THIS SIDE UP: ARC ONLY ONE END OF THE RAINBOW

by Chris McGrath

Even in a market like this one, weirdly insulated from economic and geopolitical chaos, trading Thoroughbreds will always remain a precarious business. Speculators never hesitate, then, to pounce whenever the odds appear skewed temporarily in their favor. Sure enough, with the dollar squeezing other currencies dry, around one in eight of the yearlings sold at the Goffs Orby Sale this week is said to be heading to the U.S.; and they’ll have plenty of company out of Tattersalls next week.

To one who constantly berates breeders both sides of the water for a generation of mutual disengagement, this should really be welcomed as an edifying development. But I can’t help thinking of the ancient military theorist, Sun Tzu, who cautioned: "Strategy without tactics is the slowest route to victory. Tactics without strategy is the noise before defeat." LET THE BREEDERS' CUP COUNTDOWN
BEGIN by Alan Carasso

There are but five weeks remaining between now and the Breeders’ Cup at Keeneland Nov. 4 and 5, and many of horse racing’s biggest names will take in their final prep races over the course of the next couple of weekends. Better than 40 graded stakes, the majority of which have championship weekend implications, are set to take place from sea to shining sea, including 21 ‘Win and You’re In’ events offering the winners an all-expenses paid trip to the Bluegrass.

Santa Anita stages one of the four Breeders’ Cup Challenge races on tap for Saturday, the GI Awesome Again S., a race used by future champion Accelerate (Lookin At Lucky) as a springboard to GI Breeders’ Cup Classic success back in 2018. Bob Baffert fields half of the eight starters as he looks for an eight renewal and third in succession. The charge is led by Country Grammer (Tonalist), whose two most important victories to date have come over 10 furlongs—the GI Gold Cup at Santa Anita and G1 Dubai World Cup—but he has proven effective enough going this mile-and-an-eighth trip, with a record of 2-2-0 from four starts. The 5-year-old, a millionaire 11 times over courtesy of two big performances in the desert this winter, looks to bounce back from runner-up efforts behind the re-opposing Royal Ship (Brz) (Midshipman) in the G1 San Diego H. July 30 and when finishing in area code 213 behind 'TDN Rising Star' Flightline (Tapit) in the GI TVG Pacific Classic Sept. 3. Cont. p6

Is this mere opportunism, exploiting a congenial exchange rate? Or are people finally walking the walk, after years of talk about a burgeoning grass program in the U.S.? Might there even be an enlightened few who have finally remembered how the breed, in the past, was repeatedly regenerated by cross-pollination?

I’m pretty sure some of these American investors will observe the climax of the European season at Longchamp on Sunday, with 20 horses plowing through a mile and a half of mud, and mutter that this is steeplechasing without fences. On Saturday’s card, moreover, they can spook themselves with three of four Group races respectively contested over 14, 15 and 20 furlongs.

But these assignments aren’t just alien to the American environment. They are also wildly beyond the compass of the stock that nowadays dominates commercial breeding in Europe, with its disastrous conflation of speed and precocity. Some of the most heavily subscribed stallions in Europe would never get you a Classic horse even at a mile. Hilariously, however, there are influential players in the European market who blithely disparage Bluegrass bloodlines as "all speed", when actually it is precisely in Kentucky that they might find just the kind of speed that underpins a Classic Thoroughbred: speed, in other words, that carries. Cont. p4

And that’s because commercial breeding in the U.S., happily, still clings to the aspiration of seeing out a second turn on the first Saturday in May.

But what of that other end of the European spectrum, showcased this weekend? The genetic foundation required is vividly apparent in three blatant influences on the field gathered for the G1 Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe: no fewer than four runners by Frankel (GB); three, including the defending champion, by Adlerflug (Ger); and four by Japanese stallions. You couldn’t ask for a more robust contrast to those "sharp" European sires who trade on the flimsy possibility of putting you in the same parade ring as the new King for a juvenile sprint at Ascot.

Just imagine—albeit I’m not sure there are narcotics strong enough to sustain the fantasy for five seconds—a parallel world in which Adlerflug had been exported to Kentucky for his stud career. If you stood him for a dime, he would never have received a single commercial client. Frankel is obviously a case apart. (And priced accordingly). But while I always said that he ran like a dirt horse, at stud he has proved a pretty unadulterated conduit of the stamina we associate with his sire Galileo (Ire). As for the Japanese, well, anyone can see that they are well on their way to the dominant Thoroughbred of the 21st Century.

A first Arc, after several vexing near-misses, would nicely round off 12 months featuring five winners on Dubai World Cup night, four on the Saudi Cup card and two at the Breeders’ Cup. And all built largely on animals renounced by western markets.

Let’s take just a couple of recent examples. The 2019 U.S. Horse of the Year, Bricks and Mortar, poisoned his own well by winning over a mile and a half of grass at the age of five. Now he has been joined at the Shadai Stallion Station by Poetic Flare (Ire), brilliant and tough enough to contest three mile Classics in 22 days, winning the first by a short head and losing the third by the same margin. And, good grief, if it’s precocity you want, at two Poetic Flare had won the very first race of the Irish season, on March 23. But his unfashionable parentage ensured that only the Japanese had an adequate offer for the genius who bred and trained him.

So, guys, where’s the strategy?

Take a hint from Epicenter (Not This Time), whose sire—just like Bricks and Mortar—is by the transatlantic legend Giant’s Causeway. Epicenter’s dam is by the Argentinian import Candy Ride (Arg), while his third and fourth are by two of Europe’s most profound stamina influences of the postwar era, in Ela-Mana-Mou (Ire) and Busted (GB).

Another brilliant dirt sophomore, Taiba, is by the hottest new stallion in years, Gun Runner: a son of Candy Ride, this time, out of a Giant’s Causeway mare. But it’s a two-way street. Taiba’s strongly domestic family includes a third dam by Phone Trick. And it was by matching one of Galileo’s breakout champions with a Phone Trick mare that Jim Bolger came up with Dawn Approach (Ire)—the very sire who ostensibly made Poetic Flare impossible to stand in Europe.

All I’m saying is that there’s imbalance. There’s an imbalance between the vogue for European imports, both runners and yearlings, and the commercial asphyxiation of even the most eligible grass stallions tried in Kentucky. And there’s an imbalance, also, in that same export market out of Europe: between low-caliber commercial production and those breeders, typically "end users", still prepared to populate the kind of stamina test that briefly engages global attention this weekend.

The point is that these imbalances could be reconciled; that we could stop pointing two magnets against another, so that they waste their force in waving and pushing apart, and instead hold them side by side to double their power. To my eye, for instance, there are one or two running only at Grade II level at Churchill on Saturday that could potentially serve the European breed far better than many of the sires cluttering up some catalogues over there. Certainly the Lukas Classic looks a much better contest than the lap of honor reserved for Life Is Good (Into Mischief) in a far more storied race—won last year, indeed, by one of the key protagonists—in New York an hour or so earlier.

Curious though it will be to see a horse whose two previous visits to Louisville comprise a 17-length maiden win and a Kentucky Derby blowout; here he meets three contrasting models of consistency, even if each similarly has a solitary Grade I win apiece. You know this has to be a tougher race than the grade because Happy Saver (Super Saver) always goes looking for trouble, consecutively escorting Olympiad (Speightstown), Flightline (Tapit) and Life Is Good to the winner’s circle in three previous starts this year. Maybe he’s only here because he decided the Arc wasn’t worth the trouble once Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) dropped out.

As it happens, Art Collector (Bernardini), Hot Rod Charlie (Oxbow) and Happy Saver all share pedigrees of a broadly indigenous, dirt flavor. But these set-your-clock, hard-running speed carriers have exactly the kind of track profile that would assist the Europeans in filling the gap between their cheap speed and elite stamina.

The correction of such local imbalances, as I’ve said, could usefully complement each other. But I guess any program smart enough to seek equilibrium would be in danger of finding itself with something that might even deserve the name of strategy.

Meanwhile, on the Eastern seaboard—which was expecting the arrival of the remnants of Hurricane Ian late Friday—‘Rising Star’ Life Is Good (Into Mischief) revs up for his Breeders’ Cup engagement as the overwhelming favorite in a field of five for the GI Woodward S.

Fourth to Country Grammer after failing to see out the 'stiff' 10 furlongs of the G1 Dubai World Cup, the 4-year-old has been nothing but brilliant since, with big-figure victories in the GII John A. Nerud S.—speaking of the Breeders' Cup—and last time in the GI Whitney S. at Saratoga.

"He's an extremely talented horse," said trainer Todd Pletcher, whose previous Woodward winners include Lawyer Ron, Quality Road and GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile victor Liam's Map. "We just always hope that everything goes according to plan. It doesn't ever surprise me, but it is just remarkable how consistent he's been every single day he's out there. Every breeze is impressive and that's just what we've come to expect of him."

The third of the Classic preps takes place at Churchill Downs, where the most competitive of the three fields heads postward in the GII Lukas Classic S. Favored at 8-5 on the morning line is the hard-knocking Hot Rod Charlie (Oxbow), but he'll be made to work for it by last year's Woodward winner and recent GI Charles Town Classic repeater Art Collector (Bernardini), GI Met Mile and Whitney runner-up Happy Saver (Super Saver) and Rich Strike (Keen Ice), who would become the first GI Kentucky Derby winner to succeed beneath the Twin Spires since Silver Charm took the 1998 GII Clark H. a year after being draped with the roses.

The Lukas Classic has been added to NBC's coverage of Saturday's preps.

Dirt Mile Berth Up for Grabs In Ack Ack...

Godolphin's Speaker's Corner (Street Sense) has the rail and is the even-money favorite for the one-mile GIII Ack Ack S. at Churchill Downs, with a trip to the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile awaiting the winner.

For the first four months of this year, the homebred looked like he might develop into one of the top horses in training, as he capped a three-race winning skein with a good-looking 4 1/2-length tally in the GI Carter H. at Aqueduct in April, good for a 114 Beyer. It's been anything but plain sailing since. Best-backed against Flightline in the GI Hill 'n' Dale Met Mile June 11, he faded to third after setting the early pace and also had the misfortune of running into Life Is Good in the Nerud, finishing a distant runner-up. With Cody's Wish (Curlin) representing Godolphin in the GI Forego S. at Saratoga the same afternoon, Speaker's Corner was shipped to Del Mar for the Aug. 27 GI Pat O'Brien S. and never looked likely, dropping away to be fourth behind the impressive Laurel River (Into Mischief).

Juddmonte's Fulsome (Into Mischief), winner of this year's GIII Oaklawn Mile going a two-turn configuration and victorious in this track's GIII Matt Winn S. last year, and the class-dropping Untreated (Nyquist)—perfect in three tries going a mile, albeit against softer—could make life difficult on the rail-drawn favorite.

Juveniles Share The Spotlight at BAQ...

The Belmont at the Big A meet plays host to the afternoon’s other ‘Win and You’re In’ tests—the GI Champagne S. for 2-year-old males going the one-turn mile and the GII Miss Grillo S. for juvenile grass fillies.

Despite his relative inexperience, Verifying (Justify) will take plenty of beating while stepping into stakes company for the first time. A $775,000 Keeneland September purchase, the May-foaled half-brother to champion Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute) ran to 3-4 favoritism in the Travers Day opener at Saratoga, scoring by a widening 1 3/4 lengths, and looks to have trained on since the debut.

Trainer Brad Cox has yet to saddle a Champagne winner and believes his charge will be prominent in the run Saturday.

“I want to be up close, but he doesn’t necessarily have to be on the lead,” Cox said. “He has enough natural speed going a mile that he’s going to be in the mix. He’s a good-looking horse. Based on pedigree and how he looks, I think he’ll like more ground.”

A pair of ‘TDN Rising Stars’ figure to make their presence known as well. Gulfport (Uncle Mo), whose sire won the 2010 Champagne en route to a GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile victory and an Eclipse Award, romped by better than a dozen lengths in the July 4 Bashford Manor S. and has since finished runner-up in the GI Saratoga Special S. and GI Hopeful S. New York-bred Andiamo a Firenze (Speightstown), a homebred half-brother to 2017 Champagne hero Firenze Fire (Poseidon's Warrior), was fractionally disappointing when third in the GII Sanford S. upstate July 16, but bounced back with a smooth success in the state-bred restricted Funny Cide S. Aug 26 over the same sloppy underfoot conditions he’s likely to encounter Saturday.

'Rising Star' Be Your Best (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) looks to remain perfect in three starts in the Miss Grillo, a race likely to test the field’s collective ability to handle a fair bit of cut in the ground depending on what mood Ian is in.

“She fits great in this spot,” trainer Horacio De Paz said. “She’s won twice and going long, so the distance shouldn’t be a problem. Hopefully the weather stays together and we don’t get a lot of rain, but even if we did get some rain, she’s a horse that likes turf with a little give as well. Everything is very positive for her. She overcomes things.”

The field of six also includes Free Look (Tapit), a late-on-the-scene third to Be Your Best on July 31 debut ahead of a much-the-best score Sept. 4. Alluring Angel (GB) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)) won on Saratoga sprint debut for the always-dangerous Jorge Abreu barn Aug. 4 and stretches out off a stinging nose defeat in the Sept. 13 Untapable S. at Kentucky Downs.

'Kingdom' Comes Back in SA Sprint Championship...

In 2019, Hall of Fame trainer Richard Mandella brought Omaha Beach (War Front) back off an April layoff and a missed chance in the GI Kentucky Derby to score impressively in the Santa Anita Sprint Championship S., then a Grade I. The conditioner looks for lightning to strike twice Saturday when the very talented Forbidden Kingdom (American Pharoah) makes his much-anticipated return to action.

A $300,000 purchase out of the 2020 Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearlings Showcase, the chestnut son of the gifted Just Louise (Five Star Day) wired this track's GII San Vicente S. Jan. 29 and proved he could handle two-turns with a blowout win in the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 5. But it all came undone in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 9, as he dropped away to finished tailed off in last behind ‘Rising Star’ Taiba (Gun Runner) and hasn’t been seen since.

“Richard is a such a great caretaker and he’s given him plenty of time and let him get back to the horse that we know he is,” Spendthrift’s Ned Toffey told TDN’s Steve Sherack recently for his APB series. “We know he’s fast. We know he’s talented. It’s just been a frustrating year.”

INAUGURAL WOMEN’S SUMMIT: WOMEN AT 'TIPPING' POINT by Dan Ross

Given the current snail’s pace at which the gender gap is meaningfully shrinking, it'll take more than 250 years for women to reach professional parity with men--just two-and-a-half short centuries, for those who think in blocks.

That was the daunting statistic which set the stage at the beginning of the inaugural Horse Racing Women's Summit at Santa Anita Thursday, a two-day event designed to nurture the abilities of women already involved in the sport and engender new talent to follow after the sport's current batch of female leaders.

And what was the over-arching takeaway? Greater mutual support among the sport’s female participants, and the fostering of a culture of mentorship among male leaders towards their female peers.

In a panel titled "Thriving Through Challenges," Dora Delgado, executive vice president and chief racing officer of the Breeders' Cup, described the business that she entered in 1983 as a lot of Khaki and blue blazer-clad men sitting around the boardroom table resistant to change.

"And that hasn't changed much since," said Delgado, adding that, despite her credentials--she was anointed last year on the Sports Business Journal's prestigious "game changer" list, for example--she still feels the need to prove her qualifications "over and over and over again."

Part of the problem is nepotism, she and others said. The Kentucky Blueblood aristocracy, it "runs deep," Delgado said. "If you’re not born to it, it takes a bit of work to get accepted." That cycle needs to be disrupted, she added.

"'This guy's really great--I play golf with him. He's got a son who needs a job. Where can we fit him in?'" said Delgado, rhetorically replaying what she described as familiar conversations across racetrack boardrooms.

Delgado's response? "Nowhere."

Christa Marrillia, vice president and chief marketing officer at Keeneland, detailed the female dress code for employees at the track when she first joined in 2003, which excluded open-toed shoes and pants.

While those restrictions have since lifted, changing the workplace culture for women in the sport has proven tougher, she said.

"I would sleep with my cell phone by my pillow," explained Marrillia, describing herself as a workaholic who never took breaks--a common refrain among the presenters, all of whom described the challenges of maintaining a healthy work-home life balance, especially those with families and children. What changed Marrillia’s attitude, she said, was witnessing her behavior rub off on her team, some of them young mothers. "I was like, 'wow, I'm creating a bad thing here.'"

She has since altered the culture for her employees at Keeneland, she said, for the better. "I do feel like we’re at a tipping point," she added, about the role of women in the game.

"I'm still really good at my job, but I'm not going to miss the birthday parties. I'm going to sleep," she said. "I'm not going to answer an email at two in the morning."

Dionne Benson, chief veterinary officer at 1/ST RACING, discussed the importance of male higher-ups in the sport championing their female peers.

Benson told the story of how, when on a work call, two men proceeded to disparage her, mistakenly thinking they were muted.

"Then Aidan found out about it and called all their bosses," she said, referring to Aidan Butler, 1/ST RACING's chief operating officer.

There's also the honey-pot approach.

"What my boss finds interesting, I find fascinating," joked Rikki Tanenbaum, 1/ST GAMING's newly minted chief commercial officer and president.

The afternoon was broken into two panels, the latter of which turned their gaze inwards towards matters of integrity--or what Del Mar Thoroughbred Club board member, Marie Moretti, called "intentional integrity."

A key area of focus appeared to be the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA), designed to provide parity in the metering out of offenses, among many other things.

"You will know what you’re going to get," said Moretti, advocating the Act's uniform rules, if not only to improve public perception of the sport. "Perception is reality in the modern world."

Optics was a common theme. "I couldn’t even get my horsey girlfriends to the track--they thought it was a cruel sport," said Bo Derek, saying that when she took over as a California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) commissioner, the industry was in the state of flux due to problems associated with drug misuse, whip abuse and the ill-fated switch to synthetic tracks.

"I'm really encouraged. The fanbase is up, the gaming is good," said Derek, about the current state of California's racing industry.

"I don't think it's something we can be quiet about any more," said Shannon Kelly, executive director of the Jockey Club's Safety Net Foundation, zeroing in on the public's growing awareness towards the vast human involvement in the sport.

"What other industry has to have a charity for its workers in times of need?" Kelly said, highlighting the number of food distribution centers that feed the nation's backstretches.

All panelists advocated for financial self-sustainability to fund each aspect of the industry, from racehorse aftercare to the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund.

"If you're entering into the sport," said Kelly, "you should be aware of the costs that are associated with `putting on the show.'"

The earlier panel looked outwards, each of the four speakers tasked with marketing and growing the sport to a world not forged upon racing's gristmill.

"We've all got one goal but we're all coming at it from different ways," said Jodie Vella Gregory, director of the office of innovation at 1/ST RACING.

"Everyone in here has an idea," she added. "We should all be taking to one another."

Taking aim at horse racing's natural impulse to quickly bin new ideas if they fail to immediately take off, she extolled the virtues of perseverance, pointing to the evolution of the Pegasus World Cup--what originated a big-pot attraction first and foremost, but which has transformed into something of a place-holder on the social calendar.

That, and "we need to expand outside the bounds of our community," Vella Gregory said.

Running with that theme, Lindsay Schanzer, senior producer at NBC Sports, warned of another of racing’s bad habits: Leaning into its more insular, arcane traits, sometimes at the expense of new potential fans.

That’s why NBC Sports has focused on the story-telling aspects of its race-day coverage, said Schanzer, pointing to its recent fond embrace of things like the jockey cam.

"We really want to put the people on the horses' backs as best we can," said Schanzer, before making a plug. "If you ever have stories that we don’t know of, please reach out to us."

The other two panelists discussed the role of newer ventures, like FanDuel, as a means of funneling new blood towards racing.

"It’s never been that way before—it's never been that easy," said Shona Rotondo, head of marketing at My Racehorse US, about the accessibility of the racehorse ownership program, with its quick online sign-up process. "We want to sell everyone on the emotion of the game."

Given the summit’s remit, it seems only fitting the event’s inaugural leadership award went to a long-time industry mainstay, Jane Goldstein.

Said Amy Zimmerman, when introducing the award, "She found an opening into the sport she loved through the publicity offices of several racetracks. She was always the first one done with her work. It wasn't that she was super quick but, you see, women weren't allowed in the press box after 12. Yes, that's also true. During racing, the press box was exclusive to men.

"After almost four decades," Zimmerman said, "I'm still often asked the ridiculous question: 'what's it like being a woman in racing?' When I was hired, I never thought about it, because Jane Goldstein was the one who hired me. Jane was the one who answered that question. The one who waged that battle to open the door. And then she held it open with class, so all of us could walk through it."

Goldstein received a standing ovation.

ALCIBIADES WINNER JUJU'S MAP TO KEENOV

Grade I winner Juju's Map (Liam's Map--Nagambie, by Flatter) has been consigned to Book 1 of Keeneland’s November Breeding Stock sale and will sell Monday, Nov. 7. Catalogued as a racing or broodmare prospect, she will be consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency.

Campaigned by Albaugh Family Stables and trained by Brad Cox, Juju's Map broke her maiden at second asking at two and proceeded to romp by 4 1/4 lengths in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland last October. Second to Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, the dark bay was a finalist for the 2-year-old filly Eclipse Award last year. She opened her sophomore season in May at Churchill Downs with an optional allowance win and has since placed in the GII Mother Goose S., the GIII Monmouth Oaks, and the GIII Remington Park Oaks, the latter on Sept. 25.

"Juju's Map is a third-generation Taylor Made Sales grad following Unbridled’s Song and her sire, Liam’s Map," said Taylor Made CEO Mark Taylor. "She has lived up to the family legacy both on the track and with her absolutely gorgeous conformation."

Bred in Kentucky by Fred Hertrich III and consigned by Woods Edge Farm, Juju's Map was originally an Albaugh Family yearling purchase for $300,000 at the 2020 Keeneland September sale. Her current record stands at 8-3-2-3 with earnings for $775,180.
FEDS SKEWER FISHMAN’S ATTEMPT TO AVOID $13.5M FORFEITURE

by T.D. Thornton

Federal prosecutors told a judge Friday that convicted veterinarian Seth Fishman's recent claim of illegality regarding the $13.5 million forfeiture imposed upon him "is predicated on a number of unfounded and easily disprovable presumptions."

Fishman, who is currently imprisoned in Florida but appealing his 11-year sentence for two felony drug-supplying convictions in a decades-long international racehorse doping conspiracy, had stated in a Sept. 12 filing that the forfeiture order signed by the judge back on July 11 "is not authorized by statute and is therefore unlawful in its entirety."

A response filing Sept. 30 by the legal team that successfully prosecuted Fishman stated that, "In arguing that the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA) does not authorize forfeiture, the defendant elevates form over substance, ignores past precedent, and, in so doing, deliberately misreads the FDCA and several applicable forfeiture provisions to reach the defendant's desired outcome of avoiding forfeiture altogether."

The filing by the feds also noted that at the time of his sentencing, "then-counsel for Seth Fishman contended that he wished to contest the amount of the forfeiture money judgment, not the basis for forfeiture itself."

But shortly after his sentencing date, Fishman hired a new lawyer who now "wishes to revisit the availability of forfeiture entirely." That new legal tactic has no merit, prosecutors contended.

"The defendant's strained reading of the law provides no support for his view that forfeiture is 'unlawful' in this case," the government attorneys wrote.

Forfeiture "is lawful and mandatory; consequently the Court's forfeiture order entered at Fishman's sentencing should be left undisturbed," the prosecutors wrote.

"The defendant argues in passing that the Government has not demonstrated that Fishman 'actually acquired' any forfeitable property," the feds wrote. "The evidence that Fishman, the owner-operator of [the drug company] Equestology, controlled the adulterated and misbranded drugs subject to the forfeiture action is undisputable. So long as the defendant had control over the forfeitable property, which he did, he has acquired that property..."

Fishman had argued otherwise, writing in the Sept. 12 filing that "Misbranding is not a forfeiture crime. The misbranding statute under which the government seeks forfeiture against Dr. Fishman...only permits the government to confiscate the misbranded or adulterated products themselves and any equipment used to manufacture those products."

AMAZONIAN TOPS FINAL PHASE OF TODD DISPERSAL

Larry and Karen Doyle's KatieRich Farms gave $420,000 for the 6-year-old Amazonian (Malibu Moon--Fly the Flag, by Giant's Causeway) to top the Final Phase of the Glen Todd Dispersal on the Fasig-Tipton Digital platform.

Consigned by Carl McEntee's Ballysax Bloodstock on behalf of the Estate of Glen Todd, who passed away last March, the chestnut was acquired by Todd's North American Thoroughbred Horse Co. for $50,000 at the 2017 Keeneland September Yearling Sale and won three of her 10 career starts, including the 2019 British Columbia Oaks at Hastings Park before rallying from last to be third in the Vancouver track's GIII Ballerina S.

The mare, whose GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies-winning granddam My Flag (Easy Goer) produced Juvenile Fillies heroine and Eclipse Award winner Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat), was unplaced in two starts as a 4-year-old and was bought back on a bid of $475,000 at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Bred to Outwork in her first year at stud, Amazonian foaled a filly by that sire this season and was offered by Todd's estate in foal to Uncle Mo's GI Kentucky Derby winner Nyquist.

“We are very excited about adding Amazonian to the KatieRich broodmare band,” said George Barnes of KatieRich Farms. “A stakes-winning mare from a top family, this mare's page was enough to sell her. Seeing her class on display at the open house and the fact she's in foal to one of the most exciting young stallions in Nyquist gave us confidence in pulling the trigger.”

My Kentucky Rose (Macho Uno), last year’s GII Canadian Derby winner Uncharacteristic (Texas Wildcatter), sold for $50,000 to Schiano Racing as the second-highest price of the dispersal. My Kentucky Rose has produced two winners from two starters to date and was sold in foal to Horse of the Year Knicks Go (Paynter).

“We are delighted with the result of the sale and somewhat taken aback by the results,” said McEntee. “Obviously Amazonian was the highlight of the sale, and we expected her to sell well, though even she brought above our valuations. It was bittersweet given the circumstances, but I know that Mr. Todd would have been delighted and very proud of his daughters' achievements. It was a great honor to know Mr. Todd and a privilege to have been tasked with the final phase of the dispersal. The online platform at Fasig-Tipton is exceptional and we should all be looking towards that forum as we move forward through the next decade.”

A total of 35 horses from the final phase of the dispersal made $1,024,100.

“Thank you very much to all the buyers who supported the sales of my Pop's prize possessions, his horses,” said Shelley Todd, daughter of Glen Todd. “I know they're going to good homes and that was the most important to the both of us. Best of luck, I look forward to following these horses into the winner's circle.

“Todd Manor is continuing operations here in Midway, Kentucky, as once it's in your blood, it's not coming out. Also to honor my late father Glen Todd and Uncle Troy Taylor, to ensure their dreams and legacies will carry on in ‘The Sport of Kings’.”

Leif Aaron, director of digital sales for Fasig-Tipton, added: “I want to thank to the Todd family for entrusting Fasig-Tipton Digital with the dispersal of their late father’s bloodstock. We had buyers from Washington State to Florida to Ontario and everywhere in between, which is a real testament to Mr. Todd’s legacy. We had a record number of registered bidders in this sale and also had a record number of veterinarians visiting the repository for the weanlings. This sale was a great representation of what Fasig-Tipton Digital can accomplish. We had over 250 registered bidders and the bidding at the end of the sale was very spirited.”

TIF EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR PAT CUMMINGS JOINS BETTOR THINGS WITH JOE BIANCA

There has never before been an effective, institutional advocate for horseplayers in North American racing, but Pat Cummings and the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation have emphatically changed that in the past several years. As the TIF's executive director, Cummings has brought to light many of the myriad issues and injustices facing horse bettors like no one has before, and Tuesday, Cummings joined Bettor Things with Joe Bianca for an illuminating conversation about the progress made on behalf of players in recent years and how much work there still is left to do. Bianca and Cummings discussed the successful push to bring penny breakage to Kentucky and what states may be next, the increasing impact of algorithmic computer wagerers on middle-class horseplayers, how bettors can put pressure on racing's decision makers to bring about change and much more.

Later in the show, in his Breeders' Cup Challenge betting series, Bianca paid tribute to his beloved Aqueduct as it prepares to host Breeders' Cup Win and You're In qualifiers for the first time before handicapping and laying out plays for Saturday's GI Champagne S. and GII Miss Grillo S. AFTER PROBE OVER UNLICENSED OPERATION, TWINSPIRES EXITS NEW HAMPSHIRE

by T.D. Thornton

Five months after New Hampshire gambling regulators and the state’s attorney general disclosed that they were investigating the TwinSpires advance deposit wagering (ADW) platform over concerns that the Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI)-owned entity has operated for years without being explicitly licensed there, TwinSpires is ceasing operations in the Granite State.

Back in April, Charlie McIntyre, the executive director of the New Hampshire Lottery, which regulates all forms of gambling in the state, told WMUR-TV that "They’re not regulated by us, nor do they operate on any confines of state law.... It’s a concern for us, obviously, because all other gambling in the state happens through us—either we license it, or we regulate it. In this case, neither."

At that time, McIntyre estimated the amount of lost revenue because of TwinSpires not giving the state a cut of its betting business at "hundreds of thousands of dollars."

McIntyre continued: "They’ve been doing it for a number of years, and so it’s a significant amount of money."

TwinSpires customers in New Hampshire began receiving emails Sept. 29 informing them that "TwinSpires has elected to cease operation of its ADW Platform for Horse Racing in the state of New Hampshire."

The email stated that TwinSpires will take wagers from New Hampshire residents on races conducted through Nov. 5th, the concluding day of the Breeders’ Cup championships.

After that, the email stated, "Wagering will be suspended on Nov. 6th, and Players will have until Nov. 21 to withdraw funds from their account."

A Friday afternoon query to Tonya Abeln, CDI’s vice president of corporate communications, did not yield a reply prior to deadline for this story.

Nor could McIntyre be reached Friday afternoon to get the lottery commission’s perspective on the TwinSpires pullout.

Back in April, CDI officials told the gaming news site casino.org that TwinSpires was "legal and compliant with the federal Interstate Horse Racing Act."

A FAQ page provided in CDI’s email to New Hampshire customers cited non-specific "regulatory changes in New Hampshire" as the gaming corporation’s reason for vacating the state.

"As of right now we do not know what the future holds for TwinSpires as an ADW Platform for Horse Racing in New Hampshire but we are hopeful to serve you again soon," the FAQ page stated.

In April, McIntyre told WMUR-TV that he had approached CDI about resolving the issue, but that "nothing has happened yet."

New Hampshire no longer has live pari-mutuel racing of any breed. Thoroughbred racing ceased at Rockingham Park in 2002, and harness racing ceased there in 2009. The state had three greyhound tracks operating at the start of the 21st Century; two of them stopped racing before dog racing was banished in New Hampshire in 2010.

TRAINER DUANE OFFIELD PASSES AWAY
Longtime Northern California trainer Duane Offield passed away on Thursday after a lengthy illness. He was 82-years-old.
Offield began his training career in 1976 and saddled 721 winners from 8,038 starters, with lifetime purse earnings of $10,009,202. His most significant win came in the 1990 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park with Restless Con. Services are pending.
"Our racing community here at Golden Gate will greatly miss Duane Offield," said Golden Gate Fields Vice President and General Manager David Duggan. "Duane was a soft-spoken man who simply loved coming to the track and training his horses. Our hearts and best wishes are with Duane’s family and friends during this undoubtedly difficult time."

MONMOUTH-AT-MEADOWLANDS CANCELS SATURDAY CARD
Due to a forecast calling for heavy rain, live racing has been cancelled for Saturday, Oct. 1, for the all-turf Monmouth-at-Meadowlands meet, the track announced on Friday. The six races scheduled for Saturday will be extras when entries are taken Tuesday, Oct. 4, for the Friday, Oct. 7, card.
The five remaining all-turf cards following tonight’s program will take place Fridays and Saturdays through Oct. 22 with the exception of Saturday, Oct. 15, when Far Hills will feature its 101st steeplechase meet.

HALF TO YAUPON DEBUTS AT THE BIG A
5th-BAQ, $95K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 3:05 p.m. ET
Allen Stable’s $575,000 KEESEP acquisition LIMITS OF POWER (Good Magic) makes his career bow in this spot for trainer Shug McGaughey. Out of GISP Modification (Vindication), the dark bay is a half-brother to Grade I-winning sprinter and new Spendthrift stallion Yaupon (Uncle Mo), as well as MGSP Sawyer’s Hill (Spring At Last). He breezed a best-of-153 half-mile in :47 flat on the Belmont training track two works back Sept. 17. Chad Brown unveils another pricey graduate of that auction in $475,000 KEESEP buy Inflationary (Into Mischief). The Klaravich Stables colorbearer is out of a full-sister to GSW Excited (Giant’s Causeway), dam of SW & MGSP Thrilled (Uncle Mo).

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
6th-Churchill Downs, $131,390, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 9-30, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m, 1:50.03, ft, head.
ELEVEN CENTRAL (g, 4, Into Mischief--Sealy Hill {Horse Of The Year-Can, Ch. 3-year-old Filly-Can, Ch. Grass Mare-Can, Filly Triple Crown-Can, GSW & GISP-USA, MSW & MGISP-Can, $1,747,081}, by Point Given) finished off the board once when raced on the Churchill turf since breaking his maiden by an impressive 8 1/2 lengths at second asking in a rained-off event at Horseshoe Indy May 7. After winning in another off-the-grass spot at Ellis Park July 9, he missed by three-quarters of a length last time out against optional claimers over this same track Aug. 13. Sent off as the 7-2 choice, Eleven Central took the lead into the first turn and was comfortably placed as Roderick (Into Mischief) came alongside up the backstretch. That pair raced in tandem to the quarter pole and were joined by Digital (Into Mischief) at the top of the lane. Briefly headed in midstretch, Eleven Central dug in to get his head on the line first. Eleven Central, his dam’s last reported foal, is a half to a quartet of graded-stakes winners: Hillaby (Distorted Humor), Ch. Female Sprinter-Can, GSW, $282,265; Cambier Parc (Medaglia d’Oro), MGISW-USA, GSP-Can, $850,400; Gale Force (Giant’s Causeway), GSW, $138,611; and Belle Hill (Sky Mesa), GSW, $180,725. Sales History: $950,000 Ylg ’19 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 6-3-2-0, $168,980. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

3rd-Churchill Downs, $117,835, Alw, 9-30, (NW1X), 3yo/up, 6f, 1:09.33, ft, 4 1/2 lengths.
AIR COMBAT (c, 3, Blame--Please Be Discreet, by Discreet Cat) moved east to John Ortiz’s barn after a single disinterested 2-year-old start for Bob Baffert at Del Mar last November and returned to break his maiden nearly eight months later at Ellis Park July 15. Third when last seen in his first start against winners at one mile at the allowance level at Ellis Aug. 14, Air Combat cut back to six furlongs Friday as the 7-5 favorite. In command with pressure to his outside early, he dueled with...
New Year’s Fever (New Year’s Day) through the turn and shook that rival off and sprinted clear down the stretch. Unchallenged to the wire, he reported home 4 1/2 lengths ahead of Dr. Perry (Into Mischief). From the extended family of GISW Outofthebox (Montbrook), Air Combat is his dam’s last reported offspring. Sales History: $130,000 Ylg ’20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $116,460. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

SALIMAH (IRE) (f, 3, El Kabeir--Promised Money {Ire} {SW-Ire, SP-Eng}, by Dark Angel {Ire}), a debut winner on the turf at Tampa Jan. 22, took seven months off before unsuccessfully trying winners for the first time at Saratoga Aug. 27, checking in seventh. Stretched beyond a mile for the first time here, the 9-1 shot raced in the back against the fence. With a three-wide move at the top of the lane, Salimah loomed with a furlong to run before striking the front late, drawing away from Marketsegmentation (American Pharoah) for a one-length win. A half-sister to GSP Fivethousandtoone (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), Salimah has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother Capital Guarantee (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), a yearling half-sister by Invincible Army (Ire) and a weanling half-brother by Frankel (GB). Sales History: 180,000gns Ylg ’20 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $73,113. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
5th-Churchill Downs, $118,875, Msw, 9-30, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.74, ft, head.
TELL ME WHEN (f, 2, Midshipman--Aura Rose, by Uncle Mo) put in back-to-back second-place efforts on the dirt then switched to grass at Saratoga with a 10th-place finish after setting the early pace Sept. 1. Back on the main track here, the 10-1 shot was again close to the front, vying for command outside of an eager Black Forest (Frosted) through an opening quarter in :22.11. Stuck between horses as Malibu Toast (Tapwrit) challenged at the top of the stretch, Tell Me When fought back gamely to prevail by a head. Malibu Toast edged out Valiant Praise (Congrats) by a neck for second. Aura Rose produced a yearling filly Kachow (Fast Anna) and a weanling filly by Astern (Aus) before visiting Paynter for 2023. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, $102,230. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

7th-Churchill Downs, $118,574, Msw, 9-30, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.15, ft, 2 3/4 lengths.
TWO MINUTE DRILL (f, 2, Union Rags--Mistical Plan (GISW, $816,790), by Game Plan), a well-beaten fourth at 20-1 in a live July 14 maiden at Saratoga featuring G1 Frizette S. morning-line favorite Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke), just got nailed by a nose after enjoying a clear lead in the stretch at Ellis Aug. 26. Off at 9-2 to go one better here, she broke on top and tracked the early leaders on the outside in third through a sharp opening quarter in :21.63. She revved up three wide on the far turn, and, after shifting in at the top of the stretch, straightened out nicely to win going away by 2 3/4 lengths. Justifying (Justify) was second. Misticall Plan, also responsible for a Constitution colt of 2021, was bred to Liam’s Map for next season. Sales history: $210,000 Ylg ‘21 FTKJUL. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $87,300. 6th-Belmont The Big A, $77,000, (S), Msw, 9-30, 2yo, f, 6FT, 1:08.62, fm, 1 length.

MOONAGE DAYDREAM (f, 2, Candy Ride {Arg}–Elatha, by Malibu Moon) rallied to be fifth after a poor beginning on debut over Saratoga’s inner turf course July 28 and returned Friday as the 2-1 choice. Racing without blinkers for the first time, she raced closer to the pace, settling in fourth before being fanned out wide by a rival around the far turn. Five wide at the head of the lane, Moonage Daydream made a bid to strike the front into the final sixteenth and cleared pacesetter Slow Down Summer (War Dancer) for a one-length score. This is the female family of Horse of the Year Saint Liam (Saint Ballado), GISW Funtastic (More Than Ready), MGISP Miss Besilu (Medaglia d’Oro) and GSW Quiet Giant (Giant’s Causeway), who went on to produce Horse of the Year and leading young sire Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}). Moonage Daydream has a yearling half-brother by Gun Runner and a weanling half-sister by American Pharoah. Her dam was sent to Speightstown for 2023. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $45,870. Golden Mic at Keeneland last September | Keeneland photo

Saturday, October 1, 2022
3rd-CKO, ¥13,400,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m
GOLDEN MIC (c, 2, Justify—Sambuca Classica, by Cat Thief) seeks to become the seventh winner from eight foals to the races for his dam, who accounts for GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile and Eclipse Award winner Classic Empire (Pioneerof the Nile), making a name for himself alongside this colt’s freshman sire at Coolmore America. The $625,000 Keeneland September yearling is also a half-brother to SW Anytime Magic (Fusaichi Pegasus) and to MSW Uptown Twirl (Twirling Candy), whose son Presidential (Pioneerof the Nile) just missed in this year’s Texas Derby. Golden Mic's yearling full-brother fetched $575,000 from Maverick Racing and Siena Farm at the just-concluded September Sale. Golden Mic has drawn widest in a field of 10 with Yasunari Iwata at the controls for Hideyuki Mori. B-CHC Inc (KY)

RED KHAFRA (c, 2, American Pharoah—A. P. Dream, by A. P. Indy) is out of a daughter of Kinsman Farm’s MGISW Dream Supreme (Seeking the Gold), the dam of GISW sire Majestic Warrior (A. P. Indy) and his SW full-sister Crystal Current—dam of three stakes horses including GSP Crystal Glacier (Curlin)—as well as SW & GSP Evolutionist (El Prado {Ire}). Red Khafra, who was bought back on a bid of $245,000 at KEESEP last year, counts fellow GI Ballerina S. heroine Spinning Round (Dixieland Band) as his third dam. Hayato Yoshida, best known for his association with champion white filly Sodashi (Jpn), has the call from gate one. B-Kinsman Farm (KY)

Sunday, October 2, 2022
1st-CKO, ¥9,900,000 ($68k), Maiden, 2yo, 1800m
KAUPILI (Frosted) is out of a winner of North Hills' Tenno Sho (Autumn) heroine Heavenly Romance (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), but may not have taken to the turf when beaten just under 10 lengths in ninth on career debut at Hanshin in June. The grey switches to the dirt for this and has a license to appreciate the change, as the filly is a half-sister to Awardee (Jungle Pocket {Jpn}), twice a winner and Group 3 level and twice Group 1-placed on the surface; five-time dirt stakes scorer Amour Briller (Smart Strike); and a close relative of G2 UAE Derby hero and GI Belmont S. placegetter Lani (Tapit). SUN CHARIOT POSER TAKES CENTRE STAGE

by Tom Frary

There has barely been a stronger mile contest all season than Saturday’s G1 Royal Bahrain Sun Chariot S., with a division dominated by the fillies set for another re-measuring as Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay (GB)) goes to war with Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel (GB)) on Newmarket’s Rowley Mile. While the division’s best individual race remains the G1 Queen Anne S. in which Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) mastered Real World (Ire) (Dark Angel (Ire)), the fact is that both have for different reasons subsequently left the building. Those in a cluster underneath are Inspiral (GB) (Frankel (GB)), the two mentioned above and Godolphin’s sadly-departed Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) and Native Trail (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)).

Before she encountered ground that was too deep in Leopardstown’s G1 Matron S. three weeks ago, the Sangsters’ and James Wigan’s Saffron Beach was on an upward trajectory and she is back on the track at which she issued a three-length beating to Mother Earth (Ire) (Zoffany (Ire)) in this 12 months ago. “The scales don’t lie and she has put on another four kilos since she went to Leopardstown,” trainer Jane Chapple-Hyam said. “She’s more powerful to look at now, and the feedback from her riders has been very positive too.” Cont. p3

HASSETT: ‘GET IN THE GAME MY WAY OF GIVING BACK’

by Brian Sheerin

News that Johnny Hassett was diagnosed with cancer last year was met with widespread support and generosity in the bloodstock and racing world and now the man behind The Bloodstock Connection and more recently the Get In The Game Syndicate is hell-bent on giving back to those who supported him when he needed it most.

So, how is he going to do it? By doing what he does best; sourcing good horses. This season, every yearling that Hassett sources for next year’s breeze-ups will be offered up for sale in the Get In The Game Syndicate, one of the only micro share syndicates involved in trading horses in that sphere.

Hassett added a Sioux Nation filly—lot 741 for €90,000 on Thursday—and Friday’s sale topper, a Magna Grecia (Ire) colt for €145,000 (lot 897), to this year’s string from the Sportsman’s, and is in little doubt that he got value for the syndicate members. Cont. p5

Homeless Songs was unable to pick up when fourth in the Matron on her first start since her electrifying display in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, but connections of the TDN Rising Star are expecting a bolder show. “She was a bit short going to Leopardstown,” Moyglare’s Fiona Craig said. “The ground had been so firm, we couldn’t work on the grass but since then we’ve had a bit of rain and she’s been able to do a fair bit out and about.”

Fellow TDN Rising Star Laurel (GB) (Kingman {GB}) was a surprise supplementary from normally-cautious connections even allowing for the exciting nature of her Kempton novice win only 10 days ago. It says that the daughter of Promising Lead (GB) (Danehill) has abundant quality, but up against the big two and the likes of Prosperous Voyage (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and Mrs Fitzherbert (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) she will have to possess Baaeed-like ability to cause the upset at this fledgling stage of her career. “We probably are being a little bit unfair to her, but we’re at the start of October and opportunities are few and far between,” Juddmonte’s Barry Mahon said. “We just felt we’d have a little bite at a big one and if she can finish in the first five, it will tee her up nicely for her 4-year-old campaign.”

Ellegant Presence

ParisLongchamp launches its weekend of weekends and the appearance of Australian megamare Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}) in the 14-furlong G1 Qatar Prix de Royallieu is certain to be one of the main topics of the Saturday card. Whether Jomara Bloodstock’s pioneer should be in this particular line-up is academic now and it is up to Mark Zahra to try and orchestrate a softening of the blow connections so controversially suffered during the week. Her story remains a remarkable one whatever the politics of her Arc snub and this is a mare with no distance limitations and the kind of versatility these opponents will never know having taken the 2020 G1 Winx S. over seven furlongs and the latest edition of the G1 Melbourne Cup by four lengths over two miles.

A Thorn In His Side?

Ballydoyle have had some brilliant long-distance types down the years, but perhaps never one who has done so much in such a short time as Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Even the great Yeats (Ire) failed to pull off the Gold Cup-Goodwood Cup-Irish St Leger treble in 2006 and the way the Moyglare homebred went through the Sept. 11 Curragh feature on ground that probably should have compromised him suggests he could go one more and bring up a unique quartet of staying monuments in the G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran. The trouble is that he has to get past a rival with unknown boundaries at present in Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}). Lady Blyth’s 5-year-old suddenly exploded last time on a lively surface on York’s Knavesmire to destroy the otherwise exemplary Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) by 14 lengths in the Aug. 19 G2 Lonsdale Cup and has vital track experience here having won the July 14 G2 Prix Maurice de Nieul. Cont. p4
Another Burrows Special?

Massaat (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}). Three reasons to celebrate the art of Owen Burrows who continues his act of humble alchemy for Shadwell and the master of Farncombe Down has another poised for the heights in the 4-year-old Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}). Having produced a powerhouse performance to win Haydock’s G3 Rose of Lancaster S. by four lengths last time Aug. 6, he heads to the Bois de Boulogne for the G2 Qatar Prix Dollar in which he encounters diverse but strong opposition from the likes of Ecurie Jean-Pierre Barjon’s popular grey Wally (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), Godolphin’s burgeoning Fabre project Botanik (Ire) (Golden Horn {GB}), a former G1 QIPCO Champion S. hero in Addeybb (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and two TDN Rising Star 3-year-olds in West Wind Blows (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and Lassaut (Fr) (Almanzor {Fr}). “He’s a lightly-raced horse this year and this has been the plan since Haydock, as unfortunately there aren’t too many races for him,” Burrows said. “Fingers crossed, if he continues on his upward curve, he could be one who next year is knocking on the door in all of those top mile-and-a-quarter races.”

Next Step For Erevann

Holding entries in both Ascot’s G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. and G1 QIPCO Champion S., The Aga Khan’s TDN Rising Star Erevann (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) may make up connections’ minds sticking at a mile for the G2 Qatar Prix Daniel Wildenstein. Based on his close third in Deauville’s G1 Prix Jacques le Marois Aug. 14, the lightly-campaigned son of a former Ascot heroine in Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) could be one of the leading players on Champions Day if he deals with the 2020 QEII hero The Revenant (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum’s unexposed Triple Time (Ire) (Frankel {GB}). Elsewhere, there is the not-insignificant matter of The King’s first black-type runner King’s Lynn (GB) (Cable Bay {Ire}) in Ascot’s Listed Rous S., with the Andrew Balding-trained 5-year-old having provided The Queen with what would be her final win of that nature in the G2 Temple S. in May.

Fields Confirmed For Arc Card

Sunday’s G1 Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe card was finalised on Friday, with the customary strong overseas representation throughout the supporting five Group 1 races. In the G1 Qatar Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, the Ballydoyle juvenile team is fronted by Saturday’s G1 Middle Park S. runner-up The Antarctic (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who tackles a seventh furlong for the first time, while the G1 Qatar Prix Marcel Boussac sees Never Ending Story (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) fly the flag. She is up against two unbeaten TDN Rising Stars in the Wertheimers’ Kelina (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Gestut Fahrhof’s Habana (Ger) (Kingman {GB}).

There are also a pair of TDN Rising Stars in the G1 Prix de l’Opera Longines in Imad Al Sagar’s flagship filly Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Coolmore’s Above The Curve (American Pharoah). Jessie Harrington has supplemented Myglare’s G2 Prix de la Nonette winner Trevaunance (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) for a hot renewal which also features Peter Bradley’s Arc absentee La Parisienne (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}) and the Oaks heroine Tuesday (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

Gary Devlin’s A Case Of You (Ire) (Hot Streak {Ire}) is back to defend his title in the 1G Prix de l’Abbey de Longchamp Longines but has drawn 19 of 19, while in the G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret Presente par Education Above All there is a clash to two high-achieving TDN Rising Stars in Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and Tenebrism (Caravaggio) in the usual feast of luminaries. GROUP 3 SUCCESS FOR HEART’S CRY IN FRANCE by Sean Cronin Aidan O’Brien trainee Continuous (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)--Fluff (Ire), by Galileo (Ire)) notched a landmark score for his sire (by Sunday Silence) when snagging an Aug. 20 maiden over seven furlongs at the Curragh and maintained his perfect record with a battling success in a controversial renewal of Friday’s one-mile G3 Prix Thomas Bryon Jockey Club du Turquie at Saint-Cloud.

The eventual winner occupied a slot behind the leaders in third and was safely clear of trouble to his outer when British challenger Captain Wierzba (GB) (Night Of Thunder (Ire)) parted company with Rossa Ryan at halfway, the rider having been shoved from his mount by Christophe Soumillon aboard Syros (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)). Rowed along to reduce arrears soon after turning for home, the 2-1 favourite Continuous was ridden to go second approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under urging in the latter stages to prevail by 3/4-of-a-length from the subsequently demoted Syros. Soumillon was sanctioned with a 60-day ban (Oct. 14 through Dec. 12) for dangerous riding, but will be permitted to take his booked rides at ParisLongchamp this weekend.

Continuous, the first winner for his sire in Ireland, added another feather to his cap on Friday when becoming the first black-type winner and group hero in Europe for Heart’s Cry. He is also the 61st stakes winner and 43rd group winner for his pensioned sire. Scoop Dyga

“It was a very good performance for a horse who had just run once to win a maiden,” commented Coolmore representative Hermine Bastide. “Aidan [O’Brien] was quite confident he would have no problems staying the distance. Looking at his pedigree on his dam’s side, it suggested he’d be capable of handling soft going and Ryan [Moore] said the ground was okay for him.

Aidan will talk to the owners and he could come back here for the [Oct. 22 G1] Criterium International.”

Pedigree Notes

Continuous, half-brother to a yearling filly by Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) and a weanling colt by Wootton Bassett (GB), is the third of five foals and one of two scorers out of a winning full-sister to G1 Moyglare Stud St. heroine Maybe (Ire) (Galileo (Ire), herself the dam of G1 2000 Guineas-winning sire Saxon Warrior (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)). The March-foaled bay’s dam is also a full-sister to dual Group 1-placed G3 Silver Flash S. victrix Promise To Be True (Ire). His stakes-winning second dam Sumora (Ire) (Danehill) is kin to G1 Oaks and G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)) from the family of multiple Group 1-winning sire Dr Devious (Ire) (Ahonoora (GB)).

"I think I got the nicest filly and the nicest colt in the Sportsman’s and, in my opinion, they are great value. We’ll spend 25 to 26 grand getting a horse from sale to sale. No bother. Costs have gone up and they are not coming down."
As has the price of the raw material. The demand for yearlings have sky-rocketed this autumn, which was evident in a buoyant Orby Sale in which the American buyers made their mark, and also in the Sportsman’s where turnover climbed by 49% on last year’s figures to €10,360,000. The average was also up 21% to €25,085 while the median climbed 31% to €21,000.

Asked if such a strong market has caused Hassett to adopt a more cautious approach to selecting yearlings, he said, “This is me being cautious. If you look back through the results, the best colt in the Sportsman’s is just as good as the best colt in the Orby. A hundred and fifty grand in the Sportsman’s will get you a nicer colt than if you went and spent half a million in the Orby."

"The Magna Grecia is a nice colt. Ken Condon had the sister [Rhea Moon (Ire) (Starspangledbanner (Aus))] and he told me that she was graded-class in Europe. They got good money for her to go out to America and she won quite easily and was entered in the [GI] Del Mar Oaks but got scratched so that pedigree could look a lot better in a few months’ time."

He added on the colt, that was signed for by Getinthegame.ie/Archdale BS, “As well as that, he’s a May 28 foal, so he is five months younger than most of the horses in the sale. Funnily enough, this fella has the same birthday as Northern Dancer who was technically two when he won the Kentucky Derby."

Hassett has become something of a social media sensation through his behind-the-scenes documenting of what goes into preparing a horse for the breeze-ups and boasts over 5,000 followers on Twitter. But does that translate to take-up in the syndicate?

"Take-up has been great. The Twitter thing really worked and 80% of the people who got involved last year made money. The average profit was almost 20%."

"I only did two videos last year, didn’t promote it properly at all, because I got sick again. I got the diagnoses—15 brain tumors, one of them an inch in diameter and the stuff in the lungs back and new stuff in my stomach as well. The last two scans have shown that everything is reducing in size. Diet is a major part of that.

"But people were extremely good to me when I got sick and this whole Get In The Game Syndicate is my way of giving something back. If I can get people into racing and give them a good experience, and we can produce a good horse, well then I’ll consider that a job well done. I am delighted with the 16 yearlings we picked up this year and there are shares available."

Strong Trade Continues

Henry Beeby was spotted signing his way out of the sales house on Friday evening and few would blame the Goffs chief executive after a bonanza of a Sportsman’s Sale following on from the Orby.

The work of Irish Thoroughbred Marketing and the team at Goffs did to attract the buyers at every level came in for special praise by Beeby.

He said, "On Wednesday we reflected on a record breaking edition of [the] Orby headed by the world’s highest priced yearling of the autumn at €2.6m and Sportsman’s only continued the theme with a vibrant trade driven by domestic and overseas buyers. Once again we are indebted to our vendors for entrusting us with two big days of yearlings that held huge appeal and allowed us to shout wide and loud about the strength of the catalogue."

"Like Orby we have broken records, not least for top price with Abbeville Stud’s superb colt selling for €300,000 which has proved to be the highest priced yearling ever sold in Ireland outside the Orby Sale, so demonstrating that Sportsman’s very much lives up to its billing as Part 2 of the Irish National Yearling Sale."

Swan, Sam Baker and Pat Taaffe turned their €15,000 Zoffany colt foal purchase into a €42,000 yearling (lot 815). The hike in share price was helped in no small part by the emergence of the Sioux Nation half-sister Sydneyarms Chelsea (Ire) who landed a Group 3 at Deauville last month.

Elliott Swoops For Well-Bred Phoenix Of Spain

Phoenix Of Spain’s progeny were well-received in the Orby, with eight of the 10 offered selling for an average of €69,000, including the half-sister to Twilight Gleaming (Ire) (National Defense {GB}), who Ben McElroy snapped up for €200,000.

The Irish National Stud resident played a leading role on day two of the Sportsman’s, with Gordon Elliott going to €82,000 to secure a half-sister (lot 833) to talented hurdler Zanahiyr (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}) on behalf of Noel and Valerie Moran’s Bective Stud.

Elliott said, "The family has obviously been very good to us. I’m delighted to be able to buy her for the Morans and we will get her home and get her broken. We’ll bring her along steadily and she is a filly with a lot of options."

Perfect Pinhook

Nothing inspires quite like a good pinhook story and Harry Swan, Sam Baker and Pat Taaffe turned their €15,000 Zoffany colt foal purchase into a €42,000 yearling (lot 815). The hike in share price was helped in no small part by the emergence of the Sioux Nation half-sister Sydneyarms Chelsea (Ire) who landed a Group 3 at Deauville last month.
SOUMILLON HANDED TWO-MONTH BAN AFTER ELBOW INCIDENT

Christophe Soumillon, one of the most decorated riders in the world, has been handed a two-month ban after elbowing fellow jockey Rossa Ryan out of the saddle at Saint-Cloud on Friday.

The Belgian native was riding Syros (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) for Francis Graffard in the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon Jockey Club de Turquie when making contact with Ryan, who was aboard the Ralph Beckett-trained Captain Wierzba (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}).

In what looked a deliberate elbow, Soumillon edged Ryan out of the saddle and, while he denied any malice to the incident, apologised on At The Races afterwards by saying it was "not a nice act" and that he had made "a misjudgement".

Syros went on to finish second but was disqualified by the French stewards who gave Soumillon his lengthy ban. The rider will be free to ride on Arc weekend at ParisLongchamp as the two-month ban does not come into effect until next week.

"I received a little bit of pressure from Rossa's mount on my outside trying to get a better position behind Ryan," Soumillon said. "I was just behind Ryan at the time. And I put my elbow against him just to make him understand I wasn't going to the inside and unfortunately when I asked my horse to stay there and go a little bit to the right, I pushed him for one stride or two and he fell off.

"Straight away, I knew, I'd made a mistake. I'm terribly sad with what happened because I hate seeing stuff like this and when you are doing that it's even more terrible, so I want to apologise to everyone, not just one person who owns the horse or trains the horse or even the jockey."

He added, "I just saw him [Ryan] now and he's fine and the horse too so I'm happy for that, but for all the people loving racing it was not a nice act from my side and I am terribly sorry and I want to apologise for what I did today.

"I just received a big suspension from the France-Galop stewards. I'm going to be suspended for two months--60 days of racing. So that's a very big thing. So unfortunately my end-of-season is now gone. But I accept the sentence for what I did, for the terrible mistake like I said.

"And for sure that sentence is an example to others then that's acceptable but for sure, I shouldn't do that. I didn't do it on purpose to make him fall off his horse. I was just trying to keep my position. But with the ground ... I probably did with a little power. It was a misjudgment from my side.

"I wasn't trying to make him fall off his horse. Unfortunately he was side by side with me, his iron goes up and he goes over the horse. I don't really understand what happened in that moment because it's going really fast but it's a terrible thing for what I did. I know a lot of people are not going to excuse me, but I feel really bad at the moment for what happened."

Ryan reported that he and his mount were fine after the incident. He said, "The horse is fine, I'm fine. That's the main thing. I'm 100%.

QUALITY AT A PREMIUM FOR SATURDAY'S ARC SALE

After a frenetic Saturday of racing on opening day of Arc weekend at ParisLongchamp, the curtain rises on Arqana's Arc Sale at Saint-Cloud Racecourse at 6:30 p.m., Paris time. Thirty-five lots will go through the ring.

Consigned by trainer Markus Klug, the 112-rated bay is out of the listed-placed Sovalla (GB) (Pomellato {Ger}), and is from the extended family of G3 Prix Edmond Blanc victor Silas Marner (Fr) (Muhtathir).

The final entry on the day is lot 47, the regally-bred In Crowd (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is a half-brother to Group 1 winners With You (GB) (Dansili {GB}), Call The Wind (GB) (Frankel {GB}), and We Are (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). A listed winner this term in the Grand Prix Anjou Bretagne at Nantes in June, the chestnut is consigned by Freddy Head.

Harry McAlpine becomes new Australasian representative for Tattersalls

Bloodstock consultant Harry McAlpine has been named as an additional Tattersalls Australasian representative alongside Jenny McAlpine. The Queensland native is based on the McAlpine family’s Eureka Stud, and handles stallion nominations and sales. He also acts as a bloodstock agent and consultant managing the Black Soil Bloodstock racing and breeding operation of Brian Siemsen.

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, “Harry is a great addition to the Tattersalls team of overseas representatives and his appointment working alongside Jenny McAlpine demonstrates the importance we attach to promoting Tattersalls sales throughout Australia and New Zealand. Having worked at Tattersalls in Newmarket and at William Inglis in Sydney, Harry is already familiar with the Tattersalls ethos and sales portfolio and between him and Jenny, Tattersalls has two highly respected individuals to represent the company in a hugely important market.”

McAlpine added, “Tattersalls has a fantastic reputation in both Australia and New Zealand and to be promoting Tattersalls alongside Jenny is a role I am looking forward to enormously.”

Robbie Power joins Tattersalls Ireland

Former G1 Cheltenham Gold Cup and G3 Grand National-winning jockey Robbie Power has been appointed to the Tattersalls Ireland Bloodstock Team, beginning on Monday, Oct. 3. He will assist Tattersalls Ireland with inspections, promotions, pre-sale and sales day matters. Originally from Co Meath, Power retired from the saddle earlier this year after riding 31 Grade 1 winners. Power rode predominantly for trainer Jessica Harrington.

Tattersalls Ireland CEO Simon Kerins said, “We are thrilled to welcome Robbie to the team at Tattersalls Ireland and his appointment comes at an opportune time as our Breeze-Up and Store Sales inspections commence in the New Year. Robbie’s experience, horsemanship and passion for racing perfectly complements the current team and further strengthens our Irish inspection team of John O’Kelly, Jamie Codd, Timmy Hillman, Chris Farrell, Richard Pugh and Barry O’Neill.”

Power added, "It's a huge pleasure to be joining Tattersalls Ireland and I am really looking forward to this next chapter in my career. I have been coming to the sales at Tattersalls Ireland since a young age and it feels like I have come full circle to now be working alongside the team full-time. A key part of my role will be inspecting some of the best stock in Ireland, both Flat and National Hunt, and following them as they begin their careers on the racetracks which is hugely exciting."

29 ENTRIES DECLARED FOR TATTERSALLS OCTOBER AUCTION S.

Already victorious in the £100,000 Tattersalls Somerville Auction S. at Newmarket in August, Amichi (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}) one of 29 juveniles signed on for the six-furlong £150,000 Tattersalls October Auction S. back at HQ on Saturday. Trained by Ed Walker, Amichi is a 15,500gns graduate of the Tattersalls Somerville Yearling Sale. Saturday’s contest is open to 2-year-olds offered at the Tattersalls Somerville Yearling Sale, the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales Book 3 and 4, or which were withdrawn from any of the above sales and were subsequently offered at the Tattersalls December Yearling Sale.

Challenging Amichi is Walker stablemate Union Court (GB), who was knocked down for 18,000 gns during the third book of last year’s Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. The highest-rated horse in the field, the filly is one of six in the race by leading first-season sire Havana Grey (GB). Another Book 3 alumni is 16,000-gns purchase Skysail (GB) (Tasleet {GB}), who was second when unveiled, but put it all together to win a Newbury maiden last out for trainer Marcus Tregoning.

The October Yearling Sale begins with Book 1 on Oct. 4-6, Book 2 from Oct. 10-12, Book 3 on Oct. 13-14 and ends with Book 4 on Oct. 15. For more information, please visit the Tattersalls website.

DENMARK (GB) (Camelot (GB)) represents Ballydoyle in this Haras de Bouquetot Criterium Arqana for Arqana yearling graduates of 2021 and is an exciting prospect having won on his sole start over this trip at Naas at the start of last month. At €440,000, the Arqana Deauville October toppler, the son of the dual Group 3 winner and G1 Prix de l’Opera runner-up Board Meeting (Ire) (Anabaa) meets Prime Equestrian Racing’s bargain €13,000 October purchase Munch (GB) (New Bay (GB)). From the David Menuisier stable, she upstaged the subsequent impressive listed winner Sirona (Ger) (Soldier Hollow (GB)) in Goodwood’s British EBF £100,000 2yo Fillies Series Final earlier this month.

IMPERIAL FRONTIER (IRE) (Dubawi (Ire)) is the second foal out of the GI Man o’ War S. heroine Zhukova (Ire) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)), who is a half to Dubawi’s brilliant Ghaiyyath (Ire) who excelled for this colt’s connections after starting his career at this track. Charlie Appleby introduces the February-foaled full-brother to the stable’s surefire future pattern-race performer First Ruler (GB) in a line-up that includes Saeed Suhail’s A Dublin Lad (GB) (Ulysses (Ire)), the John and Thady Gosden-trained half-brother to the G2 Hungerford S. winner Sacred (GB) (Exceed And Excel (Aus)). A non-runner here at the last meeting, he is a 300,000gns Book 1 graduate which made him the sire’s clear highest-priced progeny sold at auction last year.

3.52 Newmarket, Mdn, £10,000, 2yo, 7fT
MILITARY ORDER (IRE) (Frankel (GB)) is the second Godolphin newcomer to take the eye on the card, being an April-foaled full-brother to the 2021 Derby and King George-winning sensation Adayar (Ire). Charlie Appleby’s representative meets Jeff Smith’s similarly-unraced Arabian Storm (GB) (Kingman (GB)), an Andrew Balding-trained son of the owner-breeder’s G1 Juddmonte International heroine Arabian Queen (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) who has already produced two winners by Frankel (GB) and one smart stayer in Spirit Mixer (GB).

Supplemented for the Derby by his owner-breeder, El Habeeb was not disgraced when beating seven rivals having had only one previous start and three outings later was in the St Leger running under five-lengths sixth at Doncaster Sept. 11. Placed up near the pace here, the bay was in front approaching the furlong pole and, despite the close attention of the promoted Leger third Giavellotto, fought hard for the black-type breakthrough. The dam, who was third in the GII Distaff H., is also responsible for the talented filly Gold Wand (Ire) (Golden Horn (GB)) who captured the Listed Galtres S. A daughter of the GII Doubledogdare S.-placed Warrior Girl (War Chant), she also has the unraced 2-year-old colt Hardpoint (Ire) (Camelot (GB))

BULLDOG SPIRIT (IRE) (c, 2, Churchill (IRE)--Banimpire (IRE) {MGSW & G1SP-Ire, GSW-Eng & G1SP-Fr, $660,536}, by Holy Roman Emperor (IRE)), tracked all three rivals in a handy fourth after an adequate break in this debut. Tanking forward once past halfway, the 3-1 second choice was shaken up just before the two pole and kept on well under a late drive to assert by 3/4-of-a-length from Wan’em (Ire) (Free Eagle (Ire)). Bulldog Spirit, half to a weanling colt by Circus Maximus (Ire), is the fifth of six foals and third scorer produced by multiple pattern-race winner and G1 Irish Oaks and G1 Prix de l’Opera placegetter Banimpire (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor (IRE)), herself a daughter of dual stakes-winning G3 Princess Royal S. runner-up My Renee (Kris S.). Initially with Florian Guyader in France, Funny Money Honey was already well-versed in the ways of racing before her second in Chantilly’s Listed Prix la Flèche June 5 and ninth in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot 10 days later. Switched to Jessie Harrington’s soon after, the bay had run third behind her smart compatriots Mauiewieow (GB) (Night Of Thunder {IRE}) and Treasure Trove (IRE) (Siyouni {FR}) in the Curragh’s Listed Curragh S. over this trip Aug. 13. Sixth in Salisbury’s six-furlong G3 Dick Poole Fillies’ S. at the start of the month before heading to Doncaster 10 days after to finish in the same position in the G2 Flying Childers S., she put all that experience to use from the front throughout and stayed on strongly on her first try at Polytrack.

“She has a lot of pace. I rode her for the first time in Salisbury and I said to Jessie that I might have won over five--she gets three lengths out of the gates,” jockey Shane Foley said. “She just loves to jump and travel and a bend really helped her today just to get the five furlongs.”

The winner is the first foal out of the dam, whose yearling full-brother to the winner had sold for €62,000 to Joe Foley the day before at the Goiffs Sportsman’s Yearling Sale. Also responsible for a foal full-sister to them both, she is a half to the Listed Gillies S. winner Company Asset (IRE) (Fast Company {IRE}).

Stepping up a furlong having broken her maiden at the third attempt over six at Naas Sept. 15, Charles Fipke’s homebred filly Spirit Gal (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {IRE}) made all to annexe Friday’s Listed Irish Stallion Farms EBF StarAppeal S. at Dundalk. Sent off the 4-1 joint-second favourite, the bay gave generously for Seamie Heffernan as she had last time and never let Ballydoyle’s Cairo (IRE) (Quality Road) make a fight of it as she kept that 11-10 market-leader at bay to score by 2 1/4 lengths. “She is in a Group 3 in France, but she needs good ground and the Breeders’ Cup could be on the cards—we’ll have to see,” trainer Willie Browne said. Or Gris and his jubilant connections | Scoop Dyga

Or Gris snagged a first win since 2019 when saluting in a May 19 conditions test at ParisLongchamp and went postward for his 13th black-type start returning off a Sept. 9 conditions fourth at this venue. Employing patient tactics and anchored in rear until turning for home in this marathon, he made relentless headway under pressure in the straight and stayed on well to prevail in a bunch finish for a career high.

Or Gris is the first of four foals and lone winner produced by a half-sister to Caprice Meill (Fr) (French Glory (Ire)), who ran second in the 2006 renewal of this race and third in the Listed Prix Denisy. Caprice Meill, who is a granddaughter of Listed Grand Prix de la Ville de Toulouse victrix Soldouna (Fr) (Kaldoun (Fr)), is the dam of G3 Loughbrown S. victor Renneti (Fr) (Irish Wells (Fr)) and hails from the family of G1 Prix de la Foret-winning sire A Magicman (Fr) (The Wonder (Fr)). Video, sponsored by TVG.

ADDITIONAL MAIDEN WINNER:
Izastep (Fr), c, 2, Footstepsinsheathesand (GB)--Izalia (Fr) (GSW-FR, $149,676), by Iron Mask. Marseille-Pont-de-Vivaux, 9-30, 7 1/2fT, 1:30.07. B-J-C Seroul (FR).

SPRINTERS S. MARKS RETURN OF TOP-LEVEL ACTION TO JAPAN
by Heather Anderson

On hiatus for the past several months, Group 1 action returns to the Land of the Rising Sun in Nakayama’s 1200-metre Sprinters S. on Sunday. Sixteen horses have stood their ground, among them last-out G2 Centaur S. heroine Meikei Yell (Jpn) (Mikki Isle (Jpn)). Leaving from gate 13, the 4-year-old filly and 2-1 morning line pick is aiming to become the first horse to complete the Centaur/Sprinters S. double since Tower Of London (Jpn) (Raven’s Pass) in 2019. Trained by Hidenori Take, the Nagoya Keibo Co. Ltd colourbearer will have Kenichi Ikezoe in the irons.

Assistant trainer Kaname Ogino said, “Everything went to plan in her last race, and the jockey got the best out of her. She has returned to training again and seems relaxed, which is a good thing. There doesn’t seem to be any change in her condition.”

Brilliance Their Stock In Trade

Something of a novelty in Japan, Sunday Racing’s German-bred Schnell Meister (Ger) (Kingman (GB)), who scored his Group 1 win in the NHK Mile Cup in 2021 and was runner-up in the G1 Yasuda Kinen all the way back in June, will fly the flag for his Juddmonte sire. Connections did take a gamble and send him to Dubai to start his season in March, but it did not pay off. Half a world away, others looking to give their Juddmonte sire a fruitful weekend at the highest level include ‘TDN Rising Stars’ Habana (Ger) (G1 Qatar Prix Marcel Boussac, 1400mT), and Kinross (GB) (G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret, 1400mT) on Arc Day. The day prior, fellow Rising Star Laurel (GB) and Mrs Fitzherbert (Ire) go to the post in Newmarket’s one-mile G1 Royal Bahrain Sun Chariot S. for the 11-year-old, who sits ninth on the TDN Europe General Sires List this year. A victory by the 4-year-old entire at Nakayama would nudge Kingman up to seventh, after the $1,198,977 was added to his progeny earnings. Cont. p18

Trainer Takahisa Tezuka said, “His condition wasn’t so good after Dubai, even though he did manage to finish second in the Yasuda Kinen. After his usual summer break at Northern Farm Tenei, he returned to the stable early in September. He looks his usual self, if not a little bigger, but has moved well enough in recent work.”

Age Before Beauty?
Second choice is Mutsuhiro Namura homebred Namura Clair (Jpn) (Mikki Isle {Jpn}) at 3-1, who sneaks into the field under a featherweight of just 117 pounds. Classic-placed over 1600 metres in the G1 Japanese 1000 Guineas this spring, the June 12 G3 Hakodate Sprint S. victress was third over this trip in the G3 Kitakyushu Kinen on Aug. 21.

If she prevails, she would be the sixth Group or Grade 1 winner tracing to 1993 G1 Prix Morny/G1 Prix de la Salamandre heroine and blue hen Coup De Genie (Mr. Prospector) and first in Japan. Appropriately considering the international stakes on offer this weekend, one of that sextet, the now Japanese-based sire Bago (Fr) (Nashwan), claimed the 2004 G1 Prix de l’Arc de Tromphe among his many Group 1 victories.

Trainer Kodai Hasegawa said, “She has had a break at the farm with this race in mind. She has recovered well, and has been able to handle her training workload since. It has also been good to have had some time between races.”
