$2.5-MILLION QUALITY ROAD COLT LEADS SEVEN-Figure BONANZA AT KEENELAND OPENER

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland September Yearling Sale, which began shortly after 1 p.m. Monday afternoon, jumped immediately into high gear and, by the time the dust had settled at the conclusion of a frenetic session of bidding, nine yearlings, led by a $2.5-million son of Quality Road, topped the seven-figure mark. During last year’s first session, three horses sold for seven figures and the entire sale produced 15 horses to pass that mark.

“It was a great day, from beginning to end,” said Keeneland President Shannon Arvin. “And to see as many people in the sales pavilion as we did, the packed house, all of those people in the seats, was really exciting. I think it’s a testament to the excitement about racing and our sport, in the state of Kentucky, in particular, and we had a lot of principals here. Which was what we want. We want the principals to be back and enjoying this tremendous sport and looking to find their next champions. The atmosphere was fun, the energy was high. It’s been that way for the last three days, so to see it culminate with the prices and results we saw today, is really exciting.”

FLIGHTLINE TO LANE’S END UPON RETIREMENT

Flightline (Tapit--Feathered, by Indian Charlie), who has been ranked by many among the best racehorses in history in the aftermath of his momentous 19 1/4-length victory in the GI TVG Pacific Classic this month, will enter stud as the property of a syndicate at Lane’s End Farm upon the conclusion of his racing career, it was announced Monday.

From a prolific Phipps family, Flightline was bred by Jane Lyon’s Summer Wind Farm and is raced by Summer Wind in partnership with Hronis Racing, Siena Farm, West Point Thoroughbreds, and Woodford Racing. A $1-million Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling purchase from the Lane’s End consignment, Flightline is trained by John Sadler and has been ridden in all five of his starts by Flavien Prat.

A total of 114 horses sold Monday for a gross of $57,095,000. The average of $500,833 was up 25.46% from last year’s opening session and the median rose 38.46% to $450,000.

“Just looking at the raw numbers, these are figures we haven’t seen in recent years,” said Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy. “With nine million-dollar horses in the first session, I think that’s the first time since 2007. The first hip through the ring brought $850,000. Hip 8 brought $1.2 million. The energy that was building—that was something we were leaning into—but it was the focus that we worked on with the breeders and the consignors that we needed the best physicals. We were recruiting buyers to come to the sale and now, with the elimination of travel restrictions, people were more encouraged to come back. The enthusiasm for racing at the moment has us in a little bit of a golden era and I think we’ve got to learn how to not take anything for granted and find how we can develop and work forward on this. Because I think we’ve got a group of young stallions and a lot of breeders who are producing a really high-quality product.”

The session-topping son of Quality Road was bred and consigned by Chiquita and Jeff Reddoch’s Stonehaven Steadings and purchased by Talla Racing, Woodford Racing and West Point Thoroughbreds, the same trio which teamed up to purchase last year’s $1.7-million sale topper by City of Light.

Winchell Thoroughbreds and Three Chimneys Farm partnered on the day’s second and third highest-priced offerings, leading another strong domestic buying bench.

The partnership of Mike Repole’s Repole Stable’s and Vinnie Viola’s St. Elias Stables, last year’s leading buyers, were active through the session, ultimately purchasing five yearlings for a total of $2.9 million. Repole, who spent much of the session sitting in the pavilion among a group that included trainer Todd Pletcher and bloodstock agent Jacob West, purchased an additional seven yearlings under his own name. The SF/Starlight/Madaket partnership purchased three yearlings for $1.885 million.

Shadwell Farm, perennially one of the leading buyers at the sale under Sheikh Hamdan, who died in March of 2021, returned to the results sheets after a year’s absence. Now under the leadership of the late sheikh’s daughter Sheikha Hissa, Shadwell purchased a filly by Constitution for $750,000 and a daughter of Medaglia d’Oro for $700,000.

The Keeneland September sale continues with a second Book 1 session beginning at 1 p.m. Tuesday. Book 2 sessions Wednesday and Thursday commence at 11 a.m. Following a dark day Friday, the auction continues through Sept. 24 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Quality Road Colt Brings $2.5M at KEESEP

In the moments leading up to the arrival of Hip 97 in Keeneland’s ring, a wave of anticipation rippled through the crowd. When the dust had settled, the May 5 son of Quality Road realized the highest price of the afternoon when landing a $2.5-million final bid from the partnership of West Point Thoroughbreds, Talla Racing and Woodford Racing. The bay was consigned by his breeder Stonehaven Steadings, who also stayed in for a piece of the colt.

“He was just a great physical,” said West Point’s Terry Finley. “When you see a physical like that you have to stretch a little bit. A lot of good buyers are well prepared and they have a lot of capital behind them. They are the type of people that usually get what they want. And when you get a number of people who usually get what they want lining up, you have to pay the price.”

Out of GSP True Feelings (Latent Heat), the colt is a half-brother to stakes winner Feeling Mischief (Into Mischief) and GSP Royal Act (American Pharoah), a $500,000 KEESEP purchase.

Already familiar with the family, West Point and Talla Racing partnered to secure this colt’s half-brother by Justify for $1.55 million at this venue last year. According to Finley, yesterday’s purchase will go to California-based John Sadler.

Explaining the additional allure in the colt, Finley added, “Quality Road generally produces big, pretty horses and those are the ones that usually perform well on the track. I think this horse is the same type of horse and we hope to get to Saturday afternoon with him.”

True Feelings, a $150,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, returned to Keeneland in November of 2012 to sell for $210,000 to Stonehaven Steadings. This represents the family of turf champion mare Wait a While (Maria’s Mon). Cont. p5

“We knew he was a special type physically, but when he started to develop as an early yearling, he really developed that walk that he has and that really sold him out there,” added Stonehaven Steadings’ Aidan O’Meara. “He really held his own as a Book 1 yearling as a May baby which is very unusual. He had a very forward physique.”

He continued, “Everyone loved him when he came out and stood up there. I have never seen a better moving horse. Certainly nothing that we have ever had. He was coming along all through the summer. When the Keeneland crew came out to see him, they were very enamored with him. He was still raw and immature at that stage, but the ingredients were there for him to be something special.”

“We had nearly 250 shows with him. And he still came up here and bombed around like a boss. The most exciting thing about him he's still such an unfinished specimen. Who knows what the potential might be with him going forward.”—@CBossTDN

More 'Quality' for Stonehaven Steadings

With Monday’s session topping Quality Road colt, Stonehaven Steadings returned to the spring that served them so well in the past. Along with all the other sellers, the operation faced challenges selling their stock during the COVID-impacted season in 2020. Offering up another son of Lane’s End stallion out of Wasted Tears (Najran), a colt who would subsequently be named Corniche, RNA’d for $385,000 at Keeneland that September.

“He was our top yearling that year,” recalled O’Meara of Corniche. “[Hip 97 and Corniche] were very similar as yearlings, both beautiful physiques. But [Corniche] had the misfortune of being drawn as Hip 10 during COVID and that really hurt him.”

MAKES SENSE

The Street Sense yearlings: they’ve got to make your list. Alongside Into Mischief and Munnings, he’s one of only three stallions with at least seven Stakes-winning colts on dirt this year. And with five career G1-winning fillies, they cannot be missed either. Just imagine.
Returning to fight another day, Stonehaven Steadings bought out their partner in the colt, Bart Evans, and the de Meric family entered the fray, securing a 30% interest. Consigned under the de Meric banner at the following season’s OBS April sale, Corniche brought $1.5 million from Speedway Stable.

Sent to Bob Baffert, Corniche won his Del Mar debut with ease, becoming a ‘TDN Rising Star’ in the process, before adding the GI American Pharoah S. and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile en route to 2-year-old Eclipse Award honors. Unplaced in one start this season, Corniche was retired to stand at Ashford Stud in 2023.

Stonehaven Steadings also sold a colt by Gun Runner--Hip 82--for $775,000 to the same partnership that purchased Monday’s session topper. –@CBossTDN

Three Chimneys Buys Out Partnership on Curlin Colt

Three Chimneys Farm wasn’t ready to part with their Curlin colt (Hip 169) bred in partnership with Hill ‘n’ Dale, so they went to $1.7 million to buy out John Sikura’s operation Monday in partnership with Ron Winchell.

“He is a really lovely colt out of a great mare, who was sold to Japan,” Three Chimneys’ Doug Cauthen said. “Having seen him grow up, he really continued to improve. Everybody liked him and Mr. Goncalo] Torrealba and his family wanted to have something out of that mare. Hopefully he will go on and do good things.”

He continued, “He is a really athletic, medium-sized horse, who moved wonderfully. He was only on the improve. Everybody that looked at the horse was very positive about him, which makes you feel good. He vetted well. Hats off to the partnership. This was one of the last two horses in the group.”

Three Chimneys purchased Hip 169’s dam Carina Mia (Malibu Moon) for $410,000 at the 2014 KEESEP sale. She won a trio of graded events, topped by the GI Acorn S., and earned over $1.4 million. Hill ‘n’ Dale later bought into the mare and they sold her for $2.6 million in foal to Uncle Mo at last year’s Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Three Chimneys also bought out Hill ‘n’ Dale on Carina Mia’s 2-year-old filly Princess Lele (Quality Road), going to $750,000 at this year’s KEEJAN sale. –@CDeBernardisTDN

Winchell & Three Chimneys Support Gun Runner

Winchell Thoroughbreds and Three Chimneys joined forces to purchase a daughter of their Horse of the Year Gun Runner (Hip 87) for $1.5 million. The bay was bred by the Gun Runner syndicate in partnership with the Phillips family, who consigned her under their Darby Dan Farm banner.

"Obviously we like to support Gun Runner," said Ron Winchell. "We are partnering with Three Chimneys to support our stallion. We are always happy to buy a nice filly out of a Tapit mare."

The filly's pedigree features Winchell runners from top to bottom being by their dual Eclipse winner Gun Runner out of a daughter of their Grade I winner and top stallion Tapit. Winchell has enjoyed success with the Gun Runner/Tapit cross already thanks to MGSW Wicked Halo, who captured the Sept. 2 GII Prioress S. at Saratoga. The cross has also produced GIII Charles Town Oaks winner Society.

"The price and the physical kind of match," Winchell said. "When they look that good, they bring a lot of money. This cross has worked a couple of times. We are hoping to go back to that well."

Hip 87 is the first foal out of Phillips's Tip At Tapit, who is a full-sister to G1SW Time and Motion. Their dam is SW & MGSP Ellie's Moment (Kris S.) and she also produced SW & GSP Awesome Bet (Awesome Again).

"She's a lovely filly with beautiful stretch and scope," said Darby Dan's Renee Logan. "She is from a marvelous, classic Darby Dan family." --@CDeBernardisTDN

Fletcher Gets Into More Mischief

Frank Fletcher has enjoyed a good bit of success with a daughter of Into Mischief in his homebred MGSW Frank’s Rockette. He returned to that well Monday with agent Donato Lanni going to $1.25 million to secure Hip 52 on his behalf.

“Frank is a longtime friend and client,” said Lanni, who did his bidding alongside the filly’s future trainer Bob Baffert. “He is very unique. He is great for the business. He has had some luck with Into Mischief and he liked the filly a lot. He said buy me one filly, so I wanted to make sure she was the right filly.”

“When she arrived on the grounds, we saw how good she was,” said consignor Pat Costello of Paramount Sales. “She is very athletic and the first foal out of a Grade II winner. She is just beautiful.” –@CDeBernardisTDN

Half to Triple Crown Hero Justify to Japan

Horse of the Year Justify (Scat Daddy) might have wowed American fans during his Triple Crown winning season, however, it was Japanese agent Hideyuki Mori that stepped in to secure his half-brother by Curlin for $1.2 million Monday afternoon at Keeneland. Just like his older brother, Hip 60 was bred John Gunther's Glennwood Farm, who also consigned the May 19 foal.

“I really liked the way he moved. Physically, he really looks like a standout,” said Mori. “I look at the horse first, and if the page fits, that's nice.”

The eighth recorded offspring of GSP Stage Magic, the chestnut is also a half-sibling to late GIII All American S. scorer The Lieutenant (Street Sense).

“I thought he was a fantastic colt,” enthused Gunther. “He was a late May colt, so he had a lot more developing to do [as compared to March foal Justify]. I think if he was a bigger colt, he would have brought a lot more money.”

“I think this colt will be about 16.2 [hands] by the time he finishes growing. He’s very intelligent and easy to be around. When you see him running in the field, you can say to yourself, ‘There is a runner.’”

When asked about the hammer price, Gunther admitted, “I was hoping he’d stay in America, of course, but the Japanese bought him. It breaks my heart not to see him race here. But you had to be satisfied with the amount you got.”

Keeneland September Yearling

$1,200,000
He continued, “I hated to sell him. I tried to stay in on him. I spoke to some others who had some interest in him so I could stay in for half, but I guess they thought the price was too high. I think that was mainly because he is a late foal. I think he is going to be awesome looking in three to four months from now.”

Also a graduate of the Keeneland September sale, Justify realized a $500,000 final bid at that venue in 2016. Sent to Hall of Famer Bob Baffert, the WinStar, China Horse Club and SF Racing representative blew the doors off with a ‘TDN Rising Star’-earning performance at Santa Anita in February of 2018 before repeating the performance at that venue the following month. Favoried in the Run for the Roses, he went on to add the GI Preakness and GI Belmont S., in what would be his final race.

According to Gunther yesterday, he expects the colt late foal to develop into a similar physical of his illustrious brother.

“Justify was unbelievable,” he said. “I can’t say enough about him. Justify and [GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero] Vino Rosso were probably the best two yearlings we ever sold, looks wise. He would match those two in about 3-4 months.”

He concluded, “This is a racehorse. He’s got the attitude, such a great walker and an easy mover. He’s going to be a racehorse.” --@CBossTDN

Mandy Pope Quick to Reinvest

Mandy Pope of Whisper Hill Farm, who sold a Quality Road filly for $1.2 million early in Monday’s first session of the Keeneland September sale, was quick to reinvest that money when purchasing a filly by Into Mischief (hip 117) for $1.15 million. The filly was the second seven-figure sale of the day for John Gunther's Glennwood Farm consignment, which sold a half-brother to Triple Crown winner Justify for $1.2 million earlier in the day.

Bred by Gunther and Eurowest Bloodstock Services, hip 117 is out of the unraced Wildwood Rose (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). The mare is a half-sister to Grade I winner Materiality (Afleet Alex) and to graded winner and multiple Grade I-placed My Miss Sophia (Unbridled's Song), dam of graded winner Annapolis (War Front).

Wildwood Rose’s first foal, Bo Derek (Speightstown), sold to Maverick Racing and Siena Farm for $900,000 at last year’s Keeneland September sale.

“The sister is training well, so hopefully we will be following her up and build the pedigree for them,” Pope said.

Well-Bred Quality Road Filly First to Seven Figures

It didn’t take long for sparks to fly during Keeneland September's opening session Monday. Hip 8, a regally bred daughter of Quality Road, was the first to hit the seven-figure mark, summoning $1.2 million from Claiborne's Bernie Sams, who was acting on behalf of an undisclosed client.

“I bought her for a farm client,” Sams said. “We tried to buy a couple fillies up in Saratoga and didn’t have any luck. She was on the top of his list today. It is a good pedigree and good family that is tough to get into. We have a couple branches of the family at Claiborne now. It is exciting. Hopefully she can run.”

As for the price, he said, “It is not surprising. She is a nice filly with that pedigree. When Mr. Leon had that dispersal with some of that family, it all was expensive. We had planned on it being pricey.”

Consigned by Gainesway, Hip 8 is out of Princesa Silvia (Medaglia d’Oro), who was purchased by breeder Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm for $1.4 million at the 2016 KEENOV sale. The 9-year-old mare is a half-sister to Horse of the Year Saint Liam (Saint Ballado), GSW Funtastic (More Than Ready), GSW Congressionalhonor (Forestry) and GSW Quiet Giant (Giant’s Causeway), dam of Horse of the Year Gun Runner (Candy Ride (Arg)).

“We appraised her high coming into the sale,” said Gainesway's Brian Graves. “She was the full package, coming from Gun Runner’s family. It is a good time to sell horses.”

Lukas Fires Late in KEESEP Opener

Just when it appeared that the opening day's activity was winding down at the Keeneland September Sale, Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas--flanked by BC Stables' John Bellinger and Brian Coelho--fired their best shot of the day, landing Hip 176 for $1.15 million.

Bred by WinStar Farm, the Apr. 27 foal is out of SP Checkupfromzneckup, the dam of Grade III winner Carribean Caper (Speighstown). This is the family of the prolific mare Weekend Surprise, dam of Horse of the Year A.P. Indy.

“He had a great physique, a real positive eye to him, he seemed like he was really alert,” explained co-owner Brian Coelho. “We liked the pedigree on him and he was one of our top picks of today.”

Lukas said, “I liked the balance and size. He had enough pedigree to make something of him.”

With a smile, he added, “He is the kind of horse that can give us a chance to go two turns the first Saturday in May. Those are the ones we are trying to buy.”

When asked if they expected to have to extend so far to secure the colt, Coelho said, “We didn't think we would have to. But the sale is really strong. We've been trying for a few horses today, so we were happy we could get him.”

Lukas, who enjoyed a successful Saratoga meet with seven wins and six seconds from 31 starts while finishing 12th overall in the trainer's standings, echoed the sentiment.

“The sale is hot,” he affirmed. “Maybe a little less at the very top, but in the middle is very, very strong. We went after four or five nice horses, and couldn't get them. It was very competitive.”

With Lukas doing the bidding, BC Stables also went to $800,000 to secure Hip 80, a filly by Quality Road, for $800,000 Monday. Cont. p12
The fledgling operation was recently buoyed by 'TDN Rising Star' Summer Promise (Uncle Mo), who subsequently finished runner-up in the GIII Schulerville S. at Saratoga in July.

Currently, the stable has five juveniles with Lukas, and they added a trio of horses from the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling sale last month.

“Wayne has been just a joy,” said Coelho. “We have learned a lot with him and just being able to be in his company.”

Duncan Taylor, who sold the colt on behalf of WinStar, was equally high on the yearling’s chances to be a Classic colt.

“He was a big, stretchy horse with a great neck and a good shoulder,” he said. “And like a lot of Quality Roads, he has a really beautiful head. He looked like a really smart horse.”

“Wayne has been a dear friend,” he explained. “When Mike Shannon and I started Taylor Made, Wayne sent us some of our first mares and he’s been a customer for a long, long time and bought a lot of good horses from us. We are very blessed to have customers, on both sides of the equation, that send us horses like that. It makes our jobs easy.”

As the interview was winding down, Taylor was quick to tip his cap to another Hall of Famer who has also been among those long list of Taylor made clients over the years and had strolled to within earshot.

“The only guy that didn’t bid on him was Bob [Baffert],” he said, laughing. “And now he’s going to have to outrun Wayne.”

Goffs Orby Sale
27 - 28 September 2022
Courtlandt Farm Strikes for City of Light Colt

Don Adam of Courtlandt Farm, sitting alongside Mike Cline and racing manager Ernie Retamoza, got into the fray at Keeneland Monday when purchasing a colt by City of Light for $1 million. The team was already familiar with the family when hip 73 strode into the ring Monday, having purchased the colt's half-sister Soul Play (Union Rags) for $200,000 at last year’s Keeneland September sale.

"We bought the half-sister last year and we really like her, but we've just had to be patient with her," Retamoza said. "But this colt is just quality—that's why we had to pay what we did for him. But we liked the sister a lot and that kind of prompted us to maybe move on him a little bit. And then the individual he was made it easy for us to go for him."

Bred by the partnership of Betz, B&K Canetti, J.Betz, CoCo Equine and D.J. Stables, the million-dollar yearling is out of multiple stakes winner Tea Time (Pulpit) and was consigned by Bill Betz's Betz Thoroughbreds, which purchased the mare for $250,000 at the 2019 Keeneland November sale.

"We liked everything about him," Retamoza said of the yearling. "He’s balanced, he’s strong. He had a great walk and a great mind. We looked at him three or four times and each day, he held up mentally. Physically, he never backed up. He just seems like a real quality horse."

Of the seven-figure price tag, Retamoza said, "We weren’t really wanting to spend that, but you know, it’s pretty tough in there. We had probably 11 on our list, and got beat up a little bit so far and one scratched. So we will see how we finish up today. There are another three or four left for us."

Courtlandt Farm returned later in the session to obtain a filly by Into Mischief (hip 150) for $825,000.

Don Adam’s operation had a pair of juvenile maiden winners on closing weekend at Saratoga, with General Jim (Into Mischief) and Powerful (Nyquist) both graduating on the final Saturday of the Spa meeting. The colts were both part of a 12-yearling buying spree by the operation at last year’s Keeneland September sale.

"We are trying to get horses to race at the highest level," Retamoza said. "We had a couple of nice colts win closing weekend at Saratoga and it looks like they are both going to have some futures. And we have some 2-year-olds to watch that we just had to be patient with that will be coming around in the fall. We feel like we have a good stable right now and we’re just trying to keep going in that direction."

As for Soul Play, Retamoza said, “She is back in training and she will probably head back to the track when Churchill is over and everyone heads to Fair Grounds or Gulfstream. We will figure it out from there.”

Royal Ascot Dreams for Justify Filly

A filly by Triple Crown winner Justify (hip 28) was purchased for $925,000 by My Racehorse and trainer Wesley Ward with hopes of heading to the Royal Ascot meeting next summer. Consigned by Antony Beck’s Gainesway, the yearling is out of San Saria (Ire) (Australia), a daughter of multiple group-placed San Sicharia (Daggers Drawn).

“She’s a beautiful filly,” Ward said after signing the ticket on the yearling. “[Bloodstock agent] Ben McElroy brought me over to see his short list and she was certainly right there at the top of the list. We are really excited about her, especially to go over to Royal Ascot. She seems to have all the physical attributes, as well as the pedigree. MyRacehorse came in with the filly and we will get a group together shortly to see who is going to take what of the other part.”

Ward has become a fixture at the Royal Ascot meeting since scoring his first win at the meet in 2009.

“If you haven't been, then you should go. That will answer the question,” Ward said when asked about the meet’s appeal. “It is a phenomenal place. It feels like you are back in the 1800s when you can only imagine how racing was where everybody is dressed to the nines and they have the best horses, jockeys and owners from all over the world. I would encourage everyone to go and everyone to go with one of their top racehorses so they can really experience it.”

Hip 28 was purchased by Brian Graves as part of his Fish Stables pinhooking partnership for $300,000 earlier this year at the Keeneland January sale, before Justify’s hot start at stud.

“I got lucky on that part,” Graves said of the sire’s early success. “The truth of the matter is, she walked out and she stood up so pretty. She had all the perfect angles, she had an ass that was this wide. She looked like a 2-year-old and I just thought she was stunning. The Justify part came later. I probably would have been in trouble if he hadn’t jumped up because I gave a lot for her. We are thrilled with that result. The sale has started off crazy good and it figures to be strong.”

Ryan Digging For Gold at KEESEP

“She was magnificent,” affirmed Ryan. “She wasn’t inexpensive but she’s by a superior sire and there was a lot of pedigree on the bottom. I knew she was going to be expensive, but I think it will be that way with anything of quality. But I thought she was an exceptional filly with a lot of quality. She had a nice size, great attitude and demeanor. Hopefully, she can go on and prove us right.”

Purchased by Don Alberto Corp. while in foal to Medaglia d’Oro for $700,000 at Keeneland November in 2013, Sacristy is already responsible for SW and GISF Flor De La Mar (Tiznow), a $500,000 buy at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling sale for Godolphin. A half to Japanese Group 1 winner Mozu Superflare (Speightstown), Sacristy also produced Grade III placed Catiche (Arrogate).

“She gave me a great feel,” Ryan said. “We stretched a bit more than we thought we'd have to go, but for the good ones that you really want, it's the same old story.”

Of the Darley stallion filly, he added, “She was pretty typical [of the sire]. Maybe a little bit neater. Some of them can be very tall, we bought New Money Honey here, who was a big, scopey filly. But this one is pretty typical. She has a lot of quality and is a very sweet filly.”

Offering an early assessment of the stock he’s seen so far in the first two books, Ryan said, “There is definitely a higher concentration of good horses in Book 1. There are a lot of good horses in Book 2 as well, but they have a nice group to start off.”–@CBossTDN

• Nine horses brought seven figures Monday compared to just three during last year’s first session. There were a total of 15 millionaires in the entire sale in 2021.

• Into Mischief led all sires Monday with 13 of his yearlings bringing $8.06 million total with an average of $620,000. He had two million-dollar sellers.

• A son of Quality Road topped the day’s trade at $2.5 million. He was bred and sold by Stonehaven Steadings, which also co-bred and sold Quality Road's champion son Corniche. The Lane’s End stallion was responsible for three seven-figure sellers Monday, including the first to eclipse $1-million on the day.

• The other stallion to have multiple offspring at the million-dollar level was Curlin with two. Young stallions City of Light and Gun Runner had one each and Justify rounded out the top 10 sellers with a $925,000 filly.

• Monday was the first time in recent memory that the very first horse through the ring brought a price as high as $850,000.

Spendthrift Farm purchased Quick Flip, in foal to Runhappy, for $230,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. That in utero foal, Following Sea (Runhappy), was a graded stakes winner and hit the board in four Grade I events for the operation, while earning $843,020. The mare's second foal for Spendthrift, a filly by Into Mischief, sold for $450,000 at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearlings Showcase. The mare produced a colt by Authentic this year.

Happy Horse Stable purchased this filly for $270,000 at last year’s Keeneland November sale and astute pinhooker Peter O'Callaghan returned the yearling to the Keeneland sales ring for a profit Monday. Later in the session, Woods Edge sold a colt by Candy Ride (Arg) (hip 34) for $610,000 to the SF/Starlight/Madaket partnership. The yearling had been purchased for $300,000 last November at Keeneland.

Flightline displayed star power right from the beginning, winning on debut in April of 2021 at Santa Anita. His 13 1/4-length victory earned him ‘TDN Rising Star’ status and a Beyer Speed Figure of 105. He was scintillating in a first-level allowance at Del Mar at second asking, winning by 12 3/4 lengths and earning a 114 Beyer.

Making his stakes debut in the GI Malibu S. in December of 2021, Flightline continued to assert his dominance, winning by 11 1/2 lengths for a 118 Beyer. Next seen in the GI Metropolitan H. at Belmont Park June 11, Flightline overcame early trouble to score by six lengths, earning a 112 Beyer.

The Pacific Classic on Sept. 3 was Flightline’s first attempt stretching out to two turns and a mile and a quarter. It proved to be his most dominant performance to date, as he drew off from G1 Dubai World Cup winner Country Grammer (Tonalist) and GI Santa Anita H. winner Express Train (Union Rags) to win by 19 1/4 lengths, earning a Beyer of 126--the joint second-highest Beyer since Daily Racing Form began publishing Beyer Speed Figures 30 years ago. Thoro-Graph assigned Flightline a negative-8 1/2, the fastest number it has ever given out. Flightline’s Pacific Classic performance resonated overseas, too: Timeform assigned him a rating of 143, the highest number ever given to an American-trained horse. He has earned nearly $1.4-million, and is being pointed for the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic at Keeneland on Nov. 5.

Flightline is out of Jane Lyon’s Feathered, a daughter of Indian Charlie who won the GIII Edgewood S. at Churchill Downs and finished second in both the GI American Oaks and GI Starlet S. and third in the GI Frizette S. It is an excellent Phipps family, the third dam being the GI Matron S. and GI Acorn S. winner Finder’s Fee (Storm Cat), and the fourth dam GISW Fantastic Find (Mr. Prospector).

HARNESS TRAINER DANE GETS 30 MONTHS IN PRISON

by T.D. Thornton

Former harness trainer Richard Allen "Rick" Dane Jr., was sentenced to 30 months in a federal prison Sept. 9. He had previously entered a guilty plea to one felony count related to the 2020 international racehorse doping conspiracy sting that has already netted two dozen related convictions or guilty pleas.

Dane, 41, has additionally been ordered to pay a monetary judgement of $33,912. As part of a plea bargain, a second felony charge against Dane was dropped.

Dane is to report to prison Jan. 9, 2023—the same day that the last remaining high-profile defendant in the case, the barred trainer Jason Servis, is set to begin his trial.

But with respect to the plea bargaining that took place, federal prosecutors and Dane differed as to how useful to the government his cooperation actually was.

United States attorneys detailed in a court filing that after his March 2020 arrest, Dane made initial attempts to cooperate with them by providing information related to the cases of other defendants.

But by early 2022, the feds wrote, "The Government determined that the defendant was not completely forthcoming, and thus was unable to provide 'substantial assistance.'"

On that basis, prosecutors did not extend a cooperation agreement to Dane, who then pleaded guilty on Feb. 18.

According to the government’s sentencing submission, Dane "joined in a conspiracy with Lisa Giannelli and, by extension, Seth Fishman and others at Equestology that he knew was wrong and illegal.

"The defendant not only purchased performance-enhancing drugs (PEDs) and prescription drugs from Giannelli that he was using to dope his horses, the defendant also served as a trusted resource for Giannelli by providing background on potential new clients who could be considered 'trustworthy.'"

"One of the means by which Dane’s co-conspirators evaded detection was by vetting buyers to ensure they would be discreet and would not report Equestology to relevant racing and drug regulatory authorities, or otherwise act recklessly and invite scrutiny of Equestology's drugs," prosecutors wrote.

"Dane facilitated these efforts by providing Giannelli with background information on such individuals. The defendant consistently purchased adulterated and misbranded PEDs from Giannelli and others, all in efforts to corruptly dope his racehorses and earn hundreds of thousands of dollars in purse winnings," the feds wrote.

The government had recommended that "a sentence slightly below the Guidelines Sentence of 36 months' imprisonment is appropriate to serve the purposes of sentencing when balancing all the factors relevant to the defendant's guilt, including the relatively limited role he played in facilitating Equestology's operations as compared to Seth Fishman and Lisa Giannelli, both of whom had more extensive involvement in the promotion and sale of Equestology's drugs, and who partook in their offense conduct for a significantly longer period of time."

Fishman was sentenced in July to an 11-year prison stint, and an appeal is in the works. The day prior to Dane's sentencing, on Sept. 8, the same federal judge sentenced Giannelli to 3 1/2 years behind bars.

Dane's own sentencing submission written by his legal team offered a different perspective, while asking for a more lenient sentence "that is below the guidelines due to the extraordinary mitigation present in Mr. Dane's life."

Dane's lawyers wrote that, "Since he was 16 years old, Mr. Dane has worked with at various tracks as a farrier and horse trainer. He loves working with horses and is passionate about his career. Mr. Dane always put the horses before himself and worked hard to ensure that his horses were cared for."

DEL MAR SUMMER MEET SETS NEW RECORDS ON MULTIPLE FRONTS

Highlighted by the buzz around Flightline (Tapit)'s stellar GI TVG Pacific Classic performance in the track's signature event, Del Mar had record wagering and field size for the 31-day summer meet that ended Sunday, as well as a continued excellent safety record for the fourth consecutive year. There were no catastrophic injuries among 2,688 starters in the meet's 294 races.

The 83rd summer meet at Del Mar Thoroughbred Club (DMTC) set new records for average daily handle with $18.69 million a day, an increase of 1.5% from last year's $18.41 million, which was the previous record. Total wagering for the meet increased to $579.24 million, compared to the $570.78 million wagered during the 2021 summer session. In addition, on-track business increased with average daily wagering of $1.52 million, which represented a 4.8% growth from 2021. Total attendance of 278,702 was up 16.1% from 2021's total of 240,030.

With an average of more than $800,000 in purses per day, field size reached 9.77 for turf races and 8.67 for main track races. Together they combined for a Del Mar record of 9.14 horses per race, well above last year's average of 8.45 and among the top in field size for the entire country.

"Just an incredible meet on all levels," said Joe Harper, Del Mar's CEO. "All season long the racing was ultra-competitive and extremely safe. Our racing office, led by Tom Robbins and David Jerkens, was phenomenal. We're also very appreciative of the support we received from our fans and our players both here on track and all across the country."

In addition, Del Mar's "Ship & Win" program had its best season yet with 222 new runners shipping in to race, well ahead of last year's record 186 shippers.

"This meet is the culmination of a year-long plan to revitalize California racing and return it to its rightful place as one of the best circuits in America," said Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) chairman Gary Fenton. "A big thank you to our partners at DMTC and our members. Without owners there is no California racing and they continue to make a strong statement that Del Mar is their favorite place to be."

Rider Juan Hernandez, who won five graded races at the meet, captured the jockey title in a runaway with 49 total victories. Umberto Rispoli trailed in second with 27 wins for the meet. Hernandez won his first rider's title at Del Mar last fall.

In contrast, the trainer's title was so close that it came down to the last day of the meet. Bob Baffert got a victory with Cave Rock (Arrogate) in the GI Runhappy Del Mar Futurity, a win that put him on even terms with Phil D'Amato. The two finished the day tied with 19 wins apiece. It's D'Amato third summer title at Del Mar and his fourth overall, as well as Baffert's eighth (but first title at Del Mar since 2003). A total of 70 different trainers won races at the meet.

The leading owner crown went to the partnership of Mike Pegram, Karl Watson, and Paul Weitman, who finished first both in number of wins and money won. They won a total of nine races (35%) and purses of $849,680.

Racing will return to Del Mar for the Bing Crosby meet, which runs Nov. 11 through Dec. 4.
CDI NAMES GARY PALMISANO EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF RACING

Gary Palmisano, Jr. has been promoted to Executive Director of Racing for Churchill Downs Incorporated, the company announced Monday. In this role, CDI says Palmisano will “support and enhance the Company’s commitment to the U.S. Thoroughbred racing and breeding industry as well as focus on the implementation of standards and processes outlined in the Horse Racing Integrity and Safety Act” across CDI racing properties.

“Gary brings a wealth of varied industry experience that ideally positions him for success in this role,” said Bill Mudd, President and Chief Operating Officer at CDI. “In addition to strong relationships with key stakeholders, his unparalleled passion and vision for this sport will ensure that Churchill Downs and its racing assets remain progressive leaders in a rapidly-evolving industry.”

Prior to this promotion, Palmisano served in multiple roles at Churchill Downs Racetrack including Special Assistant to Track President, VIP Player Services Manager and, most recently, Director of Race Day Operations. Palmisano started his professional career in racing in Louisiana where he gained experience at Fair Grounds Race Course and with the Louisiana State Racing Commission.

“This opportunity is a lifelong dream realized for me,” said Palmisano. “Having grown up in the barn area of Fair Grounds Race Course with my dad, the late Gary Palmisano, Sr., being a longtime trainer and racing official, I quickly knew that racing would be my life’s passion. Ever since moving to Louisville to pursue an Equine Business Degree at the University of Louisville and beginning my work as an intern at Churchill Downs Racetrack, I’ve maintained a focus on amassing as much knowledge as I could so I could serve the industry I love in a capacity like this.”

Palmisano’s appointment as Executive Director of Racing will be effective immediately.

[Image showing Elisabeth Jensen with the text:]

The Kentucky Equine Education Project (KEEP)’s executive vice president, Elisabeth Jensen, will retire from her position at the end of the year. During Jensen's leadership, which began in 2018, she oversaw the daily operations of the organization and was integral in expanding KEEP to address new issues facing the industry, as well as advancing the goal of preserving and promoting the horse industry's role as Kentucky's signature industry. KEEP is a highly visible advocate in Frankfort, Ky. and Washington, D.C. for both expanding the number of visas available to the industry for immigrant labor, as well as for building the infrastructure for creating a home-grown workforce.

The KEEP Board of Directors is currently performing a search to hire Jensen's replacement. Jensen will continue to serve on the KEEP Board following her retirement.

"Elisabeth has been an incredible asset to the horse industry and we are grateful to have had her at the helm during some of the industry's most serious challenges," said Case Clay, Chairman of KEEP's Board. "Without her leadership at KEEP, the industry would not be on the solid footing that it is today. There are many challenges and tasks ahead and that is why we are grateful that Elisabeth has agreed to join the KEEP Board of Directors. Her continued input will be immensely valuable to the organization."

Jensen worked closely with the Kentucky Legislature in 2021 to secure the passage of legislation that maintained historical horse racing as a revenue stream for the industry, resulting in increased purses, greater field sizes, and more equine businesses relocating to Kentucky. She also led KEEP’s advocacy to ensure that land-use decisions are made locally to protect the irreplaceable farmland across Central Kentucky; fended off threats of rising tax rates and protected tax exemptions, both related to the horse industry; and worked in partnership with the Kentucky Chamber Workforce Center to create the Equine Talent Pipeline initiative.

"A major career and lifestyle change brought me to Kentucky to work in the horse industry for over 20 years," said Jensen. "It has been a dream to come to work every day in an industry I love and it has been an honor to be an advocate for the horse in Kentucky and across the U.S. I look forward to the opportunity to focus more time and energy on my and my husband's cattle farm and being more involved in family businesses."

NYRA AND 1/ST CONTENT SIGN 10-YEAR PARTNERSHIP

NYRA Content Management Solutions (NCMS), a subsidiary of the New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA), and 1/ST CONTENT have announced a 10-year partnership to expand distribution of North American horse racing content internationally.

"By joining 1/ST CONTENT and NCMS, two of the powerhouses in North American horse racing content, we are reinforcing to international operators that the continued investment and support for North American racing is the smart bet," said Gregg Colvin, Chief Executive Officer of 1/ST CONTENT.

The agreement furthers the cooperation of content rights, data, odds, and signals from a large number of racing venues. 1/ST CONTENT has a vast international distribution network and direct to home (DTH) rights in the United Kingdom, Ireland, Europe, Australia, New Zealand, and Africa, plus North American racetracks including 1/ST RACING's Gulfstream Park, Santa Anita Park, Golden Gate Fields, The Maryland Jockey Club at Laurel Park, and Pimlico Race Course; NYRA's Belmont Park, Aqueduct Racetrack, and Saratoga Race Course; and Del Mar, Keeneland, Tampa Bay Downs, and Woodbine.

“NCMS is pleased to expand on our strategic partnership with 1/ST CONTENT to further broaden the international reach of North American Thoroughbred racing,” said Tony Allevato, Chief Revenue Officer of NYRA.

8th-Parx Racing, $35,750, (S), Msw, 9-12, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.71, gd, neck.

PACHELBEL (f, 2, Hoppertunity--Brilliant Sunshine (MSP, $185,550), by Smarty Jones) became her sire (by Any Given Saturday)'s fifth winner with a breakthrough performance here after twice finishing fourth, once on debut Aug. 1 and last out Aug. 22 after pushing the pace on both occasions. She showed a new dimension here by settling off dueling leaders and sustained a long drive to win over Back to D'Future (Uptowncharlybrown) by a neck. A half to Precious (Fed Biz), MSW, $299,590, who herself was a five-time winner, Pachelbel has a yearling half-brother by Not This Time as well as a 2022 half-sister by Lookin at Lucky. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $27,900. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

1st-Parx Racing, $35,250, (S), Msw, 9-12, 2yo, c, 7f, 1:25.43, my, 1 length.

IRA THE ICON (c, 2, West Coast--Real Tizzy, by Tiznow) became the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Flatter) with this front-running score on the stretch out to seven panels here. Fifth on debut June 15 against open maidens and last out July 26 against state-breds at this venue—the latter effort behind next-out local stakes winner Flor de Sombra (Social Inclusion)—the public sent him away the 9-5 second choice for his third attempt. Ira the Icon was pushed along through a pressured pace over the slop, but never looked back, turning back a rail challenge in the stretch from Fletcher (Blofeld) to win by a length. The Cash is King homebred has a yearling half-brother by Maximus Mischief. The dam went back to the stallion last season, but failed to produce offspring, and visited for a third time for 2023. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $23,280. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

DECEITFUL (c, 2, Hard Spun--Girls Secret, by Giant's Causeway) made up ground from sixth to pick up third on unveiling at track and trip Aug. 22 behind next out winner Dawg mentality (Smarty Jones). Hammered down to 3-5 favoritism here, he raced from fourth early, launched his bid from three wide on the second turn, and steadily grinded away at 23-1 longtime leader Watchoutforweaver (Awesome Patriot) from four wide to clear him by 1 1/4 lengths late. A half to accomplished full-siblings Will's Secret (Will Take Charge), GSW & MGISP, $571,530 and Ben Diesel, GSP, $178,693, Deceitful is the third winner in a row for the young dam. The mare has a yearling full-sister to the winner as well as a 2022 full-sister to the graded stakes runners. She was barren after visiting Gun Runner for 2023. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $24,500. SEVEN DAYS: OVERWHELMING

By Emma Berry

Where to begin? The past week has been so wrought with emotion that by the time Sunday arrived with its 15 group races in England, Ireland and France only the dourest of stayers made it through to Doncaster’s Mallard Handicap.

This is a racing publication, of course, but before we reflect on the action on the racecourse, it would be remiss not to mention the heartbreaking human loss which was so intrinsically entwined with the sport.

Grief engulfed two nations. Wednesday brought the indelibly sad image of Henry de Bromhead as one of the pallbearers carrying his son Jack’s wicker casket from the Butlerstown’s Church of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary surrounded by mourners of all ages. In solidarity with their friend who lost his life at the age of 13 in a pony racing accident, many of the youngsters appeared at the service in their riding gear.

Jack’s grandfather Andrew Moffat and parents Henry and Heather gave us all a lesson in how to grieve with the utmost dignity while paying a magnificent tribute to the boy whose loss has touched people who never even met him, such was the eloquence of their respective eulogies. And during Irish Champions Weekend, Jack de Bromhead was remembered in the red armbands borne by the jockeys in his memory. Cont. p3

GIGGINSTOWN HOUSE STUD RENEW FORCES WITH WILLIE MULLINS

By Brian Sheerin

Almost exactly six years after a high-profile split that sent shockwaves through National Hunt racing, Gigginstown House Stud have returned to the champion trainer Willie Mullins, with expensive bumper recruit Shanbally Kid (Ire) (Presenting {GB}) set to represent the once-dominant owners this season.

Michael O’Leary’s Gigginstown ownership vehicle was operating at the peak of its powers when the falling out with Mullins over training fees happened in September 2016.

High-profile horses like Gold Cup third Don Poli (Ire), multiple Grade 1-winning hurdler Apple’s Jade (Fr) and the then promising youngster Blow By Blow (Ire) were switched to Gordon Elliott while Valseur Lido (Fr) and others were sent to Henry de Bromhead. Cont. pxx

In Britain the armbands were a more sombre black. The death of the Queen is in many ways easier to bear than the loss of a teenager with so much sparkle and promise. A 96-year-old woman dying peacefully in the comfort of the Scottish home she adored is what could be described as a 'good death', but Her Majesty's passing is of course far more symbolic than that. Its repercussions will be felt way beyond her funeral next Monday when Britain's period of national mourning ends.

The absence of the sport's most celebrated insider will be felt keenly in racing circles. There are enough members of the royal family with a strong love of horses for us to be able to hope that the Royal Studs will endure, but none of the Queen's descendants appear to share quite the level of absorption and devotion she had for breeding and racing. Change will surely come.

Another two redoubtable members of the racing and breeding community also left us in the last week. On Tuesday evening came the shock news of James Delahooke's sudden death on the Yorkshire moors, while on Saturday the passing was reported of Evie Stockwell, whose contribution to the breeding industry has been enormously significant on both the equine and human front. At the age of 97 she had survived her twin sister Lady Mimi Manton by one month. As Eddie O'Leary observed in Nancy Sexton's tribute to Mrs Stockwell, "The world has lost two Queens this week."

May it come as some comfort to the de Bromhead, Delahooke, Magnier, and O'Callaghan families that the thoughts of their friends and colleagues in the racing world are with them during this sad time.

The Versatile Dubawi Line

So to the horses. A one-two in the St Leger with Eldar Eldarov (GB) and New London (Ire) gave Dubawi (Ire) his 53rd Group 1 win worldwide, and if you are looking for a pattern for his offspring, the answer is that there isn't one, other than a shared willingness to win.

From top Hong Kong sprinter Lucky Nine (Ire), who was one of his earliest stars, through champion 2-year-olds, Classic milers, smart middle-distance horses, and a Horse of the Year in Ghaiyyath (Ire), Dubawi pretty much has all the bases covered, including a slew of sons at stud. As well as in Britain's final Classic of the season, the line was also represented at Ireland's Champions Weekend when John Fairley's admirable Highfield Princess (Fr), by Dubawi's Guineas-winning son Night Of Thunder (Ire), sped her way to a third consecutive Group 1 win in three different countries, this time dropping back to the minimum trip to claim the Flying Five.

Dubawi’s latest Classic winner in the delayed St Leger came on the back of his daughter Mimikyu’s win in the G2 Park Hill S. on the same afternoon that the White Birch Farm homebred juvenile Kubrick (Ire) won the G3 Prix des Chenes at Longchamp. On European earnings, Dubawi has edged ahead of Frankel (GB) in the leading sires’ table and in fact he is way out in front when it comes to black-type winners for the year, his tally of 38 (12% of his runners) putting him ahead of Frankel by 14. The two mighty stallions, who live only about a mile from each other as the crow flies, are level pegging on seven Group 1 winners apiece this year in Europe.

The Lanwades Success Story Continues

In her role as Deputy Lieutenant of Suffolk, Kirsten Rausing was acting as master of ceremonies on Sunday while Newmarket’s mayor Philippa Winter read the proclamation of the accession of King Charles III as Britain’s new monarch. This meant that Rausing was not on Town Moor to witness a notable first for her as the breeder of a British Classic winner in Eldar Eldarov.

She was however present for her first British Group 1 winner in her own colours when Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) won the Yorkshire Oaks to bring her Group 1 haul to five. Eldar Eldarov and Alpinista are out of the half-sisters Alwilda (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) and All At Sea (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) from the Lanwades Alruccaba (GB) family which just keeps giving.

From a different family entirely springs the expat Zaaki (GB) (Leroïdesanimaux {Brz}), another redoubtable Lanwades-bred who is thriving in Australia and now has 13 victories to his name, including the G2 Tramway S. on September 3. He is bound for the G1 Cox Plate on October 22 via the G1 Underwood S. on September 3.

Firsts and Seconds For Many

Eldar Eldarov’s St Leger win was also of significance for more of his connections. Notably, he became the second breeze-up graduate from Norman Williamson’s Oak Tree Farm to win a Classic this season following the Irish 2,000 Guineas success of Native Trail (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), last year’s champion 2-year-old. Williamson was also the breeze-up pinhooker behind the 2019 Preakness S. winner War Of Will, who now stands alongside his sire War Front at Claiborne Farm. Cont. p5

For Roger Varian, it was a second victory in Britain’s oldest Classic following Kingston Hill (GB) in 2014, and his faith in his young stable jockey David Egan was repaid handsomely as the 23-year-old notched his first Classic victory in the same season he lost his retainer with Prince AA Faisal, for whom he won the 2021 Saudi Cup as well as two Group 1s aboard Mishriff (Ire). Eldar Eldarov had been bought at the relocated Arqana Breeze-up Sale for €480,000 by Oliver St Lawrence for Bahrain’s KHK Racing, thus also giving that relatively new owner in British racing a significant first Classic success.

Kyprios Continues to Climb

The opening up of the Irish St Leger to older horses almost 40 years ago means that there have been a number of repeat winners, most notably the Dermot Weld-trained Vinnie Roe (Ire), who owned the race between 2001 and 2005. With Vincent O’Brien, Weld jointly holds the record for the most number of winners of the Irish St Leger, with the last two of his nine being provided by the admirable Moyglare Stud-bred filly Search For A Song (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Now six, she has run in the race in all four of her seasons in training, and added a third place to her fine record this year when finishing almost eight lengths behind her full-brother Kyprios (Ire), who is now the pre-eminent stayer in training following his unbeaten season which includes lifting the Gold Cup and Goodwood Cup.

The Weld stable enjoyed a successful Irish Champions Weekend, however, when unleashing the Aga Khan’s Tahiyya (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), a half-sister to the brilliant Tarnawa (Ire) (Shamardal), to win the G1 Moyglare Stud S. on just her second racecourse appearance. A day earlier her 3-year-old stablemate Duke De Sessa (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) won the G3 Paddy Power S., leading home a one-two for Maurice Regan’s Newtown Anner Stud, which also owned and bred runner-up Thunder Kiss (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}).

Kyprios, who runs in the Moyglare colours but is co-owned by the Coolmore partners, sealed a fruitful weekend for Aidan O’Brien and Ryan Moore as Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) confirmed his juvenile promise by winning the G1 Irish Champion S. on only his second start since resuming from an injury earlier in the season.

Auguste Rodin (Ire), bred on the Deep Impact (Jpn)/Galileo (Ire) cross that has already yielded Classic winners Saxon Warrior (Jpn) and Snowfall (Jpn) for O’Brien, continued the tremendous run of the Ballydoyle juveniles this year with his success in the G2 Champion Juvenile S. in his first run in Pattern class. He could now be headed to England next month for either the Dewhurst or Vertem Futurity. It requires no leap of imagination to see Auguste Rodin make up into a serious Classic contender for next season as the colt is the first foal of the treble Group 1 winner Rhododendron (Ire), a sister to Magical (Ire) and daughter of the equally brilliant Halfway To Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}).

Hint of Things to Come

Al Riffa (Fr) took quite a step up from maiden company to winning the G1 Goffs Vincent O’Brien National S. on Sunday for Joseph O’Brien, and the result will certainly have been welcomed by the Coolmore camp. Though the colt from the penultimate French crop of Wootton Bassett (GB) is not owned by the Coolmore team but by Jassim Bin Ali Al Attiyah, he, like Auguste Rodin, is out of a Galileo mare and represents a cross that we are likely to see more frequently in runners following the stallion’s move to Coolmore Stud two seasons ago.

The Galileo mares in Wootton Bassett’s first Irish crop include Snowfall’s dam Best In The World (Ire), Arc winner Found (Ire), and G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Clemmie (Ire), who is also a sister to Churchill (Ire), while those currently in foal to him include Group 1 winners Minding (Ire), Hydrangea (Ire), Marvellous (Ire) and Happily (Ire).

Al Riffa, who was bred by a partnership led by Haras d’Etretahm, is Wootton Bassett’s sixth Group 1 winner, that group being split evenly between colts and fillies. His pedigree certainly gives plenty of hope for him to thrive with age and a bit of a step up in distance. His unraced dam Love On My Mind is a sister to the dual Sagaro S. winner and Gold Cup runner-up Mizzou (Ire), while their dam Moments Of Joy (GB) was a Listed winner over 1m6f and is herself a daughter of the G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Yorkshire Oaks winner My Emma (GB) (Marju {Ire}).

Al Riffa was sold as a foal at Arqana to Stroud Coleman Bloodstock for €31,000 the same day that his dam went through the ring for just €11,000, bought by Arqana representative Zied Romdhane. The 10-year-old mare now has a yearling filly by Land Force (Ire) and was subsequently covered by St Leger winner Galileo Chrome (Ire).

Kingsclere in the Spotlight

Andrew Balding’s association with Juddmonte has started in some style thanks to the smart juvenile Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who added the G2 Champagne S. to his victory in York’s G3 Acomb S.

A successful Doncaster St Leger meeting for the Kingsclere team also included group wins for two stalwart owners of Park House Stables. First, Bounce The Blues (Ire) (Excelebration {Ire}) won the G3 JRA Sceptre Fillies’ S for the irrepressible Barbara Keller, one of the most enthusiastic owners in the business who also raced the Grade 1 winner Blond Me (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}). Similar comments apply to Mick and Janice Mariscotti, who certainly know how to celebrate a big winner and struck on Sunday with the G2 Doncaster Cup winner Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). With victories in the Ascot S. at Royal Ascot and in the Listed Esher Cup, the progressive stayer, who missed almost the whole of his 4-year-old season has certainly given the Mariscottis plenty of cause for cheer this year. Patience rewarded.

The spotlight will soon be thrown on the Balding stable which features in a new series to be released later this month on Amazon Prime. ‘Horsepower’ runs in four parts from September 23 and, according to the press release announcing its launch, it "captures a momentous period in the lives and careers of its two main protagonists, racehorse trainer Andrew Balding and jockey Oisin Murphy".

The documentary series was being filmed when Murphy was banned for 14 months for Covid regulation and alcohol breaches. The trailer for Horsepower can be viewed here.
Stallions on a Roll

Shadwell's Muhaarar (GB) was represented by Group/Grade 2 winners on each side of the Atlantic last week. On Thursday, Polly Pott (GB) made sure Harry Dunlop’s training career will go out with a bang by landing her fourth consecutive win on her first outing in stakes company when winning the G2 May Hill S. at Doncaster.

Over at Kentucky Downs, Bran (Fr) won the GII Fanduel Turf Sprint S. Not only was the John Sadler trainee bred in France by Lordship Stud but she was ridden to victory by French Classic-winning jockey Vincent Cheminaud, who is now based in America.

Ballylinch Stud's Lope De Vega was another stallion to exhibit his versatility on Sunday when represented at Longchamp by G1 Prix Vermeille winner Sweet Lady (Fr) over 1m4f and also by the 5f winner Berneuil (Ire), who landed the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert. Both horses are out of mares by Dansili (GB), which is a cross that has also worked well to produce Grade I winner Capla Temptress (Ire), Group 2 winner Cadillac (Ire), and the dual Group 1 runner-up and Group 3 winner Lope Y Fernandez (Ire). Lope De Vega has been on a roll of late, with his daughter Dreamloper (Ire) winning the previous weekend's G1 Prix du Moulin to add to her G1 Prix d'Ispahan success, and the aforementioned Duke De Sessa winning a Group 3 on Saturday at Leopardstown.

It was in May 2019 that O'Leary announced that Gigginstown would be winding down their racing operation "over an extended four or five-year period" and that they would not be purchasing any more stores or young horses.

However, Eddie O'Leary, who manages Gigginstown on behalf of his brother Michael, revealed exclusively to TDN Europe on Monday that the purchasing of Shanbally Kid represents a new "select approach" by the owners.

"All I will say is that it is a long road that doesn't turn," O'Leary said. "We've had some great days with Willie and we are looking forward to having a couple with him this season again. Shanbally Kid will be the first of them. We bought him after he won his bumper at Clonmel."

Shanbally Kid was knocked down to Harold Kirk and Mullins for £190,000 at the Tattersalls Cheltenham April Sale shortly after bolting up at Clonmel for Richard O'Brien.

He is not the only classy bumper recruit that will sport the maroon and white of Gigginstown this season with O'Leary also sharing that Land Rover Bumper runner-up Miss Agusta (Ire) (Well Chosen (GB)) has been bought to join Gordon Elliott.

O'Leary said, "We bought a few bumper horses and got a couple at the store sales so it will be a small and select approach going forward. Miss Agusta is ours and she's for Gordon."

Miss Agusta was sold for €235,000 to Gordon Elliott Racing at the Goffs Punchestown Sale after her debut second in the Land Rover for Mags Mullins.

Gigginstown may have spent just five years on the roster at Closutton but enjoyed a golden period, kick-started by Sir Des Champs (Fr) landing the Martin Pipe at Cheltenham in 2011. He followed up in the Jewson Novices’ Chase in 2012 and would go on to run a gallant second to Bobs Worth in the 2013 Gold Cup. The powerful owner-trainer combination netted 17 Grade 1s all told.

Mullins commented, "We're delighted to renew acquaintances with Gigginstown and to train horses for them once again. We've been very lucky with them over the years and hopefully we will be lucky again."

ARQANA OFFERS SNEAK PEEK INTO ARC SALE CATALOGUE

Officials at Arqana have released the first 32 horses that will go under the hammer at The Arc Sale, set to be held Sunday, Oct. 1, following the conclusion of racing at Saint-Cloud Racecourse.

Among the offerings at this stage is lot 16, the 108-rated Master Gatsby (Fr) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}), who is offered by trainer Fabrice Chappet. The 3-year-old son of Moonee Valley (Fr) (Aqlaam {GB}) has won three of his nine trips to the race, including a 9-1 surprise in the G3 Prix Gerald de Geoffre at ParisLongchamp Sept. 1. Cont. p8

Following that one into the ring will be the Markus Klug-conditioned Schwarzer Peter (Ger) (Neatico {Ger}), who nearly upset this year’s G1 Deutsches Derby when missing by a head at longshot odds at Hamburg July 3. He exits a third in the G3 Preis der Sparkassen-Finanzgruppe at Baden Baden.

Last year’s G3 Prix Quincey hero Dilawar (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) is catalogued as lot 38 for His Highness the Aga Khan Studs, while Lady Mia (Fr) (Outstrip {GB}) (lot 8) is a three-time winner from six runs for Alessandro and Giuseppe Botti.
