Three years ago David Fennelly of Mountmellick Farm partnered with Adrian Regan and Fergus Galvin of Hunter Valley Farm to purchase a trio of seven-figure mares with the intention of forming a high-end boutique commercial broodmare band. The partnership, which has already had success in the sales ring and on the racetrack, sends the first foal of its most expensive acquisition through the ring during Monday’s first session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Consigned by Hunter Valley, hip 36 is a dark bay filly by Curlin out of multiple Grade I winner Separationofpowers (Candy Ride {Arg}), a mare the team purchased for $2.1 million at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton November sale.

For Fennelly, who was born in the U.S. and grew up in Ireland, the breeding operation forms a full circle back to his childhood love of racing.

“If you want to be in the horse business, Lexington, Kentucky, is the horse capital of the world,” Fennelly said of his return to the United States as a 21-year-old in 1985.

“I was coming to muck out stalls like 180 other people. That’s how it started. That’s how I ended up in the horse capital of the world mucking out stalls at Spendthrift.”

Fennelly would spend seven years at Spendthrift before an opportunity came along that took him away from the Bluegrass.

“One of our clients was exporting coal down the river system from Kentucky, West Virginia, Illinois, and he offered me a job,” Fennelly recalled. “I thought, you know what, I am not too sure if this is a childhood dream or a real job, so I am going to try this other path.”

Fennelly moved south to New Orleans where he learned the ins and outs of exporting coal. From there, he would go on to found shipping and cargo services businesses, including Associated Terminals.

But, as an avid polo player, horses remained a part of his life and eventually, business success paved the way for his return to Kentucky.

“We started playing polo in New Orleans and then in Lexington and I thought, ‘Let’s get 20 acres up here and have a little spot,’” Fennelly said. “We ended up with Mountmellick Farm, which is 600 acres. And then we thought, ‘Let’s get some mares.’

“I never thought I would own a piece of the Bluegrass and that I would breed a horse that would sell at Keeneland. I sold lots of horses with Spendthrift at Keeneland, Saratoga, Fasig-Tipton—not me personally, me the caretaker of—and so it was kind of a full-circle dream. I am fortunate enough to be in a position to think, ‘You know, what if we breed that mare by that stallion to that stallion?’”

Asked about his master plan when he began his breeding operation almost a decade ago, Fennelly said, “There was no plan at all. Nothing. Dudley’s, a beautiful dinner, everybody who is anybody hangs out at Dudley’s and I thought well, ‘I can do this.’ So I did it.”

Mountmellick is home to about seven broodmares in partnership with Terry Gabriel of Pelican State Thoroughbreds. “Terry Gabriel advises me and keeps me focused,” Fennelly said, before adding with a laugh, “And he keeps me with my hands in my pockets.”

Fennelly met Regan and Galvin through trainer Andrew McKeever and made an instant connection. “Andrew McKeever has been training horses for me for 25 years--I always had one or two,” Fennelly said. “He introduced me to the guys and they are off-the-charts fantastic horsemen. They know their business. And we just kind of hit it off. They said, ‘Hey, David, look at this mare. Would you be interested in owning a piece?’ And look at this one and that one. And we ended up with a few mares together.”

The team made its first seven-figure purchase with Diva Delite (Repent), the dam of champion Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute), who sold for $1.2 million while in foal to Justify at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton November sale. The mare’s Justify colt sold for $775,000 at last year’s Keeneland September sale and, now named Verifying, was a first-out winner on the Travers undercard at Saratoga Aug. 27.

“Look at that moment in time,” Fennelly said of that result. “We bred a winner at Saratoga on Travers Day. Come on. That was wonderful.”

Just a few hips after purchasing Diva Delite, the team came back to purchase Separationofpowers for $2.1 million. “Good Lord, is that what she cost? Why did you have to tell me that?” Fennelly said with a chuckle when asked about the purchase. Cont. p5

Still, Separationofpowers, who won the 2017 GI Frizette S. and 2018 GI Test S., was a standout at the sale, according to Fennelly.

“This mare is incredible,” Fennelly said. “She was a few dollars short of winning a million dollars, you placed her and asked her and she performed every time. When she walked around Fasig-Tipton in that back arena, it was like Good Lord, look at this girl here. So we bought her. Maybe the Irish get carried away.”

Separationofpowers visited Curlin in 2020 and the resulting foal, the mare’s first, sells next week at Keeneland.

“She is pretty special,” Fennelly said of the yearling.

“Everybody has got a special horse. You’ll go from barn to barn and there will be many. But she is absolutely a beautiful specimen; out of a champion mare by Curlin—who needs to say any more about Curlin.”

Completing the Hunter Valley/Mountmellick trio of million-dollar mares is Nereid (Rock Hard Ten), who was purchased for $1.25 million at Keeneland November.

“The business plan with Hunter Valley is we are going to produce very, very nice horses,” Fennelly said. “We are not afraid to race, but the primary goal is to produce and sell wonderful, beautiful horses.”

Even the foals bred by Mountmellick end up at Hunter Valley.

“Anything we sell, we sell with Hunter Valley,” Fennelly said. “To me, they are second to none. They are absolutely second to none. They present a beautiful horse, ready for presentation to be sold. And they have an eye for buying the best.”

Fennelly, who said he began his breeding operation with no plan, is content to continue to let the business find its own way.

“At this stage, I want to stay boutique,” he said. “We have an absolutely stunningly beautiful farm. We operate and live part of our time in the Bluegrass in the midst of some of the most famous farms in the world. I am down the road from my college degree at Spendthrift. And so, just like how I got in, I try not to over think it.”

Asked to rate his experience as a breeder so far, Fennelly said, “I would say we've done quite well. We all love the highs. And we all know that it’s a difficult business to be in at times, but that photograph in the winner’s circle of a horse that you bred, or the moment in time when the hammer goes down and the digital clock is saying a particular financial number, it’s fantastic. You can’t get a better high.”

The Keeneland September sale begins with two Book 1 sessions next Monday and Tuesday beginning at 1 p.m. Book 2 sessions on Wednesday and Thursday begin at 11 a.m. Following a dark day Friday, the auction continues through Sept. 24 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Giannelli, of Dalton, DE, was also sentenced to two years of supervised release after she gets out of prison. She was also ordered to pay a fine of $100,000 and to forfeit $900,000.

The government's investigation into the illegal use of PEDs to dope horses led to charges against 31 individuals. Since the charges were announced 30 months ago, Giannelli and Fishman have been convicted by juries, and 22 others have pleaded guilty. Fishman was sentenced in July to an 11-year prison sentence.

Those who have pleaded guilty include trainer Jorge Navarro. He was sentenced to five years in prison.

Trainer Jason Servis was also charged and is awaiting a trial scheduled to begin in New York in January.

Prosecutors said Fishman had designed PED to increase a horse’s performance and endurance by building red blood cells and masking pain. The substances were designed to avoid showing up in post-race tests conducted by racing regulators.

At the sentencing, Prosecutor Sarah Mortazavi said Giannelli’s actions on behalf of Fishman’s company warranted the maximum sentence.

"Her criminal conduct touched hundreds of trainers and led to the doping of thousands of horses," she said.

She said Giannelli has yet to really accept responsibility for her actions and that it was only after the jury’s verdict that Giannelli offered a "mealy-mouthed explanation for her conduct."
Giannelli cont.

Giannelli came to court with 13 supporters. Among them was a man she married while under indictment and his mother. "It was never my intention to break the law," Giannelli said. She said that her arrest and conviction have left her life shattered.

"It was never my intention to hurt anyone or to hurt any animal," Giannelli said. "Everything in my world now is upside down."

"At this point I wish I had never met Fishman," she said.

"I thought I was doing good," she added. "I never knew it was not legal."

Defense lawyers pleaded for a sentence of probation in court papers that detailed Giannelli's troubled upbringing and her abusive relationships with men. She said she obtained a license to train horses at harness tracks. She said she met Fishman in 2004 and became his sales representative.

Lawyer Alex Huot said Giannelli was not doing anything she wasn’t instructed to do by the doctor.

"She took Dr. Fishman at his word," Huot said.

But Vyskocil told Giannelli she should have known better because the conduct she engaged in occurred when she was an adult.

The judge said Equestology's PEDs were powerful substances that she believed could have and did kill horses.

Vyskocil said that in fashioning her sentence took into account Giannelli's background, her character, and more than 50 letters from Giannelli's family and friends.

"The letters all reflect that you are a kind person, and have a passion to make things better," the judge said.

At the end, she told Giannelli that she was sorry for her, for the situation that brought her to court.

"I do believe you are a good person," the judge said. "You have your whole life ahead of you."

Giannelli's surrender date is Jan. 9, 2023.

FIRST FOALS OUT OF GRADE I-WINNING MARES ON OFFER AT KEESEP

By Christie DeBernardis

One of the major highlights of the Keeneland September Sale, especially Book 1, is the ability to shop the first foals of some of the top racemares in recent years. This year, Book 1 features six yearlings who are the first offspring of Grade I-winning mares. It also includes four others who are not the first foals of top mares, but are the first foals out of Grade I winners to be offered at public auction, such as Hip 51, a Tapit filly out of champion Songbird.

SEPARATIONOFPOWERS - Curlin filly (Hip 36)

Separationofpowers (Candy Ride {Arg}) captured both the GI Test S. and GI Frizette S. and retired with earnings of $964,000. Hunter Valley Farm purchased the mare for $2.1 million at the 2019 FTKNOV sale and bred her to Curlin in partnership with Mountmellick Farm. The resulting filly is offered here as Hip 36 in Hunter Valley’s consignment.

SHAMROCK ROSE - War Front colt (Hip 37)

The very next horse through the ring is the first foal out of a champion mare. Shamrock Rose (First Dude) captured the GII Lexus Raven Run S. in 2018 and went on to upset the GI Breeders’ Cup F/M Sprint S. a month later at odds of 25-1. The bay earned the Eclipse for top female sprinter for her efforts and made three starts in 2019 before calling it a career. Agent Michael Shannon purchased Shamrock Rose for $2.5 million at that year’s FTKNOV sale. Breeder Juliana Hawn of Cross Triangle Farm offers her first foal, a colt by War Front, during Monday’s opening session. He is consigned by Lane’s End.

SONGBIRD - Tapit filly (Hip 51)
A champion at both two and three, Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) won a total of eight Grade Is and amassed $4.692 million in earnings during her illustrious career. She topped the 2017 Fasig-Tipton November Sale, selling to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm for $9.5 million. Pope retained her first two foals, an unraced 3-year-old filly named Song Gate (Arrogate) and an unraced juvenile filly named Magic Song (Tapit). Songbird’s third foal, a yearling filly by Tapit, will be her first offered at public auction during Monday’s opening session. Gainesway consigns the royally bred filly.

TIME AND MOTION - American Pharoah colt (Hip 85)
Phillips Racing Partnership homebred Time And Motion (Tapit) captured the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S., as well as the GII Lake Placid S. They kept the mare and bred her to American Pharoah in partnership with that stallion’s syndicate. The Phillips family’s Darby Dan Farm offers the resulting colt here.

UNTAPABLE - Gun Runner colt (Hip 101)
Winchell homebred Untapable (Tapit) won five Grade Is, including the Kentucky Oaks and Breeders’ Cup Distaff, and earned the Eclipse Award for top sophomore filly. Retiring with earnings of over $3.92 million, she was retained by her owner and sent to Frankel (GB) for her first two seasons in the breeding shed. Ron Winchell kept both of those foals, a 4-year-old colt named Brentley (GB), who broke his maiden at Lone

The champion mare produced a colt by her connections Horse of the Year and top freshman sire last year and he will be her first foal to go through the auction ring Monday. Gainesway consigns the bay colt as Hip 101.

- VILLA MARINA (GB) - Medaglia d’Oro filly (Hip 110)
  Villa Marina (GB) (Le Havre {Ire}) captured the G1 Prix de l’Opera in France, as well as the G3 Prix de Psyche. Privately purchased by Jon Clay’s Alpha Delta Stables, the mare was bred to Medaglia d’Oro for her first foal and the resulting filly is consigned here by Lane’s End.

- AMERICAN GAL - Curlin filly (Hip 132)
  American Gal (Concord Point) won both the GI Test S. and GI Humana Distaff S. The full-sister to SW & MGSP Americanize was purchased by Whisper Hill Farm for $3 million at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Her first foal, a Curlin filly, is part of the Timber Town consignment.

- DADDYS LIL DARLING - Galileo (Ire) colt (Hip 197)
  Daddys Lil Darling (Scat Daddy) was a graded winner on both dirt and turf. She captured the GI American Oaks and GIII Modesty H., as well as the GII Pocahontas S. and was second in the GI Kentucky Oaks. Coolmore’s M.V. Magnier purchased the bay for $3.5 million at the 2018 FTKNOV sale. Magnier’s operation kept her first foal, an unraced juvenile filly by Galileo (Ire) named Savethelastdance (Ire). Denali consigns her second foal, a Galileo colt, at this auction.

- DREAM DANCING - Gun Runner filly (Hip 219)
  John Oxley homebred Dream Dancing (Tapit) captured the GI Del Mar Oaks and GII Herecomesthebride S. before retiring to her owner’s broodmare band. The breeder kept her first foal, an unraced 2-year-old filly by Justify, but offers her second foal, a Gun Runner filly, during Tuesday’s session. The gray filly is consigned by Gainesway.

- DREAM TREE - Curlin filly (Hip 225)
  A $750,000 FTFMAR buy, Dream Tree (Uncle Mo) won the GI Starlet S., as well as a pair of Grade IIs. Phoenix Thoroughbreds decided to keep the mare to breed and her first foal, a Curlin filly, is part of the Denali consignment.

LYON LOOKING FORWARD TO THE FUTURE WITH FLIGHTLINE AND HIS SIBLINGS

By Christie DeBernardis

After watching her undefeated homebred sensation Flightline (Tapit) demolish the GI TVG Pacific Classic field by 19 1/4 lengths Saturday, Jane Lyon was in just as much awe as the rest of the racing world.

“It was unbelievable,” Lyon said. “The fact that I bred him almost doesn’t come into my mind. I don’t take credit for any of that because I think a horse like this is a gift. After not running until a very late 3-year-old, he is just seems like he is getting better every day and more mature. He is just now coming into himself. That’s not something you can plan. I am very proud of him.”

Lyon was so amazed by Flightline’s latest accomplishment that she decided she simply could not part with his yearling half-brother by Curlin and withdrew th colt—who is named Eagles Flight—from next week’s Keeneland September Sale.

“We will see what Flightline does in November [in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic] and I’m going to make my decisions from that point,” Lyon said. “I’m partnering already in two of my horses [out of Feathered]. I’ve been thinking about it and it would be hard to part with him and the [Into Mischief--Feathered] filly, if Flightline is what they say he is.”

The breeder continued, “Somebody interviewed me for a podcast, I think in Europe, and they had met [husband] Frank [Lyon] long time ago. Anyway, a question they asked me was, 'Well, after that race, what do you think Frank would have said?' I said he probably would have said why didn't you keep all of him? That really put it into focus.”

When asked if Lyon would consider partners on the Curlin colt, she said, “I have not made that decision. I need a little time. My world has just exploded since last week. I need to savor it. Everyone who has come to see this colt has been extremely positive about him. If Flightline is capable of doing what he did at Del Mar in the Breeders' Cup, I will have just as many people, if not more, interested in [the Curlin colt] after that.”

The other son of Feathered that Lyon owns in partnership is Flightline’s unraced 2-year-old full-brother Olivier. The colt RNA’d for $390,000 at Fasig-Tipton’s Saratoga Sale last year, after which WinStar acquired majority interest in the gray. He has been training at WinStar’s training center with Rodolphe Brisset and his last breeze was at Keeneland, going five furlongs in 1:02.20.
Flightline’s MGSW dam Feathered (Indian Charlie) produced an Into Mischief filly this year and was bred back to Tapit. The filly will be retained by Lyon and one day join her dam in Summer Wind’s star-studded broodmare band.
“I will be keeping her as well. She's a lovely filly,” Lyon said. “She's very independent.”

KEENELAND SEPTEMBER TO OFFER VR 360 EXPERIENCE Edited Press Release
Keeneland’s upcoming September Yearling Sale will become the first Thoroughbred auction anywhere to broadcast from a 360-degree virtual perspective, enabling fans and horsemens to watch all the action taking place inside the Sales Arena from this unique vantage point during its two-day Book 1 on Monday-Tuesday, Sept. 12-13.
Click here to see a preview of the September Sale Book 1 360 virtual experience.
"True to Keeneland’s mission to expand our audience, educate fans and enhance the Thoroughbred industry, we believe the use of virtual technology provides an exciting way to put the public closer to the sale action," Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin said. "The unique VR 360 perspective puts you in the ring and offers an insider view for what promises to be an electrifying two-day Book 1 sale."
Keeneland will broadcast the Book 1 sale in both the VR 360 perspective (expect a delay of approximately two minutes) as well as the traditional livestream view on Keeneland.com and Keeneland’s YouTube channel. A total of 367 yearlings, among the finest members of the North American yearling crop, are cataloged over the two days. Sessions begin at 1 p.m. ET.

How to Watch in VR: Fans can watch on their desktop or mobile devices or via a VR headset.
How to Tune In with VR: This livestream will be available through the Keeneland 360 YouTube page accessible on desktop, mobile or headset. For more details or direct access to this stream, visit keeneland.com/360.

Keeneland also will make available a 360° viewing experience at Keeneland for guests to take part in the Saddling Paddock Chalet.
Additional recorded VR 360 views of the September Sale will be available via Keeneland’s social media platforms over the course of the auction.

BEN HANLEY JOINS WINSTAR

Ben Hanley will join WinStar Farm as the newest member of its stallion season sales team, officials at the farm announced Thursday.

Having earned a degree in equine science from the University of Kentucky and a degree from the Irish National Stud course, Hanley joins WinStar after stints with Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott in Saratoga and after working in yearling prep for WinStar, Coolmore and Taylor Made. Hanley has also worked in customer-facing roles with Taylor Made at Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton Sales.

After his graduation from the INS program, Hanley worked as assistant yearling manager for Airdrie Stud and was a stallion groom at Ashford, where he traveled with the stallions to Australia for a breeding season and gained experience working with mares and foals. Once back in the U.S., he split his responsibilities at Ashford between yearling prep and working with stallions. Cont. p14

“I am excited to join the bloodstock team at WinStar and continue building my career working with an elite stallion roster,” Hanley said.

Liam O’Rourke, WinStar’s director of bloodstock services, added, “Ben has built a great foundation of practical experience at several world-class operations. We are excited to bring Ben into the WinStar team, and I’m confident he’ll provide a great blend of horsemanship and customer service to breeders.”

CHURCHILL ENTERS INTO AGREEMENT WITH FANDUEL

Churchill Downs Incorporated has entered into a multi-year agreement with FanDuel Group involving different facets of FanDuel’s sports wagering, advance deposit wagering and television business.

Under the Agreement, CDI will provide certain technology and services to enable FanDuel’s customers to place pari-mutuel wagers on horse racing via FanDuel’s sports wagering and ADW platforms. CDI will also authorize wagering on CDI's owned or controlled horse racing content via FanDuel’s platforms in the United States and grant FanDuel certain television and media rights to broadcast CDI-owned racing content on FanDuel’s television network(s). In addition, the Agreement provides FanDuel non-exclusive Kentucky Derby sponsorship rights within the sports wagering category.

Beginning in January 2023, FanDuel will pay for CDI technology and services provided by United Tote Company to facilitate pari-mutuel wagering on FanDuel’s platforms in the United States, including FanDuel Sportsbook and TVG. As previously announced, CDI has entered into an agreement to sell 49% of United Tote to New York Racing Association (NYRA) in a transaction that is expected to close by the end of 2022.

CDI will provide FanDuel wagering rights to horse racing content owned or controlled by CDI, including the Kentucky Derby, and will receive customary content fees when FanDuel accepts wagers on CDI-owned content. FanDuel will also receive exclusive television rights to the racing content of all CDI Thoroughbred racetracks, including Churchill Downs, once its existing non-Derby media rights deal expires in 2023. The Agreement excludes certain specified racing content, including Kentucky Derby Week.

As part of the Agreement, FanDuel will also receive a non-exclusive sponsorship of the Kentucky Derby in the sports wagering category beginning in 2023 in exchange for an annual sponsorship fee.

TCA RETURNS AS TITLE SPONSOR OF THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER

Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA) will again serve as the title sponsor of the Retired Racehorse Project (RRP)’s Thoroughbred Makeover and National Symposium. The Thoroughbred Makeover is a retraining competition and showcase, featuring trainers from across North America who have worked throughout the year to prepare recently retired Thoroughbred ex-racehorses to compete for more than $100,000 in a variety of equestrian sports. TCA has worked to support Thoroughbred aftercare, as well as programs that provide health and human services for backstretch and farm workers, for more than three decades. TCA has supported the RRP since 2012.

“The Thoroughbred Makeover has been a game changer for aftercare,” said TCA executive director Erin Halliwell. “Over the last decade, thousands of Thoroughbreds have been retrained to compete in the Makeover. When former racers learn new skills, it makes them more marketable to horse owners seeking their next mount which, in turn, can increase their post-racetrack value. TCA is proud to support the RRP and the Makeover as they continue to create a demand for Thoroughbreds after their racing careers.”

TCA has granted nearly $783,000 to 74 approved organizations this year alone. A full schedule of Thoroughbred Makeover events can be found at TheRRP.org.

COLONIAL DOWNS, VIRGINIA HBPA PRESENT $66,000 CHECK TO TAA

Colonial Downs and the Virginia Horsemen’s Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA) presented a check for $66,000 to the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) on Virginia Derby Day, which was held Sept. 6.

"Colonial Downs is once again proud to support the TAA during our record-breaking 2022 racing season," said Jill Byrne, vice-president of racing operations at Colonial Downs. "The care of horses, both during and after their racing careers, is of the utmost importance and the TAA does such a great job to make sure this is accomplished. We were delighted to have TAA on site at the Virginia Derby and happy to present an even larger check than in past years."

Since 2019, Colonial Downs and the Virginia HBPA have each pledged $15 per start at the Colonial Downs meet to the TAA.

The TAA also hosted the Best Turned Out Horse Awards on Virginia Derby Day, sponsored by the Virginia HBPA, providing a cash prize and gift bag to the winning groom of the Best Turned Out Horse for each of the six stakes races on the card.

NTWAB TO HONOR McINGVALE, LIVINGSTON, LINCOLN, PEDULLA, WELSch

Thoroughbred owner and breeder Jim McIngvale will be honored along with Eclipse Award-winning photographer Barbara Livingston, broadcaster Chris Lincoln and turf writers Tom Pedulla and Mike Welsch during the National Turf Writers and Broadcasters’ 62nd annual Awards Dinner on Wednesday, Nov. 2 in Lexington.

The NTWAB Awards Dinner is the organization’s only fundraiser, and a portion of the proceeds of the event will fund Thoroughbred industry charities and internships for prospective racing journalists. The 2022 NTWAB Awards Dinner will be held at Malone’s Prime in Lexington.

McIngvale, widely known as “Mattress Mack” for the television personality he long ago adopted as owner of a hugely successful chain of furniture stores in Texas, will be honored with the Mr. Fitz Award for typifying the spirit of racing. McIngvale is one of the most visible personalities in racing through the tireless promotion of his stallion, Runhappy, the 2015 champion male sprinter. McIngvale’s philanthropy and generosity during regional crises also have brought him widespread praise, while several massive wagers on racing and sporting events in recent years also have brought him a measure of attention as someone willing to roll the dice in the name of free enterprise and charity.

Livingston, chief photographer for the Daily Racing Form, will be honored with the Joe Palmer Award for meritorious service to racing. Lincoln, an Eclipse Award-winner who served as longtime producer and host of ESPN's Racing Across America and Racehorse Digest programs in the 1980s and ‘90s, will be honored with the Jim McKay Award for career excellence in broadcasting. Welsch, a member of Daily Racing Form’s editorial team since 1972; and Pedulla, who covered racing for USA Today from 1995 to 2012 and current contributor to multiple publications, will each be honored with the Walter Haight Award for career excellence in Turf writing.

INCOMPASS LAUNCHES EQUITAPS

InCompass Solutions has launched EquiTAPS, a free service that enables users to submit veterinary treatment and procedure records to racing authorities for horses in their care and to give authorized parties in other jurisdictions access to those records. EquiTAPS satisfies reporting requirements as set forth by the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) and will accept records submitted by covered persons as defined by HISA, including trainers and veterinarians. When required by HISA’s regulations, treatment and procedure information entered into EquiTAPS will be automatically forwarded to HISA. “We are excited to offer EquiTAPS, which will assist horsemen and veterinarians of all racing breeds to keep track of horses in their care while working in compliance with HISA, which has jurisdiction over Thoroughbreds,” said Chris Dobbins, senior vice president of InCompass. “We believe this service provides a bridge between horsemen, racetracks, and HISA for the welfare of the racehorse.”

HARRIS FARM, SANTA ANITA TO OFFER SCHOLARSHIPS

Harris Farms and Santa Anita Park have announced the creating of new scholarship opportunities to promote the Thoroughbred in the Sporthorse disciplines. Two scholarships in the amount of $1,000 will be awarded annually, one for the Junior rider Thoroughbred and the other for the Amateur rider Thoroughbred partnership.

The recipient shall receive an award of $1,000, to further their training and competition opportunities. Eligible expenses include lessons or clinics, travel expenses directly related to receiving instruction, competition fees, etc. The recipient must attest that he/she will continue to pursue training and competing with their Thoroughbred for the duration of the scholarship, and will notify Harris Farms and or Santa Anita if they are unable to continue to do so.

Please send applications to lisatorres@harrisfarms.com. Applications close Nov. 30, 2022 for the 2023 scholarship year. Winners will be announced 30 days after the last show on the 2022 show calendar.

GLOBAL TOTE JUVENILE SPRINT S., $500,000, Kentucky Downs, 9-8, 2yo, 6 1/2fT, 1:18.19, fm.

1--PRIVATE CREED, 120, c, 2, by Jimmy Creed
1st Dam: South Andros (SW, $207,125), by Sky Mesa
2nd Dam: Misty Rain, by Rubiano
3rd Dam: Vigorous Search, by Vigors ($45,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP; $155,000 2yo ’22 EASMAY).
1ST BLACK TYPE WIN. O-Mike McCarty; B-Sierra Farm (KY); T-Steve M. Asmussen; J-Joel Rosario. $310,000. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, $364,000.

2--Sharp Aza Tack, 122, c, 2, Sharp Azteca--Que Chulo, by Bernardini. ($72,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP; $100,000 2yo ’22 OBSMAR). O-R3 Racing LLC; B-Joe & Emily Cowles (KY); T-Doug F. O’Neill. $100,000.

3--Accident, 118, g, 2, Tale of Verve--Not Java (Fr), by Not Bourbon. ($3,000 Ylg ’21 FTKOCT). 1ST BLACK TYPE. O-Tommy C. Short & Robert Heyer; B-C. F. Farms Ltd. (KY); T-Tommy C. Short. $50,000. Margins: 3/4, 3HF, 2. Odds: 2.79, 0.26, 27.39. Also Ran: Bourbon Therapy, Revere Note. Scratched: Bourbon Spirit, Fadethenoise, Half a Chance.

After breaking his maiden on debut at Ellis Park July 30, Private Creed shipped to Saratoga to contest the Skidmore S., checking in third behind Oxymore (Astern {Aus}). Adding blinkers, the 5-2 second choice utilized a similar racing style from his first two starts, tracking in third behind pacesetter Revere Note (Revolutionary) with heavily favored Tyro S. winner Sharp Aza Tack racing between them. Tipped to the inside of his rival past the quarter pole, Private Creed engaged the chalk into the final sixteenth and got the better of him close to home to spring the upset.

“The one horse [Sharp Aza Tack] had so much speed,” said winning jockey Joel Rosario. “My horse was comfortable, he was happy where he was. He settled nicely going into the turn. For a second, I didn’t know, as it took him a little time to get going. He just found another gear. He broke good and I was right there. Just a good trip.”

A $155,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale grad (:10.3), Private Creed has a yearling half-brother by Vino Rosso and a weanling half-brother by Complexity. South Andros was bred back to Jimmy Creed for a full-sibling to Private Creed in 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
4th-Kentucky Downs, $253,000, Alw, 9-8, 2yo, 6 1/2fT, 1:17.94, fm, 1/2 length.

DUNEDIN (c, 2, Munnings--Faith in Cathy, by Hold Me Back) was dismissed 22-1 despite entering off a pair of on-the-board efforts over the turf course at Colonial Downs, most recently finishing second Aug. 8. Rated early in this event for 2021 Keeneland September sales grads or RNA’s, Dunedin saved ground up the rail in sixth before making a move to split rivals past the eighth pole. Three wide for the lead late, he produced the best closing kick to prevail by a half-length over Roman Giant (Carpe Diem). Faith in Cathy, herself a half-sister to the dam of MGISP Kobe’s Back (Flutter) and GSW Well Spelled (Spellbinder), last produced a yearling colt by Flutter. She was bred back to Dialed In for 2023. Sales History: $140,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, $168,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

O-NBS Stable; B-Parkway Farm, Inc. (KY); T-Kelsey Danner.
6th-Kentucky Downs, $252,000, Alw, 9-8, 2yo, f, 6 1/2fT, 1:18.66, fm, neck.

SHOWGIRL LYNNE B (f, 2, Constitution--Tizcat Clax, by Tiznow), a one-length winner on debut at Gulfstream July 22, returned to take the Sharp Susan S. next time out there Aug. 20 before shipping to Kentucky Downs. On turf for the first time in this contest held for 2021 Keeneland September grads or RNA’s, Showgirl Lynne B broke at 7-1 and stalked pacesetter Move It Baby (Kantharos) from second. Pushed four wide as the field turned for home, she took command in upper stretch and held off a charging Happy Gal (Runhappy) to win by a neck. A steward’s inquiry later disqualified Happy Gal for interference in the stretch, moving Promise of Hope (Ghostzapper) into second. Now three-for-three in her young career, Showgirl Lynne B hails from the extended family of MGISW & champion older mare Escena (Strawberry Road {Aus}). Her only younger sibling is a yearling half-brother, Cinco Harley (Cinco Charlie), and her dam was sent to Awesome Slew for the 2023 season. Sales History: $40,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. INTREPID DAYDREAM (f, 3, Jess’s Dream--Intrepid Tour, by Jump Start) debuted against stakes company as a juvenile at this venue nearly one year ago and, despite finishing a well-beaten fifth that day, came back a month later to defeat in maiden special weight company in a dominating 16 3/4-length performance at this oval last October. On the bench nearly 10 months, she returned to Delaware Aug. 13 with a 10-length gate-to-wire win against optional claimers. The heavy 2-5 chalk on the back of those efforts, Intrepid Daydream rated just behind the leader, Rather Nosy (Majesticperfection), before making an inside move around the far turn to go after that rival. Once clear past the quarter pole, she sprinted home much the best, hitting the line 5 1/2 lengths ahead of second choice Plane Drunk (Stay Thirsty). Intrepid Daydream has a yearling half-brother by Imagining while her dam was bred back to Jess’s Dream for a full-sibling in 2023. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $97,500. MURKY (f, 2, Violence—Exaggerated {MSW, $206,037}, by Blame), not one of the top wagering selections at 9-1 in this unveiling, showed good speed from a middle gate to set the early tempo ahead of Spanish Doubloon (Malibu Moon). Pressured by that rival into the turn, Murky dug in down the stretch in a duel that lasted the length of the straightaway, just prevailing by the slimmest of margins in the end. Favored Sundance (Quality Road) finish eighth. Out of a half-sister to a pair of graded stakes performers, Murky has a yearling half-brother by Dialed In and a weanling half-sister by Summer Front. Her dam was sent to Maxfield for the 2023 season. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $90,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

STELLAR LADY (f, 2, Shackleford—Stellar Baby, by Brahms), on the board in back-to-back efforts to start her career at Saratoga, including a close second behind next out GI Spinaway S. winner Leave No Trace (Outwork), was the narrow 7-2 choice in her first start outside New York. Third behind a close pair, she was forced to go five wide around the far turn to begin her run past the quarter pole. Closing alongside Boltoro (Bolt d’Oro), Stellar Lady dug in late and just prevailed by a nose on the line. A half-sister to Killer Bird (Summer Bird), SW, $100,574, Stellar Lady is her dam’s youngest reported offspring. Stellar Baby was bred to Raging Bull (Fr) for a 2023 foal. Sales History: $40,000 Ylg ’21 FTKOCT. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, $116,560. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

PERSONAL BEST (f, 3, Tapit--War Flag (GISW-USA, GSW-Fr, $474,660), by War Front) broke her maiden in her fifth career start following four straight on-the-board finishes dating back to Keeneland Apr. 15. Stretched out past 1 1/8 mile for the first time, the 2-1 choice rated patiently off the pace of the leading pair through an easy opening half in :48.69. When given her cue to go past the quarter pole, she responded with enthusiasm down the lane, easily drawing off to win going away by 3 3/4 lengths. Five Prizes (Bernardini) rounded out the exacta at 10-1. Personal Best has a 2-year-old half-brother, Capture the Flag (Quality Road), who recently broke his maiden at first asking in a maiden special weight contest at Saratoga July 30. Out of a Grade I-winning full-sister to G1SW Lines of Battle and a half-sister to GSW Homebound (Dixie Union), Personal Best is from the extended female family of leading sire Dynaformer (Roberto). She has a yearling half-sister, Mildred Pierce (Uncle Mo), and a weanling half-brother by Into Mischief. War Flag was bred back to Gun Runner for a 2023 foal. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-2, $124,170.

WE DONT NEED ROADS (c, 2, Hoppertunity--Dulcify (SP, $173,949), by Candy Ride (Arg)) was closing fast but came up a half-length short when debuted over this same surface in a rained-off event Aug. 11. Off the turf once again, the 8-5 second choice raced much closer to the early speed, pressing from second while shuffled four wide up the backstretch and into the far turn. Allowed to run past the quarter pole, he sprinted clear late for a three-length win over Thtwasthenthisisnw (Central Banker). His freshman sire’s (by Any Given Saturday) fourth winner, We Dont Need Roads is a half-brother to Sweet Gracie (Bandbox), MSP, $189,504 and out of a half-sister to the dam of GISW Brill (Medaglia d’Oro). Dulcify has a yearling filly by Golden Lad and a weanling filly by Irish War Cry still in the pipeline, and was sent back to Hoppertunity for a full-sibling to We Dont Need Roads in 2023. U. S. ARMY (c, 2, Army Mule--She Stays Rollin, by War Front), given a 4-1 shot on debut, was well positioned on the front end while racing three wide for the lead into the far turn. Kept under a drive, he put in a rally as the field straightened for the wire, put away Aaron’s Spirit (Mor Spirit) in second and sprinted clear down the lane to post a 5 3/4-length score. U. S. Army, the 13th winner for freshman sire (by Friesan Fire), is out of a full-sister to MSW & GSP The Great War. This is also the family of dual GII Turfway Breeders’ Cup S. winner Trip (Lord At War [Arg]), MGISW Zensational (Unbridled’s Song), and MGWSW Departing (War Front). His dam produced a filly by West Coast in 2022 and was bred back to Army Mule for a full-sibling to U. S. Army in 2023. Sales History: $8,000 Ylg ’21 KEJAN; $32,000 Ylg ’21 FTCAYR. QUEEN ELIZABETH II DIES

By John Berry

Elizabeth II, Queen of the United Kingdom and Head of the Commonwealth, as well as being one of the world's most enthusiastic and knowledgeable racehorse owner-breeders, died on Thursday at Balmoral. She was 96 years old.

The reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II was not merely the longest in British history, but was also one of the most successful. Leading by example, she steered her country through the momentous changes of the past seven decades. She ascended the throne as the sun was setting on the British Empire and it was thanks to the universal affection and respect which she came to command that the Commonwealth, with all the international goodwill which it has generated and continues to generate, was able to be established. Society is now almost unrecognisable from the world of the 1950s but the monarchy remains; with a lesser figure on the throne during the past 70 turbulent years, it is far from certain that that would be the case. All the while, Queen Elizabeth II's unshakable dedication to her country and to her duty went hand in hand with her love of racing, and both were hugely enriched by her commitment.

The tradition of the British monarch racing horses goes back centuries. In the 17th century the Stuart kings made Newmarket the centre of the sport in Great Britain, which made it the centre of the racing world, a position which it holds to this day. Ascot racecourse owes its existence to the enthusiasm of its founder Queen Anne. While Queen Victoria, who reigned from 1837 to 1901, had no interest in the sport, her eldest son, the future King Edward VII, more than made up for that, owning two Derby winners while still Prince of Wales and becoming the perfect sporting king after his accession to the throne. The royal studs and royal string flourished under his stewardship, as they did under Queen Elizabeth II's grandfather King George V and her father King George VI.

King George VI owned his final Classic winner when his home-bred Hyperion filly Hypericum (GB) won the 1000 Guineas in 1946. Following her father's death on Feb. 6, 1952, Queen Elizabeth II, at the age of just 26, was crowned on June 2, 1953 and Coronation Week perfectly summed up the twin threads of kingdom and sport which ran through her life. Four days after the Coronation, her Hyperion colt Aureole (GB), bred by her father, finished second in the Derby behind Pinza (GB) (Chanteur {Fr}), the latter ridden by Gordon Richards, the doyen of champion jockeys who had received a knighthood in the Coronation honours.

Later in the month Queen Elizabeth II owned the first of her many Royal Ascot winners when Choirboy (GB) (Hyperion {GB}) won the Royal Hunt Cup, and during the week she invested the long-standing royal trainer Captain Cecil Boyd-Rochfort as a Commander of the Royal Victorian Order.

Aureole, who had won the Acomb S. at York as a 2-year-old, improved further from three to four and in 1954 he proved himself a champion with three big wins culminating in his triumph in the race named in honour of Queen Elizabeth II's parents, the King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot. He had previously won the Coronation Cup at Epsom and the Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot, and his success proved instrumental in Her Majesty ending the season as champion owner for the first time, an achievement which she repeated three years later. Queen Elizabeth II Obituary Cont. from p1

Ever since the glory days of Aureole (who later became a very successful stallion at Wolferton Stud, being crowned Champion Sire of Great Britain and Ireland in both 1960 and ’61) the Queen’s staunch, successful and whole-hearted patronage has ensured that racing’s tag of the Sport of Kings has remained a perfect byline. She owned her first Classic winner when the Noel Murless-trained Carozza (GB) (Dante {GB}), a filly whom she leased from the National Stud, won the Oaks under a 21-year-old Lester Piggott in 1957. Further Classic glory followed when Pall Mall (GB) (Palestine {GB}) won the 2000 Guineas in 1958, fittingly ridden by Doug Smith who had guided Hypericum to glory up the Rowley Mile in the same royal livery 12 years previously.

The golden days continued to come. Highclere (GB) (Queen’s Hussar {GB}), trained by Major Dick Hern and ridden by Joe Mercer, emulated her granddam Hypericum by winning the 1000 Guineas in 1974 before completing a glorious European Classic double by galloping to victory in the Prix de Diane at Chantilly, hours after Her Majesty and her entourage had been driven up the course before racing in a French welcome fit for a queen. Three years later Hern provided a perfectly timed triumph when Dunfermline (GB) (Royal Palace {GB}) won the Oaks at Epsom on the day that the nation celebrated Her Majesty’s Silver Jubilee. Later that season Dunfermline doubled her Classic haul when outstaying Alleged (Hoist The Flag) in the St Leger, a performance whose merit was confirmed when Alleged won the next two runnings of the Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe.

Hopes were high for a similarly special celebration 34 years later when Carlton House (Street Cry {Ire}), who had been given to Her Majesty as a yearling by Sheikh Mohammed, went off favourite for the Derby as the celebrations for the Queen’s 85th birthday celebrations loomed. Unfortunately he could only finish a close third. An even greater gift turned out to have been Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), a present from HH Aga Khan IV. Her victory in the Gold Cup at Royal Ascot in 2013 made Queen Elizabeth II the first monarch to own the winner of the greatest race of the greatest race-meeting, a result which gave pleasure to millions.

Royal Ascot was always a fixture in the Queen’s calendar, a meeting which she adored. The pleasure which she savoured there each year was exceeded only by the esteem which the sport gained from her presence and participation. That Gold Cup triumph must have given her boundless joy, but two other runnings of the great race, each won by one of her closest racing friends, must have given her almost equal pleasure. In 1974 the Duke of Norfolk, for many years Her Majesty’s Representative at Ascot, won it with his John Dunlop-trained home-bred Ragstone (GB) (Ragusa {Ire}); nine years later the prize went to the Dick Hern-trained Little Wolf (GB) (Grundy {GB}), bred and raced by her long-time racing manager Lord Porchester (later the 7th Earl of Carnarvon).

One particular Royal Ascot memory shines out brightly. The unbeaten Australian champion sprinter Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Espirt {AUS}) overcame a mountain of obstacles to record a famous victory in the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. in 2012. Cont. p4

After the race, Her Majesty, whose respect and admiration for a great horse remained as pure as it had been when she was a young girl with her grandfather King George V entrancing her with his account of the victory of his home-bred filly Scuttle (GB) in the 1000 Guineas, made sure that she reached the unsaddling enclosure in time to ask Black Caviar’s connections for permission to make the acquaintance of their wonderful mare. Royal Ascot may be about pageantry, style and social cachet but, as Queen Elizabeth II reminded us on that unforgettable day, it is, always has been, and always will be primarily about great horses. And few have ever revered great horses over as extended a period as Her Majesty did.

Queen Elizabeth II’s racing life and her royal duties fitted together perfectly. Her love of and deep understanding of the sport tied in particularly well with her royal duties overseas, when days at the races were included where possible in official tours. Aside from the pleasure which such trips gave to Her Majesty, the boundary-crossing passion for the sport did much to foster friendly relations between the Queen and her hosts. Race-clubs worldwide were delighted to find a shared love of the sport with the British monarch, invariably strengthening ties between the nations.

The Queen’s Plate (inaugurated in 1860 at the now-defunct Carleton racecourse in Toronto by permission of Queen Victoria) has retained its place as Canada’s premier Classic and one of the world’s great races, despite the anachronism of being restricted to Canadian-bred horses. Every Queen’s Plate day at Woodbine is special, but none more so than when Queen Elizabeth II was the guest of honour, as she was in 1959 for the 100th running of the great race. That year’s winner was the Windfields Farm home-bred New Providence (Bull Page) who went on to enjoy a very good stud career. In retrospect, Her Majesty must have wished she had been there five years later when another Windfields home-bred won the race, following up his Kentucky Derby victory: Northern Dancer (Nearctic). Her Majesty and the Duke of Edinburgh attended three subsequent Queen’s Plates, in 1973, 1997 and 2010.

Queen Elizabeth II’s father King George VI had been the first reigning British monarch to attend the Queen’s Plate when he and Her Majesty’s mother Queen Elizabeth had seen Archworth (Worthmore) win in 1939, and Queen Elizabeth, as the Queen Mother, attended the race-day a further six times. She struck particularly lucky as regards the quality of the winner in 1962 when the home-bred Windfields filly Flaming Page (Bull Page) won the great race. Flaming Page subsequently secured everlasting fame thanks to her mating in 1966 with Northern Dancer, a union which, of course, produced Nijinsky.

For obvious reasons, the Royal Hong Kong Jockey Club dropped the ‘Royal’ from its name when the UK’s lease on the territory expired in 1997, but the HKJC has continued to run the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup (currently sponsored by Audemars Piguet) every April. This race was first run at Happy Valley in 1975 when the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh went to the races on their first visit to Hong Kong. It was subsequently relocated to Sha Tin after that showpiece racecourse’s creation on land reclaimed from the sea.

Major races paying tribute to Queen Elizabeth II have flourished around the globe. Keeneland inaugurated the Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. (which now carries Grade I status) when Her Majesty visited in 1984. Nine years later the Queen paid what proved to have been her only state visit to Japan, which triggered the subsequent inauguration of the Queen Elizabeth II Commemorative Cup at Kyoto, another race which now carries Group 1 status. Cont. p5

In France, a royal visit in 1972 had prompted the running of La Coupe de Sa Majeste la Reine Elizabeth at Longchamp, the race subsequently being transferred to Chantilly in honour of Highclere's victory there and renamed the G2 Prix Sandringham. In Australia, the G3 Queen Elizabeth S. is a highlight of the final day of the VRC Carnival at Flemington every spring in Victoria; while the crown jewel of the Championships at Royal Randwick every autumn in New South Wales is the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. It was fitting that Carlton House was able to carry the royal silks honourably in the race in 2014 after his transferral from Sir Michael Stoute's string in Newmarket to Gai Waterhouse's stable in Sydney.

Arguably the most special royal race took place as a one-off on a late-autumn day in the Australian capital Canberra (which in the normal course of events never stages top-class racing) to celebrate Australia's bicentenary in 1988, the Queen Elizabeth S. It worked out wonderfully well when this special race turned into a stirring duel between two terrific horses, the champion older horse Bonecrusher (NZ) (Pag-Asa {Aus}) and the champion three-year-old Beau Zam (NZ) (Zamazaan {Fr}) in a race which also featured the recent G1 VRC Australian Cup hero Dandy Andy (NZ) (Three Legs {GB}). Beau Zam came off best at the end of an epic horse-race, a result which must have given Her Majesty particular pleasure as her daughter Princess Anne had ridden him at trackwork at Randwick one morning a few weeks previously, shortly before his victory in the AJC Derby.

Les Carlyon summed up the spirit of the occasion perfectly in his report in the Age newspaper: "The Queen Elizabeth, as good a race as you will see, was a rebuff to those who think the Crown has trained off, that the royalty bit, rather like straight-backed jockeys, is out of time and place. Consider what the royal presence did yesterday. Here we were in Canberra, which is to high-class racing what Alice Springs is to international sculling. And on Sunday, too. Here were three of the best horses in the land. Collectively, they had won $4 million. They were going around for just $65,000 to the winner. What brought them? The Queen. Simple as that."

Beau Zam's trainer Bart Cummings subsequently gave a typically droll account of his presentation to Her Majesty in the winner's enclosure, "She's a very gracious lady. She obviously takes racing very seriously. She knows her pedigrees. She said it was a most exciting race. She said he is a lovely-looking colt. Can't say any more. She gave me a wink."

No royal tour, though, has seen the Queen's love of the horse and the sport complementing her official duties more perfectly than was the case during her ground-breaking state visit to Ireland in May 2011. This was the first visit by the British monarch to what is now the Republic of Ireland for 100 years, the last previous one having been made by her grandfather King George V in 1911. That, of course, was when Ireland was still part of the United Kingdom, which changed after 700 years of (often brutal) British occupation when the signing of the Anglo-Irish Treaty on Dec. 6, 1921 brought the Irish War of Independence to an end. For most of the remainder of the 20th century, it seemed inconceivable that a British monarch would be rash enough to visit the Republic of Ireland in the foreseeable future. Time, though, is a great healer, but what proved the crucial factor in this particular healing process was the worldwide respect which the irreproachable conduct of Queen Elizabeth II had fostered over the previous decades. Cont. p6
Love Affairs (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) was the final winner for The Queen at Goodwood on Tuesday.

The following day Her Majesty visited the Irish National Stud, where she was shown around by the Chief Executive John Osborne, and Gilltown Stud, where she had lunch as the guest of HH Aga Khan IV and his family. On the fourth and final day she headed south-west to Cork via the Rock of Cashel, where the Sinn Fein Mayor of Cashel, Michael Browne, welcomed her and shook her hand, a particularly notable event as Sinn Fein had refused to take part in the official reception for her in Dublin. One consequence of this welcome was that the following month it was announced that Martin McGuinness, the Sinn Fein Deputy First Minister of Northern Ireland, would do the same on her next visit to the province. From Cashel she visited Coolmore Stud, where John Magnier welcomed her and introduced her to Galileo (Ire), much to her evident delight.

In four days, Queen Elizabeth II, as both Head of State and horse-lover, did more to nurture Anglo-Irish friendship than could previously ever have been imagined possible. That summed up her reign perfectly. The United Kingdom has been very fortunate to have had such a special person as its monarch for 70 years, and racing has been very fortunate to have enjoyed the patronage of the greatest supporter it has ever known.

FRIDAY'S RACING CANCELLED AS MARK OF RESPECT

Following the death of Her Majesty the Queen at Balmoral, Thursday evening's meetings at Southwell and Chelmsford were both abandoned, and no racing will take place in Britain on Friday.

A further announcement will be made on Friday regarding plans for Saturday's racing, which includes the final Classic of the British season, the St Leger, a race won by the Queen's homebred Dunfermline (GB) in 1977, the year of her Silver Jubilee. News regarding plans for the period of national mourning leading up to the Queen's funeral are expected to be announced shortly.

The Queen's long and successful association with the turf came to an end on Thursday when she was represented by her final runner at Epsom. Improvise (GB), trained by Michael Bell and ridden by Benoit De La Sayette, was beaten a short head to finish second. Her Majesty's final winner came on Tuesday, Sept. 6 when the Clive Cox-trained 2-year-old Love Affairs (GB) won at Goodwood.

A statement released by the British Horseracing Authority on Thursday evening read, "All of British Racing is in mourning today following the passing of Her Majesty The Queen. Her Majesty has been one of the greatest and most influential supporters in the history of horseracing. Her passion for racing and the racehorse shone brightly throughout her life, not only through her close involvement in breeding and racing horses, but in her roles as a patron of The Jockey Club and Thoroughbred Breeders' Association, and as the figurehead of Royal Ascot.

"From her first-ever winner Monaveen, through stars such as Carrozza and Highclere, to the unforgettable Estimate, Her Majesty The Queen has helped to shape the breed and contributed to moments on the track that will go down in sporting folklore.

"It is right, therefore, that all racing is suspended for today and tomorrow as we begin to grieve Her Majesty's passing and remember her extraordinary life and contribution to our sport and our nation."

Queen Elizabeth II has been succeeded by her eldest son, the former Prince of Wales, who now becomes King Charles III.

Sir Francis Brooke, Her Majesty's representative at her beloved Ascot Racecourse, said, "The nation mourns the loss of a much loved and respected monarch. The world of racing has lost one of its greatest supported.

"We at Ascot are privileged to have so many memories of Her Majesty The Queen at this, her racecourse, including some wonderful victories in the royal colours.

"We offer our deepest sympathies to His Majesty The King and the whole Royal Family."
Polly Pot and Danny Tudhope shock the May Hill S.

POLLY POTT CAUSES MAY HILL UPSET
by Tom Frary

There was a surprise in store in Thursday’s G2 Cazoo May Hill S. at Doncaster as The Megsons’ 21,000gns Book 2 bargain Polly Pott (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) registered a 40-1 success for the soon-to-be-retired Harry Dunlop.

In an outcome almost scripted by the racing gods, the winner of nurseries at Nottingham and Salisbury last month burst some bubbles as she swooped from rear under Danny Tudhope. Taking the measure of Novakai (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) from the furlong pole, the bay readily asserted to upstage that rival by 1 1/2 lengths, with another outsider Perfect Prophet (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) outrunning her odds of 50-1 in third, three lengths away. The 5-4 favourite Dance In The Grass (GB) (Cracksman {GB}) was only seventh.

Dunlop, who is the most notable of those recently announcing their departure from the training ranks, has enjoyed a purple patch since his shock announcement with the useful filly Adaay In Asia (GB) (Adaay {Ire}) winning at the Goodwood and Ebor festivals and at the Shergar Cup. “What this filly has is she’s tough and hardy,” the son of the late legend John said. “It’s surreal really. I’ve only got 12 horses and they’re running well. We’re lucky enough to have horses like this and it’s very hard when you haven’t got them, but you’ve got to enjoy them when you do get one. She cost 21,000 guineas and you’re taking on these smartly-bred fillies that cost half a million. I think Ben Pauling is going to train her next year. Wherever she goes, I think she’ll be a tough cookie and will probably stay a mile and a half I would think.”

Starting her career masquerading as a sprinter, Polly Pott was beaten into seventh on debut at Newbury May 31 and fourth at Lingfield June 13. Cont. p9

She took a Bath maiden over five furlongs and 160 yards on ground officially described as firm at the venue famed for its lack of a watering system July 12. Upped almost three furlongs for her first nursery at Nottingham Aug. 4, the bay made light work of the contrasting examination before coming back 15 days later to double up at Salisbury. Relishing the easier surface here, she could be called the winner some way out with no hint of fluke.

“She has got better and better, but I didn’t expect that,” Dunlop added. “She’s rated 75, this is a Group 2 and she’s won four on the bounce now, so it’s fantastic. We’ve got to run her in a Group 1 now, I suppose. Maybe the Fillies’ Mile, why not? I’m really pleased for all my team at home. Obviously in my personal circumstances it’s a great sending off and I think someone is looking down—it’s quite emotional.”

Pedigree Notes

The winner’s dam Must Be Me (GB) (Trade Fair {GB}), whose daughter of Showcasing (GB) was a prescient £60,000 purchase by Oliver St Lawrence Bloodstock at last month’s Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale, hails from a classy family with her dam being the listed-placed Roodeye (GB) (Inchinor {GB}). Among the progeny of Roodeye, who is a half to the G1 Prix Morny runner-up Gallagher (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}), is Showcasing’s star miler Mohaather (GB), Shadwell’s hero of the G1 Sussex S., G2 Summer Mile and G3 Greenham S.

Roodeye also produced Prize Exhibit (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), who captured the G1 Monrovia S. and G1 San Clemente H. and was third in the G1 Del Mar Oaks before throwing Ballydoyle’s 2.8-million gns Book 1 sensation History (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who took this year’s G3 Cornelscourt S. Roodeye’s daughter Roodlecourt (GB) (Xaar {GB}) staked her own claim to fame when producing the G1 Queen Anne S. hero Accidental Agent (GB) (Delegator {GB}) and the Listed Hyde S. scorer Madame Tantzy (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}).

MIMIKYU HAS THE ANSWER IN THE PARK HILL by Tom Frary

Providing a timely boost to Saturday’s St Leger protagonist Haskoy (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}), George Strawbridge’s Mimikyu (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) dominated Thursday’s G2 Coral Park Hill Fillies’ S. to bring up back-to-back editions of Doncaster’s “Fillies’ St Leger” for her owner-breeder following the romp of Free Wind (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) 12 months ago.

Only seventh behind that Juddmonte homebred in the Aug. 18 Listed Galtres S. at York, the 13-2 shot was anchored in last early with Frankie Dettori happy to track the every move of Shadwell’s 6-4 favourite Eshaada (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}). As that rival went stand’s side at the top of the straight, the John and Thady Gosden-trained 3-year-old stayed up the centre and produced a surge to overhaul the Roger Varian runner passing two out en route to a 2 3/4-length success.

Eshaada’s stablemate Believe In Love (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) was another two lengths behind in third.

“We thought she would win the Galtres well, but unfortunately she got stacked three wide all the way and pulled, pulled, pulled,” trainer John Gosden said. “We popped the hood on today and luckily we were drawn where we could drop in behind, she settled last and came through well. The second filly was very good and that wasn’t a fluke. The Galtres was disappointing, but that was coming back to what we knew she was capable of. She’s certainly a talented filly and she’s only a 3-year-old, so there’s a lot to look forward to.”

Breaking her maiden at the expense of the Galtres runner-up Time Lock (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in a Haydock novice over an extended 11 furlongs June 8, Mimikyu registered a six-length follow-up success in a Newmarket handicap over a mile and a half June 25 before flopping at York. Just as had been the case with her full-sisters Journey (GB) and Indigo Girl (GB), the fitting of a hood seemed to work the oracle and she emulated the latter in winning one of this meeting’s pattern races with her having captured the G2 May Hill S. two years ago.

Indigo Girl was second in the G1 Fillies’ Mile at her only attempt at the top level, but Journey was successful at the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. and Mimikyu will attempt to earn those stripes too. Cont. p11

Kubrick, the seventh of eight foals, becomes the third scorer produced by Listed Prix de la Cochere runner-up Rosa Bonheur (Mr. Greeley), herself a daughter of G2 Prix Robert Papin victrix Rolly Polly (Ire) (Mukaddamah). The April-foaled homebred bay is a half-brother to GI Hollywood Derby, GI Shoemaker Mile and GI Maker's Mark Mile hero Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and a yearling filly by No Nay Never.

KUBRICK CALLS THE SHOTS IN PARIS
by Sean Cronin
White Birch Farm’s 2-year-old colt Kubrick (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}--Rosa Bonheur, by Mr. Greeley) backed up a July 24 debut second going seven furlongs at Dieppe with a breakthrough triumph at Deauville last month and continued on the upgrade by turning back a strong Irish challenge in Thursday’s G3 Prix des Chenes at ParisLongchamp.

The eventual winner employed patient tactics from flagfall and was settled sixth, at the tail of the field, through halfway. Making continued headway under pressure in the home straight, the 31-10 second favourite quickened to gain a slender advantage with 100 metres remaining and was ridden out in the dying embers to assert by a neck from Coolmore and Westerberg’s hitherto unbeaten Adelaide River (Ire) (Australia {GB}) for a first black-type success.

“He is a nice, uncomplicated horse, we like to see them finish the way he did and it is very promising for the future,” commented trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. “He is an easy horse to train, he is easy to ride and a real pleasure to deal with. He could be a horse for next year’s French [2000] Guineas, but first we will try to run him in the [G1] Criterium International at Saint-Cloud if all is well with him.”

BLUE ROSE CEN TO THE FORE IN THE PRIX D'AUMALE by Sean Cronin

Yeguada Centurion’s homebred 2-year-old filly Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}--Queen Blossom {Ire}, by Jeremy), who followed up wins at Saint-Cloud in June and at Clairefontaine in July with a runner-up finish in Deauville’s Aug. 20 Listed Criterium du Fonds European de l’Elevage in her latest start, made her experience tell in Thursday’s G3 Prix d’Aumale at ParisLongchamp and surged to a career high in the one-mile fillies’ test. The 13-5 second favourite was steadied to track the leaders in third after an alert getaway. Coming under pressure to reduce arrears approaching the quarter-mile marker, she quickened in stylish fashion to hit the front passing the eighth pole and was ridden out in the latter stages to account for British raider Heavenly Breath (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) by an ultimately comfortable 1 1/2 lengths.

“She is so tough and genuine and has never let us down,” said winning trainer Christopher Head. “She was beaten by a good horse [Victoria Road] last time and was facing only fillies this time, so we were hopeful. Aurelien [Lemaitre] gave her the perfect ride, she handled the softer ground very well and she now deserves to take her chance in the [G1 Prix] Marcel Boussac. She takes her racing so well that I have no doubt that she will be ready on the day.” Reflecting on the performance of “TDN Rising Star” Left Sea (GB) (Frankel {GB}), Carlos Laffon-Parias added, “Unfortunately, she tied up [in the straight] which explains why she has run like that.”

Blue Rose Cen is the lone foal out of G3 Park Express S. and Gill Santa Barbara S. victrix Queen Blossom (Ire) (Jeremy), herself the leading performer produced by G3 Silver Flash S. third Mark Of An Angel (Ire) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}). Mark Of An Angel, in turn, is a granddaughter of dual South African Grade 3 winner and G1 Gosforth Park Fillies & Mares Challenge third Grey Angel (GB) (Kenmare {Fr}).

VADENI AND NEW LONDON DOMINATE SATURDAY ENTRIES by Tom Frary

Before the sad news broke of The Queen’s passing on Thursday, the final fields were drawn for Leopardstown’s G1 Irish Champion S. and Doncaster’s G1 Cazoo St Leger. There will be seven contenders for the Irish Champion, while if racing continues in Britain on Saturday—a statement is due from the BHA on Friday—there will be nine heading to post for the world’s oldest Classic. The Aga Khan’s G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Eclipse hero Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}) will depart from stall two in the Irish Champion, with key opponents Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) and Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) in stalls five and six respectively. Godolphin’s G3 Gordon S. scorer New London has been allocated stall four at Town Moor, with TDN Rising Star Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the Derby runner-up Hoo Ya Mal (GB) (Territories {Ire}) in stalls five and six respectively. Godolphin’s G3 Gordon S. scorer New London has been allocated stall four at Town Moor, with ‘TDN Rising Star’ Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the Derby runner-up Hoo Ya Mal (GB) (Territories {Ire}) in five and seven. Of the withdrawals from the two feature races, the most significant losses were the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. winner Zechariah (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}) from the Leger and the G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine La Petite Coco (Ire) (Ruler Of The World {Ire}) from the Irish Champion.

How Will Haskoy Measure Up?

Supplemented by Ralph Beckett who saddled the last Leger-winning filly in Simple Verse (Ire) (Danehill) in 2015, Juddmonte’s undefeated Haskoy (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}) bids to provide connections with a second Classic this term. While the Irish Derby hero Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}) was entirely predictable, the Aug. 18 Listed Galtres S. winner has a leap to make to get to the big names here but with her unexposed profile that is possible. The dam Natavia (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) looked a major player for the 2017 Oaks after winning the Listed Haras De Bouquetot Fillies’ Trial S., only to finish last in the Epsom Classic, so Haskoy has family honour to restore.

“I can’t remember having a filly with enough natural awareness to do what she did at York on just her second start,” the trainer told QIPCO British Champions Series. “She didn’t even arrive here until the last week in May, as she was very immature. I’d be surprised if she didn’t get the trip, as she’s by Golden Horn out of a Nathaniel mare who ran in the Oaks, so the pedigree is all stamina. We’ve got a lot to look forward to if she copes with the occasion and the whole jamboree.”

NATALIA LUPINI: THE SMALL TRAINER HOPING TO MAKE A BIG IMPACT ON ICW

By Brian Sheerin

Natalia Lupini may only have a string of 16 horses in her Gilford yard in County Down but the Milan native is hoping to make a major impact on Longines Irish Champions Weekend. This season has been Lupini’s best yet. She has sent out nine winners, four of which have been recorded by Dunum (Ire) (Ivawood {Ire}), who failed to get into Saturday’s "Sovereign Path" H. at Leopardstown.

However, the trainer is still hoping to be represented in the race by yard favourite and seven-time winner Blairmayne (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}), who will need a bit of luck to get in as a second reserve.

Highly Desirable (Ire) (Twilight Son {GB}) will definitely run in the Ingabelle S. on Saturday and, while she is expected to go off at massive odds, Lupini thinks the filly runs on merit.

The trainer said, “She hasn’t run on soft ground but she should handle it being out of a Dark Angel (Ire) mare. She’s working well and is in good form so it would be nice to see her run a big race.”

Lupini added, “We only have 16 horses in training and have a few yearlings to bring in over the winter. We’re looking forward to turning a few horses around and hopefully there’ll be some stars in there.

"It’s a great satisfaction to have runners on Irish Champions Weekend. Training in Ireland is very competitive and we always try to have quality over lots of numbers and it’s great when it works out."

Blairmayne has done his bit to put the Lupini stable on the map. The hard-knocking 9-year-old has been rejuvenated since being upped in trip and Lupini could also see him out-running his odds if he gets a run on Saturday. Cont. p14

She explained, "Unfortunately Dunum didn't get into the "Sovereign Path" H. at Leopardstown but we're hoping Blairmayne might sneak in. He's the second reserve at the moment and, while he's getting a little bit older and wasn't really enjoying running over six furlongs, he's done well since we upped him to seven furlongs."

"Especially in those big sprints where they go quick, he wasn't enjoying it, but he ran a cracking racing to finish second in a premier handicap over seven furlongs at Cork earlier in the year. He's been a great horse to have in the yard and, seven furlongs around Leopardstown should suit him well, so hopefully he will get in."

Along with the handicappers, Lupini has unleashed a steady flow of juvenile talent this season, none more promising than Arinniti (Fr) (Karakontie {Jpn}). After posting a smart debut effort to finish sixth for the trainer at Naas in June, Arinniti was sold to Team Valor to continue her career for Paddy Twomey, for whom she finished second at Navan last weekend.

Lupini is convinced that Arinniti can carve out an exciting career for her new connections and has described adding a commercial string to her training bow as hugely beneficial to the progress of the stable.

She said, "Arinniti was a good filly for us. She ran a nice race on debut for Paddy Twomey at Navan where she looked to get a little tired on the softer ground. We always thought she was smart and there's no doubt that she is in good hands and should be able to progress into a listed-class filly at least for her new connections."

Lupini added, "We're always searching for the quality horse and, when it works out, it's brilliant. This is the first year that we tried to sell horses with form and it has worked out great. We put our heads together and decided that, along with the handicappers, we'd try and run a few younger horses in maidens and try to get them sold."

"Obviously Arinniti worked out well and there are a few more coming through. You need something to sell to try and keep the yard going and it has given us great satisfaction with how it has worked out. You need days like that to go on in this game."

A winner on Irish Champions Weekend would add to the satisfaction.

THE PASSING OF MY MENTOR, JAMES DELAHOOKE by Eric Ward

When I opened today's Thoroughbred Daily News and saw James on the front page, I assumed it would be a follow-up to Bobby Flay's glowing words about James's talents in the paper last week. It took me a few moments for the actual headline to sink in.

For me, James's death marks the passing of my most influential bloodstock mentor. From the time I first started at his Adstock Manor Stud in 1990, James became a father-figure-like fountain of equine knowledge to me. When I moved into a cottage at Adstock, another occupant working the yearling sales prep (David Redvers) commented that it was a pity for me to come to such a place as Adstock only to work with hunters and point-to-pointers. At the time, I didn't quite understand what he meant. However, luck turned out to be on my side because as soon as the December sales were over, James was around every day, either riding out, or on the ground directing gallops, and for two winters I found myself with unparalleled access to arguably the finest judge of a horse in modern racing. He and his right-hand man, George Cook, really gave me the foundation I needed to understand and assess horses. I remember one of my first questions for him was to ask why he'd bought a horse out of Keeneland September specifically to become a hunter-chaser. His reply was simply: "look at him. Really look at him. Take him in." The horse turned out to be a talented performer over fences. Naturally.

James also gave me the privilege of so many good days fox hunting with the Bicester and Waddon Chase and seemed to particularly enjoy it when I teamed up with the tearaway hunter-chaser King Neon, co-owned and bred by him and George. A tricky horse to control, at times I ended up riding very close to the Field Masters. One, Ian McKie, was understanding and even encouraging, being an amateur jockey himself. However another Field Master, who was never the bravest across country, once gave me a terrible dressing-down for coming within a length of him over an open ditch. James thought it highly amusing and told me "Don't worry about it. Serves him right. Next time tell him he shouldn't dither about in front of fences!"
Well, quite. Though, at just 18, I didn’t have the guts to talk back to the man!

James was that thing which is so rare in racing these days. A grass-roots stockman and horseman. Someone who understood that the land and the horses are inseparable. As time moved on and racing morphed into The Thoroughbred Industry, we shared our disdain for the new wave of slick bullshitters in the game who amazingly manage to grab the ears of new owners and manipulate them for short-term gain. During an e-mail exchange a few years ago, we agreed that Slick Drivel would be a great, and apt, name for a racehorse!

I loved and shared his wicked sense of humour, and Sunday lunches in the kitchen at Adstock were always entertaining and the highlight of my working week.

Much to my amazement, he never forgot me and years after my time at Adstock, he sought me out to run an expanding private farm in Ireland. That venture might have been short-lived for both of us but was a valuable experience for me.

When I then turned down a job he found for me in England in order to go out to Turkey, he thought I was barking mad, but when I explained to him that I needed to get away from the money-grabbing commercial juggernaut that racing and breeding had become and go out to help upgrade standards in a country where it was still a sport where owner-breeders dominated and took pleasure in seeing their horses run without worrying about sales value, he understood perfectly. From time to time, he lamented the way things had changed and how unfortunately, we can’t put the genie back in the bottle. He was right about that one too, even if we should try to put it back in.

In latter years we often met at mare sales and usually had an amusing dinner together. One particular evening at Cardigan Street we launched into a vibrant, irreverent discussion on the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. We got right into it, much to the consternation of two other guests, who were unsure whether we were being serious or satirical. The reality was we veered between the two constantly. It was such a fun night, topped off with a good dollop of mockery of a certain pompous racing figure, which always made James giggle!

The last time we spoke was back in February when his friend George Cook died. Makes it all the more shocking that James is now gone so soon afterwards, although I am glad that at least he went whilst out on a grouse moor, doing something he loved. I will miss him. So will many others.

Eric Ward grew up in Ireland and spent nearly 30 years in stud farming all over the world including a decade with Coolmore. He managed studs in Ireland, China and Turkey. Now based in Gaillac, France he assists his winemaker wife, writes novels and is also a volunteer fire-fighter/first responder.

A winner herself over a mile, Desert Berry is out of a Distant View half-sister to the top Juddmonte mare Binche (GB), whose offspring include the Group 1 winners Byword (GB) and Proviso (GB), and Group 2 winner Finche (GB).

"It is rare for the dam of a Derby winner to be offered for sale, and even rarer in the year of the Derby triumph," said Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony. "Desert Crown is an outstanding Derby winner and Desert Berry will undoubtedly be one of the highlights of our inaugural Sceptre Session. It is a pleasure and a privilege to offer such an exceptional broodmare on behalf of Gary Robinson, and the depth and international appeal of her pedigree make her an enticing prospect for breeders from throughout the world."

The Tattersalls December Mare Sale begins its four-day run on Monday, Nov. 28.

TORONADO COLT SHINES AT ARQANA SEPTEMBER

Arqana’s inaugural September Yearling Sale, a replacement for the v.2 Yearling Sale, started its two-day run on Thursday, and a smart colt by the former French-based stallion Toronado (Ire) brought a session-topping bid of €120,000 from Mathieu Alex on behalf of Pauline Chehboub’s SAS Yellow Agency.

Part of the Fairway Consignment draft and already named Tomokay (Fr), lot 34 is the fifth foal from his dam, the winning Hold That Tiger mare Loumaxaye (Fr). His half-brother Hayejohn (Fr), by first-season sire Johnny Barnes (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), carried all before him in the Listed Prix des Jouvenceaux et des Jouvencelles at Vichy after the catalogue was published.

This is also the extended family of the dual listed winner Sully (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) and G1 Futurity S., G1 Queen Elizabeth S. and G1 Caulfield Cup S. heroine Aqua d’Amore (Aus) (Danehill).

Second on the buyers’ sheets was lot 82, Tiger King (Fr) (Inns Of Court {Ire}). Cont. p17

Originally a €9,500 in utero purchase by Jean-Claud Olivier out of the Arqana December Breeding Stock Sale in 2020, the colt was re-sold one year later in that same sale for €19,000 to Six of Us.

Offered by Haras de Grandcamp on Thursday, the February-foaled colt was snapped up for €85,000 by John Hassett of The Bloodstock Connection for GET IN THE GAME. Out of the listed-placed Pink Cloud (Fr) (Octagonal (NZ)), his dam is a half-sister to two-time listed winner Pink Gin (Fr) (Kouroun (Fr)), as well as the stakes-placed Pink Anabella (Fr) (Anabaa).

John Hassett said, “He’s a magnificent colt, that comes from a good stud. I’m very pleased with this purchase. It’s possible that he might come back to Deauville for the Breeze Up next May, but nothing is decided yet.”

Hassett had struck for a colt by Shalaa (Ire) earlier in the day, when shelling out €68,000 for lot 71 as JCH Bloodstock. Haras de Castillon consigned the bay, whose dam is a half-sister to none other than outstanding third-crop sire and dual Group 2 winner Mehmas (Ire) (Acclamation (GB)), who was also runner up in the G1 National S. and third in the G1 Middle Park S.

John Hammond bought four on the day for owner Gerard Augustin-Normand ranging in price from €5,000 to €80,000. Leading the quartet was a colt by City Light (Fr) (lot 101) from the draft of Haras d’Aspel. His dam is a half-sister to the stakes winner and stakes producer Rioticism (Fr) (Rio de la Plata), responsible for three-time stakes winner and G3 Round Tower S. third Ladies Church (GB) (Churchill (Ire)), while his half-brother by Birchwood graduated at Deauville this summer for Joel Boisnard. This colt will also join the Boisnard string.

Thursday’s most expensive filly was a daughter of Ten Sovereigns (Ire) (lot 47). Purchased for €77,000 by Hammond from Haras de la Haie Neuve, the well-bred miss is from the same family as Group 1 winner Sequoyah (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), the dam of dual Classic winner Henrythenavigator (Kingmanbo), and the Classic-placed Group 3 winner Queen Cleopatra (Ire) (Kingmanbo); while Sequoyah’s half-sister Listen (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells) took the G1 Fillies’ Mile and was runner-up in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. Carrying this filly, her dam brought €55,000 from Narvick International at the Arqana December Breeding Stock Sale in 2020.

“She’s a lovely filly, that is very like her sire,” said Hammond. “I really like her physique and she has a lot of strength. We’ll decide on her future at a later date.”

At the end of the day, 101 yearlings (71.6%) had sold from 141 offered. The gross was a respectable €2,113,000. The average was €20,921 and the median settled at €15,000.

The sale continues Friday at 2 p.m.
James Richardson, CEO of ThoroughBid, said, “We’re delighted to have been recognised and trusted by so many people in the industry, who clearly get the positives of being able to sell online at the moment.

“To have the likes of Willie Mullins and Charlie Hills selling with us is great, and we’re also very excited about working with the Beswick Brothers and David Maughan, who have brought a terrific array of bloodstock to this September Sale.”

Aug. 19, was quickly at the fore of this Weatherbys Scientific £300,000 2-Y-O S. Trading strides with Alpha Capture (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) throughout, the 11-4 favourite had the edge close home to prevail by a short head. “I think he’s actually a better horse taking a lead early, but he winged the gates today and Andrea [Atzeni] was adamant he wasn’t going to pull him around if that happened,” trainer Karl Burke commented. “He more or less made the running in the Gimcrack and this performance has franked the Gimcrack form, which is brilliant given we also had the runner-up Marshman. This is a lovely colt in his own right and I’m sure he’s a group horse in the making, but today was a big prize and a big target. I’ll speak to his owner and Andrea about where we go next and go from there, but there’s plenty of stamina on the dam’s side and I know Sheikh Mohammed Obaid is very keen to step up in trip. Definitely next year he’ll stay seven furlongs and maybe even a mile.” The dam, whose foal is a full-brother to the winner, is kin to the G3 Cornwallis S. scorer Ponty Acclaim (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) and to the dam of the dual stakes winner and GII Dinner Party S. runner-up Talk Or Listen (Ire) (Alhebayeb {Ire}) and the Listed Windsor Castle S. second Roussel (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). ADAYAR (IRE) (c, 4, Frankel (GB)–Anna Salai (GSW-Fr, G1SP-Ire, SP-Eng, $158,818), by Dubawi (IRE)), sidelined with a respiratory infection throughout the spring and summer, cut his familiar awesome figure returning to remind everyone that he is the power that ruled the 2021 Derby and King George. Settled last of the trio early by William Buick, the 2-7 favourite moved to Masekela (IRE) (El Kabeir) with ease two out and without any prompting bulldozed that rival by 3 3/4 lengths. “You are always a bit apprehensive after so much time off, but full credit to the team as they’ve done a great job,” Charlie Appleby said after this command performance in a time that stacked up well with the equation by any stretch of the imagination. I think a mile and a quarter suits him. We saw it with this horse last year in the Arc and in the Champion S. He’d been campaigned in a Derby and a King George and it told at the end of the year.” Buick added, “He did it nicely and in the way that you’d want him to do it, so he should be able to build from this. We all know how good he is, it’s just nice to get a nice comeback run underneath his belt. He’s shown his quality and all his zest, so it was very pleasing. It’s quite testing ground out there, so for a horse who hasn’t run for such a long time you’d imagine he will improve for it.” The talented Anna Salai, who captured the G3 Prix de la Grotte and was second in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, also has the unraced 3-year-old filly Bedouin Queen (GB) (Teofilo (IRE)) and Adayar’s 2-year-old full-brother Military Order (IRE). The second dam Anna Palariva (IRE) (Caerleon), who took the G3 Prix d’Aumale almost 25 years ago to the day, also produced the listed-winning and group-placed dup Iguazu Falls (Pivotal (GB)) and Advice (GB) (Seeking The Gold) and Dubawi’s G3 Abu Dhabi Championship runner-up Seniority (GB), who fittingly on this day once raced in The Queen’s silks. Also connected to the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere-winning sire National Defense (GB) (Invincible Spirit (IRE)) and the GI Flower Bowl Invitational heroine Ave (GB) (Danehill Dancer (IRE)), her yearling filly is by Exceed And Excel (Aus). Lifetime Record: 9-4-2-0, $2,035,160. VIDEO. O/B-Godolphin (IRE); T-Charlie Appleby.

1st-Epsom, £9,000, Nov, 9-8, 2yo, 7f 3yT, 1:29.14, hy. SERIOUS LOOK (IRE) (c, 2, Dark Angel (IRE)–Fregate First (GB), by Le Havre (IRE)), who hit the board in a July 23 Newcastle maiden and an Aug. 28 Beverley maiden last time, broke smartly and stalked the leader in second through the early fractions here. Sent wide into the straight, the even-money pick edged ahead passing the two pole and was ridden out in the closing stages to defeat Tellateller (IRE) (Kessaar (IRE)) by 1 1/4 lengths. Serious Look is the second foal and winner produced by an unraced half to multiple group-winning sire French Navy (GB) (Shamardal), G3 Sovereign S. victor Sea Lord (IRE) (Cape Cross (IRE)) and G3 Prix d’Aumale third Gherdaiya (GB) (Shamardal), herself the dam of Listed Derby du Midi runner-up Subahiyah (IRE) (Le Havre (IRE)). PROMOTER (GB) (c, 2, Showcasing (GB)—Hereawi (GB), by Dubawi (Ire)), who ran seventh behind subsequent dual Group 2-placed G3 Prix Francois Boutin winner Mysterious Night (Ire) (Dark Angel (Ire)) at Newbury in his June 9 introduction last time, recovered from a slightly sluggish exit to race in a close-up third along the far-side rail after the initial strides of this return. Nudged along to challenge with three furlongs remaining, the 5-2 chance led soon after and quickened clear before gearing down to easily hold Racingbreaks Ryder (Ire) (Fast Company (Ire)) by 1 1/2 lengths. Promoter, half-brother to a yearling filly by Nathaniel (Ire), is the third of four foals and first scorer {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. Promoter, half-brother to a yearling filly by Nathaniel (Ire), is the third of four foals and first scorer produced by a dual-winning half-sister to stakes-winning G2 Lancashire Oaks third Hereby (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}). ANCESTRAL LAND (GB) (c, 2, Sioux Nation—Swing Out Sister (Ire), by Kodiak (GB)), a June 20 first-up second over six furlongs at Windsor last time, was well away from the far-side stall and asserted for an early lead in this return. In command throughout, the 2-5 lock was shaken up when threatened approaching the final quarter mile and kept on strongly under mild coaxing in the closing stages to easily account for Majestic Fillies S. runner-up Online Alexander (Ire) (Acclamation (GB)), herself the dam of Listed Cammidge Trophy winner Royal Commando (Ire) (No Nay Never) and G2 July S. and G2 Richmond S. runner-up Yazaman (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)). His second dam Dance Club (Ire) (Fasliyev) is a winning half-sister to G1 Haydock Sprint Cup-winning sire Red Clubs (Ire) (Red Ransom). FUNNY STORY (GB) (f, 2, Havana Grey (GB)—Funny Enough (GB), by Dansili (GB)), who followed July 7 score at Newmarket with a last-of-10 finish in Newbury’s Aug. 12 Listed St Hugh’s S., broke sharply from the outside stall and shadowed the pace in second racing under a seven-pound penalty incurred for her debut success. Inching closer on the home turn, the 3-1 second choice locked horns with Art Of Magic (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)) approaching the final furlong and was ridden out in the latter stages to assert by 1 1/4 lengths from that rival. Funny Story is the seventh of eight foals and one of six scorers out of a half-sister to stakes-winning Scandinavian champion and G3 Marit Sveaas Minnelop third Smart Enough (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux (GB)), Listed Cleves S. winner Oasis Dancer (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)) and the dam of G1 Commonwealth Cup demotee and G1 July Cup runner-up Dragon Symbol (GB) (Cable Bay (Ire)). Sea The Sky had failed to get in front since snagging her Nov. 2 debut at Chantilly and went postward for this marathon coming back off a third in Deauville’s Aug. 14 G3 Prix Minerve. Settled off the pace in sixth for the most part, she made continued headway under pressure in the home straight to gain a narrow advantage entering the final furlong and was ridden out late to deny Divine Jewel in a bobbing finish for a career high.

Sea The Sky, the seventh of nine foals, is one of three scorers produced by an unraced full-sister to G1 Deutsches Derby-winning sires Samum (Ger) (Monsun [Ger]) and Schiaparelli
(Ger) (Monsun [Ger]) and G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks)
heroine Salve Regina (Ger) (Monsun [Ger]). The €820,000 BBAG
September yearling is a full-sister to runaway G1 Deutsches Derby-winning sire Sea The Moon (Ger) (Sea the Stars [Ire]) and to the dam of this term’s Listed Abingdon S. runner-up Golden Lyra (Ire) (Lope De Vega [Ire]). She is also a half-sister to Listed Dallmayr Coupe Lukull runner-up Sansiwa (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and a yearling filly by Frankel (GB). Sea The Sky’s weanling full-brother is slated to sell at this year’s Goffs November Foal sale, according to Gestut Gorlsdorf’s Niko Lafrentz. Video, sponsored by TVG.

Nudged along to make her challenge at the top of the straight, the 8-5 favourite was joined by Ballerina (Fr) (Taareef) with 350 metres remaining and kept in strongly under late urging to deny that rival by an ultimately snug short neck. Una Stonda is the latest of 11 foals and one of four scorers out of a multiple-winning half-sister to four black-type performers headed by G3 Round Tower S. victor Norman Invader (War Chant) and GII Palm Beach S. winner A Thread Of Blue (Hard Spun). The Mayfoaled bay is a half-sister to G3 Tercentenary S.-winning sire Energizer (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and to the dams of G3 St Leger Italiano and G3 Premio Carlo d’Alessio winner Azteco (Ire) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)) and Listed Geelong Classic victor Long Jack (Aus) (So You Think {NZ}).
