BC NOTES: UNORTHODOX CONTENDERS BRING INTRIGUE TO TURF RACES

War Like Goddess gallops Tuesday at Keeneland | Coady

While all eyes were on where undefeated superstar Flightline (Tapit) would be slotted at Monday’s Breeders’ Cup draw, and overall the dirt races this weekend have gotten a bit more attention, the fields for the turf contests also bring plenty of interesting storylines.

George Krikorian’s War Like Goddess (English Channel) was the beaten favorite when finishing a close third in last year’s GI Maker’s Mark Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf, and received that betting respect because of her utter dominance over her fellow American turf mares. This year, trainer Bill Mott has decided to try to conquer new territory for the 5-year-old, as she defeated males in her first try in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Invitational S. last out and this time will take on the boys in the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Turf.

The seven-time graded stakes winner continued her preparations for the 1 1/2-mile test with a gallop over the Keeneland dirt track at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

“She’s as good a turf horse as we’ve got in our country,” Mott said. “That doesn’t mean she has to win on Saturday, but she’s a competitor and she’s done very well throughout her entire career. We’ve won the race a couple times and it would be really nice to win it with a filly.”

War Like Goddess seeks to give Mott a third Turf win, but first since he scored with Fraise in 1992. He also took the 1987 renewal with Theatrical (Ire). Mott explained that the decision to race her in the $4-million Turf mostly has to do with the 1 3/16-mile distance of the $2-million Filly & Mare Turf being too short for the star mare.

“First of all, it’s not about the money, it’s about winning. Frankly, if you win, the money follows. Sometimes I don’t even know the size of the purse,” Mott explained. “With her, it happens to be the distance. I think that she’s a true mile-and-three-eighths, mile-and-a-half horse and we wanted to get her in that type of race and that’s what we did last time [in the 12-furlong Hirsch]. We ran her against the boys and she pulled it off. She was very good. A mile and three-sixteenths was probably just a little short for her. That doesn’t mean she couldn’t get up, but I think she’s a little more effective [going longer] ... and it is a big purse.”

In the GI Breeders’ Cup FanDuel Mile, trainer Chad Brown will try something outside the box with Klaravich Stables’ multiple Grade I winner Domestic Spending (GB) (Kingman (GB)). Sporting a record of six wins in eight career starts, the gelding figured to be among the favorites in last year’s Turf, but had to be sidelined because of an injury. Now, in total, he hasn’t raced in over 14 months, having most recently run second in the 2021 GI Mister D. S. in August at Arlington.

“I have thankfully good horses in my barn for him to work with, even if I haven’t had the benefit of a prep race for him,” Brown said. “A few weeks ago, I started to watch him work thinking this is a possibility. I know it’s a tall order, but all I can do is get him ready to run the best race I can and he’s going to have to work out his own trip.” Cont. p4

“We are going to find out if he needed the benefit of that prep race. It’s a likely possibility that it will affect him—I’m not confused about that—but there’s also a chance that he’s such a brilliant racehorse that he can overcome it, especially if the dynamics of the race fall right for him.”

The Cinderella story of the Breeders’ Cup is Iowa-based Tyler’s Tribe (Sharp Azteca), the undefeated and untested gelding owned by Tom Lepic and trainer Tim Martin who will contest Friday’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. Five-for-five so far in his career, all races coming over dirt, the speedy dark bay got a spin on the Keeneland turf Tuesday morning.

“We did the turf today, will walk Wednesday, go to the gate Thursday and won’t go to the track Friday morning,” Martin said. “I’m quarter horse training; I want him fresh and fast!”

Tyler’s Tribe drew the 10-hole in the Juvenile Turf Sprint, which Martin says is no problem. “The 10 is fine; he broke his maiden from there,” he said. “On the dirt, he has a fast cruising speed and I’d like to see him get out of the gate good and then settle. He’s a fast horse and the speed [Speed Boat Beach and The Platinum Queen] is outside of us. If they want the lead, they are going to have to go around us.”

The colt is named for the followers of Lepic’s grandson Tyler Juhl, who was declared cancer free last week in his battle with leukemia.

“There are going to be watch parties all over the state and there will be about a hundred Iowans here for the race,” said Lepic, who has turned down offers for Tyler’s Tribe.

“We never ever had even a thought of selling. We had a lot of awfully good offers but it was never considered,” Lepic said.

The best advertisement for Street Sense: his Darley roster mates Maxfield and Speaker’s Corner. Handsome, brilliant, precocious, progressive. Just imagine.
“He’s a family horse, a horse that means so much more than just to our family but to the Leukemia Foundation. He will stay with our family and Tim Martin his entire life.”

Tyler’s Tribe also had been pre-entered in the $2-million GI FanDuel Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, but the connections opted to stay at a sprint distance and try the grass.

“He’s going to Oaklawn Park right after this,” Lepic said. “They have four stakes there and we will stretch him out and see what happens.”

SPENDTHrift FARM celebrates the opening of its new B. Wayne Hughes Visitors Center

by Katie Petrunyak

LEXINGTON, KY – Spendthrift Farm opened the doors to its new B. Wayne Hughes Visitors Center on Tuesday, Nov. 1 as part of the lead-up to the Breeders’ Cup World Championships.

Named in honor of the farm’s late founder, the 7,000 square-foot, two story facility will serve as the home for Spendthrift’s tourism. The building is located between the farm’s stallion complex and main office and features a trophy room, which showcases Spendthrift’s collection of trophies, artifacts and racing memorabilia, as well as a gift shop.

Spendthrift Farm celebrates the opening of its new B. Wayne Hughes Visitors Center | Sara Gordon

Spendthrift owners Eric and Tammy Gustavson led the grand opening and credited Tammy’s father Hughes for his vision behind the facility.

“He loved this farm, he loved the horse industry, and he grew to love the idea of tourism,” Eric Gustavson said. “He recognized its value and its ability to draw in fans and potential owners. He was always trying to grow the game.” Cont. p6

“Tammy and I are honored to name the visitors center after him and to have this be a small part of Wayne’s legacy and his impact on our industry.”

During the ribbon-cutting ceremony, the Gustavsons were joined by VisitLex President Mary Quinn Ramer and Lexington Mayor Linda Gorton.

“In the Thoroughbred business, Spendthrift has made history over and over again,” said Gorton. “Some of the best have roamed these fields...Today we're dedicating this beautiful new visitors center, a place that will welcome tourists. It is places like this that make Lexington special and unique. This reminds us how important it is to protect our Bluegrass countryside.”

Senator Damon Thayer and Congressman Andy Barr were also present for the event.

The newly-unveiled Malibu Moon memorial statue stands in front of the visitors center and portrays the farm’s foundation sire facing his old paddock. Read more about the making of the bronze sculpture from the artist himself, Douwe Blumberg, here.

“Malibu Moon was vitally important to this farm,” Gustavson said. “Wayne had a tendency to speak very simply, and very simply he said that Malibu Moon started Spendthrift Farm. And it’s true. We were a fledgling farm and Malibu Moon was a perennial leading sire. He put us on the map and gave us legitimacy. It was the start of something that became what we are now.”

BREEDERS’ CUP SECURITY TEAM ASSEMBLES ONCE AGAIN TO PROTECT WORLD’S HORSES

Edited Press Release

Members of the Organization of Racing Investigators (ORI) are once again working diligently to provide the highest level of security for the world’s best Thoroughbreds that have assembled for the 2022 Breeders’ Cup.

With a handpicked team of some 30 investigators, the BC Equine Security Team (BCEST) hails from all corners of the United States, and also includes international representation from Canada and Ireland.

Working closely with a local company of security personnel, the BCEST will provide 24-hour round-the-clock care for the horses that will be running on Friday November 4 and Saturday November 5 at Keeneland Race Course in Lexington, Kentucky.

With a wealth of experience in law enforcement, members of the BCEST work for racetrack and state agencies back home. The opportunity to come to the Breeders’ Cup is the chance to ensure that compliance is of the utmost importance.

If this place could talk, it would roar.

For the love of the horse. For generations to come.
Not only will members be working closely with the Breeders’ Cup Veterinarian Team to collect samples, ensuring the chain of custody, but they will be onsite to showcase their knowledge and expertise by keeping everyone safe.

“Customer service and experience is so important to us,” said Don Ahrens (Sam Houston Race Park). “Everything we do is for the care of these equine athletes, and making sure everyone is compliant is our top priority.”

Ahrens, along with Mike Kilpack (NTRA), spearhead this operation, having done so for over a decade. “We are driven to provide the Breeders’ Cup and its fans with all the security that we can muster, said Kilpack. “Each and every member of this team is the best of the best.” The BCEST assembled on Sunday Night for a ‘Meet and Greet,’ but the planning takes place months in advance.

Picking a group of investigators from across America is no easy task, but Ahrens and Kilpack have a vast set of experiences in their toolkit.

This year, there are several additions to their squad, including a ‘dispatcher’ that will manage the day and night shifts, utilizing camera technology that will monitor the stalls.

As the Breeders’ Cup does every year, a quarantine area for international runners will also be located in the barn area, with restricted access to a select few.

The BCEST 2022 edition, also includes over 10 ‘rookie’ members at Keeneland. For their first event, it is up to the senior leadership to get them up to speed as quickly as possible.

Ahrens said, “These folks know their business, and are used to the rigors of investigating in their own locales, so that is incredibly helpful when it comes to training them for an event of this magnitude.”

After an orientation on Monday at the Keeneland Sales Ring, BCEST will officially swing into action on Tuesday. Cont. p8

PTHA ANNOUNCES PURSE INCREASES, FIVE NEW STAKES AT PARX IN NOVEMBER

The Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (PTHA), in collaboration with Parx Racing, has announced several purse increases starting in the November condition book, along with the addition of five new stakes races in late November, including three for Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 23, and two on Tuesday, Nov. 29.

“The increased purses and additional stakes races are the result of higher than forecast handle throughout the year, including the record-breaking handle for Pennsylvania Derby Day,” said Jeff Matty, Executive Director of the PTHA.

“Increasing these purses, especially our state-bred purses, will allow us to build on this momentum heading into 2023 while at the same time being very competitive with surrounding state-bred programs. The breeding side of our business has a major impact on the state’s agricultural economy and we want to do our part to encourage people to breed, foal, and race Pennsylvania-bred foals.”

This year, the stakes program at Parx added PA-bred and PA-Sired races in coordination with the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association (PHBA). The stakes added in November are, on Nov. 23: the $75,000 Turkey Trot H. for 3-year-olds and upward at one mile and 70 yards, the $75,000 Let's Give Thanks H. for 3-year-olds and upward at 6 1/2 furlongs and the $75,000 Cornucopia H. for fillies and mares 3-year-olds and upward at 6 1/2 furlongs; and, on Nov. 29: the $75,000 Future Stars H. with divisions for 2-year-olds and 2-year-old fillies, each at six furlongs.

The Jockey Club of Canada, which recognizes outstanding achievements in Canadian Thoroughbred racing and breeding with the annual Sovereign Awards, is implementing changes to the guidelines for some of the awards, effective for the current year.

Directly from the The Jockey Club’s Board of Stewards are the following changes:

1). The trophy recipient for the divisional horse awards shall be the owner of the horse as of its last start in the award year and, if the owner is not also the breeder, the breeder listed on the Jockey Club Certificate of Registration may receive a trophy as well.

2). The owner of the Outstanding Broodmare at the end of the award year shall be the only recipient of that award and trophy.

An Outstanding Groom award—not a sanctioned Sovereign Award—is also presented with the awards. Again, from the Board of Stewards:

3). Nominators must hold a valid Thoroughbred license in the province of Ontario.

Nominators were previously restricted to licensed trainers and assistant trainers. The nomination period for the Outstanding Groom award is now open through Dec. 11.

WE’RE BETTING WE CAN DOUBLE IT IN 2022!

The amazing organizations involved in Thoroughbred Aftercare Programs work passionately to discover what comes next for these magnificent athletes. That’s why, in 2021, Hagyard stepped up to help support these organizations by creating “The Race to Give,” raising over $125,000 for aftercare programs and initiatives.

In 2022, our bold goal is to double the amount. But we can’t do it without you.

Visit RaceToGive.org to learn the various ways you can lend your support to help Thoroughbreds transition to their next chapter as performance horses, beloved family additions, or their next recreational adventure.

It’s sure to be the best bet you make in 2022.

REPOLE'S DREAM SEASON ROLLS INTO BREEDERS' CUP WEEKEND

by Steve Sherack

LEXINGTON, KY – Mike Repole is heading into Breeders' Cup weekend with 'Uncle Mo' on his side.

After fulfilling a lifelong dream by running one-two in the GI Belmont S. with the recently retired and Spendthrift-bound Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo) and Nest (Curlin)—one of Repole's seven Grade I victories on the year—the momentum has continued to build for the native New Yorker's stable ahead of this year's Championships at Keeneland.

'TDN Rising Star' Forte (Violence) and Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke), two of the bigger names on the 'Future Stars Friday' card, will line up in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and Juvenile Fillies, respectively. The aforementioned Nest will look to put an exclamation point on her brilliant 3-year-old campaign against an all-star cast of older fillies and mares in Saturday’s GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. All three are trained by Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher.

“TDN Rising Star' Forte (Violence) and Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke), two of the bigger names on the 'Future Stars Friday' card, will line up in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and Juvenile Fillies, respectively. The aforementioned Nest will look to put an exclamation point on her brilliant 3-year-old campaign against an all-star cast of older fillies and mares in Saturday’s GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. All three are trained by Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher.

“It's been 12 years now since Repole Stable's flagship runner-turned-Coolmore-leading-sire Uncle Mo concluded his championship season with authority in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Churchill Downs.

“I think Uncle Mo not only was the perfect name for that horse (Editor's Note: Uncle Mo is a popular sports expression used to describe when a team or player gets on a roll), but I really think that he's been the perfect name for the stable,” Repole said. “From Uncle Mo, you get Mo Donegal. You get horses like that. At the end of the day, he's gonna be the patriarch of the stable.”

Stars in the Making...

Forte is likely to go off as the second choice in the Juvenile behind the unbeaten Bob Baffert-trained MGISW and 'Rising Star' Cave Rock (Arrogate). Looking to be any kind with a blowout debut win at Belmont Park, Forte has more than made up for an off-the-board finish as the favorite in Saratoga's GIII Sanford S. with a pair of subsequent wins at the highest level.

Forte splashes home first in the Hopeful
Sarah Andrew

After splashing home first by three lengths in a saturated renewal of the GI Hopeful S. with next-out GI Champagne S. winner ‘Rising Star’ Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) back in third, Forte passed his two-turn test in style with a hard-fought neck decision after making a powerful, sweeping move on the far turn over the Juvenile track and trip in the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity.

Bred in Kentucky by South Gate Farm and co-owned with Vinnie Viola's St. Elias Stable, Forte is one of six Grade I winners for Violence. The $80,000 Keeneland November weanling and $110,000 Keeneland September yearling hails from the extended female family of champion 2-year-old filly Folklore (Tiznow).

“We went out there for the Futurity with the number one goal to prepare this horse for the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile,” Repole said. “We wanted to get a race over the track and for him to be stabled at Keeneland. The way he did it was incredibly impressive. He's getting better and better.”

Repole continued, “We have that West Coast Baffert horse to beat. We know we can sit behind horses and we'll see what happens. You never know, you got to show up, right?”

Chocolate Gelato, winner of the GI Frizette S., has been installed as the 7-2 morning-line favorite in a full field of 14 for the Juvenile Fillies. “I think it’s a wide-open race,” Repole said.

A disappointing third on debut as the heavy favorite on opening day at Saratoga, Chocolate Gelato ran to those lofty expectations next time out, airing in front-running fashion with a career-best 92 Beyer a month later at the Spa. The $165,000 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky yearling and $475,000 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream 2-year-old showed a different dimension over a sloppy track going a one-turn mile in the Frizette, rallying through traffic from fifth with a blitz on the far turn en route to a professional-looking one-length victory.

She will seek to become the ninth filly to pull off the Frizette/Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies double. Bred in Kentucky by Vince Colbert, Chocolate Gelato’s deep female family includes GISWs Imagining, Rhythm, Girolamo and Super Saver. She makes her two-turn debut in the Juvenile Fillies.

“She sat behind horses, got mud in her face and she fought down the stretch,” Repole said of Chocolate Gelato’s Frizette win. “She’s on the backstretch sitting in fourth or fifth on the inside and I said to everyone around me, ‘If this is a good horse, she’s gonna win this race because this is a really tough spot.’ She was 8-5, but at that point, if there were live odds, I would’ve made her 6-1. Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] said she came through willingly and the rest is history.”

That Top 1% of 1%...

It’s been a season to remember for the division-leading Nest, led by a trio of jaw-dropping Grade I victories against her peers in Keeneland’s GI Central Bank Ashland S. and Saratoga’s GI Coaching Club American Oaks and GI Alabama S. Also a solid second as the favorite in the GI Kentucky Oaks, the $350,000 Keeneland September graduate ran terrific in defeat once again after stumbling at the start against the boys in the final leg of the Triple Crown. The Repole Stable, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Michael House colorbearer punched her ticket to Lexington with an effortless 9 3/4-length win while taking on older fillies and mares for the first time in the GII Beldame S. at Aqueduct.

“I’ve been so blessed to have Grade I, special horses,” Repole said. “The only horse I’ve owned that I can even remotely at this time compare her to is Uncle Mo. Uncle Mo had the brilliance of that top 1% of 1%. Nest has that. She’s a once-in-a-lifetime filly and she’s coming back next year. She’s just getting better.”

Nest may be favored in a Distaff field for the ages that also includes her champion ‘Rising Star’ stablemate Malathaat (Curlin), MGISW Clairiere (Curlin) and GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Secret Oath (Arrogate).

“I dreamed of watching races like this as a kid,” Repole said. “Forget that she’s potentially the favorite. It’s an honor and a blessing just to be in a race like this.”

Bred in Kentucky by Ashview Farm and Colts Neck Stables—also the breeders of Mo Donegal—Nest is one of 19 top-level winners for the mighty Curlin. Her full-brother, GI Santa Anita H. winner Idol (Curlin), campaigned by Calvin Nguyen, will begin his career at stud as a Repole Stable/Taylor Made Stallions venture in 2023. Their 2-year-old stakes-winning half-brother Lost Ark (Violence), a troubled sixth in the Breeders' Futurity, is entered in the Juvenile.

“I’ve been following Idol’s career since the day we purchased Nest as a yearling,” Repole said. “A few weeks after we bought Nest, Idol broke his maiden and showed incredible talent. It was very exciting when he won a Grade I in California. Now with Nest and Idol both being Grade I winners, I’m excited about both of their future potentials─Idol as a stallion, and Nest, one day in the future, as a broodmare.”

Strength in Numbers...

Smart money says that you’re going to be seeing a lot more of Repole in the coming years at the Championships. The co-founder of Glaceau Vitaminwater (sold to Coca-Cola for a reported $4.1 billion in 2007) and the sports drink BodyArmor (which also sold to Coca-Cola for $5.6 billion in 2021) and Viola’s St. Elias Stables led all buyers for the second straight year at the Keeneland September sale, purchasing 31 yearlings in partnership for $12.84 million ($414,194 average).

In addition to Forte, Repole and St. Elias, of course, teamed up to campaign 2019 GI Breeders’ Cup Classic winner and champion older dirt male Vino Rosso (Curlin), himself a $410,000 KEESEP graduate. Now standing at Spendthrift Farm, Vino Rosso was represented by a first-crop filly that brought $550,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale.

“It’s been a good run, so I stepped it up a little bit,” Repole said. “I thought I was being too cheap, so I decided to spend a little bit more money last year and this year. I say I do this with 5% of my time. I think I’m gonna increase it to 10%, so let’s see what happens.”

With an emphasis on creating stallions, Repole, either alone or in partnership, purchased a total of 70 yearlings at Keeneland September for a total of $26.67 million. Some of Repole's other high-profile partners include: Coolmore, Eclipse, West Point, Spendthrift and Gainesway.

“At first, I was really against partnerships,” Repole said. “I kinda wanted to call the shots. But at the end of the day, you know what? Number one, it builds relationships and partnerships that are very important to me. And number two, would you rather own 50% of 100 horses? Or 50 horses at 100%. I’d rather double my chances, or in certain ways, triple my chances.

“What I’m most proud of with the seven Grade I wins this year is that you've got my partnership with Eclipse with Nest, Forte with my friend Vinnie Viola, Mo Donegal with Donegal Racing and Chocolate Gelato, who is 100% Repole. It’s pretty cool to have those four horses, own 50% or more on all of them and have all these different partners.

Repole concluded, “We want to win, we want to have fun and we want to share success. Those are the goals of the stable.”
Bob Baffert appears poised to score his sixth victory in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile and second in as many years Friday with the undefeated and ultra-impressive Cave Rock (Arrogate). Tabbed a ‘TDN Rising Star’ off his eye-catching six-length romp on debut at Del Mar Aug. 13, for which he earned a gaudy 101 Beyer Speed Figure, the $550,000 KEESEP buy followed suit with an equally impressive score in the GI Del Mar Futurity S. Sept. 11. The Pegram, Watson & Weitman colorbearer proved two turns was right up his alley with a dazzling victory in the GI American Pharoah S. Oct. 8 at Santa Anita, registering a field-best 104 Beyer. The next highest Beyer in the field of 97 belongs to his stablemate and American Pharoah runner-up National Treasure (Quality Road).

Fellow Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher saddles two in hopes of his first Juvenile victory since Shanghai Bobby in 2012 and third overall. ‘Rising Star’ Forte (Violence) captured the GI Runhappy Hopeful S. in the slop at Saratoga Sept. 5 and rallied to a neck victory over fellow ‘Rising Star’ Loggins (Ghostzapper) in the track-and-trip GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity S. Oct. 8. His stablemate Lost Ark (Violence) was sixth in that event, but was a dominant winner of Monmouth’s Sapling S. in his prior race Aug. 27.

The top two finishers from Belmont’s prestigious Grade I Champagne S. meet again here. ‘Rising Star’ Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) was third to Forte in the Hopeful, but launched a five-wide bid late to upset the Champagne Oct. 1. Verifying (Justify), a half-brother to champion Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute), ran well to be second that day off a debut win sprinting at Saratoga in August.

Wild Card

Curly Jack (Good Magic) proved two turns was right up his alley when taking the GIII Iroquois S. last out Sept. 17. He won from off the pace that day, but has proven he can run closer to it as well. His numbers are far below the leaders here, but he could certainly be around late to spice up the exotics.

NETJETS BREEDERS’ CUP JUVENILE FILLIES

In the 38 previous runnings of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, favorites have won 19 times—or exactly 50% of the time—including last year when Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) dominated pillar to post. There was even a remarkable run from 2002-2008 when the chalk won for seven consecutive years.

No one is better with the ladies this year than Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher and odds are he'll have the favorites in both the Juvenile Fillies and its older cousin, the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. His Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke) looked like a world beater when breaking her maiden at Saratoga over six furlongs in August. Eased up before the wire, she still won by 8 1/2 lengths and tallied a 92 Beyer Speed Figure, highest in this field. The Repole Stable runner then went to the one-mile GI Frizette S., and it’s hard to argue with a wide trip and another win. She’s reportedly been training forwardly since shipping from New York to Keeneland a few weeks early.

Pletcher has another candidate in Atomically (Girvin), who was purchased privately about a month ago after making a mockery of her rivals in Florida while under Jose Pinchin and is now owned by the partnership of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Michael Bernard and Harry Colburn. She's never faced this level of competition, but is an open-length winner at the distance and there's no telling what she's capable of in Pletcher's hands.

It may be a surprise that in spite of his accomplishments in the sport, Pletcher has never won the Juvenile Fillies. He's won nine of the Breeders' Cup races—three of them more than once—but never the Juvenile Fillies despite 14 starters in the race, all since 2002.

Fellow Hall of Famer Mark Casse has a similar issue: 13 starters in the Juvenile Fillies since 2001 with nary a win in the race. Like Pletcher, he's got a good shot this year, with the added bonus of leading over the only filly in the race with a win over the Keeneland surface. D.J. Stable's Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) took Keeneland's marque 2-year-old filly event, the GI Darley Alcibiades, in a game effort. To sweeten the pot, the Alcibiades just happens to be at the same distance as the Juvenile Fillies, but she had a big advantage in the stretch, lasting by only a nose over Selective LLC's Chop Chop (City of Light), who positively dazzled with her furious rally from the back after two turf wins to open her career for Brad Cox. Alpha Delta Stables' Raging Sea (Curlin), trained by Chad Brown, was also right there, just a neck back, but disqualified from third that day for a deep-stretch incident. All three impressed.

The most accomplished filly in the field and the only one with a duo of graded victories to her credit is And Tell Me Nolies (Arrogate), who has won three straight, including the GI Del Mar Debutante and the GII Chandelier S. The Peter Redekop B.C. Ltd. runner never wins by much and has a career-high Beyer of just 75, but gets the job done and has overcome less-than-ideal trips in each win. Peter Miller trains.

Wild Card...

Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen has been absolutely bullish on the chances of Three Chimneys Farm homebred Grand Love (Gun Runner). A debut winner at the Spa Aug. 21 over 6 1/2 panels, she's only run once since, resulting in a third as the beaten favorite over the Juvenile Fillies distance in the GIII Pocahontas S., outkicked late after a stretch bumping incident. Asmussen has gone on record saying he believes she has the talent and is primed for a career-defining moment. If she wins, it would be the second Juvenile Fillies title in a row for both Asmussen and one of his former star pupils, current sire sensation Gun Runner. --Jill Williams

More and more every year, major 2-year-old and 3-year-old turf races in North America seem to go through a trainer who isn’t even based in North America. Charlie Appleby first made his mark in the States in this race when his Outstrip (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) captured the 2013 renewal, and it’s been only up from there for Godolphin’s top conditioner, including another Juvenile Turf score with Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) controversially winning last year while running for purse money only.

Appleby again appears to have the horse to beat this year in Silver Knott (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). A second-out winner on the Kempton all-weather Aug. 3, he stepped into group company 17 days later and responded with aplomb, running away to an easy 3 1/4-length victory in the G3 Solario S. on the Sandown Park turf. Finishing third at odds-on when not taking to the soft going in the G2 Champagne S. Sept. 11 at Doncaster, he promptly bounced back to annex the G3 Autumn S. last out Oct. 8 at Newmarket. In addition to his talent, the bay has shown versatility, racing on the lead, in midpack and far off of it, so he figures to give regular rider William Buick options depending on how the pace develops.

Only one other European shipper is making the trip for a race that usually has roughly 50-50 American/Euro participation, with Aidan O’Brien and the Coolmore connections to be represented by Victoria Road (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}).

Victoria Road enters this third trip away from Ireland on a three-race winning streak that includes a defeat of next-out G1 Qatar Prix Marcel Boussac winner Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill (Ire)) in listed company at Deauville Aug. 20 and a Group 3 score in the nine-furlong Prix de Conde at Chantilly. But he does not appear to have quite the ceiling of Silver Knott.

On the American side, there isn't a particular standout. The West Coast's best hope is Packs a Wahlop (Creative Cause), riding a three-race win streak of his own. Breaking his maiden in a fairly slow five-furlong Del Mar turf sprint Aug. 5, the $270,000 OBS April buy proved that to be just the tip of the iceberg with his talent, blowing away his GIII Del Mar Juvenile Turf S. rivals by 4 1/4 lengths and looking similarly dominant in a 2 3/4-length conquest of the GIII Zuma Beach S. at Santa Anita. The gray is speedy, but doesn't need the lead and figures to work out a comfortable stalk-and-pounce journey under Hall of Famer Mike Smith.

Wild Card...

Nagirroc (Lea) is worth a look at his 20-1 morning line price. He's two-for-three and scored a determined win in the GII Futurity S. last out, but has yet to travel beyond six furlongs. His pedigree suggests he'll handle it, however—his sire got up to a mile and an eighth, while his dam graduated going a mile and a sixteenth and is related to runners who placed in Group 1 races overseas at a mile and a mile and a quarter. If he's able to relax off the speed on the stretch-out, he's dangerous. --Joe Bianca

Best of Luck to REALLY GOOD and his connections in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Raised & Sold by Burleson Farms

859.879.8383 BurlesonFarm.com
It should be noted as a near-yearly occurrence at this juncture, but Europe comes into this rendition of the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf with five talented runners, led by one with dual Group 1 placings.

The international titan that is the partnership of Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Westerberg will send the aforementioned MG1SP Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) to post carrying not just their colors, but likely substantial favoritism as well, even as the morning line currently lists her at 4-1. A comfortable winner in her unveiling Apr. 22 at the Curragh, she jumped into the G3 Naas Fillies Sprint S. May 15, the G2 Albany S. June 17 at Ascot, and the G2 Debutante S. at her home track Aug. 20 to taste victory on every occasion.

Stepping up into the Group 1 level in the ‘Win and You’re In’ G1 Moyglare Stud S. Sept. 11, Meditate ran a cracking good second to Tahiyra (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), who herself has ignited whispers of possibly being the best juvenile filly in Europe. The result was the same in Newmarket’s G1 Cheveley Park S. Sept. 24 when Mediate took the task to Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}), who gamely held off all comers late, but not nearly by as dominating of a margin as Tahiyra. Aidan O’Brien is a master at ‘ship-in and win’ so seeing this one in the winner’s circle would come as no surprise.

Prominent bloodstock agent Mike Ryan will be represented by ‘TDN Rising Star’ Be Your Best (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}), who effortlessly sailed through her first two career wins before running an even-tempo third Oct. 1 in the GII Miss Grillo S. as the 6-5 favorite.
It could be argued she didn’t relish the yielding ground that day, while the top two ahead of her in that race also cut an imposing figure here. Pleasant Passage (More Than Ready) has worked subsequent bullets for Shug McGaughey since that contest—the Hall of Famer doesn’t make it a point to press hard on his juveniles—and the filly has shown she can win on rain-drenched or dry turf. Chad Brown will look to repeat what’s worked before with the runner-up Free Look (Tapit), a pricey $300,000 KEESEP daughter of Tapit who just couldn’t out-kick Pleasant Passage in the Miss Grillo. The conditioner has used the race as a springboard to Breeders’ Cup glory in years prior—he’s won five of the 14 runnings of this contest—so don’t fix what isn’t broken, right?

Wild Card…

Interestingly enough, Manhattan Jungle (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle (GB)) will have a lot to overcome if she wants to further improve Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners’ already stellar year, including a new place, a new distance, and a new course orientation. A stakes winner in France when taking the May 20 Prix des Reves d’Or, she weakened to 14th in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot in June and bounced back to some form in the Aug. 2 G3 Prix de Cabourg when she kept on to claim runner-up honors at 13-1 odds. She then faced the likes of MG1SW Blackbeard (Ire) in the G1 Prix Morny, finishing fourth by only four lengths, and yielded to third in the final yards last out Sept. 17 in the G3 Prix Eclipse behind a well-clear Eddie’s Boy (GB). In theory, she’s got the back class to overcome a lot, but having only ever sprinted on straights, one has to wonder how conditioner Amy Murphy will prepare her charge for so many new challenges at once. --Patrycja Szpyra

BREEDERS’ CUP JUVENILE TURF SPRINT

The Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint made its debut on championship weekend in 2018 and all four of its previous runnings have been won in wire-to-wire fashion. The speedy The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) will look to keep that streak going when she goes postward as the 3-1 morning-line favorite in Friday’s race. The 2-year-old filly made all when defeating her elders over a very soft turf course in the G1 Prix de l’Abbaye at Longchamp on Arc day.

Wesley Ward has trained the last three winners of the race and looks to add a fourth renewal this year with Stonestreet Stables’ filly Love Reigns (Ire) (U S Navy Flag). Tabbed a ‘TDN Rising Star’ following her 9 3/4-length debut victory in April, the bay traveled to Royal Ascot and was a close-up fourth in the G2 Queen Mary S.
Love Reigns returned stateside to win the Bolton Landing S. in her most recent start Aug. 21. While she won her debut in wire-to-wire fashion, Love Reigns showed she was capable of rating in the Bolton Landing, a tactic which could be advantageous with an expected fast pace Friday.

Speed Boat Beach (Bayern) makes just his third start in the Juvenile Turf Sprint. The Bob Baffert trainee debut with a front-running score over the main track at Del Mar Sept. 10 and took to the turf with aplomb in the Oct. 2 Speakeasy S. last time out.

Sharp Aza Tack (Sharp Azteca), one of two sons of his freshman sire in this event, won on debut over the Santa Anita lawn in June and romped home a seven-length winner of the July 30 Tyro S.—both at five furlongs. He seemed to regress slightly when caught late by the re-opposing Private Creed (Jimmy Creed) in the 6 1/2-furlong Global Tote Juvenile Sprint S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 8. Private Creed, meanwhile, returned to win the Indian Summer S. over this event’s course and trip Oct. 9 and is another whose stalking style should be advantageous Friday.

OWNER-BREEDER PREDICTS DREAMLOPER TO BOW OUT WITH A BANG

By Brian Sheerin

Dreamloper’s owner-breeder Olivia Hoare has admitted to being overcome with emotion ahead of a trip of a lifetime to the Breeders’ Cup to see her dual Group 1-winning homebred bow out from racing on the biggest stage of all.

Trained by Ed Walker to win two top-flight races at ParisLongchamp this season, Dreamloper (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is likely to race for the final time in the Breeders’ Cup Mile given the 5-year-old is entered up in the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale next week.

The decision to allow Dreamloper to go under the hammer after Saturday’s race, for which she is as short as 6-1 with most firms, was one of the most difficult ones Hoare has ever faced, according to the enthusiastic owner. Cont. p6

BREEZE-UP GOLIATH BACK AT KEENELAND AS DAVID

Willie Browne brings Spirit Gal to Keeneland | Laura Green/Tattersalls

by Chris McGrath

LEXINGTON, KY—You may have seen in the news last week how they’ve just realised that a Mondrian masterpiece has been hanging the wrong way round for 77 years. That’s just a year longer than Willie Browne has been accumulating his own perspectives on life and, when he looks at the filly he has brought to the Breeders’ Cup, he pretty much knows that same, upside-down feeling. Because his long quest for the secrets of equine potential—which has so often brought him to this same town, wearing a very different hat—has now produced perhaps its deepest puzzle yet.

Browne, who processes as many as 90 breeze-up pinhooks through his Mocklershill nursery every year, seldom finds himself with more than two or three left over to send onto the racetrack himself. Among all the young horses to have passed through his hands, however, including many who went on to prove elite performers, none has shown him more talent than Spirit Gal (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). So where does it come from?

"I trained this filly's mother," he mused, after supervising her jaunt round the Keeneland training track on Tuesday morning. "And it wouldn't be doing a disservice to say she was as bad a racemare as I've ever had. She hadn't the mind for the job: she was a box-walker, she travelled bad to the races. So I said to Chuck, 'Listen, there's no future in this one.'" Cont. p3
Aidan O’Brien brings a seven-strong string to the Breeders’ Cup at Keeneland, and they stretched their legs on Tuesday.

Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) is pleasing trainer John Quinn in advance of a match up with Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint.

She has been a superstar in Europe over the past three seasons, but now Campanelle will have one more start in the Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint before heading to the Fasig-Tipton Night of the Stars sale on Nov. 6. We talk to trainer Wesley Ward about the filly, a two-time winner at Royal Ascot and the victress of the 2020 G1 Darley Prix Morny in Deauville, as they prepare for their last start together. ‘PRINCESS’ PREPARES FOR GOLDEN PAL CLASH

"Chuck" is Charles E. Fipke, the Canadian geologist who had diamond strikes at the Breeders' Cup with Forever Unbridled (Unbridled's Song) in the 2017 Distaff and Perfect Shirl (Perfect Soul {Ire}) in the 2011 Filly and Mare Turf. Browne can't remember quite how or when they met. But it was at least 20 years ago, and in this same town, while Browne was engaged his own brand of prospecting—as a pioneer in a trade he had more or less patented in Europe. And for a long time now Fipke has been sending Browne young stock, typically out of his mares over the water, to be broken and then prepared either for sale or training.

"Chuck being Chuck, he said, ‘Okay, I’ll send her to Sir Mark Prescott,’” Browne remembers of Awesome Gal (Ire). “Which he duly did. But Sir Mark ran her up to two miles with the same result, nothing. So I kind of lost contact with the filly then. But not alone did Chuck keep her, he put a 120 grand cover on her. Then I got a phone call in January this year, asking me would I take two fillies up from France. When they arrived, I looked at their breeding and thought: ‘Here we go again!’"

Browne pauses and shakes his head. "But right from the get-go this filly was special," he says. "All those years trying to figure things out, looking at pedigrees, how does it all work. And it’s a filly out of that mare has turned out quicker than any breeze-up horse I’ve ever had. Now, listen, she goes back well. The mare has a good pedigree, she’s by Galileo (Ire). But it’s strange, all the same."

It’s true: Awesome Gal (Ire) has a striking shape to her pedigree, replicating Urban Sea’s dam Allegretta (GB) (Lombard {Ger}) as close as 3 x 3. Full credit to Fipke, then, for rolling the dice on such a purposeful cover for this dismal runner. Cont. p4

Soon after their arrival, even so, Browne received an email instructing him to prepare both Awesome Gal’s daughter and the No Nay Never filly who had accompanied her from France for the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale at Doncaster.

"Well, the way Spirit Gal was training at home, I knew what was going to happen," Browne recalls. "Sure enough, she was third-fastest in the breeze and everyone was all over her. She'd have topped the sale by a mile."

As it was, she had to be scratched. Seldom has a touch of sore shins proved such a blessing.

"I was disappointed of course," Browne says. "I wasn't going to get my commission. But to keep me happy Chuck said, 'Listen, you can train this if you want.' He’d often have said that before, without me taking up the offer. Joseph [O’Brien] trains most of them [in Europe] now, and he had John Oxx before, plus a few with Sir Mark. But I said, 'Yes, this filly I will keep!'"

As a rule, the only horses that keep things ticking over at Browne's Co. Tipperary base through the summer will be mediocre types that have for one reason or another missed their sales slot.

"I'd have maybe two or three winners every year but they'd be rated 65 or so," Browne explains. "You do well to win one of those low-grade handicaps every year, it's so competitive in Ireland. But while it might sound contradictory, I wouldn't want to be seen doing too well at this. People would say this fella's keeping the best and selling the worst. I hope people know me well enough to know that would never be the case, but human nature being what it is, there would be a bit of that."

But the exception has, in any case, arrived in another's service. "We knew she was good after the breeze-up, so after her little break we started to train her and it has all just continued on from there," Browne says. "I used to get Seamie Heffernan in to sit on her. He’s such a good judge, if he likes something you can sit up and take notice. She was fourth on her first run and then has just improved and improved. It was a good class of race she won in Dundalk [7f Listed] last time. Fillies don’t normally beat the colts and she hammered the one that went on to win the [G3] Killavullan S."

That was none other than Ballydoyle’s one-time GI Juvenile Turf contender Cairo (Quality Road). There's no denying that Secret Gal matches her dashing style with plenty of substance, then, and those who assume that trainers need tiers of "punchbags" to work a horse up the grades must accept that this one has thrived for her solitary regime.

"She trains on her own," Browne confirms. "I've become a bit American, train her on the clock. But she's very forward-going."

“People might normally train in pairs, but you’d never do that for the breeze. Yes, you do your initial preparation in groups, but once they start breezing, they all do it on their own. And she’s so forward-going that doesn’t need help. She’d use herself too much, with other horses. But not alone is she quick, she stays to a good level."

There are, admittedly, new factors this time. For one thing she must gel with her local jockey, Ricardo Santana, Jr., and the hectic style of racing round the sharp inner track may demand versatility.

"There are a lot of ifs and buts," Browne acknowledges. "We’re in a bit of a quandary, in that she has a reputation as frontrunner back home. But it’s a different ball game here. Going to the bend as quick as they will, you’d be using a lot of petrol to lead them there. So ideally you’d maybe look to break well and then just tuck in. But she should travel. And, you know, if she does everything right, she could hang around."

While the many trainers who shop annually from Mocklershill are grateful that Browne has never deployed his mastery in meaningful competition, he does claim more satisfaction in winning a small race with a moderate horse than in the celebrated pinhooks that have made him the doyen of the sector. (First consignor to sell a seven-figure breezer in Europe? Willie Browne. Second consignor to sell a seven-figure breezer in Europe? Willie Browne.)

So you can imagine how he feels to be bringing Spirit Gal, last month his first ever starter in a stakes race, to a challenge as momentous as the GI Juvenile Fillies' Turf on Friday.

"I was here for the September Sale, not having a clue this was going to happen," he says. "And I walked out there [out of the sales barns to view the track] and thought to myself, ‘Damn, this side will always be different.’"

His tone is poignantly laced with the implication that "different" might equally read "better". But then he can comfort himself that few trainers in Europe have saddled as many good horses in their time. And the system continues to function smoothly: subsequent ‘TDN Rising Star’ Sakheer (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}), picked up right here last year after failing to meet his September reserve at $65,000, was sold on to Oliver St Lawrence for €550,000 at Arqana in May and has since proved himself among the best of the crop with his G2 Mill Reef S. success for KHK Racing and Roger Varian. From the previous cycle, Light Infantry (Fr) (Fast Company {Ire}) has earned his passage to Australia after consecutive runner-up finishes in Group 1 company this summer. He was found for just $25,000 as an Arqana October yearling, and sold to Blandford for £82,000 at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up. Cont. p6

Browne is proud of the expertise of those fellow horsemen who have helped the breeze-up sector in Europe achieve spectacular maturity. And he should be assured of a reciprocal goodwill, among the countless trainers indebted to his academy, now that he has a belated opportunity to slay a giant or two with his tiny residue of part-time ammunition. He is too immune to self-indulgence, however, to dwell pointlessly on what might have been.

"The problem we had, in '77, was there were three families at home: my father, myself and my brother Michael," he says with a shrug. "My father did moderately okay, always had his few winners. But we weren't making any kind of money to sustain three families. We had to do something different, and that's why we started what we started. But listen, at this stage of my life, it is kind of a fairy story. I got the full-sister up from France last week. She's not as pretty. But who knows? That's the thing. You never know. I hope I don't let anyone down on Friday. Where we fit in here, I don't know. But she has brought us here, at least, and we'll take that."

However, she will retain a major interest in the family and reports Dreamloper's dam Livia’s Dream (Ire) to be in foal to Lope De Vega (Ire), meaning a full-sibling is expected on the ground in the spring.

Hoare, who is in her mid-70s, said, "I'm excited and terrified at the same time. I get very nervous when she races. We watched the draw for the Breeders' Cup Mile the other night and, as the outside stalls had been filled by the time her name was called out, I grew in confidence." Cont. p7

She added, “It’s been incredibly exciting following Dreamloper. The highlights were unquestionably the two races in Paris this summer. I was there with my step grandchildren and step granddaughter and the children could not believe that the adults were jumping up and down and screaming their heads off. They were greatly entertained. That was tremendously exciting.”

The Dreamloper story began in 2010 when Hoare purchased her dam, Livia's Dream, from Luke Lillingston's Mount Coote Stud at Book 1 at Tattersalls for 45,000gns.

Lillingston, who boards many of Hoare's mares and has acted as an agent on behalf of the Roscommon native for over a decade, was not present when she viewed the then diminutive yearling by Teofilo (Ire).

However, Hoare remembers how Lillingston’s father provided her with some inspiration ahead of the sale, and she hasn’t looked back since.

She recalled, “Dreamloper always had a remarkable walk. I’m not very good at judging foals but, when she was a yearling, I said, ‘you’ve got your mother’s walk and, if you have her gumption, you’ll be fine.’

“I love Lope De Vega. I went with Luke, who looks after a lot of my mares, to see a few stallions and thought he was the business down at Ballylinch Stud. With her mother’s determination and her father’s talent, I expected things from her.”

Hoare added, “Luke is also my agent and I went out of politeness to see his horses at Tattersalls in 2010. He would never tell me anything about the offerings of Mount Coote Stud and is very professional with things like that.

“But when he was on his lunch break, I went to see the horses and, while Luke’s father told me that Livia’s Dream was very small, he also told me that she was the fastest of the yearlings. I thought, ‘well, that's good enough for me.’ I got a friend of mine to bid on her while I hid and we got her for 45,000gns.”

Livia’s Dream was then sent to Ed Walker who, along with John Murphy in Ireland, trains the majority of Hoare’s horses. The filly was talented, winning four times, including at listed level but Dreamloper has exceeded all expectations.

Hoare explained, “Livia’s Dream was one of the first outside horses Ed trained. It was the first year he was training. Ed is a wonderful communicator and is an awfully nice young man.

“I own her outright now. I leased her to my son for a couple of years and that lease ran out last month. I share her with my sister but I am the major owner.

“The dam is in foal to Lope De Vega so I am hoping, please God, to have a full-sibling next year. It was a heartbreaking decision to offer Dreamloper for sale at Keeneland’s November Breeding Stock Sale but there will potentially be a lot of money on offer and things can go wrong in this game.”

She added, “I’ve had my share of ups and downs with horses and risking not getting her in foal or missing a year is too much for me right now. She has become too valuable. I took this on as a hobby but it has turned into a business. My business brain tells me that now is a good time to get out and concentrate on the rest of the family. Livia's Dream is still quite young at 13 and I am hoping that she can deliver a few more for us.”

Before then, there is that trip of a lifetime to the Breeders’ Cup negotiate, and Hoare is predicting her star filly to bow out with a bang.

“Ed is very positive. We are all very positive, I’m delighted to say. We were all on the phone together last night and we think stall three should be perfect for her. I think she’s in with a good chance. Let’s hope she can be bang there.”

AIDAN O’BRIEN STRING STEPS OUT AT KEENELAND AHEAD OF THE BREEDERS’ CUP

Tuesday marked the first day the seven-strong Aidan O’Brien string got a taste of the Keeneland track ahead of the two-day Breeders’ Cup on Nov. 4-5.

Leading the Coolmore partners septet after their quarantine period was Group 1 winner Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}) and G3 Derby Trial S. hero Stone Age (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who both line up in the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Turf and will leave from stalls four and three, respectively. Second in the 2021 Turf to Godolphin and Charlie Appleby’s Yibir (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) at Del Mar, Broome took the G2 Hardwicke S. from six starts this term and enters the Breeders’ Cup having run eighth in the G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe last out at the beginning of October.

“Looking at the team, we have two horses in the Turf,” O’Brien said. “Broome ran very well in the race last year. Conditions have not always been in his favour, but I think he will enjoy the ground if it’s quick.

“His one flaw is he misses the break. He’s a late loader, but he can get on the back foot. We are trying to do things to help him break better. He broke badly at Del Mar under Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] and he rides him again. That day he gave him a chance and said he couldn’t believe he got beat.

“Stone Age ran well [when fifth] in the heavy [G1 Champion S.] and is comfortable over a mile and a half, but I think there’ll be no more rain this week and the going will be different for him.”

Already a Breeders’ Cup winner after taking the GI Mile in 2020, Order Of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}) aims to take his second Mile. The 5-year-old entire ran second in the G1 Prix du Moulin to Dreamloper (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) in September and he was third to the re-opposing Annapolis (War Front) and Ivar (Brz) (Agnes Gold {Jpn}) in the GI Coolmore Turf Mile S. over this course and distance on Oct. 8. He exits stall 10 in the 16-horse field.

“We have Order Of Australia in the Mile, going for a repeat of two years ago,” O’Brien said. “I was very happy with his run at Keeneland and he was drawn out a bit. I’ve taken my time with him all year and have just gently turned the screw on him and his last work was very pleasing. We bred him and still own a leg in him.”

O’Brien also has a pair of fillies entered in the GI Maker’s Mark Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf in listed winner and G1 Irish Oaks runner-up Toy (IRE) (Galileo (IRE)) and G1 Cazoo Oaks victress Tuesday (IRE) (Galileo (IRE)). Ryan Moore will be aboard Tuesday and will leave from barrier five, while Wayne Lordan has the call on Toy. The latter pair have drawn gate seven.

Tuesday is very well, she has a nice draw. It was bad ground when she ran in France [G1 Prix de l’Opera], but her work has been very good. Toy has made very good progress since her last race, she has a good draw and the trip and ground should be fine for her.”

Consistent filly Meditate (IRE) (No Nay Never), who is four-for-six, flies the flag for O’Brien in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies. Besides winning her first four starts in succession, including group victories in the G3 Coolmore Stud Fillies Sprint S., G3 Albany S., and the G2 Debutante S., the dark bay rolled a pair of twos in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and the G1 Cheveley Park S. both in September.

“Meditate is one I really like stepping up in trip and I think that, coupled with going round a bend, will help her,” he said. “She’s a No Nay Never out of a mare by Dalakhani (IRE) and we are still learning about these No Nay Nevers who are fast, precocious horses. Meditate has plenty of stamina on the dam’s side, we are still working out about what we do with her next year.” Cont. p10

He added, “She’s never lost a kilo since her last run, we’ve given her the chance to back out in her work but there are no negative signs. She’s also got a good mind and is a hardy filly whose constitution will also help her with the distance.”

The master of Rosegreen also saddles G3 Prix de Conde hero Victoria Road (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf. He’s drawn in stall one and will be ridden by Ryan Moore.

“Our 2-year-old colt [Victoria Road] came from a good bit back at Chantilly and we think he could develop into a [G1] French Derby horse,” O’Brien said. “The main thing is that we don’t want him to get lost early in his race on Friday, but I feel it’s only when he goes further that we will see him in a better light.”

O’Brien also reflected on the strong European Breeders’ Cup participation, and added, “It’s always good to see Charlie Appleby with his team at the Breeders’ Cup. He’s a very good trainer, he’s doing a great job and has an adept team of horses and people to bring with him.

“We love coming to Keeneland because its weather can be similar to ours and everyone here is horsey minded, like we are in Ireland. You have to be tactically quick around here, but you need to be able to finish off your race as well.

“We will be looking at the ground, but in my opinion I prefer it quick because flat horses should be all about speed.”

HIGHFIELD PRINCESS POISED FOR TURF SPRINT CLASH WITH GOLDEN PAL

Trainer John Quinn is “happy” with three-time Group 1 winner Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) ahead of a start in the 5 1/2-furlong $1-million GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint at Keeneland on Nov. 5. (Click here for a video of the bay training at Keeneland on Tuesday.) The 5-year-old drew stall six in the field of 16, two to the inside of crack American sprinter Golden Pal (Uncle Mo). She also carries three pounds less than the colt, and Quinn is relishing a clash with the Wesley Ward trainee.

Ward also has multiple Group 1 winner Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) (stall four), and Arrest Me Red (Pioneerof The Nile) (stall seven) signed on for the Keeneland contest.

“She’s in good form as you can see,” said Quinn. “She’s well in herself, she’s ready and hopefully we’ll get her there. She’s been ticking over well; her work has been pleasing and she still looks well so I’m happy with her.

“Golden Pal is the best sprinter they’ve had in America for a long time. I watched him win in Keeneland in the Breeders Cup trial two weeks ago. He made all the running; he came out like a bullet. I thought his stall wasn’t closed he came out so quick. He was well in control and broke the track record. I thought he was good but so is she.”

Quinn noted that the Breeders’ Cup was always on his radar for the winner of the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest, G1 Nunthorpe S. and G1 Flying Five S.

“The Breeders’ Cup is something we’ve been thinking about all year,” he added. “I said to my son, Sean, in the spring, if this filly improves seven to 10 pounds, I’d love to see her around Keeneland over 5 ½-furlongs round a bend.” Cont. p11

He added, “She’s won round a bend at both Chelmsford and Haydock, she’s good going left-handed. The bonus is wonderful but the fact she is good enough and we’re happy with her is the clincher really.

“They’ve had a very dry time at Keeneland. She’s got very good form on fast ground, but you just wouldn’t like it to be rock hard. I believe there is some rain forecast. She has won on all grounds, but I just hope they get some rain and its decent ground.”

As long as the Trainers House Enterprises, Ltd. colourbearer exits her Breeders’ Cup start in good order, there is every chance she would return as a 6-year-old.

“If she’s fit, well and has got the appetite for it, he’ll [owner John Fairley] race her next year,” Quinn said. “It’s fantastic that he’s thinking of keeping her for next year.”

AL SAGAR BULLISH ON NASHWA, WHO WILL RETURN AS A 4-YEAR-OLD

Veteran owner/breeder Imad Al Sagar is hoping for a positive run from his dual Group 1 winner Nashwa (GB) (Frankel (GB)) in the $3-million G1 Maker’s Mark Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Keeneland on Saturday. They bay, who was third in the G1 Cazoo Oaks prior to taking the G1 Prix de Diane in June and the G1 Nassau S. in July, enters the 1 3/16-mile race on the back of a good second-place run in the G1 Prix de l’Opera in October. She will leave from stall three with regular rider Hollie Doyle in the irons.

“I think the distance at the Breeders’ Cup will suit her very much,” Al Sagar said. “Nashwa has a very strong cruising speed and a good turn of foot. She demonstrated her speed at Haydock over 1-mile in April, so this trip will suit her and so will the track at Keeneland. I have had two runners previously at the Breeders’ Cup. Araafa (Ire) at Churchill Downs in 2006 and Decorated Knight (GB) at Del Mar in 2017. I would go through the roof if Nashwa were to win at the Breeders’ Cup. It would make me very happy.”

Of his retained rider Hollie Doyle, who won her first Classic aboard Nashwa in the Diane, he said, “It is a dream for any jockey to win a Classic, so for Hollie to achieve that at 25 made me very happy and proud. Her discipline and love for her job is what makes her so good. Hollie is a very dedicated jockey, and she is very disciplined from all angles, and she loves her job. She is a very positive person. She looks at the positive side of everything and is always looking forward to her next ride. That eagerness for success has paid off.”

The John and Thady Gosden trainee has made all bar one of her seven starts this season, and she will remain in training in 2023.

He added, “I have decided to keep Nashwa in training as a 4-year-old. I think she will be a better filly at four. The whole family thrive with age, and I think she will be stronger next year. We are excited that Blue Diamond Stud will soon have a full sister to Nashwa, with Nashwa’s dam Princess Loulou (Ire) currently in foal to Frankel with a filly.”

MONFORT LABELS GOLD TRIP "A WARRIOR" AFTER MELBOURNE CUP WIN

Michel Monfort, the man responsible for breeding this year’s G1 Melbourne Cup hero Gold Trip (Fr) (Outstrip (GB)) (video), has described his graduate as “a warrior.”

Monfort bought Gold Trip’s dam Sarvana (Fr), a daughter of Dubai Destination, before mating her with G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf winner Outstrip (GB), who now stands in Brazil having spent six seasons at Dalham Hall.

The resulting foal turned out to be Gold Trip, who made €60,000 at the Arqana August Sale from the Haras de Grandcamp draft to Gerard Larrieu.

Gold Trip won a Group 2 in his native France for Fabrice Chappet and changed hands to join Girson Maher and David Eustace’s barn in Australia after he finished third behind Broome (Ire) (Australia (GB)) in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud last year.

But the undoubted highlight of Gold Trip’s career came when he stormed to a two-length victory in Australia’s most famous race and his breeder has backed him to be a continued success.

Monfort told Jour de Galop on Tuesday morning, “He could have continued to have a very good career in Europe. He’s quite a warrior. Gold Trip won beautifully this morning in Australia, particularly given the weight he was carrying. It augurs well for the future.” Cont. p12

Back in 2020, Monfort told JDG about his approach to buying Sarvana, recalling how he overlooked her obvious flaws. He said, "I bought Sarvana in almost a timid manner. She wasn't very expensive, but she was from a good Aga Khan family. She was by a stallion who has proven to be a good broodmare sire.

"These were the criteria upon which I was concentrating on during that time to buy a mare. I appreciated also that she had made it to the races, even though it was only one time."

He added, "She proved that she had a good enough head on her and that she didn't have any hidden health problems. I envisioned the only start Sarvana had made and she wasn't at all defective. But the big outlets, if the horse didn't have a future in big races, didn't hesitate to turn the page."

Sarvana was sold for €280,000 to David Redvers acting on behalf of Sheikh Fahad al Thani in the interim, but Monfort's interest in the family continues as he retained two fillies from the mare.

He added on Tuesday, "We have kept two fillies, of which Got Wind (GB) (Olympic Glory (Ire)) has earned black type at two and three. In general, I think if you use mares with solid families, you increase your chances to produce good horses.

"I also try to have mares from good stallions or good broodmare sires. With a descendant of Mr. Prospector like Sarvana, using stallions from the Danehill line was an interesting option.

"I believe very much in the outcross, like in the case of Gold Trip. It was my idea, anyway. The fact of carrying a different blood, that's one of the factors of the success of sons of Dubawi (Ire) right now in Europe. You can also point to the purchase of Wootton Bassett (GB) by Coolmore.

"You can get a Grade 1 winner by Outstrip or by Hat Trick (Jpn). I think there is still a place for passionate breeders, people looking for good crosses. Even if it is surely more and more difficult, and more and more expensive, to stay competitive. I also think that Outstrip is a horse who could have stayed in Europe. Without getting good mares, he still produced horses who pleased a lot of riders."

AGA KHAN DRAFT HIGHLIGHTS GOFFS HORSES-IN-TRAINING SALE

The Aga Khan draft, always incredibly popular at the Goffs Autumn Horses In Training Sale, may have been down on numbers but captured the imagination once again with the 77-rated Karakoul (Ire) (Fast Company (Ire)) (lot 97) selling to Mohamed H K Al Attiyah for €72,000.

That made Karakoul, trained by Johnny Murtagh, the joint top lot of the sale, as fellow maiden Midnight Toker (Ire) (Acclamation (GB)) (lot 137) was sold to Marco Bozzi to continue his career in Italy.

Midnight Toker carried Peter Brant's double green silks to place in five of his seven starts for Ger Lyons and, with a rating of 83, the juvenile boasted an attractive level of form without managing to win.

As did Karakoul, notably when running Piz Badile (Ire) (Ulysses {Ire}) close in a Killarney maiden last year and Tom Taaffe, acting on behalf of the Qatari buyers, signed for the Aga Khan gelding.

He said, "He's been bought to go to Qatar for Mohamed Al Attiyah. He liked the horse's pedigree and his form and I liked the horse when I saw him this morning. He has a nice profile for Qatar."

Late in the session, Bozzi swooped for The Castlebridge Consignment's Midnight Toker, a horse he thinks can do well in Italy. Cont. p13
He said, "We like this horse a lot and have followed him all season. We think he can mature and race well in Italy. He has a very good pedigree and will go into training with Giovanni Colella in Rome for the former owner of Grand Glory (Gulf) (Olympic Glory (Ire))."

As well as supplying Karakoul, the Aga Khan and Johnny Murtagh offered Shajak (Ire) (Zarak (Fr)), who was knocked down to Tom Malone and Aidan O’Ryan for €52,000.

"He's a very nice horse and he's one that we've had our eye on for some time," Malone said. "You'd like what he has done on the track so far and I thought he wasn't bad value relative to the horse we hope he could develop into over hurdles. He's going to be going to Gordon Elliott."

The Aga Khan’s third and final offering, Riyami (Ire) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)) (lot 140), trained by Michael Halford, was snapped up by Denis Hogan for €30,000.

The aggregate of just under €1.4m was up 7% on last year despite the fact there were two six-figure lots in 2021. The average of €16,679 was 24% ahead on last year’s figure while the median jumped from €8,000 to €11,000 (+38%). There was also an improvement in the clearance rate which went from 78% to 84%.

Goffs CEO Henry Beeby said, "Although not our biggest or most prestigious sale in the calendar, today’s HIT sale fulfills an important need in the market by providing a viable outlet for Horses-In-Training in Ireland. As the forerunner to our big two-day Autumn Yearling Sale, we attract a large and diverse international crowd, and it is fair to say that we would like to grow the catalogue as we consistently deliver for the horses presented. Indeed, this is a low cost, convenient option for Irish owners and trainers when compared to the alternative and benefits from the unique contribution of Irish Thoroughbred Marketing and our network of proactive international agents."

He added, "We are grateful for the support we receive but can do so much more as is the case in every other category each year. A look at today’s buyers list sees horses knocked down to successful bidders from across Eastern Europe, France, Italy, Germany, Spain, the Gulf Region as well as the UK and domestically, and a buoyant trade from start to finish as we continue to exceed expectations. Despite a smaller catalogue every metric has improved headed by an impressive 84% clearance rate and big rises in average and median price. For the next two days we turn our attention to yearlings and our Autumn Yearling Sale that is once again packed full of potential and value."

Stride Syndicate Platform Launched
Stride, a new syndicate platform for buying and selling shares in elite-level racehorses, was launched on Tuesday. Stride will purchase unraced yearlings and 2-year-old breeze-up horses in a price bracket from €25,000-€150,000, and will sell shares in syndicates of between two and six horses. The intention is to sell within 12 months of purchase and profits returned to owners.

Cillian Barry and Eugene Cosgrove, founders of SportCaller, are the Chairman and Head of Product, respectively, while veteran COO Donal Browne will handle the day-to-day business operations for a venture whose horses will be placed with trainer Joseph O’Brien. Stride’s CEO is former Munster and Leicester rugby star John Murphy, who has operated Rugby & Racing and Thoroughbred Racing Syndicates, the latter also attached to the O’Brien yard. Cont. p14

Shaken up passing the quarter-mile marker, the 7-5 favourite was tackled and headed out wide inside the final furlong to defeat Prince De Monfort by seven lengths.

In Front’s seven-race winning sequence, which bookended an entire 2021 campaign on the shelf, came to a shuddering halt when the ultra-consistent veteran posted an uncharacteristic off-the-board finish in September’s Listed Grand Prix de la Ville de Craon and lined up for this returning off a third in Saint-Cloud’s Sept. 30 Listed Prix Scaramouche. The 29-10 second favourite recovered from a dawdling getaway and tanked forward to race second passing the judge first time. Seizing control just before halfway, he went clear underneath the stands’ side rail once into the straight and was geared right down inside the final furlong to defeat Prince De Monfort by daylight for a fourth black-type triumph.

In Front is the third of eight foals and one of four scorers out of an unraced half-sister to G1 Vincent O’Brien National S. runner-up Chabal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). MAHER/EUSTACE’S GOLD TRIP WINS MELBOURNE CUP

by Lydia Symonds/TDN AusNZ

The meteoric rise of Ciaron Maher and David Eustace hit stratospheric heights on Tuesday as the Australian Bloodstock-owned Gold Trip (Fr) (Outstrip {GB}) handed the powerhouse partnership their maiden victory in the time-honoured G1 Melbourne Cup at Flemington.

Since forming a partnership in 2018, Maher and Eustace have been one of the unstoppable forces in Australian racing and before Tuesday had sent out 19 winners at Group 1 level, including triumphs in the G1 Cox Plate, G1 VRC Derby and G1 Australian Guineas and G1 Oakleigh Plate. However, a win in the greatest of them all was one that had so far eluded the pair.

Despite having a strong team of five runners in the 3200-metre marathon, the pre-race chatter had only been about one horse, European raider Deauville Legend (Ire), and as the race reached its crescendo it appeared the hype surrounding the son of Sea The Stars (Ire) was well-placed as Kerrin McEvoy sat motionless on the 4-year-old heading into the straight.

However, Mark Zahra, on Gold Trip, had his own notions, taking the race by the scruff of the neck at the top of Flemington straight and quickly carved out a clear lead. As many of the leading fancies began to feel the pinch, it was left up to G3 Geelong Cup winner Emissary (GB) (Kingman {GB}) to mount his challenge, but he just failed to find enough, eventually finishing 2l away in second.

Meanwhile, the winner’s stablemate, recent G3 Bendigo Cup winner High Emocean (NZ) (Ocean Park {NZ}), came from last to third, another 1.25l down. Deauville Legend ran a brave race to finish fourth.

‘A Dream Come True’

It is the first time a horse has won the G1 Melbourne Cup of top weight of 57.5kg since the great Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}) in 2005, while the French-bred is also the first horse in 99 years to win the 3200-metre contest with just one previous race win to his name.

When it comes to big race victories, there is certainly never any doubt of the importance both Maher and Eustace place on the team they have assembled around them. With bases at Cranbourne, Ballarat, Fingal and Warwick Farm, they always make it clear the role the wider team play in the day-to-day running of the various operations, something Maher was quick to mention only minutes after tasting victory in the time-honoured Group 1.

“A Dream Come True”

It did open up beautifully, we had a plan going out with Mark, he was very good on him in the Caulfield Cup and we just wanted to wait, wait, wait, we know he’s got that good turn of foot, he was fantastic.

Meanwhile, an emotional Eustace, added, “I can’t believe it, obviously a bit overcome, it’s a dream that we all want to achieve.

“It’s the pinnacle of our sport, to do it with Ciaron, I’m obviously so grateful to be training with him, it’s a great honour to be doing that with all these good horses and an amazing team of staff we have, it’s a full credit to them.

“It’s a full credit to them to get five here and to this horse who was so unlucky in the Caulfield Cup, I was so gutted when he got beaten, and I thought he was going to get beaten again, it’s just quite incredible.”

The Ups and Downs

It has been somewhat a rollercoaster ride with Gold Trip since his arrival in Australia over 14 months ago.
The son of Outstrip (GB) arrived Down Under with a lofty reputation to uphold having won at Group 2 level and been placed in Group 1 company on three occasions in his native France and as a result was one of the most exciting imports to land these shores for a number of years.

However, after failing the vet checks in the run up to some of the biggest spring events last year, including the G1 Cox Plate, and then succumbing to a foot abscess in the autumn, the 6-year-old Australian debut was delayed by nearly a year, finally lining up for his first start in the country in Sydney’s Listed Winter Challenge, where he finished third.

Since that Australian debut, Gold Trip has been making up for lost time and has been one of the busiest horses in the country, running third in the G3 Naturalism S., fifth in the G1 Turnbull S., but it was his narrow second-place finish in the G1 Caulfield Cup that had many noting him down as bona fide G1 Melbourne Cup contender.

The Maher Eustace camp then surprised a few by running the entire in the G1 Cox Plate, but he was far from disgraced, finishing 2.9l off the winner, Anamoe (Street Boss {USA}), in ninth.

It was a second win in the race for Jamie Lovett and Luke Murrell’s Australian Bloodstock, having been in the ownership of 2014 winner Protectionist (Ger).

It has been an up and down spring for the top-syndicators after their G1 Epsom H. winner Top Ranked (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) had his spring cut short following a trackwork injury, but nothing could subdue Lovett’s elation following Gold Trip’s victory on Tuesday.

“He got a beautiful ride from Mark and he was a weight-for-age horse in a handicap, carrying top-weight. He was pretty dominant,” said Lovett. “That last furlong felt like 10 minutes. Zaz [Zahra] has let him go and I could feel the horse coming. It’s an amazing feeling. There have been so many good clients that have backed us--so good.”

Moroney Proud of Emissary

Meanwhile, trainer Mike Moroney expressed his pride at Emissary’s second-place finish and was already making plans for the 2023 edition of the famous race, believing the gelding is improving with every run.

“We knew we had a really nice horse, but we were a little bit worried (about the ground),” Moroney said.

Pedigree Notes

The modern day G1 Melbourne Cup is an international race and the pedigree of Gold Trip is about as international as they come. The 2020 G2 Prix Greffulhe winner, bred by Michel Monfort, is the first Group 1 winner (and one of 10 stakes winners overall) for his Godolphin-bred sire, Outstrip (GB), who stood at Darley before making his way last year to Brazil.

The grey was one of the better juveniles of his year, winning the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster before venturing to the US to win the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf. And his sire is one of Australia's longest serving stallions--Darley's dual Group 1-winning speedster Exceed And Excel who is currently standing his 20th Australian season.

Gold Trip is the second foal produced by the lightly raced Sarvana (Fr) whose G1 Queen Anne S.-winning sire Dubai Destination (USA) is really making a name for himself as a broodmare sire with 50 stakes winners, seven of whom have been successful at the elite-level.

Sarvana’s first foal is the two-time stakes-placed, two-time winner Got Wind (GB) who, being by Olympic Glory (Ire) is also the grandchild of an Australian sprinter in Choisir.

A yet to be named filly by Charming Thought (GB) was Sarvana’s next foal, followed by the placed Gotha (GB) (Ultra {Ire}), a colt by Shalaa (Ire) and a Wootton Bassett (GB) filly who fetched €41,000 (AUS$63,000) (purchased by Avenir Bloodstock) at this year’s Deauville February Mixed Sale.
