HARD SPUN COLT SPLASHES TO STREET SENSE SCORE

by Brian DiDonato

Patricia's Hope LLC and Phillip Sagan's Two Phil's (Hard Spun) stalked, pounced and pulled away to take Churchill's Gill Street Sense S. Sunday while flattering the form of a pair of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile contenders. Fifth in his local unveiling June 23, the chestnut broke through next out at Colonial the following month. He resurfaced to crush by 9 3/4 lengths in Canterbury's Shakopee Juvenile S. Sept. 17, but could only manage seventh on the stretch out in Keeneland's GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity Oct. 8. 'TDN Rising Stars' Forte (Violence) and Loggins (Ghostzapper), who finished one-two in that event, are among the list of formidable colts set to take on expected favorite Cave Rock (Arrogate) in this coming Friday's Juvenile.

Off at 7-1 over a rain-soaked surface and as the money poured in on Jace's Road (Quality Road), Two Phil's broke cleanly and bounced off a rival in the first-turn scramble before being put in a perfect spot by Jareth Loveberry to draft behind a trio of leaders down the backside. He continued to cruise along comfortably through a half in :48.21, and mounted an outside bid around the home bend as 27-1 Hayes Strike (Connect) mirrored that move up the fence. Two Phil's strode to the front still under confident handling past the quarter pole, and was always in command from there despite struggling a bit with his lead changes. Hayes Strike checked in 5 1/4 lengths back to complete the exacta, with another clear margin back to slow-starting Fliparino (Honor Code) in third. Cont. p3

Jace’s Road dropped back on the far turn after attending the pace and finished well back. The winner’s final time of 1:47.31 was a bit slower than the 1:46.90 in which impressive unbeaten female Hoosier Philly (Into Mischief) covered the same 1 1/16 miles of the Rags to Riches S., though plenty of additional precipitation had fallen in between the two races.

“He’s shown a lot of maturity in his last couple of starts,” said Loveberry, who has been aboard Two Phil’s in every start but his debut. “He’s started learning a lot more and settling early into the race. He got a little bounced around today, but down the backside I got him to settle nicely and at the half-mile pole we were in a good position. I tipped him out a little bit and he showed me a lot of run. This is my first graded stakes win at Churchill Downs and I’m very excited and thankful to [trainer] Larry [Rivelli] and [Patricia’s Hope principal] Vince [Foglia] for giving me this opportunity.”

Rivelli added, “He’s been roughed around a couple times but Jareth has really figured him out. He gave him a great ride today and has worked with him in each start to get to mature. He’s learned to relax and he’s a solid, sound horse. He ran great today and we’re thrilled with his potential.” Cont. p4
Pedigree Notes:
Two Phil’s becomes the 36th Northern Hemisphere graded/group winner for Darley stalwart Hard Spun, who was second in Street Sense’s Gi Kentucky Derby win as part of that vintage 2007 crop. He is the first graded winner out of a mare by hard-knocking and versatile MGISW General Quarters. The winner’s dam was a MSW and MGSP sprinter for breeder and co-owner Philip Sagan and trainer Jorge Navarro. Two Phil’s is her first foal. Her yearling colt by Omaha Beach RNA’d earlier in the week for $32,000 at Fasig-Tipton October. Next in the pipeline is a McKinzie colt. Mia Torri was bred back to Omaha Beach for 2023.

T Max edged course-and-distance GIII Iroquois S. heroine Fun and Feisty for second.

“She broke a little slow but she settled in very comfortably going into the turn,” Morales said. “I had a ton of horse beneath me in the far turn and was so confident in the way she was going. Down the stretch she was switching leads but just playing around a little bit. She was so far in front of her competition and she knew that. I think she has a lot more gears left in her. She’s a very special filly and probably one of the best I’ve ever been on.”

“She’s unlike any horse I’ve ever had in my career and that goes back to 1987,” said trainer Tom Amoss. “I’m so happy for the owners, Bill Stone and Ron Radcliff, and their partners. I’m disappointed they couldn’t be here today, but hopefully for the next one. She was pre-entered in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies and was the first alternate in the race. We waited all the way until 9:00 this morning to see if she could get in and when I called she was still on the outside, so we decided to run her here.” Cont. p6
Pedigree Notes:
The 116th black-type winner for her all-conquering sire, Hoosier Philly is a granddaughter of SW and former 'TDN Rising Star' Princess Arabella (Any Given Saturday), who was purchased by Summer Wind Farm for $725,000 in foal to Tapit at the 2013 Keeneland January Sale. Hoosier Philly is the first foal for her dam, acquired by Everett Dobson's Cheyenne Stable for $750,000 at the 2015 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale and she is the second Into Mischief stakes winner out of a Tapit mare, joining Unzip Me S. victress Travieza. Tapella is the dam of a yearling filly by the Dobson-raced Mastery and a weanling Justify colt. She was bred back to Munnings.

ASMUSSEN TRIO TUNE UP AT KEENELAND
Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen sent out a trio of breezers Sunday morning at Keeneland to their final preparations for next weekend's Breeders' Cup World Championships. GI Classic contender Epicenter (Not This Time) covered a half-mile in an easy :50.80 (23/25, Video); GI Juvenile Fillies-bound Grand Love (Gun Runner) went the same distance in :50.20 (19/25); and streaking GI Distaff hopeful Society (Gun Runner) got the half-mile in :49.60 (12/25).

“A epicenter worked a nice, smooth half-mile,” Asmussen said. “I am extremely pleased with how he is coming into the Classic.”

The six-time Breeders' Cup-winning conditioner added, “The track is in excellent shape, and it was a typical week of work for us. I am extremely happy with who we have and the shape they are in.”

Asmussen is expected to work four more of his Breeders' Cup contenders on Monday.

One other notable Breeders' Cup runner to work Sunday in Lexington was Edgeway (Competitive Edge), who will aim to go... one better than she did in last year’s GI F/M Sprint and who covered five furlongs in a bullet 1:00.20 (1/14).

“We looked at the weather and made up our minds this morning to work, even though it was coming back in five days,” trainer John Sadler said, alluding to a wet forecast for Sunday into Monday. “She went a minute and change and galloped out in 1:13, and she was well within herself. It was very good—nice and smooth.”

NICK TAMMARO PRODUCES HIS FIRST BREEDERS’ CUP MORNING LINE

By J.N. Campbell

As the Breeders’ Cup Festival looms, Nick Tammaro is delving deep into the past performances. It’s not to participate in the BC Betting Challenge. He’s too principled. There is a more ardent task at hand-making the morning line.

Last month, Tammaro got the call from Keeneland about taking over the October Meet’s duties, previously held by longtime oddsmaker Mike Battaglia. "It was a true honor to even be considered," he said. "I have been doing this at Sam Houston Race Park and the chance to make the line at such a unique place as Keeneland is special." The Breeders’ Cup offer followed.

A Houston native who grew up in Dallas, Tammaro has a diverse resume. He’s forged a career in the industry these past number of years that includes becoming a public handicapper to serving as the announcer at his home track. Raised by a horseplaying father who loved the sport, when asked by his son what families do on Saturdays, Tammaro recalls his father telling him, "I don't know, let's not find out." Nick’s father passed away earlier this year, but to hear him tell it, "I am sure Dad is up there bending someone’s ear about how I am making the line for the Breeders’ Cup." Cont. p8
While it may be a distinct honor, crafting a morning line is a rather thankless pursuit. Tammaro makes an apt comparison. "You're a grocery store produce manager in that you only hear from customers when the tomatoes and lettuce are putrid." This is one of those pressure-packed jobs at a racetrack with an interesting history.

In another age, the great turf writer Whitney Tower penned a piece for Sports Illustrated on March 2, 1959 entitled, "Hanging on the Morning Line," in which he interviewed "Mr. Price Maker." Tower told readers, "A friend...works at his own regular job six days a week, rarely gets to the races more than 15 times a year, and yet for the last 10 years has been among the top men in this difficult and exacting profession." Enjoying his anonymity, Mr. Price Maker summed up his profession by adding, "My job is essentially one of evaluation rather than of observation."

Nowadays, we know exactly who the culprit is that makes the odds. Tammaro and his colleagues regularly face strict scrutiny when something is off. Not all of it makes sense. "I always crack up when I put a horse at 8-1, and it goes off at 4, because that sends people into a furor on Twitter," he said. "But when he is 3-1 and ends up 6-5, there is silence." Like a weatherman forecasting a flash flood, predicting the odds in an age where computer-assisted wagering can sink a runner’s payouts in seconds, there are numerous complexities when it comes to constructing the line.

Producing odds is all about observing myriad factors, with the goal of predicting what the public thinks the prices will be when a race goes off as opposed to who the linemaker thinks will win. Tammaro is guided primarily by math. Every odds number represents a percentage of the betting pool, and using a spreadsheet, he balances the field until it adds up to a magic number of 120. When it comes to percentages, if he makes a horse 2-1, then he is saying that 33.33% of the public is betting on that horse to win. He calculates this with a formula: 2/1=2; that 2+1=3; 100/3=33.33. The more evenly the field is matched, the tougher it is to differentiate the odds of one horse with that of another.

Taking a cue from his handicapping, this oddsmaker has developed a two-fold system to sweep through the form once a field is drawn. This can be tricky because tracks release who is entered sometimes a week in advance of the race. "What I try to do is take a break after an initial run through," Tammaro explained. "I think that all goes into the math and improvisation behind constructing an accurate morning line." Watching replays, workouts, and looking at everything, from speed figures to the trainer and jockey statistics during a meet, are essential.

"I couldn't make a line if I wasn't directly following a track," he said. "I think it would be too difficult." Everyone might not agree, but like an umpire calling balls and strikes, it's the human element that persists with this job.

In particular, the Breeders' Cup is a highly-specialized event when it comes to the odds because not only do you have some of the best pointing to the post, but there are international runners that are shipping in from around the world. Tammaro said he would feel the pressure, but admitted much of it is self-imposed, "No one will scrutinize what I do more than me." For instance, when it comes to the Breeder's Cup GI Juvenile, GI Distaff, and GI Classic, he is faced with different puzzles in each race.

The Juvenile started out with a shortlist of competitors, but over the past few weeks, that has grown. He thinks that it could end up with 10 or 12 entered, but Bob Baffert's undefeated Southern California champion, Cave Rock (Arrogate) will be the morning-line favorite. "I don't see him being higher than 4-5 at this point," Tammaro said. "I think the connections, plus his latest speed figure, make him better than Forte (Violence), who is a clear second choice."

In for the Distaff, the Todd Pletcher matchup has him thinking that Nest (Curlin) will be a slight favorite at 8-5 over her older stablemate, Malathaat (Curlin) at 5-2. "This groundswell for Nest that the public is backing is remarkable, but I don't think her races after Belmont were against top competition. Malathaat should be the favorite, but that's not my job." He said the toughest call was what to do with Steve Asmussen's Clairiere. At 4-1, his third choice is a real mystery, especially after a poor showing in the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga in August.

When it comes to the Classic, Tammaro is clear on this marquee event. John Sadler’s Flightline (Tapit) is the deserving favorite. Rarely do oddsmakers in horse racing assign 1-9, and he is shying away from doing so. Tammaro is more in the 3-5 range, which still takes a significant piece of the pie. "I can't go that low because it takes away too much from the others, so 62.5% makes more sense." The closest competitors, Epicenter (Not This Time), Life Is Good (Into Mischief), and Taiba (Gun Runner), will come in at 5-1 (16.66%), 6-1 (14.29%), and 8-1 (11.11%), respectively. He believes that Rich Strike (Keen Ice), beaten by Hot Rod Charlie (Oxbow) last time in the GI Lukas Classic, will end up at 20-1 (4.76%). Tammaro elaborated, "Hot Rod is probably going to be 15-1 (6.25%), based on the Lukas, and I think will be under the radar, what with the likes of Epicenter taking significant action."

Still, he said he was not overly concerned about this slate. Rather, it’s the races like the Juvenile Turf Sprint or Juvenile Turf, with their large and diverse fields, that can be more of a challenge. "Charlie Appleby runners are going to play a major factor, just like Aidan O’Brien’s entries did in the past, but I will have my hands full with some of those races that could go in any direction," Tammaro said.

The modern version of "Mr. Price Maker," who also works full-time at a Houston staffing agency, won’t shy away from a trip to Keeneland next week. After all, any racetrack is what he describes as his "happy place," as he remembers those trips with his father. With that in mind, Nick Tammaro will produce the morning line odds for the Breeders’ Cup to the best of his ability. Then customers can eye the tomatoes and lettuce.

Sky’s the Limit When You’re 5-For-5

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

The unbeaten 2-year-old Iowa-bred gelding Tyler’s Tribe (Sharp Azteca), who has never been headed while winning five dirt races by a combined 59 3/4 lengths, will have considerable rooting interest on Friday in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint.

But he’s no longer the only five-for-five juvenile in North America after a win Saturday by the filly Back to Ohio (Midshipman), who cruised to a 7 1/4-length romp against Ohio-bred stakes company at Mahoning Valley.

It’s not unusual for 2-year-olds to rack up wins if they compete largely against state-bred stakes company. But Tyler’s Tribe is different because he’s run legit 90+ Beyer Speed Figures on several occasions while dominating everyone who’s lined up against him at Prairie Meadows, meriting his shot at the Breeders’ Cup.

Back to Ohio hasn’t garnered the same lofty figs just yet. But she signaled promise six months ago when unleashing a co-fastest eighth of a mile in :9 4/5 during her OBSAPR under-tack session, then hammered for $385,000 for Vince Foglia, who now races her under his stable name, Patricia’s Hope LLC.

That’s quite a cash outlay for a Buckeye-bred. But Back to Ohio has already earned $245,700 of it back for Foglia since debuting June 23.

Bred by Trail M Boarding & Guest Farm, the filly out of Sheza Runaway Star was pinhooked for $70,000 by Top Line Sales from the Mill Ridge Sales consignment at last year’s FTKOCT. After Foglia purchased her this spring, trainer Larry Rivelli had her ready for a 4-5 winning unveiling against open company at Presque Isle Downs, leading to 3-5 favoritism in start number two, an Ohio-bred stakes at Belterra Park on July 8.

Back to Ohio uncorked a near-winning effort that day, but crossed the line second, beaten a neck, with the rest of the shell-shocked field at least 12 1/4 lengths in arrears. But the filly who narrowly beat her subsequently got disqualified because of a positive post-race drug test, and Back to Ohio was later ruled the official victress.

She scored in another state-bred stakes Aug. 13 at Thistledown by 5 1/2 lengths as the 9-10 favorite, then bested open-company fillies at Presque Isle by 2 1/2 lengths in a $99,900 stakes.

Her powerhouse performance in the 1 1/16-mile $100,000 John W. Galbreath S. on Oct. 29 wasn’t without an anxious moment at the start. Making her two-turn debut, Back to Ohio got crunched at the break, then settled willingly and stalked a dueling duo until the far turn, when she inhaled the pacemakers and drew off under the lightest of encouragement from jockey Jareth Loveberry as the 2-5 chalk.

Breeders’ Cup week is now upon us. Back to Ohio won’t be there and Tyler’s Tribe will. But that’s not the point. When you’re five-for-five, the sky’s the limit, and everybody in the Back to Ohio equation—from small-scale breeders to her well-established owner, trainer and jockey connections—can enjoy the rush that comes with the promise of possibility.

Backspin, baby!

In May, TDN colleague Bill Finley profiled Houston Astros all-star third baseman Alex Bregman’s first win as a Thoroughbred owner in a partnership that involves his family members. On Saturday night, the slugger clocked a two-run homer to propel his team to victory over the Philadelphia Phillies to even the World Series at one game apiece.

Bregman Family Racing LLC also took a step up in class over the weekend. Baby Got Backspin (Kantharos), a 2-year-old maiden filly competing against winners, ran third at 9-1 odds in the $200,000 Myrtlewood S. at Keeneland.

The “backspin” part of the filly’s name references a baseball term that describes how power hitters launch batted balls over long distances.

An unraced colt in the Bregman stable is Golden Sombrero (Medaglia d’Oro), named after the inglorious feat of striking out four times in a game.

"Total reverse psychology," Bregman joked about the name choice to baseball writer Ken Rosenthal in a Sunday piece in The Athletic.

Down to the wire...

Maybe someday in the near future the sport will feature prop bets or exchange wagering on winning meet-specific titles. We’re not quite at that point yet, but the closing weekend at Keeneland would have provided an intriguing example, as the winningest owner, trainer and jockey honors all were decided on the final day of racing.

The riding-title race in particular was dramatic: Tyler Gaffalione notched two victories Friday to give him 19 going into the final day of the 17-day fall meet. His closest pursuer, Luis Saez, won one race on Friday to put him at 18. On the final day of the meet, Gaffalione, seeking his sixth Keeneland riding title, had eight mounts versus 10 for Saez. Saez and Gaffalione ran one-two in that order in the Saturday opener. They remained tied for the title until race five, won by Saez, then Gaffalione captured the eighth, again deadlocking the score. They both had mounts in the five-horse featured ninth, in which Gaffalione got third while Saez was last on the favorite. Tied going into the nightcap, Gaffalione had no mount, but Saez pulled off a 26-1 shocker, securing the riding title in an unlikely fashion.

Tour de Fort
There are still a handful of tracks that card closing-day "marathon" races on the final days of race meets, and Fort Erie is one of them. Known locally as the "Tour de Fort," the 2 mile and 70 yard curtain-closer this year was just pure fun to watch for the novelty of it (with the beautiful late-October Ontario foliage adding style points).

The $10,000 starter/optional $12,500 claimer Oct. 24 featured too-fast-to-last splits of :23.89 and :47.73 for the opening quarter and half, and the eventual winner, Trinity Gold (Flat Out) was charted as being 23 lengths last during the first of two laps.

Jockey Brandon Boulanger started to let the three-for-15 gelding unwind at the five-eighths pole the second time down the backstretch. The move appeared almost certainly premature considering how rapidly Trinity Gold picked off the pack with a rush that landed him on the lead with 3 1/2 furlongs still left in the race and odds-on favorite Seventyseven Stone (Seventysevenatreet) coming at him full-tilt.

The two stayers hooked up for a hard-fought, length-of-stretch drive that featured Trinity Gold edging away by 2 2 lengths under the wire with the rest of the stragglers no closer than 12 lengths back in 3:35.98. George Newland trained the winner for Trinity Racing Stables, Inc.

CURLIN FIRSTER BATTLES WAY TO 'TDN RISING STAR' NOD by Alan Carasso

Fort Warren (c, 2, Curlin--La Appassionata, by Bernardini), a $550,000 Keeneland September yearling acquisition, took race-long pressure through fast internal fractions and clung on gamely late to graduate at first asking Sunday at Santa Anita en route to the 'TDN Rising Star' distinction. He is the 22nd 'Rising Star' for his leading Hill 'n' Dale-based stallion.

Away only fairly from the inside gate, Fort Warren had to be used some by go-to rider Juan Hernandez, but speared through to take up the running and covered the opening couple of furlongs in a slick :21.75, with second-time starter Johannes (Nyquist) glued to his flank. Ridden along on the turn while maintaining a narrow advantage, Fort Warren always appeared to be going slightly better than Johannes after a half in a testing :44.65, but that duo soon had company in the form of well-meant firster Spun Intended (Hard Spun), who sat a wide trip near the tail early on before coming into the race nicely, having covered significant ground on the turn. Fort Warren turned back the Johannes challenge once and for all in upper stretch, but Spun Intended refused to go down without a fight, as he battled bravely for every yard, only to drop a long-neck decision.

"This horse, being by Curlin, they're not supposed to have that kind of speed, but he's a beautiful horse and we're excited about him," said winning trainer Bob Baffert. "That was a tough field. Having the one hole and having to go that fast early and then he wouldn't let that horse get past him. He showed a lot of grit."

The Feb. 11 foal is the lone listed produce for his SW/GSP dam, a full-sister to GSW Wilburn and a half to Grade II-winning juvenile Beethoven (Sky Mesa) and to the dam of GSW Moonlight d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro), who sadly passed away after foaling Fort Warren in 2020. Moonlight Sonata, who won the Gill Arlington-Washington Lassie S. at odds of 60-1 in 2002 for trainer Bill Helmbrecht, is also the dam of $1.1-million KEESEP yearling A.P. Sonata (A.P. Indy), whose son Grand Sonata (Medaglia d'Oro) won this year’s Gill Kitten’s Joy S. for Whisper Hill Farm and was a latest third in the GII Hill Prince S. at Aqueduct. Stonestreet purchased Moonlight Sonata for $750,000 carrying the filly that would become La Appassionata at Keeneland November in 2012. This is also the family of champion Abel Tasman (Quality Road).

The cross of Curlin over A.P. Indy-line mares has resulted in countless winners at the graded level and, when bred specifically to Bernardini dams, Curlin is responsible for MGISW and GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Distaff hopeful Clairiere, GISW Paris Lights and other graded winners Cezanne and 'Rising Star' Spice Is Nice.

Dr. Blute made his first time over a route of ground a winning one with this game victory in the Empire Classic S. on Empire Showcase Day.

The second choice in the wagering behind 2-1 Barese, Dr. Blute was fractious in the gate but managed to get to the front to show the way through :23.97 and :48.41 splits. Responding when asked for the homeward drive, the field closed on him late but he held off Curlin's Wisdom by three-quarters of a length on the wire as the favorite filled out the trifecta behind them.

"He had been sprinting before and was always very sharp. Saffie [Joseph, Jr.] left it up to me, and when the doors opened, he was the first one out there. I committed to the lead going to the first turn. I'm just glad he stayed the distance," said Jose Ortiz. "He was getting tired late, but it was his first time going this far. I knew he was going to get tired a little late, but the horse is doing amazing."

His dam's most accomplished runner, Dr. Blute has a unraced 3-year-old half-sister Redtail Drama (Connect) and a placed 2-year-old half-brother Gold Templar (Bolt d'Oro), who is also the last registered foal for the mare. Truss is a half-sister to GSW Khancord Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), the dam of GSW Bar of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro), herself the dam of GSW Coinage (Tapit). This is the extended family of Champion 2-year-old colt Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg}). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Let Her Inspire U, a $500,000 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream buy, took four tries to break her maiden, doing so by 3 3/4 lengths June 16 at Belmont, and repeated by the same margin in a state-bred Saratoga allowance July 22 before running a narrow second making her stakes and two-turn debut in the Fleet Indian S. Aug. 26 at the Spa. Annexing a local Empire-bred allowance Sept. 24, the dark bay was sent off as the favorite here and pressed the pace from second through soft fractions of :25.12 and :49.93. Poking her head in front as the tempo picked up through three-quarters in 1:13.99, she took charge into the lane and drew clear into the final furlong for the victory. Sharp Starr closed from last to get second money. The winner’s dam, a half to MGSw/GISP Halory Leigh (Halory Hunter), has a yearling Lookin At Lucky colt and foaled a colt by Practical Joke this term before visiting Honest Mischief. City Man easy winner of the $200,000 Mohawk Stakes

Graded Stakes Winner City Man wins his second straight stakes in the Mohawk at Belmont at Aqueduct. The sound and consistent 5 year old advanced his earnings to nearly $900,000 with the win.

If you’re looking to move up your mare, look up Mucho Macho Man on the AEI Sire List and you’ll find that he ranks favorably to sires with stud fees 10 to 15 times higher than his.

Congratulations to City Man’s connections: Owners Reeves Thoroughbred Racing and Peter & Patty Searles, Breeder Moonstar Farm, and Trainer Christophe Clement.

   Les Bon Temps, a first-out graduate in the Churchill slop before finishing a distant fourth in the state-bred Seeking the Ante S. Aug. 26 at Saratoga. Transferred from the Norm Casse barn after that, she was third after setting the pace in the local Joseph A. Gimma S. Sept. 23 and was overlooked at 13-1 here.

Away sharply, the $65,000 Fasig-Tipton October buy found a good spot in third at the rail behind fractions of :23.32 and :46.82, drew alongside pacesetting Miracle outside the sixteenth pole and wore that rival down late. Miracle was well clear for the place.

“It was pretty tough. The horse on the lead didn’t want to stop and they fought until the end,” said winning rider Luis Saez. “It was an exciting race. [Stretching out to a mile] definitely helped her. That was best for her. She gave me a good kick at the top of the stretch. She did great.”

The winner has a yearling full-brother and a weanling half-sister by Honest Mischief. Her dam was paired with Twirling Candy this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Also Ran: Rinaldi, Ocala Dream, Therapist, Kingdom On Paws. Scratched: Jerry the Nipper.

A winner three back of the GIII Forbidden Apple S. at the Spa, City Man added the Mohawk S. Sunday, a race in which he finished third last year. Off smoothly from the one post, City Man had to check sharply when early pacesetter Rinaldi (Posse) went to the front and came over noticeably right on top of him just before the :24.11 quarter mark. Undaunted, City Man held on the rail, sat patiently through a :49.33 half and six panels in 1:12.98, then dove through a seam on the inside coming off the turn. As Rinaldi got swamped by Cold Hard Cash and Sanctuary City, City Man burst well clear to win by 2 1/2 lengths.

“I was a bit disappointed that [being checked] happened,” said winning trainer Christophe Clement. “But the good news is that Joel [Rosario] was on him and was able to give him a great ride. The horse was good enough to get out of it.

“I need to have more like him,” continued Clement. “It’s fun. It’s a great credit to the New York-bred program. He’s been going all year long and in open company and New York-breds. I’m just lucky to have him.”

Sandwiched between his Forbidden Apple win and a last-out victory in the Sept. 24 Ashley T. Cole S., where he set a new course record of 1:46.95 for 1 1/8 miles, City Man was second in the GII Bernard Baruch S. He’s got another four black-type wins and several stakes other placings, including in last year’s GII Fort Marcy S.

The winner’s dam, a $21,000 Fasig-Tipton New York-bred yearling in 2009, has an unnamed 2-year-old colt by Hoppertunity, a yearling full-sister to City Man named Miss City Girl, and a filly born May 10 by Vino Rosso. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Stalwart New York breeders Chester and Mary Broman bred the superfecta in Sunday’s Sleepy Hollow S. at Belmont at the Big A. To add to the remarkable result, the Bromans also campaign both the winner and the third-place finisher as homebreds.

Breaking from the one hole, Arctic Arrogance emerged from the early fray to challenge for the lead. He poked his neck in front just in time for the :23.62 first quarter call despite being hounded from the outside and kept the lead for the :47.93 half. Early on the turn, he was passed and took the breather before coming on again under a drive. He greenly swapped to his wrong lead briefly in the stretch, but it didn't factor as the gray pulled clear decisively for a 4 1/2-length decision.

“He’s a hard horse to keep fit,” said winning trainer Linda Rice. “He wants to get really heavy and it’s hard to keep the weight off him. After he won at Saratoga, I felt like I let his weight get away from him and it cost us in that last race. I really squeezed off him. After he won at Saratoga, I felt like I let his weight get away from him and it cost us in that last race. I really squeezed off him.

Arctic Arrogance won first time out going six furlongs at Saratoga Sept. 5 in the mud, but his encore Sept. 29 in the Bertram F. Bongard S. over this track was thwarted by Jackson Heights (Union Jackson), who finished fifth behind Arctic Arrogance in the Sleepy Hollow.

The Bromans bought Modest Maven for $1 million at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-old sale in 2016, but she never raced. Her first foal, now 3-year-old Overstep (Uncle Mo), was sold as a Keeneland September yearling for $360,000 to Repole Stables and St Elias Stable. He was named a ‘TDN Rising Star’ on debut last year, finished second in the 2021 edition of the Sleepy Hollow, and hasn’t raced since. Modest Maven also has a yearling filly by Frosted, did not produce a 2022 foal to the cover of Authentic, and was bred back to Maclean's Music for 2023. Modest Maven's unraced dam is half to champion Housebuster (Mt. Livermore) and to GSW & MGISP Quero Quero (Royal Academy). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Sophomore filly November Rein stepped down from graded company after proving overmatched in a last-out try in the Aug. 6 GI Test S., but faced some classy older mares in the Iroquois S. Sunday. Bumped at the start, four and five wide for much of the going while tracking the :22.30 and :45.49 pace at a juicy 19-1 on the board, November Rein pounced on the turn with her tongue flapping in the breeze to wear down frontrunner Leeloo (Practical Joke).

“She’s a really nice horse,” said John Attfield, assistant to winning trainer Kelly Breen. “She’s got a ton of heart. Trevor [McCarthy] gave her the most incredible ride today. She normally wants to be on the lead and likes it there, but he managed to let her sit off the pace and when he asked her, she exploded and ran hard today. I can’t say enough about her. She’s done nothing wrong, especially against New York-breds.”

Undefeated in three starts at the 6 1/2-furlong distance of the Iroquois and in two tries against older mares, November Rein also won Saratoga’s Seeking the Ante S. last year and was third in Belmont’s Bouwerie S. in her 2022 debut after an eight-month break.

Ju Ju Eyeballs, a MSW herself, has also produced an unraced 2-year-old filly named Neigh Jude (Union Rags). She’s had colts the last two seasons—a yearling named Old Flat Top (Laoban) and a May 8 foal by Mission Impazible. She was bred back to Bustin Stones. PANTHER ISLAND (c, 3, Speightstown--Holiday Blues, by Ghostzapper) suffered a narrow defeat in his last start Sept. 16 over this same track and distance, the only mark on his otherwise unblemished record. The popular 4-5 selection Sunday, he dueled outside of Mamba On Three (Big Drama) into the far turn. The pair stayed together down the lane with Panther Island edging away close to home to win by a determined length. Holiday Blues, herself a half-sister to GISP Wine Police (Speightstown), has a 2-year-old colt, Strat On Louie (Street Sense), who recently came in second in his career debut at Gulfstream, and a weanling colt, Ever Given (American Pharoah). Again off in a tangle, the $240,000 Keeneland November buy settled between horses in seventh behind a :23.98 quarter and dropped a spot past a :48.71 half. DENINGTON (c, 2, Gun Runner--Stronger Than Ever (SW, $196,846), by Congrats) raced in mid-pack but not far off the leading duelers through early fractions of :24.31 and :49.10. In the clear on the outside, the gray made a big move on the turn, dug in down the lane, and pulled clear to win by 1 3/4 lengths over Create Trouble (Into Mischief) in the slop. He paid $14.88 for the win. The Fern Circle Stables/Magdalena Racing homebred had tried three times previously to get his initial win, including twice at Ellis at a mile and last out Oct. 1 over track and trip. JOKING WAY (c, 2, Practical Joke--Twiga, by Union Rags), third on debut last month over a fast seven furlongs, was sent off as the 4-5 favorite Sunday. Clear of the field from the first jump, he set an unchallenged pace while racing just off the rail into the far turn. Kempt under a hand ride down the lane, he widened his margin and hit the line geared down 6 3/4 lengths ahead of 20-1 longshot Brazen Boy (Jimmy Creed). The first foal out of a half-sister to MGSW Takeover Target (Harlan's Holiday), Joking Way is from the family of MGISW Critical Eye (Dynaformer). Twiga produced a filly by Good Magic in 2021 and a colt by Gun Runner in 2022. Sales History: $95,000 RNA Wlg '20 KEENOV; $270,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $81,000. PARODY (f, 2, Distorted Humor--Rockster, by Super Saver) left the four post at 4-1 odds to track from fourth early in this unveiling over a sealed, sloppy track. Three wide as the leaders put up a :22.67 opening quarter, and locking horns with 5-2 favorite High Class (Into Mischief) to her inside coming off the final bend, the fillies dueled through the lane with Parody greenly swapping back to her left lead as she took over command in the final sixteenth. She edged ahead late to score by three-quarters of a length over her stretch rival. Out of an unraced half-sister to millionaire, MGISP & MGSW Rule (Roman Ruler) as well as 12-time winner MGISP Matrooh (Distorted Humor), Parody is the first flagbearer to the races. She has a pair of half-sisters: a yearling by Speightstown and a 2022 weanling by Tom’s d’Etat. The dam visited Charlatan for 2023. This is the female family of Champion 3-year-old colt and GI Kentucky Derby and Preakness hero, Funny Cide (Distorted Humor). Sales History: $235,000 RNA Ylg ’21 KEESEP. 6th-Woodbine, C$98,800, Msw, 10-30, 2yo, 1 1/16m (AWT), 1:45.33, ft, 5 1/2 lengths.

MO TOURIST (c, 2, Tourist--Aunty Mo, by Uncle Mo), fourth on unveiling June 12 and sixth last out Aug. 28 in a pair of baby dashes at this venue, found the stretch-out to his liking here as the 6-1 shot stepped up to set the pace through :24.84, :50.72, and 1:15.51 splits. Edging away while riding the rail through the far turn and into the stretch, he was kept to his task as 5-2 favorite King Elvis (Medaglia d'Oro) tried to make a race of it, but was 5 1/2 lengths second best. A full-sibling to the dam's winning first foal, Mo Tourist has a pair of half-brothers: a yearling by Goldencents and a 2022 weanling by Paynter. Aunty Mo visited By My Standards for 2023. DISRUPTION (f, 2, Practical Joke--Orient Moon, by Malibu Moon) struggled on debut at Saratoga July 27 but came back to run second last time out over this same track and distance Sept 22. Sunday's 8-5 choice off that effort, Disruption broke towards the rail and had to settle inside of horses close to the lead. Tipped out for a three-wide bid at the quarter pole, she took command a furlong from home and responded well when asked, clearing off from the field to win by 2 1/2 lengths over Weekend Rags (Street Boss). Orient Moon, already responsible for Kept Waiting (Broken Vow), SW & GSP, $338,350, produced a weanling filly by Lookin At Lucky and visited Practical Joke for a full-sibling to Disruption in 2023. MAURITIUS (c, 3, Twirling Candy--Special Still, by Quiet American) ran second to MGISW Taiba (Gun Runner) on debut for Bob Baffert Mar. 5 at Santa Anita before disappointing when backing up to be a well-beaten fourth there 22 days later. Changing barns since and returning as a heavy 1-2 chalk here, the dark bay sat second early before taking command past a :23.35 quarter, scooted clear on the turn and shook off a brief stretch bid from Crack the Code (Honor Code) to best that rival by 2 1/4 lengths. The winner has an unraced 2-year-old Bernardini half-sister named Hanalei and a weanling full-brother. His dam visited Gift Box this spring. Sales History: $130,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. SMART STRIKER (c, 2, Connect--You Wish, by Bodemeister) debuted a disappointing ninth on the dirt at first asking Sept. 17 but came back to be beaten just a neck on the all-weather surface at this distance Oct. 2 at Gulfstream. Stuck in mid-pack while racing several paths off the rail, he loomed wider still as the field straightened for home and rallied to take command with an eighth to run. Kept under a drive late, Smart Striker held off a closing For the Chief (Girvin) to win by a length at odds of 2-1. The Lothenbach Stables homebred trailed early, stayed at the rear through :24.13 and :48.99 fractions, and swooped around the far turn while wide but threatening. She hit the front, let another close when she stayed on her wrong lead and drifted a bit, then found another gear when swapped belatedly to her correct lead, besting Miss Kitty Pie (Ameriheart) by 2 1/2 lengths. No Fault of Mine has a 2022 colt by Ghostzapper and was bred back to War Front for a full-sibling to Kathaan. ‘THERE’S OPPORTUNITY IN EVERY HORSE - IT’S HOW THE INDUSTRY EXISTS’

By Brian Sheerin

Few people left an imprint at the Tattersalls Autumn Horses In Training Sale quite like Olly Tait. Under the banner of the newly-formed and Qatari-backed Wathnan Racing, Tait signed for nine horses to the tune of 1.75 million gns, headed by 450,000gns purchase Persian Royal (GB) (Al Kazeem {GB}).

Fitting that Tait has been tasked with growing Wathnan Racing into a formidable ownership vehicle in Qatar as it was the Australian native who was entrusted by Godolphin to get their Darley operation off the ground down under back in 2001.

Despite only being in his mid-20s at the time, Tait laid the foundations of the hugely successful Darley Australia arm that continues to flourish to this day. It was in 2016 that Tait decided to take his experience working for Darley and set up Twin Hills Stud in Australia. With stallions like Smart Missile (Aus), Peltzer (Aus), Hallowed Crown (Aus), Denman (Aus) and Odyssey Moon (Aus) on the Twin Hills roster, the farm has become one of the most prominent studs in Australia in a relatively short period.

Tait has described the challenge of building Wathnan Racing into a force to be reckoned with in the Gulf as something that excites him and, despite playing in a vibrant market at Tattersalls last week, says he is delighted with the additions to the team in this week’s Q&A.

HARAS DU QUESNAY TO SELL, DISPERSAL SLATED FOR VENTE D’ELEVAGE

Historic breeding establishment Haras du Quesnay announced it will disband its operation, including 40 broodmares, fillies and foals, during the upcoming Arqana Vente d’Elevage Dec. 3-6. “The Lov Group will purchase the stud,” Freddy Head told JDG Sunday. “I believe le Quesnay will remain a stud, that’s the objective. However, it is too early to tell. In any case, it won’t take place until next year. All of the Haras du Quesney stock will be sold in December. Personally, I will continue to breed on my end.”

Haras du Quesney stallions Recoletos (Fr) (Whipper) and Intello (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}) have also been relocated. The former has been moved to Petit Tellier, while the latter will take up residence at Haras de Beaumont for the 2023 breeding season.

Brian Sheerin: You picked up a good variety of horses at Tattersalls last week on behalf of Wathnan Racing. What was the modus operandi heading into that sale?

Olly Tait: There’s a wide-ranging programme of racing in Qatar so, obviously, we were keen to buy horses who can win in the colours of Wathnan Racing this season and beyond. We got some horses at the higher end as we’re hoping to find a horse capable of winning the Qatar Derby. Equally, there are a lot of nice handicaps to be won in Qatar, so we bought horses at all levels in order to make the stable successful. That’s not just having horses who can run in the big races, it’s buying horses who can win at all different levels.

BS: Tell us more about Wathnan Racing and how your relationship has developed.

OT: Wathnan Racing is a stable in Qatar and my connection to that is through Abdulhadi Mana Al-Hajri, who I have known for quite a while. He is now heading up that stable in Qatar and contacted me a few months ago asking if I would give him a hand.

BS: And what does the programme for these horses look like in Qatar? In short, what kind of horses are you seeking out and what are the profiles that you think will do well out there?

OT: There is Arabian and thoroughbred racing in Qatar at present but there is a wide-ranging programme there for racehorses over a variety of different trips from October through to March. There are a lot of races to be run and won in that time. As I said, we’re looking for horses at every level and over a variety of different distances, not just targeting the Derby, which is run over a mile-and-a-quarter.

BS: Obviously you were very busy recruiting to the stable last week but have you aspirations to recruit horses for Wathnan Racing privately as well?

OT: We’ll wait and see. While the selection of horses on offer at Tattersalls was fantastic, we’re not beholden to that and it’s something we could do.

BS: There were a few jaw-dropping moments during last week’s sale and the trade was in keeping with the high demand shown for yearlings during the autumn. What was it like playing in such a vibrant market?

OT: As I have always said, horses are only worth what someone is willing to pay for them. The motivation behind buying a horse, in general, is not just a financial return. Horses give people a lot of pleasure and you could see that at the horses-in-training sale with the horses there going to all different parts of the world. That’s testimony to the quality of horses that they were but also the fact that there’s a really healthy appetite for horses across the globe which is fantastic to see. It’s fantastic that so many people want to buy racehorses and there’s an opportunity in every horse and that’s how the industry exists. That was plain to see at Tattersalls last week.

BS: We all know about your time at Darley and more recently Twin Hills but this is something completely different. On a personal level, how exciting has it been getting a racing operation off the ground as opposed to a stud farm?

OT: On a personal level, it’s a very interesting project for me to be involved in. I’ve got a good relationship with Mr Al-Hajri so it’s nice to be able to help him where I can.

BS: And for those who may not be aware, tell us about your time at Darley. I found it interesting that you spent a few years working with the accountancy firm KPMG before writing to Darley and looking for a break in the bloodstock industry.

OT: I grew up with an interest in horses which came from my parents and grandparents who owned horses.
They were involved in the agriculture business, mainly sheep and cattle, and I was fortunate to get a job with Darley in my early 20s. Sheikh Mohammed was very ambitious and I was lucky to be a part of that during my time there. I had a great time working for Darley and am very thankful for the opportunities that I have had. When I moved on to Twin Hills, it came at a time where I thought that, if I was ever going to try something on my own, that was the time. Fortunately Twin Hills came on the market when it did. We have been here at Twin Hills for six years now and it’s been very challenging but also very rewarding. We’ve been very lucky as it’s been a buoyant market in Australia and right around the world. The racing industry in Australia is very healthy and I guess our timing has been good in that we have been a part of that. We have been selling horses on a commercial level, standing stallions and looking after people’s bloodstock interests, to the extent that Twin Hills is now a reasonably sized operation. I’ve been exposed to lots of different things in the industry but I have been at it for quite a while now and it’s been a career that I’ve thoroughly enjoyed.

BS: You’ve clearly had some excellent mentors along the way.
OT: I have been very lucky. When I was working with Darley, I was exposed to amazing people in the industry and that’s not just the people who would be perceived as being successful. I’ve met people at all different levels who have had an impact on me and continue to do so.

BS: It’s interesting that you were just 25 when entrusted to set up the Australian arm of the Darley operation. Angus Gold was also quite young when he got the Shadwell job. It just shows that, if you’re good enough, you’re old enough.
OT: I was lucky that the faith was put in me because that’s not an easy decision to give a job like that to a person of that age. In the beginning, it wasn’t a major operation; it was just me and another employee with a number of stallions. There was obviously always that chance that it was going to grow into something big, which it has and, hopefully I showed along the way that I was up to the task. It was just really enjoyable to be part of an operation that grew the way it did internationally. This is a global industry and there are opportunities internationally but there are not many operations that have an international presence and I was lucky to work for Darley and get those opportunities. I’ll be forever thankful for that.

Among those on offer at Arqana:

- Perle d’Auge (Le Havre), a half-sister to Eternal Pearl, a winner of the G3 Prix Minerve and G3 Dubai S., from the close family of G1 Matron S. winner Pearls Galore. This is the maternal line of Pearly Shells.

- The last foal out of the dam of Treve (Fr) (Motivator), a filly from Le Havre’s final crop.

- Toride, a half-sister to Treve, that has produced black-type Lady Day and Maximum, that is offered in foal to Zarak.
All the lots from the Haras du Quesnay dispersal will be available online Monday, Oct. 31, when the whole catalogue for the Vente d’Elevage will be unveiled at www.arqana.com. Renowned for having stood a bevy of top sires, including Green Dancer, Riverman, Sir Gaylord, Gay Mecene, Bellypha, Saint Cyrien, Bering, Highest Honor and Anabaa, as well as Le Fabuleux, the operation is also famed for having bred Astec, Chaparral, Riverqueen, Harbour, Ma Biche, Silvermine, Bering, Ravinella, and Matiara, Bon Mot, Détroit and most recently Trève.

MOON RAY EDGES MIESQUE THRILLER

By Tom Frary

It was tight at the end of Sunday’s G3 Prix Miesque at Chantilly, but R.T. Racing Stable’s Moon Ray (Fr) (Saxon Warrior (Jpn)--Demeanour, by Giant’s Causeway) had her nose in front where it mattered to provide her owners with a landmark pattern success in Europe. Having split Eternal Dance (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) and Lady Mia (Fr) (Outstrip (GB)) when second in the Listed Prix Saraca over this seven-furlong trip and track Oct. 8, the Nicolas Clement-trained chestnut was able to turn that form around with Stephane Pasquier judging the pace perfectly.

Reserved in mid-division against the rail initially, the 5-1 shot needed an out in the straight as the front-running Lady Mia saw off all other challengers and it came in time for her to wear down that rival close home and prevail in a bobbing finish. The 9-5 favourite Eternal Dance had too much ground to make up, having taken too much time to hit top stride and wound up half a length further away in third.

“She was a 50,000 Arqana October yearling who was a bargain—you couldn’t ask for any more. She will probably return in a Guineas trial and we’ll find out whether we go for the Pouliches,” Clement said of the breakthrough Euro runner for Dr Ramon Tallaj’s operation. “The first three fillies in the prep were the first three here, so it shows they are consistent and tough. I’m delighted for the owner, who started with horses two years ago in New York with my brother.”

Pedigree Notes

Moon Ray, who had broken her maiden over six furlongs here Sept. 10, becomes the third individual group winner for her first-season sire and is the third black-type performer for the Swedish listed-winning dam. Demeanour’s others of that kind were the Norwegian listed scorer and G3 Marit Sveas Minnelop runner-up Swedish Dream (Fr) (Helmet (Aus)) and the G3 Silver Flash S. runner-up Moravia (GB) (Siyouni (Fr)). A half to three other black-type performers including the G3 Cumberland Lodge S. Runner-up Sugar Ray (Ire) (Danehill), Demeanour is a granddaughter of the G1 Irish St Leger heroine Dark Lomond (Ire) (Lomond) whose descendants include the G2 Railway S.-winning sire Libourne Lad (Ire). Her yearling colt by Postponed (Ire) was a €37,000 purchase by Morten Buskop Bloodstock at the recent Arqana Deauville October auction that Moon Ray emanated from.

POUR LE SOIR TO THE FORE AT CHANTILLY

Ecurie Pandora Racing and Ahmed Mouknass’s COEUR DE PIERRE (Fr) (Zanzibari–Twilight Tear (GB), by Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire)) ran third in this month’s G1 Prix de l’Abbaye on ParisLongchamp’s Arc undercard and stepped forward to post a first pattern-race triumph in Sunday’s G3 Prix de Seine-et-Oise at Chantilly. The gelded 6-year-old, second and 10th in the two latest renewals of the six-furlong dash, added to last year’s win in the Listed Prix de Bonneval with success in August’s Listed Prix du Cercle and went postward as the 14-5 favourite having run second in last month’s G3 Prix du Petit Couvert prior to his Abbaye third. Coeur De Pierre broke well to race third behind the freewheeling Ponntos (Ire) (Power (GB)) through the early fractions. Powering forward from halfway, he was rowed along to lead approaching the final furlong and kept on well in the closing stages to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from Loubeisien (Fr) (Kheleyf) and Vadream (GB) (Brazen Beau (Aus)), themselves separated by a head.
“He just gets better and better and, as with most sprinters, he improves with age,” said trainer Mauricio Decher Sanchez. “He’s a horse we have always had a high opinion of and he’s rewarded us for our patience. This is his best year ever and we hope there is yet more to come when he returns next year. He is now off for a rest at the [Haras de Grandcamp] farm where he was born and we will see him again around April.”

Pedigree Notes

Coeur De Pierre (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}) is the fourth of seven foals and second pattern-race scorer produced by a granddaughter of matriarch Brigid (Irish River {Fr}), who is full to the dual stakes-winning dam of GI E. P. Taylor S. victrix Insight (Fr) (Sadler’s Wells) and Group 1-winning sires Dolphin Street (Fr) (Bluebird) and Saffron Walden (Fr) (Sadler’s Wells). The April-foaled gelded bay is a full-brother to G3 Prix Impudence victrix and G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains runner-up Coeur De Beaute (Fr) and kin to the unraced 2-year-old colt Rock My Dad (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}). SILENCE PLEASE TAKES THE SILBERNES PFERD By Tom Frary

Making her first start for Andreas Wohler with a breakthrough first pattern-race success, Team Valor’s stalwart Silence Please (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) returned to the winner’s enclosure for the first time since the 2010 Listed Salsabil S. in Sunday’s G3 Silbernes Pferd at Hoppegarten. Anchored in last early by Jozef Bojko, the 47-10 joint-second favourite had several lengths to make up on the clear leader Nerium (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) two furlongs out with traffic still to negotiate. Despite getting to that rival only 100 metres from the line, the bay was finishing off so strongly that she had put five lengths between them there as her class told. With Jessie Harrington when winning the Salsabil as a 3-year-old with Classic pretensions, Silence Please managed a fourth placing in the G1 Preis der Diana and four placings at group level before shipping to England to join Andrew Balding at the start of this season. Her four starts yielded just a third placing in Goodwood’s Listed Daisy Warwick Fillies’ S. over a mile and a half Apr. 29, but this represented a return to her pomp and a well-deserved first success at this level.

ADLERFLUG'S NAILA A NEW RISING STAR

By Tom Frary

Sporting the famed Gestut Rottgen silks in Cologne's Preis vom Weidenpescher Park on Sunday, Naila (Fr) (Adlerflug {Ger}) overpowered her peers to become the latest German TDN Rising Star. Sent off the 9-10 favourite for the 1850-metre maiden, the Markus Klug-trained chestnut broke well from the widest stall to track the leading duo throughout the early stages. Taking control approaching the two-furlong marker, she surged clear to win unchallenged by 10 lengths with Andrasch Starke easing down. The winner is the last known foal out of the listed-winning dam Naomia (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), who has produced the G3 Zukunftsrennen scorer Narella (Ire) (Reliable Man {GB}). She is a daughter of the G1 Oaks d'Italia heroine Nagoya (Ger) (Goofalik), who is also the second dam of Nepal (Ger) (Kallisto {Ger}) who also captured that Milan Classic when it was staged as a group 2 in 2016.

Sent forward from an early position in rear to race fourth by halfway here, he cruised into contention in the straight and coasted clear of toiling rivals once shaken up for his bid entering the final furlong to earn a second black-type rosette with elan.

“We didn’t know exactly where we stood with him as most of his sparring partners at home have finished their season and I had no serious guide going into the race,” revealed trainer Yann Barberot. “I know he is good and was beaten last time by a very good one, who has since confirmed his quality, but I was a bit apprehensive beforehand. I am relieved to see that he has come back in good order, he wasn’t at 100% and I feel that he won on his class. He could run in Dubai during the winter, but that will be discussed with the owners.”

Zagrey, the fourth of six foals, is one of three scorers out of the unraced Grey Anatomy (GB) (Slickly (Fr)). The April-foaled bay is full to a 2-year-old filly and a half to G1 Criterium International third Graignes (Fr) (Zoffany (Ire)), the stakes-placed Anatiya (Fr) (Darian (Fr)) and a yearling filly by Sivouni (Fr). Equinox gets up late in the Tenno Sho | JRA photo

Panthalassa (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}), who bravely dead-heated for the victory with defending champion Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in this year’s G1 Dubai Turf after making all the running, put on an even bolder show in Sunday’s G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) at Tokyo Racecourse. But after turning into the long straight with a double-digit advantage, he could not quite stave off favoured Equinox (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}). Equinox covered his final 600 metres in :32.7, a tenth of a second quicker than Danon Beluga. Jack d’Or (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) was a further neck back in fourth, while 2021 Derby hero and this year’s G1 Dubai Sheema Classic winner Shahryar (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) was fifth in a useful prep for the G1 Longines Japan Cup Nov. 27.

“I’m happy that we were able to catch Panthalassa,” said Lemaire, winning his third Tenno Sho in four years and his 42nd Group 1 on the JRA circuit. “I saw him way in front of us after turning into the straight, the huge gap did worry me a bit, but my colt gave his best and displayed an incredible turn of foot. If he comes out of this race safe and well, he has every chance to do well in the Japan Cup or the Arima Kinen. This was his first Group 1 win but definitely not his last.”

Pedigree Notes

Equinox is one of 54 winners to date for his second-crop sire and is his first top-level scorer. Kitasan Black, now responsible for three group winners following the victory of Ravel (Jpn) in Saturday’s G3 Artemis S., is a son of Deep Impact’s full-brother Black Tide (Jpn) and put together one of the great careers in recent memory.

Third to the late Duramente (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) in the 2015 G1 Satsuki Sho, Kitasan Black won that year’s G1 Kikuka Sho (3000m) before adding his first G1 Tenno Sho (Spring) over two miles the following May. Named Horse of the Year after closing his 4-year-old season with a score in the G1 Japan Cup (2400m), he added the G1 Osaka Hai (2000m), a successful defence of his title in the Tenno Sho (Spring) in his next appearance and this race nearly five years to the day of Equinox’s win. Run in heavy ground in 2017, Kitasan Black clocked 2:08.3. He retired as a dual Horse of the Year following success in the G1 Arima Kinen with 12 wins—seven at Group 1 level—from 20 starts for earnings of $16.5 million.

Out of Silk Racing colourbearer Chateau Blanche, Equinox is a half-brother to the operation’s Group 3 winner Weiss Meteor, a 2-year-old colt by Just a Way (Jpn) and a yearling filly by Kizuna (Jpn). She did not produce a foal in 2022. Equinox is the second Group 1 winner out of a daughter of Dancing Brave son King Halo (Jpn), joining Sprinters’ S. hero Pixie Knight (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}).
