DEMAND REMAINS STRONG AS BOOK 2 CONCLUDES

Proud Emma | Keeneland

By Christie DeBernardis & Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY--Demand remained high as did the competition for quality individuals, both mares and weanlings, as Book 2 of the Keeneland November Sale concluded with its second of two sessions Wednesday.

The third day of selling at Keeneland was highlighted by the million-dollar sale of GSW Proud Emma (Include). In foal to Charlatan, the chestnut was purchased by Jane Lyon of Summer Wind Farm, who also purchased Tuesday's $1.45-million session topper Park Avenue (Quality Road). Proud Emma will visit Lyon's homebred superstar Flightline (Tapit), whose fee was announced at $200,000 partway through Wednesday's action. Proud Emma marks the third seven-figure transaction of Book 2, which previously had not seen a million-dollar horse since 2017.

"Some of the owners of Flightline, and Life Is Good, are investing in young fillies and broodmares to send to their stallions," said Keeneland's Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy. "We are coming off an exciting Breeders' Cup. It is a deep bench that is retiring this year. A lot of breeders are looking to improve their broodmare band and freshen up their portfolio, both on a domestic and international stage. It has been very, very healthy." Cont. p3

FLIGHTLINE TO STAND FOR $200,000 IN '23

Undefeated Flightline (Tapit--Feathered, by Indian Charlie), who retired to Lane's End Farm after an 8 1/4-length victory in the Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 5, will stand the 2023 season for $200,000. The 4-year-old was bred by Jane Lyon's Summer Wind Farm and raced by Summer Wind in partnership with Hronis Racing, Siena Farm, West Point Thoroughbreds and Woodford Racing. He was trained by John Sadler and ridden in all six of his starts by Flavien Prat. In addition to the Classic, Flightline won the GI Pacific Classic, GI Metropolitan H. and GI Malibu S.

A fraction interest in the likely Horse of the Year sold to an undisclosed Seattle-based investor for $4.6 million prior to the start of Keeneland's November sale Monday.

Sporting a figure of 139, he is the world's highest rated racehorse in 2022, and is the highest-rated dirt horse of all time.

During the two Book 2 sessions, 424 horses sold for $77,092,000. The average of $181,821 increased 13.5% from a year ago and the median of $150,000 was up 15.4%. Three horses sold for seven figures and there were 16 who sold for $500,000 or more. In 2021, six horses hit that mark and the section's top price was $725,000.

The 2021 Book 2 section of the November sale saw 489 horses gross $78,321,000 for an average of $160,166 and a median of $130,000.

"I think people are willing to keep going on horses that they feel have the quality they are looking for," Lacy said. "When they find the mares and weanlings that fit the profile that they want, they keep going. Jane Lyon was pretty bullish today on that one. That was great."

Proud Emma's covering sire Charlatan has made a name for himself in the sales ring this week. He was the session's leading covering sire with 11 mares carrying his first foals grossing $4.005 million and averaging $364,091.

"Charlatan is a very exciting horse," said Cormac Breathnach, Keeneland's Director of Sales Operations. "He showed a ton of speed on the track and speed that could carry. With the sire line and his pedigree and the mares he has been bred to, he is showing the signs of being a successful commercial horse and that is what a lot of people are looking for at this sale. We expected them to be well received."

Weanlings were also in high demand Wednesday, topped by a $550,000 Gun Runner colt (Hip 976), who is destined for resale next year after being purchased by Randy Hartley and Dean DeRenzo's AAA Thoroughbreds.

Fifteen weanlings sold for $300,000 or over during the 2022 Book 2 section of the November sale, led by a $550,000 son of Gun Runner who sold Wednesday. During the two sessions, 165 weanlings sold for $23,056,000, for an average of $139,733--up 7.3% from a year ago--and a median of $120,000, which was up 20% from 2021.

In 2021, 12 Book 2 weanlings sold for $300,000 or over. A total of 183 foals sold during the section for a gross of $23,838,000. The average was $130,262 and the median was $100,000.

"There was a huge appetite for the quality weanlings overall," said Lacy. "A lot of pinhookers made good money in September and were reinvesting. That sector of the market really increased today, which was great to see. There was a lot of enthusiasm and competitive bidding on those better individuals. I think you will hopefully find that trend continue through the rest of the sale."

The Keeneland November Sale continues through Wednesday, Nov. 16, with sessions beginning at 10 a.m. It is followed by Keeneland's November Horses of Racing Age Sale Nov. 17.

Another Emma for Summer Wind

Jane Lyon | Keeneland

Summer Wind Farm, already the home of Littleprincesemma (Yankee Gentleman), dam of Triple Crown winner American Pharoah, added another Emma to its broodmare band when Jane Lyon bid an even million dollars to acquire graded stakes-winner Proud Emma (Include) (hip 876) from the Bedouin Bloodstock consignment Wednesday at Keeneland.

“We saw an awfully pretty mare that we think Flightline will like,” Lyon said of the mare’s appeal. “We were trying to find mares that we thought, both physically and pedigree-wise, would fit him.”

The 6-year-old Proud Emma is out of the unraced Debutante Dreamer (Proud Citizen), a full-sister to graded-placed Cousin Stephen. She won the 2020 GIII Bayakoa S. and was second in the 2021 GIII Rancho Bernardo H.

SF Bloodstock purchased Proud Emma for $275,000 at last year’s Fasig-Tipton November and put her in foal to first-season sire Charlatan.

“She was a very striking mare,” SF Bloodstock’s Tom Ryan said. “She is a beautiful physical and she obviously had tons of ability. We felt that she was a durable, sound mare.”

Ryan continued, “The plan at the time was to bring her back to the marketplace. We had options [for the covering sire], but when we got home and sat down to work through it, we felt Charlatan was a perfect physical for the mare.”

Of Proud Emma’s seven-figure price tag, Ryan said, “Summer Wind is a very calculating outfit and they can see the same thing that we see. This is the kind of mare that could produce a commercial animal that we could see in Saratoga in a couple of years. And then she may not look that expensive.”

Mares in foal to Charlatan were in demand in the Keeneland sales ring, with Proud Emma leading the way.

Charlatan, who was a $700,000 Keeneland September Yearling purchase in 2018, raced for the stallion-making partnership of SF Racing, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables, Stonestreet Stables, Fred Hertrich, John Fielding and Golconda Stables. He won the 2020 GI Arkansas Derby and GI Malibu S. before concluding his career with his lone loss when second in the 2021 Saudi Cup. He stands at Hill 'n' Dale for a fee of $50,000.

“Charlatan is one of the most brilliant horses we've ever had anything to do with,” Ryan said. “He's a beautiful physical animal, but his athletic ability was extraordinary. With his ability to quicken, he was electric. We really felt that he was a horse that would be in high demand with his first pregnancies and I think today was a representation of that.”

Through three sessions of the November sale, 22 mares have sold in foal to Charlatan for an average of $338,636.

“He is a son of Speightstown and he was a brilliant horse,” Ryan said of Charlatan's appeal. “I think his race record and his physical make-up is exactly what people are looking for in the commercial market that we live in today.” @JessMartiniTDN

Whimsical Dance a Sentimental Purchase for Anderson

As the third session of the Keeneland November sale neared its conclusion Wednesday, Canadian breeder Dave Anderson struck to add a filly from the country's historic Sam-Son Farms to his broodmare band, going to $725,000 to acquire the 3-year-old Whimsical Dance (Distorted Humor) (hip 989).

“I've admired the Sam-Son operation my entire life growing up in Canada,” Anderson said. “I've just strived to be even remotely close to being as good a breeder as they've been. And this is a filly from their absolute best family. I took one look at her and it's just Distorted Humor over Giant's Causeway and it's all broodmare sires down to Dance Smartly. It's all something I really wanted to have in my program and this was the last stop for the Sam-Son train. I'm really thrilled to have her.”

A daughter of the unraced Danceforthecause (Giant's Causeway), Whimsical Dance is a half-sister to multiple graded winner Say the Word (More Than Ready) and graded winner Rideforthecause (Candy Ride {Arg}). Her third dam is the great Canadian champion Dance Smartly, who produced champion Dancethruthedawn.

Whimsical Dance | Keeneland

Whimsical Dance has now won two of three starts at Woodbine. Anderson said the filly may continue her racing career.

“I am going to take a look at that,” he said. “I would obviously love to get some black-type on her somewhere. But at the end of the day, I bought her for her ovaries and she'll be a long-term mare in our program.”

Founded by the late Ernie Samuel some 50 years ago, Sam-Son Farm has dispersed nearly all of its stock in the last two years. The operation sold five mares Wednesday. In addition to Whimsical Dance, the Sam-Son bred Ladywearsthering (Uncle Mo) (hip 810) sold for $450,000 to Thomas Bachman's Fairview.

Anderson admitted Wednesday's purchase of one of the final mare's from the Sam-Son operation was a special one.

“My father died 12 years ago yesterday and he and Mr. Samuel were great friends and did a lot of business together over the years. It really is an emotional purchase for me for sure.”

Strong Showing For Indian Creek

Shack Parrish's Indian Creek consignment had a great day at Keeneland Wednesday, starting with the $700,000 sale of Zoikes (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) (Hip 618), who is set to return to Europe after being purchased by Jim Ryan. She is carrying a foal by Medaglia d'Oro.

“She was very well-received,” said Indian Creek's Sarah Sutherland. “It's a great cover for her, the Medaglia cross with Dubawi. She was sold for Bob Edwards or E Five Racing. They bought her as a yearling at Newmarket and campaigned her here. We're in the process of selling a few, buying a few and keeping our numbers in check. We were happy to bring her here and think she realized a good price.”

Edwards purchased Zoikes at TATOCT for 450,000gns and she won one of three starts on American soil. Out of SW & G1SP Glorious Sight (Singspiel), she is a half to MGSW GISP Glycon (Le Havre). This is also the family of MGSW Beauty Is Truth (Pivotal).

As Sutherland predicted after that sale, Indian Creek sparked fireworks again late in the session, selling a $550,000 Gun Runner colt (Hip 976) to Dean DeRenzo. DeRenzo and his partner Randy Hartley, who sign as AAA Thoroughbreds, also purchased an Authentic filly (Hip 885) from the Indian Creek consignment for $260,000.

Hartley and DeRenzo have been busy snapping up as many nice weanlings as they can get their hands on this week with plans to resell them as yearlings. They have been particularly keen on Gun Runners, snapping up a $675,000 filly and $550,000 colt by the red-hot sire at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale Sunday.

“I thought he was the best horse in the sale,” DeRenzo said. “I just love him. We bought our first Gun Runner, which was Taiba. He’s done fantastic and he’s not finished. Gun Runner’s a horse I have never seen in my career and I think we’ve seen only the beginning of him. He’s going to be bred to some amazing mares, and this was a really great mare. We’re really excited. We’ll send him home and let him grow up and see how things go and we’ll go from there.”

Zoikes | Keeneland

Sarah Sutherland | Keeneland

Bred by Chisago Farm, the weanling colt out of Twiga is out of a half-sister to MGSW Takeover Target (Harlan's Holiday) and SW Ladies' Privilege (Harlan's Holiday). This is also the family of MGSW Critical Eye.

“The colt has been well received the whole time,” Parrish said. “We only had three foals and they all did great. We can't complain. The guys at home did a great job. They all came from Indian Creek, so we know them like our own kids.”

Indian Creek sold 10 horses Wednesday for a total of $2.76 million and average of $276,000.

For us, it's been good, but I've seen spots. Of course, there were spots across town too. I think you really need to have nice foals here. They aren't playing in the mid-range yet. The right sire power is a big help.--@CDeBernardisTDN

Collins Breaks Through for Message

Lincoln Collins admitted he had been shut out on several mares before finally breaking through to purchase Message (Warrior's Reward) (hip 839) for $675,000 on behalf of John Sykes's Woodford Thoroughbreds Wednesday at Keeneland.

“We finally got one,” Collins said with a laugh after signing the ticket on the 6-year-old mare who sold in foal to Charlatan.

Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa, Message was second in the 2020 GIII Bayakoa S. for Susan and Charlie's Baoma Corp.

“We are looking to upgrade all the time,” Collins said. “It was a lot of money, but she is an absolutely beautiful mare. I am sure the [covering] sire will be popular. And pedigree-wise, we can do pretty much anything we like.”

Collins pointed out that this year's GI Champagne S. winner Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) is, like Message, out of a Warrior's Reward mare.

“He is the sort of horse who is beginning to show life as a broodmare sire, so all of those things together made us push it absolutely to the limit.”

The popularity of mares in foal to Charlatan at Keeneland has been no surprise to Collins.

“He was a very, very good racehorse,” Collins said of the GI Malibu S. winner. “I think he will probably be one of the most popular first-season sires next year. And you know how the market is. It values youth over experience. Since we sell almost everything, it makes sense for us [to buy a mare in foal to a first-year stallion].”

Message was the first mare purchased by Woodford Thoroughbreds at Keeneland, but that wasn't for lack of trying.

“It's been very, very tough,” Collins said. “I've bid a lot of money on a lot of horses and not gotten anything until today. We went well past our limit on a number of them and still didn't get anything.” @JessMartiniTDN

Hunter Rankin | Keeneland

Lake Garda Set For a Date With Flightline

Shortly after superstar Flightline's fee was announced at $200,000, Hunter Rankin purchased Lake Garda (American Pharoah) (Hip 812) for $600,000 on behalf of an undisclosed client with the GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero in mind. Consigned by Elite, the unraced 4-year-old is in foal to Uncle Mo.

“She is a beautiful mare, obviously regally bred,” Rankin said. “I'm really excited for the owner. She is going to go to Flightline. He is really excited about her.”

He continued, “I thought it was a fair price. We thought she would do well in the market. It looked like she had a lot of action out there. She had all the pieces and parts and she is in foal to a great stallion and from a great family. We are really excited.”

Purchased by Cromwell Bloodstock for $550,000 as a weanling at the 2018 renewal of this auction, Lake Garda is a daughter of

GSP blue hen Refugee (Unaccounted For). She is a half-sister to hard-knocking MGISW and young sire Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday), MGISW Exectiveprivilege (First Samurai) and stakes winners Leader of Men (War Front) and Cowboy's Hero (Cowboy Cal).

“Lake Garda was just a beautiful mare,” said Elite's Liz Crow. “She came in prepped perfectly. She has a nice pedigree and a nice update, and she's in foal to Uncle Mo on a good cover. She was one of our most popular mares over the last three days. We feel like we had some nice physicals with nice pedigree pages here today. It all starts with the people who send us these horses. We have a great group of clients who entrust us to sell their horses. We always aim to put a nice Book 2 together. We bringing stakes-winning and stakes-placed, and graded stakes-winning and stakes-placed mares here. Our team works together months in advance and without their hard work we wouldn't have such a good day.” --@CDeBernardisTDN

Finding Fame to Gage Hill/Determined Stud Partnership

Terry Finley continued shopping for mares for recently retired Flightline (Tapit) Wednesday at Keeneland, going to $575,000 for the 5-year-old mare Finding Fame (Empire Maker) (hip 749). In foal to Constitution, the bay is a full-sister to stakes winner and multiple graded-placed Mei Ling.

“Shug McGaughey trained the mare and she had a lot of talent,” Finley said after signing the ticket in the name of Gage Hill and Matt Dorman's Determined Stud. “She's a lovely, big mare.”

Finding Fame, a $425,000 KEESEP yearling purchase in 2018, won twice in 10 starts for Gainesway Stable and Andrew Rosen. She was consigned Wednesday by Gainesway.

Of the mare's final price, Finley added, “We are obviously getting to the end of the ones that we are thinking about buying to send to Flightline. I think we knew that there were several significant players that were interested in her.”

Gage Hill, alone in or in partnership with Determined Stud, has purchased six mares at the November sale for $4.5 million. The partners went to $2 million to acquire Salty As Can Be (Into Mischief) (hip 154) during Monday's first session of the auction.

“She will be back here hopefully in September,” Aidan O’Meara said. “That’s the plan at least, so we will see how it goes. She is a beautiful filly, a great representation of the sire with her scope and frame. She is a nice, classy type.”

The weanling filly was consigned by Paramount Sales on behalf of breeders Drumkenny Farm and American Equistock Inc. Out of Mighty Moon (Malibu Moon), the chestnut hails from the family of SW & GSP Green Lyons (Ire).

Hip 844’s sire Gun Runner could not be hotter with four Grade I winners this year to add to the two he had last year in his first crop of 2-year-olds, one of which was champion Echo Zulu. Progeny of the Horse of the Year have been in high demand in the sales ring this year and his current weanlings were no exception. Six have sold through the first three days of KEENOV for $2.425 million with an average of $404,167.

“It is arguable, but it is probably the best start any stallion has had in the history of the breed,” said O’Meara. “It’s been incredible. Some of the best opportunities in this business are the riding the wave of the success of these stallions. It is a lot of money for that filly, but she is as nice as any of those higher-priced ones that have come up here in the last few days.”

Stonehaven Steadings stellar season started at the September sale, where they sold a total of 18 yearlings for $8.188 million, including the sale-topping $2.5-million Quality Road colt now named Metro. During the Book 2 opener Tuesday, the operation sold Sweet Sami D (First Samurai), a mare they claimed for $65,000 and bred to Gun Runner, for $1 million.

“We have had a very fortunate year,” O’Meara said. “We are putting some of it back in the industry. The sale did encourage us, but you always have to be in control of what you’re doing. We will try to build on the year we’ve had and try to keep it rolling. We’ve bought some nice mares here today as well and we have a very nice bunch of foals back at the farm. When we buy pinhooks, we aren’t buying fixer uppers. We buy nice, high-quality types. Hopefully we come out here with a pretty nice draft.” --@CDeBernardisTDN

Brookdale Active On Both Sides of the Ledger For Not This Time

Early in Wednesday’s session, Brookdale’s Freddy Seitz went to $350,000 on behalf of a friend to acquire a filly by Not This Time (Hip 631). Then 118 hips later, the Seitz family’s sale operation, led by Freddy’s brother Joe Seitz, sold a colt by the Taylor Made stallion for $375,000 (Hip 749). Bred by Audley Farm, Hip 749 was purchased by Dudley Racing.

The chestnut filly was consigned by Gainesway on behalf of Alexander, Grove and Matz. Hip 631 is out of SW Analyze (Candy Ride {Arg}), a half-sister to GSW Far From Over (Blame) and GISP And Why Not (Street Cry {Ire}), who is the dam of MGSW Fearless (Ghostzapper). Carrying a foal by Hard Spun, Analyze followed her daughter into the ring, bringing $475,000 from Summer Wind Farm's Jane Lyon, which means she is likely headed to unbeaten sensation Flightline (Tapit) this spring.

"I was asked to sign the ticket on behalf of a friend," Freddy Seitz said. "She's a beautiful filly. I liked the way she moved. Of course, with a Not This Time filly out of that family you can't ask for much more. She's by a hot sire and out of one of the best families in the U.S."

Later in the day, Hip 749 stirred things up in the pavilion, summoning $375,000. The Virginia-bred is out of a half-sister to MGSW & MG1SP So Perfect (Scat Daddy).

"He's a big, scopey, huge walking horse with a beautiful appearance," Joe Seitz said. "He came alive here. He has some interesting markings on him. There is a lot of uniqueness about him. He came from Audley Farm, a wonderful in Virginia and the same people who bred Bodemeister. His half-sister by Justify broke her maiden in her first start, so there is a lot of quality in a nice young family." --@CDeBernardisTDN

The top 10 horses Wednesday were bought by nine individual buyers with Summer Wind's Jane Lyon accounting for two. Only one of those buyers was from overseas. They were sold by six individual sellers.

Not This Time led all sires Wednesday with seven of his weanlings bringing $1.995 million with an average of $285,000.

Red-hot Gun Runner accounted for the day's top weanling, a $550,000 colt, who will be re-offered at the yearling sales next year by Randy Hartley and Dean DeRenzo.

During the two Book 2 sessions, 424 horses sold for $77,092,000. The average of $181,821 increased 13.5% from a year ago and the median of $150,000 was up 15.4%. Three horses sold for seven figures and there were 16 who sold for $500,000 or more. In 2021, six horses hit that mark and the section's top price was $725,000. The 2021 Book 2 section of the November sale saw 489 horses gross $78,321,000 for an average of $160,166 and a median of $130,000.

FLIGHTLINE AND THAT SHARE

About an hour or so after one of 40 shares in Flightline, a son of Tapit and the Indian Charlie mare Feathered, was sold for an unimaginable $4.6 million in an historic special session at Keeneland Monday, Flightline was led out of his stall at Lane's End and posed behind the stallion barn, oblivious to the hubbub on the sales grounds about 10 miles away.

He's a stunning and athletic physical specimen, standing 16.2 hands, with length to go with height and balance. He's so well put together and pleasing to look at that at first glance no one single feature jumps out and grabs the eye, because all of him does at once, flooding the senses. But zoom in here and there and it's evident that the parts that make up the whole are of the finest quality: a well-defined and chiseled masculine shoulder with depth; strong forearms over clean and smooth limbs with short cannons; pasterns at exactly the right angles that are neither too short nor too long; a big hip and butt; and hind legs set perfectly underneath. He'd first caught the eye of Lane's End

Bloodstock's David Ingordo as an early and unfinished yearling at breeder Jane Lyon's Summer Wind, and later that year, in August, was purchased by his current ownership group on Ingordo's advice for $1 million at Fasig-Tipton's marquee Saratoga sale.

It's evident that Flightline gets some of his looks from broodmare sire Indian Charlie, who also had size, strength, masculinity, and similar patterns of muscling, except Indian Charlie was slightly back at the knee and had rough ankles, neither of which plagues Flightline.

What stands out the most about Flightline is his mind and presence: he's non-plussed, intelligent, and kind. Here he was, two days after he'd clobbered a high-level field in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, calmly and confidently surveying his new home, and it's easy to understand how he overcame several mishaps and one major injury along the way and continued to train on with gusto and win at the highest levels.

At the moment, Flightline is being let down cautiously, spending time in a round pen when he's not in his stall. It's expected that by the end of next week he'll be in a paddock like the other studs at the farm, as he's transitioning quickly from a life of hard training at the track to an easier life on the farm for his next career as a stallion.

A fractional interest in Flightline bringing $4.6 million Monday Keeneland expenses: two seasons each year (each shareholder gets two seasons) is $400,000, multiplied by four years, is $1.6 million; and on the back end, a bonus pool of $12 million a year (say 60 mares at $200,000 is $12 million), divided by 40 shares, is $300,000 per share per year, times four years, is $1.2 million.

Extending this example over five years, a case could be made for $2 million in stud fee income and $1.5 million in bonus-pool money (assuming the stud fee stays the same), for a value of $3.5 million, plus depreciation. And there's also the possibility of added bonus-pool monies from expanding his book and from breeding Flightline at Lane's End on Southern Hemisphere time.

The Flightline syndicate, of course, is tightly held by the colt's original ownership group, which is to say that not many shares will become available. That scarcity--think of it as an illiquid market--means that the shares that do become available will be snapped up by those few that have the means to pay premium-plus, like the unnamed buyer at $4.6 million and the underbidder, Coolmore, at $4.5 million.

The Share

Flightline is owned by a 40-share syndicate, with Kosta Hronis and family controlling 15 shares; Lyon's Summer Wind, 10 shares; Terry Finley's West Point, seven shares; Bill Farish and partners' Woodford, four shares; and Anthony Manganaro's Siena Farm, four shares. Lane's End will get breeding rights for standing the horse, and a few others are in the hands of trainer John Sadler and David Ingordo.

The share--a 2.5% fractional interest--that was auctioned came from the West Point group, which is composed of seven individual partners with one share each (2.5% of 40 is one share). Some of them pooled portions of their fractional interests to form one share or 2.5% to offer at auction, and Freddie Seitz, as agent for an undisclosed Seattle-based owner and client with interests in the coffee business, held off underbidder Coolmore to secure the share for the $4.6 million, placing a "value" of $184 million on Flightline's head. In comparison, Triple Crown winner Justify (Scat Daddy) had a book value of $75 million as a new sire just a few years ago.

The big share price is, of course, a trophy prize, and in the strictest sense it will not bear a direct relationship to his stud fee, which is $200,000 live foal--as much as the entering fees of American Pharoah, Ghostzapper, and Devil's Bag. At that fee, based on a four-year return and, say, a 160-mare cap, a traditional market value for a share would likely be about $2.8 to $3 million based on pure back-of-napkin math without

For such owners, that type of money may not be as outlandish as it seems to some. An entity like Coolmore, for example, could breed to Flightline a mare like Gamine, who was purchased for $7 million, and race the offspring, hoping to get a top-class winner. And if Flightline becomes a success at stud like undefeated Frankel, who will stand for about $315,000 in 2023, that would be money well spent in hindsight.

Betting on any unproven stallion is a gamble, but Flightline has the impeccable credentials to succeed as a stallion. Not only is he a son of the elite stallion Tapit, whose son Constitution will stand for $110,000 at WinStar in 2023, he's from a mare, Feathered, who won a Grade 3 race and placed three times in Grade I races, earning $577,474. Moreover, Feathered, who was bred by Teresa Viola, spouse of Vinny Viola (who has a Flightline share under the West Point umbrella), is from the sought-after Phipps family of Blitey/Lady Pitt and was purchased by Lyon in 2016 at Keeneland November for $2,350,000.

In other words, Flightline was bred to be a superstar, and he's that rare example of a horse that realized his lofty potential--and some.

Combine this pedigree with Flightline's exceptional looks, astonishing talent, and undefeated race record, and he is--as the share price reflected--the most desirable new prospect to enter the marketplace in a long time.

OSCAR PERFORMANCE TO $20,000 AT MILL RIDGE

Oscar Performance | Sarah Andrew

Mill Ridge Farm's Oscar Performance (Kitten's Joy), who currently ranks among the top 10 first-crop sires based in North America, will get a bump in his fee for 2023 to $20,000 live foal, the initial fee he stood for in his first two years at stud. The four-time Grade I winner, whose victories included the 2016 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, has sired 14 individual winners (16% winners to foals) and four graded stakes performers, including the GII Castle & Key Bourbon S. exacta with the winner Anththewinneris and runner-up Deer District. Two more of his first-crop 2-year-olds, G Laurie and Lachaise, placed in the GI Natalma S. and GII Pilgrim S., respectively.

"We are so appreciative to the Amermans for giving Mill Ridge the opportunity with Oscar Performance and to the shareholders and breeders who have supported him all four years," said Mill Ridge's general manager, Price Bell. "He is off to a great start at stud with his 2-year-olds, and we all look forward to his future."

To show appreciation to any breeder who supported Oscar Performance during his first years at stud, Mill Ridge will offer a discounted fee of $17,500.

More information and a fee will also be available soon on Mill Ridge's previously announced new addition to the stallion barn in 2021 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Aloha West (Hard Spun).

FASIG-TIPTON'S DECEMBER MIDLANTIC CATALOG AVAILABLE

A scene from last year's Midlantic December sale | Fasig-Tipton

The catalog containing 186 entries for the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December Mixed Sale is now online. The sale is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 6 at 11 a.m. and will be held at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium.

In addition to broodmares and broodmare prospects, the catalogue also has a number of weanlings and yearlings. A Horses of Racing Age supplement will be included for the sixth consecutive year, with horses of racing age entries accepted for another week.

“This is a quality catalogue, especially in terms of weanling sire power and covering sire power,” said Paget Bennett, Fasig-Tipton's Midlantic director of sales. “We also encourage owners and trainers to have a look through their stables for horses of racing age entries, as there is always strong demand for them in our racing-rich Midlantic region.”

The Midlantic December Mixed catalogue may now be viewed online and in the equine sales catalogue app. Print catalogues are available at all Fasig-Tipton offices. Supplemental catalogues will be available later this month.

SPORTS WAGERING SUNK IN CALIFORNIA: WHAT'S NEXT? by Dan Ross

After a months-long \$400 million plus war of attrition between the two rival California sports wagering measures on this year's ballot, the endgame was a stalemate, both beat down into the muddy trenches--just as the polling had indicated.

The Associated Press made the call that both measures are sunk, though the official tally is far from in. With less than 50% of the ballots counted as of writing, roughly 70% voted against Proposition 26, and some 83% voted against Proposition 27.

“Ugly,” said Pat Cummings, executive director of the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation, calling the voters' rejection of sports wagering a “gag-reflex” to the incendiary nature of the attack-ads from the rival measures, which oftentimes left voters all at sea about exactly what each measure entailed.

Proposition 26 was an initiative called the Tribal Sports Wagering Act spearheaded by a band of extremely powerful Tribal gaming groups which, in short, would have allowed sports wagering at Tribal casinos and at approved racetracks in California. Most crucially, it would have prohibited mobile or on-line wagering on sports events.

Understandably, this Proposition garnered the public support of California racing industry heavy hitters like the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC), the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club and the 1/ST Racing and Gaming.

The second, Proposition 27, was the California Solutions to Homelessness and Mental Health Act led by online betting market outfits like FanDuel and Draftkings. This measure would have legalized online or mobile sports betting outside of Native American lands, though still leave legal avenues for Tribes to participate in the market.

As a selling point, the latter Proposition leaned heavily on the massive revenues it would have secured through license fees earmarked for homelessness initiatives, a hot-button topic for California voters. This included adds that often hid or obscured the sports betting component of the ballot measure, however.

Though the state's most powerful gaming Tribes lined up to support Proposition 26, a handful of less lucrative Tribal gaming groups threw their weight behind Proposition 27, including the Middletown Rancheria of Pomo Indians, who argued the FanDuel and Draftkings-backed measure would provide a financial life-line to struggling Tribes “that don't own big casinos.”

Proposition 26 proponents, on the other hand, spent more than $100 million on ads depicting the rival measure as an out-of-state incursion that would ultimately hurt California's Tribes. These conflicting Tribal allegiances only helped fuel voter bewilderment.

And what of the immediate future of sports wagering in California?

“The Tribes have asserted their power,” wrote TOC vice chairman, Bob Liewald, speaking independently of the organization, in an email. “I don't see a compromise that would make [sports wagering] possible without the Tribes having significant say [and] control.”

Liewald wrote it is “unlikely” that measures similar to Proposition 26 and 27 will be on the state-wide ballot in two years time.

Indeed, proponents of Proposition 27 have publicly hinted that the sheer scale of the spending behind both measures would make them think twice about endeavouring down the same path again.

Liewald also doubts state politicians will pass legislation in Sacramento legalizing sports wagering any time soon. “But if they did it would be crafted mainly by the Tribes for the Tribes,” he wrote. As such, he said it is “difficult” to see a viable path forward for sports wagering before 2025.

Scott Daruty, president of Monarch Content Management, the arm of The Stronach Group (TSG) tasked with distributing the company's signal, strikes a more ambivalent tone.

“I think it’s too early to even assess that,” Daruty said, about the chances of one or both such measures returning to a state-wide ballot in 2024.

Sports wagering will eventually be legalized in California, he said. “How that happens, what the dynamic is that brings that about, I just think we need a bit more time to figure that out.”

If the Tribal groups behind Proposition 26 reintroduce it at some point, will California racetracks once again be part of the measure?

“I think it’s too early to say,” Daruty said. “I think it’ll take some time before that dialogue begins.”

As for why Proposition 26 was so comprehensively undone, Daruty points to the lack of resources invested in positive messaging.

“The Tribal interests that were the proponents of 26, I don’t want to speak for them, but it appears they were much more worried about 27 passing than 26 failing,” he said. “There was never a positive message about 26 at all.”

A group of Tribes that includes the powerful San Manuel Band of Mission Indians are spearheading an online and in-person sports betting initiative restricted to servers on Tribal land that could run in 2024.

The Washington Post reports that at an October Global Gaming Expo, Tribal heavy hitters suggested that particular initiative could see collaboration with out-of-state entities as platform providers for Tribal mobile sports betting.

“There might be an opportunity for everyone, but they’ve got to be humble,” Dan Little, San Manuel’s chief intergovernmental and tribal affairs officer, is reported to have said about gaming operations like FanDuel.

“That’s not particularly favorable to the racing industry,” said Daruty, about the proposed initiative. “But it is something we’re aware of.”

If sports wagering remains foreign to California’s shores for the foreseeable future, the industry needs to ensure its wagering product is as “competitive as possible,” warned Cummings, pointing to things like eliminating jackpot bets, focused attention on lower takeout, and higher win-probability bets.

“We are already seeing the positive attention around Kentucky shifting to penny breakage. Give horseplayers the equivalent of a tax break and you give them an opportunity to invest that break back through the windows,” Cummings said.

The industry’s continued focus on the “Pick X” and super exotic bets “is probably a mistake,” Cummings said. “It’s great to have a low takeout pick five, but only if you hit all five winners. And the last I checked, it’s still easier to pick one winner than five straight.”

With pari-mutuel betting California’s only option, “the greater racing industry should want its customers to win and churn,” Cummings said. “Driving players to multi-race bets that are tough to win is leading them on a path to lower churn.”

As for the industry’s long-term future within a sports wagering ecosystem in California, Daruty emphasized the importance of having a “seat at the table” as the lines are drawn.

“If you look at it today, racing is the only legal form of sports betting in California—it’s also the only legal form of online betting in California,” he said. “So, we would just like to make sure we’re part of whatever the sports betting future brings.”

NEW EQUINE VETERINARY HOSPITAL OPENS IN VERSAILLES

Edited Press Release

Bluegrass Equine Surgery (BES) has opened at 3550 Lexington Road in Versailles, Kentucky. BES is a comprehensive, world-class surgical and recovery facility with onsite diagnostics, imaging, pharmacy, and lab access to care for any equine need on or off the farm and will be led by Woodford County native and Doctor of Veterinary Medicine W. True Baker.

BES is part of a growing investment in the Kentucky equine industry by its parent company, PetVet Care Centers of Westport, Connecticut. In addition to expanding its footprint with BES, PetVet and Hagyard Equine Medical Institute of Lexington have partnered with Churchill Downs to install its first equine positron emission tomography (PET) scan machine at the medical center in the stable area.

“We recognize Kentucky’s unique connection to the equine industry and we want to be leaders in that industry,” said Anthony Loomis DVM, Chief Medical Officer of PetVet.

“Our addition of Bluegrass Equine Surgery is another step, following the acquisition of successful practices like Hagyard and our new partnership with historic Churchill Downs. This allows us to ensure we bring the right care to all of our equine communities.”

Dr. Baker added, “This new hospital’s values are based on the work ethic and horsemanship I learned growing up in the industry. Our philosophy has always been to work hard, treat people fairly, and above all, do what’s best for the horse.”

Dr. Baker graduated with honors from the veterinary program at Auburn University in 2006. He completed surgical residency at Peterson and Smith Equine Hospital in Ocala, Florida, then joined Woodford Equine in 2010, a practice owned by his father, Bill Baker DVM, before joining Hagyard Equine Medical Institute in 2013.

Dr. Baker is a regular part of Thoroughbred sales and specializes in orthopedic, conformational, and upper airway surgeries. He is a published researcher on surgical management of angular limb deformities, as well as equine colic, and is performing ongoing research into the effects of juvenile injuries on racing performance.

Lauren Javernick DVM has joined the practice as head of Ambulatory Services. In addition to her extensive background in equine reproduction and herd health, she brings deep expertise in Chinese medicine and acupuncture. Two other BES veterinarians on the team are Jessica Thornton DVM, who specializes in equine reproduction and neonate medicine as well as herd health, and Kristen Near VMD, who was the resident vet on a large horse farm and has experience in all aspects of the Thoroughbred industry.

1st-AQU, $85K, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f, 12:20 p.m.

Owned and bred by Joseph Allen, BILOXI BLUES (Tapit) starts her career for trainer Shug McGaughey at the Big A Thursday. Out of the winning Speightstown mare Accepting, herself a half-sister to MGSW Campaign (Curlin), Biloxi Blues hails from the extended female family of GISW Acoma (Empire Maker), GISW and leading sire Arch (Kris S.), dual champion and MGSW Covfefe (Into Mischief), and MGSW/MG1SP Albiano (Harlan's Holiday). Her last work from the gate was a near-bullet four furlongs in :47 (2/167) Oct. 22 and she picks up jockey Dylan Davis for her afternoon debut. TJCIS PPS

Tracking from the back half of the field as Classic Moment (Classic Empire) led through an opening quarter in :22.87 and inching closer around the turn, Legionnaire began to loom between horses before tipping outside at the top of the stretch to take command. Clear close to home, he hit the wire 3 1/4 lengths ahead of Ben Diesel (Will Take Charge) who had chased from second throughout. Out of a half-sister to MGSW Vision and Verse (Storm Cat), Legionnaire has a 2-year-old full-brother, Classic Legacy, a yearling half-sister by Justify, and a weanling half-sister by Medaglia d'Oro. The fourth choice on the board at 9-2 Wednesday, she raced in the back third of the field through an opening quarter in :23.02 before advancing her position around the far turn. Hugging the fence as the field straightened for home, Gold Medal Anna tipped out with a furlong to run and easily inhaled the leading pair, hitting the wire going away to win by 3 1/4 lengths over Mary Q (Social Inclusion). Already a half-sister to a pair of stakes horses in Voodoo Storm (Storm Cat), SW, $481,408 and Voodoo Swinge (Unbridled's Song), MGSP, $106,420, Gold Medal Anna is the last reported foal from her dam. Supported to 9-10 favoritism here, the homebred tracked sparring leaders from third through a :25.34 quarter before moving up to be the middle marker of a three-ply duel past a half in :49.37. Taking over inside the three-sixteenths pole, the blinkered gray kicked away from there to a 3 1/4-length graduation. Mano Dura (Keen Ice) was second best. The Riddle Half (of Rood & Riddle)

Along with his breeding procedures and stories from his childhood, Riddle tells how he and Dr. Bill Rood joined together and built a practice that has achieved both a national and international reputation for excellence in equine veterinary medicine.

All profits from the sale of the book "The Riddle Half" will go to the Foundation for the Horse (AAEP) and the Theriogenology Foundation!

"The Riddle Half" is a great book and a great educational tool. I would say a MUST READ for all aspiring reproduction vets as well as for up and coming broodmare managers. It is also a great review for us old broodmare managers who have forgotten most of that stuff!"

—Rick Nichols, Vice President, Farm Manager at Shadwell Farm

The book is available for purchase online at RRVP.com or by calling the Rood & Riddle Veterinary Pharmacy at 859.246.0112

DUBAWI'S FEE SET AT £350,000 FOR 2023

Champion elect Dubawi | Darley

Dubawi (Ire), the champion sire-elect in Britain and Ireland in 2022, will stand at his highest fee yet of £350,000 next year, making him the most expensive stallion in Europe.

For the past six seasons, a nomination fee for the 20-year-old sire has been priced at £250,000. Dubawi is set to be crowned champion this season with more than £1 million in progeny earnings ahead of the reigning champion Frankel (GB), through those places are reversed in the European table.

Darley also introduces two new stallions in Britain and Ireland respectively, with Perfect Power (Ire), a treble Group 1-winning son of Ardad (Ire), joining Dalham Hall Stud at £15,000, while the G1 Platinum Jubilee S. winner Naval Crown (GB) becomes the sixth son of Dubawi on the current roster, and will be based at Kildangan Stud at a fee of €15,000.

While Dubawi heads the Dalham Hall line-up, his son Night Of Thunder (Ire) fills the same position at Kildangan where he will command his first six-figure fee in 2023, his price having risen from €75,000 to €100,000.

Night Of Thunder's fellow Kildangan resident Blue Point (Ire) has been trimmed to €35,000, while the fee for Teofilo (Ire) remains at €30,000.

'ONE OF THE WORLD'S ELITE STALLIONS' FRANKEL TO STAND AT £275,000

The reigning champion sire Frankel (GB) has had his fee increased to £275,000 for the 2023 breeding season.

In another stellar year, the Juddmonte stallion has been responsible for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Alpinista (GB) along with the Classic winners Westover (GB), Nashwa (GB) and Homeless Songs (Ire), and the G1 Dewhurst S. winner Chaldean (GB).

A statement released by Juddmonte on Wednesday read, "Following on from an exceptional 2021 season, we have seen Frankel further strengthen his reputation as a world-class sire with nine individual Group 1 winners to date in 2022, more than any other sire in the world. In the past two years he has sired 12 Group 1 winners, of which five were Classic winners, and 29 group winners in total. He is the sire of the four highest-priced yearlings at Tattersalls Book 1 headlined by the world's highest-priced yearling sold in 2022 at 2.8 million gns. His new fee reflects his standing as one of the world's elite stallions."

EUROPEAN NEWS

Alongside Dubawi in Newmarket, another of his sons, Too Darn Hot (GB), who has his first yearlings next year, has been trimmed to £40,000, while Palace Pier (GB), who will have first foals on the ground from January, has also had a minor fee reduction to £50,000.

Darley's trio of stallions at Haras du Logis in Normandy are led by French Classic winner Victor Ludorum (Ire), who remains at €15,000.

Sam Bullard, Director of Stallions, said, "There's no bigger name in the business than champion sire Dubawi. He's set even higher standards for himself in 2022, and it's only right his new fee should reflect this. Equally, demand for his best stallion son Night Of Thunder is also extremely gratifying.

"It's great news we have Dubawi's Platinum Jubilee winner Naval Crown joining the team in Ireland, and--with Perfect Power at Dalham Hall Stud--we're proud to have two tremendous commercial prospects for breeders to get stuck into.

"Looking down the list, we've tried to be as competitive with our prices as we can, knowing how hard it is for breeders in today's challenging economic conditions."

IN THE PIPELINE!

When Coolmore purchased Wootton Bassett in the summer of 2020 he had just one Group 1 winner to his credit, albeit a very special one in European Champion 3-Year-Old Almanzor (from his sire's first crop of just 23 foals).

In the intervening period that tally has risen to six, courtesy of Prix Jean Romanet and Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine Audarya, 'Abbaye' winner Wooded, Prix Saint-Alary winner Incarville, Prix Marcel Boussac winner Zellie and National Stakes winner Al Riffa. And remember these were conceived at fees as low as €4,000.

This year he had 77 yearlings sell for up to €750,000 at an average of €192,041 – nearly five times the €40,000 at which they were conceived.

But the really exciting part is what comes next.

WOOTTON BASSETT

AL RIFFA, winner of the National Stakes-Gr.1
for Joseph O'Brien and Jassim Bin Ali Al Attiyah

“highly regarded by connections and justified their boldness to supplement him... took this step up in class in his stride and looks a potential 2,000 Guineas prospect.”

Kingman (GB), who has covered at £150,000 for the past three seasons, has been trimmed to a fee for £125,000. The 11-year-old has been represented by the Group 1-winning juvenile Commissioning (GB) this season, along with the highly progressive sprinter Kinross (GB), the winner of the G1 Prix de la Foret and G1 British Champions Sprint his year, along with two Group 2 victories.

"The adjustment to his fee acknowledges the intense competition at this level in the marketplace and the need to be positioned competitively," read the announcement from Juddmonte.

The stalwart of the Juddmonte stallion barn, Oasis Dream (GB), is rising 23 and is both a proven sire and broodmare sire.

Frankel | Bronwen Healy

His fee remains at £20,000, with the fee for his studmate Bated Breath (GB) has also been held at £15,000.

Completing the quintet of homebred stallions at Banstead Manor Stud is Expert Eye (GB), who has notched 21 individual winners to date from his first crop of runners, with four of those rated 90+ by Timeform. His fee has been clipped to £7,500.

LOPE DE VEGA TO REMAIN AT 125K AT BALLYLINCH

Roster stalwart Lope De Vega (Ire) enjoyed another excellent year with his progeny and will remain at a roster-topping €125,000 at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland. Now the sire of 103 black-type winners since reaching his centennial earlier this year, the chestnut also sired a 1.8 million guineas yearling during the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales. No less than 26 of his progeny have won stakes worldwide in 2022, led by dual Group 1 winner turned $2.7-million Keeneland November alum Dreamloper (Ire). He is also the sire of G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Sweet Lady (Fr), G1 Prix de l'Opera victress Place Du Carrousel (Ire) and Hypothetical (Ire), who won the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3 in Dubai.

"Lope de Vega once again confirmed that he is a world leading sire with over 50 black-type horses including 4 Group 1 winners in 2022 alone," said Ballylinch's John O'Connor. "He has achieved success at the highest level on four different continents and is one of those rare sires who can truly be called a global success. 2022 saw Lope de Vega become one of the youngest stallions in history to sire 100 individual stakes winners, reaching the milestone at the same age as Deep Impact (Jpn) and a year quicker than Sadler's Wells and Into Mischief. Ever popular at the sales, Lope de Vega's yearlings sold for up to 1.8 million guineas and averaged €285,000." Cont. p5

New Bay (GB) sired an additional two new Group 1 winners in Bayside Boy (Ire) and Bay Bridge (GB), and his fee has almost doubled to €75,000. His dual Group 1 winner Saffron Beach (Ire), first in the G1 Prix Rothschild and G2 Duke Of Cambridge S. this term, is set to go through the ring at Tattersalls' Park Paddocks later this month. Successful in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S., Bayside Boy will stand his first season at stud for €15,000.

"New Bay has made an explosive start to his stallion career and confirmed himself as a top-level sire with the winners of the two feature Group 1 races on Champions Day at Ascot," added O'Connor. "He is one of only six European stallions to sire at least 3 Group 1 winners in 2022. His statistics are impressive too, as only Frankel (GB) and Dubawi have a higher percentage of their runners rated over 100. New Bay's sale season reflected his results on track, with his yearlings averaging €96,000 and making up to 475,000gns.

"Bayside Boy is a very exciting new addition to the Ballylinch roster. He has all the attributes that we look for in a stallion prospect, a top-class 2-year-old and a Group 1 winning miler with an exceptional turn of foot. His sire New Bay is one of the very best stallion sons of Dubawi, and his stakes-winning and group-producing dam is from a high-quality family. He was an outstanding yearling and I'm sure that breeders will be very impressed with both his looks and his athletic walk."

Arc hero Waldgeist (GB) sees his fee trimmed to €12,500 from €15,000. He is expecting his first runners in 2023. Make Believe (GB), the sire of the globetrotting Group 1 winner Mishriff (Ire), has been lowered to €10,000 from €17,500 in 2022.

"The highest rated horse by Galileo since the outstanding Frankel, Waldgeist has been given an excellent chance to succeed in his stallion career," said O'Connor. "He is a Group 1 winning 2-year-old that went on to win a vintage Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Waldgeist's first crop was warmly received at the sales, with one in five making over €100,000 and averaging €66,000.

"Make Believe made an outstanding start to his stallion career by siring the exceptionally talented and versatile Mishriff in his first crop. Statistically he is very strong at 3.25% group winners. His yearlings realised up to 220,000gns and averaged over three times his stud fee."

SHADWELL'S BAAEED CROWNED CARTIER HORSE OF THE YEAR

Shadwell homebred Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) was named the Cartier Horse of the Year and Cartier Older Horse at the 32nd Cartier Racing Awards at the Dorchester Hotel in London on Wednesday evening.

The first Shadwell colourbearer to earn the Horse of the Year accolade, the William Haggas trainee added another four Group 1 victories to his pair earned in 2021, posting wins in the Lockinge S., Queen Anne S., Sussex S., and International S. in succession. His only loss in an 11-start career was a fourth-place finish in the G1 Champion S. on QIPCO British Champions Day in October. It was announced on Tuesday that the son of Aghareed (Kingmambo) would stand for £80,000 at Shadwell's Nunnery Stud in 2023.

Also shortlisted for Horse of the Year were G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Alpinista (GB) (Frankel (GB)), quadruple Group 1-winning stayer Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and three-time Group 1-winning sprinter Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). Cont. p6

G1 Champion S. hero Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}) and dual Group 1-winning miler Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) were fellow nominees in the Cartier Older Horse category.

His Highness The Aga Khan's Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}) was named the Cartier 3-Year-Old Colt on the back of victories in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club, G1 Eclipse S., and G3 Prix de Guiche. Runner-up in Alpinista's Arc, the Jean-Claude Rouget trainee was also third in the G1 Irish Champion S. He follows Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge) (2000) and Dalakhani (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) (2003) in earning the 3-year-old colt award for the owner-breeder. This year marked the centennial of The Aga Khan's operation.

Already awarded the title of Cartier 2-Year-Old Filly, Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) became just the third filly to also take the Cartier 3-Year-Old Filly title. The Cheveley Park Stud homebred is in good company, however, as the earlier two winners are none other than Divine Proportions (Kingmambo) in 2005 and Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in 2016. The John and Thady Gosden-trained bay scored an imperious victory in Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S., and, after a second-place finish in the G1 Falmouth S., she bounced back with a gritty win in Deauville's G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois.

Kyprios proved unstoppable in the stayers' ranks throughout a six-start 4-year-old season, collecting victories from April through October. Trained by Aidan O'Brien for Moyglare Stud and the Coolmore partners, the chestnut's victory in the Listed Vintage Crop S. kickstarted a tour de force, quickly followed by the G3 Saval Beg Levmoos S. a month later. Stepped up to Group 1 company, the colt delivered in the Gold Cup, Goodwood Cup S., Irish St. Leger, and the Oct. 1 Prix du Cadran was a 20-length demolition job.

A hardy veteran of the handicap ranks, Highfield Princess proved a revelation when cut back to sprinting trips for owner-breeder John Fairley and trainer John Quinn. In action from February through November, the 5-year-old scored her first group win in the G2 Clipper Logistics S. at York in May, her fifth start of 2022. She earned her first top-drawer tally in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest two starts later at Deauville on Aug. 7, and then added the G1 Nunthorpe S. returned to the Knavesmire and in the Curragh's G1 Flying Five S, in August and September, respectively. Connections opted to try for an international Group 1 four-timer at the Breeders' Cup, but her draw and a rough trip did her no favours, and she was a close fourth.

Part of a legion of Group 1-winning juveniles for Aidan O'Brien and the Coolmore partners in 2022, Blackbeard (Ire) (No Nay Never) got the nod as the Cartier 2-Year-Old Colt. He won six of his eight starts in a busy 2-year-old campaign which culminated in a two-length victory in the G1 Middle Park S. The Derrick Smith, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor and Westerberg silksbearer also captured the G1 Prix Morny, G2 Prix Robert Papin, G3 Marble Hill S. and the Listed First Flier S. Set for stallion duties at Coolmore Ireland in 2023, he was second by a nostril in the G2 Railway S. en route to championship honours.

Blackbeard's Cartier 2-Year-Old Filly counterpart is Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}). The Ralph Beckett-trained filly, owned by Marc Chan and Andrew Rosen, was first or second in all five starts in 2022. After taking the Listed Empress Fillies S. in late June, she was only a half-length back of 'TDN Rising Star' Mawj (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) in the G2 Duchess Of Cambridge S. at Newmarket a month later, and returned to winning ways in the G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot on July 23. Lezoo defeated subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the G1 Cheveley Park S. back at Newmarket to end her season on a high in September. Cont. p7

The recipient of the Cartier/The Daily Telegraph Award of Merit is owner-breeder Kirsten Rausing of Lanwades Stud. Besides celebrating her homebred Alpinista winning the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, Rausing was also the breeder of G1 St Leger hero Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), as well as recent Australian Group 1 winners Zaaki (GB) and Durston (GB). In addition, Rausing serves as an integral figure in the sport's governance and administration, while through her Alborada Trust, she has also provided vital funding for a host of causes in racing and wider society.

Laurent Feniou, Managing Director of Cartier UK, said, "We have been fortunate to witness another exceptional year of European horse racing and I am delighted to celebrate an outstanding group of horses at the 32nd Cartier Racing Awards. Baaeed lit up the season with four brilliant victories and he is a worthy recipient of the Cartier Horse of the Year award. We are also thrilled to honour Kirsten Rausing, who has given so much to the industry, with the Cartier/The Daily Telegraph Award of Merit. It is a privilege for Cartier to be able to recognise these champions of the sport and my deepest congratulations go out to all of this year's winners. I would like to extend special thanks to Racing Post, The Daily Telegraph and Sky Sports Racing for their continued support of the awards."

SAFFRON BEACH TO TATTERSALLS BUT DOOR REMAINS OPEN FOR $4M HK MILE

By Emma Berry

There must have been times when those connected to Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) in her early years were shaking their heads in frustration.

Four times she was entered for a sale as a young horse. She made the first of those engagements, no problem, when she was sold by Ballylinch Stud at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale on behalf of her breeder China Horse Club. Liam Norris, a man with a noted eye for foals, signed for her at 55,000gns, bought for a partnership headed by Ben Sangster, with the intention of bringing the New Bay filly back to the yearling sales the following October.

Thereafter, she was scratched from October Book 2, then the December Yearling Sale and, during the following topsy-turvy first year of Covid, she was also withdrawn from the July Sale, in which she would have appeared as an unraced 2-year-old. By that stage, however, the minor foot issue which had meant Sangster and Saffron Beach's co-owner James Wigan had to forget the yearling sales, had come good, and Jane Chapple-Hyam had paid a visit to Manton to see the filly and to decide if she would like to train her. Fortunately she did like her. Very much so, in fact, and with a raft of group wins now to her credit, it's easy to imagine that Saffron Beach has shot to the top of the charts of Chapple-Hyam's all-time favourite horses.

It will, then, be a bittersweet moment for all involved at Abington Place when their stable star returns to Tattersalls for the December Mares' Sale, even though as a full-fledged dual Group 1 winner she reflects much credit on the yard. And there could yet be the opportunity for one last hurrah.

"She's being sold as a horse-in-training and hopefully the lucky purchaser might enjoy having a trip to Hong Kong," says Chapple-Hyam. "She's in the $4-million Hong Kong Mile and we've accepted the invitation, so it would be a lovely swansong."

It would indeed, but then right from the off, the filly from the first crop of New Bay has fuelled the dreams of her trainer and ownership team of Lucy Sangster, Ollie Sangster and James Wigan. Cont. p8

Making her debut at Newmarket on Sept. 26, 2020, the powerful chestnut strode away from her 14 rivals in her maiden race to finish more than four lengths clear of her nearest pursuer. Such an eye-catching start made her fully entitled to step straight into pattern company, which she did just a fortnight later, back at her home track, in the G3 Oh So Sharp S.

"She's just gone from strength to strength," says Chapple-Hyam. "But in a funny kind of way, her first two runs showed a lot when she won a maiden, and then two weeks later she backed up for the Oh So Sharp. And when Adam Kirby got off her, we knew there and then because he said she felt like a special filly."

Kirby, a jockey not prone to hyperbole, was spot on. Put away for the winter, Saffron Beach returned to run second in her 1000 Guineas trial, the G3 Nell Gwyn S., and was then runner-up in the Classic itself, finishing just a length behind the winner Mother Earth (Ire).

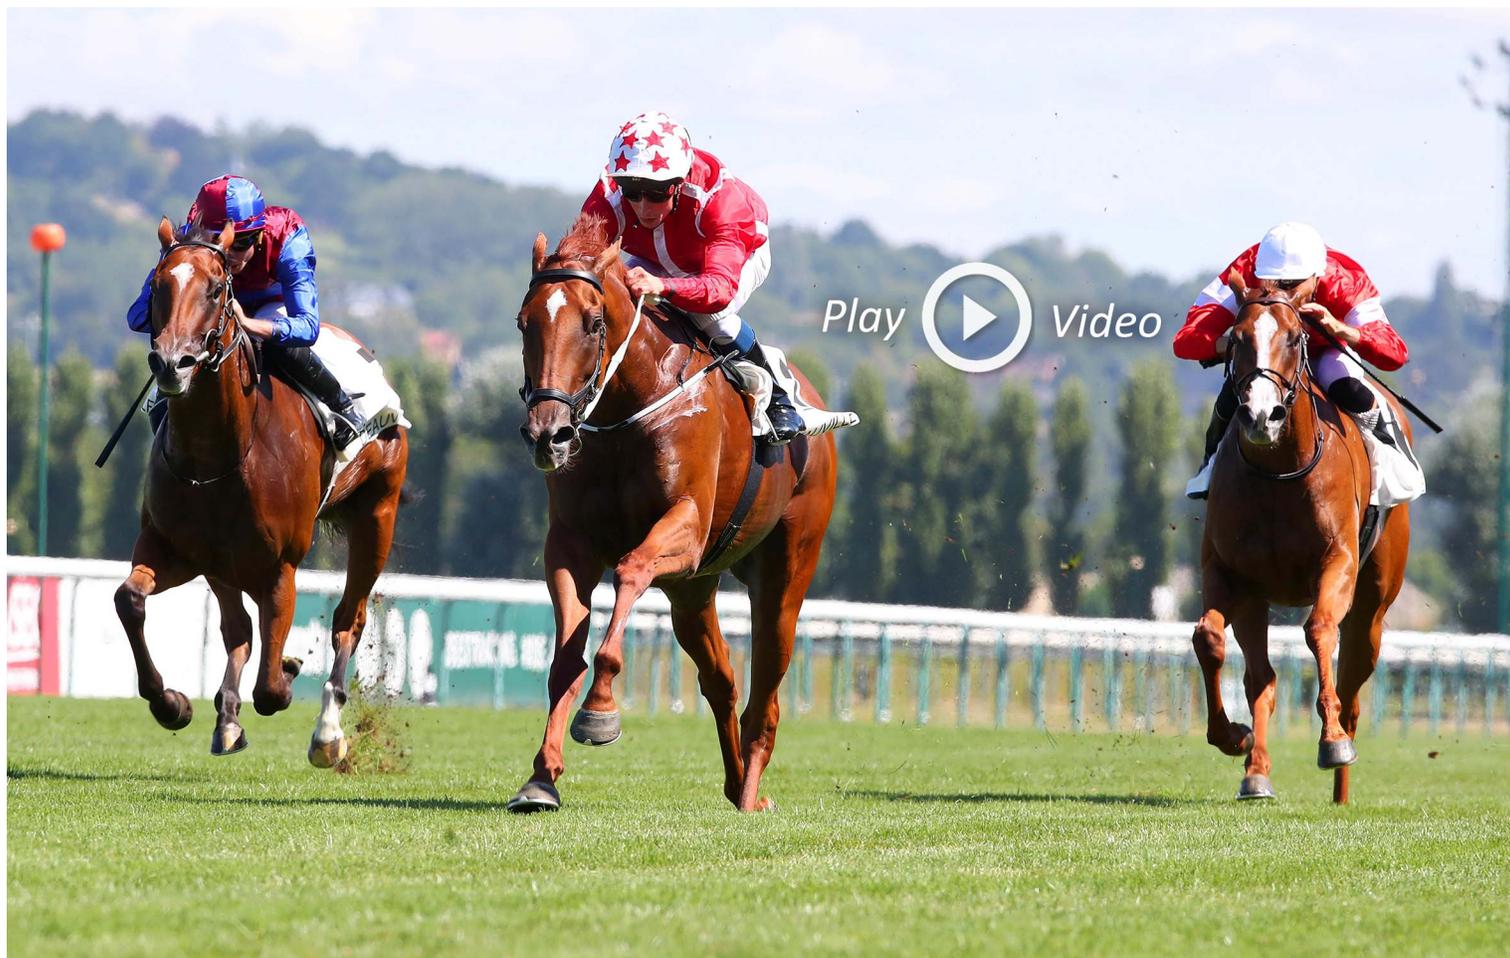

Failing to properly see out the mile and a half when contesting the Oaks at Epsom, Saffron Beach had unleashed her true potential by the end of her 3-year-old season, winning the G3 Atalanta S. en route to landing her first Group 1 in the Sun

Chariot back at her beloved Rowley Mile.

"She did really well in the Nell Gwyn," her trainer recalls. "We used that as a stepping stone and she was probably only 85% fit, then we waited another two weeks to run in the Guineas. So that was a highlight and then since then she's picked up Group 1s, whether it be at Newmarket or over in Deauville, and she's just proved a tough, consistent filly."

Returned to training at four, Saffron Beach's warm-up fourth place in the G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan proved the perfect springboard for another lucrative summer campaign in Europe. At Royal Ascot she waltzed away with the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. before beating dual Group 1 winner Tenebrism (Ire) in the G1 Prix Rothschild in Deauville. She also had her fellow Sceptre Sessions entrant Pearls Galore (Fr) behind her that day, but the tables were turned when all three classy fillies met again on Irish Champions Weekend, with Pearls Galore landing the G1 Matron S. ahead of Saffron Beach in second, and Tenebrism third, with the Irish 1000 Guineas winner Homeless Songs (Ire) claiming fourth.

Saffron Beach, who hails from the family of the young sire Cotai Glory (GB), was the first Group 1 winner for her upwardly mobile sire. Cont. p9

She has been joined in that category this year by Bay Bridge (GB) and Bayside Boy (Ire), who notched a notable Group 1 double for the Ballylinch Stud resident on British Champions Day.

Chapple-Hyam says of the statuesque trailblazer, "She's feisty, but she's a nice, feisty mare. She's got a kind side to her. It's going to be hard when she goes because she's in box one, and so for a couple of years, [we've been] seeing her every morning. But hopefully she'll have a nice career at stud and go to some top stallions."

She adds, "It will be up to the new purchasers if they would like her to run in Hong Kong in their colours and we will do some quick paperwork, but we're all set at this end.

"Everyone's very thrilled with what she's done throughout the last couple of years so I'm sure they'll all miss cheering her on. But we were lucky enough to keep her on as a 4-year-old so, especially the last month, we've just been enjoying seeing her every day."

SUMBE'S MISHRIFF WILL STAND FOR 20K IN DEBUT SEASON

Globetrotting multiple Group 1 winner Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) will stand for €20,000 under Nurlan Bizakov's Sumbe banner at Haras de Montfort et Preaux next year.

The Classic winner, who won the G1 Prix du Jockey Club, G1 Dubai Sheema Classic and G1 International S. in France, Dubai and England, respectively, ran a good fourth in his career finale, the Nov. 5 GI Breeders' Cup Turf.

Mishriff | Scoop Dyga

His record stands at seven wins and seven placings from 21 starts with earnings of $16,034,853.

Mishriff will be well-supported by his owner-breeder Prince Faisal, trainers John and Thady Gosden and racing manager Ted Voute. The 2021 Saudi Cup hero's third dam is G1 Prix de Diane heroine Rafha (GB) (Kris {GB}), herself the dam of standout sires Invincible Spirit (Ire) and Kodiak (GB).

Meanwhile, Group 1 winner Golden Horde (Ire) will stand his third season at an unchanged fee of €8,000. De Treville (GB), an Oasis Dream (GB) half-brother to Too Darn Hot (GB), will command €5,000, double his 2022 fee. The rise comes after the positive results for his progeny, and the 10-year-old is responsible for one stakes winner and two black-type horses from limited opportunities. Rounding out the quartet is Recorder (GB) at €3,000. The sire of a pair of stakes winners, he was €4,000 in 2022.

MAGICAL LAGOON READY TO GO FOR QEII CUP

Classic heroine Magical Lagoon (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is in "perfect condition" in advance of the G1 QEII Cup on Nov. 14, according to assistant trainer Kate Harrington.

Racing for Zhang Yuesheng, the 3-year-old filly, who won the G2 Ribblesdale S. prior to her G1 Irish Oaks heroics, was fifth to future Arc winner Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks in August.

"This morning, she galloped for about six furlongs," said Harrington, who assists her mother, Jessica. "We just wanted to get a nice breeze into her and for Shane [Foley] to see how she's moving and how she was.

"She lost a nice bit of weight traveling here, but she's back to her best weight now. With Shane riding her today, she knows it's coming close to the race date, she's in perfect condition and we couldn't be happier with her. She's taking everything well in her stride and settled in really well with the surroundings here.

"The quick surface in Japan is one of the reasons why we brought her here. She's done well on quick surfaces in Europe and I think the right-handed course at Hanshin will suit her well. Magical Lagoon is a tough horse, she has stamina and she'll never give up a fight."

Jockey Shane Foley added, "Hanshin Racecourse is a very good and fair track with a long straight so that she can get into a battle. The harder the battle, the better she'll be.

"She's usually good out of the gate and quick into her strides so we hope to get a nice position in the first five or six and get her into a nice rhythm.

"We'd prefer that it doesn't rain and that we can race on fast track because her best form is on firm ground, but she's getting stronger all the time and I think she'll handle it well. The soft ground in Japan is different to soft ground in Europe so hopefully it won't get too bad."

MARKSMAN QUEEN (GB) (f, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Sharp Susan {MGSW & GISP-US, $478,326}, by Touch Gold) found a slot on the heels of the leaders and raced in a handy fifth for the most part. Cruising closer in the straight, the 16-1 chance was shaken up to challenge approaching the final furlong and pushed out in the closing stages to deny the rallying Zouzanna (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) by a head. Marksman Queen is the ninth of 11 live foals and sixth scorer out of MGSW GI Garden City S. third Sharp Susan (Touch Gold), herself a half-sister to GI Donn H. victor Spring At Last (Silver Deputy) and GI Las Virgenes S. heroine Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band). The March-foaled homebred bay is a half-sister to South African Horse Of The Year and MG1SW dual champion Oh Susanna (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}), dual Group 1-placed G3 Star Kingdom S. victor Signore Fox (Aus) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and GII Summer S. and GIII Grey S. placegetter Indiano Jones (A.P. Indy). She is also kin to a yearling filly by Frankel (GB), a weanling colt by Kingman (GB) and to the dam of the stakes-placed High Hosanna (SAF) (Trippi). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $4,240.

4th-Kempton, £9,900, Mdn, 11-9, 2yo, 8f (AWT), 1:41.49, st/sl. REAL GAIN (IRE) (c, 2, Profitable {Ire}--Real Me {GB}, by Mark Of Esteem {Ire}) hit the lids running from the outside gate and led before settling in a prominent second. Shuffled down to third when hustled along at the quarter-mile marker, the 16-1 chance inched ahead soon after and was driven out inside the final furlong to withstand the persistent attention of Garden Route (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by a neck. Real Gain is the sixth winner from as many runners produced by an unraced half-sister to G3 Railway S. victrix Camargo (Ire) (Brief Truce) and the dual scorer Forget About It (Ire) (Be My Guest). The latter's swathe of black-type descendants includes G3 Bahrain Trophy-winning sire Shantaram (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and G1 2000 Guineas third Gan Amhras (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). The February-foaled bay is kin to Listed Prix Matchem runner-up Real Force (GB) (Lethal Force {Ire}) and a weanling filly by Footstepsinthesand (GB). Sales history: 110,000gns Ylg '21 TATOCT. Normfliegerin had placed three times in 11 consecutive black-type starts, which included a third in last term's G3 Deutsches St Leger at Dortmund, and lined for this coming back off a fifth here in last month's G3 Prix Belle de Nuit. The eventual winner was the sharpest of nine into stride and was in control through the early stages before accepting a tow in third approaching the judge first time. Sent to the far-side rail for the lead along the backstraight, she was several lengths clear turning for home and stayed on relentlessly under a drive inside the final quarter mile to claim a career high by daylight.

Normfliegerin, the second of four foals, is one of three scorers from as many runners and the leading performer produced by stakes-winning G3 Herbst Stuten Preis third North Mum (Ger) (Samum {Ger}), herself out of G3 Walther J Jacobs-Stutenpreis victrix and G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up North Queen (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}). The May-foaled chestnut is a full-sister to the hitherto unraced 2-year-old filly Normfluchtige (Ger), who sold for €80,000 at last year's BBAG September sale. North Mum is a half-sister to G2 Union-Rennen third Northsea Star (Ger) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), the stakes-placed Nordfalke (Ire) (Hawk Wing) and to the dams of MGSP Listed Prix du Lys winner Northern Ruler (Ger) (Ruler Of The World {Ire}) and Listed Prix Ceres victrix Narnia Dawn (Ire) (Roderic O'Connor {Ire}). Video, sponsored by TVG.

AMERICAN FLAG (FR) (c, 2, Wootton Bassett {GB}--Tres Americanqueen {Fr}, by American Post {GB}), an Oct. 10 debut runner-up over this trip at Deauville last time, stalked the leader in second after a swift getaway here. Sent wide to the stands' side fence off the home turn, the 17-10 second choice inched ahead passing the quarter-mile marker and was pushed clear inside the final eighth to easily defeat Sous La Neige (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}) by six lengths. Cont. p13

GUET APENS (GB) (c, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Surprise Moment {Ire}, by Authorized {Ire}), a Sept. 29 debut fourth tackling one mile at Chantilly last time, was steadied to race off the tempo in fourth after an alert exit from the inside stall. Taking closer order once into the home straight, the 7-10 chalk was shaken up to hit the front with 350 metres remaining and kept on well under urging inside the final furlong to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from De Florio (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}). Guet Apens, half to a weanling filly by Cracksman (GB), is the fifth foal and scorer produced by a multiple-winning daughter of Listed Radley S. victrix Criquette (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}), herself a half-sister to G1 Queen Elizabeth II S.-winning sire Markofdistinction (GB) (Known Fact). Descendants of Criquette also include MG1SW Australian champion Pierro (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}), MG1SW sire Laverock (Ire) (Octagonal {NZ}), MG1SP G2 Wakeful S. victrix Ambience (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}), and MGSW G1 Pretty Polly S. runner-up Flying Cloud (Ire) (Storming Home {GB}).
