BREEDERS’ CUP WEEKEND READY FOR TAKE-OFF! by Steve Sherack

LEXINGTON, KY – Led by unbeaten sensation Flightline (Tapit), the 39th Breeders’ Cup World Championships—consisting of 14 races with purses and awards totaling more than $31 million—return to Keeneland for a third time with a two-day run beginning Friday.

Sunny skies and temperatures in the mid-70s—does it get any better than that?—are expected for the ‘Future Stars Friday’ program. Cave Rock (Arrogate) will put his unbeaten mark on the line for Bob Baffert in the Juvenile while Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke) headlines a wide-open renewal of the Juvenile Fillies. Cont. p4

There will also be a trio of Breeders’ Cup grass races for 2-year-olds with Godolphin's European invader Silver Knott (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) leading the way in the featured Juvenile Turf.

Some of the top storylines for Saturday’s absolutely stacked program--there’s currently a 40% chance of afternoon showers in the forecast--include: Flightline's quest for glory in the $6-million Classic; a showdown between Todd Pletcher-trained stablemates Malathaat (Curlin) and Nest (Curlin) in the Distaff; War Like Goddess (English Channel) taking on the boys in the Turf; the unexpected return of the talented Domestic Spending (GB) (Kingman {GB}) off a 14-month layoff in the Mile; and Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) shooting for a third win at the Championships in the Turf Sprint.

The Breeders’ Cup will be televised live domestically on NBC, Peacock, USA Network, and FanDuel TV.

THURSDAY’S BREEDERS' CUP REPORT: FLIGHTLINE KICKSTARTS STAR-STUDDED MORNING

It was another strong showing from Flightline on a chilly Thursday morning at Keeneland | Coady

by Steve Sherack
LEXINGTON, KY - With Keeneland's illuminated grandstand apron already beginning to fill up, Breeders' Cup weekend's main attraction Flightline (Tapit) once again kickstarted training hours with another spirited 1 1/4-mile gallop just after 6 a.m. After having a quarter crack patched on Wednesday, fellow Classic runner and future Airdie stallion Happy Saver (Super Saver) returned to the track for light training shortly thereafter. The Steve Asmussen-trained duo of Gunite (Gun Runner) (Dirt Mile) and champion sprinter Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music) made a big impression beneath the lights as temperatures hovered in the mid-40s.

Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}), one of three entered for Chad Brown in the Filly & Mare Turf, was on her toes nicely while entering.

The unbeaten Florida-bred and Eclipse private purchase Atomically (Girvin) stood patiently while taking in the action alongside a stable pony. Fellow Juvenile Fillies runner Chop Chop (City of Light) emerged from the fog at the top of the stretch and continued on with a good-looking gallop.

Epicenter (Not This Time) continues to give off all the right vibes ahead of Saturday’s $6-million centerpiece.

Forte (Violence) (Juvenile) and Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke) (Juvenile Fillies), both out for training in Todd Pletcher's 7 a.m. set, could kickstart a huge weekend for owner Mike Repole on the 'Future Stars Friday' card. ICYMI, click here for more on Repole’s 'Dream Season.' Cont. p6

The stars continued to roll out following the break, and so did the fog, right on cue for the 8:07 a.m. sunrise.

Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert was spotted in the stands as his unbeaten Juvenile morning-line favorite Cave Rock (Arrogate) (Juvenile) and Classic contender Taiba (Gun Runner) were trackside.

It could be a Breeders' Cup to remember for leading sire and 2007 Classic winner Curlin, who will be very well-represented at this year’s Championships. Is there a more magnificent-looking duo to watch train than his Dirt Mile morning-line favorite Cody’s Wish and last year’s champion 3-year-old filly Malathaat?

The mighty Curlin is also the sire of fellow Distaff standouts Nest and Clairiere; Elite Power (Sprint); Raging Sea (Juvenile Fillies); and Obligatory (F/M Sprint).

Godolphin and Charlie Appleby look poised for another big showing this weekend after last year’s three-win performance at Del Mar.

Returning Juvenile Turf winner and Mile morning-line favorite Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and imposing Turf duo Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and Rebel’s Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) all seemed to be enjoying the brisk conditions as the fog finally began to lift as training hours approached the wire.

Pair of Early Scratches Announced...

Hot Peppers (Khozan) has been scratched from the Filly & Mare Sprint and Informative (Bodemeister) has been scratched from the Dirt Mile, according to the Breeders' Cup racing office per the veterinarians.

SELECTIONS FOR BREEDERS' CUP FRIDAY

by Steve Sherack

TDN's Senior Editor Steve Sherack reveals his selections for the 'Future Stars Friday' Breeders' Cup card.

Race 3: Alw---#11 Marsalis (6-5)

Have been sky high on Marsalis since his debut second (Second Chances Series) and subsequent 'Rising Star' win earlier this year. The layoff was, of course, a cause for concern, but he ran a huge one off the bench racing on a hot pace and finishing second behind big-figure repeat winner Run Classic. Take what they give you and let's get 'Future Stars Friday' started with a winner.

Race 6: GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint---#2 Love Reigns (Ire) (4-1)

Wesley Ward will lead over a serious filly in Love Reigns (Ire) while seeking a fourth straight win in the Juvenile Turf Sprint. There’s obviously a ton of speed in here. But it feels like you still want to be able to sit close and have that necessary burst when it matters. And she does. She's drawn inside just like in her two previous wins, including a freakish debut score over this course in the spring. Will be hammering home exactas/trifectas with intriguing turnbacks #9 Sharp Aza Tack (15-1) and #7 Oxymore (8-1).

Race 7: GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies---#7 Chop Chop (4-1)

In a race where the pace held together extremely well, Chop Chop came from a mile out of it after a slow start to just miss by a nose over this same course and distance while making her dirt debut in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. A major player here--especially with a better break--at hopefully a higher offering than her morning-line quote. Cont. p8

Race 8: GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf--#4 Free Look (5-1)
Third on debut with an impossible trip, Free Look unleashed an eye-catching turn of foot to graduate with authority for Chad Brown at Saratoga. The dynamics of the GII Miss Grillo S., featuring only six horses and run over a yielding going, certainly didn't do her any favors, getting forced into a stalking trip from second. Drawn well on the inside here, she should get every chance to sit and kick. Fellow impressive Saratoga graduate #13 Xigera (8-1) interests me for underneath at a nice number despite the high draw.

Race 10: GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf--#4 Silver Knott (GB) (3-1) & #6 Andthewinneris (5-1)
Big field, plenty of speed signed on and the stage will be set for a showdown. The Charlie Appleby-trained Silver Knott (GB) is drawn well on the inside and well deserving of top billing off his visually impressive G3 Solario win and narrow victory in a key renewal of the G3 Autumn S. Spectacular GII Bourbon S. hero Andthewinneris, meanwhile, is two-for-two at Keeneland and couldn't have been any more impressive when allowed to drop back and make one big run. An exacta box with those two is the play for me.

WHO LOOKS GOOD: TRACKSIDE IMPRESSIONS FROM THE BREEDERS’ CUP

By Christie DeBernardis

LEXINGTON, KY—Over the past few days that I’ve been in Lexington, I’ve been asked the same question quite a few times by friends and family who are not in attendance. “Who looks good?”

So, I decided I’d share my opinions on who has stood out this week with our TDN readers as well. Quick disclaimer: I have not seen every single Breeders’ Cup horse, but I have seen many of them.

It is the World Championships, so, of course, every horse here looks fantastic. This list is just a few of the horses who have really caught my eye in the mornings based on physical condition, mental composure and/or movement over the racetrack. It is purely based on trackside impressions, not on past performances.

• FLIGHTLINE (Tapit) - Classic

As expected, the unbeaten sensation Flightline looks as good as he runs. I had the privilege of watching the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic favorite grow up from the time he was a young foal until he sold at Fasig-Tipton’s Saratoga Sale thanks to his wonderful breeder Jane Lyon. This was the first time I had seen him since the sale and he certainly did not disappoint. Everything about the striking bay just screams athlete. He gobbles up ground in an effortless manner and the only indication of the amount of pure force and power being exerted is his rider Juan Leyva’s tight hold and defensive stature in the saddle as he tries to rein in what trainer John Sadler referred to as a hurricane. Flightline is all business both on the track and when touring the barn or paddock. He has the cat-like walk all bloodstock agents and paddock analysts look for and never turned a hair despite the throng of media following his every move all week. In short, Flightline is exactly as advertised. Cont. p10

- MALATHAAT (Curlin) - Distaff
  To sum it up in one word, Malathaat is a queen. She oozes class in everything she does. Between her big white blaze, beautiful physical and eager gallop, the Shadwell colorbearer immediately grabs the attention of anyone in her presence. Trainer Todd Pletcher has been sending her out with the pony this week as rider Amelia Green said the filly knows the race is near and has been ready to roll in the mornings. The bay has been quite pleased with her sidekick and bounds off readily as soon as she is turned free from him. Her perfect record at Keeneland already indicates her love for this surface and she skipped over it with ease each morning.

- NEST (Curlin) - Distaff
  I have had a hard time trying to decide whether I prefer the aforementioned champion Malathaat or her year-younger stablemate Nest, who has been nothing short of phenomenal this year. Unfortunately, seeing them both in the flesh did not help me choose as Nest is also quite eye-catching on the racetrack. If Malathaat is the queen, then Nest is certainly the princess. She bounces out alongside the pony and stands at attention as she waits to be let loose. Once given the signal, the bay leaps into action and coasts long on cruise control. Like her barnmate, Nest could not look any better in flesh, coat or movement.

- CAVE ROCK (Arrogate) - Juvenile

RACING/BROODMARE PROSPECT

GAINESWAY

BRIAN GRAVES 859-621-6270
LAKOTA GIBSON 859-797-7102
He is very good-minded, especially for a 2-year-old who has never raced outside of California. He remained focused as he jogged backwards alongside assistant trainer Jimmy Barnes and kept that focus during his gallops and even during his paddock tour Wednesday. The paddock was full with media awaiting Flightline and Cave Rock strolled along beside his groom like a dog out for a walk, never turning a hair. His calm and cool attitude is reminiscent of his late, great sire. Back to his gallops, the dark bay is very light on his feet and travels over the Keeneland surface quite nicely.

● CARAVEL (Mizzen Mast) - Turf Sprint
While she is a longshot on paper, Caravel could not look better in the mornings. The petite gray travels like a freight train, charging around the Keeneland oval like a mare on a mission with her neck bowed and back nice and round. When I saw her in the paddock later on, Caravel walked along with her head low and relaxed, quite the contrast from her on-track persona.

● MODERN GAMES (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}) - Mile
Modern Games just looks like the happiest horse on the planet. He always has his ears pricked and a very pleasant expression on his face, no matter what he is doing. The chestnut, who seeks his second World Championships win, thunders over the track powerfully, ensuring he is not missed by any onlookers. The European invader’s chestnut coat gleams like a new penny and he is fit as a fiddle.

● REGAL GLORY (Animal Kingdom) - Mile
Regal Glory is just an extremely cool horse in every sense of the word. The flashy chestnut has the presence to match her accomplishments when she enters the track. Cont. p12

REGAL GLORY (Animal Kingdom) - Mile
Training late when the track is quieter, Regal Glory jogs onto the track with enthusiasm every morning, head held high and ears at full attention as she takes in her adoring fans. She sails over the dirt with ease and will only look better on the turf course. The Peter Brant colorbearer is another who could not look better as far as coat and muscle condition.

EPICENTER (Not This Time) - Classic
If his morning appearance is any indication, Epicenter looks ready to rumble. The bay is a big ball of muscle with a gleaming coat to match. The sophomore has been under a snug hold by his rider and/or attached to a pony at his trainer's side each morning, which is an indication of his readiness. Epicenter travels over the track with big, powerful strides and is quite at home over the Lexington oval.

HONORABLE MENTIONS: Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music) (Sprint), Arrest Me Red (Pioneerof the Nile) (Turf Sprint), Laurel River (Into Mischief) (Dirt Mile), Taiba (Gun Runner) (Classic), Atomically (Girvin) (Juvenile Fillies), Forte (Violence) (Juvenile), Order of Australia (Ire) (Australia (GB)) (Mile), Life Is Good (Into Mischief) (Classic) and Andthewinneris (Oscar Performance) (Juvenile Turf).

Channel Maker Back for More

Wachtel Stable, Gary Barber, R. A. Hill Stable and Reeves Thoroughbred Racing’s Channel Maker (English Channel) will be looking to regain his best form while making a record-setting sixth Breeders’ Cup appearance in the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Saturday at Keeneland.

“The owners are very excited to give him an opportunity to run and I think he would be the first to run six times, a record, at the Breeders’ Cup,” said trainer Bill Mott. “How’s he doing? Well, he’s doing fine...he’s doing great...but is he at his best from two years ago? Or has he lost a step at 8-years-old? Perhaps, but we’ll see how the race shapes up.”

The 8-year-old gelding was seventh in the 2016 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf S. and was 11th in the 2018 Turf and 12th in 2019. He had his best finish of championship weekend when third after setting the pace in the 2020 Turf at Keeneland, a result which helped the Ontario-bred earn the Eclipse statue as the country’s leading turf horse. A year ago, he was fifth in the Turf.

Channel Maker opened 2022 with a win in the GII Elkhorn S. and he also won the Grand Couturier S. in July, but he was off the board in the GI Manhattan S., GI Sword Dancer S. and is coming off a fourth-place effort in the Oct. 14 GIII Sycamore S.

“He still ran a good race in his last race and he does love Keeneland,” Mott said. “He was third and was beaten just a half-length in the Breeders’ Cup here and he won the Elkhorn here earlier this year. According to the handicapper, there’s not a tremendous amount of speed in the race and he likes to be up close to the pace. If the pace and situation are right, maybe he can get a piece of it.”

Mott will also be represented in Saturday's Turf by the ultra-consistent War Like Goddess (English Channel), a perfect two-for-two over the Keeneland lawn and coming off a win over the boys in the Oct. 8 GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic S. The George Krikorian colorbearer has nine wins and has finished off the board just once in 12 career starts.

“She’s training well,” Mott said of the 5-year-old mare. “It would be great to win with her.”

WARD SEEKS RECORD FOURTH BREEDERS’ CUP TURF SPRINT WIN

To say that trainer Wesley Ward knows his way around turf sprints is an understatement. To underscore the point, Ward has annexed the last three editions of the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint and will try to add a record fourth consecutive win in the race with Golden Pal (Uncle Mo), Arrest Me Red (Pioneerof the Nile) and Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}).

Adding even great importance to this year’s renewal, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Westerberg Ltd.’s 4-year-old--already a two-time Breeders’ Cup winner following victories in the 2020 GI Shakertown S. and last year’s GI Turf Sprint--will be retiring to Ashford Stud following this weekend’s race. A total of 22 horses have won a pair of Breeders’ Cup races, however, only two--Hall of Fame members, Goldikova and Beholder--have three victories.

As for Ward, he stands in a tie with several other trainers who have won on three occasions in the same race, a victory in the Turf Sprint would make him the first trainer in the 39-year history of the event to win the same race four years in a row.

“I think that says a lot for how I’ve been professing this horse to be so great from the onset,” said Ward. “The only thing that he hasn't done that I wish he could do would be to go back to Royal Ascot and win [G1] The King’s Stand and he won’t get a chance to do that. But, if he can win three Breeders’ Cups, that really puts him in an elite company. That’s for sure.”

Golden Pal kicked off 2022 with a win in the GII Shakertown S. on his home track at Keeneland before missing the break at Royal Ascot in June. In the Aug. 5 GIII Troy S. at Saratoga, Golden Pal got away to a slow start, but showed rallied to win by a head.

“Our plan going in was to take him back. So that kind of helped us a little bit,” recalled Ward. “We want to kind of use that as a prep to if something happened, if in here in the Breeders’ Cup if the pace was hot that we could teach him something how to rate sit back off the pace. So it all worked out. He kind of didn't come out as quickly as he has and after the first 10 jumps Irad [Ortiz Jr] got him to relax. When he turned for home off he went and he won. It all worked out according to what I wanted to teach him.”

In his latest start, the bay led from gate to wire in the Oct. 8 GII Woodford S. to stay perfect in four races at Keeneland.

For his career finale, Golden Pal drew Post eight and is the 2-1 favorite on the morning line.

In contrast to Golden Pal's Breeders' Cup experience, Lael Stable's Arrest Me Red will debut in the Breeders' Cup. In his most recent start, he was third the GII Turf Sprint S. Sept. 10 at Kentucky Downs. He won the GII Turf Sprint S. at Churchill Downs in May and was runner-up in the GI Jaipur S. June 11.

"If I didn't have Golden Pal, I'd be singing his praises," Ward said. "As you can see by his form, he's never runs a bad race. He's a hard-trier, and we're spacing him out. He's a big, heavy colt. Once we switched him back to the grass, he just took to it like a fish to water."

He added, "This is one that we're going to be pointing for Ascot next year, as he'll sort of move up to the top. We'll be looking at The King's Stand with him next year. So, we're gonna keep him here in Kentucky. In years past, we've taken him to Florida. He's really training very, very well. I'd be looking for him to run a big, big race."

Hall of Fame jockey John Velazquez returns to the saddle. The two, leaving from post 7, are 15-1 on the morning line.

Rounding out Ward's trio is Stonestreet Stables' Campanelle hit the board in all three starts this term, including wins in the Giant's Causeway S. and Gill Ladies' Sprint S. The winner of the G1 Prix Morny and G2 Queen Mary S. last year, she also finished third in the G1 Platinum Jubilee S. earlier in June.

Jockey Frankie Detorri, who rode her to her wins in Europe, will be aboard in the Turf Sprint. They will leave from post four and are 8-1 on the morning line.

"She is coming into the race phenomenal," said Ward. "I am expecting a lot from her as well. The thing about her is that she is going to come from just slightly off the pace to where if it's a hot pace up front she's going to come running."--@CBossTDN

BOBBY FLAY’S PIZZA BIANCA OFFERS A WHITE-HOT PEDIGREE AT NIGHT OF THE STARS

by Sue Finley

Bobby Flay has always been content to settle for a bit of slow cooking when it comes to his Thoroughbred breeding program, but this particular project probably took a little longer than even the patient chef and restaurateur expected.

Flay purchased the yearling filly White Hot (Ire) for 1,250,000 guineas at the 2014 Tattersalls October sale on the advice of his late bloodstock agent James Delahooke. Eight years later, he figures to be paid back, with interest, when her Breeders’ Cup-winning daughter Pizza Bianca (Fastnet Rock {Aug}) sells with Elite Sales as hip 225 at the Fasig-Tipton November sale as a racing or broodmare prospect.

In excellent form again after an unsuccessful trip to Royal Ascot this summer, Pizza Bianca was most recently a fast-closing fourth in the GII Sands Point S., where her trainer Christophe Clement said he felt she might have run the best race of the field.

“She’s doing very well now in the fall,” said Clement, who pronounced himself unhappy with the way she trained at Ascot. “And even if she got beat, she actually ran a very good race the other day, finishing fourth in a Grade II at Aqueduct. If you believe in numbers, she might have run the best number in the race. And I’m absolutely thrilled. I mean, she’s she’s really, really doing well in the fall. And she seems to be responding to the cooler weather very well.”

Pizza Bianca was Clement’s first Breeders’ Cup winner, but she had already stamped herself as special before that time, he said.

“She’s been very special from day one, largely because of her pedigree,” he said. “And she’s got a remarkable pedigree. It’s fun because obviously if you train for Bobby, you have access to some of the best pedigrees in the world, and it’s very rare for a trainer to be able to train that kind of quality.”

White Hot’s dam Gwynn (Ire) also produced 2011 Epsom Derby winner Pour Moi (Ire), himself a sire of a Derby winner in Wings of Eagles. She is also the dam to the graded stakes winner and Dawn Patrol and to the multiple-graded-stakes winning and GI stakes-placed Gagnoa (Ire).

Fasig-Tipton’s Boyd Browning clearly has high expectations for her on Nov. 6.

“I think the really, really exciting thing about Pizza Bianca is the unbelievable pedigree that she possesses,” he said. “Obviously, we’re talking about a filly that won the Breeders’ Cup as a two-year-old in a very, very impressive fashion. But just from a pedigree standpoint, her page is an amazing collection of the who’s who of the last half-century. She’s by Fastnet Rock, who truly was really one of the first legitimate international star sires. He’s been a great stallion in Australia and Europe and really embodies a lot of the characteristics that are so important in racing and breeding around the world. He’s a son of Danehill, whose influence has been really, really dramatic. She’s out of a Galileo (Ire) mare, so you have the combination of Sadler’s Wells. You’ve got the influence of Mr. Prospector in the pedigree. You’ve got Danzig, you’ve got Darshaan. It’s like you took the best names of the stud book over the last 50 years. And she’s got them all.”

What’s more, said Browning, she has a precocity that her page might not suggest.

“Her pedigree wouldn’t scream ‘brilliant at two’ at you,” said Browning. “It’s a classic-type pedigree. And to see the ability that she demonstrated and the precocity that she demonstrated as a two-year-old really reflects the quality and the depth of the pedigree. It really indicates just how talented Pizza Bianca is.”

Pizza Bianca broke her maiden at Saratoga in July of her two-year-old season, and followed that up with a second-place finish in the GI Natalma S. At Woodbine. Sent off at 9-1 in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf in her third start, she was expected to stalk the pace, but ended up last early and wove her way through the field to get up for a half-length win. Put away for the winter, she was second in her three-year-old debut in a Listed stakes at Aqueduct, won the Hilltop S. on Preakness Day as the odds-on favorite, and then went to Ascot, where she was eighth in the GI Coronation S.

“I was not thrilled with the way she trained in England,” said Clement. “I didn't think she trained as well as she has done in America. And I'm not actually 100% sure why. I just didn’t think she showed the same level of energy, and she ran a tad out of form, and it took us a while to get her back.”

But back she is, he said, offering a buyer a lot of upside.

“I don’t think she can look much better than what she does at the moment,” he said. “She’s very good looking. She's average size, powerful, very deep shoulder, very strong hind leg. She's not at all small, but she's not overly big. She's just perfectly balanced with a gorgeous head. She’s doing great temperament-wise. She’s very straightforward. She enjoys the training. And she’s actually pretty easy to train.”

Browning pointed out that Pizza Bianca’s dam, White Hot, is still only nine years old, and as such, figures to burnish the family pedigree page a lot more before it’s all over.

“Pizza Bianca is White Hot’s first foal,” he said. “And to be able to produce a Breeders Cup winner as your first foal is tremendous. The pipeline is loaded and will continue to expand. She’s got an absolutely beautiful Uncle Mo yearling on the ground that I think Bobby intends to race. He was a spectacular individual that we saw at Stone Farm earlier this year and I absolutely loved him physically. She also has a weanling colt on the ground by Not This Time. She's in foal to Into Mischief on an early cover date for 2022, and she's booked to Into Mischief again for 2023.”

Says Clement, “She’s a Grade I winner from a Grade I family, which is a huge deal. She's sound, she's a gorgeous-looking filly, so you could have fun with her as a four-year-old and then retire her as a broodmare prospect to give her a chance to become the mare she is supposed to be. To breed her to the stallion that she's supposed to get to.”

Both Clement and Browning agreed that Pizza Bianca was emblematic of the type of horse that Flay’s breeding program is now producing.

“Bobby Flay is becoming in the States what Gerald Leigh used to be England,” said Clement. “A small number of mares, but just the best.”

Added Browning, “When you look at Pizza Bianca, she epitomizes what Bobby Flay’s commitment is to the industry and what he’s trying to accomplish as a breeder. He has been a collector of some of the finest pedigrees in the world. Bobby is trying to compete at the highest level and is trying to produce the very best racehorses. He’s got a collection of broodmares that is truly amazing. And the success that he’s had as a breeder and as an owner epitomizes what the dream is about. It’s his passion. It’s his love for the game, his love for the horse. And we’re all fortunate that he has this passion for the Thoroughbred business. And we hope he continues to have great successes as both a breeder and as an owner.”

Sadler joins the TDN Writers’ Room

With the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic nearing, John Sadler is, as you might expect, feeling pretty good about his superstar Flightline (Tapit). Zoe Cadman caught up with Sadler, this week’s Green Group Guest of the Week on the TDN Writers’ Room podcast, brought to you by Keeneland.

When asked about Flightline’s works leading up to the Breeders’ Cup, Sadler commented: “He’s such a good worker. You’ve seen so many of his works and they’re all published. He’s capable of doing anything in the morning, but he went very well over the track (at Keeneland). Then there’s the way he comes back out of it. He’s not drawing a breath. So we feel pretty good about his conditioning.”

In his five career races Flightline has been perfect, which, Sadler noted, isn’t always the way it goes, even with good horses.

“It’s been it’s been a good journey,” the trainer said. “It’s not always that way with horses; it’s not always a straight line. We obviously wanted to have another start this year. That didn’t happen. We really wanted to win the Met Mile. We think that’s a stallions’ race. The Pacific Classic is our biggest race in Southern California and a race that I love and the ownership loves. So we’re hitting our marks. One more to go.”

Sadler was relieved that the forecast for Saturday is calling for clear skies.

“The weather’s going to be nice for the big weekend,” he said. “I’m happy about that. I don’t have to look at the weather app 20 times a day. The track was beautiful this morning.”

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by Coolmore, XBTV, Three Chimneys, West Point Thoroughbreds and the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, panelists Cadman, Randy Moss, and Bill Finley previewed all 14 Breeders’ Cup races and gave their picks. And, no, no one dared pick against Flightline in the Classic. All three also picked Cave Rock (Arrogate) in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile. But their best bet, based on the odds, is Laurel River (Into Mischief) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile. He’s 9-2 in the morning line and the pick of all three.

Moss and Finley picked against heavy favorite Jackie’s Warrior (Maclean’s Music) in the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint, noting that he disappointed at odds-on in each of the last two Breeders’ Cups. Moss went with Elite Power (Curlin) and Finley tabbed the mare Kimari (Munnings). Cadman went with Jackie’s Warrior on top, but said she also gives Elite Power, the winner of the GII Vosburgh S. in his stakes debut, a big shot. Moss will also try to beat the morning-line favorite in the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf, Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}), saying he has some misgivings about her jockey, Hollie Doyle.

PHIPPS BLOODLINES HAVE MAJOR INFLUENCE AT THE BC

By B. Jason Brooks

Thoroughbred Daily News columnist and pedigree expert Sid Fernando wrote in July that “through the years there have been many beneficiaries of Phipps breeding... These families have given past and present breeders a deep foundation on which to build upon and create their own top-class horses, and that is one of the important legacies of the Phippses.”

Fernando was right, and the success of the Phipps female families has continued, as evidenced by graded stakes wins this year, Grade I and Group 1 wins globally, and the large number of Breeders’ Cup entries with Phipps bloodlines.

Through the first 10 months of this year, horses from Phipps female families have won 36 graded stakes races in the U.S. and Canada, with 13 of them having Phipps mares among their first three dams. Seven of them, including Flightline, have won Grade I races.

The influence of the Phipps female families is also being experienced globally, with 15 Grade I or Group 1 wins this year. Seven of them have occurred outside of North America, with Group 1 wins in England, Australia, Argentina, Brazil, and Chile (all “top tier” Part I countries as identified by the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities).

In addition to the female families, Phipps-bred sires Mr Speaker, Point of Entry, and Pure Prize have been represented this year by four graded stakes winners in the U.S. and one in Japan, with the most notable being multiple graded-stakes winning millionaire Lotus Land (Point of Entry).

This influence is further evident in the pedigrees for the 177 Breeders’ Cup entries at the 2022 Breeders’ Cup World Championships in which 15 entries are from Phipps female families and three sired by Phipps-bred stallions. These 18 horses with Phipps bloodlines make up more than 10% of all Breeders’ Cup entries. And this influence is spread throughout the Friday and Saturday cards, with 13 of the 14 races featuring one or more horses with Phipps bloodlines.

The Phipps female family tracing back to foundation La Troienne mare Baby League has an impressive seven entries. They include two-time Breeders’ Cup champion Golden Pal (Uncle Mo), Grade I winners Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke), Forte (Violence), Lady Speightspeare (Speightstown), and Shirl’s Speight (Speightstown), and graded stakes-placed Be Your Best (Ire) (Muhaarar [GB]) and Shoplifter (Super Saver).

Eight other Phipps female families will also be represented. The Phipps family tracing back to foundation mare Lady Pitt will be represented by Flightline (Tapit), the family of Marguerite de Valois (Fr) by 2021 Breeders’ Cup champion Aloha West (Hard Spun), the family of Belle Histoire by Stone Age (Ire) (Galileo [Ire]), the family of Big Hurry by Flash of Mischief (Into Mischief), the family of Businesslike by Mo Stash (Mo Town), the family of Dorine (Arg) by Major Dude (Bolt d’Oro), the family of Miss Disco by Mise En Scene (GB) (Siyouni [Fr]), and the family of Ten Cents a Dance by Chain of Love (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry [Jpn]).

Phipps-bred sires are represented by three entries, including Three Technique (Mr Speaker), O Besos (Orb), and multiple graded-stakes winner Red Knight (Pure Prize).

This banner year on the track is coupled with an impressive seven yearlings from Phipps female families who have sold for $1 million or more in the U.S. and Australia. And at the upcoming Fasig-Tipton and Keenland sales--both of which feature multiple broodmares from Phipps families--the demand for Phipps bloodlines will be on full display.

DELCID WINS WHITE HORSE AWARD

RTCA honored Nery Delcid with their White Horse Award at a ceremony Tuesday evening for bravely preventing a fire from spreading at Churchill Downs. The fire in one of the stalls was set by someone in the barn during the night and Delcid acted quickly by calling 911, dousing the flames and calling security. He alerted the workers who were sleeping in the barn and together they helped control the fire. Thanks to his quick actions, there was no significant damage, and no human or horse was injured.

They also awarded Shannon Kelly from the Jockey Club Safety Net with the RTCA Community Service Award. In a video, Chaplains from race tracks across the country thanked Kelly for her dedication to the industry, specifically naming examples of how she was so instrumental in serving the backstretch community during the pandemic.

ALL OTHER FAVORED IN KY DERBY POOL 1

Six months in advance of GI Kentucky Derby 149, the pari-mutuel field of “All Other Colts and Geldings” closed as the odds-on 4-5 favorite in Pool 1 of the Kentucky Derby Future Wager (KDFW) and impressive debut winner 'TDN Rising Star' Extra Anejo (Into Mischief) was the 12-1 second choice.

Other horses who attracted mild interest include GISWs Forte (Violence) (16-1) and Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) (20-1).

Magical Song (outside) at Saratoga | Sarah Andrew

2nd-KEE, $150k, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 12:30 p.m. ET
Conditioner Brad Cox will have the honor of being the first to send out the offspring of Songbird to post as MAGICAL SONG (Tapit) is slated to debut here on the Breeders’ Cup ‘Stars of Tomorrow’ undercard. Out of the aforementioned Champion 2- and 3-year-old filly, she will be the first to the races for the half-sister to the dam of GSW Mico Margarita (Run Away and Hide), beating out 3-year-old half-sister Song Gate (Arrogate) to the blocks; the latter would end up not making it to the track as announced earlier this year by Timber Town Stables. The black type in the pedigree runs heavily under the third dam Beaty Sark (Deputy Minister), who is responsible for no fewer than 17 graded stakes and stakes-quality runners within two generations of her. Magical Song, carrying the colors of her breeder Whisper Hill Farm, will break one off the rail for this baby dash over the main track. TJCIS PPs

$375,000 KEESEP procurement Guns n’ Graces (Gun Runner) from the rail in this mile debut. Out of the graded stakes-winning half-sister to GSW Level Playingfield (Level Sands), the filly also has a placed 3-year-old half-brother Lead Actor (Candy Ride {Arg}). TJCIS PPs

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
3rd-Churchill Downs, $84,786, Msw, 11-3, 2yo, 1m, 1:37.10, ft, 4 3/4 lengths.
FREEZING POINT (c, 2, Frosted—Happy Motoring, by Harlan’s Holiday) closed to be third debuting against auction price-restricted company here Sept. 23 and backed up to finish eighth against straight maidens last out Oct. 13 at Keeneland. Back in with the former company at 6-1 here, the gray posted up outside in a close-up third through splits of :23.22 and :46.59, swept to the front early on the turn and drew clear down the lane for a convincing 4 3/4-length graduation. Giroovin (Girvin) completed the exacta. The winner’s dam, a half to GISW Regally Ready (More Than Ready), has a yearling Catholic Boy colt and was bred to Cairo Prince this spring. Godolphin will unveil their latest filly with an enviable pedigree: a half-sister to Scat Daddy named ACCIDENTAL ICON (Into Mischief). In addition to the multiple Grade I winner, she also claims GISP Antipathy (A.P. Indy), SW Grand Daddy (Johannesburg), and SW Lovestruck (Tapit) as half-relations as well as the dam of MGSP Classic Fit (Bernardini). Second dam Likeable Style was a Grade I winner who produced MSP Grat (A.P. Indy), herself the dam of GSW Old Time Hockey (Smarty Jones). CHP Racing and Chad Brown team up here to send out

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Tokyo and Hanshing Racecourses. Group 1 racing in Japan takes the week off, but four events at Group 2 and Group 3 level are programmed, including the stakes debut of an expensive and promising OBS March acquisition:

U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

Saturday, November 5, 2022

11th-TOK, Keio Hai Nisai S.-G2, ¥72m ($486k), 2yo, 1400mT

FROM DUSK (c, 2, Bolt d’Oro–Foolish Cause, by Giant’s Causeway) overcame driving rain and easy ground to graduate first time out over 1200 meters Sept. 3 (video, SC 6), but hopped at the start of his first go against winners Sept. 24, was checked on the backstretch and never reached contention. A $200,000 Keeneland September yearling, the half-brother to SW Foolish Humor caught the eye at this year’s OBS March Sale and was knocked down to Hideyuki Mori for $900,000. The colt’s dam is a half-sister to the late MGISW Get Stormy (Stormy Atlantic).

Sunday, November 6, 2022

2nd-HSN, ¥9,900,000 ($67k), Maiden, 2yo, 1400m

DIXIE GUNNER (c, 2, Gun Runner–Dixie Crisp, by Dixieland Band) is one of seven to race from his late stakes-placed dam, who has also produced SW & GSP Southern Freedom (Pure Prize), SW Reconstruction (Broken Vow) and GSP Epic Dreamer (Orb). A $150,000 purchase by Paca Paca Farm out of the 2020 Keeneland November Sale, the Mar. 8 foal was a sound second on debut going this distance at Chukyo Sept. 18 and retains the services of Breeders’ Cup-winning jockey Yuga Kawada.

B-J Stuart, P C Bance, AR Enterprises & George Todaro (KY)

9th-TOK, ¥19,530,000 ($133k), Allowance, 2yo, 2000mT

MEINER VISION (JPN) (c, 2, Oscar Performance–Songoficeandfire, by Dynaformer) was a highly promising third when debuted over nine furlongs of this turf course June 25 and improved for the experience to graduate going the same distance when last seen at Fukushima July 24 (video, SC 11). The bay gets an extra eighth of a mile to work with Sunday and is bred to relish it, as his dam—who was acquired for $200,000 with this colt in utero at Keeneland January in 2020—was Grade III-placed at 11 and 12 furlongs on the turf. Songoficeandfire is a half-sister to Antonius Pius (Danzig), a Group 2 winner in Ireland and placed three times at the top level, including the 2004 GI Breeders’ Cup Mile at Lone Star Park.

TAPETA FARM FOR SALE
Former home to Da Hoss and 8 Grade One winners.

Even after 2 inches of rain, the going on NOAH’S ARK Turf Track is good, thanks to its world class drainage system.

Even after several weeks of hot weather and no rain the DROUGHT Track is perfect.

The NORMAL Weather Track rides well in normal weather.

BOOMER’S HILL Turf Track, for conditioning, is 5 1/2 Furlongs long, 120 feet wide rising 60 feet.

The main TAPETA Track is 7 furlongs with 1 turn, up a steady incline of 50 feet.

The ROUND track is Tapeta.

Equine Veterinary Journal published an independent, refereed paper “Analysis of Stress Fractures Associated with Lameness in Thoroughbred Flat Racehorse Training on Different Track Surfaces” over a 10 year period involving 1075 Thoroughbred racehorses.

- Group A: 27% Fractures
- Group B: 14% Fractures
- Tapeta Farm: 2% Fractures

THE START OF FERGUSON'S JOURNEY

by Chris McGrath

LEXINGTON, KY—On a morning like this, you really couldn’t be anywhere in the world but the Bluegrass: as night faded into dawn, a ghostly mist was exhaled from every swale, only to be burned off as the surrounding pastureland yawned and stretched gratefully beneath a sky of cut-glass brilliance. For one new arrival in Keeneland, however, a degree of disorientation remained wholly pardonable.

Helpfully, James Ferguson had hit a wide-awake phase when coming down to the quarantine barn to supervise the preparations of Mise En Scene (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) for the GI Maker’s Mark Filly and Mare Turf on Saturday. But if his brain had temporarily caught up with his body, after a gruelling journey from Australia the previous day, many subconscious fragments of recollection doubtless remained to be pieced back together once finally succumbing to sleep.

A young man of such palpable ambition might well be tempted to view their reassembly as the work of nightmare sooner than dream. After all, it wasn’t as though there had been merely a fleeting moment when Deauville Legend (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) deceived even neutral observers that he was going to win the G1 Melbourne Cup on Tuesday. Cont. p3

GROUP 1 WINNER BAYSIDE BOY TO STAND AT BALLYLINCH STUD IN 2023

Group 1 winner Bayside Boy (Ire) (New Bay {GB}--Alava {Ire}, by Anabaa) has been retired and will stand at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland in 2023. A fee will be announced in due time for the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. hero and a limited number of shares will be available to breeders.

Bred by Ballylinch and raced by Teme Valley Racing and Ballylinch in partnership, the Roger Varian-trained bay won the G2 Champagne S. as a juvenile and was also third at Group 1 level in both the Dewhurst S. and Vertem Futurity Trophy. A 200,000gns Tattersalls October yearling, he ended his career with a victory in the QEIi on QIPCO British Champions Day and retires with a mark of 10-4-1-2 and $1,001,765 in earnings.

Richard Ryan of Teme Valley said, “Bayside Boy was exceptional yearling and he has given us some of our best days in racing. He was a top-class 2-year-old but it was his brilliant turn of foot that stole the show on Champions Day.” Cont. p6
John Gosden provided an upbeat bulletin on his Breeders’ Cup stars Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) and Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

The Irish Champion Flat Jockey will be Colin Keane for the fourth time and third year in a row when the season concludes at Naas on Sunday.

The two-day Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale ended on Thursday. A filly by Sioux Nation topped day two at €72,000.

He was so insistently drawing the eye, as the first third-quarters of the race began to take its toll on the rest, that it really did seem as though he was going to deliver a stunning success to a stable still in only its third year. Yet in the straight the gelding would be swamped by two closers, and even collared for third in the shadow of the post.

"At the end of the day, he ran a very, very solid race," Ferguson reflects. "He was given a lovely ride, and I’d say the ground was probably just too soft over that trip. It might have been a different story on quicker ground. As it was, when he went to lengthen, his run sort of halted.

"When they came round the bend, and we were travelling so strongly, I did think that we’d just go away and win it. But then you saw Gold Trip (Fr) (Outstrip) behind and it wasn’t a struggle, he came past us very quickly, though I thought Deauville Legend fought on very gamely.

"The price he was given was probably a little unfair, considering he’s only three, had never tried the trip and was probably weighted out of it as well. So I was absolutely thrilled with the way he ran. Of course it would have been great to win, but he ran best of the internationals by a long way."

Fortunately, unlike most of the other shippers, this one will be returning to Ferguson’s new base in Newmarket and promises to mature into an elite force over middle distances.

Even as things stand, however, he has confirmed the exceptional potential of his 32-year-old trainer. Because it’s one thing to send horses round the world in the hope of drawing attention to your emerging business; it’s quite another to have such a precocious sense of their eligibility. Cont. p4

Besides Deauville Legend himself, the 3-year-olds developed by Ferguson this season include El Bodegon (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), his breakout Group 1 winner in France last year and sent back over the Channel to finish runner-up in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. (He was recently beaten under a length on his debut for Chris Waller in the G1 Cox Plate.) Then there's the filly here, already a group winner and definitely considered capable of better than the odds allow. And these have graduated from an intake that initially numbered only 15 or so yearlings.

By knowing rather than guessing that Deauville Legend and El Bodegon were competent for the highest tier, Ferguson not only requires us to take a second look at Mise En Scene. He has quickly shown that he, too, belongs at this level.

And that's no less than one would expect, given his grounding. Forget that his father John can lend such experienced counsel, whether in the stable's recruitment or in such strategic decisions as might warrant a second opinion. By the time he took out a licence, Ferguson had completed a decade of international apprenticeship, absorbing the work of one master after another, from Sir Mark Prescott to Jessica Harrington to Charlie Appleby.

"And for all that I'm a young trainer, we're not a young team," he says. "I've had a lot of help. Obviously Dad's involved in the planning side, and between us we have a lot of experience under our hats. He's always on the end of the phone if needed. But while you try to learn the best bits from all the people you've worked for, it's about finding a mould that fits you. I think you do that very quickly, and now I'm just looking forward, trying to keeping the ball rolling." Cont. p5

Hidden Gems

Every year Goffs November Breeding Stock Sale records top level success when progeny of our graduates win and win. 2022 has been a Classic.

Goffs November Breeding Stock Sale
Friday 18 - Saturday 19 November 2022
Simply Unmissable
That agenda is well served by the return of the stable flagship, who first launched himself into wider attention when unlucky not to win the King George V H. at Royal Ascot. That day Deauville Legend failed by just a head to catch Secret State (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) after being held up in traffic at a critical moment, an exasperating conclusion to an inspired project. The form was comprehensively reversed when the protagonists met again in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York later in the summer.

"Ascot had been the plan from a long way out," Ferguson recalls. "He was very lightly raced, and it was his handicap debut which is a risk from the mentality point of view. But we knew he was okay, and didn't want to blow that handicap mark. It just goes to show, when you see Charlie's horse rated around same as us now, that whereas you could go into that race two years ago 10lbs well in, now you need to be 20lbs well in! Which sounds crazy, but it's true. That's why it needed to be a plan from a long way out. One day we'll get it right, but he thought he'd won and has just kept going forward since."

In viewing Deauville Legend as the type to keep progressing in 2023, Ferguson already has the GI King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. in mind.

"I genuinely think he can be a Group 1 horse," he says. "A lot of those mile-and-a-half horses in England and Ireland are potentially retiring and I think he can be a force to be reckoned with. He's still lightly raced, and has come on huge amounts, mentally. For what I consider quite a hot horse, you wouldn't even have noticed him in the Melbourne Cup preliminaries. He'll be given nice break now but looks the sort that could go to the [G1] Sheema Classic."

As for the business immediately in hand, Ferguson thought enough of Mise En Scene to start off her campaign in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. Disappointing there, she made a promising resumption at Sandown in August and was then only caught in a photo in a listed race at Yarmouth last time.

"Things didn't really go quite right for her earlier in the season," Ferguson acknowledges. "She needed a bit of a regroup after Ireland, wasn't quite right, so we turned her out and she has come back really well: she was running on strongly at Sandown, and I thought she was very unlucky at Yarmouth.

"The experience of running out here last year [beaten four lengths in the GI Juvenile Fillies' Turf at Del Mar] has definitely helped: she's really grown up, she's going round here like a pony. I feel we've got her in absolutely the peak of her condition right now. Despite the odds, I think she'll run very big race. It's a big ask, she's an outsider for a reason, but I don't think run like one." Cont. p6

Once returning from this dazing odyssey, which could nearly be titled "Around the World in 80 Hours", Ferguson will be raring to get a string of around 75 primed for their first campaign out of the Kremlin Cottage yard that previously accommodated Hugo Palmer.

"It’s obviously very exciting," Ferguson says. "We worked really hard at the sales and I hope it’s paid off, we’ve a lot of lovely yearlings and been supported by some great owners. Yes, the stats are pretty good from that group of [2020] yearlings. But I’ve got a good team at home, helping us train, and the buying is obviously very important, too, between Dad and myself and people like Mark McStay. And then we have Qatar [Racing] kindly sending us Mise En Scene. So it’s a massive team effort. It does feel like we’re getting there. If we keep having big runners at meetings like this, then hopefully we will end up with big winners too."

GOSDEN DUO IN GOOD ORDER AHEAD OF BC

Multiple Group 1 winners Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) and Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) are adapting well to Lexington in advance of their Breeders’ Cup engagements on Saturday at Keeneland, according to trainer John Gosden. Aiming for the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Turf, the Prince Faisal colourbearer has won three times at the highest level in France, Dubai and the UK. Mishriff enters off a 13th in deep ground in the G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe. Frankie Dettori was aboard Mishriff, while Hollie Doyle was in the irons for Imad Al Sagar’s Nashwa.

John Gosden, who trains with his son Thady, said, "They’ve travelled well, eaten up and are drinking well and in that sense I couldn’t be more pleased. They were playful on the track this morning, they jogged and then had a solid canter.

"Mishriff is a horse that has suffered from the deep, heavy ground that you get at the end of the year. He tried hard in the Arc, but he couldn’t go on that ground and it will be different here, because we will have fast going which is what he wants. Frankie [Dettori] has been in my ear about coming here all year, as he thinks a mile and a half on an easy track will suit the horse. I am bit concerned what will happen if he is slowly away, should that happen he could pay the price but he has broken well in his last two starts.

"I thought the one race that got away from him was the Eclipse, where if he’d got the rub of the green he would have won." Cont. p7

He added, “I was happy with his run in the Irish Champion where he was a little adrift of his field, but look he’s a tough cookie and a 5-year-old full horse with a good appetite for the game. He loves travelling and he loves new environments, remember he’s been to Saudi three times.”

After running third in the G1 Cazoo Oaks in early June, Nashwa secured Classic laurels with a score in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly later that month and also came home first in Goodwood’s G1 Nassau S. in July. She ran a very good second after just failing to last in the G1 Prix de l’Opera on Arc Day most recently on Oct. 2. She is one of a dozen fillies and mares signed on for the GI Maker’s Mark Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf.

“He’s also very happy with Nashwa, with whom we made the decision after the Diane to wait and give her a holiday before the Nassau and then a gap to the Opera, in which she ran a good race from a horrible draw,” he said. “She’s in good form, looks great in her coat and has Hollie on board who is the first lady rider to win a [European] Classic and a very talented horsewoman who reminds me of Julie Krone with that massive determination.”
AFTER TENSE BATTLE, KEANE TO BE CROWNED IRISH CHAMPION JOCKEY FOR FOURTH TIME

For the third time in the last four years and the fourth time overall, Colin Keane will be named the Irish Champion Flat Jockey when the Irish Flat season ends at Naas on Sunday.

Keane’s title comes after battling with rival Billy Lee for the majority of the season. Keane sits on 90 winners, with Lee second, while the 2020/21 runner-up Shane Foley is third. Wayne Lordan, Ben Coen and Seamie Heffernan are next on the list heading into the weekend. Keane was aboard Westover (GB) (Frankel (GB)) when he won the G1 Irish Derby earlier in the year.

Dylan Browne McMonagle is the Irish Champion Flat Apprentice for the second time, while Aidan O’Brien and Mrs. Sue Magnier are once again the Irish Champion Flat Trainer and Irish Champion Flat Owner, respectively. It was O’Brien’s 25th title, and his best runners captured the G1 Irish Champion S., G1 Irish St Leger, and G1 Phoenix S.

ALFLAILA IN GOOD FORM FOR BAHRAIN TRIP

Owen Burrows trainee Alflaila (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) is pleasing his trainer in advance of a start in the £600,000 G3 Bahrain International Trophy on Friday, Nov. 18. One of 14 left in the 1 1/4-mile contest, the Shadwell homebred is riding a three-race winning streak coming into the contest, having landed a Pontefract listed race in July. Cont. p9

He followed up with the G3 Strensall S. at York a month later, and was last seen running out a 1 1/4-length victor in the G3 Darley S. at Newmarket on Oct. 8.

“‘I’ve been really, really pleased with him since Newmarket,” said Burrows. “He has come out of the race well. We’ve had a couple of quiet weeks with him but are stepping his work up now. He looks great and although we’re coming towards the end of the year, he’s showing me no signs that he has had a hard season. He’s really well.

“We had high hopes for him last year and for whatever reason he didn’t run badly, but he didn’t fulfill what we thought he was potentially going to be. No disrespect, but he’s won two Group 3’s now. We hope he’ll progress to be Group 2 and then Group 1 level but the race in Bahrain is proper Group 1-level money. There’s not many opportunities in a Group 3 to run for this sort of money.”

Burrows is a Group 1-winning trainer, after Shadwell’s Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars [Ire]) took the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom in June and he doubled down with Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas [Ire]) taking the G1 Sprint Cup at Haydock later in the summer. It will be his first experience racing in Bahrain.

He said, “It’s been quite a year for us with our first runners in Dubai, so I am really looking forward to it. Everybody tells me it is such a good place and there are great training facilities. He’s pretty versatile ground-wise. He likes a bit of cut and has won on quick ground, so he should be fine. They tell me the track is a nice, fair, galloping track so we’re looking forward to it. Jim Crowley has a good relationship with the horse and is set to ride the horse in Bahrain.”

He added, “I don’t see why he won’t stay. His last two runs were over nine-furlongs. I think it will probably give him a chance to find his feet and I didn’t think he was stopping at Newmarket last time. I’d be surprised if we were blaming the 1 1/4-miles if he gets beat.”

SIoux Nation popular at Goffs

The two-day Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale concluded on Thursday with a filly by Sioux Nation heading the final session at €72,000.

Consigned by Noel O’Callaghan’s Mountarmstrong Stud, lot 663 is a granddaughter of the G3 Prix du Bois winner Ela Merici (Fr) (Beaudelaire [Fr]) and was bought by the father-and-son team of Con and Neil Sands of Bronson Racing. The filly will be trained by Joseph O’Brien, who currently trains Bronson Racing’s 92-rated winning juvenile Goa Gajah (Bay A Bali {Brz}).

A Mehmas (Ire) colt (lot 481) and a filly by his sire Acclamation (GB) (lot 609) each made €70,000. Oghill House Stud consigned the former, who caught the eye of Bobby O’Ryan. His great granddam was Dead Certain (GB) (Absolom {GB}), the winner of the 1989 G1 Cheveley Park S.

Lot 609, out of a Smart Strike half-sister to G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf hero Hootenanny (Quality Road), was purchased by Jack Davison Racing from the Rathbarry Stud draft.

Thursday’s trade resulted in 199 sold (76%) from 263 offered for a gross of €1,863,000. The average was €9,362 (-30%) and the median was €5,500 (-45%). Overall, 394 yearlings (77%) sold from 512 offered for a gross of €3,705,400. The average was €9,405 (-33%) and the median dropped to €5,500 (-39%), but it should be noted that the 2021 edition of the sale included a dispersal from Derrinstown Stud following the death of Shadwell’s Sheikh Hamdan.

BBA Ireland was the leading buyer by gross over the two-day stand just like last year, and purchased 24 head for €264,300. Clare Manning’s Boherguy Stud edged out David Cox’s Baroda Stud for leading consignor, with 18 sold for €290,500 versus 26 sold for €236,500.
He added, “Those lofty heights were always going to be out of reach and so it is that the statistics from the last two days are well behind 2021. However we are far from despondent when reviewing this year’s renewal as it has finished ahead of every other incarnation of the Open/Autumn Yearling Sale since its inception in 2010 with a second-best turnover, average and median flowing from a reasonable clearance rate of 77%. Whilst some of these figures do not necessarily point to massive returns for breeders, they do demonstrate a vibrancy to the proceedings and those that appealed most had plenty of admirers.

“Demand over the two days has been driven by a truly international buying bench with a flood of overseas buyers headed by a large group from Italy who accounted for nigh on 100 yearlings and another strong contingent from Eastern Europe who bought over 50 with a further 20 plus heading for China. There were also significant parties from Scandinavia, Germany, the Gulf Region, Libya, USA and France taking on spirited bidders from the UK and Ireland. All of these international visitors were attracted to Kildare Paddocks by the reputation of Irish breeders and their world class bloodlines which allow our passionate Purchaser Attraction Team, working in tandem with our network of international agents and the team at Irish Thoroughbred Marketing, to trumpet their attributes on the global stage. How lucky we are to have the assistance of the latter group as they provide an invaluable and unique service to those who choose to sell here whilst the superb IRE Incentive is a real plus for sellers in Ireland.

“As the sale closes we can reflect on vibrant, strong and positive renewals of all three parts of the Irish National Yearling Sale, each of which graphically makes our case that Irish breeders can sell, and sell extremely well, to the world at Goffs as highlighted by the Orby sale topper of €2.6M which proved to be the world’s top-priced yearling filly of 2022 and a high of €300,000 at Sportsman’s, the highest priced yearling ever sold in Ireland outside the Orby Sale.”

QUARTET OF WILDCARDS JOIN ARQANA AUTUMN SALE

Four more horses have been entered in the Arqana Autumn Sale as wildcards and will sell on Nov. 14 alongside the 233 Flat and National Hunt horses-in-training already revealed. Francis-Henri Graffard trainee Carini (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) (lot 344) is a stakes-placed three-time winner and is rated 102. He is joined by Garachico (GB) (Ribchester {Ire}) (lot 343), who ran third in the G3 Prix Noailles this term for Carlos Laffon-Parias and is rated 99. Two wildcards hail from the Jean-Claude Rouget yard—the winners Frank Stella (Fr) (Frankel {GB}) (lot 346) and Res Dei (Fr) (Zelzal {Fr}) (lot 347). Cont. p11
The group-placed Carini has been added as a wildcard.

LA ROUTE DES ETALONS SET FOR JAN. 21-22
France’s La Route des Etalons will be held on Jan. 21 and 22 in 2023. La Route features many French stud farms and the best stallions in Normandy, France, will be on display for breeders and racing fans alike. For more information, please visit the Route des Etalons website.

BELLA VENETA TOPS TATTERSALLS ASCOT NOVEMBER SALE
The 3-year-old filly Bella Veneta (GB) (Belardo {Ire}) took top honours during the one-day Tattersalls Ascot November Sale on Thursday, when selling for £30,000 to Paramount Timber. Consigned by Wayne Hawkins as lot 64, the bay daughter of World Class (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) won a novice at Bath in April, and is currently rated 75. Second dam Out West (Gone West) foaled a trio of stakes winners led by G1 Derby ace Motivator (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and G2 Hardwicke S. hero Macarthur (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}).

Shade Oak Stud’s unraced sophomore daughter of Telescope (Ire) (lot 86) brought a bid of £22,000 from Five Valley Bloodstock. Her dam is the Grade 2-winning hurdler Amaretto Rose (GB) (Alflora {Ire}), who was third in the G1 Supreme Novices Hurdle at Cheltenham.

Rounding out the top three lots of the day was lot 68, the placed Sobegrand (GB) (Decorated Knight {GB}). Offered by Clarehaven Stables, the 3-year-old colt was knocked down to Robert Brinkley for £20,000. Out of the dual listed winner Nouriya (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), the bay is a half-brother to multiple group winner Aljazzi (GB) (Shamardal) and the listed winner Majestic Noor (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

At the close of trade, of the 126 catalogued and 85 through the ring, 68 (80%) sold for an aggregate of £354,800. The average was £5,218 and the median was £2,750.

TOTE FANTASY LAUNCHED
Tote Fantasy, a horse racing game where players build their best stable to try and win real money with a bet, was launched by the Tote on Thursday. Every day players will have 10,000 ‘gns’ to pick one horse in each of the seven selected races, usually based around ITV Racing for a total outlay of £7 per day. Their equine team members will score points according to where they finish in their race. Players then have to make sure they balance their budget, choose which favourites to be with or against, and use their two ‘boosts’ wisely to maximise points. The overall leading points scorer on the day scoops the jackpot, but you only need to finish in the top 25% of players to make a profit.

Head of Fantasy at the Tote, Jamie Benson, explained, “This is a first for British racing, with Tote Fantasy not only offering punters an interest for the whole day for a small outlay [£7], but also connecting the viewer with the sport in a more direct way. We hope this will bring a new and younger audience to British racing.”

SHE’S EXTREME TAKES THE G1 VRC OAKS

by Lydia Symonds/TDN AusNZ

The Cummings family has been synonymous with the G1 VRC Oaks since the 1920s, and on Thursday Anthony Cummings followed in the footsteps of his grandfather, James, father Bart and son James, to etch his own name on the time-honoured Group 1 courtesy of She’s Extreme’s classy performance in the Flemington feature.

Ridden by Tommy Berry, the daughter of Newgate Farm’s resident stallion Extreme Choice, endured the dream run, creeping up the fence to beat Pavitra (American Pharoah {USA}) by 11. Queen Air (Toronado {Ire}) finished another 2.25l away in third.

She’s Extreme has proved time and time again to be one of the very best and toughest fillies in training. As a 2-year-old she ran consistently well in top-class events, landing the G2 Magic Night S. on her third start, before finishing seventh in the G1 Golden Slipper S. and second in the G1 Sires’ Produce S., beaten on both occasions by Fireburn (Rebel Dane). However, on her final start as a 2-year-old, she was able to topple the G1 Golden Slipper S. winner in the G1 Champagne S. at Randwick.

Despite Thursday’s race being her first victory this season, she again had gained plaudits for her consistency, which included a runner-up spot in the G1 Flight S. and third-place finishes in the G2 Furious S. and G1 Spring Champion S.

“It’s very good. The big thing is to keep up with the kids. They’re setting a furious pace, and for an old guy, it is not always simple,” said Cummings. “But we’ve got a really nice filly and a good mob of owners that have been understanding and copped it, not that it’s hard as she’s won over a million-and-a-half [in prizemoney] now, so it’s not all pain.”

“It’s been nice to get nice horses and to develop them to the point where they can show off the way they can. Very satisfying and a good ride from Tommy. Tommy rode her very well and assessed the situation at every turn. Just rapt for the horse as much as anything. It was the icing on the cake for a very good prep. Nice to see her get the right breaks today [Thursday].”

Pedigree Notes

With his books having been limited due to fertility issues, Extreme Choice has never had huge representation but his statistics make for impressive reading. 51 runners, 34 winners, eight stakes winners.

Bred by Aquis, She’s Extreme was purchased as a weanling by One Plus Investments for $32,500 at the Inglis Digital June (Late) Sale in 2020, before being snapped up by her trainer for $275,000 at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale from the Willow Park Stud draft the following year.

While there had been question marks surrounding her stamina, given her sire, Extreme Choice, had only produced one winner beyond a mile, her dam, Keysbrook (So Secret) showed stamina in her career, finishing second in the G2 Western Australian Derby and third in the G3 Western Australian Oaks.

Keysbrook was also offered during the same Inglis Digital Sale as She’s Extreme and she sold to Randwick Bloodstock Agency (FBAA) for $60,000. The mare was offered again earlier this year at the Inglis Chairman’s Sale and was purchased by Kia Ora Stud for $825,000.
