UNBEATEN FLIGHTLINE TABBED 3-5 CLASSIC FAVORITE

by Steve Sherack

LEXINGTON, KY -- With University of Kentucky men's basketball head coach John Calipari pulling the pills, unbeaten superstar Flightline (Tapit) drew post four for Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic to a round of applause during Monday's Rood & Riddle Post Position Draw held at the home of the Wildcats at Rupp Arena in downtown Lexington.

The 3-5 morning-line favorite will meet seven rivals in the $6-million centerpiece at Keeneland, including the talented Life Is Good (Into Mischief) (post two) and top 3-year-olds Epicenter (Not This Time) (post six), Taiba (Gun Runner) (post one) and Rich Strike (Keen Ice) (post eight).

“A good draw,” trainer John Sadler said of the runaway GI Pacific Classic winner. “We would've been happy with any draw. We think at 1 1/4 miles you have a good run into the turn to get your position. So, for him, it’s just fine.”

Seven returning or former Breeders' Cup winners were entered for the two-day Championships: Aloha West (Hard Spun) (Sprint); Ce Ce (Elusive Quality) (F/M Sprint); Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) (F/M Sprint); Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) (Turf Sprint); Life Is Good (Classic); Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) (Mile); and Order of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}) (Mile).

SPOTLIGHT ON THE NIGHT OF THE STARS: CAMPANELLE by Katie Petrunyak

Wesley Ward would be the first to admit that he has a soft spot for his globe-trotting Breeders' Cup contender Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}--Janina {GB}, by Namid {GB}).

“It’s hard not to like a filly that has accomplished what she has,” he said with a smile. “Just from being around her, you know how special she is.”

For over two years, Campanelle has been a consistent presence in Ward’s converted tobacco barn adjacent to the Keeneland grounds. The Stonestreet Stables representative has thrived on racing's biggest stages throughout her career, earning two victories at Royal Ascot and claiming the 2020 G1 Darley Prix Morny in Deauville, but soon she will make what could well be the final start of her career on her home turf in Lexington.

Over the weekend, the 4-year-old put in her final work over the Keeneland turf, going five furlongs in 1:03.80 on Saturday in preparation for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. Cont. p4

The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission approved a 211-date Thoroughbred slate for 2023 at its Monday meeting.
Flightline Tabbed 3-5 Classic Favorite

The GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff will be one of the more highly anticipated races of the weekend, led by the Todd Pletcher-trained duo of champion Malathaat (Curlin) and leading 3-year-old filly Nest (Curlin). The latter was tabbed as the 9-5 morning-line favorite.

“We’re blessed to have both of them,” Pletcher said. “It’s a contentious field. There are some other really good fillies in there. It’s certainly not a match race between the stablemates.”

Champion sprinter Jackie’s Warrior (Maclean’s Music), a disappointing sixth as the favorite in last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint, is the clear cut one to beat in Saturday’s renewal. The Sprint lost one of its major players with the defection of star 3-year-old Jack Christopher (Munnings).

Expected to go off as the favorite in last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, he was scratched by the track veterinarians the day prior to the race.

“It was a difficult decision, but it’s my understanding that the veterinary teams in charge of clearing horses to participate are likely to scratch the horse on or before race day primarily based on the way he moves,” trainer Chad Brown told Daily Racing Form.

Morning-line favorites for Championship Saturday’s races are as follows: Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) (F/M Sprint) (3-1); Golden Pal (Turf Sprint) (2-1); Cody’s Wish (Curlin) (Dirt Mile) (5-2); Nashwa (GB) (Frankel (GB)) (F/M Turf) (5-2); Jackie’s Warrior (Sprint) (4-5); Modern Games (Ire) (Mile) (7-2); Nest (Distaff) (9-5); Rebel’s Romance (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) (Turf) (3-1); and Flightline (Classic) (3-5).

The Breeders' Cup will be televised live domestically on NBC, Peacock, USA Network, and FanDuel TV.

Ward spoke highly of how Campanelle is coming into the race. "She thrives at Keeneland and I'm sure she's probably going to run the race of her life. Every workout is better than the next and she's glowing right now. I think she's going to have a great chance here."

From there, Campanelle will take one of the shorter journeys of her career to travel to Fasig-Tipton for the 'Night of the Stars' Sale, where she will sell as Hip 272 with Eaton Sales as a racing or broodmare prospect.

Ward has been high on the Irish-bred daughter of Kodiac from the beginning. Picked out by Ben McElroy from Book 1 of the 2019 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Campanelle stood out as soon as she arrived in Lexington in the spring of her juvenile year.

“She was a big, beautiful filly and you could tell that physically, she was the standout of that particular group that Ben had sent in,” Ward recalled. “When we started training her we could really see the athleticism, and as soon as we got her on the grass, it was like a fish to water. She just took right off.”

The winner of the G2 Queen Mary S. and G1 Darley Prix Morny during her juvenile season, Campanelle returned to the prestigious Ascot meet at three to defeat males in the 2021 G1 Commonwealth Cup.

This year, the long-striding turf sprinter opened her season with a win in the Giant’s Causeway S. at Keeneland, finished in a dead heat for third in the G1 Platinum Jubilee S. in her third trip to Ascot, and then got her first graded stakes win on American soil in the Gill Mint Ladies Sprint S.

“The thing about this filly is that she runs on any track and on any surface as far as conditions go,” Ward explained. “She'll run if it's a deep, soggy going or if it's a hard, firm turf. She just runs on anything there is. Every time you lead her over she tries so hard and physically, she’s just a beautiful filly. Anyone could take a look at her and know that she’s at the upper echelon of Thoroughbred racing right now.”

Stonestreet’s Barbara Banke echoed that Campanelle has the looks and the heart to rank her among the elite members of Stonestreet’s accomplished racing stable.

“It’s really special to have a horse that can win among stakes competition in three different countries in England, France and the United States,” Banke said. “She carries herself well and she has a sense of dignity. She’s got a lot of fight and she always gives it her best effort.”

Placing Campanelle in the Fasig-Tipton November Sale was no easy decision for Banke, but the commercial breeder said that ultimately, she believes that it will put Campanelle in the best position for success as she moves on to the next chapter of her career.

DUAL G1-WINNING 2-YEAR-OLD:

3-TIME GRADED STAKES WINNER AT 3:
Santa Anita Oaks (G1), Las Virgenes S. (G2) and dominated the field by 10 lengths in the Santa Ynez S. (G2).

2nd by ¾ length in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint (G1) to Covfefe.
“When she goes on to be a broodmare, I think that she’s worthy of the best turf sires in the world,” Banke explained. “Those are found more in Europe or Japan. Stonestreet is a very hands-on, detail-oriented breeding operation here in Kentucky and I don’t think I could give her the focus and oversight she deserves if she were somewhere else. I think she needs to go to the elite turf sires. Someday we will have those here in America as well, but for her, I think this is the best thing. She will become the queen of someone’s breeding operation.”

“Campanelle really reflects the international nature of our business today,” said Fasig-Tipton’s Boyd Browning. “She’s a tribute to the vision and the passion of an owner like Barbara Banke. Barbara’s commitment to racing and breeding is really second to none and it’s cool to see how they developed a plan of pointing these brilliant horses to Royal Ascot and they have been able to succeed with it on several occasions.”

“I think the thing that makes Campanelle so attractive to buyers around the world is the combination of speed and consistency,” he continued. “She has answered the bell at Royal Ascot for three years in a row. She’s by Kodiak, who has certainly done it the hard way but has been a tremendous stallion in Europe for many years. She’s got worldwide appeal. It would not be surprising to see her produce major runners wherever she happens to go from here.”

Before Campanelle goes through the ring at Fasig-Tipton, Banke is looking forward to watching the brilliant filly represent her gold and burgundy colors one last time.

“I’m feeling pretty confident going into the Breeders’ Cup and the people in the barn are feeling pretty confident in her as well,” Banke said. “She has some good competition in the race, including her stablemate Golden Pal (Uncle Mo), but she’s a fighter and so I think my money is on her.”

- England: Winner of the prestigious Queen Mary S. (G2).
- France: Won the Prix Morny (GI) by 2 lengths against the best colts in Europe!

At 3, won the Commonwealth Cup (GI) at Ascot against the colts.

At 4, set a stakes record at Keeneland and traveled back to Royal Ascot, to miss by half a length in the Platinum Jubilee (GI) against the best sprinters in the world.
Ward is also anticipating the return to the Breeders’ Cup with his star filly, but he added that he is holding out hope that it won’t be their last race together.

“When she goes in the ring, I’ll have mixed emotions,” he admitted. “I’ll be proud of what our team has accomplished with her, but I’ll be sad if she doesn’t come back to our barn. She is very lightly raced and is very sound. She is just peaking right now. I believe that with whatever hands she lands in, she’s going to have a big year next year. Hopefully she comes back to our tobacco barn here, but whatever happens, it’s been a good run so far.”

DETTORI TO WINTER, POSSIBLY MORE, AT SANTA ANITA by Bill Finley

Superstar European rider Frankie Dettori has announced that he will ride at the Santa Anita meet, starting with opening day, Dec. 26. Dettori made the announcement on the Nick Luck Daily podcast.

“I think I will possibly spend the winter in California at Santa Anita where I started many years ago as a young boy,” Dettori said. “I did four lovely winters there in the late eighties. I’ve been doing my winters in Dubai the last few years, but I’m getting a lot of requests from trainers to come over. So I thought ‘why not?’ I want to give it a go. It’s a place that I am a big fan of and am very fond of Santa Anita. I am looking forward to the challenge. This is the plan for the winter.”

Dettori had ridden frequently in the U.S., but usually comes in just for major races. He said he has no such plans for Santa Anita and said that he is committed to riding there regularly.

“If you’re going to do it, you have to do it properly,” he said. “That’s why I am starting on opening day.”

Dettori said he was planning to return to Europe when the flat season gets underway, but said he could extend his stay in the U.S. if he picks up a contender for the GI Kentucky Derby.

“Who knows, I might find a nice 3-year-old that heads to Churchill Downs for the First Saturday in May,” he told Luck. “I am keeping all my options open. I am going there with a clean slate and am looking forward to the challenge. I don’t want to look too far ahead. My main concern is to get there for Boxing Day and start from there. You never know what will happen. I might land on a nice 3-year-old and things can take a different path. At the moment, my focus is to do well and take it from there.”

Dettori has had one Derby mount, finishing sixth aboard China Visit (Red Ransom) in 2000.
Dettori has hired veteran agent Ron Anderson, who also books mounts for Joel Rosario and John Velazquez.

“Ron Anderson is a top-class agent and also a good friend for so many years,” Dettori said. “I had a chat with him and he will take me under his umbrella of jockeys and help me out. He’s a good person to have on your side.”

Dettori had been riding in Dubai during the winters. He told Luck that riding at Santa Anita will be a new challenge for him, something he relishes at this stage in his career.

“Dubai has been easy for us,” he said. “It’s only down the road. But at this stage at in my career, I’ve done a lot in Dubai. I need a fresh challenge and this opportunity came up. With people telling me they want me over there, why not? Better late than never. Let’s give it a go.”

Dettori has had 70 mounts over his career at Santa Anita with four winners.

MG1SW & BC MILE ENTRANT DREAMLOPER SUPPLEMENTED TO KEENOV

Last month’s G1 Prix du Moulon de Longchamp winner Dreamloper (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}--Livia’s Dream {Ire}, by Teofilo {Ire}), who is set to contest the $2-million GI FanDuel Breeders’ Cup Mile Saturday at Keeneland, has been supplemented to Book 1 of Keeneland’s November Breeding Stock Sale. Ed Walker Racing, agent, will consign her as a racing or broodmare prospect.

Dreamloper, who was bred by Olivia Hoare and races in the colors of Jason Fill, has also been pre-entered in the GI Maker’s Mark Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf, with first preference in the Mile. The Ed Walker trainee also won the G1 Prix d’Ispahan this year, defeating males both there and in the Prix du Moulon de Longchamp.

From the same family as 2013 G1 Epsom Oaks winner Talent (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), Dreamloper has also captured the G2 Betfair Exchange Dahlia S. and the G3 British Racecourses Join Sunflower Lanyard Scheme Valiant S., in addition to finishing third in the G1 Kingdom of Bahrain Sun Chariot S. She comes into the Breeders’ Cup sporting a record of 17-6-1-3 and earnings of $674,624.

“Dreamloper has been amazing,” said her trainer. “She’s just gotten better and better as time has gone on. She was a group winner last season then showed real battling qualities to win the Dahlia S. on her return this season. She was impressive in the Ispahan before that amazing win in the Prix du Moulin. You don’t win a Group 1 by 5 1/2 lengths without being very special.

“She’s an incredibly good-moving, athletic filly with an electric turn of foot. She’s very sound, very tough, and very genuine. She’s fabulous.”

‘23 KY DATES SET; ELLIS URGED TO ‘STRONGLY CONSIDER’ MORE RACING

by T.D. Thornton

The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission approved a 211-date Thoroughbred slate for 2023 at its Monday meeting.

The calendar largely mirrors the template from the past two years, although one commissioner did voice an opinion that the new owner of Ellis Park should “strongly consider” adding race dates.

A copy of the race dates provided to TDN by a KHRC staffer shows 24 dates for Ellis over the July 4-Aug. 30 meet, although every other day during that span is marked “optional” on the calendar.

The gaming company Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI), which also owns Churchill Downs Racetrack and Turfway Park in the state, last month purchased Ellis Park.

“Ellis Park [has] a long and valued tradition [that is] successful, safe, and cherished by the people in that part of the state,” said commissioner Bill Landes III. “And for no more dates than [those] being requested is not respecting Ellis for what it is or what it can be under its new ownership.
“I’m giving you the benefit, in knowing Churchill Downs’s track record, that it will be successful,” Landes continued. “So on behalf of the Thoroughbred horsemen, I respect that Churchill strongly consider expanding these dates in order to return Ellis Park to the standards [of] about 30 years ago, when you couldn’t fit people into that grandstand with a shoehorn. That’s my message.”

Landes made his comments after the vote had already passed, so his words had no effect on the outcome of the commission’s approval. No other KHRC members chose to speak up on the subject.

Back on Sept. 20, when the KHRC greenlighted the $79-million transaction in just 6 1/2 minutes after a perfunctory read-through of the basic terms of the deal, not a single member of the commission posed any questions to CDI executives about the gaming corporation’s future plans for Thoroughbred racing at Ellis.

At that Sept. 20 meeting, a KHRC staffer read into the record that CDI intended to honor a 2023 race dates request for 24 programs (up one date from 2022) that Ellis had already submitted to the KHRC.

In addition to the Thoroughbred calendar, the commission on Oct. 31 approved 74 Standardbred and six Quarter Horse race dates.

Here’s a chronological look at the 2023 Thoroughbred schedule:

Turfway Park: Jan. 4-Apr. 2 on a Wednesday-Saturday schedule through February, then Thursday-Saturday through the balance of the meet. In addition, Sundays are all marked “optional” on the calendar provided by a KHRC spokesperson.

Keeneland Race Course: Apr. 7-28 on a Wednesday-Sunday schedule (dark for Easter Sunday, Apr. 9).

Churchill Downs: Apr. 29-July 3, largely Thursday-Sunday to start the meet, with Tuesday and Wednesday additions and no Sunday racing during the Gl Kentucky Derby week. Added Monday dates on Memorial Day and July 3. Also, Wednesday programs will be added in June.

Ellis Park: July 4-Aug. 30. The KHRC calendar has Ellis penciled in for a seven-day weekly template, but every date except for Friday-Sunday during the entire meet is marked “optional.”

Kentucky Downs: Aug. 31 and Sep. 2, 3, 7, 9, 10, 13, with “optional” dates Sept. 4 and 6.

Churchill: Sep. 14-Oct. 1 on a Wednesday-Sunday schedule.

Keeneland: Oct. 6-28 on a Wednesday-Sunday schedule.

Churchill: Oct. 29-Nov. 26 on a Wednesday-Sunday schedule.

Turfway: Nov. 29-Dec. 31 on a Wednesday-Saturday schedule with Sundays “optional.”
FORTE MADE EARLY FAVORITE FOR 2023 KENTUCKY DERBY

Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable’s GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity winner, GI Hopeful S. winner, and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Forte (Violence), who is set to contest the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Friday for Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher, has been made the 15-1 individual favorite in the first pool of the Kentucky Derby Future Wager, while the option of “all other colts and geldings” not among the 38 individual betting interests has been given 3-5 odds. The new three-day pool, which was previously announced, will run from Tuesday to Thursday and feature $2 win and exacta wagering.

The Kentucky Derby Future Wager will feature up to 40 betting interests. The first pool will have 38 individual horses, as well as a betting interest for “All Fillies from the 2020 Foal Crop,” and a separate betting interest for “All Other Colts and Geldings from the 2020 Foal Crop.”

Six Future Wager pools are scheduled in advance of the 2023 Kentucky Derby: Nov. 1-3 (Pool 1); Nov. 24-27 (Pool 2); Jan. 20-22 (Pool 3); Feb. 10-12 (Pool 4); Mar. 10-12 (Pool 5); and Mar. 30-Apr. 1 (Pool 6). The Kentucky Derby Sire Future Wager will be held concurrently with Pool 2, while the Kentucky Oaks Future Wager will coincide with Pool 5.

A record total of $2,060,691 was bet on future wagers for the 2022 Kentucky Derby and Kentucky Oaks. For more information, visit kentuckyderby.com/wager/future-wager.

OPEN LETTER TO THE INDUSTRY

ENTERING THE FINAL TURN by Tom Rooney

The Thoroughbred breeding and racing world is descending on central Kentucky this week. The excitement is palpable, Lexington is abuzz, and anticipation is building each day as we get closer to this weekend’s Breeders’ Cup World Championships at Keeneland. And while this event will begin the wind down to the 2022 racing calendar, I am reflecting on my first year as President and CEO of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA). While I’ve been a Thoroughbred enthusiast my entire life, this is the first year where I’ve lived, ate, and breathed Thoroughbred breeding and racing like the so many other stakeholders, customers, and fans. The year has been filled with great racing, record sales, incredible enthusiasm, and strong handle and on-track attendance. These and other metrics make me more excited than ever to see what the future holds for the Thoroughbred industry.

This year was a strong one for racing. Coming out of the COVID-19 pandemic where many of the biggest races were run without fans or in limited numbers, this year’s Kentucky Derby welcomed nearly 150,000 people to Churchill Downs on Derby Day alone and delivered an almost unfathomable fairytale ending. Attendance and handle figures at racing’s premier meets were as strong as they’ve ever been. Prize money is also up significantly, more than 10% higher than where we were at this point last year. Like in all aspects of life after COVID, people were ready to get back to the racetrack, or at least they were ready to get back to enjoying their favorite horse betting app.

The OBS Spring Sale, annually the highest grossing of all 2-year-old in training sales, surpassed last year’s sales record by almost $20 million. The Saratoga Select Yearling sale produced 10 seven-figure yearlings and topped its gross sales record from 2018 by more than $4 million. The Keeneland September Yearling Sale, the leading source of champions and stakes winners around the world, saw the highest gross sales in Keeneland auction history. With two sales immediately following the Breeders’ Cup and based on these trends, there is every reason for optimism that sales will finish the year strong.

This year also saw a dramatic increase in sports betting, as 36 states and the District of Columbia have legalized sports wagering in some capacity in the four years since the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision. The widespread acceptance and legalization of sports betting across the country is hugely exciting for horse racing. We have an opportunity to introduce our product to a whole new universe of people and a whole new generation of gamblers. With the anticipated addition of pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing to sports betting platforms with millions of account holders, I’m very bullish about the bright future we have on sports betting platforms.

And last, and most importantly, more emphasis has been put on the health, safety, and welfare, and, yes, aftercare of Thoroughbreds in 2022 than ever before. As we as an industry continue to move through the creation of greater national uniformity, we are improving America’s first sport for generations to come.

In January, we’ll all come together to celebrate the success of the 2022 racing year, in Palm Beach, at the 52nd Annual Eclipse Awards being held at the Breakers. Many of the horses racing at the Breeders’ Cup this weekend will be contenders for the awards, and their success will determine many of this year’s champions. I am excited to welcome the entire industry so we can together celebrate the best of the best. While no good thing comes without its challenges, the Thoroughbred industry is thriving, and the future is bright.

Tom Rooney is the President and CEO of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA) and a former U.S. Congressman representing the people of Florida from 2009-2019.

RATED 120 | TOP-RATED TURF FEMALE TO SELL THIS YEAR

HIP 239 SELLING MONDAY, NOV. 7
VICTOR COZZETTI PASSES AWAY
courtesy Emerald Downs

Vic Cozzetti, a staple in Washington racing for over five decades, passed away Sunday in a Puyallup assisted living facility at age 93.

Cozzetti was a fixture in the press box at Longacres and Emerald Downs—where he was known as “Victor the Predictor”—and involved in every form of racing media—television, radio, newspaper, Internet. His nightly recap on local radio was especially popular with handicappers and horsemen alike, delivering results and racing news in the pre-Internet era of the 1970s and 80s.

Cozzetti was more than just a handicapper and voice for racing, however, founding one of the first ownership syndicates in America, bringing together virtual strangers via 10% shares to own and race Thoroughbreds. Beginning with Media Stables in the 1970s and followed by SKS Stables and Vic-Tory Stables, his syndicates’ navy-blue silks were fixtures at Washington racetracks. His final horse, He’s All Heart, won the 2011 Muckleshoot Tribal Classic by 10 1/4 lengths.

Cozzetti took great pride in handicapping, offering selections in the Valley Daily News, along with pre-race seminars and a weekly newsletter. He also sold equine insurance, tabulated program standings, assisted in the TV department, and maintained a racing website Predictorsays.com.

“Victor’s accomplishments and contributions to Washington racing will never be matched,” said Emerald Downs President Phil Ziegler.

Vic Cozzetti
Phil Ziegler.
“He took on so many challenges throughout his career. The people at Longacres and Emerald Downs were part of his family, and he was part of ours.”

Born in Niagara Falls, NY, Cozzetti grew up in Spokane, starring in baseball at Gonzaga Prep High School and later playing semi-pro ball in Montana. He eventually settled in in Tacoma, where he worked in insurance and umpired baseball and officiated football and basketball.

Cozzetti is survived by a son, Michael of Yelm, Washington, a daughter Deborah of Lakeland, Florida, and a stepson, Jeff of San Diego, California.

7th-Parx Racing, $59,314, Alw (NW1X)/Opt. Clm ($75,000), 10-31, 2yo, 6f, 1:12.80, ft, 7 1/2 lengths.

NINETYPERCENTMADDIE (c, 2, Weigelia--Amblin Easy {MSP, $167,426}, by Private Interview) graduated first out by a hard-fought nose here July 9 and repeated by 3 1/2 lengths in the state-bred Whistle Pig S. Aug. 22. Hammered to 3-10 to stay unbeaten in this spot, the homebred broke a step slowly from the rail, but recovered well to track from a joint second through a 22.03 quarter. Drawing in on pacesetting Belt Parkway (Mendelssohn) past a :45.64 half, the blaze-faced bay took command while drifting in on his left lead outside the furlong marker and skipped clear to a 7 1/2-length romp. Belt Parkway held second. The winner is a full-brother to Full to Ninetypercentbrynn, MSP, $228,776. He has half-sisters by Maximus Mischief of 2021 and 2022 and his dam returned to that sire once more this spring. Lifetime Record: SW, 3-3-0-0, $127,920.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
7th-Golden Gate Fields, $34,590, Msw, 10-30, 2yo, 6f (AWT), 1:09.94, ft, 3 3/4 lengths.

HARCYN (c, 2, Goldencents--Florian, by Street Cry {Ire}) showed a sharp worktab for this debut, highlighted by a bullet five furlongs in 1:00 1/5 (1/22) Oct. 13, and was made a 49-10 proposition. Sent to the front from his rail draw, the homebred led narrowly through a swift :21.87 quarter, scooted clear soon after passing a half in :44.93 and widened in the final furlong for a sharp 3 3/4-length graduation. Matt's Monster (Cat Burglar) completed the exacta. The winner's dam is a half-sister to this owner/breeder's 2005 GI Kentucky Derby hero Giacomo (Holy Bull), MGISW Tiago (Pleasant Tap) and GSW/MGISP Stanwyck (Empire Maker). She has a yearling colt by Mastery and foaled a First Samurai filly this season before being bred to Honor A. P.

Sunday's Results:

10th-Tokyo, ¥24,310,000 ($284,733), Hcp., 3yo/up, 1400m, 1:22.7, ft.
LEMON POP (c, 4, Lemon Drop Kid--Unreachable, by Giant's Causeway) was briefly on the Japanese Road to the Triple Crown after winning the Cattleya S. in 2020 and was entering this valuable handicap on a three-race winning streak. Accordingly sent off the 2-5 chalk despite carrying top weight, the $70,000 Keeneland November weanling purchase raced on the early pace before taking back to sit in fourth within easy striking distance of the leaders. Advancing on the bridle into the long straight, the chestnut was asked to quicken three off the inside just inside the quarter-mile marker and put four lengths between him and his overmatched rivals on the line. Fellow American-bred Reframe (American Pharoah) set the pace and held well for third. Produced by a daughter of Danehill (Danzig)'s Grade III-winning full-sister Harpia--whose son Redesdale (Speightstown) has five winners from 13 starters from his first crop of runners--Lemon Pop has a 2-year-old half-brother by Good Magic, a yearling half-brother by the same sire and a weanling half-brother by Maclean's Music. Unreachable was bred back to the latter this season. Sales history: $70,000 Wlg '18 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 8-6-2-0, $885,188.

4th-Tokyo, ¥13,400,000 ($90,170), Newcomers, 2yo, 1600m, 1:39.4, ft.
PARAIBA TOURMALINE (f, 2, Malibu Moon--Private Jet, by Smart Strike) was bought back on a bid of $70,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale, but flourished thereafter and made $450,000 at this year's OBS March Sale. The word was out, as the tote read 1.8 (4-5) at post time and the filly made no mistakes. Quickly away for Cristian Demuro, Paraiba Tourmaline led at a leisurely pace, was held together into the stretch and covered her final quarter-mile in a solid :24.2 to score by a facile five-length margin. The Mar. 1 foal is out of a full-sister to dual Eclipse Award winner and Coolmore stallion Lookin At Lucky and a half-sister to MGSW Kensei (Mr. Greeley) and MGSW 'TDN Rising Star' Shahama (Munnings). This is also the family of champion Wait a While (Maria's Mon). Private Jet is the dam of a yearling filly by Hard Spun, a weanling Kantharos colt and was covered by Munnings this spring. Sales history: $70,000 RNA Ylg '21 KESEP; $450,000 2yo '22 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $47,467.

BAY BRIDGE CONTINUES WEST BLAGDON'S LONG RUN OF SUCCESS

By Emma Berry

It is a source of regret that the selection of British racing colours has been homogenised to the extent that it comes down to artlessly underwhelming choices such as light blue or dark blue. Eighteen standard colours are allowed in a variety of patterns, but gone, sadly, are the days when an aspiring owner could opt for 'Straw' (The Duke of Devonshire), or 'Apricot' (Lord Howard de Walden).

James Wigan inherited his distinctive set from his grandfather, the owner/breeder Charles Gordon, who most certainly would have approved of seeing his silks, described as 'cherry, cornflower blue sash and cap', rippling to victory on British Champions Day on the back of Richard Kingscote riding Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}).

The four-year-old colt, trained by Sir Michael Stoute, may have spoiled the swansong of Baaeed (GB), but for his breeder it was an immensely happy chapter in a story which didn't start off as Wigan might have hoped.

"He was entered for the foal sale and the stud manager called me a couple of days before when I was already in Newmarket," recalls Wigan, whose habit it is to sell his the stock from his Dorset-based West Blagdon Stud as foals, and who routinely has an enviable draft at Tattersalls in December. BOLGER SALUTES MANNING UPON HIS RETIREMENT

By Brian Sheerin

Jim Bolger has offered up a glowing tribute to multiple Group 1 and Classic-winning stable jockey Kevin Manning, who at the age of 55, announced his retirement from the saddle after riding a winner for his legendary father-in-law at Galway.

Manning joined Bolger in 1978. Together, they won the Derby with New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the Irish Derby with Trading Leather (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and came within a whisker of completing the 1,000 Guineas treble with Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr Greeley), who went out on her shield at Longchamp in 2007 following her Curragh and Newmarket triumphs.

The pair recorded their second 2,000 Guineas victory, eight years after bagging their first with Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), just over 12 months ago courtesy of Poetic Flare (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) but Bolger described himself as delighted to see Manning get out of the game in one piece shortly after he partnered the stable’s 4-6 favourite Vocal Studies (Ire) (Vocalised) to victory on Monday. Wigan cont. from p1

"He was ready to come up and he'd got a knock and was slightly lame. We decided that it was pointless putting him on the box."

There was of course an option to sell the colt from the first crop of Ballylinch Stud's New Bay as a yearling the following year but, in what has transpired to be an inspired decision, he was retained. It is rare to see a colt race in Wigan's name, though he enjoyed notable success in the late 1970s with his well-named homebred Final Straw (GB), by Thatch out of Last Call (GB), who won the G2 Champagne S. along with three Group 3 victories and runner-up finishes in the G1 Sussex S. and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois.

Wigan says of Bay Bridge, "We sell a yearling every now and again, but I liked him very much as a yearling and thought, 'Right. Well, having got this far, maybe somebody's trying to tell us something. Maybe we should just stick with him'. And luckily we did."

With two placed runs as a back-end two-year-old, Bay Bridge wasn't an early star among New Bay's debutants, but he has made up for that at three and four, when it really matters. Unbeaten and quietly progressive in four starts in 2021, he rounded off that season a year ago almost to the day with victory in the Listed Seymour S. at Newmarket, but it wasn't until this May that his presence was properly felt on the main stage.

An explosive seasonal debut in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. set the scene for his immediate elevation to the top level, with Bay Bridge's ensuing three runs this year including a runner-up finish to State Of Rest (Ire) in the Prince of Wales's S. before bowing out with a triumph over Adayar (Ire) and Baaeed in the Champion S.

For his four-year-old season his ownership became a partnership between Wigan and Ballylinch Stud, where he will eventually stand alongside his sire but, with just ten starts to his name to date, Wigan indicates that there is a "strong possibility" that Bay Bridge will be back next season in an attempt to enhance that record.

"Ballylinch has done extremely well with their stallions," he says. "And they're very nice people to deal with, I've found, having had a lot of experience with them over the years."

Wigan has justifiable claims to being New Bay's biggest cheerleader as he is also the co-owner, with Lucy and Ollie Sangster, of Saffron Beach (Ire), one of the stallion's two other Group 1 winners who lives just across Newmarket's Bury Road from Bay Bridge and who also remained in his possession rather fortuitously, after missing the yearling sales.

He says, "I took a share in New Bay when he went to stud, so I was keen on him then. It was actually Liam Norris who selected Saffron, and he must get most of the credit, because he was looking for foals to pinhook for Ben [Sangster]. I happened to meet Liam and I asked if he had seen many New Bay foals because I was interested in them. I asked if he could look at this particular filly and he already had and said 'I like her very much and she's on my list for Ben.' So I said, 'Well, maybe Ben and I should speak'."

The pinhook 'gone wrong' has turned into a racing adventure which has gone spectacularly right, with Jane Chapple-Hyam guiding Saffron Beach to a Group 3 win as a juvenile, followed by a runner-up finish in the 1,000 Guineas and victory in the G1 Sun Chariot at three, and further success in the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. at Royal Ascot and G1 Prix de Rothschild this year.

Wigan adds of her sire, "I liked New Bay very much as an individual. He's a beautifully-made horse. He's not too big, I think he's just on 16 hands. He's got lots of quality, he's got substance, I like [his sire] Dubawi, and it's a very nice Juddmonte family. It's the female line of Oasis Dream, so he had a lot going for him, as well as being a good racehorse."

Bay Bridge's dam Hayyona (GB) (Multiplex (GB)), a descendant of the Aga Khan's Prix de Diane winner Shemaka (Ire), is back in foal to New Bay, so there is much to look forward to at West Blagdon Stud next spring, but first thoughts turn to the impending December Sales at Tattersalls. Saffron Beach, who was ruled out of a Breeders' Cup finale just a few days ago, is nevertheless likely to take a leading role in the inaugural Sceptre Session of the Mares' Sale, and before that the West Blagdon team will be kept busy with a draft of eight foals, including a trio by New Bay.

"It's early days, the foals haven't been in prep for very long, but I think there's a nice draft and we're looking forward to it," says Wigan.

One of the New Bays [lot 1010] is a grand-daughter of Dank (GB) (Dansili (GB)), another to have carried the cherry-and-cornflower-blue silks with honour, notably in the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf nine years ago. Meanwhile, another member of the draft [lot 1007], a colt by Saxon Warrior (Jpn), hails from the same family as New Bay being a great grandson of Juddmonte's Poule d'Essai des Pouliches victrix Zenda (GB), who found further fame as the dam of Kingman (GB).

Wigan nominates another son of Dubawi as a stallion he will be following with interest. "I rather like Ghaiyyath's progeny, from what I've seen. I've only used him once. I will certainly be going back to him." Cont. p6
With 14 on offer at Tattersalls, he will have a chance to peruse further the stock of Ghaiyyath (Ire), and Wigan also pinpoints a young sire with roots stretching back to West Blagdon when he says, "If I think of the first-crop sires, obviously Havana Grey (GB) has done very well, but that's very obvious. Tasleet (GB) interests me, probably because he's from our old family, so I follow him with some interest. He hasn't had an awful lot of mares but he's done pretty well. He's probably my sleeper amongst the young stallions."

The old family in question is that of Pelting (GB) (Vilmorin (GB)), Tasleet's sixth dam and a broodmare of some note for Wigan's late mother, Dawn, who was bequeathed West Blagdon Stud by her father in 1959 and ran it with her husband Dare, a renowned racing journalist.

"My mother was given three mares," says Wigan, whose wife Anita is also a successful breeder in her own right. "She did it very much as a hobby and only ever had a few mares here, never more than four or five, but did extremely well. She preferred to sell foals at Tattersalls, which I continue to do, but I have increased the size of the stud by adding new boxes and we bought some more land. It's run in conjunction with an arable farm; a neighbour has a farm share arrangement with us."

Among the many notable descendants of Pelting, which include Group 1 winners Rebelline (Ire), Moon Ballard (Ire) and Central Park (Ire), was Bassenthwaite (GB) (Habitat (GB)), who was bred by Wigan's parents and who raced successfully for Stravros Niarchos, winning the G1 Middle Park S. and later standing at stud in New Zealand. Though neither Bay Bridge nor Saffron Beach are travelling to this year's Breeders' Cup, there will still be plenty of interest at West Blagdon with Pelting represented by her sixth-generation descendant Nashwa (GB) (Frankel (GB)), who is currently favourite for Saturday's Filly & Mare Turf.

Wigan wears many hats in the bloodstock industry. As well as being a successful breeder, consignor and agent, he has managed the operations of other notable owner/breeders, including Lady Rothschild and George Strawbridge, while a recent addition to his duties includes advising and buying for Peter McCausland, who has restored the historic Erdenheim Farm in Pennsylvania and is establishing his own breeding programme on the stud which can boast Derby winner Iroquois and inaugural Kentucky Derby winner Aristides as former residents.

"They've got some lovely mares, and Peter McCausland, who owns it, is new to the business and very enthusiastic, and he's beginning to race. So he's very much doing what I enjoy most," says Wigan of the owner/breeder who has been represented by his first juvenile runners under the Erdenheim Farm banner this year. "He's certainly been using the best sires. The mares have got the pedigrees, so we just hope that they can produce the goods."

Reflecting on his work for his fellow breeders and clients of his London Thoroughbred Services, Wigan adds, "It's enormously satisfying because you're basically doing what you love. You think of the horses not as your own, but you get just as much pleasure from them. They've been able to buy into some nice families, they are very nice people to work with, and one can share their enjoyment and occasional successes."

There can be nothing more satisfying, however, than having produced a colt of the highest calibre to continue the decades of work at the stud put firmly on the British map of bloodstock breeding first by Wigan's grandfather and later his mother. It's the cherry on top, with a splash of cornflower blue.

He said, "The highlights, with all the Group 1 wins and Classic victories, were great and we enjoyed them thoroughly. The first big one that meant so much for us would have been Teofilo in the Dewhurst."

"He was the first of five Dewhurst winners for us and it was made extra special for the fact that he was a homebred. Teofilo was also the first of three champion two-year-olds for us so he was an extremely special horse for Kevin and I."

Bolger added, "Trading Leather winning the Irish Derby and of course New Approach winning the Derby at Epsom were excellent days also. So Teofilo, Trading Leather and New Approach, they were the big three."

"We had lots of other great days on the track together and winning the Hong Kong Cup with Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away (Ire)) in 2005 was very special. I think Kevin joined me in 1978 so he's been here a very long time--I don't think he was quite 15 when he joined us!"

Manning was twice crowned champion apprentice in Ireland before being announced as Bolger's stable jockey in 1993. It didn't take long for the pair to enjoy top-flight success as Eva Luna (Ire) (Double Schwartz (GB)) landed the 1994 Phoenix S. the following year.

He rode his first Classic winner aboard Bolger's Margarula (Ire) (Dayoutin (GB)) in the 2002 Irish Oaks and Alexander Goldrun was the first household name he was associated with.

Manning, who is married to Bolger's daughter Una, with whom he has two children, said on Monday, "I have been very lucky to ride some very good horses along the way and owe Jim and Jackie everything."

"I was suspended for this weekend, which is the end of the grass season, and I had some good rides today and said to myself it is time to call it quits if one of these wins."

Baaeed Welcomed to Shadwell's Nunnery Stud

Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) has officially joined Nunnery Stud from trainer William Haggas and is now the headline act for Shadwell's 2023 stallion roster.

Shadwell's European bloodstock manager Stephen Collins and racing manager Angus Gold were at Haggas’s Sommerville Lodge to watch Baaeed's groom Ricky Hall lead the superstar colt onto the horsebox where stallion manager Mark Dean was waiting to oversee the 30-minute journey to Nunnery Stud.

Baaeed’s jockey Jim Crowley, along with Richard Hills and Michael Hills, were also in attendance as those closest to Baaeed turned out in force to oversee the next chapter.

Baaeed and Mark Dean | Shadwell

Collins said, "This is a fantastic day for Sheikha Hissa, her family, Shadwell and for Nunnery Stud—it's very exciting for us all. It's a wonderful testament to Sheikh Hamdan's legacy, bearing in mind that this story began nearly 40 years ago when he bought Height Of Fashion and here we are today with the arrival of Baaeed, who's a direct descendant of the mare."

"It's important to thank William and everyone at Sommerville Lodge for the superb job that they did with Baaeed. The team at Nunnery Stud will now look to continue that excellent work preparing the horse for his new career as a stallion.

Melbourne Cup winner Twilight Payment is a sale graduate

One of the main attractions of the Goffs Autumn Horses In Training Sale on Tuesday is Gustavus Weston (Ire) (Equiano {Fr}), the four-time winner whose career highlight came when he landed the G2 Greenlands S. at the Curragh last year.

On that occasion, Joe Murphy's charge was chased home by Make A Challenge (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), a 10-time winner for Denis Hogan, who is also in the sale.

“Apparently information is power, that makes daily digestion of the TDN essential. From the raw facts and figures to insightful writers, the TDN provides a global perspective at zero cost. As an industry publication, the TDN is unrivalled.”

CLASSY SPRINTERS HEAD TUESDAY'S GOFFS

Hogan said of his eight-strong draft, “We've a nice draft of horses going to Goffs. We'll be sorry to see some of them go. We've eight going and Ransom (GB) (Kingman {GB}), who won just the other night at Dundalk, is in there.

“So is Florence Thompson (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), who has placed about 20 times for us. There's some of them we'd love to keep and, if some owners were to express an interest, we could look at doing that.”

Those classy sprinters will be joined by a much-reduced but quality trio from the Aga Khan Studs. It features Riyami (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), rated 66 and winless in five starts for Michael Halford, the 77-rated Karakoul (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}), who has placed three times, and 1m4f winner Shajak (Ire) (Zarak {Fr}), both of whom are trained by Johnny Murtagh.

The supplementary lots for the sale are well worth checking out as well. Listed as lots 136 to 144, they are headed by the Group 3-placed Strong Johnson (Ire) (Le Cadre Noi {Ire}) from Beechcourt Stables.

Graduates from this sale have made an impact all over the world, none more so than Melbourne Cup winner and Irish St. Leger runner-up Twilight Payment (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who was bought Glebe House Stables by Kerr & Co Ltd for €200,000 in 2018.

Saltonstall is another high-profile graduate. Sold by Michael Halford’s Copper Beech Stables in 2018 for €44,000 to Shamrock TB/Compas Equine, Saltonstall (GB) (Pivotal (GB)) has proved to be a money-spinner for the Ado McGuinness stable and notched his ninth career success last month at Leopardstown.

Hot on the heels of the horses-in-training sale is two days of yearling sales at Goffs on Wednesday and Thursday. The Autumn Yearling Sale has punched above its weight in recent years with Quick Suzy (Ire) (Profitable (Ire)) a notable graduate.

Quick Suzy was snapped up by Aoife Dunphy for just €20,000 when this sale took place online in 2020. She went on to win the Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot for Gavin Cromwell and Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners.

The Autumn Horses In Training Sale kicks off at 12pm on Tuesday while the Autumn Yearling Sale begins at 10am on Wednesday and Thursday.

VENTE D’ELEVAGE CATALOGUE ONLINE

The catalogue for Arqana’s Vente d’Elevage, to be held Dec. 3-6 in Deauville, is now online. This year’s sale features a total of 1,024 mares, fillies and foals and will also include dispersals from the legendary Haras du Quesnay and the Saudi entity Marbat LLC.

The opening session of the auction will see the first 248 lots go under the hammer, including 40 stakes winners in and out of training. Sweet Lady (Fr) (Lope de Vega (Ire)), winner of this year’s G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille, will be offered by trainer Francis-Henri Graffard. A graduate of the 2019 Arqana August Yearling Sale, Sweet Lady—owned by Gemini Stud—is out of the stakes-winning High Heel Sneakers (GB) (Dansili (GB)).

Grand Glory (GB) (Olympic Glory (Ire)) is set to make a second trip through the December sale, having fetched €2.5 million from Yohea on behalf of Haras de Hus last year. Winner of the 2021 G1 Darley Prix Jean Romanet, the 6-year-old added the G3 Prix Allez France Longines this past May and was a latest admirable fifth in the G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe. Prior to her date in the sales ring, she will take part in the G1 Longines Japan Cup, in which she was fifth last term.

TDN'S EMMA BERRY SHORTLISTED FOR HWPA AWARD

The TDN’s European Editor Emma Berry is among the writers shortlisted for the 2022 HWPA Awards, which take place in London on Dec. 5.

Berry, whose work was depicted by the judges as "authoritative and well-informed articles, written in a very clear and entertaining style, most enjoyable to read", is nominated in the Specialist Writer of the Year category along with Jonathan Harding and Alan Sweetman of the Racing Post, and Jon Lees of Thoroughbred Racing Commentary.

The Racing Writer of the Year nominees are freelance journalists Lydia Hislop and Daragh O’Conchuir, Adam Houghton of the Sporting Life, and the Racing Post’s Peter Thomas O. Conchuir and Harding are also shortlisted in the Reporter of the Year category, along with Nick Luck for his Nick Luck Daily podcast and Lee Mottershead of the Racing Post.

Stud Groom Required

An exciting management opportunity has arisen at Cheveley Park Stud, who are seeking to fill the position of Stud Groom. This role includes the daily management of around 50 in foal, barren and maiden mares, as well as being involved with the management of the three resident stallions. The candidate needs to be enthusiastic, a good team leader, have extensive horse handling and husbandry skills, preferably with a minimum of three years foaling and stallion experience in a similar role and sales experience would be an advantage. The Stud Groom works with management to lead a good team of staff, in support of the Stud Manager and all that goes with such a role and responsibilities.

The position offers an excellent salary, benefits and bonuses with family accommodation available.

Applicants should write to Chris Richardson, Managing Director, Cheveley Park Stud, Duchess Drive, Newmarket, Suffolk, CB8 9DD or e mail enquiries@cheveleypark.co.uk
Warren Point followed up a July 28 handicap win at Goodwood with a Sept. 17 handicap third at Newbury last time and stepped forward to register a career high in this black-type bow. Under a firm hold racing in the slipstream of stablemate Wild Crusade until well beyond halfway, he eased into the open off the home turn and kept on relentlessly inside the final quarter-mile to overpower the tenacious frontrunner in the dying strides for a Godolphin homebred exacta.

Warren Point, the second of four foals, is one of two winners for Listed Prix du Carrousel victrix Gaterie (Dubai Destination), herself kin to multiple Group-winning G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. and GI Canadian International placegetter Dartmouth (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and multiple Group-winning sire Manatee (GB) (Monsun {Ger}). The February-foaled bay is full to a yearling filly and half to the once-raced 2-year-old filly Shining Jewel (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}). His third dam Altana (Mountain Cat) is a half-sister to GI Breeders’ Cup Classic-winning sire Arcangues (Sagace {Fr}) and G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane placegetter Agathe (Manila), herself the dam of MG1SW Prix de Diane heroine Aquarelliste (Fr) (Danehill), MGISW sire Artiste Royal (Danehill) and G1SP sire Annenkov (Ire) (Danehill). Altana is also kin to the dams of dual Grade I-winning distaffer Angara (GB) (Alzao) and G1 1000 Guineas heroine Cape Verdi (Ire) (Caerleon).

LULWORTH COVE (IRE) (f, 2, New Bay {GB}--Areeda {Ire}, by Refuse To Bend {Ire}), an Oct. 17 runner-up tackling a snippet beyond five furlongs at Windsor last time, was the sharpest of a baker’s dozen into stride and led from flagfall here. In command throughout, the 7-2 chance was let loose turning for home and ran on strongly under urging inside the final furlong to hold on by a length from Calluna (More Than Ready). Lulworth Cove is sixth of seven live foals and third scorer out of a winning half to the stakes-placed duo Dylan Dancing (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and Jack Spratt (Ire) (So Factual). Her dam Areeda (Ire) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}) is a daughter of G3 Princess Margaret S. third Raindancing (Ire) (Tirol {Ire}). The April-foaled bay is a half-sister to G3 Prix du Calvados victrix Great Page (Ire) (Rodier O’Connor {Ire}), herself the dam of Listed Kobai S. second Dark Page (Jpn) (Dark Angel {Ire}), and a weanling colt by Sottsass (Fr). WHISPERING ROMANCE (IRE) (f, 3, Kingman {GB}--Sante {Ire} (SP-Ger), by Dream Ahead) made a swift getaway and stalked the leader in second after the early shuffling. Easing to the front on the bridle in early straight, the 4-7 lock was unable to shake off her rivals and came under forceful urging in the latter stages to withstand the late flourish of Mayfair Gold (Ire) (Havana Gold {Ire}) by a head. Whispering Romance is the first of three foals and lone winner for Listed Baden-Baden Cup third Sante (Ire) (Dream Ahead), who is a half-sister to five stakes performers headed by G3 Srensall S.-winning G1 Caulfield Cup runner-up Scottish (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), G2 Grosse Europa Meile victor Combat Zone (Ire) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}) and G3 Geoffrey Freer S. winner Royal Empire (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). The March-foaled bay is kin to a yearling colt by Invincible Spirit (Ire). Descendants of her multiple stakes-winning second dam Zeitung (Ire) (Zieten) also include G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches heroine Precieuse (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and G1 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3 winner Hypothetical (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

VILLAGE LEGEND (IRE) (c, 2, Australia {GB}--I'malwayshotforyou, by Discreetly Mine), fourth going a shade over seven furlongs at Great Yarmouth in his Oct. debut last time, broke in midfield and remained there for most of this one. Bustled along off the home turn, the 7-2 third choice made relentless headway in the straight to take third approaching the eighth pole and swept by Lion Tamer (GB) (Roaring Lion) in the dying embers to win, going away, by 1 3/4 lengths. Village Legend, half to a yearling colt by Teofilo (Ire), is the third of four foals and second scorer out of a winning half-sister to G3 Sandown Classic Trial third Bright Melody (Ire) (Anodin {Ire}). La Sapienza is the second of four foals and first remaining en route to a two-length success from Neomeris (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}) and G1 Irish Oaks heroine Magical Lagoon (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), raced in mid division and finished last of 10 after being eased when beaten inside the final quarter mile.

14.25 Saint-Cloud, Mdn, €27,000, unraced 2yo, f, 7 1/2fT

Christoph Berglar’s homebred Night Oasis (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who is out of a half-sister to MG1SW sire Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) and G1 Irish Oaks heroine Magical Lagoon (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), raced in mid division and finished last of 10 after being eased when beaten inside the final quarter mile.

15.38 Kempton, Mdn, £16,000, 2yo, 8f (AWT)

Sunderland Holdings’ William Haggas trainee Amleto (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), the highest-priced Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling, repaid some of that initial outlay with a narrow victory in this belated debut.

LA SAPIENZA (IRE) (f, 2, Shamardal--Light Spirit {GB}, by New Approach {Ire}) found a smooth rhythm in a close-up third after the early strides of this first go. Busted along approaching the two pole, the 5-2 chalk was ridden to the front with 150 metres remaining en route to a two-length success from Neomeris (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}). La Sapienza is the second of four foals and first scorer produced by a winning half-sister to G3 Sandown Classic Trial third Bright Melody (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). She is half to a yearling filly by Exceed And Excel (Aus) and a weanling colt by Zoustar (Aus). The March-foaled homebred bay’s second dam, G1 Fillies’ Mile heroine Lyric Of Light (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}) is a daughter of stakes-winning G1 Cheveley Park S. runner-up Sante (GB) (Green Desert). MARQUISAT (IRE) (c, 2, Zarak (Fr)--La Marchesa (Ire), by Duke Of Marmalade (Ire)) was off the tempo in rear after a stuttering start and picked off rivals to go second rounding the home turn. Rowed along at the top of the straight, the 11-5 favourite inched ahead approaching the furlong marker and was ridden clear in the closing stages to prevail by three lengths from So Spirit (Fr) (Siyouni (Fr)). Marquisat is the third foal and scorer out of an unraced half to Listed Wild Flower S. winner Livia's Dream (Ire) (Teofilo (Ire)), herself the dam of this term’s G1 Prix d'Ispahan and G1 Prix du Moulin victor Dreamloper (Ire) (Lope De Vega (Ire)). From the family of G1 Oaks heroine Talent (GB) (New Approach (Ire)), the February-foaled bay is kin to a yearling colt by New Bay (GB) and a weanling filly by Masar (Ire). PARIS SECRET (IRE) (f, 2, Zoffany (Ire)--Cite Veron (Fr), by Tomorrows Cat (Ire)) occupied a berth behind the leaders in fourth after the initial exchanges of this debut. Coming under pressure approaching the home turn, the 28-1 outsider was driven along entering the final furlong and kept on resolutely to deny Astar (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) by 3/4-of-a-length nearing the line. “She’d worked well last week and, although we weren’t worried about the all-weather, we thought this was the place to start as it was her last opportunity on grass,” said trainer Andrew Oliver. “She is a nice mover, hopefully ground versatile, and obviously handled the heavy going. She was nearly the pick of the paddock in her attitude and outlook. She jumped and travelled well. Colin [Keane] gave her a lovely ride and she was doing her best work at the end.” Paris Secret is the latest of three foals and second scorer produced by the multiple winner Cite Veron (Fr) (Tomorrows Cat), herself out of a half-sister to the stakes-placed Aiybak (Ire) (Lashkari (GB)).
