OBS OCTOBER SALE KICKS OFF TUESDAY

by Christie DeBernardis

The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's October Yearling Sale kicks off Tuesday with a selected yearlings session, which will be followed by an open yearlings session Wednesday.

Tuesday's session gets underway at noon with Hips 1-185 and is followed by the supplements, which are Hips 186-209. Wednesday's session begins at 10 a.m. with Hips 251-660 and followed by a section of supplements, which are Hips 661-684.

"We are certainly excited seeing what has transpired in the yearling market so far this year," said OBS's Tod Wojciechowski. "The graduates of this sale have been doing very well lately both at the racetrack and at the next level of the market."

During last year's selected yearlings portion, 104 head sold for $4,539,000 with an average of $43,644 and a median of $32,000. That session was topped by a $170,000 colt by Midnight Storm.

DAMS OF BREEDERS' CUP CONTENDERS AMONG FIRST FTKNOV SUPPLEMENTS

The dams of four Grade I winners, including a pair of 2-year-olds that will be among the favorites for the juvenile dirt races at the upcoming Breeders' Cup meeting at Keeneland, are among the initial supplemental entries to The November Sale to be held at Fasig-Tipton's Newtown Paddocks Sunday, Nov. 6.

Trophy Girl (Warrior's Reward) will be offered by Denali Stud as hip 302. The 9-year-old mare, selling in foal to dual Eclipse Award winner Essential Quality, is the dam of Blazing Sevens (Good Magic), third behind recent GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity S. hero Forte (Violence) in the GI Hopeful S. in September and most recently the impressive winner of the GI Champagne S. at Aqueduct to secure his spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 5.

Next into the ring will be hip 303, the Paramount Sales-consigned Special Treat (Candy Ride {Arg}). Descending from the Phipps female family of Grade I winners Imagining (Giant's Causeway), Rhythm (Mr. Prospector), Girolamo (A.P. Indy) and Super Saver (Maria's Mon), among others, the 10-year-old was recently represented by Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke), who earned a spot in the field for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies courtesy of her victory in the GI Frizette S. at the Big A. Special Treat is offered in foal to GI Met Mile winner Silver State (Hard Spun).

HISA VISITS MOUNTAINEER DURING CHRONIC VET SHORTAGE AT TRACK

by Dan Ross

A representative of the Horse Racing Integrity Act's (HISA) Racetrack Safety Team has been on the grounds at Mountaineer Park in West Virginia this past week--at a time when the track is experiencing an ongoing chronic shortage of attending, association and regulatory veterinarians, according to observers.

According to Jami Poole, president of the Mountaineer Horseman's Benevolent and Protective Association (MHBPA), there is often no veterinarian on the facility's grounds during training hours.

"I'm not pleased about the vet situation here in the morning time," said Poole, who estimated that training is conducted at Mountaineer for about 50% of the time without a veterinarian on the grounds to ensure that any potentially stricken horse is attended to immediately.

Poole declined to answer when asked if the veterinary shortage at Mountaineer has led to any instances of horses' welfare put in jeopardy.

One unnamed source, however--who asked to remain anonymous for fear of professional reprisal--said that the lack of a veterinarian on the grounds during training has led to one instance, which occurred about two months ago, of an injured horse remaining unattended for a prolonged period of time.

"The horse broke down at around 8:30 in the morning," said the source. The nearest veterinarian was around 30 minutes away, according to two other sources.

According to Lori Bohenko, the West Virginia Racing Commission's (WVRC) regulatory veterinarian at Mountaineer, there have been two fatalities during morning training at Mountaineer this year. The other, Bohenko said, was a sudden death for which she was present on the track.

The veterinary shortage during training, said Poole, has been ongoing since the start of the year. Curiously, neither the WVRC nor HISA requires a racing association like Mountaineer to maintain a veterinarian presence during training hours.

"Many tracks exceed the current HISA regulations to provide veterinary coverage whenever horses are on the racetrack, and HISA strongly encourages the few that do not provide this care to re-examine their practices and do everything possible to ensure veterinary care is available at all times," wrote HISA director of racetrack safety Ann McGovern in emailed answers to a series of questions.

McGovern added that the HISA Racetrack Safety representative who visited Mountaineer was working with track management "to provide support and help bring Mountaineer into compliance with HISA's Racetrack Safety standards."

A dearth of veterinarians at Mountaineer raises equine welfare concerns in other ways, according to those on the grounds.

Aside from no association veterinarians at Mountaineer, Poole said that there was only one full-time attending veterinarian for the entire backstretch--what sources estimate to be typically between 400 and 600 horses.

There should, said Poole, be at least two full-time attending veterinarians for the backstretch. "Good if we had four," he said, adding that a veterinarian from Texas has expressed interest in working at Mountaineer next year. "I hope she doesn't change her mind," he said.

Furthermore, the lone regulatory veterinarian who conducts pre-race examinations is sometimes late to the facility due to conflicting work commitments, Poole said. This has occasionally led to pre-race examinations being conducted in the paddock, immediately before a race, he said.

"It's happened probably three times," said Poole, adding that the sheer workload at Mountaineer was too large for just one regulatory veterinarian. "We couldn't do without her, so you've got to work around her schedule, too," said Poole, about Bohenko.

The WVRC's other regulatory veterinarian for Mountaineer, Jon Day, retired this past May.

Poole said that he has repeatedly alerted the WVRC, Mountaineer track management and HISA to the veterinary shortage at the track.

BREED THEM, RAISE THEM, RACE THEM. WE ALL WIN.
The WVRC executive director Joe Moore, did not dispute Poole's claims. "The Racing Commission is aware of the shortage of racetrack veterinarians, not only in WV, but across the country," wrote Moore, highlighting an industry-wide problem hitting smaller tracks like Turf Paradise especially hard.

When asked what steps the WVRC has taken to correct the veterinary shortage at Mountaineer, Moore wrote that the commission has increased the rate of pay for regulatory veterinarians in recent years.

However, when it comes to private attending veterinarians on the backside, they are there "at the request/contract of the Mountaineer Horsemen," wrote Moore.

When asked about the track's veterinary shortage, Jim Colvin, Mountaineer’s director of racing, wrote, "You will have to address the veterinarian questions to Joe Moore from the WV Racing Commission since Mountaineer has no vets that work for us or are employed by us."

Colvin failed to answer follow-up questions about whether Mountaineer has attempted to hire association veterinarians to assist the commission’s regulatory team and to cover holes during training. Colvin also failed to respond to questions about the recent visit by a HISA representative.

When asked the same question, Moore wrote that commission management was not involved with the HISA representative's visit to Mountaineer Park. "I'm certain he spoke with Racing Commission staff while onsite. However, I have no further details about said conversations."

HISA's McGovern left the door open to the new federal organization stepping in to fill the veterinary holes at Mountaineer.

"Should HISA determine that safety is compromised at a covered racetrack, HISA has the authority to place a vet at the racetrack, at the racetrack's expense," she wrote. "HISA has compensated Regulatory and Association veterinarians to enforce HISA regulations. Those expenses are billed back to the racetrack."

McGovern wrote that HISA "recognizes the national shortage of Equine veterinarians and has had internal discussions about programs to incentivize veterinary students to consider Equine medicine."

She added, however, "those plans are longer term and do not address the immediate needs."
Wicked Whisper (Liam’s Map–Zayanna, by Bernardini) made quite an impression in Saratoga during the summer of 2019 when she cruised to a 6 1/4-length juvenile maiden win and earned ‘TDN Rising Star’ status. That victory was just the beginning for the striking chestnut, who went on to become a Grade I winner at two and a graded winner at three. Now, she prepares to go through the ring at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale carrying her first foal by Curlin.

“Wicked Whisper has every ingredient to be a foundation mare for somebody,” said Conrad Bandoroff, whose Denali Stud will consign the 5-year-old. “There are no limits to what her offspring could achieve. She has so many traits that we feel not only American buyers, but also an international audience, will appreciate.”

A $500,000 yearling purchase for Alex and JoAnn Lieblong, Wicked Whisper was the priciest yearling to sell from the first crop of Liam’s Map. Bandoroff said her physical is just as stunning today.

“Wicked Whisper is drop dead gorgeous,” he said. “She’s big, she’s pretty and she has an unbelievable shoulder and a great hind leg. Alex buys tremendous physicals and this has been a special filly for them.”

The Steve Asmussen trainee followed her Rising Star-worthy debut with a win in the GI Frizette S., where she established control early and made easy work of the one-mile contest to win by almost three lengths over future MGSW Frank’s Rockette (Into Mischief).

“It was a commanding performance,” Bandoroff said. “I think that 2-year-old form and that level of precocity is rare and it’s a great quality when you’re looking at a broodmare prospect. So many good mares showed ability and precocity at two. She looked like a winner throughout that race and she carried that confidence into a lot of her races.”

Wicked Whisper continued to excel at three, taking the GIII Miss Preakness S. and running second in the GIII Charles Town Oaks.

Meanwhile her half-sister Point of Honor (Curlin) was building up her own resume, winning the 2019 GI Black-Eyed Susan S. at three and placing in a trio of Grade I starts in 2020.

Their dam Zayanna, a daughter of successful broodmare sire Bernardini, is a half-sister to three graded stakes winners. Zayanna has produced four stakes performers in total including Velvet Mood (Lonhro {Aus}), who was a stakes winner at two, sold for $1 million in 2020 and now has two foals on her own produce record.

Fasig-Tipton’s Boyd Browning said he believes Wicked Whisper’s young family has all the potential to become even more active.

“The depth of her pedigree is sensational,” Browning said. “She has some high-quality sisters that are producing and will be producing for many, many years. So you have this pedigree that is really strong and really deep, but it has the opportunity to explode and expand exponentially over the next decade as well.”

Bandoroff explained that after Wicked Whisper retired from racing last year, the Denali team put their heads together with the Lieblongs to decide on her first mating. It was an easy consensuses when they landed on Curlin. The mating replicates the cross that produced Wicked Whisper’s Curlin sister Point of Honor.

“We thought it was a perfect mating to get a Grade I-winning mare like Wicked Whisper started,” he said. “Curlin is having arguably his best year ever with the likes of Clairiere, Nest and Malathaat. The cross that we’ve replicated with Wicked Whisper and Curlin is a similar cross to GISW Clairiere (Curlin), who is out of the Bernardini mare Cavorting. Not only has this cross worked directly in the family with Point of Honor, but it’s a cross that has proven to be gold time and time again.”

Wicked Whisper will sells as Hip 253 at the Fasig-Tipton Night of the Stars Sale. Bandoroff said he expects the young mare to be popular as buyers are scouting out broodmare prospects.

“I think Wicked Whisper has a very wide and varying appeal,” he noted. “If you’re shopping for top-quality, high-end mares, she has to be on your list.”

“To me it’s the complete package,” added Browning. “She’s a young, Grade I winner in foal to the leading sire of Grade I stakes winners this year in Curlin, plus she’s a beautiful physical and has an unbelievable pedigree. I think she gives you the opportunity, based on her 2-year-old ability, to dream early. But also based on her pedigree and the way she is bred, she gives you the opportunity to dream big in terms of being able to compete successfully at Classic-type distances. She has all the attributes to be a game changer from a broodmare perspective.”

OWNER OF CHAMPIONS WILLIS HORTON DIES

Willis Horton, an owner and breeder in Thoroughbred racing for decades whose Willis Horton Racing campaigned champions Will Take Charge (Unbridled’s Song) and Take Charge Brandi (Giant’s Causeway), passed away Friday at the age of 82 after a bout with COVID-induced pneumonia. The news was first reported by Daily Racing Form.

Originally from Zach, Ark., Horton grew up on a farm and competed in rodeos. His wife of 64 years, Glenda, had a similar upbringing, and the two owned quarter horses before branching out into the world of Thoroughbreds. Horton’s home racing base was Oaklawn Park, and he maintained a cattle operation at his farm in Marshall, Ark.

“Oaklawn sends our condolences to the entire Horton family and the racing community,” Oaklawn Park said in a tweet. “Willis Horton will be greatly missed by everyone that knew him.”

Horton’s family founded D.R. Horton Homes in 1978, which grew to become America’s largest homebuilder with revenue over $27 billion. The company has more than 11,000 employees and is traded publicly on the New York Stock Exchange.

As an owner, Horton’s career reached new heights with D. Wayne Lukas trainee Will Take Charge, who won five graded stakes as a 3-year-old in 2013, including the Grade I Travers S. and GI Clark H., and was runner-up in that year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Classic en route to champion 3-year-old male honors at the Eclipse Awards. The chestnut, who Horton purchased for $425,000 as a Keeneland September yearling, currently stands at Three Chimneys Farm and was represented this past Friday at Keeneland by GII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. winner Manny Wah.

Soon after Will Take Charge’s breakout Travers score, Horton went to $435,000 to secure Take Charge Brandi at KEESEP. Named after Horton’s granddaughter, she scored in the 2014 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies and added a victory in the GI Starlet S., also under Lukas’s tutelage, to be named champion 2-year-old filly. In the fall of 2015, Horton sold the filly for a whopping $6 million at Keeneland November.

Horton also scored major victories in the 2007 GI Kentucky Oaks with Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid) and more recently in the 2019 GII Rebel S. with Long Range Toddy (Take Charge Indy) and this year’s GII Oaklawn H. with Last Samurai (Malibu Moon).

Horton is survived by his wife Glenda Holsted Horton; his son Kevin Horton and wife Laurie; his granddaughters, Tressa de Miranda and husband Ben, Brandi Horton and fiancé J Grant, and Courtney Matyja and husband Shay; his great grandchildren, Wyatt Dale, Emma Pearl, Noah Matyja and Chloey Matyja; his brother Leon Horton; and his sister-in-law Wilma Horton.
Visitation will be held Tuesday, Oct. 11 from 12-2 p.m. at the Roller-Coffman Chapel (923 US-65, Marshall, AR 72650). A funeral service will be held Tuesday at 3 p.m. at the same location.

HERB MOELIS OF DELAWARE’S CANDYLAND FARM DIES AT 91
by T.D. Thornton

Funeral services were held Sunday for Herb Moelis, who bred, raced and sold horses for parts of five decades at the CandyLand Farm he founded in Middletown, Delaware. He was 91 and had recently suffered a bout of pneumonia as a complication from a years-long battle against Parkinson’s disease.

Known for his passion for the sport, an even-keeled nature, and quiet, steadfast generosity, Moelis helped to create the Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA), which since 1990 has distributed over $26 million to over 200 approved organizations.

Mike Palmer, who over the course of 30 years worked his way up from farm worker to CandyLand’s general manager to being Moelis’s business partner in various bloodstock endeavors, confirmed the details of his Oct. 6 passing in a Monday phone interview, noting that Moelis died "extremely peacefully" at his home on the farm property.

"He was a friend and a mentor. I’d call him my 'employer,' but what I did for Mr. Moelis wasn't work," Palmer said. "It was what we both loved to do. In fact, he probably wouldn't want me to be calling him 'Mr. Moelis.' He always wanted me to call him Herb. He never thought he was better than anybody else. He was just a man's man. A true, true gentleman is what he was.

"He'd walk up to the barn with his dogs, a half mile every single day for 30 years, just to check in," Palmer said. "And he and I would chat. Mostly the horses, matings, work that needed to be done. But a lot of times, we would just talk about life, for hours at a time. He was one of those guys whose horse could win by 17 lengths or lose by 17 lengths and he would have the same emotion. He was just very low key, and nothing excited him."

Originally from New York, Herbert Irwin Moelis graduated from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in 1953, then earned a law degree and graduate degree in taxation from New York University Law School in 1956. According to his TCA biography, Moelis established a career as a certified public accountant and tax attorney for 30 years, retiring from practice and relocating to Delaware in 1986.

Fulfilling a longtime horse racing dream, Moelis and his wife, Ellen, began to breed Thoroughbreds from a broodmare band of about 20, racing some and selling others at auction. Cont. p12

HE’S A HERO...

Cazadero won the G3 Bashford Manor at two – and now adds the G2 Nearctic at four, running a triple digit Beyer. It’s the Breeders’ Cup next. Precocious, progressive: that’s what you get with Street Sense. Just imagine.
According to the TCA bio, in 1988 the Moelises claimed a 2-year-old filly named Redeemer for $20,000 because she was a descendant of the influential broodmare La Troienne. Redeemer injured herself in a paddock accident shortly thereafter and was retired, but she produced a foal by Houston who was the top-selling colt in the 1993 Saratoga sale. CandyLand was also a regular fixture atop the sales-topper lists at Timonium over the last several decades.

Racing under the name Candy Stable and in various partnerships, the Moelises campaigned such stakes winners as Cat Be Nimble, Surely Six, Shapely Scrapper, Dr. Unright, Time To Dream, Five Star Deputy and Scary Bob.

In addition to the TCA, Herb and Ellen established The Moelis Family Foundation, which is involved in granting funds to charities involved in medical research, animal welfare, and children’s causes.

“Herb Moelis was a visionary for sure,” said TCA President Mike McMahon. “Before the formation of TCA, there was not a broad discussion about the aftercare of racehorses. ‘Aftercare’ wasn’t even in our lexicon yet, but our founders knew they needed to help provide Thoroughbreds with an appropriate retirement from racing. Thirty-two years later the Herb’s vision for TCA has helped thousands of Thoroughbreds and the people who care for them.”

Palmer detailed to TDN how his relationship with Moelis grew into almost a "father and son" type of bond.

After Palmer had worked for Moelis for about 10 years, the CandyLand founder underscored to Palmer how important it was to him to have Palmer be with the horses on his 160-acre property on a 24/7 basis. To accomplish that, Moelis offered Palmer land on the farm to build a house for his family, with Moelis paying for the design and construction of the home.

"I mean, who does that, right?" Palmer said. "I had to pinch myself when he offered me that."

Later, Palmer would run his own Thoroughbred venture, DreamTime Stables, on that same land, always adding "at CandyLand" on his signage at sales out of respect for Moelis and the farm's good reputation.

"Sunday was hard," Palmer said of Moelis's services. "His death wasn’t a surprise, but I don’t know if I’ve come to terms with it. But I have come to terms with Herb not being tired anymore. He fought as long as he could, and I think he might have fought a little too hard in my personal opinion--but that’s just me knowing him."

Sale begins Monday, Nov. 7
IN ORDER OF PURSE:

PRACTICAL MOVE (c, 2, Practical Joke--Ack Naughty (MSP, $310,450), by Afleet Alex) , second, beaten six lengths by now two-time G1S Gave Rock (Arrogate) in his 6 1/2-furlong debut at Del Mar Aug. 13, was third behind National Treasure (Quality Road), runner-up in Saturday’s GI American Pharoah S., over that same track and trip Sept. 3. Sent off at 3-1 on the stretch out, the bay colt was off a half-step slowly and was caught some five wide into the first turn before rushing forward while racing keenly down the backstretch. He raced just to the outside of 3-5 favorite Fort Bragg (Tapit) who was always within striking distance. Practical Move shadowed the move of the favorite, who grabbed the lead at the top of the lane, but drifted out and forced Practical Move to check. Practical Move moved inside of the favorite, but Fort Bragg followed him and bumped him soundly inside the final furlong. Practical Move was undaunted and drove to the lead, but Fort Bragg produced a furious late rally and charged under the wire 1 1/4 lengths clear. The stewards disqualified the favorite for the two infractions and placed him second, promoting Practical Move to the win. After RNA’ing for $90,000 as a KEESEP yearling, Practical Move sold for $230,000 at this year’s OBS April sale. The multiple stakes-placed Ack Naughty, who was trained by Practical Move’s co-bred Chad Brown, produced a colt by Complexity this year and was bred back to Upstart. The winner’s third dam, Hot Lear (Lear Fan), produced Flaming Heart (Touch Gold), dam of MGSW Commissioner and GISP Laugh Track, as well as the dam of champion Vino Rosso. FUN MONEY (f, 2, Mrazek--Saudi Chroma, by Lucky Pulpit) was third while debutting for trainer Rusty Arnold in her breeders’ silks at Churchill Downs in May before heading west to the Doug O’Neill barn. She got off to an inauspicious start in California, stumbling at the break and losing her rider in a June 4 state-bred special weight over the main track, but hit the board in her next four starts, most recently finishing third behind multiple stakes winner Chismosa (Clubhouse Ride) while facing Cal-bred stakes foes in the Sept. 5 Generous Portion S. at Del Mar. Trying the turf for the first time here, she battled with Cocktail Princess (Stay Thirsty) all the way around and dug in late to conquer her sparring mate by a half-length as the 9-5 favorite. Her dam’s flag bearer to the races, Fun Money has a 2022 half-sister by Curlin’s Honor. The mare went to Leinster for 2023. Lifetime Record: SP, 6-1-2-2, $90,450. MAEVE OF CONNAUGHT (IRE) (f, 3, Tamayuz (GB)–Lolwah (GB), by Pivotal (GB)) was a private purchase for the partnership of Eclipse Thoroughbreds and Michael House after finishing third in her July 22 debut over the turf at Leopardstown and second over the synthetic at Dundalk Nov. 19 for trainer John Murtagh. She came home seventh after hopping at the start of her stateside debut going 1 1/16 miles at Del Mar Aug. 20. Brought back to a mile last time out, she broke slowly to track from 11th, but flew home late to grab second after being steadied into the second turn. No such problems found her here as she settled in sixth early, rallied four wide nearing the sixteenth pole and overtook her competition to kick on by 1 1/4 lengths as the 8-5 favorite. The $625,000 FTKSEL grad Ruthless But Kind (War Front) followed her in for minor awards. A half to Irish stakes runner Shahaada (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}), the winner has a unplaced 2-year-old half-sister Seraphia (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) as well as a pair of half-brothers; a yearling by Awtaad (Ire) and a 2022 weanling by Lope de Vega (Ire). MISSIMPAZIBLEEVAN (f, 3, Mission Impazible--Sassy Salsa, by Henny Hughes), dismissed at 19-1, broke a half step slowly, but recovered quickly to rush up to take the early lead and stubbornly maintained a one-length advantage to the wire. TROJAN TALE (c, 2, Outwork--Kewt Tale, by Tale of the Cat), sent off at 2-1, attended the pace through an opening quarter in :22.54, took charge after a half in :46.86 and sailed home a dominant 15-length winner. Kewt Tale produced a colt by Coal Front this year and was bred back to Union Jackson. Click for the Equibase.com chart. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $14,520. O/B-William Butler (OH); T-Michael J. DENIABLE (f, 2, Fed Biz--Devilish Dispute, by Diabolical), the 8-5 favorite, battled on the front end down the backstretch, but settled just of the pace in third approaching the far turn. She inhaled the pacesetter midway on the turn and bound clear before reporting home an easy 6 3/4-length winner. Here Comes Dolly (Honor Code) was second. ECORO ARES (c, 2, Unified--Red Hot Tweet, by Heatseeker {Ire}) left no doubt as to who was best in becoming his young sire (by Candy Ride {Arg})’s first Japanese starter and winner Sunday at Hanshin. Drawn the fence for this first go and supported as the 13-5 favorite, the dark bay was off to an alert beginning and was ridden along a bit by Yutaka Take to head them off soon after the break. Always going nicely in hand, he opened up when asked entering the stretch and skipped clear to graduate by five lengths. Produced by a half-sister to SP Twitter Pie (Harlan’s Holiday), Ecoro Ares was purchased for $72,000 out of last year’s Keeneland September sale, but improved into a $210,000 OBS March juvenile after breezing a furlong in a slick :9 4/5. STARS ALIGN AS WINDMILL FARM PROVIDES A ONE-HORSE WONDER

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK--Dubawi (Ire) and Frankel (GB) may occupy the top two spots in the sires' table, but not far behind them, and with Baaeed (GB) still to be unleashed on Champions Day, is Sea The Stars (Ire), who had his own moment in the spotlight at Tattersalls as the sire of the 800,000gns top lot.

A Book 2 record was set in 2019 when the million-guinea barrier was breached for the first time, but Monday's leading light, who was sold less than an hour after the start of trade, was still a long way in excess of last year's top price of 525,000gns.

The only horse in the sale to be offered by Fiona Marner of Windmill Farm, the colt (lot 570) was bred under a foal-share agreement by the Kitcarina Partnership and Sunderland Holdings. The partnership takes its name from the 7-year-old mare Kitcarina (Fr) (Shamardal), a winner at Kempton for Windmill Racing on her first start after she was bought as a 3-year-old from Haras de Saint Pair. The mare’s full-sister Kitcara has already produced the treble Group 3 winner Al Aasy (Ire) and the listed-placed Sea Karats (Ire) from matings with Sea The Stars, and further encouragement can be drawn from a pedigree laced with plenty of German black type and containing the stallions Konigstiger (Ger) and Pentire (GB). HALF-SISTER TO CHALDEAN ANCHORS
TATTERSALLS DECEMBER FOAL CATALOGUE

A Kingman (GB) half-sister to G1 Dewhurst S. hero Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}) (lot 1025) is one of the highlights of the 1172-strong catalogue for the Tattersalls December Foal Sale which is now online. The sale will be held from Nov. 23-26 and will begin at 10 a.m. each day.

There are a total of 161 full- or half-siblings to group and listed winners, among them 11 Group 1 winners. Besides the Kingman filly offered by Whitsbury Manor Stud, half-brothers to G1 1000 Guineas heroine Cachet (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}) (lot 1033) and G1 St Leger hero Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) (lot 1027), by Mehmans (Ire) and Lope De Vega (Ire), respectively, will also go through the ring for Hyde Park Stud and St Simon Stud. G1 Commonwealth Cup winner Golden Horde (Ire) (Lethal Force {Ire})’s half-brother by Wootton Bassett (GB) (lot 982) hails from the Clara Stud draft, while G1 Nassau S. heroine Lady Bowthorpe (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire})’s Kingman half-brother (lot 1011) will be consigned by Fittocks Stud. TAKEAWAYS

Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2 Day 1

- Although fewer horses sold for 200,000gns or up (13) this year compared to 2021’s 20 at that level, three of Monday’s yearlings topped last year’s opening session’s top lot price of 375,000gns—the 800,000gns Sea The Stars (Ire) topper, a 700,000gns son of Frankel (GB), and a colt by Sea The Moon (Ger) at 410,000gns.

- Of those consignors with more than one yearling sold on Monday, Hillwood Stud led by average price with four sold at an average of 211,250gns. However, Hillwood’s Charlie Vigors was outdone by his mother Fiona Marner, who brought one yearling to Book 2 and topped the first day at 800,000gns.

- The Gillon Bloodstock draft was also a one-horse wonder, selling its lone book 2 offering, a New Bay colt for Scottish breeders Joanna and Malcolm Imray, for 325,000gns to Saeed Suhail.

- The popularity of Night Of Thunder (Ire) shows no signs of abating, with another 11 of his yearlings sold on the first day of Book 2 for an average of 155,273gns.

- Peter Brant was represented by two Grade I winners in North America over the weekend and, after being active with the Coolmore team during Book 1, his White Birch Farm was listed as the buyer of three yearlings for 585,000gns at Book 2 through Michel Zerolo's Oceanic Bloodstock.

Garnering overall turnover of 18,618,000gns from the sale of 209 yearlings (86%), the average of 89,081gns was marginally down from 89,318gns, while the median dropped slightly to 65,000gns (-7%).

Hot Cross for Classic Dream

The cross that has already produced the Classic winners Adayar (Ire) and Homeless Songs (Ire), and which contains the magic names of Frankel and Dubawi, as seen in effect with the day's second-top lot (lot 787) sold by Genesis Green Stud on behalf of Rabbah Bloodstock. Will Douglass made an attempt from the back stairs, but he had to settle for the role of underbidder as the son of Frankel was knocked down at 700,000gns to an online buyer which later transpired to be Michael Donohoe of BBA Ireland. Cont. p4

Anthony Stroud, in action for other clients along with Godolphin on Monday, confirmed that the colt will enter training with John and Thady Gosden.

"Since her purchase the pedigree has just really developed," said Fiona Marner, who also divulged that Kitcarina is back in foal to Sea The Stars. "This colt has been so special all along, though I’m not sure we realised he was that nice.

"It is such a team effort, we are just a tiny farm, we only have five young mares. This mare is owned with two very longstanding and loyal partners, Derek James, who is in America—I will call him now and wake him up—and Peter Wollaston."

As the buyers' bench broadened to include plenty of people who tried and came up short for yearlings from last week's bumper Book 1, the figures recorded during the first of three Book 2 sessions were almost identical to those set last year.

I’m a big fan of sons of Galileo. There’s this myth that Galileo is not a sire of sires. Did they not say the same thing about Sadler’s Wells for years and years? Then what happened? He was succeeded by his own son. It has already happened with Galileo, in that Frankel is his son, and I’m always looking at sons of Galileo… They are very cheap for what they are.” — Mark Johnston, TDN, 20/7/22

Blue Rose Cen (CHURCHILL), winner of the Prix Marcel Boussac-Gr.1 by 5 lengths on Oct 2nd.

Course record-breaking Richmond Stakes-Gr.2 winner Royal Scotsman (GLENEAGLES) was runner-up (beaten just a head) to Chaldean (FRANKEL) in the Dewhurst Stakes-Gr.1 on Saturday.

Comanche Country (HIGHLAND REEL) won the Surfer Girl Stakes-Gr.3 at Santa Anita on Sunday.

The chestnut, out of the Dubawi half-sister to listed winner Hadaatha (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)), was originally intended for Book 1 until the decision was taken to delay his sales appearance.

"He was a big horse, and he was always a tall and narrow horse, but with prep he hasn't grown at all but he's [filled out]. He's turned into a Dubawi basically, with a Frankel walk," said Genesis Green's Michael Swinburn. "And obviously it's a cross that has done so well with a number of Group 1 winners."

Another Saint Pair Family to the Fore

A colt by Sea The Moon (Ger) out of Pearly Spirit (Fr) had been a bold pinhook at 110,000gns last year but, as the auctioneers like to say, he "walked into money" as he prowled around the ring at Tattersalls, attracting bids from Anthony Stroud, Joseph O'Brien, Karl Burke and, finally at 410,000gns, from Michel Zerolo.

Sitting in the seats with Jean-Claude Rouget, who will train the colt, Zerolo confirmed that he will race in the colours of Peter Brant's White Birch Farm, which were seen in Grade I-winning action over the weekend aboard Tattersalls graduate In Italian (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) and Rougir (Fr) (Territories (Ire)). They were of course also carried by the Rouget-trained Prix du Jockey Club and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Sottsass (Fr).

"He's got a fine page and it's a pedigree we know well in France," said Zerolo of the colt whose unraced dam is a full-sister to recent G1 Matron S. winner Pearls Galore (Fr) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)). "He comes from a very good family developed by Mr. Putsch, and Sea The Moon is most definitely a serious stallion."

The shrewd team at Yeomanstown Stud was behind the profitable pinhook for the colt described by the farm's David O'Callaghan as "exceptional". Cont. p5

He said, “He was a Book 1 horse in Book 2, but that was part of the plan. We always like to put a horse like him into Book 2. He was exceptional: a beautifully balanced horse, bay with black points, a beautiful mover and very correct. I don’t think there was a man or woman on the sale ground who did not admire him.”

The Son Also Rises

Charlie Vigors may have had to give best to his mother Fiona Marner’s top lot, but his Hillwood Stud also featured among the leading lots of the day on two occasions.

Hillwood sold lot 669, a Lope De Vega (Ire) sister to G3 Solario S. runner-up King Vega (GB) for 375,000gns to Paddy Twomey, and lot 644, a colt by Showcasing (GB) out of Megan Lily (Ire) (Dragon Pulse {Ire}), to Anthony Stroud, for 260,000gns.

“We knew they were two nice horses coming here and they vetted out clean and well. Thankfully the market agreed with us,” Vigors said.

The Lope De Vega filly was bred by Fortescue Bloodstock from the Teofilo (Ire) mare Moi Meme (GB), who up until this season has been mated exclusively with the Ballylinch Stud resident, producing some notable results in the process. A listed winner herself and a daughter of the dual Group 3 winner Di Moi Oui (GB) (Warning {GB}), the 10-year-old was bought for €440,000 and her four previous yearlings have all commanded six-figures sums in the sale ring, including the maiden winner King Of Conquest (GB), who was bought by Godolphin for 900,000gns.

Having started life with Andrew Balding, the Group 3-placed King Vega is now at Graham Motion’s stable in the US, which is also the country where another of the mare’s offspring, Capital Structure (GB), ended up after being bought by Mike Ryan for Klaravich Stables. Cont. p6

He recently finished runner-up in the GIII Waya S. at Aqueduct. Vigors explained, "Fortescue Bloodstock is one of our breeding syndicates that breeds on a commercial basis. The mare has been fantastic for us on the commercial front and has gone on and is delivering on the track. That's a cross that has been working well and she is actually in foal to Night Of Thunder now. It's an exciting family."

New Bay Colt for Derby-Winning Owner

In his days working for the late Duke of Roxburghe, Chris Gillon was no stranger to consigning expensive yearlings at Tattersalls, and now under his own Gillon Bloodstock banner and still operating from Floors Castle, the consignor featured on the top 10 list.

The New Bay colt he prepared on behalf of breeders Joanna and Malcolm Imray was Gillon Bloodstock’s sole offering for Book 2, and he will eventually race in some famous silks, having been bought by agent Richard Brown for 325,000gns on behalf of dual Derby-winning owner Saeed Suhail. His most recent victory in the Epsom Classic came just this year with Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), who was also bought by Brown from Book 2 two years ago.

"It's fantastic to do that in only our second year and our first time at Book 2," said Gillon.

"Joanna and Malcolm Imray are just 10 miles from Floors and sent him to us in February. He has exceeded expectations and has been very popular here. He sold himself--he showed himself off and looked a million dollars. When you look at his page, he has a strong page as well." Cont. p7

That page for lot 723 includes his Group 3-winning half-brother Psychedelic Funk (GB) (Choisir {Aus}) and the 13-time winner Gale Force Maya (GB), his half-sister by Gale Force Ten (GB), who has won two listed sprints in September since the catalogue was published. Their dam, Parabola (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) was picked up by the Imrays at the July Sale of 2010 for just 4,000gns but died last year, making her New Bay colt her final offspring.

Brown added, "I'm a big fan of the stallion. I think he is going places--any son of Dubawi you have to take very seriously and he is doing it. He is for Saeed Suhail, who is here and will be here all week."

"We will work out training plans once the week is over. Saeed makes all the decisions with racing manager Bruce Raymond. I am sure any trainer would be delighted to have this horse."

Brown also issued an update on Desert Crown. He said, "Desert Crown is absolutely fine. He had a bit of hiccup, but he is now out in the paddock and will go back into training in the next couple of weeks. We're all really excited about next year for him."

Grande Result For Whatton Manor

Fresh from selling a 1.5 million gns Dubawi colt to Godolphin during Book 1 on behalf of breeder Andrew Stone, Whatton Manor Stud was back in the limelight on Monday and this time with a homebred. Lot 659, a filly from the first crop of Too Darn Hot (GB), is out of the Oasis Dream (GB) mare Minwah (Ire), who was unraced herself but has already produced a black-type winner in her current 3-year-old, Grande Dame (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). After watching the filly sell for 230,000gns to Anthony Stroud, Whatton Manor’s Ed Player said, "When Grande Dame started doing what she did this year, winning her listed race, we knew we had a good chance, and then when she was third in the Sun Chariot that was a lovely update to come into the sale with."

He added of Minwah, whose colt by Roaring Lion died as a yearling, but who is now in foal to Ardad (Ire), "The mare has been a little unlucky, but the two who have made the racecourse have been very talented. She is a lovely mare, we bought her here with Larry Stratton for 46,000gns. She's beautiful and luckily she breeds good-looking horses, too."

Dreaming of Manderley, Again

Jonathan Portman makes something of a habit of winning the G3 Cornwallis S. and, having claimed the race for the third time on Friday with Rumstar (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}), he was at Tattersalls on Monday to buy a yearling colt out of one of his previous Cornwallis winners, Mrs Danvers (GB) (Hellvelyn {GB}).

He’s a colt by no ordinary sire, either, as Mrs Danvers visited Galileo for each of her first three coverings. Two colts by the late champion sire featured in Monday’s session and, mystifyingly, neither reached six-figure prices. They were both bought by shrewd trainers, however, with Mark Johnston going to 57,000gns for the colt out of Just Pretending (lot 556), while Portman is going home with the colt he came to see "for old times' sake", having bought him from the Manister House Stud draft at 65,000gns.

"I don't like to be seen as being optimistic because then one looks silly when it all goes wrong," Portman once told TDN on a bleak January day at his Lambourn yard. Nevertheless, Rob Hornby, who partnered Rumstar to victory at Newmarket, let on that the trainer had told him months ago that the colt would win the Cornwallis.

Portman confessed at Tattersalls on Monday, "I did say that, and I also said it about Mrs Danvers when someone tried to buy her after she'd won her maiden at Lingfield. They said, 'I know you've bought her for the Super Sprint but if that goes wrong could you bear us in mind?' And I said 'No, because she's a Cornwallis filly.' Of course we can all look clever when it happens, but it is nice to have a plan, and the pleasure is in the planning."

Things went rather swimmingly for Mrs Danvers, who was famously a vendor buy-back at £1,000 when offered in the February of her 2-year-old season. She won on debut four months later and then just kept winning, including the Weatherbys Super Sprint, Listed St Hugh’s Fillies’ S. and the Cornwallis.

Asked about the plans for her son, Portman said, "Cotton wool, I should think. We don’t buy expensive horses and I only came up to have a look at him for old times' sake. But he was stuck on 50 grand and I didn’t want to see someone buy him for 52 that wasn’t me, and then he took off a bit."

He added, "With that pedigree I’d obviously have preferred him to be a filly, and I do love training fillies. I kept closely in touch with Jessica Harrington who bought his full-sister [Danvers Gold] last year. She was third at the Curragh and she is going to run her again soon, and she really likes her. So that gave me a bit of confidence that it wasn't just a flash in the pan."

"I like going back to families that have looked after me, and if they've been sound and had a good temperament, those are two very key things. I didn't come here expecting to go home with him. I was intending to be a spectator." Cont. p9

It would seem, however, that the planning has already begun, though this time Portman is eyeing a bigger target than the Cornwallis.

He said, "He's not small but he looks ready to run now—I would like him to be ready to run on May 4, 2024. I want to win the Guineas with him. I'd happily give up the Super Sprint if he could win the Guineas."

The trainer celebrated his surprise purchase over tea and cakes with Connie and Mark Burton, the breeders of Mrs Danvers, who leased her to the Turf Club for her racing career before selling her privately as a broodmare prospect.

"We're over the moon, we'll be even more frequent visitors to the yard," said Connie Burton, who still owns Mrs Danvers's dam Rebecca De Winter (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) as well as a half-sister. "They made us feel so included in all of Mrs Danvers's races and we celebrated alongside them all."

Consigned by Bellewstown Farm Stud
Purchased by Stroud Coleman Bloodstock

Bred by D. J. Weston, this colt went for 55,000gns to Stock Vale Bloodstock during last year’s Tattersalls December Foal Sale. A half-brother to stakes winner Connect (GB) (Roderic O’Connor {Ire}) and the stakes placed Atlantic Sun (GB) (Roderic O’Connor {Ire}), the March foal went back through the ring under Michael McGill’s Bellewstown Farm Stud banner on Monday and caught the eye of Anthony Stroud for almost four times his foal price. His sire is enjoying one of the best years ever with his progeny, which include the 2022 G1 Cazoo Derby winner Desert Crown (GB). Second dam Germane (GB) (Distance Relative {Distant Relative (GB)}) won the G3 Rockfel S., and also threw the Italian stakes winner Lucky Chappy (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), who would go on to place in three graded stakes in America, including the GI Hollywood Derby.

Acorn Stud will send an Invincible Army (Ire) half-brother to G1 Cheveley Park S. victress Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) (lot 1013) to the sale.

The sale has catalogued 92 foals out of group and listed-winning mares, among them Too Darn Hot (GB) colts out of G1 Oaks winner Talent (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) (lot 1030) from Ashbrittle Stud and G1 Irish St Leger heroine Voleuse De Coeurs (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) (lot 1032) from Hazelwood Bloodstock. The late Kitten’s Joy is represented by a Tweenhills Farm & Stud-consigned colt out of St Leger winner Simple Verse (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}) (lot 1078); and there is also a Saxon Warrior (Jpn) filly (lot 777) out of Group 1 winner Sultanina (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) from Newsells Park Stud. Another lot of note is a Sea The Moon (Ger) colt, consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment, out of French Classic heroine Flotilla (Fr) (Mizzen Mast) (lot 1034). Highlighting the nine foals catalogued by leading sire Frankel is Trinity Park Stud’s half-sister to Group 1 winner Accidental Agent (GB) (Delagator {GB}) (lot 1051); and another filly (lot 1041) out of GI Beverley D. S. runner-up Awesometank (GB) (Intense Focus) from Heatherwold Stud.

CECIL, CARSON TO BE INDUCTED INTO QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS SERIES HOF

QIPCO British Champions Series announced the late Sir Henry Cecil and William ‘Willie’ Carson will be formally inducted into the QIPCO British Champions Series Hall of Fame, the official Hall of Fame for British Flat racing, with a special induction ceremony due to take place on QIPCO British Champions Day at Ascot Saturday, Oct. 15.

Carson, who turns 80 next month, becomes the fourth jockey to be inducted into the Hall of Fame, after Lester Piggott, Pat Eddery and Frankie Dettori.

Willie Carson was crowned Champion Jockey in Britain five times and his 3,828 winners in the UK included 17 Classic triumphs, four of them in the Derby. Only three other greats have bettered his overall tally: Sir Gordon Richards (4,870), Pat Eddery (4,633) and Lester Piggott (4,493).

He was associated with a bevvy of champions, including Troy, Nashwan and Dayjur. He has enjoyed notable success as a breeder, and had the distinction of guiding Minster Son, who he himself bred, to victory in the 1988 St. Leger, making him the first jockey to breed and ride a Classic winner. He served as a broadcaster career following his retirement from the saddle, hosting the BBC’s racing coverage following a stint as a captain on Question of Sport.

“It’s very humbling because of where I’ve come from, but here I am, an ex-Champion Jockey, having ridden British Classic winners for Her Majesty the Queen and with four Derby winners,” said Carson. “I have done a few things in my life, but being awarded into the Hall of Fame is one of the biggest. It is a big deal to be invited.”

“I am getting old but I am still enjoying life. I’ve got the horses to keep me amused, I have the stud (Minster House); it keeps me amused, busy and working. I am still enjoying life because of the horse--the horse keeps me going.”

Also joining a very exclusive club, Cecil becomes just the second trainer to be inducted following Vincent O’Brien.

It was 10 years ago to the week that Cecil’s most illustrious pupil—Frankel—concluded his undefeated 14-race career with victory in the QIPCO Champion S. on QIPCO British Champions Day at Ascot. “He’s the best I’ve ever had, the best I’ve ever seen,” he said. “I’d be very surprised if there’s ever been anything better.”

Eight months after Frankel’s career finale, Cecil died at the age of 70.

“He was modest and he would have been surprised to be inducted into the Hall of Fame, but he would also have felt very honoured,” said Lady Jane Cecil, Sir Henry’s widow, who played a key role in the latter part of Sir Henry’s career. “I’m delighted as I think he’s a very worthy inductee. I hope he will prove to be a popular choice.”

“Henry never understood why or how he was popular. When he had a runner at Newmarket, the reception he got was always amazing. I remember after he died, I was lucky enough to have a winner at Newmarket. The crowd used to come and cheer, and I knew it was for Henry. He was so popular—when I do the Discover Newmarket tours to raise money for the East Anglian Children’s Hospice, they come to see Frankel but invariably they talk about Henry. They have so many stories about how Henry chatted to them, the kindness he showed. He was very special.”

Lady Cecil and Willie Carson, who will both attend QIPCO British Champions Day at Ascot this weekend, will be presented with a prestigious medal in recognition of the inductions into the Hall of Fame. Unique to British racing the medals, which were hand-crafted by Asprey, can also be viewed during the day as part of a special Hall of Fame display which will be held within the Grandstand at Ascot. JADOOMI SUPPLEMENTED TO QEII

Jadoomi (Fr) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) has been supplemented for £70,000 to Saturday’s G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. on QIPCO Champions Day at Ascot. The gelding is undefeated in three starts this season, including the G2 Boomerang S. at Leopardstown on Sept. 10.

Likely favorite for the £1.1-million test is MG1SW Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}), victorious most recently in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville in August. Also among possible runners for this weekend’s feature are: French Classic winner Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), The Revenant (GB) (Dubawi {Ire})—victorious in the 2020 renewal of the QEII—and El Drama (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), Bayside Boy (Ire) (New Bay {GB}), Raadobarg (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}), Tempus (GB) (Kingman {GB}), Checkandchallenge (GB) (Fast Company {Ire}) and Tenebrism (Caravaggio).

DESERT CROWN TO REMAIN IN TRAINING

Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), sidelined since winning the G1 Cazoo Derby in June, will be kept in training next season as he continues to recover from an ankle injury.

“I took the owner to see him last week,” said Bruce Raymond, Saeed Suhail’s racing manager. “He is turned out daily at Darley [Stud in Newmarket]—I live just across the road.

“He goes out for maybe three hours a day and [trainer Sir] Michael [Stoute] came to see him. He said that while the weather is good, let him eat grass. ‘I’m not going to do anything with him, just let him eat grass’ he said.”

In regard to the long layoff, Raymond explained, “[The injury] was very minor and a lesser trainer would have run him [back this season]. It’s not the way Michael does things. He doesn’t want to rush him back.”
RACETECH’S BRIAN PAUL RECOGNIZED AT YORK

RaceTech's Brian Paul celebrated a career spanning almost 50 years as he was awarded Racing Welfare’s Northern Lifetime in Racing Award at York Oct. 7.

The Lifetime in Racing Awards identify those individuals that have made an outstanding contribution to the racing industry throughout their careers.

“I had a great day at York celebrating my 50 years at RaceTech—it just doesn’t seem like any time has passed! I’d like to thank British racing, York racecourse and RaceTech for giving me a lovely day, I’m very pleased, happy and chuffed.”

According to Kate Hills, who nominated Paul, “Brian is a highly respected leader and true team player. Always behind the scenes, Brian is one of the unsung heroes who always goes the extra mile in order to deliver at the highest level.”

Also recognised for her contribution to the sport was York Racecourse’s Karen Dunbar, who joined the racecourse over 40 years ago.

“Karen is an amazing part of the team, a great ambassador,” said Dunbar’s nominator, York racecourse’s chief executive and clerk of the course William Derby. “She’s got an amazing touch with customers. No problem is too small or too big to be dealt with.”

Dunbar will be celebrated at a later date, and also receive her award.

HIGHBANK ON SHOW AT LEICESTER
2.30 Leicester, Novice, £9,000, 2yo, 7fT
Highbank (IRE) (Kingman {GB}) may have blotted his copybook in Newbury’s Haynes, Hanson & Clark Conditions S. last month, but Godolphin’s TDN Rising Star is back to show that his impressive Newmarket debut success in July was no one-off.
Charlie Appleby opts for a confidence boost for the 750,000gns
Book 1 purchase from the family of the German stars Boreal (Ger) (Java Gold) and Borgia (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), who if his debut performance is a guide will be heading for big targets next term.

Water Nymph (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), the half-sister to the Fancy Blue (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), was rushed up early into a prominent position after a tardy break but faded out of contention in the straight to be sixth.

1.55 Yarmouth, Novice, £9,950, 2yo, 7f 3yT
Pherenikos (Ire) (Shamardal), the half-brother to Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)), showed up well for a long way but paid for his early keenness late to be touched off for what would have been a deserved second placing.

Providing The King with his first black-type winner, Perfect Alibi was building on the promise of her Newbury handicap win July 15 and second to Hoo Ya Mal (GB) (Territories (Ire)) in the G3 March S. over this trip at Goodwood Aug. 27. Always comfortable near the front end, the homebred loomed large passing three out and stayed on strongly to stamp her authority on this competitive affair.

“She’s really proving herself now and that was a very good performance,” rider Tom Marquand said. “She just struggled for a bit of toe coming into that top bend to hold her pitch, but she travelled really sweet down the back and to be honest, from the bottom of the straight it was always pretty evident she was going to be dominant as long as she had a bit of space to get rolling. She’s a darling of a filly and is really coming to the fore now. That last furlong was the strongest I’ve felt from her, so hopefully that’s a sign that things are still to come from her and she can keep improving physically.”

The winner is the first foal out of the Listed River Eden S.-winning dam, who is kin to the listed-placed Bold Sniper (GB) (New Approach (Ire)) and to the dam of Award Scheme (GB) (Siyouni (Fr)) who was twice in the frame at this level. This is The Queen’s esteemed family of the G2 Ribblesdale S. and G2 Geoffrey Freer S. scorer Phantom Gold (GB) (Machiavellian), the Oaks runner-up Flight Of Fancy (GB) (Sadler’s Wells) and last year’s G3 Solario S. winner Reach For The Moon (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)). Daphne’s yearling colt is by Dubawi (Ire), while she also has a 2022 filly by Night Of Thunder (Ire).

The winner, who is the eighth for her first season sire (by Society Rock [IRE]), is out of an unraced daughter of Danidh Dubai (IRE) (Noverre) who was third in the G3 Albany S. before producing a trio of black-type performers headed by the Listed Premio Cancelli scorer Gamgoom (GB) (Exceed And Excel [AUS]). Several nations are represented with entries: Britain (16), Ireland (6), France (5), UAE (7), Bahrain (3), Germany (3), Norway (1), Turkey (1), and Sweden (1). The race allows a maximum of 14 entries.

Shadwell’s G3 Strensall S. hero Alfaiia (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) has earned an automatic berth in the race for trainer Owen Burrows, and he returned to take Saturday’s G3 Darley S. at Newmarket. Other entries of note include the Group 1 winners Sisfahan (Fr) (Isfahan {Ger}), who won the German Derby for Henk Grewe and Gl Belmont Derby hero Bolshoi Ballet (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is one of three for the Aidan O’Brien/Coolmore partners axis. William Haggas has a pair set to start, including G2 Prix Eugene Adam victor My Prospero (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}).

Shaikh Salman bin Rashed al Khalifa, Executive Director of the Bahrain Turf Club, said, “We are very happy with the quality of horses entered for this year’s renewal of the G3 Bahrain International Trophy. Some of the best trainers from around the world have once again supported the race.

“Last year was the first time the race was run with Group 3 status, and it saw three high-class horses fight out the finish. With the race now a key date in the international racing calendar, we firmly believe that the race will continue to progress through the grades with our ultimate goal to have Bahrain host its first international Group 1 race.”
