FLIGHTLINE, BORN FROM THE HEART OF A LYON

Jane Lyon & Lasting Tribute (Tapit), a half-sister to American Pharoah | Christie DeBernardis

By Christie DeBernardis

Within minutes of Flightline crossing the wire in another jaw-dropping victory in the Breeders' Cup Classic, the question buzzing across the racing world was whether we would get the chance to see him race again. Many argued against his retirement, saying racing needs a hero and, at least right now and for the foreseeable future, he is certainly it. Some 16 hours later, we got our answer. The unbeaten sensation was retired to the Lane's End stallion barn, where he is already in high demand. Many were saddened to see their hero ride off into the sunset (though I have no doubt he will remain in the headlines for many years to come). However, what those people don't realize is racing still has the hero it needs, and her name is Jane Lyon. First of all, without Jane, there is no Flightline. Along with her trusted team, Jane picked out his dam Feathered and, in true Jane Lyon fashion, fought off all comers to secure the mare she wanted. The Arkansas native and her brain trust chose Tapit for the mare's 2017 breeding and on March 14, 2018, Flightline was born in a deep bed of straw at Lyon's beautiful Summer Wind Farm in Georgetown, Kentucky. I'm sure Lyon was right there to towel the colt off and mark him with her lipstick. It took more than choosing the right mare and stallion to create Flightline. It was also the top-notch care, extreme attention to detail and, most importantly Jane and her giant heart. Cont. p3

GHOSTZAPPER'S OUR FLASH DRIVE MUCH THE BEST IN BESSARABIAN

Looking for redemption following a narrow defeat in the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Ontario Matron S. Oct. 22, Our Flash Drive (Ghostzapper) returned to winning ways with an impressive score in the GII Bessarabian S. at Woodbine Saturday. Installed the well-supported favorite in this cut back to seven furlongs, the Florida-bred filly was a covered-up fifth as longshot Lorena (Souper Speedy) led through a :23.25 quarter. Cruising behind a wall of horses following a half in :45.44, the Live Oak homebred kicked into another gear rounding the home turn. Carrying the most momentum out of the turn, Our Flash Drive darted clear late and rolled home an emphatic 5 3/4-length winner over Hazelbrook (Bayern), with Loyalty (Hard Spun) farther back in third. Cont. p6

She loves every single animal on her property with everything she has, especially her foals, who all get plenty of carrots, kisses and sweet words from their breeder throughout their life at Summer Wind. Jane keeps track of them all long after they leave the farm and welcomes them back home if they ever need a soft place to land.

Jane makes sure everyone in her employ is aware of the kindness she expects her horses to be shown. She always says you can teach horses with sternness and punishment or with love and kindness, and she chooses the latter. Her outlook and endless devotion create horses who are good-minded, very people friendly, smart and kind. Flightline has been described to have all these attributes.

Flightline winning the BC Classic | Breeders' Cup/Eclipse Sportswire

I know what you're thinking. There are plenty of owners and breeders who love their horses and are kind to them. You're right. But I assure you, none of them are like Jane Lyon.

Jane is a bright light in an industry that has been plagued with darkness, especially over the last few years. She always says I oversell her, or I'm biased, when I describe her to others, but I have yet to find one person who disagrees with me. Jane is as kind and generous to people as she is to her animals, always offering a kind word and her signature million-dollar smile to everyone she meets.

Jane happily shares her farm, elite broodmares and regally bred foals with any horse lover, which is how I came to know her. The first time I spoke to Jane was a phone interview after American Pharoah won the Triple Crown. It was just two years into my career, and we had a lovely, 30-minute conversation about her pride and joy Littleprincessemma, after which I realized my recorder had missed it all. Embarrassed, I called back, and Jane graciously went through it all again.

THE MOE THE MERRIER

Anamoe, Australia's incredible seven-time G1 winner: he might be the best yet by Street Boss – but there are (many) others, too, including a G1 Kentucky Oaks winner. In other words, he can sire any kind of horse. Must-see weanlings at the sales now. Just imagine...

Darley

I had the pleasure of interviewing Jane a few more times over the next few years, and she was equally gracious each time, always remembering my name. In 2018, the opportunity came to do a story that would bring me to Summer Wind, a dream come true, and she welcomed me with open arms.

The first time I stepped foot on Summer Wind, a farm I now know as well as my own neighborhood, it was just six weeks after Flightline was born. I can't say I remember him from that day or knew I was looking at a future superstar as my focus was on his barnmate Triple Tap, a half-brother to my hero at the time, American Pharoah. What I did know however, is I was among greatness at Summer Wind, both human and equine.

Jane Lyon & Chasing Yesterday | Christie DeBernardis

I ended up spending the entire day with Jane, even witnessing the foaling of Princess Arabella's 2018 Union Rags colt. Long after the interview had ended, we chatted away like old friends. It is an anomaly among horsewomen. When they recognize a kindred spirit whose passion for horses burns as bright as their own, it bonds them instantly and that is what happened that fateful day in Georgetown.

Ever since that day, Summer Wind has become a regular stop on my frequent trips to Kentucky. I spend at least one day of my trip driving through the farm with Jane looking at (and feeding carrots to) racing's past and future stars, wondering which of the beautiful foals before me will be the next McKinzie, Moonshine Memories, Chasing Yesterday, Game Winner or Flightline.

While neither Jane, myself, nor anyone else could have ever predicted Flightline would become what he did, it does not surprise me that a horse like that came off Jane's farm. And, in my opinion, there is no one that deserves it more.

Jane has faced plenty of adversity throughout her life and has been tested time and time again, but that is her story to tell. What I will tell you though, is she is as fierce as she is kind and doesn't let anything keep her down for long. Jane has put in plenty of time, effort, sweat, tears and, of course, love to get to be the highly respected breeder, and person, she is today.

I've met a lot of great people over the past decade working in this industry, but there is no one like Jane. I have never seen another horsewoman of her stature lay in the stall with a motherless foal and stroke her to sleep, giving her the motherly love she was lacking, like Jane has on more than one occasion. She takes in every stray dog dropped at her doorstep and provides them a dream life. She claims any Summer Wind-bred she finds running at a cheap track somewhere and brings them home to live out their days in her retirement field. She opens her door and her heart to anyone I or any other friend asks to bring along for a one-of-a-kind day at Summer Wind (as well as the Littleprincessemma fans who reach her office manager). She cooks for three people as if she has 10 coming for dinner, so she can also feed her staff as a mother feeds her children. She will go above and beyond to help anyone in need and always puts others before herself.

Jane's most endearing quality is her humility. In fact, she will probably hate that I spent so many words gushing over her in such a public forum, but I assure you all, every one of them is true and well deserved.

Jane Lyon & Flightline after the Met Mile | Sarah Andrew

The other day, a friend of mine, who has met Jane on two occasions now, said, "the world doesn't deserve Jane," after I told her a heart-warming anecdote about Jane from earlier that day. I told the same story to another friend, whom I brought along for one of those very special Summer Wind days, and her response was, "we need more people like Jane in this world."

They both could not be more right.

Jane is one of the few truly kind, genuine and selfless people left in this world. When things in the industry get a bit dark and I begin to get discouraged, I look to Jane and see everything that is good in this sport. She gives me hope and reminds me why I love racing.

So, while I'll miss seeing Flightline on the racetrack as much as everyone else, I'm just so glad those of us in racing still have a hero among us in Jane Lyon. I don't know about you, but I can't wait to see what she gives us next.

Our Flash Drive | Michael Burns

"I was getting the perfect trip down the backside [today], trying to find out where [Jose] Ortiz [aboard Artie's Princess {We Miss Artie}] is," said winning rider Patrick Husbands. "I just tipped out at the top of the lane. Actually, she ran a winning race [in the Ontario Matron last time out]. That horse [Kate's Kingdom {Animal Kingdom}] just followed me and caught me."

Victorious in the GIII Selene S. and GIII Ontario Colleen S. in 2021, she recorded only a single win previously this season in the De La Rose S. at Saratoga in August. However, she did finish in the top three on four prior occasions, including in Belmont's GIII Beaugay S. in the spring and the GII Nassau S. over the Woodbine turf in July.

Pedigree Notes:

Our Flash Drive is the second live foal of Dynamotor, who is also responsible for a 2-year-old full-sister to the winner named Bell Witch and a yearling sister by Omaha Beach. Barren in 2022, the mare was bred back to Mendelssohn.

Il Malocchio hadn't tasted victory in well over a year, but marked her return to the winner's circle in Saturday's GIII Maple Leaf S.

Sent off at 9-1, Il Malocchio settled in midpack early behind a solid pace of :23.93 and :47.12 behind 2-1 choice Transient (GB). Still biding her time while scraping the paint in fifth about three lengths off the pace, she began to pick up the pace approaching the three-eighths pole, and was fully extended while reeling in the pacesetter turning for home. Swung out four or five wide into the stretch, Il Malocchio took over a sixteenth out and drew clear to score by one length over Angelou.

"First of all, she's enjoying the cooler weather for sure," offered trainer Martin Drexler. "She had a couple little setbacks in the summer. I also thought she got the perfect trip today. It was a perfect setup right from the beginning. She sat just off the pace, there was a little bit of pace to run at, she saved ground, and the rail was good today. It just really set up for her. She's just been always on. Some days, she struggles in the heat a bit. This weather and the type of track we had today, I think she enjoyed that."

VEKOMA FILLY TOPS KEENOV BOOK 4 OPENER

By Christie DeBernardis

A filly from the first crop of MGISW Vekoma (Candy Ride {Arg}) (Hip 2205) shot to the top of the class late in Saturday's opening session of Book 4 of the Keeneland November Sale, bringing $215,000 from Frankie's Stable.

Consigned by Grovendale Sales, she was bred by William Humphries and Altair Farms. The chestnut is out of Truckstop Diamond (Flat Out), a half-sister to SW & GISP Meadow Dance (Jimmy Creed).

"She is a superstar physical," said Grovendale's Chance Timm. "Those kind bring a premium and breakout."

This is the first crop for GI Carter H. and GI Met Mile winner Vekoma, who stands at Spendthrift Farm.

"It is surprising how much leg and scope they have," Timm said of the Vekoma weanlings. "This filly has a lot of leg underneath her and great length. She has a beautiful profile, more so than you would think for the sire line."

The day's top mare was the 3-year-old Street Slayer (Street Sense) (Hip 2166), purchased by JCB Stables for $170,000. Selling as a broodmare prospect, the bay is a half to GSW Biddy Duke (Bayern).

A total of 246 horses changed hands during the sixth session of Keeneland November for a gross of $9,596,900. During the equivalent session last year, 271 head brought $10,507,100. The average was up a tick from $38,772 in 2021 to $39,012 and the median increased from $26,000 to $30,000. The RNA rate was also up from 18.37% to 23.84%

Through the first six days of selling 1,287 horses have summoned $192,033,900, a large increase from last year when 1,391 head brought $176,713,100. Average increased from $127,040 in 2021 to $149,210 and the median was also up from $75,000 to $77,000. The RNA rate was 20.42% for 2021, but is up to 25.09% this year so far.

“It has definitely slowed down a bit here in Book 4 compared to earlier in the week,” Timm said. “It just doesn't have as much traffic as you'd like to see, but same story. When you lead ones up like that, you can't hide them. Everybody's there for them.”

The Keeneland November Sale continues through Wednesday with sessions starting at 10 a.m. It will be followed by a single-session Horses of Racing Age Sale Thursday.

TRAINERS MAKER, VAN BERG WIN 2 EACH ON SNOW-TINGED CLAIMING CROWN CARD

by T.D. Thornton

Trainer Mike Maker racked up his 20th and 21st Claiming Crown victories on Saturday, extending his lifetime lead among conditioners in that annual series by saddling Keystone Field (Candy Ride {Arg}) to a determined half-length win in the featured $175,000 Jewel. But while Maker's familiar presence in the winner's circle underscored his resilience in the event often described as the "blue-collar Breeders' Cup," a trainer taking his first crack at the Claiming Crown, Tom Van Berg, also registered two series victories and added a third on the undercard for a three-win afternoon. The Claiming Crown, which began in 1999 as a way to showcase and reward horses who compete in the types of races that form the backbone of day-to-day American racing, is a partnership between the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association. After initially rotating among smaller tracks in its formative years, Gulfstream Park had evolved into the host track over the past decade.

But for 2022, the Claiming Crown switched sites to Churchill Downs, and the series was moved up from early December to the Saturday after the Breeders' Cup, a spot where it faced practically zero simulcast competition in terms of marquee events on the national calendar.

Invaluable winning the Glass Slipper | Coady

Speculation had been rife over the past several months about whether Churchill Downs would actually be able to host turf racing for the Claiming Crown because of the fragile condition of its slow-to-grow $10 million grass course. But Mother Nature interceded on the morning of Nov. 13 by dusting Louisville with early-season snow and freezing temperatures, making it a necessity for track management to move all scheduled turf races to the sloppy and sealed main track.

As if the gray, chilly conditions weren't enough to underscore the hardscrabble nature of the claiming event, Van Berg's two wins for his ownership outfit, Grit to Glory Racing, LLC, lent additional support in the form of an appropriate name: Not only because "grit to glory" is a catchphrase that epitomizes the Claiming Crown, but because those words were also the subtitle of a biography written about Tom Van Berg's father, the late, great Hall-of-Fame trainer Jack Van Berg.

"This is the first time we've participated in it as a stable," Tom Van Berg said of the eight-race Claiming Crown slate that featured $1.05 million in guaranteed purses, plus additional funding from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund. "When we heard the news it was coming to Churchill, it made a big difference on who we ran and how many we ran. I think if it was in Florida, we'd probably have taken one down there. Instead we have five in today, so [the series being at Churchill] made a big difference for us."

Another twist this year was that the Claiming Crown races, which have traditionally been conducted under starter allowance conditions but called stakes, couldn't technically be called "stakes" this year because the Claiming Crown would then be subject to no-Lasix restrictions that are required for stakes. But even though not designated as black-type, the races for the most part retained their traditional naming to keep continuity with previous editions.

In the featured nine-furlong Jewel, the Maker-trained Keystone Field opened up with a big move off the far turn and then grudgingly stayed on late at 6-1 odds in 1:53.29 under Gerardo Corrales.

The 7-year-old gelding is now 6-for-21 lifetime for owner Three Diamonds Farm (Kirk Wycoff).

"We knew when it came up sloppy that a son of Candy Ride should handle the surface great," Wycoff said. "I left the [Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale] a few hours ago, and it's a great sale-but winning races is better."

One of trainer Van Berg's two wins for his Grit to Glory partnership came in the $125,000 Rapid Transit over seven furlongs. The Queens Jules (Scat Daddy) provided the most exciting finish of the day by clawing back the lead when headed in deep stretch and scoring by the barest of nostrils with Florent Geroux up in 1:25.10 for seven furlongs at 8-1 odds. The 7-year-old gelding has switched barns via the claim box weight times in 59-race career prior to earning win number 12 on Saturday.

That same owner/trainer/jockey combo teamed for a win by Petit Verdot (Vancouver {Aus}) in the $150,000 Canterbury Tom Metzen Memorial, moved from the grass to 5 1/2 furlongs over the slop and reduced to a field of five after six scratches. The 4-year-old gelding forced the issue near the front end to register a length-of-stretch, head-bob victory at 2-1 odds in 1:05.52. Petit Verdot had been claimed in his last three starts of 2021 prior to a four-win campaign so far this season, with eight in-the-money finishes from 10 tries.

On a day when Kentucky-based horses enjoyed a six-win, home-court advantage, Parx-based horses shipped in to snag two Claiming Crown races.

In the off-the-turf $150,000 Tiara for distaffers at 1 1/16 miles, Out of Sorts (Dramedy) demonstrated why she's now 3-for-3 on wet dirt tracks. She roared home by 10 lengths in 1:47.34 for trainer Robert Mosco and owner John Fanelli, with Paco Lopez up at 6-1 odds.

The 4-year-old filly had been claimed for $25,000 by those connections out of her most recent start, an Oct. 4 wire job back at Parx, and Saturday's blowout win returned nearly four times that investment in immediate purse dividends.

One race later, in the $100,000 Ready's Rocket Express, Philly connections struck again, with 6-year-old gelding Hero Tiger (Hero of Order) splashing past rivals at the sixteenth pole to tally by 1 1/4 lengths in the $100,000 Iron Horse Kent Stirling Memorial in 1:11.89 for six furlongs. Trained by third-generation horseman John T. Kirby for owner Gregg O'Donnell, it was the second Claiming Crown win on the day for jockey Luis Saez.

To win the Express, the 4-1 Hero Tiger had to run down 2-1 favorite Beverly Park (Munnings), who snatched the lead on far turn but couldn't sustain his bid, fading to fourth in an attempt to win his 13th race of the year from 26 starts. Beverly Park's 12 victories in 2022 are still good enough for winningest horse on the continent honors, with his next closest rival four wins behind.

In the $150,000 Emerald, the even-money Palace Coup (Bernardini) pressed the pace and drew away late for a two-length score for owner FAS Racing (Adis Smajlovic) and trainer Joe Sharp in 1:46.40 for 1 1/16 miles in an off-the-turfer, giving jockey Lopez his second Claiming Crown winner of the day.

The one-turn-mile $100,000 Glass Slipper was won by Invaluable (Include) for owner Paradise Farms Corp. (Peter Proscia), providing Claiming Crown doubles for trainer Maker and jockey Saez. Off at 3-1, the speed-centric 5-year-old mare won by 1 1/2 lengths in 1:39.84. Claimed six times in her 24-race career, from $50,000 all the way down to $8,000, Invaluable is now 3-for-7 on wet tracks and was re-equipped with blinkers for first time in two years.

Time for Trouble (English Channel) won the $100,000 Iron Horse Kent Sterling Memorial for trainer Jeff Hiles, who also owns the 5-year-old gelding in partnership with Thorndale Stable, LLC (Paul Parker). Joe Talamo engaged in a long, grind-'em-down effort before drawing away late by 3 ¼ lengths in 1:46.79 for 1 1/16 miles. Since being claimed on June 18, 2021, for $8,000, Time For Trouble has won five of eight over varying surfaces and distances, including firm and good turf, plus fast and slop on the main track, all the way up to 1 3/8 miles in distance.

GIRVIN'S FAIZA POWERS TO 'STARDOM' AT DEL MAR

Faiza | Benoit

Sent right to the front by Flavien Prat after a fast beginning, Faiza (Girvin--Sweet Pistol, by Smart Strike), a $725,000 2-year-old purchase out of the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale, hooked up early with Teena Ella (War Front) and outlasted her rival to earn 'TDN Rising Star' status on debut. The pair kept the pace honest, covering the first quarter in :21.92 as Teena Ella, the daughter of four-time champion Beholder, stuck a head in front and the top two pulled several lengths clear of the rest of the field. Though it looked briefly as if Teena Ella might get away, Faiza threatened past the quarter pole with Prat sitting cool while Juan Hernandez was already hard at work on his filly. By the top of the lane, Faiza began to assert her dominance, coming into the final eighth well clear as Teena Ella faded from contention. Lily Poo (Tapiture) chased her home from second but was ultimately no match as Faiza hit the wire a wrapped-up 3 1/2 lengths ahead.

The second 'TDN Rising Star' and 16th winner for her freshman sire (by Tale of Ekati), Faiza is out of a half-sister to MGSW and Spendthrift Farm stallion Thousand Words (Pioneerof the Nile) while second dam Pomeroys Pistol, a graded-stakes winner herself, placed in both the GI Prioress S. and the GI Test S. Faiza's yearling half-sister by Cairo Prince recently brought $160,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

Hill 'n' Dale freshman sire Army Mule made it three stakes winners in his initial crop with Recruiter's win in the James F. Lewis III S. at Laurel Saturday. The undefeated juvenile followed up his maiden debut win Aug. 27 at Monmouth with an Oct. 2 optional allowance victory at Laurel, both times leading pillar to post and registering Beyers of 82 and 79, respectively.

Recruiter | MJC

In a similar performance Saturday, Recruiter went straight to the front before letting 46-1 Coffeewithchris (Ride On Curlin) take a brief lead for the :22.53 call, then took command smartly to set remaining fractions of :45.29 and :57.21. The dark bay drove home, finishing 2 3/4 lengths clear of Honeyquist in a late-stretch hand ride. He is one of 20 winners for his GI Carter H.-winning sire, who also was undefeated in three lifetime starts.

"My horse had more speed than Honeyquist," said winning rider Angel Cruz. "It was a matter of how he broke, and he broke really good so I took it from there. It worked out perfect because I could sit off and settle my horse and that's what I did. He settled really good for me."

The winner's dam is a granddaughter of MSW & GISP Perfect Six and followed up Recruiter's birth in 2020 with a now-yearling filly named Miss Sayely (Maximus Mischief), who sold for $28,000 to Blue River Bloodstock at Keeneland September. Lady Halite delivered a colt by Complexity Apr. 7 and has been bred back to Instagrand. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Godolphin homebred Twice as Sweet showed speed right out of the gate in Laurel's Smart Halo S., poking her head in front early before backing off just before the :22.53 first quarter to let Dissolute (Union Rags) to her outside lead the way. Dropping back, Twice as Sweet shifted to the outside herself to go around Dissolute instead of challenging on the rail. The two were a head apart at the :46.03 half-mile call before Twice as Sweet sailed on by. She was a bit green in the stretch, drifting in and out as she swished her tail, but the chestnut was 6 1/2 lengths clear of Miss Georgie at the wire as Dissolute tired to fifth.

"She's a pretty nice filly, very straightforward," said jockey Feargal Lynch. "This filly does everything nice. She's turf or dirt... She just gave me a lead into the straight and when I turned her loose she just went about her business."

Twice as Sweet began her campaign in Kentucky, where her maiden win on the turf Aug. 28 at Ellis Park was sandwiched by runner-up finishes on the dirt at both Ellis and Keeneland.

Snowbell, a winner of three of her last four--including the 2014 GIII Comely S.--for owner-breeder Godolphin/Darley, had a Medaglia d'Oro filly in 2021 and a Medaglia d'Oro colt this year. Hybrid Eclipse | MJC

Hybrid Eclipse, last seen finishing third behind MGISW Nest (Curlin) in the Oct. 9 GII Beldame S., stepped down to less intimidating company and came away with a win in Laurel's Thirty Eight Go Go S. Saturday. After a wide trip at the back while several lengths off the :23.20 first quarter and :47.53 half, she advanced steadily, split horses off the turn, and powered down the lane for a clear three-length victory.

"She loves this racetrack," said winning trainer Brittany Russell. "She's done a lot of good here, so it was nice for her to come back and get a win."

Hybrid Eclipse is having her best year this year under Russell after time in the barns of both John Ennis and Linda Rice. She won the first black-type event of her career in July when she captured Laurel's Caesar's Wish S., which came on the heels of the first stakes placing of her career in the Obeah S. at Delaware in June. Current owner The Elkstone Group purchased Hybrid Eclipse for $107,000 out of the horses of racing age segment of Fasig-Tipton's July sale.

The winner's dam, who hails from the same family as GISW Twice the Vice (Vice Regent), has not produced a foal since 2019. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Margins: 1, NK, HF. Odds: 3.20, 7.20, 11.80.
Also Ran: Sugar Fix, Burgoo Alley (Ire), Izzy Em, Pulpit Rider, Warrens Candy Girl.

After beginning her career in Ireland, Bipartisanship earned her first stakes win in North America nearly a year ago Dec. 26 before coming in fifth behind Regal Glory (Animal Kingdom) in the GIII TAA Pegasus World Cup Filly and Mare Turf Invitational S. After a seventh-place finish in the GIII Honey Fox S. Mar. 5, she took a seven-month layoff and returned with a fifth against allowance company at Keeneland Oct. 20. Given a 3-1 shot Saturday, Bipartisanship raced patiently on the inside off the pace and inched closer from fifth to fourth under a tight hold down the backstretch. She hugged the rail around the far turn before tipping out to the clear to rally late, taking over a sixteenth from home and gaining separation late for the win. Out of a half-sister to G1 Aston Upthrope Yorkshire Oaks winner Quiff (GB) (Sadler's Wells), Bipartisanship has a yearling half-sister by Postponed (Ire) and a weanling half-sister by Al Kazeem (GB). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

PRIDE OF THE NILE (f, 2, Pioneerof the Nile--Inny Minnie {MGSP, $186,610}, by Hard Spun) made her career debut Sept. 10 over this course and distance in the Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf S., finishing fourth behind Comanche Country (Ire) (Highland Reel {Ire}), who went on to win the GIII Surfer Girl S. and run in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Pride of the Nile reappeared Oct. 2 to break her maiden going a mile at Santa Anita and came into this allowance as the 2-1 favorite. The bay tracked from midpack through :23.84 and :48.40 fractions, put her head in front at the eighth pole, and gamely held off a determined Thebestisyettobe (Ire) (Elzaam {Aus}) for a half-length win. Pride of the Nile's MGSP dam is a half to English GSW & G1SP Montgomery's Arch (Arch). Her yearling filly by Curlin sold for $250,000 to David Cannizzo at Keeneland September. Inny Minnie also has a 2022 filly by Twirling Candy and was bred back to Kantharos. Sales History: $140,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. INSIGHT Outcomes

3rd-Churchill Downs, $121,949, Msw, 11-12, 2yo, f, 1m, 1:41.12, sy, neck.

ALEXA LOU (f, 2, Speightstown--Samantha Nicole, by Medaglia d'Oro) was making up ground late on debut over six furlongs at Keeneland Oct. 8 but could do no better than fifth, beaten 11 lengths. Given an extra two furlongs to work with Saturday, the 7-1 shot stayed close to the pace racing in an inside third as Aisha R N (Mendelssohn) led through an opening quarter in the slop in :22.94. Maneuvered between horses as the field turned for home, she shifted out five wide and set her sights on Miss Peabody (Anchor Down) for the stretch run. Despite failing to swap leads, Alexa Lou got up just under the wire to win by a neck as the top pair were well clear of the rest of the field. Undoubtedly (Blame) trailed early and never got involved to finish 10th. A full-sister to Fairchild, SW, $197,478, Alexa Lou is out of a full-sister to Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), who went on to produce GISW Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini) and Florida-based sire Jess's Dream (Curlin). Samantha Nicole foaled a filly by Munnings this year and was bred back to Charlatan for next season. Sales History: $285,000 RNA Ylg '21 KEESEP. 6th-Woodbine, C$94,030, Msw, 11-12, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f (AWT), 1:17.00, ft, 1 length.

SPEED TRAP (f, 2, Bernardini--Siren's Song, by Unbridled's Song) overcame a poor break to get up for third when first seen over this surface at six furlongs Oct. 15. Off at 2-1 for her second attempt with an extra half-furlong Saturday, she got off to a better beginning and tucked in behind a leading trio from fourth. Angled four wide at the head of the lane after a half in :45.94, Speed Trap got rolling with an eighth to run and edged clear of Worst Behaviour (Bernardini) late to win by a length. Siren's Song, a half-sister to dual Canadian champion Irish Mission (Giant's Causeway) and GSW French Beret (Broad Brush), produced a yearling full-brother to Speed Trap and a weanling colt by Audible before visiting Mendelssohn for a 2023 foal. Sales History: $300,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $54,778. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

3rd-Woodbine, C$72,306, Msw, 11-12, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f (AWT), 1:11.38, ft, 2 lengths.

I'M INTO MISCHIEF (f, 3, Into Mischief--Paradise Alley, by Flower Alley) began her career with a pair of third-place efforts over Woodbine's all-weather surface before posting her first off-the-board finish last time out after leading most of the way Oct. 15. The popular 4-5 choice here, I'm Into Mischief was forced three wide before making up ground on Popular Vote (Constitution) into the far turn. Given her cue while racing four wide at the head of the lane, I'm Into Mischief took over an eighth from home and pulled away late, defeating Popular Vote by two lengths. From the family of Canadian Horse of the Year Sealy Hill (Point Given), I'm Into Mischief is out of a half-sister to Canadian champion female sprinter Hillaby (Distorted Humor), MGISW Cambier Parc (Medaglia d'Oro) and GSW Belle Hill (Sky Mesa). She has a yearling half-sister by Flatter. Paradise Alley was bred to Justify for 2023. Sales History: $10,000 3yo '22 FTKFEB. LOOMS BOLDLY (c, 2, Goldencents--See the Forest, by Forestry) missed by a slim three-quarters of a length after setting the pace throughout as a longshot over this same distance at the Belmont At The Big A meet Sept. 29. The 8-5 favorite off that effort Saturday, Looms Boldly again showed good speed to set the tempo up the backstretch run, controlling from just off the rail. Put to a ride to hold off Lifetime of Chance (The Lieutenant) down the lane, Looms Boldly was able to prevail over the muddy track by 1 1/2 lengths. A half-brother to Critical Value (Bodemeister), MSW, $303,795, Looms Boldly is his dam's last reported offspring. See the Forest visited Constitution for the 2023 season after not getting in foal to Bernardini last year. IL MIRACOLO (c, 2, Gun Runner--Tapit's World {GSP, $154,179}, by Tapit), second in each of his three previous starts by sizeable margins in increasingly longer distances, returned for his second straight start at one mile over the Gulfstream main track. Sent to the front to lead through a mild opening quarter in :24.08, Il Miracolo had plenty left to draw off despite hanging on his incorrect lead down the lane, winning by 5 1/2 lengths over Instinctual (Good Magic). Tapit's World produced a yearling colt by Catalina Cruiser and was bred to Vekoma for next season. Sales History: $75,000 Ylg '21 KEEJAN; $190,000 RNA Ylg '21 FTKOCT; $70,000 2yo '22 OBSOPN. JAMES HARRON Q&A: 'FOXWEDGE REALLY GOT THINGS GOING FOR ME'

By Brian Sheerin

James Harron is one of the most respected operators of his craft internationally. Based in Australia, the native of Northern Ireland credits Gai Waterhouse, agent George Smith and Winx (Aus)'s breeder John Camilleri of Fairway Thoroughbreds as being some of the key influences in his career.

Foxwedge (Aus) is the horse who got the ball rolling for Harron Down Under. He sourced the high-class sprinter-turned-stallion as a yearling and, from there, refined the art of making stallions on a commercial level through colt partnerships.*

It's a little under 10 years ago when Harron secured the backing of a team of investors who purchase 10 to 15 yearlings every year with a view to blooding them into stallion prospects through success on the racetrack. 'TDN Rising Star' and subsequent G1 Golden Slipper hero Capitalist (Aus) and King's Legacy (Aus) are graduates of this hugely successful system.

Portfolio management and filly partnerships are also listed among the services he manages under the banner of James Harron Bloodstock and, as one of the slot holders in The Everest, he has won the race with Redzel (Aus) in 2017 and again this year with Giga Kick (Aus). Cont. p3

GROUP 1 HERO EBRO RIVER WILL STAND AT HARAS DE LA HAIE NEUVE IN 2023

Juvenile Group 1 winner Ebro River (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}--Soft Power {Ire}, by Balmont) will stand at Haras de la Haie Neuve in 2023, Jour de Galop reported on Saturday evening. The Al Shaqab Racing colourbearer's fee will be announced at a later date.

Bred by Tally-Ho Stud, the chestnut was sold for €75,000 during Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale to Charlie Gordon Watson on behalf of Al Shaqab. Trained by Hugo Palmer, Ebro River graduated at Doncaster at second asking in May of his 2-year-old year, and then won the Listed National S. at Sandown later that month. He scored the biggest win of his career in the Curragh's G1 Phoenix S., and was also third in the G1 National S. in his next start. Kept in training at three, the son of Soft Power won the Listed Queensferry S. His record stands at 15-4-0-1 and $294,567 in earnings. Cont. p8

CONVERSATIONS

Harron also manages a number broodmare bands, including Morningside Stud, who he purchased a mare on behalf of at Fasig-Tipton last week. He then sat down with Brian Sheerin at Keeneland to discuss his career in bloodstock and the benefits that come with being based in Australia for this week's Q&A.

Brian Sheerin: Tell us a bit about your background.

James Harron: I've worked with horses most of my life. I spent my school holidays down in Coolmore in Tipperary, rode out for a few different National Hunt trainers and eventually I went to Enniskillen College. From there, I went to Paul Shanahan and then went to Australia for a three-month stint doing the yearling sales for Coolmore at Inglis. After that, I went to Gai Waterhouse for a week's work experience and that turned into a year. That was the start of me in Australia as I just fell in love with the place.

I also spent some time with Coolmore Australia and in a sales role with Hubie de Burgh. We travelled to a lot of different countries, including extensively in Australia, so that allowed me to pick up a really good client in the Batemans who allowed me to buy them some yearlings. We struck it off with a good colt in Foxwedge and one of their foundation mares in Satin Shoes (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}. That really gave me a launching pad so I went out on my own. I'm coming up on 11 years trading on my own but it feels like 40 years!

BS: What are the main advantages to trading in Australia?

JH: It's a very exciting marketplace but it was very different 10 years ago or 12 years ago. There is a huge level of interest among the general public and racing is a part of their culture. I just felt that it was very much an untapped market and agents weren't really a big thing when I came here whereas in Europe there were so many. In Australia, the trainers were buying all of their own horses or else their owners were, so the opportunity looked good. I just enjoy the atmosphere in Australia and the way that they do business. They are very amenable to giving a young person a start. It's part of their psyche, they want to give young people an opportunity. It has come together well and we have evolved as a business in terms of where we are focussing on. One of the biggest things that I am proud of is that we have pretty much got the exact same clients with us now as we did in the beginning. That means a lot. On top of that, our key staff Anna Ryan and Stephen Heath, have been with us from the start. Cont. p4

BS: You are recognised as one of the best judges of a yearling in the business. How did you get to where you are now?

JH: I was fortunate to be around the right people and was always listening and learning. Where things really clicked into place for me was when I was working with Gai Waterhouse. She had an agent, George Smith, who has had an incredible record over the years. He was fantastic to learn from. We would go around doing all of the pre inspections for Gai and he would write all of his notes by hand. I would then type up all of his notes into the computer system so that we had it all set up for Gai. We would sit there in the evenings having a few beers and he'd ask me, 'what's my rating on this or that,' and it really sunk in. He was amazing with his time and that was the time when things started coming together for me and dots began to get connected. You never stop learning and listening from the trainers to get feedback on all of the horses and try to refine it. The minute you think you are getting better at this job, you have a bad year--that's the game.

BS: It's one thing to have practical knowledge and another to make the shrewd business moves, which you have clearly done. Who was it that influenced you on that side of things?

JH: I have always enjoyed the business side of things. I have some great people around me, including clients of the agency, who are great people to learn from and I am able to bounce different things off them. Without singling too many people out, but John Camilleri has been a fantastic friend and mentor. It's a matter of identifying where you want to be in this industry and acknowledging what your strengths are within it. Cont. p5

JH: Most importantly, you need to know what people want out of your business and that was the biggest thing we wanted to identify. We tried to make it sensible for people to race horses and to give them an opportunity not to be just paying out bills but to put some form of a structure in place so that people could race horses in a somewhat commercially viable way.

BS: And what are the services that you provide and how have you developed your business in Australia?

JH: From an early stage, we wanted to work with the trainers and manage the horses on behalf of the owners throughout the whole process. We identified who we believed to be the best breakers, pre-trainers, spelling farms and we also have our own vet, Johnny Walker, who does all of our own inspections on a fortnightly basis and reports back to us as an independent. We are managing a tiny percentage of the horses a trainer would have in their stable so we can give it that little bit more attention and focus. We also work on the programming and have a form expert, Mark Shean, who works closely with us and he helps us with our placement in New South Wales. We have Deane Lester in Victoria as well. They are integral parts of the team. We just try our best to dot the is and cross the ts and get as much good data together [as possible]. The people who we work with, they really welcome the feedback and we work together to make plans and it's enjoyable. The owners are part of the whole process and fully understand where they are going. Plans don't always work out but it's nice to have some system in place.

BS: But when it does work out, especially when you make stallions like Capitalist and King's Legacy, that must give you huge pleasure.

JH: We were fortunate to have Foxwedge (Aus) early on. He won the G1 William Reid S. and was by Fastnet Rock (Aus). He became a high profile commodity and was sold to Henry Field and stood at Newgate Farm. That was their first ever stallion. From there, we bought more colts and found Australian Guineas winner Wandjina (Aus). I always had the idea of putting together a group of people to pool their resources together and try to buy more horses and give ourselves more opportunity to produce these colts to go to stud. What was really astonishing to me was how competitive it is to buy these stallions.

We felt like we wanted to be selling into that market more and more. A lot of our people are breeders so the idea would be to pick up a number of colts to race and try and get them to a high level. Cont. p6

JH: Then you can sell down equity to stud farms and also keep equity so they are a part of that process. Within that partnership group, Capitalist came along and it has been a wonderful story. They have continued to support him and he is a success on the track and in the sales ring. That's really the model.

We try to pick up between 10 and 15 colts per year and then produce a stallion prospect. The ones who aren't getting to that level can be traded to Hong Kong, which we have done every year and that has become quite helpful. We've had some nice horses go to race there. We have a very healthy domestic market with provincial and country racing and the ones who don't make stallions or don't have high enough ratings to be sold to Hong Kong can go on and have fruitful careers in Australia. It's pretty much about having a system that can identify the big horse who can make the step up.

Harron purchased King's Legacy as a yearling | Coolmore Australia

BS: Physically, what are the main things you are looking for in a yearling?

JH: The big question we try to ask ourselves before we bid on a horse is, if he is successful on the track, would we want to send our best mares to that horse. That sounds a bit obvious but you need to know if he is by the right sire, has he got the right physique or is he from a good enough family. Sometimes you can become sidetracked by a really nice type who isn't by the right sire or doesn't have a good family and it's important to have a product that, if it is successful, we can fully get behind. You can see that by the stallions we have produced, the owners really get behind them and they get commercial books. King's Legacy for example, he covered the highest number of any first-season sire in his first year at stud. From a physical point of view, we are very much looking for a precocious type of horse. We look for one who can run as a 2-year-old and do everything that makes an Australian sire in terms of precocity, strength and robustness.

BS: Would you attribute Foxwedge for launching your career?

JH: He really got it going for me and came at a pivotal point, for sure. We used that as a springboard and there have been other pivotal moments along the way but he certainly was the first. Getting Capitalist in the first year of the colt partnership was also very important. They all mean something but those two were pivotal.

BS: And is there a particular moment that means the most to you? Was it a race or perhaps a particular deal that stands out?

JH: I was probably at a stage in life when I could really appreciate how significant Capitalist was when he came along. Winning a Golden Slipper, I mean it's the race you dream about and it's all you think about when you are looking at yearlings. When I'm looking at horses at the sales, I try to envisage a horse walking around the paddock ahead of the Golden Slipper.

BS: It must be quite rewarding to be seeing him do so well as a stallion.

JH: It is and all the owners follow his progeny no matter where they are running. It doesn't matter how big or small the race is, they are always cheering them home. We look forward to seeing the progeny of horses we have been attached to and try to pick some of them up and try to get them to the same level of their sires. It's a great part of the journey. It's a long and slow burn but, once it starts rolling, it's fantastic.

BS: And what are you doing here in Keeneland this week?

JH: We haven't been over here in Keeneland for a long time and only picked up a few here and there over the past few years through various different agents. The opportunity arose to come over this year and we've picked up a few mares. We got two mares at Fasig-Tipton; one will have a foal here and the other is empty. After that, they will travel to England and be covered by Frankel (GB) before coming home to Australia. We have broodmare partnerships, which is what the mare we bought in foal is for, and that consists of a handful of people from our colt syndicates as well. They can use their equity and play around with it that way. The other filly was bought on behalf of Morningside Stud. They have a beautiful band of broodmares.

BS: Do you see yourself doing more business internationally?

JH: To be honest, our big focus is Australia and we want it to remain that way. We are fortunate to have good relationships with different people around the world who we can work through and combine with if we need to. I do love the American broodmares for Australia and I think this is potentially going to be a sale that I will keep coming back to. It will be more sporadic than it being planned attending sales internationally. It will be more for when the opportunity arises. We have an amazing industry in Australia and it's a very exciting place to be.

BS: What makes Australia such a vibrant place to be based and what could we take out of the industry over there with a view towards European racing?

JH: There is a real mainstream interest in racing in Australia and it permeates through to every level. From the pubs with the TAB machines where they have the racing on, people have grown up with that and their parents or family members have taken a part-share in a horse. The culture is there. The fundamentals have been put in place with the rebate and gambling wagers coming back into prize-money. The administrators are very passionate and push hard. They have made some incredible additions to the racing calendar, most notably The Everest. The amount of people who told me that this year's Everest was their best day on a racetrack, I couldn't believe it. I was talking to some owners who have had 20 Group 1 winners but they said that The Everest was one of the most meaningful days that they have had racing. From the minute you walked in, the atmosphere and the amount of young people there, everything just came together. What that has done is brought in a new and younger demographic. They view The Everest as a cool new race and you just bump into every type, the butcher or the hairdresser, and all they want to talk about is The Everest.

BS: Is it just the prize-money that has captured the imagination for the race or is it the trading and the slots that goes with it?

JH: I think it's multi-faceted. The prize-money has pricked everybody's ears. That is probably the most significant part because I am not sure if many people under the age of 35 would understand exactly how the slots for the race works. I have to say, the media did a great job and they were calling you about it every day to see what was happening. There was just this share of information which goes on for 10 months and that helps to promote it.

BS: Especially when you leave it late.

JH: Yeah, I know! For different people with different interests, there are many attractions to the race and it's multi-faceted. People in the industry love the dealing side of the race while the young people love the day itself. There is no other day like it. It was just unbelievable.

ADVERTISE COLT FOAL SPARKLES BRIGHTEST AT THE SAPPHIRE SALE

Advertise (GB)'s colt foal (lot 123) was the most expensive lot on the day during Tattersalls Ireland's Sapphire Sale at Fairyhouse on Saturday. The Sapphire Sale featured Flat-bred yearlings, foals and broodmares and was the final sale of the year for Tattersalls Ireland.

Knocked down for €38,000 to Micheal Orlandi on behalf of Ballyphilip Stud, the bay is a half-brother to three winners out of his winning dam, herself a Fusaichi Pegasus half-sister to champion and Classic heroine Misty For Me (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and champion and juvenile Group 1 winner Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) among others. Part of the sale's top conignore Olive O'Connor's draft (five sold for an aggregate of €79,500), the colt was born on Feb. 23.

Paul McCartan of Ballyphilip Stud said via phone, "I saw some of the sire's stock through the autumn at the yearling sales and liked them. I also like the fact that Advertise was a Group 1-winning juvenile and then went on to win the [G1] Commonwealth Cup. I viewed this colt yesterday and this morning--he has a fine pedigree and has four champion 2-year-olds on his page."

"We are big fans of the TDN in our house and on the farm, it is our go-to daily bloodstock publication and during sales time they always have their finger on the pulse and is a must-read. We find the team very approachable and helpful from both an editorial and a commercial perspective."

The late Pivotal (GB)'s 4-year-old daughter Super Proud (GB) was the dearest mare to go through the ring at €35,000. BBA Ireland snapped up the Rockview Stables-consigned winning bay from the family of Australian Group 1 winner Beaten Up (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}).

Paul Curran was in charge of bidding and said, "She is for a client and we love her sire, that was a very important factor. There are some well-bred, unraced half-siblings to come and it is a nice page. She is an outcross so that gives lots of options."

A chestnut daughter of Calyx (GB) (lot 20) was the most expensive yearling sold, catching the eye of father-daughter duo Con and Amy Marnane, who paid €30,000 for the half-sister to listed winner and G2 Queen Mary S. and G2 Lowther S. runner-up Easton Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

Marnane said of the Browne Brothers Bloodstock offering, "We'll take her home and prepare her for the breeze-ups next spring. She has a gorgeous pedigree with black-type under every dam on the page.

"Calyx was unbelievable the day he won at Royal Ascot and we supported him with our own mares. We sold a colt by him out of Mia Divina (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) to Andrew Balding at Book 2 for 145,000gns." Cont. p9

A total of 100 lots (54%) sold from 184 offered for a gross of €599,400. The average was €5,994 and the median was €4,000. Valfredo Valiani spent €43,500 on six lots to lead all buyers.

CEO Simon Kerins said, “Once again, we are indebted to every vendor and each purchaser for their trust and support of the Sapphire Sale. European buyers, particularly from Italy and Poland, have made a contribution and the network of Tattersalls Ireland's International Agents played a significant part in today’s sale. It was very apparent as we were inspecting yearlings in the Spring that there was genuine enthusiasm for our newest yearling sale and we are in a position now to work on it and move it forward for next year.

"So as the year closes, we can reflect on a year of so many achievements with the Goresbridge Breeze Up Sale smashing records, headed by a historic top lot of €520,000 and a record number of six-figure lots and a best-ever average of €38,155. The September Yearling Sale continued in the same fashion setting its own records with 70 lots selling for €50,000 or more as well as a record median and an average and turnover just below 2021’s records. These results prove that when we are provided with the best horses we can deliver. Our hope is that these results and our improved facilities will continue to convince more consignors that they can and will achieve the very best results in the Tattersalls Ireland sales ring.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the team for their hard work and dedication throughout the year and to ITM for their continued support. We can now look forward to following the careers of our new graduates and get back on the road searching for the class of 2023."

IMPROVED CLEARANCE RATE AT ARQANA NOVEMBER YEARLING SALE

From a smaller catalogue than 2021, Arqana's November Yearling Sale posted an improved clearance rate of 84% for 115 sold from 137 offered. As a result, the gross was €730,500, while the averaged edged up to €6,352 (+0.3%). The median was unchanged at €5,000. There were over 200 yearlings offered in 2021.

Topping proceedings was a filly by Toronado (Ire) (lot 74B) who was knocked down to Equos Racing/Josephine Soudan for €27,000. The bay was offered by Haras d'Ellon, and she was out of the winning Lawman (Fr) mare Valombreuse (Fr), herself a half-sister to the dual Group 3-placed Rajastani (Ire) (Zamindar). This cross has already produced the stakes-placed Miss Cleopatra (Fr).

The other lot on the day to break the €20,000 barrier was lot 79, a chestnut son of G1 Derby winner Ruler Of The World (Ire) out of the Dansili (GB) mare Ababeel (Fr), who won a ParisLongchamp 1600-metre race at three. Consigned by Haras de Castillon, the Jan. 18 foal was snapped up by Zdeno Koplik for €24,000. Cont. p10

FRENCH GAMING POLICE ASK FOR SOUMILLON'S LICENCE TO BE WITHDRAWN

According to information obtained by Jour de Galop, France's Gaming Police mailed a letter to France Galop earlier this week requesting that suspended jockey Christophe Soumillon's licence be withdrawn indefinitely or that his ban be lengthened, the paper writes in its Sunday edition. Soumillion was suspended for two months after elbowing fellow jockey Rossa Ryan out of the saddle during the running of the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon on Sept. 30.

"The fall (of Rossa Ryan) was not accidental, but was caused by Christophe Soumillon. This behavior is voluntary and dangerous," the Gaming Police writes in the letter, according to the JDG. They report that the letter goes on to say that in May, they had asked Soumillion to modify his behavior, which they described as "risky" for other jockeys. "Instead," the letter reads, "the deliberate, dangerous behavior of Mr. Soumillon, in the middle of the race and at a high speed in the stretch, presents a serious risk to the public order within horse racing."

The JDG reports that the letter goes on to say that the incident garnered international attention, which portrayed French racing in a bad light. The police ask that France Galop either increase his suspension to a maximum of six months, or to withdraw his license altogether pending further investigation. The Jour de Galop notes that they have followed the same procedure used to ban jockey Pierre-Charles Boudot this past Tuesday.

Anchored in rear until urged closer rounding the home turn, he was sent in pursuit of the clear leader Algiers passing the furlong pole and kept on relentlessly under continued rousting to collar that rival on the line for a career high.

"Missed The Cut has always promised to be a good horse," commented trainer George Boughey. "He probably got a bit too far back today and Jim [Crowley] was the first to admit that. Algiers ran a massive race and we've done very well to run him down. Missed The Cut has not missed a day in preparation for this and had a gallop here and also went to Chelmsford. There was another race for him here in a month's time, but he got here ready to go. He has some very influential foreign owners now and the plan has always been to travel him. He has a dirt pedigree, being by Quality Road, and he could be on the plane to Dubai. The main thing is that he can train on the dirt out there and then we can see. There is the Maktoum Challenge R1 over a mile, and the second leg is over nine-and-a-half furlongs, but there are also the turf races as well."

Summerghand, who was successful in last term's G3 Abernant S. and Listed Hopeful S., bagged September's Ayr Gold Cup in his penultimate start and lined up for this coming back off a second in last month's G3 Bengough S. at Ascot. Steadied to track the leaders in seventh after an alert break, he was stoked up on the home turn and kept on strongly in the straight to deny Judicial nearing the line for a third black-type triumph.

"Summerghand has been a super horse for his owner and trainer over the years," said jockey Danny Tudhope. "The race went to plan, they went a nice gallop in front and, once he starts picking off one or two in the straight, he then goes through the gears. You always need a bit of luck on this lad as that's the way he is. I did not want to be on the rail so I stayed off it, but then got a nice run up the rail in the straight. When he is in good form, he is well capable of winning big races like this. You could say that he is as good as ever. I would say that (All-Weather) Finals Day will be the target."

Summerghand, one of his sire's 103 stakes scorers, is one of six winners from as many runners produced by a winning half-sister to G3 Jersey S. third Bossy Guest (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) and the dual stakes-placed Liberating (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}). EMPRESS WU (GB) (f, 2, Sea The Moon {Ger}--Chinoiseries {GB}, by Archipenko) employed patient tactics and found cover in rear after breaking from the outside gate. Easing closer on the home turn, the 16-1 chance was angled to the outside approaching the final furlong and unleashed a smart turn of foot in the closing stages to easily account for Silver Sword (GB) (Charm Spirit {Ire}) by an impressive 2 1/4 lengths. Empress Wu is the second of four foals and first scorer produced by a winning full-sister to G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares heroine Madame Chiang (GB) (Archipenko), herself the dam of MGSP Listed Prix Luth Enchantee victrix Oriental Mystique (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and G3 Musidora S. third Ching Shih (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). The February-foaled homebred bay's dam Chinoiseries (GB) (Archipenko) has a yearling filly and a weanling filly by Study Of Man (Ire) to come. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $4,346.

Saturday's Results:

1st-Cologne, €6,000, Mdn, 11-12, 2yo, 7 1/2fT, 1:35.81, g/s. QUALITY ROAD (GER) (c, 2, Areion {Ger}--Quintessa {Ger}, by Shirocco {Ger}) broke well and was a shade keen before settling along the rail in mid division. Shaken up turning for home, the 7-5 second choice edged ahead in the straight and found plenty under urging inside the final furlong to account for Whirlybird (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) by 1 1/4 lengths in ultimately comfortable fashion. Quality Road is the seventh of nine foals and third scorer produced by a winning sibling of G2 Schwarzgold-Rennen victrix Quelle Amore (Ger) (Monsun}) and Listed Prix Max Sicard victor Quidamo (GB) (Monsun {Ger}). Quelle Amore is the dam of dual G3 Premio Verziere winner Quaduna (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}), herself the dam of this year's impressive G3 Preis der Winterkonigin victrix Quantanamera (Ger) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). The February-foaled chesnut's second dam, Listed Grosser Hoppegartener Stutenpreis runner-up Qelle Amie (Beau Genius), is a half-sister to three stakes winners headed by G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) and G2 German 1000 Guineas heroine Que Belle (Seattle Dancer). WORLDWIDE NEWS

REAL STEEL COLT RISES TO THE TOP AT HANSHIN by Heather Anderson

All Parfait (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) made it back-to-back victories with a half-length triumph in the 1600-metre G2 Daily Hai Nisai S. at Hanshin on Saturday. Second was race favourite Danon Touchdown (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}), who left the gates at 5-2.

The first stakes-winner for his 2016 G1 Dubai Turf-winning sire, the 2-year-old colt broke in the centre of the course from gate 10 and sped up to take command inside the first 100 metres. Hard on the steel, he covered his first 600 metres in :35.30. He soon came under pressure from Shomon (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits), but remained a neck in front with 600 metres to travel. Asked for his run in early stretch, the bay lengthened away to a several-length advantage. All Parfait pegged back Danon Touchdown to score, with the latter rallying dramatically from last to just miss. It was a length back to a game Shomon in third.

Real Steel at Shadai | Shadai Stallion Station

All Parfait ran second versus newcomers when unveiled over a mile at Tokyo on June 4 and was promptly shelved. He returned over that trip to take a Nakayama maiden on Oct. 2 and was 4-1 on Saturday.

Pedigree Notes

The dual Classic-placed Real Steel (Jpn) has 113 juveniles in his first crop. Fifty-three of his progeny have raced, 13 have won, and All Parfait is his first stakes and group winner.

Unraced as a juvenile, Queen Grace (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) scored both of her victories at three over 2000 metres on firm turf at Nakayama on debut and in her career finale at the same course going a mile. All Parfait is her first foal, and she has since produced the yearling colt Glory One (Jpn) (World Ace {Jpn}) and a Kizuna (Jpn) filly of this year foaled on May 4.

Second dam was the winning Pikes Peak (Jpn) (Agnes Tachyon {Jpn}), while All Parfait's third dam was the GII La Prevoyante H. and GIII Glens Falls H. heroine Arvada (GB) (Hernando {Fr}). Knocked down to Shadai Farm for $800,000 in foal to Empire Maker at the 2005 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, the G1 Prix Saint-Alary third would go on to produce 11 foals in Japan, for 11 runners and eight winners.
