SUMMER WIND TO RETAIN YEARLING HALF-BROTHER TO FLIGHTLINE

Flightline | Benoit

by Jessica Martini

Following Flightline (Tapit)'s jaw-dropping victory in the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar Saturday, breeder Jane Lyon of Summer Wind Farm has decided to withdraw the star colt's half-brother by Curlin from next week's Keeneland September Yearling Sale. The yearling, who is named Eagles Flight, had been catalogued as hip 243 with the Lane's End consignment.

"I had a feeling when Flightline did what he did [in the Pacific Classic] that it was going to be pretty hard for her to part with him," said Lane's End's Bill Farish, confirming the news first reported in Blood-Horse. "It's disappointing not to be able to sell him, but we totally understand the decision to keep him."

Farish continued, "[Lyon]'s been on the fence for a long time about selling him. She loves all of her horses, but every year there are a few that really grab her. And this one always has. It's tough because she loves to sell them well, too, but this is one that is just hard to part with."

Flightline is out of multiple Grade I placed Feathered (Indian Charlie), who was purchased by Summer Wind for $2.35 million at the 2016 Keeneland November sale. The mare produced a filly by Into Mischief this year and was bred back to Tapit.

BLUE-BLOODED CAPENSIS SWOOPS TO VICTORY IN VIRGINIA DERBY

by Christina Bossinakis

On paper, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Robert LaPenta, Winchell Thoroughbreds, Stonestreet Stables and Gainesway Stable's Capensis (Tapit), a $2-million Keeneland September yearling purchase and impressive debut winner at Belmont early this summer, was the most lightly-raced yet still appeared to be among the top contenders in Colonial's GIII New Kent County Virginia Derby Tuesday evening. Backed down to 8-5 favoritism while stepping up to graded company following a last-out sixth in a Saratoga allowance July 30, the flashy grey swept from off the pace late, and despite running greenly in the stretch, took home the lion's share of the $300,000 pot.

Feathered's 3-year-old colt by Pioneerof the Nile, Voron, was exported to Russia after selling for $100,000 at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton October sale, and her 2-year-old colt by Tapit, Olivier, RNA'd for $390,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. Olivier worked five furlongs in 1:02.20 (17/27) at Keeneland last Friday. Flightline, who races for a partnership which includes Summer Wind, as well as Hronis Racing, Siena Farm, West Point Thoroughbreds and Woodford Racing, sold for $1 million at the 2019 Saratoga sale.

Asked to compare the yearling to Flightline, Farish said, "They are both outstanding colts. This colt has a lot more Curlin in him. He is a stronger-made--not that Flightline's not--but Flightline is longer and this is more of a Curlin type. But he is really an outstanding-looking individual."

Capensis | Coady

Breaking evenly from post 10, the Todd Pletcher trainee was content to be settle back early as Vance Scholars (Holy Boss) went to the front with dual British Group 2 winner Royal Patronage (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), Catnip (Kitten's Joy) and GII Penn Mile victor Wow Whata Summer (Summer Front) all within three lengths of a moderate pace.

While Joel Rosario tried to contain the headstrong Royal Patronage through a :23.24 quarter, Irad Ortiz Jr. found a much easier time of it as his mount Capensis lingered in sixth as the pacesetter carved out a :47.62 half. With three furlongs left to run, the leading rank began to constrict as Capensis began to pick up the tempo, picking off rivals heading to the quarter pole. Cont. p4

September Yearling Sale

Book 1 Begins | Monday, Sept. 12 at 1 p.m.

KEENELAND

In the meantime, leaders Catnip and Royal Patronage battled for supremacy, and while the former gained a slight advantage straightening for home, the steely grey swept out wide turning for home and loomed large down the center of the track. Despite veering in sharply, and then reacting to a left-handed whip to drift outward in the stretch, Capensis proved he was clearly the best of the rest, crossing the wire two lengths over California Frolic (California Chrome) with Limited Liability (Kitten's Joy) getting up for third.

Fresh off another riding title at the recently concluded Saratoga meeting, Irad Ortiz Jr. came away with five wins on Colonial's Virginia Derby Day card.

Capensis was sent off at what now appears to be an overlay at 5-1 in his debut going 1 1/16-miles at Belmont July 2 and quickly showed his class, rolling home an emphatic five-length winner over next out winners Running Bee (English Channel) and Sosua Summer (Summer Front). Justly bet down to even-money favoritism in his latest start at the Spa, he faced some obstacles but still managed to finish a close-up sixth.

Pedigree Notes:

With his Virginia Derby victory, Capensis becomes the 155th black-type winner and 97th graded winner for Gainesway's leading sire Tapit. The bottom side of the colt's pedigree is no less impressive and is highlighted by 'TDN Rising Star' Tara's Tango (Unbridled's Song), a three-time graded winner including the GI Santa Margarita S. A half-sister to GISW Visionaire (Grand Slam), GSW & MGISP Scarlet Strike (Smart Strike) and GSW Madison's Luna (Tapit), the winner's dam has a juvenile colt by Curlin and a yearling by Quality Road. She was bred back to Curlin.

Campaigned by her breeder Stonestreet Stables, Tara's Tango hit paydirt quickly as a broodmare when her first foal, a colt by Medaglia d'Oro, brought $2.15 million at Keeneland September in 2019. The following season, Eaton Sales consigned Capensis, who topped the 2020 renewal of the Keeneland September sale.

COUNTDOWN IS ON FOR INAUGURAL HORSE RACING WOMEN'S SUMMIT

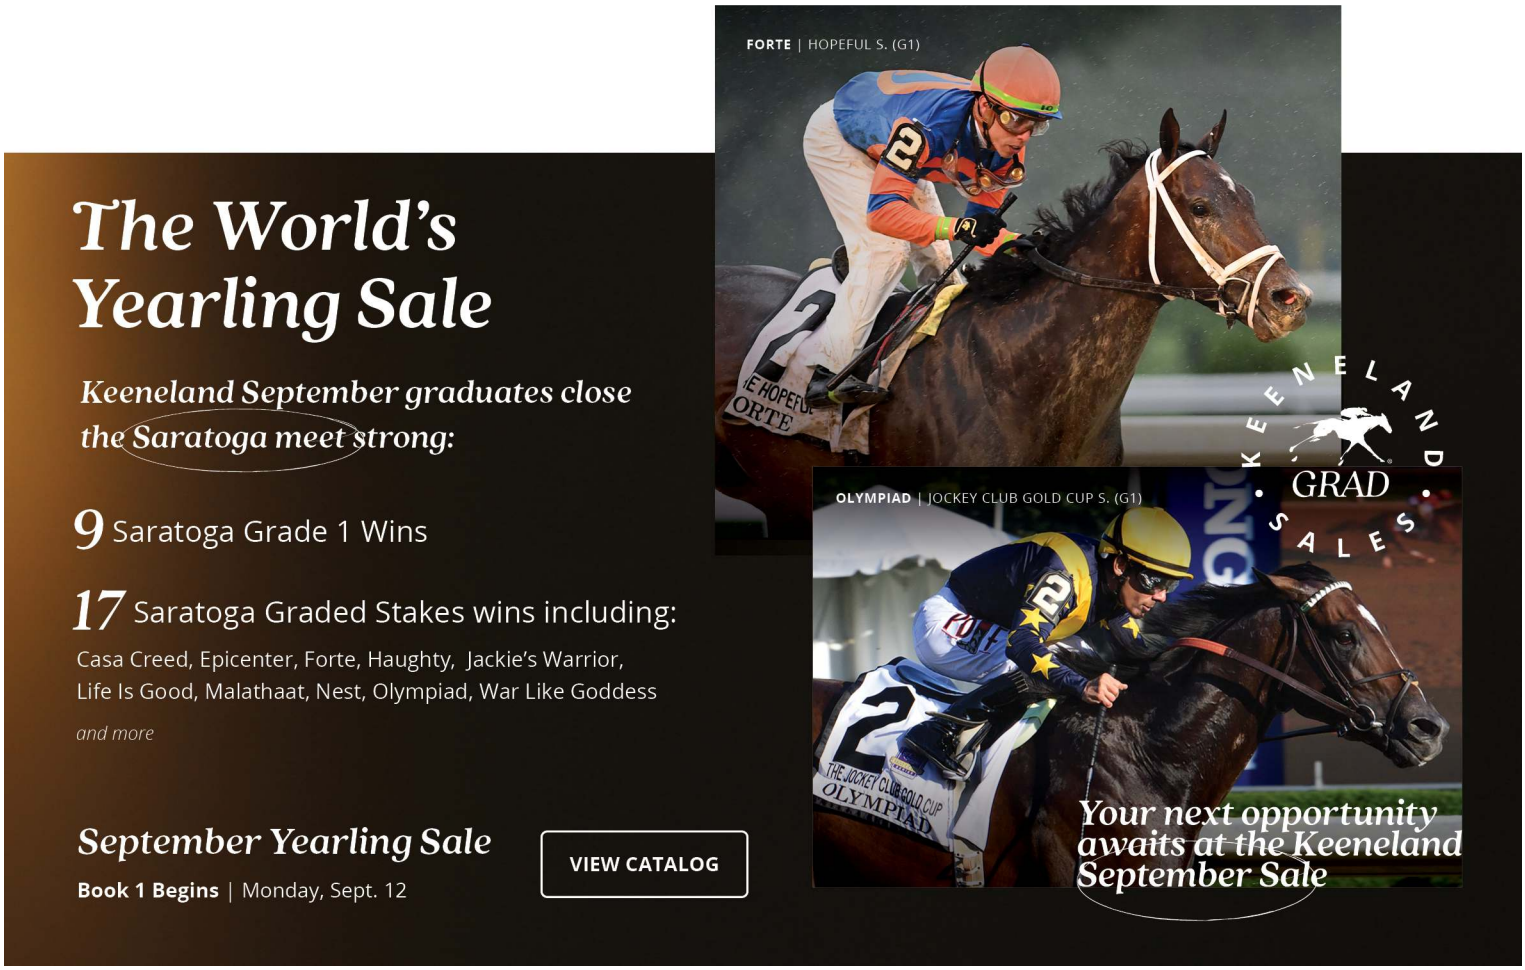
by Katie Petrunyak

The inaugural edition of the Horse Racing Women's Summit (HRWS) is just three weeks away and the planning committee behind the buzzed-about event is so enthusiastic about spreading the word that they say down with the TDN to share how the multi-day summit is gaining national attention and discuss why it is important that the event will be bringing in women from all facets of the industry. Click here to watch our full conversation and read on for a brief summary of the discussion.

"The Horse Racing Women's Summit is designed to empower, connect and remove barriers in leadership in racing," said Jodie Vella-Gregory, a member of the planning committee and the Director of the Office of Innovation at 1/ST Racing. Vella-Gregory added, "It's really for anyone who is interested in pushing the industry forward and is ready to discuss not only how to overcome challenges, but also how we can identify growth opportunities. We see it as a place for leaders, future leaders and any industry participants and we see it as a catalyst to start a conversation and bring people together." The summit will be held September 28-30 at Santa Anita Park.

Click here for our visit with the planning committee of the Horse Racing Women's Summit

Susan Packard, the first woman to join the Churchill Downs Inc. Board of Directors and a key player in the launch and develop-ment of CNBC, HGTV and HBO, will be the keynote speaker. Thursday's session will include three panels called Thriving Through Challenges, Looking Ahead-Opportunities for the Industry and Industry Integrity–A Brighter Future. Each panel will feature notable industry participants from various aspects of the sport and will end with a Q and A session.



The event will conclude on Friday, which is also opening day of Santa Anita's fall meet, with a handicapping seminar from TVG's Christina Blacker. HRWS attendees will have access to reserved box seats throughout the weekend of racing at Santa Anita, which will be highlighted by two Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' races. Committee Chair Stephanie Hronis of Hronis Racing was the visionary behind the event. She explained how the idea formed last summer after a Thoroughbred Owners of California women's luncheon at Del Mar was a smashing success.

"Seeing women come together with the opportunity to network there was such a good energy," Hronis said.

From there, Hronis formed a team and started putting out feelers on how a national summit would be received by the industry.

"It was kind of like tapping into a sleeping giant," Hronis explained. "The wave of interest was huge. What started out as a vision for bringing women together has really grown into this movement of a summit and bringing people both from within the industry and outside of the industry, which you will see with our panelists and our keynote speaker Susan Packard."

HRWS committee member Jordyn Egan, who is also the Executive Director for the Thoroughbred Owners of California, said that they received immediate interest from a vast array of women in the industry.

"The feedback was very diverse," she said. "It was everything from, 'I want to become an owner but I'm intimidated' to 'I've been working in this industry for 20 years and I don't know what to do next.' We had to really think about what we are going to do with this event that will help address, connect and empower all women in racing so that regardless of where you are, this is a great professional and personal development opportunity."

The HRWS planning team laid out the five core pillars that they hope will be accomplished through the event: to remove barriers, to empower, to build inclusivity and leadership, to mentor, and to develop and grow the sport. Committee member Kellie Hill, who is involved in the industry as the CEO of Stay Classy Horse Racing and who also works outside of the sport as the Sr. Vice President of MedWest Realty, talked about how the concept of removing barriers will benefit horse racing as a whole.

"What they have found with so many different studies, from Harvard Business Review to the London Business School, is that the more you have gender equality, the profits go up, the innovation goes up and the efficiency goes up," Hill explained. "So when we're saying that we want to remove barriers, it's so that we can get equal representation across the board in order to propel the whole industry up."

1/ST Racing and FanDuel TV will be the presenting sponsors for the event with over a dozen other organizations also backing the summit. Hill said the support they have received from the industry through sponsorship has been overwhelming.

"I can't tell you how shocked I have been by the level of sponsorship that has come in and embraced this event," she explained. "Most of our sponsors pretty much immediately said, 'Yes, no problem' and they have made a bigger leap than we anticipated. I think that put the wind in our sails when we first started this so that we knew that we were headed in the right direction and that this is absolutely needed."

Shona Rotondo, the Head of Marketing at MyRacehorse, serves as the unofficial East Coast representative of the HRWS committee. She said their team does not shy from the fact that they must receive support from organizations outside of California in order to properly represent women in racing from all across the country.

"This is not just a West Coast Thing," she said. "We understand that the travel and investment in getting people from the East Coast to the West Coast is a little tricky, but it's also an opportunity to challenge your company to invest in women."

"I would not take the location as an excuse not to go out there or not to push your company to give the opportunity," Rotondo continued. "I have said to a lot of businesses, including my own, to invest in your women, send leaders in your organization who are smart and capable and passionate, and let's all get together and come up with some really actionable ideas."

GIRVIN RELOCATES TO AIRDRIE

Fast-starting freshman sire Girvin (Tale of Ekati--Catch the Moon, by Malibu Moon) will relocate to Airdrie Stud for the 2023 breeding season. The 8-year-old stallion, who began his stud career at the O'Farrell family's Ocala Stud, is already the sire of 12 winners from 23 starters, including the GII Saratoga Special S. winner Damon's Mound and Astoria S. winner Devious Dame. Girvin, who raced in the silks of Brad Grady for trainer Joe Sharp, won the 2017 GI Betfair.com Haskell Invitational, as well as that year's GII Twinspires.com Louisiana Derby and GII Risen Star S. He retired to Ocala Stud following his 4-year-old season and stood as a partnership between Brad and Misty Grady's Grand Oaks Farm and Airdrie Stud in a deal brokered by West Bloodstock. Airdrie's Bret Jones said the opportunity to partner with the Grady and O'Farrell families was a major draw for the farm's investment in Girvin.

"We had great belief in Girvin's potential as a stallion, but just as importantly, we knew that every partner was going to be pulling in the same direction to give the him the greatest possible chance," said Jones.

"Ocala Stud have done a fantastic job both supporting and promoting the horse and the commitment that Brad has made has been extraordinary. He deserves every bit of good luck that comes his way. As for Girvin, he's been tipping his hand since his first foals hit the ground."

Jones continued, "He throws beautiful babies, had a monster juvenile sales season and I think his 2-year-olds have been as impressive on the track as any first-season stallion in America.

Girvin | Louise Reinagel

"He's giving every indication that he can be a big-time Kentucky stallion and we couldn't be more excited about him."

Grady, and bloodstock agent Bobby Dodd, purchased Girvin for $130,000 at the 2015 Fasig-Tipton October sale.

"When Bobby Dodd and I first bought Girvin he was a beautiful, strong colt, that looked fast," said Grady. "As a yearling, Mr. Beau Lane told Bobby and I that we had a serious horse and explained his depth of pedigree in a way that two rednecks could understand. Bobby was always high on Girvin and gave him the accolades of a freak. He had a minor setback as a 2-year-old that kept us from pinhooking him. We had the chance to race him, and he took us on the ride of a lifetime that we will never forget. It was a very easy decision to support him for both Misty and I, and when we got a glimpse of his first foals, we knew we did the right thing for him and us. He has more than blessed our family. We are grateful to Airdrie Stud and Ocala Stud for supporting Girvin, and giving him the best possible chance for success."

Girvin has arrived at Airdrie and is available for viewing.

PENSIONED SIRE BROKEN VOW DIES

Broken Vow (Unbridled--Wedding Vow, by Nijinsky II) passed away from natural causes Sept. 3 at his birthplace and longtime home, Pin Oak Stud. He was 25 years old.

The Pin Oak homebred won nine of 14 career starts, and won or placed in six graded stakes, earning $725,296. Trained by Graham Motion, Broken Vow won the GII Philip H. Iselin H. and GIII Ben Ali S. and placed in the GI Gulfstream Park H., GIII Fayette S., and the GII Meadowlands Cup H. before retiring to start his career at stud.

"He was an incredibly influential horse on my career and was probably my first 'big' horse," commented Motion.

"I'm so glad that I got to visit him in his field this past Spring. He was a happy horse enjoying his retirement. This truly is the end of an era."

The stallion, who stood two decades at Pin Oak, was among the top 15 active sires, with 15% black-type horses from starters. He is the sire of 159 black-type horses in total, 80 of those black-type winners and 27 graded scorers. He also is responsible for six champions. Included among his six Grade I winners: Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner and Eclipse Champion Champagne Room, the co-topweight female sprinter of her year Sassy Image, as well as Cotton Blossom, Unbridled Belle, and Rosalind. As a broodmare sire, his daughters have already produced three champions and approximately 100 black-type horses, including Eclipse Champion Runhappy.

"Words cannot express the loss of Broken Vow to everyone here at Pin Oak," said long time manager Clifford Barry. "We had been with him from birth to breaking, his races and his stud career."

Broken Vow | Sarah Andrew

Barry continued, "As we reflect on the many great memories he provided, how we cheered for him in the royal blue and gray silks of Pin Oak, and we cheered even louder for his offspring as if they were ours and for the loyal breeders that supported him. He was a very special horse to be around--smart, classy and a huge will to succeed. And if he could speak, he would have said thank you to the vets and grooms that cared for him throughout his life. It's testament to Ms. [Josephine] Abercrombie's program that he spent his whole life here at the farm. I know she's getting to feed him sugar again."

Broken Vow will be buried alongside other former Pin Oak stallions Sky Classic, Peaks and Valleys, and Maria's Mon.

NEW COURT FILINGS IN ZAYAT BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS by Dan Ross

The trustee overseeing owner, breeder Ahmed Zayat's personal bankruptcy proceedings made several court filings Tuesday to recover roughly $90,000 in allegedly fraudulent payments to various law firms.

According to the court filings, Zayat was insolvent at the time the transfers were made, and therefore, the law firms who are the defendants in the suits received more than they would have done through the Chapter 7 bankruptcy proceedings "had the Transfer[s] not been made."

Trustee Donald Biase alleges in his court filings that the largest transfer of money Zayat fraudulently made was $42,812.32 to Rabinowitz, Lubetkin and Tully.

Zayat also made separate $20,000 payments to law firms Landrum & Shouse and Lavely & Singer respectively, and another $7,500 to Becker & Poliakoff, the suits allege.

Biase suggests that the monies stipulated might not be the total amounts Zayat allegedly paid to each company, his attorney writing in all filings that Biase is seeking to recover both the stipulated transfers "and such other Transfers that may be unknown to the Trustee."

TDN reached out via email to each of the law firms listed as defendants in the filings but didn't hear back from any before deadline.

When reached by phone Tuesday, Zayat declined to comment. This latest round of legal crossfire constitutes just the latest twist in a long, complicated and often-times convoluted war of financial attrition, as creditors have sought to reclaim millions from Zayat and his now-disbanded Thoroughbred racing and breeding stable, one most famously attached to 2015 Triple Crown winner American Pharoah. In his own Chapter 7 filing in 2020, Zayat admitted to owing some $19 million to 132 non-secured creditors, the majority of whom consisted of Thoroughbred trainers, horse farms, bloodstock businesses, veterinarians, and equine transportation companies.

Towards the end of last month it appeared as though events had drawn to a close with the approval of two settlement plans in separate bankruptcy cases. Neither settlement delivered significant compensation to these 132 non-secured creditors though.

In Zayat's personal bankruptcy case, the trustee in June negotiated a $1.5 million settlement to be paid by the debtor's brother, Sherif Zayat, one which allows Zayat and his family to continue to live in an eight-bedroom, 7,714-square-foot home in Teaneck, New Jersey, that is currently assessed at $2.6 million.

In July, the court-appointed trustee in the involuntary bankruptcy case negotiated a settlement in which Zayat and his family members divvy up $5 million between MGG Investment Group and the trustee.

MGG is the lender that alleged in a 2020 lawsuit that Zayat and his family members fraudulently obtained $30 million in loans, then never repaid a large chunk of that debt.

Of that Zayat Stables settlement, only $30,000 was earmarked for the unsecured creditors who are legally much further down the payment ladder of priority.

In each of the court documents filed Tuesday, Biase seeks judgment against the defendants "for the avoidance and recovery" of the amounts allegedly transferred, for the defendants "to immediately pay to the Trustee the sums owed," the interest owed and costs of suit, and "for such further relief as the Court may allow."

FLIGHTLINE THE 4-5 CHOICE IN POOL 2 OF CLASSIC FUTURE WAGER

Flightline | Benoit

Undefeated Flightline (Tapit) closed as the 4-5 favorite following the completion of betting Monday in Pool #2 of the Longines Breeders' Cup Classic Future Wager. After a 19 1/4-length victory in Saturday's GI TVG Pacific Classic at Del Mar, Flightline led the listing of 23 horses and one "all others" wagering interest in the second Future Wager pool for the $6-million Longines GI Breeders' Cup Classic, which will be run at Keeneland Nov. 5.

Pool #2 of the Future Wager generated $437,147 in total handle, more than doubling the $205,349 wagered in Pool #1, in which Flightline closed as the 2-1 favorite. The Longines Breeders' Cup Classic Future Wager was a win bet only with a $2 minimum.

Flightline was followed in the Pool #2 Future Wager by Epicenter (7-1), winner of the GI Runhappy Travers S. at Saratoga. GI Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Olympiad closed as a slight 8-1 choice over GI Whitney S. winner Life Is Good (8-1). GI Santa Anita Derby winner Taiba (33-1) was the fifth choice. The "all others" wagering interest closed at 36-1.

Complete Longines Breeders' Cup Future Wager information is available at www.BreedersCup.com/FutureWager.

Spirit And Glory produced a strong late kick for the invading Irad Ortiz, Jr. to capture the Woodford Reserve Virginia Oaks Tuesday at Colonial.

Graduating third out over the Dundalk all-weather in Ireland, the bay was second against males in an allowance there Jan. 28 in her final start for trainer Michael Mulvany and scored a 24-1 upset first time U.S. off the layoff June 16 at Belmont. Last seen running seventh in Saratoga's GIII Lake George S. July 22, she was made the sixth choice in this 14-horse field and broke a step slowly. Settling third last, well off of honest fractions of :23 flat and :47.68, Spirit And Glory began a wide advance entering the far turn, spun six deep at the head of the lane and swept past longshot Sparkle Blue around the sixteenth pole before kicking clear for the win. The victress has a 2-year-old half-sister by Kuroshio (Aus). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Gigante shook off a pace duel and drew away in the stretch in Tuesday's Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance Kitten's Joy S. at Colonial to become the newest stakes winner for his star sire.

Finishing a distant fifth debuting in a local state-bred turf sprint July 18, the bay graduated next out switching to a dirt route against open company here Aug. 10.

Showing the way from his rail draw through a :23.57 quarter, Gigante was challenged by a longshot past a half in :47.94 before re-establishing command on the latter half of the far turn. Overwhelming favorite Rarified Flair seemed poised to pounce straightening for home, but Gigante had plenty left and never let that rival get close to him, bursting clear for an easy victory in the end.

The winner has a yearling half-sister by Audible and his dam produced a colt by Gun Runner this season before visiting Hard Spun. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

IT PAYS TO BREED MARYLAND-BREDS

Margins: 4HF, 1, 1. Odds: 35.00, 6.20, 34.80.
Also Ran: Grand Oak (Ire), Evenly Divided, Opposites Attract, Call Me Ice Man, Bal a Kazoo.

Determined Jester, a $575,000 Keeneland September yearling buy entered Tuesday's Exacta Systems Rosie's S. a maiden and exited it a stakes winner with a 35-1 romp.

Showing good speed debuting in a Saratoga off-the-turfer July 21, the chestnut opened a clear mid-stretch lead before fading to finish third behind troubled GI Spinaway S. fourth American Rockette (American Pharoah), and again had early foot but faded, this time to fourth, as an 8-5 favorite over course and distance Aug. 16. Dismissed by bettors in this spot, Determined Jester chased loose leader and second choice Call Me Ice Man (Frosted) through sharp splits of :21.63 and :44.49. Overhauling that foe into the final furlong, she sped well clear from there to score as much the best. Fit to Fly completed the exacta. The winner's dam produced a filly by Caravaggio this season before returning to Practical Joke. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

5th-Colonial Downs, $65,000, Msw, 9-6, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.04, ft, 1 3/4 lengths.

DREAMING OF SNOW (f, 2, Jess's Dream--Snow Fashion, by Old Fashioned) showed a swift Monmouth worktab for this unveiling, highlighted by a half-mile gate move in :47 3/5 (9/119) Aug. 13, and was backed all the way down to 21-5 from a 20-1 morning-line quote. Traveling in fourth while trying to get out a bit early on the turn behind a :21.93 quarter, the $60,000 OBS March buy appeared to be spinning her wheels turning for home and greenly drifted in on her left lead in early stretch, but got her act together in the final furlong and overtook pacesetting favorite Inventing Anna (Good Magic) at the sixteenth pole en route to a 1 3/4-length graduation. Flyin Bessie (Practical Joke) ran on late to tag Inventing Anna for second. The winner, a half to Montauk Daddy (Daddy Long Legs), SP, $396,594, has a yearling half-brother by The Big Beast named Snowname and a Valiant Minister half-brother of this season named Keep On Snowing. MOORE PUTS FAITH IN LUXEMBOURG AHEAD OF ICW

Ryan Moore| Coady Photgraphy

By Brian Sheerin

Ryan Moore has admitted that G1 French Derby and G1 Coral-Eclipse winner Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}) sets the standard in the Royal Bahrain Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown on Saturday but warned that Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) should not be underestimated in the feature race of Longines Irish Champions Weekend.

The Aidan O'Brien-trained Luxembourg got his season off to a promising start when third in the G1 2000 Guineas, but suffered a setback in the build-up to the Derby. He won in workmanlike fashion on his return from a 105-day absence in a Curragh Group 3 last month, but Moore is predicting a world of improvement from that effort on Saturday at Leopardstown.

Speaking on a Zoom call organised by Horse Racing Ireland on Tuesday morning, Moore said, "It obviously hasn't been a straightforward year for him. He had a lovely 2-year-old career and ran a big race in the 2000 Guineas. Unfortunately, he wasn't right after that race."

Moore has won the G1 Irish Champion S. three times--St Mark's Basilica (Fr) last year, Magical (Ire) in 2019 and The Grey Gatsby (Ire) in 2014--while Aidan O'Brien is the most successful trainer in the history of the race with 10 wins. The number one rider at Ballydoyle believes Luxembourg has what it takes to bolster that record on Saturday. Cont. p3

SOMERVILLE SOARS AS ZOUSTAR FILLY LEADS THE CHARGE By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK––There are plenty of troubling stories out in the big wide world at the moment, but buyers at the yearling sales so far this season appear not to be concerned or affected by a cost-of-living-crisis, with the Tattersalls Somerville Sale the latest to benefit from a boom in demand for young stock.

The Somerville is only in its second year but it has already been pegged as an important fixture in the run of yearling sales and the 2022 renewal posted huge gains in all sectors. Four six-figure lots compared to just one last year, and an increase from 17 yearlings making 50,000gns or more this time last year to 39, meant that the median rose by 60% to 26,000gns, and the average by 42% to 30,377gns. The clearance rate also improved on a string start last year and settled at 88%, while at 7,746,200gns, the turnover was up by 56%. Cont. p4

Tenebrism | Scoop Dyga

He said, "Luxembourg needed his run at the Curragh last month and he got the job done. We are hopeful that he'll come forward from that and a-mile-and-a-quarter around Leopardstown with a bit of rain around, I don't think that will be a problem.

"He obviously needs to improve on what he has done this year but I think we'll see a better version of Luxembourg on Saturday.

"It was his first run for a while and he still felt a bit raw [at the Curragh]. He picked up very well, he was a bit idle in front but, when the second horse came to me, he found plenty. It was a good starting point."

Vadeni heads the market for Saturday's showpiece at odds of 6-4. Trained by Jean Claude-Rouget, who snared the Irish Champion S. with Almanzor (Fr) in 2016, Vadeni has gone from strength to strength this season, building on his French Derby win with a victory against the older horses in the Coral-Eclipse at Sandown back in July. Moore admits that form is just about the best on show and respects the French raider.

He said, "He's obviously improved a lot since he stepped into the French Derby and then beat the older horses in the Eclipse. He's probably entitled to be favourite but maybe Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) was a bit unfortunate at Sandown. But Vadeni is still open to improvement and obviously Jean-Claude Rouget targets this race."

Moore and O'Brien also have leading claims of landing the G1 Coolmore America 'Justify' Matron S. at Leopardstown on Saturday with Tenebrism (Caravaggio). A Group 1 winner at two and three, Tenebrism is set to take on G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and multiple Group 1 winner Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}).

The rider said, "Tenebrism is still a 3-year-old filly, still getting better so I'm sure she'll run a good race. A mile around a bend might suit her better, that's what we'd be hoping. She was still a little bit green when she went to Ascot but the last day (when second to Saffron Beach at Deauville) didn't quite go as smoothly as I would have liked."

Sunday revolves around G1 Gold Cup winner Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Irish St Leger while Moore can also look forward to Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and the unbeaten Aesop's Fables (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S.

He said, "Aesop's Fables is one I've always liked. He started off early at Navan, he won comfortably but unfortunately he had a minor setback and we couldn't get a run into him before the Futurity.

"I think the whole weekend is great racing, it's in a really nice place in the calendar. I'm lucky to be a part of it, hopefully it will get stronger." Cont. p4

"I THINK THE WHOLE WEEKEND IS GREAT RACING, IT'S IN A REALLY NICE PLACE IN THE CALENDAR. I'M LUCKY TO BE A PART OF IT, HOPEFULLY IT WILL GET STRONGER."

–Ryan Moore on Longines Irish Champions Weekend

Moore added, "I'm very lucky to ride for Aidan. Aidan says it himself, it's the whole team at Coolmore and Ballydoyle that make the whole thing possible. It's the hard work of everyone involved in the operation that makes the success possible.

"They have great owners who put a lot of time, money and effort into it and it's a privilege to ride for them for quite a few years now. I'm very thankful for the opportunity they've given me."

A cloud hangs over the Irish racing community following the death of Jack de Bromhead, the 13-year-old son of Henry and Heather de Bromhead, who was killed in a freak fall at Glenbeigh horse and pony races on Saturday.

Moore acknowledged that the de Bromhead family will be in everyone's thoughts on Irish Champions Weekend and offered his condolences to all concerned.

He said, "It's the most terrible news. I am struggling to get my head around it to be honest. There are no good words to describe what Henry, Heather and Jack's siblings must be going through. I can only just send them my best. It doesn't get any worse than what they must be going through."

The only trouble this newcomer to the auction calendar could face is balancing the desire by a number of participants for it to remain in its one-day format with what is likely to be a rise in demand for places. This time around 290 horses were offered from an original catalogue of 313, and from a 10 a.m. start, trading continued for 11 hours until the final yearling left the ring just after 9 p.m. Cont. p5

It was a long day for most people involved in the sale, but the 'one and done' aspect of the Somerville remains of appeal in an increasingly condensed calendar. This week alone there are sales taking place in Newmarket, Doncaster, Deauville and at Yorton Farm in Wales within the space of four days.

The top lot, a filly by Zoustar from Plantation Stud
Laura Green/Tattersalls

Select Plantation Draft Makes a Splash

For Plantation Stud it was in a sense a case of 'if at first you don't succeed'. Last December at the foal sale, the stud took home a Zoustar (Aus) filly and Shalaa (Ire) colt, knocked down to vendor for 18,000gns and 20,000gns, respectively. Returned to the ring as yearlings on Tuesday, it was a markedly different story, however, as the Newmarket farm accounted for two of the four six-figure yearlings on the day.

Leading all-comers was the daughter of Zoustar (lot 213), the recipient of a boost from her half-brother Unanimous Consent (GB) (Almanzor {Fr}), who has won and been fourth in a Grade II in America this season, and was set to run on Tuesday night in the GIII Virginia Derby at Colonial Downs. But she had also grown into an imposing individual in the intervening nine months, persuading Richard Hughes to stretch to 160,000gns to secure her for his burgeoning team of yearling purchases this year.

Hughes, a former multiple champion jockey himself, calls on another champion of the jumps division, the legendary AP McCoy, to break in his yearlings. "They don't mess with him," he said with a laugh.

"She'll take a bit of time but we'll see how her brother gets on tonight. If he wins tonight then she's half-price. I'd say he's a 115 [rated] horse."

James Berney, manager of Plantation Stud

The filly has Australian sires on both sides of her pedigree as her twice-raced dam Fast Lily (Ire) is by Fastnet Rock (Aus) and is a half-sister to two classy fillies in the G2 Lowther S. winner Silk Blossom (Ire) and G3 Prix de la Porte de Maillot victrix Mashoora (Ire), both by Barathea (Ire).

James Berney, who manages Plantation Stud for Michael O'Leary, said of the sale's top lot, "We are over the moon, she deserves to make that type of money and she has improved greatly through the year. Her brother's form has helped as well.

"We are delighted she is going to Richard Hughes and it's great for the mare. She has a Showcasing (GB) foal at and she is in foal to Pinatubo (Ire)."

He added, "There has been a bit of motion with this sale and we thought we'd bring along horses who might stand out a bit."

Just an hour earlier, Plantation Stud's Shalaa colt (lot 188) had gone through the ring, fetching a final bid of 120,000gns from Oliver St Lawrence.

"He is for Fawzi [Nass] and team and will probably end up in the red and white colours of Victorious Racing," said the agent while sitting next to Archie Watson, who trains the G2 Coventry S. winner and last year's Somerville Sale graduate Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) for the same connections.

St Lawrence added, "The mare is two from two [winners] and they are both rated up in the 90s. I think he will be going to Archie."

Watson also issued an update on Bradsell, who is recuperating from an injury sustained in the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. and will be aimed next spring at a Commonwealth Cup trial.

The Shalaa colt's winning dam Dream Dana (Ire) (Dream Ahead) has produced the multiple winners Operatic (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) and Dynamic Force (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and is a daughter of the dual Group 3 winner Lidanna (GB) (Nicholas). The immediate family includes the Group 1-winning sprinter Wizz Kid (Ire) (Whipper), a son of Dream Dana's half-sister Lidanski (Ire) (Soviet Star).

Aughamore Strike With Mehmas Colt

Nobody in the bloodstock world really needed a reminder that Mehmas (Ire) is one of the most promising young sires to have burst onto the scene in recent years, but it never hurts for a stallion to have a Group 1 winner just prior to a sale. Minzaal (Ire) gave his Tally-Ho Stud-based sire, or more accurately those consignors with one of his yearlings to sell, a timely boost with his G1 Sprint Cup victory at Haydock, and it was a win that underlined that there is more to just speed and precocity when it comes to Mehmas. The speed is there for sure, and we saw just how precocious his stock can be when members of his first crop helped Mehmas set a new European record when becoming champion freshman sire. But far more importantly, his stock appear to thrive on their racing, as exemplified by the 4-year-old Minzaal, who also happens to be a former Gimcrack winner.

Laurence Gleeson of Aughamore Stud was one of those beneficiaries, selling a homebred colt (lot 163) to Ross Doyle and Robson Aguiar for 135,000gns. Out of the winning Exceed And Excel (Aus) mare Classic Image (GB), who was bought by Gleeson as a 3-year-old for 6,500gns, the colt will be trained by Richard Hannon, who also trained Mehmas.

"Mehmas needs no introduction, and the farm has done a great job prepping him, he looks fantastic," said Doyle. "He is a good mover, and Mehmas has already been a very good friend to a lot of people." Cont. p7

Gleeson added, "We sent the mare to Mehmas just as he was just about to have his first 2-year-olds, and we heard there were some good breezers. We took a punt and it has worked out.

"This colt has been a star here everyone was saying that he was a stand-out. You don't want to get your hopes up but it has all worked out in the end."

Hannon will also take charge of another Ross Doyle purchase (lot 126), a filly by Kodiac (GB), bought for 70,000gns and whose ownership group will include one of the owners of Australian superstar Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}). Adrian Whittingham and his son Darcy of the New South Wales-based Honeycomb Stud already have horses in training in the UK, including the twice-placed juvenile Tellus (GB) with John Quinn, who previously trained Deny Knowledge (Ire) for the same partnership before the daughter of Pride Of Dubai (Aus) was transferred to Michael Kent in Australia. The Whittinghams' trip to Europe to watch Verry Elleegant run at Longchamp on Sunday also provided time for a Tattersalls shopping trip.

Doyle said, "She has been bought to go to Richard Hannon for partnership of Honeycomb Stud in Australia and one of our clients will take half. They are happy to race here, but if they think the horses might be more effective Down Under they will ship. A broodmare pedigree is a big bonus down the line."

The Kodiac filly, who was consigned by her breeder Tally-Ho Stud, is a granddaughter of the G1 Irish Oaks winner Winona (Ire) (Alzao) and from the further family of the multiple Grade I winner Stella Madrid (Alydar).

Teme Valley Hoping For Another Star

A striking chestnut son of Starspangledbanner (Aus) turned plenty of heads, but it was Richard Ryan who has the most staying power in the bidding battle to secure the Ballyhimikin Stud-consigned colt (lot 147) who had been bought as a foal for €62,000. That sum was more than doubled by the time the hammer fell at 130,000gns, and Ryan had plenty of extra encouragement in ensuring that he was bought for Teme Valley Racing, who, until the end of last season had campaigned Starspangledbanner's outstanding son State Of Rest (Ire).

"He was a slightly unexpected type of horse to find this horse in this sale, a different ball game than the rest of the field, I thought," said the agent. "He's a good strong Starspangledbanner colt with a good backside on him. He is from a real speed family and will make a lovely 2-year-old. He is a proper horse, and would be in any sale."

A son of the Bahamian Bounty (GB) mare Black Rodded (GB) and a half-brother to three multiple winners, the colt is a great grandson of the fast dual listed winner Palace Street, who later found fame as the dam of G1 July Cup winner Sakhee's Secret (GB). The family has been boosted recently by the G3 Coral Charge win of Raasel (GB), who is out of a half-sister to Black Rodded.

Vendor James Hanly of Ballyhimikin Stud said, "It is a great venue and everyone is here. It is a very good format as a one-day sale--people can get in and have plenty of time to see them over the weekend."

He added, "It's a strong market and I'm very pleased with that price. The sire has had such a good year, there has been a big uplift in the stallion. Let's hope this colt goes on and wins lots of good races; it is a good way to start the yearling sale season."

Hanly's positive start to the season continued its good run later in the session when he sold a Zoffany (Ire) filly for breeder Sven Hanson for 75,000gns to Grant Pritchard-Gordon of Badgers Bloodstock. Cont. p8

Lot 268 hails from the family of Group 1 winner and late dual-purpose sire Poliglote (GB) and is out of the Reliable Man (GB) mare Kiss Me Daily (Fr), who is a half-sister to Australian Group 1 winner I'm Your Man (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and to the dam of five-time group-winning stayer Called To The Bar (Ire) (Henrythenavigator).

Tim & Tom Palin | Tattersalls

Following in the Footsteps of Malakahna

Footstepsinthesand (GB) may now be a veteran of the stallion ranks but he can still come up with a sales horse and lot 189, Knockatrina House's half-brother to listed winner and Group 3-placed Alakhana (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), was a case in point. One of four yearlings by the Coolmore sire in the sale, he sold for 90,000gns to Ben Brookhouse, who said, "He's a good walker with good scope. He's not too big and not too small and has a lovely attitude.

Brookhouse, who works with successful dual-purpose trainer Ian Williams, is already familiar with the family through Alakhana's daughter Malakhana (Fr), who won a Grade 3 fillies' hurdle for the Williams stable at Cheltenham in April.

"She's a hardy mare. If he's half as good as her he'll be alright," Brookhouse added.

Bred by Canice Farrell, the dark bay colt is a son of the listed-placed Dubai (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was also a winner at two in Germany.

Middleham Park Return to Winning Formula

Middleham Park Racing teamed up with agent Ed Sackville to return to a successful formula. For the syndicate, the combination of the Somerville Sale plus Havana Grey has provided them with one of their stars of the season in Eddie's Boy (GB), the Weatherbys Super Sprint winner who has also twice been listed-placed and was a 45,000gns purchase from the inaugural sale.

One of their key selections of the day and the sale's early leader was Hillwood Stud's distinctive grey-spotted Havana Grey filly (lot 67), who brought the gavel down at 85,000gns.

"Obviously Havana Grey from this sale has been a recipe for us before so we have tried to repeat it," said Middleham Park's Tom Palin of Middleham Park. "Obviously Havana Grey is a more established sire now than this time last year so we have had to pay more but this filly is from a family we have followed and we have bid on a couple [of her relatives] before.

"She is a good solid, nice-moving filly and the nicest Havana Grey we have seen here. She is a strong horse, too and we saw her on our own and then Ed put her to us. The stars were aligning, as such."

Palin added that the filly would be trained by Hugo Palmer, who moved from Newmarket to Michael Owen's Manor Farm Stables in Cheshire at the beginning of the season.

"You could see her whipping around Chester in the Lily Agnes," Palin said. "The Havana Greys are sound horses who keep running for you. We are really taken by them, we got a bit lucky that we stumbled on him at the right time and we threw plenty of Havana Grey darts at the board and come up with 180. They are good, honest horses and delighted to get another one."

Lot 67, a filly by Havana Grey | Tattersalls/Laura Green

A half-sister to the 82-rated multiple winner and Group 3-placed Show Me Show Me (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), the filly was bred by Whitsbury Manor Stud, where her sire stands. She is a daughter of the six-time winner Springing Baroness (GB) (Bertolini) who is herself a half-sister to Showcasing's G2 Mill Reef S. winner Toocoolforschool (GB).

Major Result For Minor

The first foal of the winning George Vancouver mare Cirrus Minor (Fr) brought a smile to the face of breeder Zorka Wentworth when the filly by Bated Breath (GB) sold as lot 162 from the Norris Bloodstock draft to Oliver St Lawrence for 75,000gns. Cont. p9

A half-sister to the G1 Doomben Cup winner Pornichet (Fr) (Vespone {Ire}), Cirrus Minor is a permanent boarder at Jenny Norris's Redenham Park Stud and is now back in foal to Bated Breath.

"I'm chuffed to bits," said Wentworth. "Jenny has done a great job and she seemed to be very popular. I put a good reserve on her because I was quite happy to keep her myself. Now I just need her to win because the mare has a gorgeous Time Test (GB) colt foal."

Dunlop's Change of Direction

This time last year Harry Dunlop and Anthony Bromley of Highflyer Bloodstock went to a 12,000gns for a colt from the first crop of Tasleet (GB). Later resold at the Goffs UK Breeze-up for £47,000, that colt went on to win the G2 Coventry S. under the name of Bradsell (GB).

Dunlop was back at the Somerville Sale on Tuesday and bought a filly by Outstrip (GB) (lot 140) in partnership with his brother Ed for 20,000gns, and it is in this role we are more likely to see him in the future after he announced that he would be handing in his training licence at the end of the season.

A filly by Outstrip, lot 140, made 20,000gns. The sire's Tigrais (Fr) won Sunday's G3 Prix La Rochette | Tattersalls/Laura Green

"Thankfully I am stopping training on my own terms and my financial situation is in a good place and is all sorted out," he said. "But I am very much keen still to be involved in the industry because I think it would be foolish to step away from it. I love the sales and I love racing and what I would love to do is manage some horses for a big client as well as doing some work at the sales."

He continued, "I bought a filly with my brother today, which is something I have never done before. I really liked her and hopefully she will do well for Ed. Her sister Ardad's Great is entered in the G1 Cheveley Park S. and is trained by Jessie Harrington, so we are hoping that she could have a nice update."

Dunlop, who trained French Group 1 winner Robin Of Navan (Fr), as well as Group 2 and Listed Derby Trial winner Knight To Behold (Ire) for American owner Neil Jones, is keen to expand on the international experience of his own training career as well as that gleaned through growing up in Arundel, where his father John trained successfully for decades.

"Dad was a big pioneer on the international circuit and I think was the first English trainer to have a runner in New Zealand and in the Japan Cup, and while I have been training I've had a lot of success in France," he said.

"The international aspect of the business really interests me and over the last few years we have seen increased investment from overseas, especially from owners in Qatar, Saudi Arabia and Bahrain."

He added, "I've also been helping Tom Ward at the sales, doing some spotting for him. It's fun working with another trainer and offering an opinion, and Tom is a guy going places. He had his first listed winner this season and lives close to my home in Lambourn."

From the Somerville to October…

Reflecting on the Somerville Sale, which provided an extremely lively warm-up for Tattersalls' major yearling sale which gets underway in four weeks' time, chairman Edmond Mahony said, "Last year's inaugural Tattersalls Somerville Yearling Sale proved to be an immediate success and today's second renewal has made further significant progress with wide margin gains in all the key indicators of average, median and turnover, as well as a new record top price for a Somerville yearling of 160,000 guineas.

"It was very apparent as we were inspecting yearlings in the spring that there was genuine enthusiasm for our newest yearling sale from both British and Irish consignors and they have supported the fixture with exactly the profile of sharp, precocious, commercial yearlings which we were looking for. To see the average and median prices both rise by more than 40% and the sale turnover increase from under five million guineas to well in excess of seven million guineas demonstrates a sale of real vibrance from start to finish. Equally impressive has been a clearance rate nudging 90% and the number of yearlings selling for 50,000gns or more which has risen from 17 to 39 while six-figure transactions have increased from one to four."

He added, "The sheer number of buyers here at Park Paddocks over the past few days is also a reflection of the racecourse success enjoyed by so many graduates of last year's sale, most notably the G2 Coventry S. winner Bradsell, and we look forward to similarly impressive results next year as well as to sustaining the momentum of today's sale into Books 1 to 4 of the forthcoming Tattersalls October Yearling Sale."

CAMELOT COLT POWERS TO RISING STARDOM AT GALWAY by Sean Cronin

Coolmore and Westerberg's 2-year-old colt Alexandroupolis (Ire) (Camelot {GB}--Jazz Cat {Ire}, by Tamayuz {GB}), who is a 240,000gns Tattersalls October Book 2 graduate loaded with Group 1 entries, was let go at odds of 17-2 for Tuesday's Irish Stallion Farms EBF Maiden over an extended mile at Galway and displayed a rare turn of foot in the closing stages to outclass overmatched opposition for a 'TDN Rising Star' badge. The eventual winner settled in a midfield seventh through the early fractions of this debut. Cont. p10

Taking closer order rounding the home turn, he quickened in impressive fashion to launch his challenge between rivals passing the furlong marker and opened up stylishly in the closing stages to easily deny stablemate Espionage (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by 1 3/4 lengths.

"He's a nice colt, he's been showing a bit at home and Wayne [Lordan] gave him a lovely ride," commented Ballydoyle's Chris Armstrong. "It can be tricky here first time out, but Wayne was patient on him. He found the gaps at the end and hit the line well. He should have no problem stepping up to stakes company at the back end of this year and hopefully will be a nice middle-distance horse for next year. He has a very good staying pedigree and Galway is a lovely place to start them at this time of year."

Alexandroupolis--whose catalogue of entries include the G1 Dewhurst S., G1 Futurity Trophy and next year's G1 Derby--is the third of five foals and second scorer produced by a full-sister to G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis victrix and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest runner-up Thawaany (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}). His dam Jazz Cat (Ire), herself a daughter of G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Chelsea Rose (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}), is also a half-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Paris and G1 St Leger hero Kew Gardens (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), G3 Munster Oaks victrix Snow (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), G1 Grand Prix de Paris second and G1 Irish Derby third Wordsworth (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Listed International Trial S. runner-up Hamlool (Ire) (Red Ransom). The February-foaled bay is full to a yearling filly, who is slated to sell as Lot 553 at next month's Tattersalls October Book 2 sale, and half to a weanling colt by Churchill (Ire).

ADVERTISE AND ACLAIM LEAVE NATIONAL STUD FOR MANTON

Young stallions Advertise (GB) and Aclaim (Ire) will leave the National Stud to stand at Martyn Meade's Manton Park Stud from the 2023 covering season.

The G1 Prix de la Foret winner Aclaim has made a successful start to his stud career, and was represented by a Classic winner from his first crop when the George Boughey-trained Cachet (Ire) won the G1 1000 Guineas.

Advertise, who was trained, like Aclaim, by Meade, was a Group 1-winning sprinter in three different countries and has his first yearlings at the sales this autumn.

"We would like to thank the team at The National Stud for their energy and commitment to Advertise and Aclaim since the start of their stallion careers," said Meade. "It has been an ambition for these two horses to return to Manton ever since they were trained here and we are now in a position to welcome them home to continue their time at stud."

National Stud CEO Anna Kerr added, "The National Stud is delighted to have launched the careers of two such exciting young stallions, it has been very rewarding for the whole team to see what a strong start both Aclaim and Advertise have made to their stud careers. They both have bright futures ahead of them and we wish them every success at Manton Park."

ARC TO SUPPORT NATIONAL HORSERACING MUSEUM

The Arena Racing Company (ARC) and The National Horseracing Museum (NHRM) have partnered to support the Newmarket-based charity. The multi-year deal was announced just before the start of National Racehorse Week on Sept. 10. ARC will specifically support the work undertaken within the Rothschild Yard at Palace House, historic home of NHRM. Working with Retraining of Racehorses ("ROR"), NHRM utilise the facilities at the Rothschild Yard to educate the public on the work that goes into retraining Thoroughbred athletes after their racing careers are over. In addition, NHRM holds daily displays and talks for visitors.

David Thorpe, Chairman of ARC, said, "We are absolutely delighted to announce this partnership and our support of the fantastic work done by the team at NHRM. The Rothschild Yard is a tremendous facility that does an incredibly important job for British Racing in helping to showcase the aftercare that horses receive and really promoting it to the public."

Anne-Marie Hogan, Director of NHRM, added, "Our thanks to ARC for this new partnership, which will allow us to continue to promote how well British racing looks after horses after their racing careers have finished."

MUNCH (GB) (f, 2, New Bay {GB}--Madernia {Ire} {SP-Fr}, by Duke of Marmalade {Ire}), runner-up over seven furlongs at Kempton last time Aug. 8, was held up towards the rear but in touch throughout the early stages of this British EBF £100,000 2yo Fillies Series Final. Tackling Sirona (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) approaching the furlong pole, the 11-2 shot readily asserted to score by two lengths. The winner is the first runner for the listed-placed dam, whose filly by Zoustar (Aus) sells at the upcoming Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2. Also responsible for a filly foal by Mohaather (GB), she is a half to Salouen (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}) who was placed in two renewals of the G1 Coronation Cup, the G1 Racing Post Trophy, G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. MAGHLAAK (GB) (c, 3, Muhaarar {GB}--Ghanaati {MG1SW-Eng, $720,406}, by Giant's Causeway), the eighth foal out of the operation's 1000 Guineas and G1 Coronation S. heroine, was saddled with a seven-pound penalty as a result of his success over a mile at Kempton Aug. 16 and quickly established himself on the front end. Tackled on both sides inside the final two furlongs, the 2-1 joint-favourite kept finding to prevail by a neck from Jean Danjou (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). The dam, who was barren to Kingman (GB) the year after producing this colt, has proved a broodmare of note for Shadwell by throwing the talented G2 Summer Mile and G2 Sandown Mile-placed Mutasaabeq (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), MGSP-Eng, $128,077; the G3 Mahab Al Shimaal scorer Wafy (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), GSW-UAE, $246,592; and by the Royal Hunt Cup hero Afaak (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). She is Shadwell royalty, being a granddaughter of the great blue hen Height Of Fashion (Fr) (Bustino {GB}) and a half to the G3 Cumberland Lodge S.-winning sire Mawatheeq (Danzig) and the Oaks third and stakes producer Rumoush (Rahy). Earning the lead a furlong out, the 13-8 favourite stayed on to secure a half-length success from Lumiere Rock (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}). "She might have been a trifle unlucky here in July when the problem was she was drawn so wide. She learned from that and the ground is probably as slow as she likes," trainer Dermot Weld said. "She knew her job, did it well and we'll look for black-type now. She's a lovely filly and will appreciate better ground." The winner is the fourth foal and so far only filly out of the talented dam, who scored in the Listed Alleged S. and was a Grade 1 winner over hurdles and second in Cheltenham's Triumph Hurdle. Related to the operation's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Trusted Partner, her yearling filly by Camelot (GB) sadly died. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $17,308. SIDIRIYA (IRE) (f, 3, Nathaniel {Ire}--Sidra {Ire}, by Elusive Quality), not seen since finishing ninth on her sole start over nine furlongs at The Curragh in mid-October, broke well from her wide draw to race in mid-division throughout the early stages. Picking off rivals one by one approaching the home straight, the 9-1 shot stayed on to gain the advantage a furlong out en route to a 1 1/2-length verdict over River Rain (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). "She did it nicely, is a big mare and has got a nice future," trainer Dermot Weld said. "She is still raw, so I would hope for plenty of improvement and I'd expect her to get black-type later in the year, in one of those mile and a half listed races at Naas. I'll be encouraging connections to consider running her a 4-year-old. She is filling into her big frame, stays really good, battles well and got a very good ride." Sidiriya becomes the first winner for her dam, a daughter of the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial scorer Sindirana (Ire) (Kalanisi {Ire}) who showed useful form for this stable. A half to the dam of the G3 Ballyogan S. winner and G1 Flying Five S.-placed Sonaiyla (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), her family features the brilliant Sinndar (Ire). Next up from Sidra is the 2-year-old colt Sinngali (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), while she also has a yearling filly by Sea The Moon (Ger). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $7,151.

WORLDWIDE NEWS

SEVENTH CHOA CONFERENCE HELD

The seventh annual China Horse Owners Alliance (CHOA) conference was held at the Yulong International Hotel on Sept. 1. Yulong's Zhang Yuesheng, Chairman of CHOA, announced the Alliance's plan to attract more members to CHOA and safeguard the integrity of racing in China. In addition, CHOA Secretary-General and Vice-Chairman Huang Quincai spoke about a report on the three-year 60 million RMB/$8.6 million prizemoney boost to Chinese-bred thoroughbred races.

Topping the Sept. 2 Yulong Autumn Sale, organised by Yulong and Zhongxin Auction, were The Entertainer (Ire), a 3-year-old son of Caravaggio; and an unnamed 2-year-old daughter of Anjaal (GB), who each made 800,000 RMB. Both lots raced the next day and were part of the 75 Thoroughbreds Yulong purchased from Ireland and arrived in China in March.
