GOOD MAGIC BLAZING THE TRAIL

Blazing Sevens in the Champagne winner's circle | Sarah Andrew

by Chris McGrath

First things first, because this was not just a proxy war. Congratulations, then, to Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) for carving his name on the GI Champagne S. roll of honor, one of the most storied on the American Turf. John and Carla Capek of Rodeo Creek Racing have only owned racehorses for a couple of years, but here they are with the winner of a race once won in three consecutive runnings by Seattle Slew, Alydar and Spectacular Bid. They must be tremendously excited as Chad Brown prepares their colt for the Breeders' Cup, with everything that entails in terms of the Triple Crown trail and a place at stud.

But this race was also notable for a "play within a play". For the difference between first and second prizes was sufficient to elevate Good Magic past his GI Kentucky Derby nemesis Justify, sire of runner-up Verifying, in a highly competitive race for the first season stallions' championship.

We'll return to that table in due course but--whoever gains the final laurels--Good Magic is first of the cohort to put his name in lights with a Grade I winner. And that's especially important for a young stallion who was himself noted for greater precocity than has tended to be trademarked by his own sire Curlin.

Curiously, the horse that set up Saturday's race through the first three splits (before fading into fourth) happened to be a half-brother to Firenze Fire (Poseidon's Warrior).

Early in his colorful career, Firenze Fire thwarted none other than Good Magic by half a length in the 2017 Champagne. Good Magic then broke his maiden in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, an unprecedented distinction, and continued to progress as a sophomore. His endeavors, either side of running into Justify on the first Saturday in May, included wins in the GII Blue Grass S. and the GI Haskell S. Despite derailing in the Travers, Good Magic retired to Hill 'n' Dale with $2,945,000 banked through nine starts.

Good Magic started out at a fee of $35,000, with the same kind of challenge--or opportunity--as that embraced by Vino Rosso and Known Agenda over the next couple of years: to stake a claim as the premier heir to their sire. In the current general sires' table, the highest earner by Curlin is Keen Ice, no higher than 48th despite the endeavors of Rich Strike. The unequivocal identification of a successor is one of few tasks remaining to Curlin, now approaching the evening of his career at 18, but Good Magic certainly had his three 'P's lined up as he set out: performance as already noted, while pedigree and physique had together seduced a $1-million bid from e Five Racing as a Keeneland September yearling.

Breeders Stonestreet were so reluctant to part with him, even at that price, that they struck a deal to stay aboard as partners.

After all, he was by the horse that had made their colors famous, as a dual Horse of the Year, and out of a daughter of one of the first mares bought for the evolving Stonestreet program.

Good Magic's dam Glinda The Good was a dual stakes winner precocious enough to run third in the GII Pocahontas S. She was by Curlin's regular sophomore antagonist, Hard Spun, and one of no fewer than 14 winners--most notably the Grade III winner/Grade I-placed Take The Ribbon (Chaster House)--out of Magical Flash (Miswaki), already 14 years old when acquired for $140,000 at Keeneland's November Sale in 2004.

Magical Flash had been bred by the Californian Turf stalwart Clement L. Hirsch, and indeed shared a dam with Magical Maiden (Lord Avie), the dual Grade I winner whose daughter Miss Houdini (Belong To Me) and granddaughter Ce Ce (Elusive Quality) have both subsequently emulated her as a winner at the elite level for Hirsch's son Bo; not forgetting Ce Ce's aptly-named half-brother Papa Clem (Smart Strike), fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby after winning the GII Arkansas Derby.

Good Magic is one of several projects in which Barbara Banke has had the good sense to collaborate with John Sikura. Together with other shareholders, they have certainly given Good Magic every chance.

Maryland-Bred MILLIONAIRE Traditions

Starting in the '70s with the likes of DAVE'S FRIEND (the first pure sprinter to earn over a million) and the great handicap mare JAMEELA. . . over the past 50 years. . . from dual Horse of the Year CIGAR to 2021 Horse of the Year KNICKS GO, Maryland has a solid record for producing top horses.

Maryland-breds--there's no denying class

And now with the Developer's Bonus in our well-established Maryland-bred program, there's no reason not to have one!

It's time to own a Maryland-Bred.

He covered 306 mares across his first two seasons and held up well against the inevitable slide with 92 in his third. And his first yearlings were positively received in 2021, 94 sold from 110 offered for an average $151,708. (His most expensive yearling, a $775,000 Keeneland September colt, made a promising start when beaten a neck for a powerful partnership of Bob Baffert's patrons at Del Mar last month.)

Good Magic winning the Breeders' Cup Juvenile | Horsephotos

As an unusually accomplished juvenile, by the standards of his sire, Good Magic's big pitch is that he might combine two-turn Classic quality with some extra commercial dash. His first winner admittedly came no earlier than June, but it's auspicious that Curly Jack has progressed to win the GIII Iroquois S. on his fourth start. Then there was Vegas Magic, who won her first three in California including the GII Sorrento S. And while Grade I level proved beyond her at this stage, that new pinnacle has now been scaled by Blazing Sevens.

Fast tracked from his debut success, Blazing Sevens did make the GI Hopeful S. podium but only at a respectful distance, beaten a dozen lengths by Forte (Violence). Brown remained adamant that he was better than he showed that day and, though alarmed by a similar slop last weekend, was vindicated with a strong-running exhibition that promised still better to come as he stretches out.

Blazing Sevens, bred by Tracy Farmer, is the first runner out of a Warrior's Reward half-sister (dual winner around a mile) to shock GI Jamaica H. winner King David (Hat Trick {Jpn}) besides a couple of other stakes operators. Otherwise it's a fairly thin pedigree so it already reflected well on Good Magic that he could be pinhooked as a $140,000 short yearling (sold to Chestnut Valley Farm through Denali at Keeneland January) to make $225,000 in the select catalogue (Eaton consignment) at Saratoga that summer.

If Blazing Sevens is indeed to thrive through a second turn, Good Magic will presumably be loading plenty of Curlin into the deal as the maternal family has recently been seeded largely by speed brands (Warrior's Reward, Gone West, Storm Bird). The third dam was a half-sister to an Epsom Derby runner-up in Glacial Storm, however, and while that horse was by a profound source of stamina (Arctic Tern), she herself introduces a sturdy distaff influence in Luthier (Fr) and there's actually a chain of stout influences tapering away behind her. If Brown believes this colt to be craving extra distance, then he's going to be right.

VIDEO:

Good Magic at Hill 'n' Dale

Regardless, the next step on his journey promises to be significant in the rookie sires' championship, where every cent looks likely to count. Through Monday, Good Magic held a narrow lead, at $1,521,469, over two others with still bigger debut crops in Justify ($1,468,689) and Bolt d'Oro ($1,460,457). Good Magic has certainly made his big punches count, his three graded stakes winners for now being his only stakes operators of any kind, compared with six and eight respectively for Justify (who also has three graded winners) and Bolt d'Oro (two). These are still very early days, of course, with this top trio so far mustering 15, 16 and 16 winners apiece from 47 (Good Magic, from 119 named foals), 43 (Justify, 137) and as many as 58 (Bolt d'Oro, 142) starters.

Justify and Good Magic in the Preakness | Horsephotos

Looking at those ratios, the one who has shown least of his hand would appear to be a Triple Crown winner who famously never ran at all as a juvenile and whose prodigious physical prowess might validly require time to develop. Quite striking, then, that Justify came up with a filly to win a 5 1/2-furlong maiden in Ireland as early as May, who has since followed up at Group level. With a fee commensurate with his meteoric track career, Justify obviously faced plenty of pressure to match his name. But the foundations he has laid so far encourage the hope that his flourishing, speed-oriented sire line can balance the slower-maturing influences on his family (such as damsire Ghostzapper, plus Nijinsky top and bottom).

No less auspicious is the genetic profile of Bolt d'Oro. He was a remarkably accomplished juvenile (dual Grade I winner/103 Beyer) for a colt whose parents were respectively by El Prado (Ire) and A.P. Indy, and while his own sophomore career ultimately proved frustrating, he too can be expected to keep building from here. His second crop has been performing particularly well at the sales.

All three frontrunners, then, share a wholesome eligibility to keep building as their stock explores a second turn. In the meantime, however, Good Magic's studmate Army Mule is slipstreaming them with real verve in fourth ($1,362,132) in already fielding 45 of his 91 named foals for 17 winners including two in stakes company. That backs up his excellent sales debut last year, where he converted a $10,000 opening fee to a $91,809 average.

Another to have already fired half his (named) bullets is Sharp Azteca, whose 60 starters have yielded a class-high 22 winners, two at black-type level, for a bank of $1,244,681.

Bolt d'Oro | Sarah Andrew

And we've previously celebrated the breakout of Girvin, who went to war with 76 named foals, conceived in Florida at $6,000, but has already had three stakes winners from 13 overall (31 starters) for $1,160,669. That has earned him an immediate move to Kentucky and, though he has so far only offered four yearlings from his second crop, one has already made $290,000.

The next two in the table have not yet matched their sales performance but both remain well equipped to overtake some of the faster starters. Mendelssohn sent no fewer than 125 yearlings into the ring last year, processing 100 at $153,611, and 54 starters have so far yielded 16 winners for a bank of $946,423. It's only a matter of time before his cavalry starts to make a few headlines, and he can take heart from the example of City of Light ($886,216).

After his stellar auction debut (67 of 75 sold at an average of $337,698), City of Light--himself a fairly gradual bloom on the track himself--had to wait until July 31 for his first winner. Remarkably, however, three of his eight winners to date (from just 20 launched from 83 named foals) have already won stakes, while another was beaten a neck in the GIII With Anticipation S. With the lovely shape to his pedigree, City of Light will prove a perfect example of why nobody should be too carried away with these early skirmishes. I'm not the only one to think so, either, judging from his lucrative return to the sales through his second crop.

A final nod, for now, goes to Oscar Performance ($766,705) who has started 29 of 70 named foals for 11 winners with three already placed at graded stakes level.

All of these horses tend to be granted a ruthlessly narrow window by the commercial market. If many are initially oversubscribed, it's no more absurd for them to be abandoned so hastily. It can't be stressed enough that commercial breeders are themselves not to blame for such giddy imbalances, which hardly suit the stallion farms either. The fault, if any, rests with those directing ringside expenditure, who lock in a cycle that's hard to break: commercial breeders know that they must offer new sires, and as a result those sires will indeed have their best shot in their first books.

Now is surely way too soon for anybody to be leaping to any definitive conclusions. Inevitably, that won't stop some people prematurely writing off certain of the slower starters. That being so, you can't overstate the satisfaction for those standing the first of the intake to that Grade I breakout. Nonetheless, it remains neck and neck in the wider race, with everything still to play for. And if the stakes sometimes feel somewhat higher than perhaps they should be, that will hardly diminish excitement at several different farms about a sub-plot that could really enliven the closing months of the year.

ACTION STEADY AS FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC SALE CONCLUDES by Jessica Martini

TIMONIUM, MD - A steady edition of the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale--which featured heavy rain from its weekend previews through both sessions--concluded Tuesday in Timonium with numbers down from last year's lively renewal of the auction.

"The weather was pretty dismal, but it was a pretty active sale," said Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sales Director Paget Bennett. "The pavilion was very busy both days. We had a great crowd both days. Today, I saw people I didn't see yesterday. People kept coming and they came to buy horses."

Through two sessions, 386 head grossed $10,266,400. The average of $26,597 was down 10% from a year ago, while the median fell 25% to $15,000. With 79 yearlings reported not sold, the buy-back rate was 17%. It was 16.4% in 2021.

"Last year was so good," Bennett said of the comparison between the two sales. "I think this year was still very solid. Overall, we finished up well. There were people here to the end. When we hit the supplement, there were sparks that flew in there as well."

The auction's top price came during Monday's first session when Legion Bloodstock purchased a filly by Uncle Mo for $320,000. The Legion team was back in action Tuesday, purchasing a filly by More Than Ready for $200,000. That price was matched a few hips later in the session when Summer Street went to $200,000 to acquire a colt by Munnings.

In all, 23 yearlings sold for six figures this year. There were 16 who hit that mark last year.

Consignor Becky Davis, who sold Tuesday's co-session topping son of Munnings, said she saw a strong market in Timonium this week.

"I thought it was pretty strong," Davis said. "When I was watching the figures yesterday, I was very happy to see a lot more horses selling in that $20,000 to $50,000 range that we've kind of been missing here for a while. There is some uncertainty in the Maryland region with racing in general, I think that may have affected us a little bit. I think a lot of the money here is from outside. But that's good. We had a really strong catalogue. Fasig-Tipton did a great job and had a lot of really strong horses here and brought him some stronger buyers."

Co-session topping Hip 294 in the ring | Fasig-Tipton

Clovis Crane was active throughout the two-day auction, purchasing yearlings with an eye towards resale next spring. The horseman noticed a persistent polarization in the marketplace.

“The market is very stallion heavy,” he said. “If you have the right stallion, they will pay you a lot for them. There are a few of the really hot stallions--the Bolt d' Oros, the Not This Times--if they want them, they will pay quite a bit more for them. But then you have the other stallions that, if they're not on them, they are not on them at all. It's more of the same, but I think it's even more polarized than ever. There are so many that are going to work here on a racing level, it's intriguing that they are not better received.”

Crane admitted he needed to buy at the right end of the polarization in order to be successful next year.

“We are looking for individuals that we can resell, so when you are reselling, it's sire power that you have to have because if that's what they want, that's what you have to give them,” he said. “It's very tough to buy the desirable horses. It's more of the same. There are a lot of useful horses that can be bought properly. If you are not looking to resell, there are lots of horses that are viable to go to the races with and would be nice racehorses.”

Legion Bloodstock In Action Again

After purchasing the top-priced offering during Monday's first session of the sale, Kristian Villante of Legion Bloodstock was back in action in Timonium Tuesday, going to $200,000 to acquire a filly by More Than Ready (hip 287). Like Monday's sale-topping daughter of Uncle Mo, hip 287 was consigned by Scott Mallory on behalf of Matt Dorman's Determined Stud.

“She was very similar to the one yesterday,” Villante said. “She's from a great family and raised at a great place. She just stood out on physical and pedigree. She was just a very classy filly and straightforward, just like yesterday. So we got lucky again.”

Both yearling fillies were purchased for the same partners.

Asked for the partners' game plan, Villante said, “We are just kind of taking each sale individually. They do breed, so they like fillies with some pedigree and they've had some luck with some turf horses recently, so her pedigree appealed to them.”

The Maryland-bred filly is out of Fluffhead (Animal Kingdom), a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf winner Shared Account (Pleasantly Perfect). Dorman purchased the mare, with the filly in utero, for $165,000 at the 2021 Keeneland January sale.

Dorman gave credit for picking the mare out to trainer Phil Schoenthal, who admitted he was a big fan of the yearling.

“Matt is a commercial seller. It's a business. And she was coming to sell, but I loved that filly and I begged him to keep her,” Schoenthal said. “I tried to buy her myself and had to stop for risk of my wife throwing me out of the house. If I was ever going to swing for one, she'd be the one. But it's a business and we are trying to make money at this. It's better to sell and regret than to not sell and regret. She was a lovely filly and I am thrilled that those guys got her--end-users, friends of mine. Everybody is happy, but me.”

The 7-year-old Fluffhead was bred back to Gift Box this year.

“She was a big, pretty mare and she had that family behind her,” Schoenthal said of the mare's appeal at the 2021 auction. “We were the underbidders on Shared Account at that Night of the Stars sale, we were big fans of hers and that whole family.”

Davis Yearlings in Demand

Yearlings from the consignment of Becky Davis occupied two of the top three spots on the results sheets for Tuesday's session of the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic sale, led by a colt by Munnings (hip 294) who sold for $200,000 to Summer Street. The yearling is out of Frost Fire (Medaglia d'Oro) and Davis consigned him on behalf of his breeder, Jon Marshall. Davis admitted Marshall had mixed emotions about Tuesday's result.

“The owner had three horses that he sent to us and after they arrived he asked me my opinion of them,” Davis said. “I said I liked the Munnings the best and he was surprised because wherever he was before, they had told him that he was a little crooked and he wasn't really developed. But I said I didn't think it would bother him.”

Davis continued, “I think our expectations were probably $75,000 to $100,000, so we are very pleased. The owner was bordering between being excited and being disappointed because he got so excited about him. He had his heart scanned and I had been telling him how he was developing and sending him pictures. He was so thrilled with him, by the time it was time to go through the ring, he was ready to race him himself.”

Marshall, who topped the 2020 Midlantic sale when selling a son of Gun Runner for $270,000, also sold a filly by Speightstown (hip 271) for $125,000 to David and Lori Hughes's Mens Grille Racing through Davis's consignment Tuesday.

On behalf of breeders Bowman and Higgins Stable, Davis sold a colt by Arrogate (hip 346) for $180,000 to Chuck Zacney's Cash is King and LC Racing. The yearling is out of How My Heart Works (Not For Love), a half-sister to the dam of GI Haskell S. winner Cyberknife (Gun Runner). He is a half-brother to stakes winner and graded placed Monday Morning QB (Imagining), purchased by Zacney for $25,000 at the 2018 Midlantic sale.

"To be honest, my expectations were a good bit more for him with the improvement in his pedigree with Cyberknife and Arrogate and he is a good-looking horse," Davis said. "I thought we were going to get a stronger price for him. He did have a little bit of an issue with his X-rays and when I found out the reaction to him on the sales grounds and the environment was kind of chilling off with him, I knew we were probably in trouble from what I thought he was going to bring. So I did put a modest reserve on him."

Hip 346 in the ring | Sara Gordon

The decision to sell the colt was made easier after the same breeders took home a Bernardini filly (hip 266) for $170,000 earlier in the session.

"The same owners had the Bernardini filly that I ran through that I did not sell," Davis explained. "So they decided to keep her and race her and make her a broodmare, which was kind of always the point with her when she was bred, but they decided to run everything through the sale. When we knew things were cooling off with him, we decided to put a strong reserve on her and when we brought her home, they decided to let him go. As it turned out, Chuck Zacney bought him, so he's going to go to the same person that bought Monday Morning QB from me. It's all worked out perfectly."

Moira | Michael Burns

MOIRA CONFIRMED FOR E.P. TAYLOR

by Bill Finley

Moira (Ghostzapper), the dominant winner of this year's Queen's Plate over males, will start Saturday at Woodbine in the GI E.P. Taylor S. It will be her first try against older horses and her first on the turf. Trainer Kevin Attard had also been considering the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S., a turf race at Keeneland restricted to 3-year-old fillies.

"The race is at home and at a distance of a mile and a quarter," Attard said. "She had a work over the turf course [five furlongs in 1:01.20] on Saturday and seemed to get over it very well and looked comfortable doing it. Those were the factors that played into it. The Keeneland race was very appealing, but we would have had to ship and put her on a van. She does have some quirks, so we weren't too sure about that because no one knows how she would handle shipping or if there would be any negative impact from that. We thought it be a safer bet to stay at home."

Moira, who is 4-for-5 lifetime, was an easy winner of the Queen's Plate, the first leg of the Canadian Triple Crown, beating her fellow Ontario-breds by seven lengths. Attard and the owners, X-Men Racing, Madaket Stablkes LLC and SF Racing LLC, decided afterward to pass on the remaining two legs of the series in order to give their filly a chance of winning a Grade I race. In her lone try in graded company, Moira was second in last year's GIII Mazarine S.

Attard acknowledged that the E.P. Taylor will be a tough spot for his filly.

"She's obviously taking a big step up in class and is facing older horses for the first time," he said. "There is a bit of a weight advantage. Being a 3-year-old facing older fillies she will get four pounds. But it's always nice to stick to your own age group if you can. At the end of the day there is no such thing as an easy Grade I."

All five of the filly's starts have come on the synthetic Tapeta surface at Woodbine. Attard is confident the switch to the grass will not be a problem.

"I think she will handle it," he said. "Her dam is Devine Aida (Unbridled's Song) and she was a stakes winner on the turf. She has a sibling that was a minor stakes winner on the turf. She's bred to handle the turf and she looked good working over it. The forecast looks good for this week, so it looks like we will get a firm turf course. That's something else we factored into it."

Depending on how she fares Saturday, Moira could return in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf.

"That is a possibility," Attard said. "With the E.P. Taylor being four weeks from the Breeders' Cup versus three weeks for the Queen Elizabeth, that played into our decision as well."

NEWS CARVER LOOKS TO MAKE HEADLINES FOR NEW VOCATIONS

by Katie Petrunyak

On the racetrack, News Carver (Curlin) did not meet the lofty expectations set by his talented full-brother Vino Rosso, but the 3-year-old gelding has all the potential to one day become a star in a different arena.

After News Carver finished a distant sixth in his debut in May this year and showed little interest in pursuing a racing career, his owner and breeder John Gunther decided to send the homebred to New Vocations. News Carver, who bears the same lustrous chestnut coat and blazed face as his older brother, arrived at the racehorse adoption program's Lexington location last month.

"He definitely came off the trailer just like you would expect," said New Vocations Thoroughbred Program Director Anna Ford.

Click here to see Vino Rosso's full-brother, News Carver, at New Vocations | Nathan Wilkinson

“He is very proud of himself and has that presence of a quality horse. He does look a lot like Vino Rosso and he knows that he is of royal blood.”

Ford said that News Carver is a perfect example of the type of retired racehorse that frequently lands in their program.

“He came from the best bloodlines, but simply didn't have the same ability as his brother,” she explained. “We really appreciate owners like the Gunthers who, instead of dropping him down into claiming ranks which he might have been able to do, opted to retire him early and let him go on to a second career. We feel really proud that they trust us to take good care of a horse like News Carver.”

Ford explained that just as New Vocations does with every horse that goes through the program, their first task has been to allow News Carver to let down from his time on the racetrack and acclimate to a group of pasture mates.

“He has settled in really well,” Ford said. “He goes out daily and has a buddy that he's getting socialized with, which is a really important part of the transitional training process. He's learning how to let down and get some good R and R. Once he gets comfortable with that, we'll bring him back into training probably over the winter.”

From there, Ford said they will evaluate what News Carver might be best suited for in a second career.

“It's too early for us to know right now, but if I were to guess I'd say he definitely could excel in a lot of English disciplines like dressage or jumpers or maybe eventing. Really the sky is the limit. It just depends on what he physically and mentally is able to do.”

Until then, the team at New Vocations hopes that their new trainee can serve as an advocate for aftercare with the Breeders' Cup World Championships fast approaching.

New Vocations recently launched its 13th annual Breeders' Cup Pledge, where connections of Breeders' Cup contenders can pledge a percentage of their earnings to support the program. Last year's pledge was supported by over 60 Championship contenders.

“This year I'm really excited that we will break $1,000,000 total in 13 years,” Ford said. “So far we've raised $950,000 and last year alone we raised $150,000, so this year we're excited to hit that million-dollar mark and hopefully we can go way over it. It's a really exciting time. A lot of our supporters are people who have donated horses to our program and we've helped those horses transition into second careers, so this is their chance to give back to a program that has been able to help them and their horses in the past.”

The 2019 Breeders' Cup was a memorable one for New Vocations when they raised $130,000 thanks in large part to GI Classic hero Vino Rosso.

“2019 was one of our record-breaking years for the pledge and it really launched the fundraiser into a new level,” Ford explained. “Both of Vino Rosso's owners, Mike Repole and Vinnie Viola's St. Elias Stables, along with his trainer Todd Pletcher all pledged that year. It's really neat to be sitting here three years later with Vino Rosso's brother in the program as we head into Breeders' Cup season and are hoping to get more people to join the pledge.”

In addition to their million-dollar milestone on the horizon, New Vocations, which is the oldest and largest racehorse adoption program in the country, is celebrating its 30th anniversary this year. Ford credits the support they have received from the Thoroughbred industry that has helped their program thrive over the years.

“We definitely couldn't do what we do every year without the support of the industry and specifically the owners who are donating horses to our program and entrusting us to take care of them and get them transitioned,” she said. “We're so thankful for everything that the industry has been able to give to us and their support of what we do.”

DR. MARY SCOLLAY NAMED HORSERACING INTEGRITY & WELFARE UNIT CHIEF OF SCIENCE

Dr. Mary Scollay | The Jockey Club

The Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit (HIWU), which was established by Drug Free Sport International to administer the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority's (HISA) Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) Program, has named Dr. Mary Scollay as its chief of science.

In this role, which she commences Oct. 10, Scollay will oversee HIWU's Science Department, including the HISA Equine Analytical Laboratory accreditation program, and education efforts ahead of the ADCM Program launch in January 2023. She will also prioritize research development into Prohibited Substances while engaging with veterinary scientists, pharmacologists, and other experts in the Thoroughbred industry. Additionally, Scollay and her team will manage a Prohibited Substances database that will be available for industry stakeholders to use as a reference tool.

Scollay joins HIWU after serving as the Racing Medication & Testing Consortium's (RMTC) executive director and chief operating officer for three years. While with the RMTC, she directed the advancement of world-class laboratory drug testing standards, promotion of RMTC-recommended rules and penalties for prohibited substances and therapeutic medications, monitoring of emerging threats to the integrity of racing and the health and welfare of racehorses, and administrative oversight of RMTC-funded research projects and educational programs.

Before leading the RMTC, Scollay spent more than 30 years as a racing regulatory veterinarian, including 11 years as the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission's equine medical director.

"Dr. Scollay's extensive experience in the areas of anti-doping rules, testing standards, and veterinary regulation in the Thoroughbred industry will make her a key asset to HIWU," said

Ben Mosier, executive director of HIWU. "We are fortunate to retain her knowledge and skillset as we prepare for the implementation of the ADCM Program on January 1, 2023."

Named to HISA's ADCM Standing Committee in May 2021, Scollay has resigned from that responsibility to take on her position with HIWU.

"HISA represents the way forward for Thoroughbred racing, the only way forward," said Scollay. "I am grateful for the opportunity to continue serving the sport during this transition, and I am committed to working with HIWU to deliver a best-in-class equine anti-doping program to the industry."

TEXAS CONGRESSMAN FILES BILL TO DELAY HISA IMPLEMENTATION TO JAN. 1, 2024

Representative Lance Gooden (R-TX-05) introduced legislation in the United States House of Representatives Tuesday that would delay the implementation date of the Horse Racing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) from July 1, 2022, to Jan. 1, 2024.

"I speak for all our membership, whose livelihood is determined by horse racing, when I say introduction of this legislation is a welcomed bit of common sense," said Eric Hamelback, CEO of the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (NHBPA). "HISA's implementation so far has been inconsistent, contradictory, confusing, burdensome, and plagued by a failure to understand real world conditions. A reasonable pause giving horsemen in Texas and across the country time to work with HISA to fix these problems before any further harm is done serves everyone's interest. We thank Representative Gooden for taking this first step."

"The Authority has created uncertainty and harmed the horseracing industry," said Rep. Gooden. "State governments are best equipped to regulate their respective horse racing industries and I will not stand idly by while the federal government once again pushes a one-size-fits-all approach."

LAUREL TO SWAP THREE THURSDAYS FOR MONDAYS IN NOVEMBER

by T.D. Thornton

Laurel Park will swap out three Thursday racing dates for Mondays in November. The request was unanimously approved by a voice vote at the Oct. 4 Maryland Racing Commission meeting.

Mike Rogers, the president of the racing division for the Maryland Jockey Club's Pimlico Race Course and Laurel Park, told commissioners that the Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association was in favor of the switch. Cont. p14

"It's kind of an experiment. We see that handle is a little bit low on the Thursdays, so we're going to see if we can get a little bit of a bump on the handle by shifting to Mondays," Rogers said. "The sample size is a little bit low, it's only three days, but I think we'll get a little bit of a sense whether the Mondays are successful or not."

According to the calendar posted on Laurel's website, the three dropped Thursdays are Nov. 3, 10 and 17, making the schedule Fridays through Mondays on those weeks.

The Thanksgiving Day program on Nov. 24 remains intact on the posted schedule. Starting in December, the Laurel schedule had already been slated to revert to three-day racing weeks on a Friday-through-Sunday basis (with the exception of the weekend of Christmas Eve and Christmas Day).

LONGTIME HORSEMAN JACK WILLIS DIES

Clarence H. Willis III, better known as Jack, a longtime horseman and assistant in racing on the East Coast, died Monday at the age of 81.

Willis worked for the prominent Bostwick family in Aiken, SC before going on to work for the Phipps family under trainer Angel Penna, Sr. in the 1980s. He oversaw all of the powerhouse stable's yearlings and some layups in Aiken before moving north to help manage the Phippses' racing stable on the New York circuit of Belmont and Saratoga.

Some of the more well-known horses Willis worked with during that period included multiple Grade I-winning millionaire and GI Breeders' Cup Sprint champion Dancing Spree (Nijinsky), Grade I winner Time for a Change (Damascus) and Roselawn Farm/Airdrie Stud stallion Turkey Shoot (Seattle Slew).

In his later years, Willis went on to drive transport vans for Brook Ledge Horse Transportation before retiring to Florida to sell insurance.

"Jack was a good horseman and a friend to all. He was loyal and had a good sense of humor. I owe my entering horse racing to him," said Jean Bickley, racing manager for Peter Brant.

Willis is survived by his wife of 50 years, Miryam, and their two sons, Steve and Jack.

HARDY NAMED EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF RMTC

Dr. Michael Hardy has been hired as its next Executive Director of the Racing Medication & Testing Consortium. In his new role, Dr. Hardy will be responsible for the management of the RMTC's Laboratory Accreditation and External Quality Assurance Program in conjunction with the new Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit. He will also be charged with the administration of the RMTC's Scientific Advisory Committee process, the monitoring of emerging threats to the integrity of racing and the health and welfare of racehorses, administrative oversight of RMTC-funded research projects, and coordinating RegVet CE programs. Cont. p15

Dr. Hardy will lead the efforts of the RMTC to educate Thoroughbred racing participants concerning the significant changes in the regulation of anti-doping and medication control to begin Jan. 1, 2023 with the implementation of the new Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority ADMC program.

The RMTC selected Dr. Hardy based on his experience in developing regulatory safety initiative(s) for racehorses, management of pre- and post-race drug testing, research into emerging threats to the integrity of horse racing, and the regulation of horse racing in general.

“We are very pleased to have Dr. Hardy on board,” said RMTC Chair Alex Waldrop. “He has been working with the RMTC for years now, and that will enable him to hit the ground running in this new capacity, at a pivotal time for the RMTC and the entire horse racing industry.”

TATTERSALLS OCTOBER
YEARLING SALE
Book 1 Oct 4 - 6

DUBAWI RINGS THE BELL WITH THREE BOOK 1 MILLIONAIRES

Sheikh Mohammed at Park Paddocks | Laura Green

By Emma Berry and Brian Sheerin

NEWMARKET, UK—Sales can often start with more of a whimper than a bang, but with only the second horse in the ring at Tattersalls the October Yearling Sale roared into life as the first Dubawi (Ire) yearling to be offered ensured that seven figures were lit across the bid board. That was repeated twice during the day, both times by offspring of Darley's elite sire, with top honours eventually falling to Hazelwood Bloodstock's colt out of Ring The Bell (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was bought by Godolphin at 1.5 million gns.

Though few stallions can match the achievements of Dubawi, at his level he is of course being graced with some of the best mares in Europe, and Ring The Bell, owned by John Camilleri of Fairway Thoroughbreds, is from a family with strength in depth. Though tried only once on the racecourse herself, she is a full-sister to no fewer than three Group 1 winners in the dual Classic heroine Hermosa (Ire), Hydrangea (Ire) and The United States (Ire), while both her dam Beauty Is Truth (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and granddam Zelding (Ire) (Warning {GB}) won group races in France. Cont. p3

SOUMILLON LOSES AGA KHAN RETAINER

Christophe Soumillon, who was banned from race-riding for two months for causing Rossa Ryan to be unseated from his mount mid-race at Saint-Cloud, will no longer be the retained jockey for the Aga Khan Studs.

An announcement released by the operation on Tuesday morning read, "Following last Friday's incident at Saint-Cloud, which resulted in the fall of Rossa Ryan, the Aga Khan Studs have taken the decision to cease their retainer with jockey Christophe Soumillon with immediate effect.

"From this week onwards, Soumillon may still ride in the Aga Khan silks on occasion at the discretion of the French trainers and the Aga Khan Studs team. At this stage, there is no intention to retain a jockey in France for the foreseeable future."

TAKEAWAYS

Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1 Day 1

- Last year, eight horses made 500,000gns or better during the opening session of Book 1. In 2022, that number doubled to 16.
- Dubawi dominated the opening session of Book 1. Responsible for the top three lots, the super sire's yearlings grossed 5.4 million gns and averaged a cool 771,429 gns for the seven lots sold.
- Anthony Stroud signed for eight yearlings for Godolphin, five of which were by Dubawi, during the opening session of Book 1 for 6,025,000gns.
- Newsells Park Stud have been the leading consignors at Book 1 six times in the past and raced into an early lead by gross for 2022 with eight lots sold for 2,810,000 gns.
- Two bargain broodmares played a star role on the day. John Bourke's Classic-producing Poyle Sophie, picked up for just 3,000 gns, netted a major result when her Cotai Glory filly was knocked down to Blandford Bloodstock for 350,000gns. Martin Cooney's Plying, bought for just €21,000 in 2018 before being sold last November for €825,000, produced the other when a Gleneagles filly out of the dam of Alcohol Free was sold to MV Magnier for 650,000 gns.

With Sheikh Mohammed present at Park Paddocks, along with an international who’s who of the bloodstock industry, his Godolphin operation flexed its muscles. During the opening session of Book 1, Anthony Stroud signed for eight yearlings, five of which were by Dubawi, for a total of 6,025,000gns. This equated to roughly 20% of the day’s turnover and included the day’s three most expensive lots.

A sale that had been widely touted to include a particularly fine selection of yearlings certainly got off to a positive start. The clearance rate rose from 78% to 86%, with 135 horses changing hands for 31,993,000gns, which was up by 27% but was accrued from 19 more yearlings sold than in the equivalent session last year. The median was up fractionally to 160,000gns (+5%), while the average rose by 10% to 230,165gns.

Sheikh Mohammed Returns to Top Meon Valley Family

A family which has already produced five seven-figure lots at Tattersalls in the past was responsible for the first to breach that barrier at this year’s Book 1 when the second yearling into the ring, Meon Valley Stud’s daughter of Dubawi (Ire) and G2 Prix de la Nonette winner Jazz Top (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), brought the hammer down at 1.3 million gns.

The first of eight purchases by Anthony Stroud on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed on the day, the descendant of Meon Valley’s influential foundation mare Reprocolor (GB) (Jimmy Reppin {GB}) was offered as lot 3.

“It’s been a very good family,” said breeder Mark Weinfeld. “We’ve been very lucky with it. She had been very popular, but you never quite know until you get up there how many people will be there. We’re absolutely delighted.” Cont. p5

Brilliant, beautiful – and what a pedigree! Dubawi’s spectacular juvenile Champion, now with his first yearlings.

The family, which includes the filly's G1 Prix de l'Opera-winning granddam Zee Zee Top (GB) (Zafonic) and another of her daughters, the dual Group 1 winner Izzi Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), has been nurtured by the Weinfeld family over more than four decades. It is one with which Sheikh Mohammed has already enjoyed significant success, having raced the Sadler's Wells Group 1-winning brothers Opera House (GB) and Kayf Tara (GB), who are grandsons of Reprocolor.

Asked how it felt when the hammer fell, Weinfeld answered, "Heart-stopping. Particularly when it stuck around the six hundred mark, and you think, 'oh, perhaps this is as far as it's going to go.' Then it goes on and on.

"We didn't actually want to sell her but we had so many fillies this year. We kept a sister to [Oaks winner] Anapurna (GB), kept Anapurna's first yearling filly, and we've got an Invincible Spirit (Ire) filly out of Izzi Top so something had to go.

"We just thought that we'd sell one of the nice fillies to help pay for the ones we have in training."

Easily Persuaded for Dubawi Colt

Alex Elliott made a determined effort for Cheveley Park Stud's colt by Dubawi out of the Group 1 winner Persuasive (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) but eventually had to settle for second best when Anthony Stroud made the final bid for lot 127 at a million gns on behalf of Godolphin.

Cheveley Park Stud had bought the colt's dam as a yearling from her breeder John Tuthill for €180,000 and she has proved to be an inspired purchase. Not only did she win the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. and G3 Atalanta S. but since she was acquired, her page has been boosted by the exploits of her younger siblings, which include Godolphin's G1 QIPCO British Champions Sprint winner Creative Force (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the listed winner Tisbutadream (Ire) (Dream Ahead). Cont. p6

“It’s nice to come to a top-class sale and have a horse of that sort of quality,” said Cheveley Park Stud’s managing director Chris Richardson. “He was a gem from the moment he was born and we were obviously delighted that he has gone down so well.

“It’s a family that keeps evolving and we’re very grateful to Sheikh Mohammed for buying him. He knows the family well, with Creative Force having won the Champion Sprint S..”

Richardson advised that Persuasive, who is a daughter of the stakes-winning Choisir (Aus) mare Choose Me (Ire), has a Dubawi filly foal and is now in foal to Kingman (GB). Her first foal, the 3-year-old Persist (GB) (Frankel {GB}), has won twice for William Haggas.

“We’re hoping that John Gosden can work some magic with her 2-year-old by Frankel,” he added.

Shadwell Return To The British Market

Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) and Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) have all contributed to a memorable season for Shadwell on the track and on Tuesday the hugely successful operation returned to the sale scene in Britain for the first time in nearly two years.

Shadwell confirmed its intention to remain a global player at Keeneland last month with the purchasing of four blue-blooded fillies and Sheikha Hissa Hamdan Al Maktoum, daughter of the late Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum, made a first trip to Tattersalls to add another well-bred filly to the team, lot 24.

Consigned by Watership Down Stud, the Siyouni (Fr) filly out of the four-time Group 1 winner Lah

Ti Dar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) was knocked down to Angus Gold for 880,000 gns, with the Shadwell racing manager revealing that Sheikha Hissa thoroughly enjoyed her first trip to the sale. Cont. p7

He said, "People have been very kind around the sale grounds and gave her a big welcome. It's lovely to have been able to walk around with her."

Gold added, "She is very excited to have bought a filly with a pedigree like that. The first three dams are all group winners and the family has been well-nurtured by everyone at Watership Down Stud over the years.

"Obviously, we're hoping to buy some pedigrees for the future and she had one of the strongest pedigrees in the catalogue."

Rau Secures 'Queen of the Sale'

A No Nay Never [lot 77] filly consigned by Camas Park Stud was described by Tina Rau as "the queen of the sale" after the popular Chantilly-based bloodstock agent signed the docket at 780,000gns on behalf of Gestut Schlenderhan.

This season has represented something of a crowning glory for No Nay Never, responsible for two of the leading juveniles in Ballydoyle residents Little Big Bear (Ire) and Blackbeard (Ire), and Rau, in company with Schlenderhan manager Merle Schmidt, admitted her surprise at being able to secure what she deemed was one of the best offerings in Book 1.

"She's going to go back to Germany," Rau said. "Philip von Ullmann was here and we all loved her. She was the queen of the day and we're very happy to have her."

Baron Philip von Ullmann of Gestut Schlenderhan
Laura Green/Tattersalls

One of nine No Nay Nevers to walk through the ring on Tuesday, Rau's purchase is out of a sister to Remote (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and from the family of Kingman (GB) and the extended family of Oasis Dream (GB).

That top price secured on the day for No Nay Never played a significant role in the red-hot sire securing an average of 248,571 gns for seven lots sold in the opening session. Cont. p8

Rau said, "You can't really argue with the pedigree, for one, and she's just a queen. She walks for fun and is beautifully well-balanced. She's got so much quality."

Klassique start for Carisbrooke

Six years ago, Klassique (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) graduated from Book 1 with a 300,000gns price tag, bought by Cathy Grassick for Yvonne Jacques as she set about establishing a broodmare band at her Carisbrooke Stud.

With the G3 Pinnacle S. under her belt along with several other group placings, the 7-year-old mare is already earning her keep at the Berkshire farm following the sale of her first foal, a colt by Siyouni (Fr), for 525,000gns on Tuesday. Offered as lot 14, the January-born grandson of Group 1 winner Chachamaidee (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) is bred on a cross that has already produced the Classic winners Sottsass (Fr) and St Mark's Basilica (Fr), and he will race in the blue of Godolphin.

"Klassique is the most beautiful mare, such a fabulous mother and stunning-looking. She has a gorgeous Lope De Vega (Ire) colt foal and is in foal to Kingman (GB)," said Jacques, who has around 20 broodmares at Carisbrooke. "My staff have turned them out so well, we're all really proud."

She added, "We're now in our sixth year at the farm and we've put a lot into it. Klassique was one of the first to come back there and she is producing the most amazing stock. It's very exciting."

New England Stud offered a pair of Galileo (Ire) fillies early in the day (lots 1 and 29), with the first through the ring, a full-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Line Of Duty (Ire), sold to Ted Voute on behalf of Prince Faisal's Nawarra Stud for 500,000gns. Cont. p9

The second was a daughter of G2 Prix de Sandringham winner Laugh Out Loud (GB) (Clodovil {Ire}), who has already produced a useful performer in America in the GII San Marcos S. winner Platinum Warrior (Ire), who is a full-brother to the filly. Knocked down at 675,000gns, she was bought by BBA Ireland.

New England also later sold a Starspangledbanner (Aus) colt (lot 76) for breeder Emma Banks for 350,000gns to Richard Knight.

The second foal of listed winner Mrs Gallagher (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) is from a family which has received plenty of updates in recent seasons courtesy of sprinting star Harry Angel (Ire) and G1 Middle Park S. winner Supremacy (Ire) who share their third dam Great Joy (Ire) with the February-foaled yearling.

Knight has been on a prolific spending spree this yearling sale season for an undisclosed client, and he signed for another four yearlings for a total of 1,750,000gns on Tuesday. The list included lot 132, a Sea The Stars (Ire) granddaughter of Puce (GB) (Darshaan {GB}), who was bought for 600,000gns from Newsells Park Stud. The family includes the high-flying fillies Chicquita (Ire), Alexandrova (Ire) and Magic Wand (Ire).

Pinhookers' Paradise

Michael Fitzpatrick's Kilminfoyle House Stud enjoyed one of best pinhooks results of the session with the sale of lot 106 for 525,000gns to Sebastian Desmontils of Chauvigny Global Equine.

The daughter of Night Of Thunder (Ire) was bred by Simon Sweeting's Overbury Stallions and fetched 130,000gns at the December Foal Sale. Her dam, the unraced Pacifica Highway (Pulpit), has produced two winners to date including the Grade III-placed Ayacara (GB) (Violence), and is a half-sister to the Grade II winners Doswell (Giant's Causeway) and Secretary At War (War Front). Cont. p10

Yeomanstown Stud also enjoyed a decent return on a foal purchase when selling a Starspangledbanner (Aus) three-parts-brother (lot 52) to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Coeursamba (Fr) (The Wow Signal {Ire}). Bought at Arqana for €170,000, the colt, whose five winning siblings include the stakes-placed Lady Sidney (Fr) (Mr Sidney), brought a bid of 550,000gns from Badgers Bloodstock.

Poetic Flare's Brother to John Dance

Magna Grecia featured prominently among the freshman sires during the opening session, principally through lot 53, the half-brother to Classic winner Poetic Flare (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}), who was sold for 300,000gns to John Dance's Manor House Farm.

Bred and consigned by Clare Castle Stud, he is out of the Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire) mare Maria Lee (Ire) who was bought from her breeder Jim Bolger in the year that Poetic Flare was born. The 15-year-old mare has also produced Listed Zetland S. winner Glamorous Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}).

Crystal Ocean (GB) may be standing under the National Hunt banner at the Beeches Stud but his handful of foals that were entered in Flat sales last year were generally met with favour, including the colt out of the Shamardal mare Nateeja (Ire). Bought last December by Guy O'Callaghan of Grangemore Stud for 30,000gns, he returned to the ring as lot 86 on Tuesday to be resold to Charlie Gordon-Watson and Crispin Estates for 115,000gns. His dual-winning dam is a half-sister to G3 Cumberland Lodge S. winner Hawaafez (GB) (Nayef), whose own profile has received a boost this year thanks to her daughter Rogue Millennium (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who won the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial.

Crystal Ocean, the joint-top-rated racehorse in the world in 2019, is represented by one more yearling in Book 1, a chestnut colt catalogued as lot 512 on Thursday from Aughamore Stud.

Northern Lights

Consecutive lots went the way of Katsumi Yoshida of Northern Farm, who picked up lot 50, a Night Of Thunder (Ire) filly, for 200,000gns followed by a daughter of Ballyhane Stud's first-crop sire Soldier's Call (GB) for 100,000gns.

Breeder Kildaragh Stud consigned Night Of Thunder's daughter of Malaspina whose half-siblings Daban (Ire) (Acclamation GB) and Thikriyaat (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) are both Group 3 winners. The Gerry Oldham-bred Malaspina is herself out of the listed winner Mahalia (Ire) (Danehill) and thus a half-sister to French group winners Johnny Barnes (Ire) and Albisola (Ire). Cont. p11

Cooney Plays It Cool After Final Twist From Plying

Had Martin Cooney not carved out a niche in the breeding game, chances are he'd have made a pretty good poker player as, moments after selling the highest-priced progeny of Gleneagles (Ire) at public auction for 650,000 gns to MV Magnier, the man behind Jossesstown Farm could easily have been mistaken for a casual bystander at the sale.

But this was not Cooney's first rodeo. The young breeder has been taken on a storied journey with Plying, the mare he purchased for €21,000 in 2018 and sold last November to BBA Ireland and Yulong Investments for an eye-watering €825,000.

That sky-rocket in share price can be attributed to the emergence of Alcohol Free (Ire) (No Nay Never), now a four-time Group 1 winner, in the pedigree.

Tuesday marked the end of that dream run with the family of Plying, with the Gleneagles half-sister to Alcohol Free (lot 136) joining Cooney's fellow Tipperary men at Coolmore, leaving the young breeder facing the daunting task of replacing the mare.

He said casually of lot 136, "Good day's work. It's great--she's a lovely filly, acts like a racehorse so hopefully she is one. She's gone to a good home so hopefully she turns out to be half as good as Alcohol Free. Now I have to try and find another one."

Cooney added, "All she [Plying] has ever done is do us proud. Those horses are like family to us. I know we sell them but you get very attached to them and it's not like I have 20 waiting to be sold." Cont. p12

Half-Sister to Cachet Hits the Heights

Poyle Sophie {GB} (Teofilo {Ire}) is the gift that keeps on giving. Snapped up by John Bourke of Hyde Park Stud at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale in 2018 for just 3,000gns, she belied that modest price tag by producing a this year's 1000 Guineas winner Cachet (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}).

Bourke's bargain buy delivered once again when a Cotai Glory (GB) half-sister (lot 141) to the Classic winner was sold for 350,000 gns to Blandford Bloodstock, much to the delight of the enthusiastic breeder and renowned breeze-up handler.

Soumillon, who was runner-up in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe aboard the Aga Khan's dual Group 1 winner Vadani (Fr) and won Saturday's G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein with Erevann (Fr), has been associated with numerous major winners for the owner-breeder during his two stints as principal retained jockey, which ran from 2002 to 2009 and from 2014 to 2022.

In Friday's G3 Prix Thomas Bryon, Soumillon elbowed Ryan, who was riding on his outside, causing the latter to take a nasty tumble. Ryan was uninjured and Soumillon's mount Syros (Fr) went on to finish second but was later disqualified.

Soumillon said after the race, "Straight away I knew I made a mistake and I'm terribly sad about what happened because I hate to see stuff like this. When you are doing that it is even more terrible, so I really want to apologise to everyone, all involved with the horse.

"As for all the people who love racing, it was not a nice act from my side and I'm terribly sorry and want to apologise for what happened today."

The jockey later released a statement, which read, "I am of course very disappointed to lose my retainer with the Aga Khan Studs, but I am immensely proud and honoured to have held such a highly esteemed position for so long and wish them continued success.

"I realise that I have bridges to rebuild, but I am determined to show commitment and desire to those owners and trainers that wish to engage my services."

ARC HERO TORQUATOR TASSO RETIRED TO GESTUT AUENQUELLE

Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}--Tijuana {Ger}, by Toysome {GB}), the 2021 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero, has been retired from racing. As previously announced, the chestnut will stand at Gestut Auenquelle. Connections had originally been mulling a start in the G1 Japan Cup, but opted to retire the Marcel Weiss runner.

Weiss confirmed, "We are grateful that he enjoyed such an outstanding career and that he has come back safe and sound. We always said he would retire if he ran well.

"Frankie [Dettori] could not go forward too fast, otherwise Tasso would not have anything left at the end of the race. He rode exactly according to plan and did everything right. He is the horse of a lifetime and deserves a long and happy career at stud."

A winner of the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin as a sophomore in 2020, the P. H. Vandenberg-bred turned €24,000 BBAG October Mixed Sale graduate would enjoy his finest year on the track at four. A colourbearer for Gestut Auenquelle, he added the G2 Hansa Preis before running second to subsequent 2022 Arc heroine Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin, prior to his Arc heroics at 71-1.

On the board in four of his five starts this term, he did take the G2 Grosser Hansa-Preis, before second-place efforts in the G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. and back in Germany in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden. The half-brother to dual Group 3 winner Tunnes (Ger) (Guiliani {Ire}) signed off his career with a close third in the Arc to Alpinista and Vadani (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}), and retires with a mark of 16-6-5-2, and earnings of $4,737,917.

ARC RUNNER-UP VADENI TO RETURN AT FOUR

Dual Group 1 winner Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}), who ran second in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe on Sunday, will remain in training at four and aim to go one better in the ParisLongchamp showpiece next October, owner/breeder The Aga Khan's Racing Manager Georges Rimaud revealed on the Nick Luck Daily Podcast. A winner of the G3 Prix de Guiche in May, the bay claimed the G1 Prix du Jockey Club on June 5 and doubled up at the highest level in the Eclipse S. against his elders at Sandown in July. A close third in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown on Sept. 10, the colt ran on bravely to take second by a half-length in the Arc on Oct. 2.

Rimaud told Nick Luck, "We felt he was unlucky in the Irish Champion and he was beaten in the Arc in very deep ground, so we felt he needed to get another chance in it.

"He answered all the questions--he can stay and he doesn't mind the ground--so we felt the right thing to do was give him another chance next year.

"I think it's the right decision. I think the horse will strengthen more and I think he will have a very good year next year."

Vadeni and Christophe Soumillon | Scoop Dyga

He added, "We will probably start with a race in France--the Prix Ganay or something like that. Then we could maybe aim for the [G1] Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot and then see how we bring him to the Irish Champion and then the Arc, something of that nature with all the variations in between.

"It all depends really what other horses will be running next year and how the horse is. There's a lot of ifs and buts during a horse's career, but the trainer mentioned those races on Sunday."

Added trainer Jean-Claude Rouget of Vadeni and his fourth-place finisher and G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano victor Al Hakeem (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}), to PA Media, "They have come back very well and now they will have a quiet winter.

"They will both come back as 4-year-olds and we will run three or four times before the Arc.

"They will start late in the season, not before May. With Vadeni we will try and win at Ascot first in the Prince of Wales's S.

"The ground was a little soft [at ParisLongchamp] for Al Hakeem, I think he will win a Group 1 next year. It was a monsoon and Vadeni handled it no problem. I hope they both improve as 4-year-olds."

VERRY ELLEEGANT TO RUN ON QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS DAY

G1 Melbourne Cup heroine Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}) will run in the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. at Ascot on Oct. 15, trainer Francis-Henri Graffard revealed on Tuesday. She will be part of a two-pronged attack in that race for the trainer on QIPCO British Champions Day alongside G1 Prix Vermeille winner Sweet Lady (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). Unplaced in the G1 Prix Jean Romanet to start her European campaign, the 11-time Group 1 winner ran third in the G2 Prix Foy, and was most recently seventh in the G1 Prix Royallieu on Oct. 1.

Graffard said, "Verry Elleegant will come to Ascot for the QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares. She was very unlucky in the way the race was run at Longchamp, where there was no tempo and she was boxed in on the rail and pulled hard. She basically didn't have a race.

"It's hard to see such a fantastic mare beaten like that and it's upsetting too, but I felt that the race was over for her at the first bend when I saw where we were. Everything went against her and it's best forgotten, but she's come out of it well. She's happy and she tries, and hopefully things will go her way at QIPCO British Champions Day.

"Sweet Lady will also run and she's in top form. We decided to avoid Arc weekend and focus on the Fillies & Mares, as we did with Bateel."

Graffard also provided an update on The Revenant (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who won the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. in 2020, and is back for another crack. He was second in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein on Saturday.

Graffard said, "He's in top form and has come out of Saturday's race very well. He seems to be as enthusiastic as ever and he has always run well on Champions Day. The softer the ground the better for him."

The 156-strong Goffs UK October HIT & Yearling Sale catalogue is now online. A total of 65 yearlings and 92 horses-in-training will go through the ring at Doncaster from 10 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 19. Several smart past graduates include the G2 Coral Hurdle hero Buzz (Fr) (Motivator {GB}); the G3 Swinton H. Hurdle victor N'golo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), as well as the Grade 1 winner Silver Streak (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). There are a wide variety of trainers bringing drafts to the sale, including Charlie Hills, Charlie & Mark Johnston, David O'Meara, David Pipe, Ed Dunlop, John Hanlon, John Quinn, Jonjo O'Neill, Sir Michael Stoute, Richard Fahey, Richard Hannon, Roger Varian, Tom Ellis, and Warren Greatrex.

Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent said, "The Doncaster October Sale is a long-standing event on the Doncaster sale calendar and has shown its ability to produce headline horses through the deeds of graduates like Buzz and N'golo which have done very well for their new connections following their purchase at Doncaster.

"The sale is open to supplementary entries and with Irish pointing now underway as of last weekend, we will likely catalogue further horses in the build-up to the sale and these will be added online to the Goffs UK website as they are entered."

STOUTE AND MOORE COMBINE WITH JUST FINE TO GIVE THE KING HIS FIRST WINNER

Sir Michael Stoute trainee Just Fine (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}--Bint Almatar, by Kingmambo) registered a first win for His Majesty King Charles III when defeating eight rivals by 4 1/2 lengths, and more, in Tuesday's Kube Leicester's Premier Event Hire Venue H. at Leicester. The Godolphin-bred 4-year-old gelding, sent postward as the 10-3 second favourite for the 10-furlong contest, came from off the pace under Ryan Moore to lead approaching the final furlong and lengthened clear in the closing stages to defeat Sea The Casper (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in comfortable fashion. It was his third win in 14 starts for the Newmarket-based conditioner. VIDEO.

Stoute told PA Media, "A winner for the King! It is great to have done that for him--and he was very impressive."

The King's racing manager, John Warren, said, "I'm delighted that the King and Queen Consort have had their first winner and they'll be delighted.

"I'm also absolutely thrilled for Sir Michael Stoute, who was probably the longest standing trainer for Her Majesty, and for Ryan Moore, who has put in a big effort as well.

"And for all the team at Sandringham, who rear and go through all the effort to produce the horses all in good shape, so it's a big commitment on everyone's part to get a result."
