KEENELAND BOOK 2 STRONG TO THE FINISH WITH A PAIR OF $1-MILLION YEARLINGS

by Jessica Martini & Christie DeBernardis
LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland September Yearling Sale continued to churn out strong results straight through to the conclusion of its Book 2 section Thursday night in Lexington with an additional two yearlings selling for seven figures, led by a $1.7-million son of Quality Road, bringing the four-day total for the auction to 30 seven-figure yearlings. Fifteen reached that mark last year.

"It was an incredible week," said Keeneland's Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy. Over the two Book 2 sessions, Keeneland sold 449 horses in the ring for a gross of $123,330,000. The book average was $274,677—up 6% from the 2021 Book 2 average and the median of $225,000 was up 12.5% from a year ago. The Book 2 section produced the auction's highest-priced yearling in 2021 when a colt by City of Light sold for $1.7 million. The yearling was one of four million-dollar yearlings in the section. Eight reached that mark in the 2022 Book 2 section.

"This session last year was extremely strong and was up quite a bit from the previous year," Lacy said at the close of business Thursday. "So, the fact that we are just ticked up slightly over last year is really encouraging. I think it is holding steady." Cont. p3

CDI SIGNS AGREEMENT TO ACQUIRE ELLIS

Churchill Downs Incorporated announced that it has signed a definitive agreement to acquire Ellis Park Racing & Gaming in Henderson, Kentucky, from Enchantment Holdings, LLC, an affiliate of Laguna Development Corporation, for total consideration of $79 million in cash, subject to certain working capital and other purchase price adjustments. CDI will also assume Ellis Park's opportunity to construct a track extension facility in Owensboro, Kentucky.

"This is an exciting announcement for the horse racing industry, the cities of Henderson and Owensboro, and the entire Commonwealth of Kentucky," said Kentucky Governor Andy Beshear. "Churchill Downs has proven it has the experience, resources, and desire to reinvigorate Ellis Park into a premier racing destination and provide unmatched gaming entertainment." Cont. p15

SO CAL DATES SET FOR 2023

The California Horse Racing Board on Thursday approved a 2023 schedule for the Southern California circuit that largely mirrors this year’s version. Also floated was the idea for NorCal circuit during the Sep. 15 meeting to involve the Cal Expo state fair meet running either twilight or night programs next year.

Mike Maker wins his record seventh training title at Kentucky Downs while Tyler Gaffalione won his second championship at the track with nine wins from 66 starts.
Ninequistic!

9% Graded Stakes horses to starters. No stallion under $75k can match him. Just one of the Nyquist stats that makes his yearlings an absolute must-see. And a must-buy: September yearlings have sold for up to $550,000, with two making $475,000. Just imagine...
Lacy continued, “The clearance rate is ticked up a little bit as well, but again, it is probably a little higher than we'd like. We are up to 30 million-dollar plus yearlings over the four days and that is, in any metrics, really strong. That is a lot of different sellers, different breeders, large to small. I think the competitiveness among the buyers was really energetic. We were pleased overall. It is never perfect and we are trying to analyze carefully how it can be better going forward.”

Mike Repole, part of last year’s leading buyer partnership with Vinnie Viola’s St. Elias Stable, remained front and center in the pavilion through the first week of the auction. Repole and Viola were the leading buyers through four sessions of the 12-day sale with 30 yearlings purchased for $12.54 million. In his own name, Repole is the fourth-leading buyer with 23 head purchased for $6.765 million. And in total, Repole, with various partners and by himself, purchased 60 yearlings for a total of $23.49 million.

“Having Mike Repole and his team here in person has really given the sale a lift,” said Keeneland’s Director of Sales Operations Cormac Breathnach. “Todd Pletcher has been here and I think they have spent 90% of their time in their seats in the pavilion and buying so much quality. With Mick Wallace and Rory Babich working so hard on behalf of Vinnie Viola as well, both in partnership and individually, it is creating the energy around the sale we really strive for.”

The SF/Starlight/Madaket partnership was the second leading buyer through four sessions, with 15 yearlings purchased for $10.58 million. Don Adam’s Courtlandt was the third-leading buyer with 11 purchased for $8.235 million. Through four sessions, 898 yearlings have grossed $236,990,000. The average is up 9.59% to $354,245 and the median is up 10% to $275,000. The buy-back rate is 25.50%. It was 30.18% at this point a year ago. The strength of the market this week at Keeneland is no surprise to Chris Baker of Three Chimneys Farm, which sold Thursday’s second million-dollar yearling, a colt by Gun Runner, for $1.2 million.

“I’m not surprised because of the way [Fasig-Tipton] Saratoga was and the way things have been recently,” Baker said. “I anticipated it being very strong. There are a lot of good things happening. Even though racing is smaller and a little more concentrated, there are a handful of tracks that you can run a maiden for $100,000 and maybe win a race and pay your training bills for a year. There are just so many positives going on in racing in general and in Kentucky in particular. It’s an exciting time and the principals are excited and optimistic.”

The Keeneland September sale will have an off-day Friday and the action will resume with the first of two Book 3 sessions Saturday with bidding beginning at 10 a.m. The auction continues through Sept. 24.

Lanni Wins Out On Quality Road Colt

A colt by Quality Road (Hip 886) shook things up about halfway through Thursday’s session, igniting a spirited bidding war that came down to Mike Repole, bidding from the left side of the pavilion besides trainer Todd Pletcher, and Donato Lanni, who was bidding over the phone. Repole was in up until $1.65 million, but gave an emphatic ‘no’ after Lanni upped his bid to $1.7 million and the hammer fell. Lanni did not disclose his client when signing the ticket, but Amr Zedan’s Zedan Racing Stable announced on Twitter that the session topper had been purchased on Zedan’s behalf.

“Bob [Baffert] loved him,” Lanni said. “We all loved him. Everybody loved him it looks like. Everybody was waiting for him. All of the usual suspects were visible.”

Lanni continued, “He is a beautiful horse. He is just super athletic, a really laid back, good-looking Quality Road. He is made really well. He is the right kind.

Consigned by Nardelli Sales, Hip 886 was bred by Kim and Rodney Nardelli, William Werner and W.S. Farish. Werner purchased the colt’s dam Act Now (Street Sense) for $150,000 at the 2020 KEEJAN sale carrying a foal by Kitten’s Joy. The resulting foal brought just $70,000 last year. Hip 886 hails from the female family of MGSW & MGISP Fed Biz and GISW Joking.

“He’s a lovely horse we bred and raised,” said Rodney Nardelli. “He’s got everything. He’s beautiful, he’s correct, he vets. He’s been nice all his life. We’re appreciative of Keeneland’s format and the support of the buyers.”

Quality Road has had a sensational September Sale so far. He is responsible for the current $2.5-million topper and seven of his foals have brought seven figures through the first four days. The Lane’s End stalwart has had 29 yearlings sell so far for a total of $18.75 million and average of $646,552.

Late Fireworks for Gun Runner Colt

A colt by Gun Runner (hip 1086) set off late fireworks as the fourth session of the Keeneland September sale began to wind down Thursday night, ultimately selling for $1.2 million to bloodstock agent Mike Ryan. The yearling is out of Grade I winner Malibu Prayer (Malibu Moon) and was consigned by Four Star Sales, as agent for her breeder, Three Chimneys Farm.

“Obviously, he’s a Gun Runner,” Ryan, who did his bidding out back alongside trainer Chad Brown, said of the yearling’s appeal. “He reminded me quite a bit of Early Voting. He’s from one of Ned Evans’s best pedigrees. He was a big, impressive, imposing horse that moved like a cheetah. I said to Chad, ‘Can you imagine Flavien Prat or Irad Ortiz on his back right now?’ He was a magnificent horse with a lot of class and quality. He’s bred to get 1 1/8 miles, 1 1/4 miles.”

Early Voting (Gun Runner), a $200,000 Keeneland September yearling, won this year’s GI Preakness S. for Klaravich Stables and Brown.

“He’s been bought for a partnership—he’ll got to Chad and, hopefully, we can win a Preakness with him,” Ryan said of the yearling.

Three Chimneys Farm’s Chris Baker said the million-dollar sale exceeded expectations.

“It was outstanding,” Baker said of the result. “Gun Runner will do that for you. And the female family didn’t hurt any either.”

Baker, who served as racing manager to the late Ned Evans, is plenty familiar with the yearling’s female family.

Malibu Prayer sold for $2 million out of the Evans dispersal at the 2011 Keeneland November sale, a year after she had won the GI Ruffian Invitational S. The mare is a daughter of Grand Prayer (Grand Slam).

“I’m always partial to ones we bred and raised,” Baker said.

LANE'S END
“That's a family I've known generations back to when I was in Virginia. It's always hard to part with them. But the colt will have a great opportunity and we are excited to see what he does. We were well paid for our efforts.”

Three Chimneys stallion Gun Runner, who continues to produce on the racetrack, has been represented by five seven-figure yearlings during the first four days of the Keeneland September sale.

“I don’t remember a stallion like him,” Baker said. “I am a little close to the fire, so it’s easy for me to be biased. But it’s just remarkable what his offspring are doing on the racetrack and what he's doing at the sale with a wide variety of mares, physically and on pedigree. He just suits so many. It's great. We are just very fortunate to be a part of it.”

Asked what he is seeing in the young stallion's offspring, Baker said, “Mentally, it's the train ability and willingness. And physically, it's athleticism and movement and just how they carry themselves. To get the two of those together like he had, and he conveys to so much of his offspring, is why we are getting the exceptional results we are.” @JessMartiniTDN

Gun Runner Filly Continues Big Week for Stoneway

Jim Stone's Stoneway Farm, which had its first million-dollar sale during the first session of the Keeneland September sale, just missed having a second seven-figure yearling when a filly by Gun Runner (hip 833) sold for $925,000 Thursday in Lexington. Bloodstock agent David Ingordo, standing alongside CRK Stables' Lee Searing, made the winning bid on the filly who was consigned by Paramount Sales.

“I am pretty dang excited,” Stone's racing manager and partner Terri Burch said after watching the filly sell Thursday. “I am thrilled and over the moon.”

Hip 833 is a chestnut filly out of Stonetastic (Mizzen Mast), a mare purchased by the Stoneway team for $77,000 as a Keeneland September yearling in 2012 who went on to win the 2014 GII Prioress S. and 2016 GII Inside Information S.

“We were expecting about what she brought,” Burch said of the filly. “She was very popular here. We loved her and she looked so much like Gun Runner with the pretty head of Stonetastic.”

During Monday’s first session of the Keeneland sale, Stoneway sold a filly by Into Mischief for $1.25 million (hip 52) to Frank Fletcher. The yearling is out of Song of Spring (Spring at Last), who was purchased by Stoneway for $80,000 as a yearling at the 2015 Fasig-Tipton October sale. She won the 2018 GIII Allaire du Pont Distaff S.

“She looks so much like Malathaat,” Burch said of the yearling who is from the family of the GI Kentucky Oaks winner’s dam Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy). “I had the pleasure to see Malathaat over at Churchill. And that family sells really well. And again that was one that we would have raced, but again too expensive for our farm to leave that money on the table.”

“It is bittersweet,” Burch admitted of the decision to sell the prized fillies. “We love them. I am a horseperson and I see them born and I see them develop, but I also know that the farm has to have an income so that I can breed again to Into Mischief and Gun Runner. If I don’t sell, then we are not going to breed up there.”

Stoneway has about 20 broodmares and the group includes Stonetastic's unraced first foal Stonetonic (Candy Ride {Arg}).

“We actually have another daughter of Stonetastic who wasn't able to race and she is in the November sale and she looks dead on like Stonetastic,” Burch said. “She is a Candy Ride and is just gorgeous.”

Both Stoneway fillies were out of mares who were acquired inexpensively before going on to graded stakes-winning careers. Now the challenge for the team is to reinvest in fillies who will carry on that tradition.

“$77,000 and $80,000, you can’t do better than that,” Burch said of the two purchases.

Burch continued, “This is our best crop of babies from top to bottom that we have ever raised. We had a good July sale with the three horses that we sold there, as well.”

Later in Thursday’s session, Stoneway sold a Vino Rosso half-sister to multiple graded winner Ahh Chocolate (Candy Ride (Arg)) (hip 891) for $235,000 and a Liam’s Map half-brother to Instagrind (hip 902) for $200,000. @JessMartiniTDN

SF/Starlight/Madaket Still Going Strong

The powerhouse colt-buying partnership lead by SF, Starlight and Madaket Stables did not slow during Thursday’s session, buying a $700,000 Uncle Mo colt (Hip 832) early in the day. He was consigned by Taylor Made Sales.

“Uncle Mo is a proven stallion,” said SF’s Tom Ryan. “The colt is a beautiful horse out of a good racemare with a deep family. Donato [Lanni] and Bob [Baffert] really love this horse. We are happy to land him. He will make his way to Eddie Woods for the winter and hopefully find his way to California next spring.”

Breeder PTK purchased Hip 832’s dam Still There (Union Rags) for $160,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale in 2015. She went on to win a stake at Laurel and finish second in Saratoga’s GI Ballerina S. This is her first foal.

The SF, Starlight and Madaket-led group purchased X more colts Thursday, adding to the 14 they acquired during the first three sessions. --@CDeBernardisTDN

Hip 1033 sells for $570,000
at Keeneland September.
A pair of yearlings juvenile surpassed the seven-figure mark Thursday, equaling the amount seen in last year's fourth session and bringing the sale total to 30.

The million-dollar sellers Thursday were by Quality Road and Gun Runner, whose yearlings account for 12 of the 30 seven-figure sellers thus far.

Uncle Mo was the fourth session's leading sire by gross with 16 yearlings bringing $5.17 million with an average of $323,125.

Audible had the highest-priced yearling of his freshman class with a colt bringing $575,000.

Mike Repole remained active Thursday, buying an additional 18 head, bringing his current total for the first two books to 60 with various partners.

Through the first two books, 669 yearlings have changed hands for $236,990,000 with an average of $354,245 and median of $275,000. During the first four days last year, 620 head grossed $200,419,000 with an average of $323,256 and median of $250,000.

West Signs for New Partnership

Bloodstock agent Jacob West left his seat in the pavilion next to owner Mike Repole to head out back where he went to $600,000 to acquire a colt by Uncle Mo (hip 828) for $600,000 from the St George Sales consignment. The yearling, who is out of stakes-placed Spring Eclipse (Unbridled's Song) and is a half-brother to stakes winner Bet She Wins (First Samurai), was purchased for new clients.

“He’s for a new partnership, some new guys who are getting into the business,” West said. “And like everyone else in this game, they want to win the Kentucky Derby. We just figured a son of Uncle Mo, with his physique and pedigree, he might be a horse for the future. We will keep our fingers crossed.”

While declining to name the new clients, West said, “There are two guys from the East Coast and two guys from the West Coast, so it’s four guys all together. We’ve been trying to spot some horses and it’s been tough. They’ve actually gotten outbid on three or four other horses earlier in Book 1 and one earlier today. I think they are going to be guys that are going to stick around for a long time.” West said the colt could be trained by Todd Pletcher on the East Coast or Michael McCarthy if he heads west. @JessMartiniTDN

Rigney Secures Pair of Pricey Fillies

Richard Rigney’s Rigney Racing came to Keeneland looking for fillies that would one day join their broodmare band. With trainer Phil Bauer signing the tickets, the operation acquired a pair of pricey fillies during Book 2, going to $925,000 for a Twirling Candy filly (Hip 621) Wednesday and taking home a daughter of the late Arrogate Thursday (Hip 805) for $590,000.

Bred and consigned by Peter O’Callaghan’s Woods Edge Farm, Hip 621 is out of the Distorted Humor mare Double Sharp, who is a daughter of MGSW & MGISP Bsharpsonata (Pulpit).

“She was a standout for us,” said Bauer. “We stretched further than we anticipated, but we are thrilled we got her. Hopefully, we can get some black-type. Everything is geared towards the long term with the broodmare program. We will race them first and hopefully turn out some blue hen mares.”

Hip 805 was bred and consigned by the Bell family’s Mill Ridge Farm. They acquired her dam Scarlet Love (Not For Love), who hails from an accomplished Stonestreet family, for $130,000 in foal to Indian Charlie at the 2011 Keeneland November Sale. Already the dam of SP Cursor (Quality Road), Scarlet Love is a half-sister to Grade I winners Tara’s Tango (Unbridled's Song) and Visionaire (Grand Slam), as well as GSW & GISP Scarlet Strike (Smart Strike) and GSW Madison’s Luna (Tapit).

and hip 880 sold for $250,000.
“She’s got all the right parts,” said Bauer. “She has a nice physical. We know the family. We’ve had two out of the second dam, so we are really big fans. There is enough page there that she can be a nice broodmare for us and, hopefully, a nice racehorse before. She looks early. Hopefully, she will be a good one.”

“That was well beyond our hopes and dreams,” said Price Bell Jr., General Manager of Mill Ridge Farm “She was a very special filly and was a standout on the day. She is lovely. Some very good judges were all around her. The dam has one ovary. We bought her from our friends at Airdrie Stud and she has been really good to us. The buyers Richard Rigney and Phil Bauer bought a filly from us several years ago named Mariah’s Princess that turned out well. They are good people and take good care of their horses. When Arrogate went to $50,000 we felt like it was good value and the mare deserved a shot.”

Champion Arrogate passed away in 2021 after producing only three crops. A filly from his first crop, Secret Oath, took the GI Kentucky Oaks this year and he had a phenomenal weekend at Del Mar with And Tell Me Nolies winning the GI Del Mar Debutante Saturday and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Cave Rock capturing the GI Del Mar Futurity Sunday.

“It is a shame we lost him,” Bauer said. We have a nice 3-year-old filly by him, so we are a fan of the stallion.”

Arrogate had 22 yearlings sell during the first two books for a gross of $6.17 million and average of $280,455.

Ellis Park, located north of the Ohio River and just south of Evansville, Indiana, also features a gaming facility venue with approximately 300 historical racing machines.
“We are very enthused to welcome Ellis Park to the Churchill Downs racing family,” said Bill Carstanjen, Chief Executive Officer of CDI. “Our team is committed to building a summer meet at the ‘Pea Patch’ that keeps more Kentucky-bred horses and Kentucky-based trainers in their home state while attracting top horse racing talent from across the country to the Bluegrass State each July and August.”

The closing of the transaction is contingent upon approval by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission. If change of control is approved, the parties expect to close the transaction shortly thereafter.

CDI has commenced planning to make both critical investments in the Ellis Park racing infrastructure and to construct Owensboro Racing & Gaming, a track extension and entertainment venue at Owensboro’s Towne Square Mall that will feature 600 HRMs, a simulcast wagering center, and multiple food and beverage offerings. Over the next year, CDI expects its total investment in Henderson and Daviess Counties to be approximately $75 million in addition to the purchase price.

“The opportunity to bring Churchill Downs to Owensboro is particularly significant to us,” said Jason Sauer, Senior Vice President of Corporate Development for CDI, “We are eager to start the work to elevate Ellis Park’s reputation as a summer destination for Thoroughbred racing while delivering a premier gaming and entertainment experience to Daviess County. We look forward to sharing more exciting details about our plans in the coming days.”

FLIGHTLINE TOPS IN THE WORLD

Based on his devastating, 19 1/4-length victory in the GI TVG Pacific Classic at Del Mar Sept. 3, Flightline (Tapit) has assumed the mantle of highest-rated horse in the world according to the latest edition of the Longines World’s Best Racehorse Rankings (WBRR), which were published Thursday.
The 4-year-old ‘TDN Rising Star’ has been given a rating of 139 for his smashing success in his first start at 10 furlongs and was improving by 12 points, having been rated on 127 following a similarly impressive victory in the GI Hill ‘n’ Dale Metropolitan H. in his previous trip to the races. His rating is the highest to ever be awarded to a dirt horse, surpassing the 136 achieved by Cigar during his historic run in 1996. The ranking is just one pound inferior to the benchmark 140 assigned to Frankel (GB) under the current system. Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars [Ire]) now sits on 135 following his own eye-catching victory in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York, where he had the outstanding Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe [GB], 122) some 6 1/2 lengths back in second. The 4-year-old is a perfect 10-for-10 in his career and is now scheduled to make his final start in the G1 QIPCO British Champion S. at Ascot next month after being initially considered for the G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe.
Baaed’s own rating is the highest given on turf since Frankel’s 140 and is one below his sire’s best mark, given in 2009.
Newcomers to the list include Epicenter (Not This Time), who has been rated on 125 following his convincing victory in the G1
Runhappy Travers S. His fellow 3-year-old Luxembourg (Ire)
(Camelot [GB]) is new to the list on 122 off his scintillating defeat of Onesto (Ire) (Frankel [GB], 121) and Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill [Ire]) in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown last weekend. On the strength of his victory in the G1 Betfair Sprint Cup, Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas [Ire]) has achieved a ranking of 121.
The next edition of the Longines WBRR will be released Oct. 13.
Again and again.
Producing the winners of over 100 graded stakes, our elite broodmare band continues to extend its legacy on racetracks around the globe.

SOCAL DATES SET; CAL EXPO COULD RACE NIGHTS IN ’23 by T.D. Thornton

The California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) on Thursday approved a 2023 schedule for the Southern California circuit that largely mirrors this year’s version.

A final vote on the Northern California schedule was put off until the CHRB’s October meeting.

But one new idea floated for the NorCal circuit during the Sep. 15 meeting could involve the Cal Expo state fair meet running either twilight or night programs next year.

Concerns over dangerously high temperatures during July, when Cal Expo is expected to receive its three-week block of dates, were cited by CHRB vice chair Oscar Gonzales as a reason for moving away from afternoon first posts.

The Sacramento track is already equipped with lights for the harness meet that it conducts in other parts of the year.

“We are prepared to help the industry, as we have in the past,” said Rick Pickering, the chief executive officer and general manager for the California Exposition and State Fair, adding that Thursday was the first time any NorCal stakeholders or CHRB members have approached him about running under the lights.

“The top priority for us is the safety of the people, the jockeys, the racing individuals, and the safety of the horses. If that’s what it takes to have the best possible safe meet, let’s take a look at that and see what it takes to make it actually happen," Pickering said.

Pickering said that there are no evening concerts that use the horse racing grandstand during the fair, and although fireworks shows are sometimes scheduled, they begin at 10 p.m., presumably after racing would be finished for the night.

"Heat is something we’re paying attention to. And if that’s what we need to do to keep the animals and the people safe, your state fair wants to be cutting edge. We don't want to be, 'We thought about it after the fact.'"

The CHRB annually awards its race dates weekly blocks that determine simulcasting privileges. An issue that arose Thursday was which SoCal track would get those privileges during the non-racing cushion week between the county fair meet at Los Alamitos and Del Mar.

Recently, Del Mar has been awarded the simulcasting designation for that time slot, and it will again retain that week in ’23.

But the board did include language in its approved motion that could shift one week of simulcasting privileges to Los Alamitos in 2024. It wouldn’t necessarily have to be a July week and could come elsewhere in the calendar year, the CHRB discussed.

Gonzales altered his motion to approve ’23 SoCal race dates so it stated, "with an amendment that in 2024 the intent of the board will be to award a dark week with that revenue stream to Los Alamitos."

The vote on the SoCal dates was 6-1, with commissioner Wendy Mitchell opposing.

Prior to the vote, Mitchell had expressed concerns about making guarantees to license applicants about what the board might vote on for 2024.

"I would like us to look at the two-year calendar versus kind of just doing this ad hoc when [track applicants] pitch a hissy fit,” Mitchell said.

So the ’23 SoCal schedule will be as follows (again, with dates allocations in blocks, and actual race dates to be approved by the CHRB just prior to each meet):

- Santa Anita - Dec. 21, 2022 to June 20, 2023
- Los Alamitos (LA County Fair) - June 21 to July 11
  - Del Mar - July 12 to Sept. 12
  - Los Alamitos - Sept. 13 to 26
- Santa Anita - Sept. 27 to Nov. 7
  - Del Mar - Nov. 8 to Dec. 5
  - Los Alamitos - Dec. 6 to 19

RECORD $80M BET ON '22 KY DOWNS MEET

Campanelle eking out a win in the $1-million Mint Ladies’ Sprint

The FanDuel Meet at Kentucky Downs concluded Wednesday with record wagering topping $80 million for the seven-day run. Purses again set a record, reaching almost $18 million paid out to horse owners.

With $12,896,355 bet on Wednesday’s closing card, total wagering on the meet reached $80,175,928, clipping Kentucky Downs’ previous record of $74,088,532 over six days last year for an increase of 8 percent. A record $21,065,982 was bet on Saturday Sept. 10. The average field size was 10.61 horses, the highest since 2019.

The record wagering comes in spite of adverse weather on both weekends during the meet that began Thursday Sept. 1. The last four races on Saturday Sept. 3 had to be rescheduled. Both Sundays were significantly impacted, with the entire Sept. 4 card transferred to Monday Sept. 5 and the last nine of 11 races carded for Sept. 11 moved to Tuesday, Sept. 13.

“It was a fantastic meet, with world-class racing despite the challenges,” said Ted Nicholson, Kentucky Downs’ Vice President for Racing. “Every weekend we ran, we were meteorologists. Losing both Sundays and having to shift one card to a Tuesday is not ideal. It was a testament to track superintendent Butch Lehr and the track crew how well the course held together. For us, along with our horsemen and horseplayers, to persevere and get to $80 million is huge.”

Participation was broad-based: An even 100 trainers ran at least one horse, with Mike Maker leading the way with 66 starts - more than double No. 2 Steve Asmussen’s 32. Ninety-eight unique owners or ownership groups participated, highlighted by Three Diamonds Farms’ 21 starters. Sixty-two jockeys rode at least one race, led by meet-leader Tyler Gaffalione (nine wins) riding 66 of 73 races.

MAKER TAKES SEVENTH KENTUCKY DOWNS TRAINING TITLE; GAFFALIONE WINS RIDING CROWN

Mike Maker, who has made it a habit of winning the training title at Kentucky Downs, did it again this meet, continuing his dominance with his record seventh training title at the seven-day boutique meet. Tyler Gaffalione held on to win the riding title. The 28-year-old jockey won his second championship at the track with nine wins from 66 starts. He also had 17 seconds (seven of them in the last two days of the meet) and three third-place finishes.

Maker won 12 races, a meet record. The old record of 10 wins, set by Wayne Catalano in 2013, was broken when Maker won his 11th race on Sunday. Then he broke his own record on Wednesday when Intrigue (Into Mischief) won the closing-day opener.

“That’s a good thing, it doesn’t happen very often,” Maker, a man of few words, said with a smile. “All kidding aside, it has been a fabulous meet. The way I look at it, Kentucky Downs has been about 10% of my business the last, seven, eight years. Cram that 10% into five days for years, that is pretty remarkable.”

Four of Gaffalone’s wins came on horses trained by Maker. He gave credit to his agent, Matt Muzikar, for getting him on the right horses.

“I am very proud of this accomplishment,” he said. “A lot of the credit goes to the horsemen bringing their horses over here ready to run. The horses really showed up, big time. It’s such a tough meet and you had to have everything go your way.”

ED BROWN SOCIETY AWARDED $50K

Edited Press Release

The Lexington Black Prosperity Initiative (LBPI) and the Blue Grass Community Foundation (BGCF) have announced an award of $50,000 to further the mission of the Ed Brown Society. The award consists of pooled funding from LBPI, BGCF and the Walton Family Foundation, through the Better Together Grants program. The Ed Brown Society (EBS) will use these funds to provide scholarships and professional development opportunities to students of color pursuing professional careers within the equine industry.

EBS Chairman Greg Harbut said, “We’re excited about what this award will mean to the development of the next group of Ed Brown Scholars that we will be announcing soon. The highest level of commitment an entity can show to the work of the Ed Brown Society is demonstrated by becoming an Ed Brown Partner. 1/ST and Churchill Downs have each made that commitment. Yet, today is a milestone moment because, with this tremendous gift, the Lexington Black Prosperity Initiative and the Blue Grass Community Foundation have earned the distinction of the Ed Brown Partnership designation. We are delighted to now have an Ed Brown Partner at home, in Lexington—The Horse Capital of the World.”

6th-Churchill Downs, $123,615, Alw (NW2L)/Opt. Clm(;100,000), 9-15, 2yo, f, 7f, 1:24.85, ft, 5 lengths.

T MAX (f, 2, Connect--Pleasant Drive, by Strong Mandate) was an impressive 5 3/4-length gate-to-wire winner at first asking in restricted company at Ellis Park Aug. 21. Given a 4-1 shot in her first try against winners, T Max again set the pace, leading through moderate fractions. Allowed to run loose, she continued to draw away, was well clear at the top of the lane and cruised home under a stout hand ride to cross the line five lengths clear. From the female family of GI Hill ’N’ Dale Metropolitan H. winner Silver State (Hard Spun), T Max has a yearling half-sister Loveland (Munnings), who brought $370,000 at this year’s Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. She also has a weanling half-brother by Munnings. Pleasant Drive was bred to Tiz the Law for the 2023 season. Sales History: $22,000 RNA Wlg ’20 KEENOV; $10,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $92,760. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Making her U.S. debut off the bench with first-time Lasix here, the 7-2 chance tracked the early leaders in a three-wide joint fourth and came rolling down the stretch on her left lead to win going away. It was three lengths back to Powder River (Mineshaft) in second. Lifetime Record: SW & MG1SP-Chi, 14-6-3-2, $144,717. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. SHUTTERS (g, 4, Get Stormy--Scarlett Madeleine, by Smart Strike) broke his maiden at second asking last October and returned nine months later to add another win against allowance company last time out at Saratoga July 16. Given a 3-1 chance here, Shutters was the last away and raced at the rear of the field, saving ground against the rail before making a two-wide bid at the quarter pole. Steadily gaining inside the final furlong, he outfinished Grape Nuts Warrior (Vancouver {Aus}) to win by a half-length. TRUANCY (f, 3, Run Away and Hide--Successfully Sweet (SW, $104,650), by Successful Appeal) came up 3 3/4 lengths short on debut at Belmont June 16, but responded with a gate-to-wire win next time out upstate at the Spa July 31. In a similar spot with an extra furlong to run Thursday, Truancy, the 3-5 chalk, raced closest to pacesetter Forty Smooth (Upstart) through a half-mile before taking command around the far turn. Tucked inside down the lane, she pulled away late to win by three lengths over Sweet Mystery (Cupid). Successfully Sweet, already responsible for Confrontation (War Pass), GSW-UAE, MGSP-USA, $558,875, has not produced a foal since Truancy. Overlooked at 46-1 here, he battled between rivals in fifth and was under a ride a long way from the wire, in chase mode around the turn in pursuit of Summonyourcourage (Practical Joke). Angled outside of the leading pair at the top of the lane, Traffic Master challenged with a furlong to run, engaged Summonyourcourage and just prevailed by a nose. The winner's only younger sibling is a weanling half-sister by Lookin At Lucky. Roadbug was bred to Knicks Go for the 2023 season. Sales History: $37,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP; $200,000 2yo '22 OBSAPR. JESTER'S SONG (g, 3, Maclean's Music--Queen Victoria, by Flatter) broke his maiden in his fifth career start, having posted three previous on-the-board finishes since debuting with a second-place finish Jan. 13 at Aqueduct. Second last time out in the mud at Belmont June 2, the 2-1 second choice showed good early speed to press the early pace before settling off a dueling pair into the far turn. Under a ride past the quarter pole, he made a four-wide bid at the top of the stretch to stick his head in front with a furlong to run. With no serious challenge down the lane, Jester's Song cleared late to win by two lengths over favored Lupo's Legacy (Verrazano). Queen Victoria is responsible for an unraced 2-year-old filly Queen's Masterpiece (Munnings), a yearling colt Palace Boss (Laoban), and a weanling filly Crimson Queen (Vino Rosso). She was bred back to the latter son of Curlin for 2023. Lifetime Record: 5-1-2-1, $100,650. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

COLLABORATION (f, 2, English Channel--Parc Monceau (SP, $247,980), by Giant's Causeway) showed good speed at first asking but couldn't hang on, checking in third over this same route of ground in state-bred company at Saratoga Aug. 3. Taken back off the pace this time, she raced in the back half of the field around the first turn and kept to the rail down the back straightaway as she moved up from ninth to sixth. Asked for her run into the lane, Collaboration responded with a four-wide rally to reel in favored Smokie Eyes (Nyquist) by a neck at odds of 7-2. Out of a half-sister to GSW & GISP Genre (Bernardini) and from the family of MGISW Palace (City Zip), Collaboration has a yearling half-sister by Noble Mission (GB) and a weanling half-brother by Outwork. Her dam was bred to Twirling Candy for a 2023 foal. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $61,060. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

CRYPTO MAMA (f, 2, Cloud Computing--Silly Little Mama {MSW, $149,823}, by Old Topper), on the board on two occasions already while sprinting at both Monmouth July 24 and Saratoga Aug. 17, picked up an extra furlong and returned to the track Thursday at 3-1. Away without issue from the inside gate, she eased her way to the front to set an unhurried pace. Kept just off the rail, Crypto Mama held her advantage over a challenging Unifying (Union Rags), and, despite drifting both towards and away from the fence in the final eighth, prevailed to post a 1 1/2-length win. The seventh winner for her freshman sire (by Maclean's Music), Crypto Mama has a yearling half-sister by Coal Front still to race behind her. 'I RUN A VERY TIGHT SHIP' - JOHNSON HOUGHTON ON HER TERRIFIC SEASON

By her own admission, Eve Johnson Houghton does not have unlimited resources to tap into at the yearling sales, which makes her successes in recent seasons all the more impressive.

The trainer sent out 10,000gns purchase Chipotle (GB) (Havana Gold {Ire}) to win the Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot last season and, proving that result was no fluke, bagged the lucrative Tattersalls-sponsored sales race at the Curragh on Sunday with another cheaply-bought son of Havana Gold, the unbeaten Streets Of Gold (Ire).

With the help of Anthony Bromley of Highflyer Bloodstock, Johnson has unearthed some serious value from the yearling sales in recent seasons, with the £27,000 purchase Streets Of Gold the latest example of that.

Along with revealing her approach to the yearling sales, Johnson Houghton provides an insight into what it takes to run a busy racing yard and how she continues to find her way into the winner’s enclosure despite operating to a strict budget in this week’s Q&A.

SAFFRON BEACH TO BE OFFERED AT TATTERSALLS

Dual Group 1 winner Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) is to be offered at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale which takes place from November 28 to December 1.

Trained by Jane Chapple-Hyam to win the Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket last season, Saffron Beach doubled her Group 1 tally when landing the Prix Rothschild at Deauville this year and she will highlight the new Sceptre Session at Tattersalls on Tuesday, November 29.

Saffron Beach was bought from Ballylinch Stud at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale by Norris/Huntingdon and has won five Group races in 12 career starts for owners Lucy Sangster, James Wigan and Ollie Sangster.

She will be consigned at the sale by her trainer, who commented, “Saffron Beach is a very special filly. Gorgeous and supremely talented, she is also unbelievably brave and consistent. Fillies like her do not come around very often.”

Saffron Beach is the second foal out of the winning Raven’s Pass mare Falling Petals, who is also the dam of winning 3-year-old Eshkaal and has a yearling brother and foal sister to Chapple-Hyam’s dual Group 1 winner on the ground. Cont. p7

HIGHBANK CENTRE STAGE AT NEWBURY

Highbank (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) was named a 'Rising Star' when unveiled at Newmarket in July and takes on winners Friday at Newbury.
Eve Johnson Houghton: I do the sales with Anthony Bromley. My father goes through the pedigrees as well. We look at most of the horses at the sales and there are a few things we don't like. For example, I don't like a mare who has never produced anything, however good-looking the horse is. I don't mind an unraced mare or even a first foal. It has got to be a good physical and I don't mind buying yearlings by what the market perceives to be an out of fashion stallion. As long as the stats are okay on the stallion, I don't mind that. Anthony looks at all the horses and he comes up with a shortlist. He now knows what I don't like—it has taken us a few years to figure out what we like and what we don't like. I'll look at the horses on the list and we'll go from there.

BS: There would have been plenty of people describing Havana Gold as being out of fashion but along came Chipotle and Streets Of Gold.

EJH: They don't tend to be very big, which is why they don't make a lot of money, but that doesn't bother me. They are big enough if they are good enough—as long as they have plenty of bone and something about them.

BS: I know that you said that you place a lot of emphasis on a yearling's walk before. Would that be as important when you are looking at those early sprinting types?

EJH: Oh, yes, because they need to be able to use themselves. It's very important. If they can't use themselves in a walk, they are not going to be able to use themselves when they are galloping.

BS: And what was it that you liked about Streets Of Gold at the sales?

EJH: He was just a very nice horse. Looking back at my catalogue, I said, 'very bonny, looks like Chipotle and a good-walker.' He had open knees, but they were always going to close.

BS: Temperament-wise, he seems to be almost horizontal he's so laid back.

EJH: All he does is eat and sleep. He shows us nothing at home. I think the travelling took a bit out of him, to be honest, although it is hard to tell, because all he does is sleep and eat; although he is sleeping more than normal. He hasn't been ridden since the Curragh but we'll get him ridden out tomorrow [Friday] and see how he is.
BS: He's earned a supplementation into a good 2-year-old race. Have you anything in mind?

EJH: There are loads of options. We'll have to have a talk about it but we don't know yet.

BS: You have enjoyed success on Irish Champions Weekend before when Ice Age (Ire) (Frozen Power {Ire}) landed the Bold Lad but how much of a kick did Sunday's win give you?

EJH: Brilliant. It was great. It's good to have a plan but even better when it pays off.

BS: Nobody could accuse you of not placing your horses well. The stats would back that up as you're on course for another good season with 38 winners on the board.

EJH: We try. I don't have the best bred horses and I don't have the most expensive horses. Unfortunately, my owners--wonderful as they are--don't have deep pockets. But, I try to do the best I can with every horse that's sent to me. It's important to me that I put them in the race where they have the best possible chance of success.

BS: By your own admission, you are operating on a budget at the sales but you have continued to come up trumps.

EJH: Going back to buying them, Anthony and I work well together. It's a big team effort in buying the horses and then it's a big team effort in getting them ready for the races here. I've got great staff who back me up and we have long conversations about where we are going and what we are doing. Ultimately, it's down to me.

BS: The 2-year-olds have made up 14 of your winners this season. I'm presuming that a lot of those would have been bought on spec as yearlings.

EJH: That's why I am operating on a limited budget, because I don't buy anything that I can't pay for if I can't get it sold. I couldn't go out and buy a 200 grand horse without an owner backing me to do that. I know, pretty much, which owners of mine are going to come back in for another go every season and what horses will suit them. But I don't tend to get big orders before the sales so, when I am buying one, it tends to be a bit hit and hope with regards to getting them sold. To be fair, we have a yearling parade every year and we tend to get everything sold by then. Cont. p5
BS: Are there sleepless nights?

EJH: Of course there are. I hate being in debt. I am the type of person who hates owing anyone anything. Of course there’s sleepless nights. Have we bought the right horses? Are we doing the right thing? It’s a big business to run, let alone going out and spending your own money to buy them.

BS: On the track, things are going great, but off it, how is the financial landscape looking for trainers in Britain in the face of rising costs?

EJH: I run a very tight ship. Always have done. We have very tight margins but you have to run it as a business. A lot of the problem is that some trainers don’t run it as a business. Not only do we have to source the horses, train them and find the right races, but we also have to run a business. There are only so many hours in the day and one of the balls can get dropped somewhere along the line. If you don’t have a business, you can’t train a horse. I was very lucky that I did a business course before ever starting in the training ranks. I also worked in a trainer’s office. I know what I am looking for and know how to do it. I keep a very strong eye on what goes in and out of my bank account.

BS: And I am sure there is a temptation to stick your neck out and stretch the budget when you really like one at the sales?

EJH: You need restraint but, occasionally, there are times when you say, 'I'm not going home without that one.' Also, there are times when I say to Anthony, 'if you have another bid, that's your horse.' It's about knowing what to stick your neck out for and what not to. Cont. p6

BS: What would your average spend be at the sales?

EJH: I would suppose it would be 20 or 30 thousand. The most expensive horse I have bought on spec cost me £45,000.

BS: Chipotle for £10,000 and Streets Of Gold for £27,000 are huge results and prove that it can be done on a budget.

EJH: I am quietly proud of myself that I do run a tight ship and that we do seek out the odd diamond in the rough. There are some that don’t make the grade and, as I say to my owners, ‘you have to kiss a lot of frogs before you find your prince.’ You can think that you will always buy a nice horse because there will be some bad ones along the way. You have to be realistic.

BS: With regards selling them, I am sure there is a commercial element to your operation, as Chipotle was sold at the end of his 2-year-old campaign for 210,000.

EJH: Well that was different. When Covid hit and I thought that I wasn’t going to get any orders, I set up a syndicate specifically for 2-year-olds, all of which would be sold at the end of the season. So, I was going to buy three 2-year-olds, all for not a lot of money, with 20 people in at 5% each for an all-in fee. The theory was that we might get one half-decent horse, one who was absolutely useless and one who might go lame on us. Chipotle happened to be better than half-decent but one got a fracture and the other was no good. That’s how it worked. We went in again this year and two have worked out all right, they’ve won their races without being superstars, and the other is not very fast and is now playing Polo. If you spread your risk, and one comes along, it might carry the whole thing and people can then go in again the following year.

BS: Have you already begun your study for next week’s September Yearling Sale at Tattersalls?

EJH: As I said, my Dad goes through the pedigrees and highlights things that he likes. Anthony and I will go through it independently and then we’ll go and look at the physicals. There will be certain horses that we won’t bother looking at but, once we’ve found the physicals, we’ll look at the pedigree in more detail and decide what it’s worth to us.

BS: And you were active at the Somerville. A lot of people have reported the market to be really strong but you are managing to get things bought?

EJH: It’s pretty strong. I got two that I really wanted and the others I liked. I put a price on them and they came within that price range so I bought them.

BS: We’re obviously going through a period of inflation but, by all accounts, you will continue to operate within the budgets you set yourself.

EJH: Until I have an owner come to me and say they want a horse for x amount of money, I can’t afford to spend more than what I am spending on the horses I am buying on spec. I won’t be drawn into debt.

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, “The wide margins of both her Group 1 wins are testament to Saffron Beach’s exceptional ability, and she has been an outstanding race filly for Jane Chapple-Hyam and her owners.

“It is an honour and a pleasure to be asked to offer a filly of her calibre at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale and there is absolutely no doubt that she will be one of the highlights of the new Sceptre Sessions.”

HI ROYAL NEW RISING STAR AT AYR
by Tom Frary

There was much promise in the debut effort of Jaber Abdullah’s Hi Royal (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)--Majestic Roi, by Street Cry (Ire)) when third in York’s competitive Convivial Maiden Aug. 19, and the homebred duly took another impressive step forward in Friday’s Phoenix Wealth Solutions EBF Novice S. at Ayr to earn ‘TDN Rising Star’ status.

Upped to a mile having finished close behind Godolphin’s Desert Order (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) and the day’s Yarmouth scorer Glenfinnan (Ire) (Harry Angel (Ire)) when trading at 50-1 at the Ebor Festival, the son of the owner-breeder’s G1 Sun Chariot S. and G3 Fred Darling S. winner was placed towards the fore from the outset by Kevin Stott. In front three out, the Kevin Ryan-trained bay stayed on powerfully to justify even-money favouritism by 2 1/2 lengths from the Hugo Palmer-trained newcomer Power Of Gold (GB) (Golden Horn (GB)), with a head back to the Richard Fahey runner Reidh (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)) in third.

“He’s a lovely horse who we’ve always liked,” His trainer commented. “I think he’s a horse for next year--Stotty said there wasn’t even hitting top gear and he couldn’t pull him up, so I could possibly see him staying 10 furlongs next year. He has a great mind and temperament and is a very easy horse to deal with. He’s a big horse and we’re really looking forward to him in the future.”

The winner, who is the fifth ‘TDN Rising Star’ for his sire, is currently the last known foal out of the dam whose best progeny to date is the triple Group 3 scorer and G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas)-placed Noor Al Hawa (Fr) (Makfi (GB)), who was the Qatar Derby hero in a country where he excelled. Also responsible for the German listed-placed Majestic Jasmine (Ire) (New Approach (Ire)), she is a half to three stakes performers headed by the group 3 winner Black Spirit (Black Minnaloushe) from the dynasty of the Canadian champions L’Enjouleur, La Voyageuse and Medaille d’Or.

Needing all of the trip to get to Beyond Reproach (Ire) (Dandy Man (Ire)), the 11-10 favourite got there near the line to prevail by a head. “We thought he’d be a back-end type in the spring, but he caught up so quickly and is a beautiful horse,” trainer Kevin Ryan said. “He’s a bit of a baby still and it’s all about next year—that trip suits him and that will be it for this year. Tackled by Pinafore (Ire) (Dark Angel (Ire)) after taking over with two furlongs remaining, the 5-4 favourite asserted to beat rival by two lengths as they pulled clear. “She over-raced when there was no pace last time,” jockey Robert Havlin said. “She’s got natural pace and for the first half of the race she thought she was a sprinter and in the second half she shaped more like a seven-furlong filly. She’ll grow up and learn from that and is a nice filly for next year, as she has a lovely big frame to fill. She’s good and honest and I felt I was pulling away again in the final furlong.” The speedy and precocious dam, who was second in the Listed Prix des Reves d’Or and whose son of Kingman (GB) is catalogued in the forthcoming Arqana December Breeding Stock Sale, has already produced two black-type performers in the G3 Prix Sige winner Fas (Ire) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)) and the G3 Prix Bertrand de Tarragon and Listed UAE 1000 Guineas winner Silva (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)). Always comfortable there, the 80-1 shot saw off Nammous (GB) (Territories (Ire)) to prevail by half a length. “That was very impressive and he’s a gorgeous horse,” Kate Harrington said. “He only came to us in June and has always done everything so easy. Obviously his sire is a sensation in America on the dirt and it’s exciting for him to have a turf horse here. I think he’s Kentucky-bred and there are plenty of bonuses and stuff to be won out there. He’s very exciting for next season.” The winner, who becomes the first in Europe for his Spendthrift Farm-based sire (by Medaglia d’Oro) and his 16th overall, is the first foal out of a half to four stakes performers including the GII Fayette S. winner Independence Hall (Constitution) and the GII Spiral S. scorer Black Onyx (Rock Hard Ten). Related to the G1 Fillies’ Mile heroine White Moonstone (Dynaformer), Caribbean Babe has a yearling colt by Independence Hall’s sire, a filly foal by Improbable and was bred to Tiz The Law for 2023. Extending clear from the furlong pole, the 9-4 joint-favourite had two lengths to spare over the other market-leader American Sonja (GB) (Tasleet [GB]) at the line. “She’s in a listed race at Fairyhouse, she’ll go for a bit of black-type and I think she’ll get it,” trainer Willie Browne’s brother Michael said. “She’s a smart filly and Seamie [Heffernan] likes her a lot. I respect his judgement, as he’s ridden plenty of good ones and it isn’t that easy for him to like one.” The dam, whose full-sister to the winner sells at the upcoming Arqana Deauville October Yearling Sale, is a daughter of the stakes-placed Always Awesome (Awesome Again). La Coupe de Marseille cont.

Contested purely by fillies despite being open to all, this black-type event went the way of Enola who sprang a surprise having been sixth in Vichy's Listed Prix Madame Jean Couturie over this trip last time 21 July 21. What she did possess was decent course form and abundant stamina, having won over 10 1/2 furlongs Apr. 29 and been second to Perle Rouge over this trip two months later. Held up in rear early, the chestnut was delivered towards the rail turning for home and after powering to the front a furlong out stayed on strongly for the breakthrough win. The dam, a daughter of the Listed Prix Madame Jean Couturie winner Erinys, also has the unraced 2-year-old filly Jolimome (Fr) (Galiway {GB}).

CRYSTALLIUM (GB) (Expert Eye {GB}) was entered in both the G2 May Hill S. and Listed Flying Scotsman S. at Doncaster’s St Leger meeting only to be denied a run with testing conditions and an abandoned fixture conspiring against her. The Tom Clover-trained granddaughter of the G1 Fillies’ Mile heroine Crystal Music (Nureyev), gets a three-pound penalty for her impressive success on debut over this trip at Chelmsford last month but faces a clutch of potentially smart types in this Dubai Duty Free Full of Surprises British EBF Fillies’ Conditions S. which has often been a marker for future luminaries. Some of them, such as L’Ancre (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) and Quadrilateral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) came from the Roger Charlton stable and his and Harry’s set-up have an eye-catching representative this time in St Albans Bloodstock’s Elegancia (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), a 285,000gns Book 1 graduate whose dam is a half to the G2 Park Hill S. winner and G1 Qipco British Champions Fillies & Mares S. runner-up Silk Sari (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) from the family of Baratheon (Ire).
