BLOCKBUSTER BOOK 1 CONCLUDES AT KEESELP WITH ANOTHER 13 MILLION-DOLLAR YEARLINGS

$1.8-million session topper by Constitution | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini, Christie DeBernardis & Christina Bossinakis

The elite Book 1 section of the Keeneland September Sale, which began with a powerhouse session Monday, maintained its energy all the way through to the end of Tuesday's second session. After nine yearlings sold for $1 million or more Monday, a further 13 horses topped that mark during Tuesday's session, led by a $1.8-million son of Constitution.

"Coming out of day one, I think that momentum was almost euphoric," said Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy. "Coming into day two, we were sort of thinking, 'Can we maintain this?' And putting it in racing terms, we hit the wire hard. We finished that last couple of hours with that euphoric feeling all the way through the session. When you are ending up with a $533,000 average for session two, $516,000 average for Book 1, it was really encouraging. It was great to see the diversity in the 13 horses bringing $1 million or more, from large to small breeders, everybody was getting a piece of the action. A lot of people were extremely happy with the way it went. The demand for quality horses was beyond our expectations."

TAKE STOCK: DAVID INGORDO AND FLIGHTLINE by Sid Fernando

David Ingordo of Lane’s End Bloodstock doesn't smile much, and when he does, it’s usually a half-smile. But he does have a sense of humor. On Sunday afternoon, he was spotted at Keeneland outside the Lane's End consignment wearing a gray vest with the name "David DeVaux" embroidered on the chest, a nod and a wink to his trainer wife Cherie DeVaux.

Ingordo likes to be incognito and shuns the spotlight whenever he can, but he’s very much in that spotlight at the moment, thanks to Flightline (Tapit), who first caught Ingordo’s eye as a short yearling on breeder Jane Lyon's Summer Wind Farm. Flightline is under the care of another trainer, John Sadler, with whom he has a longstanding relationship. Cont. p19

MANDALOUN RETIRED TO JUDDMONTE USA

Juddmonte homebred Mandaloun (Into Mischief), the promoted 2021 GI Kentucky Derby winner, has been retired. He will stand for $25,000 (stands and nurses) at Juddmonte USA in Kentucky. "This horse is the entire package, I don't know that I have seen a better-looking son of Into Mischief," trainer Brad Cox said.

KOCH NAMED KY FARM MANAGER OF THE YEAR

The Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Managers’ Club (KTFMC) has chosen Shawhan Place’s Matthew Koch as the 2022 Ted Bates Farm Manager of the Year. The honor is given annually to a farm manager “who has demonstrated quality and success in their management role; service to the community; involvement in the KTFMC; and industry leadership and dedication.”

During the two Book 1 sessions, 220 yearlings sold for $113,660,000. The average of $516,636 was up 18.58% from the 2021 Book 1 average and the median was up 28.57% to $450,000. With 62 yearlings reported not sold, the buy-back rate was 21.99%. It was 34.18% a year ago.

The Keeneland sales team made a point of putting together a standout group of physicals and pedigrees into its Book 1 section, while also working to bust the myth that the elite section might not have always been the most competitive place to sell a top yearling.

"None of this was done in a vacuum," Lacy said of the construction of Book 1. "We were listening to the feedback from buyers, because there was a lack of consistency and that was because there was a nervousness; 'Where is the best place in the market?' And I think it was evident in the last couple of years, if you put the right horses in front of the right people, the market takes care of itself. There were a lot of horses that we encouraged to move forward that were part of the $1-million sales that might have ended up in Book 2 normally. I think when you plug in good pedigrees, good physicals, with the right people who afford their time to come here to spend time here at the sale, it just goes to show the results can pay dividends."

Keeneland President Shannon Arvin credited the sellers who had provided top offerings to the book's success.

"We appreciate so much the sellers, and breeders, and consignors that worked with us on the format and really believed in us as we tried to put together the best possible Book 1 we could, and to the buyers for coming out," Arvin said. "We heard from a lot of buyers who said they were trying to short list, but their short lists are long. There are just so many nice horses here. That was great to hear and I think the results speak for themselves."

Dana Bernhard of Lynnhaven Racing made Tuesday's highest bid when going to $1.8 million to acquire a colt by Constitution from the Taylor Made Sales Agency consignment. The yearling was the second son of the WinStar stallion bred by China Horse Club to top the seven-figure mark Tuesday after bloodstock agent Richard Knight got the day off to a quick start with the $1.3-million purchase of the second horse through the ring. With five purchases for $4.15 million, Knight was the session's leading buyer.

The Keeneland September sale continues with Book 2 sessions Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 11 a.m. Following a dark day Friday, the auction continues through Sept. 24 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.
Iron Constitution at Keeneland

Sitting chilly well until into the second session of the Keeneland September sale, Jim and Dana Bernhard’s Lynnhaven Racing turned on all boosters to land Hip 311, a colt by Constitution, for $1.8 million. Soon after the colt entered the ring, it was quickly apparent that it would be a dogfight as several bidders, among them Mike Repole, responded to every volley launched by the Bernhard camp. When the dust had settled, it was Dana Bernhard who signed the ticket on the Valentine’s Day foal.

Representing the Bernhard’s, advisor Equine Analysis’ Matt Weinmann added, “The market sets the price. I knew we’d have to stretch for him, but I didn’t know we’d have to go that high but I’m happy to have him. At Equine Analysis, we get the best information we can get and we take a shot.”

Consigned by Taylor Made Sales on behalf of the colt’s breeder China Horse Club, the Feb. 14 foal is out of Grade I winner Last Full Measure (Empire Maker) and is a half-brother to GI Juddmonte Spinster S. winner Valiance (Tapit). China Horse Club purchased Last Full Measure for $1.5 million at the 2014 Keeneland November sale.

“He just jumps out at you,” said China Horse Club’s Michael Smith. “Whenever you sell a horse for a million dollars, it’s rare. We hoped he could and the chips fell the right way today.”

Enjoying strong trade at Keeneland so far, Taylor Made’s Mark Taylor recalled, “We saw this colt at WinStar Farm a few times prior and as soon as we saw him, we said that was one of the best Constitutions we’ve seen. He was one of the better colts we had seen in this crop. He’s beautifully bred and out of a Grade I winner and she’s also the dam of a Grade I winner.”

He continued, “He was a great representative of the stallion and he brought a bunch of money which he deserved to,”

China Horse Club's Breeding Program Continues to Succeed

The China Horse Club's breeding program has been growing in both size and success as it reaches its fifth year. The organization led by Teo Ah Khing was represented by a seven-figure yearling for the third straight year at Keeneland September when a Constitution colt out of GSW Cozze Up Lady (Cozzene) (Hip 192) summoned $1.3 million from Richard Knight Bloodstock just minutes into Tuesday's session. Later in the session, the operation sold another son of Constitution for $1.8 million (Hip 311).

“The team is extremely happy,” Teo said. “The horse presented well and was respected. We are a partner in Constitution. It shows that a rising pedigree combined with a strong stallion like Constitution is working. His half-sister’s [Kimari (Munnings)] CV helped as well.”

A pair of fillies by GiSW Embellish the Lace (Super Saver) each brought $1.25 million at KEESEP the last two years for China Horse Club. Her Tapit filly sold here in 2020 and her Into Mischief went through the ring last year. China Horse Club also had a seven-figure seller here back in 2017 when Yitai Fidelity (War Front--Iotapa) summoned $1.9 million. The China Horse Club-bred horses have also succeeded on the racetrack with Grade I winners Kimari and Valiance (Tapit), who is a half-sister to Hip 311, as the chief examples.

“This is our fifth year breeding in America, which is relatively

The single most successful British stallion since the Pattern began back in 1971. Dubawi: history maker, breed shaper. Much the best of his sire sons is Night Of Thunder. He’s so good, in a few short years he might even be eclipsing his father. That, of course, is the story of the breed — since Eclipse himself, 23 generations back in male line descent. Faster, stronger, better. Night Of Thunder’s day: it’s dawning.

short compared with many others," Teo said. "We want to continue to upgrade our mares. We will come back in November and look at our expansion plan in America. We have stallions to support like Life Is Good, Tiz the Law, Constitution, Improbable, Yoshida, Justify and others. We always bring everything to market. That has been the plan from day one and it works. We will continue to participate on certain horses as well."

Hip 192 was the first million-dollar sale for Jill Gordon and Jacob West's Highgate Sales, which debuted earlier this year at the Fasig-Tipton February Sale, where they sold the topper.

"From day one, this horse had been one of the top physicals and had the pedigree to match," said West after congratulating Knight. "We knew he was pretty damn popular. He was bred by China Horse Club and raised at WinStar and they did an incredible job getting him ready. It was easy for us to lead him up here and let these guys battle. Constitution is doing very well. The colt has a big strong shoulder and big strong hip. People are thinking two-turn Classics when they look at horses like him. That was Jill Gordon's first million-dollar horse and a lot of credit has to go to her in putting this consignment together."

China Horse Club purchased Hip 192's dam Cozze Up Lady for $300,000 at the 2014 FTKNOV sale. She is also the dam of Grade I winner Kimari, who was purchased by Coolmore's M.V. Magnier for $2.7 million at last year's Fasig-Tipton November Sale and returned to training. She most recently captured Saratoga's GII Honorable Miss H. in July.

"He was absolutely my pick coming in here," said Knight, who indicated the colt would remain in the U.S. "I loved him from the moment I saw him. I thought he was everything we came here to look for. We came to look for a really smart horse who will hopefully be a two-turn horse. He has pedigree and is by a great stallion. Gorgeous-looking horse. Every single time he came out, he did it for me. Delighted to get him." --@CDeBernardisTDN

Into Mischief Filly Draws $1.35m for Upson Downs

Unlike some of the other consignors offering their vast wares in Book 1, Upson Downs Farm made it to the ring with a single yearling, Hip 359, a filly by Into Mischief. However, what the consignment lacked in raw numbers, it more than made up for in fire power with the daughter of MSP Nina Fever (Borrego) reeling in a $1.35-million final bid from Don Adam's Courtland Farm LLC.

"She’s been class from the time she was born," said Upson Downs Farm's Alex Rankin. "We’re over the moon. This is the first seven-figure yearling for Upson Downs in 35 years of consigning. I’m still trying to process it."

He added, "Mr. Adams is a great owner and he will give her a great shot. So, it couldn't be a better situation."

Stemming from humble beginnings, Nina Fever was claimed by Michael Hui for $40,000 at Keeneland in 2011. Injured shortly thereafter and retired, the filly was sent to Upson Downs to pursue her second career as a broodmare. The now 14-year-old mare, who is already responsible for GI Frizette S. winner Nickname (Scat Daddy) and MSP Hey Mike (Cape Blanco {Ire}), was sold in foal to Constitution for $500,000 at Fasig-Tipton November sale last season after foaling this filly. “I just feel so honored to be able to sell her,” said Rankin. “It’s for a good client, Michael Hui, who claimed the dam--Nina Fever. We’ve raised these horses for him and it’s been a wonderful relationship. I’m so glad he got the money because he deserves it and the filly deserves it.”

Pointing to some of the factors precipitating yesterday success, Rankin explained, “I have a new management team, Danika Carmichael and Anthony Weisman, and they have done a wonderful job with these yearlings. Our 2-year-olds have run great this year. I am so happy for them. That’s what means the most to me to have this kind of success.”--@CBossTDN

Repole Full Tilt at KEESEP

Buying no less than 13 yearlings in partnership during Monday's session, Mike Repole wasn’t quite done on Day 2 as he returned to partner on an additional 11 head Tuesday, headed by a pair of $1.1-million colts. In quick succession, Repole, accompanied by agent Jacob West and trainer Todd Pletcher, purchased Hip 364, a colt by City of Light in tandem with Vinnie Viola's St. Elias Stables and West Point Thoroughbreds. Not long afterward, he joined forces with Coolmore to secure a son of Curlin, offered as Hip 369.

The former, who is out of unraced Numero d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro), was consigned by Rosilyn Polan’s Sunday Morning Farm. Polan sold last year’s topper, also by City of Light, in addition to the colt's half-brother Wit (Practical Joke). Winner of the GIII Sanford S. and GIII Bay Shore S. and third in the GI Champagne S., the colt is campaigned by Repole and trained by Pletcher.

“Watching him go around there, that was my Grade I win. I was so proud of him,” said Polan. “They’ve done so well with Wit and to send the horse to Todd Pletcher. I love those guys [the buyers]."

Of his City of Light purchase, Repole said, "Obviously, we like Wit a lot. I also own a share in City of Light. I think City of Light will be a two-turn, Classic stallion. He's probably not going to get you a lot of 2-year-olds, I think we're seeing that now. But I think over the next couple of years, like Quality Road and Curlin's of the world, he'll become a Classic sire."

Five hips later, Repole was back in action for another $1.1-million purchase, this one consigned by Hinkle Farms. The chestnut is out of GSP Orbolution (Orb), who was also developed by Pletcher.

Looking to make another hit with another offspring of Curlin. "He's a big, Classic horse and we think he can be a two-turn type," said Repole. "I love Curlin. There is a little horse named [GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner] Vino Rosso that I own. And another horse named [three-time Grade I winner] Nest that I own as well. Coolmore and I do some business together, and we both landed on the same one and we both use Todd Pletcher, so it made sense."

With Jacob West assuming the bidding duties, Repole also secured Hip 336, a colt by Omaha Beach out of GISP Maybellene (Lookin At Lucky). The Feb. 15 foal represents the family of Elusive Quality. Secured for $900,000, the colt was consigned by Clarkland Farm.

"I had planned on stopping at $600,000," Repole admitted. "I just kept looking at him. He was probably about $200,000 more than I wanted to spend, but honestly, if that colt was a Curlin, an Uncle Mo or an Into Mischief, I think he would have been the sale's topper. He just looked amazing."

Seeming to still have money to spend after the Curlin colt, Repole teamed up with another Pletcher client, Robert and Lawana Low, for Hip 370, a colt Into Mischief out of SW Osare (Medaglia d'Oro), a half-sister to the late champion Arrogate (Unbridled's Song). Consigned by Denali Stud, agent for Bridlewood Farm, the Feb. 1 foal brought $775,000.

Earlier in the session, Repole jumped into the fray for another yearling by a sire he is closely connected to. Represented by his first crop of yearlings, Hip 240 is by champion Vino Rosso, campaigned by Repole and St. Elias Stable and trained by Pletcher.

"I've been so blessed," he said. "I am either buying horses by Vino Rosso, or Uncle Mo and out of mares that I have had winning siblings out of, so it's been very fun."

Also among Repole's purchases Tuesday, he partnered on Hip 275 (Gun Runner, $475,000); Hip 279 (Tapit, $475,000); Hip 290 (Curlin, $320,000); Hip 332 (Constitution, $285,000) and Hip 264 ($250,000, Medaglia d'Oro) and Hip 307 (Quality Road,

Summer Wind Still Blowing Strong

It’s been quite a summer for Jane Lyon and her Summer Wind Farm breeding program. It started off with her sensational homebred Flightline (Tapit), whom she owns in partnership, winning the GI Met Mile in June. In August, the horsewoman sold an Uncle Mo colt for $1.5 million to some of her Flightline partners, staying in for a piece herself, and just 10 days ago Flightline dropped the jaws of the entire racing community when taking the GI TVG Pacific Classic by nearly 20 lengths.

Lyon’s hot streak continued at Keeneland Tuesday when she sold a Quality Road filly (Hip 302) to Larry Best for $1.3 million.

“It’s a little bittersweet,” said Lyon, who is known for her deep love for her horses. “I hate giving my fillies up. I hope she does a wonderful job for Mr. Best and I hope that he has all the success in the world with her.”

The breeder continued, “We were thinking she would sell well. We have always liked her very much. She had a nice update in her pedigree. We think we have a very special mare in Key To My Heart. I am hopeful she will continue to produce fillies like this for us.”

Hip 302 was the first horse Best bid on through the first two days of selling and he was quite pleased to secure her.
“Quality Road speaks for himself,” said Best. “It’s a great page. You sense from [Monday] the value of the Quality Road bloodline. This particular filly just was beautiful with a great pedigree. If you look at the history of the pedigree, it’s very rich. At this price point, it was worth the bet. About 10 minutes ago I pegged her at this price. I feel lucky. She’s a quality horse from a quality breeder. I’m thrilled.”

Lyon acquired Hip 302’s stakes-winning dam Key To My Heart (Galileo {Ire}) for $1.75 million at the 2018 KEENOV sale in foal to War Front. The resulting foal Man Among Men brought $360,000 from Spendthrift and My Racehorse at this auction in 2020 and he broke his maiden at second asking at Del Mar Sept. 3, the same day Flightline won that venue’s Pacific Classic with Lyon in attendance. Her 2020 War Front colt, now named Sloane Ranger, summoned $400,000 from Coolmore’s M.V. Magnier at last year’s KEESEP sale.

Key To My Heart is a daughter of GI Frizette S. victress A Z Warrior (Bernardini), who is a half-sister to Jojo Warrior, a MGSW on dirt. Just two months after purchasing Key To My Heart, Lyon bought another Galileo mare named A Star is Born (Ire) for $750,000 at the 2019 KEEJAN sale. Her American Pharoah filly (Hip 142) sold for $350,000 to G. Watts Humphrey during Monday’s session.

“I knew that this particular mare [Key To My Heart] had dirt in her pedigree and enough of it,” Lyon said. “I also, at that time, thought it was important to incorporate both dirt and turf horses into my breeding program. I think this filly could go either way, but hopefully she will be here running on dirt. I am very excited about this mare and all of the Galileo mares I have. I have three, one I bred [Shadow Play] and these two lovely mares. They are beautiful and they all have beautiful foals for me. They are relatively young, so I am very excited.”

With plenty left to come from Summer Wind Farm during Book 2 and Flightline pointed to the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic at Keeneland in November, Lyon and her team have a lot to look forward to.

“We have been very blessed to have a horse like Flightline come out of our breeding program,” the always humble Lyon said. “We just hope to continue to have healthy mares and foals, who produce and perform.” --@CDeBernardisTDN

Knight Strikes Again for Justify Filly

Coming out of the gate running during Tuesday’s second Keeneland September session, Richard Knight had already garnered a bevy of yearlings early in the afternoon, including Hip 255, a daughter of freshman sire Justify who realized a $1.05 million final bid. Buying on behalf of an undisclosed interest, Knight indicated the Mar. 22 foal, who was consigned by Bryan and Gray Lyster’s Ashview Farm, will remain in the U.S. and sent to Graham Motion.

“She is a queen of a filly and we are delighted to get her,” said Knight.

Knight also signed the ticket on Hip 192, a $1.3-million Constitution colt, Hip 198, an Omaha Beach colt that brought $400,000 and Hip 200, a $300,000 colt by Twirling Candy. Later in the day, he secured Hip 297, a filly by Gun Runner, for $1.1 million.

Reflecting on the activity at Keeneland thus far, he said, “The sale has been very strong. If you want to buy the good ones, I’m afraid you will have to step up and pay for them. We only have a few that we are involved in, we don’t really have a long list that we are pursuing, so we are delighted to get the ones we got so far.”

Out of graded stakes-placed Fully Living (Unbridled’s Song), the bay is a half to graded-placed horses Untreated (Nyquist) and Ballet Dancing (Medaglia d’Oro). Fully Living is a daughter of Half A.P. (Pulpit), making her a half-sister to champion juvenile filly Halfbridled.

“She is perfect,” said an emotional Gray Lyster. “Everyone came around to look at her and she just walked out and looked around like she was the queen the whole time.”

“She is the first filly that we bred ourselves to make a million dollars. We have sold million-dollar yearlings for other people, it’s a very big deal, and it’s really hard to do. We’ve had lots of success raising race horses but it’s also really hard to get a million dollars for a horse. We’re really thrilled.”

Having already tasted success selling at Keeneland, Ashview offered a yearling by Uncle Mo out of Callingmissbrown (Pulpit) in the COVID-plagued year of 2020. Purchased by Donegal Racing for $250,000 and subsequently named Mo Donegal, the colt was sent to Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher, and quickly paid dividends, winning two of three starts at two, including the GII Remsen S. Taking the GII Wood Memorial earlier this season, the colt most recently annexed the GI Belmont S.

“It’s all coming together right now,” said Lyster. “When you have success with horses you raised on the racetrack, you hope that will translate at the sales. Maybe that’s what tipped the scale with her or at least I like to think so. It’s been an awesome year.” --@CBossTDN

Gun Runner Filly Completes Knight’s Day

Bloodstock agent Richard Knight completed a productive day in the office with the $1.1-million purchase of a filly by Gun Runner (hip 297). It was the agent's fifth purchase of the session and third seven-figure acquisition as he continued his buying spree for an undisclosed client.

“She is by Gun Runner, who is a stallion we very much earmarked coming over here,” Knight said of the yearling’s appeal. “The filly is a sister to a good horse, the dam was a good horse herself. And this horse was a lovely physical. She is very racy and with a great temperament. She’ll be a lovely broodmare at the end of the day to breed from as well. We are very happy to have her.”

The yearling is out of graded winner Just Wicked (Tapit) and her full-sister Wicked Halo won the GII Prioress S. at Saratoga this summer.

“She’s going to stay over here and she will go to [trainer] Graham Motion,” Knight said.

Hip 297 was consigned by Gainesway on behalf of her breeder, Winchell Thoroughbreds.

“She’s got the X factor,” said Gainesway's Brian Graves. “She walks nice, she’s balanced and athletic. All the top judges found her. It helps that she's by Gun Runner.”

Knight, who made five purchases at the Arqana August sale last month on behalf of the same client, said he was bidding within the game plan despite a competitive market at Keeneland.

“We only followed one in yesterday and we underbid it,” Knight said. “We value them and if they go over our evaluation, then we let them go. We try to be competitive on the ones we want. We’ve had a successful day today, but that’s us finished.”

Knight's Arqana acquisitions were led by a filly by Wootton Bassett (GB) (hip 202) purchased for €750,000. @JessMartiniTDN

Orbolution Continues to Reward Hinkle Family

Stakes winner and GSP Orbolution (Orb) has been the gift that keeps on giving for the Hinkle family. They bred the mare and sold her to StarLadies Racing for $370,000 at Keeneland September back in 2016. She was sent through the ring at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton July HORA Sale after a successful racing career, where the Hinkles bought her back for $325,000. They bred her to Curlin for her first foal and the resulting colt (Hip 369) summoned $1.1 million from the powerhouse partnership of Coolmore's M.V. Magnier and Repole Stable. He will be trained by Todd Pletcher, who conditioned his first and second dams. Cont. p13

A STORMING CROP!

Darley
“You never expect $1 million,” said Hinkle Farms’ Tom Hinkle. “My daughter Ann Archer does a great job and my partners are my brothers Buck and Henry. We are in it and are glad to be rewarded.”

The breeder and consignor continued, “He was a nice foal. He is a really smart horse. He just does everything the right way. We have never had any problems with him. He is just a really neat horse to be around. We are glad the market thought he was as nice as we did. It is hard to be a commercial breeder. It takes a long time from the time you choose a stallion to the time you sell them. And this is just the beginning. We still have two years until we see how it works out for everybody.”

Hip 369’s second dam My Rachel (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) was Grade III-placed while racing under Steve Young’s A1A Racing banner. Hinkle bought the mare for $125,000 at the 2008 KEENOV sale in foal to Arch. In addition to Orbolution, she has produced stakes-placed runners Wexx (Declaration of War), Rachel’s Ready (More Than Ready) and Firehouse Red (Arch), who is the dam of GSW & GISP Draft Pick (Candy Ride {Arg}).

“I bought My Rachel a long time ago,” said Hinkle. “We bred Orbolution and sold her as a yearling for $360,000, then we bought her back from Starlight, so we have had that family for a long time. It has been a wonderful family for us. Everything in the second dam we bred. Orbolution was a really nice filly.”

The horseman added, “This was a great first foal. Our team at the farm, headed up by our manager, Trish Regard, did a great job with him. Everyone involved did a great job. We couldn't be happier. He will have every chance in the world with the team that bought him. He came up here and was very professional. He showed for four days and was a professional every time he went out.” --@CDeBernardis

M. V. Magnier | Keeneland

Magnier Strikes for Justify Colt

Coolmore’s M.V. Magnier made his first seven-figure bid of the Keeneland September sale when going to $1.1 million to acquire a colt by Triple Crown winner Justify (hip 339). Out of stakes winner and multiple graded placed Milam (Street Sense), the colt was consigned by Denali Stud on behalf of breeder WinStar Farm. Milam is a half-sister to champion Rushing Fall (More Than Ready).

“[Trainer] Aidan [O’Brien] came over and Paul Shanahan and Dermot [Ryan], everybody really liked this horse,” Magnier said. “He comes from a really good family. And the way Justify is going, a lot of people are saying what he is doing at the moment is actually incredible. To be going as well as he is as early as he is, everybody seems to be pretty surprised by it. We're very excited about him.”

“The market here is incredible,” Magnier continued. “But this is a very well-bred horse and WinStar are very good breeders. Conrad [Bandoroff] said the horse was very popular. If you breed a horse like that, I suppose you deserve to get paid for him.”

Justify, who stands at Coolmore, has already been represented by three graded winners from his first crop to hit the track this year. Of the operation's runners by Justify, Magnier said, “All the ones we have are very sound, tough horses. They have plenty of speed and they look like they will stay as well. He never ran at... two and he's had three group winners already. He's flying. He couldn't be doing any better than he is.”

Magnier also purchased hip 339’s half-brother by Quality Road for $950,000 at last year’s Keeneland September sale.

WinStar purchased Milam for $175,000 at the 2016 Keeneland November sale.

“[WinStar] gave us some very nice horses to sell,” Denali’s Conrad Bandoroff said. “They breed a very good horse. This was a very popular horse. Justify is off to a gangbuster start. He’s going to have every chance in going to a top program. He’s got class. He carried himself back here like a real professional. He never took a wrong step. Very intelligent with a lot of class.”

Whisper Hill Farm and Three Chimneys teamed up at last year’s Fasig-Tipton November Sale to buy out Three Chimneys' previous partner Hill 'n' Dale on Hip 331’s dam Magical World (Distorted Humor), who topped the sale at $5.2 million, and they reunited Tuesday to secure her son by Quality Road for $1.1 million. The colt was sold by Hill 'n' Dale as part of the continued dissolution of their partnership with Three Chimneys.

“He is an awesome individual,” said Todd Quast, advisor to Mandy Pope’s Whisper Hill Farm. “He is such a big, stout horse, but he moves really light. We bought the mare in November, so we have the family, and Three Chimneys wanted to go in. We are ecstatic. He was expensive, but we are very happy.”

Three Chimneys acquired Magical World, a daughter of GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Pleasant Home (Seeking the Gold), privately and later partnered with Hill 'n' Dale on the mare. She was one of several members of the partnership to sell at last year’s FTKNOV sale, including her three-time Grade I-winning daughter Guarana (Ghostzapper), who was also a 'TDN Rising Star.' Hill 'n' Dale's John Sikura bought Three Chimneys out on Guarana for $4.4 million that evening.

Three Chimneys also bred and raced Guarana’s stakes-winning, 'TDN Rising Star' half-sister Magic Dance (More Than Ready). They also bred and sold her 2019 foal, a colt named Beatbox (Pioneerof the Nile), for $2.1 million at the 2019 KESEP sale.

“Three Chimneys was supportive and a co-owner,” Sikura said. “They were big-time horses with quality pedigrees. That’s what the major guys are looking for. He is a two-turn colt out of a proven producer, by a leading sire. No surprise really. After $1 million it’s just who you have [as bidders]. It’s been a very good sale and a good end to the partnership. Three Chimneys are great breeders. They did a great job and everybody was rewarded.”

Three Chimneys partnered with Winchell Thoroughbreds during Monday’s session to buy out Hill 'n' Dale on another member of their partnership, a $1.7-million Curlin colt out of Carina Mia (Hip 169). --@CDeBernardisTDN

St. George Hits a Home Run With Into Mischief Colt

Archie St. George stretched a bit when acquiring a son of Into Mischief (Hip 344) for $570,000 at last year’s Fasig-Tipton November Sale. It more than paid off Tuesday when the colt summoned $1.05 million from Don and Donna Adam's Courtlandt Farm.

“He just was a really nice horse,” St. George said. “He’s by one of the best stallions in North America we’ve seen in recent times. It was a lot of money and it paid off. I would like to give a lot of credit to my wife Michelle and all the boys on the farm, who do all the work. Hopefully the horse runs. That’s the main thing.”

He continued, “He’s a top physical. He’s really nice to be around all the time. Never had any problems. He was very nice when we bought him. He just grew up and kept on doing everything. He jumped through all the hoops. He was vetted nearly 20 times.”

Bred by Larry Best’s OXO Equine, Hip 344 is out of Moi (Medaglia d’Oro), who Best bought for $750,000 at the 2016 KESEP sale. A daughter of MSW & MGSP Distorted Passion (Distorted Humor), Moi is a full-sister to MGSW & GISP Mrs McDougal. --@CDeBernardisTDN

Into Mischief Colt Scores for Blum

The stallion-making partnership group of SF Racing/Starlight/Madaket made its biggest purchase of the Keeneland September sale so far when paying $1.05 million to acquire a

Hip 8, f, $1,200,000
Hip 176, c, $1,150,000
Hip 331, c, $1,100,000
colt by Into Mischief (hip 328). The yearling, who was consigned by Bridie Harrison on behalf of breeder Peter Blum, is out of graded winner Magical Feeling (Empire Maker). She is a half-sister to stakes winners Exulting (Tapit) and Magical (Tapit).

“Bridie Harrison told me he was very special from day one,” said Blum. “She loved him and she told me he was going to bring a lot of money. So I really wasn’t worried about the reserve. It’s especially rewarding to see this horse go to SF.”

Blum bred and campaigned Magical Feeling, who won the 2012 GII Barbara Fritchie H., bred her unraced dam Magical Mood (GB) (Forestry), and bred and raced second dam Good Mood (Devil’s Bag), winner of the 1991 GIII Miss Grillo S. and third dam Mine One (Mr. Prospector).

Blum admitted it was emotional to sell horses he had such a long association with.

“It’s emotional,” he said. “Bridie and I have been together for 40 years. And she has to get all the credit.”

Blum sent four horses through the ring Tuesday. Hip 247, a full-brother to GI Kentucky Derby winner Authentic (Into Mischief), sold for $800,000 to Hideyuki Mori, while hip 237, a Street Sense half-sister to Society (Gun Runner) sold for $725,000 to Windancer Farm.

“We've sold all of our horses,” Blum said. “I was disappointed earlier. I would have liked to have seen the half-sister to Society sell better, but we take it as it comes. When you've been doing it as long as I have, it is what it is. We didn't buy any horses back. There were a few that I thought we should have had higher reserves on, but in the end, the objective is to sell everything. If you put reserves that aren't realistic and then you buy back half of them, then people think you don't want to sell.”

The SF/Starlight/Madaket partnership purchased four yearlings Tuesday, three were colts by Into Mischief. In addition to hip 328, the group acquired hip 241 for $825,000 and hip 335 for $450,000, as well as hip 330, a son of Curlin, for $350,000.

Through two sessions, the group has purchased seven horses for a total of $4,560,000. @JessMartiniTDN

Another Seven-Figure Horse for BC Stables

The fledgling BC Stables of John Bellinger and Brian Coelho had its second seven-figure purchase of the Keeneland September sale when trainer D. Wayne Lukas went to $1 million to acquire a colt by Into Mischief (hip 363) from the Taylor Made Sales Agency consignment. The yearling was bred by Marie Jones, who spent several minutes talking to Lukas in the pavilion after the purchase.

After the longtime breeder and the veteran trainer finished their discussion, Jones’s advisor Frank Taylor agreed it was a special moment.

“We love that Wayne bought him,” Taylor said. “He's been like my hero all of my life. I know he will do a good job with him and I hope he does some special things for him.”

The yearling is out of Not in Jest (Unbridled’s Song), a full-sister to Grade I winner Cross Traffic.

“He is going to be quick,” Lukas said of the colt. “He's very, very typey. The thing I liked about him was that they must have shown him 100 and some times and he never took a wrong step. He just bowed his neck. And I loved his energy. The horse has a lot of energy. He's a well-conformed horse. He's not real lengthy, but I think he will be a great 2-year-old.”

Lukas agreed he was a fan of the breeding operation built by Jones and her late husband Aaron.

“They do a great job,” he said. “Frank Taylor advises her and they put the right horses to the right sires. Over the last, I don't know how many years, I've been buying off of her. I know her well. I knew her husband well. She's a wonderful, classy woman.”

Lukas has signed the ticket on four yearlings on behalf of BC Stables, including a $1.15-million son of Quality Road (hip 176) purchased during Monday’s first session of the auction. He also purchased a pair of yearlings for the operation at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale last month.

“It makes it a lot easier to get up at 3 a.m. You bet,” Lukas said of the new acquisitions. “I am excited about their program and where I can take them. They want to play at the top. I don't know when I've had a nicer bunch of 2-year-olds, when you put the Saratoga horses in with these.”

Lukas credited a strong purse structure for the high demand for horses.

“It's very solid, especially in the middle,” he said of the market. “It seems like it is so solid in that $350,000-$400,000 range. Right in there, it’s so solid. And that's where, if you buy a racehorse and it stays sound, I think you have a great chance, with the purse structure the way it is today, to get out very easy, to get your seed money out. The purse structure is so strong right now, getting $70-80,000 for a maiden win, $90-100,000 for a NW2, if he runs and stays strong, you'll be able to recoup your money. I think that's what is driving the market.
Frank Taylor, Marie Jones & Wayne Lukas | Keeneland

But Lukas admitted going up against the many high-profile partnerships could make his job at the sales tougher.

“The thing that is getting difficult is when they start holding hands–then it gets tough,” he said. “They get a lot of people involved and at a high level, but everytime I see them holding hands, I think that's not too good,” he said with a laugh.

A total of 106 yearlings changed hands Tuesday for a gross of $56.565 million. The average was $533,632 and the median was $462,500. Through the two days of Book 1, 220 youngsters summoned $114.52 million with an average of $511,250 and a median of $450,000.

Justify led his class of sires, whose oldest foals are juveniles, with 13 yearlings grossing $7.325 million with an average of $563,462.

Into Mischief continued to top the sire standings with 29 yearlings bringing $19.27 million with an average of $664,483. After a stellar opening session, including the $2.5-million topper, Quality Road stayed strong on day 2, finishing second to Into Mischief in the gross category with 17 of his offspring summoning $12.955 million, but led all sires with more than one seller by average at $762,059. Into Mischief was represented by six millionaires and Quality Road had five.

The China Horse Club and Constitution proved to be a strong pairing Tuesday with two colts by the WinStar stallion bred by that operation eclipsing the million-dollar mark Tuesday, including the $1.8-million session topper.

Thirteen yearlings achieved seven-figures Tuesday, bringing the Book 1 total to 22, well above the sale total last year of 15.

Omaha Beach topped the freshman class in Book 1 with his first yearlings averaging $454,375. Eight of his offspring went through the ring during Book 1 for $3.635 million, topped by a $900,000 colt.

Sadler has known Ingordo since Ingordo, 46, was in a crib—Ingordo's father, Jerry Ingordo, a well-known jock's agent who handled Laffit Pincay Jr., among others, had been a mentor to the young Sadler when he was 21 and starting out.

Relationships are important to Ingordo. Seventeen years ago at this same sale at Keeneland, Ingordo was behind the $60,000 purchase of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Moss's Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}). That iconic mare was trained by John Shirreffs, who's married to Ingordo's mother, Dottie Ingordo-Shirreffs, and Zenyatta's success made Ingordo one of the most sought-after bloodstock agents in the business. Will and Bill Farish of Lane's End were quick to hire Ingordo after Zenyatta, and he's been with Lane's End ever since, developing a particularly close relationship with Bill Farish, whose Woodford Racing is one of the partners in Flightline, along with Summer Wind, Hronis Racing, Siena Farm, and West Point Thoroughbreds. On Monday, it was officially announced that Flightline would stand at stud at Lane’s End upon the conclusion of his racing career.

Ingordo's Eye

A strongly made bay colt by Medaglia d'Oro from the Distorted Humor mare Pauline Revere, a half-sister to the 2022 American Pharoah Grade I winner American Theorem, was the first horse through the ring Monday. Consigned by Lane’s End, the colt was bred by the partnership of Gage Hill Stables and W.S. Farish and was purchased by Talla Racing and West Point Thoroughbreds for $850,000.
A day earlier, Ingordo had the colt out for inspection for one more look before the sale. Bill Farish, wearing a Lane's End vest, was under the shedrow observing from a distance.

"At Lane's End, I've seen a lot of these horses growing up, so it's a little unfair to other horses. This horse has gotten better and better and better. I've probably seen this horse every 60 days his whole life. I like the horses that come forward each time I see them. This is my kind of horse. He's got substance," Ingordo said.

"Medaglia d'Oro was probably one of the most beautiful horses I ever laid eyes on," said Ingordo as he walked around the colt, looking him up and down before patting him on the shoulder. Medaglia d'Oro, a son of El Prado (Ire), stands at Darley and was trained by Bobby Frankel, for whom Ingordo worked as a teenager. He was one of the first Sadler's Wells-line horses to succeed at top level on dirt in N. America, and from his first crop he got Rachel Alexandra, who was produced from a Forty Niner-line mare like the yearling Ingordo was critiquing.

"[Medaglia d'Oro] is probably in my top 10 of all time physicals. This horse has got the right blend of Medaglia and Distorted Humor with the strength. The pasterns aren't too long. He's got a big forearm and gaskins--I hate a light forearm and light gaskin on studs; fillies, I can give them a pass. This colt has good bone. One of the biggest problems we have in our breed is that we're breeding the bone out of these horses. This horse could stand training for my taste."

Ingordo dropped down and pointed to a large vein running down the upper part of the colt's inside hind leg. "All these other guys do heart scans and everything, but see that vein inside? That big vein is something that I always look for. I like to see it be very prominent."

Ingordo has great knowledge of pedigrees--some are judges of pure physical specimens only--and he wants what's in front of him to match closely to what he sees on the catalog page. "It's like a BMW, to use an example. It's got the symbol on the front. You might have different designs of BMWs, different models, but the models fit a spec."

Ingordo asked the handler to walk the colt. "It's not a walking contest," he said, "but if they're a little close behind or something, it doesn't bother me. I don't mind if they're a little choppy or this or that, but I want them to use their hindquarters and reach with their shoulders. This colt is nice. He's wide. A nice swing to his tail. It looks like he'd push off and go. He's a nice moving horse, he uses himself. That's what I like to see."

Like most judges, Ingordo prefers a well-defined shoulder set at the right angle, a beautiful neck, ample girth, short cannon bones, and overall balance, but he also looks for good length on a line from the point of hip to the tip of the hock--"That's the lever," he said.

And he's a stickler for rear-end construction. "I always stand behind them. I want to see like a beam, a big, broad beam, when you draw this line. It's a flat square. You got the big gaskins and you drop down with these two pillars being the hind legs. This horse has a nice square hind end on him. It's actually not dissimilar to a horse like Flightline. Everything is defined and nice and strong."

Flightline

Before Flightline became Flightline, an undefeated winner of five starts who won his last race by an astonishing 19 1/4 lengths in 1:59.28, eased up in the 10 furlongs of the GI Pacific Classic S., he was bay yearling gamboling in a paddock in early 2019 with another chestnut Tapit colt at Summer Wind named Triple Tap, a half-brother to American Pharoah who's now won two of six starts for Bob Baffert and owner/breeder Summer Wind.

"In January of Flightline's yearling year, shortly after the holidays, Bill Farish told me we have to go out to Ms. Lyon's place to look at a Tapit half to American Pharoah," Ingordo said. "The impetus was that Jane [Lyon] had talked to Bill Farish on wanting to stay in on Triple Tap and putting a partnership together to race him. We got in the car and drive out, and they bring out two colts by Tapit. The first one was Flightline, but he was the paddock buddy of the one we're supposed to look at. So, after we're looking at them, I kind of say out loud, I like this brown one better. Bill's like, shut up and look at the other horse. That's who we're here to see. You know, don't be rude kind of thing."

Over the next few months, Ingordo would see both colts on a regular basis, and he made a mental note about Flightline.

As chance would have it, months later Ingordo ended up catching a ride on a Tex Sutton flight taking Lane's

End-consigned yearlings to Saratoga for the yearling sale. "One of the guys on the flight who knows my wife said, 'David, you care to snap a shank on a couple of them yearlings? It's getting ready to be bumpy.' I said, 'Yeah, I'll do that.' So I get up and see this brown horse and I'm petting him--I like horses--and snap a shank on him. I look down at the halter and it says 'Flightline.' I say, 'Oh shoot, it's that horse.' Later on, I'm shortlisting and I look at all our Lane's End yearlings, and I said to Bill, 'That's the horse. He's the horse we liked on the farm when we were out looking at Triple Tap.'"

Ingordo said Farish spoke to Lyon about the colt. "Bill said she wants a lot of money for the horse but would stay in for a leg, but we have to put a deal together around the horse. So we sat down and penciled who we could call."

The rest is history. The colt sold for $1 million to West Point at Saratoga.

Ingordo is quick to point out that the partners in the horse--"the best group of owners"--are instrumental in his success, because each owner was 100-percent behind giving the colt the time he needed to realize his potential at every step in the process. And, Ingordo noted, there were several hiccups along with way before the horse even got to Sadler that would have tested the patience of others.

"When he had the freak injury to his hindquarter in February of his 2-year-old year--it was a freak thing, and these things happen--we did the right thing and gave him the time, and nobody panicked," Ingordo said. "And then when he was getting ready to ship to California--I literally had him booked on the plane--a little odd thing happened. Just tweaked something. Never had surgery, nothing like that. We had to give him more time, sent him to Kentucky, had him checked out, gave him the time again. There was no hesitation on anyone's part. It was just, do the right thing. Then he ran, and after that, later, he stepped on a rock and got a deep foot bruise that popped out. That took more time.

"But this is a textbook case of, if you want to run a top-level horse that puts everything into his races and has been unlucky with a couple of bull-crappy things, this is how you do it from an ownership standpoint."

Ingordo never went to California to see Flightline race in the Pacific Classic, but he'll have a front row seat at Keeneland for the Gl Breeders' Cup Classic. He'll be in the spotlight there whether he likes it or not.

FISHMAN CLAIMS $13.5M FORFEITURE IS 'UNLAWFUL IN ITS ENTIRETY'

by T.D. Thornton

The veterinarian Seth Fishman, who is currently imprisoned but appealing his 11-year sentence for two felony drug-supplying convictions in a decades-long international racehorse doping conspiracy, has filed legal paperwork objecting to the $13.5-million forfeiture that was also imposed upon him, claiming the judge's order was illegal.

"The forfeiture sought here is not authorized by statute and is therefore unlawful in its entirety," Fishman's attorney, Steven Kessler, stated in a Sept. 12 filing in United States District Court (Southern District of New York).

"The Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (POF) seeks a money judgment equal to the alleged value of the misbranded or adulterated products that form the basis for the criminal charges," the filing continued. "It further seeks an order forfeiting substitute assets--i.e., property having no relationship to any criminal activity--up to the value of the money judgment."

"[But] the [relevant] statute does not authorize a money judgment equal in value to the misbranded products. Nor does it authorize the forfeiture of substitute assets if the misbranded products are no longer available...." the filing stated.

"Thus, the government's statutory remedy for the manufacture or introduction into interstate commerce of misbranded or adulterated products is limited to the confiscation of the products themselves. The POF exceeds and contravenes the statute. It is therefore unlawful and must be rejected...."

"If the POF actually sought 'forfeiture...of any and all drugs that were adulterated or misbranded by the Defendant' for introduction into the stream of interstate commerce, the POF would be lawful...." Fishman's filing stated.

"Misbranding is not a forfeiture crime. The misbranding statute under which the government seeks forfeiture against Dr. Fishman, 21 U.S.C. § 334, only permits the government to confiscate the misbranded or adulterated products themselves and any equipment used to manufacture those products. Nothing more," the filing stated.

Fishman's filing further argued that "Congress has prescribed monetary penalties for introducing misbranded and adulterated products into the stream of interstate commerce. Those penalties, however, are fines, not forfeitures of proceeds," and are capped at $1 million for certain violations.

Fishman was indeed fined $250,000 after prosecutors introduced evidence showing that his drug-peddling business earned millions of dollars a year. Fishman is also jointly responsible for $25 million in restitution along with other convicted co-conspirators. Neither of those monetary orders were questioned in Fishman's formal objection to the forfeiture.

The filing continued: "On a few occasions, a court has permitted forfeiture of proceeds or facilitating property or a money judgment forfeiture where there is an allegation of a misbranding violation. Those decisions, however, permitted such relief based on other criminal charges, bundled with the misbranding violations, that specifically authorize forfeiture, such as wire fraud or money laundering, none of which were even alleged against Dr. Fishman, let alone proven, here."

In summation, the filing stated, "It has never been alleged or shown that Dr. Fishman 'actually acquired' any tainted property as a result of any crime, let alone more than $13 million."

A separate legal filing from Sept. 8 noted that Fishman has been in transit within the federal prison system from New York to Florida, and that because of COVID-19 restrictions related to his movement, his attorney has been largely unable to speak with him.

"He has [been in transit to] Philadelphia and Tallahassee (and possibly other venues) before arriving [Sept. 7] in Miami. As the Court knows, upon reaching each facility, a prisoner is quarantined and must go through strict COVID protocols before being permitted phone privileges, even with his counsel.

"Because of this, I have been able to speak to Dr. Fishman just once while he was in transit, and that call was brief. We have made substantial efforts to speak with him since, but, through no fault of mine or the Bureau of Prisons, that has not yet happened. I am hopeful that, now that Dr. Fishman has arrived at his destination, communication will be easier to facilitate," the Sept. 8 filing stated.

Adventuring was sent right to the front from her rail draw by Joel Rosario and never looked back in this marathon affair for her first career graded victory. A front-running winner of the Dueling Grounds Oaks at this meeting last September, the Godolphin homebred set fractions of :25.38 and :49.90 and had plenty left for the stretch to keep heavily favored Family Way safe.
Last term's Bourbonette Oaks winner and GIII Rubicon Valley View S. third-place finisher had only made three starts since her previous trip to Kentucky Downs, most recently capturing an off-the-turf renewal of the West Virginia Senate President’s Cup S. while making her 4-year-old bow in the Mountaineer slop Aug. 6.
“She’s a horse for the course,” winning trainer Brad Cox said. “She obviously had success down there last year. We zeroed in on this race, came up with a game plan. We were hoping to get a similar trip to what we got last year, on the lead, kind of uncontested. She was pressed along a little bit early but she kind of eased away from them and created a little separation. She caught a breather around the far turn. Joel did a good job and left something for the finish up the hill, and she responded when asked.”
Pedigree Notes:
Adventuring becomes the 23rd graded winner for her late sire Pioneerof the Nile. This is the 17th graded winner for broodmare sire Hard Spun. Adventuring is the most recent produce for champion 3-year-old filly and two-time Saratoga Grade I winner Questing.

Duke of Love, a distant eighth in the Queen's Plate Aug. 21, took to the main track with aplomb, recording a hard-fought victory as the 5-2 second choice in Tuesday's Prince of Wales S. at Fort Erie, the second jewel of Canada's Triple Crown.
Placed in a tracking second behind favored Ironstone, a well-beaten fourth in the Queen's Plate, through fractions of :22.93 and :47.41, Duke of Love turned up the heat on the far turn, gained a narrow advantage leaving the quarter pole and splashed his way clear over the muddy, sealed track. The race was marred when Queen's Plate third Sir for Sure (Sligo Bay {Ire}) lost his rider while racing in traffic entering the backstretch.
Duke of Love made all seven of his previous career starts on synthetics or grass. Runner-up in Woodbine's GII Marine S. July 2, he was a troubled fourth in the Plate Trial S. July 24. His two prior scores, including an optional claiming victory while making his sophomore bow in May, were both over the Woodbine all-weather.

Duke of Love, the fifth stakes winner for Cupid, brought $85,000 from MyRacehorse after breezing in :10 2/5 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-olds in Training Sale. Tell the Duchess, also responsible for a Danish Dynaformer colt of 2021, was bred to Shaman Ghost for 2023.

MATTHEW KOCH NAMED KY FARM MANAGER OF THE YEAR
The Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Managers' Club (KTFMC) has chosen Shawhan Place's Matthew Koch as the 2022 Ted Bates Farm Manager of the Year. The honor is given annually to a farm manager “who has demonstrated quality and success in their management role; service to the community; involvement in the KTFMC; and industry leadership and dedication.”
“I am thrilled to hear Matthew has won this prestigious award,” said Teddy Kuster, co-owner of Shawhan Place and the 1986 KTFMC Farm Manager of the Year. “The club has meant a lot to Matt’s entire family and all of us at Shawhan Place. Matt is a wonderful individual who wears many hats. He’s a farm manager working in the trenches and has given back to his community by serving on several boards. He serves as State Representative for 72nd District (Bourbon, Nicholas, and Fleming County) and was instrumental in passing HHR for the industry... Even more important than raising horses, Matthew raises the next generation of young horsemen and women. He is a mentor to many and regularly hosts interns from both KEMI and the University of Kentucky.”

A graduate of both the University of Kentucky and the Kentucky Horseshoeing School, Koch is also a former United States Marine captain and served his country in Afghanistan and Kosovo. In 2006, Koch and Kuster formed Shawhan Place, which now breeds about 100 mares a year.

Among the boards Koch has served on are Kentucky Equine Management Internship (KEMI), the Consignors and Commercial Breeders Association (CBA), and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association (KTA). He has previously been the president, vice-president, director, and treasurer of the KTFMC.

Koch is a second-generation KTFMC Farm Manager of the Year, as his late father, Gus Koch, was awarded the title in 2004. The pair join B.G. Hughes and Scooter Hughes as the only father/son recipients of the award. Koch currently resides in Bourbon County with his wife, Kristen, and their three children Taylor, Jack, and Nate.

The KTFMC will be hosting its annual dinner dance to honor Koch at The Carrick House in Lexington Dec. 2. A silent auction will be held with all proceeds benefitting The Horse Farm Workers' Educational Assistance Fund. Tickets and sponsorships for the event will be available for purchase at ktfmc.org later this month.

"We have a wide variety of offerings, ranging from stakes horses, to recent winners, to unraced 2-year-olds with several recorded breezes. MOM’S COMMAND’S MGSW SON JONESBORO TO OLD FRIENDS

Jonesboro (Sefapiano--Mom’s Command, by Top Command) has been pensioned from stallion duties and retired to Old Friends near Georgetown, Ky. The hard-knocking millionaire, who won 10 black-type events, including the GII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker H. and three other graded stakes, has stood since 2011 at Lake Hamilton Equine in Royal, Ark. His nine small crops of racing age include three stakes winners.

Jonesboro is a son of Mom’s Command, the 1985 Eclipse champion 3-year-old filly whose five Grade I wins included the Filly Triple Crown. Bred by Peter Fuller, who campaigned Mom’s Command, Jonesboro raced for Michael Langford and trainer Randy Morse.

"Like most of us, Jonesboro owes a lot to his mother," said Old Friends President Michael Blowen. "Mom’s Command was owned by Peter Fuller, who also campaigned Dancer’s Image [Native Dancer]. Peter contributed $500 to Old Friends when we first started. And his daughter, Abby, who rode Mom, is a lifelong friend. Generosity and nepotism still matter."

The now 20-year-old stallion arrived at Old Friends Sept. 11.

HORSE RACING WOMEN’S SUMMIT LAUNCHES PAY IT FORWARD INITIATIVE

The Horse Racing Women’s Summit planning committee, recently featured in TDN, has initiated a Pay it Forward program. Companies and individuals are encouraged to sponsor tickets for others who would like to attend the event, which is scheduled for Sept. 28-30 at Santa Anita. Sponsors can either name who they would like to sponsor or put the ticket in a pool to be allocated by the committee.

“We are thrilled with the diversity of ticket sales so far; attendees include horsemen, racetrack executives, aftercare professionals, media representatives, lawyers, accountants, regulators, and more,” said committee chair Stephanie Hronis. “That being said, there is still room at the table. Our mission is to connect and empower women in racing and beyond. We can achieve this when companies and individuals sponsor tickets which will be instrumental in facilitating a long-term impact for those who would benefit from the Pay it Forward initiative.”
To participate, when clicking on the tickets tab at womeninracingsummit.com, simply fill out the information and select "Yes, please list this as a Pay it Forward Ticket." After completing the checkout process, you will be contacted by a member of the planning committee.

TAA SPONSORS HIGH POINT AWARD AT RRP THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER

The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) once again enters as a sponsor of the Retired Racehorse Project’s Thoroughbred Makeover. In conjunction with sponsoring the makeover, the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance High Point Award will continue to be offered to the highest-placed Thoroughbred adopted from or is owned by a TAA-accredited organization.

The showcase of recently retrained off-track Thoroughbreds will take place at the Kentucky Horse Park Oct. 12-15. Of the 377 horses entered across 10 divisions, 57 contestants are eligible to win the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance High Point Award, including a $1,000 cash prize split between the rider and the TAA-accredited organization from which the horse was adopted.

The TAA and RRP have intersecting missions to facilitate horses retiring from racing in finding suitable second careers upon the conclusion of their racing careers. Currently, the TAA has 82 accredited organizations across North America, of those, 19 TAA-accredited organization have ties to horses competing in the Thoroughbred Makeover.

"The success of the Retired Racehorse Project is another hallmark in the progression of Thoroughbred aftercare, and the TAA is proud to once again be a contributing sponsor to the Thoroughbred Makeover," said TAA Operations Consultant, Stacie Clark Rogers. "The makeover is a first step towards a fulfilling second or third career for many Thoroughbreds and highlights what we already know to be true--Thoroughbreds are a versatile and intelligent breed capable of much success on and off the track."

CHURCHILL DOWNS TO INSTALL PET SCAN AT ON-SITE EQUINE MEDICAL CENTER

Edited Press Release

A major technological medical advancement that can help detect and prevent equine medical injuries is coming to Churchill Downs Racetrack.

In conjunction with Hagyard Equine Medical Institute and the PetVet Care Centers network, Churchill Downs will soon install an equine PET scan machine at its Equine Medical Center in the Churchill Downs stable area that will help veterinarians and horsemen assess the racing soundness of Thoroughbred horses that compete at the historic Louisville racetrack.

A positron emission tomography (PET) scan is a diagnostic imaging test that can help identify abnormal metabolic activity in the bones of a racehorse's fetlock (ankle). Recent scientific studies have supported PET image findings as a highly effective diagnostic approach for identifying potential issues in the lower limbs of race horses.

The pairing of PET scans with other imaging methods will greatly advance the identification of at-risk horses. This will allow for early veterinary intervention to improve both the safety and welfare of race horses.

"We are beyond excited to be able to partner with Hagyard Equine Medical Institute, a world-class equine hospital in Lexington, Ky. to bring this ground-breaking diagnostic imaging to Churchill Downs," said Dr. William Farmer, Equine Medical Director for Churchill Downs Incorporated. "To be able to have this advanced level of diagnostics available on-site is a great step forward to improving the welfare and safety of our local horses."

Freedom Speaks was an impressive six-length victress when bet down to 13-10 favoritism on debut over the Gulfstream Tapeta May 12 and ran second with some early trouble in the Game Face S. on the main track there June 18 before switching from Ron Spatz to this barn and capturing a Saratoga allowance in her turf bow Aug. 19. Off as the distant second choice behind Poppy Flower (Lea) here, the gray tracked from fourth behind a :21.63 quarter, steadied off heels past a half in :44.67, drew alongside Happy Soul entering the final sixteenth and just wore that foe down in the closing strides to prevail.

“We bought her at OBS. She breezed :31 2/5 [for three furlongs], which was like the fastest work of any horse that ever breezed up there,” said co-owner Warren Miller. “Ron Spatz, accomplished horseman, prepped her and we sent her to Jeremiah [Englehart] up at Saratoga to get her out of South Florida for the summer.” Cont. p2

We were patient, and we spaced her races. I just can’t believe she won.”

ARROBATIC (f, 3, Arrogate—Mexican Gold {GSW & G1SP-Fr, GSP-USA, $234,810}, by Medaglia d’Oro) graduated at first asking over the Gulfstream main track Feb. 6, but backed up to finish 11th as the favorite in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 10 at Keeneland before running fifth behind next-out GIII Regret S. winner Walkathon (Twirling Candy) in her turf debut May 14 at Churchill. Rallying from well back to annex an allowance on the Ellis grass Aug. 6, the homebred was made the 7-2 second choice here and was urged along early before settling in eighth at the rail behind a :21.79 quarter. Stuck in traffic as the half went up in :45.30, the bay found daylight well out into the course outside the three-sixteenths pole and dove late on her left lead to just tag Madrilena (Arg) (Orpen) in the shadow of the wire for a neck score. The winner is the first foal out of her French GSW/G1SP dam, a half-sister to G1SW Announce (GB) (Selkirk). She has a juvenile full-brother named Montezuma, a yearling half-brother by Constitution and a weanling Street Sense half-brother. Mexican Gold returned to Constitution this spring. IN ORDER OF PURSE:
4th-Kentucky Downs, $157,000, Msw, 9-13, 3yo/up, 6 1/2fT, 1:16.70, fm, 3 lengths. SUTHERLAND (c, 3, Twirling Candy—Done in Love, by Smart Strike), eighth debuting on the Churchill dirt last September, ran third when switched to turf at Keeneland a month later before running a pair of close seconds sprinting on grass this summer at Horseshoe Indianapolis and Ellis. Sent off at 4-1 here, the homebred broke alertly and was part of an early four-way pace scum before backing out to draft behind the leader from fourth through a :21.74 quarter. Tipping into the clear at the top of the lane, Sutherland swept to the fore while drifting out around the sixteenth pole and leveled off from there to kick clear for a three-length success. Pace player Cynwyd (Speightstown) just held on for second. The winner is a half to High Crime (Violence), GSP, $238,557 and shares a female family with MGISW A. P. Indian (Indian Charlie). His dam is responsible for a yearling Dialed In filly. Lifetime Record: 5-1-2-1, $118,316. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Sabalenka narrowly prevails

SABALENKA (f, 2, Good Samaritan--Darling Daughter {GSP}, by Maria’s Mon) made a wide close to be second debuting over a Colonial turf mile Aug. 3 and was backed as the 5-2 favorite here. Settling in seventh off of a :22.69 quarter, the chestnut advanced into fourth while four deep past a half in :46.54, poked her head in front soon after straightening for home and just edged game firster Safeen (War Front) by a nose after the two battled tenaciously through the last furlong. Sabalenka, a half to Holiday Mischief (Into Mischief), SW, $382,975; and Big Bazinga (Bluegrass Cat), GSP, $284,681, is the seventh winner for her freshman sire (by Harlan’s Holiday). MOVISITOR (c, 2, Uncle Mo--Ristretto, by Medaglia d’Oro) showed late interest to be third after breaking slowly on debut going a sixteenth shorter here Aug. 23 and was given a 16-5 chance to go two better in this spot. Hopping a bit at the start, the homebred held a measured advantage through a :23.31 quarter, brushed aside a bid from Bello Creedo (Jimmy Creed) going by the half in :46.51 and widened down the lane for an impressive 11 1/2 length romp. The winner's dam has a yearling Practical Joke filly named Cool Tricks and foaled a West Coast filly named Miss Zelenskyy this term before being bred to Connect. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $11,400. A WONDERMENT OF GERMAN BLOODLINES THE DRAW FOR THAYER

By Emma Berry

Torquator Tasso, Danedream, Novellist, Star Appeal, Protectionist, Manduro, Shirocco, Lando, Almandin. All winners of some of the world’s best races and with one thing in common: they were made in Germany.

The strength and depth of German breeding will not have escaped the attention of those who pay close attention to the subject, and in fact, such is the regard in which German families are held that the country, with a diminishing pool of mares which is now well below 1,000, could be deemed to be at risk losing the goose that lays the golden eggs.

Hopefully, however, a younger wave of German breeders will be encouraged to continue this brand of excellence for which their forebears have become renowned, and ample encouragement for that can be drawn from the support which has been afforded the BBAG’s main yearling sale in recent years.

A little less than a fortnight ago, the most recent edition was topped by a Gestut Fahrhof-bred son of Kingman (GB), bought by American agent Jason Litt for LNJ Foxwoods, the racing name of the Roth family who employ a transatlantic approach to their racing and breeding interests. Cont. p3

LITTLE BIG BEAR TO MISS THE REST OF THE SEASON AFTER SETBACK

Group 1 winner and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) will be sidelined until the new year to give the colt “more time” to recover from a rear foot injury, according to trainer Aidan O’Brien. Just prior to his G1 Phoenix S. victory, the Coolmore partners’ runner had kicked a wall, driving the clip of his shoe into his hind foot.

“Everything is fine and we just wanted to leave him for this year,” O’Brien told Racing Post on Tuesday. “He’s perfect, there’s not a bother on him, we just didn’t want to be rushing him back. We had to give him plenty of time to get over it. We felt hurrying him for the [G1] Dewhurst S. [in October] wasn’t the right thing to do.

“Everything is perfect with him and we felt giving him more time was the right option.” Cont. p6

ARQANA REVEALS OCTOBER YEARLING CATALOGUE
The five-day Arqana October Yearling Sale catalogue was announced by the sales company on Tuesday.

SON OF LUCIDA TO DEBUT AT SANDOWN
Group winner Lucida (Ire) (Shamardal)’s Dubawi (Ire) colt Striking Star (GB) debuts at Sandown.

Also among the list of buyers that day was Stella Thayer, president and owner of Tampa Bay Downs racecourse in Florida, who has enjoyed some notable success as an owner and breeder in France.

"I'd lived in France as a student, so I always thought in the back of my mind that I'd come back and spend some time," says Thayer during her visit to Baden-Baden, having spent some of the summer in Chantilly and Deauville. "And then I thought, well, having racehorses would be quite special, since Chantilly is, to me, the most extraordinary garden for horses and people to exist. And so I bought horses."

With the help of German-born, French-based and multilingual bloodstock agent Tina Rau, Thayer set about assembling a small but select string in training with Nicolas Clement in Chantilly, and the project was rewarded with almost instantaneous success.

"It was extraordinary really, because Tina found me my first Grade I winner," says the 81-year-old. "It was kind of late in life, but better late than never."

The filly in question, Wonderment (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), won the 2018 G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud, and though she was bought in France, she owns a decidedly German pedigree. Her dam Wiwilia (GB) (Konigstiger {Ger}) is a half-sister to the dual German Group 3 winner Wake Forest (Ger) (Sir Percy {GB}), who later won the GI Man o’ War S. for Chad Brown, and they hail from the same black-type laden family as Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

Thayer continues, "So when you have that kind of success, it tends to whet your appetite. It’s certainly been a very wonderful friendship with Tina and Nicolas, and a great experience to be involved with that. To have a 2-year-old win over a mile and a quarter was pretty amazing. She came from dead last, so it was quite exciting." Cont. p4

With Wonderment now ensconced at Claiborne Farm, where she has a War Front filly and is back in foal to the stallion, Thayer currently has the homebred Group 3 and listed winner Control Tower (Fr) (Youmzain {Ire}) in training with Clement, among others. The winner of the Prix Belle de Nuit over 1m6f last October and subsequently fourth behind Alpinista (GB) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern, Control Tower is out of the Monsun (Ger) mare La Tour Rouge (GB), another of Rau’s shrewd purchases for Thayer, from Darley back in 2013 for just 5,000gns.

"I've really been interested in trying to secure that good, strong-bred stock," Thayer says. "It seems to be appreciated in the European process. I just hope enough of the German breeders keep their own lines as well, because I think it's very important for horses everywhere, that you have that sturdiness.

"I'm interested in the fact that the stamina lines and the hardiness is still here, especially in German bloodlines, and I think we shouldn't forget about that. I'm certainly no expert in breeding, but from a personal perspective I think that we could all, at least in the US, try to move a percentage of our races more towards the middle or long-distance again, which they once were, but they've become speed-dominated. And not to take away from speed, I mean, it's exciting, and you don't want to race a slow horse, but I just think from a balance perspective, and for the horse, its safety and development, as well as from a spectator's or bettor's perspective, it's good to have that variety."

Germany's celebrated late stallion Monsun has been of great appeal to Thayer as a broodmare sire influence, and with Arc winner Waldgeist (GB), Breeders' Cup winner Yibir (GB), and this season's star 3-year-old colt Vadeni (Fr) just some of the recent big names out of mares by Monsun, who could argue with this approach? The devotion to Monsun's line continued in the purchase of Wildwood (Fr), by his son Maxios (GB) and a winner at Chantilly earlier this year. Maxios pops up again as the broodmare sire of the latest BBAG yearling recruit, a daughter of Holy Roman Emperor (Ire), also selected by Rau.

As the offspring of Wonderment mature in the paddocks at Claiborne, their blend of dirt and turf bloodlines should afford them the potential to race on either side of the Atlantic: the perfect situation for a Francophile breeder with an American racecourse among her portfolio, as well as horses in training in her native country with Arnaud Delacour.

Tampa Bay Downs has been owned by Thayer in partnership with her brother Howell Ferguson since 1986. A lawyer by profession, her love of horses, and later racing, was kindled from a young age.

"I rode as a child, and as minors we weren't allowed to go to racetracks in Florida at the time," she recalls. "A friend of my father owned a local racetrack and so at the age of nine or 10, we would go and get on the top of a car, and watch the races. Later my husband and I lived on a breeding farm in New Jersey when we were first married. I think that planted the seed of gravitating my equestrian interest into racing."

Of her involvement with Tampa Bay Downs, she adds, "Just perchance, we had been investors, and then through a number of transactions, my brother and I ended up owning it from 1986 forward, so I was dedicating a big portion of my business life and my personal life to hearing about that track."

Much has changed in racing in the intervening years, not least the intense focus on welfare issues surrounding the worldwide thoroughbred population. Cont. p5

And in a move that should suit Thayer's avowed love of European bloodlines, the American turf racing programme has expanded notably.

"I think there are always the challenges," she says of running a racecourse. "But the fortunate thing for us is that we're small, and we have a very dedicated staff that really loves racing. Because we're in Florida, we have the weather, and we put in a wonderful turf course, and we care for that.

"I think that people who love racing really do appreciate turf racing when they see it. And the handicapping, I mean, just from a business perspective, the racetracks do about 30% more on a similar number, so if you have 10 horses in a similar race, you'll bet about 30% more on the turf race. And I do notice that there are more people trying to buy turf horses."

Thayer continues, "Most tracks have a turf course, it's just a matter of having a balanced programme. And since we race frequently, it makes it more difficult, whereas in Europe, they move around from course to course.

"So that's the challenge of expanding; we have a kind of limitation from nature. You can't tear over [the turf] too many times. We're very careful about that; we pride ourselves in trying to maintain the course, and not overuse it, so that's it's a safe surface, as safe as one can make it for horses. I've always felt the first dollars should be spent on making your track surfaces as good as you can."

With a summer European tour now under her belt, the indefatigable owner-breeder, whose various roles in American racing include being a vice president of the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame, as well as a previous stint as president of the Thoroughbred Racing Associations of North America (TRA), has her sights set on returning before too long.

"I hope to maybe come back for Arc weekend," says Thayer, who has Control Tower entered for the G1 Prix de Royallieu. "I think the international quality of racing is a wonderful attribute to those who love the sport. I'd like to go to almost every racetrack, but I never made that. I've been to quite a few, but I've missed a lot of them. It's a really shared passion, and I think you're immediately drawn positively to people who care about it in the same way."

Little Big Bear graduated at Naas at second asking in May, and then added the Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot. In the July 16 G3 Anglesey S. at the Curragh, he drew off by 4 3/4 lengths, and he won the Phoenix S. by seven lengths on Aug. 6. His setback forced him to miss last Sunday’s G1 National S.

ELDAR ELDAROV ‘IN GOOD FORM’, CHAMPIONS DAY OR PRIX ROYAL-OAK UNDER CONSIDERATION

Classic winner Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) has exited his G1 Cazoo St Leger victory on Sunday “in good form” according to trainer Roger Varian. The lightly raced KHK Racing Ltd. colourbearer could possibly reappear this season in the G2 Long Distance Cup at Ascot on QIPCO British Champions Day or in the Oct. 23 G1 Prix Royal-Oak at ParisLongchamp.

“He’s in good form, he’s come out of the race very well,” said Varian. “I wouldn’t rule it out [running again]. I have the option of running him again if I wanted to, he’s only raced four times this year and he had a nice break from the [G1] Grand Prix de Paris to the Leger.

“He’s only had five lifetime starts and he could run again and the two races to consider are the Long Distance Cup at Ascot or the Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp. They are not until October and are a week apart, so he’s got plenty of time and we’ve got plenty of time to make a decision.”

A winner of his first three starts at two and three, including the G2 Queen’s Vase at Royal Ascot in June, the ‘TDN Rising Star’ was fourth in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris to Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) on July 14, prior to his St Leger heroics.

Varian added, “There’s every chance and no reason to think he won’t [make into a cup horse]. His pedigree would suggest he will improve with age and he’s won twice now over a mile and three-quarters looking like he will be even better when he goes up to two miles.

“So we have to dream about him turning into a cup horse and see how things develop.”

{Ire}), who will sport HKH Racing’s G1 St Leger-winning colours, bumped into a good one when second on debut at Newmarket last month and faces a field of potential in a contest won in 2017 by subsequent G1 Coral-Eclipse third Regal Reality (GB) (Intello {Ger}) and in 2018 by subsequent G1 Criterium International hero Royal Meeting (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)). The €300,000 Arqana Breeze-Up acquisition is out of a half-sister to six stakes performers, most notably the Group 1-winning trio Awelmarduk (Ire) (Almutawakel {GB}), Jakkalberry (Ire) (Storming Home {GB}) and Crackerjack King (Ire) (Shamardal). Rivals include Ballylinch Stud’s homebred debutant Lord Of Biscay (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), a half-brother to dual G2 Huxley S. victor Forest Ranger (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), hailing from the St Leger-winning stable of Roger Varian. Sir Michael Stoute sends two up the A11, namely Nader King (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), who is a 340,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 full-brother to G3 Concorde S. winner Current Option (Ire), with Ryan Moore donning the G1 Derby-winning silks of Saeed Suhail; and Qatar Racing’s fellow newcomer Survival (GB) (Roaring Lion), who is out of a multiple-winning half-sister to G1 Irish Derby and G1 Secretariat S. hero Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

15.00 Sandown, Nov, £13,000, 2yo, 7fT
Godolphin’s homebred STRIKING STAR (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) is the second foal out of G2 Rockfel S. victrix Lucida (Ire) (Shamardal), who hit the board four times at the highest level, and makes his debut for Charlie Appleby in a heat won in 2019 by subsequent five-time Group 1 hero Palace Pier (GB) (Kingman {GB}). He is met by 11, including Juddmonte’s fellow newcomer Leadenhall (GB) (Kingman {GB}), who is a Ralph Becket-trained son of G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine and G1 Prix de l’Opera second Promising Lead (GB) (Danehill).

How They Fared

13.25 Punchestown, Mdn, €15,000, 2yo, f, 7fT
Coolmore and Westerberg’s Lambada (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a half-sister to G2 Rockfel S. winner and GI Belmont Oaks Invitational and G1 Matron S. placegetter Just Wonderful (Dansili {GB}), was bustled along before dropping out of touch and never made any further inroads on the pack, finishing an unpunished last of 14.

14.00 Punchestown, Mdn, €12,500, 2yo, 7f 200yT
Aidan O’Brien trainee Gulf Of Mexico (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a 1.1-million guineas Tattersalls October Book 1 son of the dual Group 1-placed Anthem Alexander (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) making his second start here, was outpaced and shuffled down the order after racing prominently into the straight and rallied gamely under urging in the closing stages to regain third on the line.
14.10 Great Yarmouth, Nov, £11,900, 2yo, 6f 3yT
Spartan Arrow (Ire) (Sioux Nation), a half-brother to last term’s GII Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint heroine Twilight Gleaming (Ire) (National Defense [GB]), went postward for this debut as a well-backed 9-2 chance. Off the pace towards the rear through halfway, the 380,000gns Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up graduate made some late headway—with tongue lolling—to finish seven lengths off the impressive winner in fifth.

18.00 Wolverhampton, Mdn, £6,800, 2yo, 8f 142y (AWT)
George Strawbridge’s homebred Fairbanks (GB) (Nathaniel [Ire]), an Andrew Balding-trained homebred son of G1 Fillies Mile, G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches and GI Just A Game S. placegetter Fantasia (GB) (Sadler’s Wells), was under pressure early and in rear for the most, making little impression and finishing 13 1/2 lengths off the winner in seventh.

Turning for home in third, the 1-5 lock went second with 300 metres remaining and stayed on strongly under mild coaxing to easily outpoint Midnight Fever (Ire) (Shalaa [Ire]) by two lengths. GOODIE TWO SHOES (IRE) (f, 3, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Fits Like A Glove {Ire}, by Galileo (Ire)), who graduated in her July 11 debut at Killarney last time, tracked the pace in a handy third for most of this one. Looming large on the bridle at the top of the straight, the 11-10 favourite moved into contention passing the furlong pole and quickened smartly for one flick of Leigh Roche's whip to oust market rival Basil Martini (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) by a nostril on the line. "She's a lovely filly, I thought plenty of her at home and I'm delighted," said trainer Michael O'Callaghan. "She's done everything right, she's a big filly and was the biggest in the [parade] ring by a long way. She hit the line strong and took plenty of pulling up. On her homework she's definitely a stakes filly and, fingers crossed, she'll keep on improving and will get a mile in time. Everything she does this year will be a bonus." Gozen is the fourth of five foals and third scorer from as many runners produced by a granddaughter of G1 Cheveley Park S. second Tanama (GB) (Green Desert), whose descendants also include dual Group-winning G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Tamazirte (Ire) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)). GOODIE TWO SHOES (IRE) (f, 3, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Fits Like A Glove {Ire}, by Galileo (Ire)), who graduated in her July 11 debut at Killarney last time, tracked the pace in a handy third for most of this one. Looming large on the bridle at the top of the straight, the 11-10 favourite inch ed ahead passing the furlong marker and was ridden out late to edge Monaasib (GB) (Bobby's Kitten) by a half-length. “She learned a little bit from Killarney and Declan [McDonogh] felt she rode a bit sharper today,” commented the owner's racing manager Frank Berry. “It was a good performance and she'll learn a bit again. The second [Monaasib] is not a bad horse and you'd be pleased with the way she picked up. We'll see what Joseph [O'Brien] wants to do with her, he had mentioned a race in France later on in the season, and take it from there.” Goodie Two Shoes is the second of three foals and lone performer produced by an unraced half-sister to multiple Group 1-winning sire Authorized (IRE) (Montjeu {Ire}). The April-foaled homebred bay is kin to a yearling filly by Camelot (GB). Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $18,130. O-John P McManus; B-Mrs Noreen McManus (IRE); T-Joseph O'Brien.

ROTHKO (IRE) (c, 2, Galileo Gold (GB)--Providence (Ire), by Acclamation (GB)) tracked the leaders in a handy sixth for most of this debut. Rowed along to close rounding the home turn, the 14-1 chance went third at the furlong marker and was ridden out to oust Intellotto (Ire) (Lope De Vega (Ire)) by a head in the final stride. “We got him from the same [Breeze-Up] sale as [earlier winner] Gozen,” said Michael O'Callaghan after registering a juvenile double. “He came out of Tally-Ho [Stud], a place we've found plenty of good horses before. He's a fine, big horse and has just improved all year. I thought it was a good maiden on paper beforehand and he saw the mile out well. He's got an entry in the [Oct. 22 G1] Futurity [Trophy], we do like him and think he'll improve plenty.” Cont. p12
