'CAN'T-MISS' KEENEELAND SEPTEMBER SALE STARTS MONDAY

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY- The 79th renewal of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale opens its 12-day run Monday with the first of two Book 1 sessions beginning at 1 p.m. Consignors started showing Book 1 yearlings Friday and an international cast of shoppers were getting second looks at those elite youngsters on a misty Sunday morning in the Bluegrass, while also getting a head start on Book 2 horses who will start selling Wednesday.

“I think the activity is very good, particularly for Book 1,” said Peter O’Callaghan, whose Woods Edge Farm will warm up with four yearlings during the first two days of the sale before offering 11 head in Book 2 horses who will start selling Wednesday.

Having graduated by a half-dozen lengths on his Aug. 13 debut, the $210,000 Keeneland November weanling and $550,000 Keeneland September yearling was squeezed back between fellow 'Rising Star' stablemate Newgate (Into Mischief) to his inside and the commonly owned GII Best Pal S. hero Havnameltdown (Uncaptured) to his outside, but he easily made up the length or so he’d lost to shade Havnameltdown for the lead through a quarter that was posted in a strong :21.56.

CAVE ROCK ROLLS IN RUNHAPPY DEL MAR FUTURITY by Alan Carasso

Made the 2-5 jolly to follow up on a giant, 'TDN Rising Star'-worthy debut, for which he earned a towering 101 Beyer Speed Figure, Watson, Weitman and Pegram’s Cave Rock (Arrogate) made it a sweep of the weekend main-track juvenile Grade Is for his late sire and gave trainer Bob Baffert an unprecedented 16th victory in the GI Runhappy Del Mar Futurity.

“Traffic has been really encouraging, not just volume-wise, but quality of shows,” Eastham said. “Keeneland has done a good job of bringing every accent in the world here. And I think they’ve done a really good job of picking out the horses. [Keeneland Vice President of Sales] Tony [Lacy] and [Keeneland Director of Sales Operations] Cormac [Breathnach] have done a really great job of putting some quality horses up front here. It’s always been difficult for us in Book 1, if we started the sale with a little bit of a thud, then it takes to Book 2 for everyone to get confident in where they are. But the buyers keep mentioning what a great group of horses is here and I think there is a great deal of excitement.”

Consignors expect to see a continuation of familiar marketplace conditions over the next two weeks at Keeneland, with strong demand at the top and a polarization between the perceived quality offerings and those less-fancied horses.

“I am sure it will be a strong sale, but selective as every sale has been this year and for past years,” said Hill ‘n’ Dale Sales Agency’s John Sikura. “There is plenty of money here and all of the right people. There is great pre-sale activity. They will do their scrutiny and they will land on the horses they like physically and the ones that vet to their satisfaction. Hopefully, we will have several that appeal to the elite buyers.”

Sikura continued, “I think [the polarization] is here to stay. You have a shrinking foal crop combined with a shrinking number of racetracks. So people are going to buy what they like and there probably isn’t a buyer for every horse. You are rewarded on the ones that meet the scrutiny of multiple buyers and they make extra and then there are the ones that don’t quite make it. There are savvy people who sometimes bid under the crazed market and then there are people who want exactly what they want and those cost more.” Cont. p4

Foreign buyers come to Keeneland this year while facing uncertain economic conditions in Europe and less-than-favorable exchange rates across the globe.

“Every year you are hoping you have a global market and that people from all marketplaces are here,” Sikura said. “You can’t change the economic environment in various nations. That’s sort of beyond your control. You just make the horses as good as you can make them and bring your best product to sale.”

Sikura added that economic conditions are less likely to impact top-end buyers.

“I think there is a lot of insulation of very wealthy people and in tough times they are still in a position to buy what they like,” he said. “Everything is cyclical to a degree. But I don’t think inflation and potential economic slowdown has a lot of impact on our marketplace. A global recession would, but I don’t think the vagaries of marketplaces in different countries would make that much difference because in every environment when things are tough for one sector, they are good for another. If you are in the oil and gas business, it’s probably been good, but the stock market hasn’t been as good, but it was good before. I think there is an ebb and a flow.”

After years in which overseas interests dominated the buying sheets, the domestic buying bench stepped up at the last two September sales to fill the void left by major buyers Godolphin and Shadwell, with partnership groups leading the way. Mike Repole and Vinnie Viola’s St. Elias Stables teamed up to buy 43 yearlings at last year’s September sale for a leading $16,045,000. They were followed by the SF Bloodstock/Starlight/Madaket partnership which purchased 24 head for $10,590,000. The powerhouse partnership buyers also included the BSW/Crow Colts Group which purchased 20 horses for $6,805,000. Cont. p5

Representatives from all three groups were out in force at the Keeneland barns ahead of Monday’s first session.

“This sale has been very successful without Sheikh Mohammed the last couple of years and no Sheikh Hamdan last year,” O’Callaghan said. “The domestic buyers are very strong. I think it’s given the high-end domestic buyers more confidence that they can buy these horses now. For years, I think they thought when they were bidding against the Maktoum families they had no chance. Since COVID, the domestic buyers have really stepped in and gotten in early and been great supporters of the sales. And then there are all the new buying groups--they’ve just been an absolute gift to the game. Whether it’s the SF group or the Liz Crow group, Todd [Pletcher] last year, the way they are working it this year, they are working it very hard. All these guys are very committed--as they should be because racing is strong at the moment.”

Book 1 horses have had to deal with a perception problem in recent years with consignors seemingly happier to be a big fish in a Book 2 pond than overshadowed in Book 1. The Keeneland sales team has made a point of countering that image (Keeneland's Premier Book in Every Way).

“Keeneland has done a good job getting more people in early,” O’Callaghan said. “I think that ad they ran highlighting the success of the first 20 hips was a good ad and they need to sell that message. It’s important that people can have confidence to bid on the early horses, because year after year, it’s where the value is.”

The Keeneland September sale is often considered a bellwether for the marketplace as a whole and the auction comes in the midst of a series of strong yearling sales throughout the country, giving consignors the optimism that demand for horses will remain beyond the auction’s opening books.

“The market has been really strong,” said Eastham. “I think it’s been fair. I think horses are bringing what they are worth. We always worry about what happens when we go past these select horses but, just me as a consignor, the Iowa sale was up almost twice as much, the New Mexico sale and the Texas sale were up. I think that mid-market horse, we are going to be fine there. I think there is still going to be enthusiasm for that market.”

In an effort to create a festive atmosphere to the pavilion on sales days, Keeneland added live music, as well as passed hors d’oeuvres and cocktails a year ago. Those amenities, plus facility upgrades, will return this year.

“The success of September Sale graduates combined with the availability of quality yearlings at all price levels make the September Sale a can’t-miss event for horsemen from around the world,” Lacy said. “This year, we are excited to share our latest capital improvements and facilities around the grounds--from renovated barns to the Saddling Paddock Chalet here for the Breeders’ Cup World Championships--and we are continuing to elevate the September sale atmosphere with fun touches and elements that enhance the experience.”

The Keeneland September sale opens with Book 1 sessions on Monday and Tuesday beginning at 1 p.m., while Book 2 sessions on Wednesday and Thursday begin at 11 a.m. Following a dark day Friday, the auction resumes Saturday and continues through Sept. 24 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

CREATIVE CAUSE COLT 'WAHLOP'—S RIVALS IN DMR JUVENILE TURF by Alan Carasso

Sent off right at his morning line of 8-1, Packs a Wahlop (Creative Cause) worked out a nice trip beneath Hall of Famer Mike Smith and exploded away from his rivals in the final eighth of a mile to capture Sunday's GIII Del Mar Juvenile Turf at the seaside oval and become a leading U.S. candidate for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile the first weekend of November.

Away alertly from the nine hole, the $27,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $270,000 OBS April (:10 flat) acquisition showed good speed and rolled forward to press a moderate early tempo outside of the rail-drawn Ah Jeez (Mendelssohn) through a half in :47.24. Shadowing the front-runner's every move while going well around the second turn, Packs a Wahlop came after the front-runner in earnest with a quarter-mile to race and sprinted home impressively to score by open lengths.

Don’tthinkjustdoit (Smiling Tiger) hugged the fence into the lane, came out and finished well for second, but was ultimately disqualified to seventh after a lengthy stewards’ debate for causing a chain-reaction of interference at midstretch. Valiancer (Tapiture), who attacked the line nicely in the middle of the track, was moved up from third to second, while Dandy Man Shines (Ire) (Dandy Man (Ire)) was placed third to complete a Jeff Mullins-trained triple.

“That was kind of the plan along,” said Mullins. “He showed speed going five-eighths; we figured he would be laying close somewhere in a comfortable position. Mike’s worked him every time and he’s had all the confidence in this horse, we all have.”

An even fourth sprinting over a sloppy Gulfstream main track June 3, Packs a Wahlop graduated by 1 1/2 lengths in a five-furlong maiden over this turf course Aug. 5 and was stretching out for the first time Sunday. Cont. p9

Oak Ridge Farm acquired Packs a Wahlop’s treble stakes-winning dam for $87,000 at the 2016 Fasig-Tipton Winter Mixed Sale, and she produced a Frosted filly last year before being bred to another son of Tapit in the form of Cupid this past breeding season.

ANOTHER MILESTONE FOR KENTUCKY DOWNS

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

Another record was set Saturday at Kentucky Downs when $21,065,982 was wagered on the 12-race card. Perhaps even more impressively, Kentucky Downs out-handled Del Mar, where $19,423,928 was bet. Del Mar ran 11 races on Saturday.

That a wagering record was set was hardly a surprise considering that the card at Kentucky Downs was also the best ever offered at the sport’s most unique racetrack. There were six graded stakes on the card and five of them were worth $1 million. The average field size was 11, the type of number horseplayers love.

Kentucky Downs is improving every year, but there is a way to make it even better. Largely because of the width of the turf course, fields are limited to 12 horses. In many races, there are 16 horses entered in a race, with four on the also-eligible list. For most tracks, limiting the number of starters to 12 wouldn’t be an issue. But, according to Kentucky Downs Senior Vice President and General Manager Ted Nicholson, it’s not uncommon for as many as 30 horses to enter a race, particularly in maiden races.

If Kentucky Downs does as well as it does limiting the fields to 12 horses, imagine how much more they could handle if allowing 16 horses to race. And why limit things to 16 horses? What’s wrong with a 20-horse field, a 22-horse field?

Nicholson said track management is exploring its options relating to field size. It would take widening the course, particularly on the turns. Cont. p11 Ninequst!

9% Graded Stakes horses to starters. No stallion under $75k can match him. Just one of the Nyquist stats that makes his yearlings an absolute must-see.

Just imagine... Darley
Medaglia d’Oro’s September yearlings are from his best-bred crop ever.

Just so you know what to expect, his second best crop are his current three-year-olds – and there are already more Graded Stakes horses among them than in any of his previous crops at this stage of the season. Just imagine...

“Increasing the amount of horses that can run is something that we have talked about, but talks haven’t gone that far,” he said. “We’ve been content with having 16 possibles and scratching down to 12. This is one of those things we probably should consider even more for next year.”

Nicholson added that the track decided to card more maiden races, which almost always have oversubscribed fields, this year. There were four on Saturday’s card. It was done so that horsemen with maidens would have a better chance of getting into races rather than being shut out for the entire meet because it has been so difficult to get into those races.

“I’d much rather run a maiden race with 12 than throw up a claiming race that might scratch down to seven or eight,” Nicholson said.

Saratoga Is Growing But Is The Sport?

It was announced last week that the Saratoga meet set still another wagering record with $878,211,963 bet on the meet, a 7.7% increase over what was a record handle in 2021. If the trends continue, we may be only three or four years removed from the meet breaking the $1-billion mark, an astounding number.

But while this is good news for Saratoga and NYRA, the numbers suggest that the handle increases are not a matter of the pie growing but Saratoga taking a bigger slice of the pie. According to Equibase, through August, total handle is up just 0.24% on the year. In August, which includes the bulk of the Saratoga season, wagering was down 0.86%.

It’s not just Saratoga. The numbers coming out of the top-tier tracks, particularly the boutique meets, continue to be good. That probably means that customers continue to turn away from the second and third-tier tracks and are focusing their wagering dollars on the very best simulcasting signals.

Problems for the Canadian Triple Crown

For the second year in a row, the winner of the Queen’s Plate will not be running in the second leg of the Canadian Triple Crown. When entries were taken last week for Tuesday’s Prince of Wales S. at Fort Erie, the field, as expected, did not include Queen’s Plate winner Moira (Ghostzapper). She is being pointed for a Grade I race and trainer Kevin Attard said he is looking at either the GI E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine or the GI Queen Elizabeth Challenge Cup S. at Keeneland. Attard wants to give her a chance in Grade I company to enhance her resume. You can hardly blame him.

The 2021 Plate winner Safe Conduct (Bodemeister) skipped the Prince of Wales because the connections thought me might have a hard time making the transition from Woodbine’s Tapeta surface to the Fort Erie dirt track.

Also sitting out the $400,000 Prince of Wales will be Queen’s Plate runner-up Hall of Dreams (Lemon Drop Kid) and Queen’s Plate beaten favorite Rondure (Oxbow). The 7-5 morning-line favorite in the race is Sir for Sure (Sligo Bay {Ire}), who was third, beaten nine lengths, in the Queen’s Plate.

With the race being run three weeks after the Queen's Plate and offering a purse that is modest by today's standards, the Prince of Wales has become a weak link in the Canadian Triple Crown, which also includes the Breeders' S. at Woodbine. As is this case with the U.S. Triple Crown, there is talk that the series needs to be tinkered with. One thought is to bring back a bonus structure for any horse sweeping the three races, something the Ontario tracks have done off and on over the years. Throwing some money at the problem is one possible solution.

As for the Queen's Plate, it appears that is about to undergo a name change with the death of Queen Elizabeth II. Since its inception way back in 1860, the race has been named for the reigning British monarch and has been called the Queen's Plate since 1952. As long as Woodbine sticks to tradition, the race will be renamed the King's Plate in honor of King Charles III.

New Voices in NYRA Announcer's Booth

It was announced last week that Frank Mirahmadi will take over as the announcer at Saratoga next year. It was one of a number of changes when it comes to the NYRA race-callers. John Imbriale has decided to cut back on his duties and will call the races at Belmont only. Chris Griffin, currently the announcer at Parx, will take over the duties at Aqueduct.

Mirahmadi will split his time between two of the top tracks in the sport, Saratoga and Santa Anita. Considering those assignments, his popularity and the quality of his calls, it's easy to argue that Mirahmadi deserves to be recognized as the very best in his profession.

Mirahmadi will be leaving Monmouth at the end of the current meet. If he's amenable to the idea, isn't bringing Larry Collmus back to Monmouth an obvious move?

NORCAL TRAINERS CLEAN UP AT DEL MAR

Edited Release from Del Mar

It has been a meet to remember for several Northern California trainers who like to summer at Del Mar, as well as one trainer who came to Southern California from Northern California and stayed.

Jonathan Wong rattled off seven wins in a week last month at Del Mar, winning 'Trainer of the Week' honors and climbing into the Top 10 in the trainer standings. He never left. Going into Sunday's final day of the Del Mar summer meet, Wong had notched 13 victories, good for a tie for sixth in the trainer standings and only six off the pace set by Philip D'Amato.

“Beyond pleased,” Wong says. “It’s definitely exceeded expectations. I was hoping we could win six to eight and we’ve won 13 so far, so we’ve doubled what we were hoping for. Just amazing.

“We’ve had great help,” Wong continues. “We had owners that let us place horses where they could win, a great group of guys working back here for us, making sure everything was taken care of. Fortunately, we got lucky. Horses were just clicking at the right time, they got into their races and everything worked out perfectly.”

Wong still calls Golden Gate Fields his base, but he’s training full time in Southern California. He’s currently tied for first in the trainer standings at Golden Gate.

“I live down here, but a majority of our barn is up in the Bay Area,” Wong says, “and we’re thinking about taking a string out to Keeneland for the meet and spreading out into the Kentucky area.”

Trainer Andy Mathis had his best meet ever at Del Mar this summer, winning 12 races, good enough for seventh in the trainer standings. Unlike Wong, Mathis has already returned to Northern California but he takes lasting memories of the 2022 meet.

“So much better than I would ever have imagined,” Mathis says. “It hasn’t totally sunk in yet how good it worked out. I thought it would be more likely that I would win zero races than 12.

“It was one of those deals where we won a few races early and I thought if we could win six or seven races that would be really good,” Mathis added. “The next thing you know you’re at six or seven and you say, ‘Boy, nine would be a huge number’ and then it was 10 and then last week we landed on 12.”

Mathis says he appreciates how difficult the summer meet is and how it takes a lot of good luck.

“It was a lot of good fortune throughout the whole meet,” he states. “Whether it was pace scenarios or horses that got into races and not on the also-eligible lists. Del Mar is hard. Training starts early, you have the later post times. You really need everybody on the same page. All the grooms and the riders. It’s long days and hard work.”

That being said, Mathis says he’ll probably be back next year. “It’s like playing blackjack and you’re on a big roll,” Mathis says. “You can’t just get up and leave. Once I recover from it, I’ll be wanting to go back.”

Two other trainers at Del Mar for the summer are leaving town with victories under their belt. Quinn Howey calls Northern California home, but brought a string of horses to Del Mar and won three races. O.J. Jauregui did the same and pocketed one victory.

GODOLPHIN NAMED NATIONAL OWNER, BREEDER OF THE YEAR FOR 2021

Sheikh Mohammed’s Godolphin was named 2021 National Owner of the Year, presented by 1/ST, and also Breeder of the Year during the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA)’s National Awards Dinner held Sept. 10 at Keeneland. The event was emceed by TVG’s Gabby Gaudet. Cont. p15

- Washington Breeder of the Year--Rainbow Meadows Farm (Petra Lewin)

"Congratulations to all of the winners of the TOBA national and state awards," said Dan Metzger, president of TOBA. "Keeneland provided a magnificent setting to celebrate the outstanding achievements of 2021 and we were honored to recognize all of tonight's winners, including the amazing success of Godolphin as both National Owner and Breeder of the Year."

KENTUCKY DOWNS FORCED TO ABANDON CARD

The Sunday program at Kentucky Downs, which was set to feature the GIII AGS Ladies' Marathon S., was called off following the day’s second race owing to deteriorating weather conditions.

According to a tweet from officials, the final nine races from Sunday will be contested Tuesday, Sept. 13, with first post at 12:25 p.m. CT. The races will not be redrawn, but a new program will be created. All scratches are back in.

The last of seven scheduled days of live racing is set for Wednesday, Sept. 14, at 12:25 p.m. Racing on the Kentucky circuit then shifts to Churchill Downs for its September meet beginning Sept. 15.

“It’s disappointing not to get the card in, because the turf course was perfect Saturday and starting our Sunday card,” said Ted Nicholson, Kentucky Downs’ Vice President for Racing. “It actually benefited from some water because (track superintendent) Butch Lehr was cognizant of pending rain, and the course started the day very firm. While rain was intermittent, we had that one steady shower. It was a borderline call, but the safety for our human and equine participants is paramount.

“We now look forward to sunshine the next few days and to staging terrific cards Tuesday and our closing day Wednesday. We appreciate the patience shown by our horsemen, our guests and simulcast players.”

MJC TEAM TO PARTICIPATE IN REAL RIDER CUP

A team representing the Maryland Jockey Club will participate in the Real Rider Cup Friday, Sept. 16, at Fair Hill.

The Fair Hill leg of the 2022 Real Rider Cup continues the tradition of the charity show jumping event that supports Fair Hill Thoroughbred Show, New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program and the Retired Racehorse Project.

The MJC will be represented by host/analyst Kali Francois, marketing and events manager Brittlan Wall and trainer Jacqueline Savoye.

“I couldn’t be more excited to be part of this amazing event and Team Maryland Jockey Club,” Wall said. “It is a great way to not only showcase the incredible versatility and talent of off-track Thoroughbreds, but it also shines a light on and raises money for Thoroughbred aftercare. It has been an honor to raise money over the last few months for this extremely worthwhile cause.”

Francois, who has ridden more than 600 races in her career, added: “I’m jazzed. It will be the first time I’ve been in competition over fences since just under a decade. This is such an amazing event for off-track Thoroughbreds and it’s a wonderful way to raise money for these incredible organizations.”

Also Ran: Whimsical Dance, Strega, Keep It Neat.

A distant second in the Woodbine Oaks behind dominating Queen's Plate heroine Moira (Ghostzapper) in her first stakes attempt July 24, Sister Seagull returned to eke out a neck win in the Bison City S. when last seen Aug. 14.

Forced to the rear of the field after contact at the start, Sunday's 7-2 second choice saved ground against the rail around the first turn before tipping out into the clear for the backstretch run. Guided back to the fence by jockey Antonio Gallardo, Sister Seagull gradually shifted out until she was five wide battling for the lead at the top of the lane. Swoop to Finish put up a fight with an eighth to run but Sister Seagull had plenty left, edging away late for the win.

Sister Seagull has a yearling full-brother and Sweet Kitten was bred back to Hard Spun for another full-sibling in 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

1ST BLACK TYPE WIN. O/B-Lothenbach Stables Inc (MN); T-Joel Berndt; J-Constantino Roman. $60,000. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $81,000. *Third SW for freshman sire (by Medaglia d’Oro).

3--Sam Sez, 120, g, 2, Sam Lord's Castle--Eye Luv U Two, by After Market. 1ST BLACK TYPE. O/B & D Thoroughbreds (MN); T-Michael E. Biehler. $9,063.

Also Ran: Scatamaran, Quarantena Bambino, Roses by Liam, Sir Sterling, Jose Patio.

A daylight winner on debut, It’s Bobs Business rolled to an easy win again in the Northern Lights Futurity Saturday night.

Speeding to the front against the locals June 30, he dominated that field by 11 3/4 lengths under mild urging. Finding himself last here after hopping at the start and getting taken up on the rail leaving the gap, It’s Bobs Business quickly made up the lost ground as he shifted out nearing the turn. Boldly splitting rivals three wide into the bend, he circled four deep into upper stretch and turned on the afterburners to win by an easy 7 1/4 lengths. Hand Pay completed the exacta. It’s Bobs Business is the first stakes winner for his dam and the third for freshman sire Bolt d’Oro. He has a yearling half-sister by Astern (Aus) but no 2022 sibling. The mare went back to Medaglia d’Oro for 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

CROCKET MINNESOTA SPRINT CHAMPIONSHIP S., $100,000, Canterbury, 9-10, (S), 3yo/up, 6f, 1:09.71, ft.

   1st Dam: Sales Call, by Bellamy Road
   2nd Dam: Tap Dance, by Pleasant Tap
   3rd Dam: Lyrical Prayer, by The Minstrel

Also Ran: Scatamaran, Quarantena Bambino, Roses by Liam, Sir Sterling, Jose Patio.

A daylight winner on debut, It’s Bobs Business rolled to an easy win again in the Northern Lights Futurity Saturday night.

Speeding to the front against the locals June 30, he dominated that field by 11 3/4 lengths under mild urging. Finding himself last here after hopping at the start and getting taken up on the rail leaving the gap, It’s Bobs Business quickly made up the lost ground as he shifted out nearing the turn. Boldly splitting rivals three wide into the bend, he circled four deep into upper stretch and turned on the afterburners to win by an easy 7 1/4 lengths. Hand Pay completed the exacta. It’s Bobs Business is the first stakes winner for his dam and the third for freshman sire Bolt d’Oro. He has a yearling half-sister by Astern (Aus) but no 2022 sibling. The mare went back to Medaglia d’Oro for 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.
Also Ran: Bayou Benny, Dame Plata, Magic Castle, Thealligatorhunter, Hap Hot.

Love the Nest picked up his fifth lifetime and third stakes win with a powerful stalk-and-pounce performance in the Crocrock Minnesota Sprint Championship S. Saturday night.

A troubled second on unveiling, the colt quickly put it behind him with dazzling 8 1/2-length, 7 1/4-length, and 5 1/4-length victories in his three subsequent starts, the middle race being the Northern Lights Futurity. His win streak was broken two back by familiar face Doctor Oscar in a tough length loss July 16 in the state-restricted Victor S. Myers S. He returned to winning ways last out Aug. 13 in the Minnesota Derby.

Breaking readily here, Love the Nest was rated in third off the leaders, but never out of striking range as he chased into the turn. Shifting inside tiring rivals nearing upper stretch, he was under a full head of steam when he shifted to the outside of the pacesetter, and turned the tables on Doctor Oscar by 2 3/4 lengths. Love the Nest has a 2-year-old half-brother named Roses by Liam (Liam = s Map) as well as a yearling half-sister by Speightster. The dam went to Beau Liam for 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

BLAMETHEGOODTIMES (c, 2, Blame--Celebrategoodtimes, by Harlan’s Holiday) flattened to sixth Aug. 12 on unveiling when sprinting over the Ellis main track. Sent away at 8-1 here on the switch to turf, he vied for the early lead between runners before backing off to rate just off the fence from third. Making his bid from that rail-skimming position, he took over the lead passing the furlong marker and drew away from rivals to a much-the-best 5 1/4-length victory. Retained (Bayern) settled for second. Blamethegoodtimes is the third winner from four to the races for his dam. He is a yearling half-sister by Twirling Candy. Sales History: $65,000 Ylg ’21 KESEP. HOODOOLAND (f, 3, Medaglia d’Oro--Theycallmeladyluck {SP}, by Dixie Union) graduated by 6 3/4 lengths at third asking last out July 28 at Laurel and was backed down to 9-10 favoritism in this off-the-turf spot. Settling in a wide third behind splits of :23.46 and :47.39, the $1.4-million Keeneland September buy drew on even terms turning for home, took charge past the three-sixteenths pole and splashed clear for a 4 1/4-length success. Click to Confirm (Tonalist) won a photo for the place. The winner, a half to Salty (Quality Road), GISW, $688,500, has a yearling Quality Road half-sister and a half-brother of this season by the same sire. Her dam was bred to Into Mischief for 2023. WITCH HAZEL (f, 2, Astern {Aus}--Druidess, by Malibu Moon), off the board in only one of her three prior starts that all came on turf, switched to Woodbine's all-weather surface as a 7-1 shot here. Up close to the pace while racing three wide, she had to give up racing room around the far turn, losing ground to the front runners while floating nearly five wide. Under a hard ride down the lane, she came with a late run to just nail Dolce Sopresa (Maclean's Music) on the wire by a neck. A half-sister to Hemp Hemp Hurray (Arctic Schiller), MSW-USA, MGSP-Can, $337,494, Witch Hazel has a yearling half-sister by Munnings and a weanling half-sister by Outwork still to race behind her. Her dam was bred back to Echo Town for a 2023 foal. Sales History: $11,000 RNA Ylg '21. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $77,064. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

GAS ME UP (c, 2, Hard Spun--Chic Thrill (SP, $159,375), by Smart Strike) made the fourth choice at 5-1 while stretching out to a mile, got away cleanly and tracked the :23.13 and :47.87 pace before tackling the leader coming off the turn. The two exchanged bumps, but Gas Me Up was moving well and went on with it, unfazed as he cleared the field by 1 1/2 lengths. Game Time (Not This Time) chased him home in second. The winner has a yearling full-brother. Gas Me Up's dam, who was bred to Gun Runner for next term, is out of Canadian champion Catch the Thrill (A.P. Indy), who is out of Canadian champion Catch the Ring (Seeking the Gold). Sales History: $140,000 Ylg '21.

MALIBU COAST (c, 2, Malibu Moon--Ready Ready Ready, by More Than Ready), a $110,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic purchase after working in :10 3/5, was in no hurry from midpack along the rail. The 7-1 choice was content to let Reincarnate (Good Magic) do the heavy lifting up front through early fractions of :23.04 and :47.14. Tipping out as he exited the turn, Malibu Coast unfurled a late rally and just caught Reincarnate by a neck at the wire. The winner is a half to Mr. Hustle (Declaration of War), Ch. 2-year-old Colt-Can, MSW-Can, SP-USA, $186,649. Ready Ready Ready, a half to GII Jim Dandy S. winner and late sire Laoban (Uncle Mo), has a yearling colt by Constitution, who sold for $95,000 to R. L. Glosson at Keeneland January and is entered as Hip 788 at this coming week's September sale; a filly foal by Not This Time; and was bred back to Nyquist. GETTHEMONEY (f, 2, Midnight Lute--Sailing Shiksa, by Bernstein) faded to sixth after getting hooked into a speed duel on unveiling Aug. 7 last out at this venue. Adding an extra furlong and a half here, she sped right to the front and put up :22.15 and :44.99 splits before rolling into the lane on a six-length advantage. She safely held her cushion down to the wire as Lily Poo (Tapiture) came on from the back to grab second. A $230,000 OBSAPR buy on the back of her :10 1/5 zip through the lane, Getthemoney has a pair of brothers out of a young dam: a yearling colt by Outwork and a 2022 full-sibling. MALIBU MOONSHINE (f, 2, Bourbon Courage--Sunday in Malibu (SP, $119,558), by Malibu Moon) overcame a bumper car start and being forced outward at the break to regroup and settle off a contested pace in fifth. Angling out as she gathered steam, the 6-5 debutante advanced five wide into the lane and continued to drift nearing midstretch but was corrected to surge away to a six-length romp. She’s All Money (Goldencents) followed her in for the place. Malibu Moonshine is half to Faze the Nation (Cal Nation), SP, $226,295. LEGER GLORY FOR ELDAR ELDAROV

by Tom Frary

On a bonanza day for the TDN Rising Stars, KHK Racing Ltd’s Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) swooped to conquer in Sunday’s feature G1 Cazoo St Leger at Doncaster. Settled in mid-division early by David Egan, the Roger Varian-trained 9-2 joint-second favourite who captured the G2 Queen’s Vase at Royal Ascot June 15 was delivered wide in the straight to overhaul the 11-8 market-leader New London (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the supplemented Haskoy (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}) approaching the furlong pole.

Staying on strongly to the line, the bay who had finished behind Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Simca Mille (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) in the July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris when last seen had two lengths on Juddmonte’s filly there as New London eventually rallied to be half a length away in third. In a twist to the tale, Haskoy was demoted to fourth by the stewards having caused interference to the fourth-placed Giavellotto (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), so that New London was moved up to second and that colt placed third.

“Ease in the ground helped and he hit the line really strongly,” Egan said. “Winning a Classic is something special. It’s a week since Jack de Bromhead passed away and he was who I thought about crossing the line. It’s been a sad week with Her Majesty dying.” Cont. p3

SWEET LADY MAKES ALL FOR VERMEILLE GLORY

by Sean Cronin

Rebounding off a fourth in a quality renewal of July’s G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, Gemini Stud’s G2 Prix Corrida victrix Sweet Lady (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}–High Heel Sneakers {GB}, by Dansili {GB}) showed a clean set of heels to her 10 rivals and made all to register a first elite-level triumph in Sunday’s G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille at ParisLongchamp.

Swiftly into stride and passing every marker in front, she was scrubbed along as the pack threatened off the home turn and called upon abundant reserves under an all-out drive inside the final quarter mile to hold on bravely for a career high.

“The plan this year has always been to target the autumn races with this filly as she loves soft ground,” revealed trainer Francis-Henri Graffard. Cont. p5

KYPRIOS KEEPS WINNING THREAD IN IRISH ST LEGER

Moyglare Stud’s star stayer Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) prevailed on the front end in the G1 Irish St Leger at the Curragh.

AL RIFFA RALLYS TO NATIONAL TRIUMPH

The Goffs Vincent O’Brien National S. went to the rallying Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}).

TAHIYRA SCINTILLATING IN THE MOYGLARE

‘TDN Rising Star’ Tahiyra (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) won the G1 Moyglare Stud S. in brilliant fashion and punched her ticket to the Breeders’ Cup.

–Roger Varian on Eldar Eldarov

One of the race’s least-exposed runners heading to post, Eldar Eldarov had earned TDN Rising Star status on debut by five lengths over an extended mile at Nottingham in October before doubling his tally in a 10-furlong Newcastle novice May 24. There must be a sense of what-might-have-been for connections of Zechariah (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}), with the late withdrawal beaten only a nose by the eventual Leger winner in the Queen’s Vase, while those close to the previous day’s Irish Champion runner-up Onesto and the afternoon’s Niel scorer Simca Mille will also have watched the action unfold on Town Moor with a deal of interest.

This was relatively straightforward for David Egan, who tracked New London throughout in fifth switched off perfectly for this marathon test given the added stamina demands of the ground. He was still on the tail of Godolphin’s favourite at the top of the straight and William Buick looked content there but as soon as he was asked to extend he found it as difficult as he had at Chester earlier in the season. That left the door open to Eldar Eldarov, who needed no second invitation and after he had swamped his chief rival at the furlong pole he was the only runner still going forward with relish at the line.

Roger Varian admitted to confidence beforehand, and said, “I quietly thought he had a real big shout today. Not everybody was wowed by his run in France last time out, but the winner went and pushed Luxembourg all the way in the Irish Champion S. He had a tough race that day which is why he didn’t run again and he was only just getting going at the line in France.”

“His run at Royal Ascot showed he had stamina in abundance and that race is proving a good trial for the Leger. He’s also handled soft ground as a 2-year-old, so I knew he’d stay and handle the ground, it was whether he was good enough.” Cont. p4

Varian added, “I think we see him as a Cup horse next season, he’s blessed with stamina and has an admirable attitude,” Varian added. “If he stays sound, we could have him for the next two, three or four years.”

There was a sting in the tail for connections of Haskoy, with Ralph Beckett the victim of another possibly harsh decision from the Doncaster stewards as he had been in 2015 with Simple Verse (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}). Frankie’s attempt to keep the filly from veering towards the far rail was unsuccessful and as she took the ground of Giavellotto two out her fate was sealed despite her gallant efforts from there.

As he did in 2015, Ralph Beckett will appeal the stewards’ decision but before he learned of the outcome he had said of the runner-up, “She ran a huge race and there is nothing to say other than we found one too good—that is it really. She’ll probably go on holiday now. She’s done a lot in a short space of time. The only other option would be the Prix de Royallieu, but I suspect she’ll have a holiday.”

Charlie Appleby said of New London, “He ran a solid race, Will just said he feels better on a better surface. He said he couldn’t say he didn’t stay, as he came back at them at the line. We might put him away for the winter now.”

Pedigree Notes

Ahead of the Arc bid of Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}), this result was further enhancement of Kirsten Rausing’s amazing dynasty of Alruccaba (Ire) who is Eldar Eldarov’s fourth dam. Becoming the 53rd top-level winner for his sire, who had the one-two after Haskoy’s demotion, he is the third foal out of Rausings triple listed winner All At Sea (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) whose first was the Listed罗西say S.-placed filly A La Voile (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The second dam is the three-times Group 1-winning Albanova (GB) (Alzao), who produced the black-type-winning stayers Algometer (GB) (Archipenko), Alignak (GB) by Sea The Stars’s son Sea The Moon (Ger) and Alwilda (GB) (Hernando {Fr}).

Alwilda is the dam of the now five-times Group 1 winner Alpinista, while the third dam is the Listed Oyster S. winner Alouette (GB) (Darshaan {GB}) who also produced what was prior to the current Sir Mark Prescott luminary Rausings best performer in the dual G1 Champion S. heroine Alborada (GB) from another mating with Alzao. Alouette is kin to the G3 Doncaster Cup winner Alleluia (GB) (Cearlecon), herself the dam of the G1 Prix Royal-Oak heroine Allegretto (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and to Alzao’s G2 Nassau S. winner Last Second (Ire) who threw the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulians hero and sire Aussie Rules.

This is also the family of Sadler’s Wells’s Yesterday (Ire), Quarter Moon (Ire) and Dragon Dancer (GB), the G2 City Of York S. scorer Shine So Bright (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)) and the Group 1 performer Albaflora (GB) (Muhaarar (GB)). All At Sea’s once-raced 2-year-old colt by Roaring Lion is named Kingswood (GB), while she also has a yearling filly by Study of Man (Ire) and a colt foal by Lope De Vega (Ire).

He added, “The spring had been positive, with her victory in the Corrida, and she had an ideal preparation for this. Everything has gone very smoothly at home in the mornings and she was ready for this.

“When I saw her travelling nicely, with her ears pricked, I thought she could do well. She wasn’t stopping in the straight and didn’t stop lengthening. She is now a Group 1 winner and I am sure that her owners will be pleased to let her take her chance in the Arc. The softer the better on the day, so who knows what might happen on the day.”

KYPRIOS CLINCHES IRISH ST LEGER SUCCESS TO CROWN MEMORABLE SEASON

By Brian Sheerin

Aidan O’Brien and Ryan Moore sugarcoated a wonderful Longines Irish Champions Weekend by bagging the G1 Irish St Leger with the Moyglare Stud-owned Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Sent to post a warm favourite at odds of 8-11, Kyprios found generously on the front end to hold off the determined challenge of Hamish (GB) (Motivator {GB}) and win by less than a length.

Kyprios has gone from strength to strength this season, with his Irish St Leger success coming off the back of top level triumphs in the Gold Cup at Ascot and the Goodwood Cup.

Search For A Song (Ire), a sister of the winner and a former dual Irish St Leger winner herself, ran a gallant race in third to lead home a one-three for Moyglare on an afternoon that the stud celebrated the 50th running of the Moyglare Stud S.

But the day belonged to Kyprios. He may not do anything fancy but his win on Sunday stretched his unbeaten record this season to five and O’Brien hailed him as everything you want in a stayer.

The champion trainer said, “He’s very tough. He’s very relaxed. He’s always only in the gear that you want. Ryan gave him a great ride. “He’s a horse that gets a trip but he’s a lot of class and he’s very relaxed, which is a massive help. It helps him to get the trip. He’s very brave, very clear-wineded, good mover and a great mind. It’s a pleasure to have him.”

On future plans, O’Brien added, “It’ll depend on what everyone will want to do with him and it was great Eva [Maria Bucher-Haefner] was here to see him today. He’s very easy to deal with and it leaves him with a lot of options. “He was extra lazy today. Maybe it was the soft ground that made him a little bit more laboured. He could go back to a mile and a half but obviously we would love to have him around for the Gold Cup for the coming years. He is a unique horse really. “We’ll see what everybody thinks and what way the ground is going to be (in ParisLongchamp for the Arc). He is only four and for a stayer he’s very young. As we saw today, he only does the minimum so it’s very hard to know what’s in there really.”

AL RIFFA STARS AT THE CURRAGH
by Sean Cronin
Second to the reopposing Hans Andersen (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in his July 16 debut over seven furlongs at the Curragh, Jassim Bin Ali Al Attiyah’s Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}--Love On My Mind {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) graduated over the same course and distance last month and stepped forward to provide apprentice jockey Dylan Browne McMonagle with a career high in Sunday’s G1 Goffs Vincent O’Brien National S., his third seven-furlong outing at the Co. Kildare venue.
The 9-1 chance settled into a rhythm behind all five rivals through halfway and made a move forward with three furlongs remaining. Coming under increased urging passing the quarter-mile marker, he was ridden to launch his challenge approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly in the closing stages to prevail by 1 1/2 lengths from Proud And Regal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

“It’s unbelievable,” said Browne McMonagle after claiming a maiden top-level success. “He was very straightforward from the gates. He jumped, travelled good and loved the soft conditions. I was really happy the whole way through. I was keen to move up to the boys going to the three [furlong pole]. I didn’t want them to get too far in front of me in that ground because it would have been hard to peg them back. As soon as I gave him a little kick in the belly and he moved onto the bridle, I was always the winner. I was travelling over the top of them, he picked up good and put it to bed very quick.

“It’s hard to believe and, hopefully it’s the first of many. It’s down to Joseph [O’Brien] and a massive thanks to everyone behind the scenes at home. I wouldn’t be here without my family, Mum and Dad and everyone’s here today so it’s great. It means a lot, I couldn’t have done it on a bigger stage and it’s great to get one.” Cont. p10

by Tom Frary

It proved an emotional afternoon for Dermot Weld on Sunday as the legendary veteran of the Irish training ranks basked in the glory of winning the Curragh’s G1 Moyglare Stud S. for the first time since 1987 with the brilliant ‘TDN Rising Star’ Tahiyyra (Ire) (Siyouni (Fr)). So closely linked with the sponsors for so long, the master of Rosewell House was winning their signature race with an Aga Khan homebred who had looked so special on her winning debut at Galway July 26.

Always travelling supremely well behind the leaders under Chris Hayes, the 100-30 second favourite was unleashed to pick up Ballydoyle’s G2 Debutante S. and G3 Albany S. scorer Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) inside the final furlong and draw away for an emphatic 2 1/4-length success in this “Win And You’re In” for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Keeneland in November. There was a yawning 4 1/2-length gap back to the sponsors’ Eternal Silence (War Front) in third to underline the sheer quality of the performance of the winner, a half-sister to no less than the stable’s luminary Tarnawa (Ire) (Shamardal). Cont. p11

This was the 50th running of the race, so it was fitting that it was a representative of The Aga Khan who marked the occasion in the operation's 100th year. Well-respected as a result of her 5 1/2-length debut defeat of Ballydoyle's useful Dower House (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the homebred was nevertheless in deep taking on Meditate and others who had already shown a high level of form in group company. By the time they passed halfway, it was impossible to take the eyes off Chris Hayes as he sat with a serious amount of horse underneath him as Ryan Moore looked to turn the screw. While her main rival cut free of the pack approaching the furlong pole, her dominance was only ever going to be short-lived and when freed from restraint Tahiyra was on top of her 150 yards from the line and soon gone.

“She's always shown plenty at home, but she's a filly that you could send down with a lead horse rated 45 and she'll stay behind them or you could send down with a good one rated 80 or 90 and she'll stay behind that,” Hayes said. “She's a pleasure to do anything with and she even had a buck and a squeal going down--she had a go at me and went to drop the shoulder to get rid of me, but she is a little sweetheart and a funny character. The good ones normally are. She moved well on the ground and at the moment she's better than her sister because she's won her maiden at two and she's a Group 1 winner.”

Weld added, “It was an excellent renewal of the race. I was afraid it might just come a little soon in her career and I've always said what a beautiful filly she would be next spring. That's it for this year.

There is tremendous stamina in the pedigree, brilliance and speed. We'll review it early next spring, but obviously one of the Classic trials possibly and then one of the Guineas, Irish, English or French, but that's a long way down the line.” Cont. p12

Princess Zahra Aga Khan was on hand to witness the exhilarating performance and commented, “For all of us on the breeding team to see this family produce another fantastic filly is a really great thing. To watch her do that, sort of all by herself, is just brilliant. Dermot had given him some very clear instructions, which Chris followed very well. It’s been 100 years this year since my great grandfather bought the first foundation mares at Newmarket.”

Tahiya, who becomes the seventh Group 1 winner for her sire, is the third foal out of the Listed Oyster S. and Listed Martin Malony S. scorer Tarana (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) who was also third in the G3 Curragh Cup. Her aforementioned Tarnawa was her first foal and ended her career as a triple winner at this level including the Breeders’ Cup Turf. The second dam Tarakala (Ire) (Dr Fong) took the Listed Galtres S. and was third in the G3 Noblesse S., while this is also the family of the G1 Prix Royal-Oak hero Tiraaz (Lear Fan) and the G1 Phoenix S. heroine Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}). Tarana’s yearling colt is by Frankel (GB), while she also has a filly foal by Lope De Vega (Ire).

BREEDERS’ CUP NEXT FOR FLYING FIVE WINNER HIGHFIELD PRINCESS

By Brian Sheerin

Not content with conquering Group 1s in France, Britain and now Ireland, John Quinn nominated the Breeders’ Cup as the most likely destination for Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) after his superstar sprinter scorched to Flying Five S. glory under Jason Hart at the Curragh on Sunday. The race is a “Win And You’re In” for the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint in early November.

Quinn, a native of Tipperary who trains in England, described the winner as the best he’s trained in the build-up to Longines Irish Champions Weekend and boy was he vindicated by such a statement.

The phenomenal improver travelled into the race with rare ease before powering clear of a Erosandpsyche (Ire) (Sepoy {Aus}) to provide Quinn with a breakthrough Group 1 on home soil.

“She’s an unbelievable filly,” he said, almost gobsmacked afterwards. Cont. p14

Quinn added, “John [Fairley, owner] bought her dam in foal. We didn’t run her at two. We thought she’d win a race or two. All she’s done is improve. She’s phenomenal, really.”

Quinn added, “She’s by a very good sire. Her dam is well-bred and she’s a good back pedigree. I think not racing her at two probably helped her and the rest is down to the wonderful staff and the filly.

“Her next run will be in the Breeders’ Cup. Two turns around Keeneland could really suit her so, hopefully, we can get her there.”

Highfield Princess became the third British-trained winner of the race since 2018 and completed a sensational trio of Group 1 triumphs following her success in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G1 Nunthorpe S.

The 5-year-old’s rise through the ranks in the colours of Fairely, landlord to the winning trainer, is one of the stories of the season, given it was less than two years ago when she recorded her first victory off a mark of 58 in a handicap worth just £5,593 at Ayr.

Quinn’s ace sprinter could lock horns with Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint and her regular rider is excited by the challenge.

Hart said, “It would be nice to go and take on Golden Pal and see how we get on over there. She’s well on track to do it. She’s just spectacular, really.”

Pedigree Notes

The ninth foal out of Pure Illusion (Ire) (Danehill), Highfield Princess is a half-sister to G2 July S. hero and G1 Middle Park S. third Cardsharp (GB) (Lonhro {Aus}) as well as three other winners.

Her dam, out of the G3 Princess Margaret S. heroine Saintly Speech (Southern Halo), has the juvenile colt Highfield Viking (GB) (Aclaim {Ire}) as her latest foal.

‘RISING STAR’ ABOVE THE CURVE LANDS
THE BLANDFORD IN GAME FASHION
by Heather Anderson
Group 1 winner Above The Curve (American Pharoah--Fabulous (Ire), by Galileo (Ire)) made it back-to-back scores with a gritty effort in the G2 Moyglare ‘Jewels’ Blandford S. at the Curragh on Sunday. The Joseph O’Brien-trained ‘TDN Rising Star’ had won the G1 St Mark’s Basilica Coolmore Prix Saint-Alary at ParisLongchamp on May 29 in her previous start.
Caught out wide without cover in midpack early as 70-1 longshot Emphatic Answer (Ire) (No Nay Never) led the way, Above The Curve improved under her own power to fourth with seven furlongs left to travel. Perched next to favoured La Petite Coco (Ire) (Ruler Of The World {Ire}) turning back toward the stands, the filly was poised to pounce and Ryan Moore asked her for her best with a quarter-mile remaining. She locked horns with La Petite Coco to her inside at the furlong grounds, before asserting and holding off the rapidly closing Insinuendo (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) to win by a neck. Galleria Borghese (Ire) (Caravaggio) was another 1 1/4 lengths back after rallying past La Petite Coco in the final strides.
Racing for Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Westerberg, the 3-year-old filly was third at Leopardstown in her only start as a juvenile, and graduated going 10 furlongs there when making her 2022 bow on Apr. 6, good for a ‘Rising Star’ nod. Second in the Listed Weatherbys Bloodstock Pro Cheshire Oaks (Robert Sangster Memorial Cup) on May 4, the bay was a 5-1 chance on Sunday.
O’Brien said, “I thought it was a fantastic ride from Ryan. It was the filly’s first run back after a lay-off. I thought she’d come on a bit for the run.” Cont. p16

He added, “She’s a classy filly and a Group 1 winner and her attitude showed in the last 100 yards. When the going was getting tough, she put her head out and she fought all the way to the line, beating a very good filly.

“The plan was that this would be a nice stepping stone for the G1 Prix de l’Opera on Arc day. That should set her up lovely for that and she’s a course-and-distance winner already. She’s a huge, big filly, she’s actually 17 hands. For a 3-year-old filly that’s an incredible height. She seems to have progressed from the spring and, hopefully, she can progress in the future.”

One of six Group 1 winner for her American Triple Crown-winning sire, Above The Curve is bred on the same cross as G2 Park Hill S. heroine Pista, who was second in the G1 Prix de Royallieu, and similarly to G1 Criterium International International hero and sire Van Gogh, who is out of a Sadler’s Wells mare. Her unraced dam, from one of the best families in the stud book as a half-sister to the ‘Iron Horse’ and champion sire Giant’s Causeway (Storm Cat), and outstanding blue hen You’re so thrilling (Storm Cat)--her foals led by dual Classic winner Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo (Ire))--already produced the dual Group 3-placed Thinking Of You to the cover of American Pharoah. Fabulous has visited the court of fellow Triple Crown victor Justify (Scat Daddy) 2019-2021, and has fillies of 2020 and 2021 and a weanling colt of this year to show for it. She was sent back to that first-crop sire again this season.

CHALDEAN MAKES ALL FOR CHAMPAGNE SUCCESS

by Sean Cronin

Racing returned to Britain’s shores Sunday as Doncaster’s rescheduled G2 Coral Champagne S. initiated a barrage of non-stop European stakes action with Juddmonte’s 550,000gns Tattersalls December foal Chaldean (GB) (Frankel (GB)--Suelita (GB), by Dutch Art (GB)) prevailing in a three-runner affair to add to his victory over the reopposing Indestructible (Ire) (Kodiac (Ire)) in last month’s G3 Acomb S. at York.

The May-foaled chestnut had earlier backed up a June 30 debut fifth at Newbury with a July 15 graduation back there, accounting for Silver Knott (GB) (Lope De Vega (Ire)) and others, before rallying when headed by Indestructible to prevail on the Knavesmire last time.

In front and dominating from flagfall here, the 2-1 second choice was asked to stretch with three furlongs remaining and was clear throughout the final quarter-mile to easily account for the former by 3 1/2 lengths. Silver Knott, let go as the 8-13 pick, was unable to land a telling blow and finished 1 3/4 lengths back in third.

“I know I was able to set my own fractions, but when I asked him to go he did go,” explained Frankie Dettori. “He gave me a real good feel, he hit the line strong and he’s not just one-paced, he’s got gears. I’ve suggested he goes to the [G1] Dewhurst because of the way he won today. He’s entitled to be there.”

Winning trainer Andrew Balding added, “He’s also in the [G1 Prix Jean-Luc] Lagardere and there’s the [G1 Vertem Futurity] back here, so we’ll have a discussion with the owners and their representatives and come up with a plan. He’ll certainly stay a mile, but he’s not slow and that’s what you want in a class horse. He’s a high-class horse in the making.”

Pedigree Notes

Chaldean is the sixth foal and scorer produced by a multiple-winning half-sister to G3 Cornwallis S. runner-up Outer Space (GB) (Acclamation (GB)) and the dam of G2 Lowther S. victor Living In The Past (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle (Ire)). The May-foaled chestnut is a half-brother to G2 Mill Reef S. victor Alkumait (GB) (Showcasing (GB)), Listed Committed S. winner The Broghie Man (GB) (Cityscape (GB)), the dual stakes-placed Get Ahead (GB) (Showcasing (GB)), Listed Prix Herod third Gloves Lynch (GB) (Mukhadram (GB)) and a weanling filly by Frankel (GB).

ARC IN THE BALANCE AFTER SIMCA MILLE’S NIEL SUCCESS by Tom Frary
Providing another boost to his G1 Grand Prix de Paris conqueror Onesto (Ire) (Frankel (GB)), Haras de la Perelle and Stephane Wattel’s Simca Mille (Ire) (Tamayuz (GB)) came out on top in Sunday’s premier French Arc trial for the 3-year-old colts, the G2 Qatar Prix Niel at ParisLongchamp.

Despite his win, an Arc rematch with Onesto is uncertain according to connections who were able to enjoy a moment in the sun with the admirable flag-bearer of the Stephane Wattel stable. Always happy taking a lead in third, the 3-1 shot was sent to the front by Gregory Benoist two out and had enough energy to run away from the whip en route to a comfortable 3/4-of-a-length verdict over TDN Rising Star Lassaut (Fr) (Almanzor (Fr)). Lassaut holds and Arc entry, as does True Testament (Ire) (Siyouni (Fr)) who was a length behind in third, while the May 29 G1 Tokyo Yushun hero and 19-10 favourite Do Deuce (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)) could only manage fourth, a further two lengths away.

“I don’t know about the Arc, firstly I don’t think he’ll recover in just three weeks and secondly, there is the ground issue as this is not the best surface for him,” Wattel said. “There is also the quality of the opposition to consider, but he’d answered some questions today as he was ready to run in the Grand Prix de Deauville and at the last moment we decided not to run. I’ll leave a decision as to the Arc to the owners and I’ll be honest with them.”

Pedigree Notes
Simca Mille, who also captured Chantilly’s G3 Prix du Lys over this trip June 19 and was in front of the day’s St Leger hero Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) in the Grand Prix de Paris, is the first foal out of Swertia (GB) (Pivotal (GB)) who is a daughter of the Prix de Conde, G3 Prix Penelope and G3 Prix Cleopatre-placed Sanjida (Ire) (Polish Precedent). She is in turn kin to three black-type winners headed by the three-times top-level winner and Prix de Diane heroine Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend (Ire)), who later produced the G3 Prix d’Aumale scorer Savarin (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)) and her G3 Prix Messidor-winning full-brother Geniale (Jpn). Swertia’s unraced 2-year-old filly by Kodiak (GB) is named Sadia (Ire), while she also has a yearling filly by Invincible Spirit (Ire).

COLTRANE ON TOP IN THE DONCASTER CUP
by Tom Frary
He may have been behind Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) when fourth in the G1 Goodwood Cup July 26, but Mick and Janice Mariscotti’s Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) was in a better place on Sunday as he downed the 2-9 favourite in a thriller.

Moving forward at a rate of knots this term, the darling of the Andrew Balding yard had been left trailing by the imperious Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) as that contemporary dazzled in York’s G2 Lonsdale Cup Aug. 19, but the rhythm of this race was much more to his liking as he remained in his comfort zone throughout.

That was not the case for Alan King’s star, who was too free anchored in last by Hollie Doyle and never comfortable with the slow fractions. As he laboured and ran around up the centre of the track in the home straight, David Probert was getting the right tune out of the 9-1 shot and once he had mastered the game Lismore (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) a furlong out Coltrane stayed on to beat Trueshan by a neck with a short head to Lismore who would have been an emotional winner for the De Bromheads.

“He’s had a long season and the worry is that at some stage he’s going to cry enough, but he was so tough there, he’s so game,” Balding said of the winner, who also took the Listed Esher S. at Sandown by 10 lengths at the start of July having won the Royal meeting’s Ascot S. June 14. “The slow pace wouldn’t have suited him. He’s won over two and a half miles at Ascot and we were a little worried about the ground, as he disappointed the last time he ran on very slow ground. He’s a course-and-distance winner, so next year’s [G1] Ascot Gold Cup would have to be an option, but we’ll just enjoy today.” Cont. p20
Iresine pounces late for Prix Foy triumph by Sean Cronin

Jean-Pierre Gauvin trainee Iresine (Fr) (Manduro (Ger)--Inanga (GB), by Oasis Dream (GB)) had garnered prizemoney in all 13 prior starts, with the highlight of nine victories being last term’s G3 La Coupe, and he pounced late in Sunday’s G2 Qatar Prix Foy at ParisLongchamp to secure a career high in the first of three Arc trials on the 10-race card.

The 5-year-old gelding lined up off a third Deauville’s Aug. 7 G3 Prix de Reux and employed patient tactics at the tail of the six-runner field until turning for home. Trapped against the rail for most of the straight, he angled into the clear approaching the furlong pole and produced a telling burst of acceleration inside the final 100 metres to usurp the duelling Bubble Gift (Fr) (Nathaniel (Ire)) and Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed (NZ)) in the dying strides for a career high.

“We know for sure that he prefers soft ground and he had run well in the Prix de Reux last time on ground probably too fast for him,” explained Gauvin. “We didn’t want to take a chance in the Grand Prix de Deauville if conditions were not suitable and they were not, so we made the right choice coming here. We would now like now to try a Group 1 with him and the only possibility looks to be the [G1] Prix-Royal Oak [back here next month]. He relaxes very well in his races when covered up, so I think he would stay the trip and the chances are, at this time of year, he will get his favoured ground.” Cont. p21

Pedigree Notes

Coltrane, who was providing his late sire with a 60th group winner, is the first foal out of the unraced Promise Me (Ire) (Montjeu (Ire)) whose yearling filly by Calyx (GB) sells at the upcoming Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2. Also responsible for the unraced 2-year-old colt Michael’s Pledge (Ire) (Churchill (Ire)) who was bought for €190,000 by Richard Knight and Sean Quinn at Gofts Orby, she is out of Hula Angel (Woodman) who landed the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G2 Rockfel S. The third dam Jode (Danzig) is a half-sister to the Kentucky Derby hero and sire Spend A Buck.

KINROSS ON TOP AT DONCASTER
by Sean Cronin

Back in vogue when successful in last month’s seven-furlong G2 City of York S. on the Knavesmire, Marc Chan’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Kinross (GB) (Kingman (GB)–Ceilidh House (GB), by Selkirk) continued his renaissance at his specialist distance with a one-length victory over the same trip in Sunday’s G2 Cazoo Park S. at Doncaster.

Positioned third in the slipstream of eventual third Al Suhail (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) through the early fractions, the odds-on favourite quickened beyond that rival approaching the final furlong and was comfortably on top in the closing stages as New Energy (Ire) (New Bay (GB)) reduced arrears nearing the line.

“At seven furlongs, on fast ground or soft ground, he’s a star,” claimed Frankie Dettori. “He doesn’t know how to run a bad race and he did what he had to do. He enjoyed himself and so did I.”

Kinross will now be primed for another crack at next month’s G1 Prix de la Foret, a race in which he finished fourth last year.

“He got a bit far back in it last year, but we’ll look forward to it,” trainer Ralph Beckett added. “As Frankie said, we know each other now and I’d imagine we’ll go straight there, After that we’ll see.”

Pedigree Notes

Kinross, kin to the unraced 2-year-old colt Seahouses (GB) (Sea The Moon (Ger)), is the fifth of six foals and one of four scorers produced by Listed Gillies Fillies S. victress Ceilidh House (GB) (Selkirk), herself kin to the dam of G3 Solario S. winner and G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains runner-up First Selection (Spa) (Diktat {GB}). His dual stakes-winning second dam Villa Carlotta (GB) (Rainbow Quest), herself a daughter of multiple stakes-winning G3 Rockfel S. second Subya (GB) (Night Shift) from the family of G1 Irish Derby-winning sire Law Society (Alleged), is a half to GI Hollywood Derby second Battle of Hastings (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) and to the stakes-placed dam of South African Grade 1 performers Mljet (SAf) (Jet Master (SAf)) and Felix The Cat (SAf) (Black Minnaloushe).
TRILLIUM PIPS THE PLATINUM QUEEN IN THE FLYING CHILDERS by Heather Anderson

No Nay Never’s Trillium (GB), second choice at 9-5, just touched off the 7-4 heavy favourite and G1 Nunthorpe S. runner-up The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) in the final jump of the G2 Flying Childers S. at Doncaster on Sunday.

The Rockcliffe Stud homebred was second at first asking at Goodwood in June, but got off the mark in a Newbury maiden on July 15. Wheeled back just 12 days later, the Apr. 6 foal took the G3 Markel Molecomb S. returned to Goodwood by 1 1/4 lengths later that month.

A touch eager, the Richard Hannon trainee raced in a pocket at the end of the bunched field, as The Platinum Queen made the running. Niggled at by Pat Dobbs to improve, she began to let down inside the final 300 yards and, once a seam opened, steamed home to just touch off the pacesetter by a short head. Crispy Cat (GB) (Ardad {Ire}) was 4 1/4 lengths back in third.

Dobbs said, “I couldn’t pull her up, she wanted to go round again. Sam Hitchcott has been riding her these past couple of weeks and he’s done a great job in getting her settled. Richard just keeps her sweet at home, she trains herself. She’s very quick and very tough so that is everything you want.

“She actually travelled too well and never relaxed properly so it’s probably a better performance than it looks.”

Hannon, who has Guineas aspirations for his filly, said, “I’m delighted with her, she’s turned into the most lovely filly and she has grown a lot. She clearly wants six furlongs now, Pat couldn’t pull her up, and it will be the [G1] Cheveley Park [S. next on Sept. 24] next.

“Hopefully, she can develop into a Guineas filly next year if she keeps progressing.”

Pedigree Notes

Trillium is yet another multiple group winner for her Coolmore sire, who is enjoying a wonderful year with his progeny, led by juvenile Group 1 winners Little Big Bear (Ire) and Blackbeard (Ire). Her dam, the G3 Dick Poole S. second Marsh Hawk (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), threw stakes-placed Mohawk King (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) as her first foal, and Sunday’s heroine is her third foal and third winner.

A half-sister to the G2 Queen Mary S. third Hairy Rocket (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), she has a yearling colt by Iffraaj (GB) named Stanley Spencer (Ire) and foaled a weanling colt by Wootton Bassett (GB) this season. Under the fourth dam is the former Royal runner and G2 Dante S. hero Carlton House (Street Cry {Ire}), who was second in both the G1 Ranvet S. and G1 Prince Of Wales’s S. across both hemispheres.

PARIS FEELS THE BERN AGAIN
by Sean Cronin

Carlos and Yann Lerner trainee Berneuil (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) had nosed ahead just once in seven starts since snagging last term’s G3 Qatar Prix du Petit Couvert at ParisLongchamp, annexing June’s Listed Prix Hampton at Chantilly, and doubled his pattern-race tally in an almost identical time to last year, of the five-furlong dash at the Bois de Boulogne track.

Swiftly into stride from the one gate and racing to the fore throughout, he was stirred into action approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly in the closing stages to win in decisive fashion.

“I was a bit concerned when the rain arrived two days ago, but the [sprint] track is relatively fresh and the going was just about okay for him,” said trainer Yann Lerner. “I told Ronan [Thomas] to bide his time from stall one and allow the horse to find his rhythm. He was relaxed in the race and, when he asked him for his effort with 300 metres to go, he picked up as though he was at the beginning of the race.

“I’m very happy for [part-owner] Antoine Gilibert and it’s great that he’s now won this race twice. We know he’s good, he’s very quick and we think he can win a Group 1, but he has to have his ground. He was in good form today and, if the ground is suitable in three weeks’ time, he will go for the [G1] Prix de l’Abbaye.”

Pedigree Notes

Berneuil is one of his sire’s 58 Group-race winners and the leading performer produced by Derivatives (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), herself a winning daughter of G1 Nassau S. heroine Favourable Terms (GB) (Selkirk). His third dam, Listed Rosemary H. and Listed October S. victor Fatefully (Private Account), is the dam of Listed Prix Aymeri de Mauleon victor Modern History (Ire) (Shamardal) and kin to Gil Dance Smartly S.-winning Canadian champion Points Of Grace (Point Given). Points Of Grace, in turn, is the dam of Gl Natalma S.-winning Canadian champion Victory To Victory (Exchange Rate) with this being the family of Gl Santa Monica H. winner Devil’s Orchid (Devil’s Bag).

THIS ONE HAS BITE
by Tom Frary

Stepping out of the shadows and into black-type company for the first time on Sunday, the Jean-Claude Rouget project Fang (Fr) (Goken {Fr}) rewarded the patience of connections to take ParisLongchamp's seven-furlong G3 Qatar Prix du Pin.

In the background and even tried unsuccessfully in a claimer as a 3-year-old, his best effort had been a second to the subsequent dual graded-stakes winner Bran (Fr) (Muhaarar {GB}) over 6 1/2 furlongs at Deauville in August. Two-from-three after a gelding operation this summer, with the bay's latest outing resulting in a win in the 7 1/2-furlong Grand Prix de la Teste de Buch held at Tarbes July 25, he followed the leader Ever Given (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) throughout and refused to give the British raider any peace. Giving generously for Cristian Demuro as the pair had it between them in the straight, the 5-1 shot overhauled the front-runner in the final 100 metres to score by a length.

Pedigree Notes

Fang's dam Belle De France (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) is a half to the listed winner and G3 Prix de Guiche runner-up Fils De Viane (Fr) (Kadounor {Fr}) and to the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris runner-up and G1 Prix Saint-Alary third Alix Road (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), who was to go to make a splash as a broodmare. Her son Sumbal (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) was successful in the G2 Prix Greffulhe, while another of her trio of black-type performers was the G2 Prix de Malleret and G2 Prix de la Nonette-placed Lavender Lane (Ire) (Shamardal). She is in turn responsible for this year’s G2 Middleton S. scorer Lilac Road (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) who had earlier in the afternoon gone so close in the G1 Prix Vermeille. Alix Road’s half-sister Princesse de Viane (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}) produced the G3 Prix de la Nonette scorer Viane Rose (Fr) (Sevres Rose {Ire}) who went on to throw two Japanese stakes winners. Belle De France's 2-year-old gelding Cap Camarat (Fr) (Johnny Barnes {Ire}) is unraced at present.

STREETS OF GOLD (IRE) (c, 2, Havana Gold {Ire}--Truly Honoured {GB}, by Frankel (GB)), who took an unbeaten record into this Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction Sale S., having beaten the likes of the G3 Dick Poole Fillies’ S. winner Juliet Sierra (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) along the way and given weight away in a competitive York nursery at the Ebor festival Aug. 17, broke well to race prominently early. Tending to race lazily throughout, the 11-8 favourite was in front approaching the furlong pole and stayed on to secure the valuable pot by a length from compatriot Tostado (Ire) (Kessaar (Ire)) as the Brits dominated.

“The sale has been very lucky and we found Tout Seul and Beaver Patrol and had a rake-load of success out of it. It’s a great sale for my sort of trainer. I buy my horses with Anthony Bromley, from Highflyer Bloodstock, and we’ve gotten better at him knowing what I like and me knowing what he buys. It’s going really well.”

The winner is the first foal out of an unraced full-sister to the triple Group 2-placed stayer Count Octave (GB) and a half to the Irish Derby and GI Secretariat S. hero Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo (Ire)) and the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial scorer Honor Bound (GB) (Authorized (Ire)). Also related to the G2 Hardwicke S. winner and dual G1 Champion S.-placed Indian Creek (GB) (Indian Ridge (Ire)), her yearling colt by Sea The Moon (Ger) is due to sell at this month’s Goffs Orby while she also has a filly foal by Make Believe (GB).
