LEAVE NO TRACE TAKES SPINAWAY TO GIVE SERPE FIRST GRADE I IN 29 YEARS

WellSpring Stables’ Leave No Trace (Outwork), overlooked at 14-1 stepping up from restricted maiden company, proved best in Sunday’s GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga to give trainer Phil Serpe his first top-level success since 1993.

Bought for just $40,000 as a Fasig-Tipton Midlantic October yearling, the dark bay scored a professional 2 3/4-length victory while wrapped up later against auction price-restricted foes here July 20. That effort earned a co-field best 77 Beyer, but Irad Ortiz, Jr. departed to ride Aunt Shirley (Justify) in here and Leave No Trace drifted up to nearly double her 8-1 morning-line estimate by post.

Finding a good spot tracking the pace of GIII Adirondack S. heroine Naughty Gal (Into Mischief) from second through a :22.84 quarter under Jose Lezcano, Leave No Trace was pushed on to go as the half went up in a moderate :46.66. Drawing in on the pacesetter alongside of favored Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) as Kaling (Practical Joke) also threw her hat in the ring from the rail, Leave No Trace poked her head in front at the three-sixteenths pole, inched away from Kaling entering the final furlong and was always doing enough to hold Wonder Wheel at bay in deep stretch.

WAS FLIGHTLINE’S PACIFIC CLASSIC THE BEST PERFORMANCE SINCE SECRETARIAT’S BELMONT?

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

Some more thoughts on Flightline (Tapit) while trying to come up with the right superlative to describe his win in the GI TVG Pacific Classic. Words like spectacular, stunning, sensational just don’t seem good enough.

(*) It’s tempting to try to compare him to Secretariat. The thing is, that’s simply impossible. One has run just five times, the other ran 21 times, won the Triple Crown, was a two-time Horse of the Year and had his picture on the covers of Time, Newsweek and Sports Illustrated. They’re not going to make a movie about Flightline. They are different horses from different eras, equine apples and oranges. Is Flightline as good as Secretariat, or the best horse since Secretariat? There’s no answer to that question. Cont. p5

“Her first race was impressive,” Serpe said. “I don’t swear by Beyer numbers and sheet numbers, but I do use them as a tool. Her numbers were good, she was training great, she worked 59 and change for fun. You’ve got to go and make hay when the sun shines. You got to take a shot. That’s what racing is. She’s been impressive since before we ever left Belmont. She was working well, easily in 47 and change, and you have to be impressed with a horse like that. If you look at her, she’s gorgeous. She went through a growth spurt in the spring. She’s grown six inches in every direction which is what you want a horse to do in August going into September. It was everything you would like.”

“I think she’s a very nice filly,” added Lezcano. “I never touched her before. She broke so well and she was right there. I really didn’t have to do too much. I let her have things her way and she did everything. When I asked her, she went on and won the race. I had a lot of horse going to the five-sixteenths. The way she did it, she did it so easy. I’m not surprised the way she did it. She traveled like a good horse, and she is.”

The victory gave Serpe, whose barn won only four races in 2021 but is having a much better season this year, his first Grade I win since his Birdonthewire captured the 1993 GI Vosburgh S.

“It’s great,” he said. “We are really, really happy for the people who own this horse. They’re great people, they’re deserving and it’s all around a great feeling for everyone.”

Week in Review cont. from p1

But there is a way to look at the two under the same microscope by comparing what were the two best performances of their respective careers. Secretariat’s 31-length win in the 1973 GI Belmont S. was not just the greatest performance of his career, it was the best race ever run by any horse at any time in the history of horse racing. No one will ever top what he did that afternoon 49 years ago at Belmont Park.

But you can easily make the argument that Flightline’s Pacific Classic was the best performance anyone in the U.S. has seen since. This was no easy assignment. Country Grammer (Tonalist), Royal Ship (Brz) (Midshipman), Express Train (Union Rags) are solid older horses, all Grade I-level horses. And Flightline thrashed them, winning by 19 1/4 lengths despite being eased up in the final sixteenth by jockey Flavien Prat. He ran a 126 Beyer, second best ever given out by the Beyer team and two points behind the 128 given to Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) when he won the GIII Philip H. Iselin H. in 2004.

As announcer Trevor Denman said in his call, “Take a good look at this because this is something you’re not going to see too often. Maybe never again.”

It’s worth noting that the two races unfolded in nearly identical fashion. Secretariat’s rivals were still within striking distance midway down the backstretch as Sham stayed close. Then he spurted away from Sham and, from there, kept widening his margin over his competitors. Flightline did much the same thing.

The Slow Down Low Down

Slow Down Andy is Nyquist’s third Graded Stakes winner of 2022, adding the G2 Del Mar Derby on turf to his G2 Los Alamitos Futurity on dirt. No stallion under $75k can match Nyquist’s 9% Graded Stakes horses from starters.

Plus: $525k September yearling Powerful takes a MSW at Saratoga. Take the hint and be sure to inspect the Nyquists at the sales.

Flightline | Benoit

With a half-mile to go in the race, Extra Hope (Shanghai Bobby) was just a length behind Flightline while the main rivals were all within five or six lengths. Then Flightline hit another gear, took off and left some good horses looking like they belonged in the seventh at Finger Lakes.

Cont. p6
Then there was the look back. Prat looked over his right shoulder in the stretch as if he couldn't believe he was so far in front. Ron Turcotte did the same, only looking over his left shoulder.

“These races were very similar,” said Dave Johnson, who called the 1973 Belmont for NYRA. “His Pacific Classic was breathtaking and that explosion of speed coming into the far turn was very similar to what Secretariat did. Almost 50 years later, I’ve never been so impressed by a horse or saw something that sent me back to the Secretariat days.”

(*) There’s one thing we have yet to see from Flightline, which is what would he do if ever asked. Prat has never allowed this horse to fire on all cylinders in the stretch. There has been no need to do so. Why not save something for another day?

But could Flightline have won the Pacific Classic by even more than 19 1/4 lengths if Prat hadn’t wrapped up on him? It stands to reason that he could have, maybe even by five or six more lengths.

Since the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic will likely be his last start this year and maybe in his career, why not just let him roll? Wouldn’t it be great to see what Flightline could do if his jockey called on everything he had. Maybe he wins by 31 lengths. What do they have to lose?

(*) The only negative to the Flightline story is that he has only run five times. Part of the reason why is that he had some bad luck (like crashing into a fence and suffering a nasty gash while he was being broken as a yearling) and other minor setbacks along the way. But his light schedule is more about the way top horses are campaigned in the modern era and how what really matters is not what they do on the racetrack but how much they are worth as stallions. You can’t blame trainer John Sadler, who mapped out the schedule. His job was to create a very valuable stallion and in that regard he did everything right.

We also don’t know how much of a challenge it may be to get Flightline prepared for races. He could be one of those too-fast-for-his-own-good horses, ones that need a lot of time off between races.

But, as racing fans, we should all feel cheated that we have seen so little of this horse. The good news is maybe this story isn’t over. Yes, he is worth more as a stallion than as a racehorse, but after the Pacific Classic, Sadler told reporters that the connections have an open mind when it comes to racing him next year as a 5-year-old.

Go for it. Sometimes there’s more to the story than the bottom line and owners should feel they have at least some obligation to do what’s best for the sport.

(*) Will the Pacific Classic affect the Breeders’ Cup plans among some of the other top horses in the older male dirt division? Cont. p7
Again and again.
Producing the winners of over 100 graded stakes, our elite broodmare band continues to extend its legacy on racetracks around the globe.

Yearlings offered at Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton.
The question is: no matter how good your horse might be, do you really want to take on Flightline in the Classic in what may be an exercise in futility, especially when there is the option of the Grade I Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile? If I were the connections of Life Is Good (Into Mischief), I’d already have the pre-entry slip filled out for the Dirt Mile.

(*) Remember when there was some concern that Flightline might not get a mile and a quarter? In hindsight, he’s obviously better at 10 furlongs than he is in shorter races. No surprise since he is by Tapit.

BOPPY O NEXT STAR FOR RUSTLEWOOD FARM’S PAPPASCAT

by Katie Petrunyak

Boppy O (Bolt d’Oro) was greeted by an ecstatic winner’s circle as he circled back to the Saratoga grandstand after his 23-1 upset in the Grade III With Anticipation S., but he had another cheering squad celebrating from his birthplace in Reddick, Florida. His breeders George and Karen Russell of Rustlewood Farm were out with friends as the juvenile colt made his turf debut, but they didn’t hesitate to huddle around their phone at the dinner table so they could watch the race live.

“We were thinking it would sure be good if he hit the board,” George Russell said the day after the big win. “Then when he won we were obviously really excited.”

“He’s still young and a little green, but hopefully he’ll do good in his next start and go on to the Breeders’ Cup. If he does, we’ll be there.”

If Boppy O does make an appearance on Future Stars Friday, it would not be the Russells’ first representation at the championship meet. Cont. p8
Boppy O is the half-brother to last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile runner-up Pappacap (Gun Runner). While both colts are trained by Mark Casse, Grade II winner and three-time Grade I-placed Pappacap was retained by his breeder and is campaigned by Rustlewood Farm.

The Russells purchased Pappascat (Scat Daddy), the dam of these two impressive performers, in 2015 after she RNA’d for $110,000 at the Keeneland November Sale. Pappascat is one of just over a dozen mares at Rustlewood Farm.

“She’s a lovely mare, a big pretty mare,” Karen explained. “She’s easy to be around. She doesn’t crib, she doesn’t have to wear shoes and she’s not a drama queen.”

“She seems to be consistent with what she is producing,” George added. “They all have a lot of desire and they’re good on themselves.”

While Karen was the one who suggested sending Pappascat to Gun Runner after watching the future red-hot sire capture the 2018 GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational S., George enlisted the help of friend and advisor Francis Vanlangendonck of Summerfield Sales to plan the mating to Bolt d’Oro that produced Boppy O.

Shelley Bunning, Rustlewood’s farm manager, offered insight on the Florida-bred colt’s early days and explained that Boppy O had a much different personality than his older brother.

“Pappacap was more settled with the concept of working than Boppy O was,” she said with a chuckle. “Everything you asked, Pappacap did with enthusiasm and he wanted to do it right whereas Boppy O was more along the lines of, ‘I can do it but I just might not want to do it today. He was very capable, but sometimes stubborn.”

Bunning noted that as the colt matured, he grew a bit more laid-back.

“Once we started yearling prep with him, he grasped the situation and what we wanted him to do, but whether he was going to do it that day was up to him,” she said. “He did work hard and apply himself, and he grew up and filled out nicely.”

Pappacap was retained by the Russells when he was unable to sell at what they believed was his true worth as a yearling in 2020, but Boppy O followed the farm’s usual protocol of going through a sale as a yearling. The colt sold for $190,000 to John Oxley and Breeze Easy LLC. He went on to break his maiden at first asking at Gulfstream in May and then finished a disappointing 10th in the GIII Sanford S. before bouncing back impressively in his With Anticipation score, where he was the first graded stakes winner for his freshman sire.

Bunning was quick to credit her employers for their positive outlook in the face of selling a future graded winner.

“A lot of times in the industry people gripe about how, ‘Oh we shouldn’t have sold that horse,’” Bunning said. “But they’re not mad about it; they think it’s brilliant. They’re just happy that everyone’s enjoying it.”

“We always wish the best for the people that buy them,” George said. “It’s exciting and it makes it worthwhile.”

We've learned that you generally have the one or the two that pay for the others. To get something like this and have a mare like Pappascat, it makes it so much more enjoyable to have something to look forward to."

While the Russells have experienced the highs of the game with Pappascat and her offspring, they've also endured the lowest of lows. Just three weeks ago, Pappascat's yearling by Omaha Beach died tragically. It's a loss that could never be replaced for the couple no matter the success of the mare's other offspring.

"He was a special individual," George said.

"We were really devastated and it's still hard to believe. We've never had an experience like that where we lost a horse that was doing fine and then was gone within hours. He had a fever in the morning and he was immediately loaded up and headed to the clinic. We were never worried about what eventually happened."

"The lows are the lows, but this week we have Boppy O lifting us back up," Karen said.

While the loss still weighs heavy, the Russells were grateful to find cause for celebration in Boppy O's victory and they have also found solace in two other sons of Pappascat thriving at their farm.

Following a fourth-place finish in the GII Amsterdam S. in July, Pappacap has returned to Rustlewood this month for a bit of ‘R and R’ and a diet that includes plenty of peppermints.

"He's in one of the paddocks right by our house," George shared. "Karen goes out there and takes care of him. He's been pretty consistent for us and he's sound as could be, so we figured it was a well-deserved break and he will tell us when he's ready to go back."

This year, Pappascat produced a colt by War of Will. The Russells reported that the May-foaled youngster could be something special.

“He’s just about the nicest thing we’ve seen,” Karen said. “We think he’s the best one so far. Plus, Pappascat is back in foal to Candy Ride.”

Asked if Pappacap—or maybe even Boppy O—would go down as an all-time favorite bred at Rustlewood, the Russells could not give a definitive answer as they listed off additional stars in Grade II victor Mach Ride (Pentelicus), Grade III winner Prudhoe Bay (Songandaprayer) and SW Consider Thesource (Notebook).

“They mean the world to us,” Karen said. “I can’t talk about them without crying. They’re all really special.”

“They’re all treated the same and my wife loves them all,” said George. “How Pappascat has produced for us, mares like her are few and far between. It just adds a little something extra to it. She’s a special one.”

SOUTH GATE FARM MAKING NOISE FROM SARATOGA TO KEENELAND

by Jessica Martini

After a youth spent around horses, Amy Moore took a three-decade long sabbatical from the sport to focus on a career in law, but she is making up for lost time with the launch of her South Gate Farm in Millwood, Virginia. The fledgling operation has a star-in-the-making in ‘TDN Rising Star’ Forte (Violence), who goes postward in Monday’s GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga, and will follow up the following Monday when that colt’s half-brother by Uncle Mo (hip 11) goes through the sales ring during the first session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

“I rode as a child and teenager and showed hunters that belonged to other people,” Moore said of her first introduction to horses while growing up in Raleigh, North Carolina. “The people I was with got into racehorses and I helped them at a few sales. Then I galloped horses one summer at the track for Del Carroll, Sr.”

Eventually, Moore had to take a step back from her interest in racing.

“I had to earn a living, so for 30 years I worked as a lawyer in Washington, D.C.,” she said. “But when I retired, I bought a farm and bought a couple of horses.” Cont. p11
Moore bought South Gate Farm in 2015 and moved to the 126-acre property in January of 2016.

A year before purchasing the farm, she made her first equine purchases at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Her very first purchase was Queen Caroline (Blame), who she acquired for $170,000. Trained by Michael Matz, the dark bay went on to win four stakes races in Moore’s colors in 2016 and 2017 and earned over $400,000 before helping to kick start the South Gate broodmare band.

Forte, Queen Caroline’s first foal, sold for $80,000 as a weanling at the 2020 Keeneland November sale and was purchased by Mike Repole and Vinnie Viola for $110,000 at Keeneland September the following year.

“I thought he was a gorgeous foal,” Moore recalled. “I was really happy with him. I had had weanlings by Violence that I had pinhooked—I bought weanlings and sold yearlings—and I liked them, but they didn’t really resemble the sire at all. So I was pleased to get a foal in Forte that looks a lot like Violence. He’s a good blend of his sire and his dam.”

The prohibitive 1-5 favorite, Forte romped to a 7 3/4-length debut victory (video) May 27 at Belmont Park.

“When he won big in his first race, of course, that was a joy to see,” Moore said. “That was what I was trying to achieve when I bred the mare to Violence. I hoped to get a foal that had a little more speed and was a little more precocious than she was, but had her athleticism and racing temperament. It worked out just as I had hoped. Another case, I am sure, where it won't always work out like that. But Queen Caroline has been very good to me, both as a racehorse and as a broodmare. If they were all like her, it would be easy.”

Forte comes into the Hopeful off a fourth-place effort in the six-furlong GIII Sanford S. July 16 and will get an extra furlong to work with Monday at Saratoga. Cont. p12
“I would be ecstatic if that happened,” Moore said of a possible Hopeful win. “But I think, win or lose the Hopeful, he looks like he’s going to be a good racehorse. So I am looking down the road, as I am sure his connections are, and hoping for good things for him. I think he will do better as the races get longer. So I think the extra furlong in the Hopeful will help and I hope he goes on from there.”

Queen Caroline next visited Uncle Mo and produced a colt by the Coolmore stallion last spring.

“It is a cross that I really liked, both physically and in the pedigree,” Moore said. “The mare is a nice, big athletic mare and Uncle Mo is obviously a nice, big athletic stallion with a similar build. But it also has some intriguing pedigree aspects to it. Nyquist (Uncle Mo) is out of a Forestry mare and Queen Caroline is out of a Forestry mare. And the good filly by Uncle Mo, Bast, is out of an Arch mare and Queen Caroline is by Blame who is by Arch. So you have a lot of good pedigree connections to some very successful runners, as well as having a good physical match.”

The yearling will be Moore’s first homebred Book 1 offering at Keeneland September when he goes through the ring as part of the Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services consignment next Monday.

“He is a lovely colt,” she said of the yearling. “I am prejudiced, of course, but he is a really, really nice colt. He has his dam’s mind, which is good, he has a good racing temperament. He is tall and big-bodied and strong and athletic. I think he is what everyone wants— he’s what I want.”

Well. The colt wasn’t exactly what Moore wanted.

“I was, to be honest, hoping to get a filly,” she said with a laugh. “I would have kept and raced her and hoped to retire her to the broodmare band one day. But I got a very nice colt.”

The colt conundrum is nothing new to Moore, who currently has four broodmares housed at her Virginia farm.

“I have bought nothing but fillies,” she said. “I sell the colts that I breed. I would keep fillies, if I ever had a filly. I am 0-for-7, seven colts and no fillies.”

Moore takes stock of market conditions when determining when to sell her foals.

“I just sort of fly by the seat of pants,” Moore explained. “If the stallion is doing very well, as Violence was when I sold Forte—I think Violence had three Grade I winners that year—I might sell the foal as a weanling. But if it’s a nice physical that I think would be one to send to the Saratoga select sale or one of the first two books at Keeneland, then I would keep it and sell it as a yearling. It just depends on how the stallion is doing and how the foal develops. And what the finances are like.”

As for Queen Caroline, after not producing a foal in 2022, she is now in foal to Not This Time.

“She was in foal to Authentic, andlost that one, which was very disappointing, but I am really excited that she is in foal to Not This Time,” Moore said. “I think that’s going to be a great match and who knows, I might get a filly this time. She is an easy mare to mate because she is doesn’t have any faults you want to breed away from. She is a very nice well-conformed mare that had a lot of success on the track. So you are trying to add a little speed and a little precociousness to the offspring, but you don’t really have faults that you want to breed away from. Which is helpful.”

Queen Caroline’s first two foals are both Kentucky-breds, but future foals are expected to be born at South Gate Farm.

“In the case of Forte and his brother, those I sent the mare back to Kentucky to foal,” Moore said. “I am now starting to foal in Virginia, so that I will have Virginia-bred foals.”

In addition to her four-horse broodmare band, Moore also has borders at South Gate taking advantage of the Virginia-certified program which allows horses conceived and foaled outside of the state to become eligible for incentives at Mid-Atlantic racetracks if they maintain residency in Virginia for at least a six-month consecutive period prior to Dec. 31 of their 2-year-old year.

“I have lot of yearlings, a lot of boarders, that are here for the Virginia-certified program,” Moore said. “And I do some sales preparation for the boarders.”

Reflecting on her seven years as a farm owner, Moore said, “I enjoy living on a farm. It’s very nice to have a reason to have a farm—you can’t have 126 acres and not have any animals. So that’s been a lot of fun. The racing has been highs and lows, as it is for everybody. When it’s good, it’s spectacular. When it’s bad, it’s pretty depressing. But you get through the bad and hope for more of the good. And on balance, I have enjoyed it quite a bit.”

The Keeneland September sale opens with two Book 1 sessions next Monday and Tuesday, each beginning at 1 p.m. Book 2 sessions Wednesday and Thursday begin at 11 a.m. and, following a dark day Friday, the auction continues through Sept. 24 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

FLIGHTLINE 'PERFECT' EXITING PACIFIC CLASSIC TOUR DE FORCE

Trainer John Sadler said superstar Flightline (Tapit) came out of his devastating 19 1/4-length romp in Saturday's GI TVG Pacific Classic in good order.

“We’re literally talking 14 hours [since the race] but this early, he looks perfect,” Sadler said.

For Sadler, the most impressive aspect of Flightline’s record rout was the way he opened up on the rest of the field.

“Obviously, I was thrilled about him putting them away on the far turn,” Sadler says. “That was really exciting, probably the most fun part. I was just so happy to see him good and clear. He was always going to have a clear trip once he got going a little bit. A little bump at the start but once he got clear I knew it was going to be good from there."

So what’s in the immediate future for Flightline?

“He’ll walk for three days and then he’ll probably go back and jog a little bit this week,” Sadler said. “Then ship up to Santa Anita and we’ll start finalizing our plans for Breeders’ Cup.”

BLEA TO RETURN AS CALIFORNIA EQUINE MEDICAL DIRECTOR SEPT. 21

by Dan Ross

Jeff Blea, on administrative leave from his post as California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) equine medical director since early January after the California Veterinary Medical Board (VMB) successfully petitioned to have his license temporarily suspended, is set to officially return to the position Sept. 21 having reached a settlement with the VMB, according to Michael Casey, Blea’s attorney.

As a condition of the settlement, Blea is required to undergo continuing education classes in record keeping, Casey said. Blea will also be on a three-year probationary period.

“If you look at the disciplinary guidelines, probationary periods are required for record keeping or really any violation, so, it shouldn’t be a surprise to anybody that there is a probationary period," said Casey.

Casey was unable to offer any further information when pressed about the circumstances surrounding Blea’s suspension.

In pushing for the interim suspension, the veterinary medical board had charged Blea with various alleged violations, including prescribing, dispensing, and administering medications without performing a proper examination and diagnosis.

The TDN conducted an investigation into the accusations against Blea and found a consensus among several prominent equine veterinarians around the country that the case amounted largely to relatively minor record keeping violations, those typically resulting in fines.

The settlement order has not yet been posted on the VMB's website. The TDN reached out to the California Department of Consumer Affairs for comment but didn't receive a response before deadline.

The CHRB also had no comment prior to publication, but it had hitherto thrown its support behind Blea, and had asked the VMB to withdraw its petition for the interim suspension.

The settlement order has not yet been posted on the VMB's website. The TDN reached out to the California Department of Consumer Affairs for comment but didn't receive a response before deadline.

The CHRB also had no comment prior to publication, but it had hitherto thrown its support behind Blea, and had asked the VMB to withdraw its petition for the interim suspension.

The genesis of this story ostensibly traces back to February of 2021, when the veterinary medical board allegedly received an anonymous complaint concerning the "unsafe treatment of equine patients" by multiple Californian racetrack veterinarians.

On Dec. 17, the veterinary board lodged formal accusations against Blea, accusing him of several violations, including allegedly prescribing, dispensing, and administering medications to racehorses without establishing a veterinarian-client-patient relationship, without performing an examination, and without forming a diagnosis.

At an emergency hearing on Christmas Eve, the veterinary board successfully petitioned an interim suspension of Blea’s veterinary license.

The medical board’s action to temporarily suspend Blea’s license was a rare move, typically reserved for veterinarians charged with some of the more egregious veterinary and professional offenses, and those deemed an imminent danger to the animals in their care.

Blea had not actively practiced veterinary medicine since July of 2021, when he assumed the role of equine medical director.

In arguing the suspension, the medical board also referenced the recent sudden death of the Bob Baffert-trained Kentucky Derby winner Medina Spirit on Dec. 6, and the horse’s ongoing postmortem examination, arguing that Blea presented a danger to "public health, safety and welfare" were he to continue in his role as equine medical director.

The TDN investigation earlier this year into the board’s accusations against Blea asked whether other events that had occurred around that time—including Medina Spirit’s sudden death--rendered the veterinary board's actions more political theater than medical necessity. Cont. p14
The investigation found a consensus among eight veterinary medical experts who described the accusations largely as matters that rarely, if ever, rise to the level of a suspended license, and that the board had misrepresented the unique nature of veterinary practice on the backstretch where veterinarians with multiple barns under their care can build the sort of daily relationship with their animals typically absent from traditional small animal practice.

"We might not even fine him for this," said Eric Peterson, former member of the Kentucky Veterinary Medical Board, at the time.

Since Jan. 12 when UC Davis—which contracts out to the medical director position to the CHRB—officially placed Blea on administrative leave pending a formal review of his license, his professional status has essentially remained in limbo, having had to temporarily step away from his other professional affiliations, including his post on the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act's committee on Anti-Doping and Medication Control.

Come Sept. 21, there will be "no restrictions on his involvement with any veterinary organization and I fully anticipate Jeff will be back serving the equine community in all capacities where his knowledge and skill will continue to focus on equine safety and welfare," wrote Casey, in a follow-up text.

The settlement does not put an end to the veterinary medical board's scrutiny of veterinary practices across racetrack backstretches in California.

The VMB is involved in ongoing cases against veterinarians Kim Kuhlmann, Steven Boyer and Kenneth Allison in Northern California, and against veterinarians Sarah Graybill Jones and Vince Baker in Southern California.

“She broke well and we were going easy on the lead,” Vazquez said. Cont. p15
“Then when it came time, she dug in down the stretch. She’s a very nice filly. I’m so happy to be riding at the meet for the first time and doing well. I wanted to ride for someone like Bob Baffert and here I am. Today I rode two horses for him and both were winners. It’s exciting.”

Pedigree Notes:
Midnight Memories is the first stakes winner for Claiborne Farm’s second-crop stallion Mastery, who retired with a perfect four-for-four record, three of those wins coming in graded stakes company. She is the second foal to race out of Tiz Midnight, who broke her maiden by 11 1/2 lengths with a 102 Beyer in her fourth career start and later won the GII Bayakoa S. Second dam Tough Tiz’s Sis was a six-time stakes winner who ended her career with a 12 1/4-length romp and 113 Beyer in the 2008 GI Ruffian H. Tiz Midnight is responsible for a yearling colt by Collected and foaled a filly by Maximum Security this season before being bred to McKinzie.

Lieutenant Dan, runner-up in last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint, punched his ticket for the 2022 renewal in his first start since, successfully defending his title in the GIII Green Flash H. Sunday at Del Mar.

A winner of two California-bred stakes in 2019, the gelding added a third in the Sensational Star S. in March of 2020, then headed to the bench for over 13 months following a runner-up effort in the Crystal Water S. Returning with a local allowance/optional claiming success last July, he repeated in the Green Flash and added a score in the GI Eddie D S. at Santa Anita before running second to Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) over this course in the Breeders’ Cup.

Backed to odds-on here, Lieutenant Dan found a perfect spot in third at the rail, drafting behind second choice Dubai Key (Arg) (Key Deputy) as that rival clicked off a :21.77 quarter. Well held by Juan Hernandez on the turn, the chalk found an inside seam straightening for home as Dubai Key came off the fence, swept to the front at the eighth pole and kicked clear under hands and heels for the victory. Lane Way won a photo for the place.

Pedigree Notes:
One of 16 stakes winners and four graded stakes winners for stalwart California sire Grazen, Lieutenant Dan is the lone black-type performer from eight foals to race thus far out of his stakes-winning dam. He has a yearling full-brother named Butch O’Hare.

IMBRIALE TO KEEP BELMONT ANNOUNCING DUTIES; MIRAHMADI TAKES OVER AT SARATOGA, GRIFFIN AT AQUEDUCT

While retaining announcing duties at Belmont Park, John Imbriale will retire as the full-time announcer at the New York Racing Association at the end of 2022, the organization announced Sunday. Frank Mirahmadi will take over the race calling duties at Saratoga Race Course and Chris Griffin will become the primary track announcer at Aqueduct Racetrack beginning in 2023.

Imbriale's 43-year tenure with NYRA dates to 1979 when he won a New York Daily News contest, which gave him the opportunity to call a race and work with the NYRA press office. He has served as NYRA's full-time track announcer since January 2020.

"NYRA is the pinnacle of this wonderful sport, and these last three years have been filled with incredible moments and races that I will never forget," said Imbriale. "I'd like to thank the fans at Saratoga for truly embracing me, and I look forward to being in the booth the rest of the year and at Belmont Park moving forward."

Mirahmadi has been the track announcer at Santa Anita Park since 2018 and Monmouth Park since 2015.

"I felt the history and tradition of Saratoga Race Course the moment I entered the gates for the first time 25 years ago," said Mirahmadi. "It is a magical place, and I am beyond grateful to follow in the footsteps of John Imbriale next summer at the Spa."

Griffin has served as track announcer at Parx Racing since 2021. He previously worked as track announcer at Sam Houston Race Park, Gulfstream Park West and Portland Meadows. A native of Santa Monica, California, Griffin was backup announcer to Imbriale at the 2021/22 Aqueduct winter meet.

"Aqueduct Racetrack plays a central role in New York's Thoroughbred racing ecosystem, and it was a privilege to be able to call races there last winter," said Griffin. "I thank NYRA for this opportunity and can't wait to get back to the Big A to begin this new role."

FIVE OF SIX HAVE HOPEFUL CLAIMS

by Alan Carasso

The curtain falls on the 40-day Saratoga meeting Monday afternoon with a field of six set to head to the post for the GI Hopeful S. And a legitimate case can be made for all but one of the juvenile colts signed on.

Half of the Hopeful field have already been accorded 'TDN Rising Star' honors and Gulfport (Uncle Mo) could well go favored for Steve Asmussen and the Heiligbrodts. The $275,000 Fasig-Tipton July purchased could not have looked better in his first two career outings—a seven-length debut at 1-2 at Churchill June 10 followed by a 12 1/4-length tour-de-force at 20 cents on the dollar in the July 4 Bashford Manor S. Odds-on yet again in the Aug. 13 GI Saratoga Special S., the bay found enough trouble 2 1/2 furlongs out to allow fellow 'Rising Star' Damon's Mound (Girvin) to get the jump and was forced to settle for second.

Mo Strike (Uncle Mo) is not a 'Rising Star' but holds the distinction of being the lone previous graded winner in the field, having stalked and pounced to a 3 1/2-length tally in the GIII Sanford S. July 16. Andiamo a Firenze (Speightstown), third home that day, has since returned to wallop state-breds in the Funny Cide S.

“He’s doing great. He’s been feeling really good and came out of the Sanford in good order,” said trainer Brad Cox. “He’s been working every seven days.”

A subpar fourth in Sanford was Forte (Violence), who streaked home by nearly eight on his downstate debut May 27 to earn his ‘Rising Star’, but never got untracked last time, finishing an even fourth. Trainer Todd Pletcher is willing to give his charge the benefit of the doubt.

“The track was probably a little deep for his liking [in the Sanford]. The pace didn’t come back much,” said Pletcher. “I think he should appreciate the added distance.”

Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) also caught what appeared to be a heavy track on his July 24, earning an 85 Beyer when covering six furlongs in 1:13.34 to defeat re-opposing next-out maiden romper Bourbon Bash (City of Light) by 6 1/4 lengths.

“The form looked good in his last race,” said trainer Chad Brown. “He had his last breeze [on Sunday] for the Hopeful, so we’ll see.”

THE LIEUTENANT, JUSTIFY’S ILL-FATED HALF-BROTHER, REPRESENTED BY FIRST WINNER AT SARATOGA

Nearly three years following the tragic slaughtering of The Lieutenant--as well as three other stallions--at Haras Barlovento in Peru where he was standing for the 2019 Southern Hemisphere season, the New York-based half-brother to Triple Crown champion Justify (Scat Daddy) was represented by his first winner at Saratoga Sunday.

A graded stakes winner who retired with a 4-2-1 record from 15 starts and $345,882 in earnings, The Lieutenant stood just a single season at Sequel Stallions New York where he bred a reported 46 mares before shipping south to Peru where, just four months later, he would be killed in a break-in at Haras Barlovento, which has since closed its operation.

The stallion’s only crop of foals, numbered just 32, included Vacation Dance, who, after failing to meet his reserve at OBS March (:10 flat), brought $90,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale (:10 1/5) earlier this year.

Making his career debut Sunday at 8-1, he was slow into stride and settled mid-pack in fifth while racing in the clear to the outside. Under a ride midway around the turn, Vacation Dance bid three wide past the quarter pole to take command at the top of the lane and, despite drifting out in the final furlong, he held steady to the line to just hold off Disarmed (Maclean’s Music) by a head.

From the extended family of GI Woodward S. winner Art Collector (Bernardini), Vacation Dance has a yearling half-sister by Mucho Macho Man and a weanling half-sister by Heart to Heart. His dam was sent to Combatant for the 2023 season.

ALLOWANCE WINNERS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

8th-Saratoga, $116,400, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($62,500), 9-4, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:09.58, ft, neck.

PALM COTTAGE (f, 4, American Pharoah--Walkwithapurpose (MSW & GSP, $297,210), by Candy Ride (Arg)) made just her second start of the year Sunday following a wire-to-wire 6 1/2-length romp in her debut for trainer Paulo Lobo at Ellis Park July 15, having previously raced for Brad Cox. A $575,000 yearling, Palm Cottage struggled to maintain composure before the start, breaking through the gate early. After an all-clear, she was put back in the gate and stormed right to the front from the break while racing wide into the far turn. Spun loose past the quarter pole, she built up a two-length gap and had just enough left in reserve to hold off a closing Boston Post Road (Quality Road) to win by a neck.

Already a half-sister to Where Paradise Lay (Into Mischief), SW, $285,700, Palm Cottage has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother by Malibu Moon and a yearling half-sister by Omaha Beach still behind her. Walkwithapurpose was bred to Speightstown for 2023. Sales History: $575,000 Ylg ’19 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 8-3-2-0, $188,470. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

HAIL FREEDOM (c, 4, Box Score--Susan B Good, by Good Journey) won a down-the-hill allowance versus fellow Cal-breds at Santa Anita Apr. 2 before moving to the main track for a seven-length romp going one mile in Arcadia May 30 and went wire-to-wire to defeat open company over this track and trip last time out July 24. Favorled at 8-5 to make it four in a row, the bay colt broke sharply and grabbed the early lead. Unchallenged through fractions of :22.04 and :44.85, he scampered clear entering the far turn and maintained a half-length advantage to the wire as American Admiral (American Pharoah) was closing late for second. Susan B Good produced a colt by Accelerate last year and a colt by Texas Ryano this year. She was bred back to Oscar Nominated. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

STERLING CREST (IRE) (f, 3, No Nay Never--Tamazug {GB} {GSP-Ire}, by Machiavellian), a maiden winner over the Santa Anita turf in February, was third in the China Doll S. before runner-up finishes in the Apr. 9 GIII Providencia S. and May 7 GII Senorita S. for trainer Richard Baltas. Transferred to the barn of George Papaprodromou, she finished fourth after contesting the pace in the May 29 GIII Honeymoon S. last time out. The 5-1 shot jumped well, but was unhurried and settled at midpack behind an opening quarter in :23.20. She made forward progress down the backstretch and was in striking distance as the half went up in :46.56. Tipped out at the top of the lane, she reeled in pacesetting favorite Briefcase Girl (Hit it a Bomb) and came home 3/4 lengths to the good of late-closing Dendera (Shaman Ghost). Briefcase Girl tired to sixth. Sterling Crest has a yearling half-brother by U S Navy Flag and a weanling full-brother. The winner's third dam produced champion Sakhee (Bahri). TREASON (g, 4, Constitution--Cougarstown {SW, $101,723}, by Speightstown) made four starts last season for LNJ Foxwoods, Grandview Equine and Cheyenne Stables, winning his maiden at first asking over the Belmont turf last June. Unplaced in two tries on the grass against winners, the bay was an even fifth in a main-track allowance in September before selling to MSK Racing for $150,000 at KEENOV last fall. Making his first start since, first as a gelding and trying the synthetic, the 9-5 favorite broke alertly and tugged eagerly against Justin Stein, who did his best to settle Treason as they hit the backstretch. Traveling better entering the turn, Treason began to channel his inner Flightline and kicked home to score impressively in track-record time. The winner is a half-brother to Elevenses (More Than Ready), SW & GSP, $146,365, and to the 2-year-old colt Simovic (More Than Ready), a debut second at Churchill Aug. 13. Cougarstown is also responsible for a yearling Flatter filly and was bred to Not This Time this past season. Sales history: $200,000 Ylg ’19 KEESEP; $150,000 3yo ’21 KEENOV. 6th-Saratoga, $105,000, Msw, 9-4, 2yo, f, 7f, 1:24.52, ft, 1/2 length. TAKE CHARGE BRIANA (f, 2, Curlin--Take Charge Tressa, by War Front) ran fourth after getting jostled at the start in her July 24 debut at the Spa and then was a distant third Aug. 14 after running into impressive 8 1/2-length winner Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke). Getting an extra furlong to work with here, she showed a lot of heart to recover after all but going to her knees at the break. Conceding several lengths to the field up the backstretch, she was still last coming into the lane behind a :46.07 split, but was under a full head of steam despite going almost nine wide. Closing furiously down the middle, Take Charge Briana closed the gap with every stride and nailed familiar foe Vavha (Gun Runner) on the wire to break her maiden by a half-length. Fellow Insights=highlight, and first-time Stonestreet starter Pure Pauline looked to be mounting her own four-wide bid at the top of the stretch, but remained one-paced from there to finish fourth. Out of a full-sister to Omaha Beach and G1SP Courage Under Fire, Take Charge Briana has a pair of half-sisters: a yearling by Tapit and a 2022 foal by Constitution. Prouver (Justify) came home last of 10. Free Look was a $300,000 KEESEP yearling. The unraced Wild Mint, a full-sister to Grade I-winning sire Violence, has a yearling colt by American Pharoah. With no foal reported this year, she was bred back to Constitution. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $70,350. The mare went to Connect for 2023. Hailing from the female line of third dam, 2013 Broodmare of the Year Take Charge Lady (Dehere), this is a very active and accomplished family. Take Charge Tressa is half to champion 2-year-old filly Take Charge Brandi (Giant’s Causeway), who later produced stakes-winner Courvoisier (Tapit). Under that illustrious third dam, sires Will Take Charge (Unbridled’s Song) and Take Charge Indy (A. P. LA VICTORIA (f, 4, Tapit--La Verdad {Ch. Female Sprinter, MGSW & GISP, $1,563,200}, by Yes It’s True) broke through via the disqualification of first-across-the-line Succulent (Candy Ride [Arg]), who originally caught her in a wildly run state-restricted maiden contest. Tracking from the two path behind the early pace, $800,000 KEENOV buy La Victoria was in command at the head of the lane, but was bumped around by Cape Cod Causeway (Creative Cause) as quarters got tight late. She was collared by Succulent, but that one was placed third for causing interference with Cape Cod Causeway. La Victoria was third last out Aug. 11 trying a mile over this venue’s turf course, and was second here last summer in a muddy 1 1/8-mile maiden, the two starts her best efforts prior to this victory. The winner is the second to the races and into the circle for her champion dam, who died in 2020 and left an unraced 3-year-old Curlin’s Truth (Curlin) and a 2-year-old Prince of Truth (Into Mischief).

HUNTINGGOCO (f, 2, Practical Joke--Sulis, by Maria’s Mon) was dismissed at odds of 36-5, largely due to the presence of $950,000 Keeneland September grad and 1-2 chalk Carla (Medaglia d’Oro), slipped through inside entering the final eighth of a mile and kicked away to best her heavily favored stable companion by a convincing margin in Sunday’s opener from Del Mar. Away without incident, Huntinggoco showed ample speed and chased from along the inside in second as She’s Intheamynow (Army Mule) had the most early interest from her outside draw. Asked to come after the pacesetter with 2 1/2 furlongs to travel, Huntinggoco took full advantage when the front-runner rolled away from the fence in upper stretch and powered home to score with good-looking strides.
Carla was beaten for speed and had her momentum interrupted when having to steady slightly off the heels of She's Intheayrnov now approaching the half-mile marker. Under the bat nearing the stretch, she raced on her incorrect lead, but managed to grind it out for second. A Pennsylvania-bred, Huntingcoco is a veteran of three sales rings, having matured from a $45,000 KEENOV weanling into a $110,000 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky yearling. She was last seen going through the latter auction house’s Midlantic Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training, where she fetched $200,000 after breezing an eighth of a mile in :10 2/5. Out of a half-sister to the stakes-winning dam of GISW I’m the Tiger (Siphon {Brz}), Huntingcoco has a yearling half-brother by Classic Empire and a foal half-sister by American Freedom.

INTERNAL CAPITAL (g, 3, Tapit--Tiger Ride (GSW & GISP, $495,430), by Candy Ride (Arg)) was bet down to even-money favoritism on the back of a pair of back-to-back off-the-board efforts over Belmont’s turf course and Saratoga’s main track to start his career. Back on the grass Sunday with the addition of blinkers, the $300,000 yearling sat towards the rear of the field, holding position in fifth before making an inside move up the backstretch into the far turn. Up into second by the time the field straightened for home, Internal Capital took command with a two-wide rally in upper stretch and drew off down the lane, winning easily by 5 1/4 lengths over American Day (New Year’s Day). The winner has an unraced 2-year-old full-sister, Tiger Tap, and a yearling half-brother by Uncle Mo while Tiger Ride was sent to Charlatan for the 2023 season. MOULIN MARRED BY COROEBUS INJURY AS DREAMLOPER WINS

By Tom Frary

There was the kind of drama at ParisLongchamp on Sunday that nobody needs as Godolphin’s 2000 Guineas and St James’s Palace S. hero Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) suffered a fatal injury in early straight before Jason Fill’s Dreamloper (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}--Livia’s Dream {Ire}, by Teofilo {Ire}) ran out an impressive winner of the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. The Ed Walker-trained mare, who had also won the G1 Prix d’Ispahan here May 29, was prominently-placed throughout by Kieran Shoemark and was therefore ahead of the 21-10 favourite’s fall passing two out.

Hitting the front with a furlong remaining, the 6-1 shot surged clear for an impressive 5 1/2-length success from Order Of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}), with The Revenant (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) 3/4 of a length away in third. “She’s stepped up again—fair play to Kieran, we talked about the race for about four hours as it wasn’t obvious what was going to happen tactically and then I just said ‘do your job’ and he absolutely nailed it,” Walker said.

“She’s not a straightforward ride, but ever since the Sun Chariot she’s got on incredibly well with her and we are reaping the rewards for that. She’s an eight to nine-furlong horse and I’d love to have a go at the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf—two turns and 9 1/2 furlongs would be perfect for her.” Cont. p3

SEVEN DAYS: TRIUMPH AND DESPAIR

By Emma Berry

There is a charming tradition for the large crowd at Baden-Baden races to applaud the runners as the field passes the post for the first time, never mind in the closing stages. For Sunday’s racegoers, many of whom arrived with well-behaved dogs and sometimes less well-behaved children, the excitement level reached near-fever pitch as Frankie Dettori urged home German racing’s current hero, Torquator Tasso. At the post the pair went down by just a head to the winner Mendocino, another son of Adlerflug ridden by the man who knows the Arc winner better than anyone else, his regular jockey Rene Piechulek. The latter will now presumably be obliged to retain his partnership with Longchamp-bound Mendocino, and Torquator Tasso’s trainer Marcel Weiss acted swiftly to book Dettori for the 5-year-old’s defence of the Arc as soon as his debrief concluded. Dreamloper in full flight | ScoopDyga

Dreamloper’s stock began to rise markedly with a 4 1/2-length defeat of the smart Freemason Lodge representative Lights On (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) in the G3 Valiant S. over a mile at Ascot last July and it was the drop back to seven rather than a dip in her level that was to blame for a fourth placing three weeks later in Newbury’s G2 Hungerford S. Only 10th in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown in September, the bay began her fruitful partnership with Shoemark when third at 25-1 in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket in October and it was at that track that she shone on her next start when coming back from the winter to annex the nine-furlong G2 Dahlia S. at the start of May. Her dynamic performance when taking the d’Ispahan over 9 1/4 furlongs led connections to point to a mile and a quarter for her next two starts, but her sixth in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh June 26 and fifth in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood July 28 confirmed that she was being stretched too far. Granted an honest pace to run at here by the previously-unbeaten 3-year-old God Blessing (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), Dreamloper was in her element and when let go showed top-class miling pace to dominate. “She clearly doesn’t stay ten,” Walker added. “I blamed the ground in the Pretty Polly and really fancied her for the Nassau, where she was the winner at the nine pole but ended up fifth. The gap to the Sun Chariot is perfect, but there is the ground to think about and she’s been busy and had a bit of travelling, so I might just freshen her up for one last hoorah at the Breeders’ Cup.”

Coroebus, who had puzzled connections with a fifth placing in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville, was being angled out of a pocket by William Buick in early straight as he sustained his fatal injury and was euthanized soon after.
The Revenant showed he retains much of his ability on his comeback, posting a 11.06 penultimate furlong as he gave chase to the dominant winner on ground as lively as he can operate on. A repeat bid in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein here on Arc weekend is the next port of call, with the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. also on his agenda. “Considering that he didn’t have his favorite soft ground, I am delighted with this performance after a long break,” trainer Francis-Henri Graffard said.

Pedigree Notes:

Dreamloper’s dam Livia’s Dream (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), whose yearling filly by Golden Horn (GB) is catalogued in the upcoming Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1, enjoyed her finest hour when capturing the 12-furlong Listed Wild Flower S. She is out of the Listed Dick Hern Fillies’ S. winner Brindisi (GB) (Dr Fong), whose listed-placed half-sister La Spezia (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) produced the G2 Doncaster Cup hero Thomas Hobson (GB) (Halling). Descended from Dick Hollingsworth’s Oaks heroine Bireme (GB), the family features another heroine of that Epsom Classic in Talent (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), whose daughter Ambition (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) took the G2 Prix Corrida. Livia’s Dream also has the unraced 2-year-old filly Dreamrocker (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}).

It was a dramatic denouement to the 152nd running of the Grosser Preis von Baden in a year when the racecourse had been planning to celebrate the great race's 150th anniversary until the realisation dawned that a miscount some 25 years ago meant that we have jumped straight from the 149th edition last year without a proper fanfare.

That won't bother Mendocino's trainer Sarah Steinberg, owner Stall Salzburg and breeder Gestut Brummerhof, who rightly enjoyed this major breakthrough success for the 4-year-old who had previously come closest to winning at group level when finishing second to Alpinista (GB) in last year's G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern.

And this drama was nothing compared to the awful scene played out only 10 minutes earlier in Paris as Coroebus (Ire) suffered a fatal injury when launching his challenge in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. William Buick, the red-hot favourite to be Britain's champion jockey for this first time this year, stood himself down for the rest of the day but appears, thankfully, to have been relatively unscathed in the shocking fall for the 2,000 Guineas and St James's Palace S. winner.

Dettori on the other hand received a 14-day ban for going one strike over the permitted whip-use limit on Torquator Tasso which, equally thankfully for him, ends just in time for the duo to renew their acquaintance in the Arc.

Hammer Time

One jockey who kept clear of drama and became well acquainted with the Baden-Baden winner's enclosure on Sunday was Thore Hammer-Hansen. Though currently British-based, Hammer-Hansen has in fact been well acquainted with the racecourse at Iffezheim for most of his life.

"Mum and Dad live at the six-furlong start and I used to go running round here all the time," he explained after notching the first group win of his career in the G2 Oleander-Rennen for owner-breeder Karl-Dieter Ellebracke of Gestut Auenquelle aboard Dapango (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). The 22-year-old jockey was joined on the presentation rostrum by his proud father, Danish-born Lennart, formerly a hugely successful jockey in Germany with more than 1,000 wins to his name.

"The whole family is here," continued Thore, who was previously apprenticed to Richard Hannon and rode out his claim almost a year ago. "I've always said that I'd love to come over for the big races and Gestut Auenquelle have been great supporters from the very beginning, and I am absolutely delighted that they have called me over again. I'd love to come over as much as possible as long as Sir Mark Prescott and the other people I ride for in England are happy about it."
Among the crowd was Torquator Tasso's breeder Paul Vandeberg who had made the trip to Iffezheim with two friends and is still pinching himself following the triumphant return of the Arc winner's younger half-brother Tûnnes (Ger) (Guiliani {Ger}) in the BBAG sales race at Baden-Baden on Wednesday. That victory for the 3-year-old came in his first run since he won the G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen last November.

"I still cannot believe it, that he would come back like that after 10 months off the track," said Vandeberg, a breeder of some 50 years' standing, as he reflected on the fact that his sole broodmare Tijuana (Ger) (Toylsome {GB}) has hit the jackpot twice already with her second and fourth foals.

"Sometimes you just have the luck," he added. "And Tijuana is the most wonderful mare. Eight times I have sent her to be covered on foal heat, and eight times she has got in foal straight away."

Vandeberg was not disheartened by Torquator Tasso's narrow defeat in the Grosser Preis and is already looking forward to him returning to Paris, where he believes the chance of softer ground and the right-hand track will once again play to the horse's strengths. The breeder has plenty more to look forward to than just the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe as he has a yearling and foal full-sibling to Torquator Tasso and Tûnnes respectively at home.
HKJC Broadens German Link...

There will be hope among the German racing community that a number of its major races may soon feature in the World Pool series. After the Grosser Preis von Berlin being made available for those betting into the Hong Kong Jockey Club pools last month, a further three races from Baden-Baden Sunday benefited from the same arrangement, including the day’s feature, the Grosser Preis von Baden. This led to a busier race program than usual for the finale at the Iffezheim track, with 12 races in total, starting from 11.15am. Not a day for the fainthearted.

...And American and German Links Deepen

Twenty-four hours after buying the top lot, a Kingman (GB) colt from Gestut Fahrhof, at BBAG’s Yearling Sale on Friday, the Roth family’s LNJ Foxwoods enjoyed Grade I glory at a different spa town, Saratoga, as the co-owner of the Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Olympiad (Speightstown) with Cheyenne Stables. There could be a strong contingent with a German background at this year’s Breeders’ Cup, following the ‘win and you’re in’ success of Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) in the GII Flower Bowl S. for Peter Brant and Chad Brown. The 5-year-old mare joined Brown’s stable last spring having previously been trained in Germany by Torquator Tasso’s trainer Marcel Weiss for her breeder Gestut Auenquelle, which is also home to her sire, and previously to the sires of two of her first three dams, Doyen (GB) and Big Shuffle. With the Gestut Ammerland-bred GI Beverley D S. winner Dalika (Ger) (Pastorius {Ger}) already being aimed toward the Breeders’ Cup, and the possibility of Saturday’s G2 T von Zastrow Stutenpreis winner Amazing Grace (Ger) (Protectionist {Ger}) sure to have a strong chance if she heads to the GI EP Taylor S. in October, it will not be a surprise to see more American visitors attending Germany’s major yearling sale in the future.

Minzaal Boosts Shadwell’s Great Season

Of course, it hasn’t all been happening in Germany this week. For Owen Burrows, the wheel of fortune has spun both ways this season, sometimes in a dizzying fashion, with Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) claiming the trainer’s first Group 1 win in the Coronation Cup only to be ruled out of the rest of the season the next day, having picked up an injury in the race.

As Britain’s departing Prime Minister Boris Johnson likes to say, "Them’s the breaks". Burrows is an altogether much more honourable type of Englishman than Johnson, and it was therefore pleasing indeed to see him gain his second top-flight victory at the other end of the distance spectrum but for the same owner with Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) in the G1 Sprint Cup at Haydock.
Minzaal | Racingfotos.com

Hukum's brother Baaeed (GB) has gained all the plaudits this season, but he is far from the only star in the Shadwell constellation. Hukum and Minzaal have contributed to a hugely successful season for Sheikha Hissa Hamdan Al Maktoum, who also won the G3 September S. at Kempton on Saturday with the Gosden-trained homebred Mostahdaf (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and has another two exciting prospects in the Burrows stable in the Group 3-winning duo of Alflaila (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}). The victory of Minzaal also provided a first Group 1 winner as breeder for Derek and Gay Veitch of Ringfort Stud, who have enjoyed some terrific seasons of late, including Minzaal's G2 Gimcrack S. win at Kempton two years ago, which followed the success of Threat (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) in the same race a year earlier, while Group 2-winning fillies Indie Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Miss Amulet (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) have also advertised the stud's credentials in recent years. Ringfort Stud is selling two yearlings at the Tattersalls Somerville Sale on Tuesday, and interested parties will have to get in quick as the colts by first-season sires Phoenix Of Spain (Ire) and Inns Of Court (Ire) go through as lots 9 and 18, respectively.

Vale, Jack de Bromhead

The racing and sales wheels keep turning in relentless fashion at this time of year but, absorbed as we all may be with this hectic scene, none of it really matters when set against the tragic accident at the Glenbeigh pony races on Saturday. That young Jack de Bromhead died doing what he loved will be of little comfort or consolation in these saddest of days to those who mourn his absence. To Jack's family and friends we offer our sincere condolences.

MENDOCINO PREVAILS IN BADEN-BADEN SHOCKER by Sean Cronin

Stall Salzburg's Mendocino (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}--Mill Marin {Ire}, by Pivotal {GB}), whose previous career best was a runner-up finish behind Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in last November's G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern, initiated a pilot merry-go-round when Rene Piechulek was obliged to take the mount aboard the Sarah Steinberg trainee, but it was all smiles for the jockey as the 4-year-old colt upset illustrious opposition in a stellar renewal of Sunday's G1 152nd Wettstar.de Grosser Preis von Baden at Baden-Baden's Iffezheim venue. Piechulek had ridden last year's winner and G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe hero Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) in each of his last seven runs and was also in the plate when Sammarco (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) added to his G1 Deutsches Derby triumph in July's G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich. With punters making the 12-furlong test an effective match between the two elite-level winners, it was a masterclass in waiting tactics by Piechulek as the 69-10 outsider-of-four was delivered late by the rider to register a first black-type success of any kind.

Mendocino had garnered prizemoney in each of his nine prior runs, winning two, and arrived for his date with destiny off the back of a third in ParisLongchamp's May 12 G3 Prix d'Hedouville and a fifth in June's G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly last time.
Mendocino earns a career-best win in Sunday’s Grosser G1 Preis von Baden | Marc Ruehl

The eventual winner found comfort behind all three rivals and raced fourth, with his head in his chest, passing the judge first time. Inching closer as Torquator Tasso and Sammarco locked horns early and lit each other up off the home turn, he fanned widest of all to the stands = side rail in early straight and refused to yield once hitting the front with 100 metres remaining, holding the late rally of the former by a head in game fashion. Sammarco kept on to finish 1 1/4 lengths further adrift in third.

“Had a mega race, Mendocino switched off well at the back and showed tremendous speed at the end,” said Piechulek after claiming back-to-back victories in the contest. “The result is just awesome and everything worked out wonderfully.” Winning trainer Sarah Steinberg added, “He was coming back off a break, the competition was very strong and we would have been satisfied if Mendocino had finished in the first three. In the race, he was able to stay out of everything and pulled out big at the end. This is a very emotional moment for me. He = supposed to come home before we commit to anything, but of course the [G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe] is a very likely destination.” Stall Salzburg’s Hans-Gerd Wernicke, who also raced Night Magic (Ger) (Sholokhov {Ire}) to farm this contest in 2010, commented, “The break was worth it. We thought long and hard about running here and, ultimately, we made the right decision. Sarah Steinberg is not only first class as a person, but also a first-class trainer.”

“Unfortunately, he had the worst race of all participants, he couldn’t find any cover and was always galloping freely,” reflected Torquator Tasso’s trainer Marcel Weiss. “It’s not his ideal track, even though he’d won here before.” Frankie Dettori added, “There wasn’t enough pace in the race and the ground wasn’t soft enough either. I started working with a half mile to go, but the winner accelerated faster in the straight.”

Gestut Auenquelle’s Peter-Michael Endres continued, “It was anything but a good race for him, but that’s horse racing. It could look different again in Paris and I’ve just booked Frankie for the Arc.”

Despite a first reversal in four starts, Peter Schiergen was satisfied with the performance of Sammarco, who looks bound for Cologne and the G1 Preis von Europa. “He attacked well, he ran a great race again today and we didn’t disgrace ourselves,” the trainer said. “Sammarco always runs great and the Preis von Europa is an option.”

Pedigree Notes:
Mendocino, who becomes the eighth Group 1 winner for his ill-fated sire (by In The Wings {GB}), is the first elite-level scorer for the stakes-winning Mill Marin (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}). Her first foal is G3 Grosser Preis der Landeshauptstadt Dusseldorf victrix Marshmallow (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) while her fourth is last year’s Listed Junioren-Preis third Millionaire (Ger) (Adlerflug {GB}). The March-foaled chestnut’s stakes-placed second dam Mill Guineas (Salse), who also produced Listed Prix Herod second Olivia (Ire) (Giant’s Causeway), is kin to G2 Falmouth S. victrix Ronda (GB) (Bluebird) and stakes-winning G3 Prix de Conde runner-up Silver Gilt (GB) (Silver Hawk). Ronda, who is the dam of GII Ack Ack H. scorer Istan (Gone West), is also a half-sister to the dam of G3 Prix du Calvados and G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. victrix Purr Along (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}), Listed Land O’Burns Fillies’ S. winner Katawi (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the dual stakes-placed Lady Francesca (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). Mendocino’s fourth dam Memory Lane (Never Bend) won the G3 Princess Royal S. and is a full-sister to G1 Derby hero and leading sire Mill Reef (Never Bend). Mill Marin has a yearling colt by Gleneagles (Ire) to come.

DAPANGO PREVAILS IN BADEN-BADEN
THRILLER By Tom Frary

Paying a compliment to the G1 Deutsches Derby hero Sammarco (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) ahead of his tilt at the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden on Sunday, Dapango (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) provided Torquator Tasso’s Gestut Auenquelle with a nerve-settler as he came out on top in a tight blanket finish to the G2 Oettingen Rennen. Anchored towards the rear early by Thore Hammer Hansen, the 7-1 shot who had been 13th when failing to stay in the July 3 Hamburg Classic had a clear run through rivals inside the final two furlongs unlike the 2-1 favourite Hurricane Dream (Fr) (Hurricane Cat) who was pinned on the stand’s rail. That proved decisive in the final analysis, with Frankie Dettori in the clear too late on the French raider and Dapango hitting the line with a head to spare. There was a further head back to Fire Of The Sun (Fr) (Areion {Ger}) in third, with less than a length covering the first five home.

Dapango, who had finished third behind Torquator Tasso’s half-brother Tunnes (Ger) (Guiliani {Ire}) in the G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen at Krefeld in November, had been third under forcing tactics reverting to a mile in the G3 Fritz Henkel Stiftung-Rennen at Dusseldorf last time Aug. 7.

Pedigree Notes:

Becoming the 29th group winner for his sire, he is the second and currently last known foal out of Daring Art (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) whose first was Listed Hannoverscher Stutenpreis scorer Daring Light (Ger) (Jukebox Jury {Ire}). She is a half to G2 Zukunft-Rennen winner Daring Love (Ger) by Areion’s sire Big Shuffle, and to MSW and G2 Goldene Pfeitsche runner-up Daring Match (Ger) by Big Shuffle’s Call Me Big (Ger). This is also the family of 2000 Guineas hero and leading sire Zafonic.

WEST WIND BLOWS DOMINATES THE PRINCE D’ORANGE by Tom Frary

The fourth colt to emerge from Goodwood’s G3 Gordon S. and register a black-type success, Abdulla Al Mansoori’s TDN Rising Star West Wind Blows (Ire) (Teofilo (Ire)) proved too strong for his rivals in Sunday’s G3 Prix du Prince d’Orange at Paris-Longchamp. Only sixth behind Saturday’s G1 St Leger favourite New London (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) when ridden from the front in that mile-and-a-half contest July 28, the imposing bay was under restraint this time as the deputising Kieran Shoemark anchored him with two behind from the break. Wide in the straight, the 29-10 second choice hung repeatedly right from two out but his sheer physical dominance saw him overhaul Ilic (Ire) (Iffraaj (GB)) a furlong from home and assert for a 1 3/4-length success that mile-and-a-half contest July 28, the imposing bay was under restraint this time as the deputising Kieran Shoemark anchored him with two behind from the break. Pedigree Notes:

West Wind Blows, who becomes the 60th group winner for his sire, is the eighth foal out of the G1 Prix de Diane heroine West Wind (GB) (Machiavellian) who was also placed in the G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Pretty Polly S. and whose previous best was the ill-fated G3 Eclipse S. runner-up Setting Sail (GB) (Dansili {GB}). The second dam is the G2 Sun Chariot S. winner Red Slippers (Nureyev), whose daughter Eastern Joy (GB) (Dubai Destination) has proven an excellent producer for Godolphin with six black-type winners headed by the high-achieving globetrotter Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}).

Eastern Joy’s classy sextet also features Teofilo’s G3 Oh So Sharp S. winner First Victory (Ire), dam of this year’s 2000 Guineas and St James’s Palace S. hero Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) who had so sadly broke down at the track half an hour beforehand. Red Slippers is in turn a full-sister to the G2 Jockey Club S. scorer and Epsom third Romanov (Ire) and a half to the Oaks and Irish Derby heroine Balanchine (Storm Bird), with her many high-class relatives including another Irish Derby hero in Sovereign (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). West Wind’s 2-year-old is a full-brother to West Wind Blows, while she also has a colt foal by Masar (Ire).

TIGRAIS SWOOPS FOR PRIX LA ROCHETTE
TRIUMPH by Sean Cronin

Sunday’s mouthwatering feast of pattern-race action got going with ParisLongchamp’s G3 Prix La Rochette and there was a surprise in store as last month’s Deauville maiden winner Tigrais (Fr) (Outstrip {GB})–Maharana (Fr), by Iffraaj {GB} swooped late to deny ‘TDN Rising Star’ Breizh Sky (Fr) (Pedro The Great) for a career high in the seven-furlong contest for juveniles. She had opened up with a July 17 debut seventh, behind the ‘TDN Rising Star’ display of Alia’s Rose (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), over seven furlongs at Chantilly and had changed owners since notching her breakthrough score last time. The 19-5 chance lurched from the traps and raced off the pace, adrift of the clear leader, in fourth through halfway. Inching closer in the straight, she came under pressure with 300 metres remaining and kept on relentlessly under a late drive to nail Listed Prix Roland de Chambure victor Breizh Sky, in a new race record, by a short head on the line.

“She didn’t run as I expected first time out and that is why she came back soon after to show her true potential,” explained trainer Christopher Head. “She has changed ownership since that win and I was keen to prove to her new owners they had made a good investment. We took a gamble by pitching her into Group 3 company straight after winning her maiden. I am delighted, but not very keen to run her over further at this stage. The [G1 Prix Jean-Luc] Lagardere is an option, but we shall wait and see how she comes out of this before discussing plans with the owners.” RefLECTING on the performance of Breizh Sky, trainer Alessandro Botti added, “He travelled well, but was left in front too soon and idled once he got there. He is still immature, no doubt, and I was praying for the post to come in time, but it didn’t. It’s frustrating, but maybe the race will give him more experience and we will have nothing to lose by bringing him back in the Lagardere.”

Pedigree Notes:
Tigrais, who hails from the family of multiple Group 1 winner Palace Pier (GB) (Kingman {GB}), is the only reported foal out of Maharana (Fr) (Iffraaj {GB}), herself an unraced half-sister to Listed Prix Francois Boutin runner-up Mangusto (Fr) (Roderic O’Connor). Her second dam, Listed Prix Zeddaan runner-up Mantadive (Fr) (Okawango), is the leading performer out of Missanticia (Sicyos), herself a half-sister to G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois heroine Miss Satamixa (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) and Listed Prix Melisande victrix Miss d’Ouilly (Fr) (Bikala {Ire}). The latter is the dam of five black-type performers headed by GII Cardinal H. winner Miss Caerleona (Fr) (Caerleon).

PARIS SUBJECTED TO THE FULL MONTY

by Sean Cronin

Andreas Schutz trainee and consistent performer Monty (Fr) (Motivator {GB}--Antebellum {Fr}, by Anabaa), who came back off a short sabbatical to gain the bronze medal in last month’s G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville, continued his progression with a decisive victory over the same 10-furlong trip in Sunday’s G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte at ParisLongchamp. The 7-year-old gelding had registered a trio of listed scores before annexing the similarly-titled June 12 G3 La Coupe, over the Bois de Boulogne’s course and distance, in his penultimate start and settled in third through the early fractions here. Slipping to fourth at halfway, he made continued headway in the home straight to seize control approaching the final furlong and was ridden out in the closing stages to prevail in ultimately snug fashion, by 1 1/4 lengths, from Riocorvo (Ger) (Pastorius {Ger}).

Le Haras de la Gousserie and Guy Pariente’s G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and G1 Champion S. hero Sealiway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) was unable to land a telling blow and endured a fifth straight defeat since snagging the latter contest, finishing just over two lengths off the winner in fourth.

“He’s a very honest horse and always tries very hard,” said Schutz. “He’s been giving us a good feeling in the mornings at home and we’re very happy with him. We were a bit worried about the ground, but I walked the track beforehand and it felt like good ground underfoot. I watched the first race and there was quite a bit of kickback so I was confident he’d run a good race. We will take a step back before making a decision as to where he goes next. He has an entry for the [G2] Prix Dollar, which could be a possibility, but I’ll need to confirm that with the owners.”

Pedigree Notes:

Monty, half to the once-raced 2-year-old colt Camusdarach (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), is the lone black-type scorer for Antebellum (Fr) (Anabaa), whose four winners include multiple stakes-placed Listed Winter Derby Trial S. second Victory Bond (GB) (Medicean {GB}). His second dam, Listed Prix Melisande placegetter Arme Ancienne (GB) (Sillery), also produced G2 Grand Prix de Deauville victor and G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud runner-up Ziyad (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) and the stakes-placed Machiavelique (Street Cry {Ire}). Monty’s G3 Prix de Psyche-winning third dam Agathe (Manila), who also hit the board in the G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane, is a half-sister to G1 Breeders’ Cup Classic hero Arcangues (Sagace {Fr}) and to the dam of G1 1000 Guineas heroine Cape Verdi (Ire) (Caerleon). Descendants of Agathe also include multiple Group 1-winning distaffer Aquarelliste (Fr) (Danehill), G1 Charles Whittingham Memorial H. victor Artiste Royal (Ire) (Danehill) and the stakes-winning Annenkov (Ire) (Danehill). Aquarelliste, in turn, is the dam of stakes-winning G1 Prix Jean Romanet runner-up Ame Bleue (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}).

BIG CALL OUTSTAYS GLADIATEUR RIVALS

by Sean Cronin

Christophe Ferland and Flora Scott’s unheralded 5-year-old gelding Big Call (Animal Kingdom—Prettypriceygirl, by Scat Daddy) stepped out of handicap company to hit the board in Spain’s June 25 Listed Gran Premio de Madrid, but slipped to fifth when contesting Deauville’s Aug. 2 Listed Prix du Carrousel last time. Making his pattern-race debut against mainstays of the level in Sunday’s G3 Prix Gladiateur at ParisLongchamp, he stepped forward to claim a career high in style. The eventual winner was position off a moderate tempo in fourth for most of the 15 1/2-furlong marathon. Making smooth headway once into the straight, he came under pressure to gain a narrow lead with 300 metres remaining and was pushed out in the closing stages to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from The Good Man (Fr) (Manduro (Ger)).

“This horse has been everywhere, but he has needed time to reach his best after returning from Hong Kong,” said trainer Christophe Ferland. “He has been schooled in the tough ranks of the big handicaps and fights absolutely do not scare him. He had the perfect trip in a truly run race and it was exactly what he needed. We will now think about a Group 1, but it won’t be the [G1 Prix du] Cadran [over 2 1/2 miles] because he would not stay. It will more than likely be the [G1 Prix Royal-Oak or an international race.”

Pedigree Notes:

Big Call is the first of six foals and the leading performer bred from a stakes-winning daughter of multiple stakes-winning Gill Rancho Bernardo H. runner-up Lacie Girl (Editor’s Note). The latter also produced Listed Maryland Racing Media S. victrix Lacie Slew (Mineshaft). Lacie Girl is the leading performer out of a half-sister to Listed Demaloot Demashoot S. victor Big Brown Bear (Strike The Gold) and to Lock’s Heath (Topsider), herself the second dam of G1 Prix de l’Abbaye and G1 Al Quoz Sprint hero A Case of You (Ire) (Hot Steak (Ire)). Big Call’s dam, who was bred to Central Banker this year, has a yearling filly by Air Force Blue and a weanling colt by Solomini to come.

Runner-up in the course-and-distance Listed Prix Volterra June 12 and in the 7 1/2-furlong Listed Prix la Sorellina at Tarbes July 25, Gregarina earned the reward for that consistency with this black-type breakthrough. Keen early under restraint against the rail in mid-division, the hooded bay was angled out to pursue Nola and once she had that rival’s measure a furlong from home outstayed her in the run to the line. “She deserved that, she’s not an easy filly as she can be keen,” trainer Fabrice Chappet said. “She will need a little bit of time between races and this mile is probably as far as she goes.”

Gregarina becomes the first black-type winner for her sire, who is a son of the renowned Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}). The dam, kin to the GII San Clemente H. and GII Honeymoon Breeders’ Cup H. winner Attima (GB) (Zafonic) and the G3 Prix des Chenes runner-up San Domenico (GB) (Zamindar), boasts as her last known foal the stable’s TDN Rising Star 2-year-old colt Gain It (GB) who had earlier been fourth in the card’s G3 Prix la Rochette as he had been in last month’s G3 Prix Six Perfections.

The family also features the G3 Prix de Cabourg-placed Kithira (GB) (Danehill), who is in turn the dam of two listed scorers including Tombelaine (First Defence), who captured the Listed Tetrarch S. and was runner-up in the G3 Golden Fleece S.
