A GOOD YEAR TO HAVE A TOUGH HORSE

Beverly Park | Coady Photography

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

With undefeated phenom Flightline (Tapit) and sophomore star Epicenter (Not This Time) headlining a respectably deep GI Breeders’ Cup Classic, one oft-repeated quip is that 2022 is turning out to be “a tough year to have a good horse” aiming for a divisional championship.

Yet a few rungs farther down the class ladder--more than a few, in truth--a blue-collar starter-allowance stalwart is tweaking that phrase so it better suits his grind-it-out style, proving that ’22 is actually “a good year to have a tough horse.”

Last week at Churchill Downs, Beverly Park (Munnings) won his 11th race of the season in start number 23 on the year. Both those numbers are tops in North America; his next closest rivals have eight wins and 20 starts, respectively.

Emblematic of his speed-centric, hard-charging nature, the 5-year-old broke running in a 6 1/2-furlong $20,000 starter-allowance Sept. 21, took pressure at the rail in a three-way speed duel, then repulsed a deep-stretch threat to eke out a 3/4-length score under Rafael Bejarano for owner/trainer Norman Lynn Cash, whose horses race under the name Built Wright Stables.

Eleven wins and it’s only the first week of autumn. For perspective, no North American Thoroughbred has won more than 12 races in an entire calendar year since 2011, when Rapid Redux ran the table with a gaudy 19-for-19 record. More than three full months of racing are left in ’22. Cont. p3

KIMARI ON TARGET FOR BREEDERS’ CUP AFTER GALLANT BLOOM VICTORY

Kimari (Munnings) tuned up for the GI Breeders’ Cup F/M Sprint with an effortless victory in the GII Gallant Bloom S. at the Belmont at Aqueduct meet Sunday. The 3-5 favorite sat just off pacesetting Lady Rocket (Tale of the Cat) through an opening quarter in :23.55. The pacesetter looked to skip away into the stretch after a half in :46.98, but Joel Rosario was still motionless aboard Kimari. Rosario flicked his wrists at the favorite and she duly inhaled Lady Rocket and strode clear to the wire while under wraps.

“That’s what you want to see, right? We were excited and this race set up beautifully for her time-wise to get from here to the Breeders’ Cup,” said winning trainer Wesley Ward. “The timing gave her a couple of extra weeks [as opposed to a start in the Oct. 8 GI Thoroughbred Club of America]. She always relishes the time between starts. For her, it should work out perfect. Whether she’s good enough, we’ll find out.” Cont. p6

SOCIETY Crushes Rivals in $1,000,000 Cotillion (G1) becoming Gun Runner’s 6th Grade 1 Winner.

Congratulations to Society’s connections: Owner/Breeder Peter E. Blum Thoroughbreds LLC, and Hall of Fame Trainer Steve Asmussen.
“TAIBA completed a Grade I double for the unstoppable Gun Runner, enjoying the run of the race in Saturday’s $1,000,000 Grade 1 Pennsylvania Derby before shooting clear in the stretch to take it by about 3 1/2 lengths.”

TDN
Grade 1 Winner GUNITE was one of 5 Stakes Winners on Saturday for Gun Runner with an Easy Victory in the $250,000 Harrods Creek at Churchill.

GUNITE stopped the clock for seven panels over a fast track in a brisk 1:21.95 under jockey Tyler Gaffalione.

Congratulations to Gunite’s connections: Owner/Breeder Winchell Thoroughbreds LLC, and Hall of Fame Trainer Steve Asmussen.
Champion ECHO ZULU Returns Triumphant in Dogwood

Second crop sire phenomenon Gun Runner garnered his fifth stakes winner of the day when champion ECHO ZULU drew off by 5 1/4 lengths in the $275,000 Dogwood Stakes (G3) at Churchill Downs Sept. 24.

HOMETOWN SCORE IN THE REMINGTON PARK OAKS

Hits Pricey Legacy (Den's Legacy), bred, owned and trained by C. R. Trout, scored a win for the home team in the GIII Remington Park Oaks Sunday in Oklahoma.
The Week in Review (cont. from p1)

In fact, by the time you read this, Beverly Park could well already be on the cusp of being entered for his next race.

Colleague Bill Finley profiled Cash's "throwback" operation in mid-May, when Beverly Park had racked up his first six wins of the year. After having owned racehorses in partnership with his wife, Lola, for about a decade, Cash took out his trainer's license in April 2021. He now runs a 40-head stable (split between Laurel Park in Maryland and the Thoroughbred Training Center in Lexington, Kentucky) on the theory that as long as horses show they can thrive on frequent racing, they'll be in the entry box.

Cash claimed Beverly Park for $12,500 out of a NW3L win at Belterra Park on Aug. 5, 2021, hoping to catch lightning in a bottle with a horse who had won his previous NW2L condition in his previous start at the $5,000 level by 15 lengths. That meant Beverly Park would be eligible for some lucrative starter-allowance spots. But because improved horses who once ran for low claiming tags generally scare away entrants for those restricted races, Beverly Park had to hit the road to extend his winning ways.

So far in '22, Beverly Park has raced at Oaklawn, Charles Town, Turfway, Laurel, Mahoning Valley, Keeneland, Monmouth, Belterra, Churchill, Thistledown, Delaware, Colonial and Timonium. In the 399-day span between Cash's claiming him and last week's win at Churchill, Beverly Park is 18-for-31 with $424,024 in purse earnings. His lifetime record stands at 21-for-40.

Finally a favorite

The $200,000 Parx Dirt Mile doesn't yet have the status of a graded race, but Mind Control (Stay Thirsty) has made it worth watching the past two years on the GI Pennsylvania Derby Day undercard.

A tenacious middle-distance horse who is often perceived as having something to prove, Mind Control is known for clawing back leads when he appears hopelessly beaten (like in the '21 Parx Dirt Mile), and winning races by thinly sliced margins (of his 11 lifetime victories, two were by noses, three by heads, and one by a neck).

Something of a fan favorite, the Red Oak Stable and Madaket Stables colorbearer for trainer Todd Pletcher has not been a pari-mutuel darling: Going into Saturday's Parx Dirt Mile defense, Mind Control had started in 15 consecutive stakes, dating all the way back to Mar. 7, 2020, without once being favored in the betting.

Although feats like this are difficult to pin down as actual "records" (help welcomed from anyone with a deep enough database), it's unlikely the sport has witnessed too many (if any) million-dollar-plus purse-earners competing strictly in stakes over a 2 1/2-year span without once going postward as the public's choice.

That changed Sept. 24, when Parx bettors installed Mind Control as the 3-5 choice for the Dirt Mile. The 6-year-old tracked the Pennsylvania-bred pacemaker Far Mo Power (Uncle Lino) every step of the trip before the dueling duo pulsed away from the pack on the far turn.
The 12-1 longshot and the odds-on favorite raced in lockstep and close quarters through the length of the lane, exchanging heads on the lead and some brief brushing, with the innermost Far Mo Power under Parx journeyman Dexter Haddock twice shifting outward toward Mind Control and Hall of Famer John Velazquez.

Under the wire, Far Mo Power prevailed by a neck, but the objection and inquiry signs soon blinked to life on the tote board. When the numbers stopped flashing, Mind Control was elevated as the winner, with Far Mo Power and jockey Dexter Haddock placed second for interference.

“My horse is a fighter but, when [Far Mo Power initially] came out and touched him, I was okay,” said Velazquez. “[Mind Control] got a little intimidated, but my horse got head and head with him again.... At the sixteenth pole [Haddock] hit [his mount] left-handed and he touched [Mind Control], kind of got him off balance. That really got my horse intimidated and off balance and I couldn’t get back on it.”

Regardless of the stewards’ reasoning for the DQ, it’s difficult not to view the takedown through the eyes of the demoted connections.

Far Mo Power’s owner, Joseph Sutton, has only started 18 horses lifetime with a two-horse stable, according to Equibase. Trainer Louis Linder Jr., has been conditioning for a decade, and has never won a stakes at the graded level. Haddock, riding since 2017, has a lone Grade III victory atop his riding resume, earned only last month. A win in a $200,000 race over their home track would have been a big deal for everyone involved, yet Far Mo Power’s people were diplomatic in the aftermath of the outcome.

“That’s horse racing,” said Linder. “It hurts, but we’ll live to fight another day. From the minute this horse has been in the barn I knew he was special.”

Added Haddock: “My horse tried hard. I am sad. I get on him in the morning every day. I am sad for me. I am sad for the trainer.”

As for Mind Control, his win-via-DQ earned a 100 Beyer Speed Figure. After running the vast majority of his races around one turn, he has now earned his only three triple-digit Beyers in his only three two-turn races at a flat mile.

Perhaps those figures will stand him in good stead in the November renewal of the GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile at Keeneland. A fever knocked Mind Control out of last year’s Dirt Mile at Del Mar.

Midwest musings

It’s a little early to get the crystal ball fired up to see what changes might affect regional racing calendars in 2023, but three separate news items from last week hinted at some subtle shifting in the Midwest.

The pending $79-million sale of Ellis Park to the gaming company Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI), was greenlighted by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission Sept. 20. Although Ellis is scheduled to race essentially the same block of 24 dates next year over the same summer template, CDI will naturally want to put its own stamp on operations there. Considering the deal was in large part billed as a way to shore up year-round racing in Kentucky, you can bet that the new management will be making a sizable push to recruit and retain outfits that might have traditionally raced elsewhere.

Meanwhile, on Sept. 22, Hawthorne Race Course was granted a slate of ‘23 dates by the Illinois Racing Board that will return a summer Thoroughbred season to greater Chicago after a one-year absence in the aftermath of the sudden and permanent closure of Arlington International Racecourse.

With the introduction of Sports Betting and the easing of Historical Horse Racing, it is anticipated that prices for Accredited Louisiana Breeds will increase dramatically!
Hawthorne will race Saturdays and Sundays Mar. 4-June 3, then add Wednesdays through Sept. 4.

That schedule could put a downstate squeeze on the former Fairmount Park, which is now known as FanDuel Sportsbook and Horse Racing. Those two Illinois tracks have some overlap at the lower end of the class hierarchy, and with FanDuel's Tuesdays/Saturdays schedule from Apr. 18-Nov. 18, there will be conflicting summer Saturdays within the state.

Another wild card in the Midwest mix is Canterbury Park up in Minnesota. Despite ending its 64-date season Sept. 17 with a reported record total handle rise to $97.6 million, Canterbury faces an uncertain future because a 10-year agreement between the track and the Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux Community (that provides purse funding in exchange for the track and horsemen not pursuing additional forms of gambling) is set to expire Dec. 31.

Andrew Offerman, Canterbury’s senior vice president of racing, told the Minneapolis Star Tribune the day after the meet ended that the ‘23 schedule will depend on how much purse money is available. The Tribune reported that Canterbury paid $15.7 million in purses this season, with $7.28 million coming from the purse-enhancement agreement.

Less purse money likely would mean fewer racing days next summer, Offerman told the Tribune, adding that Canterbury might consider running three days per week instead of four.

Rosario was impressed with Kimari’s effort.

“She’s special. She runs hard all the time and she ran a good race again today,” Rosario said. “She was very comfortable. She was loving what she was doing out there. For a second, I was worried the horse in front of me [Lady Rocket] would keep moving forward, but my filly kept gaining and I had a lot of confidence.”

‘TDN Rising Star’ Kimari returned from seven months on the sidelines to finish seventh in the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint last November at Del Mar and just two days later Coolmore’s M.V. Magnier signed the ticket on the filly for $2.7 million at the Fasig-Tipton November sale. She opened 2022 with an optional-claiming score at Gulfstream Mar. 3 and was third while attempting to defend her title in the GI Madison S. at Keeneland Apr. 9. She was fifth in the May 7 GI Derby City Distaff S. before getting up late for a half-length victory in the July 27 GI Honorable Miss S. at Saratoga last time out.

“She’ll head back to Keeneland tomorrow,” Ward said. “It’ll give her six weeks on both her and my home track, so hopefully everything works out.”

Ward continued, “A lot of things have worked out for her in her last two starts when she drew the outside. When you’re last in, she bounces away from there. In the Breeders’ Cup, it’ll be a bigger field, so if she gets there down below, Joel will have to work his way out, so we’ll see how it goes.”

Rattle N Roll rallied from last to first to win the GIII Oklahoma Derby going away Sunday night at Remington Park. The 7-5 shot was outsprinted out of the gate and settled at the back of the field into the first turn. He made an eye-catching four-wide move nearing the far turn, while favored Best Actor was stymied nearing the top of the lane, but Rattle N Roll was in the clear and powered to the lead off the turn. King Ottoman tried to make a race of it down the lane, but Rattle N Roll found another gear and was drawing away to the wire.

“I have been fortunate enough to ride him so many times, I’ve learned his running style,” said winning rider Brian Hernandez. “I’ve learned to stay out of his way. When he decides to make his run, I let him do his thing.”

Rattle N Roll entered the early Kentucky Derby picture with a win in the GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity last October, but failed to make a mark on the Derby trail this spring when sixth in the Mar. 5 GI Fountain of Youth S., fourth in the Mar. 26 GI Louisiana Derby and sixth in the Apr. 9 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. He was third in the Gill Matt Winn S. June 12 before returning to the winner’s circle in the July 2 American Derby. A troubled seventh in the July 9 Gill Indiana Derby, he was coming off a win in the Aug. 20 St. Louis Derby.

Reigning champion 2-year-old filly and 'TDN Rising Star' Echo Zulu made it five stakes wins on Saturday for her sire Gun Runner with a dominant performance in the GIII Dogwood S. under the lights at Churchill Downs. Last seen tasting defeat for the first time when a tiring fourth behind Secret Oath (Arrogate) in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks over this track, the $300,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase was off at 51 cents on the dollar to return to winning ways and did just that. Away quickest of all from the inside barrier, the Steve Asmussen trainee showed the way through moderate fractions as you could have thrown a blanket across the five of them at the half-mile. They were all stacked up behind the champ, ready to pounce if the favorite faltered, but Echo Zulu went through her gears in the final furlong and a half and crossed the wire 5 1/4 lengths to the good of Tarabi.

Echo Zulu, who was tabbed a 'TDN Rising Star' following her debut win at Saratoga last July, won the GI Spinaway S. and GI Frizette S. before capping her championship season with a 5 1/4-length victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies S. She opened her sophomore campaign with a gritty win in the Mar. 26 GI Fair Grounds Oaks, but weakened to fourth when suffering her first loss in the May 6 GI Kentucky Oaks. The champ was scratched behind the gate of the June 11 GI Acorn S.

Pedigree Notes:

Adding to Gun Runner's Grade I sweep Saturday afternoon at Parx with Taiba and Society were 11-1 Sixtythreecaliber in the Seneca Overnight S. and Gunite in the Fort Harrod S. prior to Echo Zulu's tour-de-force.

Hits Pricey Legacy, the only Oklahoma-bred in the field, launched a four-wide rally nearing the stretch and strode home first in the GIII Remington Park Oaks Sunday. The chestnut filly, stretching out past a mile for the first time in her career, was taken in hand soon after the break and settled off the early pace as favored Juju’s Map pulled her way to the lead entering the backstretch with the quarter up :24.46. Juju’s Map was still under a strong hold as the half was completed in :49.13, but a host of rivals were looming heading into the far turn. Free Like a Girl was first to overtake the favorite, but Hits Pricey Legacy was making rapid progress while four wide approaching the stretch. Hits Pricey Legacy headed Free Like a Girl at the top of the lane and bound clear.

“For my grooms, for my assistant Dan Ortiz, they have made my life easy this year,” said owner/breeder and trainer C. R. Trout. “They have just done such a great job. And for this filly and what this means for our breeding program, I don’t have the words to say.”

Of the upset at his home track, Trout said, “It means a lot to have a track like this to come home to and run at. They have done such a wonderful job for us. Remington Park has always been our favorite track and always will be.”
A debut winner over the Remington oval last August, Hits Pricey Legacy was second in a pair of Oklahoma-bred stakes races before winning the Nov. 12 Slide Show S. She ended her juvenile season with a third-place effort against open company in the Dec. 17 Trapeze S. and returned from a 10-month layoff to win the Sept. 9 Oklahoma Stallion Fillies S. last time out.

Pedigree Notes:
Hits Pricey Legacy, who is one of three stakes winners for her sire Den’s Legacy (Medaglia d’Oro), is the stallion’s first graded winner. Den’s Legacy won the 2012 GII Generous S. and hit the board in an additional seven graded races. The 12-year-old stands for $2,000 at Mighty Acres in Pryor, Oklahoma.

High Price Hit, a half-sister to multiple stakes winners Imahit (Whywhywhy) and Hallelujah Hit (Mr. Nightlinger), has a yearling filly by Flat Out and a weanling filly by Cloud Computing. She was bred back to Volatile this year.

Trout, who bred the winners of three races at Remington Park Sunday, campaigned Hits Pricey Legacy’s third dam Solid Hit and owned/bred and trained her second dam Halo Hit, who won once in two career starts. High Price Hit won twice in eight starts for Trout.

Lucky Score came flying late to earn his first graded victory in the GIII Vigil S. at Woodbine Sunday. Sent off at 6-1, the bay gelding raced at the back of the field as a pair of keen rivals battled up front through a quarter in :22.77. He began picking off foes entering the far turn and he was poised to pounce from the center of the track as the half went up in :44.96. He had all the momentum in the final furlong and struck the lead in the final strides before pulling away to the wire. A claim of foul by the rider of Secret Reserve on the winner was disallowed.

“I’ve been involved in horse racing for maybe four or five years,” said owner Domenic Liscio. “The bottom line is I want to thank [jockey] Leo [Salles], but if there’s one guy I want to thank the most, it’s [trainer] Ralph Biamonte. He picked this horse out, we had him with him, and he did a lot of work as a baby with him. No disrespect to [trainer] Willie [Armata], but wherever Ralph left off, Willie has continued to do a fantastic job.”

Lucky Score won a June 26 optional claimer over the synthetic surface before finishing fourth in the Aug. 13 GII Bold Venture S. in his first try against graded company. He moved to the lawn and was a closing second in a Sept. 5 optional claimer last time out.

Pedigree Notes:
Miss Matzo, a half-sister to multiple stakes winner Madame Giry (Castledale {Ire}), produced a filly by Audible this year and was bred back to Modernist. The mare, with Lucky Score in utero, sold for $17,000 at the 2017 Fasig-Tipton New York Mixed sale. Her 2-year-old colt by Society’s Chairman sold for $27,745 at last year’s CTHS September sale.

Lucky Score is the 46 worldwide graded winner for Lookin at Lucky.

Having posted back-to-back stakes wins earlier in the year, taking both the Oaklawn S. Apr. 23 and the TVG.com Pegasus S. at Monmouth June 18, Home Brew entered Saturday night's action off a distant fourth behind Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) in the GII West Virginia Derby Aug. 6. Racing with blinkers back on, the 5-1 shot kept pace with early leader Big Blue Line (Atreides) into the first turn before settling into a stalking trip up the backstretch. Given his cue past the quarter pole, Home Brew slipped through along the rail and dueled inside of a pair of rivals, holding off both Creative Minister and War Campaign to prevail in a desperately close three-way photo finish.

"I kept asking him for more in deep stretch and he stuck out his head and didn’t want to lose," said winning jockey Ricardo Santana Jr. “He broke sharp out of the gate and he took me to the early lead. I really didn’t ask him at all to get into the position he did. We were able to keep our position at the rail around the turn and the opening came for him."

Home Brew's only younger sibling is a 2-year-old unraced full-brother named Day Trade. Click for the Equibase.com chart or

Last year’s GI Hopeful S. winner, Gunite has never been worse than second in his 3-year-old campaign—taking wins in the both the Maxfield S. at Churchill July 3 and the GII Amsterdam S. at
Last seen checking in 1 1/4 lengths behind Jack Christopher (Munnings) in the GI H. Allen Jerkins Memorial S. Aug. 27 while posting a new career-best 102 Beyer Speed Figure. The popular 3-5 choice for his return to action Saturday evening, Gunite tucked in closest to early pacesetter Conagher while racing to his outside. Four paths from the rail around the far turn, Gunite drew even on his own terms with five-sixteensths to run and stuck a head in front in the final eighth. Clear down the lane despite hanging on his left lead, Gunite was well in control past the sixteenth marker for the win.

“He’s run extremely well his last three races,” winning trainer Steve Asmussen said. “He’s had a very good season so far for us. He’s a nice horse to have for the Winchells. Being a son of Gun Runner makes it even more special.”

From the extended family of Saturday’s Bourbon Trail S. winner Home Brew (Street Sense), Gunite has an unraced juvenile full-sister, Surprise Attack, a yearling half-sister by Copper Bullet, and a weanling half-sister by Tapiture. Simple Surprise visited Gun Runner for another full-sibling in 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Also Ran: Top of My Game, Flame Rider.

Third in a pair of maiden special weight events at Del Mar to start his career, Hard to Figure entered Sunday's stakes action as the 5-2 second choice behind his stablemate, the heavy 1-2 favorite Massimo. Away best of the field, the $200,000 OBSMAR grad opted to let Flame Rider (Street Sense) do the heavy lifting from the front end, settling in second while kept in the clear on the outside up the backstretch.

Floated three wide into the far turn, Hard to Figure took aim on that leader, kept Massimo behind him, and drew off for the clear victory. The win was jockey Ramon Vazquez's fifth of the day.

From the family of two-time Canadian champion older horse Marchfield (A.P. Indy), Hard to Figure has a weanling half-sister by Blame and his dam re-visited the Claiborne stallion for the 2023 season.

Also Ran: Vietnam Victory, Roman Giant, U. S. Army.

After taking two starts to break his maiden, Campfire Creed came through in gate-to-wire fashion by 5 1/4 lengths last time out over this same track when sprinting five furlongs Aug. 20. Given a 7-1 shot in his stakes debut with an extra furlong to run, he was eased along from the gate, outrunning only one rival into the far turn before commencing a four-wide rally at the top of the lane. Still running strongly late, Campfire Creed overtook pacesetter Wildatlanticstorm and powered clear for the win. Mahbadiha produced a yearling colt by Kantharos and a weanling colt by Caravaggio before visiting Cloud Computing for a 2023 foal.

MUSIC STREET (f, 3, Street Sense--Sudden Heat, by Congrats) ran a pair of fourths this spring in Kentucky before retreating to eighth going 1 3/16 miles here when last seen June 23. Let go at 17-2 here, the $25,000 Keeneland September buy settled in fifth behind fractions of :23.84 and :47.96. Advancing strongly while angled three deep on the latter half of the turn, the bay took command just inside the three-sixteenths pole and gradually edged away from heavy favorite Forever After All (Connect) to score by 3 1/2 lengths. The winner’s second dam is multimillionaire and champion Xtra Heat (Dixieland Heat). Her unraced dam has an unraced juvenile City of Light colt named Beer Run who sold to Wesley Ward for $460,000 at Keeneland September and most recently worked a half-mile July 23 at Keeneland. 5th-Woodbine, C$108,340, Msw, 9-25, 2yo, 5 1/2f (AWT), 1:04.61, ft, 2 1/2 lengths.

GEM QUALITY (c, 2, Souper Speedy--Carat Weight, by Trajectory), sent off at 4-1 in this debut, traveled in a wide fifth behind a :22.65 quarter, took charge entering the final furlong and kicked clear from there for a 2 1/2-length success. Crumlin Lad (Sharp Azteca) completed the exacta. The victor is a half to Rondure (Oxbow), GSW, $160,432. His dam foaled a filly by Bolt d’Oro for 2023. 6th-Belmont The Big A, $95,000, Msw, 9-25, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:43.99, fm, head.

FREEDOM TRAIL (c, 2, Collected--Freedom, by War Front), dismissed on the board at 13-1 for this unveiling after bringing $150,000 at OBS April earlier this year, was well positioned into the first turn as he settled towards the back of the field. Initially three wide around the far turn, Freedom Trail had to swing out nearly seven wide at the top of the lane and closed down the center of the track in tandem with Confronted (Blame), just edging out that rival for the head victory. The fifth winner for his freshman sire (by City Zip), Freedom Trail is out of a half-sister to MGISW Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) and MGISW Executiveprivilege (First Samurai). He has no younger siblings and his dam visited Caravaggio for the 2023 season. Sales History: $60,000 Ylg ’21 FTKOCT; $150,000 2yo ’22 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $52,250. PIONEER PARADE (f, 2, Carpe Diem--Langers, by Indian Charlie), listed at 3-1 for this debut after bringing $45,000 at OBS April, raced patiently behind clear leader Frostalicious (Frosted) through an opening quarter in a quick :21.35. She began to make up ground around the far turn and set her sights on that leader while making a tandem move with Happysecret (Runhappy) in upper stretch. Forced inwards from contact with that rival, Pioneer Parade gradually edged away and just lasted to hold off a closing Birdie Rose (Cairo Prince) by a neck. The winner has a weanling half-sister by Brody’s Cause and her dam visited Bolt d’Oro for 2023. Sales History: $4,500 Ylg ’21 FTKFEB; $26,000 Ylg ’21 FTKOCT; $45,000 2yo ’22 OBSAPR. 8th-Charles Town, $33,250, (S), Msw, 9-24, 2yo, 4 1/2f, :52.55, ft, 5 1/4 lengths.

HONEYQUIST (c, 2, Nyquist--Honey Chile (MGSP-USA, GSP-Can, $344,924), by Invisible Ink), made the 8-5 favorite for this career bow, showed good speed away from the gate to take command before being confronted by Pink Dinghy (Golden Years) to his outside. With a shake of the reins, Honeyquist dispatched of that rival and widened his margin down the lane, winning under a drive by 5 1/4 lengths while Pink Dinghy maintained his position for second. The winner has a yearling half-sister by Mendelssohn and his dam went to Blame for a 2023 foal. Sales History: $170,000 Ylg ’21 FTKFEB; $175,000 RNA Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,351. CHINA CODE (c, 2, Honor Code--Chinasmoke, by Smoke Glacken) worked well at Colonial for this career bow, most recently going five panels from the gate in 1:00 2/5 (3/10) Aug. 31, and was pegged at 4-1. Breaking alertly, the homebred stalked a pacesetting stablemate from second, poked his head in front midway around the bend, went clear while drifting out a bit past the three-sixteenths pole and finished up strongly for a four-length graduation. Even-money favorite The Bookkeeper (Frosted) earned the place. The winner’s dam was bred to Tiz the Law this spring. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,200. 5th-Prairie Meadows, $32,000, Msw, 9-25, 2yo, 4 1/2f, :54.07, ft, 3/4 length.

SMOOTH SCAT (g, 2, Mor Spirit--Scat Sister, by Scat Daddy), the 9-2 third choice on debut, battled inside of horses for the lead, holding a slim advantage around the turn with El Mongo (Goldencents) just to his outside. Still ahead narrowly in upper stretch, he hugged the rail and found enough to hold on, keeping El Mongo in second for the three-quarter length win. The 10th winner for his freshman sire (by Eskendereya), Smooth Scat has a yearling half-brother, Scat Free (Free Drop Billy) still to race behind him while his dam visited Gormley for the 2023 season. BO BROMAGEN: ONE OF '50 TO 60' US AGENTS ACTIVE AT THE ORBY

Bo Bromagen: “I'm going to keep coming back for the rest of my life.” | ITM

By Brian Sheerin
If it’s international interest Goffs want, that’s exactly what they are going to get, according to Bo Bromagen, who revealed that he will be among the 50 to 60 American-based agents who will add to a power-packed buyers’ bench at the Orby Sale this week.

For many of those agents, the trip will represent a maiden voyage, but not Bromagen, who has navigated these waters four times in the past and describes the Orby Sale as one of the first dates he pencils into his diary each year.

Bromagen said, “I have been beating the drum about this sale for years. I know there is a lot of American interest and, between Irish Thoroughbred Marketing and Goffs, they have done an incredible job in promoting the Orby and recruiting buyers.

"I think there is a lot of value to be had at the Orby and, over the past few years, I found horses that really suited what I was trying to do for less money than I thought I would have to give. I feel really confident about the horses I buy and at the prices I have to buy them at.”

REBEL’S ROMANCE SEALS PREIS VON EUROPA WIN by Tom Frary
Adding Sunday’s G1 Preis von Europa at Cologne to his G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin victory, Godolphin’s Rebel’s Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) upstaged some of Germany’s premier performers as William Buick timed it to perfection again. Switched off in rear throughout the early stages, the 13-10 favourite was delivered towards the rail to hit the front inside the final furlong and beat Sammarco (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) by 3/4 of a length, with Amazing Grace (Ger) (Protectionist {Ger}) 2 1/4 lengths away in third. “He was nice and relaxed and showed at Hoppegarten that he has a turn of foot—it’s a long straight here and he’s better on faster ground, so he did well.” Rebel’s Romance, who captured last year’s G2 UAE Derby on the dirt and also took the Listed Fred Archer S. at Newmarket June 25 and Goodwood’s G3 Glorious S. July 29. Cont. p5

We put together some money as a group and we hope to buy two or three.
Sarah Andrew

He added, "I don't work for ITM or Goffs but I have been telling everyone I know that you can find value at this sale. I would say there are between 50 to 60 American interests coming over this week when, in years past, there would have been about 25 or 30. I don't know if we are going to take over, because the Irish are very strong and there will be other European buyers, but we are going to make a run at it."

The strength of the dollar at present, paired with the huge recruitment drive run by Goffs and ITM, means that familiar faces like Ben McElroy, Kenny McPeek and Justin Casse, all of whom have made a major impact at the Orby Sale in recent years, will face stiff competition from their fellow countrymen as well as the European and Middle Eastern market. Despite the added competition, Bromagen is confident that there will still be value on offer at Goffs this week. He said, "Being an international bloodstock agent gives me the opportunity to attend sales like this around the world and, let me tell you, the Orby Sale is at the top of my list every single year. "Obviously, it depends on the clients that you have, and I know Kenny McPeek went over and spent a million dollars on a Frankel (GB) horse last year. I don't have that budget, but no matter what you are looking for, be that price, distance or pedigree, there is value at all levels. That's the beauty of the Orby Sale."

Bromagen signed for a Gleneagles filly for €90,000 that was consigned by Eddie O'Leary's Lynn Lodge Stud at last year's sale. He revealed that the juvenile is in training with Rusty Arnold and added that the Irish method in preparing yearlings for the sales is a huge draw.

He said, "We bought a Gleneagles (Ire) filly last year. We tried on a couple more but got out-bid."

"We're going to try and go a little stronger this year as a result. I love the Gleneagles. She's in training with Rusty Arnold and we're going to try and make her first start up at Keeneland.

"The Keeneland sale has become a commercial monster. There are so many horses in that sale and the majority of them will be looking as well as they ever will in their life. They are show ready. I think at the Orby, a lot of what goes on there is just natural old school horsemanship which translates into the quality product that you see in front of you. You know what you are getting and you can feel good about it."

On his approach to the sale, he added, "I like to see some speed in the pedigree for the horses I will be bringing back home to America because I think that translates well to our races. That's just my personal preference as, in American turf races, you need that quick-fire turn of pace towards the end of the race. When you're trying to catch up with guys like Chad [Brown], you've got to have something that can kick!"

Along with some partners, Bromagen is hoping to secure up to three yearlings this week and suggested some of the group's acquisitions could stay in training in Ireland, although discussions as to who would train for them have not been had.

"We put together some money as a group and we hope to buy two or three this week. We might even leave one or two over here, re-sell as 2-year-olds or even put them in training, we haven't fully decided."

He added, "We'll see what shakes and I'm excited. We're looking to do some business and expand in this market. If it was up to me, I'd race everything we buy but to stay in this business, you've got to turn a profit every now and again so we'll have to see how it plays out. There are a lot of quality trainers in Ireland." According to Bromagen, this week marks the beginning of a busy few weeks for many of the American-based agents, who will also be in attendance at Tattersalls next week.

He explained, "This trip has developed into something of a European tour. There's myself and a group of guys who come over and work the Orby really hard and, after that, we'll go on to France for the Arc. "We get to be fans of racing for these few weeks and remember what we got into this game for. A lot of guys will be heading to Tattersalls in between, and I'd certainly love to be able to go to as many sales as I can in Europe, but it's just a matter of trying to schedule them all in."

But when it comes to the Orby, nothing will get in Bromagen's way from attending.

"I've been to the Orby Sale four times now and, if possible, I'm going to keep coming back for the rest of my life. It's so much fun. The horses are the main thing, and you can find some real athletes at a great price, but the people in Ireland make you want to come back every year. It's a sale I put into my calender at the start of every single year and I have been looking forward to this week for such a long time."
Rebel’s Romance taking the G1 Preis Von Europa | racingfotos.com

He later added Hoppegarten’s Grosser Preis von Berlin Aug. 14, is out of Listed Height of Fashion S. runner-up Minidress (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}) whose other notable is the Listed Cairn Rouge S.-placed Petticoat (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Minidress is a full-sister to G3 Nad Al Sheba Trophy scorer Volcanic Sky (GB), with their dam being G3 Musidora S. winner and G1 Yorkshire Oaks and Oaks-placed Short Skirt (GB) (Diktat {GB}).

Pedigree Notes:

The third dam is the excellent producer Much Too Risky (GB) (Bustino {GB}), whose four black-type winners are headed by the G2 Prix de Pomone scorer Whitewater Affair (GB) (Machiavellian), in turn the dam of the triple Group 1-winning Dubai World Cup hero Victoire Pisa (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn}) and the G1 Yasuda Kinen winner Asakusa De’nen (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}). Minidress’s unraced 2-year-old colt by Frankel (GB) is named Measured Time (GB), while her 2021 filly by Golden Horn (GB) sadly died.

Basil Martini winning at the Curragh Sunday | racingfotos.com

Joseph O’Brien trainee Basil Martini (Ire) [Starspangledbanner (Aus)]–Under Offer (Ire), by Bated Breath (GB)) was a four-start maiden heading into Sunday’s G3 Weld Park S. at the Curragh and returned home with black-type and a first win of any kind after making all under Declan McDonogh in the seven-furlong juvenile fillies’ heat. The 12-1 chance had collected prizemoney in all outings to date and went postward for this stakes debut coming back off a short-head second at Punchestown earlier in the month. Basil Martini, the sharpest of 10 into stride, dictated at a solid tempo until beyond halfway. Rowed along to maintain her advantage approaching the quarter-mile marker, she refused to yield and was driven out inside the final furlong to hold the closing pack by a half length in game fashion.

“She generally is quick away and leads and it was a really tough performance,” said O’Brien. “Declan [McDonogh] said she really felt good today, she’s a progressive filly and has held her form very well all the way through. For the last furlong-and-a-half I was wondering what was going to come and get her, but she just kept finding. I’d say that is probably it for this season, she is a Group winner now and is a nice filly to look forward to next spring.”

Pedigree Notes:
Basil Martini, who becomes the 15th pattern-race scorer for her sire (by Choisir {Aus}), is the first of three foals produced by a daughter of Argentina’s G2 Marcos Levalle victrix Bailonguera (Arg) (Southern Halo). She is a half-sister to a yearling filly by Footstepsinthesand (GB) and a weanling filly by Mehmas (Ire).

Bailonguera, kin to the G1 De Honor heroine Bonaventura (Arg) (Merce Cunningham), is the dam of three black-type performers, headed by Listed Prix Petite Etoile victrix Bayargal (Bernstein), and her descendants also include dual Group 3-winning G1 Steward’s Cup second Joyful Trinity (Ire) (Zanzibari) and this term’s G3 Prix de Meautry hero Bouttemont (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). Bailonguera’s half-sister Baaleares (Arg) (Senor Pete) is the dam of dual Group 1-winning Argentinian champion Batallosa (Arg) (Southern Halo). Basil Martini’s Footstepsinthesand half-sister is due to sell as lot 805 at this weeks Goffs Sportsman’s sale.

RENAISSANCE ART REVIVAL AT THE CURRAGH by Tom Frary

So often unable to make a serious impact in the leading British sprints, King Power’s Art Power (IRE) (Dark Angel (Ire)) returned to Ireland on Sunday to extend his unbeaten record in the country as he brought up back-to-back wins in The Curragh’s G3 William Hill Ireland Renaissance S. After an authoritative success in the G3 Lacken S. during the COVID spell at Naas in July 2020, the grey had managed just a solitary placing in 11 subsequent starts in his home nation when third in last year’s G1 Diamond Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot.

Diverted here for a five-length success 12 months ago, he was confidently-supported into even-money favouritism to again revive his fortunes and made it straightforward for David Allan as he dominated most of the contest and drew away late to beat compatriot Sam Maximus (GB) (Showcasing (GB)) by three lengths.

“He bounced out of the gates, travelled strong and put it to bed quite nicely,” Allan said. “He did the same last year and hopefully, he’ll go to Champions Day and get a bit closer, as he was fourth in that last year after this. The ground was too quick last time in Haydock and he stumbled out of the stalls and didn’t really run his race. It’s not his cup of tea, as he likes a bit of cut in the ground. I just want him to win a group 1 now, I think he deserves it. He’s only been out of the four once in a Group 1.”

FAREWELL TO TIM ETHERINGTON AND ‘SQUEAK’ FAIRHURST

By John Berry

In an already sad month, the deaths have been announced of two highly respected and popular former Yorkshire-based trainers, Tim Etherington and Tommy ‘Squeak’ Fairhurst.

Tim Etherington took over the helm at Wold House Stables in Malton in 1994 on the retirement of his father Jimmy, one of the leading jockeys in the north in the 1950s and ‘60s who had bought the property subsequent to the retirement of Pat ‘Rufus’ Beasley. Jimmy Etherington, who has outlived his son, enjoyed significant success there with the likes of the 1978 Royal Hunt Cup winner Fear Naught (GB) (Connaught {GB}) and 1979 John Smith’s Magnet Cup winner Tesoro Mio (GB) (Cavo Doro {GB}).

Tim maintained the stable’s reputation as a source of big handicap winners, most notably sending out Fullandby (Ire) (Monashee Mountain) to land the Portland H. at Doncaster in 2007. Two years later he took another of Doncaster’s big sprint prizes when Fullandby scored in listed company in the Wentworth S. Another stakes-winning sprinter with whom Tim did well was the headstrong Burning Thread (Ire) (Captain Rio {GB}), the winner of six races including a Listed race, the Scurry S. over five furlongs at Sandown in 2010.

Prior to succeeding his father, Tim had previously been employed for three years as Andrew Wates’s private trainer at Henfold House in Surrey.
During this period he sent out Repeat The Dose (Ire) (Abednego {Ire}) to win the Cathcart Challenge Cup Chase at the Cheltenham Festival in 1992 and he also won two novice chases with Mr Wates’ subsequent 1996 Grand National winner Rough Quest (GB) (Crash Course {GB}).

During his final years as a trainer, Tim had run an equine transport business, taking horses to the races for other trainers in the Malton area as well as for himself, and he continued to do this after relinquishing his license. In 2020 the BHA appointed him as an independent member of the judicial panel, a position for which he was perfect because of his lifetime of experience within the sport and the universal respect in which his integrity was held.

Out of the blue, Tim was recently diagnosed with throat cancer, from which he died aged only 62 in Mexico, where he had gone for treatment.

Tommy Fairhurst, universally known as ‘Squeak’, was an integral part of the racing community in Middleham for as long as pretty much anyone alive can remember. Born in 1927, he served his apprenticeship with the village’s then leading trainer Matt Peacock, during which time his boss trained the 1945 Derby winner Dante (GB) (Nearco {Ity}). He then rode as a jockey until 1968, as well as working as head lad to another of the doyens of the Middleham trainers’ ranks, Ernie Weymes. He began training in the historic Glasgow House in 1969 and quickly established himself as one of the most astute trainers in the north, particularly adept with sprinters and two-year-olds. He enjoyed his finest hour as a trainer when the speedy juvenile Barrys Gamble (GB) (Nishapour {Fr}), previously the winner of the Two-Year-Old Trophy at Beverley, completed an early-season hat-trick by scoring over five furlongs at Royal Ascot in 1988, landing the Windsor Castle S. under Pat Eddery.

“A striking resemblance to his sire.”

Tommy Fairhurst
Two of Squeak Fairhurst's sons worked for their father, Chris and Antony. When their father retired at the end of the 1993 season, the former, who had been riding as a National Hunt jockey, took over the licence in Glasgow House, where he trains to this day. Squeak, who lived and breathed racing, remained a very popular figure in the village. It was only recently that his health deteriorated, and he died in his sleep on Friday, aged 95, with his family around him.

The TDN offers its condolences to the Etherington and Fairhurst families, and to all the friends of these two stalwarts of northern racing.

GBRI LAUNCHES 'BRITISH RACING: INVEST IN THE BEST' CAMPAIGN

A digital campaign titled 'British Racing: Invest in the Best' was launched by Great British Racing International (GBRI) on Monday. Slated to take place for four weeks each autumn for a three-year period, the campaign is designed to highlight the strength and importance of the British racing industry globally and encourage future international investment. The campaign will deliver a digital showcase of British racing's credentials across various sides of the racing industry, from training, racing and breeding, to bloodstock sales and welfare, as told by leading figures and organisations from across the industry. Content will be launched via the campaign website, as well as GBRI's Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook platforms. The United States is the priority audience for 2022. GBRI Chief Executive, Rod Street, said, “British racing is a world-leading industry. We can see this in the number of British-trained horses that currently feature in the World Thoroughbred Rankings; in the global demand for the stallions we stand in Britain; in the enduring international appeal of our bloodstock sales; in the number of British races that have featured in the world’s best race rankings in recent years; and in the welfare standards we uphold for our Thoroughbreds both in and out of training.

“Today, GBRI is turning the dial up on promoting the best of British racing around the world. International investment underpins the health and vibrancy of the British racing industry, and we are facing increasingly stiff competition for international participation from other jurisdictions. We must be proactive in focussing the attention on what qualifies Britain as the global home of horseracing. GBRI will lead this important work on behalf of the industry.”

A NEW BALLYDOYLE RISING STAR REVEALED AT THE CURRAGH by Tom Frary

A day after Ballydoyle had demonstrated the power of their 2-year-old reserves at Newmarket, Espionage (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) became the stable’s 11th TDN Rising Star juvenile of 2022 in The Curragh’s opening maiden on Sunday. Unlucky on debut when runner-up to stablemate and fellow TDN Rising Star Alexandroupolis (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) over an extended mile at Galway Sept. 6, the son of the G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Even Song (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) was sent forward by Ryan Moore dropping back to seven for this Williamhill.ie Irish EBF Maiden. Clear from two out on the far side, the 9-4 favourite had 1 3/4 lengths to spare over stablemate Sierra Blanca (Ire) (No Nay Never), a son of Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), at the line with another half a length back to the well-regarded Michael O’Callaghan trainee Djockovic (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in third.

“He ran well the last day, when the other horse got up the rail and he had to come around,” Aidan O’Brien said of the imperious sire’s 41st TDN Rising Star. “Ryan said he’s babyish and when he got to the start he was a little bit anxious. He might go for something like the [G3] Killavullan or the [G3] Eyrefield at Leopardstown. We won’t force him. He looks a middle-distance horse for next year and usually when you get a Galileo that wins over seven it bodes well.”

Even Song, who is a half-sister to the G1 St Leger and G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares heroine Simple Verse (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}) and to the G2 Superlative S.-placed Maxentius (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), also has a yearling full-sister to the winner and a filly foal by Wootton Bassett (GB) to come.

KNIGHT ARISES AT YARMOUTH by Tom Frary

KHK Racing’s stellar September continued on Sunday as the Simon and Ed Crisford-trained Knight (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}--Fidaaha {Ire}, by New Approach {Ire}) stormed to success at Yarmouth to become the latest of the TDN Rising Star juveniles of 2022. Always travelling strongly in second for Cameron Noble after a tardy break in this seven-furlong Sky Sports Racing Sky 415 A Newcomers Maiden S., the 11-2 shot took command three out and was busy surging clear a furlong later. Chased by the €370,000 Arqana Deauville August graduate Irregular Warfare (Fr) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) in the closing stages, the full-brother to Malavath (Ire) kept him at bay to score by two lengths, with another 3 3/4 lengths back to the Gosdens strongly-supported 6-4 favourite Rajasthan (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in third.

“They went quite steady and the leader took me as far as he could, but ideally I needed something to take me further as he’s still quite raw,” Noble said of the sire’s first TDN Rising Star. “He’s a nice individual and I’d say he wouldn’t want it too much quicker than that. He could be anything--he did that smartly considering he is quite green.”

Knight, who cost 210,000gns at the Book 2 Sale, is the second foal out of the Shadwell cast-off whose first was the aforementioned Malavath, winner of the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte and G3 Prix Imprudence and runner-up in the G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Fidaaha is a full-sister to Ceisteach (Ire), who captured the GII Robert G. Dick Memorial S., and a half to Steip Amach (Ire) (Vocalised) who annexed the G3 Killavullan S. and G3 Amethyst S. before finishing third in the G1 Prix Rothschild and G1 Prix Jean Romanet. Her filly by Cotai Glory (GB) sells as lot 459 from Tally-Ho Stud at the Goffs Orby Sale on Wednesday, while she also has a foal full-brother to the winner and Malavath.

Threaded through rivals on the rail from the top of the straight, the half-brother to the Irish Oaks and Yorkshire Oaks heroine and Arc runner-up Sea Of Class (Ire) (Sea The Stars [Ire]) was angled out in time to take flight and reel in Echoes In Rain (Fr) (Authorized [Ire]) close home and score by a neck. “He’s a horse with an awful lot of ability—we thought in the winter that he was our Derby horse, but when we started to race him he became very shy and mentally very backward,” trainer Aidan O’Brien said. “We decided to take our time with him and not throw him in a Leger or anything like that and give him time to mature. Today we were drawn out so far [in 18] that we thought we couldn’t win with a three-year-old that was so shy. Obviously Wayne [Lordan] gave him the most incredible ride. Ryan rode him the last day and felt the trip was going to suit him, but it’s like a cavalry charge out there—they go that hard and that fast. It’s like the Grand National on the Flat. Wayne kept nursing him and he’s obviously a horse with a huge amount of ability. Next year he’s going to be something different. He’s massive with a beautiful pedigree and looking at him today, he’s going to be very at home at Cup trips. All credit to Joe Keeling for putting on this race and making it happen. Everyone has a chance at a big pot and the Curragh had the place in super shape for 30 runners. He’s entered in the stayers’ race [the G2 Long Distance Cup] at Ascot and he could go there, but we’ll have to see what the lads want to do as we have been so patient with him this year.” The listed-winning dam is responsible for a total of seven black-type performers, with the kingpin Sea Of Class joined by the G1 Premio Lydia Tesio-winning pair Charity Line (Ire) (Manduro [Ger]) and Final Score (Ire) (Dylan Thomas [Ire]) and the G2 Oaks d’Italia and G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) winner Cherry Collect (Ire) (Oratorio [Ire]), who was second in the Lydia Tesio. She in turn produced a trio of Japanese stakes performers headed by Wakea (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry [Jpn]), who was third in the G1 Hopeful S. Holy Moon, whose family also features the G1 Oaks d’Italia heroine Bright Generation (Ire) (Rainbow Quest) who is the second dam of the G1 Prix Morny and G1 Prix de la Salamandre-winning champion and sire Dabirsim (Fr), has the unraced 2-year-old full-brother to Sea Of Class named Amileo (Ire) bought by Sunderland Holding for 240,000gns at the Tattersalls December Yearling Sale. STARRY HEAVENS (IRE) (f, 2, Mastercraftsman [Ire]—Etoile Filante [GB], by So You Think [NZ]), who ran fourth of seven furlongs at Galway earlier this month, was swiftly into stride and enjoyed an uncontested lead through halfway here. Bustled along in front passing the quarter-mile marker, the the 4-1 chance was not for catching thereafter and kept on strongly under continued rousting inside the final furlong to outpoint Mount King (Ire) (National Defense [GB]) by 4 1/4 lengths. “It’s the first time we have managed to get her out and get to the front and she loved it,” said trainer Jessica Harrington. “She is out of a [half] sister to Alpha Centauri, she enjoyed the mile and goes on the easier ground. We might try and get a bit of black type with her and she will be a nice filly for next year.” Starry Heavens is the first of two foals produced by an unraced half-sister to multiple Group 1-winning distaffer Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman [Ire]), G1 Coronation S. heroine Alpine Star (Ire) (Sea The Moon [Ger]), last term’s G1 Moyglare Stud S. victrix Discoveries (Ire) (Mastercraftsman [Ire]) and stakes-winning G2 Royal Lodge S. and G3 Tyros S. placegetter Tent Star (Ire) (Dansili [GB]). Sirona had made a deep impression on her 5 1/2-length winning debut over an extended seven furlongs at Beverley Aug. 28 before finding Munch (GB) (New Bay {GB}) too strong backed up quickly in the valuable British EBF £100,000 2yo Fillies Series Final at Goodwood Sept. 6. In her native land and her comfort zone, the bay was able to dominate from the front and only Tamarinde could even attempt to give meaningful pursuit in the home straight. Becoming the 65th stakes winner for her sire, Sirona is the second foal out of the G3 Prix de Flore and triple listed-winning dam who is in turn out of a half to the Listed Dusseldorfer Stutenpreis winner and G2 German 1000 Guineas runner-up S’Il Vous Plait (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}). Her yearling full-brother to the winner named Si Solus (Ire) was bought by this trainer for third in the G3 Derby-Trial, also has the yearling colt Vollgas dam, whose son Vallando (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}) was hard to shake off that rival as they had it between them from throughout the early stages. VALE RAINBOW (GER) (c, 2, Soldier Hollow {GB}–Vallanda (Ger), by Lomitas {GB}), sent off at 6-1 on this debut, shadowed the narrow leader Muskoka (Ger) (Sea The Moon (Ger)) throughout the early stages. In front at halfway, the bay found it hard to shake off that rival as they had it between them from the outset but eventually asserted to score by a length. The dam, whose son Vallando (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}) was third in the G3 Derby-Trial, also has the yearling colt Vollgas (Ger) (Best Solution {Ire}) who was bought by this trainer for €40,000 at the recent BBAG September Yearling Sale. COX PLATE ON THE CARDS: ALLIGATOR BLOOD RELISHES STEP UP

By Oz Wedmore

Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) served it up to his rivals in the G1 Underwood S. on Sunday with a typically bold showing at the head of affairs, especially given it was his first attempt beyond a mile. It was a 17th Group 1 winner for the training partnership of Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, and a first for the 6-year-old gelding since donning the colours of his new owner, Gerry Harvey.

In a career that’s been marred by injury and controversy, Alligator Blood was in the form of his life and showed no signs of his age as he accounted for a field of elite performers by a comfortable 0.75 lengths.

He looked vulnerable for a moment in the home straight as pre-race favourite Zaaki (GB) (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) mounted his challenge. But Annabel Neasham’s charge was unable to build any advantage and looked awkward as he lugged in towards the eventual winner.

Zaaki weakened as Alligator Blood began to extend, and the efforts of I’m Thunderstruck (NZ) (Shocking) (who finished fourth) and Mo’unga (NZ) (Savabeel) (second) ultimately came too late.

“Obviously, he’s had a colourful career and I just feel privileged to have the opportunity to train the horse, particularly to Mr Harvey to entrust us with him,” winning co-trainer Adrian Bott said.

“I’m very proud of the horse, coming out here today, out in trip for the first time. To take on a quality field, and the pressure was put onto him very early on in the race and I loved the way he responded and kept fighting—a great thrill.”

With Sunday’s 1800-metre feature race being his first start beyond a mile, Bott confirmed that the G1 Cox Plate was now very much on the cards for the gelding.

“Just over that extra trip he’s able to find that nice rhythm, he can maintain those good sectionals, he’s got a high cruising speed and he can find under pressure. It’s a testing track here today and I expect him to be able to continue to find under pressure over a bit further as well.”
