CHOCOLATE GELATO HOLDS SWAY IN FRIZETTE

Repole Stable's Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke) had to work much harder than she did airing in a Saratoga graduation last out, but dug in through the stretch to capture Sunday's GI Frizette S. at Belmont at the Big A and punch her ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. The victory gave her second-crop sire his first North American top-level winner.

Unveiled as a poorly-kept secret at 55 cents on the dollar on opening day at the Spa July 14, the $475,000 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream purchase pressed the pace before settling for third. Making the lead from the jump a month later, the dark bay widened through the lane for a geared-down 8 1/2-length romp, earning a field-best 92 Beyer.

Backed as the favorite here off that performance, Chocolate Gelato settled second last in the field of six as You're My Girl dictated terms through fractions of :23.14 and :46.90. Splitting horses under a patient Irad Ortiz, Jr. on the turn, the chalk drew alongside the pacesetter five-sixteenths from home and appeared poised to blow the race open turning for home. You're My Girl was dead game, however, and made Chocolate Gelato work for it through the whole stretch run before succumbing late as the Todd Pletcher trainee earned a length tally.

“She settled through and handled the mile really well,” said Pletcher. “I liked the way she turned off, and it gives you the impression two turns is going to be within her range. I think she got there a little bit early and was waiting a bit.” Cont. p3

RICH STRIKE IS FOR REAL, AND OTHER THOUGHTS

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

Reflections on an interesting weekend of racing:

(*) No, Rich Strike did not win the GII Lukas Classic S. at Churchill Downs. A very game Hot Rod Charlie (Oxbow) had a second surge and came back just before the wire to nip him by a head. But not only was there no shame in losing, this was the best race of Rich Strike’s career—better, yes, the GI Kentucky Derby—and finally put to rest that he was a one-race wonder who just got lucky on the first Saturday in May.

There was plenty of reason to doubt this horse after the Derby. He was 80-1, probably should have been even higher, and benefitted from a massive pace meltdown and a perfect trip under the unheralded rider Sonny Leon. Cont. p5

BREEDERS’ CUP NEXT FOR IOWA-BRED TYLER’S TRIBE

Bill Finley talks to the connections of Iowa-bred sensation Tyler’s Tribe (Sharp Azteca), who will bring his undefeated record to Keeneland for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint.

The Year of Tyler. Tyler Gaffalione picked up his latest Kentucky jockeys’ title by topping all riders at the Churchill September Meet, which wrapped up Sunday. Gaffalione also was the leading pilot at the Churchill Spring Meet and the Kentucky Downs meet earlier this year. | Coody

“You’re My Girl didn't give up—that's a nice filly,” Pletcher continued. “She fought back, so I was proud of our filly for staying on to the wire. That was a nice field she beat.”

“She was there for me and at the three-eighths pole, she hit the clear and was moving forward on her own,” added Ortiz. “She got to the horse on the lead and was thinking a little bit. It's only her third start; she's still learning and I had to work a little more aggressive on her, but she kept responding and got the job done. The way she moved, I didn't want to get in her way. I let her do her thing and she was moving already so I said, 'Alright, it's time to go.' I had a lot of confidence in her. She's a nice filly, so I ride her with confidence. When I asked, she was there for me.”

Pedigree Notes:

The first North American Grade I winner for Practical Joke, Chocolate Gelato follows up three Group 1 winners in Chile for the Ashford stallion. She is also his 12th stakes winner and seventh graded/group winner. Her third dam is MGSW/MGISP Daydreaming, who produced GISW Imagining (Giant's Causeway) and two other black-type performers.

It looked like a fluke and even more so when he never threatened in the GI Belmont S. and finished sixth, beaten 13 1/4 lengths. He came back in the GI Travers S. and certainly didn’t embarrass himself, running fourth behind the immensely talented divisional leader Epicenter (Not This Time). But fourth is not first and he lost by 5 1/2 lengths.

Trainer Eric Reed then made the decision to skip the GI Pennsylvania Derby and take on older horses in the Lukas Classic. He didn’t exactly find an easy spot. With Hod Rod Charlie, Happy Saver (Super Saver) and Art Collector (Bernardini), the race was loaded. Considering the quality of the field and that the race was for 3-year-olds and up, you can make the argument that the race was a tougher assignment than the Derby. And he ran his heart out, losing to an accomplished and tenacious Grade I winning 4-year-old who has bankrolled more than $5.5 million.

“He hooked the toughest horses he has ever ran against and ran on the outside the whole way,” Reed said after the race. “Look how far he has come since May. I can only imagine what it’s going to be like next year.”

Good point: this colt is obviously improving and should be an outstanding 4-year-old.

It’s also worth noting that he was much closer to the pace than normal in the race Saturday at Churchill. He was never further back than fourth and never more than 2 1/2 lengths off the lead. That should serve him well as trying to win races from 15 lengths off the pace is never an easy way to go.

Reed hasn’t said yet if Rich Strike will go next in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic. The other option is the GI Clark S. on Nov. 25. Considering the depth of the Classic and the presence of a certain horse named Flightline (Tapit) and Rich Strike’s affinity for the Churchill surface the Clark looks like the better option. Either way, it looks like he will show up and be competitive. He’s not Flightline, he may not be Epicenter, but he is what he is—a very good horse and a deserving winner of the Kentucky Derby.

(*) The Lukas Classic was not without controversy. Aboard Rich Strike, Sonny Leon appeared to be leaning into Tyler Gaffalione on Hot Rod Charlie and elbowing him as the two horses neared the wire. Retired jockey and TV analyst Richard Migliore took to Twitter to criticize Leon and claim that his actions cost Rich Strike the race.

“After watching the Lukas classic numerous times @SONNYLEON1 cost Rich Strike the win by pulling him over to Hot Rod Charlie and putting his elbow into @Tyler_Gaff instead of going forward and driving to the wire,” he tweeted. “When does this BS stop? It’s horse racing not jockey racing. Enough.”

NYRA linemaker David Aragona also had his say on Twitter.

“As much as I’d like to praise how well Rich Strike ran today, this is pretty bad stuff from the jock,” he wrote. “Obviously crossing a line. A suspension is warranted for these kind of shenanigans.

Others on Twitter were kinder, arguing that Leon’s saddle slipped and that was what caused him to lean into Gaffalione, which, the head-on replay shows, he clearly did.

(*) Maybe the GI Woodward S. was nothing more than a paid public workout for Life Is Good (Into Mischief) and all he needed to do was get around the racetrack. He did in fact get the job done. But with his reputation and his odds of 1-20 weren’t you expecting more than a 1 1/4-length win and a 97 Beyer figure? There was even a moment when it looked like eventual runner-up Law Professor (Constitution) was going to beat and post what would have been a colossal upset.

Take nothing away from Life Is Good. He’s won three Grade I races this year and if not for Flightline would be the favorite for the Horse of the Year title. But if he is going to be in competitive in the Classic he will need to run much better than he did Saturday.

(*) The GI Awesome Again S. was a chance to enhance Flightline’s reputation, if such a thing is possible. Cont. p7

Life Is Good | Sarah Andrew

The race included, in Country Grammer (Tonalist), Royal Ship (Brz) and Express Train (Union Rags), the horses who were second, third and fourth when Flightline turned in his electrifying performance in the GI Pacific Classic. Had that group come back with strong collective efforts in the Awesome Again it would have made Flightline’s race look even better.

It didn’t happen.

The race was won by Defunded (Dialed In), who was coming of a sixth-place finish in the GII Pat O’Brien S. Country Grammer was second but was a disappointment at odds of 11-10. Express Train was fourth and Royal Ship was sixth. Neither ran well.

This doesn’t mean that Flightline isn’t a once-in-a-lifetime talent, but it’s clear that, beyond him, the older male division in California is a weak one.

(*) Horse racing remains the only gambling game where you can cash a winning bet and feel like a chump. It happened again in the Awesome Again. When the field was loading into the gate Defunded was 8-1. The gate opened, he got out front and, lo and behold, he was 5-1 on the next flash. He paid $12.

Once again, the computer players got fat and happy at the expense of the everyday player who wagered on Defunded thinking they had bet on a horse that would pay in the neighborhood of 8-1. The winners were made to feel like losers. And the problem is not going to go away. The CAW players wager far too much money for any track to refuse their bets.

Fixed odds can’t come soon enough, but it looks like industry is in no hurry to at least give them a try. Why? In fact, FanDuel is prepared to offer bets on racing on its sports betting platforms, but with pari-mutuel odds. You think the sports bettor would be OK with betting the Mets at -160 only to be told after the first pitch the odds were really -210? Of course not. It’s hard to imagine a marriage of sports betting and racing working without fixed odds.

(*) Chad Brown keeps getting better and better with young dirt horses. When he won the GI Champagne S. at Aqueduct with Blazing Sevens (Good Magic), it was his second straight win in the race and his fourth overall. Blazing Seven’s sire, Good Magic (Curlin), was second in the 2017 Champagne.
Major Dude gave his freshman sire a second graded winner on the grass and trainer Todd Pletcher a record fifth GII Pilgrim S. trophy Sunday as he stamped his ticket to the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf next month. A debut winner at Monmouth June 18, the $550,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling could only manage sixth in the Spa’s GIII Sanford S. July 16 and was third behind romping stablemate Lost Ark (Violence) when stretched to a mile for Monmouth’s Aug. 27 Sapling S. He had posted a couple of breezes over the Belmont turf in preparation for this first foray on the lawn, but was dismissed at 10-1 while looking to help Pletcher defend his Pilgrim title (Annapolis {War Front} won it last year).

Away well, Major Dude was reined by hot-handed Irad Ortiz, Jr. into the first turn to sit in a joint third behind a pace that seemed hot enough visually over the soft going (:24.10, :49.73, 1:15.84). He mounted an outside move to take over at the head of the lane, but was immediately tackled by odds-on Chad Brown pupil I’m Very Busy. That one seemed to have all the momentum, but Major Dude had the heart and edged away in the shadow of the wire to prevail by daylight. New York-bred longshot Lachaise was rolling late, but ran out of ground and settled for third.

"First of all, at the half-mile, I think I can go by those horses whenever I want to," said Ortiz. "I feel like my horse switched off on the backside and saved a lot of energy for the end and I took some time."

“It was a longshot, the other horse [Movisitor], so coming back, I took my time and when I asked him to go by [Trevor] McCarthy’s horse, I didn’t go by that easy, so I had to start working a little earlier than I thought. But finally going to the quarter-pole, he made the lead, I asked him and he responded really well and moved forward. Then the other horse was beside me and when he felt that, he fought back.”

Ortiz won two graded stakes Saturday, including the GI Woodward S. aboard Pletcher-trained Life Is Good (Into Mischief); and he was completing a graded double for himself and Pletcher in the Pilgrim after booting home Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke) in the GI Frizette S.

“He’s a colt that we’ve really liked from the very beginning,” Pletcher said of Major Dude. “He was one of the first to come in [this year]. He was training well on the dirt and we gave him a couple opportunities and we just kind of got the feeling that we weren’t getting everything that we thought we had. So, I saw a couple of Bolt d’Oros were running well on the turf and said, ‘Let’s work him on the turf.’ Then it was like, ‘OK, that’s what we were hoping to see.’ I’m not surprised he stepped up today. He’s always been a very professional, straightforward colt. I’m happy he found what he was looking for.”

Pletcher confirmed that the Nov. 4 Juvenile Turf would be next.

Pedigree Notes:

Major Dude becomes the fourth stakes winner for his highly regarded freshman sire, and the second to make the grade following in the hoofsteps of Boppy O, who exited a 10th-place run in the Sanford to upset Saratoga’s GIII With Anticipation S. Aug. 31 in this same division. Both Bolt d’Oro and the runner-up’s sire Cloud Computing stand at Spendthrift Farm.

This is the 54th graded winner worldwide out of a mare by top broodmare sire Distorted Humor, who also sired the dam of aforementioned Life Is Good. Standout bred on the Medaglia d’Oro--Distorted Humor cross include Hong Kong Horse of the Year Golden Sixty (Aus) and domestic MGISWs Elate and New Money Honey.

Major Dude’s third dam is the great Personal Ensign. His dam, fourth behind Untapable (Tapit) in the 2014 GII Fair Grounds Oaks, was acquired by the Cleary family’s Clearsky Farms for $230,000 at KEENOV ’16. Her subsequent two foals, by Into Mischief, fetched $850,000 and $1,025,000, respectively. The BSW/Crow Colts Group, Spendthrift Farm and Gandharvi bought Mary Rita’s yearling colt by Audible for $150,000 recently at Keeneland September. The dam was unsuccessfully bred to Authentic after that, and visited Charlatan this past season.

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC SALE STARTS
MONDAY by Jessica Martini

TIMONIUM, MD - The Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale opens Monday at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium with a session of 200 catalogued hips beginning at 1 p.m., and concludes with a further 326 catalogued yearlings for a session beginning at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Despite persistent rain throughout the weekend, shoppers were making the rounds at the sales barns Sunday and consignors are hoping the looks continue to build up to Monday’s later start time.

“We are cautiously optimistic,” said Vinery Sales’ Derek MacKenzie. “It seems like the traffic has picked up today. It was really slow yesterday, but they are coming now. And they will have more time tomorrow. We will see some trainers who won’t come today who I am sure will be here in the morning.”

Consignor Bill Reightler found a silver lining in the dreary weather.

"I can remember some years ago here we had a sale in December where we had four or five inches of snow and I think we had the best sale we ever had because people thought nobody was going to show up and they could buy something."

Coming on the heels of a record-breaking Keeneland September Yearling Sale, Reightler expects demand to continue to be high in Maryland this week.

"I think it's going to be fine," he said. "It's going to be the same old story. It's going to be polarized. I think some of the buyers couldn't buy horses at Keeneland and that brings more people to the next sale."

A total of 381 yearlings sold during last year's auction for a gross of $11,269,400. The average was $29,578 and the median was $20,000. A colt by Mendelssohn brought the sale's top price of $235,000 from Scanlon Training and Sales before re-selling for $1.3 million at this year's OBS April sale. David Scanlon was among the pinhookers looking at horses through the raindrops at the sales barns Sunday.

Last year's auction also produced GI Spinaway S. winner Leave No Trace (Outwork), who sold for $40,000 from the Vinery consignment. Results like that should have shoppers eager to return to the Maryland auction, according to MacKenzie.

"This sale was really good last year and I suspect it should be again," he said. "A lot of people didn't get what they wanted at Keeneland and there are a lot of nice horses here."

BREEDERS' CUP NEXT FOR IOWA-BRED SENSATION TYLER'S TRIBE

by Bill Finley

After another dominating performance, this time in the Iowa Cradle S., the undefeated Iowa-bred gelding Tyler's Tribe (Sharp Azteca) will face the stiffest test of his career when going next in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint at Keeneland. Just don't call him an underdog. He's too fast for that.

"We're headed to Kentucky and I think we have a good horse," said co-owner and trainer Tim Martin. "I know he's been running in Iowa but has been beating them pretty bad over there. He's been pretty amazing."

The story of the over-achieving Iowa-bred began when Martin and co-owner Tom Lepic bought the horse for $34,000 as a yearling at last year's Iowa Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association Fall Mixed Sale, not knowing at the time that Sharp Azteca would turn out to be one of the top freshman sires in the country. The hope was to get a productive Iowa-bred, but it was obvious early on that they got much more than just that. Tyler's Tribe, who is named for Lepic's grandson, who has been battling leukemia, won his first four starts by a combined 53 1/4 lengths during a streak that included a gaudy 94 Beyer figure when he beat open company in the Prairie Meadows Freshman S.

He has never run outside of Prairie Meadows, where Martin is third in the trainer's standings. The regular rider is Kylee Jordan, the leading rider at Prairie Meadows who only recently lost her apprentice allowance.

In Saturday's Iowa Cradle, which was restricted to Iowa-breds, Tyler's Tribe, a 1-20 favorite, won by 6 1/2 lengths. It was the smallest winning margin of his five-race career, but he was geared down in the stretch and was never at any point asked for his best.

That wasn't the plan. Martin wanted Tyler's Tribe to gallop out an extra two furlongs after the wire, but with Jordan all but pulling the horse up at the wire it didn't work out.

"She was supposed to go out a mile," Martin said of Jordan. "I think there was a misunderstanding. She kind of saved him down the lane when I told her to keep riding him so he could go out a mile. She stood up on him and the horse thought he was done. So, I didn't like the gallop out. It wasn't the horse's fault."

Martin has had his sights set on the Breeders' Cup for a while. The only question was whether or not they would try for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at a mile-and-a-sixteenth on the dirt or the Juvenile Turf at 5 1/2 furlongs on the grass. Neither is a perfect fit. Tyler's Tribe has never run on the grass, but neither has he ever run beyond six furlongs. Ultimately, Martin settled on the shorter race and the plan is to arrive at Keeneland on Tuesday so that he can adapt to his surroundings and get a chance to train over the turf course.
Though Tyler's Tribe has been facing modest competition, he figures to be among the favorites in the Juvenile Turf. If that weren't the case, Martin said he wouldn't be taking the shot that he is.

"I don't want to go to the Breeders' Cup just to go to the Breeders' Cup," he said. "I want to go when I know I have a shot to win a race or run a really big race. I'm not interested in going just to say that I had a horse in the Breeders' Cup. I think we have the horse to compete. He'll be one of the top horses in his race, He's five-for-five and has done it all easily."

Martin does think his horse will eventually be able to succeed in two-turn races and hopes to give him that shot next year. But first the Breeders' Cup, where he will take on some of the fastest 2-year-olds on the planet. Is he up to the task? It's a fascinating question, and the answer awaits.

Midnight Memories made an early move and kept on going to pick up her second consecutive graded stakes win in Sunday's GII Zenyatta S. at Santa Anita.

Debuting with a 1 1/4-length score at 4-5, earning a 95 Beyer, Apr. 30 in Arcadia, the dark bay repeated by a neck despite a tough trip in a local allowance June 5. Transferred from Sean McCarthy to the Bob Baffert barn, she ran a distant third in a Del Mar allowance/optional claimer July 28 before going to the front for the first time and holding gamely to capture the GII Torrey Pines S. there Sept. 4.

Made an 8-5 favorite in this five-horse field, Midnight Memories stumbled twice coming out of the gate and found herself last of a tightly-packed group going by a :24.16 quarter. Splitting horses in the three path entering the backstretch, she poked her nose in front as the half went up in :48.26 before dropping back to third going into the far turn. Appearing one pace around that bend, she found her best stride in deep stretch, took over at the furlong grounds and drew clear late to score. Close second choice Awake At Midnyte just held off longshot Empire House for second.

Pedigree Notes:

The lone stakes winner and graded stakes winner thus far for Mastery, Midnight Memories is the second foal to race out of Tiz Midnight, who broke her maiden by 11 1/2 lengths with a 102 Beyer in her fourth career start and later won the GII Bayakoa S. Second dam Tough Tiz’s Sis was a six-time stakes winner who ended her career with a 12 1/4-length romp and 113 Beyer in the 2008 GI Ruffian H. Tiz Midnight is responsible for a yearling colt by Collected and foaled a filly by Maximum Security this season before being bred to McKinzie.

Sporting form that towered over her rivals, including a win in last year's GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint and a corresponding Eclipse Award, Ce Ce returned to winning ways Sunday off of a subpar fifth in the GI Ballerina H. at Saratoga Aug. 28.

A five-length winner of this race 12 months ago, Ce Ce upended overwhelming favorite Gamine (Into Mischief) last year at the Breeders' Cup, but was defeated at short odds herself when second on seasonal debut in the Feb. 5 GI Santa Monica S. Here. She bested next-out Grade I winner Pauline's Pearl (Tapit) in the two-turn GI Azeri S. at Oaklawn Mar. 12, but settled for third in that venue's GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 23. She cut back and romped to defend her GII Princess Rooney S. title at Gulfstream July 2, but belied 3-2 favoritism after a wide journey at the Spa.

Well held to draft behind three of her four foes early, the chalk was asked for more to mount a four-wide bid into a :44.96 half, quickly settling the issue from there to win as she pleased.

“She ran her race, and that’s all I want from her,” said winning rider Victor Espinoza, who has piloted Ce Ce in all but two of her 22 career starts. “It doesn’t matter what happens during the race, as long as she can run her best, it’ll be good and that’s what happened here today. She’s always good, she’s a pro. She can be a little picky and when the track is not her thing, then she will not perform, like the last race in Saratoga. I’m so excited to ride her for the second time in the Breeders’ Cup! I was really proud of her and the way she ran today.”

Conditioner Michael McCarthy added, “I knew you could draw a line through that last one. I think she is as good as she was last year. I knew that race at Saratoga was too bad to be true. She was going in good form. She was in the one hole and she got dirt in her face. I know now why they call Saratoga the graveyard of champions. This was a good tune-up for the Breeders’ Cup.”

Pedigree Notes:
Ce Ce is a half to MGISW & GISP sire Papa Clem (Smart Strike) and SP Magical Victory (Victory Gallopin). She is also a full to SP Stradella Road. Another stakes-placed half-sibling is a GSW producer. A daughter of MGISW Magical Maiden (Lord Avie), the winner’s dam Miss Houdini’s most recent foal is a 3-year-old colt named Native Thunder (American Pharoah), who graduated in Monmouth MSW company in June. Miss Houdini was unsuccessfully bred in the next four seasons, and most recently visited Global Campaign.

Peter Brant’s Rocky Sky navigated a boggy turf course best to pick up her first graded stakes win in the GIII Fasig-Tipton Waya S. Sunday at Belmont at the Big A.

Winning two of four in her native Ireland, including a 4 1/4-length score in the Irish Stallion Farms EBF Salsabil S., for trainer Ross O’Sullivan, the dark bay backed up to finish last making her North American debut in the GII Saratoga Oaks Invitational S. last summer and headed to the bench before running second in the GII Hillsborough S. in her seasonal bow Mar. 12 at Tampa. Fourth in the Miss Liberty S. May 30 at Monmouth, she was runner-up in a pair of Saratoga allowances and broke as the third choice in this return to stakes company. Fighting jockey Manny Franco early as she was reined in to travel in fourth behind splits of :25.31 and :51.26, Rocky Sky tugged forward a spot past three-quarters in 1:18.54. Charging to the front in mid-stretch, she held sway late from favored stalbmate Capital Structure, who ended up well clear of the remainder.

“I think she loved the ground, definitely the soft ground helped her,” said Franco. “I think of the six horses, she was the [best] going in because she was liking the soft ground. I think putting her close to the pace [helped], because there was not going to be a lot of pace and I wanted to be close. She did the rest. When I got to the paddock, Dan [Stupp], the assistant, told me, 'Don't be afraid to be forward,' so that's what I did and I think that was the key to the victory. I got the jump on the other one [Capital Structure] and my filly was responding to me the whole way around so I was comfortable.”

Pedigree Notes:

SPENDTHRIFT ERECTS MALIBU MOON STATUE, B. WAYNE HUGHES VISITORS CENTER TO OPEN NOV. 1

Spendthrift Farm has erected its new Malibu Moon memorial statue that will serve as the centerpiece at the front of the B. Wayne Hughes Visitors Center, which is set to officially open Nov. 1 during Breeders’ Cup week.

“The B. Wayne Hughes Visitors Center has really come together, and the addition of the Malibu Moon statue in front is a special highlight that we are all very proud to see go up,” said Ned Toffey, Spendthrift General Manager. “We look forward to unveiling the visitors center Breeders’ Cup week as part of the celebration surrounding our industry’s championship event.”

At nearly 1,700 pounds, the bronze sculpture of Malibu Moon is scaled at 110% life size and portrays him as the mature breeding stallion he was during his time at the farm. He faces his old paddock in the foreground and old stall at the stallion complex in the background.

“Malibu Moon put the Hughes/Gustavson version of Spendthrift Farm on the map,” said Spendthrift owner Eric Gustavson. “He was a consistent leading sire at the time Wayne purchased the farm, and for years following. You could say, as Wayne often did, ‘Malibu Moon made Spendthrift Farm’.”

The Malibu Moon statue was sculpted by artist Douwe Blumberg at the foundry in Norman, OK. Blumberg and his team began the year-long project in September of 2021.

A foundation stallion for Spendthrift, Malibu Moon was a perennial leading sire in North America for the better part of this century, siring 17 Grade I winners to date including 2013 Kentucky Derby winner Orb and champion 2-year-old colt Declan’s Moon among several other top-class millionaires on the racetrack.

The B. Wayne Hughes Visitors Center will serve as Spendthrift’s new home for tourism. The 7,000 square-foot, two-story building is located in the heart of the historic farm, interconnecting Spendthrift’s stallion complex to the main office. The facility contains a trophy room, a gift shop, outdoor & indoor entertainment space and office space, and it features the farm’s collection of prized trophies, artifacts, and other memorabilia on display.

Never off the board in her eight previous starts over dual surfaces, including two straight down-the-hill wins during the spring meet, Connie Swingle entered off her shortest race since debuting over a year ago, tackling five furlongs at Del Mar Sept. 2 for a narrow win over the speedy GSW Legs Galore (Bayern). The 6-5 choice Saturday for her return to Santa Anita's downhill course, Connie Swingle stumbled slightly at the break but was quick back to her feet to chase from third behind pacesetter Delmona (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}). She began to increase the pressure as the field flattened out, easily dispatched of the leader in upper stretch, and held on despite drift to the outside to prevail narrowly when challenged late.

"It means everything," said winning jockey Kyle Frey. "I’ve loved this horse since the first time I jumped on her. She’s done nothing but impress me every morning and every race. We had a couple setbacks that first time out off the layoff, it was a bit of a setback. We just hooked a steady grind on the dirt. She’s a good dirt horse but she really does her best running in the turf. Especially down the hill.”

Already a full-sister to a pair of stakes winners, Connie Swingle has an unraced 2-year-old full-brother Ronnie Spector, a yearling full-brother Stagger Lee and a weanling full-brother, Tom Mix. Sky Marni was sent back to Grazen for another full-sibling in 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Pegram, Watson and Weitman’s Speed Boat Beach, owner of a gaudy 104 Beyer Speed Figure for his Sept. 10 debut score on the Del Mar dirt over $3.55-million stablemate Hejazi (Bernardini) after blazing a furlong in a bullet :9.3 at OBSMAR, took to the turf with aplomb in Sunday’s Speakeasy S. at Santa Anita, earning an automatic berth into the starting gate for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint.

Backed like a lock at 2-5 making a rare dirt-to-turf move for Hall of Famer Bob Baffert, the dark bay locked on to even speedier Helladic (Kantharos) early after a slightly awkward break, pounced on that one at the head of the lane and inched clear from him by 1 1/4 lengths, stopping the clock in :55.25. These same connections took the GI Zenyatta S. one race earlier with Midnight Memories (Mastery), and the GI Awesome Again S. on Saturday with Defunded (Dialed In).

Speed Boat Beach is the lone foal to race out of his dam, a daughter of SW & MGSP Amie's Dini (Bandini). The further female family includes MSW Kid Kate (Lemon Drop Kid) and Frank's Honor (Honor Code), an impressive five-length maiden winner at Churchill Downs Oct. 1. Sophia Mia s the dam of a yearling Distorted Humor filly, a weanling filly by Violence and was bred to Army Mule this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. It was little more than another high gallop for Tyler’s Tribe at Prairie Meadows Saturday evening, as the ‘Hammering Hawkeye’ took his record to five towering wins from as many appearances over matched foes in the Iowa Cradle S.

The dark bay hit the ground running from his outside berth and had a bit of early pace pressure, but cleared away from that rival, and with Kylee Jordan a mere passenger into the lane, ran out an easy winner. Tyler’s Tribe was then asked to gallop out around the turn and into the backstretch, as he is expected to press on to an appearance at the Breeders’ Cup at Keeneland.

Tyler’s Tribe has now won his five starts by nearly 60 lengths combined, including an 8 1/2-length romp in the Prairie Gold Juvenile S. in July and a 15 1/2-length tour-de-force when last seen in the Prairie Meadows Freshman S. Aug. 27.

A six-length maiden winner at second asking over a 4 1/2 furlongs for her previous trainer Christine Mamakos, My Happiness entered off a distant fourth behind the impressive Somebody’s Problem (Runhappy) over this same surface and distance in her first stakes try, the Prairie Meadows Debutante Aug. 26.

Making her first start for trainer Christine Hicklin, the 17-10 second choice settled nicely towards the rear of a tightly bunched field, racing in fifth, but never far from the pace. With a four-wide move as the field exited the far turn, My Happiness kicked into gear to overtake favored pacesetter Bonnieview and edged away with for the clear win.

The first stakes winner for her freshman sire (by Jersey Town), My Happiness is out of a half-sister to the dam of GSW Bigger Picture (Badge of Silver) and GISP Gung Ho (Kitten’s Joy). Further back in the family is MGISW Dancing Spree (Nijinsky II), GSW Furlough (Easy Goer), MGISW Finder’s Fee (Storm Cat), and champion 3-year-old filly Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold). My Happiness is her dam’s last reported offspring.

Class drops don't get more precipitous than the one Ain’t Life Grand was taking in Saturday’s Iowa Breeders’ Derby in Altoona. Exiting a well-beaten seventh behind Epicenter (Not This Time) in the GI Runhappy Travers S. at Saratoga Aug. 27, the homebred followed Tyler's Tribe's victory in the Cradle with a laughier of his own at 1-20 in this non black-type stakes.

A stalking second to the backstretch following a sharp break, Ain't Life Grand switched off nicely through the middle stages, came calling for the lead with a bit less than three furlongs to travel and ran up the score under hands-and-heels from Elvin Gonzalez.

Last year’s Iowa Cradle hero, Ain't Life Grand ran down a spent Conagher (Jimmy Creed) to take the valuable Iowa Derby July 9 and added the Iowa Stallion S. two weeks later before his Travers effort, in which he attended the early pace before fading to seventh, beaten a dozen lengths.

Ain't Life Grand is out of an unraced daughter of GI Prioress S. victress Cat Moves, who was acquired by Ray Shattuck’s RPM Thoroughbreds in foal to GI Breeders’ Cup Classic winner Fort Larned at the 2017 Keeneland November Sale. His 2-year-old half-brother Iowa Club (Munnings) broke his maiden by 2 1/2 lengths in a one-mile maiden at Prairie Meadows Sept. 24 and he has a weanling half-sister by Goldencent. Cat d’Oro most recently went back to Not This Time. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

MISSY GREER (f, 3, Nyquist--Four Sugars, by Lookin At Lucky) graduated in her fourth career start at Gulfstream Mar. 23 and jumped up to the May 20 GI Black-Eyed Susan S. where she was bumped at the break before finishing a well-beaten 13th. Third in a July 30 allowance at Saratoga, she was most recently 10th in the ug. 25 Riskaverse S. The 14-1 outsider led from the start and pulled away in the final furlong to win by 3 1/4 lengths over Wasp (American Pharoah). Missy Greer is a half-sister to Gronkowski (Lonhro (Aus)), SW-Eng, G1SP-UAE, GISP-USA, $3,162,360. She RNA’d for $170,000 as a KEESEP yearling and sold for $200,000 at Fasig-Tipton October. Four Sugars, who sold to Diamond Creek for $375,000 while carrying the winner at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Mixed Sale, produced a colt by Curlin last year and a filly by War Front this year. She was bred back to Charlatan. Click for the Equibase.com chart. Lifetime Record: 8-2-1-2, $128,376.

RECRUITER (c, 2, Army Mule--Lady Halite, by Medaglia d’Oro) earned a strong 82 Beyer Speed Figure for a one-length front-running debut score at Monmouth Aug. 27, and was the public’s 3-5 pick to remain perfect here. The :10 flat OBSJUN breezer was off a touch slowly this time, but took a narrow edge while pestered to his inside by Johnyz From Albany (Blofeld). He put that rival away in the vicinity of the quarter pole, and kept finding under confident handling to hold sway by 1 3/4 lengths.

The winner’s yearling half-sister by Maximus Mischief was a $22,000 KEESEP seller, and she has a foal half-sister by Complexity. Dam Lady Halite was bred to Instagrand for 2023. SKELLY (c, 3, Practical Joke--Adande, by Bwana Charlie) set a strong early pace in his July 31 debut at Ellis Park, but was run down late and settled for second while earning a lofty 83 Beyer Speed Figure. The 8-5 favorite to go one better in the meet finale, the dark bay was away fairly, but was rousted along to fight out a quick opening sectional of :21.49 with 10-time maiden Engrave (Flatter). Skelly nosed in front of his pace rival with about 2 1/2 furlongs to race, circled about three wide into the stretch and scampered home to score by a half-dozen lengths over Victory March (Maclean’s Music). Skelly, who is out of a half-sister to dual-surface GSW Isotherm (Lonhro (Aus)), brought $250,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearlings Showcase in 2020, but was bought back on a bid of $350,000 at FTFMAR the following spring. Adande was bred to Silver State this term. Sales history: $250,000 Ylg ’20 FTKSEL; $350,000 RNA 2yo ’21 FTFMAR. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $81,000. HAL (g, 2, Accelerate--Purely a Dream (GSW, $138,769), by Pure Prize), let go at 13-1, broke sharply, but was taken back and settled in midpack. He reeled in the pacemakers nearing the stretch and stormed to the lead three wide at the top of the lane before bounding clear and holding off the late-closing Kaukokaipuu (Mr Speaker) to score by 1 1/4 lengths. Hal is the eighth winner for his freshman sire (by Lookin at Lucky). Purely a Dream was bred to Essential Quality this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. DUBYUHNNELL (c, 2, Good Magic--Wild Gams (MGISW & GISP-USA, SP-Can, $1,198,486), by Forest Wildcat) gave his promising first-crop sire (by Curlin) a 15th individual winner less than 24 hours after ‘TDN Rising Star’ Blazing Sevens took out the GI Champagne S. The $400,000 Keeneland September graduate was the preferred part of an entry at 8-5 off a debut behind the impressive Instant Coffee (Bolt d’Oro) going seven furlongs at Saratoga on closing weekend Sept. 3. Adding blinkers while getting an extra eighth of a mile to work with here, the main-track-only entrant hopped at the break and was allowed to settle in the second flight of horses. Patiently handled entering the final half-mile, Dubyuhnell was roused left-handed in upper stretch and flashed home down the center of the track in a move similar to that of Blazing Sevens to score by a widening margin. Conversing (Into Mischief) just outfinished the winner’s pacesetting entraymate Certified Loverboy (Mendelssohn) for second. The winner’s dam was a three-time graded winner and Grade I-placed for Eby Novak’s New Farm and trainer Ben Perkins, Jr. and was acquired by Stonestreet for $1 million at the 2008 Keeneland November Sale. Her seven other winners from eight to the races include 'TDN Rising Star' Cazadero (Street Sense), GSW, $255,678; Almost Famous (Unbridled's Song), GSP, $180,688; and Mt. KANTHARA (f, 2, Kantharos--Magic of Reality (Fr) {MSP-Eng}, by Galileo (Ire)), fourth on debut when tried on the Del Mar main track Sept. 4, drew in off the also-eligible list to try the turf for the first time. Given a 5-1 chance, she was taken in hand to race off the pace with only two horses beat through the opening quarter in :22.30. Fanned four wide around the turn, she began to make up ground in upper stretch and was clear of a charging field with a furlong to run, going on to post a 1 1/2-length win over fellow closer Ragtime Rose (Union Rags). From the family of European champion 2-year-old filly Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing (GB)), Kanthara has a yearling half-brother by Street Sense still to race behind her while her dam visited Munnings for the 2023 season. PRIDE OF THE NILE (f, 2, Pioneerof the Nile--Inny Minnie (MGSP, $186,610), by Hard Spun), a debut fourth when ambitiously spotted in the Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf S. Sept. 10, was the 4-5 favorite for this maiden test. Stuck in chase mode from third after steadying early, she remained three wide through much of the backstretch run before making a bid past the top pair at the quarter pole. With pressure still to her inside down the lane, Pride of the Nile drifted in towards a fading Bolts Babe (Bolt d'Oro) but persevered for the half-length win. Dash Away (Tunwoo) closed from seventh to fill out the exacta. Inny Minnie, herself a half-sister to GSW & G1SP Montgomery's Arch (Arch), hails from the family of SW & G1SP Lotus Pool (Spectacular Bid), MGISP Golden Larch (Slew o' Gold) and MG1SP Lear Spear (Lear Fan). AMI PLEASE (f, 2, Goldencents--Bellezza Rosso, by Tapit), sixth behind a talented field that included a pair of 'TDN Rising Stars' in Justique (Justify) and subsequent GISp Home Cooking (Honor Code), changed surfaces on the stretch out Sunday as the 8-5 chalk. Hard to handle early from her far inside gate, she pulled her way to the front to set a pressured tempo against the fence. She got a bit of breathing room into the far turn but was soon challenged by Anacaro (Arrogate) at the top of the lane. The pair dueled the length of the stretch, with Ami Please prevailing narrowly by a neck on the line. A half-sister to Travieza (Into Mischief), SW, $207,141, Ami Please has a yearling full-sister and a weanling half-brother by War of Will to race behind her. Still two lengths in the clear around the turn, Imaginary was put to a hand ride and, despite showing some greenness down the lane and switching back to her incorrect lead, had enough of a gap built up to hold off a closing Mastery Kat (Mastery) and score by a length. AN ARC ANGEL AS ALPINISTA PREVAILS

by Tom Frary

Carried out in driving rain and accompanying gloom, Sunday’s G1 Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe went to Kirsten Raising’s Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) who with her ever-whitening coat and mud-dappled white silks navigated what resembled a ploughed field like a trail of luminescence at ParisLongchamp.

Taking the eye throughout as she made easy work of the swiftly-deteriorating conditions under Luke Morris, who had been in action on the all-weather at Wolverhampton the night before, the 10-3 favourite waited with all the learned patience of such a beautifully-nurtured 5-year-old for the quartet in front to feel the pinch. As that inevitably happened, there followed a few glorious moments as she came to embody her owner-breeder’s life’s labour in this sphere and Sir Mark Prescott’s unique art of equine education and care.

Although the homebred had arrived on the lead with Morris sitting motionless, her last 1 1/2 furlongs in front were not without tension as Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}) chased her hard to the line along with last year’s hero Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}). Despite the sterling efforts of The Aga Khan’s Jockey Club and Eclipse hero and Auenquelle’s German flagship, this was a result already carved into the precious stone that adorns Prescott’s storied Heath House stables. BOOK 1 COUNCWDOWN: ‘I THINK IT’S GOING TO BE A BLOCKBUSTER SALE’ By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK—There may be some pretty important racing going on across the Channel, but Sunday morning at Park Paddocks was all business as buyers from across the world assembled to assess the potential stars of Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale.

Tense though these last few days of inspections can be, one man who can permit himself a small smile of satisfaction is Adrian O'Brien of Hazelwood Bloodstock.

The back cover of the Tattersalls catalogue traditionally features photographs of some of the sale’s key recent graduates, and of the four shown this year, two are Hazelwood alumni: the GI Belmont Oaks winner McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and the GI Diana S. victrix In Italian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Sold at Book 1 in 2019 and 2020 respectively, the duo landed their top-flight wins in consecutive weekends back in July, emphasising the strong American theme that has underpinned the sale for a number of years and is only intensifying. At the line, the mare had bridged a surprising 85-year gap to the last of her age and sex to achieve glory in the famed Corrida, denying Vadeni by half a length and Torquator Tasso by a further neck.

“It’s absolutely marvellous and an enormous relief,” Prescott said. “Luke has ridden for us for 11 years and Miss Rausing has had horses with me for 36, so I’m just very lucky. I trained her grandmother and it’s hard to think of a better day. You felt she was always going to win, but it was a relief when she got there. It’s a wonderful change to have one that can really go and she has been perfect. The race went like a dream. If it hadn’t been my horse, I would have thought it was going to win every inch of the way, but when it’s your own of course it’s a nightmare. I didn’t think all that rain would help, but she’s never travelled better and has come on with each race.”

Morris added, “Things went lovely and smooth—I had all the confidence in her and she’s not put a foot wrong. She is so versatile and so tough and I couldn’t believe how well she was going—I had to take her back two out. She dug very deep for me and was very tough when I needed her. This is the pinnacle of my career—there are not many times when I’m teary-eyed, but I was having to hold back the tears today. Sir Mark’s had an unbelievable effect on my career and is an unbelievable trainer and person, so I’m honoured to ride for him. Miss Rausing is a very generous lady with what she’s done for the sport and I’m very fortunate.” Cont. p4

Alpinista, who started her career with a shot across the bows at Epsom in July 2019, skipped over ground officially described as firm when winning her first black-type race, Salisbury’s Listed Upavon Fillies’ S., the following August before chasing home Love (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) a week later in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks. Remarkably, her next start was her last defeat as Antonia De Vega (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) mastered her in Newmarket’s G3 Princess Royal S. a month later and even the biggest dreamer could not have predicted what was to follow.

Foot-perfect through the 2021 G2 Lancashire Oaks and the path of the Grosser Preis von Berlin-Preis von Europa-Grosser Preis Von Bayern Group 1 treble laid down by her second dam Albanova (GB) (Alzao), all reasoned knowledge accepted that the grey had probably used up all her career’s fortune at that stage. Alpinista knew better, however, and her pursuit of a personal coronation among her incredible dynasty of Alruccaba (Ire) (Crystal Palace {Fr}) grew ever more impatient as she dashed several Arc hopes on her return in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. Her next stop back in the Yorkshire Oaks could have been her apex, but now we know that was just a launchpad to this key moment.

While the Arc is no stranger to testing ground and autumnal framing, this edition was really something else with the turf and soil flying from an early stage and many visibly struggling before halfway. As expected, the Japanese wonder Titleholder (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) was sent forward with Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}) predictably on his case and after the first minute of action the order was settled.

Surprisingly, Vadeni who carried perhaps the greatest stamina doubts into the race and who would arguably not been placed in the line-up had connections been able to foresee the amount of rain in the final minutes of the build-up was the one who came out of the pack with the most gusto. While his progress though the mud was hardly smooth, it was as dynamic as it gets in this kind of terrain and for a brief spell Alpinista looked vulnerable. Soumillon gave his all and Frankie managed to get Torquator Tasso close enough, but the grey had the stars aligned for her and her uncanny streak proved unbreakable.

The only remaining question is whether the Alpinista story is at an end and both Prescott and Rausing were non-committal. “She will come back to our stud next year. As for the Breeders’ Cup or the Japan Cup, we want to go home and talk about it.” Cont. p5

“I am proud of my two horses--they ran great races, handled the ground and stayed well. It was a deep field with many possible winners and both finished in the first four so it is a very good day. They will come back stronger next year. I am very happy for Sir Mark Prescott--I’ve known him well for a long time and I just love this man.”

Vadeni fully justified the about-turn of connections to take part and Georges Rimaud commented, “We were very pleased with his run and we were obviously beaten by a very good opponent. Christophe had a good run through the whole race and thought he was going to win, but the mare found more.

He’s proved he stays the trip in soft ground, so we will go away and discuss what will happen in the next few days.”

Jean Claude Rouget said of the runner-up and of Al Hakeem, who clung on for fourth, “I am proud of my two horses—they ran great races, handled the ground and stayed well. It was a deep field with many possible winners and both finished in the first four so it is a very good day. They will come back stronger next year. I am very happy for Sir Mark Prescott—I’ve known him well for a long time and I just love this man.”

Dettori said of Torquator Tasso, “He finished really strong and ran a super race. The draw didn’t help, but it’s his style of racing to run on the outer. I thought for a moment I might get to them, but they were too strong for me.”

Ralph Beckett said of the sixth-placed Westover (GB) (Frankel (GB)), “He ran a good race, he had the perfect position alongside the winner and ran on well in the straight. He was struggling on the ground—you could see that. Hopefully he will come back stronger next year.”

Aidan O’Brien had some unwelcome news about Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot (GB)), who is back on the easy list after a gruelling experience. “Obviously he got stuck in the ground, he pulled a muscle off his near-hip and is sore enough now,” he explained. “Hopefully we can take him home, but he’ll be sore for a while. It will heal in time and hopefully we can look forward to next season. I’d say that will almost certainly be it this season.”

Pedigree Notes

Alpinista, who was providing Frankel with his first Arc success, is the first foal out of the Listed Silbernes Band der Ruhr winner Alwilda (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), whose 3-year-old filly Alpenblume (GB) (Kendargent {Fr}) was second at listed level at Hanover this term. Her aforementioned pathfinder dam Albanova is also responsible for the G3 Dubai Duty Free Legacy Cup winner Algometer (GB) (Archipenko), the Listed Stand Cup scorer and G3 Geoffrey Freer S.-placed Alignak (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) and the triple French listed winner All At Sea (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). In a twist of fate, the latter is in turn the dam of last month’s G1 St Leger hero Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), making it another key period in the distinguished family’s history.

The third dam is the Listed Oyster S. winner Alouette (GB) (Darshaan {GB}), who also produced Albanova’s high-achieving full-sister Alborada (GB) who pulled off her own remarkable feat when capturing back-to-back editions of the G1 Champion S. when it was staged at Newmarket. Among her descendants are the G2 City Of York S. winner Shine So Bright (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. and G Yorkshire Oaks runner-up Albaflora (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}). This is also the family of Allegretto (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who had her own day in the headlines at this venue when winning the G1 Prix Royal-Oak, and the talented G2 Nassau S. winner Last Second (Ire) also by Alzao, who later produced the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains-winning sire Aussie Rules (Danehill). Alwilda’s 2020 colt by Oasis Dream (GB) unfortunately died last year, while she also has a filly foal by Iffraaj (GB).

Al Shaqab Racing’s Place Du Carrousel (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}--Traffic Jam {Ire}, by Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}), off the track since failing to land a blow in Chantilly’s June 19 G1 Prix de Diane, exacted revenge on that Classic’s winner, ‘TDN Rising Star’ Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}), with a late rush to secure a career high in the flickering embers of Sunday’s G1 Prix de l’Opera Longines at ParisLongchamp.

The €260,000 Arqana August graduate had earlier annexed Saint-Cloud’s Apr. 29 G3 Prix Cleopatre before taking second behind another ‘TDN Rising Star’, Above The Curve (American Pharoah), when contesting the May 29 G1 Prix Saint-Alary over this 10-furlong course and distance in her penultimate start.

With this effort, she has punched her ticket to the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Keeneland in November.

Shuffled back through the pack to race towards the rear after a sharp getaway, the 41-1 outsider responded to pressure from the turn into the straight to go fifth entering the final furlong and pounced inside the final 50 yards to deny Nashwa and Above The Curve by 3/4-of-a-length and a short head. G1 Prix de l'Opera Cont.

It was most certainly a case of right time, right place for Place Du Carrousel and breeder Ballylinch Stud, whose yearling half-sister by Kingman (GB) is due under the hammer as lot 261 on day two of Tattersalls’ upcoming October Book 1 sale.

“Andre Fabre has done a magnificent job with the filly,” said Al Shaqab’s racing manager Rupert Pritchard-Gordon. “He told me that she needed a break after the Prix de Diane as the filly had a hard race that day. He was worried because she hadn't had a prep race beforehand and that's why we went to Compiegne for a public gallop, which did her good. She's a tough filly, she got some good cover during the race and displayed neat powers of acceleration. To see these colours win on Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe day is very important.”

“We had a good race,” continued Mickael Barzalona. “They went off fast from the gates, but I managed to hold a good position on my filly. She did backpedal a bit during the race, but that enabled her to get a breather. She didn't expend any unnecessary energy in this ground and came with a steady run. Once she swung around [eventual fifth] Rumi, she finished with great gusto.”

The ground was a compromising factor for G1 Prix de Diane heroine Nashwa, who made a bold effort from the front only to be collared by the winner in the final metres. “She ran very well and, given her draw, it was not an easy task,” said John Gosden. “She had to make her effort quite early on and, furthermore, the very soft ground did not help her. We have no idea where she will go next. It’s hard to get beaten, but she ran a good race.”

FABRE IN COMMAND AS BELBEK TAKES THE LAGARDERE by Tom Frary

Andre Fabre had only outsiders in the G1 Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe, but Sunday’s ParisLongchamp fixture’s opener was a reminder that the general is still very much in the thick of it as Belbek (Fr) (Showcasing [GB]) captured the G1 Qatar Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere.

Upstaged twice since his success in Chantilly’s G3 Prix du Bois June 19 when fourth behind Blackbeard (Ire) (No Nay Never) in that track’s G2 Prix Robert Papin July 17 and when fifth to this race’s absentee The Antarctic (Ire) (Dark Angel [Ire]) in the G3 Prix de Cabourg at Deauville Aug. 2, Nurlan Bizakov’s homebred was 18-1 as a result in this “Win and You’re In” for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf at Keeneland next month.

Those odds would have been fitting for any other colt with his race record in this kind of test, but pure logic dictates that where the master of Chantilly is concerned this was a serious miss by the pari-mutuel faithful. Handed the perfect draft behind the leading trio, the bay had over a length to make up on Gamestop (Ire) (Lope De Vega [Ire]). Cont. p11
Belbek surprises in the Lagardere

That rival looked to have stolen a march approaching the final furlong but Mickael Barzalona had ultimately timed it right with Belbek produced to shade it inside the final 50 metres. At the line, there was a neck between him and the Wertheimers’ fellow outsider, with TDN Rising Star Breizh Sky (Fr) (Pedro The Great) the same margin behind in third.

“We always thought he had a lot of ability, but he failed to settle in his last two races and was helped by the ground and the faster pace here. He might go to Doncaster for the Futurity Trophy maybe,” Fabre said after greeting his sixth winner of this prize which was formerly run as the Grand Criterium.

Nurlan Bizakov added, “This victory means a lot, because it is our first Group 1 success with the first colt that we have bred in France, a country that is doing well for us.”

Christophe Ferland said of Gamestop, “He was relaxed today—I think the hood helped him to get into his stride he had a good draw this time unlike last time.”

Breizh Sky posted the fastest sectional in the race as he chased from the two to the one and trainer Alessandro Botti said, “He found himself stuck behind the wrong horses and Christophe Soumillon didn’t want to come all the way outside, which was the right choice. In spite of everything, the colt ran an excellent race and finished at full speed. We knew that the soft ground would not bother him and I hope he has more room for improvement next year. If he’s good, we could make the trip to the Breeders’ Cup over a mile.”

This did little to alter the juvenile pecking order, with Blackbeard very much in the shade of Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) at Rosegreen. Belbek has room for progression over further than this seven-furlong trip, being out of a mare with middle-distance connections in Bee Queen (GB) (Makfi). Bought out of Juddmonte’s draft in the 2017 Tattersalls December Mares Sale for just 50,000gns, she is a daughter of Trojan Queen (Empire Maker) which makes her a half-sister to the G3 Hampton Court S. winner Sangarius (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and to the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial-placed Emergent (GB) Showcasing’s sire Oasis Dream (GB).

The third dam is Fabre’s triple top-level-winning champion and Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine Banks Hill (GB) (Danehill), who produced the G1 Prix Jean Romanet winner Romantica (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and the dual listed scorer and G2 Prix Niel runner-up Ideal World (Kingmambo). Cont. p13

Coming off a course-and-distance win in the G3 Prix d’Aumale Sept. 8, the Christopher Head trainee had the perfect tow in third as Aurelien Lemaitre contained her enthusiasm. Let loose with 300 metres remaining, the homebred surged clear for an emphatic five-length success from Jim Bolger’s outsider Gan Teorainn (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), with Never Ending Story (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) a short neck away in third.

This was a first Group 1 for Christopher Head and his famous family was around him afterwards. That it came in the year of Freddy’s retirement was not lost on his father. “It’s a funny thing,” Head, Sr. said. “I’m happy for him. He’s the fifth generation and I hope there will be many more successes.”

Christopher, whose filly Tigrais (Fr) (Outstrip {GB}) had lost her chance when stumbling exiting the stalls in the opener, commented, “The filly is extraordinary. I’ll discuss it with her owners, whether we wait until next year or try the Breeders’ Cup. I knew she’d be okay on that ground, as she proved last time she handles soft and I think she can go further--2000 [metres] will be easy for her. It’s quite a surprise, as this was a very good race with all the Europeans.”

Lemaitre enjoyed one of the most straightforward rides of the afternoon and said, “She is a little Ferrari. She has a huge heart, is handy and tough and you can do what you want with her--nothing worries her. You put her in the back, she drops the bit. When you tighten your heels, she goes!”

The Wertheimers’ TDN Rising Star Kelina (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) was disappointing, with the 21-10 favourite fading to last of the dozen runners. Jim Bolger said of Gan Teorainn, who had been second a week previously in the G3 Weld Park S., “One way or another, she’s going to be a next-year filly. Today they didn’t go very fast and only raced for the final furlong and a half. Next year we will probably start her at a mile and a quarter and she should get a mile and a half.”

Aidan O’Brien said of Never Ending Story, who like the first race’s third Breizh Sky ran the fastest split in pursuit, “She ran very well. Ryan thought she was definitely going to be second but she came third, so she might be a little bit weak and will improve through the winter. She could run in the [GI] Breeders’ Cup [Juvenile] Fillies Turf Mile, but we’ll have to see how she comes out of it.”

Blue Rose Cen’s victory in the race that Freddy’s sister Criquette holds the joint-record in is a huge moment for Leopoldo Fernández Pujals’ operation. Like Belbek’s dam, the mare responsible for this luminary was secured at Tatts December, with 110,000gns paid at the 2018 edition of that auction. Blue Rose Cen is the only known foal to date out of Queen Blossom (Ire) (Jeremy), a daughter of the G3 Silver Flash S.-placed Mark Of An Angel (Ire) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}) whose career successes included the G3 Park Express S. and GIII Santa Barbara S.

QUEEN OF SPEED

by Tom Frary

There had been no 5-year-old mare to win the Arc until just after 4 o’clock on Sunday and no juvenile to prevail in the G1 Prix de l’Abbaye de Longchamp Longines since 1978, but both droughts are now officially at an end after Middleham Park Racing’s The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) made it happen in the ParisLongchamp sprint.

Atoning for a heartbreaking defeat on her beloved Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the preceding G1 Prix de l’Opera Longines, Hollie Doyle made full use of Richard Fahey’s dynamo’s relentless pace to shake off all pressure and hold White Lavender (Ire) (Heeraat {Ire}) by a short neck, with Coeur De Pierre (Fr) (Zanzibari) a neck behind in third.

“It was never in doubt really—I thought it was a pretty dominant performance and Hollie said she idled a little bit in the last 100 yards,” Middleham Park Racing’s Tom Palin said of the 7-5 favourite. “It was a ‘Win and You’re In’ for the Breeders’ Cup and being a tight northerner, that’s great as it means we don’t need to pay the entry fee! As long as the filly comes out of it alright, then I think we’ll look forward to going to America if they’ll have us.”

The Platinum Queen’s journey to Paris was not an easy one, with three successes in rapid times involving a juvenile course record-setting win at Goodwood July 27 before meeting Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Aug. 19. Second only to that huge talent, the bay stretched Trillium (GB) (No Nay Never) to the limit next time in the Sept. 11 G2 Flying Childers S. at Doncaster, losing out close home and while that peer flattened out next time in the Cheveley Park, The Platinum Queen emerged from that battle stronger.

Shadowing Mo Celita (Ire) (Camacho (GB)) throughout the first 1 1/2 furlongs before her natural speed saw her move on from that compatriot, she was there to be shot at as she has been throughout most of her brief career and as White Lavender loomed late, a gallant surrender would have been excusable.

Despite lugging towards the rail as the line neared, the 2-year-old refused to buckle and was extending again yards after the finish.

Clifford Lee said of White Lavender, “We were a bit unlucky, because we were giving away so much weight to the winner. My horse was very brave to have run such a race because we went extremely fast.”

Coeur de Pierre’s trainer Mauricio Delcher Sanchez added, “There is nothing else he could have done and he had an excellent trip through the race. We have finished third and we are happy, his year is finished now. He will go off for a break to Haras de Grandcamp, where he was born. We will hopefully have him back in April to prepare for a new season.”

The Platinum Queen, who becomes the first Group 1 winner for her second-crop sire, is the first runner for the dam Thrilled (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)), who is kin to the listed-placed The Gold Cheongsam (Ire) (Red Clubs (Ire)). The second dam is the listed-placed Fuerta Ventura (Ire) (Desert Sun (GB)), who is in turn a half to the Listed Ripon Champion Two-Year-Old Trophy winner and G2 Mill Reef S. runner-up Sir Xaar (Ire) (Xaar (GB)). From the family of the dual G1 Irish St Leger hero Oscar Schindler (Ire) (Royal Academy), Thrilled’s yearling colt by Galileo Gold (GB) was a £170,000 purchase by Richard Spencer for Phil Cunningham at last month’s Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale, while she also has a colt foal by the same sire.

Kinross & Frankie Dettori conquer the Foret | Scoop Dyga

KINROSS GETS HIS GROUP ONE IN THE FORET by Tom Frary

Marc Chan’s TDN Rising Star Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) had not always had the rub of the green throughout his career, but it all fell right in Sunday’s G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret Presente par Education Above All that closed out ParisLongchamp’s top-level action.

Now firmly established at the head of the seven-furlong division having won the G2 City Of York S. and G2 Park S., the Ralph Beckett-trained 5-year-old had a wide draw to overcome but Frankie Dettori was all for taking a deep breath as the principals committed in the straight. Launched to strike the front passing the furlong pole, the 17-10 favourite was comfortable as he registered a commanding two-length success from Malavath (Ire) (Mehmas as the enterprisingly-ridden Entscheiden (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) hung tough to repeat his 2021 third, a length further back.

“I always had huge faith in him and he’s had a fantastic year,” Beckett said. “As a 3-year-old, he was already on the very big side and after being gelded he had a difficult time of it but has really come into his own now. He’s a really special horse for the stable.”

Kinross knocked the eye out on his juvenile debut at Newmarket when earning TDN Rising Star status on this weekend three years ago, so it was deflating that only one of his next eight starts saw him make the frame when taking the Listed Hyde S. After his gelding op, he looked a revived character when winning Haydock’s G3 John of Gaunt S. and Goodwood’s G2 Lennox S. last summer but there were still occasions when it looked too laboured. One such example was when he was unable to land a serious blow in fourth in this behind the class acts Space Blues (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Pearls Galore (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and the indomitable Entscheiden 12 months ago.

It may only be that the real Kinross emerged as he sauntered to success in the City of York and followed up at Doncaster and he gave Frankie all the right signs to allow him to ride with maximum confidence here despite the wide trip. A strong stayer at this trip, he was kept in his lane four off the fence and proved a straightforward conveyance as he surged by the Japanese raider.

Malavath, who was runner-up in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf last term, could be set for a return according to trainer Francis-Henri Graffard. “She ran a superb race. She was supposed to head to the States to run a Grade I race, but since the beginning of the year her requirements have been two-fold; soft ground and 1400 metres so we decided to remain in France and try our luck in the Foret. We will think about going on our travels with her during the winter, but it’s no easy thing as she is a genuine 1400-metre filly. Maybe she will stay 1600 on the US tracks.”

Yoshito Yahagi, trainer of Entscheiden, commented, “He had already finished third in this race last year. The field this year was not as strong and I was hoping he could win this time around, but otherwise there is not much to say. He ran well and clearly likes Europe. I hope that I can return here with him in the future.” Cont. p19

LAWMAN’S STATEMENT HAS THE LAST WORD IN CONCORDE by Heather Anderson

The 5-2 favourite despite being in action less than a week ago, Statement (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}–Fact Or Folklore {Ire}, by Lope De Vega {Ire}) delivered by daylight to take her first group win in the G3 Coolmore U S Navy Flag Concorde S. at Tipperary on Sunday.

Always forwardly placed, she improved to second behind Prettiest {Dubawi {Ire}} with over 400 metres to go. Taking over inside the final furlong, she quickened nicely to flash home 5 1/2 lengths in front of Current Option (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). It was 1 1/4 lengths back to Prettiest, who hung on for third.

Assistant Brendan Powell told www.irishracing.com afterwards, “Dylan was delighted with her, it was even a much improved performance than the other day in Cork.

“It was softer today and Dylan said she actually quickens on that ground, he said he hadn’t realised that he’d won so far.

“It was exciting and she’s a filly going forward. Hopefully there are more options for her, if she likes this soft ground she’s going to get that from now until the end of the season.

“You’d be thinking she had a tough enough race down in Cork but she’s come out of it well and she was bucking and kicking the next day.”

Twice placed in Group 3s as a 3-year-old, she ran fourth in the G3 Princess Elizabeth S. at Epsom this June in her final start for Kevin Ryan. Switched to this yard, she was a one-paced seventh in the G2 Boomerang Mile at Leopardstown on Longines Irish Champions Weekend, but rebounded to take Cork’s Listed Navigation S. over a mile just five days ago on Sept. 27. Kin to three-time group winner Battle Of Marengo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and G3 Mooresbridge S. victor and G1 Gold Cup third Windsor Palace (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), Statement is the first foal and one of two winners for her dam, the dual stakes-placed Fact Or Folklore. Followed by the winning 3-year-old gelding Self Belief (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) and a juvenile full-sister to that horse named Kynsa (Ire), Statement also has half-brothers by New Bay (GB) and Night Of Thunder (Ire) born in 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Fact Or Folklore is a half-sister to Listed Corrib Fillies S. heroine Lavinia (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), while that duo share the two-time Italian listed winner Iuturna (Ire) (Intidab) as their dam.

AEMILIANUS ANNEXES DUSSELDORF

FEATURE by Sean Cronin

Under the radar of ParisLongchamp’s Arc bonanza, Dusseldorf staged the 102nd renewal of the 8 1/2-furlong G3 Grosser Preis der Landeshauptstadt Dusseldorf, which provided a thriller of its own as the relatively unexposed Aemilianus (Ger) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}--Assisi {Ger}, by Galileo {Ire}) stepped forward to claim a career high as sophomores dominated at the Grafenberg venue. Untested until the end of July, he registered a quickfire double at Cologne and Hoppegarten before forfeiting his perfect tally when third at Saint-Cloud last month.

Occupying a slot along the fence in third after the opening exchanges, the 11-2 chance was angled out for a clear run passing the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final 300 metres to prevail by a neck from Godolphin’s French challenger Cantilena (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

“I tried to keep his mind on matters during the race so that he didn’t look around as much as he usually does,” winning rider Andrasch Starke told GaloppOnline. “He was a bit slow coming to hand and is still immature, but he is a horse with a future.”

Pedigree Notes

Aemilianus, whose year-younger half-sister Azshara (Ire) (Zarak {Fr}) posted a debut win at Mulheim on Saturday, becomes the 54th pattern-race winner for his sire (by Danehill) and is one of six scorers produced by a dual-winning daughter of unbeaten G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Amarette (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), herself a full-sister to G1 Prix du Jockey Club third Arras (Ger). Amarette, whose leading light is Group 3 winner Amazona (Ger) (Dubawi {Ire}), is also kin to the stakes-winning dam of G1 Melbourne Cup and G1 Tancred S. hero Almandin (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). The April-foaled homebred bay is full to a yearling colt and also a half-brother to G1 Criterium International winner Alson (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) and dual Group-winning G2 German 2000 Guineas victor Ancient Spirit (Ger) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

“It has been amazing,” says O’Brien, beaming under his customised McKulick baseball cap as a loose-walking son of freshman sire Magna Grecia (Ire) strolls up and down in front of him. The colt (lot 200) is a half-brother to the G2 Royal Lodge S. winner Royal Patronage (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and was bred by Emma Capon from the Aga Khan-bred mare Shaloushka (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}).

"We had McKulick and In Italian from previous drafts and to win two Grade Is in a week was incredible," he continues. "Of our 10 this year, which is our biggest Book 1 draft by far, we've got four Dubawis, three colts and a filly, and they are all lovely, quality animals. Then there's a colt and a filly by Kingman (GB), a full-brother by Frankel to Hans Andersen (GB), a very good 2-year-old colt in Ireland, a beautiful Siyouni (Fr) colt, and representatives from the first crops of Too Darn Hot (GB) and Magna Grecia (Ire), so we're loaded."

Twenty-six sons and daughters of the Darley powerhouse Dubawi grace the pages of Book 1, and as O'Brien outlines, he is fortunate enough to be consigning a quartet comprised of a half-brother to Group 1 winner Barney Roy (GB) (Excelebration (Ire)) (lot 328); a son of Ring The Bell (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) (lot 167), who is a sister to the Group 1-winning trio of Hydrangea (Ire), Hermosa (Ire) and The United States (Ire); another colt (lot 278) whose dam is a sister to the Galileo brothers Highland Reel (Ire) and Idaho (Ire), and a filly (lot 302) who also emanates from Barney Roy's family and is the first foal of his stakes-placed half-sister Wisdom Of Mind (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

The one representative of Dubawi's freshman son Too Darn Hot in the draft is a filly from the stellar Niarchos family of Alpha Centauri (Ire), Alpine Star (Ire) and Discoveries (Ire), those three Group 1 winners being half-siblings to her dam Sellsabeel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Offered on Wednesday as lot 194, she will be sold five lots before the full-brother to the Sun Bloodstock-bred Hans Andersen. The Frankel colt was a 450,000gns Coolmore purchase last year and beat Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) when breaking his maiden in July before running second in the G2 Futurity S.

"It's becoming more common in conversation to hear about the strength of stallions standing in the Newmarket area in particular, and also elsewhere in the UK. We're blessed with high quality that is attracting breeders from all over the world," says O'Brien, who runs Hazelwood Bloodstock with his wife Philippa from Red House Stud just outside Newmarket.

"The market appears to be very strong and I would like to think that the quality here this week will emphasise the strength of the market. I think it's going to be a blockbuster sale."

Even with one of Europe's most prestigious race-days taking place on Sunday, the yards at Park Paddocks were already buzzing with action from early in the morning.

"It's a huge week and we've already been pretty busy," adds O'Brien. "It's always a funny weekend with Longchamp on and a lot of people have commitments there, but all the right people seem to be on the ground here, and there's a lot of overseas interest, so it all looks like it's going to be a great week."

Just across from Hazelwood Bloodstock's spot in Highflyer's K yard can be found a swanky new development in the Solario yard. The old American barn has been demolished to be replaced with regular stables and rubberised walkways with a smart flint-walled bridge for access.

Clearwater Stud, Oaks Farm Stables, Shadwell, and Book 1 newcomers Haras du Castillon from France, and Germany's Gestut Haus Ittlingen are among the consignors to be housed in the new facilities which appeared to be going down well. It's easy to feel a spring in one's step when the sun is shining on an autumn morning, and Luke Lillingston is rarely to be found without a smile on his face, but as he strides past full of purpose during his morning inspection rounds, he offers an opinion of the bluebloods assembled at Tattersalls for Europe's flagship yearling sale.

"Do you know, I really do think this is the best group of horses I have ever seen here," says the master of Mount Coote Stud. By Tuesday, we will begin to learn whether he's right, but all the signs seem to be pointing in the right direction.

COVENT GARDEN (IRE) (c, 2, Galileo {Ire}—Inca Princess {Ire}, by Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), a Sept. 17 last-out second going one mile at Gowran Park, broke well and led from the outset here. Nudged along with three furlongs remaining, the 5-6 favourite held a commanding advantage passing the quarter-mile marker and was ridden out in the closing stages to defeat Kingswood (GB) (Roaring Lion), himself a half-brother to Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), by 2 1/4 lengths. “He’s a lovely colt, he had two very good runs in his first two maidens and ran a lovely race in Gowran last time,” said Ballydoyle’s Chris Armstrong. “Seamus [Heffernan] gave him a lovely ride and he’s a horse that could be one for those Group 1s in around three weeks time. There are the two races in France [G1 Criterium International and G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud] and the [G1] Vertem Futurity [Trophy at Doncaster]. He’s a horse to look forward to next year.”

WORLDWIDE NEWS

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM AS GENDARME PREVAILS IN THE SPRINTER S.

by Heather Anderson

Koji Maeda’s Gendarme (Kitten’s Joy) earned a new career high with a neck victory in Nakayama’s 1200-metre G1 Sprinters S. on Sunday. The 7-year-old entire captured the race 20 years after his dam, Believe (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), who has thrown a trio of stakes winners including Gendarme.

Sent off at 19-1, the eighth choice in the field of 16, the dark bay argued the early pace, but drifted back to stalk from third on the backstretch as T M Spada (Jpn) (Red Spada {Jpn}) set a harried tempo under pressure from First Force (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa (Jpn)). Rolling up in between that pair on the corner, Gendarme cruised into contention and took up the baton shortly before the 200-metre mark. Quickly opening up two lengths, he kept finding as Win Marvel (Jpn) (I’ll Have Another) and Naran Huleg (Jpn) (Gold Allure (Jpn)) unleashed furious late rallies, but it was too little too late. Only three-quarters of a length separated the latter duo for second, and third, respectively.

“We had a good gate and were able to race smoothly as he handled the break smoothly, which was a challenge for him,” said Kiwamu Ogino, who was winning his first Group 1 race and second group race in his career.

The horse responded well in the stretch and I think he was able to show his strength. I was aware of the closing horses behind us but I just concentrated on letting the horse do his best. I’m really happy that I was able to win my first Group 1 title and I’m grateful for Gendarme.”

A winner at Group 2 level and second in the G1 Hopeful S. as a juvenile, Gendarme won the G3 Ocean S. three starts back over course-and-distance in March. Unplaced to Naran Huleg in the G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen later that month, he was 17th in the G3 Kitakyushu Kinen at Kokura on Aug. 21.

Pedigree Notes

Gendarme becomes the 16th Group 1 winner for his late sire Kitten’s Joy with Sunday’s victory. He is also the seventh and final foal, seventh runner, and sixth winner for the 2003 Japanese Champion Older Mare Believe. Cont. p29

A winner of the 2002 edition of the Sprinter S. when it was run under listed conditions, she was also Group 2-placed and earned north of $3.8 million. Her first foal, the 2005 Kingmambo horse Faridat, was a dual listed winner in Japan, and he would ultimately place five times at group level, including a third in the G1 Yasuda Kinen. Believe hit black-type pay dirt once again with her fifth foal, the 2012 Medaglia d’Oro filly Fiducia, who won the Listed Shunrai S. and was second in the G3 Ibis Summer Dash.

From the family of 1986 U.S. Horse of the Year Lady’s Secret (Secretariat), Gendarme is not the only descendant of third dam and multiple stakes winner Great Lady M. (Icecapade) to thrive in the Land of the Rising Sun, with no less than eight others earning a black-type win. Anchoring that octet is Japanese Champion 2-Year-Old Filly Circle Of Life (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}), who won the G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies. American champion Shamrock Rose (First Dude), a winner of the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, is also related to Gendarme.
