AND TELL ME NOLIES UPSETS HOME COOKING IN DEL MAR DEBUTANTE

Peter Redekop’s And Tell Me Nolies paid tribute to her late champion sire Arrogate Saturday, nailing heavy favorite and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Home Cooking (Honor Code) on the line to take the GI Del Mar Debutante S.

Given a 9-1 chance with Home Cooking pounded down to 3-5, And Tell Me Nolies was shuffled a bit at the start as her neighbors on each side broke in her direction, but she did not falter and moved up to establish position as the chalk took control, clocking a :22.01 first quarter. One off the fence in fifth, she kept the favorite within her sights as the half went in a swift :44.36. And Tell Me Nolies ranged up two wide on the far turn as Home Cooking entered the stretch on a clear lead. The Bob Baffert runner grew a bit leg weary in the final strides and And Tell Me Nolies found just enough to push past her late for a narrow upset in a tight photo finish. Ice Dancing (Frosted) completed the trifecta.

“I told Peter [Miller] that I had confidence in this filly right from the start,” said winning rider Ramon Vasquez. “I’m glad he was loyal to me and let me ride her in this one. She was a runner all the way today. And I knew I was the winner at the wire. This is my first Grade I win. It is so amazing. I want to thank Peter for giving me this chance. This is amazing.”

TWIN CREEKS BANNER UNFURLED AT KEENELAND by Christina Bossinakis

The Twin Creeks Farm name is a very familiar one in horse racing. Having been associated with a host of big-name horses in the past as both a breeder and owner, the operation will now venture into new terrain, offering its first draft of yearlings on Day 4 of this season’s Keeneland September Sale.

The initial seven-horse draft on offer is highlighted by five yearlings by WinStar sire Constitution.

“Overall, we thought this was a very solid group and these individuals were very similar,” Twin Creeks’ Randy Gullatt said. “And they all have a very strong pedigree behind them. I hope we have already proven the point that we can breed and sell great horses, so I think they will be very popular here.”

“I didn’t see a ton of speed on the form,” Miller said. “We were drawn inside. I think he [Vasquez] wanted to get position, which he did. I did like some of the moves he made. At the five-eighths pole when he beat Cedillo ([Vegas Magic] to the spot, and then when he got her outside around the two-and-a-half furlong pole, I felt really good.”

A $70,000 KEESEP acquisition by D.J. Stable, And Tell Me Nolies brought $230,000 from agent Bryan Anderson at OBS April after breezing in :10 flat. Rallying for fourth behind Satin Doll (Congrats)—who was scratched from this event—when unveiled in a five-panel event at this oval July 23, she broke through next out with a narrow graduation going 6 1/2 furlongs over this strip Aug. 14. Ice Dancing finished third that day.

Pedigree Notes:

And Tell Me Nolies is the second Grade I/graded winner for her late sire Arrogate. She hails from his second of three crops and his other graded scorer comes from his first in this year’s GI Kentucky Oaks victress Secret Oath. They are two of the Eclipse winners four black-type scorers. Breeder Lara Run acquired GSW & GISP Be Fair for $50,000 at the 2018 KEENOV sale in foal to Practical Joke and sold her to Jim Ballinger in foal to super sire Gun Runner for $35,000 at the OBSWIN sale. The resulting foal is a now-yearling colt, who brought $150,000 from McMahon & Hill Bloodstock at Keeneland November last term. The half-sister to GISW Macho Again (Macho Uno) failed to get in foal to The Big Beast for 2022, but was bred to Mo Town this spring.

Constitution, sire of five yearlings offered by Twin Creeks at
Keeneland September | WinStar

In a fateful move that would pave the way for the string of successes that would come in the breeding shed and on the racetrack, Twin Creeks teamed up with WinStar Farm to campaign $400,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select yearling purchase Constitution (Tapit), victorious in the 2014 GI Besilu Florida Derby and 2015 GI Donn H. Standing for an advertised fee of $85,000 in 2022, Constitution currently heads the earning’s list of North American fourth crop sires with runners in both North America and Europe.

“He’s been so important to us, both in racing him and now as a sire,” he said. “We’ve raced four graded stakes horses by him that we also bred.”

According to Gullatt, Hip 812 and Hip 888 are likely to garner plenty of attention next week. The former, who is out of Sharp Instinct (Awesome Again), is a half-brother to GSW Send It In (Big Brown). The latter is a half-brother to Grade II-placed Afleet Destiny (Hard Spun). Both yearlings are by Constitution.

Gullatt explained, “These colts in particular have a really special look to them. They both have that special physical that most of these buyers seem to be attracted to. I think being by Constitution and having that look, I would think they’d be very popular.”

Hoping to catch lightning in a bottle again, Twin Creeks has already tasted top-level success with another son of Constitution. Consigned on behalf of breeder Twin Creeks by Becky Thomas’s Sequel New York in the 2018 renewal of the Saratoga Preferred New York-bred Yearling Sale, Tiz the Law—out of Tizfiz (Tiznow)—was purchased for $110,000 by Jack Knowlton’s Sackatoe Stable. Trained by Barclay Tagg, the colt went on to win the GI Belmont S. in addition to the GI Runhappy
Travers S., Gi Curlin Florida Derby and Gi Champagne S. Cont. p5

“Tiz the Law is a very different type of horse from the colts we are offering at Keeneland September,” explained Gullatt. “He was a smaller sort of horse and had an exceptional mind, but he wasn’t a [physical] standout as a yearling. And Constitution was a relatively unknown stallion at the time that Tiz the Law sold.”

He continued, “But I think these colts are a step above [physically] than Tiz the Law was as a yearling. Obviously, Constitution’s stature as a stallion has also grown since Tiz the Law sold.”

Another member of the Constitution brigade received a timely boost on her page. Hip 1019–out of a half-sister to GSW Celestine (Scat Daddy) named Haunted Heroin (Ghostzapper)--is a full-sister to Law Professor, winner of the Sept. 1 Tapit S. at Kentucky Downs. Trained by Rob Atras, the Twin Creeks homebred is also responsible for a win in last season's GII Santa Anita Mathis Mile.

“I think he's going to be an exciting fall horse for us,” Gullatt said of Law Professor. “We're quite high on him.”

Of his full sister, he added, "She should make an incredible racehorse, and hopefully, as a broodmare for someone one day."

Among the Twin Creeks offerings not by Constitution, Hip 906 is by the recently deceased More Than Ready out of Baffling (Graydar)--a homebred, half-sister to Constitution out of Baffled (Distorted Humor). The immediate family also boasts Group 2 winner Boynton (More Than Ready) and Grade III scorer Jacaranda (Congrats).

“We had the mare Baffled for some time and sold a More Than Ready out of her named Boynton for $750,000 [at Keeneland September in 2015]. So, we know that the niche works.”

He added, “She is a big, strong, two-turn, classy filly. I think she can be a tremendous broodmare for someone someday.”

According to Gullatt, Hip 1093, by Catholic Boy (More Than Ready) out of May Night (Gulch), has been withdrawn from the sale and will be retained by Twin Creeks to race. Twin Creeks also campaigned the GI Travers S. and GI Belmont Derby winner with Bob LaPenta, Madaket Stables and Siena Farm.

“She’s the only Catholic Boy that we have,” he said, explaining the decision to scratch. “It looks like it might be [dam Song of Bernadette]’s last foal, so we decided we want to keep that family.”

Planting the Seed

According to Twin Creek’s Randy Gullatt, the addition of farm manager Ryan Bardin to the team was instrumental in facilitating the move to sell its own product at public sale.

“We have done occasionally in the past, but nothing to this degree,” explained Gullatt. “This year, I have a new farm manager to help out and we had a nice group of horses and we thought we could sell them all on the same day. And we thought, ‘why not this year be the year we start selling our own in September.’”

Expanding upon the decision to assume selling duties at Keeneland September, Gullatt continued, “Sequel New York sells all of our New York bred, and Taylor Made sells our Kentucky horses. And we’re still going to use them. Taylor Made sold a horse for us in July and they will sell something for us in October and November as well. Sequel sold a horse for us at Saratoga in August. September is just such a unique place. It’s close to home and it’s something that we can do on our own now. We also thought the horses were all of similar quality and, being able to sell them on the same day, that played a role in the decision as well.”

Also on offer next week are a pair of Constitutions--a filly, Hip 779 out of Grade II winner Pure Silver (Mission Impazible) and Hip 792, another colt by Constitution out of Remedy (Creative Cause) from the family of champion Beholder and Into Mischief. Rounding out the consignment is Hip 799, a daughter of freshman sire City of Light.

Underscoring the relevance of the younger sires, not only to Twin Creeks program, but also to the industry as a whole, Gullatt said, “Especially with the fillies, having these current horses on the track adds that 'sexy' value to these yearlings. I think this market always enjoys that fresh face. The first-year stallion, new horse or an up-and-coming stars like Constitution. Big names mean a lot to pedigrees. Having that current horse just gives you a family that people want to invest into. Those are the ones we want to bring here.”

Red Knight blew up the tote at 15-1 in the GII Turf Cup S. at Kentucky Downs Saturday, earning a spot in the gate for the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf in November. Breaking sharply from his inside post, the chestnut settled back near the rear with just three of his 11 rivals beat through an opening half-mile in :49.72. Inchung up a bit, but still biding his time through three-quarters in 1:14.52, Red Knight snuck up the outside to be within striking distance approaching the far turn. Four wide at the top of the lane, the gelding hit the front in mid-stretch and held off a late charge from Gufo and Another Mystery to spring the upset.

“He ran a great race at Colonial Downs,” said winning rider Gerardo Corrales. “This is the perfect distance for him, 12 furlongs. Gufo is a three-time Grade I winner. When Gufo came next to Red Knight, Red Knight actually saw him eye to eye and he got additional energy. He just never quit. He just kept trying.”

He added, “I’ve won two graded races in all my life, and they were this week with Kitodan in the [GIII] Dueling Grounds Derby and now with Red Knight.”

“I thought he was gonna get beat,” said winning trainer Mike Maker. “He dug in and fought hard. He is a fighter, he is a tough horse. He rode him great and got him to the outside and go the job done.”

Winner of the GIII Sycamore S. back in 2020, Red Knight checked in second to GISW Arklow (Arch) in the GII Louisville S. last May and was fifth to recent GI Sword Dancer S. winner Gufo in the Grand Couturier S. last July. Fifth again in Saratoga’s GII Bowling Green S. last summer, he was sixth in the restricted John’s Call S. there a month later and was shelved for the season. Transferred from Bill Mott to Mike Maker in the interim, Red Knight rallied to victory in the Colonial Cup S. last out July 27 after 13 months on the sidelines.
Pedigree Notes:

Red Knight is a half-brother to MSW Macagone. Isabel Away’s most recent produce is a 4-year-old gelding named Druid (Magician {Ire}).

It turns out Flightline (Tapit) isn't only fast horse Hronis Racing has in the John Sadler barn, as Bran (Fr) set a new course record of 1:07.41 for the six furlongs of the GII FanDuel Turf Sprint S. at Kentucky Downs. A “Win and You're In” event for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint, the $1 million race was being contested for the 24th time and was Sadler’s first win at the Franklin, Ky. track after just a handful of starts.

At 11-1, Bran broke uneventfully and sat mid-pack between rivals in the 11-horse field as a first quarter unfurled in :21.51 with Artemus Citylimits steering the ship. Moving well off the turn after a half in :43.97, Bran split horses while wide with his sights on the leader as he drove to the wire. He swapped to his wrong lead down the impossibly long stretch, caught Artemus Citylimits late, and hit the wire a neck in front.

“My horse was beautiful before the race,” said winning rider Vincent Cheminaud. “I was a little bit relaxed from the start. I followed the horse that was in front of me, my horse was very good at the finish, and he finished strong.

“The trainer told me he was very good to win today, and now we won it. I’m very happy. This was only the second time that I’ve ridden for John Sadler, and the other time was on this horse. I won a very good race for him. This track is like Europe for me, it’s not the same track, but to ride a good horse, it’s more easy.”

Bran had a respectable career in France, getting four wins under the tutelage of M. Delcher-Sanchez before shipping stateside after bloodstock agent Shawn Dugan purchased him for €80,000 at the Arqana October sale last fall. He debuted for Sadler Jan. 1 of this year with a third in the GII Joe Hernandez S., then added wins in the GII Daytona S. and the Siren Lure S., both at Santa Anita, as well as placings in the GII Twin Spires Turf Sprint S. at Churchill Downs and the Wickerr S. at Del Mar.

“I think people maybe underestimated him a little bit [in the Turf Sprint], but they forget how good his race was at Churchill,” said Sadler from Lexington, where he was preparing for the upcoming Keeneland September sale. “That was a really good second at Churchill. I thought he was a good fit for this. Remember, when we’re talking about Santa Anita, he’s run six on the flat and he’s run 6 1/2 down the hill. So he’s had good experience, then you throw in what they do in Europe, where the courses are different. So all those little things made a good vibe for the horse going there.”

Pedigree Notes:

English and French highweight, as well as a winner of four Group 1 races, Muhaarar (GB) is the sire of 15 black-type winners from his four crops to date. Seven of those are group/graded winners for the son of Oasis Dream (GB), who stands at Shadwell’s Nunnery Stud in England. Bran is out of the King’s Best (70 stakes winners out of his daughters) mare Best Intent (GB), who has a 2-year-old filly named Atakama (Fr) and a yearling colt, both by Le Havre (Ire). Best Intent’s dam, herself a GSW & G1SP in France, is a half to four Group winners, including French champions Coup de Genie (Mr. Prospector) and Machiavellian (Mr. Prospector), as well as additional French G1 winner Exit to Nowhere (Irish River (Fr)).

One Timer pulled off quite a surprise at Kentucky Downs Saturday, taking the GII Franklin-Simpson S. at odds of 19-1. Breaking like a shot from the 12-hole, he sped out to a clear lead, zipping through a :21.64 opening quarter and :45.04 half-mile. Turning for home in front, albeit by a slimmer margin, the dark bay leapt away again in the lane, hitting the line a decisive winner.

“I think he was a little overlooked just because of his last race,” winning conditioner Larry Rivelli said. “We went for the ultimate experiment: two turns, dirt, this that and the other, close to home. I figured going back [to a turf sprint]. And [jockey] E.T. [Baird] always said, ‘run this horse like a middle distance. He’s got a high-cruising speed. He’ll just keep going.’ We thought this might hit him right in the head. Obviously there were all these bombers in there, I almost thought about scratching. But we really pointed to this race like all year. We left him in there and he didn’t leave us down. He’s a real nice horse.”

“He broke really well and I was able to open up a couple lengths,” Baird said. “He has a really high cruising speed. He was really comfortable around the turn. He had his ears pricked and was doing it really easy. He was in the bridle the whole way, he was wanting to run. When I asked him, he just rebroke. I was not worried about any of them behind me. They have to cover the ground I own. I just have to ride my horse and whatever happens, happens.”

Opening his career with three straight wins last year, two of which were stakes, One Timer faded to ninth in the GII Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint S. in November. He returned to winning ways in his sophomore bow with a dominant score in the Tom Ridge S. on synthetic at Presque Isle Downs May 23. Second in Monmouth’s My Frenchman S. on grass July 17, the $21,000 FTKOCT buy called it quits when trying dirt and two turns for the first time in the St. Louis Derby last out Aug. 20, fading to be ninth.

Pedigree Notes:

One Timer is the sixth graded winner for his sire Trappe Shot and the fourth out of a daughter of Blame. He is the first foal out of Spanish Star, who is also responsible for an unraced juvenile colt named Pasa Doble (Tapwrit), a yearling filly be Arrogate and a 2022 filly by Twirling Candy. The half-sister to GI Belmont S. winner Sir Winston (Awesome Again) was bred back to champion and new Darley sire Essential Quality.

Billed as a showdown between stablemates and GISWs Going Global (Ire) and Going to Vegas, Del Mar’s GII John C. Mabee S. instead went to Avenue de France (Fr), who left them both behind with a flourish Saturday. Avenue de France, a multiple black-type winner but previously the bridesmaid when trying graded company, finally got one of her own in the John Mabee. Second to last early after a smooth break as Park Avenue (Quality Road) led the field up front with ears pricked through fractions of :23.73 and :46.53, Avenue de France got in a little tight as she split horses, then suddenly turned on the afterburners to rush up with a furious rally about a half-mile from home. She swamped Park Avenue as she hit the front well before the stretch, cut the corner off the turn, dug deep, and held tough as they tried to catch her. Going Global, who beat the winner by three lengths in the Aug. 13 GII Yellow Ribbon H., battled hard, but could not catch her on the day. Going to Vegas chased the top pair home in third. Avenue de France’s half-length triumph netted $23.80 to backers.

“This filly always moves the last quarter [mile] of the race,” said winning rider Juan Hernandez, who has partnered with her for her last three starts, “but today I took my chance and I ran at the half mile because she was pulling and looked like she wanted to run. So I saw the opportunity to go around and make my move a little early, not from the quarter pole but from the three-eighths and I took my chance...I just let her free and then she was comfortable and hit the wire first.”

Avenue de France, a confirmed closer, had faced both Going Global and Going to Vegas multiple times before, but had never finished in front of either of the Grade I winners before Saturday. Prior to her Yellow Ribbon runner-up finish, she had won the Osunitas S. July 23 and built a nice resume with previous wins in the Golden Poppy S., Miss America S., and Luther Burbank S., as well as several stakes placings, including in the GIII Megahertz S. in January. Trained by Leonard Powell since beginning her U.S. campaign in mid-2020, she opened her tab in France with two wins from two starts at two for D. Guillemin before selling for €95,000 that October at Arqana’s Saint-Cloud Arc sale and resurfacing in America the next spring.

Pedigree Notes:

Avenue de France is by the Selkirk stallion Cityscape (GB), who stands at Overbury Stud in England. The half-brother to Bated Breath (GB) has six black-type winners to his name with the addition of Avenue de France making four of those group/graded. The first foal for her dam, Avenue de France has a placed 2-year-old half-brother named Soleil Du Desert (Fr) (Sommerabend {GB}) and a yearling half-sister by Seabhac. Broodmare sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) has 37 stakes winners out of his daughters.

Somelikethotbrown made it two in a row Saturday when getting back on grass at Kentucky Downs for the GIII WinStar Mint Million S., which was rescheduled after the last half of last Saturday’s card was canceled due to a thunderstorm. Taking up his preferred position at the head of affairs, the bay clicked off opening splits of :23.48 and :46.93. Joined by a host of pursuers turning for home, he turned on the afterburners in the lane, extending clear to score.

“He has natural speed and since we took the blinker off, he has been settling,” said winning trainer Mike Maker, who also saddled runner-up Atone. “I left it up to Jose [Ortiz]. He was going easy all the way compared to the quarters earlier in the day it was slower. The first quarter felt pretty comfortable.

“We weren’t sure about running in this race because we only had two weeks from our last one up in Saratoga,” said Harvey Diamond, co-founder Skychai Racing. “But we decided everything was going good. He looked well, and this was the day, our day. We love this place. We run well here. The trainer runs well here. We’ll be back.”

A three-time graded winner prior to Saturday’s score, Somelikethotbrown kicked off 2022 with a fifth in the NY-bred Kingston S. at Belmont May 30 and was third after setting the pace next out in Indiana’s Jonathan B. Schuster Memorial S. July 9. Fading to sixth after carving out the early fractions in the restricted Lure S. at Saratoga Aug. 6, he romped by six lengths in the state-bred West Point S. at the Spa 20 days later, which was scratched down to just three runners after it was rained off the turf onto a muddy main track.

Pedigree Notes:

Somelikethotbrown is a half to NYSS winner Jolting Joe. Their dam Marilyn Monroan’s recent produce includes an unraced 3-year-old colt named Monromeo (Palace Malice), an unraced juvenile filly named Varsity Blonde (Hard Spun) and a 2022 filly by Mendelssohn. She was bred back to Nyquist. The winner also hails from the family of champion Stevie Wonderboy (Stephen Got Even).

It may be hard to believe, but American runner—and international star--Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac [GB]) was winning her first U.S. graded event in Saturday’s GIII Mint Ladies Sprint S. at Kentucky Downs. Of course, she's a Group 1 winner and highweight in both England and France, but the remarkable U.S-trained and -based 4-year-old’s biggest win on American soil previously was Keeneland’s listed Giant's Causeway S. in April. She’d shipped over to Royal Ascot after the Giant’s Causeway to deadheat for third in the G1 Platinum Jubilee S. June 18, no easy feat amongst a 24-horse field.

Campanelle (outside) outfinishes Bay Storm | Coady

Campanelle has more frequent flier miles than many people: bred in Ireland, she made her first start in the U.S. (a debut maiden win at Gulfstream), then shipped to Royal Ascot for a win in the G2 Queen Mary S. Back to the U.S. to train, she shipped to France for a G1 Darley Prix Morny victory, then back stateside again for a fourth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. And that was just as a 2-year-old. Campanelle opened her 3-year-old campaign at Royal Ascot with a win in the G1 Commonwealth Cup, came back to the U.S. to train, and shipped overseas again but faltered in France at Deauville. She closed out her sophomore year in the U.S. and then began her 4-year-old account at Keeneland before the third at Ascot and now the Franklin, Ky. win. Combined, the dizzying schedule and top wins have turned Campanelle into one of the most respected female turf sprinters in the world, making her 3-5 price in the Ladies Sprint no surprise.

Her performance was no surprise either. A close-up fourth as Creative Credit (Creative Cause) flew through a :21.55 first quarter, Campanelle continued rating and was patiently parked in third at the :44.73 half. The bay came flying five wide and menacingly on the outside as Bay Storm (Kantharos), who had been tracking the leader all the way, had the wire measured. The two battled late and drove together down the stretch with neither wanting to give an inch. Campanelle edged in front and Bay Storm fought back, but Campanelle’s class prevailed to get her nose down on the wire as Bay Storm had to settle for the runner-up sport after being heartbreakingly close to notching her first graded win.

“She is a fighter,” said Barbara Banke, in whose Stonestreet Stables silks Campanelle runs. “She’s super fast, and she is not going to let anyone get by her if she can help it. [Jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr.] cut it a little close, but she’s really good.”

Ortiz agreed: “I love her. She’s the most kind, fun to ride. She’s crazy good. She made the lead a little earlier today. I hit her a couple of times. She responded so I put the stick away, keeping busy on her. Maybe she got confused a little. But she saw that filly and fought back.”

Pedigree Notes:
Standing at Tally-Ho Stud in Ireland, Kodiac (GB) counts 37 group/graded winners among his 81 Northern Hemisphere-bred black-type winners. Two--Campanelle and English GSW Shaden (Ire)--are out of Namid (GB) mares, quite a statistic since they represent exactly one-third of the stakes winners out of Namid daughters. Tally-Ho, who also bred Campanelle, bought her dam for 39,000gns at Tattersalls July in 2016, got an Exceed And Excel (Aus) filly out of her in 2017, and promptly bred her back to Kodiak, resulting in Campanelle, who is the last reported foal out of Janina (GB).

After finishing second to Princess Grace in last year’s GIII Kentucky Downs Ladies Turf, Dalika turned the tables on that foe Saturday.
The Irish National Yearling Sale is packed full of world class yearlings as more Irish breeders send a greater share of their best to Goffs.

515 lots headed by 11 from the penultimate crop of the legendary Galileo. Featuring candidates for the Goffs Million, Europe’s richest two-year-old race.

Talk to Tom Taaffe or Goffs US representative Jacob West this week for assistance with your visit to Ireland.

Dalika | Coady

Going straight to the lead from her rail draw, the gray ticked off early fractions of :23.06 and :46.17. Showing the way into the lane, she kept on finding to hold Princess Grace at bay.

“I said to Al [Stall] before the race, ‘If it’s a stamina contest, I think we might actually get an edge on this course,’” owner Paul Varga said. “And it kind of worked out that way. I didn’t see the fractions, but Brian [Hernandez] put her head out there and she dug in.”

“She’s a fast filly and you just have to stay out of her way,” said winning rider Brian Hernandez, Jr. “I’ve learned to grab a lot of mane on her and just be a good passenger. Princess Grace came to her, and she saw her from the outside and she dug back in. I got a little worried for about a jump, but my filly re-engaged. She did the same thing in the Beverly D. But she just went on. She’s nice, and she’s learning to get better as she’s gotten older.”

A well-beaten ninth in Keeneland’s GI First Lady S. after last year’s renewal of this race, Dalika was run down and forced to settle for second after setting the pace in Churchill’s GIII Mint Julep S. in her seasonal bow June 5. Fifth next out in Saratoga’s July 16 GI Diana S., she denied Princess Grace by a half-length last time in Churchill’s GI Beverly D S. Aug. 13.

Pedigree Notes:
Dalika’s dam Drawn to Run is also responsible for the sophomore filly Dalina (Ger) (Maxios {GB}), who won on debut three starts back; an unraced juvenile filly named Drawn To Dream (Ire) (Iquitos {Ger}); and a yearling colt by Waldgeist (GB).

As longshots Bizzee Channel (English Channel) and English Tavern (English Channel) continued to duel on the lead into the turn, Set Piece began to quietly improve his position without being asked to get into the pack as the field straightened for home. Tipped widest of them all, the bay came with a run into the final furlong and shook off a challenge from Pao Alto to win going away.

“That’s kind of his race. He’s not super-fast, but he comes running at the end,” Cox’s assistant Katie Tolbert said. “You just have to kind of keep him relaxed and save some ground and find a good spot. He loves it here. He ran great here on Preakness weekend. That’s kind of his race and Sheldon rode him perfect. We’re super happy with him.”

“At the half-mile pole I had a double handful, and it was just whether or not I could keep him in the clear,” added winning jockey Sheldon Russell. “I got him outside and he took off. Very, very nice. I think it helped that he won over this course before. I got really lucky and was fortunate to be able to ride him today.”

Capturing a trio of stakes at Churchill Downs last summer, Set Piece rallied to victory in Pimlico’s GII Dinner Party S. on Preakness day May 21, posting a career high 101 Beyer Speed Figure. Closing from well back to be fifth in Saratoga’s GII Forbidden Apple S. July 15, he produced another late kick to go from last to fourth in the GI Arlington Million S. held at Churchill Downs Aug. 13. A half-brother to MGSP Alocasia (GB) (Kingman {GB}), Set Piece hails from the extended family of G1SW Elmaamul (Diesis {GB}), MG1SW Reams of Verse (Nureyev), and MG1SW Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). His dam is responsible for an unraced 2-year-old filly, Carrier Wave (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), and a weanling filly by Kingman (GB).

Regal Riot ran to the money in the GIII British Columbia Derby Saturday at Hastings. Stalking from second through moderate opening splits, the favorite turned up the heat on the backstretch. On even terms with the leader turning for home, Regal Riot forged clear to score.

A two-time stakes winner at this venue this summer, Regal Riot was third in the Sir Winston Churchill S. Aug. 1 and filled the same spot in the GIII Canadian Derby Aug. 20.

Regal Red's recent produce includes an unraced juvenile filly named Winter Rose (Value Plus) and a yearling colt by the same stallion. She failed to get in foal to Bakken for 2022, but was bred back to that sire again this year. The winner is a half to MSW & GSP Wilko Kat and SW Slice of Red.

BAFFERT TRIO LEADS RUNHAPPY DEL MAR FUTURITY

"He hasn't run in a while but he's been working great," Baffert said. "I think distance is not going to be a problem for him. Two turns is going to be better for him."

The Hall of Famer continued, "All three are fast. [It's] if they don't get into each other's way. That first quarter is so important. If they go sub :22, none of them are going to be there."

Agency (Bolt d'Oro) was second best to Havnameltdown in the GIII Best Pal last out Aug. 14. He is a mid-pack runner, who stands to benefit most from a pace meltdown, and will pick up the services of Flavien Prat.

A race prior in the GIII Del Mar Juvenile Turf, a group of European invaders will take on the locals, such as dominant debut-winning Cal-bred Don'tthinkjustdoit (Smiling Tiger) and Ah Jeez (Mendelssohn), who ran a field best 69 Beyer when breaking his maiden last out Aug. 26. Dandy Man Shines (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire})--who missed picking up a group placing last out July 26 at Goodwood in the G2 Japan Racing Association Vintage S. by one spot--and Qatar Racing's newly blinkered Ti Sento (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) lead the European imports.

After a busy day of graded racing Saturday, Kentucky Downs held one back for Sunday, the GIII Ladies Marathon S., which is topped by heavily favored GSW & MGISP Family Way (Uncle Mo).
CAPE CANAVERAL PASSES AWAY AT 26

GSW Cape Canaveral (Mr. Prospector--Seaside Attraction, by Seattle Slew) passed away at age 26 at Highfield Stock Farm in Canada, where he stood for 14 years. He had been battling severe cellulitis and was humanely euthanized. He was pensioned last fall.

Cape Canaveral has been one of the leading sires in Canada since 2008 with 20 crops of racing age, 541 foals, 429 starters, 21 black-type winners, 315 winners of 1,080 races and earnings of over $17.8 million.

Out of G1 Kentucky Oaks winner Seaside Attraction, Cape Canaveral raced for owner/breeder Overbrook Farm and D. Wayne Lukas, winning three of four races, including the Gill San Miguel S. He earned $128,640.

"Cape has left his impression on all those fortunate enough to have been tasked with his care," said Highfield President Adrian Munro. "His longevity in the breeding shed is a testament to Cal Britton, Amber Jacobson, Jennifer Buck and Kelly Robinson who have impeccably cared for him through his tenure at Highfield. He was the foundation sire for our breeding program and he will be greatly missed."
A VALUE PROPOSITION

Despite huge prizemoney and the strong demand for fillies and mares off the track, buying a top filly from the yearling sales in Australia is significantly more affordable than other jurisdictions.

3rd-DMR, $80K, Msw, 2yo, 1mT, post time: 5:00 p.m. ET
Of the 94 first-crop yearlings by Good Magic reported as sold in 2021 (110 ring), no horse cost more than REINCARNATE, who gets his career going at what has been a soggy Del Mar over the weekend. The Apr. 1 foal, a $775,000 purchase out of last year’s Keeneland September sale, is out of the stakes-winning Allanah (Scat Daddy), who was acquired by Peter O’Callaghan’s Woods Edge Farm for $105,000 in foal to Street Boss at the 2018 Keeneland November Sale. Trained by Bob Baffert for SF Racing, Starlight Racing and Madaket Stable, the gray colt must overcome a high draw in a race that could be washed onto the main track. American Empire (American Pharoah) is a son of Team Block’s 2012 GIII Pucker Up S. victress Leading Astray (Belong to Me), a half-sister to the Illinois-based operation’s GIII Kentucky Turf Cup hero Suntracer (Kitten’s Joy), MGSW turf marathoner Free Fighter (Out of Place) and a full-sister to SW/MGSP Corrupt (Belong to Me). ZED (Arrogate) is the first foal out of Shane’s Girlfriend (Adios Charlie), who made an enormous splash as a juvenile for trainer Doug O’Neill with a dominating 13 1/4-length victory in the GIII Delta Downs Princess S. The dark bay races in partnership for WC Racing, who was also part-owner of Shane’s Girlfriend. The dark bay prepped for this with a bullet half-mile in :47 3/5 over the Keeneland main track Sept. 3. Permafrost (Frosted) is a half-brother to three-time graded winner Divine Oath (Broken Vow) and GSW Auntie Joy (Uncle Mo) and counts the irrepressible Personal Ensign (Private Account) as his third dam. An impressive 7 3/4-length winner on debut in the state-bred ranks at Del Mar Aug. 14, Giver Not a Taker returned Friday night in stakes company. Breaking with a slight bobble from the far outside gate as the narrow 6-5 second choice, he worked out a stalking trip while racing three deep into the far turn. Having improved his position into second behind the favorite and pacesetter Straighten Up, Giver Not a Taker began to reel that leader in through upper stretch and, once past, was able to sprint clear in the final sixteenth for a clear victory. Out of a half-sister to a trio of stakes horses, including the dam of MGSW Sneaking Out (Indian Evening) and GSW Grecian Fire (Unusual Heat), Giver Not a Taker has a yearling half-sister by Smiling Tiger and a weanling half-brother by Curlin to Mischief. His dam was bred back to Danzing Candy for a full-sibling in 2023.

Comanche Country kicked in late to pick up her first stakes victory in the Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf S.

Second on unveiling Apr. 25 at Naas in Ireland for J A Kinsella, she was seventh May 15 in that venue’s Coolmore Stud Irish EBF Fillies Sprint S. behind Meditate (No Nay Never). Making her U.S. debut for these connections July 30, she rallied late as the favorite to graduate over course and distance.

Away quickly out of the blocks here, she took up a stalking position from the two path, floating between fifth and sixth. Beginning her march on the backstretch, she was angled four wide into the stretch and launched her bid from three deep with a furlong left from home. She drove clear of Sell the Dream and came in 1 1/4 lengths to the good. The most recent in her family to the races, Comanche Country is the third winner from as many to race. She has a 2022 half-sister by Australia (GB). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

The youngest and least-experienced of the field, Maryquitecontrary surged in the final stages to secure her first career stakes victory. A winner on unveiling June 11 at this venue, she was second in the Azalea S. July 16 behind GSP Last Leaf (Not This Time), and returned to the enclosure last out Aug. 19 against open allowance company.

Five wide and chasing from seventh down the backstretch, the 9-5 favorite made her move grandstand side in the lane, surged past 15-1 longshot Starship Nala and just ran that one down by a neck. Maryquitecontrary has a winning half-sister turned stakes-producer as the dam of SW Pro Quality (Exclusive Quality). She is the lone foal for the dam, who visited Adios Charlie for 2023. After breaking her maiden against the boys by 3 3/4 lengths on debut over this same track at five furlongs July 9, Big Hug returned with an extra furlong to take the Princess Margaret S. in her next start Aug. 19. The popular 3-5 chalk for Saturday’s contest, Big Hug jumped from the far outside gate and glued herself to the side of pacesetter Bootiful Rose through the opening half-mile. As the pair raced together past the three-sixteenth pole, Big Hug stuck a nose in front and was able to gain separation, going clear in the final yards to take the win. The winner is her dam’s last reported foal.

SUPER CHOW (c, 2, Lord Nelson--Bonita Mia, by Warrior’s Reward), a 1 3/4-length winner sporting blinkers at first asking July 2 at Gulfstream, veered in at the break and set a contested pace and faded to finish a distant third behind Damon’s Mound (Girvin) and Gulfport (Uncle Mo) in the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 13. Coming out once again when leaving the blocks, the 3-5 favorite hugged the rail as Johnyz From Albany (Blofeld) contested matters from his outside. Putting that one away near the sixteenth pole, Super Chow steadily drew away to win by 6 1/4 lengths. Heldish (Great Notion) passed the tiring early challenger to pick up minor honors. A $75,000 OBSAPR (:10 flat) pick up, the winner is his dam’s first surviving foal from three on the ground and has a yearling full-sister. MIDNIGHT TROUBLE (c, 2, Midnight Lute--Zarleeza, by Harlan’s Holiday), third in a pair of maiden events at Delaware in June, finally broke through by a nose in his third career start last time out over six furlongs Aug. 24. In his first attempt against winners Saturday, the 9-5 favorite shot right to the front from his inside post and relaxed nicely to lead by a length up the backstretch. Still unchallenged around the turn, he found another gear past the quarter pole and drew away down the stretch to win with ease by 7 3/4 lengths. Beautiful and Bold (Tonalist) was second. From the extended female family of MGISP Keepmeinmind (Laoban), Midnight Trouble is his dam’s last reported foal. She was sent to Rock Your World for the 2023 season. HERINGTON ROCKET (f, 3, More Than Ready--Flagstaff (GB), by Dansili (GB)), beaten only a neck in a $75,000 seller in her 3-year-old bow at Belmont June 4, was a close fourth at Saratoga July 23. The 3-1 shot sat a stalking trip in third here, traveled nicely on the outside as they kicked for home and fought past Course Runner (Gun Runner) to graduate by a half length. The winner's dam, a daughter of G1SW Etoile Montante (Miswaki), has also produced a Catholic Boy colt of 2021 and an Omaha Beach filly of this year. She was bred back to Not This Time. GOOD HEART (c, 2, Good Samaritan--Shoe Queen, by E Dubai) worked a near-bullet four furlongs in :47 4/5 (2/84) from the gate at Ellis Sept. 3 and was off at 5-1. He challenged for the lead outside of Dust Storm (Get Stormy) through the opening half-mile. As that rival began to fade, he was replaced by favored Fire Baron (Temple City), who kept pace with Good Heart around the far turn. Despite being pressured on the front end throughout, Good Heart had something left and dispatched of Fire Baron past the quarter pole, cruising home for a 3 3/4-length win, the sixth for his freshman sire (by Harlan's Holiday). Fire Baron held on for second. Out of a half-sister to MGISW On Fire Baby (Smoke Glacken) and a full-sister to GISP High Heels, Good Heart is his dam's last reported offspring. DULCIA (f, 2, Palace--First in Time, by Broken Vow), unveiled here by Joe Sharp for Brad Grady after being picked up for $95,000 at OBS June (21 1/5), had speed from the outset and stayed among the first flight in a spread-out field. Just a half-length off leader Love Tank (Kitten’s Joy) at the :21.67 quarter, the 6-1 shot tentatively pushed her nose in front at the :45.45 half, then, emboldened, took command with aplomb, drawing clear to post a 1 1/4-length victory. Fellow firster Lady Baron (Jimmy Creed) finished well to secure second. A half to Surf and Turf (Kitten’s Joy), GSP, $175,489; Dulcia hails from the extended family of champion Pleasant Stage (Pleasant Colony), a full to her great-granddam. First in Time was bred to Take Charge Indy last year, then exported to Saudi Arabia after selling for $12,000 to Ahmad Alabdullatif at Keeneland November. LUXEMBOURG HAS THE ANSWERS IN CHAMPION THRILLER

Luxembourg triumphs over Onesto | Getty Images

by Tom Frary

Saturday’s G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, a “Win And You’re In” for the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf in at Keeneland in November, turned out every bit as exhilarating as it had promised, with no hint of fluke or ill fortune and a cluster in contention approaching the furlong pole. That was before Ballydoyle’s comeback kid Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) forged ahead late on to deny the TDN Rising Star Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in another stirring finish in which this race tends to specialise. We can now say with more conviction than before that the colt who had the world at his feet after last year’s G1 Futurity Trophy was possibly robbed of Classic victory by his injury as he jumped back in during the opening day’s feature of his country’s biggest weekend. All memories of the heavy weather he had made of marking his return with success in The Curragh’s G3 Royal Whip Aug. 13 melted away as the 7-2 shot fought off the ultra-game G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero to prevail by half a length. There was a further 1 1/4 lengths back to Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}) in third as the 3-year-olds dominated in the absence of Shadwell’s giant shadow-caster.

NEW LONDON TOPS SUNDAY CAST

by Tom Frary

Sunday afternoon is as busy as it gets, with the plethora of pattern races creating a logjam of quality which can only truly be appreciated in the aftermath. Nestled among the key events taking place across Europe is Doncaster’s G1 Cazoo St Leger, where New London (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) is the true kingpin with an air of apparent superiority. That comes largely from him winning a deep renewal of Goodwood’s G3 Gordon S. July 28, which aside from the Derby is the strongest piece of 3-year-old middle-distance form for the males this season. He has a staggering extra 557 yards to cover here on ground not dissimilar to that on which he floundered in the spring when beaten at Chester. That said, Godolphin’s eclipsed hot favourite for the G3 Chester Vase is a different beast four months on and as a relative of the 2011 Leger hero Masked Marvel (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and of Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) there is little not to like. CHAMPIONS JUVENILE GOES TO AUGUSTE RODIN
Deep Impact (Jpn)'s Auguste Rodin (Ire) ran out an impressive winner of the G2 KPMG Champions Juvenile S. at Leopardstown.

EVIE STOCKWELL PASSES AT 96
Successful owner/breeder Evie Stockwell, the mother of John Magnier, has died at the age of 96.
“This is for a lot of people, for Killian who rides him every day, Stephen who rides his lead horse, Derek who looks after him, Jamie who is in charge of him, Wayne who rides him in all his work and Ryan who gave him an incredible ride. We didn’t think we’d get him to the Curragh, but we had to push for it and the team made it happen.”

–Aidan O’Brien on Luxembourg’s win

Perhaps it is a date with Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) that now awaits Luxembourg, who was providing the Westerberg connection with its greatest day. “The plan was always the Guineas, the Derby, the Irish Derby and then a rest before this and then the Arc,” the ultimate target-trainer revealed as he basked in an astounding 11th Irish Champion for his team. “That was the dream and we felt if we could get him back then it would be three races for him—the Curragh, here and the Arc. We went to the Royal Whip when he was ready to do a piece of work, so that was a massive one—you don’t usually send a horse to a group race with 20% to 30% of improvement to come. When he did what he did there, we knew we had a chance.”

Luxembourg, who had dazzled with his sectionals on debut at Killarney in July and in The Curragh’s G2 Beresford S. in September, had cut a different figure when less flashy in Doncaster’s end-of-term examination but was nevertheless able to safeguard his unbeaten record in comfortable fashion. Stumbling leaving the stalls for the 2000 Guineas before it all unravelled on the Rowley Mile, he was still on the heels of the Godolphin pair at the death that day so it was cruel that the public was denied what would have been a clash to remember with Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) at Epsom. After that contemporary had run away with the blue riband, it was remarkable how quickly Ballydoyle’s number one was cast from the story.

With his Royal Whip re-entry only a workmanlike one, he had plenty to prove here against a small but stellar cast who all had the jump on him as far as race-hardening goes. As it turned out, what his rivals both the same age and older had in hand in that regard was negated by the obvious class advantage that he possesses and which was only evident as he crossed the line. As expected, his stablemate Stone Age (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) set a demanding pace as he waited along with the French duo, detached just far enough that there was no slackening of the rope. With the 7-4 favourite Vadeni forced to go towards the inside approaching the furlong pole, it was clear that the Aga Khan’s star colt was too far adrift from Luxembourg and Onesto’s private argument which the Ballydoyle runner won with a decisive final thrust 50 yards out.

“Since the Royal Whip, he’s had tough hard graft and has taken it with a smile on his face which is unusual,” O’Brien added. “He was very much on the back foot the minute he got injured, but we knew that what he did in the Guineas meant that he was really good and a little bit different. He is brave too, he had to take it all and he had to fight again today. This is for a lot of people, for Killian who rides him every day, Stephen who rides his lead horse, Derek who looks after him, Jamie who is in charge of him, Wayne who rides him in all his work and Ryan who gave him an incredible ride. We didn’t think we’d get him to the Curragh, but we had to push for it and the team made it happen.” Cont. p4
Christophe Soumillon believed that Vadeni’s level dipped slightly from the Jockey Club and Eclipse, “I was very confident throughout the race—he was travelling probably a bit keen but not over-racing, just a bit fresh,” he explained. “He gave a little blow as Mishriff came to my outside and then quickened quite well but I’m sure he was not at 100% and the ground is not for him. It is a little bit loose on top and not like it was at Sandown or Chantilly. If I had been able to stay out there and follow Ryan I would have, but I could feel the horse give a little blow and I wanted to give him a bit longer to recover. You still have to respect him, there are big races coming for him and the French Derby formline is there with Onesto running so well. I would probably have finished a bit closer with a clearer run, but I’m sure the winner is a great horse as well.”

Jean-Claude Rouget revealed that there will be no meeting with the winner and Baaeed in Paris for Vadeni. “He was having to do a slalom, like in skiing, so it was quite a good run,” he said. “He was in front of Mishriff like he was last time and we can’t win every race. I think he was a bit unlucky, but I think the result is correct with a very strong pace in front. I don’t know what the plan is, but not the Arc. Maybe he goes to Ascot [for the Oct. 15 G1 QIPCO British Champion S.] if the ground is better.”

Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}), who was an honest fourth without ever threatening, could be Breeders’ Cup-bound according to Prince Faisal’s racing manager Ted Voute. “Post-race, John Gosden would like to consider the Breeders’ Cup Turf over a mile and a half,” he said. “Colin Keane felt the ground was drying and felt a bit dead, which he wasn’t happy on. He finished well, considering. Prince Faisal has said that the Breeders’ Cup wasn’t out of the question, provided he comes out of the race well.”

Luxembourg, who is one of his sire’s 10 Group 1 winners and arguably the leader of the pack after this performance, is out of Attire (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) who also produced the G2 Mooresbridge S. scorer Leo De Fury (Ire) (Australia {GB}) and the G3 1000 Guineas Trial-placed Sense Of Style (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}). She is a full-sister to the G3 Glorious S. winner Forgotten Voice (Ire) and kin to the G3 Prix de Flore scorer Australie (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), who is in turn responsible for the listed winner and G3 Diamond S.-placed Hawke (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) and is the second dam of this year’s Listed Churchill S. winner and G3 Tyros S. runner-up Hellwing (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}).

Also connected to the Listed Criterium de Lyon scorer and G3 Prix Thomas Bryon runner-up Private Jet (Fr) (Aussie Rules) and the Listed Prix Marchand d’Or winner and G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis runner-up Princedargent (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}), Attire is a granddaughter of the esteemed Wildenstein matriarch Albertine (Fr) (Irish River {Fr}) whose high-class descendants are numerous and include Arcangues and the triple Group 1-winning Prix de Diane heroine Aquarelliste (Fr) by Danehill’s sire Danehill (Danzig), who was runner-up to Sakhee when attempting the Arc. PEARLS GALORE MAKES ALL FOR MATRON GLORY by Sean Cronin

Second in Leopardstown’s G1 Coolmore America "Justify" Matron S. when just running out of runway in the one-mile contest last term, Paddy Twomey trainee Pearls Galore (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Pearl Banks {GB}, by Pivotal {GB}) left nothing to chance in this year’s renewal back at the Foxrock venue and led every step of the way this time around to secure her first victory at the highest level. The Matron victory also booked Pearls Galore’s ticket to the GI Breeders Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Keeneland in November.

Haras de Saint Pair’s consistent 5-year-old mare had followed up last year’s reversal with a second in ParisLongchamp’s G1 Prix de la Foret before bringing the curtain down on 2021 with a close-up sixth in Del Mar’s GI Breeders’ Cup Mile. Back in tune when annexing April’s Listed Heritage S. over this course and distance on seasonal return, she added to that with a narrow score in the Curragh’s G2 Lanwades Stud S. the following month, but was out of luck when second in July’s G2 Minstrel S. back at the Co. Kildare track and fifth behind Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) and Tenebrism (Caracaggio) in Deauville’s Aug. 2 G1 Prix Rothschild last time.

Sharply into stride to set the tone from flagfall, the 16-1 chance was bustled along at the top of the straight and maintained a relentless tempo under a drive inside the final quarter mile to exact revenge on her Rothschild opponents in style, hitting the line with a three-length advantage.

“The best race of her life was this race last year, she’s been in good form and I said to Billy [Lee] we’d put the cheekpieces on her,” explained Twomey. “She’s five years’ old and does what she has to do. It didn’t work out for her in France [last time] where the ground was quick and it was a straight mile. This is more her jazz, ease in the ground and a turning mile. She was walking around the pre-parade ring and throwing herself around the place and I knew she was in good form. I told Billy, with the cheekpieces on, I don’t think we should be taking her back and it worked. She has the ability to travel at a high pace and burn off horses. That’s her true running there and I’m delighted for her.”

Ballingarry, Co. Limerick, native Lee added, “She has been very good to me. The race went nicely and, when she bounced from the gates well, I was happy to let her lead the way. She likes it here, she likes the turning mile and, when I asked her in the straight, she picked up well. She’s all heart and kept galloping all the way to the line.” Cont. p7

He added, “I thought for a few strides at the top of the straight Hollie Doyle [aboard Saffron Beach] might have had me, but my one picked up again. I was quite surprised we won by three lengths, but she just kept galloping away and galloped them into the ground. These home Group 1s are very hard to win and I’m delighted she’s won her Group 1. Her career deserved it and she has it now.”

Pearls Galore, who becomes the 21st Group 1 scorer for her sire (by Green Desert), is the fifth of seven foals and one of five winners from as many runners produced by G3 Dirk Elbers-Preis victor Pearl Banks (GB) (Pivotal (GB)), herself a daughter of G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Pearly Shells (GB) (Egisio (GB)). Pearly Shells, kin to G1 Hollywood Turf Cup-winning sire Frenchpark (GB) (Fools Holme), is also the dam of last term’s G2 Prix Greffulhe runner-up Smile Makers (Fr) (Kendargent (Fr)) and Listed Prix Panacee victor Pearls Or Passion (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}), herself the dam of G3 Prix de Royaumont winner Pelligrina (Ire) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) and Listed Floodlit S. placegetter Podemos (Ger) (Shamardal). 稳定 off to a strong start to Irish Champions Weekend. Fine-tuned since breaking his maiden over seven furlongs at Naas July 2, the 11-10 favourite was settled by Ryan Moore behind the leading pair early which included his stablemate and fellow ‘TDN Rising Star’ Tower Of London (Ire) (Galileo [Ire]). Sent to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs of the mile trip remaining, the bay edged right with the smooth-travelling filly Caroline Street (No Nay Never) in attendance but ultimately had the answers to score by 1 1/2 lengths.

“He’s a lovely horse and was a bit idle on ground that is probably a bit slow for him,” the winning rider said of the winner, who had looked unlucky when second on debut at The Curragh June 26.

Aidan O’Brien had given the impression beforehand that Auguste Rodin has been sending out the right signals at Rosegreen and said, “He’s just back off his break and will come forward plenty from it. He is a horse who probably doesn’t want to be in front too long, but his mum was like that, she liked to be getting there late but that’s a good thing as those horses tend to last longer. He always showed a lot of pace in his work and he’s a good traveller, a lovely mover and will appreciate nice ground when he gets it.”

“AUGUSTE RODIN ON TOP IN THE CHAMPIONS JUVENILE by Tom Frary

The vibes were strong about Ballydoyle’s TDN Rising Star Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) ahead of Saturday’s G2 KPMG Champions Juvenile S. at Leopardstown and they proved correct as the son of Rhododendron (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) got his

Of Tower Of London, who faded in midstraight and finished a disappointing last, O’Brien added, “At home he knew more than the other horse and ideally, we would have preferred to take our time a little bit more with the other horse but there was no pace. Something had to go and it probably didn’t really suit him doing that.”

Pedigree Notes

Auguste Rodin, who becomes the 151st group winner for his legendary late sire, is so far the only known foal out of the leading racemare Rhododendron who was able to win a Lockinge at a mile and the Prix de l’Opera over 10 furlongs, as well as finish second to Enable (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)) in the Oaks. Her dam is the outstanding producer Halfway To Heaven (Ire) and ideally, we would have preferred to take our time a little bit more with the other horse but there was no pace. Something had to go and it probably didn’t really suit him doing that.

BOOMERANG RIVALS FAIL TO CATCH FRONT-RUNNER JADOOMI by Brian Sheerin

There are few forces more unstoppable than a trainer on a roll and, in the case of Simon and Ed Crisford, the father and son combination maintained their irresistible run of form on Longines Irish Champions Weekend when Jadoomi (Fr) (Holy Roman Emperor (Ire)) burned his rivals off from the front in the G2 Clipper Logistics Boomerang Mile.

Boomerangs are designed to come back but there was no catching Jadoomi under Christophe Soumillon. The 4-year-old was stretching his unbeaten run this season to three and, after recording back-to-back Group 2 successes, connections are contemplating a tilt at the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot on Champions Day.

Ed Crisford said, “He didn’t have a penalty for winning at Goodwood and, when the rain came, I was so delighted as he likes to get his toe in. I think Christophe [Soumillon] made it very simple as we wanted to go forward.”

He added, "The Queen Elizabeth II S. could be an option. He's not in the race but we may have to consider supplementing him.”

And on that Leopardstown triumph, the Crisfords can dare to be bold with Jadoomi. Cont. p10

He was good in winning the Celebration Mile at Goodwood, but Saturday’s Leopardstown triumph represented a career best by some way as he pulled four lengths clear of Glounthaune (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), who led home a bunched finish for the minor money.

The win produced one of the loudest cheers of the afternoon, with Jadoomi sent to post a rock-solid 9-4 joint-favourite, and Crisford put the 4-year-old’s improved form this season down to him being gelded.

“He’s improving. We gelded him in the summer and I think it has made a huge difference to him. He’s a very good horse and there should be more to come. He’s won a lot of prize-money there so perhaps we could entertain supplementing for the Ascot. We’ll have to have a sit down and chat about it with the owner.”

Pedigree Notes

Out of the winning South Sister (GB) (Sakhee), Jadoomi is the best of three to race for the 11-year-old. Her latest foals are the juvenile Track Of Time (Fr) (Gleneagles {Ire}), a yearling filly by Shalaa (Ire) and a weanling colt by Invincible Spirit (Ire). The last-named stallion also enjoyed success at Leopardstown on Saturday with Pearls Galore (Fr) in the G1 Coolmore America

DUKE DE SESSA SNARES IMPORTANT WIN FOR WELD by Brian Sheerin

He may have bagged Classic glory earlier in the season but, by his own high standards, Dermot Weld will admit that 2022 is not a year that he will look back on with great pleasure.

Bar Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) romping to G1 Irish 1000 Guineas glory, it has been a trying year for Weld, who is at least ending the campaign with his usual pomp and vigour, highlighted by the tenacious victory of Duke De Sessa (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) in the G3 Paddy Power S.

Homeless Songs would later go on to finish fourth in the G1 Matron S. on her first start since that memorable Curragh romp, but it was stablemate Duke De Sessa who thrust the Weld team back into the spotlight and what style the win was achieved in.

Ridden with supreme confidence by Chris Hayes, who delivered a well-timed run from the rear to snare fellow Newtown Anner Stud Farm-owned Thunder Kiss (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) in a pulsating finish, Duke De Sessa plonked his nose in front on the line to win by just a short head.

The Paddy Twomey-trained Beamish (Fr) (Teofilo {Ire}) played his part in the three-way epic but, after a nervous wait for the Weld team, the ‘TDN Rising Star’ was judged the narrow winner by a short head. Cont. p11
Duke De Sessa (6) just gets up in the shadow of the post

Weld, who was winning the race for the fifth time this past decade, said, "He's had a break and he loves that ground and this track. He'd been working exceptionally well and the only question I had was whether he would get the mile and a half."

"We contemplated running him in the Irish Champion S. but we said we'd go for the easier option and that, if he stayed the trip, he'd be very hard to beat."

A step up in class could be on the cards for Saturday's 6-1 shot, with Weld convinced that the best has yet to come from the 3-year-old colt.

He said, "There is a Group 1 in Germany next month and we could have a look at that. He's a progressive colt. Today was the day but I think he's only just beginning. The best could be seen from him as a 4-year-old."

Pedigree Notes

Duke De Sessa was doubling down on his previous Group 3 victory in the Eyrefield S. on Saturday, and continues to fly the flag for his four-time winning dam, the Cape Cross (Ire) mare Dark Crusader (Ire). Third in the 2014 edition of the G3 Give Thanks S. in her native land, Dark Crusader, from the family of GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. scorer Subtle Power (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), has a juvenile full-brother to the winner named Walsingham (Ire) (Lope De Vega (Ire)), yet another yearling full-brother waiting in the wings, and a filly of 2022 by Camelot (GB), whose Luxembourg (Ire) powered to victory in the G1 Irish Champion S. one race later on the card.

Watch Out!

For those who believe that New London is home and hosed, they would be well-served to remember that this is a Classic that sometimes likes to bowl a googly as they say in Britain, or throw a curveball as they do in the seaport city in Connecticut after which the favourite is named. While the last five winners have been largely predictable, it was only in 2016 that the 22-1 outsider Harbour Law (GB) (Lawman (Fr)) benefitted as the unthinkable happened and Seamie Heffernan was unshipped from the 4-6 favourite Idaho (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)). Cont. p12

A year before, Simple Verse (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}) won it, lost in the stewards' room and was given it back again while this is the 10-year anniversary of the 25-1 shot Encke (Kingmambo), who did for the Triple Crown dream of Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). There is plenty to fear not only from the fates but also from KHK Racing Ltd's G2 Queen's Vase-winning 'TDN Rising Star' Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), Go Bloodstock and Partners' Derby runner-up Hoo Ya Mal (GB) (Territories {Ire}) and the still-promising and possibly underestimated filly Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), the sole representative from Ballydoyle no less.

Blink And You'll Miss It

The first of six Group 1 contests across Britain, Ireland and France on Sunday takes place on the talent-rich Curragh card, with Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) looking to extend her dominance on the sprinting division having completed the taxing double of the 6 1/2-furlong G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and five-furlong G1 Nunthorpe S. in the Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Flying Five S. Ordinarily, the switch from York's flat track and lively surface to this stiff test on yielding going would be a concern for lesser mortals but this is a mare that is proven in all spheres. Stripping sprinting back to the bare basics of how quickly the furlongs can be ticked off from pillar-to-post, she has risen from unlikely beginnings to become a true force of nature and the sporting nature of connections is to be cherished. With no constraints on her versatility, it is up to this cast which includes last year’s one-two Romantic Proposal (Ire) (Raven's Pass) and A Case Of You (Ire) (Hot Streak {Ire}) to make it as tough for her as possible.

Meditate On That

Aidan O’Brien has won 13 of the 21 juvenile group races where he has had a runner in 2022 and, while Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) is absent from Sunday’s Curragh fixture, the stable remains highly likely to come up with at least one able substitute. It is the G1 Goffs Vincent O’Brien National S. which has to deal with Little Big Bear’s temporary void, but there is still a keen sense of excitement in the air where fellow ‘TDN Rising Star’ Aesop’s Fables (Ire) (No Nay Never) is concerned. How good he is remains to be seen, but he appeared to win the course-and-distance G2 Futurity S. Aug. 20 on ability alone.

This slightly different test on different ground, which sees Sheikh Ahmed Al Maktoum’s July 26 G2 Vintage S. winner Marbaan (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)) pitched in, will give a truer gauge. Ballydoyle’s G2 Debutante S. and G3 Albany S. scorer Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) appears to have been around a lot longer due to her fine blend of obstinacy and class and she is an imposing figurehead for her unrivalled yard in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. For all the raw material of the favourite, there will nonetheless be a few disappointed members of The Aga Khan’s operation and the Dermot Weld stable if the ‘TDN Rising Star’ Tahiya (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), the wildflower that her trainer planted at Galway July 26, does not impose herself on this contest at the business end.

His True Measure

Denied his ideal ground all summer, Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) finally has all in his favour as he takes centre stage in what would have been Friday’s headlining G2 Coral Doncaster Cup. Eventually tried on a fast surface when third defending his title in the G1 Goodwood Cup July 26, Alan King’s flag-bearer lost nothing in defeat there having already achieved a remarkable feat by registering a weight-carrying record in Newcastle’s Northumberland Plate June 25. While his stature as staying division leader is currently intact despite the inevitable withdrawals that pepper his record, it has seemed that every time he has been either forced out of competition or undermined by the dry spell there has been one more challenger to his assumed title.

Rapid Response

While the ball is back in Trueshan’s court on Town Moor, it may only be so for an hour and a half maximum before Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) again contests his premiership, this time in the Curragh’s G1 Comer Group International Irish St Leger. Having beaten Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) fair and square at Goodwood following his G1 Gold Cup exploits at Royal Ascot, Ballydoyle’s young buck in this category now has to do it on the easier ground that his chief British foe relishes, which is not even to mention the upwardly-mobile Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) who has emerged front and centre since the last time that Moyglare’s colourbearer was viewed.

With the exception of the Haggas challenger Hamish (GB) (Motivator (GB)), who has a habit of springing up to remind everyone how talented he is and who is fresh having been kept under wraps since his May 5 G3 Ormonde S. success, this is undeniably Kyprios’s race to lose.

Coming Verry Soon

While Sunday’s racing is outstanding in its own right, the ongoing daisy chain of the Flat season demands that thoughts of the future are never far away. As far as ParisLongchamp’s fixture is concerned, it is all about the Arc in three weeks’ time with the door still only slightly ajar for Jomara Bloodstock’s remarkable Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed (NZ)) following her flop on her French debut in Deauville’s G1 Prix Jean Romanet Aug. 21. Francis-Henri Graffard was quick to forgive that effort, but it seems a long time since she was seen in her prime and she has to kick that door wide open in what is a substandard edition of this time-honoured prep, the G2 Qatar Prix Foy. Connections are convinced she can get back to the level that was still in evidence as she brought up an 11th Group 1 win in Randwick’s Chipping Norton on heavy ground Feb. 26, so it’s a case of over to you...

Arc Angels?

If Verry Elleegant is indeed on the way down, the opposite is certainly true of Ballydoyle’s Oaks heroine Tuesday (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) who continues her ascent towards the Arc in the G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille. With her stamina for this mile-and-a-half doubted in some parts after she had prevailed in what was a slowly-run renewal of the Epsom Classic, they were put firmly to the side as she split Alpinista (GB) (Frankel (GB)) and La Petite Coco (Ire) (Ruler Of The World (Ire)), with the Irish Oaks winner Magical Lagoon (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) well beaten, in the Aug. 18 G1 Yorkshire Oaks. The full-sister to Minding (Ire) looks to have more stamina than her sibling at this stage and could yet prove to have as much class. Fellow 3-year-old La Parisienne (Fr) (Zarak (Fr)) shook up Nashwa (GB) (Frankel (GB)) in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 19 and is in deep again, but Peter R Bradley III’s colour-bearer still carries the dream. That is also true of another big Arc player who headlines the G2 Qatar Prix Niel in the May 29 G1 Tokyo Yushun hero Do Deuce (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)). Yutaka Take heads back to Paris to reignite yet another Japanese fire ahead of the one the nation wants so badly next month. Cont. p15
More Champagne Moments

The afternoon's frantic group-race action begins with the G2 Coral Champagne S. at Doncaster, which is some appetiser given that is one of Britain’s key juvenile staging posts en route to the following year’s Classics. Bizarrely or not, given your take on the malnourished state of field sizes in this country this season, just three turn up but they are all worthy and make for a fascinating if tactical conundrum. William Buick and Frankie Dettori will have to ponder how they play the hands of their Aug. 20 G3 Solario S. winner Silver Knott (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Aug. 17 G3 Acomb S. scorer Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}) respectively, but the latter looked a strong stayer at this seven-furlong trip at York so expect the Juddmonte silks to be there to be shot at. There is also a heady clash just over an hour later between Middleham Park Racing’s Aug. 19 G1 Nunthorpe S. runner-up The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) and Rockcliffe Stud’s July 27 G3 Molecomb S. scorer Trillium (GB) (No Nay Never) in the rescheduled five-furlong G2 Wainwright Flying Childers S. The third of Doncaster’s Group 2s, the Cazoo Park S., features Marc Chan’s accomplished TDN Rising Star Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) with that man Frankie again, flying dismount at the ready.

Ethan Stockwell: died aged 96 | Racingphotos.com

Aidan O’Brien paid a heartfelt tribute to Evie Stockwell, the mother of John Magnier and a hugely successful owner-breeder in her own right, who passed away at the age of 96.

Shortly after producing one of the greatest training performances in recent years by delivering Luxembourg at fever pitch to win the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, O’Brien admitted that the victory was tinged in sadness with the news of Stockwell’s passing.

"Mrs. Stockwell was an incredibly special person for us and everyone who knew her," he said. "Since we came to Ballydoyle, her enthusiasm and wisdom has been a joy. We trained a lot of good fillies for her. Obviously Fairlyland (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) would have been the best of them but we had some marvellous days together and she was at the Curragh last year to see Glounthaune (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) win."

Glounthaune carried Stockwell's renowned 'Madonna blue' and brown silks to finish second in the G2 Clipper Logistics Boomerang Mile on the opening day of Longines Irish Champions Weekend, after which, O'Brien recalled with fondness his relationship with Stockwell.

He added, "Glounthaune ran an unbelievable race today as he’s only just back from a break. Mrs. Stockwell used to call into us at Ballydoyle regularly. She would drive herself and MV [Magnier, grandson] would always let us know that she was calling or sometimes he would come with her. We really enjoyed her visits. It will be an incredible loss but it was just a privilege to have known her and an honour to be able to listen and learn from her. She was an incredibly special person."

Group/grade 1-winning War Front siblings Brave Anna and Hit It A Bomb, who between them won the G1 Cheveley Park S. and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf, also carried Stockwell’s colours with great distinction in recent years.

The pair were out of Group 3 winner Liscanna (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), herself a daughter of Stockwell’s listed-winning mare Lahinch (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), named like several of Stockwell’s horses with a golfing theme in mind.

Other good horses to carry her colours include the already mentioned Fairlyland, winner of the Cheveley Park and G1 Flying Five S., Luas Line (Ire) (Danehill), who was trained by David Wachman to win the 2005 GI Garden City Breeders’ Cup H. at Belmont Park, Toroca (Nureyev), who ran third in the 2001 G1 1000 Guineas and later landed an Italian Group 3, Kitza (Ire) (Danehill), who was placed in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Oaks, and Theann (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), named after Stockwell’s granddaughter Anthea who won the 2007 G3 Summer S. at York and later produced Grade I winner Photo Call (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). She also owned listed winner We Are Ninety (Ire) (Thewayyouare) with her twin sister Lady Mimi Manton.

The Cork native wasn’t born into racing but she enjoyed the sport growing up and in 1947, became fully immersed in the world when she married Tom Magnier, owner of Grange Stud in Fermoy, home of the great jumps stallion Cottage (GB) (Tracy) and 1946 Cheltenham Gold Cup winner Fortina (Fr) (Formor (Fr)), the only entire to ever win the race.

Tom Magnier died in 1962 and Stockwell was left with four children—John, Peter, David and Anne—to raise.

Stockwell will be reposing at the Railway House, Farnaleen, Fethard, County Tipperary, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Sunday. The funeral will take place at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Fethard, on Monday, Sept. 12 at 2 p.m. followed by a private burial in Kilcruumper Old Cemetery in Fermoy. The house is strictly private on Monday.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH MAKES €140K AT THE GOFFS CHAMPIONS SALE

Sophomore filly Freedom Of Speech (Ire) (Australia (GB)) (lot 3), a winner at two and third in the G3 Park Express S. this year, sold to Bobby O’Ryan for €140,000 during the Goffs Champions Sale on Saturday. Consigned by Jim Bolger’s Glebe House Stables, the daughter of the winning Vocal Nation (Ire) was the only one of four catalogued lots to change hands prior to the start of the Longines Irish Champions Weekend at Leopardstown. Her third dam is the stakes winner, GI Ladies’ H. third and Grade I producer Six Crowns (Secretariat), who foaled American champion juvenile Chief’s Crown (Danzig) and dual Grade I winner Classic Crown (Mr. Prospector).

O’Ryan said, “She is a lovely filly who already has black type and therefore has plenty of residual value. She has been bought for a new client and will stay in training in Ireland.”

Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby said, “The Goffs Champions Sale is part of our programme of boutique sales and, as such, it provides potential just before one of the great days of Irish racing whilst also adding a bit of theatre to the overall pre-race entertainment on track. Obviously we would have preferred to sell more of the catalogue but we believe that the concept has a future and wish the new connections of Freedom Of Speech the very best of luck.”
BRITISH RACING CANCELLED FOR THE QUEENS FUNERAL ON SEPT. 19

Racing will not go forward in the UK on Monday, Sept. 19, due to the funeral of the late Queen Elizabeth II, the British Horseracing Authority announced on Saturday. Everyone involved in British racing will then have the opportunity to mourn Her Late Majesty’s passing. More information on the cancelled fixtures will be announced in the coming days. On Sunday, racing resumes in Britain, with the exception of Musselburgh, as The Queen is lying in state in Edinburgh.

CHURCHILL FILLY LEADS THE WAY AT THE SGA YEARLING SALE

A filly by Churchill (Ire) out of the dual listed-placed Rabiosa Fiore (GB) (Sakhee’s Secret (GB)) emerged as the €200,000 top lot during Saturday’s SGA Yearling Sale in Milan. Consigned by Razza Vedano, the Mar. 6 foal (lot 28), named Rinnovati (Ity), is a half-sister to the two-time stakes winner Amalaura (Ire) (Raven’s Pass). Another half-sister, the Saxon Warrior (Jpn) filly Rage Of Bamby (Ire) graduated at Leicester on Sept. 6. Marco Bozzi was in action for the relative of French Classic heroine East Of The Moon (Private Account).

Bozzi also struck for seven other lots on Saturday, shelling out €90,000 for another Vedano draftee in lot 25, a son of Sea The Stars (Ire) out of Listed Premio Term de Merano heroine Orange Sun (GB) (Duke Of Marmalade (Ire)). That sire had topped the 2021 edition of the sale with a €120,000 colt. Originally a 30,000gn Tatteralls December foal, the colt is a half-brother to a pair of winners. Third dam Field Of Hope (Ire) (Selkirk)'s best day in the sun was a victory in the 1999 G1 Prix de la Foret.

Also from Vedano was lot 15, the Zoffany (Ire) colt Interstellar (Ity), out of the Group 3-placed Irene Watts (GB) (Miswaki Tern), who hammered for €100,000 to Micchiche’ Gaetano. He is a half-brother to Il Grande Gatsby (Ire) (Churchill (Ire)), who has won at the listed level in Italy and ran third in the G3 Premio Parioli.

The sale got off to a fast start with lot 4, a colt by Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) out of Listed Criterium Femminile victress Biz Bar (GB) (Tobougg (GB)), making €85,000 from Antonio Caracciolo. The bay’s sire was also responsible for the smart G2 Clipper Logistics Boomerang Mile hero Jadoomi (Fr) in Ireland on Saturday. From the Allevamento Le.Gi. consignment, the colt is a half-brother to six black-type horses, anchored by G1 Gran Premio di Milano scorer Biz The Nurse (Ire) (Oratorio (Ire)), and the group winners Misterious Boy (Ire) (Arcano (Ire)) and Biz Power (Ire) (Power (GB)).

Another Coolmore sire was in the limelight shortly thereafter, as lot 12, a Le.Gi.-consigned filly by Wootton Bassett (GB) named Snow Roses (Ity) caught the eye of Powerstown Stud at €70,000.

She had passed through the Arqana December ring for €85,000 as a foal. Her dam was twice stakes-placed, and is a half-sister to group winners Voice Of Love (Ire) (Poet’s Voice (GB)) and Time Chant (GB) (War Chant).

Le.Gi. was also the consignor on record for lot 32, a Gleneagles (Ire) filly, who made €76,000 on the bid of Immobiliare Casa Paola. She had been a €30,000 Goffs November buyback last year. The daughter of Sopran Enery (Ire) (Montjeu (Ire)) is a half-sister to the G2 Premio Oaks d’Italia winner Auyantepui (GB) (Night Of Thunder (Ire)), while under the G3 Italian 1000 Guineas-winning second dam Sopran Londa (Ire) (Danehill) is the G1 Italian Derby hero Cima De Triomphe (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) among others. Cont. p18
Razza del Sole offered Milano City (Ire) (Oasis Dream (GB)) (lot 22) on Saturday, and Valfredo Valiani snapped up the son of dual listed winner Mujadil Lachy (GB) (Kyllachy (GB)) for €75,000. His well-related dam is a half-sister to a trio of stakes winners led by G3 Premio Tudini and G3 Premio Omenoni scorer Titus Shadow (Ire) (Titus Livius (Fr)).

From a catalogue of 158, 135 yearlings went through the ring, with 92 (68.1%) finding new homes for a gross of €1,852,500. The average increased to €20,136 (+7.4%), however the median dipped 16.7% to €10,000.

I'M THUNDERSTRUCK WINS MAKYBE DIVA S.

by TDN AusNZ

The Mick Price and Michael Kent, Jr.-trained I’m Thunderstruck kept his G1 Cox Plate dream alive when he produced a brave performance to win the G1 Makybe Diva S. at Flemington and in the process emulated his sire Shocking, who landed the Group 1 in 2010.

Last season’s G1 Toorak H. winner returned as a 5-year-old in the best order with a second-place finish in the G1 Memsie S. But as the field rounded the turn he looked to have his work cut out as Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) slipped the field and carved out a 5l lead. However, after being trapped on the fence, Mark Zahra found daylight in the straight and I’m Thunderstruck took off, reducing the deficit with every stride and was eventually able to find enough in reserve to chin Alligator Blood in the shadow of the winning post, beating him in a photo-finish. The official distance was announced as a 0.1l.

Pedigree Notes

Having just his second run back from a spell, the now dual Group 1 winner was bred in New Zealand by Mr. T Forlong and Ms. J. Jones. One of the 19 stakes winners for his Rich Hill Stud-based, G1 Melbourne Cup-winning sire, he is the second foal for the lightly raced Primadonna Girl (NZ) (Edenwold {Can}) whose first is the Group 2-placed, Hong Kong winner Cantstopthefeeling (NZ) (Swiss Ace). Served last spring by Ocean Park (NZ) having produced colt by that same stallion, Primadonna Girl is out of a half-sister to the stakes-placed Samudera (NZ) (Straight Strike {USA}).

DARK DESTROYER CAUSES UPSET

by TDN AusNZ

Earlier in the afternoon across the Tasman, the talented gelding Dark Destroyer (NZ) provided Proisir with a day to remember as he snared his first victory at elite level with a shock victory in the G1 Tarzino Trophy at Hastings on Saturday and in the process became the second Group 1 winner for his Rich Hill Stud-based sire.
The Lance O’Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained gelding hadn’t been seen since completing a successful campaign in Brisbane during the winter where he took out the G3 Rough Habit Plate before finishing an unlucky fourth in the G1 Queensland Derby and he showed he had come back in insatiable form as a 4-year-old.

However, despite his good performances across the Tasman, in the run up to the race it was billed as a clash between Imperatriz (I Am Invincible) and La Crique (NZ) (Vadamos {Fr}), but Dark Destroyer had not read that version of the script as he rattled home from the back of field to beat Spring Tide (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}) by 1l. La Crique finished another 0.8l back in third, while Imperatriz was the same distance away in fourth.

Pedigree Notes

Bred by WE Jeffries Ltd and passed in at the 2020 New Zealand Bloodstock Yearling Sale (Book 2), he is one of the seven stakes winners for his Rich Hill Stud-based, G3 Spring S.-winning sire. He is the first named foal for the lightly raced All Can Party (All American). She is a half-sister to the metropolitan winner Exclusive Choice (Redoute’s Choice) out of a daughter of the multiple city winner Party (Lunchtime {GB}) who did a great job at stud with her nine winners including the Group 1 sprinters Masked Party (Marscay) and Festal (Vain). Party’s daughter La Bamba (Last Tycoon {Ire}) has also done a fine job at stud with her 10 winners including the G1 Hong Kong Sprint winner Inspiration (Flying Spur), the G1 Australian Guineas winner Wandjina and the listed winners Lucky Unicorn (Redoute’s Choice) and Banaadeer (More Than Ready {USA}).

Party is also ancestress of the G1 Spring Champion S. winner Complacent (Authorized {Ire}), the triple Group 1 winner Dracula (Quest For Fame {GB}) and the G1 New Zealand Oaks heroine Miss Sentimental (NZ) (Reliable Man {GB}). Last spring paying a return visit to Proisir, All Can Party has a yet to be named 3-year-old full-brother to Dark Destroyer as her most recent live foal.
