello winner Night Colours (Ire) (Night Of Thunder [Ire]). WORLDWIDE NEWS

JAPANESE HORSE OF THE YEAR ZENNO ROB ROY PASSES AT 22
Japanese Horse of the Year Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) (Sunday Silence--Roamin Rachel, by Mining) passed away due to heart failure on Friday morning, www.tospo-keiba.jp.com reported. The 2004 G1 Japan Cup winner, who was standing at Murakami Kinya Ranch, was 22.

The dark bay was a “cool horse, who walks with dignity as he was when he was racing,” owner Zenno Management said on Facebook. “The diagnosis is a deterioration of the heart muscle due to aging. Last night [Sept. 1], the stallion laid down to sleep normally, but could not rise [this morning]. He then said goodbye to this world without suffering.”

Bred by Shiraoi Farm, Zenno Rob Roy was trained by Kazuo Fujisawa and owned by Kumiko Osako during his racing career. From 20 starts, he won seven, anchored by the Japan Cup.

The stallion also claimed two races subsequently promoted to international Group 1 status—the Arima Kinen and the Tenno Sho (Autumn), while earning north of $10.4 million.

At stud, Zenno Rob Roy has left 26 black-type winners to date, 17 at the group level. His progeny are headed by G1 Yushun Himba heroine Saint Emilion (Jpn), and the dual Group 2 winner Trailblazer (Jpn), who was fourth in the 2012 GI Breeders’ Cup Turf. His daughters have produced eight stakes winners (five group), among them Group 2 scorers Ask Wild More (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) and Divine Force (Jpn) (Workforce {GB}).

Out of the GI Ballerina H. victress Roamin Rachel, Zenno Roy Roy was a half-brother to the stakes-winning and dual Grade I-placed Darling My Darling (Deputy Minister), the dam of two graded winners led by GI Alcibiades S. winner Heavenly Love (Malibu Moon). He is also from the same female family as American dual champion and five-time Grade I heroine Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) and also features in the family of the $2.3-million topper at this year’s Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sale.
