NO MISTAKING THIS MAN'S 'FORTE'

by Chris McGrath

Two Grade I winners inside an hour last Saturday: both sold as November weanlings at Keeneland, both through the same consignment. But while their shared provenance at least guarantees that you'll want to drop by the Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services draft this time round, as well, it is not as though Forte (Violence) and War Like Goddess (English Channel) can otherwise elucidate the vagaries of our business.

Because while one made respectable money, the other was more or less given away. War Like Goddess, swept up in the kind of cull essential to a program on the scale of Calumet, mustered a solitary bid beyond her reserve and was lost for $1,200.

"But the guy I sold her to, he couldn't get the grand with Taylor Made next fall!" notes John Stuart. "Which means I'm a better salesman than all those guys!"

His chuckle makes plain the levity of this claim. But there is a more serious point, which he can expand by recalling another filly sold for the same client. In 2013, Stuart topped the Saratoga sale for Brad Kelley with a daughter of Dynaformer at $1,225,000--and, to be fair, she did actually go on to make the podium in a couple of graded stakes for Three Chimneys. In the adjacent stall, however, a Virginia-bred Curlin filly had been almost entirely ignored while her neighbor was shown and vetted.

FOAL CROP DIPS AGAIN IN 2022, BY 2.2%

by Bill Finley

The Jockey Club (TJC) announced Wednesday that breedings in 2021 have resulted in 18,609 live foals of 2022. At this same time last year, The Jockey Club reported that the breedings had resulted in 19,021 live foals, which marks a year-over-year decline of 2.2%. The foal crop has declined every year since 2015 and was at 35,274 as recently as 2008.

The Jockey Club estimated that the number of live foals reported so far is 85-90% complete.

In total, 1,303 stallions covered 29,065 mares, according to statistics compiled through Oct. 6. The number of stallions declined from the 1,447 that were active in the preceding year, a drop of 10%, and the number of mares bred declined by 2.1%.

BOOK 2 CLOSES WITH RECORD RETURNS

The curtain lowered on Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale with record trade, and a Ballylinch Stud-consigned Lope De Vega (Ire) filly topped Wednesday’s session. Emma Berry has the details. Click or tap here to go straight to TDN Europe.
A pair of yearlings from the second crop of Girvin--a colt and a filly--each brought $110,000 during Wednesday’s Open Session of the OBS October Sale in Ocala.

Prominent owner Mike Repole has acquired a controlling interest in the undefeated 3-year-old colt Mo Money Mo Honey (Uncle Mo).

Andrew Offerman has accepted a position with the New York Racing Association, having contributed to the success of Minnesota’s Canterbury Park during his tenure.

"Came from Peggy Augustus' Keswick Stud," Stuart recalls. "And she ended up the lowest-price horse in the sale. Anybody could have played for her at $40,000. If you had enough money to buy lunch at Saratoga, which is expensive, you could probably have gotten in the group of four bidspotters that bought her. They pinhooked her back to Timonium that October and she brought $86,000."

Not bad, for a flip of barely two months. But the next time this filly came under the hammer she made $6 million as six-time Grade I winner Stellar Wind.

So you never know. War Like Goddess (whose much lamented sire, incidentally, was acquired for Kelley by Stuart) was eventually found by Donato Lanni at the 2-year-old sales, for $30,000, and has so far banked over $1.6 million. Forte, for his part, realized $80,000 as a weanling pinhook, making moderate gains when sold to Repole Stable and St. Elias Stables for $110,000 the following September. But he has now added the GI Breeders' Futurity S. to the GI Hopeful S., and Amy Moore of South Gate Farm is prudently taking her chance to consolidate what remains a young operation. His half-brother by Uncle Mo made $850,000 to Mayberry Farm at the September Sale, while their young dam Queen Caroline (Blame), in foal to Not This Time, sells as Hip 222 at Fasig-Tipton next month.

Though not strictly Virginia-bred like Stellar Wind, Forte is as close as you can get. "He was bred by a Virginia breeder--first horse she ever bred--and raised on a Virginia farm," Stuart says. "And, incidentally, he was the lowest-price horse that the Repole crowd bought last year. Of all those expensive horses, he's the one that has hit."

If there is a note of pride in his voice, that’s fair enough. For Stuart himself was not only raised in Virginia, but on no less iconic a farm than Llangollen. His mother, Tessa (subsequently Dole), who had arrived from England after the war as an aspiring show rider, was taking schoolgirls from nearby Foxcroft out hunting when she met—and was hired by—the farm’s celebrated owner.

"Liz Whitney Tippett had gotten the largest settlement in American history when she divorced Jock Whitney because he wouldn't make her Scarlett O'Hara in 'Gone with the Wind','" Stuart says. "And of course she had this 1,000-acre farm in Upperville that was her wedding present from him. So she had everything. And my mother, for 10 years, was the person who knew where all the horses were, what their names were, what they were doing.

"So we lived on the farm, mother did the horse stuff and my father had the evening duty. He would go to the Dulles airport and pick up some young trainer by the name of Whittingham and a rider, Arcaro, that mother had to mount in the fox hunt the next day! Whittingham was too smart for that. But they all came through there, the Aga Khan, everybody."

Liz was actually Stuart’s godmother, but she had evidently lost some of her sunshine by this stage of her life and his family, expanded to three sons, eventually moved on. They remained local in Clarke County, however, his father having been grandson of a Winchester doctor who had practised to 93. (On finally retiring, he received a citation from President Eisenhower in person.) Cont. p5

"We had a feed store in Berryville and sold a bunch of feed and hay to the horses at Charles Town," Stuart recalls. "And we were lucky to get paid. My father wasn't interested in the horses, he just sold the feed, so it was my mother had to hustle the horses all her life."

Stuart wryly relates a pivotal chapter in family folklore that might have given them all an easier life. His maternal grandfather, a Manchester cotton man, had manufactured typewriter ribbon; but when he died, IBM having decided that they didn't need ribbon anymore, the far-sighted trustees decided to divert his stake to a sounder investment than this passing fad for computer screens.

"Unfortunately they instead decided to make disposable cotton underwear for Englishwomen," Stuart says, shaking his head. "And that busted the company. But it made my mother work harder in life. She went into the bloodstock business in America, and I got to learn. So something good came out of it..."

Sure enough, his mother took a 20% stake when another Clarke County horseman, Tyson Gilpin, in 1958 founded what Stuart acclaims as the first bloodstock agency in America. "Say Bull Hancock wouldn't give you a season," he explains. "And he was tough to get a season off, for a good horse. Then a shareholder could sell it privately and the Stallion Service Bureau was the first to do that for you."

Even today few would consider the situation adequately improved, but those were certainly tough times for a woman in the horse business. But Tessa made a success of her pioneering role in a pioneering venture for a dozen years or so.

"My mother was independent, really a go-getter in a quiet, English way," Stuart reflects. "There was no money at the time, and we all had to work as kids. I had to work my way through college. I was 14 when I had my first job at Saratoga, showing for Tyson. That would have been 1964.

"And then I worked for all the Virginia places, because in that era there were still a dozen really good breeders out there. People from all over the world would come in June and start in Charlottesville at the Van Clief farm, work their way up to Middleburg, and look at all the yearlings. So I was lucky, because it's nearly all gone now."

In the heyday of the Virginian Turf, the Gilpin family had been able to import horses like Teddy (Fr) to Kentmere, but now came serial migrations to Kentucky: the Hancocks left, the stallions left, and the mares followed them.

"State of Virginia didn’t do much to help," says Stuart with a shrug. "They have now, with the Virginia Certified Program, that was a great idea. But the breeding, it's gone everywhere except for Kentucky. I mean, there's breeding everywhere. But if you're not in Kentucky, you're not commercial."

And, actually, Stuart himself contributed to that revolution.

"When I first came here and put my sign out with my partner Peter Bance from Richmond, Virginia in 1980, the business was evolving," he explains. "Because, you know, those old hardboots didn't prepare their horses well; didn't show them right. And so a group of us came in. Billy Graves, Fred Seitz. I'd been taught how to groom and show, I'd won a National Pony Club championship. And we also had a little different ethical standard. Some of those hardboots, they were interested in the one-night stand--not a honeymoon!" Cont. p7

Stuart had started in the Bluegrass with a couple of years selling and advertising seasons for Spendthrift, just about the time Seattle Slew arrived. With the commercial market just taking off, it was a promising time to be seeking out new angles and opportunities. For instance, here came the young guy who had bought Meadow Stud back in Virginia, asking Stuart to fill the paddocks that had introduced Secretariat to the world. It so happened that there was a Contagious Equine Metritis scare just then, so Stuart did a deal with a shipping company to take stock for their month of isolation. And this also happened to be the summer that Sheikh Mohammed was sending the market into the stratosphere.

"He came to the summer sale at Keeneland and bought the highest-price filly in history, and the highest-price colt," Stuart recalls. "And next thing I knew I was meeting six Sallee vans full of horses, Wednesday morning at the Meadow Stud. And then, in September, he bought about 100 more. Well, out of that whole bunch they got one little sprinter, Ajdal."

But later dealings would prove very fertile, both for the Sheikh’s team and Stuart. For example, he sold them G1 1,000 Guineas winner Blue Bunting (another Dynaformer filly bred by Brad Kelley) for $200,000 at Saratoga. And when he sent an Argentinian mare for what proved the final foal-share to Dubai Millennium, the Sheikh asked to buy her after losing his cherished young stallion. Urged to return to the same talent pool, Stuart found another Argentinian mare to send to Rahy and the result was Godolphin stalwart Rio de La Plata.

The South American scouting avenue had first opened through Roy, the son of Fappiano he brought back to syndicate in Kentucky. Cont. p8

"I flew down, didn't have any money, and the horse walked out of the stall," Stuart recalls. "And he had a look of eagles about him. They wanted $1 million and I said, 'I'll take him.' And though he didn't really work in America, every country I leased him to--Brazil, Argentina, Chile--he was leading sire."

Then he helped to import Blue Prize (Arg) (Pure Prize) to win the GI Spinster S. twice and the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff for Merriebelle.

"They don't hothouse them like we do," he says of the South American breed. "And remember that in Argentina they race more like the United States than any country in the world. They run on the dirt, they go around our way, they get after their 2-year-olds. They make horses tough. And so if you're buying the best of the crop, they'll have gone through a lot to get the special one."

But the turning point was perhaps when Carl Rosen's son Andrew revealed a precocious wisdom in sorting out his father's estate.

"I got really lucky," Stuart admits. "I was running low on funds, a young, struggling bloodstock agent with two sons. And they had this Danzig colt out of Six Crowns, who was a Secretariat daughter of Chris Evert. And Andrew said, 'If the estate needs some money, I can move this 2-year-old.' This was in June, he was still unraced. By the end of the summer, he was the best 2-year-old in the country: Chief's Crown. And I sold a half-interest in him to Robert Clay for $10 million cash. A half-interest!

"So I had my commission and got myself out of jail, and the horse won the first Breeders' Cup race. And I get to know this 25-year-old, Andrew Rosen. Hell, we've talked about every day ever since."

Stuart was asked to handle the dispersal of the rest of the Chris Evert family.
"There was one that seemed much the most unlikely to be of merit," he recalls. "She'd never run, she was huge, she had a tube hanging out of chest. Nijinsky Star. I guess there's been 30 graded stakes winners come through her for Juddmonte."

Few horsemen can compete with the influence of Stuart's draft at that auction, which also included another mighty matriarch, Toll Booth, sold for John M. Schiff. But perhaps there is one legacy, a very literal one, that means even more to this proud Virginian.

"One of my favorite things in my professional career is that I got to sell the last crop of yearlings for Paul Mellon," Stuart says. "As a result, I got to know the trustees. And, in his will, he had said: 'If you ever run across a really good charity that takes care of retired horses, then you can support it.' Well, at the time, I was president of the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. And, in three different pops, I was able to get them $8 million from the Mellon estate. They gave $4 million to the Brits, too, because he was of course a great anglophile. But what was most important was not so much the money as the old guard saying to themselves, 'If Paul Mellon says we need to do this, then we need to do it.'"

Much of the change Stuart has observed in the business has nourished his own progress. Equally, however, he feels that some old principles are nowadays unduly overlooked.
"Okay, it's a lot more sophisticated now," he concedes. "In the old days, you'd walk around with your trainer and buy your horses. Now you've got 30, 40 agents backed up with cardio, X-rays, DNA samples, and every other thing. The one thing they don't do much is study the pedigree. Back then, pedigree was the big thing."

"I do remember, as a young consignor, when James Delahooke came along with Guy Harwood, they'd make you walk and walk and walk. And of course he was very good at it. But now it's gone too far the other way. It's all about the physical—and they all follow the same horse."

Needless to say, no less than his patrons with War Like Goddess, Stuart knows perfectly well what regret feels like. He sold Army Wife (Declaration of War) for $50,000 as a short yearling, and she has now earned close to seven figures. So none of us ever stops learning. Sure, now that he has tipped 70, Stuart is spending a little more time in Florida in winter and Maine in summer and is relying on his son, Sandy, to run the agency day to day. But it was only in recent years that he started, after due research, assembling a dozen mares of his own.

"And they've been spectacular," he says. "I probably didn't give more than $50,000 for any of them, but I already have six silver cups for graded stakes. And no, I'm not going to tell you how I pick them!"

Stuart credits his wife, Douglas Wise Stuart, for her contributions to the team, as she painstakingly combs through the race records of every mare offered at the breeding stock sales.

One admitted ingredient, however, is that the mare could run. That, after all, is something he could have learned from his own pedigree.
"My mother died a couple years ago," Stuart says. "She spent her last 20 years here in Lexington, said the country reminded her more of England than anywhere she'd been in America. Founded the Woodford Hounds here. Nothing fancy about her. Loved her dogs, loved her horses. But she was genuinely loved by those that knew her."

Maybe she could have bought Llangollen itself, if only those trustees had stuck with IBM. But while Stuart would have been richer that way, the same could hardly be said of the life he has led.

Kentucky was once again the runaway leader when it comes to Thoroughbred breeding activity, accounting for 57.8% of the mares reported to be bred in North America and 61.6% of the live foals. A total of 16,796 mares were bred to 207 different Kentucky-based stallions, producing 11,460 live foals, for a 0.7% decrease over figures from the previous year. However, the number of mares bred to Kentucky stallions showed a slight increase of 1.9%.

Among the 10 states and provinces that were among the top 10 in terms of mares covered, four—California, Ontario, Oklahoma and Indiana—produced more live foals in 2022 than in 2021. Indiana had the biggest gain, with the number of live foals reported going up by 20.3%.

Outside of Kentucky, California was the leader in number of mares bred with 1,939. Florida was next with 1,617.

The Coolmore stallion Practical Joke (Into Mischief) led all stallions in the category of mares bred. He was bred to 231 mares. Second on the list was Goldencents (Into Mischief) at 230. Showing the popularity of sons of Into Mischief, Authentic (Into Mischief), in what will be his first crop, was next at 229 mares. Vekoma (Candy Ride {Arg}), also a first-crop sire, came in fourth, having been bred to 222 mares. Maclean’s Music (Distorted Humor) was next at 221, making a remarkable jump after being bred to 57 mares the prior year.

Still another son of Into Mischief (Honest Mischief) led the way in the category of non-Kentucky-based sires. Standing in New York, he was bred to 127 mares.

Twelve stallions were bred to 200 or more mares and 43 were bred to 140 or mares, which exceeds the cap The Jockey Club had attempted to impose to encourage diversity in the breed.

OBS OCTOBER CONCLUDES WITH OPEN SESSION

The two-day OBS October Yearling Sale came to a close Wednesday in Ocala, Florida, with moderate declines in the relevant statistical categories.

Following on the heels of a strong Select Sale Tuesday, the action Wednesday was a bit more subdued, with 256 open yearlings reported as sold for gross receipts of $4,367,900. The average of $17,062 was down by just over 8% from last year's $18,593. The median price declined by 13.3% to $13,000, while the buyback rate was nearly double that of 2021 at 30.2% compared to 16.6% last year. Cont. p11

Girvin Yearlings on Top at OBS Wednesday

A colt and a filly by fast-starting freshman sire Girvin shared top billing at Wednesday's open session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's October Yearlings Sale when attracting matching $110,000 bids.

Michael Sucher's Champion Equine, which acquired a colt by Girvin for $140,000 at last week's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale, purchased another son of the stallion for $110,000 Wednesday. Hip 418 is out of stakes-placed Absoulute Heaven (Not for Love) and was consigned by Boutte Sales. He was bred by Tim Aheam.

Sucher, who purchased the sale-topping full-brother to multiple Grade I-winning juvenile Cave Rock (Arrogate) for $700,000 at the Fasig-Tipton New York-Bred Yearlings Sale in August, campaigns first-out winner Commandant, another colt by Girvin, whom he acquired for $300,000 at the OBS April sale earlier this year.

Later in the session, the Green family's D. J. Stable, which acquired the co-toppers during Tuesday's select session of the auction, went to $110,000 to purchase a filly by Girvin (hip 610) from Camelot Acres Racing and Sales. The bay is out of Liberty Flag (Kingmambo) and is a half-sister to stakes winner Little Chesney (City Zip). The yearling was bred by Janet Erwin.

PLETCHER’S BREEDERS’ CUP TEAM TAKING SHAPE

by Christina Bossinakis

While life may provide only a handful of certainties, trainer Todd Pletcher showing up with a powerful battalion of runners on Breeders’ Cup Day can be counted on to be one of them. The 2022 renewal of the World Championships, slated for Nov. 4-5 at Keeneland, is shaping up to be no different. Since the beginning of the month, the Hall of Famer has annexed seven Grade I or Grade II races, highlighted by Life Is Good (Into Mischief), winner of the Oct. 1 GI Woodward S. Undefeated in four domestic starts this season (he finished fourth in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan in March), the sparkling winner of the 2021 Dirt Mile is confirmed for a likely showdown with Flightline (Tapit) in next month’s GI Breeders’ Cup Classic. Also trying to give Pletcher his second Classic winner following Vino Rosso in 2019 is Happy Saver (Super Saver), who finished fourth in a competitive renewal of the GII Lukas Classic at Churchill Downs Oct. 1. Last season’s GI Jockey Club Gold Cup winner hit the board in a trio of preceding starts in 2022, including a second to Flightline in the June 11 GI Hill ‘n Dale Metropolitan H. and runner-up finish behind Life Is Good in the Aug. 6 GI Whitney S.

Also offering an imposing 1-2 punch on the Breeders’ Cup Saturday card are Malathaat (Curlin) and Nest (Curlin), both targeting the GI Distaff. Victorious in last season’s GI Kentucky Oaks, Central Bank Ashland S. and GI Alabama S., the Shadwell runner took last Sunday’s GI Juddmonte Spinster S. at Keeneland, while her year-younger stablemate--victorious in this summer’s Alabama and GI CCA Oaks, and runner-up in the GI Belmont S.--romped in the recent GI Beldame S. in New York.

Pletcher previously won the Distaff with eventual Hall of Famer Ashado (2004) and Stopchargingmaria in 2015.

Always dangerous with his juveniles, Pletcher will be represented by no less than a trio of 2-year-olds, including GI Hopeful S. and GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity victor Forte (Violence), targeting the GI TVG Juvenile, and GI Frizette S. heroine Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke), slated to contest the GI NetJets Juvenile Fillies. Also set to reappear over the championship weekend is Major Dude (Bolt d’Oro), who punched his ticket to the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf with a victory in the Oct. 2 GI Pilgrim S.

Rounding out Team Pletcher’s championship team is Annapolis (War Front). Victorious in the Manila S. at Belmont earlier this summer, the son of My Miss Sophia subsequently added a win in the Saranac S. at Saratoga before earning a Mile berth with a score in the GI Coolmore Turf Mile S. at Keeneland Oct. 8.

Already responsible for a dozen Breeders’ Cup victories since earning his first win in 2004, Pletcher has finished third or better with 43 runners--registering a 28% strike rate--while amassing $22.5 million in earnings.

Given the caliber of runners already engaged for this year’s showcase next month, it appears likely that those figures will continue their upward trajectory.

REPOLE BUYS MAJORITY INTEREST IN MO MONEY MO HONEY

Mike Repole purchased a majority interest in Robin Doser and Metropolitan Thoroughbreds' undefeated 3-year-old colt Mo Money Mo Honey (Uncle Mo--Stopshoppingdebbie, by Curlin). The colt has been transferred from Benny Feliciano, Jr. to Todd Pletcher.

“It’s a storybook, man. I keep pinching myself. It’s surreal. I’m not sure it’s actually happening,” said R.J. Bistle, co-owner since 2005 of Metropolitan Moving & Storage in Laurel who races as Metropolitan Thoroughbreds. “It’s unbelievable. He arrived in New York okay. I’m sure Todd and his team want to take a look at him and make a decision where to put him.”

Mo Money Mo Honey fetched just $14,000 at Keeneland’s September 2020 yearling sale. He wound up on a farm in Kentucky where he was put up for sale. Feliciano found him and Doser and Bistle agreed to split the purchase price of $15,000.

Mo Money Mo Honey graduated by six lengths on debut at Laurel July 16 at Laurel. He returned in a six-furlong entry-level allowance Aug. 14 against older horses and cruised by seven lengths, then beat his elders again by 4 1/4 lengths in a second-level allowance Sept. 23 at Pimlico.

“He’s running those times, and he just does it so naturally. I don’t even know if he’s a speed horse. I think he’s just talented and he just goes to the lead,” Feliciano said. “I think he can do either or. We rated him the one time and he was fine. The best may be yet to come. He may be good going long. He might be a better horse at that. If he can carry that speed, he’ll be dangerous no matter where he goes.”

“We received offers after all three of his races, and they gradually got bigger as the horse raced with more widespread interest,” Bistle said. “Our intention was to keep some money and stay with the horse, and doing both allowed us to have the benefit of both. We get to put some money in our pocket and we get to go watch the horse race as an owner. It’s the best of both worlds, really.”

OFFERMAN NAMED NYRA V.P., GENERAL MANAGER OF OPERATIONS

Andrew Offerman, who has served Canterbury Park in Minnesota as its senior vice president of racing operations for the last five years, has been appointed to the newly created role of vice president and general manager of operations for the New York Racing Association (NYRA). Offerman, who will assume his new responsibilities beginning Nov. 11, will oversee front-side operations at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga.

“Andrew is a seasoned executive and proven leader who will bring considerable skills to the talented team we have assembled at NYRA,” said Dave O’Rourke, NYRA President and CEO. “He is a strategic thinker who understands that horse racing is rapidly evolving, and we are pleased to welcome him in this wide-ranging new role.”

During his time at Canterbury Park, Offerman was responsible for many of the track’s operational departments, including front-side racing functions. He first joined the Shakopee track as a seasonal employee in college and was engaged full time from 2010, with increasing responsibility. After becoming Canterbury’s top racing executive in 2017, he quickly deployed strategies that drove consistent and sustained increase in wagering handle and the associated revenue. Cont. p15

“NYRA sets the gold standard in our sport, and I am deeply appreciative of this opportunity to help shape the future of the organization,” said Offerman. “My experiences at Canterbury Park have prepared me for this next chapter and I’m thrilled it will be at the finest and most important racing organization in the country. I’d like to thank Canterbury Park and its racing community for their support throughout my tenure.”

He holds advisory and governance positions in a number of horse racing organizations including the University of Arizona Race Track Industry Program (RTIP) Advisory Committee; Thoroughbred Racing Associations of North America (TRA); American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) Racing Committee, and Vice Chair of the Thoroughbred & Quarter Horse Breeders’ Fund Advisory Committees of the Minnesota Racing Commission.

A native of Minneapolis, Offerman earned an M.S. degree from the University of Arizona Race Track Industry Program and holds a B.A. from Gustavus Adolphus College.

WEEKLY STEWARDS AND COMMISSIONS RULINGS: OCT. 4-10

Every week, the TDN publishes a roundup of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky.

Here's a primer on how each of these jurisdictions adjudicates different offenses, what they make public (or not) and where.

With the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) having gone into effect on July 1, the TDN will also post a roundup of the relevant HISA-related rulings from the same week.

SOTHEBY'S TO AUCTION PAINTINGS FROM THE JOCKEY CLUB

Some 38 works of art with a combined estimated value of $900,000 to $1.3 million from The Jockey Club will be auctioned off in Sotheby's Sporting Life Sale, with online bidding open from Oct. 14-25.

Leading the group is a significant painting by John Frederick Herring Sr., titled: The 1828 Doncaster St. Leger Won by The Colonel, which is estimated to fetch between $400,000 and $600,000. John Frederick Herring Sr.'s series of racing pictures inspired by the 1828 St Leger S. are some of his most highly prized sporting works and this piece is one of the most valuable by the artist to come to auction in over a decade.

The 1828 Doncaster St. Leger Won by The Colonel depicts the 1828 St Leger race led by The Colonel*, who can be seen on the far right of the image above, overtaking the group made up of Belinda, Velocipede, and Besy Bedlam, who are all identified by the inscription underneath.

“The Jockey Club has owned these beautiful works of art for many years, and for that time they have been displayed in our offices in New York City,” said The Jockey Club's Jim Gagliano. “Early next year, we are moving to a location in New York that doesn’t have the space to accommodate the collection. As a result, The Jockey Club board of stewards authorized management to research options for the collection, including a sale. We are pleased that Sotheby’s has agreed to handle the auction, and we look forward to these pieces finding the right homes so they may continue to be appropriately enjoyed.

Proceeds from the auction will benefit the Club’s initiatives in support of the Thoroughbred industry.

$1.35M INTO MISCHIEF COLT DEBUTS FOR WINCHELL THOROUGHBREDS

7th-KEE, $100K, Msw, 2yo, 7f, 4:12 p.m. ET
Purchased by Winchell Thoroughbreds for $1.35 million out of last year’s Keeneland September Sale, EXTRA ANEJO (Into Mischief) debuts Thursday for trainer Steve Asmussen. A bay son of Superioritycomplex (Ire) (Hard Spun), herself a half-sister to MGSP Abingdon (Street Cry [Ire]), hails from the extended family of MG1SW and American champion grass mare Islington (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), G1SW & MG1SP Greek Dance (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), GSW & G1SP Mountain High (Ire) (Danehill), and GSW New Morning (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells). Extra Anejo posted three bullets out of his last four works, including a five-furlong drill in :59 1/5 over this same track Oct. 3 (1/9). He gets Tyler Gaffalione in the irons. Making his second start after a troubled trip on debut at Saratoga is Juan Valdez (Medaglia d’Oro), a $900,000 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream Sale grad who is a half-brother to MGISW and leading sire Constitution.

7th-Keeneland, $109,550, Alw (NW1X)/Opt. Clm ($100,000), 2yo, 1 1/16m, 1:45.62, ft, 7 lengths.
FORBIDDEN SECRET (c, 2, Outwork--Market Buzz, by After Market), a runaway maiden winner at third asking in a restricted (for horses that sold or RNA’d for $50,000 or less) maiden special weight at Aqueduct going seven furlongs Sept. 18, ran away and hid for the second straight time in this two-turn debut. The 7-2 chance shot out to the front from his rail draw and never looked back en route to a dominating seven-length tally over Confidence Game (Candy Ride {Arg}). After producing a colt by Caracaro this term, the winner’s dam, a half-sister to MGISW Giant Oak (Giants Causeway), was bred back to Beau Liam. Sales
IN ORDER OF PURSE:
6th-Keeneland, $100,000, Msw, 10-12, 2yo, f, 7f, 1:24.90, ft, 1/2 length.

BEAUTIFULNESS (f, 2, Uncle Mo--Meshell {SW & GSP, $205,510}, by Elusive Quality), given a chilly 21-1 shot on debut, broke a step slow but was quickly into stride to contest the lead from the rail. Challenged first by Harmonica (Mendelssohn) into the far turn, she drew off from that rival but left room open along the inside for favorite Diamondsifyoudo (Nyquist), who came with a bid at the furlong pole. Despite looking beaten, Beautifulness battled back to stick a head in front close to home and edge away late to win by a half-length. This is the extended family of MGISW and leading sire Quality Road (Elusive Quality). The winner has a yearling half-sister by Ghostzapper and her dam was bred to Knicks Go for next season. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $57,350.

O/B-Buck Pond Farm & Andrew Knapczyk (KY); T-Ed Kenneally.

7th-Delaware, $42,900, Msw, 10-12, 2yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 1:45.89, sf, neck.

PALLOTTA SISTERS (f, 2, Cairo Prince--Biofuel {Horse Of The Year-Can, MGISP-USA, $781,091}, by Stormin Fever) broke her maiden in her third career start after a pair of disappointing efforts on the grass at Saratoga. The 5-2 selection in her first start outside of New York, Pallotta Sisters took an immediate advantage from her inside gate, leading the way into the far turn. Challenged briefly by Mo Bills (Uncle Mo) as the top straightened for home, she dug in to turn that rival back and held off a late bid from a closing Tall Girl (First Samurai) by a neck. Out of a half-sister to champion 2-year-old filly in Canada Tu Endie Wei (Johar), Pallotta Sisters has a yearling full-brother still to race behind her. Biofuel visited Beau Liam for the 2023 season. Sales History: $55,000 RNA Ylg ‘21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $32,130. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

THE RACE TO GIVE RAISED OVER $125,000 FOR THOROUGHBRED AFERCARE IN 2021

WE’RE BETTING WE CAN DOUBLE IT IN 2022!

The amazing organizations involved in Thoroughbred Aftercare Programs work passionately to discover what comes next for these magnificent athletes. That’s why, in 2021, Hagyard stepped up to help support these organizations by creating “The Race to Give,” raising over $125,000 for aftercare programs and initiatives.

In 2022, our bold goal is to double the amount. But we can’t do it without you.

Visit RaceToGive.org to learn the various ways you can lend your support to help Thoroughbreds transition to their next chapter as performance horses, beloved family additions, or their next recreational adventure.

It’s sure to be the best bet you make in 2022.
BALLYLINCH STARS AS BOOK 2 CLOSES WITH RECORD RETURNS

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK--With almost 100 lots still to sell, the turnover for Book 2 had already surpassed the tally set in 2021 and, just as witnessed last week at Tattersalls, this second catalogue of four for the October Yearling Sale, bettered all markers of a year ago.

There was a broader spread of buyers, but Stroud Coleman Bloodstock, whose principal Anthony Stroud had been so busy on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed’s Godolphin operation during Book 1, was again active throughout, with the agency ending Book 2 as the leading buyer with 23 bought for 5,625,000gns. Tally-Ho Stud dominated the consignors’ list all week, and the farm’s flagship stallion Kodiac (GB) was paid several compliments by leading owner-breeders keen to buy his daughters, notably Cheveley Park Stud and Watership Down Stud, who spent 320,000gns and 150,000gns on a filly each.

In his closing statement, Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony referred to “Three extraordinary record-breaking days at Book 1”, which was neatly followed by more records tumbling at Book 2 for the second year running. Cont. p3

SWEET LADY TO SELL AT ARQANA DECEMBER BREEDING STOCK SALE

Group 1 winner Sweet Lady (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) will be offered during the Arqana December Breeding Stock Sale to be held Dec. 3-6. A winner of the G1 Prix Vermeille, the 4-year-old landed the G2 Prix Corrida, G3 Prix de Flore, and the Listed Prix La Camargo in the Gemini Stud silks for trainer Francis-Henri Graffard earlier in her career.

Graffard said, "It’s been a pleasure to train this magnificent filly for the last three years. Very brave and with a great temperament, she achieved all her objectives this year by winning the best races reserved for fillies and mares in France, the Prix Corrida and the Prix Vermeille. We always love going to the races with her and I’m very lucky to train her.”

Added Gemini Stud representative Francis Teboul of the filly, who will go through the ring on Dec. 3, "Don’t be fooled by her name Sweet Lady because she is a real warrior and the bravest horse we own." Cont. p11

TAKEAWAYS

Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2 Day 3

- New Book 2 records were set for turnover (60,780,500gns, +11%), average (96,020gns, +14%), and median (70,000gns, +13%). There were also a record number of yearlings selling at 500,000gns or above, with seven reaching or surpassing that mark.

- Frankel (GB) led all sires by average at 426,250gns for four sold, while Night Of Thunder (Ire)’s 25 yearlings grossed a sale-leading 4,025,000gns.

- Showing the way among the leading first-season yearling sires by aggregate were the Darley duo of Blue Point (Ire) at 2,049,000gns for 26 lots and Too Darn Hot (GB), whose 15 grossed 1,825,000gns.

- Stroud Coleman Bloodstock was the leading buyer in Book 2, with 23 purchased for 5,625,000gns.

- A trio of consignors breached the 2 million gns barrier by aggregate, with Tally-Ho Stud selling 31 lots for a sale-topping 2,650,000gns. Newsells Park Stud’s gross was 2,062,000gns for 25 yearlings, and Ballylinch Stud enjoyed a strong sale on Wednesday to reach 2,001,000gns for their 14 lots over three days.

He continued, “The average of 96,020gns was up by 14%, while the median also climbed, by 13% to 70,000gns. At the final fall of hammer after three days and another 732 yearlings through the ring at Park Paddocks and a clearance rate of 86%, Book 2 had pulled in 60,780,500 (+11%) to add to the 126,671,000gns accrued from Book 1 yearlings.

"The word most commonly used to describe the trade we have experienced throughout this week has been ‘unrelenting’," Mahony said. "There have been records established in pretty well every conceivable category. Turnover, average and median have all reached unprecedented levels and yet again Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale has been the second-highest grossing yearling sale in Europe, second only to Book 1. The number of yearlings selling for 200,000gns or more is a wide margin record as is the number selling for 300,000gns or more, and never before have seven yearlings at Book 2 of the October Yearling Sale broken the 500,000-guinea mark."

He continued, "Following on from Book 1, buyers from America, Australia, Hong Kong, Japan, and throughout the Gulf region have all continued to make significant contributions over the past three days. Cont. p4

He added, “European buyers have also been conspicuous at all levels of the market while the domestic British and Irish demand continues to be the bedrock of Europe’s largest yearling sale which annually showcases so many of the best commercial yearlings to be found and consistently produces top class horses like this year’s outstanding unbeaten Derby winner Desert Crown.”

The Stroud And Ballylinch Show
Anthony Stroud signed for two members of a strong Ballylinch Stud draft, for two different owners. Lot 1303, a Lope De Vega (Ire) filly out of a Galileo (Ire) half-sister to the classy dual Group 1 winner Chriselliam (Ire), went the way of Godolphin for 650,000gns, but Stroud had to see off a determined attempt from the Coolmore camp.

“I knew she’d sell well but I did not expect that,” said John O’Connor, manager of Ballylinch Stud, which bred the filly. “But when you get a clash between two very interested buyers, these things can happen. There were lots of people on her, too. This is a family we have been associated with a long time. I originally bought [third dam] Ingabelle from Tom Lacy, Tony Lacy’s father, and we have bred most of the black-type horses on this page.”

Along with Chriselliam, the filly’s dam Gallitea (Ire) is a half-sister to the G2 Cape Verdi S winner Very Special (Ire), herself by Lope De Vega. The further family also includes Ingabelle’s champion 2-year-old daughter Priory Belle (Ire) (Priolo) and her half-sister, the G1 Premio Lydia Tesio winner Eva’s Request (Ire) (Soviet Star). Cont. p5

Two G2 juveniles lead his first crop and he’s beating Saxon Warrior, Mehmas, Zoustar, Churchill and many other big names in the two-year-old sires lists for winners or earnings – or both. All the more reason to inspect his yearlings.

Lope De Vega was not the only one of the Ballylinch stallions to feature prominently on Wednesday. With Night Of Thunder (Ire) having been hugely popular through Books 1 and 2 at Tattersalls, it was the turn of another son of Dubawi (Ire), New Bay (GB), to shine in the closing session when Anthony Stroud went to 425,000gns for lot 1264, the half-brother to G3 Concorde S. winner Statement (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}).

Peter Harris, the former successful breeder and trainer at his Pendley Farm in Hertfordshire, has meant business with his purchases this week, and this colt out of the Lope De Vega (Ire) mare Fact Or Folklore (Ire) is another to be joining Jane Chapple-Hyam’s Newmarket stable, where Harris already has a number of horses in training. The trainer will be delighted with the latest recruit as she had great success with the offspring of his sire of late, including with the dual Group 1 winner Saffron Beach (GB) and Group 3 winner Claymore (Fr), both of whom won at Royal Ascot this year.

"The trainers really like the New Bays," said O’Connor. "And with the kind of mares he is covering now he has the opportunity to step to a higher level again. Every horse has to take that opportunity, but we believe he can. The major players are still here and they are still anxious to buy nice horses. There were plenty of bids coming for him from all over the sale ring."

New Bay had nine yearlings sell in Book 2 for an average price of 141,333gns.

Knights Starstruck for Ballyvolane Colt

A strong sale for Starspangledbanna (Aus) included a colt from John Foley’s Ballyvolane Stud out of the Dandy Man (Ire) mare Great Dame (Ire), who brought the hammer down at 600,000gns and was signed for by Richard Brown. Cont. p6

Masar

The precocious Derby winner whose first yearlings are turning heads at Tatts. Top price: 350,000gns.

Average: pushing six times his fee by the end of Book 2.

First Crop Yearlings in 2022
Lot 1321 was bred by The Great Dame Partnership and is the first foal of the half-sister to the G2 Goldene Peitsche winner Donnerschlag (GB) (Bahamian Bounty (GB)) and to listed winner Izzy Bizu (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)). The mare has a Churchill (Ire) filly foal on the ground and was covered this year by Ardad (Ire).
Richard Knight, active through Book 1 but quiet so far this week, signed for the colt and said, "He was the only one we picked out in this sale, thought he was a lovely individual. I like the fact that the mare was a useful 2-year-old herself and he looks like he will be sharp. We felt he will be a great addition to the horses we have already bought and he shouldn't take a huge amount of time."
Now five, Great Dame, won at two over the minimum trip for the Nick Bradley Racing syndicate and was bought three years ago at the December Sale by Barry Lynch for 28,000gns.

The Nays Have It
A horse that can do it on both sides of the world, No Nay Never had a good day on Wednesday, siring the G1 Thousand Guineas winner Madame Pommery (Aus) at Caulfield in Melbourne and featuring among the leaders during the final day of Book 2 yearlings at Tattersalls.
His popularity this sales season is no surprise given the season No Nay Never has had, which includes Group 1 victories from Blackbeard (Ire), Little Big Bear (Ire) and the tough filly Alcohol Free (Ire), who extended her tally of top-level wins to three at ages two, three and four.
His colt consigned by John Cullinan and Roger Marley of Church Farm & Horse Park Stud as lot 1113 was an expensive foal-turned-even more expensive yearling when the duo's initial investment of 110,000gns last December grew to 360,000gns. Cont. p7

Reporting an "up-and-down week", Cullinan said of the son of Bright Sapphire (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), "The whole way through the year, I always thought he was our banker."

His confidence was justified when MV Magnier agreed with him and snapped up the half-brother to the G2 Herbert Power S. winner Wall Of Fire (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}).

Charlie Gordon-Watson was another to plump for No Nay Never, buying lot 1180, Baroda Stud's son of the G3 Park Express S. winner Czabo (GB) (Sixties Icon {GB}), for 325,000gns following an earlier purchase from Manister House Stud of lot 1155, for Al Shaqab Racing, at 220,000gns. The latter, out of the useful dual winner Connipion (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), was bred by Frank Hutchinson.

No Nay Never's average for Book 2 weighed in at 162,357gns for 14 sold.

Shadwell Invests

As we count down to the swansong of Baaeed (GB) in Saturday's G1 QIPCO British Champion S., it has been encouraging to see his owner Sheikh Hissa present at Park Paddocks on several occasions over the last fortnight, and her Shadwell operation signed for eight yearlings at Book 2, seven of which were fillies.

Heading the list was lot 1190, a Siyouni (Fr) second foal of the listed-placed Dancing Breeze (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), who was bought from the Castlebridge Consignment for 350,000gns. Bred by Merry Fox Stud, which also enjoyed some decent results during Book 1, the filly's dam is a half-sister to G3 Desmond S winner Future Generation (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}), who is in turn the dam of G2 Prix de Chaudenay winner Brundtland (Ire). Cont. p8
Havana Field Day

Whitsbury Manor Stud can not only bask in the glory of having bred the G1 Dewhurst S winner Chaldean (GB) (Frankel (GB)), but the Hampshire farm is also being well represented by its freshman sire Havana Grey (GB) this season.

The former sprinter has sired 36 winners for far this season, including the one-two in Friday's G3 Cornwallis S. courtesy of Rumstar (GB) and Maylandsea (GB), so it was therefore no surprise to see his yearlings closely scrutinised at the sales.

Havana Grey's former trainer Karl Burke landed the most expensive of the group at Book 2, bidding 325,000gns for lot 1226, Kilminfoyle House Stud's colt out of Dotted Swiss (GB), a three-time winner by the farm's former resident winner Swiss Spirit (GB).

"I saw the colt on Sunday and really liked him straightaway," Burke said. "He's a strong, powerful horse, very like his sire and came highly recommended. I've had four or five this year by him and this is by far the nicest."

The transaction secured yet another good result for one the best pinhookers in the business, Michael Fitzpatrick, who bought the colt from his breeder Whitsbury Manor Stud at Park Paddocks last year for 56,000gns.

He said, "I thought he was the best foal here on the Saturday of last year's foal sale. It was big price to give for him as a foal but it has paid off.

Fitzpatrick added, "He looks sharp, and does look a real Royal Ascot 2-year-old. Havana Grey has gone from strength to strength this season, and I'd like to wish Karl Burke all the best with him. Hopefully he can become the next Havana Grey."

Burke, who buys in partnership with his daughter Kelly, also picked up a colt by another Whitsbury Manor stallion, Showcasing (GB), with whom he has enjoyed great success in the past, notably through the Group 1-winning sprinter Quiet Reflection (GB) and G2 Mill Reef S. winner Toocoolforschool (Ire).

The trainer went to 300,000gns for the colt out of the G3 Musidora S. winner Give And Take (GB) (Cityscape (GB)) from Nicholas Jones's Coln Valley Stud, the sole offering from the breeder in Book 2. Cont. p9

Whitsbury Manor did have its own good result with Havana Grey, however, when selling lot 1233 for 220,000 gns to Stroud Coleman Bloodstock. The colt is the first living foal of Dundunah (Sidney’s Candy), a winning half-sister to the Grade II-placed Cuvee Uncorked (Cuvee).

Havana Grey, who stood for £6,500 in his second season, recorded a Book 2 average of 150,857 gns for seven yearlings sold.

Another 15 yearlings by Havana Grey will be offered in Book 3, which is where the attention now turns for Thursday and Friday during which another 600 or so yearlings will pass through the ring before a short Book 4 session on Saturday morning. It is worth recalling that two of this year’s star fillies, Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) and Oscula (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}) were found respectively in these sections of the sale in 2021 and 2020, as Edmond Mahony referenced in his closing address for Book 2.

He said, “The support we receive from so many breeders and consignors from Britain, Ireland and further afield is the key to the enduring popularity of the October Yearling Sales at Tattersalls and is hugely appreciated. There is quality to be found at every level and next up is Book 3 of the October Yearling Sale, which has produced two of this year’s top European 2-year-olds; Lezoo, recent winner of the Group 1 Cheveley Park Stakes, and Crypto Force, the impressive winner of the Group 2 Beresford S.”

Book 3 gets underway on Thursday at the slightly earlier time of 9:30 a.m.

ROYAL SCOTSMAN ENTERS WINTER QUARTERS AND WILL POINT DIRECTLY TO THE 2000 GUINEAS

Mrs. Fitri Hay’s Royal Scotsman (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), fresh off a narrow second in the G1 Dewhurst S., will now head to winter quarters. His next intended start is the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket in May. A second-up winner at Goodwood on May 20, the colt was third in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot before taking the G2 Richmond S. back at Goodwood. Prior to his Dewhurst second, he was fifth in the G2 Gimcrack S. at York.

Oliver Cole, who trains with his father Paul, said, “After York, he came back and wasn’t quite right. He was a bit ill. We are very happy with him now. He is one of the best horses we have ever had and he is a very genuine, tough horse and we are very lucky to have him.

“He is amazing and goes on any ground, which is incredible. He has a lot of scope and is an exceptional racehorse. Hopefully he will show it next season.”

JADE DE GRUGY BRINGS €230K ON I WANT THE WINNER

Debut winner Jade De Grugy (Fr) (Doctor Dino {Fr}), who triumphed at first asking at Saint-Brieuc, brought €230,000 to top the latest I Want The Winner online sale. The AQPS 3-year-old filly sold to PB Bloodstock’s H. Kirk and will be transferred to the yard of Willie Mullins.

PB Bloodstock said, “This filly has all the guarantees: a lot of scope, a high-level pedigree, and a very encouraging performance on her debuts. She ticks all the boxes to become a good recruit over jumps.” Cont. p12

BEACH BUOY (IRE) (g, 2, Footstepsinthesand {GB}--Keyta Bonita {Ire}, by Denon) broke sharply from an outer gate and assumed early control of this debut. Comfortable on the lead for the most part, the 33-1 outsider came under pressure when threatened passing the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final furlong to hold the late thrust of Trilby (GB) (Twilight Son {GB}) by a neck. Beach Buoy is the fifth of seven foals and third scorer produced by a winning half-sister to MGSw distaffer Sandiva (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), Listed Dansk Pokallob victor Wentworth (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) and the stakes-placed Spanish champion Irish Cliff (Ire) (Marju {Ire}).

From the family of MG1SW sire Sir Percy (GB) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}), the February-foaled chestnut is kin to a yearling filly by The Last Lion (Ire) and a weanling colt by Shuman (Ire).

ARTISTIC STAR (IRE) (c, 2, Galileo {Ire}--Nechita {Aus} {G1SW-Aus, $469,493}, by Fastnet Rock {Aus}) was well away to stalk the leader in second for most of this debut. Nudged along with three furlongs remaining, the 16-1 chance edged ahead passing the two pole and was ridden out in the closing stages to defeat Westerton (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) by 1 1/4 lengths.

A He’s got a late birthday, so we took a bit of time with him and Ralph [Beckett] has just kept him ticking over,” explained the winning owner’s racing manager David Bowe. “He had him spot on for today. I think a mile will be his minimum trip and a mile-and-a-half will be about right for him in time. We shall take one race at a time and see what happens. He has made a winning debut and we may just wrap him up for next year.”

Artistic Star is the fifth of six live foals and fourth scorer produced by G1 Ascot Vale S. victrix Nechita (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), herself the leading performer out of a multiple-winning half-sister to stakes-winning G3 Research S. second Winona (Aus) (Bluebird) and the dual stakes scorer Chiming Lass (Aus) (Bellotto). The May-foaled bay is a full-brother to GSW G1 Metropolitan third Harpo Marx (Ire) and G3 Princess Royal S. victrix Forbearance (Ire). He is also kin to a yearling colt by Frankel (GB). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $3,555.

1ST-TIME STARTER. O-J C Smith; B-Coolmore (IRE); T-Ralph Beckett.

2nd-Nottingham, £6,000, Mdn, 10-12, 2yo, 8f 75yT, 1:50.36, sf.

KING OF STEELE (c, 2, Wootton Bassett {GB}--Eldacar {GB}, by Verglas {Ire}) broke well from the outside stall and was handily placed throughout this debut. Bustled along approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 11-2 chance seized control with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and bounded clear under mild urging in the closing stages to defeat Westerton (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) by 1 1/4 lengths.

A You can see why we waited because he is enormous,” said owner’s representative Emily Scott. “We never rushed him at any stage, we just kept feeding him and letting him grow. From the moment I saw him in the parade ring to taking the saddle off, he’s done everything like a complete professional. He’s never been asked too many questions at home, David [Loughnane] said they barely get him off the bridle at home because he is so big and gallops over everything. This was where we would find out how useful he was. He’s done it like a genuine horse. The further the better for him and I think he is a horse for next year.”

King Of Steele is the latest of three foals and first scorer produced by a dual-winning full-sister to G2 Prix de Pomone and G2 Prix de Royallieu runner-up Miss Crissy (Ire) (Verglas {Ire}). His third dam, stakes-winning G3 Prix du Calvados placegetter Seralia (GB) (Royal Academy), is a half-sister to G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud victor Shaka (GB) (Exit To Nowhere). Seralia’s descendants include dual Group 1-winning Australian champion Contributer (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}).

ASHTANGA (GB) (f, 2, Nathaniel {Ire}--Yoga {Ire}, by Monsun {Ger}), a Sept. 29 first-up third tackling one mile at Salisbury last time, was swiftly into stride and asserted for an early lead here. Holding sway throughout, the 2-1 favourite was shaken up soon after passing the quarter-mile pole and kept on strongly inside the final furlong to defeat Khinjani (GB) (Sir Percy {GB}) by 2 3/4 lengths. “She’s a really nice filly and did nothing wrong today and Andrea [Atzeni] was very positive about her,” said trainer Freddie Meade. “We were unsure about today as she’s still a frame. We were thinking about putting her away, but she bounced out of Salisbury and we just thought we could squeeze a win into her before the winter.”

Meade added, “She’s done that really nicely and I think we’ll look for an Oaks Trial for the beginning of the year. She’s bred to stay and I think she’ll be better as she gets further. That’ll be her for the year now and, hopefully, we’ll have a nice horse for next year.” Ashtanga is the third foal and scorer out of a half-sister to dual Group 1-winning sire Saddex (GB) (Sadler’s Wells) and to the dam of G1 Herbie Dyke S. and G1 New Zealand S. heroine Lizzie L’Amour (NZ) (Zabeel (NZ)). MADAME POMMERY BENEFITS FROM J-MAC MASTERCLASS

“No Nay Never” sired his first Australian Group 1 winner with Madame Pommery

by TDN AusNZ

Coolmore stallion No Nay Never (USA), who shuttled to Australia for four seasons, sired his first Group 1 winner in Australia when the Chris Waller-trained Madame Pommery claimed the G1 Thousand Guineas at Caulfield, thanks largely to the brilliance of James McDonald.

With the track rated a Heavy 9 by the time of the feature race, most jockeys were keen to give the inside lanes a wide berth. But the champion jockey hatched a plan to go at it alone, and when the fillies straightened for home, Madame Pommery got right up underneath her rivals. With clear air ahead, she dashed clear to land the prize by 1.5l. Revolutionary Miss (Russian Revolution) finished second with She's Licketysplit (NZ) (Turn Me Loose (NZ)) in third, while favourite Boogie Dancer (Sooboog) was fourth.

The New Zealander was effusive in his praise of Madame Pommery. “At some point in time they're going to overdo it (staying off the rail) and I reckon that had come to the time and a lot of the races are pace-related as well,” McDonald told Racing.com.

“Chris (Waller) has had a lot of faith in this filly and hence why he brought her down and he asked me to come down. He said she would be very hard to beat and he was quietly confident.

“She skipped through it [the wet] okay, she ran the mile out very strongly and she was the right filly on the day.”

McDonald has been in imperious form this spring. He partnered Anamoe (Street Boss (USA)) and Golden Mile (Astern) to Group 1 glory on Saturday, and a week earlier, was aboard Zougotcha (Zoustar) when she landed the G1 Flight S. And he has the sit aboard short-priced favourite Nature Strip (Nicconi) in Saturday’s $15-million The Everest.

Pedigree Notes

Second to Zougotcha (Zoustar) in the G2 Tea Rose S. two starts back, she was a $150,000 purchase for Waller Racing and Mulcaster Bloodstock at the 2021 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Bred by Katom and from Coolmore Stud's draft, Madame Pommery is a member of the third crop of her former shuttling sire, a G1 Prix Morny-winning son of Scat Daddy (USA). She is the fourth foal and one of three winners for the lightly raced Cancel (Exceed And Excel)--winner of two of just five starts. In late August producing a colt by Wootton Bassett (GB), she missed last year with her 2020 filly by Pierro fetching $200,000 to the bid of Stephen Marsh at this year’s Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. Cancel is one of the eight winners (from as many to race) for the twice stakes-placed, multiple city winner Cataclysm (Marauding (NZ)) who was so well-represented by three stakes winners—the G1 Blue Diamond S. winner Earthquake (Exceed And Excel), the Listed Christmas S. winner Pandemic (Exceed And Excel), the Listed Desirable S. winner Palomares (Sepoy) and the Listed Desirable S. winner Palomares (Commands).
