WHERE ARE THEY NOW: WHITMORE

By Christie DeBernardis

In this new TDN column, Christie DeBernardis will tell the stories of accomplished and/or popular former racehorses who are now enjoying second careers as show horses, track ponies, etc.

Champion sprinter Whitmore (Pleasantly Perfect) and Laura Moquett’s relationship goes back to when he was just a 2-year-old who refused to go around the racetrack without some coaxing. Fast forward seven years and that cantankerous juvenile is now an Eclipse winner and Breeders’ Cup winner and has been retired from racing as Moquett’s personal riding horse.

On Thursday, less than 13 miles from the scene of Whitmore’s greatest racetrack triumph, the pair had their show ring debut in the Retired Racehorse Project’s competitive trail event at the Kentucky Horse Park.

“We had some issues to deal with between the wind and sun creating some scary shadows,” Moquett said. “He looked at the first obstacle and said hard no, but he worked through it and completed the course. I was really proud of him. He kept his composure really well despite that, which was incredible.”

She continued, “He had so many groupies. It was phenomenal. They followed him from the barn all the way up to the course. They were adoring. It was really cool to see. If this gets even one person to give a horse a second shot at a new career, that is so important.”

SEVEN BOOK 1 SUPPLEMENTS TO KEENELAND NOVEMBER

The Keeneland November sale catalogue, which was released Oct. 4, has grown by seven Book 1 supplements. A total of 233 horses are now scheduled to go through the ring in the opening session, which will kick off the sale Nov. 7.

The supplements include:

- Chardy Party (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), winner of the 2022 GIII Soaring Softly S., is consigned by Eaton Sales, agent for Stonestreet Stables. She is catalogued as a broodmare prospect.

- Golden Amber (Gemologist), a winning half-sister to Giant’s Causeway S. winner Exaggerated (Blame), is in foal to Maclean’s Music. She is consigned by Hill ‘n’ Dale at Xalapa.

Whitmore entered Ron and Laura Moquett’s barn as a rambunctious 2-year-old and was initially owned by their Southern Springs Stables. While new owners later bought into Whitmore, one thing remained unchanged and that was Laura Moquett, who was the chestnut’s regular rider and traveling companion.

“As a 2-year-old, I really had to focus on him because he was a maniac,” Moquett said. “We couldn’t get him around the racetrack, not one lap, and would not go the right direction. We did a bunch of schooling on that to teach him to go forward. We kept him company, even breezing, until the last couple of years because otherwise he would stop in the middle of the track and do some shenanigans. But, with company, he did his job and ran other horses down, which is funny because it ended up being his running style.”

She continued, “Basically, if I was in town, I would be on his back every day. If we had to go out of town for a stakes race, I was his companion. Most of it was great, but sometimes he pushes your buttons and he loves doing it.”

With a stallion career off the table for the gelded seven-time graded stakes winner, Ron Moquett consulted his partners about Whitmore’s future when it came time for retirement. Everyone readily agreed to leave him in the hands of his lifelong friend Laura Moquett.

“Ron had talked to the partners and everyone came to the consensus we could keep him the rest of his life,” Moquett said. “I still wanted to be around him daily, so thankfully they were totally on board. He got injured at Saratoga last summer and they said he could come back to the races, but the partners agreed he had done more than enough. I was upset when he was injured, but I knew he was going to be okay and I would get to keep him, so it was a weird mix of emotions. It was devastating in the barn for our team because he was the big horse and had that mojo everyone wants to be around.”

That injury came during Saratoga’s 2021 meet and Whitmore was given down time for the rest of the year.

“We couldn’t bring him back until late December and I was just too busy at Oaklawn to start him,” Moquett said. “It didn’t materialize this winter and I was just trying to get his feet back in shape. That will always be a challenge. I thought there was no way we could do the RRP, though that was all I wanted to do. I thought it would be really great for his fans to see him do something else. There are a lot of people that follow him and were upset when he got injured.”

She added, “I worked with him five or six times in the round pen just doing ground work in late March. Then I hauled him to a friend’s place maybe four times and did some basic under saddle work. That was about as much as I could do until we got back to Kentucky after the Derby.”

Moquett and Whitmore did manage to fit one other outing in during their winter in Hot Springs, a trip to Oaklawn for “Whitmore Day.”

“The first day at Oaklawn he was actually decent,” Moquett said. “I think he was like, ‘I’m back baby!’ Days two through four, I was like I might die. One of the jocks went by and was like, ‘He’s going to drop you.’ I said, ‘He hasn’t yet! Don’t worry, I will make it home.’ He was just so excited. By the fifth day, he realized we are just going to go out there and walk. I had the outrider next to me in case. He got out there and everyone was yelling for him and he was like, ‘Okay, this is for me. That’s right. I get it.’ I told them if they didn’t get me off the track before the gates popped and we accidentally won the race, I was taking the money.”

Once they returned to Kentucky in May, the real work began.

“He is at a barn in Goshen that the mounted police use,” Moquett said. Cont. p5

Moquett continued, “That was part of what inspired the competitive trail idea. When he first got up here, I just legged him up trail riding at first. The first time I went anywhere with him was in June to Masterson Station for a jumper/trail night. It took me like 30 minutes to get him to the course. He was terrified of all the stuff they had set up. It blew my mind too. I was like there is no way I can do this. The mounted police take their horses to Hinkle Equestrian Center in Indiana to prep for competitions. We went over there about 12 times and that helped him a bunch. He is a fairly easy horse to ride and he will only get better. I am lucky.”

Whitmore’s age and experience racing at venues from coast-to-coast have aided him in his second career.

“He has been on airplanes and at a bunch of different venues with music and crowds,” said Moquett. “I think that is an advantage, especially for this class, as is his age. He is a lot more settled than a young horse is.”

As for the future, Moquett has a few ideas, but is letting Whitmore dictate the plans.

“I would love to try the hunters with him,” the horsewoman said. “But, I am enjoying every second of it and we will see what he wants to do. It’s his world, I am just living in it.”

- Ruthin (GB) (Ribchester {Ire}) won the 2022 TVG Limestone S. and is offered as a broodmare prospect. The half-sister to Irish MGISW Hit the Bid (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) is consigned by Eaton Sales, agent for Stonestreet Stables.
- GSW Unspurned (Lemon Drop Kid) is offered in foal to Ghostzapper. From the family of GSW A Z Warrior (Bernardini), she is consigned by Hill ‘n’ Dale at Xalapa.

The November sale, which has now catalogued 3,698 horses, is scheduled over 10 sessions from Nov. 7-16.

MARK TAYLOR JOINS KEENELAND BOARD

Mark Taylor, president and CEO of Taylor Made Farm, has been named to Keeneland’s Advisory Board of Directors. Longtime Keeneland directors Louis Lee Haggin III, Charles Nuckols III and Duncan Taylor will move to emeritus roles on the Advisory Board.

“We welcome Mark Taylor to the Keeneland Board, where his lifelong experience in the horse industry and his business acumen will be invaluable as we navigate future opportunities and challenges,” Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin said. “We also thank Louis Haggin, Charlie Nuckols and Duncan Taylor for their decades-long service and commitment to the Board.”

INTO MISCHIEF TOPS SPENDTHRIFT’S 2023 STUD FEES

Into Mischief once again leads Spendthrift Farm’s roster for 2023 with his stud fee remaining at $250,000 S&N, the operation announced Thursday.

Spendthrift has added four new stallions including MGISWs Jackie’s Warrior (Maclean’s Music) and Cyberknife (Gun Runner), who are both pointing for the Breeders’ Cup. The other new additions are GI Belmont S. winner Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo) and GSW Greatest Honour (Tapit), who are both available for inspection at the farm.

Champion Jackie’s Warrior, the likely favorite in the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint, will command a fee of $50,000 S&N. GI Arkansas Derby and GI Haskell Invitational S. winner Cyberknife’s fee will be determined after he runs in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic. Mo Donegal, who retired shortly after his Classic victory, will stand for $20,000 S&N. While regally bred Greatest Honour will be at an introductory fee of $7,500 S&N.

“We are extremely excited about the new stallions we are bringing in for 2023. They represent exactly what we hope to do each year, in terms of offering quality and value at all levels of the market,” said Ned Toffey, Spendthrift general manager.

Toffey continued, “Cyberknife won two of the most high-profile Grade Is for 3-year-olds, and Greatest Honour has a rare combination of talent, looks and pedigree that you don’t find often at his level of the market. From $50,000 on down to $7,500, all four of these horses were precocious, displayed immense talent, are tremendous physicals, and possess the sire power breeders are looking for.”

Into Mischief’s GI Kentucky Derby-winning son and Horse of the Year Authentic will stand for $60,000 S&N for his third season, down $10,000 from last year. Meanwhile Bolt d’Oro will see his fee increase on the back of a strong freshman season, going from $20,000 to $35,000 S&N.

Omaha Beach and Yaupon will remain at $30,000 S&N. Omaha Beach’s yearlings have proven quite popular, making him the leader in his class at the recent yearling auctions. Yaupon is standing his second season this year.

Spendthrift’s stallions under $20,000 are led by champion Vino Rosso at $15,000 S&N, down from $20,000 last year. MGISW Vekoma and champion Mitole will also stand for $15,000 S&N. Mitole’s fee is unchanged from last year and Vekoma is down slightly from $17,500. Goldencents, Known Agenda, Rock Your World and Jimmy Creed will all stand for $10,000 S&N.

TODD PLETCHER JOINS THE TDN WRITERS’ ROOM PODCAST

Todd Pletcher, this week’s Green Group Guest of the Week on the TDN Writers’ Room presented by Keeneland, has 12 Breeders’ Cup wins, a total that figures to be on the rise next month. Pletcher said he will have at least eight horses running in the Breeders’ Cup, a group headed by his dynamic duo of Nest (Curlin) and Malathaat (Curlin) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff, Life Is Good (Into Mischief) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic, Forte (Violence) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, Annapolis (War Front) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile and Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies. Last but certainly not least, Pletcher will send out Major Dude (Bolt d’Oro) in the GI Juvenile Turf and Happy Saver (Super Saver) in the Classic. He said that Lost Ark (Violence) is a possible starter in the Juvenile.

At this point, it certainly could be,” Pletcher said when asked if this is the best Breeders’ Cup lineup he has ever had. “We couldn’t be more pleased with the group that we have.”

Pletcher is particularly strong in the Distaff where he will likely send out the favorite and the second choice. Both Nest and Malathaat will come into the Breeders’ Cup off of wins over the weekend. Nest won the GII Beldame S. and Malathaat won the GI Spinster. Who is better? Pletcher said he doesn’t know.

“I truly don’t know which one is better,” he said. “I think they’re both spectacular fillies. They have so much in common, being by Curlin and out of A.P. Indy mares. They have terrific dispositions and are easy to train. The one difference that we know that maybe not everyone else can see is that Malathaat tends to run to her competition a little bit. She knows when she makes the lead and tends to idle when she does. Nest has that unique ability to cruise and then quicken, like we saw in Alabama, the Coaching Club and the other day in Beldame. She’s head and head and then, boom, she’s five in front. It will be interesting to see how the race unfolds, how much pace is in there. Malathaat will probably be in a position where she has to come after Nest at some point.”

Overshadowed by Flightline (Tapit), Life Is Good is somewhat flying under the radar when it comes to the Classic. That’s partially because his Beyer number dipped to a 97 when he won the GI Woodward S.

“The Woodward was the only two-turn race of the day and it was run on a sloppy track that was changing throughout the day,” Pletcher said. “I honestly don’t know if the Beyer figure was correct or not. If you look at ThoroGraph or Ragozin he ran much faster than that. He went the final three-eighths in 36 1/5, which is pretty hard to do no matter what the circumstances are. I think that Law Professor (Constitution) ran the best race of his life to be second and it was another 10 lengths back to Keepmeinmind (Laoban). He didn’t win by 19 1/4 lengths like Flightline did, and I think that was the comparison everyone was looking for. But we are running back in five weeks so we wanted to be ready to run and ready to win but also be thoughtful that we had five weeks to go to the Classic.”

Pletcher is hoping that Life Is Good gets the kind of fast track in the Classic that he appears to prefer.

“Life is Good’s weapon is his speed, his ability to go fast and keep going,” he said. “What I am looking for is to hopefully get him on a track for the first time in a while that is a really fast track, a true glib surface. The entire meet at Aqueduct the track has been very slow. Prior to that, Saratoga was a very deep, demanding track. In Dubai, we caught a really deep, demanding surface. I am hoping at Keeneland we get a speed-favoring track, one that, for the first time in while, will play to his strengths.”

Elsewhere on the show, panelists Randy Moss, Zoe Cadman and Bill Finley voiced their own opinion on the Nest-versus-Malathaat debate. When asked who is the horse to beat, there were two votes for Nest and one for Malathaat. The podcast, which is also sponsored by Coolmore, the KTOB, Lane’s End, XBTV, Three Chimneys, West Point Thoroughbreds and Legacy Bloodstock, also included a deep dive into last week’s major races and a look ahead at what’s in the offing this weekend, including a shout-out to the jumpers who will vie Saturday at Far Hills in the GI Grand National.

NTRA REPORTS ON ADDITIONAL H-2B VISAS

The Department of Homeland Security and Department of Labor will be issuing a regulation that will make an additional 64,716 H-2B temporary nonagricultural worker visas available to employers for fiscal year (FY) 2023, on top of the 66,000 H-2B visas that are normally available each fiscal year, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association reported in a release Thursday. By making these supplemental visas available at the outset of the fiscal year, which began Oct. 1, 2022, those in the horse industry, such as trainers, who rely heavily on the H-2B visa program to fill various backside positions, will be able to better address some of their labor needs this fiscal year.

“While this is good news for the industry, a permanent solution must be put in place to ensure our industry has a sufficient and reliable labor pool going forward,” said NTRA President and CEO Tom Rooney. “We will continue to engage Congress and the Administration to advocate for comprehensive immigration reform that will provide long-term solutions.”

The H-2B program permits employers to temporarily hire noncitizens to perform nonagricultural labor or services in the United States. The employment must be of a temporary nature, such as a one-time occurrence, seasonal need, or intermittent need.

TRUE VALOUR RETIRED TO NORTHVIEW

R. Larry Johnson’s MGSW True Valour (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}--Sutton Veny {Ire}, by Acclamation {GB}) has been retired and will stand at Northview Stallion Station near Chesapeake City, Md. The Graham Motion trainee was last seen finishing second to dual Breeders’ Cup winner Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) by just a head in the Gill Troy S. at Saratoga Aug. 5.

The 8-year-old True Valour began his career in Ireland, where he captured the G3 Ballycorus S., and culminated in the U.S., where his wins included the Gill City of Hope Mile S. and the Gill Thunder Road S. His 34-7-4-9 record covers 15 black-type wins or placings, including a third to Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) in the GI Jaipur S. at Belmont this summer. It was his second start of the year after being away for 13 months due to injury while competing in the 2021 G1 Al Quoz Sprint in Dubai. Johnson had purchased him for $225,000 at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age sale and retires the son of Kodiac with earnings of $690,237.

“True Valour’s return to racing in 2022 was remarkable and he displayed more speed than any horse I have ever trained,” said Motion. “With his pedigree, ability, and conformation I think he has the qualities to be a successful stallion.”

A half-brother to the Stonestreet-owned and Wesley Ward-trained 2-year-old No Kay Never (Ire) (No Nay Never), who finished third in the Oct. 8 Woodbine Cares S., True Valour is from the same family as G1 Two Thousand Guineas winner Mystiko (Secreto).

True Valour will stand for $3,000 live foal. Multiple mare discounts will be available.

GRAYSON-JOCKEY CLUB’S ‘DINE OUT FOR CHARITY’ FUNDRAISER BEGINS OCT. 26

Seven Central Kentucky restaurants will participate in a new “Dine out for Charity” fundraiser for Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation. The restaurants will donate a percentage of all sales—or a percentage of sales from specialty menu items—to Grayson from Oct. 26 through Nov. 29.

“Horses of all breeds and disciplines are an integral part of Kentucky’s culture and economy, and we are thankful for the support of many of Central Kentucky’s best restaurants in facilitating equine health,” said Dell Hancock, chairman of Grayson. “We believe that this initiative is a great opportunity to engage the local community while educating its members on the importance of equine veterinary research.”

Participating Lexington restaurants are Azur, Bru Burger, Dudley’s, J. Render’s, and Lexington Diner, while Lil’s Coffee House and Trackside at the Depot in Paris will also participate.

Contact individual restaurants directly for details on how they are contributing to Dine out for Charity.
NATIONAL MUSEUM OF RACING TO HOST 'COUNTDOWN TO THE BREEDERS' CUP'

The National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame, located in Saratoga, will host a “Countdown to the Breeders' Cup” program Saturday, Oct. 29. Jeff Carle, a former jockey and trainer, as well as a public handicapper, and Michael Veitch, a chairman of the Museum's Hall of Fame Historic Review Committee, a member of the Hall of Fame Nominating Committee, and a turf writer with extensive credits, will provide analysis and predictions for each of the 14 races. Brien Bouyea, the Museum's communications officer, will serve as the event moderator.

The program, which will kick off at noon in the Hall of Fame, is free to attend for Museum members and is included with paid admission for non-members. Drawings for prize packages and Museum memberships will also be included.

STAKES WINNER GET WESTERN JOINS OLD FRIENDS

Stakes winner Get Western (Get Stormy--Marquetessa, by Marquetry) has joined the retirees at Old Friends in Georgetown, Kentucky. The 7-year-old gelding won the 2019 Old Friends S. at Kentucky Downs for trainer Charles LoPresti and owner Ward C. Pitfield. The “Win for Life” contest guaranteed him placement at Old Friends upon retiring from racing.

Eventually transferred to J. Reeve McGaughey’s barn, Get Western’s last race was at Turfway Park in February of 2022. He was transferred to the Secretariat Center, located at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, for retraining and rehoming, but soundness issues prevented his embarking on a second career. He finished his racing career with four wins from 21 starts and career earnings of $289,641.

DERBY MUSEUM ADDS BOARD MEMBERS

The Kentucky Derby Museum has added three new members to its Board of Directors: Business First publisher Lisa Benson, philanthropist Rhonda Jo Conner, and attorney Craig C. Dilger.

“The Kentucky Derby Museum is fortunate to add three impressive and accomplished minds on its Board of Directors,” said chair Glenn Haygood. “I’m excited to see our new members bring a fresh perspective to the table as the museum prepares for two big milestones—the 50th anniversary of Secretariat’s Derby win in 2023 and the 150th anniversary of the Kentucky Derby in 2024.”

Board Members Mark Bacon, W. Edwin Lewis, and Chris Whelan are departing after completing their terms with the Board.

In addition, Katie Fussenegger, vice president of the museum, has been promoted to executive vice president.

“I’m thrilled to reward Katie with this promotion as a reflection of her impactful work at the Kentucky Derby Museum,” said Patrick Armstrong, President & CEO. “Katie has a bright future ahead, and we are grateful to have her talents leading the Team here at Kentucky Derby Museum.”

BELMONT TO HOST NATIONAL STAIR CLIMB

Belmont Park will host the eighth National Stair Climb, in partnership with Fire Department City of New York (FDNY) and the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation (NFFF), Sunday. Participants will climb 2,200 steps of the grandstand at Belmont Park, symbolizing the 110 stories of the World Trade Center Towers—the ascent that FDNY firefighters took Sept. 11, 2001—and the ultimate sacrifice that 343 first responders made that fateful day.

“When first responders die in the line of duty, the entire fire service and country grieves,” said Chief Ron Siarnicki, who is the NFFF executive director. “It’s not something you can ever forget. We look for ways to make sure their lives and their sacrifices are honored. We also want to ensure that the families, departments and friends of the fallen find comfort and resources they need to rebuild their lives.”

Registration and additional information on donating to the stair climb can be found here.

GAUGHAN BECOMES INDEPENDENT CHAIR OF ONTARIO RACING BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Andrew Gaughan has been appointed the next Independent Chair of the Ontario Racing Board of Directors. Jamie Martin will be an Executive Consultant to the board.

Gaughan became a manager with Woodbine Entertainment Group (then the Ontario Jockey Club) in 1994, and over the next three decades served in senior leadership positions with WEG, Magna Entertainment Corporation, Scientific Games Corporation (NASDAQ listed), and Sportech PLC a UK based publicly traded (LSE) gaming technology business.

“Andrew is the ideal candidate to step into the role,” said outgoing Independent Chair John Hayes. “Over an accomplished career as a senior executive, including the CEO role at Sportech PLC, he developed the skills that will be required to facilitate collaboration with Ontario Racing’s partners and stakeholders and ensure that the industry is well positioned for success in the coming years.”

Over the previous 30-plus years Martin has held leadership positions with Grand River Raceway, Woodbine Entertainment Group, and the Western Fair Association.

“Jamie’s experience with both the Standardbred and Thoroughbred breeds, and his relationships with racetrack and other industry partners across the province make him an invaluable asset to the Ontario Racing Board of Directors,” said Ontario Racing Board and Executive Committee Member Katherine Curry. “We look forward to tapping into his wealth of racing knowledge to help the industry achieve its strategic goals.”

Gaughan and Martin begin their roles Nov. 1.

INTO MISCHIEF’S EXTRA ANEJO ROMPS TO ‘STARDOM’ ON DEBUT AT KEENELAND

EXTRA ANEJO, a $1.35-million KEESEP purchase bet down to 7-5 for his debut performance, backed up those odds with an impressive romp on debut to earn ‘TDN Rising Star’ status. After breaking on top, he took steady pressure from a pair of rivals to his outside up the backstretch run. He began to edge clear under his own power into the far turn and showed another gear when asked with a single tap of the crop at the top of the lane to draw off readily. Under a motionless Tyler Gaffalione, Extra Anejo hit the line a geared-down 9 1/2 lengths ahead of a chasing Tshiebwe (Race Day) in second.

Extra Anejo is from the extended female family of champion grass mare Islington (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells). Further back are a plethora of graded stakes performers including: G1SWs Greek Dance (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Mountain High (Ire) (Danehill), MGSw & G1SP Patkai (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), and GSW New Morning (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Superioritycomplex, purchased by Mt. Brilliant Farm for 400,000gns out of the 2017 Tattersalls December Mixed Sale, has a weanling colt by Tapit and was bred back to the leading Gainesway sire for the 2023 season.

7th-Keeneland, $99,588, Msw, 10-13, 2yo, 7f, 1:27.17, ft, 9 1/2 lengths.

EXTRA ANEJO, c, 2, Into Mischief

1st Dam: Superioritycomplex {Ire}, by Hard Spun
2nd Dam: Justlookdontouch (Ire), by Galileo (Ire)
3rd Dam: Hellenic (Ire), by Darshaan (GB)

Sales History: $1,350,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $58,125. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

FRIDAY RACING INSIGHTS: 'RISING STAR'
STROBE RETURNS FOR GODOLPHIN

by Stefanie Grimm

8th-KEE, $110K, Alw, 3yo/up, 6f, 4:44 p.m.

Dubbed a 'TDN Rising Star' for his 4 1/2-length gate-to-wire debut performance on Derby Day at Churchill Downs May 7, STROBE (Into Mischief) returns in the Godolphin royal blue Friday. Given a 99 Beyer Speed Figure for his defeat of Elite Power ( Curlin), who has since won four in a row including last weekend's GI Vosburgh S., Strobe enters off a five-furlong work in 1:00 4/5 Oct. 7 (2/19) at Churchill for trainer Brad Cox. Out of GI Test S. winner Flashing (A.P. Indy), he is a half-brother to SW & MGSP Floodlight (Medaglia d'Oro) and retains Florent Geroux for the ride.

STATIC FIRE (f, 3, Speightster--Enchanting Essence, by Midshipman) began her career with back-to-back wins on both the turf and dirt before sticking to the grass for a pair of stakes races which saw her finish fourth in each. Entered off a career-high 87 Beyer Speed Figure for her effort in the Music City S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 13, the heavy 1-5 choice kept closest to the pace in second while racing two wide into the far turn. Hooked in a duel for the lead with pacesetter Diva Treva (Outwork) from the quarter pole onwards, Static Fire took control into the final furlong and was able to put some distance between her and her rival late, hitting the line 1 3/4 lengths ahead. Enchanting Essence, a half-sister to dual Canadian champion sprinter Essence Hit Man (Speightstown), last produced a yearling filly by Maximus Mischief and was bred to Lexitonian for 2023. Sales History: $40,000 Wlg '19 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-0, $223,140.

CANDY LIGHT (f, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}—Queen Yolanda, by Pioneerof the Nile) graduated fourth out Feb. 24 at Laurel and ran well to be runner-up first time against winners in the Beyond The Wire S. there Mar. 19. Off the board in her next two, she closed to be third in the Woodford Reserve Virginia Oaks last out Sept. 6 at Colonial and was supported to 7-4 favoritism here. Traveling third last at the fence off of a :24.80 quarter and :49.39 half, the $200,000 OBS June buy dove through a rail opening approaching the eighth pole and edged away from longshot Sake (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in the final sixteenth for a 1 1/2-length tally. The winner’s dam has a yearling Hard Spun colt and foaled a filly by the same sire this season before being bred to Twirling Candy. Sales History: $100,000 Ylg ‘20 FTKSEL; $200,000 2yo ‘21 OBSOPN. ONAMARGARITADAY (f, 3, Tu Brutus {Chi}--Caleb's Song, by Read the Footnotes) scored three straight open-lengths successes, two at Louisiana and one at Evangeline, to start her career this spring and summer, and was made the 7-5 chalk to keep it rolling here. Bobbling a bit at the start, the homebred pressed the pace from a close-up second past fractions of :23.95 and :47.95, took over midway around the far turn and powered away down the lane for a 4 1/2-length score. Texas Red Bel (Texas Red) won a photo for second. Lifetime Record: 4-4-0-0, $60,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

CHIRINGO (c, 2, Bolt d'Oro--Street Love, by Street Boss), sixth after an eventful trip on debut over 5 1/2 furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 7, returned as the 7-2 second choice Thursday. Shuffled back after bumping with a rival at the start, he settled in fourth just off the inside. Tipped out for a four-wide move at the head of the lane, the $260,000 OBS March grad gained steadily on pacesetter Listentothemusic (Maclean’s Music) and took over close to home to score by a half-length. The 16th winner for his freshman sire (by Medaglia d'Oro), Chiringo is out of a full-sister to G1 & GISP Capo Bastone. Street Love produced back-to-back foals by Flatter in 2021 and 2022 and was bred to Improbable for next season. Sales History: $50,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP; $260,000 2yo ’22 OBSMAR. DISSOLUTE (f, 2, Union Rags--Sweet Avery, by Distorted Humor), a mild 2-1 favorite in her first start since bringing $130,000 at OBSAPR, sprinted clear of the field in this rained-off event and never looked back. Bigz’s Cabana Boy (Munnings) gave chase early on but quickly faded as Dissolute only widened her gap after a :21.77 opening quarter-mile. Reeled In (Dialed In) closed well for second but was never a threat to the leader as Dissolute hit the line 9 1/4 lengths ahead. Sweet Avery has since produced a yearling filly by Malibu Moon and a weanling colt by Liam’s Map before visiting Authentic for 2023. Sales History: $185,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP; $130,000 2yo ’22 OBSAPR. GYPSYROSELEE (f, 3, Goldencents--Iknowuthinkimsexy {MSP, $158,145}, by Count the Time) showed an above-average worktab for this unveiling, highlighted by a bullet half-mile from the gate in :48 3/5 (1/32) Aug. 13 at Evangeline, and was backed to 12-5 favoritism. Quickly establishing command, the dark bay was pressed by a longshot through splits of :24.31 and :48.93, shook away from that rival turning for home and widened to a 2 1/2-length graduation. Fellow firster Unified Love (Unified) completed the exacta. The winner has a yearling Flashpoint half-brother named Flashy N Sexy. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,000. PROUVER (f, 2, Justify--Ready to Act {GSW, $249,362}, by More Than Ready) finished last of 10 debuting around two-turns on the Saratoga turf Sept. 4 and was made a 79-10 proposition adding Lasix while drawing in off the also-eligible list here. Off a bit awkwardly, the gray settled in sixth behind fractions of :23.18 and :48.04, advanced while spinning six wide into the stretch, hooked up with Always Laughing (Mastery) at the sixteenth pole and just out-kicked that rival by a nose. The 19th winner for her freshman sire (by Scat Daddy), Prouver is a half to Mubakker (Speightstown), GSP-UAE, $170,527. \textbf{U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN}

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Hanshin and Tokyo Racecourses. The final legs of this year’s Triple Crown are slated for the next couple of weekends, with Stars on Earth (Jpn) (Epiphaneia (Jpn)) going for the sweep in Sunday’s 2000-meter G1 Shuka Sho at Hanshin:

AIM IN LIFE (f, 2, Kitten's Joy--Elisheva, by Smart Strike) is the recipient of a major recent pedigree update, as her dam is a daughter of champion Believe (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), whose son Gendarme (Kitten's Joy)—a debut winner over this course and distance before landing a Group 2 five years ago—caused an upset in the G1 Sprinters’ S. at Nakayama less than two weeks ago. Believe is also the dam of MSW & G1SP Faridat (Kingmambo) and SW/GSP Fiducia (Medaglia d’Oro). B-North Hills Co Limited (KY)

9th-TOK, ¥19,530,000 ($133k), Allowance, 2yo, 1600m

SATONO MISCHIEF (JPN) (c, 2, Into Mischief--Play Pretty, by Indian Charlie) finished seventh of nine going a mile on turf in his career bow back in June, but unsurprisingly turned it around when tried on the dirt for the first time, graduating by six lengths at Sapporo Aug. 7 (video, SC 11). Play Pretty, a half-sister to GI Preakness S. hero Shackleford (Forestry), GISW Lady Joanne (Orientate) and MGSWs Baghdaria (Royal Academy) and Afleeting Lady (Afleet Alex), was purchased by Shadai Farm with this colt in utero for $750,000 at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. CITY OF HUNTER (f, 2, City of Light--War Tigress, by War Chant), a $90,000 purchase out of last year’s Keeneland September Sale, is out of a stakes-winner dam who is responsible for GIII San Clemente S. victress War Heroine (Lonhro {Aus}) as well as three-time Japanese winner Washington Tesoro (Curlicu). Among her freshman sire (by Quality Road)’s eight winners is the Breeders’ Cup-bound Chop Chop, recent runner-up in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. B-Waymore LLC (KY)

AFTERNOON DRESS (f, 2, Bernardini--Beautify, by Lemon Drop Kid) is the first foal from her dam, a daughter of two-time Eclipse Award and GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff heroine Ashado (Saint Ballado), who famously sold to Godolphin for $9 million to top the 2005 Keeneland November Sale. Ashado is a full-sister to the late G1SW Sunrunner and GSW Saint Stephen. B-Godolphin (KY)

SEALIWAY TO STAND AT NEW VENTURE HARAS DE BEAUMONT

The 2021 G1 Champion S. winner Sealiway (Fr) will retire to his owner’s Haras de Beaumont near Deauville for the 2023 covering season.

The 4-year-old son of Galiway (GB) will be the first stallion to stand under the Beaumont banner, the new base for Kamel and Pauline Chehboub’s breeding enterprise on land purchased from the Head family at the famed Haras du Quesnay. Haras de Beaumont will be managed by Mathieu Alex.

"I think we have the place for this champion in France. He deserves his place at stud," Pauline Chehboub told TDN. "He was the best 2-year-old in France, one of the best 2-year-olds in Europe, and he was the best horse in France last year.

"To be able to stand him at such a magical place as Quesnay and to have as our first stallion a champion such as Sealiway makes us very proud and excited. It is a new turn in our career as owners and breeders. Our goal is to breed at the top level and to race the next champion."

The Chehbous, who race under the name Haras de la Gousserie, campaigned Sealiway in partnership with his breeder Guy Pariente. Among his five victories at two, he won the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, the race also won by France’s current champion sire Siyouni (Fr). Cont. p3

CREAM RISES IN BOOK 3

by Chris McGrath

NEWMARKET, UK -- Even in what proved a record-breaking edition, Book 3 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale last year yielded just a couple of six-figure sales. On Thursday, we had two in the first half hour. Any prospectors who had staggered out of the opening two books gasping for some oasis of affordability already knew what they were up against.

To be fair, trade would not remain quite as consistently wild as had been the case across the two preceding catalogues. While unsatisfied demand from Book 2 was transparent in no fewer than eight six-figure transactions, a 26,000gns median was actually unchanged on the equivalent session last year. That suggests a degree of cherry-picking. But a gain of 10 per cent in the average, to 30,960gns, did attest to some overflow into this lower stratum from the sheer, nearly impenetrable strength of the sale to date.

Declarations were made Thursday for Saturday’s QIPCO British Champions Day at Ascot, with the world’s top-rated turf horse Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) leading a classy field for the G1 QIPCO British Champion S. in what is likely his swansong.

A bit disappointing on his Sept. 2 debut at Ascot, Paddington (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) put it all together Thursday in breaking his maiden by five convincing lengths en route to being named a ‘TDN Rising Star.’

Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) has made a significant move in the latest Longines World’s Best Racehorse Rankings courtesy of his 20-length demolition job in the G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran.

The following season Sealiway was runner-up to St Mark's Basilica (Fr) in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and also ran fifth in the Arc before winning the Champion S., in which he beat Classic winners Adayar (Ire), Mac Swiney (Ire), and Mishriff (Ire).

The Chehboub family previously stood their homebred Arlington Million winner Spirit One (Fr) at stud in France but are now in the midst of a significant expansion of both their racing and breeding operations. Kamel Chehboub’s daughter Pauline is managing the racing stable recently purchased in Chantilly which is now the base of Ludovic Rovisse, who is training 35 horses for the family.

Commenting on the significant purchase of part of Quesnay, Chehboub said, "I think it’s very important to us to perpetuate what has happened on this land. The Head family was an example for everyone in this industry and for us too.

"Beaumont is a major project, a story of people and encounters. We have called on Mathieu and Emilie Alex who, thanks to their expertise, will support us in doing everything possible to try to achieve our objectives.

"It will be exciting in December to be able to show breeders the stud and Sealiway when they are in Deauville for the sales. We will be supporting the horse and we would love to add some new mares to the stud because he deserves to be covering mares at the top level. Unfortunately we sold Rougir last year, as he deserves this type of filly."

In a banner year for Haras de la Gousserie in 2021, Rougir (Fr) (Territories {Ire}) won the G1 Prix de l'Opera on Arc weekend a fortnight before Sealiway’s triumph on British Champions Day at Ascot. The filly was sold later that year by Alex under the Sumbe banner for €3 million to Michel Zerolo on behalf of Peter Brant and Michael Tabor. In Tabor’s colours she won last weekend’s GI E.P. Taylor S. for the Chad Brown stable.
"We are proud to have raced such a filly," said Chehboub. "She showed on Saturday that she was still the mare we had in France. I think she just needed some time to acclimatise to a new country, and one that's very different in France."

For Chehboub and her father, the search is now on for the next stars to race under their new title of Ecurie de la Gousserie from their Chantilly yard alongside Les Aigles.

"I think my father is proud of what we have achieved so far, and the continuity of that is our project now. We have our eyes on the future. I would say the best is in front of us and that's very exciting."

At Haras de Beaumont, Mathieu Alex has been appointed to run the stud and launch the career of Sealiway, a role for which he is well qualified, having previously worked with leading French sire Le Havre (Ire), among others, during his days at Haras de Montfort et Preaux, later known as Sumbe.

"It is exciting to start our activity with a horse with the class of Sealiway," he said. "His performances at the highest level, his warrior attitude and his longevity make him a true champion."

"The Chehboub family and Guy Pariente are determined to do everything they can to give Sealiway the best possible start at stud. This is very positive for the French breeding industry. We will do our utmost to involve breeders in this exciting project and thus share the success of such an adventure."

“The horse was well placed by his owners in the sale and they got well paid,” McCormack said. “He’s the nicest horse in the sale. Great step to him, good pedigree, a touch of class about him.”

That pedigree had something old and something new, together creating something nicely “blue” in terms of blood: the colt’s fourth dam was a sister to none other than Mill Reef, while his mother is a sister to the dam of last month’s G1 Grosser Preis von Baden winner Mendocino (Ger) Adlerflug (Ger).

The best operators, demonstrably, don’t drop their attention at any stage and that’s a compliment to be divided between consignor and purchaser: Croom House’s 2,400,000gns Frankel colt in Book 1, the second highest price of the whole sale, was also bought by Magnier (in partnership, in that instance, with White Birch Farm).

Rising Tide Floats All Boats For Whitsbury

There’s not so much a buzz around Havana Grey (GB), as a deafening barrage of fireworks. After members of his second crop, conceived at 6,500gns, had realized up to 325,000gns in Book 2, here he accounted for two of the three highest prices of the session.

One of the Whitsbury stallion’s first big advertisements is Listed St Hugh’s S. winner Cuban Mistress (GB), whose full-sister raised 115,000gns from Anthony Stroud, acting for an unnamed client. This filly was presented as 1482 by her sire’s own farm, whose director Ed Harper was ecstatic about the way his flourishing sires are moving up the home herd.

“It’s been a year of updates for our mares,” he said. “Mares that were in the twilight zone are now zipping up the escalator and suddenly look exciting. When you get two stallions on your roster like Showcasing (GB) and Havana Grey (GB), they’re just constantly doing favours to the broodmare band. It’s just magic, it’s been a fantastic year.”

He explained that mares are recruited to work across the board, “so they can just hop around the roster”. But Whitsbury had stumbled across “an uncanny nick” between Sakhee’s Secret (GB) mares—like the dam of this filly—and Havana Grey, which has so far yielded not just Cuban Mistress but also G3 Cornwallis S. winner Rumstar (GB) and promising debut second Destined (GB). “That’s from three runners,” Harper marvelled. “I think anyone with a Sakhee’s Secret mare must be ringing me at the moment!”

No Grey Areas For Foley

Another six-figure hit for Havana Grey was the first foal of So Brave (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), presented by Carmel Stud as Lot 1499 and purchased by Joe Foley for Clipper Logistics at 125,000gns.

“A lovely filly,” Foley remarked. “We saw her yesterday, the first one we saw: she was recommended to us by the breeders and by Ed from Whitsbury. She’s a really good-looking filly from a fast mare who I remember when she was with Archie Watson, a real speedy 2-year-old. Importantly the breeders are mating the mare well: she has a foal by Showcasing (GB) and has been to Pinatubo (Ire), which is encouraging.

“Havana Grey is a highly promising young stallion. We underbid on a colt yesterday and were keen to buy a nice one. Last year you could see they were all of a mould: he was either going to be a very good stallion or a very bad stallion. Luckily for the team at Whitsbury, he is the former! They are so genuine, like himself.”

With 55 yearlings so far corralled for Clipper and the associated Bronte Collection, Foley could hardly be better placed to gauge the astonishing buoyancy of the market.

“It has been strong from the start and strong today, which is brilliant to see,” he reflected. “It just shows the fortitude of this business. It’s a great sport, a great business, and people get fun out of investing in racehorses. Maybe after the negative times we have had in the recent past, and maybe will have in the future, people are keen to spend some money and have some fun.

“Investing in the bloodstock industry is fun investment: you can love football or cricket all you like, but you can’t invest in them. You can love racing and invest in it, get double the kick. I have seen first-hand the fun the Bronte syndicate has had together this year, going to Royal Ascot with four runners and having the filly placed in the [G2] Queen Mary. Investing in stocks and shares, you don’t get to go and have a bottle of champagne with your mates and say, ‘Yes, we won the Listed race!’” Cont. p7

Trio Swing For The Fences Again

Whitsbury’s established heavy hitter Showcasing (GB) also achieved a big score on the back of a smart juvenile. For his daughter Swingalong (Ire) has turned out to be 120,000gns well spent in Book 2 last year for Blandford Bloodstock, Karl Burke and Sheikh Juma Dalmook al Maktoum, the G2 Lowther S. winner having run a very creditable fourth when upped to the elite tier for the GI Cheveley Park S. And the same triumvirate was duly on the lookout for another daughter of Showcasing, whose farm filled that need with Lot 1384 at 115,000gns.

This filly’s half-brother Shouldvebeenaring (GB) had elevated the page since it went to press, winning a valuable Goffs UK sale race at the Ebor meeting and following up in listed company at Ripon 11 days later. That makes their dam Lady Estella (Ire) (Equiano {Fr}) well found at the end of a modest racing career, in this ring in 2015, for just 12,000gns.

“Sheikh Juma was very keen to get another Showcasing,” confirmed Richard Brown of Blandford. “But we’ve been beaten on everything we wanted so far. Then I saw this filly early yesterday and immediately called my vet—and then immediately called Sheikh Juma! She’s from a very good farm, and of course she had a good update.

“Funnily enough I was in there this morning and along came Karl and I thought, ‘I know where you’re going!’ And sure enough he pulled her out. Luckily we were able to align, with the help of Sheikh Juma, and if she can be half as good as Swingalong we’ll be all right.”

As for that filly’s prospects from here, Brown added: “I was delighted with her run in the Cheveley Park—she was the biggest filly in the field and should get farther next year. Whether she’ll get a mile, I don’t know, but seven should definitely be in her range and I imagine she’d start off in one of the trials. It’s not my decision but if I had to guess I’d say she might go to Newbury for the Fred Darling."

Another Night To Remember

It had become immediately apparent that the overall momentum of the sale was going to be maintained, with the first six-figure transaction recorded for only the sixth animal into the ring. Moreover the 100,000gns docket signed by Nick Bell for a Night of Thunder (Ire) colt from Ballyhimikin Stud also extended a more specific streak for sire and consignor combined.

Night Of Thunder had topped the Book 2 rankings by aggregate, his 25 sales totalling 4,025,000gns, and three of his top five in that catalogue graduated from James Hanley’s farm— which had also sold a colt and filly by the Darley stallion in Book I for 475,000gns and 425,000gns respectively.

This lad is out of French Listed winner Kambura (Fr) (Literato {Fr}), sibling to several group performers and/or producers. He will be trained by Bell’s father Michael for Peter Trainor. “We have put a few horses up to him over the last few weeks,” Bell Jr. said. “I think he’d thought he had got away without having to buy one! But this looks like he good be a real fun horse next summer. The stallion needs no introduction, and this looks a really solid horse. It’s been tough, and the nice ones you have to give a little bit extra for. I’m delighted we got him.”

Taking Your Time Now Takes Money Too

Alex Elliott had a succinct summary of the current market after going to 68,000gns for a Masar (Ire) colt from Maywood Stud [1421].

“Fifty grand is the old 10 grand!” he exclaimed. “You used to be able to pick up these stayers for 10 grand, but you can’t buy a nice horse for that now.”

This was the fourth of five scheduled picks for the Lucra Partnership, with a stipulated average of 50,000gns. The pressure was on for the fifth, then, albeit one of their first investments was G2 Royal Lodge S. winner New Mandate (Ire) (New Bay (GB)). “And we sold him for a lot of money, so everyone is on the pig’s back because of that!” Elliott said.

That syndicate’s trainer Ralph Beckett will also be receiving the preceding lot [1420], a 100,000gns Sea The Moon (Ger) colt consigned by Jamie Railton and purchased on behalf of the nascent Valmont syndicate foiled only in a photo for last week’s G3 Oh So Sharp S. with Lose Yourself (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). “And we sold him for a lot of money, so everyone is on the pig’s back because of that!” Elliott said.

Redvers Finds Another Camacho Nugget

While hugely looking forward to QIPCO Champions’ Day, like his patron Sheikh Fahad, David Redvers kept his eye on the ball to dig out a Camacho colt [1571] from Lodge Park Stud for 105,000gns.

“That’s why we hang around for Book 3,” the Tweenhills man said. “You do find the odd golden nugget.”

The vendors’ homebred mare Alyssum (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) had mustered updates from both her previous winners, Dandy Alys (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) finishing second in the G3 Sweet Solera S. and Hard One To Please (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}) confirming his stature in Scandinavia by winning the G3 Stockholm Cup. Throw Camacho into the mix, and Redvers was always going to be interested.

“He’s been a phenomenally lucky sire for us,” he said. “I must have bought five or six stakes winners by him. And the mare catalogues up unbelievably well now, with the updates. In my view, this filly would have deserved a place in Book 2 and would have made twice as much there. I loved her physical, too. I have bought her entirely on spec, but I will put her up to Sheikh Fahad and David Howden and we’ll see what happens. I’m in for a good bit of her.

“The farm is probably in the top five best breeders in Europe. I bought Ocean Road (Ire) (Australia {GB}) from them [for 150,000gns in Book 1 three years ago] and she’s now a Grade 1 filly.” [Won Gamely S.]

As for the imminent spectacle at Ascot on Saturday, Redvers added: “I’m really looking forward to it. There will be a massive crowd, hopefully the sun will be shining and the going will be perfect. The best horse in the world will be running and it’s what championship racing is all about.”

Calyx Pinhook Solid As A Rock

One of the pinhooks of the day was the work of Rockview Stables, which found a filly from the first crop of Calyx for €12,000 as a foal at Goffs last November. Daughter of an unraced Dubawi (Ire) mare culled by Godolphin, she was brought here as Lot 1426 and realized 105,000gns.

“We just thought she was a very attractive, racy filly and of course she was out of a Dubawi mare,” explained Eleanor Dunne of Rockview. “But we got very lucky with the update. We knew that there was a first foal in Tom Dascombe’s, but Felix Natalis (Ire) (Harry Angel {Ire}) has gone on and won a couple of times again [since the catalogue was published] and then just on Saturday he got the black type at York [third in Listed Rockingham S]. TAKEAWAYS
Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 3 Day 1

- It was an excellent day for Whitsbury Manor Stud. Their thriving stallions Havana Grey (GB) and Showcasing (GB) accounted for three of the top four lots, two presented by their home farm and one by Carmel Stud.

- Whitsbury duly also topped the consignors' table, with eight sold for an aggregate 456,000gns. Havana Grey was top gun for the day, with nine processed for 576,000gns at 64,000gns; with his senior studmate Showcasing next, with a dozen sold for 497,000gns.

- Overall trade was up five percent at 7,647,000gns. With a virtually identical ring offering, but a slightly diminished clearance rate, that translated into gains of 10 percent in average (30,960gns). Though still very healthy at 88 percent this time round, clearance last year had reached an astonishing 93 percent.

- Eight six-figure sales across the session (plus one of 98,000gns) compared with just two out of Book 3 last year, but a stable median of 26,000gns suggested that those who had failed to meet orders in the first two books were confining their recovery mission to the top echelon of this catalogue.

BAAEED HEADS CHAMPION CAST by Tom Frary

Shadwell’s Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) will conclude his racing career against eight rivals in Saturday’s £1.3-million QIPCO Champion S. at Ascot, with the unbeaten luminary drawn in stall one as the final fields were confirmed on Thursday morning. Like the 2016 hero Almanzor (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), the William Haggas flagbearer is on the inside in a contest that should be staged on ground no worse than soft and very likely good-to-soft. Last year’s Derby and King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. hero Adayar (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) is in six in the day’s feature event, with a favourable draw in four also handed to James Wigan and Ballylinch Stud’s Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}).

Haggas is clearly bullish on his chances and said: “I think people want to see a really, really top horse stay unbeaten and win in style. Staying unbeaten is terribly important now that we are nearly there. Frankel obviously was unbeaten, but few are in a career at that level. It would be sad if he was beaten, but not for the people who beat him.

“I respect Adayar very much, as I respect Bay Bridge, who looked a fantastic horse at Sandown, but they’ve got to go to beat him.”

Inspiral’s trainers John and Thady Gosden also have the returning ‘TDN Rising Star’ Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S., which has attracted a field of 14, while in the G1 QIPCO British Champions Sprint S. last year’s winner Creative Force (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) is one of 18. The opening G2 QIPCO British Champions Long Distance Cup sees Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) bid for a third consecutive renewal against KHK Racing’s St Leger hero Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The former’s participation was cemented with the additional precipitation Wednesday.

“It should be fine,” said Trueshan’s trainer Alan King. “They had 4-5mm last night so it’s good-to-soft, soft, and that should be fine for him. I don’t see it drying out much.”

SIYOUNI’S PADDINGTON COLLECTS RISING STAR TAG AT THE CURRAGH by Sean Cronin

Cheveley Park Stud’s G1 Coronation S. and G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois heroine Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) meets nine in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S., with the 2020 hero The Revenant (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) heading the opposition, providing the underfoot conditions suit.

“Modern Games will be declared and we will be on weather watch from thereon,” trainer Charlie Appleby told the Nick Luck Daily podcast Wednesday. “If the description was soft then he would be unlikely to run, but the decision will be made potentially on the day.”

Aidan O’Brien trainee Paddington (GB) (Siyouni {Fr})–Modern Eagle (Ger), by Montjeu {Ire}) failed to land a telling blow over seven furlongs at Ascot in his Sept. 2 debut last time, but made light work of Thursday’s Bill Hanlon Memorial Irish EBF Maiden over the same distance at the Curragh to earn a ‘TDN Rising Star’ with a taking five-length breakthrough at the Co. Kildare venue.

Having already made a splash as the joint-second highest-priced lot when realising €420,000 at last year’s Arqana October sale, the 16-5 favourite broke smartly and stalked the pace set by stablemate Carracci (Quality Road) through halfway. Tanking to the front approaching the quarter-mile marker, he quickened in stylish fashion to go clear entering the final furlong and kept on powerfully in the latter stages to easily outclass Rochester Mike (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) by five lengths.

"I’m delighted with him," O’Brien said. "We were disappointed with him in Ascot, where he was very green, so we gave him a bit of time. He’s a horse that always showed a little bit of class. If the [G3] Killavullan was another week later he could have come back [for one more run this year]. He could start [next season] in a [2000] Guineas trial and then we’ll see with him."

Paddington, a half to the dual stakes-placed Masterpiece (Fr) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), is the latest of four foals out of Listed Prix Belle de Nuit victrix Modern Eagle (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}), herself kin to stakes-winning G3 Loughbrown S. second Mighty Blue (Fr) (Authorized {Ire}) produced by G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Millionaia (Ire) (Peintre Celebre). Millionaia is a daughter of G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Moonlight Dance (Alysheba) and thus a half-sister to G1 Dewhurst S. runner-up Fencing Master (GB) (Oratorio {Ire}), G3 Prix Perth second Memory Maker (Ire) (Lure) and to the dam of G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris victor Ming Dynasty (Fr) (King’s Best). Descendants of Moonlight Dance also include G1 Melbourne Cup runner-up Heartbreak City (Fr) (Lando {Ger}).

KYPRIOS THE EYECATCHER IN LATEST LONGINES WBRR

The latest edition of the Longines World’s Best Racehorse Rankings (WBRR) were released Thursday, with winners from Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe weekend climbing into prominent positions on the list.

Kyprios {Ire} (Galileo {Ire}) ran his seasonal record to six wins from as many appearances with a spectacular performance in the G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran over 4000 metres, where he had some 20 lengths between him and the next-nearest competitor. Also victorious this term in the G1 Gold Cup, G1 Goodwood Cup and G1 Irish St Leger, the 4-year-old was raised from a rating of 120 to 124, equal-seventh with G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. hero Pyledriver (GB) (Harbour Watch {Ire}), dual Japanese Group 1 winner Titleholder (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) and Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}).

The latter was heated narrowly into third in defence of his title in this year’s Arc by Kirsten Rausing’s outstanding Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who is new to the WBRR on a rating of 123 following her narrow success over Vademi (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}, 125) in the ParisLongchamp feature. Her season also includes victories in the G1 Darley Yorkshire Oaks and G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud.

Courtesy of his towering score in the GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile in Canada last month, Godolphin’s Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) now sits on 122 as he prepares for Saturday’s G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. and a clash with the 3-year-old filly Inspirial (GB) (Frankel {GB}, 121) at Ascot, with a return trip to the Breeders’ Cup likely thereafter. ‘TDN Rising Star’ Taiba (Gun Runner) has also been rated on 122 on the strength of his three-length tally in the GI Pennsylvania Derby last month.

In Australia, Godolphin’s Anamoe (Aus) (Street Boss) took the G1 Might and Power S. at Caulfield in Melbourne Oct. 8, adding to his wins in the G1 Winx S. and G1 George Main S. Now rated 121, the homebred is expected to be favoured for the G1 Ladbroke Cox Plate at Moonee Valley on Saturday week.

‘Rising Star’ Flightline (Tapit, 139), who continues his build-up to the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic Nov. S; and Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}, 135), who swansongs in Saturday’s G1 QIPCO British Champions S., remain at the top of the WBRR.

Staying on strongly inside the final two furlongs, the 11-8 favourite hit the line with 2 1/2 lengths to spare over Native Beach (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}). The dual listed-placed dam, whose daughter of Make Believe (GB) sold to O'Donoghue Racing for 45,000gns during the day's Book 3 session, is a half to the multiple winner Grafitti (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Reine Magique (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}), who also scored at that level. HISPANIC (IRE) (c, 2, No Nay Never--Fork Lightning, by Storm Cat), fourth last time in a six-furlong maiden here Sept. 24, was in front after the first furlong. Sent clear by Seamie Heffernan passing halfway, the 3-1 shot had eight lengths to spare over Parting Glass {Ire} (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) at the line. Aidan O'Brien said of the much-improved winner. "When he ran first time he was very green and then the next day he was even greener. We said maybe the penny is not dropping at all, so we put a pair of blinkers on him at home and he grew another leg," he explained. "Seamie said he let him go at the two and it was over. It just goes to show you what can happen when a horse is mentally a little bit backward. There might be a listed race in Doncaster we could look at, but he might be finished for the year." Cont. p14
