ON A ROLL, RIGNEY RACING SEEKS FIRST BREEDERS’ CUP WIN

by Bill Finley

The GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf looks like a tough spot for Xigera (Nyquist). She’s 8-1 on the morning line, drew the 13 post, is facing a strong group of European challengers and her only win came in a maiden race. But she’s not out of this, not as hot as her stable is.

In their ninth year in the sport and after an inauspicious start, Richard and Tammy Rigney’s Rigney Racing is enjoying a dream season. With seven wins, they were the leading owner at the spring meet at Churchill Downs. They followed that up with six winners at Saratoga from just 13 starters. In September, they teamed up with private trainer Phil Bauer to win the GIII Locust Grove S. at Churchill Downs with Played Hard (Into Mischief).

“It’s our ninth year together with Phil and we have been continually trying to progress to compete at the top level on a consistent basis,” Richard Rigney said. “We feel like we have kind of arrived.”

Rigney is a successful businessman who owns Clarendon Flavor Engineering, a Louisville-based beverage company that makes flavors for distilled spirits. He wanted a new challenge and chose to get involved in racing, but it didn’t go well at the start. In its first four years in operation, Rigney Racing won just 17 races. But he vowed to keep plugging away. Cont. p3

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THE BREEDERS’ CUP SATURDAY CARD

By any metric, it has been a sensational 2022 season for trainer Ralph Beckett, who can secure a second win at the Breeders’ Cup when he sends out Kinross (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) in the GI FanDuel Mile.

Breeders’ Cup action continues at Keeneland Saturday with nine Championship races. The TDN staff provides detailed previews of each of those events in our special Breeders’ Cup Saturday edition. Click here for all you need to know.

Saturday’s program includes the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Classic, GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Distaff, GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Turf, GI Breeders' Cup Maker's Mark F/M Turf, GI Breeders' Cup Big Ass Fans Dirt Mile, GI Breeders' Cup FanDuel Mile, GI Qatar Racing Breeders’ Cup Sprint, GI Breeders’ Cup F/M Sprint and GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint.

Among the many highlights are unbeaten Flightline’s (Tapit) quest for glory in the Classic and a showdown between stablemates Malathaat (Curlin) and Nest (Curlin) in the Distaff.

“You have to be really resilient to be in this industry,” he said. “If you have a problem with being knocked down and you can’t get back up you should get out of this business. We have long-term goals, goals to compete in the Oaks and the Derby. Having a bad year is not going to slow us down. Instead, we’ll look at what we can do better each year.”

Looking back, he can see where he went wrong. Like many who have come before him, he thought that success in another business meant he could do just as well in horse racing.

“This is where I made my mistake,” said Rigney, who estimates he has 60 horses. “I own my own business. It seemed to me, I’m killing it here, I can do the same in another business and it will be no problem. Phil and I decided we’d do it together, just the two of us. We started picking out horses together and we weren’t so good at it.”

Rigney was smart enough to know he had to try something different. He hired bloodstock agent John Moynihan to select horses for him at the sales and the results were immediate.

“This has been a long time coming for the Rigneys,” Bauer said. “He’s put a good team together and that starts at the sales. John Moynihan buying our horses has made a world of difference for us. We’re dealing with athletes that can compete at this level and we just try to stay out of the way.”

After winning the title at Churchill, the Rigneys and Bauer weren’t that optimistic about Saratoga. They had a number of horses that needed a break and decided to send only a small string to Saratoga.

“Saratoga was huge,” Rigney said. “We thought it was time to give some of our horses a break and just take the right horses up to Saratoga, so we picked out who we’d send there. Phil had an amazing run. It was unreal. You just don’t win six races at Saratoga with 13 starters. It was a great time for us and Phil got a lot of recognition, which was nice to see.” Cont. p4

Xigera, named for one of the Rigneys’ vacation spots, a safari lodge in Botswana, broke her maiden on Aug. 28 at Saratoga in a mile-and-a-sixteenth grass race. Bauer wanted to keep her on the turf, but was told she might not get in the GI Jessamine S., so opted instead to try the filly on the dirt in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. She finished fourth, but was bothered late and placed third through disqualification.

“I was really pleased with way she ran,” Bauer said. “My initial reaction was maybe I didn’t have her tight enough for a dirt effort. She bounced out really well and we’re excited moving forward.”

Rigney has had three other horses he owned in partnerships compete in the Breeders’ Cup, including Dream Empress (Bernstein), who finished in 2008 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies. Xigera will be the first for Rigney Racing. While he said he’d be happy if Xigera were simply to run well, he sees having a horse in the Breeders’ Cup as an accomplishment in itself, a sign that his stable is headed in the right direction.

“We have some good quality horses and, hopefully, they will keep coming our way and we can keep participating in events like the Breeders’ Cup” Rigney said. “That’s what it’s all about. We decided that we’re all in.”

Flightline getting the rockstar treatment at Keeneland during a schooling session Wednesday | Sherackatthetrack

LEXINGTON, KY - DL689 wasn't the only flight taking off shortly after 6:00 a.m. in Lexington on a brisk Wednesday morning.

Just as that Atlanta-bound, Delta aircraft loudly announced its presence across the way at Blue Grass Airport—you really couldn't have scripted it any better—unbeaten superstar Flightline (Tapit) was one of the first horses to train as the Keeneland main track opened for business beneath the lights.

Under a snug hold and plenty eager to do more, the 3-5 GI Breeders' Cup Classic morning-line favorite was every bit as advertised, rolling down the stretch with beautiful strides beneath Juan Leyva before a good-sized and early rising crowd.

More on the sensational job that the former Breeders' Cup winning-jockey turned John Sadler assistant has done getting the record-setting GI Pacific Classic winner to settle during training hours in our loaded Saturday preview edition.

Fellow contenders for the $6-million centerpiece Life Is Good (Into Mischief) and Olympiad (Speightstown) immediately caught the eye as did the very live GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile-bound Laurel River (Into Mischief) and overwhelming GI Breeders' Cup Sprint favorite Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music).

Both GI Kentucky Derby upsetter Rich Strike (Keen Ice) and GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Secret Oath (Arrogate) were out strutting their stuff in the pre-dawn hours as the mercury hovered in the high 40s. Believe it or not, it’s been eight years now since both winners of the two spring Classics at Churchill Downs have lined up in the Breeders’ Cup Classic and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff.

Queen's Plate winner Moira (Ghostzapper) toured the purpled-out paddock during the renovation break beneath a dense cloud cover just before daybreak. Cont. p6

Just as he did approaching the first Saturday in May, leading champion 3-year-old candidate Epicenter (Not This Time) couldn't have looked any better during his 1 1/2-mile gallop over the freshly manicured surface just after 8:00 a.m.

With 2020 GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Order of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}) front and center, the ‘Aidan O'Brien Army’ of seven marched by the grandstand single file along the outer rail as the boss looked on from the backstretch.

After a gate schooling session broadcasted live on FanDuel TV’s terrific onsite ‘Breakfast at the Breeders’ Cup’ coverage, ‘Future Stars Friday’ headliner Cave Rock (Arrogate)—is he the most-likeliest winner on the weekend?—got down to business with an easy gallop as training hours began to wind down.
Undefeated when winning the G1 Breeders’ Futurity at two. Impressive in the G1 Clark at four. And – at all ages! – completely magnificent.

Maxfield: just imagine...
AN APPLE FROM A BLOOMING ORCHARD
by Chris McGrath

It was 2007: compared with a year or two later, not the best timing in terms of what was on the market and how much it would cost you. "And it was a little bigger than we wanted," admits Larry Doyle. "But once we had the farm, well, we had to fill it."

That might sound a bit cart-before-horse, as a strategy for repurposing 330 acres of cattle pasture for the rather more expensive models that nowadays graze KatieRich Farm outside Midway, Ky. But Doyle accepts that the Thoroughbred game is played to different rules to the one by which he made the money required.

"That's what I love about this business," he says with a chuckle. "I make my money on Wall Street. But that's too easy. That's tic-tac-toe. This? This is hard, this is challenging. On Wall Street, you always look for that 20% return, year on year. Here, people try to improve on a 30% negative return. So it's always something to weigh. But sometimes you're a lot better off being a riverboat gambler than an accountant or financier!"
It was as a born “numbers guy” that Doyle was first intrigued by the handicapping side of the Turf, fatefully led astray by his older brother when growing up in Babylon, Long Island. But when the first horse race you ever see happens to be the 1973 Belmont S., then there will always be unquantifiable elements in the equation. All Doyle knows is that he’s still paying his dues, and enjoying every minute.

And if Secretariat was hardly a representative introduction to the game, then nor was the first yearling Doyle bought, who won a stakes. “They put the needle in my arm quite early!” Doyle says. “It was easy, right? No way back after a start like that.”

Remarkably, things quickly became better yet—and that’s why we’re talking, a couple of decades later, on the eve of the Breeders’ Cup. Because the KatieRich homebred American Apple (American Pharoah), who lines up for the GI Juvenile Turf Sprint on Friday, is a daughter of only the third horse Doyle ever purchased. Whatever she can do at the adjacent racetrack, moreover, she’s already highly eligible—as winner of the GIII Matron S. and half-sister to a GI Kentucky Oaks-placed millionaire—to improve the balance sheet when offered as hip 234 in the Keeneland November Sale, just a couple of days later.

American Apple’s dam Miss Mary Apples (Clever Trick) was bought in the same ring in 2001, with Doyle’s buddy Chris Connors, for $37,000 at the September Sale.

“She was just a gorgeous yearling in Book 5,” Doyle recalls. “When she won on debut at Keeneland, she went off favorite and that was just on looks. Then she went up for the Fashion S., where against the track bias she ran down a big Lukas filly and lost by a head. And then we took her up to the [GII] Schuylerville and again ran a close second. The money they were throwing at us then was just crazy. I remember talking to a bloodstock agent about the offer and he goes, ‘Kid, 11 times out of 10, you take that deal.’” Cont. p9

Ah, yes, but remember that the numbers guy was using a different abacus for the ponies. The Schuylerville winner dropped dead a week later, after all, apparently clearing a path for Miss Mary Apples in the GI Spinaway S.

"Unfortunately she came up with a throat problem that needed a surgery," Doyle recalls. "So maybe not taking the money looked a bad deal then. But she came back the next year, placed in a few stakes, and then just became a very productive mare. She threw off 11 winners, plus one filly that didn't win but went on to produce [GISP] Parlor (Lonhro {Aus}). Miss Mary Apples was a great mother, very protective, and we only lost her last year three months after she delivered American Apple."

And nor did she protect only her foals. Though KatieRich is always striving to make commercial sense, this mare simply didn't produce commercial foals. Time after time, that proved a win in the longer game.

"We got her pregnant to Empire Maker, $100,000 stud fee," Doyle recalls. "We put her filly through the sale, she didn't make $85,000, so we brought her back. That was Miss Red Delicious: she won stakes herself, her daughter [Nootka Sound (Lonhro {Aus})] won a graded stakes, and another one Zapple (Ghostzapper) won her debut by nine lengths this summer. Then Miss Mary Apples had a filly by Curlin, another $100,000 stud fee. But she was small, didn't bring $75,000. So we brought her home, too, and that was Lady Apple. Won a million and sold for $1.2 million. Any time we tried to sell something out of that mare, they just didn't look precocious enough. But then they would blossom."

By the time American Apple came along, then, the lesson had been thoroughly absorbed. She was never put through the ring at all.

"She'd only have been weaned three months, she was immature, she had a pot belly," Doyle reasons. "So we ended up holding on to her—and here we are at the Breeders' Cup. She's always been brilliant in the morning. Gerardo [Corrales, jockey] told us in early March, 'This is my Breeders' Cup horse.' And we were laughing at him."

The real thrill about the whole ride, with this filly, has been the early boost to the career of the program's 28-year-old trainer Daniel Leitch, who took over when Mark Hubley—who goes back a long way with Doyle and his brother, and indeed trained Miss Mary Apples—stepped back into the role of managing consultant only a year or so ago.

"Danny's been with us since he was working weekends at 15," Doyle's wife Karen notes. "And he's always been the same, even now he stops at the barns after training in the morning to see if he can help out in any way. We were so happy for him when she won the Matron, I still get chills thinking about it."

"Yes, he's just a solid, solid citizen," agrees Doyle. "Always a helping hand, great personality, always upbeat. His confidence in this horse has never wavered. I'm 64, I've been around a bit longer, and I would say, 'All right, kid, we'll see. And he's like, 'We've got this!'"

After a couple of starts on dirt and a two-turn experiment on grass, American Apple won a valuable sprint maiden at Kentucky Downs.

"We had no reason not to believe that she'd run on dirt," Doyle reflects. "I just think she needs a pace to close into. She has this burst of speed, that's why she's better suited to grass. We still think she can run long, but going short is just the way the races have played out for us."

After she won at Kentucky Downs, we opened the condition book and there was only one place to go; and then it was the same after we shipped to New York and won up there. She's made the choices for us, really."

The tougher choice, naturally, was to put her into the sale. But those numbers do have to stack up a little.

"This is just hedging," Doyle says. "I'm a trader. A horse isn't worth what you think it’s worth. It's worth what they pay you. But if you don't do it, you'll pay. And if you do, you can get rewarded. Remember, I have three half-sisters. We have stakes-winning daughters of the sisters. So the family is going to be well represented [in the program], and her mother's legacy is going to live on for many years."

Zapple is another already promising to contribute. After her dazzling debut she tried stakes company, but came out with a few cuts and has been recuperating on the farm. She'll be resuming soon, and overall KatieRich--named for the Doyles' two children--appears to be evolving with persuasive energy: these days there's a sales prep division, there's training and pre-training, there's constant upgrading of stock.

"I think we're looking for different types of mares, to breed more two-turn horses," Doyle reflects. "But basically we just want to keep learning, to get a better and better product out there. At the age I am, probably I'd be looking to breed to race a bit more, going forward. I think we've got some nice foundation mares. In terms of numbers, we're up a little high at 33, so we actually have nine going into the sale. But meanwhile we're keeping daughters, we're breeding them to nice sires, it's just time to look down the road a little bit." Cont. p11

One intriguing measure of that perspective is that Doyle elected to retain an Uncle Mo colt—out of the Phipps mare Enhancing (Forestry), and therefore a half-brother to farm graduate Instilled Regard (Arch)—as a $475,000 RNA at the September Sale.

"I think that's a potential sire," he explains. "Though it was me really stepping out, for a big colt, because it's selling those horses that pays the bills. But right now I feel let's take a shot with this one, and see how we go."

Karen adds with a laugh that she was not present on that occasion to restrain her husband, and "didn't hear from him for two days after, either!"

But Doyle has been at the game long enough now to make calculations of this kind.

"My brother Jimmy owned a piece of a horse with Mark maybe as long ago as 1983, and I went in a few years later, in 1992," he recalls. "I had no right to own a horse in those days. But I started the first internet mutual fund, and after that took off around 1999, 2000, I was able to go back to what I had seen years before, when I got an entry-level job with Thomas Mellon Evans on Park Avenue. He bred Pleasant Colony, and I got to meet with his bookkeeper and learn a bit more about ownership. He was very big into getting good mares. I didn’t have the money then, to put it to use, but I was learning a lot."

The physical imprint of the farm over the past 15 years, under Robert "Elmo" Richardson, has reflected conspicuous flair and ambition. But the real bedrock, not least given that the Doyles still spend much of their time in New York, is the caliber of the people.

"I had a very experienced horsewoman come to the farm, helping out for a while," Doyle says.

"And she was saying, 'Oh my God how do you get these people?' Everything's working well: you drop anybody in, they know how it works. We now have another very gifted young horseman in [farm president] George Barnes: he and Danny are working very well together, and that's so nice to see. And that has all been Mark and [farm manager] Tammy Ingebritson, it really has: they're the whole foundation of this farm. They have helped me to do this without mistakes, to have enough good sales along the way. That way we hope we can stick around and hopefully someday get a big horse."

Who’s counting? The numbers guy, that’s who. Hence this filly being up for sale. But it's not just about the bottom line: he's counting on people, and on the intangible magic of the Thoroughbred.
HISA TIMETABLE OUTLINED AT BC PRESS CONFERENCE

As the Breeders’ Cup is on the cusp of running its two-day championships for the first time under the regulations of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA)'s Racetrack Safety Program, and with the roll-out of HISA’s Anti-Doping and Medication Control rules expected to be implemented in under two months, HISA chief executive officer Lisa Lazarus detailed a timetable for industry stakeholders at a Keeneland press conference Wednesday morning.

"January 1 will not only be the start of the year, it will be the beginning of a new era in racing," Lazarus said. "For the first time we will have all 28 or so jurisdictions that run Thoroughbred races operating under one set of uniform anti-doping rules.

"The most critical points to be aware of [are that] every single sample will be analyzed for the exact same substances across every jurisdiction. We are working with the laboratories to make sure that they're all reporting positive results at the same levels. So, you know, it's one thing to have uniform rules. But having uniform implementation is really important to make sure you have a generally uniform system.

"This is what everyone's been waiting for. And we're going to be able to deliver that on Jan. 1. There are 14 states that are racing Jan. 1, and the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) is very, very deep in preparations to deliver that program," Lazarus said.

HIWU is the entity that will operate HISA’s anti-doping program. Lazarus explained that HISA creates the rules HIWU will enforce, and that those rules first have to be approved by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). Lazarus said she expects that to happen "in short order."

According to the FTC, the public commentary period for those new rules ends on Nov. 14.

"What's great about [this regulatory framework] is that you have genuine independence, impartiality, across all of the states," Lazarus said. "You have consistent enforcement, consistent adjudication. You'll see that cases will be decided quickly. It will be a lot quicker than you're used to. They'll be decided through an arbitration system, and an appeal system through the FTC process, not in state courts. And the importance of that uniformity, we really believe is going to be a game-changer for horse racing.

"It's important, obviously, as we enter into this era that we have cooperation from the states, from the racetracks," Lazarus continued. "And I'll say that since we've gotten started with the Racetrack Safety Program, that cooperation has gotten better and better every day. Understandably, anything completely new and sort of transformational takes some time, and takes kind of fixing a little bit of trial and error."

HIWU executive director Ben Mosier noted that "HIWU will maintain its own investigations team, and we hope to also work with state racing commissions and others that can help us with 'boots on the ground' and investigations in live settings. We will also be establishing a tip line for whistleblowers, starting Jan. 1, and it will be a great for information to be shared with us for possible anti-doping and controlled medication concerns.

WEEKLY RULINGS

WEEKLY STEWARDS AND COMMISSIONS RULINGS, OCT. 25-31

Every week, the TDN publishes a roundup of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky. Here's a primer on how each of these jurisdictions adjudicates different offenses, what they make public (or not) and where.

With the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) having gone into effect on July 1, the TDN will also post a roundup of the relevant HISA-related rulings from the same week.

Explainer: You have been fined the sum of $500 dollars for failing to tend to business in a proper manner necessitating a late scratch in the 4th race at Aqueduct Racetrack on October 28th 2022.

The TDN asked both the New York State Gaming Commission and the New York Racing Association (NYRA) to elaborate on the details of the above ruling. A Gaming Commission spokesperson wrote, “At this time we have no further details beyond what is publicly available.”

NYRA spokesperson, Pat McKenna, explained that Owen is a NYRA-employed regulatory veterinarian who failed to administer Lasix in time as scheduled, which necessitated the horse, Miss Bonnie T, to be scratched.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

MY SPORTS PASSION, MY SPORTS PROFESSION. THANKS, DAD
by Barry Weisbord

This week I attended World Series Games Three and Four in Philadelphia. Those that know me would not be surprised as I am a life-long devoted Phillies fan. This weekend my champion sports enjoyment continues with the Breeders’ Cup at Keeneland.

I will relish both events with family and friends.

This has been a favorite time of the year of late as these two great events have overlapped. My enthusiasm for this week got me thinking. I love sports. I always have. I love rooting in person, watching on TV, reading about, discussing, and coaching sports. They have all delivered special moments in my life.

So this is the right time to say THANK YOU, Dad.

Raised in the Philly suburbs I thought everyone was a sports fan, but that’s Philly. I was six when we moved out of the city to a house directly across the street from the school fields. I never missed a pick-up game in any season. Early backyard catches with Dad, home run derby with friends, and Little League introduced baseball first.

Dad coached Little League. He was big on playing the right way, top effort combined with great sportsmanship and integrity. I coached Little League for my sons Josh and Brad and tried to emulate the same teaching. I still enjoy hanging with their friends who were on our team more than 20 years ago. I was eight when Dad and Grandpop Jack took me to Connie Mack Stadium to see Sandy Koufax pitch against the Phills. One of the only times I rooted against my beloved Phills was his no hitter.

Dad and I had Eagles season tickets for years where we came to know everyone in our row. The cardiologist who diagnosed my acute endocarditis at 41, I had met on our row 25 years prior. The 1960 Eagles-Packers game at Franklin Field was my first championship attended. (It took a while for the Eagles to win another!)

My Dad and grandfather played golf. I was allowed to come along and later even caddy. Now golf is my passion, and I love playing with my sons.

I wasn’t a top player in school sports. I played 100lb football, soccer, and lacrosse, but Dad was always rooting me on, and always encouraged me to make up for lack of skills with superior effort. I continued those lessons in much of my life. In fact, grit is held in the highest esteem in Philly (think Rocky), of which I am proud.

Rooting was not always easy. The collapse of the 1964 Phillies is often used to define other epic sports collapses. That is part of our psyche that we have to carry around. That’s also part of being a Philly sports fan. The Phillies have the dubious distinction of being the sports team with the most losses of any American pro team, period.

Win or lose, I loved reading the papers the day after. Stan Hochman’s column in the Daily News was always discussed at school our lunch table. Yes this was pre SportsCenter! We liked reading about sports. I still do. Maybe the germination of TDN was birthed then.

My Dad loved basketball the most. He played in a regular Friday night pick-up game at the Philadelphia Athletic Cub when I was young. It was always special to get to go watch, then take a steam and have a sandwich with the men. He owned a stationery company and a great friend and business associate was paper executive Irv Kosloff, who was a partner in the 76ers. In their championship season, while I was in high school, we had season tickets courtside and went to many away games too, sometimes flying with the team. There were even a few games of gin with Wilt. The definition of true sports excellence was cemented for me by the 1966-67 NBA champion 76ers, whose win percentage was the NBA record till broken by the Bulls.

As I grew up, my sports enjoyment was shared with my like-minded friends. There were countless road trips to enjoy rooting for our Philly teams.

In college I was introduced to Thoroughbred racing. It was love at first sight. A hot-walking job led to a summer job grooming at Saratoga. I told my parents I wanted to take a year off and learn about my new passion. Although the racetrack was foreign to Dad, he was totally supportive of Al Goldberg and me. Dad and his friends bought us some horses to train. Dad came to enjoy and follow the big races. After retiring he and Mom came to help me manage Matchmaker.

When Al and I went out on our own in the mid 70s we named our stable Flying Eagle Stable and my racing silks are orange and green. No explanation needed.

Al and my professional Thoroughbred life was also supported by our friends and family.

At Safely Kept’s induction ceremony into the Racing Hall Of Fame in Saratoga, my college poker game all came, 40 years after college.

I have passed the love of sports family tradition on to my kids. I have enjoyed watching them compete, coaching, and playing sports with them. Yes we talk about the games, the people, the big plays. We send around stories and tweets we enjoy. There have been countless regular season and playoff games. It wasn’t easy raising Philly sports fans in the New York area, but I was successful. There have been so many memorable moments. And now Brad has brought me to the point in my world where “are you Brad’s Dad?” has been asked too many times. Juliette also enjoys her field hockey, tennis, going to pro events, watching and rooting with me (Eagles Super Bowl was special ), and going racing with her brothers.

I have been able to turn a sports passion into a sport profession that has lasted me a life time. I have made friends and enjoyed Thoroughbred racing, all over the globe. I have experienced the thrills of championship sports, sometimes winning, sometimes losing, but never forgetting Dad’s lessons of sportsmanship and integrity.

I’m so thankful to say THANKS Dad. You did a great job of introducing, nurturing, supporting, and sharing your sports passion connecting the generations. I hope I would make you proud doing the same for Josh, Brad, and Juliette. Now go Phillies and fly Flightline!

Chairman Greg Harbut said, “At the Breeders’ Cup, many will place their wagers on who they believe will be the winners of world championship races. In that same spirit, the Ed Brown Society is making this investment in young people of color who are running strong academic races in pursuit of their equine careers, and we believe they will finish strong.”

STERLING SUFFOLK RACECOURSE NAMES NEW COO

Michael Buckley has been named the new chief operating officer of Sterling Suffolk Racecourse LLC, the simulcast wagering facility and prospective applicant for a Massachusetts sports wagering license which formerly operated as Suffolk Downs racetrack. Buckley is a principal at Belmont Capital LLC, one of Suffolk Racecourse's three owners.

"On behalf of the SSR ownership, we are pleased to have Mike take on this new role as we work toward implementing sports betting along with our simulcast wagering business," said Richard Fields, one of Sterling Suffolk's principal owners.

"I'm excited about this opportunity to help lead Sterling Suffolk Racecourse into its next phase as a premier sports wagering company in Massachusetts," said Buckley.

Buckley replaces Chip Tuttle, Sterling Suffolk's COO since 2007 who had been with the company since 1992.

“We’re sorry to lose Chip after his many years of great service to the company,” said Joe O'Donnell, another of Sterling Suffolk's principal owners. “We’re grateful for everything Chip has done to move Sterling Suffolk forward and help set the stage for our successes ahead.”

KEENELAND.
LEXINGTON, KY – Juan Leyva has a first-class ‘Flight’ for this year’s Championships.

The assistant trainer to John Sadler and former Breeders’ Cup winning-jockey is the regular morning partner of unbeaten sensation and 3-5 Classic morning-line favorite Flightline (Tapit). The highest-rated racehorse in the world has won his first five starts by an astounding combined margin of 62 3/4 lengths, led by a jaw-dropping 19 1/4-length win while making his two-turn debut in the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar.

Getting the monster that is Flightline to harness some of that brilliant early speed, however, has been another story.

“With him, it’s always like, ‘How do you ride a hurricane’?” Sadler said in these pages ahead of Flightline’s spectacular GI Hill ‘n’ Dale Met Mile win at Belmont Park in June. “Juan’s been working with him and getting him to relax.”

Well, how exactly does Leyva do it?

“In the beginning, he was always very keen to do more than what was wanted from him,” Leyva said. “It’s just been a work in progress with him every day trying to get him to settle down. If it were up to him, he’d go out there and just breeze every day.”

Longtime Sadler client and Flightline co-owner Kosta Hronis echoes those same sentiments.

“He wanted to go full blast and run as hard as he could all of the time,” said Hronis, who campaigns Flightline along with Siena Farm, breeder Summer Wind Equine, West Point Thoroughbreds and Woodford Racing.

“I was watching the Pacific Classic replay on TVG and they were showing a Flightline work earlier in the year where he’s just dragging Juan around the racetrack. Juan looks like he has both feet on the brakes. But then you see his last workout before the Pacific Classic and he’s turned Flightline into such a relaxed and professional horse to where he’s push-button now. It’s a blessing that Juan is getting some recognition for what he’s done. Not only for Flightline, but for the barn in general. He’s done a great job.”

With a $1-million pricetag as a Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling and a growing reputation that he could back it up coming off the farm--albeit a bit belatedly after suffering a nasty wound to his hind end as a youngster--the expectations were always sky high for Flightline upon joining the Sadler barn in December of his 2-year-old season.

“The first day that I sat on him, I thought, ‘Wow, what an amazing animal,’” Leyva said. “Just the way he moves is so different from other horses. And I’ve been at this for quite a while now, so I draw from experience of being on some good horses in the past. And he was just something that I had never experienced.”

Born in Mexico and raised in Riverside, California, Leyva, like so many, was introduced to the sport by his father. The 38-year-old didn’t immediately envision racing as a potential career path though.

“liked horses and I liked riding them, but I didn’t think that I would be doing what I’m doing now,” Leyva said. “When I was very young, my dad had some Quarter Horses and he would match race them. In those kind of races, you put up your own m oney. He didn't really trust the jockeys, so he told me, "You're gonna be the jockey."

BEST WISHES IN THE BREEDERS’ CUP.

He continued, "I did it to please him, but when I won my first match race, it was just such an exhilarating feeling of joy and triumph that the bug just bit me. Once I got old enough, I quit school and focused all my energy on the horses."

Still just in his late teenage years, Leyva began making the rounds on the backstretch at Santa Anita and was eager to show off his handywork from riding in the match races for his old man.

"My agent takes me to John's barn to work a horse," Leyva said. "And me being a young kid, I wanted to show John that I could switch sticks--hit right, hit left. So, that's exactly what I did."

As you can imagine, this did not go over well with the boss. "I come back and John says, 'What the heck were you doing! We don't hit our horses in the mornings!' Leyva said. "And at that point, I thought I blew my chance at Santa Anita."

He didn't. Sadler gave Leyva another chance the following morning--he kept the stick in his back pocket this time, thankfully--and a friendship was beginning to take shape. Leyva launched his career as a jockey in 2000, and, before relocating to South Florida, Sadler offered him a job to work as an assistant. He declined. At least for the time being.

"I wanted to ride races, I wanted to pursue my dream," Leyva said. "I left, but through it all, we always stayed in contact. He always checked up on me."

Leyva celebrated his biggest victory aboard 20-1 Musical Romance--ironically over the Sadler-trained Switch--in the 2011 GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Churchill Downs. He previously experienced the thrill of riding on the first Saturday in May in Louisville, piloting Storm in May to an unplaced finish in the 2007 GI Kentucky Derby. “I thought I had reached the top with Musical Romance, but I don’t think I had even seen it until now with this horse [Flightline],” Leyva said.

Sadler once again “checked up” on Leyva a year or two following his victory at the Championships. He wasn’t ready to hang up the reins just yet though.

“At the time, I still had some business and I was doing OK,” Leyva said. “I told him that I didn’t want to quit riding yet. I was still enjoying it.”

Battling weight issues and suffering from a decline in business following the retirement of Musical Romance and Storm in May’s trainer Bill Kaplan, Leyva decided to call it quits in 2017. In all, Leyva won 803 races for a total of $22,942,868 in earnings. Trainer David Fawkes was the first to offer him a job as an assistant in South Florida, but Leyva had other ideas.

“After talking it over with my wife, I called John and said, ’I’m ready to come home,’“ Leyva said.

Immediately thrown into the deep end, Leyva was put in charge of Sadler’s 20-horse string at Los Alamitos. Not exactly what he had in mind when agreeing to return to the West Coast to serve as his assistant.

“I basically got a crash course in being a trainer,” Leyva said. “I went from riding races the past week to having 20 horses and trying to manage a set list, riders and grooms, etc. Little by little, I started doing my thing. But I didn’t come to California to be at Los Al. I came to California to learn how to train horses from John.”

Leyva rode champion Accelerate (Lookin At Lucky) ahead of his win in the 2018 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, which emphatically put an end to Sadler’s well-documented 0-for-44 winless mark at the Championships. Leyva also began working with Sadler-trained standouts such as Hronis Racing's MGSW Catalina Cruiser (Union Rags) and Woodford Racing's MGSW and GI Breeders' Cup Mile runner-up Catapult (Kitten's Joy).

“I was very lucky that from the beginning when I went to Santa Anita, John had a lot of nice horses,” Leyva said. “I was able to work alongside them and really recognize what it takes to get to those kind of big races.

“Once I got to Santa Anita, that’s where I really started soaking everything in that John was doing. And the great thing about John is that when we’re doing something with the horses, he always takes time to explain to me why we’re doing things. He’s a very good teacher.”

As Flightline puts his unblemished record on the line in Saturday’s $6-million centerpiece at Keeneland, Hronis summed it up best.

“Juan's been a great student of John’s,” Hronis said. “And Flightline has been a great student of Juan’s.”

LONGINES BREEDERS’ CUP CLASSIC

Few horses have commanded the superlatives that undefeated Flightline (Tapit) has over the course of his career. When the 4-year-old lines up for this weekend’s GI Breeders’ Cup Classic, many will confidently put their money on the colt to do exactly what he has done in the past--win. Standing in his way, however, is Life Is Good (Into Mischief), who in any other year might have entered the Classic as the resounding favorite himself.

Campaigned by a partnership consisting of Hronis Racing, Siena Farm, Summer Wind, West Point Thoroughbreds and Woodford Racing, Flightline hasn’t put a foot wrong since launching his career in the spring of 2021. Earning TDN Rising Stardom when scoring by 13 1/4 lengths in his career debut at Santa Anita in March of 2021, the striking bay was equally impressive when taking the next step up at Del Mar later that summer in an optional claimer. Rounding out his sophomore season with a win while facing stakes company for the first time in the GI Runhappy Malibu S. in December, he was forced to the sidelines for the early part of 2022 with a strained right hock. Patiently brought along by trainer John Sadler, he kicked off his 4-year-old campaign with a six-length tally over the re-opposing Happy Saver (Super Saver) in the GI Hill 'N' Dale Metropolitan H. June 11. Going farther than a mile for the first time in this summer's GI TVG Pacific Classic at Del Mar, the colt set a new standard, even for himself, with a tour-de-force 19 1/4-length victory.

Undefeated in his first three starts last season for trainer Bob Baffert, including a score in the GII San Felipe S., fellow TDN Rising Star Life Is Good was subsequently beaten a neck by Jackie’s Warrior (Maclean’s Music) in his debut for Todd Pletcher in the seven-furlong GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial at Saratoga last term, but returned to winning ways in the GII Kelso H. before a scintillating victory in the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile at Del Mar. Picking up in 2022 the way the previous season ended, he took the nine-furlong GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational in January, but failed to see out the trip when fourth in the G1 Dubai World Cup in March. Given plenty of time off following that taxing trip, the CHC Inc. and WinStar Farm representative rolled through his next three starts, including the GI Whitney S. Aug. 6 and most recently, the GI Woodward Oct. 1. Defeated in his sole start over the Classic’s 1 1/4 mile distance, Life Is Good will have to show that he has the ability to handle the distance on U.S. soil.

Carrying the torch for this year’s crop of 3-year-olds are GI Kentucky Derby winner Rich Strike (Keen Ice), GI Runhappy Santa Anita Derby and GI Pennsylvania Derby hero Taiba (Gun Runner) and Epicenter (Not This Time), victorious in the GI Runhappy Travers S. in his latest start. While all three have shown flashes of brilliance throughout the season, Epicenter has arguably demonstrated the greatest consistency and improvement as the year has progressed. Even in defeat, he proved he belonged with the best of his division. Victorious in a trio of graded stakes at the Fair Grounds this spring, highlighted by the GII Louisiana Derby, the Steve Asmussen trainee finished 3/4 of a length behind 80-1 shot Rich Strike as the favorite in the Run for the Roses and filled the same spot in the GI Preakness S.
Freshened for a summer campaign, he came home a confident winner over the well-considered Zandon in the July 30 GII Jim Dandy S. before annexing Saratoga's marquee test for 3-year-olds, the Aug. 27 Travers.

Also worth a look here from the contingent of older runners are Grade I winners Hot Rod Charlie (Oxbow) and Olympiad (Speightstown). Most recently defeating Rich Strike in the GII Lukas Classic Oct. 1, Hot Rod Charlie is one of the most consistent horses in the field, rarely off the board in his career.

The well-bred Olympiad has proven 10 furlongs is well within his wheel house, scoring a decisive victory in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Sept. 3.

With a championship almost certainly laying on the line for at least two divisions in this year's Classic, Flightline certainly appears to be the horse to beat. However, should he fail to produce his best effort, Epicenter just might offer a solid alternative having proven his ability to handle the distance as well as having established recency of form. Not to mention that bettors will get a much better price.--Christina Bossinakis

If there is a Rodney Dangerfield horse in the mix at this year's Championships, Prince A A Faisal's Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe (GB)) may just be the one as he bids farewell to the races in the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Turf.

Last year's Saudi Cup winner, the 5-year-old possesses the single most-imposing piece of form over the 12 furlongs, having won a high-class renewal of the G1 Longines Dubai Sheema Classic in 2021. Sure, that was then and this is now, and the Mishriff we've seen this term appears not the same. But that doesn't mean he should be overlooked, even in the midst of a winless season in which he has some alibis.

A forgettable run in defense of the Saudi Cup was followed by a desperately unlucky second to fellow G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Vadeni (Fr) (Gleneagles {Ire}) in the 10-furlong G1 Coral Eclipse S. July 2. Third, having lost all chance, at the break of the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot three weeks later, he--like everything else--was left in the dust behind Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in the G1 Juddmonte International S. Aug. 17. If anything, his fourth in the G1 Irish Champion S. to the progressive Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) was fractionally disappointing and his down-the-field effort in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe can be attributed mostly to the bottomless underfoot conditions. Frankie Dettori jumps aboard and blinkers go on for the Turf.

Godolphin/Sheikh Mohammed go in search of a seventh win in the Turf and second straight as they send out morning-line favorite Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and 3-year-old Nation's Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). The former was on a G1 Dubai World Cup trajectory early this year, but was nowhere in a pair of starts on the dirt at Meydan over the winter and was moved to the grass. Since then, he is four-for-four, including the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin Aug. 14 and a defeat of G1 Deutsches Derby hero Sammarco (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) in the G1 Preis von Europa last time. Nation's Pride takes the same route into the Turf as did last year's winner Yibir (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), having thrashed his rivals in the G100 Jockey Club Derby at Aqueduct last time. William Buick lands here, while James Doyle has the steer aboard Rebel's Romance.

No American-trained female has managed to beat the boys in the Turf, but War Like Goddess (English Channel) will have her fair share of backers to make history Saturday. Third after leading late in last year's GI Filly & Mare Turf, the rags-to-riches 5-year-old is a perfect two-for-two over this course and distance, with consecutive wins in the GIII Bewitch S. and followed her title defense Apr. 29 with a defeat of recent GIII Dowager S. heroine Temple City Terror (Temple City) in the GII Glens Falls S. at Saratoga. Perhaps too confidently ridden by Joel Rosario when a neck second to FM Turf runner Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) in the GII Flower Bowl S. Aug. 6, she defeated a suspect group including the reopposing Bye Bye Melvin (Uncle Mo) in the G1 Joe Hirsch Turf Classic at Aqueduct Oct. 8.

Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}), impressive in winning the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot in June, looks to improve on his runner-up effort in this 12 months ago.

Wild Card...

He looks well and truly overmatched on paper, but if hunting for something north of 20-1 for vertical wagers, consider Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}). The chestnut capped Flavien Prat's monumental GI Pacific Classic day with a barnstorming finish in the 11-furlong GII Del Mar H. that carried him to a head success over the in-form Master Piece (Chi) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). He found some trouble in his latest when beaten a neck into third in the GII John Henry Turf Championship over a mile and a quarter, but should appreciate the extra real estate Saturday. And one can do worse than having Prat back in the boot. --Alan Carasso

LONGINES BREEDERS’ CUP DISTAFF

Although four other Grade I winners will beg to differ, the story coming out of the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Distaff when the dust settles is most likely to be a Todd Pletcher-trained exacta, a Stonestreet-bred exacta, and/or a Curlin over A.P. Indy trifecta. The Distaff field is arguably the strongest of Breeders’ Cup weekend apart from the GI Classic. All but one of the fillies and mares are Grade I winners, all have faced other members of the field previously, and most would be deserving favorites just about any other year.

Front and center are Pletcher’s dynamic duo of Nest (Curlin) and Malathaat (Curlin). The Hall of Famer’s leading ladies make a powerful pair. Nest—owned by a partnership of Repole Stable, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, and Michael House—may be the slight favorite after winning three straight, including the GI Coaching Club America Oaks at the Distaff distance. But for pesky runner-up finishes against the boys in the GI Belmont S. and behind fellow Distaffer Secret Oath (Arrogate) in the GI Kentucky Oaks, she’d be on an eight-race win streak. She’s the real deal.

Ready for a showdown is her stablemate, Shadwell Stables’s Clairiere (Curlin), who has been a bonafide star in her own right. A year older than Nest, the Eclipse winner is coming off a spectacular win over track and trip in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. and is undefeated in three graded tries at Keeneland. The ‘TDN Rising Star’ owns the most Grade Is of anyone in the field with five, as well as the co-highest Beyer Speed Figure of 106. Pletcher has said the Stonestreet-bred 4-year-old tends to idle when she makes the lead, but she blew the doors off the competition by 5 1/4 lengths in the Spinster.

Nest and Malathaat have never faced each other in a race, although they have worked together.

The other Stonestreet-bred runner is Clairiere (Curlin), who beat Malathaat fair and square in both the GI Ogden Phipps S. and GI Shuvee S. this summer before an off-day stemming from a false start when Malathaat turned the tables in the GI Personal Ensign S. Racing as a homebred under Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen’s tutelage, she shares that field-high 106 Beyer with Malathaat and is the only member of the field to beat Malathaat—something she’s done twice, although Malathaat definitely holds the advantage, having finished in front of Clairiere in their five other meetings. The 106 Beyer shared by Clairiere and Malathaat is the highest by a mare this year.

Nest, Malathaat, and Clairiere are all bred on the identical cross, being by super sire Curlin and out of A.P. Indy-line mares. Both Nest and Malathaat are directly out of daughters of that great sire, while Clairiere is out of a mare by the stellar broodmare sire Bernardini, a son of A.P. Indy.

Pletcher isn’t the only one with a shot for the winning exacta here. Asmussen also has a strong hand, with a second filly, the improving sophomore Society (Gun Runner), who won the GI Cotillion S. in her last outing. The Peter E. Blum Thoroughbreds homebred has five wins in six career starts, is on a two-race win streak and triple-digit Beyer streak, and has only been beaten once, in her first Grade I try against Nest this summer in the CCA Oaks.

The aforementioned Secret Oath, a Briland Farm homebred, can’t be counted out either, although she hasn’t won since taking the Oaks in May. However, if anyone knows how to get to the winner’s circle in the Breeders’ Cup, it’s her legendary Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas, who has won the Distaff four times. Pozo De Luna Inc.’s Blue Stripe (Arg) (Equal Stripes {Arg}), a half-sister to 2019 Distaff winner Blue Prize (Arg) (Pure Prize), has made a favorable impression in the mornings after her win in the GI Clement L. Hirsch S. Win or lose, the Marcelo Polanco trainee heads to the Fasig-Tipton ‘Night of the Stars’ sale Sunday, as does Secret Oath.

Wild Card…

Chad Brown’s hard-trying Search Results (Flatter), who ran a half-length shy of Malathaat in the Personal Ensign in her last out, has never been off the board and her Beyers stack up nicely with a career-high of 104. The Klaravich Stables runner has faced Malathaat three times and has always finished just behind her, but she’s got a nice stalking style that might prove effective at Keeneland.

Of all the races this weekend, the FanDuel Mile has the most robust European participation, with six of the 14 horses based across the pond, all of which have the look of contenders. At the top of that list is narrow morning-line favorite Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who looks for his second consecutive Breeders' Cup success after last year's controversial GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf score as a purse-money-only runner.

Laid up for over six months after that triumph, the chestnut returned May 15 at Longchamp to capture the G1 French 2000 Guineas, but disappointed somewhat when finishing third in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and fifth in the G1 Prix Jean Prat, both times as the favorite. He's turned it on since then, however, following up a strong second to superstar Baaeed (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) with a 5 1/4-length domination of the GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile S., good for a 112 Beyer, the biggest turf figure earned in North America this year. If he runs back to that number, he'll be tough.

Even a slight step back from that, however, leaves it wide open to an array of other contenders. From the Euro contingent, Dreamloper (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) is scary if she runs back to her last race, a 5 1/2-length romp in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. That represented her second Group 1 tally against males this year after a two-length conquest of the Prix d'Ispahan in May.

The most progressive amongst the Euros, however, is Marcstown Thoroughbreds' Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}). A respectable Group 2 winner through his first two seasons, the gelding has turned the corner this year at five, starting a four-race winning streak in the G2 City of York S. this August that's also included victories in the G2 Park S., G1 Prix de la Foret and G1 British Champions Sprint S. Whether or not he's better going shorter and the wide 13-post draw are concerns, but any of his last three efforts make him a major contender.

Order of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}) isn't the most consistent sort, scoring just twice in 13 starts since his 73-1 shocker in this race over this course in 2020, but perhaps his third in the GI Coolmore Turf Mile S. here Oct. 8 signals a return to top form.

From the American participants, 3-year-old Coolmore Turf Mile hero Annapolis (War Front) and star mare Regal Glory (Animal Kingdom) loom largest. Yet to be out of the exacta in seven starts, Annapolis proved his bona fides against elders in that local score and has shown to be versatile enough to adapt to a variety of pace scenarios.

Regal Glory, in the exacta 18 times out of 21 tries, captured the GI Jenny Wiley S. over this course in the spring and followed that up by stopping the clock in 1:32 flat in capturing the GI Longines Just A Game S.

Wild Card...

Without a doubt, the wild card is Domestic Spending (GB) (Kingman (GB)), who would represent one of trainer Chad Brown's greatest training jobs should he prevail. A three-time Grade I winner and the clear-cut best American turf horse heading into last year's Breeders' Cup, he was forced to scratch the week of the race and now hasn't been seen for over 14 months. He returns with a trio of bullet works on the local turf for this ambitious attempt, and is good enough to win on his best day, but wasn't done any favors at the draw, pulling the widest-out 14-post. --Joe Bianca

QATAR RACING BREEDERS’ CUP SPRINT

The turnback to sprints has certainly done the trick for American Theorem (American Pharoah), who put them back to back in the GI Triple Bend S. May 29 and GI Bing Crosby S. July 30. He was second best behind the very impressive Laurel River (Into Mischief) in the GI Pat O’Brien S. last time Aug. 27.

Wild Card...

The 5-year-old mare and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Kimari (Munnings), fourth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint and seventh in last term’s GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint, will bypass the seven-furlong GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint and look to join the elite company of Very Subtle (1987), Safely Kept (1990) and Desert Stormer (1995) by defeating males at this preferred six-furlong trip in the Sprint. The bay, purchased by a Coolmore-led partnership for $2.7 million at last year’s Fasig-Tipton November sale, has taken her game to a new level in her last two in New York, posting career-high 105 and 106 Beyers in wins in the GII Honorable Miss H. July 27 and GII Gallant Bloom S. Sept. 25, respectively. She’s two for two at this distance and also has a pair of wins at Keeneland—a 15-length debut tally as a juvenile and a victory in the 2021 GI Madison S. --Steve Sherack

Four-time GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf winning-trainer Chad Brown will saddle a trio, led by MGISW and ‘TDN Rising Star’ In Italian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), against a very deep European contingent of sophomores entered in this year's renewal.

Like Brown’s 2014 Filly & Mare Turf heroine Dayatthespa (City Zip), In Italian stretches out for the 1 3/16-mile affair after a win in Keeneland’s one-mile GI First Lady S. Oct. 8. The Peter Brant colorbearer previously effectively stretched her speed up to 1 1/8 miles for a front-running tally in Saratoga’s GI Diana S. July 16. Drawn wide in post 11, In Italian is the second choice on the Filly & Mare Turf morning line at 7-2. In Italian's sire Dubawi was represented by this race’s 2017 winner Wuheida (GB).

The expected pacesetter In Italian figures to be kept company on the front end by two-time GI Rodeo Drive S. wire-to-winner Going to Vegas (Goldencents). She faded to a distant 11th after setting the pace in last year's Filly & Mare Turf at Del Mar.

Brown will also be represented by two narrow last out winners—Michael Tabor and Brant's GI E. P. Taylor S. heroine Rougir (Fr) (Territories {Ire}) and Brant's GII Flower Bowl S. winner Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). The runaway Queen's Plate winner Moira (Ghostzapper), a neck back in second as the E. P. Taylor favorite, was disqualified and placed eighth for interference that day.

They'll all have to beat the John Gosden-trained 'Rising Star' Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who is favored at 5-2 on the morning-line here. Cont. p14

Partnered by the celebrated 25-year-old Hollie Doyle, the G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Nassau S. heroine was a valiant second and a nose ahead of G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Above the Curve (American Pharoah) as the choice over unfavorable soft ground in the G1 Prix de l'Opera Oct. 2. Nashwa's resume also features a third-place finish behind the Aidan O'Brien-trained Tuesday (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Epsom Oaks. Tuesday, however, has failed to get her picture taken in four efforts since that nose victory and was sixth in the Prix de l'Opera last time.

European 3-year-old fillies have a rich history in this race, including previous winners Banks Hill (GB) (2001); Ouija Board (GB) (2004); Midday (GB) (2009); Queen's Trust (GB) (2016); Wuheida (GB) (2017); and Iridessa (Ire) (2019). --Steve Sherack

BIG ASS FANS BREEDERS’ CUP DIRT MILE

Trainer Brad Cox looks to take two of the last three runnings of the GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile Saturday after taking the 2020 edition with Horse of the Year Knicks Go (Paynter). Cox’s 2022 entry, Cyberknife (Gun Runner), looks to put a stamp on a banner year for his sire by adding what would be a third Grade I to his resume before retiring to stud at Spendthrift Farm. A close third last out behind GI Breeders’ Cup Classic contender Taiba (Gun Runner) in the GI Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 24, with fellow Dirt Mile contender Simplification (Not This Time) one more place back, Cyberknife made a name for himself early on with a win in the GI Arkansas Derby. He failed to fire on the First Saturday in May, but rebounded with wins in the GIII Matt Winn S. and Monmouth’s GI TVG.com Haskell Invitational S., a “Win and You’re In” race for the Classic.

Irad Ortiz, Jr. will try to break out of a four-way tie for most wins in this race, including last year’s victory with MGISW Life Is Good (Into Mischief), as he pilots Laurel River (Into Mischief) for owner/breeder Juddmonte Farm. The Bob Baffert pupil is on a three-race win streak, including a decisive last-out score in the GII Pat O’Brien S. Aug. 27 over GISW Speaker’s Corner (Street Sense).

Steve Asmussen, unlucky in this race since Tapizar (Tapit) found the winner’s circle 10 years ago in 2012, brings in another talented son of Gun Runner, Gunite, a homebred for his sire’s connections, Winchell Thoroughbreds.

2022 BREEDERS’ CUP DIRT MILE CONTENDER

A job well done, a name you can rely on.

ST. MATTHEWS, SC | 803.655.5738
EMAIL: OFFICE@DURRTRAINING.COM
With four wins and two seconds from six starts this year, Gunite enters off a win in the GII Amsterdam S. and a narrow defeat by Jack Christopher (Munnings) in the GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial S. at Saratoga earlier this summer. Since then, he’s posted back-to-back stakes wins in the Harrods Creek S. and, most recently, the Perryville S. Oct. 22. Jockey Tyler Gaffalione, aboard for all but one of Gunite’s 2022 starts, looks to ride his first Dirt Mile winner.

In what has become one of racing’s best feel-good stories of the year, Cody’s Wish (Curlin) makes his Breeders’ Cup debut for owner/breeder Godolphin and trainer Bill Mott. After powering through the allowance ranks at Churchill Downs last fall, Cody’s Wish made his graded-stakes debut a positive one, falling just a neck short in the GIII Michelob Ultra Challenger S. Mar. 12 before going on a three-race tear culminating in a last-out victory over champion Jackie’s Warrior (Maclean’s Music) in the GI Forego S. with Pipeline (Speightstown) third.

Wild Card...

Slow Down Andy (Nyquist) cuts back after a third last time out in the GI Awesome Again S. Missing this year’s GI Kentucky Derby due to illness, he returned to the track with a pair of seconds in stakes company in California and captured the GII Del Mar Derby two back in his first try on the turf. —Stefanie Grimm

BREEDERS' CUP TURF SPRINT

Golden Pal (Uncle Mo), looking to cap his racing career with a third Breeders' Cup victory Saturday for trainer Wesley Ward before retiring to Coolmore's Ashford Stud, is coming off a dominant victory over the Keeneland lawn in the Oct. 8 GII Woodford S. The consistent bay, who is the 2-1 morning-line favorite, won his first Breeders' Cup race at Keeneland when he captured the 2020 GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint and he is a perfect four-for-four over the Lexington oval's turf course.

Ward will also saddle Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)) in the Turf Sprint ahead of the 4-year-old filly's engagement at the Fasig-Tipton November sale the next day. The bay won the Giant's Causeway S. over course and distance in April and is coming off a win in the GIII Ladies Sprint S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 10.

Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) tries the Turf Sprint after finishing off the board in the last two runnings of the GI Breeders' Cup Mile. After a trip overseas earlier this year, where he was a narrowly beaten second in the G3 Turf Sprint Cup in Saudi Arabia and fifth in the Mar. 26 G1 Al Quoz Sprint, the 6-year-old won the six-furlong GI Jaipur S. in June. He added the Aug. 13 GI Fourstardave H. and was fifth in the Oct. 8 GI Coolmore Turf S. last time out--likely confirming the decision to revert to sprinting for championship weekend.

Glass Slippers became the only overseas winner of the Turf Sprint when he won two years ago. The foreign entrants this year are led by Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night of Thunder {Ire}).

WE'RE BETTING WE CAN DOUBLE IT IN 2022!

The amazing organizations involved in Thoroughbred Aftercare Programs work passionately to discover what comes next for these magnificent athletes. That's why, in 2021, Hagyard stepped up to help support these organizations by creating “The Race to Give,” raising over $125,000 for aftercare programs and initiatives.

In 2022, our bold goal is to double the amount. But we can't do it without you.

Visit RaceToGive.org to learn the various ways you can lend your support to this important cause.

It's sure to be the best bet you make in 2022.

The 5-year-old mare brings a string of three straight Group 1 victories into championship weekend: she won the Aug. 7 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest S., Aug. 19 G1 Nunthorpe S. and the Sept. 11 G1 Flying Five S.

Wild Card...

Mizzen Mast was responsible for two-time Turf Sprint winner Mizdirection, who captured the race in 2012 and 2013. The stallion could have another female winner of the race with Caravel, who is 20-1 on the morning line. The 5-year-old mare is coming off a course-and-trip win in the Oct. 16 GIII Franklin S.

The GI Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare Sprint has seen its share of short-priced winners--none chalkier than the 11-10 returned by 'TDN Rising Star' Gamine (Into Mischief) at this historic venue two years ago--and plenty of long-odds scorers, including 10-1 Wavell Avenue (Harlington) when Keeneland hosted the Championships for the first time back in 2015 and the whopping 66-1 for Bar of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) at Del Mar in 2017. In a 2022 renewal lacking a true standout on paper, shopping around for value seems the flavor of the afternoon Saturday.

Juddmonte Farms' Ventura (Chester House) took the second running of the Filly & Mare Sprint when it was run over the all-weather surface at Santa Anita in 2008 and the operation has claims this year with its homebred Obligatory (Curlin) in the first of the day's nine races. A last-to-first winner of the GII Eight Belles S. in her first try going seven-eighths last year, the gray filly was the easy winner of the GIII Hurricane Bertie S. in March, then bridged a double-digit deficit to earn a breakthrough Grade I in the Derby City Distaff at Churchill Downs May 7. Her runner-up effort in the GI Bed O'Roses S. at Belmont the following month is dramatically better than it looks on paper--and her 99 Beyer looks strong enough--as she was forced to race atypically close to loose leader Bella Sofia (Awesome Patriot) in a four-horse affair and fought on very gamely to lose by just a half-length. Freshened for the GI Ballerina S. at Saratoga Aug. 28, Obligatory raced far back behind a generous pace, but just as she was commencing her rally about a quarter-mile from home, she was bothered badly by a lugging-out Lady Rocket (Tale of the Cat). She ran home gamely to be third and is a factor here on her best, but she can take some time to find top gear and she'll have a shorter run to the wire than maybe she'd prefer.

The Brown-trained Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) was making her stakes debut in the Ballerina and had the perfect run in transit, stalking that strong early pace from up close before getting first run and shooting clear to score by 2 3/4 lengths.

She is another that is clearly capable, but she faces easily her stiffest test to day and figures an underlaid price.

Ce Ce (Elusive Quality) took advantage of an off day for Gamine to best Edgeway (Competitive Edge) in last year’s Filly & Mare Sprint at Del Mar. She has followed a similar preparation into her title defense, with a victory in the GII Princess Rooney S. ahead of what appears an excuse-free fifth in the Ballerina. She validated 3-10 favoritism in winning Santa Anita’s GIII Chillingworth S. last time.

Shamrock Rose (First Dude) parlayed victory in Keeneland’s GII Raven Run S. into a Filly & Mare Sprint upset at 25-1 in 2018, and Wicked Halo (Gun Runner) will look to follow suit Saturday. Owner of a four-race winning streak, the Winchell homebred outfinished Sterling Silver (Cupid) in the GII Prioress S. Sept. 2 before romping by four over course and distance two weeks ago. Winchell also races last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies and Eclipse Award winner Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) in partnership with L & N Racing and she could not have looked better in dominating last year’s Juvenile Fillies third Tarabi (First Samurai) by 5 1/4 lengths in the GIII Dogwood S. at Churchill Sept. 24.

Wild Card...

After winning two Breeders’ Cup races last fall, Japan is represented by only Chain of Love (Jpn) (*Heart’s Cry (Jpn)) this time around. Just a three-time winner from 22 starts, the North Hills homebred was third to compatriot Dancing Prince (Jpn) (*Pas de Trois (Jpn)) in the G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint in February and a close fourth in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen a month later. The chestnut exits a fast-finishing victory in the Listed Enif S. going this distance and should be running on. The 5-year-old hails from the family of 2012 Juvenile Turf hero George Vancouver (Henrythenavigator)--Alan Carasso

3-YEAR-OLD CURLIN HALF TO MIDNIGHT BOURBON, GIRVIN DEBUTS AT CHURCHILL

THURSDAY’S RACING INSIGHTS:
By Stefanie Grimm
Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency

10th-CD, $120K, Msw, 3yo/up, 1m, 5:35 p.m.
A $500,000 Keeneland September yearling out of the 2020 Stonestreet Thoroughbreds consignment, CAWKAB (Curlin) was purchased by Shadwell Stables and makes a belated debut out of the Brad Cox barn. A 3-year-old son of Catch the Moon (Malibu Moon), Cawkab is a half-brother to four graded-stakes winners including the late GSW & MGISP Midnight Bourbon (Tiznow), GISW & up-and-coming freshman sire Girvin (Tale of Ekati), GSW Cocked and Loaded (Colonel John), and GSW Pirate’s Punch (Shanghai Bobby). His 2-year-old half-brother, Weyhill Road (Quality Road), was himself a $1.6m Keeneland September yearling, nearly topping the sale, and recently debuted fourth in maiden special weight company at Keeneland.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
2nd-Delaware, $45,360, Alw (NW2L)/Opt. Clm ($50,000), 11-2, 2yo, f, 1m 70y, 1:43.40, ft, 2 1/2 lengths.

FABULOUS CANDY (f, 2, Twirling Candy--Fabulous Devotion, by Tapit) just missed by a neck at first asking but came back with an impressive performance next time out in a 10 1/2-length romp to break her maiden Sept. 2. Fourth in a sloppy White Clay Creek S. last time out Oct. 14, Wednesday’s 3-2 choice got a stalking trip from third through an opening quarter in a mild :23.94 and was able to save ground against the rail into the far turn. Given her cue as room opened up inside with a furlong to run, Fabulous Candy drove through and went clear close to home to win by 2 1/2 lengths over Beautiful and Bold (Tonalist). Fabulous Candy has a yearling half-sister by Texas Red who is her only younger sibling. Her dam visited Gift Box for the 2023 season. Sales History: $30,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP; $40,000 2yo ’22 EASMAY. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, $65,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

O-Lewis Mathews, Jr.; B-Detmar Wayne (KY); T-Chelsey Moysey.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
7th-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $34,000, Msw, 11-2, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.46, ft, 4 1/2 lengths.

FEE (f, 2, Into Mischief--In It for the Gold, by Speightstown) placed over a muddy five furlongs at Ellis Park Aug. 5 and was sixth behind ‘TDN Rising Star’ Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) last time out at Churchill Downs Sept. 18. Racing with Lasix for the first time Wednesday as the 4-5 favorite, she led from the start and established an unchallenged lead through a half mile in :46.07. Left alone on the front end, Fee drew off down the lane away from a chasing Kate’s Concerto (Mendelssohn) to win by 4 1/2 lengths. She has a weanling half-brother by Gun Runner and her dam visited Maxfield for next season. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $27,656. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

O-E5 Racing Thoroughbreds; B-Fifth Avenue Bloodstock (KY); T-Steve M. Asmussen.
THANK YOU

BECKETT HOPES TO CROWN RECORD SEASON IN STYLE

by Chris McGrath
LEXINGTON, KY -- Though introducing no fissure of light into the bruised grey sky hanging over Keeneland, daybreak on Wednesday nonetheless spread an array of crimson and saffron, dazzling as any sunrise, into the trees peering over the rituals of training track and shed row. And for those supervising one horse in particular, it felt especially apt that a final, lingering blaze of autumn glory should be preserved against the fading of the year.

For if he could win the GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile here on Saturday, Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) would not only extend to a quite remarkable climax to his own spree of improvement through 2022; he would also set a corresponding seal on a landmark season in the career of his trainer.

Last year, Ralph Beckett posted his best haul yet, in domestic prizemoney, at £1.94 million. This time round, his Kimpton Down team have not just consolidated but smashed their way to £2.74 million already. Contributors include four Group 1 winners, and their diversity attests to a versatility that Beckett, during his rise, was not always given adequate opportunity to measure. While he has reiterated his mastery with a homebred Classic colt in Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}), he has also saddled the winners of two elite sprints.

STEWART HOPING HIS LUCK CONTINUES WITH VICTORIA ROAD

by Brian Sheerin

What you want to hear from a major owner-bred racer like Trevor Stewart, the man who has set up a mini-empire off the back of buying wondermare Cassandra Go back in 1997, is that there is a nuanced approach to breeding and, with the right blend of skill and hard work, you too can make this game pay.

The trouble is, Stewart does not believe that is the case. Not only does he put buying top-class racemare-turned-blue hen Cassandra Go down to good luck, but he also points to fortune favouring him once again in producing her grandson Victoria Road (Ire), a leading fancy for Friday's Grade I Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf.

Clare Manning’s Boherguy Stud accounted for three of the top four lots during Wednesday’s opening session of the Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale. A colt by Dawn Approach (Ire) fetched €80,000 from agent A C Elliott, while another of the sire’s son filled third spot on a bid of €50,000.

Sea The Moon (Ger), whose son most recently upset the G1 Caulfield Cup in Melbourne, will stand for a fee of £25,000 for the 2023 breeding season at Lanwades Stud. Study Of Man (Ire), set to have his first runners next year, remains at £12,500, while Bobby’s Kitten dips slightly to £6,000. Sir Percy (GB)’s fee is listed as private.

Dancing Goddess (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), the 7-4 favourite making her first career start Wednesday at Kempton, stormed clear through the final 200 metres to graduate by 3 1/2 lengths.

One of those is Kinross himself, whose autumn schedule—he’s seeking a third Group/Grade I success in five weeks—is not just bewildering local horsemen, with their collective neurosis about spacing out races. It’s also allowing Beckett to show equal flair in a very different discipline to the type in which he largely made his name.

There were times when he would be sent fillies at a ratio approaching two-in-three, many of them requiring patience and distance. Here, in contrast, is a gelded dasher who has thrived on a timetable so hectic that Beckett even permits himself comparisons with a couple of indefatigable sprint handicappers of a generation ago: Chaplins Club (Parade Of Stars) and Glencroft (GB) (Crofter).

“It’s slightly shades of those David Chapman horses,” he says. “Those guys who were really good at it, Dandy Nicholls was another, I never really worked out how they got it so right. But really all they were doing was just going with the horse. And that’s rather what we’re trying with Kinross: just not to stand in his way. I think it was David Elsworth who said, ‘At a mile or less, it’s all about wellbeing.’ And that feels like a good way or looking at it, particularly with an older horse like this one.”

To a degree, in fact, the art of training can in these cases sooner become the art of not training. It’s about restraint, about going from race to race as though you were lighting one candle with another. The growing weight of accumulated starts inevitably tugs at the thread, and Beckett and his team just have to stop it fraying.

“He just hacked a couple of laps of the training track this morning, and that’s all we’ll do with him,” Beckett explains. “He’s not a horse you ever want to do much with, never mind need to. He trains himself really. These older horses, going out in the mornings, they really know their own way around. He’s enjoying life out here.” Cont. p4

But by Friday he’ll know exactly what he’s going to be doing, how many laps he’s going to go."

It’s important, then, to ensure that horses find their regime to be congenial. Because that’s one of the few doors through which a trainer can offer a horse something as elusive, but critical, as confidence. A year ago, Kinross was beaten in both the the G1 Prix de la Foret and the G1 QIPCO British Champions Sprint after travelling powerfully but running out of track and/or time. As a fully rounded professional, aged five, he has won both with the same mechanical efficiency as he had previously two races in the tier below.

“I think there are always layers, it’s always a sum of parts,” Beckett reflects. “The jockey understanding him, the way he does now, is definitely relevant. Frankie [Dettori] is not afraid to sit closer to the pace now. But I do think confidence is a big thing with this horse as well. It’s just grown and grown as he’s got older. It’s a hard thing to nail down, but it’s definitely part of your role, particularly with an older horse, to make sure they’re happy what they’re doing."

This race will be a whole different ball game for Kinross, spinning round the dizzy bends of the inner track while going back up in trip. Things are complicated by a tiresome draw, 13 of 14, but there’s definitely a scenario in which the environment will appeal to the horse’s zesty style.

“And that’s key,” Beckett says. “He’s pretty straightforward, a horse you could put just about anywhere, he’s like a scooter. So yes, it’s a tough draw but I don’t see it as the end of the world. Frankie will just have to deal with it. And I’m not concerned about the mile at all, particularly given the nature of Keeneland. Whether he handles that or not is another question, but I don’t think trip will be an issue. Nor would I have any concerns about the ground, it was quick when he won the [G2] City of York S.”

Asked to assess his stellar campaign, Beckett stresses one thing immediately. “It’s been great fun,” he says. “I’ve really enjoyed it. There have been setbacks, too, but that’s inevitable. When Scope (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) broke a hindleg, that was obviously a huge blow—we didn’t run at Ascot because it was too fast, and then for that to happen... Especially when you consider how few miles he had on the clock. But everything else has been great.

“Prosperous Voyage (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) we only ran because it was the right race [G1 Falmouth S.], not because we thought we could win. Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) hid her light under a bushel at home, so to get there [G1 Cheveley Park S.] with her was extraordinary. And Westover [G1 Irish Derby] was hugely satisfying. The King George was obviously a disaster, and there’s always a certain pressure when they go west like that, and you have to get them all the way round again, so we were very pleased with his run in the Arc. He’s probably going to for the G1 Sheema Classic, that looks a good fit for him and he’ll enjoy it, I think. He’s a big, tall, long horse, so you would think he might [keep developing] but that’s always easy to say and we’ll just have to see.”

Westover, of course, had excruciating luck in running at Epsom and that kind of thing will never cease to haunt any red-blooded horseman. But Beckett is gracious in his reflections.

“I mean, of course it was tough on everybody at the time,” he says. “But I don’t think any of us thought we’d have beaten winner. It was just not getting the chance to see, that was the crux of it. And, of course, whether it’ll ever happen again? It’s easy to be blase about these things but horses like that are hard to come by.”
But while one can hardly invite him to comment, a personal reflection is that Beckett is now one of the handful of trainers in Britain whose eligibility for an elite yearling of absolutely any kind is proven beyond doubt. Standing 10th in the trainers’ championship, he has had fewer runners than all those above him bar Sir Michael Stoute and Aidan O’Brien. He is now at that optimal stage where, though still much younger than doyens of the previous generation, he has accumulated masses of experience. Far too classy ever to hustle for business, he knows that a certain clientele are inevitably drawn to the tranquillity and independence of his facilities—and, as it happens, these also tend to be just the type of people he likes training for.

Nonetheless it’s gratifying for Beckett to have preconceptions so thoroughly corrected. Juddmonte, in sending him yearlings in 2015, made him their first new trainer in a decade: and they have been rewarded for giving him opportunities across the spectrum.

Ironically, given the way Beckett has had to fight to avoid becoming a victim of his own success, the gelding he has brought to the Bluegrass actually conforms to the original brand: he was homebred by one of his most longstanding clients, Julian Richmond-Watson. (And started out in his silks before being transferred to another of the stable’s patrons, Marc Chan, at the beginning of last year.)

“I trained the dam, the sisters, the dam’s sisters, the whole shooting match,” Beckett remarks. “So to be able to show up here with him is a big deal. It’s easy to forget that, if you get too caught up in it. Whatever happens on Saturday, when we look back in years to come I hope we reflect how blessed we were that everything worked out the way it has.”

To paraphrase Stewart, he threw the kitchen sink at Tickled Pink (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), a daughter of Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), with matings to Dark Angel (Ire), Frankel (GB) and Shamardal failing to produce a single black-type runner.

Just when Stewart had started to view Tickled Pink as a disappointing broodmare, along came Victoria Road, by first-season sire Saxon Warrior (Jpn), who bids to put the pedigree in lights at Keeneland on Friday.

Stewart said, “Tickled Pink has been a bit disappointing up until now. I have thrown everything at her--Dark Angel, Frankel and Shamardal. A few of them were a little bit on the small side and, while they had good ratings, were limited by size. To think now that a first-season sire seems to have hit it. It’s amazing really.”

He added, “It was all about Deep Impact (Jpn) when it came to choosing Saxon Warrior for the mare. I loved Saxon Warrior as an individual as well. He was a very good racehorse and had size and scope. I felt that I had sent Tickled Pink to a few very good sires and decided to risk something different to see if it worked.”

Victoria Road has taken his form to a new level in the autumn for Aidan O’Brien and boasts rock-solid credentials for Friday’s contest at odds of 5-1.

Convinced that the colt would emerge to be one of the better 2-year-olds at Ballydoyle this season, O’Brien advised Stewart to return to Saxon Warrior this breeding season with Tickled Pink, who is happily in foal to the Coolmore-based stallion.

Stewart explained, “Interestingly, I was going to cover Tickled Pink with No Nay Never this year and sent a message to Christy Grassick asking him to ask Aidan [O’Brien] about what his view would be. Aidan came back and told me that it was an absolute no-brainer and that I had to go to Saxon Warrior.

That was a very easy decision in that there was a big difference in price between Saxon Warrior and No Nay Never’s stud fee. Aidan was also talking up Victoria Road at the time, for all that it was only March.

“I was down with Aidan in May and, of course, the No Nay Nevers had come out and were winning everything. I said to Aidan, ’I think you might not have given me the best advice.’ Aidan just said, ’wait and see, you’ll be fine.’”

And what an understatement that has turned out to be. Victoria Road followed up his listed success at Deauville with a hard-fought Group 3 victory at Chantilly last month and suddenly Stewart is viewing Tickled Pink in a different light.

“She has an outstanding colt foal by Ghaiyyath (GB) on the ground. I went to Ghaiyyath because he’s the most beautiful horse. He’s big and strong and has good limbs. I felt that he would put some size into her because the Invincible Spirit seems to be coming out in her. They are just a little on the neat side. Hopefully I have found the secret to this mare because you need size and scope to make up into a good 3-year-old.”

He added, “I don’t know if she’s carrying a colt or a filly but obviously I am praying it’s a filly. I would love to keep a filly out of her. I try to keep all the fillies and it’s an exception if I bring a filly to the sales.

“I have four daughters and three granddaughters out of Casandra Go and we have a few fillies on the ground. I will keep those and race them.”

And while Stewart, along with James Hanly of Ballyhimikin Stud, who boards all of his mares, clearly adopt a professional approach and are following a proven strategy to success in the ring and on the racetrack, nothing will dissuade the renowned owner-breeder from believing that anything other than luck can be attributed to the success.

He said, “It’s really all down to luck. Even the way I have covered Tickled Pink has been lucky. You would think that going to Frankel, Dark Angel and Shamardal would do the trick for her. Now, Saxon Warrior is looking like he will be an above-average stallion, but it’s funny that a first-season sire is the one to get the mare off the ground.”

For all of his good fortune, Stewart admits that he was a little miffed at the price tag that Victoria Road made at Book 1 at Tattersalls last year. He says the fact that the mare could have been viewed as disappointing may have contributed to the colt making just 115,000gns to MV Magnier, not that he’s complaining.
BOHERGUY STUD STARS AT GOFFS AUTUMN YEARLING SALE

Clare Manning’s Boherguy Stud supplied the Day 1 session-topper of the Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale on Wednesday in the shape of a Dawn Approach (Ire) colt who was knocked down to Alex Elliott for €80,000. Lot 458 is a brother to the Group 3-placed Strapped (Ire) and was not the only big result Manning enjoyed on the day. Another son of the 2000 Guineas winner, lot 441, made €50,000 to BBA Ireland while Boherguy Stud would have collected a clean sweep had the Castlebridge Consignment not sold its Sea The Stars (Ire) filly [lot 408] for €60,000 to MC Bloodstock.

In the end, Boherguy Stud had to settle for filling three of the top four slots on the day after selling a Due Diligence colt [lot 257] to BBA Ireland for €46,000. Boherguy Stud sold 12 yearlings for an aggregate of €250,500, averaging out at €20,875 per lot, and ended the day as the leading consignor.

Manning said, "Dawn Approach is not the most commercial sire but it’s great to see that granddad [Jim Bolger] is being rewarded for having faith with him. He had Poetic Flare last year (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) last year and getting a sales-topper today. Dawn Approach stood in Kildangan for a few seasons but granddad took him back to Redmonstown and it’s paying off. "I know we always say that you need to have sire power but, if you don’t have the physical, you are going nowhere. Today’s top lot is a beautiful horse, very athletic and he’d a great walk. We would have had no problem taking him home if we had to. He’s definitely going to be a racehorse."

She added, "Placing them in the right sales is half the battle. This sale was very strong last year and there were a lot of foreign buyers there, which is great for the bottom end of the market. But at the same time, you had all the good judges there today as well, and Alex Elliott bought our top lot while Mick Donohoe bought the other."

The successful trade capped an emotional few days for the Manning family after Kevin Manning, Clare’s father, announced his retirement after riding Vocal Studies (Ire) (Vocalised) to victory at Galway on Monday. "Dad’s retirement was big news on Monday," Manning concluded. "I know it’s a bit of a cliche, but it was great for him to go out in one piece first and foremost and for him to ride a winner was even better. It was a fairytale ending and even..."
Tamso Doyle and Amber O’Grady launched the Glamour & Glory Racing Syndicate at Goffs this week. They secured two fillies, via BBA Ireland, on Day 1. Lot 329 by Mehmas for €33,000 & Lot 220 by Camacho for €16,500.

There were 191 lots sold on Wednesday for an aggregate of €1,813,400 and trade continues on Thursday at 10am.

SEA THE MOON HEADS LANWADES ROSTER AT £25,000

Sea The Moon (Ger), sire of recent G1 Caulfield Cup winner Durston (GB), will remain at £25,000 at Kirsten Rausing’s Lanwades Stud in Newmarket for 2023.

The G1 Prix du Jockey Club winner Study Of Man (Ire) will have his first runners on the track next season and his fee has also remained static at £12,500. Bobby’s Kitten, who surged to success in the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint this time eight years ago when beating No Nay Never, has had his price trimmed slightly to £6,000 (from £7,000).

Completing the roster is Sir Percy (GB), sire of Group/Grade 1 winners in Australia and America. The former British champion juvenile and 2006 Derby winner is rising 20 and his fee for 2023 is listed as private.

Wednesday’s Results:
2nd-Kempton, £9,900, Novice, 11-2, 2yo, f, 7f (AWT), 1:27.26, st/sl.

DANCING GODDESS (IRE) (f, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Winter Lightning {Ire} {SW & GSP-UAE, GSP-Eng, $249,076}, by Shamardal), sent off the 7-4 favourite, needed rousing along from the break to gain a prominent position. Taking control approaching the furlong pole, the bay asserted to register a 1 1/2-length success from Naxos (GB) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}). The dam, whose son of Iffraaj (GB) is due to sell at the upcoming Tattersalls December Foal Sale, is a half to the G1 Nunthorpe S. and G3 King George S. heroine La Cucaracha (GB) (Piccolo {GB}).

Sales history: 32,000gns Ylg 21 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $4,216.
O/B-Godolphin (IRE); T-Roger Varian.

3rd-Kempton, £9,900, Novice, 11-2, 2yo, f, 7f (AWT), 1:28.20, st/sl.

VIA CORONE (IRE) (f, 2, Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Pietrapiore {Ire}, by Dubawi {Ire}), sent off the 10-11 favourite, raced on the front end from the outset. Putting down her marker with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the bay asserted to score by 2 1/4 lengths from Edith Rigby (GB) (Showcasing {GB}). The dam, whose filly foal by Belardo (Ire), is a full-sister to Monterosso (GB) who captured the G1 Dubai World Cup and G2 King Edward VII S. They are out of the G1 Coolmore Filly & Mare Classic heroine Porto Roca (Aus) (Baratheon {Ire}), who is also the second dam of the G1 William Reid S. winner Silent Sedition (Aus) (War Chant).

Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $6,138.
O/B-Godolphin (IRE); T-Charlie Appleby.

4th-Kempton, £6,800, Novice, 11-2, 2yo, 8f (AWT), 1:43.57, st/sl.

TYNDRUM GOLD (GB) (g, 2, Muhaarar {GB}--La Napoule {GB}, by Piccolo {GB}), a 17-2 shot on this debut, raced prominently from the break. Shaken up to take a narrow lead passing the two-furlong pole, the bay asserted to register a 1 1/2-length success from Naxos (GB) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}). The dam, whose son of Iffraaj (GB) is due to sell at the upcoming Tattersalls December Foal Sale, is a half to the G1 Nunthorpe S. and G3 King George S. heroine La Cucaracha (GB) (Piccolo {GB}).

Wednesday’s Results:
3rd-Dundalk, €16,000, Mdn, 11-2, 2yo, 6fT, 1:13.81, st.
QUEEN MAEDBH (IRE) (f, 2, Gleneagles {Ire}--Euthenia {GB}, by Winker Watson {GB}), second on debut over seven furlongs at Leopardstown July 14, shadowed the leader Catherine Of Siena (Ire) (U S Navy Flag) throughout the early stages. Always travelling better of the duo, the 4-6 favourite was allowed her head approaching the furlong pole en route to a comfortable 2 3/4-length success. “He said she travelled the whole way around there, that she picked up nicely and it was just hands and heels,” assistant trainer Brendan Powell said of the former Gavin Cromwell trainee. “She has had a long break since we got her and I don’t know if there is anything more for her here. At home she would be very relaxed and it is hard to gauge what she is but, without a doubt, she definitely showed a lot more speed on the track than she does at home.” Cont. p11
The dam is kin to three black-type performers headed by the G2 Prix de Sandringham winner and G1 Sun Chariot S. third Laugh Out Loud (GB) (Clodovil {Ire}) who in turn produced the GI San Marcos S. and G3 Gallinule S. winner Platinum Warrior (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Also related to the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte winner Plainchant (Fr) (Gregorian {Ire}), her yearling colt Zweig (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) was a €130,000 private purchase at Arqana Deauville August while her colt foal by Blue Point (Ire) is catalogued in the Goffs November Sale. Sales history: €15,000 Ylg ’21 GOFOR; 25,000gns 2yo ’22 TATBRG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $14,257.

CARRACCI (c, 2, Quality Road--Butterflies {Ire} {MGSP-Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), fifth on debut behind stablemate and TDN Rising Star Paddington (GB) (Siyouni {Fr})) over this trip at The Curragh Oct. 13, tracked the leader in second from the break. In front two out, the 6-1 shot asserted to score by 3 1/2 lengths from Lady Frasquita (Fr) (Iffraaj {GB}). The winner is the second of two foals out of the unraced dam, who is a granddaughter of the G2 Diadem S. scorer Nice One Clare (Ire) (Mishriff). Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, i26,000.
