LOOK TO THE STARS ON CHAMPIONS DAY

Baaeed | ScoopDyga

by Tom Frary

Just 11 years old in its reconstructed state, Ascot's QIPCO British Champions Day is not yet the supermassive black hole it longs to be, but its gravitational waves are enough to draw in a sufficient quantity of racing's brightest year upon year to justify its title. Saturday's binary stars are the turf overlord Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and the miling dame Inspirale (GB) (Frankel {GB}), whose orbits have been steadily coming closer into view over the past weeks. In the case of the former, this final act of his stellar career in the feature contest serves as a benediction while the filly is here to serve notice of what is to follow in 2023.

Baaeed's work over the past 16 months has led him to this point of valediction and enhanced rank that only very few enjoy. That it comes a rounded 10 years after Frankel's parting moment lends it an even greater solemnity and few will accept anything other than a last stately flourish from Shadwell's prodigy. The product of four decades of nurture by the late Sheikh Hamdan's celebrated organisation beginning with that seminal acquisition of The Queen's Height Of Fashion (Fr), William Haggas's model pupil returns to Berkshire and the human hubbub that such a day generates armed with his usual supreme proficiency.

GRAND GLORY RETURNING TO ARQANA'S VENTE D'ELEVAGE

Grand Glory (GB) (Olympic Glory {Ire}), who sold for €2.5 million to rank as the second-dearest offering at last year's Arqana Vente d'Elevage, is headed back through the Deauville sales pavilion in early December.

The daughter of Madonna Lily (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) belied odds of 23-1 to post a maiden Group 1 victory in last year's Darley Prix Jean Romanet and proved that effort was no fluke when just pipped by eventual €3-million December sales-topper Rougir (Fr) (Territories {Ire}) in the G1 Prix de l'Opera ahead of a bold fifth-place effort behind Contrail (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G1 Japan Cup. RACE PREVIEWS

“Staying unbeaten is terribly important now that we are nearly there,” Haggas said. “Everything so far this year has gone exactly as we wanted it to go when we sat down in March to decide our programme. It’s been half a miracle to get to this situation in the position we are in. It’s up to him now.”

What Of Adayar?

There are a clutch of colts in opposition to Baaeed that have at times shown a sufficient level of dexterity in this type of company to command respect despite his overarching presence. After what Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}) did at Sandown in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. back in May, it is scarcely believable that he has dwindled to the role of bit-player here while even the likes of the big horse’s stablemate My Prospero (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}), who hinted at his latent ability in the summer, is generally disregarded as a genuine threat.

Despite the obvious merits of this select crew, most view the greatest stumbling block to the inevitable coming from Frankel’s Adayar (Ire), a towering colossus last midsummer who was dragged into the mire in Paris and here during the autumn.

Adayar and Charlie Appleby | Hoycubed Photography

Rebuilt and renewed during a painstaking spell spanning months at Moulton Paddocks, it seems strange to say that he represents a still-unknown quantity, but the fact is that nobody can confidently predict what his limitations are heading to this moment of truth.

“He’s had harder home gallops than the race at Doncaster, so theoretically we are going into this weekend as our first start of the year against proper competition,” Charlie Appleby said of Adayar. “We have seen what Adayar can do and he looks in great shape. Last year, we ended up being in front in the Arc and missing his prep race probably told in the end and then he ran in this like a horse whose previous start had gotten to him slightly.”

“Going into it this year, it’s a different ball game,” his notably bullish trainer added. “Can we beat Baaeed? We are going there a fresher horse this year in conditions that we are quite relaxed about. It’s going to be a fantastic race and hopefully one that will go down in the history books as being one of the great races that we have seen over the past few years.”

Marking The Occasion

In the year of the loss of the UK’s longstanding monarch, this renewal of the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. almost demands something special to stamp it and Cheveley Park Stud’s G1 Coronation S. and G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois heroine Inspiral is the most obvious fit. Bar her eclipse on sun-tightened ground in the G1 Falmouth S., the Gosdens’ elite performer of 2022 has set the bar among her age group at this trip while all the time suggesting a deal more to come.

Inspiral | Megan Ridgwell

In each of the four occasions that Gosden Sr. has prevailed in this, it has been from left field. After upsetting Giant’s Causeway and Henrythenavigator with Obervatory and Raven’s Pass, respectively, he delivered Cheveley Park’s nearly horse Persuasive (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) to down Ribchester (Ire) before diverting Roaring Lion from middle-distances for his crowning moment. No such guile is needed when it comes to Inspiral, whose claims are as obvious as those of the stable’s Palace Pier (GB) (Kingman {GB}) who was denied in the past two editions by the deep-ground specialist The Revenant (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and by Baaeed. Cont. p5

“She’s been a superstar this season,” commented Frankie Dettori, who after a mixed year will be hoping to compensate for Palace Pier’s eclipse 12 months ago. “She’s been doing very well at home since and everyone is pleased with how she’s coming into the race. Apart from a blip on the July Course, she’s been a model of consistency and will hopefully prove hard to beat.”

Let The Games Commence

Modern Games winning the Woodbine Mile | Michael Burns

Charlie Appleby has gone through 2022 with the kind of precision strikes that have become the norm at his Newmarket base in recent years and despite the no-show of his Frankel heavyweights Adayar and Hurricane Lane (Ire) and the demise of Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) arrives at Champions Day still poised to win another trainers’ championship. In the QEII, the hardy transatlantic entrepreneur Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) represents key opposition to Inspiral, while the select crew also includes the defending G1 QIPCO British Champions Sprint S. titleholder and favourite Creative Force (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the prime G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. contender Eternal Pearl (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

His biggest “outsider” of the day is Naval Crown (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who returns to the scene of his course-and-distance personal best in the June 18 G1 Platinum Jubilee S., so it is safe to say he is here with a notable party.

“How do you split Creative Force and Naval Crown?,” Appleby asked. “One’s been there and done it on the occasion on this ground and that may be Creative Force’s edge. Eternal Pearl has been strengthening throughout the year and that’s why we purposefully have not dipped our toe into group one company already. She goes into this with a lovely profile and we are quite relaxed ground-wise. Staying is her forte, and if it came up testing it would play to her strengths. Modern Games can do Champions Day and the Breeders’ Cup—it has been done many times before. He had a nice break after the Sussex Stakes and found it all very easy in Canada, so it doesn’t worry me at all.”

Up For Grabs

With the Champion and QEII featuring strong favourites promising great excitement but little return for the currently beleaguered pound in their pockets, value-hunters will be looking at the first three races on the card. In the last five editions, eight of the 25 group races have been won by horses with double-figure odds and so at a time of year when there is great change in external and internal factors there is all to play for. In the Sprint, which is particularly prone to upsets, Chasemore Farm’s G2 Greenlands S. winner Brad The Brief (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), Ballydoyle’s G1 Prix Jean Prat and G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Tenebrism (Caravaggio) and Susan Roy’s G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest third Garrus (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) all trade at inflated odds given their high level of form. Cont. p6

A True Test

The opening G2 QIPCO British Champions Long Distance Cup sees the treble-seeking Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) bid to put a rare defeat on his favoured easy surface in the Sept. 11 G2 Doncaster Cup behind him. Having looked so ill-at-ease behind Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) there, the doubt is that he can deal with two unexposed 3-year-olds in Ballydoyle's Irish Cesarewitch winner Waterville (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and KHK Racing's St Leger hero Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The latter is adding an extra element as the first winner of the Doncaster Classic to come here, with trainer Roger Varian having meticulously weighed up the pros and cons of tackling this at such a fledgling stage of his career. "We think his best is still to come, hopefully on Saturday and beyond into next year," he said of the colt, who looks to become the first of his age group to win this. "He shapes like he'll stay two miles and looks like he might be better over it."

Return Journey

Six years ago, Frankie Dettori steered George Strawbridge's Journey (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) to Fillies & Mares glory as one of the seven Champions Day winners which make him the meeting's leading jockey since its inception, but he has deserted her full-sister Mimiky (GB) in this year's renewal, with the lure of the long-absent 'TDN Rising Star' Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) too strong. That leaves Rab Havlin to seek a second career Group 1 in the space of just eight days, having deputised for the suspended Italian on Commissioning (GB) (Kingman {GB}) in the Fillies' Mile. Frankie's call is a brave one, with Mimiky having beaten last year's winner Eshaada (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) comprehensively in Doncaster's G2 Park Hill S. Sept. 8 and every bit of her profile suggests she is one of those autumn improvers in which Clarehaven specialises. Emily Upjohn was undone over this course and distance in the King George and will need to cut an entirely different figure on this attempted rival with the conservation of energy essential in the early downhill section.

"Emily has had a long lay-off since the King George, where she never really turned up, and her homework since has been very good," Dettori said. "She's been working well at home with a hood on to help settle her and she'll have it on for Saturday. She was extremely keen in the King George, so hopefully this helps. Mimiky is running well and improving a lot, but we've always thought Emily was our number one filly, so I've decided to stick with her. She definitely has the class."

Purchased at last year's December sale by agent Anne-Sophie Yoh on behalf of owner Xavier Marie's Haras de Hus, Grand Glory has trained on nicely this season at six, topped by a popular success in the G3 Prix Allez France at ParisLongchamp in May. A sound third to State of Rest (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot in June, Grand Glory was fourth in the G1 Prix Vermeille Sept. 11 and a latest fifth to Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the Oct. 2 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. She is currently being prepared for a return engagement in the Japan Cup at the end of November.

“In the beginning, Mr. Marie wished to start breeding, so we bought mares with exceptional pedigrees, including Grand Glory,” explained Yoh. “However, this purchase also enabled him to discover more about life as an owner, and he has enjoyed it so much that he has decided to concentrate on this. For this reason, Grand Glory will go under the hammer as a broodmare prospect. She will be offered by [her trainer] Gianluca Bietolini and his team, which seems a fitting next step for this incredible mare.”

BASEMENT TRADE SHOWS SOLID CORE

by Chris McGrath

NEWMARKET, UK -- “Trickledown” felt rather too contentious, given what was meanwhile happening to its proponents out there in the real world. In this environment, after all, the original label of “horse-and-sparrow economics” would always have conveyed the theory rather more intelligibly. Some alternative word was required on Friday, then, to describe how a rampant market at the front end of the Tattersalls October Sale was filtering somewhat more quietly into the base of the pyramid.

In the end, the second half of Book 3--in which momentum reliably ebbs relative to the catalogue’s opening session--perhaps suggested “percolation” sooner than an outright “overflow”. But there was no mistaking the wholesome depth of a market far more vital, to many professionals, than the giddy transactions of the opening books.

Lot 1959 | Laura Green/Tattersalls

In contrast with Thursday, when the median had remained unchanged on last year, a gain to 13,000gns from 10,000gns attested to really solid trade through this lower tier, backed up by a strong clearance rate of 83 percent. The average was also up, by 11 percent to 17,349gns, with overall turnover on the day up 17 percent to 3,903,600gns.

Combined, the two Book 3 sessions registered robust performance across the board. Total business advanced nine percent to a record 11,554,600gns, producing a corresponding gain in average and median to 24,428gns and 20,000gns, respectively, also new high-water marks for Book 3.

But the real neon number is the one posted for total business at the October Sale, with just Saturday morning’s Book 4 to go. Trade to this point last year had reached 151,474,150gns. By last night it had soared 31 percent to approach a symbolic landmark at 199,006,100gns.

Woods Hangs In There For Joint-Top Lot

This was a day when trainers and their agents could finally attempt some old-fashioned “on spec” recruitment. Nonetheless a couple of fillies, respectively by Ten Sovereigns (Ire) and Aclaim (Ire), forced their purchasers as far as 90,000gns at either end of the day.

The Aclaim, consigned by Bearstone Stud as Lot 1959, was acquired by Dwayne Woods on behalf of his brother Sean. She’s out of an unraced Kodiak (GB) half-sister to G1 St Leger runner-up The Last Drop (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), whose son Washington Heights (GB) (Washington DC {Ire}) had earned his first black-type at Ripon shortly before the sale. But her most conspicuous genetic distinction is perhaps the fourth dam, Irish Classic winner Sarah Siddons (Fr).

“The update was nice but much more importantly she’s just a fabulous filly,” Woods said. “She’ll make a 2-year-old and a 3-year-old, so it’s all pretty good.”

The agent was speaking for many prospectors when adding: “It’s been hard work this week. I’m happy with everything we have bought, but every time I got up to a big one I was underbidder—at least five of them over 200,000gns.”

Ten Out of Ten For Oakgrove Filly

The Ten Sovereigns filly [1708] that topped the morning trade arrived from John Deer’s Oakgrove Stud and, with the docket signed by Jo Stone of Rabbah Bloodstock, will be joining local trainer Ismail Mohammed. She’s out of Listed scorer Lady Grace (Ire) (Orpen), one of the farm’s more mature mares who has produced a couple of stakes operators.

“We’re delighted with the price, but she deserved to make it,” said Oakgrove manager David Hilton. “She could have been earlier in the sale and was a bit of a stand-out today. She has a pedigree, she’s a good physical, moves well. We’ve been very happy with her all the way through. We wanted to get back to speed. Mr. Deer really likes the stallion, thought what he did at Newmarket was exceptional. We’ve used him again and I’m sure he’s going to make it.”

On a busy day for the Chepstow farm, perhaps its outstanding page was offered by a Golden Horn (GB) colt [1704] out of a Kingman (GB) half-sister to its champion Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). He was another purchase, at 40,000gns, by Dwayne Woods.

As for Ten Sovereigns, he registered another good sale for this grade when a filly from Deer Forest Stud made 50,000gns from Amanda Skiffington as Lot 1878. She will be joining Jane Chapple-Hyam.

Lot 1708 | Laura Green/Tattersalls

Another Zoustar Breeze Project for Tally-Ho

The booming market has naturally raised the stakes uncomfortably for pinhookers, who were duly relieved to be active at this more accessible tier. One for whom the breeze-ups are on the agenda is the daughter of Zoustar (Aus) brought here as Lot 1930 by Jamie Railton, acquired for 77,000gns by Tom Biggs of Blandford Bloodstock on behalf of Tally-Ho Stud.

“She’s a lovely filly,” the agent said. “She’s from a very fast, precocious family and that seems to be what is working best with the Zoustars. She’s also a half-sister to a pretty decent and precocious horse in [juvenile stakes-placed] Lambeth Walk (GB) (Charm Spirit {Ire}).”

Tally-Ho found one of the high achievers of the last breeze-up cycle in this catalogue last year, when Hamish Macauley Bloodstock signed an identical docket for a filly by the same stallion. Sold on to Atlas Bloodstock at Arqana for €110,000, she is now celebrated as G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Lezoo (GB).

This lady’s prospects of emulating that success are enhanced by granddam Roo (GB) (Rudimentary), responsible for a series of black-type performers and/or producers including the dam of G1 Sussex S. winner Mohaather (GB) (Showcasing {GB}).

Clodovil Bows Out

A touching footnote was the sale of the last yearling to come under the hammer by Clodovil (Ire), now enjoying his retirement at Rathasker Stud. The daughter consigned by his home farm as Lot 1798 was bought for 37,000gns by Julie Wood’s Woodstock, doubtless with a view to emulating Manderley (Ire)--another of his greys, who ran a close fourth in the G1 1000 Guineas at 100-1 after Wood bought her from Rathasker in Book I of the 2012 sale.

“She’s a lovely filly,” said Rathasker’s Maurice Burns. “She had the same way of going as all of Clodovil’s progeny. They have a bit of spark and are very genuine. People who had any of his stock always returned and came to the door at the sales to see his stock. It was just age that caught up with him.”

Clodovil’s legacy at Rathasker is in the hands of his son Gregorian (Ire), while his record as a broodmare sire has recently been topped off by G1 Haydock Sprint Cup winner Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}).

TAKEAWAYS

Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 3 Day 2

- It's been quite a week for Whitsbury Manor Stud, whose young gun Havana Grey (GB) and established heavy hitter Showcasing (GB) topped the catalogue averages, selling 13 apiece for 696,000gns and 534,000gns respectively. The farm rode that wave to finish as leading consignor with 11 sold for 572,000gns, with the podium filled by New England Stud and Jamie Railton. Busiest purchaser was Rabbah, assembling 13 head for 557,000gns.

- Not to be outdone, Due Diligence got in on the Whitsbury act when his half-brother [1935] to Group-placed Adaay To Remember (GB), from a typically speedy family, made 70,000gns. He joins Clive Cox.

- The keynote stat on a day that took a real "lifeblood" pulse of the market was a median that advanced to 13,000gns from 10,000gns at the equivalent session last year, backed up by a very solid clearance rate of 83 percent. The average was also up 11 percent, as Friday's business overall progressed 17 percent to 3,903,600gns.

- Combined with the stronger offering of its first session, Book 3 posted an advance of nine percent to 11,554,600gns turnover, with corresponding gains in median and average. But the headline takeaway is the astounding 199,006,100gns trade recorded overall at the October Sale, spiking 31 percent from 151,474,150gns.

GOFFS NOVEMBER BREEDING STOCK CATALOGUE ONLINE

A total of 469 broodmares and broodmare prospects have been catalogued for the Goffs November Breeding Stock Sale, which is to take place Friday and Saturday, Nov. 18 and 19, following the auction house's November Foal Sale.

One of the highlights of the catalogue is expected to be the 3-year-old filly Ladies Church (GB) (Churchill {Ire}), a listed winner at two whose credentials were further enhance when taking out the July 16 G2 Sapphire S. at the Curragh for trainer John Murtagh. She is offered as lot 1222 through Fox Covert Stables.

Bisous Y Besos (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}) is catalogued as lot 1187, and the Kilpatrick Farm consignee could have her fair share of admirers. The 8-year-old mare is already the dam of Oscula (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}), a Group 3 winner and placed in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac as a juvenile and victorious in this year's G3 Prix Six Perfections for trainer George Boughey. She is offered carrying a full-sibling to Oscula. Cont. p10

Other highlights include the Niarchos family's Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed Bocca Baciata (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}) in foal to Mehmas (Ire) (Lot 1183); Aspiring (Ire), who is a Galileo (Ire) sister to European champion filly Danedream (Ger) in foal to Wootton Bassett (GB) (Lot 1188); Inch Perfect (Theatrical {Ire}), who is the dam of listed winner and Group 3-placed Measure Of Time (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) in foal to Sioux Nation (Lot 1189); the dam of Group 2 winner California Angel, Sea Mona (Tiz Wonderful) (Lot 1218), in foal to Night Of Thunder

(Ire); and the dam of sire Rumble Inthejungle (Ire), Guana (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) (Lot 1256) who is in foal to Saxon Warrior (Jpn).

Commenting on publication of the catalogue, Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby said: "Producing winners at the highest level is the ultimate aim of any breeder and the results from mares purchased at Goffs November always makes this sale unmissable for anyone seeking their next Group 1 success. Last year we saw the progeny of Goffs November Breeding Stock include the winners of the English 1000 and 2000 Guineas, while Blackbeard (Ire), Little Big Bear (Ire) and Alcohol Free (Ire) flew the Group 1 flag for the sale this season and in doing so graphically illustrated both the quality and superb value of their dams.

"As an industry we are proud that Ireland is globally recognised as the source of the most sought-after bloodlines in the world and this year's catalogue is another that boasts depth and quality throughout. We are grateful to the many leading owners and breeders who have supported the sale with top class fillies and broodmares, and the team at Goffs, together with our friends at Irish Thoroughbred Marketing, looks forward to welcoming buyers from around the globe to Kildare Paddocks next month."

TATTERSALLS ONLINE OCTOBER SALE CATALOGUE AVAILABLE

The catalogue for the Tattersalls Online October Sale can now be accessed at www.tattersallsonline.com for the two-day auction to be held Oct. 20-21. A total of 46 horses are up for bidding, including 34 fillies and mares and an assortment of horses in and out of training.

Highlights of the broodmares catalogued include a trio consigned by Irish Emerald Stud, led by black-type producing mare Althania, dam of Listed August S.-placed Maskud. A daughter of the highly sought after broodmare sire Street Cry (Ire), Althania out of the listed winner and Group 2-placed Gabriellina Giof (GB). She is joined by Catchline, the dam of three winners and a half-sister to Group 1 winners Ancient World and Jilbab, and Hope Lake, whose yearling filly sold for 110,000 guineas at Book 1 of the October Yearling Sale, and who is offered in foal to proven multiple Group 1 producing sire Acclamation (GB).

Certain to attract the attention of purchasers is Valerie's Memory, a half-sister to Group 2 winning mare Plainchant who sold for 490,000 guineas at the 2021 Tattersalls December Mares Sale to Oceanic Bloodstock for White Birch Farm. They are out of Nadinska, a half-sister to Group 2 winner and Group 1 placed Laugh Out Loud, herself the dam of Group 2 winner Platinum Warrior.

The catalogue has also attracted consignments from Sheraton Bloodstock and Kilbride Farm as well as entries from leading British and Irish trainers including William Haggas, Jessica Harrington, Andrew Balding, Ed Dunlop, and Eve Johnson Houghton.

Details of all available lots can be found at www.tattersallsonline.com and further enquiries regarding these lots can be made to Tattersalls or directly to consignors, whose contact details are available on the Tattersalls Online website.

Prospective purchasers are required to register to logon and join the sale ahead of the commencement of bidding from 12 noon, Thursday 20th October. Bidding is scheduled to close from 12 noon on Friday 21st October.

STARS ON EARTH GOES FOR TRIPLE CROWN IN SHUKA SHO by Alan Carasso

Already the winner of the G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) going the metric mile and the G1 Yushun Himba over 2400 metres, Shadai Race Horse Co.'s Stars on Earth (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) faces a date with destiny over the Hanshin turf course Sunday as she looks to become the seventh horse to complete the Filly Triple Crown in the G1 Shuka Sho (2000m) at Hanshin Racecourse.

Produced by a daughter of the very classy American champion and six-times Group 1/Grade I winner Stacelita (Fr) (Monsun {Ger})--the dam of 2017 Japanese Oaks heroine Soul Stirring (Jpn) (Frankel {GB})--Stars on Earth was runner-up to Lilac (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) in the G3 Fairy S. in January and filled the same spot behind Presage Lift (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) in the G3 Queen

Cup at Tokyo before just getting the better of Water Navillera (Jpn) (Silver State {Jpn}) in the Oka Sho. She makes her first start since besting Stunning Rose (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) at a juicy 11-2 in the Yushun Himba May 22. The latter has since flattered the Oaks form with a defeat of Sound Vivace (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) in the G3 Shion S. Sept. 10.

"She has filled out a bit and is maturing nicely," said trainer Mizuki Takayanagi. "Hanshin is a tighter track compared to Tokyo, so I'm hoping she'll get a smooth trip. I will leave that up to the jockey [Christophe Lemaire]. All eyes are on her and I'm feeling the pressure. She is extremely talented and has claimed two Grade 1s. I'm hoping she can land another."

Namur (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) had Stars on Earth behind in a 1-win class conditions test back in November and won the G2 Tulip Sho Mar. 5 before finishing a disappointing 10th at skinny odds in the Oka Sho. She was an improved third in the Oaks and might find Sunday's trip to her liking.

Sheikh Fahad's Art House (Jpn) (Screen Hero {Jpn}) looks the up-and-comer in the field. A listed winner over course and distance in April, she was allowed to take her chance in the Oaks at just career start number four and was beaten 6 1/4 lengths into seventh. Given a freshen-up thereafter, the homebred validated 17-10 favoritism in the G2 Rose S. Sept. 18, covering the mile and a quarter in a slick 1:58.50.

Trainer Chad Brown will saddle the top two choices on the morning-line for Saturday's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. at Keeneland, one of three graded stakes races on the afternoon.

McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}), the even-money choice to become Brown's fifth winner in this prestigious affair, broke through with a career high in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. July 9 and added the GIII Jockey Club Oaks Invitational S. at Aqueduct Sept. 17 two starts later. She cuts back in trip to 1 1/8 miles here.

McKulick is named in honor of Brown's first-ever employee, bookkeeper Mary McKulick. McKulick passed away two years ago at the age of 67 after losing a battle with cancer. Cont. p3

THIS SIDE UP: WOULD THIS REALLY BE SUCH A STUPID GAMBLE? by Chris McGrath

"Now why did I do that?" For some of us, the more painful that question becomes, the easier the answer. It'll be right there in that empty bottle, greeting you on the table in the morning.

For those of you whose conduct has more complex influences, however, apparently there's a handy publication out there called The Journal of Behavioral Decision Making. And you thought horse pedigrees were a niche interest.

In a recent edition, researchers from the universities of East Finland and Liverpool crunched data from 15,000 Finnish men commencing national service. I hope we will be indulged for cutting to the chase, as they conveniently reduce all their analysis to a couple of sentences of conclusion.

"This paper," they declare, "demonstrates that a person's IQ predicts his engagement with horse betting."

Now you know where this is going, right? It's another example of wasting a lot of time and effort to demonstrate something we know to be quite obvious already.

But wait. "Our results show that IQ... is positively correlated with participation in and expenditure on horse betting." In other the words, the smarter your Finn, the more likely he is to bet the ponies. The puzzles of horse racing, the researchers suggest, will appeal most to a sophisticated, inquiring mind. Cont. p4

Brown will also be represented by Gina Romantica (Into Mischief), heroine of Saratoga's Riskaverse S. Aug. 25 and runner-up as the favorite in the GIII Pebbles S. at Aqueduct Sept. 18 in her first two tries on grass.

'TDN Rising Star' New Year's Eve (Kitten's Joy), upset winner over McKulick in the GII Edgewood S. in the spring, cuts back in trip as well following a flat fourth as the favorite in the Exacta Systems Dueling Grounds Oaks at Kentucky Downs Sept. 5.

Bellabel (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) ships in from Phil D'Amato's Southern California base following a solid second-place finish behind the talented Spendarella (Karakontie {Jpn}) in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 20. She may have a pace advantage over her six rivals in a race lacking early speed.

Last term's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine Pizza Bianca (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), meanwhile, is the one to beat in Saturday's GII Sands Point S. at the Belmont at the Big A meeting. The 5-2 morning-line favorite makes her first trip to the post for Christophe Clement since an eighth-place finish in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 17. The field of nine also includes Exacta Systems Dueling Grounds Oaks one-two Vergara (Noble Mission {GB}) and Skims (GB) (Frankel {GB}); and narrow GIII Lake George S. runner-up Eminent Victor (Mr. Z).

Saturday's graded action is rounded out by Woodbine's GIII Ontario Fashion S.

Challenge Cup S., a race with a short history but a lengthy reach.

Much has been written in the past few weeks about the christening of the “QEII” and its beginning to honor the late Queen Elizabeth II’s visit to Central Kentucky--and Keeneland--in 1984. As such, there have only been 38 runnings and a good third or so of the winners are too young to have yet given a fair representation of their ability as producers.

In spite of the abbreviated list in a sport full of history, a handful of the previous QEII winners have already passed on some very special ability. Following are some of the most important QEII winners by what impact they have had on the sport through their sons and daughters.

Memories of Silver (1993, Silver Hawk--All My Memories, by Little Current): Who can forget the signature blaze of this wonderful Darby Dan/Galbreath/Phillips mare coming down the stretch in so many top turf contests? Her prowess continued as a producer with four stakes winners, including MGSW Winter Memories and GSW La Cloche. Her descendants in just the last five years have included French MGSW Spinning Memories (Ire), as well as U.S. GSWs Hawkish and Bellavais, plus MSW & MGSP Winter Sunset and GISP Seasons.

Perfect Arc (1992, Brown Arc--Podeica {Arg}, by Petronisi {GB}): Only one daughter produced any foals, but they include 2019 Canadian Horse of the Year and three-time Canadian turf female champ Starship Jubilee, whose nine graded wins on both sides of the border included the 2020 GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile over males. Perfect Arc was bred in New York by Delehanty Stock Farm.

La Gueriere (1988, Lord At War {Arg}--Lady Winborne, by Secretariat): Bred by Wimborne Farm, she kicked off her broodmare career with MGSW & MGISP Lasting Approval and eventually added GISW Icon Project, as well as two other stakes performers. One of the nation’s current leading sires, MGSW & MGISP Munnings, is out of a daughter, as is GSW Fashion Business (GB).

Lotka (1983, Danzig--Kennelot, by Gallant Man {GB}): This Kennelot Stables/Henryk de Kwiatkowski homebred produced three black-type winners, including GSW & GISP Lotta Dancing, while her daughters and granddaughters have produced GISW Centralintelligence and GSW Fantasticat, as well as Chilean G1 winners Kurilov (Chi), Kitcat (Chi), Knockout (Chi), Kossimo (Chi), and Kirikina (Chi).

Just think of all those generations of stern parents who have sat down errant sons (the survey did not include females) to rebuke their dissipation on the racetrack. Turns out that they should actually have been instructing them in exotics strategy, and how to turn Ragozins to riches. Go west, young man, but be sure you don’t miss Arapahoe Park on the way.

For many of us, a stake in the breeding, raising or trading of Thoroughbreds is gamble enough. But it is good to be reminded of the stimulation available in the constant variables of our business, and to consider the different factors that govern our decisions.

To what extent, after all, are those decisions truly our own?

How much do we act according to our innate or inherited nature--the stuff, in other words that we bring into the world with us--and how much are we simply conditioned by learned experience; by patterns of conduct absorbed from the environment?

Why is it, for instance, that modern horsemen are so much more reluctant to ask questions of the Thoroughbred as demanding as those routinely set by their predecessors? Trainers today may think that they are simply making a rational judgement on a developing body of evidence; whether because they view the breed as less robust, or their own methods as more sensitive. But the chances are that they have, to a large degree, simply responded to the evolving habits of mentors and peers.

Take, for instance, nothing less than the two best horses in the world. One is set to bow out at Ascot on Saturday; the other will quite possibly do the same at Keeneland in three weeks' time. Both, it should be stressed, have had their talent drawn out with consummate skill. But while both are routinely compared with specters past, they won't actually explore their utmost capacities even against such horses as happen to be alive and well.

Okay, so the fact that they operate in different disciplines means that a direct showdown between Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Flightline (Tapit) would nearly always, even in bolder epochs, have been a bridge too far. But the fact is that Flightline has entered the pantheon in no more than 431 seconds; while Baaeed, though slower to blossom than Frankel (GB), has like that champion been confined to home soil and a pool of competition in which his supremacy has long been apparent.

To be fair, Flightline has tested the cramped parameters of his career with as much ambition as they permit: from Del Mar to

Belmont, from six furlongs to 10. Baaeed, for his part, has followed precisely in the footsteps of Frankel at the age of four, running in the same five races and therefore only stepping up from a mile on his penultimate start. (Something that may well end up being true of Flightline.)

Baaeed's response to that new challenge hinted that he may only just have found his true metier. For a while, connections entertained the idea of probing a still deeper seam of stamina in Paris. In the event, they will have felt thoroughly vindicated, in having backed off, when the Arc was contested in such gruelling conditions. For some of us, however, even now there remains one stubborn question. If Baaeed were to win the G1 Qipco Champion S. with his customary leisure, then why on earth should he not proceed to the Breeders' Cup as well?

NEED TO KNOW

Enough, already!

Frosted's G3 daughter Half Is Enough wins the Glen Cove at Aqueduct by three. He's had no fewer than ten 90+ Beyer horses in his first two crops. Just imagine.

Darley

$10,000 S&N

Remember that he began his career last year by winning four races between June 7 and July 30. Obviously he was a class apart, at that level, but he went about each assignment with equal gusto and has since often appeared the sort that keeps something in reserve. And this year, crucially, a three-week interval makes the Breeders' Cup far more feasible for any of the Ascot protagonists than when the card has been staged, with deplorable parochialism, just a fortnight beforehand.

Given the relative emphasis on speed between Keeneland and his race at York, the extra 300 yards of the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, if technically uncharted, would only play to Baaeed's strengths. There's obviously a degree of presumption, given that he has a serious job to do at Ascot, but I can only think of one reason why the question shouldn't at least be asked once safely making the winner's circle--and that's a reluctance to go looking for unnecessary trouble with so precious and cherished a champion.

But if that is indeed the case, then it just shows how inimical are the instincts of modern horsemen both to the genetic proving of the breed, and to the promotion of the sport. Baaeed wouldn't lose a cent in his stud value, if the gamble happened to backfire; and nor would he be remotely diminished in the estimation of posterity. He would have nothing to lose, and much to gain--in terms both of his own stature, and our communal hopes of reaching a wider audience.

In principle, exactly the same was true of Frankel. As it was, however, the Breeders' Cup was never a realistic option. For one thing, it was staged only two weeks after he ran on bad ground at Ascot; and his trainer, of course, then had heartbreaking mitigation for his conservative instincts. But I've always said he ran like a dirt horse, and would have lapped them in a GI Breeders' Cup Classic instead won by Fort Larned (E Dubai).

In both cases, then, we are left with the same suspicion: that an immaculate record increasingly becomes an impediment to maximum fulfilment. There's no need to reprise a list of the great champions, from Secretariat down, that ran (and risked) enough to forfeit the formal veneer of invincibility. But let's just remind ourselves that an unbeaten horse is very different from an unbeatable one.

As we've said, the kind of thinking that shapes decision-making--our priorities, our assumptions--will typically embed prevailing norms. And these do change, radically if gradually, from generation to generation. In its earliest days, the Thoroughbred was asked to run three heats of four miles in a single day. Nobody would suggest doing that now; and nor would anyone seriously expect Baaeed to take on Flightline at his own game.

Nobody? Actually, that's not quite true. But if he were mine, I guess that wouldn't be the only time I came down in the morning to find that bottle waiting reproachfully on the table.

Jonabell Farm roster for 2023 with his fee remaining at $100,000, the same amount as 2022.

Darley has also added two new stallions to the now-11 horse roster, including G1SW Mystic Guide (Ghostzapper) and GISW Speaker's Corner (Street Sense). Mystic Guide, who won the 2021 G1 Dubai World Cup, was retired earlier this year. He will stand for a fee of $15,000 in his initial season at stud.

Speaker's Corner, a Godolphin homebred out of Tyburn Brook (Bernardini) who is bred on the same cross as fellow Darley stallion Maxfield, won the GI Carter H. in April with a dominating performance and a 114 Beyer Speed Figure. He also won this year's GII Gulfstream Park Mile S. and GIII Fred W. Hooper S. before finishing behind Flightline (Tapit) and Life Is Good (Into Mischief) in the GI Metropolitan H. and GII John A. Nerud S., respectively. He retires with a record of 13-6-2-2 and earnings of $739,963. Speaker's Corner will enter his first season at a fee of $20,000.

"We've been very fortunate in the last two years to have produced five high-level performers [Mystic Guide, Speaker's Corner, Essential Quality, Maxfield, and Cody's Wish] and it's even more gratifying that they are all homebreds," said Darley Sales Manager Darren Fox. "Following last year's retirement of Essential Quality and Maxfield, to again be able to add more top-caliber horses is very, very exciting."

Essential Quality and Maxfield, who both await their first foals in the spring, will remain at $75,000 and $40,000, respectively. Both had full books for 2022 in their first seasons. Street Sense will also remain at his 2022 fee of $75,000, while Midshipman will see a fee increase to $20,000.

"Optimism abounds currently in the Thoroughbred industry," said Fox. "The sales are strong, purses are strong, and close to home, we experienced unprecedented demand during the 2022 booking season. With all these positives, only one of our stallions will see a fee increase for 2023 and that's Midshipman, who continues to go from strength to strength in his stud career."

The Darley roster is rounded out by Nyquist at $55,000, Hard Spun at $35,000, Frosted at $10,000, and Enticed at $5,000.

Retirement plans for GI Forego S. winner and future Darley stallion Cody's Wish (Curlin) will be made after the Breeders' Cup.

GISW IDOL RETIRED TO TAYLOR MADE STALLIONS

Idol wins the GI Santa Anita H. | Benoit

Idol (Curlin--Marion Ravenwood, by A.P. Indy), winner of the 2021 GI Santa Anita H. and a full brother to MGISW Nest, has been retired and will stand the upcoming breeding season at Taylor Made Stallions. A $375,000 Keeneland September graduate, he retires with a record of 8-3-2-1 and earnings of $426,964 for owner Calvin Nguyen. A Repole Stable/Taylor Made Stallions Venture, Idol will stand the 2023 season for $10,000 S&N. Idol was bred in Kentucky by Leonard Riggio's My Meadowview LLC.

"Idol fits the profile of what we are looking for," said Taylor Made's Ben Taylor. "He's by a world-class sire and out of a world-class producer. He's got the looks and he's a Grade I talent. It's the same ingredients Not This Time possessed when he arrived at Taylor Made."

Himself a Churchill Downs track-record setter, Idol's full sister Nest has banked more than $1.8 million thus far while his 2-year-old half-brother, Lost Ark (Violence), won the Sapling S. at Monmouth Park in August by 7 1/2 lengths.

For more information on Idol, or to set up an inspection, contact Travis White or Liam Benson at (859) 885-3345.

ECLECTIC MIX GATHERS FOR INAUGURAL JOHN FORBES MEMORIAL by Bill Finley

As someone who worked tirelessly throughout his career to promote New Jersey racing, first as a trainer then as a horsemen's rep, John Forbes no doubt would have liked what's being offered Saturday at the Far Hills hunt meet in the race named in his honor. The John Forbes Memorial is worth $100,000, has attracted an evenly matched field of 14 and, run at two miles on the flat, is at a distance that makes it a handicapping puzzle.

The Forbes Memorial is among the highlights on a card that also includes the $250,000 GI Grand National Hurdle.

Forbes, the late husband of the TDN's Director of Customer Services Vicki Forbes, passed away Jan. 31, 2021 at the age of 73 after a battle with cancer.

"John was New Jersey racing," said Dennis Drazin, chairman and CEO of Darby Development LLC, operators of Monmouth Park Racetrack, said at the time.

Forbes won 2,174 races before he stopped training in 2012 to focus on horsemen's issues, becoming the president of the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association when the group took over the lease for Monmouth Park from The New Jersey Sports & Exposition Authority. He was the leading trainer at Monmouth Park five times and won seven training titles at the Meadowlands. Forbes's best horse was GISW sire Tale of the Cat, and he helped launch the career of Hall of Fame rider Julie Krone.

The 3-1 morning line favorite is Cross Border (English Channel), a two-time winner of the GI Bowling Green S. and an earner of $1,173,354. But he has not finished in the money in six tries this year and, at age 8, may not be what he once was. After racing for Mike Maker, he will be making his second start for Keri Brion, who has plans to convert him to a jumper. Like all 14 in the race, he has never won at the distance of two miles on the flat.

Trained by Michael Dickinson, Royme (Ghostzapper) should be in the mix. He was third in the Presious Passion S. last out at Monmouth and has done some of his best running in 11 and 12-furlong races. Then there's Agitare (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who will be making his first start in the U.S. after racing in Ireland for James Bolger. Fearsome (GB) (Makfi {GB}) will return to the flat after racing over the jumps at Colonial Downs.

The jockeys will no doubt play a major role in a race that pits flat riders versus steeplechase jockeys. Flat riders Isaac Castillo, Nik Juarez and Feargal Lynch have mounts and will go against 11 regulars on the jump circuit. With the horses in the race carrying between 140 and 148 pounds, the flat jockeys could be carrying as much as 30 pounds of "dead weight," perhaps a disadvantage.

Trainer Jack Fisher, who will send out Mystical Man (Mucho Macho Man), has given the mount to jump rider Graham Watters.

"They had a flat race for jumpers at Colonial Downs and I used a flat rider and I thought he made a huge mistake, leaving the horse with too much to do," Fisher said. "I think the jump riders are probably better simply because they are used to doing that trip, two miles."

Fisher has what will be a solid favorite in the Grand National Hurdle in Snap Decision (Hard Spun). The leading contender in his division for an Eclipse Award, he was upset last time out at odds of 3-10 in the GI Lonesome Glory H. at Aqueduct. The winner was Noah And the Ark (Ire) (Vinnie Roe {Ire}), who will be seeking his third straight win in Saturday's $250,000 race.

The difference this time could come down to the weights. Snap Decision carried 168 pounds in the Lonesome Glory, giving away 28 pounds to Noah And The Ark. The Grand National Hurdle is a weight-for-age race and all seven starters will carry 156 pounds.

The second choice in the race at 3-1 on the morning line is Hewick (Ire) (Virtual {GB}), a seven-time winner over the jumps in Europe.

CARAVAGGIO RELOCATING TO JAPAN

Caravaggio (Scat Daddy--Mekko Hotke, by Holy Bull), the leading European first-crop sire of 2021, has been acquired by the Japanese Bloodstock Breeders Association (JBBA) and is set to continue his stud career at Shizunai Stallion Station, according to multiple published reports.

Trained by Aidan O'Brien for Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith, Caravaggio was perfect in four runs as a juvenile, including a defeat of Mehmas (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot and capped by a four-length success in the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. His overall winning streak stretched to six when he defeated Harry Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) by three-parts of a length in the 2017 G1 Commonwealth Cup during the Royal meeting and he added that year's G2 Flying Five S. ahead of a close third in the

G1 QIPCO British Champions Sprint S.

Caravaggio covered his first three books of mares at Coolmore Ireland before heading to Ashford Stud in Kentucky. From his first crop of runners, he is already the sire of eight black-type winners, chief among them Irish and English highweight Tenebrism, a daughter of Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) who won last year's G1 Juddmonte Cheveley Park S. and added the G1 Prix Jean Prat this term. His other pattern winners include G2 Debutante S. winner Agartha (Ire), German Classic winner Maljoom (Ire) and G3 Snow Fairy S. winner Viareggio.

Caravaggio's first-crop daughter Her World (Ire) earned the 'TDN Rising Star' distinction with a debut six-length victory in last year's Tyro S. for Wesley Ward. Overall, he has been represented by 78 individual winners, including seven in Australia.

At Shizunai, Caravaggio will join a lineup that already includes Animal Kingdom, Bago (Fr), Creator, Declaration of War, Eskendereya, Makfi (GB), Mischievous Alex and Noble Mission (GB).

Highland Chief (Ire) | Coady Photography

If a Grade I winner and multiple group-placed runner could play "spoiler," then that's exactly what Highland Chief (Ire) did here when he snuck passed pacesetters on the rail, and held off all comers to pick up his second victory of 2022 in Keeneland's GIII Sycamore S.

Imported to the States after his fifth placing last year in the G1 Coral Coronation Cup at Epsom, the homebred for Mrs. Fitriani Hay moved to the barn of Graham Motion from the yard of co-trainers Paul and Oliver Cole. Ninth Apr. 14 with first-time Lasix in his seasonal debut at Aqueduct after getting pinched at the jump, he rebounded from that effort next out to post a 19-1 upset in the GI Man o' War S. at Belmont Park ahead of MGISW Gufo (Declaration of War) and GI Breeders' Cup Turf conqueror Yibir (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). He was fourth June 11 in that venue's GI Manhattan S. after again experiencing a troubled break, and the bad racing luck followed him to Saratoga last out in the July 31 GII Bowling Green S. when he was jostled around and weakened to fourth after tracking most of the trip from second.

Content to stalk from third along the fence here, Highland Chief managed to avoid trouble today and easily slipped inside of the leader in upper stretch as the field fanned out for the homeward drive. Coming into the furlong grounds, he gained the lead and inched clear to a game length victory as Temple and Highest Honors closed fast late.

"[My instructions were] very simple--we talked about it this morning; Graham [Motion] and I did. We looked at the race and there was only one horse really with speed, and the horse [Channel Maker] Luis [Saez] rides is always close," said John Velazquez. "I just tried to stay right behind horses, save some ground and hope he would come running. I was just looking for some sort of space at the quarter pole, and once I got it, he was there for me."

Pedigree Note:

The most accomplished runner for a broodmare who was a fairly talented runner in her own right, Highland Chief has a two-time winning 3-year-old half-brother Tartan Chief (GB (Dark Angel {Ire}) as well as an unnamed 2-year-old full-brother. Pink Symphony has a pair of fillies as well; a yearling by Churchill (Ire) and a weanling by Night of Thunder (Ire). This is the female family of G1SP & GISP Fantasia (GB) (Sadler's Wells) as well as European champion 2-year-old filly and multiple highweight filly Blue Duster (Danzig).

MGSW AVIE'S FLATTER RETIRED TO ONTARIO'S COLEBROOK FARMS

Avie's Flatter | Coady Photography

Tall Oaks homebred Avie's Flatter (Flatter--Avie's Empire, by Empire Maker), 2018 Canadian champion 2-year-old, is retiring from racing to stand stud at Ontario's Colebrook Farms. Winner of the Cup and Saucer S. and the Coronation Futurity at two, he went on at three to win Keeneland's GIII Kentucky Utilities Transylvania S. and place in each leg of the Canadian Triple Crown. From ages four to six, he took both the GII Neartic S. and the GII Connaught Cup and also placed in the GII Eclipse S. and the GIII Bold Venture S. He retires with a record of 20-7-3-3 and career earnings of $947,338.

"Avie's Flatter will be greatly missed in our barn," said trainer Josie Carroll. "He has been not only one of our most talented horses, but also a great personality. A top horse for almost five years, he never failed to give 100 percent. I can't wait to be part of his legacy."

FASHIONABLE FILLIES LUNCHEON COMES TO LEXINGTON

The Fashionable Fillies Luncheon, a long-time fixture at Saratoga and added at Santa Anita this year, will be held in Lexington as part of the Breeders' Cup Festival Week. The Jockey Club Safety Net Foundation will host the event at Jeff Ruby's on Nov. 2 from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., with TOPSINLEX as media partner. The event will honor Middlebrook Farm's Helen Alexander and Keeneland's Shannon Arvin, both The Jockey Club members and Safety Net trustees.

The Jockey Club Safety Net Foundation is a charitable trust which provides, on a confidential basis, financial relief and assistance to needy members of the Thoroughbred industry and their families. The luncheon will offer cocktails and Jackson Family wines, food stations and passed hors d'oeuvres with Kentucky favorites, live music by Throwdown Thursday, and shopping from local vendors such as Boulevard Home, AJ's Clothing, and Breeders' Cup Milliner Christine A. Moore.

"The Fashionable Fillies Luncheon has been one of the Safety Net's most successful fundraisers in Saratoga and California," said Shannon Kelly, executive director for the foundation. "We are very excited to bring this luncheon to Lexington to help support the backstretch community in Kentucky."

All proceeds from the event will be earmarked by the foundation to benefit the backstretch community in Kentucky, and local chaplains' and horsemen's organizations will help ensure the funds are distributed to those most in need. For tickets and sponsorship opportunities, please click here.

2022 BREEDERS' CUP POST TIMES AND BROADCAST SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Breeders' Cup has released post times and the broadcast coverage schedule for the 39th World Championships on Nov. 4-5 at Keeneland Race Course in Lexington, Kentucky. The two-day championship event will be shown live across NBC, Peacock, USA Network, and FanDuel TV.

The 39th Breeders' Cup begins on Friday, Nov. 4 with Future Stars Friday, featuring all five Breeders' Cup World Championships races for 2-year-olds. There will be five undercard races preceding the first Breeders' Cup race on Friday's 10-race program, with the first race post time at 11:55 a.m. ET.

USA Network and FanDuel TV (formerly TVG) will televise the first day of this year's World Championships from 2-6 p.m. ET. This is the first year that USA Network will televise the World Championships. In total, FanDuel TV will be televising 13 of the 14 World Championships races and all undercard races.

Friday's first Breeders' Cup Championship race will be Race #6, which will have a post time of 3 p.m. ET. Post time for the last Breeders' Cup race of the day, Race #10, will be 5:40 p.m. ET.

There will be 12 races on Saturday, Nov. 5, featuring nine Breeders' Cup World Championships races. The day opens with two undercard races, beginning with a first race post time of 10:30 a.m. ET. The first Breeders' Cup Championship race will be Race #3, which will have a post time of 11:50 a.m. ET. FanDuel TV will televise the first eight Breeders' Cup World Championships races on Saturday.

USA Network begins its Saturday coverage from 1-3:30 p.m. ET, followed by two-and-a-half hours of live programming on NBC and Peacock, from 3:30-6 p.m. ET, culminating with the $6 million Longines Breeders' Cup Classic. Post time for the Longines Breeders' Cup Classic, Race #11, will be 5:40 p.m. ET. An additional undercard Race #12 will complete the Saturday programming with a post time of 6:20 p.m. ET.

The official race order and wagering menu for both days of the World Championships will be announced on Wednesday, Oct. 26.

KEENELAND BECOMES AN ED BROWN SOCIETY PARTNER

Keeneland is making a $50,000 contribution to the Ed Brown Society to become an official Ed Brown Partner. This multifaceted partnership will further opportunities for young people of color to gain exposure, experience and professional job placements in the Thoroughbred industry.

As a cornerstone of the partnership, Ed Brown Society (EBS) will identify, recruit and place qualified minority students for paid professional internships within the Keeneland team. Upon the completion of their internships, EBS will provide ongoing direction to these interns as they progress toward permanent professional placements in the Thoroughbred Industry. Ed Brown Society and Keeneland will also collaborate on existing initiatives such as Keeneland's Fifth Grade Field Trips, College Scholarship Day and Keeneland's College Ambassador Program with an effort to promote diversity and inclusion.

The Ed Brown Society (edbrownsociety.org) is named for the noted African American horseman, Edward Dudley Brown from Lexington who achieved great success as a Thoroughbred jockey, trainer and owner from the latter 19th century through the time of his retirement in 1903. Brown, who trained Baden-Baden to win the 1877 Kentucky Derby and developed future Derby winners Ben Brush and Plaudit, was inducted into the Racing Hall of Fame in 1984.

"Ed Brown Society and Keeneland have a collective commitment to expose the sport to new and diverse audiences and create more opportunities for people from all backgrounds," Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin said.

"We are proud to expand our relationship with Ed Brown Society at the Partner level and excited to invest in a more diverse next generation of industry leaders with the EBS internship program."

"Like so many African Americans, who have accomplished great things in horse racing, Ed Brown was a native of Lexington, KY. So, it is a fitting milestone to embark upon this crucial endeavor with Keeneland. We gladly welcome Keeneland to the Ed Brown Partnership, which should open doors in the Horse Capital of the World for more students of color to pursue professional careers in the industry that I love," said Greg Harbut, Chairman of the Ed Brown Society.

Details are also in the works for a Keeneland sponsored Ed Brown Race Day during the 2023 Spring Meet.

FLORIDA RACING OFFICIAL ED MACKIE PASSES AWAY

Ed Mackie, a much respected and admired presence in Florida racing for 50 years, died suddenly Wednesday evening. He was 75. Mackie was Gulfstream's director of mutuels since 2002, but before that had served in similar roles at Hialeah Park and Biscayne Dog Track. Mackie was also director of mutuels at Calder Race Course, Tropical Park and Gulfstream Park West since 2003. Before working in pari-mutuels, Mackie was a champion amateur jai alai player. "To say he will be greatly missed is an understatement," said Bill Badgett, executive director of Florida Racing Operations for 1/ST Racing. "He was dedicated not only to our company, but to the entire racing industry. This is a huge loss to horse racing. Someone like Ed is valuable far beyond his knowledge, because he was an amazing colleague who was calm and could handle any situation thrown at him. I will miss talking to him every day." Mackie is survived by his wife, Linda, three children, and six grandchildren. Visitation will be held on Sunday, Oct. 23 from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Fred Hunter's University (2401 S University Dr, Davie, FL 33324) with a memorial service at 4 p.m.

SIGNATOR BECOMES 50TH RISING STAR FOR TAPIT

Signator | Coglianese

Signator (Tapit) earned the 'TDN Rising Star' tag with a good-looking score at second asking at Belmont at the Big A. A $1.7-million OBSAPR acquisition after breezing in :20 4/5 for Eddie Woods, he finished up well to be second on debut going six panels at this oval Sept. 16 and was hammered down to 3-5 favoritism to go one better here. Away a beat slow from his inside stall, the gray tugged his way up the fence, sitting near the back of the tightly bunched group. Saving ground off a modest half-mile in :48.73 over a muddy surface, Signator was patiently handled under a smart ride from Javier Castellano, who didn't panic behind a wall of horses turning for home and got the opening he was looking for at the top of the lane. Signator dove through and rolled clear for an impressive 4 1/2-length score over Weekend Tizzy (Bernardini).

Signator is the 50th 'TDN Rising Star' for his perennial leading sire Tapit. He is a full-brother to $900,000 FTSAUG buy and GSW Thoughtfully. He is also a half to GSW Annual Report (Harlan's Holiday) and MSW Giant Payday (Giant's Causeway). His second dam is GISW Furlough (Easy Goer) and this is also the family of top-level scorers Dancing Spree, Fantastic Find and Finder's Fee. Signator also shares the same female family as GSW Feathered (Indian Charlie), dam of unbeaten sensation Flightline (Tapit).

Half Is Enough | Chelsea Durand

Half Is Enough edged clear of her rivals to win the off-turf 2022 rendition of the Glen Cove S.

After stringing together three victories in a row as a juvenile, her connections opted to give her a shot in the GIII Victory Ride S. July 9 at Belmont Park, where she ran game second to GISP Hot Peppers (Khozan) at 8-1 in her first start without Lasix. She was seventh next out Aug. 11 in Saratoga's Galway S. after experiencing a rough trip in her lone start on the turf and could not do better than fifth at 21-1 last out in the GII Prioress S. at Saratoga after getting knocked around at the break.

Favored here, she enjoyed closest aim at pace setter EveryoneLovesLinda, who put up :22.81 and :46.06 splits, and tracked that one from the outside. Coming under coaxing passing the quarter pole, she spun off the inside into upper stretch and took command as the early leader tired. Half Is Enough kicked on by three lengths over Sail By, who followed her in to close the exacta.

"She ran very well," said winning conditioner Michael Trombetta post-race. "By the time the race came off the turf, it kind of fell into my favor at that point, so that was good...This filly is obviously good on the dirt, but I still wouldn't rule out the possibility of trying her on the grass again. It might not be this season, but we'll figure something out."

Half Is Enough has a 2-year-old half-sister Carver (Pioneer of the Nile), as well as a yearling half-sister by City of Light named Seine. Morea came up barren for 2022 after visiting Candy Ride (Arg) and went to Tapit for 2023. The mare's half-siblings are GSW Current (Curlin) and GISW Weep No More (Mineshaft), and the lot is out of a half-sister to MGISP Filimbi (Mizzen Mast) as well as the dam to GSP Purser (Mizzen Mast). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Alma Rosa became her freshman sire (by Freud)'s third black-type winner with a decisive score in the White Clay Creek S. Racing in a joint third off the top two through a :48.01 half-mile, she struck the front alongside Crypto Mama and wore her down late, kicking clear to score with first-time Lasix.

A well-beaten second behind a 'TDN Rising Star'-worthy romp from Munnys Gold (Munnings) on debut at Monmouth June 17, Alma Rosa demolished the field by 10 1/2 lengths next out at Colonial July 19. She was second last out in Monmouth's Sorority S. Aug. 21. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

STROBE (c, 3, Into Mischief--Flashing {MGISW, $633,226}, by A.P. Indy) hoisted his 'TDN Rising Star'-dom even higher for all to see with a monster effort in this return off the layoff after needing some more time to overcome minor issues. Sporting an eye-catching 99 Beyer for his unveiling May 7 on the Derby Day undercard--a race where he dominated a field which included eventual GSW Elite Power (Curlin), currently on a four-race win streak--the Godolphin homebred was hammered down to overwhelming 1-5 favoritism here and made it look like a gift. Breaking well and tugging his way to the lead early, he put up a :46.55 half and rolled into the lane well in-hand before producing a second wind when called upon to put distance on a chasing Classic Moment (Classic Empire) and win by a widening six lengths. The winner is a half to Floodlight (Medaglia d'Oro), SW & MGSP-Fr, $111,885. Flashing, whose 2020 Include foal was stillborn, had a 2022 colt by Street Boss. She visited Liam's Map for 2023. BALDIZAR (g, 3, Honor Code--Josephine's Moment, by City Zip) was tasked with overcoming lost footing, a bobble at the break and a round of bumper cars on debut Sept. 23 over this venue's main track, showing a lot of heart to recover and come home victorious by a neck at 10-1. Originally intended to go a mile on the turf before the race was taken off for this second start, the heavy 2-5 favorite took command in a scratched-down field of three and never looked back, bounding home in hand by 3 3/4 lengths over a green Marinara Sauced (Laoban), who overtook Alite (Alpha) for the middle tier in the trifecta. Baldizar has a yearling full-brother Merlin's Moment as well as a weanling half-sister by Bernardini. The dam went to Sky Mesa for 2023. AROUND THE SUN (f, 2, Munnings--Cavanaugh Park {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) was overlooked at 15-1 for this first trip to the post. Tracking from third through early splits of :23.44 and :49.37, the chestnut sprung into action in the lane, sweeping clear late for a 3/4-length success. Watch This Munny completed a Munnings exacta. The winner's dam has a Mendelssohn colt in 2021 and an Omaha Beach colt in 2022. She was bred back to War Dancer. Sales history: $160,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $56,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

INTERPOLATE (f, 2, Into Mischief--Keesha, by Tapit) finished a troubled fourth Aug. 14 in a Saratoga maiden debut which yielded GI Frizette S. winner Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke), next-out winner Take Charge Briana (Curlin) and Woodbine stakes winner Firing Bullets (Firing Line). Prompting pacesetter Royal Poppy (Classic Empire) from three wide for the lion's portion of the race, she launched her rally from that overland path after a half in :47.53 and seized command when straightened away. The 3-5 favorite edged clear from the game early leader to score by 1 3/4 lengths. Azaria (Candy Ride {Arg}), who was making her debut, was injured at the three-eighths pole and had to be euthanized. Keesha has a yearling colt by American Pharoah, as well as a weanling colt by Tiz the Law. She went back to that stallion for 2023. The winner's dam is a half-sister to GSW & MGSP Shumoos (Distorted Humor). Third dam MGISW Strategic Maneuver (Cryptoclearance) produced GSW Cat Fighter (Storm Cat), GSW Ishiguru (Danzig) and the dam of GSW Jennifer Lynnette (Elusive Quality). SKIPPER SUE (f, 3, Cairo Prince--Street Mate, by Street Cry {Ire}) brushed with fellow MTO-entrant La Sobrina (Curlin) at the break here in a scratched-down three-horse field after this maiden came off the turf. She overcame the early trouble to gain the advantage approaching the stretch after a half in :46.79 and willingly pulled away in the lane to register an 11-length victory. Art I Something (Munnings) had to settle for second best. Skipper Sue is a half to well-regarded runners King Cause (Creative Cause), GSW, $601,228 and Bell's the One (Majesticperfection), GISW, $2,000,675. She also claims SP Running Mate (Creative Cause) as a half-relation. The most recent to the races for her dam, the Brittany Russell trainee has a yearling half-sister by Collected and a 2022 half-brother by Not This Time. Her dam, a half-sister to GISP Tap Day (Pleasant Tap), visited Charlatan for 2023. This is the female family of MGSW Fairy Garden (Lyphard). Sales history: $400,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. FOCUS (f, 3, Bodemeister--Mindset, by Coronado's Quest) overwhelmed rivals here as she led from the two path through the first turn and up the backstretch. Saving all the ground as she rolled into the lane, she kicked on by 7 3/4 lengths at 4-1 odds over Memento Mi (Lea), who kept on to pick up second. It was a single spot improvement from her unveiling over the main track Aug. 13 sprinting six panels at this venue behind Liscolvin (Speightstown), who won the race prior on the card here. She was a rallying fourth over the turf last out Sept. 18 at Pimlico in the grass debut. Focus is a half to Afleet Maggi (Afleet Alex), who produced GISW Dream Tree (Uncle Mo) and SP O'Maggi (Paddy O'Prado). She is her dam's last registered offspring. This is a very productive extended female family including GISP Magical Feeling (Empire Maker), GISW Golden Ticket (Speightstown), MG1SP Tomahawk (Seattle Slew), and GISW Well Chosen (Deputy Minister). BISSET (f, 2, Quality Road--Yes It's Jackie, by Yes It's True) hustled up to contest the early pace before settling to track from second through a :22.93 opening quarter. Pouncing on an inexperienced early leader in the lane, the 2-1 shot kicked clear to win by a length. Firster and 8-5 favorite Imonra (Violence) rallied in behind her for minor awards. Second on debut July 1 at Monmouth in a five-furlong dash, she tired to sixth last out Aug. 7 at Saratoga when trying seven panels on the main track. Out of a half-sister to champion 3-year-old filly and GI Kentucky Oaks victress Abel Tasman (Quality Road), Bisset commanded $525,000 at KEESEP in 2021. Her dam is also a half to GSW Sky Girl (Sky Mesa) and the stakes-placed dam of GSP Urban (Quality Road). Bisset has an unplaced 3-year-old full-brother Kendall Square. Yes It's Jackie has a 2022 City of Light weanling and went back to that sire for 2023. Third dam Wheatly Way (Wheatly Hall) produced GISW Bevo (Prospectors Gamble) and GSW Moonlight Sonata (Carson City), who ultimately tallied GSW Wilburn (Bernardini), GSW Beethoven (Sky Mesa), and GSP La Appassionata (Bernardini). This is the extended female family of GSW & MGSP Grand Sonata (Medaglia d'Oro). Sales history: $525,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. PANDO (g, 2, Violence--Citizen Kitty {MSW, $222,301}, by Proud Citizen) debuted Aug. 20 at this venue and came in a tired fifth behind next out Kip Deville S. winner Campfire Creed (Jimmy Creed) as well as next out winner Take My Money (Too Much Bling). Pressured early last out Sept. 2, he faded to fourth while familiar foe Tapadine (Tapit) ran by for second. Caught in a speed duel again here as the 2-1 second choice, Pando put away his early challenger while under a long drive through the final bend and turned the tables on favored Tapadine to break his maiden by 2 1/4 lengths in the end. The flag bearer for his young dam, Pando is her first and so far only foal. Citizen Kitty went to Cloud Computing for 2023. Sales history: $6,000 Ylg '21 KEEJAN.
