Forte Fortissimo in Hopeful

Repole Stable and St Elias Stable’s Forte (Violence), the beaten favorite in the GII Sanford S. on opening weekend, rebounded with an emphatic victory through the rain drops in the G1 Hopeful S. on closing day at Saratoga Monday. Sent off at 6-1, the dark bay colt was squeezed back at the break and rated near the back of the field as favored Gulfport (Uncle Mo), looking to rebound from his own defeat as a Spa favorite in the Aug. 13 GII Saratoga Special, jumped out to the early lead over the sloppy track and took the field through fractions of :22.74 and :45.57. Forte was making rapid progress turning for home and, as Gulfport floated wide into the stretch, he strode powerfully to the lead along the inside and splashed home a three-length winner. Gulfport was a clear second as Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) completed the ‘TDN Rising Star’ trifecta.

“They ran away from me a little bit and my horse doesn’t have that kind of speed,” winning jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. said of his trip aboard the winner. “I didn’t panic, I knew we’d be in the back. I kept him in the race and in the turn I started working on him. He started to pick it up slowly, but he picked it up. At the top of the stretch, I hit him a couple times and he responded really well. I knew I had a chance to win, so I just kept him busy.”

Winning trainer Todd Pletcher said, “He came really energetic into the paddock, but it was a good energy, though. You could tell he was kind of enjoying the rain and playing in the slop and splashing in the puddles in the paddock. I love the way he kicked away from the pony, he warmed up awesome.” Cont. p3

SUN SETS ON RECORD-BREAKING SARATOGA SEASON by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY—With a five-word quip, New York Racing Association president and CEO Dave O’Rourke provided plenty of context about the record-setting 154th season of racing in Saratoga.

“It didn’t rain much, huh?” O’Rourke said.

Indeed. Though the 40-day meet concluded Monday on cool, dark, sodden afternoon where jackets and umbrellas were needed, almost all of the programs at Saratoga Race Course were run on tracks listed as “fast” and “firm.” When the final grass race of the closing day card was moved to the main track, it was just the 16th of the season. In 2021, NYRA lost 45 turf races in 2021 and still set handle marks.

“Off-the-turf is always a very important metric when you're measuring handle and trying to understand why it was up or down or what would happen to field size,” O’Rourke said. “This is one of those years where you get kind of lucky where it stayed dry when we needed it to.” Cont. p6

Forte Leads Home Rising Star 1-2-3 in Hopeful (cont. from p1)

Forte was one of 45 yearlings purchased by the partnership of Mike Repole’s Repole Stable and Vinnie Viola’s St. Elias Stables in a $16.2-million spending spree at last year’s Keeneland September sale. The partnership, with bloodstock agent Jacob West signing the tickets, was the leading buyer at the auction.

“This is what we’re about,” Repole said from the winner’s circle Monday. “Vinnie, Todd and I made a big investment last year. The team from Jim Martin, Ed Rosen, Danielle Bricker, and Jacob West. This is what we do. It’s been fun, Irad has been winning some big races for us, Todd and I have been friends for a long, long time. It’s been a lot of fun.”

Forte, a much-hyped 1-5 favorite, was tabbed a ‘TDN Rising Star’ following his 7 3/4-length victory in his five-furlong debut at Belmont Park May 27. Favored again in the July 16 GIII Sanford S., the dark bay colt was never in the mix and finished a lackluster fourth.

“Last time, he wasn’t able to get extracted into the clear until really, really late,” Pletcher explained. “When he did, he showed some interest. He came back and trained really well with some older horses. His last breeze was with Bal Harbour who won earlier on the card. There were a lot of good indications that he was going to rebound and run to his capabilities, but you never know until you see it. I felt like the added distance was in his favor and he’s a nice colt.”

Looking ahead to a potential next start for Forte, Pletcher said, “Our first reaction was to go to the [Oct. 1 GI] Champagne, but we’ll talk to Vinnie and Mike and come up with a game plan. The Champagne is a race we’ve always thought highly of and that would be first on the radar.”
Pedigree Notes:
Forte is the sixth worldwide Grade I winner for Violence, whose son Volatile also enjoyed top-level success at the Spa in the 2020 GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H.

Queen Caroline was purchased by Amy Moore of South Gate Farm for $170,000 at the 2014 Keeneland September sale. The mare went on to win four stakes in Moore’s colors before becoming one of the Virginia farm’s first broodmares.

Forte is the mare’s first foal. She has a yearling colt by Uncle Mo who is scheduled to sell as hip 11 in next Monday’s first session of the Keeneland September sale. The mare is currently in foal to Not This Time.

Sun Sets on Record-Breaking Saratoga Season (cont. from p1)

During what was an unusually parched summer in upstate New York, NYRA recorded a record all-sources handle of $878,211,963 and reported on-track attendance at 1,075,586. The total handle was a 7.7% jump from last year and it was the seventh-straight time—excluding fan-free 2020—that Saratoga cracked one million in paid attendance. The daily average handle was $21,955,299, the highest in history, and average attendance was 26,890.

NYRA said Saratoga’s on-track handle, which includes New York residents using NYRA Bets, was up 10.5% to $152,274,728.

A total of 417 races were staged: 218 on the dirt and 199 on turf. The average field size was 7.8 runners, up a tick from the 7.7 last year.

According to the National Weather Service in Albany, there were 22 days during the summer when the daily high temperature topped 90 degrees, twice the annual norm, and rainfall was five inches below average. Many of those 90+ days were during the racing season.

While the ancient course, which has been operating on the south side of Union Ave. since 1864, was baking, Chad Brown captured his second-straight training title and fifth in six years with 42 winners, and Irad Ortiz, Jr. secured his fourth jockey championship with 55 wins.

“The weather cooperated and the fans came out in force early,” O’Rourke said. “And that was a little eye opening, actually, how busy, we were in July this year, compared to history. It usually took a little while for us to ramp up to that. It feels like the pandemic is over, and everything’s back to normal.”
From the opening day on July 14, 87-year-old Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas was a compelling story. Missing for two seasons at Saratoga due to Covid-19 and a lack of quality in his stable, Lukas mounted a successful renaissance tour. His star, GI Kentucky Oaks winner Secret Oath (Arrogate) was second in both of her starts, but he scored in the GIII Adirondack S. with Naughty Gal (Into Mischief) and six other races Lukas matched his 2009 figure and his $774,927 in earnings were second only to his $1,086,545 in 2013 in the last 20 years at the Spa. Lukas added to his young, promising stable with five yearling purchases at the Fasig-Tipton sale.

“I was pretty optimistic that we had the right 2-year-olds,” Lukas said. “I was disappointed in a couple of them, but, generally speaking, they lived right up to what we thought they would do. You’re never sure up here because it’s so competitive.”

Known as the “Graveyard of Favorites” since the early 1930s, Saratoga claimed a few more can’t-miss superstars this summer. Topping the list was champion Jackie’s Warrior (Maclean’s Music), who won the GI A.G. Vanderbilt H.--for a Spa record third year winning a Grade I--but was defeated at 1-9 by Cody’s Wish (Curlin) in the GI Forego S. At 1-5, War Like Goddess (English Channel) suffered just the third loss of her 11-race career with Bill Mott in the GII Flower Bowl Sept. 3.

The season started with huge early numbers and kept rolling. The GI Whitney S. Aug. 6 drew 39,478 and the program’s total handle was $40.2 million. On Aug. 27, the GI Runhappy Travers S., always the marquee race of the season, attracted an on-track crowd of 49,672, the most since Keen Ice (Curlin) upset American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in 2015. The total handle was a Travers record $55.6 million.

“What’s been exciting about the meet is the crowds,” said Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher said. “It’s been very enthusiastic. Business has been robust, and it’s exciting that people are coming out and enjoying horse racing. I think it bodes well for the future.”

Pletcher, a 14-time winner of the Saratoga training title, finished second to Brown with 37 wins. It was the 12th-straight season that they were 1-2 in the standings. Five of Pletcher’s six graded stakes victories came in Grade I races: Nest (Curlin) swept the Coaching Club American Oaks and Alabama in showdowns with Secret Oath that turned into routs; Life is Good (Into Mischief) added to his sterling reputation with a gate-to-wire score in the Whitney; champion Malathaat (Curlin) handled a strong field in the Personal Ensign S.; and Forte (Violence) wrapped up the season Monday in the Hopeful S.

“I couldn’t be more pleased with the meet we’ve had,” Pletcher said before winning his fourth Hopeful. “If you come in here and you get the opportunity to win races like the Whitney and Alabama and Coaching Club, Personal Ensign, you’ve got to be pretty happy. You just hope that things continue to go well.”

Brown, who grew up in nearby Mechanicville, was the Saratoga runner-up for five years before topping Pletcher in 2016. He also won titles in 2018 with a record 46 victories, 2019 and again last summer. Three of his nine graded-stakes victories were in Grade I events: In Italian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the Diana S., where he saddled the top four finishers; Jack Christopher (Munnings) in the H. Allen Jerkens Memorial S.; Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) in the Ballerina S. Typically, Brown was tough on the turf with a record of 30-20-24 from 131 starters, a 56% in-the-money rate.

“Overall, a really strong meet,” Brown said. “I’m just proud of the horses and my staff, all my co-workers, they did a great job. We won a lot of races, but we won some really big ones that really made the meet particularly strong for us, winning the Grade I’s, the Diana, the Allen Jerkens, and the Ballerina. And we had a nice win in the [GI] Flower Bowl the other day [with Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB})]. Then we were able to debut some good-looking 2-year-olds, which is always exciting.
“Top to bottom from the 2-year-olds to the sort of workman-like horses in the middle that won some allowance races and a few claiming races and such and then up into the stakes races, I think, in all divisions we were competitive.”

Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen's powerful stable was a force, winning the GII Jim Dandy S. and the GI Travers S. with Epicenter (Not This Time), who climbed to the top of the 3-year-old male division, and the Vanderbilt with Jackie's Warrior.

Ortiz started the season winning the GIII Schuylerville S. aboard Just City (Justify) on opening day and completed his campaign with a triumph in the GI Hopeful S. on closing day with Forte. He won eight other graded stakes at the meet, four of them Grade I's, and took the title by 15 victories over Flavien Prat and Luis Saez.

“It means a lot,” Ortiz said. “It's one of the best meets in the world. Every single day the crowds show up and they show so much respect to the jockeys. Coming back after the race, kids and all the people are calling your name and asking for goggles and autographs. That makes it so special. That makes it different than anywhere else. It means a lot. It's a lot of hard work. A lot of dedication. I have to thank the owners and the trainers for the big support.”

Louisville-based trainer Phillip Bauer, 37, did not win any graded stakes, but he had the best Saratoga season of his career, winning with 6 of 13 starters for Rigney Racing LLC. The six wins equaled his total of wins for the six previous seasons he competed at Saratoga. He had a win rate of 46% and was in the money with 54% of his starters.

“Pretty unbelievable,” Bauer said. “We came up here, obviously, with intentions of being competitive, but you never anticipate something like this. It's been a lot of fun.”

Kitodan, claimed for $80,000 just four starts ago, flew home from out of the clouds to pull the 20-1 upset in the GIII Dueling Grounds Derby on Kentucky Downs’s rescheduled card Monday.
The bay colt settled near the back of the 12-horse field and was well off the pace as Double Clutch (Optimizer) bowled along on the front end through pedestrian splits. Kitodan was well-held by jockey Gerardo Corrales as the field began to bunch up climbing the hill. He was mired in traffic turning for home and was tipped to the center of the track as Double Clutch began to grudgingly give way to a host of challengers. It was Kitodan moving best of all late, surging clear to an authoritative victory.
The Dueling Grounds Derby had originally been scheduled to be run Sunday, but heavy rain forced the postponement of the entire card to Monday.

“After worrying all week about the weather and the turf, I just knew we had him ready,” said Eric Foster, who was celebrating the biggest victory of his training career. “[Co-owner] Doug Miller] always tells me, ‘I just want to be prepared for when everything goes right and I always repeat it back to him.’ With my guys, my partners, they don’t care to get beat. It doesn’t hurt them as bad as it does me and that helps me to do a better job.”

Kitodan, winner of the Apr. 2 Rushaway S., was claimed from trainer Mike Maker and Paradise Farm and David Staudacher for $80,000 in his very next start, a third-place effort at Churchill
Downs May 15.
KENTUCKY-BREDS asserted their superiority over Labor Day weekend, winning all four Grade 1 events, topped by FLIGHTLINE, a jaw-dropping 19 ¼-length winner of the $1 million Pacific Classic (G1) at Del Mar, and OLYMPIAD, a determined winner of the $1 million Jockey Club Gold Cup (G1) at Saratoga—both horses earning berths to the $6 million Breeders’ Cup Classic (G1).

Breed Them, Raise Them, Race Them. We All Win.
He won the $200,000 Audubon S. in his first start for the new connections June 4 before a fourth-place effort over the main track in the July 2 American Derby. He was most recently fifth in the Aug. 7 Evan Williams Turf Mile S. at Ellis Park.

“The last race at Churchill, of course, was off the turf on the dirt, so that was very hard,” Foster said. “We wanted to try him because we knew he would give a good effort, but probably not as good as he is on turf. This is the second time we’ve got to run him on the turf against 3-year-olds and he’s getting stronger. He’s just proven he wants to go longer.”

Miller and Bill Wargel are still relatively new to the racing game.

“Bill and I, we’re two small grain farmers from Gallatin County, southeastern Illinois,” said Miller. “We live in the same county. We’ve been lifelong friends and we started partnering about a year and a half ago. Things have gotten great since we got with Eric. It was probably because he was local [hooking up with Foster]. Bill had known him for years. We had a horse together that we ran at Oaklawn and got claimed off us, so then we were without a horse, so we were looking to claim. He was at Keeneland. It took us two months to claim a horse. We got out shook every time. But then luck started falling our way and we claimed a few horses. It all started with Cool Rags, who ran earlier today. He ran fifth. He got bumped around, got in trouble, but he ran fifth. But it started with Cool Rags. Here we are with Kitodan.”

Pedigree Notes:

Kitodan is the seventh graded winner for Point of Entry. His dam, Divine Presence, produced fillies by Karakontie (Jpn) in each of the last three years. The mare is a daughter of champion Divine Proportions, who also produced group winner Eightfold Path (Giant's Causeway). She was exported to Japan after selling for $50,000 at last year’s Keeneland November sale. She had RNA’d, with Kitodan in utero, for $80,000 at the 2019 Keeneland January sale. Her Karakontie weanling filly sold for $87,323 at this year’s JRHA July sale.

Emaraaty, making his first start in graded company since finishing fourth in the 2019 GII Bernard Baruch H., took the field wire-to-wire to win the 2022 renewal of the race, now a Grade III event, Monday at Saratoga. The 7-year-old quickly assumed control and was clear around the far turn through a quarter in :23.44. Some five lengths in front down the backstretch, the dark bay completed the half in :47.35 and three-quarters in 1:11.21 as Winters Back, who had been chasing throughout, made a run at the pacesetter into the stretch only to see him scamper further clear down the lane.

“Today, it didn’t feel like there was a whole lot of speed, so I let him run out of there and let him run all the way to the first turn,” said winning jockey Flavien Prat. “From that point, he relaxed well and kicked home well. I think the soft ground was a good thing for him as well, so it worked out well for us. It was an honest pace, but he was doing it the right way and traveling well.”

Winning trainer Chad Brown added, “I was a little concerned [about the fractions]. I was very impressed and proud of Emaraaty that, after posting those fractions, when he posted the three-quarters in 1:11, that he was able to re-break again. It was impressive.”

Purchased for a co-sale-topping 2.6-million guineas at the 2016 Tattersalls October sale, Emaraaty was tabbed a ‘TDN Rising Star’ while winning his second career start at Newbury the following September for Shadwell and trainer John Gosden. Transferred to the Chad Brown barn in 2019, the gelding was a first-out winner at Saratoga before his fourth-place effort in the Bernard Baruch, while still racing in the Shadwell colors.
Emaraaty made his first start for the ownership group of Michael Dubb, Madaket Stables and Michael Caruso in his final 2021 outing last November and he returned from seven months on the sidelines to finish a close-up second in a one-mile optional claimer at Belmont Park July 3. He just got his nose in front to win an Aug. 4 optional claimer at that same distance at Saratoga last time out.

“He’s been a different horse since we gelded him,” said Brown. “This ownership group had bought him privately at the end of last year and we decided to geld the horse even though he was an older horse—it’s a little late to be gelding him, but we tried it. He was a bit of an aggressive horse, still a bit keen as you saw, but I’ll tell you, he’s been a different horse since we gelded him and gave him some time.”

Pedigree Notes:

Emaraaty is the 157th worldwide graded winner for his sire, the exceptional Dubawi. He is the third graded winner from just six runners by Dubawi out of Zafonic mares.

Multiple Group 1 placed Zee Zee Top is also the dam of Group 1 winner Izzi Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who produced multiple group placed Prince Eiji (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The mare is a half-sister to champions Opera House (GB) (Sadler’s Wells) and Kayf Tara (GB) (Sadler’s Wells), as well as to the dam of Group 1 winner Necklace (GB) (Darshaan {GB}).

STEADFAST AIRDRIE STALLION INCLUDE DIES by Sara Gordon

Grade I winner Include (Broad Brush—Illeria, by Stop the Music) was euthanized July 18 at Airdrie Stud, the farm he called home for the past 19 years, due to a worsening heart condition. He was 25 years old.

The Airdrie team were made aware of the stallion’s heart condition last year and he was pensioned from stud duty shortly thereafter, in the fall of 2021.

“His condition worsened to where he was showing us that there was potentially going to be an unhappy ending and we weren’t going to let that happen. We made the very difficult, from an emotional standpoint, a very difficult decision [to euthanize him], but a very easy decision when you’re acting in the best interest of the horse,” said Bret Jones, vice president of Airdrie.

Bred in Maryland by Robert E. Meyerhoff and campaigned by his breeder throughout his four-season career, Include gained national attention as arguably one of the country’s top handicap horses as a 4-year-old in 2001, with victories in the GI Pimlico Special H., GII New Orleans H, and GII Massachusetts H.

Trained by Grover “Bud” Delp, the Maryland-bred was also second in that year’s running of the GII Clark H., and third back-to-back in the GII Suburban H. and GII Meadowlands Cup H., with his worst finish that season a seventh in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic.

“[Include] is the second-best horse I have ever trained beside Spectacular Bid, and I’ve had some pretty nice horses,” Delp said in a Suffolk Downs press release sent out ahead of Include’s victory in the 2001 Massachusetts H. “He’s got a lot of class. The way he ran down Albert The Great from the three-sixteenths pole in the Pimlico Special proved to me he was more than just a good horse.”

The unanimous selection for Horse of the Year and champion older male in Maryland in 2001, Include retired as a 5-year-old with 10 wins from 20 starts and earnings of $1,659,560, also earning 13 triple digit Beyer Speed Figures along the way— including a 117 in the Pimlico Special. He secured seven stakes wins and was Grade II stakes-placed four times.

Include entered stud at Airdrie in 2003, with hopes high as the stallion, who carried his speed around two turns with great success, also offered an attractive outcross for mares with Mr. Prospector and Northern Dancer blood as a son of Broad Brush (Ack Ack).

“It was really a big deal when we first got Include. He had a very obviously impressive track record, you know a Grade I winner on the track, had run really incredible numbers. I remember that being one of the things we were really drawn to,” said Jones. “[He was] bred beautifully, [from a] wonderful family, out of a mare that’s gone on to be a really great broodmare. He looked tough and he was tough, and all that added up to what we thought was a very exciting stallion prospect.

“We immediately started supporting him as strongly as we could to try to give him that opportunity. He was a success really from the start.”

And he was, with his first two crops of racing age producing the likes of multiple Grade I winner Panty Raid, a filly out of the Private Account mare Adventurous Di, and Grade I winner Cash Included, a filly out of the Chimes Band mare Henderson Band. As a 3-year-old, Panty Raid won the GII Black-Eyed Susan S., her first stakes win, before taking the GI American Oaks Invitational S. and following up with a victory in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. in 2007. A $110,000 yearling sold at the 2005 Fasig-Tipton July Sale, she eventually went on to sell for $2.5 million at the 2008 Fasig-Tipton November Sale.

“When you start thinking about these stallions, all the memories start coming back, and [Include] was with us for a very long time. We were lucky we bred and raced, in partnership with our great friend Tim Thornton, a filly named Include Betty, who won the [GI] Mother Goose for us, which was a wonderful day,” said Jones. “We bred Include Me Out, another Grade I winner, [and] I remember Panty Raid, how excited we were when she broke her maiden at Saratoga [in 2006] and then went on to be the Grade I winner she was.”

Include Betty, a $42,000 yearling, won the GI Mother Goose S. over favored Wonder Gal (Tiz Wonderful) in 2015, while also securing victory in that year’s GII Fantasy S. and finishing second in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S., while third in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks. Just three years prior, Include Me Out picked up three consecutive graded stakes victories at Santa Anita in the GII La Canada S., GI Santa Margarita Invitational S. and GI Marjorie L. Everett H., before winning the GI Clement L. Hirsch S. at Del Mar--all in 2012.

Oklahoma-bred She's All In, from Include’s 2007 foal crop, remains his highest earner with $1,102,489 bankrolled from 16 wins, eight seconds and three thirds in 38 career starts, topped by an impressive victory in the 2012 GII Sixty Sails H.

“He was probably the most underrated stallion we ever stood. I don’t know if he ever got his due in the commercial market because all he ever did was sire racehorses. The average earning index is something we pay a lot of attention to and historically he’s always improved his mares,” said Jones. “He got labeled as a filly sire, because he had some exceptional fillies, I mean he really did, [but] he never threw a colt that really had his brilliance. I wish I was smart enough to figure out why that was.

“He was really a remarkable sire of fillies and through that I think will be a really, really good broodmare sire.”

Other progeny highlights include Virginia-bred colt Redeemed, winner of the GII Brooklyn H. and GII Greenwood Cup Success in 2012, who also took the Gilli Discovery H. the previous year. He retired with $832,140 in earnings and later ranked as a leading first-crop, second-crop, and third-crop sire in the Mid-Atlantic region while standing at Northview Stallion Station in Maryland.

Among current runners, 5-year-old mare Sconsin reigns supreme as she keeps her sire's legacy alive with multiple graded stakes victories, most recently capturing the Gilli Winning Colors S. in May as she nears the $1 million in earnings mark.

“That’s the amazing thing about the horse business, you can go back through the catalog pages and look back two, three, four generations and see those old friends. Include is going to be one of those old friends that is going to be on those catalog pages for a long, long time,” said Jones.
Congratulations to the connections of the winner of the 118th running of the Hopeful (G1):
Breeder South Gate Farm,
Owners Repole Stable & St. Elias Stable, and
Hall of Fame Trainer Todd Pletcher.
With 17 crops of racing age, from 19 crops total, Include has sired 799 winners (66%) and 988 starters (82%) from his 1,202 foals of racing age to date. Those include six champions in Puerto Rico, Argentina, Canada and Panama; 24 graded black-type stakes winners; and 56 black-type stakes winners. His progeny earnings are in excess of $63 million.

“If you have an Include that’s a good 2-year-old, you may really have a special horse, like a Panty Raid, because they seem to always get better with more racing,” said Jones. “They run with that real desire to win, were very sound horses just like himself, and a lot of people that race Includes have a lot of fun not only earning money but winning a lot of races.”

Though there is a silver lining to be found in his final crops of foals, along with the continuous impact he’ll have as a broodmare sire, the Airdrie team will forever mourn the loss of the longtime stallion and barn favorite.

“It’s to his great credit and the credit of our syndicate members who really helped support him that he was able to stay in the stallion barn his entire life. He was absolutely one of the favorites in the barn for everybody, he really ran the show. Anybody who came to the stallion barn, any time one of the other stallions would parade by Include’s stall, he let everybody know that he didn’t want that horse anywhere near his turf. He would yell out, which would always make everybody laugh and they would say, ‘There’s Include.’ He was the boss,” recalled Jones.

“I think the boss of the barn is a very fitting legacy for Include and he will be missed by everyone who ever spent time with him.”

Was Flightline’s Pacific Classic the best performance since Secretariat’s Belmont (as Bill Finley asked in The Week in Review in Monday’s TDN)? Although it was great, the obvious answer is no, because we have witnessed many incredible races over the last nearly 50 years. But comparing and contrasting racehorses (and their best performances), and wondering how they stack up against each other, is part of what makes horse racing exciting and interesting. Secretariat’s stupendous effort in the last leg of the Triple Crown was very likely the best performance by a racehorse. Flightline’s stunning effort (specifically, the margin of victory) may have looked slightly better due to substandard competition.

Secretariat broke Gallant Man’s 16-year-old track record by 2 3/5 seconds while running 2:24 in his historic tour de force in the 1973 Belmont S., at the demanding 12-furlong distance. Flightline missed the track record by less than 1/5 of a second in his 1:59 2/5 romp at 10-furlongs.

Many other horses over the years have run 1:59 2/5, or better, for 10-furlongs, including Spectacular Bid (world record), Quack, Secretariat, Affirmed, J.O. Tobin, Ghostzapper, Skip Away, Alysheba, In Excess, Candy Ride, Game On Dude, Best Pal, Gentlemen, Crystal Water, Ancient Title, Kennedy Road, Native Diver, and John Henry (via DQ...but he was only a nose behind). The list goes on and on, actually. Oh, and let us not forget Ancient Title’s powerhouse victory in the 1977 Del Mar H., when it was contested at “120 feet less than 10-furlongs” and he ran 1:55 2/5, which the Los Angeles Times projected translated to 1:57 3/5 for the distance, which would have been a world record.

Obviously, many excellent horses have equaled or bettered Flightline’s 10-furlong time, but Secretariat’s 2:24 accomplishment stands alone for the 12-furlong distance, as no one has approached his time record. The closest anyone has come was Prove Out (while defeating Secretariat) in the 1973 Woodward S. in 2:25 4/5. Easy Goer clocked in at 2:26 in his Belmont S. win over Sunday Silence, while Hechizado and Nasty And Bold matched that clocking in respective Brooklyn H. victories.

American horses of the 21st Century do not compete nearly as often as their 20th Century counterparts. Should any of today’s hothouse flowers be compared to the greats of the past who raced constantly? The heroes of the 1970’s were battle-tested and danced every dance. During a 3-month period in 1972, the great Susan’s Girl ran eight times!
Also, in 1972 Cougar II won an 11-furlong turf race in 2:11 (New American record) and was wheeled back 3 weeks later to win at 8 1/2 furlongs on dirt in 1:39 1/5 (missing the world record by 1/5th second), which is a phenomenal achievement. At the end of 1973, Secretariat ran Sept. 15, Sept. 29, Oct. 8, and Oct. 28! These horses didn’t need three to six months between starts! How would today’s best fare with that kind of schedule?

Over the last 10 years or so, California Chrome, Arrogate, American Pharoah, Justify, or Flightline have been crowned “the best of all-time,” or “the best horse since Secretariat.” If you know the history of the sport you understand that many excellent racehorses have come along in the time span between Secretariat, in 1973, and now. However, it seems that all these horses are ignored, and only Secretariat is remembered. Secretariat and whoever the new “greatest horse of all time” is at the moment.

Forego, Seattle Slew, Affirmed, Ruffian, and many other all-time greats, stepped into the spotlight in the wake of Secretariat’s 1970’s reign. However, the most astonishing thing is that when today’s flavor-of-the-month bandwagon comes along, it’s bad enough that the four champions mentioned above are ignored, but what’s worse is that the best horse since Secretariat—Spectacular Bid—is forgotten. Spectacular Bid was a perfect 24 for 24 in the middle-distance range of 7 to 10 furlongs, and his career total was 30 starts, 26 wins, 2 seconds, 1 third. He set multiple track records and even a world record. How does he get ignored or dismissed as these other horses are crowned heir apparent to Secretariat?

Leapfrogging over a horse like Spectacular Bid is unthinkable. It’s important to remember the great horses and performances of the past to put things in perspective and to consider that what you’re witnessing now may or may not be the greatest thing that ever happened. But the discussion about great horses is fun, and Flightline surely is part of that debate.

Although the field that Flightline beat this weekend was not very strong, as evidenced by the fact that it took Country Grammer, who didn’t offer his best effort, 2:03 to negotiate 10 furlongs, and the others 2:04 and much worse. Still, that takes nothing away from Flightline, because he certainly is sublime. I share the excitement and enthusiasm about him. From the standpoint of sheer talent and ability, he’s as good as a horse can possibly get...maybe better.

U.S. WAGERING HOLDS STEADY IN AUGUST

Wagering on U.S. races held largely steady in comparison with 2021 figures, with year-to-date wagering reaching $8,604,332,789—up 0.24% from the 2021 figure of $8,583,460,027. During August, U.S. wagering was $1,194,876,167, a dip of 0.86% from last year’s figure of $1,205,251,116.

Through August, U.S. purses were $843,635,983, an increase of 12.29% from the corresponding 2021 figure of $751,274,418. During August, U.S purses were $130,206,874—up 3.66% from the August 2021 figure of $125,611,453.

Comparing year-to-date figures from 2022 to 2020, wagering on U.S. races is up 17.76% and purses are up 62.57%.

FOUR STAKES ON TAP AT LOS ALAMITOS

Thoroughbred racing returns to Los Alamitos Sept. 16 with a seven-day season which will include four stakes races. The first of the stakes races is the $75,000 E.B. Johnston for 3-year-olds and up who are bred or sired in California. The race at one mile will be run Sept. 17.

The following day fillies and mares will face off in the $75,000 Dark Mirage S. at 1 1/16 miles. Completing the schedule are the $75,000 Los Alamitos Special for 3-year-olds and up at 1 1/16 miles on Sept. 24 and the $75,000 Capote S. for 2-year-olds at 6 1/2 furlongs on closing day, Sept. 25.

Racing will be conducted Friday-Sunday the first week (Sept. 16-18) and Thursday-Sunday (Sept. 22-25) the final four days. Post time will be 1 p.m on weekdays and 12:30 p.m. on weekends.

The steadily improving Vergara dug in gamely late beneath Joel Rosario to win the listed Exacta Systems Dueling Grounds Oaks and secure her first victory on the year Sunday at Kentucky Downs.

The winner of the Tepin S. at Aqueduct as a juvenile, her 3-year-old season started slowly with an eighth in the Apr. 2 Bourbonette Oaks, but picked up pace when she ran third May 20 in the Hilltop S. with first-time Lasix, fourth two back in the June 9 GII Wonder Again at Belmont, and missed victory by a head to MGSW Super Hoity Toity (Uncle Mo) last out Aug. 6 in the turf-mile GIII Ontario Colleen.

Back here from her trip north, the public made Vergara the 4-1 third choice as she took up position at the hip of the pacesetter for most of the trip. Making a move on the far turn to gain a short advantage, she locked horns with Skims, who was rolling from the rear of the field, and the fillies battled it out to the wire with Vergara prevailing by a head.

“She ran really well. Every step of the way, she was just there for me the whole time, relaxed, just looking around. I was just a passenger,” said Rosario after the race. “She broke really well. I thought I was going to be laying second or third. But then she put herself in the front nicely. Just like [trainer] Graham [Motion] said, ‘Just let her be happy.’ And she was happy there. When [Skims] came to us, it looked like that horse would get by. But she was game and she came back and got ’em.”

The second black-type runner behind Bullseye Beauty, Vergara has a 2-year-old half-brother Storm Brave (Dialed In) and a yearling full-sister. The dam did not catch after visiting The Factor last season, and went to Code of Honor for 2023. The second dam produced English highweight 3-year-old colt Millenary (GB) (Rainbow Quest) as well as the full-sister G1SP Roses for the Lady (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells). This is the female family of English and French champion 3-year-old filly Dancing Shadow (Ire). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Teddy's Barino

Chismosa became the Del Mar meet’s first three-time winner as she stayed unbeaten Monday. The Jaime Renella homebred bested Fun Money on debut July 23, wheeled back quickly to annex the Aug. 7 CTBA S. and was only a tepid favorite in this one. Forced wider from her outside draw at the start, the dark bay was somehow able to work her way inside down the backstretch. She bowled her way through a seam and out three deep heading for home, made the lead near the quarter pole and was never seriously threatened from there. Uncontrollable ran on well from last, but came up short of providing her owner Mike Repole with a bi-coastal juvenile stakes double.

The winner's dam, who raced until she was seven for these same connections and ran for tags as low as $8,000, has a foal colt by Acclamation and returned to that same sire for 2023.

Teddy's Barino rode a three-race win streak into this return to stakes company, and got the job done once again after a hard-fought battle. A romping dirt sprint optional claiming winner at Santa Anita in May, she stretched out and switched to the sod to score again June 5. She bested open first-level allowance foes over track and trip Aug. 7, and was looking to go one better than she did in last year’s Fleet Treat S. here.

Winfromwithin was a close second in the Cliff Hanger S. here in May, and two starts later took a N3X optional claimer over the same strip. Fourth last time in the Aug. 14 Oceanport S. after attending solid splits, he was able to clear off early. Making things tight on Nothing Better at the top of the lane, he kicked it in from there to win comfortably before surviving an objection.
“The way we do things and the way we run our program, we don’t change things if we have a strategy going into a race,” said winning trainer Jorge Delgado. “We live and die with our strategy. I’d rather finish last than change our strategy and today our strategy was for him to go to the lead no matter how hot the pace was. I wanted to be on a clear lead. That’s when he is at his best and it showed today. There was no other horse that was next to him so he was able to go by himself and find a rhythm. When he is alone like he was, he gets brave. The bar was high when I got him because Todd Pletcher had him before me and won a stakes with him. He had two good races in stakes company since I got him and the way he trains in the morning I always felt he would be a stakes winner for me.”

Winfromwithin’s still-unnamed 3-year-old full-sister was a $430,000 Keeneland September yearling. Dam Rau Breck, a half to the good turfer Shakis (Ire) (Machiavellian) from the extended female family of Glorious Song and Saint Ballado, fetched $50,000 at KEENOV ’19 from Japan’s Yuki Dendo while carrying a California Chrome colt. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

ENCOURAGE (g, 3, Air Force Blue--Cavanaugh Park (Ire), by Galileo (Ire)) graduated by a head fourth out and first time on turf Aug. 12 at Ellis and was let go at 5-1 here. Finding a comfortable spot in a ground-saving fourth behind splits of :24.48, :49.81 and 1:16.42, the gelding split horses in the two path approaching the lane, charged to the front soon after straightening and gamely held off a determined run from favored Jarreau (Pioneerof the Nile) to score by a head. The winner has an unraced 2-year-old Munnings half-sister named Around the Sun, a yearling half-brother by Mendelssohn and a 2022 Omaha Beach half-brother. His dam was bought for $77,000 last year at Keeneland November and was bred to War Dancer this spring. Sales History: $10,500 Ylg ’20 KEEJAN; $50,000 Ylg ’20 KEESEP. COCKTAIL MOMENTS (f, 3, Uncle Mo--River Maid (Ch. Female Sprinter-Can, GSW, $442,909), by Where’s the Ring) faced her generation's best in the GI Central Bank Ashland back in April when she ran second behind MGISW Nest (Curlin) and was a level eighth in the May 6 GI Kentucky Oaks. Bobbling slightly at the start last out June 3 when facing a Churchill allowance group with first-time Lasix, she managed to get up for fourth in the mile contest. Back to the races for the first time since, the public accorded her 5-2 favoritism as she settled in seventh on the rail. Improving her position passing the five-eighths, Cocktail Moments saved all the ground through the final bend and swung wide into upper stretch for a rally. Picking off Jane Grey (Into Mischief) outside the sixteenth pole, she moved clear under a hand ride to win by 2 3/4 lengths. The first runner to the race for her Canadian champion dam, the victress has a pair of half-brothers: a yearling by Medaglia d'Oro and a 2022 Tapit colt. River Maid went back to that leading sire for 2023. The accomplished dam is a half to stakes winner Race for Gold (Where’s the Ring) and four other stakes runners. Sales History: $135,000 Wlg ’19 KEENOV; $190,000 Ylg ’20 KEESEP; $245,000 RNA 2yo ’21 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: GISP, 7-2-1-2, $296,660. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

CUPID’S HEART (f, 3, Cupid--Bedside Posse, by Posse) scored a good-looking 4 1/4-length debut win as the favorite last October at Belmont and was fifth in the state-bred Key Cents S. when last seen Nov. 21 at Aqueduct. Hammered to even-money in this meet finale, the gray tracked from second while in a bit tight at the rail through a :22.32 quarter, squeezed through inside of the pacesetter nearing the stretch, took command at the top of the lane and splashed clear for a 5 1/4-length victory. Second choice Tosconova Beauty (Boys At Tosconova) completed the exacta. The winner’s dam is responsible for a juvenile Tapwrit colt and a yearling colt by Munnings and foaled a Lookin At Lucky filly this season before being bred to Maxfield. KIRSTENBOSCH (f, 3, Midnight Lute--Llandudno {GSP, $150,160}, by Belong to Me) broke her maiden second out and first time on turf Apr. 8 at Santa Anita and was runner-up in the Angels Flight S. back on dirt there May 8 before finishing a distant fourth in the June 12 GII Summertime Oaks and seventh in a local allowance/optional claimer Aug. 21. Knocked down to 11-10 favoritism here, the dark bay was sent to the front from her outside draw and showed the way narrowly through sharp fractions of :22.27 and :45.96. Confronted by Trouville (Will Take Charge) midway around the turn, Kirstenbosch resolutely turned that rival back in the final furlong and edged clear late for a 1 1/4-length success. The winner, a half to Constantia (Munnings), SW & GSP, $209,192, has a yearling full-brother of this season and her dam visited Connect for 2023. Lifetime Record: SP, 6-2-2-0, $127,180. AWAKE AT MIDNYTE (f, 3, Nyquist--Midnight Union, by Union Rags) debuted a winner at Santa Anita last Halloween before missing by a nose in the GIII Jimmy Durante S. on the local lawn. Narrowly second when cut back and returned to dirt for the GII Santa Ynez S. Jan. 8, she was third in the GII Rachel Alexandra S. at Fair Grounds Feb. 19 and a distant fourth behind Nest (Curlin) in the GII Central Bank Ashland S. at Keeneland Apr. 8. Last seen finishing seventh in Churchill's GII Eight Belles S. May 6, she was let go at 6-1 as the money poured in on two-for-two Bob Baffert-trained Cal-bred stakes winner Fun to Dream (Arrogate). Away sharply from the far outside, Awake At Midnyte was taken back a bit under a hard hold but soon tugged her way up to press three deep while shadowed to her outside by the favorite. She took a clear advantage into the stretch, and stiff-armed Fun to Dream from there to skip away by 3 1/4 lengths. Fun to Dream was later demoted to ninth by the stewards for interference at the start, elevating 62-1 Reinecke (American Pharoah) to second. The winner's 2-year-old half-sister Lighter Knot (Mastery) was third in a grassy maiden claimer at Ellis Aug. 26. Her dam was unsuccessfully bred to Mitole in two subsequent seasons, and visited Tapit for 2023. Sales history: $85,000 RNA Wlg '19 KEENOV; $190,000 Ylg '20 FTKOCT; $320,000 2yo '21 FTFMAR. PLAY THE MUSIC (f, 2, Mo Town—Hey Little Sister, by Jump Start) showed a sharp worktab for this debut, highlighted by a bullet half-mile over the Ellis dirt in :47 2/5 (1/45) July 23, and was sent off at 4-1. Tracking dueling leaders from third through a :23.87 quarter, the $300,000 OBS April buy surged to the front three-sixteenths out and saw off a bid from longshot firster Replenish (Street Sense) to graduate by 2 1/4 lengths. The eighth winner for her freshman sire (by Uncle Mo), the winner has a yearling half-brother by Paynter. Her dam returned to Mo Town this season. Sales History: $110,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP; $300,000 2yo ‘22 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $90,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

RED ROUTE ONE (c, 2, Gun Runner—Red House, by Tapit) was asked to navigate serious traffic on debut, first knocked around at the break and then losing a length when a seam closed on him, finishing fifth Aug. 6 in a turf route at Saratoga. Sent away at 7-2 here, he rated well in the beginning stages and drafted in behind the top duo on the turn. Easing out for a rally nearing the five-sixteenths pole, Red Route One was rolling coming off the bend and had cleared tiring leaders by the furlong grounds to break his maiden by 3 3/4 lengths. The chestnut is his sire (by Candy Ride (Arg))’s 60th winner. Life At Sea (West Coast) kicked on well from sixth for the runner-up spot. One of two listed offspring for his dam, Red Route One is a full to stakes-winner Red Run, SW, $267,928, who finished 10th later in the card in the GII Dueling Grounds Derby. Red House is a full-sister to champion 3-year-old filly Untapable, to the dam of GSW Majestic Eagle (Medaglia d’Oro), and a half to GISW, sire Paddy O’Prado (El Prado [Ire]). This is the extended female family of GISW, millionaire Olympio (Naskra) and GISW Call Now (Wild Again). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $94,200. ATOMIC GIRL (f, 2, Majestic City—Agustina de Aragon, by Political Force) was coaxed from the gate early to track pacers from third, took command a sixteenth out and managed to hold off a pack of four on the wire. Camp Akeela (Laoban)’s neck proved longest of that group and she picked up the minor honors. The first winner for a young mare, Atomic Girl was a $50,000 OBS June pickup (:10 flat furlong breeze) a couple months ago, and has a yearling full-sister in addition to a 2022 half-sister by Air Force Blue. BLAME IT ON DADDY (c, 2, Blame--Just Jan, by Any Given Saturday) ran a distant second debuting over track and trip Aug. 11 and was given a 5-2 chance to go one better here. Traveling three wide in the third flight while urged along behind a :22.64 quarter, the $90,000 Keeneland September grad took over alongside Atlanta’s Acuna (Cross Traffic) past the three-sixteenths pole as the leader bore out turning for home, put that rival away inside the furlong grounds and just held off late-running Uncle Marty (Uncle Mo) to prevail by a head. The winner is a half to Kowboy Karma (Kodiak Kowboy), SW, $305,492. His third dam is champion Althea (Alydar). Just Jan produced a colt by Authentic this term before visiting Audible. Sales History: $90,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $66,000.

ARCTIC ARROGANCE (c, 2, Frosted--Modest Maven, by Uncle Mo) showed the way against this state-bred maiden field, and went gate to wire after recovering from an early bump at the start. Always in hand with open lengths on the field through :22.85 and :46.65 splits, the grey shied outward away from the stick once nearing the sixteenth pole and again when Jose Ortiz corrected with the other hand 70 yards out, but safely held his advantage by a length on the wire. Nobilis (Speightster) picked up second in a strung-out field. A half to stakes-placed 3-year-old Overstep (Into Mischief), Arctic Arrogance is out of a half to GSP Lassofthemichians (Indian Charlie). Third dam Big Dreams produced two-time champion sprinter, MGISW Housebuster (Mt. Livermore) and MGISP Quero Quero (Royal Academy). FROM DUSK (c, 2, Bolt d’Oro–Foolish Cause, by Giant’s Causeway) was crunched down to 9-10 favoritism to open his account at first asking and gutted it out over a turf course that might have been easier underfoot than he prefers. Away alertly, the dark bay set the pace, but had company to his outside in the form of third choice Yoshi Tanrei (Jpn) (Satono Aladdin {Jpn}) as they raced into the turn. More or less on even terms as they cut the corner into the straight, From Dusk poked his head in front while fairly conservatively handled approaching the final furlong and fought on bravely to score by three-parts of a length. “He had a nice draw and broke well from the gate,” said winning jockey Kohei Matsuyama. “He was very fresh and fit and had plenty left at the finish.” He is the first Japanese starter for his freshman sire (by Medaglia d’Oro) and became his 13th winner at the time. A $200,000 graduate of last year’s Keeneland September Sale, From Dusk was knocked down to trainer Hideyuki Mori for $900,000 at this year’s OBS March Sale after the Top Line Sales-consigned colt worked a furlong in :9 4/5.

HOMELESS SONGS “THE MOST IMPORTANT ONE” FOR MOYGLARE ON ICW By Brian Sheerin

Slap bang in its 60th year, Moyglare Stud has come up trumps with Homeless Songs, one of the most impressive Irish 1,000 Guineas winners of the modern era, who is on course to run in Saturday’s G1 Coolmore America "Justify" Matron S. at Leopardstown.

The stud also has Irish St Leger hotpot Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)), Blandford S. hope Trevaunance (Ire) (Muhaarar (GB)) and Boomerang Mile contender Just Beautiful (GB) (Pride Of Dubai (Aus)) to look forward to on Irish Champions Weekend but, according to Moyglare’s Fiona Craig, Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel (GB)) is the one that matters most.

PARK PADDOCKS BUZZING AHEAD OF SOMERVILLE SALE

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony chats to consignor Jenny Norris at Park Paddocks on Monday

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK -- There's no let-up in a sales calendar that becomes more packed every year, and the yearling action now switches to Newmarket, with the Tattersalls Somerville Sale sandwiched between last Friday's BBAG Yearling Sale in Germany, and a new French sale at Arqana this coming Thursday and Friday.

This is, in effect, only the second year of the Somerville, a sale that grew out of the Tattersalls Ascot Yearling Sale, which itself only existed for four years, having been moved to Newmarket during the first year of the pandemic.

That move coincided with a boost in both entries and returns, and the Somerville, with its focus on a sharper type of yearling more usually found at the Goffs UK Premier Sale, was born. Its debut last September could hardly have been more encouraging, and this year’s sale is on the rise again in numbers.

Even so, judging by a full car park and packed runways between the stable blocks at Park Paddocks on Monday, there should be plenty of people on the ground attempting to buy the yearlings offered from 10am on Tuesday.

A CASE OF YOU TO BOUNCE BACK IN 'FIVE'

Trainer Ado McGuinness is confident that his G1 Al Quoz Sprint hero A Case Of You (Ire) (Hot Streak {Ire}) can atone for a poor Royal Ascot effort in Sunday’s G1 Flying Five S. at The Curragh.

SWIFT TO JOIN BHA

Greg Swift, previously head of news and press secretary to the Foreign Secretary, will join the British Horseracing Authority in October.

AROUND MIDNIGHT SCORES AT CRAON

A maiden winner at second asking at Clairefontaine last time, Around Midnight (Fr) (Almanzor {Fr}) annexed her black-type debut in Monday’s Listed Criterium de l’Ouest at Craon.

As first-year results go, having the G2 Coventry S. winner Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) as an early flag-bearer was a welcome boost, through sadly that 12,000gns purchase is now on the easy list after picking up an injury in his subsequent start in the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S.

Sold from Bearstone Stud, which offered seven yearlings at the sale last year, Bradsell was not the only star performer from that draft. The most expensive member, at 45,000gns, was a colt from the first crop of Havana Grey (GB). Like Bradsell, he too ended up at Archie Watson’s stable. Now named Eddie’s Boy (GB), he has raced eight times for the Middleham Park Racing syndicate, winning on debut, and later scooping the lucrative pot of the Weatherbys Super Sprint, as well as picking up some listed black type when third in the Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot behind Little Big Bear (Ire) and again at Sandown in the Dragon S.

Farther afield, Marco Bozzi’s 4,500gns purchase New Collection (GB) (Brazen Beau {Aus}) is now a Listed winner in Italy.

Bearstone Stud has returned to the Somerville Sale this year with a draft of nine, including two fillies by Tasleet and Havana Grey, as well as the half-sister to the aforementioned Eddie’s Boy, who sells as lot 66 and is by Washington DC (Ire), one of Bearstone’s three resident stallions. The stud’s owner Terry Holdcroft was not alone among consignors in reporting hectic viewing sessions for Sunday and Monday.

"It’s just been absolutely manic," he said. "We’ve been very busy. We have five staff here and it’s almost not enough but even if we’d brought a couple more there’s not room to show them all at the same time. Yesterday it was unbelievable, we were almost having to ask people if they would like to come back later as there was a queue of people waiting to see them."

Holdcroft added, "The sale has worked well for us and we used to go to Ascot previously, but we are putting better horses in now that it has moved to Tattersalls. It does come a bit quick for us after Doncaster, especially for the staff. But we have brought mostly sharp, 2-year-old types, which is basically what I try to breed, and it's what they are looking for in this sale, and at Doncaster of course."

Holdcroft also issued an update on one of Bearstone's star graduates, Glass Slippers (GB) (Dream Ahead), winner of the G1 Flying Five and GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint two years ago.

"She's very much in foal," he said. "She went to Dubawi and we're really looking forward to that."

Eddie's Boy's sire Havana Grey is currently way out in front in the first-season sires' table with 30 winners of 45 races, and three stakes winners to his name. The most recent of those, and his first group winner, came last Thursday with Lady Hollywood's victory in the G3 Prix d'Arenberg at Longchamp. Her rising star of a young trainer, Alice Haynes, was among the many pounding the sale yards on Monday, and if she is on the hunt for another by Whitsbury Manor Stud's Havana Grey she will have 21 to choose from, including one from the farm responsible for breeding Havana Grey in the first place, Mickley Stud. The Shropshire farm offers lot 7, the third foal of the Listed winner Peach Melba (GB) (Dream Ahead) who already has a multiple winner to her name in Instinctive Move (GB) (Showcasing {GB}).

As outlined by Terry Holdcroft, there is a strong focus on speed and precocity in the catalogue, and just over 20% of those slated to sell are by first-crop sires, including Inns Of Court (Ire), Calyx (GB), Eqtidaar (Ire), Masar (Ire), Magna Grecia (Ire) and Land Force (Ire). Cont. p5

Graduates of the Somerville Sale are eligible not just for the £100,000 Tattersalls Somerville Auction S., which is to be run next August 26 over six furlongs of the July Course, but also for the Tattersalls October Auction S., staged over the same distance but slightly later and next door on Newmarket’s Rowley Mile. The latter also takes in graduates of Books 3 and 4 of the October Yearling Sale.

With only 17 withdrawals at the time of writing from the 313 yearlings in the book, trade on Tuesday will be continuing long into the evening at Park Paddocks at this sale that seems unlikely to remain in its one-day format for much longer. Long viewing days and a lengthy sale session will seem worthwhile in hindsight, however, if the level of activity over the last few days is carried through on the day that it matters most.

“Homeless Songs is the most important one and we’re keeping our fingers crossed that there’s enough rain so that she can run on Saturday,” Craig said on Monday. “She looks like a Dubawi—she’s quite heavy-topped and does herself very well. She is quite short-legged and, the thing is, we want her to race on next year.”

Homeless Songs has not run since that memorable Irish Guineas triumph in May with connections opting then to sidestep Royal Ascot with the Classic winner due to what they felt was unsuitably quick going.

The prolonged dry period has been labelled as hugely frustrating by Craig, however, spirits were lifted when Dermot Weld’s star filly worked well after racing at the Curragh last weekend.

The forecast has also been kind to those in the Homeless Songs camp. Leopardstown was hit with 66mm of rain over the weekend, with the ground on Monday described as yielding, good-to-yielding to places.

There is further rain forecast for the week and, provided it arrives, Craig expects Homeless Songs, a warm order at 6-4 favouritism for the Matron, to make her eagerly anticipated return at Ireland’s flagship Flat meeting.

“She’d run her heart out on firm ground, she’d try like hell, but the question would be, what would we have left at the end? She’s too important to do that. We have been praying for rain all summer and it’s just been frustrating.”

Craig added, “She worked after racing at the Curragh last weekend. She worked seven furlongs and that went fine. Chris Hayes rode her and he was very happy. She had a bit of a blow but she hasn’t run since the Irish Guineas.

“Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) will be a hell of a tough filly to try and beat but Homeless Songs likes Leopardstown and has won twice around there before. If she’s in as good of form as she was in when she won the Irish Guineas, she will give everything a run.”

The Aidan O’Brien-trained Kyprios, the outstanding stayer in Europe this season, is expected to go off at prohibitively short odds in Sunday’s Irish St Leger.

Craig said, “It would be brilliant if he could win on Sunday but, don’t get me wrong, a filly is always going to be more important for us, which is why Homeless Songs is the one. But Eva [Maria Bucher-Haefner] couldn’t be at Ascot or at Goodwood so it would be nice if she could be there to see him win.”

Kyprios has gone from strength to strength this season, winning the Gold Cup at Ascot followed by the Goodwood Cup, cementing a relatively new relationship between Moyglare and Coolmore Stud, who are joint-owners of the 4-year-old stallion prospect.

Moyglare can also call on Jessica Harrington, Ger Lyons and Paddy Twomey on its training roster and, while Weld remains the number one, Craig revealed the new approach to be one that’s working well.

She explained, “We’re feeling our way with it. Dermot is still the main trainer but he seemed to have lots of other owners so it seemed to be a good idea to have horses elsewhere.

“The ones with Aidan are foal shares with Coolmore so Kyprios, Thoughts Of June (Ire) (Galileo) and Kiss You Later (Ire) (Galileo) are all owned 50-50. The other ones are out of newer mares and obviously it has got off to a great start.”

Not only will the stud celebrate 60 years of success this weekend, but Sunday marks the 40-year anniversary of the G1 Moyglare S., in which the operation will be represented by Harrington’s Eternal Silence (War Front).

Speaking on running plans for the rest of the team, Craig said, “It looks as though Eternal Silence will run, although we’ll know for sure on Tuesday. The plan had been for Trevaunance to run in France; she will now run in the G2 Blandford S. on Sunday. Just Beautiful will run in the Boomerang on Saturday.”

The World Champion sprinter’s G2 son Marshman is rated the best juvenile by a first-crop sire. A second-crop yearling makes €150k with more selling now.

Plus: read about more impressive winners in our online story.
Ado McGuinness does not expect the lack of a recent run to count against A Case Of You (Ire) (Hot Streak {Ire}) when the trainer’s stable star tackles the G1 Flying Five S. at the Curragh on Sunday.

A Case Of You has recorded two wins at the highest level since joining McGuinness’s stable but hasn’t been seen since posting a poor run in the Platinum Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot.

That effort can be put down to the fact that A Case Of You returned from the royal meeting with a virus, according to McGuinness, who is predicting a much better performance on Irish Champions Weekend.

McGuinness said, “The horse wasn’t right [after Ascot]. We did a few tests on him and he was recovering from a virus after it. He must have picked up something. Where, I don’t know, but we gave him a good break."

The trainer added, "He's fine now, he's in great form and looks a million dollars. The fact he hasn't run since Ascot doesn't concern me. If he was a three-mile chaser it might do but he's a five-furlong sprinter, he's got to run for 57 or 58 seconds, so it's not too bad."

Liz Truss was announced on Monday as Boris Johnson’s successor as leader of the Conservative Party and thus British prime minister, and the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) made a significant announcement of its own with the appointment of Greg Swift as director of communications and corporate affairs.

Swift will join the BHA directly from his role as head of news and press secretary to the Foreign Secretary, the position in the British government which was until Monday held by Truss.

Described as "a keen horseracing fan", Swift has held a number of other positions connected to the government and was previously head of communications for the Department of Exiting the European Union as well as being the prime minister's deputy spokesperson and head of news. During a career in newspapers, Swift was assistant editor at the Daily Express.

"British horseracing is one of the brightest jewels in the UK's sporting crown, providing unrivalled entertainment and some of the most memorable moments in sport," Swift said. "I am delighted to be joining the great team at the BHA to deliver on the ambitions shared by all those who are involved in the industry."

Welcoming Swift's imminent arrival at the end of October, the BHA's chief executive Julie Harrington, said, "We are delighted to be able to attract someone of Greg's calibre to this role. "Among Greg's responsibilities will be leading the sport's liaison with and lobbying of government and senior figures in the national media. The depth of his government contacts and political and media communications experience will be a great asset to the BHA and the sport."

Robin Mounsey is currently acting as interim director of the BHA's communications and corporate affairs department and from the end of October will become head of communications.

Harrington continued, "The restructure of the communications and corporate affairs department has the objective of enhancing the BHA's capacity in these areas, to allow us to be more proactive and build on the work of the experienced team that is already in place."

Around Midnight followed up a June 16 debut second tackling seven furlongs at La Teste de Buch with a breakthrough score upped to one mile at Clairefontaine last time and continued on the upgrade with a career high on black-type bow here. The 23-10 favourite was well away to chase the leading duo in third, but slipped to fourth at halfway. Still under wraps when turning for home in sixth, she tanked forward to go second approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to deny Sea The Lady by a neck nearing the line.

Around Midnight, an Oct. 2 G1 Prix Marcel Boussac entry, is the second of three foals and one of two winners out of a half-sister to G2 Prix de Malleret runner-up Fuse (Fr) (Teofilo {Ire}). She is a half to a yearling filly by Cloth Of Stars (Ire).

Descendants of the February-foaled bay’s third dam Sea Hill (Seattle Slew), herself a winning half-sister to G1 Prix Lupin-winning sire Groom Dancer (Blushing Groom {Fr}), also feature G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches-winning sire Falco (Pivotal {GB}) and dual Group-winning G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and G1 Prix de l’Opera third Legerete (Rahy).

Transferred from the Gosdens to Henri-Francois Devin following fifth placings in the Listed Abingdon S. at Newbury June 9 and Listed Chalice S. at Newmarket July 30, the regally-bred Elegant Verse was able to hit the ground running in France as she made her black-type breakthrough. Ridden with an assurance regarding her stamina for this test, the homebred was kept close to the leader throughout before being committed at the top of the straight. Joined by Bellaciaociao there, the bay daughter of the operation’s 1000 Guineas and Poule d’Essai des Pouliches winner kept finding against the stand’s rail to earn the vital landmark.

HARMATTAN (FR) (c, 2, Recoletos {Fr}--Hazita {GB}, by Singspiel {Ire}), a July 28 first-up fourth tackling seven furlongs at Le Lion d’Angers last time, was under restraint towards the rear of the pack for most of this return. Coming under pressure in early straight, the 47-10 third choice charted a passage to the far side for her bid passing the furlong marker and was ridden out in the closing stages to deny Trezy Bounty (Fr) (Al Wukair {Ire}) by a nose on the nod, becoming the third winner for his freshman sire (by Whipper). Harmattan is the eighth of nine foals and second scorer out of a half-sister to dual Group 1-placed G3 Blue Wind S. victrix Hazarista (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) and stakes-winning G3 Blue Wind S. runner-up Hazariya (Ire) (Xaar {GB}). The latter produced four black-type winners of her own, headed by G1 Derby and G1 Irish Derby-winning sire Harzand (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and G3 Silver Flash S.-winning G1 Moyglare Stud S. third Harasiya (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}). Descendants of the April-foaled bay’s second dam Hazaradjat (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) also include three-time Group 1 hero Hurricane Lane (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. victrix Seal Of Approval (GB) (Authorized {Ire}) and this term’s G3 Musidora S. winner and G1 Oaks runner-up Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, €10,800. Video, sponsored by TVG.

O-Jean de Cheffontaines, Gerault de Seze, Hugues Missonnier, Etienne de Blois de la Calande & Mme Sylvie Avril-Remy; B-Jean de Cheffontaines (FR); T-Edouard Monfort.
