IN-FORM SIBELIUS SETS HIS SIGHTS ON BREEDERS' CUP SPRINT

by Steve Sherack

Just how good, exactly? That question will be answered in Keeneland's 'Win and You’re In' GII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. on opening day Oct. 7.

“I’m a big believer in horses getting confident when they win,” trainer Jerry O'Dwyer said. “When they back it up, back-to-back like he has, he’s walking around there with his chest out and looking and feeling good.”

The Jun H. Park and Delia Nash colorbearer ended a five-race losing skid with a sharp victory over a trio of next-out winners while cutting back to six furlongs in an optional claimer at Saratoga Aug. 10, good for a 100 Beyer, prior to his aforementioned 7 1/2-length romp in Baltimore Sept. 10.

TATTERSALLS DIRECTOR JIMMY GEORGE JOINS WRITERS' ROOM

A week out from his company's marquee October Yearling Sale, Tattersalls Director Jimmy George joined the TDN Writers' Room presented by Keeneland Tuesday as the Green Group Guest of the Week to discuss the increasing American participation in the sale, the booming yearling market, opportunities for American buyers with the lopsided exchange rate and more.

“It’s not quite buy one, get one free, but it’s very nearly that,” George said of the potential sales results of the exchange rate, where pounds are nearly equal to dollars at this point.

"Honestly, the weakness of the pound is a little bit alarming in some senses to anybody who actually lives here, but for anybody trading in U.S. dollars, they will come to Book 1 of the October Sale next week and be buying the same quality of horse for 20-25% less than they were paying last year." WEEKLY RULINGS

A round-up of stewards’ rulings from around the country for the week of Sept. 19-26.
Sibelius Sets Sights on Breeders’ Cup Sprint

The chestnut gelding also ran well in defeat in his two previous trips to the post while third with first-time blinkers behind subsequent Glll Monmouth Cup winner Highly Motivated (Into Mischief) going a one-turn mile at Belmont May 28 and also filled that same slot behind GISP Baby Yoda (Prospective) in upstate New York going seven furlongs July 16, respectively.

“He’s a horse that we’ve always liked and he’s always shown some natural ability,” O’Dwyer said. “I think now being a 4-year-old, he’s reaching his peak performance, maturity and strength wise. Mentally, he’s in a great place. He couldn’t have been any more impressive in his last win at Pimlico. Just the way he jumped out and traveled nicely and opened up in hand. After running a big number in Saratoga the time before, you like to see them back it up to something equivalent. He stepped up again, which is nice.”

The six-furlong Lite the Fuse was Sibelius’s first attempt versus stakes company since a trio of disappointing stakes tries last season, including a distant fifth in a sloppy renewal of the rained-off GIII Penn Mile S. in his first go versus winners last May. He was previously a big-figure maiden winner at second asking at Keeneland, site of this year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint.

“I think it took him a little while to get his confidence back,” O’Dwyer said. “His works at home were always very good. You could tell he had a lot of ability. I started stretching him out a bit because in the sprint races, he wasn’t traveling strongly on the bridle like he is now. Even when we stretched him out, he ran super [finishing second] over the one-turn mile at Aqueduct [Apr. 2].

O’Dwyer continued, “But then his works just started getting so much stronger and sharper. He’s been giving us all the right signals. We started gradually cutting him back in distance and he’s been showing us that he’s just an out-and-out sprinter now. Super fast and sharp.”

With six starts at three and already eight attempts under his belt this season, Sibelius isn’t the kind of horse that needs a lot of work in between starts. Currently residing at the Thoroughbred Training Center in Kentucky, Sibelius is slated to join the South Florida-based O’Dwyer’s Keeneland string Friday.

Bred in Kentucky by Taylor Brothers Properties LLC, Pollock Farms, Patrick H. Payne, et al, Sibelius brought $100,000 as a KEENOV weanling. He subsequently RNA’d twice—for $62,000 at KEEJAN and for $75,000 at KEESSEP. Out of the unraced Pulpit mare Fierey Pulpit, he is a half-brother to MSP Dypsy (Broken Vow), dam of MSW & MGISP Edwards Going Left (Midnight Lute). Sibelius is one of 22 stakes winners for promising young sire Not This Time.

“He’s very straightforward,” O’Dwyer said. “He’s not a big, robust horse. He looks very muscular and doesn’t carry too much excess flesh. He’ll get a lot out of his gallops if you let him. So, we keep him under wraps a little bit. He’ll just have a blowout on Friday, maybe an easy half mile in :49 or something like that. I’ll see how he is over the next couple of days.”

After beginning his career as a jockey in Ireland and England, O’Dwyer came to the U.S. to gallop for trainer Al Stall, Jr. He also worked under trainers Bill Mott, Michael Matz and Andrew McKeever before going out on his own in 2014. Shotski (Blame) became the first graded winner for O’Dwyer with an upset victory in the 2019 GII Remsen S. at Aqueduct.

Should Sibelius earn his way to the Breeders’ Cup Sprint via next week’s Phoenix, it would be the first starter in the World Championships for O’Dwyer.

“We want to be there on the big days,” O’Dwyer said. “We’re fortunate that he’s given us a bit of a highlight this year. We’re hoping he can continue to do that.”
Jimmy George Joins Writers' Room

George continued, “That is a massive discount. This is an unprecedented opportunity for anyone who wants to race turf horses of the highest quality in North America. So all I can say is, take advantage. It probably won’t be like this for a very long time.”

Elsewhere on the show, which is also sponsored by Coolmore, the KTOB, Lane’s End, XBTV, Three Chimneys, West Point Thoroughbreds and Legacy Bloodstock, host Joe Bianca said his farewell as he moves on from the show, he and Bill Finley welcomed new co-host Zoe Cadman, and all three reacted to the sensational Saturday for superstar stallion Gun Runner. Every week, the TDN publishes a roundup of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky.

Here's a primer on how each of these jurisdictions adjudicates different offenses, what they make public (or not) and where.

With the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) having gone into effect July 1, the TDN will also post a roundup of the relevant HISA-related rulings from the same week.

1/ST RACING & GAMING UNVEILED

The Stronach Group's Belinda Stronach introduced 1/ST RACING & GAMING, an enhanced division of the company designed to position the core Thoroughbred horse racing business to fully capitalize on the future of sports wagering and gaming. According to a Wednesday evening press release from the company, the 1/ST RACING & GAMING division will continue to oversee racing operations at 1/ST tracks and training centers while working to expand the company’s gaming footprint in collaboration with 1/ST TECHNOLOGY led by the divisions’ Chief Executive Officer, Paul Williams.

“The shifting landscape of sports wagering, digital platforms and interest in high-quality content presents an opportunity for 1/ST to innovate to meet the demands of our modern consumers,” said Stronach. “An enhanced 1/ST RACING & GAMING business unit will enable us to move faster and more efficiently to deliver our unique, industry-leading Thoroughbred horse racing, gaming and sports entertainment content to the next generation audience.”

Stronach has appointed Aidan Butler as Chief Executive Officer and Craig Fravel as Executive Vice-Chairman of the newly formed division.

Butler has appointed Rikki Tanenbaum as Chief Commercial Officer and President of Gaming, and Stephen Screnci as President of Racing and Business Development.

CHRIS GRIFFIN NAMED NEW TRACK ANNOUNCER AT MONMOUTH PARK

Parx track announcer Chris Griffin has been named the new track announcer at Monmouth Park starting with the 2023 meet that gets underway in May.

Griffin, the back-up announcer at Monmouth Park since 2020, will replace Frank Mirahmadi, who is taking over as the track announcer at Saratoga next summer after eight years at Monmouth Park. Mirahmadi is also the track announcer at Santa Anita. The 41-year-old Griffin was also recently named the track announcer for the Aqueduct winter meet that runs from January through April.

"We’re pleased to have Chris Griffin join us as our full-time announcer. There has been a tremendous legacy in the Monmouth Park announcer’s booth for the past 50 years, from Bob Weems to Larry Collmus to Travis Stone to Frank Mirahmadi, and we feel Chris will carry on that tradition," said Dennis Drazin, Chairman and CEO of Darby Development LLC, operators of Monmouth Park.
Griffin has been the track announcer at Parx since April of 2021, filling in at Monmouth Park in Mirahmadi’s absence for the past three years as well. He also serves as the track announcer for the Monmouth-at-Meadowlands meet and will continue in that role going forward. "It's an honor. I'm humbled," said Griffin. "It's nice when you feel like you have worked really hard to achieve your goals of what you want to do career-wise and where you want to be. I have gotten to know some of the people at Monmouth Park over the past three years. To be able to fill in over that time, and to do so for Frank Mirahmadi, someone I respect immensely in this industry and as an announcer, has meant a lot to me. It's a great opportunity to be able to now get to do this full-time at Monmouth Park."

Griffin, who hails from Santa Monica, Calif., got his announcing start with the National Hot Rod Association and Harlem Globetrotters, moving on to call races at the Humboldt County Fair in Ferndale, Calif. He has been the announcer for a variety of California fair meets as well as Portland Meadows, Los Alamitos and Gulfstream Park West.

Griffin was named the track announcer at Sam Houston in 2018. He also filled in at the Belmont Park fall meet in 2021.

T.I.P. NAMES NON-COMPETITION AWARD WINNERS

The Jockey Club (TJC) Thoroughbred Incentive Program (T.I.P.) has announced the 2022 recipients of its two non-competition awards, the T.I.P. Thoroughbred of the Year Award and the T.I.P. Young Rider of the Year Award.

The Thoroughbred of the Year Award, which recognizes a Thoroughbred that has excelled in a non-competitive career, such as equine-assisted therapy or police work, goes to “River,” a mare born in 2000 and raced as Teen Dancer (Mt. Magazine). River is a therapy horse at CORRAL, a nonprofit that equips adolescent girls in high-risk situations through a long-term, holistic program of equine therapy and education. The award includes a $5,000 grant to CORRAL. "Like so many of our youth, River was rejected time and time again from her foster homes. It wasn’t until she came to CORRAL that she found her forever home," said Joy Currey, founder and executive director of CORRAL. “Now she helps young women find a place they can call their ‘home-away-from-home’ where they can access their bright, bright futures. River's intense spirit matches well with our rigorous college-preparatory environment and teaches our girls that they are capable of so much more than the world expects of them.”

Recipients of the Young Rider of the Year Award are Ashlynn Riley, Andie Sue Roth, and Erika Williams. The award recognizes riders 18 or younger who own or lease a Thoroughbred for use in 4-H, Pony Club, or other activities.

Riley, a T.I.P. ambassador, owns and events Mr Pappagiorgio (Holy Bull; barn name “George”) and will use her award to help with tuition of her online veterinary technician program at Penn Foster University and for training with George.

Roth uses Cape Royal (Anziyan Royalty) to do dressage. A Paralympic hopeful, Roth plans to use her award to continue training with Lisa Hellmer, the U.S. Para Equestrian Development Coach, in Ocala.

Williams owns and rides House of Troy (Distorted Humor; barn name “Troy”). She plans to use her award to ship Troy from her home in California to her college in Kentucky.

THURSDAY’S RACING INSIGHTS:
By Stefanie Grimm
Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

1--BOUND BY DESTINY, 120, f, 2, by Lord Nelson
   1st Dam: Chorale, by Unbridled's Song
   2nd Dam: Cassis, by Red Ransom
   3rd Dam: Minstress, by The Minstrel
   ($22,000 Ylg '21 FTKOCT). O-Black Cloud Racing Stable, LLC (Mark Esposito); B-Sanford Robertson (KY); T-Anthony Pecoraro; J-Jeremy Rose. $60,000. Lifetime Record: 4-4-0-0, $138,750.

2--Chickieness, 118, f, 2, Blofeld--Chickaletta, by Harlan's Holiday. O-Morris E. Kernan, Jr. & Jagger Inc.; B-Jagger Inc. (MD); T-Jamie Ness. $20,000.

Margins: 1HF, 5, NO. Odds: 0.30, 4.20, 47.80.
Also Ran: Blome, Shell Belle, Talk to the Judge, Skylar's Sister. Scratched: I Gotta Bolt.

An impressive 14-length winner on debut against maiden claimers at Delaware July 1, Bound by Destiny came right back to score a narrow victory against optional claimers over the same track Aug. 10. She last took the state-bred Blue Hen S. by 5 3/4 lengths Aug. 31 to continue her undefeated record. Hammered down to 1-5 by post time, Bound by Destiny was in chase mode early on, racing between rivals up the backstretch before starting an outside bid midway around the far turn. Sprinting clear of main rival Chickieness in upper stretch, she drew off down the lane for a clear victory as the top pair were separated by a wide margin from the rest of the field.

"I thought she was going to bring a solid performance and she delivered on those expectations," said trainer Anthony Pecoraro. "She had been training great and developing so nicely since her victory in the Blue Hen S. I am not sure where we are going next with her. We are just going to enjoy this victory for the next couple of days and then we will start looking at possible next starts."

From the extended female family of champion 2-year-old filly Storm Song (Summer Squall), Bound by Destiny has a yearling half-sister by Goldencents and a weanling half-brother by Gormley still to race behind her. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
8th-Churchill Downs, $138,210, Alw (NW3$X)/Opt. Clm ($100,000), 9-28, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m, 1:50.19, ft, 2 3/4 lengths.
WEST WILL POWER (h, 5, Bernardini--Wild Promises {GSW, $699,610}, by Wild Event) posted a career-best performance when finishing second behind MGISW Code of Honor (Noble Mission {GB}) in Monmouth's GIII Philip H. Iselin S. last August Off the board behind Mind Control (Stay Thirsty) to end 2021 in the Parx Dirt Mile S. last September, West Will Power returned this year to narrowly miss by a head in the R.A. Cowboy Jones Overnight S. at Ellis Park for new trainer Brad Cox. Bet down to even money Wednesday, he sat a pressured tempo just in front of GSW Helium (Ironicus) through a mild opening half in :49.46. Having repelled that bid, he sprinted clear with a furlong to run and edged further away late to win by 2 3/4 lengths over Intrepid Heart (Tapit). Out of a half-sister to MGSW Icy Atlantic (Stormy Atlantic), West Will Power is his dam's youngest offspring to make the races. Lifetime Record: GSP, 11-4-5-0, $308,230. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.
O/B-Gary & Mary West Stables Inc. (KY); T-Brad H. Cox.

5th-Presque Isle Downs, $34,850, Msw, 9-28, 2yo, 6f (AWT), 1:10.31, ft, 3 1/4 lengths.
SOUPER BLESSING (c, 2, Temple City--Bird of Paradise, by Summer Bird), dispatched at odds of 7-1 for this debut, hit the gate at the break and quickly found himself at the back of the field. Patiently handled, he wove his way through the field around the far turn before coming widest of all into the top of the lane to strike the front. Kept under a ride down the stretch, he steadily pulled away from early pacesetter Aztec Legend (Sharp Azteca) to hit the wire 3 1/4 lengths ahead. From the extended family of two-time horse of the year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry), Souper Blessing has a weanling half-sister named Paradise Wins (Bernardini) while his dam was sent to Win Win Win for next season. Lifetime Record: 1:1-0-0, $21,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.
O/B-Live Oak Stud (FL); T-Michael J. Trombetta.

4th- Assiniboia Downs, C$20,350, Msw, 9-27, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 1:07.80, ft, 3 1/2 lengths.
SILVERCREEK LADY (f, 2, Uncle Mo--Dixietwostepper {MSP, $141,378}, by More Than Ready), given the 9-5 nod Tuesday after a fourth-place debut effort over this same track Sept. 5, sat off the pace near the rear of the field while saving ground against the fence. Angled out widest of all, she made a seven-wide bid at the top of the stretch, drew past pacesetter Indio Time (Tamarkuz) with an eighth to run, and cleared late for the 3 1/2-length score over Viral (Gottcha Gold). A full-sister to GSP Moana, Silvercreek Lady is from the extended family of GISW Cotton Blossom (Broken Vow) and is her dam's youngest offspring. Dixietwostepper visited Flameaway for the 2023 season. Sales History: $50,000 Ylg '21 FTKOCT; $40,000 RNA 2yo '22 EASMAY. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $9,495. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

ORBY ECLIPSES ALL EXPECTATIONS AS KODIAC COLT SHINES

Alice Fitzgerald and Michael Doyle with the day two session topper | Peter Mooney

By Brian Sheerin and Emma Berry

KILDARE, Ireland--Henry Beeby revealed that the figures recorded at this year’s Orby Sale far exceeded his greatest expectations as, less than 24 hours after seeing the most expensive yearling offered at public auction in the States and Europe so far this year walk through the ring, the world-famous sales house recorded a whopping 24% rise in turnover with over €50 million traded in two days.

Of the 231 yearlings offered on day two, 199 were sold for a total of €23,192,500, which represented an 11% rise on last year’s figures. The average on day two was also up 0.9% to €116,646 while the median was the same as last year at €80,000.

But it was the overall figures that garnered the greatest recognition with an impressive 89% clearance rate equating to €50,374,500 traded in the ring. That overall average climbed 11% to €121,384 while the median was a record €87,000, up 16% on last year.

Beeby was suitably impressed and said, “The expectation coming into the Orby Sale was that we would enjoy a strong trade following good results elsewhere and so we were hopeful of some improved statistics.” Cont. p3

CONNECTIONS OF VERRY ELLEEGANT DECIDE AGAINST ARC SUPPLEMENTATION

Francis-Henri Graffard has voiced his frustration after confirming Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}) will miss the G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe following France Galop’s decision to limit the field to 20 runners.

Last year’s G1 Melbourne Cup winner travelled to Europe and joined Graffard earlier this year with the main aim of running in the French highlight.

However, she disappointed on her French debut in the G1 Prix Jean Romanet--finishing last of seven--and, despite showing significant improvement to place third in the G2 Prix Foy on her second start, the French handicapper dropped her rating to 113, placing her 22nd in the order of entry. TAKEAWAYS
Goffs Orby Sale Day 2

- The overall Orby gross jumped 24% to €50,374,500, while the average rose 11% to €121,384 and the median also recorded a double-digit gain of 16% to €87,000.
- Night Of Thunder (Ire) boasted a 100% clearance rate, as he had 19 yearlings sell for an aggregate of €3,207,000 and an average of €168,789. Fifteen of those were six-figure lots, anchored by three fillies that cost €525,000, €350,000 and €340,000, respectively.
- Nineteen yearlings by young sire Ten Sovereigns (Ire) went through the ring and 17 sold for a gross of €1,824,000 and an average of €107,294. Lot 505, a €500,000 colt, from Pier House Stud and the second-highest lot on Wednesday, was snapped up by Jacob West, agent for Rob and Lawana Low.
- BBA Ireland outlaid a sale-topping gross of €4,714,000 for 28 yearlings over the two-day stand.
- At the close of trade, Flash Conroy’s Glenvale Stud led all consignors by aggregate, with 21 sold for €4,736,000. They averaged €225,524.

He added, “However nothing could have prepared us for the strength of the market and the vibrancy of the sale especially on day one which saw the world’s highest priced yearling so far this autumn at €2.6 million.

“The stunning sister to Blackbeard (Ire) (No Nay Never) headed a truly electric trade that resulted from wonderful support from Irish breeders who responded to our strong sale of recovery last year by significantly increasing their support, hence a catalogue that grew by 15%.

“Repeat Business The Best Business

There can be no greater compliment in this game than repeat business and, a year after purchasing Magical Sunset (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) from Alice Fitzgerald, Peter and Ross Doyle returned to one of the shrewdest vendors on the circuit to secure the full-brother (lot 460) for €575,000.

Magical Sunset took the notable scalp of subsequent ‘TDN Rising Star’ and G2 Mill Reef S. hero Sakheer (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) on debut and ran a creditable fourth in the Goffs Million at the Curragh last week.

She is owned by Amo Racing, who the Doyles secured a Prince Of Lir (Ire) half-brother to Oscula (Ire) (Galileo Gold {Ire}) on behalf of for €300,000 on the same afternoon. Cont. p4

However, the Kodiac colt, produced by Fitzgerald and her partner Michael Doyle in excellent shape for the Orby, was purchased on behalf of Stall Perlen and will be trained by Richard Hannon.

Fitzgerald said, “We’re over the moon; couldn’t be happier. Goffs has always been a very lucky place for us, that’s why we brought him here, and Kodiac has been a very lucky stallion for us.

“I hope he’s good for his new owners and best of luck to them. We loved him so we were very excited coming up here but you never really know. But he was going down very well and showed like a dream from the start.

“There’s been a great buzz about the place. We thought we were in a pretty good spot but it’s still kind of nerve-wracking.”

She added, “Selling well is one thing but the most important thing is that they go on. We want to sell racehorses, and we have the mare and two of his sisters, so it’s very important that he performs on the track.”

The Kodiac colt has been provided with a decent chance of fulfilling his potential as a racehorse with Ross Doyle confirming his pick of the sale to be joining Hannon.

Doyle said, “We thought he was an absolute standout over the two days. His full-sister [Magical Sunset] is very talented—we bought her here last year.

“He comes from a very good home and never turned a hair every time I went down to see him. He’s a very natural looking horse by a sire we’ve had a lot of luck with.

“He’s for Stall Perlen. They’ve been very good long-term clients and he’s going to go to Richard Hannon. They had a very good Gone West horse with Richard Hannon, Sr. a good few years back called West Order and they have a very nice unraced Camelot (GB) filly in training this year. Fingers crossed.” Cont. p5

On the trade in general and picking up Oscula's half-brother, he added, "It's a very strong trade with some lovely horses. Goffs have done a wonderful job again. It's been consistent with all the sales around the world so far this year.

"There is a huge appetite for horses which is great to see. We're very lucky that people are putting their faith in us to find them some very nice horses.

"The Prince Of Lir has gone back to Robson [Aguilar]. He's a smashing big horse and is obviously a half-brother to Oscula who is tough as nails. Robson and Kia [Joorabchian] will make their minds up about what they want to do."

Patience Pays Off For West

After missing out on the queen of the Orby Sale, Blackbeard's (Ire) little sister who sold for €2.6million on Tuesday, top American agent Jacob West was rewarded for his patience when snaring lot 505, a Ten Sovereigns (Ire) colt, for €500,000 late on Wednesday.

The colt was purchased on behalf of Robert and Lawana Low from Pier House Stud and, according to West, who is also the American representative for Goffs, will be trained by Todd Pletcher.

West said, "He'll go back to America and will be trained by Todd Pletcher for Robert and Lawana Low. Ten Sovereigns was an incredibly fast horse, a son of No Nay Never who is a son of Scat Daddy.

"Todd trained Scat Daddy so he has a relationship with that sire line. We had a lot of appreciation for No Nay Never when he was racing. This horse is incredibly good-looking."

He added, “Mr. and Mrs. Low took a big swing on the sister to Blackbeard on Tuesday. Unfortunately we didn't get her but I told them that this colt was selling late in the day and that he was probably going to be expensive. Luckily we were able to get him." Cont. p6

Despite drawing a blank on Tuesday, West enjoyed quite a fruitful end to the sale on Wednesday, and also picked up a Zoffany (Ire) colt (lot 271) from Marlhill House Stud for €110,000.

He said, "I am the US representative for Goffs so I tell everybody that this is an incredible place to buy a good horse for a solid number. You are never going to over-pay for a horse that won’t make your standards. You find value here and the horses are raised the right way by the breeders.

He added, "They bring the right horses and it seems as though they get rewarded so it’s a win for everybody. Last year, we were up against it a little bit with the exchange rate but I think it’s been in our favour this year. A good horse is always going to bring in a lot of money but, when it [the exchange rate] is equal, it does make life a lot easier, that’s for sure."

Americans Make Merry at the Orby

Hugo Merry was another man who concurred that the strength of the dollar provided American buyers with that extra impetus at Goffs this week after he secured lot 311, the Loughtown Stud-drafted Sea The Stars (Ire) filly out of black-type performer Zvarkhova (Fr) (Makfi {GB}) for €460,000.

The filly was bought on behalf of Andrew Rosen, Gainesway and LNJ Foxwoods, all of whom have been increasingly active in the European market in recent times.

Merry said, "She’s for Andrew Rosen, Gainesway and LNJ Foxwoods. We had Mind Out (Tapit) and were very lucky before. They are great friends and everyone seems to be partnering up to make the dollar go a bit further. I rather liked the look of it, it was $440,000 on the board—it’s frightening."

He added, "The Americans are finding it quite good value. She was a lovely, quality filly and there was a nice update in the pedigree."

La Parisienne (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}) provided that update. Things could get even better on Sunday with the Yann and Carlos Lerner-trained filly, who is out of the second dam, Varsity (GB) (Lomitas {GB}), set to tackle the G1 Prix de l’Opera.

Loughtown’s Paddy Burns said everything came together nicely for their filly to achieve the price she did.

Burns said, "We thought we’d a lovely filly but you are never quite expecting a result like that.

We’re absolutely delighted. When you are breeding, it’s very hard for the stars to align like that, and we’re very happy that it all came together."

Burns, whose father Seamus bred and sold New Approach (Ire), praised Goffs for attracting a strong buyers’ bench, leading to the excellent result in the ring.

He added, "We’ve been lucky here before. My family were lucky enough to breed and sell New Approach here. It proves that, if you bring the article here, Goffs will have the clients for them."

Brother To Saffron Beach Shines

There have been few more likeable fillies to grace the track in recent seasons than Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}), the dual Group 1-winning star who has netted her connections close to a million pounds, and her little brother proved suitably popular with Amanda Skiffington the successful bidder at €450,000.

Consigned by Ballylinch Stud, lot 453 was purchased on behalf of Fiona Carmichael, and will be trained by Jane Chapple-Hyam, the woman who has managed the brilliant career of Saffron Beach.

Skiffington has enjoyed a productive trip to Ireland, picking up a Night Of Thunder colt (lot 102) from Baroda Stud and a Churchill filly (lot 104) from Jimmy and Mary Mangan's Conna Stud on Tuesday, and the brother to Saffron Beach took her total spend to €900,000.

She said, "He's very like Saffron Beach and will be trained by Jane Chapple-Hyam for Fiona Carmichael. He is very athletic--so like his sister. Fingers crossed."

Saffron Beach won six of her 12 starts, including last season's G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket and the G1 Prix Rothschild back in August.

She is set to light up the December Mares Sale at Newmarket after it was announced that connections will offer the 4-year-old, who was last seen finishing a gallant second in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown, under the hammer later this year.

Casse Keeps It In The Family

Justin Casse was in playful humour after signing for lot 351, a Galileo (Ire) colt out of Belesta (GB) (Xaar {GB}), whose new connections couldn't be named.

The popular American agent secured the colt from Marlhill House Stud for €450,000, but couldn't reveal plans beyond that.

"Don't know where the horse is going and can't tell you who it's for," he said. “[The] sale seems very strong and clearance rate is good—money for horses at all levels. Goffs is super hospitable."

Casse has history with the family. It was at the Orby Sale in 2017 that he signed for the half-brother Old Glory (Ire) (Frankel (GB)) on behalf of Zayat Stables for €1.6 million, with that colt winning once and achieving black-type in eight starts for Aidan O'Brien.

Indeed, that was not the only time the progeny of Belesta made headlines in the ring, as 12 months ago leading American trainer Kenny McPeek paid €900,000 for a full-brother to Old Glory. That colt has yet to race.

Casse said, "I am familiar with the family. I bought the Frankel out of the mare for the Zayats and he was a talented individual. Kenny McPeek bought the yearling last year. Ticks all the boxes!"

Dance Saves Best Bid Until Last

Late in the session a Sea The Stars (Ire) half-brother to Grade I winner Blond Me (Ire) (Tamayuz (GB)) saw a bidding tussle between Maria Ryan and Mark McStay end in favour of Ryan, the racing operations manager for John and Jess Dance’s Manor House Farm, at €425,000.

The Dances, along with Ryan and their trainer James Horton have been active throughout the season, and particularly busy at Goffs where they bought 12 yearlings for €1,995,000.

“It has been a really exciting time,” said Ryan. “John just sent a text and said that we have just successfully bid the most expensive horse we have ever bought. So very good luck to them. She will go to Mark Dwyer’s for breaking and then come to us in Middleham."

“It has been a wonderful season. James said at the start he’d like to have 15 winners—we’ve got 32 horses and most of them are 2-year-olds, so to have 14 now and a listed winner is absolutely brilliant.”

Lot 493 was bred by Wardstown Stud and Sunderland Holdings from the Docksider mare Holda (Ire), a half-sister to the Australian Group 1 winner Glass Harmonium (Ire) (Verglas (Ire)) and to the dual Group 3 winner Arab Spring (Ire) (Monsun (Ger)). She was pinhooked as a foal for €270,000 by Camas Park Stud.

Freshman Swagger

With a swathe of sires represented by their first yearlings this season, the popularity of these untested stallions remains intense. Near the top of the table on Wednesday could be found a daughter of Darley’s crack sprinter Blue Point (Ire) who was bought by MV Magnier for €420,000 from the Mahon family’s Mountain View Stud.

Bred by Tess Mahon, lot 345 is out of the four-time winner Badr Al Badoor (Ire) (Acclamation (GB)), a half-sister to another of the Darley stallions in Profitable (Ire), and who has made a highly promising start to her broodmare career with three winners from her three runners, including the listed winner Archer’s Dream (Ire) (Dream Ahead).

With 12 yearlings offered during the Orby, Blue Point’s average across the two days was €156,000 from an opening stud fee of €45,000.

Advertise (GB), who is leaving the National Stud along with Aclaim (Ire) to stand at Manton Park Stud in Wiltshire, was also up among the leaders on a days when fillies were in strong demand. Lot 275, bred and consigned by Rathbarry Stud, is the first foal of the 3-year-old winner Treeline (GB) (Champs Elysees (GB)), who was bought for 105,000gns at the Tattersalls December Sale when carrying this filly. Cont. p9

Since then, the mare has been bred to the Rathberry stalwart Acclamation (GB) and has produced another filly.

The Irish National Stud’s Classic winner Phoenix Of Spain (Ire) is another with first-crop yearlings for sale, and his entry at the Orby was led by lot 266, another picked up by an American agent. Ben McElroy, who has signed for three yearlings over the two days, returned to a successful formula when going to €200,000 for Pier House Stud’s filly out of Thames Pageant (GB) (Dansili (GB)), who is a half-sister to previous McElroy Orby purchase Twilight Gleaming (Ire) (National Defense (Ire)), the winner of last season’s GII Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint for Wesley Ward.

The page has also been enhanced in recent seasons by The Queen’s G3 Solario S. winner Reach For The Moon (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)), who is a half-brother to Thames Pageant. Second dam Golden Stream (Ire) and third dam Phantom Gold (GB), were both black-type winners in the royal colours.

Tally-Ho Stud’s Inns Of Court (Ire) has just two lots go through the ring, but one was the half-brother to Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed Persian Force (Ire) (Mehmas (Ire)). Offered as lot 286 by the Tally-Ho team, which pinhooked him last year for €80,000, he sold for €170,000 and it was no surprise to see the name Amo Racing in the buyer’s slot. The sole Inns Of Court filly in the sale, a half-sister to another smart 2-year-old in Acklam Express (Ire) (Mehmas (Ire)), sold for €80,000 to Jamie Piggott and Acklam Express’s trainer Nigel Tinkler.

Lanwades resident Study Of Man (Ire) had just three of his first crop offered at the Orby, with all sold for an average of €88,667. The trio was led by the son of Group 3 winner Starlit Sands (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)), who was bought by the partnership of Qatar Racing and China Horse Club for €185,000 during Tuesday’s session.

The Study Of Man half-brother to this year’s Derby winner Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)), who was set to sell next week at Tattersalls October Book 1, has been withdrawn from the sale.

Better The Devil

As has already been referenced, the American participation has been a notable factor at Goffs this week, and Dan Hayden, acting on behalf of Marc Holliday’s Blue Devil Racing Stable, struck early in the day to secure another offspring of a first-season sire, a filly by Advertise (GB) (lot 275) at €300,000.

New York-based Holliday is already represented as an owner in Ireland by a 3-year-old gelding named Selador (Ire) with Joseph O’Brien, and this filly will follow that same route, going into training at Owning Hill. Previous O’Brien trainee Messidor (Ire) (Vadamos {GB}), a dual winner at Dundalk, has now migrated Stateside to the stable of Christophe Clement.

“I’ve been coming over the last few years for Marc,” Hayden said. “He likes the programme of buying one or two yearlings each year and sending them down to Joseph—he loves the programme down there. “We always then have an eye to America as well if one is shaping up as if she might suit over there. Messidor was bought here and has won three races over in America.”

He continued, “Marc loves to breed as well so he is looking for quality fillies who could enter the broodmare band, but he is a sportsman and loves racing anywhere and loves to take part in both jurisdictions.

“The Advertise filly is a big, powerful individual, and I loved the filly we bought yesterday, a lovely Invincible Spirit filly out of a Tiz Wonderful mare—that Tiznow line we like in the US as a broodmare sire. The mare has already thrown a Grade II winner so she looks good and the yearling was a really athletic filly who will also go to Joseph.”

The aforementioned Invincible Spirit (Ire) filly, a half-sister to graded stakes winner California Angel (California Chrome), was consigned by the Irish National Stud as lot 200 and was sold for €180,000.

Advertise has stood at €25,000 since retiring to stud and his Goffs average was over three times that amount at €89,750 for eight sold.

Among a large cohort of Americans in town for the sale was owner Mike O’Neill, a relative newcomer to the sport in general and at the Orby Sale for the first time.

“T’d into horseracing about 18 months to two years ago,” he explained. “I have some friends and clients who are Kentucky-based and were trying to get me into it. I’m from Chicago and didn’t know much [about racing] but I bought in on a filly and a colt and we had some success with [Aqueduct winner] Fromanothamutha, who is with Ray Handal.

“I bought him with Jason Taylor and Diamond T Racing, and we bought seven more yearlings last September at Keeneland.”

With horses spread among a range of trainers including Steve Asmussen and Brad Cox, O’Neill has been well and truly bitten by the bug, and decided to spread his wings beyond his home country.

O’Neill continued, “Jason Taylor and David Ingordo were coming over here and I made friends with Bo Bromagen and Ramiro Restrepo and they said I should talk to Charlie O’Neill [of ITM] and get on the flight over to Ireland as they thought there would be good value. We’re also going to check out Newmarket and see what happens there but this has been a great sale, and it’s beautiful here. More Americans need to come out here to see how great this place this is.” Cont. p11

O’Neill will be involved in three yearlings bought by Taylor on Tuesday--two colts by No Nay Never for €280,000 (lot 154) and €120,000 (lot 52), and a first-crop daughter of Magna Grecia (Ire) (lot 159) picked up for €200,000.

Starspangledbanner In Lights

The good results kept on coming for Flash Conroy’s Glenvale Stud. Less than 24 hours after supplying the 2022 Orby Sale topper, Conroy produced an excellent pinhook in lot 347, a Starspangledbanner (Aus) filly that Glenvale picked up as a foal for €82,000 before selling on Wednesday for a tidy profit when the hammer fell at €330,000.

Out of the unraced Dansili (GB) mare Balakera (Ire), the Starspangledbanner filly boasts a strong Aga Khan damline, being from the family of G3 1000 Guineas Trial winner Baliyana (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and many more black-type and group performers.

She was picked up at the November Foal Sale at Goffs from Ryebridge Stud last year and Wednesday’s sale to Olivia Perkins Mackey represented one of the best pinhooks of the entire session.

It wasn’t the only good result for Starspangledbanner, either. Earlier on in the afternoon, lot 299, another filly by the stallion, changed hands from Gormanstown Stud to BBA Ireland for a cool €325,000.

Out of the late Lady Rothschild’s Willoughby (Ire) (Oasis Dream GB), who was herself sold from the recent Waddesdon Stud Dispersal for 310,000gns, the filly is a half-sister to two winners, including the Ed Walker-trained listed winner Glenartney (GB) (Le Havre {Ire}).

Those fillies were the headline-grabbers on what proved to be another rock-solid sale for Starspangledbanner with all 10 of the yearlings offered by the former speedster selling for an aggregate of €1,495,000 at an average of €149,500.

Purchased by Federico Barberini

A filly by Cracksman was picked up by Peter and Ross Doyle out of the Tattersalls December Foal Sale for a mere 25,000gn. Re-offered by Pier House Stud on Wednesday, the bay brought over five times that amount when selling to Federico Barberini. Her Darley first-crop sire already has 10 winners to his name and three black-type horses, led by listed winner Dance In The Grass (GB). Her dam is out of the G1 Garden City Breeders' Cup H. second Flawly (GB) (Old Vic {GB}). Carmens Fate is a half-sister to Group 3 winner and G1 French Derby runner-up Best Name (GB) (King's Best).

JAPANESE RAiders PLEASE CONNECTIONS IN FINAL WORKS

Several of Japan’s G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe challengers galloped on Wednesday morning, led by Classic winner and three-time Group 1 victor Titleholder (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}). Successful in the G1 Japanese St Leger back in October of 2021, the 4-year-old is riding a three-race winning streak, having taken the G2 Nikkei Sho, G1 Tenno Sho (Spring) and G1 Takarazuka Kinen in March, May and June this term, respectively. Carrying the silks of Hiroshi Yamada, the son of five-time winner Mowen (GB) (Motivator {GB}) has not raced since.

“We gave him a grass gallop this morning,” said trainer Toru Kurita. “There were two horses in front of him and he was waiting behind and he adapted himself very well to the ground. “They went approximately a mile and a quarter, went slowly at the beginning and then quickened in the final four furlongs. The horse came close to joining the other ones in front. It was a good workout.”

After French racing's ruling body announced that a maximum of 20 runners would be allowed to go to post, connections of Verry Elleegant had to decide whether to supplement her for the Arc on Wednesday morning at a cost of €120,000.

And while that sum would have been refunded had she failed to make the final field at the declaration stage on Thursday, the issue was further complicated by the fact declarations for her other weekend option-Saturday’s Prix de Royallieu—also closed on Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. French time.

As French rules state horses cannot be declared for two races, connections have opted to go for the race in which she is guaranteed a start, leaving Graffard frustrated.

He said, “I'm very, very upset about the French authorities and French handicapper and my racing country in general.”

He added on the Nick Luck Daily Podcast, “We try really hard as young trainers to try and promote our sport and try to make it competitive worldwide. We try to open our doors all the time and play the game, [but] France Galop try to make it difficult at every single stage.

“This filly has been a very good example of how unopen the French are. Every step has been difficult for her and for the owners and they have made our life very difficult right until the end.

“It's very upsetting and not good for the sport in general, I think. I'm very angry against my racing country and I have to apologise to all the Australian racing fans.”

Graffard is hoping Verry Elleegant can gain some sort of compensation on Saturday, adding, “The mare is in very good form and the season is not over for her.

“Of course we are disappointed as it would have been fun to go to the Arc, but I think good days will come out of this bad experience.”

He added, “It is very difficult to put a number on it [how much he can improve], but I can feel that the horse is getting better--he is improving and coming right for the race.”

Another contender from the Land of the Rising Sun is this year’s G1 Japanese Derby hero Do Deuce (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry Jpn). He has already tested the waters at group level in France, and was fourth in the G2 Prix Niel on Sept. 11.

“In the beginning of the race three weeks ago he felt fine, but then I also felt that he was tired when we came to the final furlong,” said Japanese riding legend Yutaka Take.

“He hadn’t run in quite some time but this morning [Wednesday], I didn’t ride him when he worked but I saw him and I saw that he moved really well and that he had improved since that last run in Longchamp.

“I’ve had the opportunity to ride very good horses in the race and Do Deuce is going to be one of them. He’s only three and he is still improving.

“To win the Arc has always been a dream and it’s always been an objective of mine. While I’m still riding it remains very high on my agenda in my career.”

Another Japanese Arc contender out for a spin on Wednesday was Stay Foolish (Jpn) (Stay Gold Jpn), who has already proved himself twice against overseas competition when taking the G3 Red Sea Turf H. on the $20-million G1 Saudi Cup undercard in February, and again in Dubai, when winning the G2 Dubai Gold Cup on Mar. 26. Returned to his native land, the 7-year-old was unplaced in Titleholder’s Takarazuka Kinen in June, but was a close second in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville on Aug. 28.

“Stay Foolish has a different profile compared to the horses that have run the Classic races like Do Deuce, who has run in the Derby, and Titleholder, who has run in the Group 1s in Japan,” Christophe Lemaire explained.

“He’s a horse who has improved a lot with age, especially over the longer trips. He’s maybe not as strong as a Derby winner but he has got a lot of experience.

“It was a very good workout this morning on ground that I would call good to soft, I was very happy with the way he cantered and galloped.

“In fact, he actually gave me the feeling I had before the run in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. It was important for me to connect with the horse and feel that’s switched on to see how he moves and it was perfect.”

NOMINATIONS OPEN FOR UK TIE AWARDS

Nominations for the Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards 2023, sponsored by Godolphin, opened on Wednesday. Formerly the UK Godolphin Stud & Stable Staff Awards, the awards are an opportunity for employees from across the various areas of the Thoroughbred industry, be it in training yards, studs or in administrative roles, to be celebrated for their hard work and dedication to the sport. The nomination period closes on Nov. 8. Run by the British Horse Racing Authority (BHA) in association with the Racing Post and Racing TV, the awards carry a prize-money total of £128,500, with as much as £30,000 available to a single organisation. There will also be an in-person award ceremony after a two-year COVID-19 induced break. Nominations can be made by visiting the Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards website.

Julie Harrington, CEO of the BHA, said, “These new-look awards, which are made possible by the generosity of Godolphin, now provide the opportunity for a wider range of industry employees, across the full life cycle of the Thoroughbred, to achieve this recognition. I would encourage everybody in our industry to nominate colleagues they would like to see celebrated.”

BHA HALTS SALIVA TESTING PROGRAMME

The anti-doping saliva testing pilot programme has been paused by the British Horseracing Authority (BHA). Started in May of 2021, the programme was halted due to the negative laboratory follow-up analysis requested after a point of care racecourse non-negative saliva sample donated by jockey Sean Levey at Sandown on Wednesday, Sept. 14.

The BHA said in a statement, “A review of the pilot, which has tested more than 1,300 samples, is now underway to determine what can be learned and agree with the [Professional Jockeys’ Association] (PJA) on a combined approach to a robust testing model. We will also be working with Sean Levey to determine how his positive sample came about in order to understand what challenges could be faced and different approaches that could be used when testing in the future.” Cont. p14

The statement continued, “The pilot was a collaboration with the PJA and there has been a notable reduction in positive cases since its inception. It’s important we incorporate all feedback and make improvements where necessary to ensure we continue keeping racing safe, fair and clean.”
