UNRACED INTO MISCHIEF COLT PROVIDES LATE FIREWORKS AT KEENELAND

An unraced 2-year-old colt by record-setting sire Into Mischief brought $1 million from Mick Wallace, agent, on behalf of Gandharvi Racing, to dissolve a partnership very late in the day to top Keeneland’s single-session November Horses of Racing Age Sale Thursday.

Produced by Gaudete (Distorted Humor)—an unraced half-sister to leading young sire Munnings (Speightstown)—Hip 5352 was consigned by Highgate Sales, Agent XXXV.

The topper previously brought $350,000 from China Horse Club/Gandharvi Racing at last year’s Keeneland September Sale. His yearling half-brother by Violence brought $300,000 from Repole Stable and St. Elias Stables at Keeneland September.

Either alone or in partnership, Gandharvi Racing purchased 18 yearlings earlier this year at Keeneland September for $7.605 million ($422,500).

China Horse Club brought home the day’s next two toppers, also consigned by Highgate Sales to dissolve that same partnership, going to $560,000 for an unraced 2-year-old filly by Practical Joke—Competition, by Dixie Union (Hip 5344) and $450,000 for an unraced 2-year-old colt by Street Sense—Sweeter Than Ever, by Exchange Rate (Hip 5346).

PRIVATE PROPERTY RIGHTS UNDER HISA
by Dan Ross

The legal threads connecting the rights of licensees to ply their trade and racetrack owners to police their grounds have been pulled tighter than a rip cord these past few years, thanks to a series of high-profile battles involving Hall of Famers Jerry Hollendorfer and Bob Baffert.

These same threads hamstrung the years-long dispute between California’s trainers and racetracks about what should be written into the race-meet agreement about fair procedures for trainers facing potential banishment from a facility.

It all boils down to this: How best to balance the rights of track owners to protect their businesses from bad actors alongside the rights of trainers and others from becoming targets of arbitrary bans—actions with often huge implications for their professional futures? Cont. p7

The Practical Joke filly, from the family of Grade I winners Sailor’s Valentine and Coup de Fusil, previously brought $420,000 from China Horse Club/Gandharvi at Fasig-Tipton Saratoga. The Street Sense colt, from the family of Grade III winner Bibury Court, brought $350,000 from China Horse Club/Gandharvi at Fasig-Tipton Saratoga.

CHC Inc. purchased four horses for $1.385 million to lead all buyers Thursday.

“We got approached by some parties that were dissolving a partnership,” Highgate Sales’s Jacob West said. “We just offered a service of putting them through the ring for them. It all came together in the last minute. They handled everything at the barn—signage, marketing—it was a total team effort from everybody. We did not see this coming. China Horse Club was one of our supporters early. They were responsible for our first $1-million horse. Now they are responsible for our second.”

Highgate Sales led all consignors for the one-day auction, selling 15 head for $3.383 million, good for an average of $225,533.

West continued, “I think this comes from us pounding the drum on how we are no-nonsense, straightforward, straight-shooting people and offer this service to our clients to represent them the best we can at the sales. The horses came to us in great shape. They had been in kind of a holding pattern for a little bit and ready to go on and do their next thing. It is a unique situation when you can tell people it’s to dissolve a partnership. There was a horse there for everybody that was shopping. There was a horse that brought $1 million and a horse that brought $6,000.”

New for 2023
This year, Keeneland created the stand-alone auction for horses of racing age, which in previous years was incorporated as part of the November Breeding Stock Sale. A total of 161 horses sold during the session for $11,029,500, for an average of $68,506 and a median of $35,000.

"It was a very healthy day of trade," Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said. "There was plenty of action in the barns, in the back rings and a lot of action in the Repository. We know this is a really good time of year for people who are trying to reorganize their barn to transition horses in or out of their programs. They are looking for horses to run at Oaklawn or Fair Grounds or other winter tracks, and here they are able to do their homework and be well educated on the horses that are in front of them. It's very welcome for both buyers and sellers."

Strava, another son of Into Mischief, topped last year’s Horses of Racing Age session at $825,000.

"This segment is its own sale now, and we think it's off to a really good start," Keeneland Director of Sales Operations Cormac Breathnach said. "It's contiguous with the Breeding Stock Sale, but it's a different market with a later entry deadline and more flexibility with supplements. There's now a concentration of racehorses before trainers rather than before when the racehorses were spread out over days with breeding stock. We did a little over $6 million in gross last year when we put the racehorses at the end of the Breeding Stock Sale, and this year we did just over $11 million. That's significant. We've set a baseline for what the November Horses of Racing Age Sale can be, and we'll try to grow it from here." Cont. p5
The sire of Maxfield, McKinzie and Speaker’s Corner already has a G1 sire son. And his first G1 winner as a broodmare sire is a European Champion. Sustained demand in 2022 for his notably attractive stock, too: a $212k yearling average and sales of $800k, two at $725k and $700k. Just imagine…
Other highlights during the sale included:

- Hip 5206: Sifting Sands (GB) (c, 4, Dubawi {Ire}--Yummy Mummy {GB}, by Montjeu {Ire}). *Winner of the 2021 Better Talk Now S. and close second in the 2022 Fasig-Tipton Lure S., both at Saratoga. 1/2 brother to MG1SW Legatissimo (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Consigned by ELiTE, agent; $200,000 purchase by RRR Racing. *I bought him for RRR Racing and he is going to Dubai," Corbin Blumberg said. “He’s obviously a pretty high-class horse. He's rated at 106 over there, so he can go right into the [Dubai World Cup] Carnival. They love the sire Dubawi over there and are pretty familiar with him.”

- Hip 5297: Ethereal Road (c, 3, Quality Road--Sustained, by War Front). *Winner of the 2022 Sir Barton S. and runner-up in the GII Rebel S. 1/2 brother to GSW Turned Aside (American Pharoah). Consigned by Paramount Sales, Agent LXX; $200,000 purchase by Steven W. Young, agent. *He’s a horse I’ve watched all year," Young said. “He’s a super nice horse I bought for really good people. I think the horse will be going to Oaklawn Park. He broke his maiden there and he should have won the Rebel there. We’re excited for them. I think this sale has a ceiling to it. I figured that is about what he would bring.”

- Hip 5305: Lovemesomeme (f, 4, Paynter--Eagle Putt, by Pioneering). *Third behind GSW Bell’s the One (Majesticperfection) with a career-high 85 Beyer Speed Figure in Churchill’s Lady Tak S. Full-sister to GSP Scarto. Consigned by Mill Ridge Sales, agent; $350,000 purchase by L & L Racing. *She’s for a client to go to Brad Cox," Clay Scherer said. “She ran very consistent numbers at Churchill Downs and she will fit in very well at Oaklawn Park. She has been fast and consistent and Tommy Drury has done a great job with her. It’s nice to go into a big-time winter meet at Hot Springs with a nice, fresh horse. The market has been very strong for good racehorses and it continued into today.”

As Jan. 1 looms, when the full remit of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) is scheduled to go into effect--including most crucially HISA's anti-doping and medication control program--how will federal oversight of the sport alter exclusionary rights, if at all?

"HISA is finalizing its policies in this area and will have more to share in the weeks ahead," wrote HISA spokesperson, Liz Beadle, when TDN asked to discuss the issue with a HISA representative.

So instead, the TDN reached out to three legal experts in the field. Their main takeaway? Other than a tightened regulatory world, don't expect much to alter—at least for now.

"I don't think it will really change the legal analysis," said Bennett Liebman, Government Lawyer in Residence at Albany Law School and an adjunct professor of law.

Nuances

First and foremost, "I don't think HISA preempts the common-law right of a racetrack to exclude someone for whatever reason they want absent some protective civil right," said Alan Foreman, CEO and chairman of the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (THA).

This means that if a track or racing association decides that a trainer has contravened moral or ethical boundaries—irrespective of whether that same person has fallen foul of any rules and regulations—they have the authority to do so independent of HISA, Foreman said.

"HISA can regulate in areas which they're authorized to regulate, but they can't tell me who I have to allow on my property and who I don't," Foreman said.

Such actions are rarely cut and dried, of course.

Private properties are required to afford licensees the legal framework of "fair procedure" when seeking to bar them from their grounds. For a state agency—including a quasi-state agency non-profit organization like the New York Racing Association (NYRA)—the legal standard is "due process and equal protection."

With this in mind, racetracks try not to specify detailed reasons for excluding an individual "in almost all cases," said Liebman.

"When they do that," Liebman explained, "there's potential that they might damage the individual's reputation and perhaps give way to constitutional protections."

Therefore, "the normal approach by most racetracks is to say, 'you're being excluded for our best business interests,'" said Liebman. And he doesn't expect that broad legal dynamic to change much under HISA.

There are nuances, of course.

Even if a racetrack in West Virginia or Pennsylvania excludes a licensee from its grounds, that licensee can then petition the racing commissions in those states to overturn the ban, said Foreman.

In the hypothetical scenario a racetrack in those two states excludes a licensee for a reason that falls under the remit of HISA—for a welfare and safety related issue, for example—and the licensee then tries to take their case to the requisite commission, the relevant track "is going to make the argument that HISA deprives the racing commissions of any jurisdiction over drugs and safety," said Liebman.

"I don't think it's going to be successful," Liebman added, about such an argument made by the tracks. "But they're going to raise it."
Foreman is less sure. Although HISA pre-empts state law, he said, it's unclear whether HISA nullifies the right of those commissions to independently arbitrate track exclusions in their jurisdiction.

"Maybe HISA does have the right to stand in that area," he wondered. "Maybe not."

Right of Private Property

This leads to another hypothetical.

In the event a racetrack in other states excludes a licensee for a reason that falls under HISA's regulatory umbrella, there's a strong possibility that person will litigate the action on grounds that HISA should be the one to adjudicate the alleged offense, not the track owners.

"If I was a lawyer representing an individual, I'd argue, "HISA does have jurisdiction here, and HISA has to tell the track what to do because HISA preempts state law,'" " said Foreman.

But even then, individual tracks wield enormous legal clout, Foreman added. "If I'm the track, I'd say, 'I'm not acting under state law, I'm acting under right of private property.'"

As Foreman sees it, a more streamlined regulatory environment under HISA—including more expeditious case handling times—should negate the need for tracks to weed-out so-called bad actors (more on this in a bit).

"I think the actions the tracks have been taking recently is because they thought the regulatory system was failing to address offenders, multiple offenders, or those who were giving the industry a bad name," said Foreman.

As such, "I think it's unlikely we're going to see tracks take actions against individuals because of their records," said Foreman.

"I think with the enactment of HISA and the implementation of HISA, that probably goes away somewhat," he added, "unless HISA's a failure."

But how much latitude does HISA really have in this sphere?

Fair Procedure

Earlier this year, trainer Juan Pablo Silva was handed a 180-day ban from Turf Paradise after a 1-20 shot he trained and owned was pulled up and eased shortly after the start of a race.

This past June, trainer Marcus Vitali reached an undisclosed settlement with NYRA, after the latter claimed the trainer had "engaged in conduct that is detrimental to the best interests of the sport of Thoroughbred racing or potentially injurious to the health or safety of horses or riders."

These two trainers subsequently found a home at Mountaineer—alongside another trainer, Burton Sipp, who has faced multiple allegations involving insurance scams and dead horses, animal neglect cases at a zoo he operated, race-fixing stings and regulatory malfeasance over a 40 year period.

Interestingly, Vitali and Silva have recently saddled horses at Turf Paradise, which kick-started its latest 2022-2023 winter meet on Nov. 4.

The question raised by the professional conduct and inter-state activities of these individuals is this: Does HISA have legal sway to independently step in and exclude licensees it deems a detriment to racing's image when a racetrack fails to do so?

For many watching HISA closely, this particular question is where the rubber meets the road.

There's language in the rules that appears to give HISA fairly broad authority over conduct detrimental to the sport and to equine welfare. As Foreman explains it, however, HISA has the ability to "fine, suspend, or revoke registration" from a licensee registered with HISA, but only if that individual is found guilty of violating stipulated HISA rules, and afforded due process.

Ultimately, "If a person is suspended, that's HISA's jurisdiction. HISA is the new national racing commission," Foreman said, before hammering home how "that has nothing to do with a track's private property rights."

An important caveat is that every licensee begins life under HISA with a clean slate.

"Remember, everybody starts at zero when the medication rules go into effect on January 1," said Foreman. "They're not allowed to take into account their prior record."

And Foreman said he is hopeful that HISA's new stricter set of rules and sanctions in general will motivate better overall standards of equine care.

One salient example of how this stricter regulatory theater will look surrounds Boldenone, an anabolic steroid better known as Equipoise.

In September, the stewards at Gulfstream Park suspended trainer Nagib Aboughaida 15-days and fined him $500 for a Boldenone positive. Under HISA, Boldenone is a prohibited substance, a positive for which necessitates a two-year suspension, a fine totaling $25,000 or 25% of the purse (whichever is greater), and an ineligibility period of up to 14 months for the horse.

Still, beyond the purview of actionable conduct, HISA's wrists are still fairly tightly tied, Foreman conceded. This of course includes there being "no mandatory reciprocity among racetracks if a racetrack chooses to exclude an individual for reasons it determines are appropriate," Foreman added.

"That will still remain moving forward."

Penalties for Equine Injuries?

That's not to say HISA doesn't have the potential authority to exclude trainers for actions or behaviors that aren't currently specific violations, said Drew Couto, an attorney who has represented trainer Jerry Hollendorfer in the many-splintered litigations stemming from his exclusion from The Stronach Group facilities in June of 2019. Cont. p9

The trick, Couto said, will be to devise a set of objective criteria to specifically delineate expectations of ethical equine care. Crucially, such criteria must be relayed to trainers and others in clear, easily understandable fashion, said Couto.

"I don't think somebody should be left alone without any idea that their license is in jeopardy and all of a sudden be blind-sided," said Couto.

In other words, "being congratulated one week in the winner's circle for your winners, and then the next week being told you've got to get out of Dodge," Couto added.

In this regard, what HISA would have to do is similar to what the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) attempted last year, when proposing regulations that would have penalized trainers for certain equine injuries or fatalities.

The CHRB shelved that idea in favor of a blue-ribbon panel to review equine injuries, stymied—at least for now—by the practicalities of framing sanctionable regulations around what is often such a nuanced and multi-faceted issue.

As for HISA intervening in private property matters, Couto believes that in the early days of the law, the new federal Authority will prove reluctant to weigh in on many matters where licensees have been excluded from private facilities.

Absent that clear set of standards in cases where licensees haven't broken any specific rules, "I suspect HISA's not going to want to jump into the deep end of that pool—not at the outset," said Couto. "Their lawyers are going to say, 'do we want to be the defendants in a Jerry Hollendorfer-type of case?'"

Given the sheer scale of litigation costs as well as the enormity of the undertaking still ahead in ensuring that HISA works as intended, said Couto, "does HISA want that?"

The press conference was geared to a non-racing audience, and by having representatives speak from the Business Council of New York State and the Saratoga County Chamber of Commerce, it was clear that a primary goal of We Are NY Horse Racing is to get across the message that a rebuilt Belmont will generate trickle-down benefits extending far beyond just the Thoroughbred industry and the local economy on Long Island.

Najja Thompson, the executive director of the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, Inc., warned that, "Without a strong horse racing ecosystem in New York, breeders can decide to move across state lines."

TERRY FINLEY JOINS THE TDN WRITERS’ ROOM PODCAST, TALKS FLIGHTLINE

Within a 48-hour period, Flightline (Tapit) won the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic, was then retired and then a share in the future stallion sold for $4.6 million at Keeneland. With that in mind, the TDN Writers’ Room presented by Keeneland called upon co-owner Terry Finley of West Point Thoroughbreds to wrap up the horse’s racing career and to look ahead to his next career as a stallion. Finley was this week’s Green Group Guest of the Week.

On the decision to retire Flightline, when asked if he understood why people were upset that the horse would no longer be racing, Finley said that he did, but added that he was comfortable with the way things worked out.

"There are a lot of factors that went into it," he said. "We fully acknowledge that there are some other ways to look at it, but we are very comfortable in the spot that we're in and the impact that Flightline has had. I love to talk about that because when you step back in the light of day, I think he had an incredible amount of impact on our business. There were stories in the Athletic, the Wall Street Journal, the New York Times, USA Today. There were all the blogs, all the videos, all the chatter on social media. He had an impact, and that impact is going to continue. So when you put all that together, yes, we had to make a tough decision. That's what leaders do, they make tough decisions."

Because Flightline only ran six times some pundits are saying he does not deserve to be compared to the all-time greats who had much longer careers. Finley wasn’t necessarily ready to disagree.

"I think that foundationally that viewpoint is sound," he said. "I've had discussions with people who I really respect that have been in the game for a long time and are leaders. Their outlook is exactly the outlook that you put forth and I don't argue with them. Now, I'd like to think that if anybody owned this horse, albeit a piece of them like we do, you'd focus on the good things. You'd focus on his charisma and his brilliance and his undefeated status and the fact that he's given our industry a jolt. But you can't have everything."

Finley was indeed “focused on the good things” after Flightline’s Classic win, so much so that he wept for joy.

“I just thought it was probably our best moment in the business," he said. “And on top of that, I was able to share it with my family and with other people. You put all those things together and if you can’t get emotional in a moment like that, I’m not sure you ever can get emotional."

Finley gave an update on the stallion plans for Flightline, revealing that he will be bred to about 160 mares and added that “it’s going to take a very significant mare with a pedigree and a race record to get to Flightline.” Cont. p11
Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by Coolmore, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, XBTV and West Point Thoroughbreds, Randy Moss and Bill Finley talked more about Flightline’s place in racing history and a revelation from a voter that he will not be voting for Flightline for Horse of the Year. Flightline’s retirement also brought about a conversation regarding whether or not there is any way for racing to keep its stars on the racetrack. Moss and Finley wondered out loud if it’s not time for the Thoroughbred industry to allow, like all other racing breeds, artificial insemination. In other equine sports that has allowed horses to continue to race while being bred in their off seasons. Another topic was the incredible year turned in so far by Beverly Park (Munnings), who made his 26th start this season in last week’s Claiming Crown at Churchill Downs. HARNESS TRAINER GUIDO GETS 20 MONTHS IN PRISON FOR DOPING

by T.D. Thornton

Thomas Guido, III, a 57-year-old former Standardbred trainer based in the Northeast, became the third defendant in related criminal racehorse doping cases this week to be sentenced to prison.

On Thursday, a federal judge put Guido behind bars for 20 months as part of an agreement with prosecutors in which Guido pleaded guilty to one felony count of substantive drug misbranding and adulteration with intent to defraud and mislead in exchange for three conspiracy charges against him being dropped.

Guido was also ordered to pay a $10,000 fine. Prior to his Nov. 17 sentencing, he already paid a $61,800 forfeiture that had been a condition of his plea bargain.

At two separate sentencings on Nov. 15, the same judge in in United States District Court (Southern District of New York) sent the former Standardbred trainer Rene Allard to prison for 27 months while the former racetrack veterinarian Louis Grasso got 50 months for his role in the same doping ring.

Had the case gone to trial, prosecutors had been prepared to prove how Guido and Grasso worked together to administer performance-enhancing drugs (PEDs) to Standardbreds.

"Critically, Guido sought to obtain some of the most potent PEDs in the industry—blood builders—to administer to racehorses for the purpose of corruptly improving their race performance," prosecutors wrote in a pre-sentencing submission.

Among the evidence that the feds intended to present if the case had gone to trial was a 2019 intercepted phone call in which the trainer and veterinarian discussed the death of a horse named Reiki, presumably after the administration of a blood-clotting agent. Cont. p12
"Guido appreciated the dangers of illegally administering drugs to racehorses for no legitimate medical purpose," the prosecution’s filing continued. "One of Guido’s racehorses unexpectedly died with no apparent cause, leading co-defendant Louis Grasso to speculate that the horse had died after receiving a mis-administered dose of N-butyl alcohol. Guido likewise appreciated that his conduct was prohibited: over the course of his career, Guido had received multiple prior positive drug tests and fines or suspensions as punishment."

Prosecutors had sought a 30-month prison sentence. Guido’s attorney had argued for a far more lenient punishment of 12 months of home confinement. Guido’s lawyer also disputed that his client had a direct role in Reiki’s death.

"The government suggests that Mr. Guido was directly responsible for the death of a horse under his care," Guido’s attorney wrote. "The basis of this allegation is a conversation between Dr. Grasso and Mr. Guido recorded on October 2, 2019, in which they discuss the death of a horse owned by a friend of Mr. Guido."

"Dr. Grasso, who did not examine the horse, opines that the horse died of an improperly administered N-Butyl injection. [Reiki] died the day before [after competing in] a race at Pocono Downs."

"Mr. Guido was not present at that race, he did not transport that horse to the track, and it’s not clear whether Reiki was stabled at [his farm]. Mr. Guido did not mis-deliver an injection of N-Butyl to Reiki on October 1, 2019 ... The entire conversation is speculative [and] we don’t know why the horse died," the defense filing continued.

But yet, even Guido’s own attorney conceded in the same paragraph that, "What is true, however, is that similar to his facilitating others in obtaining Epogen prescriptions, Mr. Guido may have supplied the N-Butyl that Dr. Grasso had prescribed for his barn. It is conduct that he deeply regrets."

DURENBERGER NAMED HISA EQUINE SAFETY AND WELFARE DIRECTOR

The Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) has appointed Dr. Jennifer Durenberger as Director of Equine Safety and Welfare, effective Nov. 28, 2022, HISA announced Thursday.

Dr. Durenberger will advise HISA’s leadership and Standing Committees on equine health and welfare strategies and oversee HISA’s relationships with industry veterinarians and other key stakeholders to ensure consistency in the implementation of HISA’s equine safety and welfare policies nationwide.

“HISA is thrilled to have Dr. Durenberger sharing her insight and expertise to help protect the health and welfare of our sport’s magnificent equine athletes,” said HISA CEO Lisa Lazarus. “Dr. Durenberger’s leadership will be crucial to ensuring the success of HISA’s cooperative relationships with Regulatory, Association and Attending Veterinarians, and other industry stakeholders, as we continue to fulfill our mandate to enhance safety and integrity.”

Dr. Durenberger has more than 30 years of experience in Thoroughbred racing, most recently serving as the Jockey Club Steward for the New York Racing Association. She is a member of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association’s Safety and Integrity Alliance, where she serves as Senior Veterinary and Regulatory Consultant, and a board member of the Racing Officials Accreditation Program.

“It’s a privilege to join the exceptional team at HISA in its effort to improve equine health and safety through the introduction and enforcement of strong uniform rules,” said Dr. Durenberger. “I look forward to working with HISA’s experts as well as the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit to further position veterinarians and all racing participants for compliance and success.”

An accredited senior steward, Dr. Durenberger previously worked as the Chief Examining Veterinarian for NYRA, a Commission Veterinarian for the California Horse Racing Board, an Association Steward at Delta Downs in Louisiana, a Steward at Canterbury Park for the Minnesota Racing Commission and as Director of Racing for the Massachusetts Gaming Commission. Dr. Durenberger received a veterinary degree from Cornell University and a law degree from Western State University College of Law at Fullerton.
HORA SUPPLEMENT FOR MIDLANAC
DECEMBER MIXED ONLINE

Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 94 supplemental horses of racing age for its upcoming Midlantic December Mixed and Horses of Racing Age Sale. The sale will be held Tuesday, Dec. 6, at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, Maryland.

Horses of racing age are catalogued as hips 187-281 in a separate supplemental catalogue.

“We have a quality collection of horses of racing age from leading national stables as well as those from the Midlantic region,” said Midlantic Director of Sales Paget Bennett. “Prospective buyers looking to augment their stables heading into 2023 will find in-form entries that fit a variety of levels, conditions, and regional programs.”

Fasig-Tipton also catalogued an additional seven entries in the mixed session—four broodmares (catalogued as hips 32, 57, 146, and 157), a weanling (hip 111), and two yearlings (hips 185 and 186). The Midlantic December Mixed and Horses of Racing Age Sale will begin at 11 am. Online bidding and phone bidding will be available.

HELP WANTED: EDITOR/WRITER/REPORTER

We are looking for an editor/writer/reporter at the Thoroughbred Daily News, the Thoroughbred industry’s largest and most successful daily publication.

• Work in our Red Bank, NJ office or remotely

Duties include:
• Writing race recaps and previews, news stories, sales reports, and more
• Copy editing the work of freelance writers
• Processing racing, breeding, and sales-related data
• Formatting and publishing the nightly paper.

The successful candidate will have excellent writing skills, strong industry knowledge, and team spirit. Weekends and some evenings are a must.

Salary commensurate with experience. We pay 100% of your benefits and contribute annually to your 401k plan.

Please send a cover letter and a resume to jobatthetdn@gmail.com telling us why you’re the perfect candidate. Inquiries will be kept strictly confidential.
Campaigned by the late Willis Horton during his first two seasons at the races and trained by D. Wayne Lukas, Will Take Charge won the 2013 GI Travers S. and GII Pennsylvania Derby before dropping a heartbreaking decision in that year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Classic. A defeat of his elders in the GI Clark H. at Horton’s home track and was placed in the GI Whitney S. prior to his retirement to stud.

Overall, Will Take Charge is the sire of 224 winners from five crops to race and a dozen stakes winners in addition to There Goes Harvard, including this year’s GI Phoenix S. upsetter Manny Wah and Grade III winners Will’s Secret and Abaan. His four Japanese winners from five to race includes France Go de Ina, who participated in the 2021 GI Preakness S. and GI Belmont S.

Will Take Charge is out of the gifted MGISW Take Charge Lady, making him a half-brother to WinStar stallion Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy); G1SW As Time Goes By (American Pharoah); and to Charming (Seeking the Gold), the dam of promising young Spendthrift sire Omaha Beach (War Front) and Horton’s Eclipse Award winner Take Charge Brandi (Giant’s Causeway). This is also the family of GISP ‘TDN Rising Star’ Charge It (Tapit) and of Japanese MSW Strong Souther (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)), a son of Take Charge Lady’s MSW/GSP half-sister Eventail (Lear Fan).

“We are delighted to be able to introduce this horse at a time when he has produced a Grade I winner in the U.S. and has further enhanced his reputation in Japan,” said Darley Japan CEO Harry Sweeney. “We are confident he will be a success in Japan.”

FEWER ’23 DATES, CUT IN PURSES PROPOSED BY CANTERBURY

by T.D. Thornton

Despite coming off a record-handle season, Canterbury Park is proposing a 10-day schedule slice and a $45,000 average daily purse cut for 2023.

The reductions were made public this week as the Minnesota track faced a Nov. 15 racing commission deadline to apply for next year’s dates at the same time it is trying to extend or renegotiate an expiring agreement with the Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux Community. Since 2012, that deal has provided purse funding in exchange for the track and horsemen not pursuing additional forms of gambling, and it expires Dec. 31. Cont. p15
The 54-date season would begin May 27, the latest start in Canterbury Park history, and end Sept. 16. The track would cut back by hosting just three-day race weeks for the bulk of the season, although parts of July and August would feature four days of racing.

Rachel Blount of the Minneapolis Star Tribune first broke the story, quoting Canterbury’s chief executive officer, Randy Sampson.

"At this point, we need to plan for how we will manage the racing season if there isn't an extension," Sampson told the Tribune. "We would all like to run more days, but I think this is a great compromise. I'm quite optimistic it will work out fine."

Canterbury handled $97.6 million in 2022 over a 64-day season that paid an average of $245,000 in daily purses.

Mike Cronin, the executive director of the Minnesota Horsemen’s Benevolent and Protective Association, told the Tribune that horsemen are attempting to focus on the longer-term future.

"We knew we would have to make some compromises for next year, and Canterbury would have to make some compromises," Cronin said. "The hope is that we can navigate this together. All things considered, we’re excited about next year, but our real focus has to be on 2024 and beyond."

The potential lack of a funding agreement isn’t the only issue. Racing in general in the Midwest will be shifting for 2023 in ways that could increase competition to Canterbury from other regional tracks.

Ellis Park in Kentucky is racing under new ownership, and although Ellis is scheduled to race essentially its same block of 24 dates next year over the same summer template, new owner Churchill Downs, Inc., is expected to put a renewed emphasis on racing there by strengthening the racing program.

In Illinois, Hawthorne Race Course will return a summer Thoroughbred season to greater Chicago after a one-year absence in the aftermath of the sudden and permanent closure of Arlington International Racecourse by racing Mar. 4-Sept. 4. And in Nebraska, casino gaming and sports betting at tracks are in the pipeline for 2023, with Legacy Downs (formerly Lincoln Race Course) and Fonner Park both expanding their schedules.

Extensive renovations are also planned for Canterbury, so the later start to the season at least affords extra time to complete a new barn and a new dormitory, plus replace the track’s lighting system.

Canterbury’s proposed dates must be still approved by the Minnesota Racing Commission in December.

"A lot of tracks around the country are already running three days per week, so the horsemen are used to it," Sampson told the Tribune.

WEEKLY STEWARDS AND COMMISSIONS RULINGS: NOV. 8-14

Every week, the TDN publishes a roundup of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky. Here’s a primer on how each of these jurisdictions adjudicates different offenses, what they make public (or not) and where.

With the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) having gone into effect on July 1, the TDN will also post a roundup of the relevant HISA-related rulings from the same week.

TAKE2 TO RECOGNIZE TBRED HUNTER, JUMPER DIVISIONS AT ALL USEF SHOWS

Edited Press Release

The TAKE2 Second Career Thoroughbred Program will recognize the results and count the points earned by TAKE2 Thoroughbred League members competing in the rated Thoroughbred Hunter and Thoroughbred Jumper Divisions at all USEF horse shows. This rule change will be retroactive to the beginning of the current TAKE2 season, which kicked off Aug. 29, 2022, and runs through Aug. 27, 2023.

“When we started TAKE2, we required the USEF-rated horse shows to complete an application to affiliate with our program,” TAKE2 Executive Director Andy Belfiore explained. “Unfortunately, there were horse shows that offered the rated Thoroughbred Divisions but did not submit the application, so we had League members who missed out on points.”

“We felt it was in the best interest of our League members, and would best help us fulfill our mission of promoting second careers for retired racehorses, if we modified our rules, discontinuing the application requirement and expanding the TAKE2 network,” Belfiore added.

Celebrating the 10th Anniversary in 2022, TAKE2 has grown from just a handful of horse shows in three states to more than 400 horse shows nationwide. The program was created by the late Rick Violette Jr., then president of the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association (NYTHA), in 2012 to put the spotlight on the success of Thoroughbreds in the show ring.

“Rick would be overwhelmed by the support TAKE2 has received not only from the racing industry, but also from the many Thoroughbred lovers in the sport horse world,” Belfiore said, adding, “We encourage horse shows to brand the rated Thoroughbred Divisions as TAKE2, so we can continue to raise awareness and create second career opportunities for retired racehorses.”

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
9th-Churchill Downs, $127,000, Alw, 11-16, (NW1X), 3yo/up, f/m, 1:36.10, ft, 2 lengths.

TRAVERSE (f, 3, Street Sense--Chastise, by Blame) was an 11-1 longshot Wednesday after taking four tries to break her maiden, finally doing so last time out in a maiden claiming event June 19 over the Churchill main track after previously trying the all-weather surface three times at Turfway Park. Positioned near the back of the field between rivals early, Traverse tipped out five wide at the head of the lane to overtake favored Customer Driven (Quality Road) and drew off for the two-length score. Chastise is responsible for an unraced 2-year-old filly, Romping (Runhappy), and a yearling colt, Nocreekforme (Flatter), before foaling a colt by War of Will this year. She was bred to Silver State for 2023. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-1, $44,680. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
8th-Churchill Downs, $127,840, Alw (NW2X)/Opt. Clm ($125,000), 11-17, 3yo, 1 1/16m, 1:43.91, ft, 1/2 length.

PIONEER OF MEDINA (c, 3, Pioneerof the Nile--Lights of Medina (SW & GSP, $173,600), by Eskendereya) was a contender on this year’s Derby trail, checking in fourth behind GSW Epicenter (Not This Time) in the GII Risen Star S. before hitting the board again behind Epicenter in the GII Louisiana Derby. Outclassed in his three starts since, Pioneer of Medina entered Thursday’s race as the 5-2 second choice off a distant eighth-place finish against optional claimers at Keeneland Oct. 20. Last of the field past an opening quarter of :23.94, he was under a drive a long ways from the wire. Caught four wide at the head of the lane, Pioneer of Medina just managed to get up past 2-5 favorite Warrior Johny (Quality Road) for a half-length win. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $110,335. O/Sumaya U.S. Stable; B-International Equities Holding, Inc. (KY); T-Todd A. Pletcher.

9th-Churchill Downs, $129,278, Alw, 11-17, (NW1X), 3yo/up, 5f, :57.21, ft, 1 1/4 lengths.

WILLTORUN (c, 3, Twirling Candy--Willow Hills (SP, $105,942), by Distorted Humor) won on debut in a turf sprint at Ellis Park Aug. 21 and was sixth next out in another grass sprint at Keeneland Oct. 16. Dismissed at 28-1 in this switch to the main track, the dark bay raced off the pace through a :21.92 opening quarter. Rallying between horses in the lane, he ran down favored pacesetter Skelly (Practical Joke) late to win by 1 1/4 lengths. Willow Hills is also responsible for the winning juvenile filly Willow Bend (Flatter), a yearling filly by Twirling Candy and a weanling colt by Munnings. She was bred back to Blame. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $110,335.

10th-Churchill Downs, $90,920, Msw, 11-17, 2yo, f, 1 1/16m, 1:45.37, ft, 6 lengths.

DEFINING PURPOSE (c, 2, Cross Traffic--Defining Hope (MSW, $306,238), by Strong Hope) could only manage fifth on debut going this distance at Keeneland Oct. 20 and was favored at 6-5 to improve here. Away well from her rail draw, the gray dictated terms, pressed through an opening half in :47.92. Confronted by a host of pursuers on the far turn, she jumped clear in the lane to win as she pleased by six lengths. Sales history: $14,000 RNA Ylg ’21 KEEJAN. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $55,095. SIGNAL FROM NOISE (f, 3, Arrogate--Holiday Soiree (SW & GISP, $405,642), by Harlan's Holiday) was bet like a sure thing Thursday, going off at a commanding 1-5 off a 5 3/4-length defeat behind Tizzy In the Sky (Sky Kingdom) on debut over this same track and distance Sept. 23. Patient through the early stages behind and outside the leading pair of Adam's Angel (Into Mischief) and Wings Like Eagles (Get Stormy) through an opening half in :46.95, Signal From Noise began to advance with a three-wide move past the quarter pole. Under no visible movement from jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr., she wasted no time in overtaking the top pair and turning it into a race for second place, lengthening her winning margin down the lane and hitting the line geared down 9 1/4 lengths ahead of Wings Like Eagles.

Her 2-year-old half-sister, Vahva (Gun Runner), was second on debut at Saratoga Sept. 4. She also has a weanling half-sister by City of Light while her dam visited Nyquist for the 2023 season.

Sales History: $280,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $65,750. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

SMOKIN’ BILLY (c, 2, Free Drop Billy--Buy for Less, by Bodemeister) made just $8,500 as a weanling at Keeneland November in 2020, but improved into a $40,000 Fasig-Tipton October yearling and fetched a strong $230,000 at OBS April after he breezed in :10 flat. That price ranks as the highest of 17 juveniles (19 ring) reported as sold from the first crop of his sire (by Union Rags). Smokin' Billy is the first foal from a winning daughter of SW Ayla Bella (Touch Gold). B-Mullikin Thoroughbreds (KY)

JOVIAN (c, 2, Justify--Runway Doll, by Majestic Warrior) debuts in the yellow-and-red silks of Kazumi Yoshida, with the visiting Cristian Demuro set to take the reins aboard the $250,000 OBS March breezer (:9 4/5). A half-brother to an Uncle Mo colt that sold to Donegal Racing for $200,000 at the Fasig-Tipton July sale, the bay is out of a half-sister to SW Song Warrior (Songandaprayer), who was acquired by this breeder for $380,000 in foal to American Pharoh at KEENOV in 2018. B-DS Stable LLC (KY)

ESSENTIAL ONE (f, 2, Bernardini--Indelible, by Tiznow) was acquired in utero for $130,000 at the 2019 Keeneland November Sale about 12 months before her dam's 'TDN Rising Star' half-brother Essential Quality (Tapit) closed a championship season with a victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. On the heels of that success, Indelible was put through the 2020 Fasig-Tipton November Sale, where she realized a final bid of $1.6 million from Japan's Nobutaka Tada. This is the family of champion Folklore (Tiznow), whose daughter Rhodochrosite (Unbridled's Song) is the dam of Japanese Triple Crown hero Contrail (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}).

HENRY BEEBY HAILS “SENSATIONAL” NOVEMBER FOAL SALE AT GOFFS

By Brian Sheerin

The Havana Grey (GB) train is showing no sign of slowing down and, after a booming debut season at stud that saw his fee at Whitsbury Manor Stud bumped up to £18,500, he supplied the sales-topping filly on the final day of what Henry Beeby described as a “sensational” November Foal Sale at Goffs.

That €68,000 filly (lot 962) was signed for by renowned judge Paul McCartan of Ballyphillip Stud, best known for breeding speedballs Harry Angel (Ire) and Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), and was consigned by Olive O’Connor Bloodstock.

McCartan said, “She was a beautiful filly out of a Showcasing (GB) mare and there are plenty of 2-year-old winners in the pedigree. I’ve been very impressed by Havana Grey. I really liked his foals from his first crop as well.”

He added, “I thought there were some lovely foals here this year but they were hard bought. We didn’t get all that we wanted. There was great trade here but I am happy with what we have bought.”

It was the younger sires who came up trumps on Thursday where 176 of the 235 foals were sold which equates to a 75% clearance rate in a week where the overall turnover rose 16% to €29,561,000. Cont. p3

WHIRLWIND YEAR FOR DAVIES ENDS WITH WINTER IN BAHRAIN

By Emma Berry

SAKHIR, Bahrain—It has been a big year for Harry Davies. Having made his first appearance under rules aboard Battered (GB) for Hugo Palmer at Southwell on Jan. 11, Britain’s fastest-rising apprentice is currently engaged in his first overseas riding job at the Bahrain Turf Club, where he is working for leading trainer Allan Smith.

In the weighing-room, Davies is as fresh-faced as they come, but then that’s no surprise as he is still only 17. In conversation, however, he has the maturity and quiet confidence of someone twice his age. That too should perhaps not be surprising. Though Davies was only granted his licence a year ago, he is no stranger to work-riding or race-riding.

He started out at the tender age of 10, a mere slip of a boy using his innate skill rather than strength on Newmarket Heath while riding out for Hugo Palmer, to whom his mother Angie Shea is assistant trainer. Cont. p6
A breeding right in Havana Grey (GB) topped the Tattersalls Online November Sale at 115,000gns on Thursday.

The Tattersalls December Sale gained three more wildcards on Thursday led by half-sisters to two Group 1 winners and a Mehmas (Ire) foal.

A breeding bonus for the first-crop of star stayer Stradivarius (Ire) was announced by The National Stud early on Friday.

The strong figures didn’t stop there. The average rose 15% to €40,110 while the median climbed 9% to €24,000. All told, 737 of the 917 lots offered were sold, translating to a 80% clearance rate.

Goffs chief Henry Beeby said, “Sensational. That is the only description of the amazing trade this week headed by an especially vibrant day of sustained demand at the top of the market yesterday.

“As ever we extend our sincere thanks to every vendor as we know we are nothing without their wonderful horses and we are so grateful for the huge support from so many vendors who choose the Irish National Foal Sale for their best foals. That allows us to credibly promote the sale as featuring the cream of the Irish foal crop which drives every serious buyer of foals to Kildare Paddocks.”

He added, “Indeed, we have welcomed a huge group of purchasers headed, of course, by the mighty Irish pinhookers who have been taken on by bidders from the UK and across Europe. They were joined by several significant end-users, not least from Japan, who bought to race all of which led to a trade of strength, depth and vibrancy from start to finish.

“As was very clear at an excellent renewal of the Orby Sale, quality is what is selling best and that was illustrated by the strongest clearance rate of 85% coming on Wednesday and we look forward to offering many of those top foals at the Orby next year following so many great pinhooking successes here in September.

“The unique Goffs Customer Loyalty Scheme makes that option especially appealing as does the depth and diversity of our international buying bench this year. In fact the only real complaint from several overseas buyers at Orby this year was that we ran out of top tier yearlings so that is the target next year.” Cont. p4

He added, “We now turn our attention to our two-day Breeding Stock catalogue which continues to be so well supported by leading breeders and enjoys such a superb record with its graduates’ progeny at the highest level.”

Along with the sales-topping Havana Grey, a filly by the Ballyhane-based Soldier’s Call (lot 869) sold similarly well at €65,000 from Monanny Farm to Bitzen Bloodstock while the Aga Khan’s emerging force Zarak (Fr) enjoyed a good afternoon when lot 843 was knocked down to Fort Middle Stud for €60,000.

That filly, consigned by Browne Brothers Bloodstock, was just the second by the sire to go through the ring at Goffs; the other (lot 283) sold earlier in the week for €52,000 to Guy Pariente Holding from Baroda Stud.

Not only did Far Above (Ire) win the prize for the best promoted stallion on the sales ground at Goffs this week, with shareholder Jack Cantillon and Starfield Stud boss Michael Orlandi hard to miss in their yellow jackets, but he also posted some solid results in the ring.

The best of which was lot 834, a colt who sold from the Cantillon’s family-run operation, Tinnakill House, to Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock for €48,000.

Brown is an advisor for Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum, whose familiar yellow silks were carried by Far Above to Group 3 success on the racetrack, and the leading bloodstock agent revealed how connections were keen to support the horse at stud.

Brown said, “He is a smashing colt by Far Above, who Sheikh Rashid raced, and is from a family we know well; out of a sister to Perfect Power (Ire). Sheikh Rashid said to me when I was coming over here to let him know that, if I saw a nice Far Above to let him know, which I did. I saw him last night and was keen to have a go.” Cont. p5

From that precocious start, he was twice crowned pony racing champion in the UK, and was then taken under the wing of Andrew and Annalisa Balding at the fabled Kingsclere academy which has been so instrumental in the nascent careers of current champion jockey William Buick and former treble champion jockey Oisin Murphy, among others.

As the 2022 season rumbled into gear in Britain it wasn’t long before trainers started muttering Davies’s name in quiet awe and swiftly booking him for rides as his claim dropped from seven to five to three faster that you can say future champion jockey.

On a coffee break after riding work for Smith on the eve of Bahrain’s biggest race day on Friday, Davies explains his presence at Sakhir racecourse. Cont. p7

He says, "The plan was just to come away for the winter, to save my claim, get a little bit of experience elsewhere and just learn as much as I can really. The plan was originally to go to Australia, however that fell through with my visa as I'm only 17. But Bahrain accepted me and I'm very thankful to Shaikh Isa and to Mr. Smith for taking me on over here and giving me some nice opportunities. I've learned a lot, they're great people and I'm really enjoying it."

By the opening day of the turf season back at home last March, Davies was given the leg-up from Charlie Appleby in the Godolphin blue silks to ride Modern News (GB) in the Lincoln, and by May, when he was closing in on 20 winners, he was already being talked about as a champion apprentice contender. In fact, the championship went to his chief rival, Benoit de la Sayette, who was apprenticed to John and Thady Gosden, but Davies has to date ridden 67 winners in Britain in a year he won't forget in a hurry and which included riding in the royal colours of her late Majesty the Queen.

"I love nothing more than race riding," he says. "To have the first year I had was unbelievable really and I never expected it to go how it did. And hats off to Benoit, he's a fantastic young rider who's very, very talented and it was just great to have that competition there. I enjoyed every minute of it, even though it was very stressful along the way. But I learned so much, not just about race riding, but about myself this year, and I can't wait to go again when I start riding again, probably in late March."

With just 27 wins permitted before he loses his claim, Davies is being wisely guarded by his boss and is full of praise for the Balding team as well as Hugo Palmer, who played such a key role in his formative years. Though the young jockey is not in contact with his father, the former champion apprentice Stephen Davies, he has also been able to lean on sterling help from both his mother and stepfather Phil Shea, who is also his agent.

"I grew up on a horse essentially," he recalls. "It was all I ever did as a kid, just ride ponies and horses. In Newmarket I started riding out for Mr. Palmer before school and he gave me a lot of fantastic opportunities. Then I started riding out for my boss, Mr. Balding, when I was probably 12 or 13 in the summer holidays. I'd go there for a couple of weeks at a time and get to know the crew there and I absolutely loved it at Kingsclere. I got my grades in school and left when I had just turned 16. I started living in the [Kingsclere] hostel and made some great friends and never really looked back."

He continues, "We had a great conversation just before I came out here about using the rest of my claim to the best of its worth, and the vision is very much to get experience." Cont. p8

He adds, "In a sense it's half a working holiday. You've got the sunshine, it's a completely different way of training and riding here, and it's a nice change of scenery for me.

"I've been here for a few weeks now and from what I've done so far, I've absolutely loved it, but it's very important that I get back on the yard, get to know the young horses for next season and spend some time with the guys in the yard. That's very important, so I'll be heading back home in mid-December."

Prior to that, Davies, who has had two rides so far for Smith and will partner the Aga Khan-bred Rayounpour (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) for him in the Batelco Cup on Friday, will make the most of the opportunities that his sojourn offers, including riding alongside Paul Hanagan, who is another to be wintering in Bahrain.

The former champion jockey was uncharacteristically punchy in his criticism of some of the riding on display at tracks in Britain in an interview earlier this season, which may or may not be in Davies's mind when he says, "The older jockeys are always there to mould you as a jockey because they can see that you're going to be in the weighing-room for a while and it's important to teach you along the way. So that's great when you get that.

The weighing-room is a very busy place, but sometimes it can be quite lonely as well, and you find a lot of things out about yourself along the way.

"I've only had two rides here and I've loved it really. It's just been great to see the different culture, because in England [the racing] is every single day and it never stops. So when one day's racing is done, you're immediately looking at tomorrow's meeting and don't have much time to reflect. And that's what I've done since I've been here, trying to reflect on the season and trying to improve myself, not only as a jockey, but as a person really. I think that the quieter time has been very good for me." Cont. p9

Davies’s words, uttered at such a relatively young age, call to mind Rudyard Kipling’s rather more famous words: ‘If you can keep your head while all about you are losing theirs’. He has already proved that he has a cool and calculating head when it comes to race-riding. Facing the pressures that will surely come with his mounting fame will be a challenge of a different sort, but Davies appears to be in the best hands to help him with that along the way, not least his own.

Havana Grey breeding right tops Tattersalls Online

A breeding right in leading first-season sire Havana Grey (GB) (lot 57) brought 115,000gns from Badgers Bloodstock to top the Tattersalls Online November Sale on Thursday. Offered on behalf of a partnership, the Whitsbury Manor Stud stallion’s breeding right proved popular. The grey has already sired 13 group/listed performers, and his top-priced yearling went for 325,000gns this season. His stud fee has risen to £18,500 for 2023.

Tom Pritchard-Gordon of Badgers Bloodstock said, “Havana Grey is a very exciting young stallion who continues to exceed expectations. He is the sire of 13 stakes performers from 83 runners which is remarkable; 16% stakes performing 2-year-olds to runners off a stallion fee of £8,000. Whitsbury Manor Stud have been very conservative with their pricing this year, standing at £18,500 and I predict that in a couple of years he will look remarkably cheap.”

Listed winner Willessee (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}) (lot 34) was the second-dearest lot of the day at 90,000gns. Sent through the ring by Jessica Harrington’s Commonstown Stables, the 3-year-old filly went to Mountarmstrong Stud. Her second dam is G3 Prix d’Aumale heroine Helleborine (GB) (Observatory), the dam of G2 Coventry S. winner and sire Calyx (GB) (Kingman {GB}).

Rounding out the top three was lot 43, Consensus De Vega (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), from Roger Varian’s Carlburg Stables consignment. Armando Duarte shelled out 24,000gns for the winner, who hails from the family of Artiste Royal (Ire) (Danehill).

Breeding rights in Harry Angel (Ire) (lot 56) and Territories (Ire) (lot 54) went for 18,000gns and 17,500gns, respectively, to Bearstone Stud and Sophie Buckley’s Culworth Grounds Farm.

Overall, 38 lots changed hands for a gross of 446,500gns and a clearance rate of 67%. The average was 11,750gns and the median was 5,500gns.

THREE WILDCARDS ADDED TO TATTERSALLS DECEMBER SALE

A half-sister to a pair of Group 1 winners and a colt foal by Mehmas (Ire) are late additions to the Tattersalls December Mares Sale and Tattersalls December Foal Sale. Cont. p10

Five-time winner Nataleena (Ire) (Nathaniel (Ire)), a half-sister to Group 1 winner Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay (GB)) will sell through The Castlebridge Consignment as lot 1639A. Her dam, the Multiplex (GB) mare Hayyona (GB), is a half-sister to Group 2 victor Shimraan (Fr) (Rainbow Quest). She is in foal to Harry Angel (Ire), who has already sired stakes winners in the Northern and Southern Hemispheres.

Joining Nataleena for the Mares Sale is Houghton Bloodstock Five Stars (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) (lot 1639B). The sophomore is a dual winner and a half-sister to G1 Prix de Royallieu heroine Loving Dream (GB) (Gleneagles (Ire)), as well as the G1 American Oaks third Amandine (GB) (Shamardal). Their dam is Kissable (Ire) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)), a listed winner and third in the G1 Moyglare Stud S.

Castlefarm Stud will consign the Mehmas colt as lot 725A. He is out of the winning Blissful Beauty (Fr) (Olympic Glory (Ire)), herself a half-sister to Group 2 hero Home Of The Brave (Ire) (Starspangledbanner (Aus)).

The Tattersalls December Sale begins with the December Yearling Sale on Nov. 21, followed by the December Foal Sale from Nov. 23-26. The December Mares Sale, featuring the Sceptre Sessions, will begin on Nov. 28 and go until Dec. 1.

BREEDER BONUS FOR STRADIVARIUS

A breeding bonus for high-class stayer Stradivarius (Ire)’s progeny will be offered for his first-crop, The National Stud announced on Friday. Available exclusively to breeders of his progeny born in England, Ireland, and France, the bonus entails £250,000 to the breeders of any first-crop Group 1 winner, and £100,000 to the breeders of any first-crop Group 2 or 3 winners.

The stallion will stand for £10,000 next year in his first season at stud, and his first foals will arrive in 2024. In addition, the breeders of the first ten winning 2-year-olds from the multiple Group 1-winning stayer’s 2024 crop, born in England, Ireland, France, and Germany, will each receive £25,000.

ARQANA AUTUMN SALE CONCLUDES WITH STRONG CLEARANCE RATE

The four-day Arqana Autumn Sale ended on Thursday with a session devoted to National Hunt breeding stock comprised of foals, broodmares, and fillies. Three horses broke the six-figure mark, and Grade 3 heroine La Boetie (Fr) (Saint Des Saints (Fr)) (lot 820) hammered at a session-topping €190,000 to Guy Petit, who had been active earlier in the sale. Petit signed for 17 lots on Thursday alone, which grossed €584,000. His total by the end of trade was 32 lots for a gross spend of €983,000.

Presented by David Cottin, the 4-year-old mare has won the G3 Prix Sagan and is a half-sister to Libueno (Fr) (Martaline (GB)), who is stakes-placed over jumps at Auteuil.

Petit said, “I’ve bought her for an Irish client, said the agent. She’s be a broodmare in France. She ticks all the boxes and she’s a lovely mare--she has everything that you could look for in a broodmare."

Thierry Cypres’s Bridge Consignment, Ltd. was in action for both a €160,000 colt foal already christened Mondoctor Jem (Fr) (Doctor Dino (Fr)) and the winning €105,000 AQPS Glady (Fr) (Rail Link (GB)). Haras de Cordelles consigned the Feb. 22-born foal. His half-brother Theleme (Fr) (Sidestep (Aus)) succeeded in the G1 Prix Renaud du Vivier. The latter, from Elevage Cypres, is a half-brother to AQPS Bipolaire (Fr) (Fragrant Mix (Ire)), who won the G1 Prix la Haye Jousselin over fences. She is pregnant to Karaktar (Ire).

A total of 214 horses passed through the ring on Thursday, with 156 (73%) finding new homes for an aggregate of €3,231,000. The median was €12,500 and the average was €20,712. Overall, 515 sold of 675 offered (76%) for a gross of €14,531,500. The average was €28,217 and the median was €15,000.

Eric Hoyeau, President of Arqana and Freddy Powell, Executive Director, commented, “We would like to thank all our buyers who came to the sale at this very busy time of the year. It is difficult to draw any conclusions about the Autumn Sale as a whole, as each day had its own distinct class. The horses-in-training at the start of the sale were marked by a buoyant market, with very strong international demand for all profiles.”
EQUIP AND IIJ WILL OFFER FINANCIAL COURSE FOR JOCKEYS

Equuip and Irish Injured Jockeys have partnered to develop a financial literary course for all professional jockeys, including conditionals and apprentices, which is free to attend. It will offer practical advice and tools to help guide jockeys on all financial matters, how to make better money decisions, learn about personal finance, financial concepts, and financial planning. The course is divided into three modules—an online tutorial, an in-person workshop with Gateway Financial Consultants, and one-on-one mentoring with Gateway Financial Consultants. All professional jockeys can register for the course on Equuip’s website.

Carol Nolan, Director of People and Equuip at HRI, commented: “Equuip teamed up with Irish Injured Jockeys to offer this course to all professional jockeys as it was something we both felt was needed for the jockey population. Jockeys are licenced from 16 years of age, and it is important that they receive as much information in relation to their finances as possible. From basic financial advice to financial planning and investments, we hope it will offer really practical advice and support to the riders. In time, our plan is to roll out a similar course to all other employees within the racing and breeding industry.”

Ritournelle bettered a June 10 debut fourth at Compiègne with a Sept. 13 runner-up finish over one mile at Lyon-Parilly and lined up for this stakes bow returning off an Oct. 9 breakthrough score over the latter course and distance. Detached in rear for the most part, she was urged forward once into the home straight and kept on relentlessly under continued roasting once seizing control out wide with a furlong remaining to claim a career high in game fashion.

Ritournelle is the second of three foals and lone scorer out of G3 Oh So Sharp S. and G3 Nell Gwyn S. third Robanne (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}), herself a half-sister to the dual stakes-placed Hartley (GB) (Lucky Story). The February-faoled bay’s second dam Arctic Song (GB) (Charnwood Forest {Ire}) is a half-sister to multiple stakes-winning G2 Gimcrack S. and G3 Prix de Meautry second Andronikos (GB) (Dr Fong).    Also Ran: Titanium (Fr), Ad Merajj (Fr), Norwegian Sir (Fr), Kenger (Fr), True Tedesco (Ger).

Skalleti, relatively lightly tried despite his veteran status, is a force to be reckoned with when conditions are at their most testing and added yet another stakes triumph to his resume in the swamp here.

Successful twice at the highest level before this campaign, he lined up for this task coming back off a sabbatical after running fifth in ParisLongchamp’s May 1 G1 Prix Ganay and was under restraint in fifth from the outset. Nudged along with 500 metres remaining, he was ridden to challenge in the centre of the track approaching the final furlong and was pushed out in the latter stages to secure an ultimately snug 13th black-type success.

Skalleti is the second of four foals bred from MGSP Listed Prix Occitanie victrix Skallet (Fr) (Muhaymin). He is a full-brother to last year’s G2 Prix Vicomtesse de Vigier winner and G1 Prix Royal-Oak runner-up Skazino (Fr), Listed Prix du Ranelagh placegetter Skalleto (Fr) and the unraced 3-year-old gelding Skalli (GB). Skallet is the leading performer out of Listed Le Vase d’Argent runner-up Siran (Fr) (R.B. Chesne {GB}), herself kin to Listed Derby du Langueudoc victor Percent Premium (Fr) (Johann Quatz {Fr}). Skalleti’s fourth dam La Manouche (Margouillat {Fr}) is kin to the stakes-winning Mousseline de Soie (Fr) (Riverman), herself the dam of three stakes winners headed by stakes-winning G2 Grosser Hertie-Preis von Deutschland second Silk Stage (Stage Door Johnny). Lot 258, a colt by Capitalist | NZB

625K CAPITALIST COLT TOPS KARAKA SALE

by Trent Masenhelder

After a steady day of buying on Wednesday, shoppers came out swinging at the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale on Thursday, which led to some hugely impressive end-of-sale figures.

At A Glance:
- A total of 97 horses were sold on Day 2 at an aggregate of NZ$13,173,000 and an average of NZ$138,840. Across the two days, 329 lots were catalogued, of which 257 were offered and 195 were sold.
- The overall sale aggregate jumped to NZ$25,186,000, up from NZ$20,547,000 in 2021 (the sale was held virtually), while the average across the two days to NZ$129,159, up from the 2021 figure of NZ$121,580.
- The overall median remained the same as last year—NZ$80,000 and clearance rate skyrocketed to an impressive 76%, up 10% on 2021.
- A Capitalist colt (lot 258), the only one offered at over the two-day auction, was the headline act, with bloodstock agent John Foote going to a sale-topping NZ$625,000 on the final day of the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale for a colt by the high-class stallion.

Foote Capitalises On Golden Opportunity

Capitalist has hit the ground running in Hong Kong and a son by the Newgate Farm resident will be heading to the Asian jurisdiction after prominent bloodstock agent John Foote went to a sale-topping NZ$625,000 on the final day of the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale for a colt by the high-class stallion.

Catalogued as Lot 258, the colt is out of the winning Sebring mare Sebrina and was offered by Regal Farm. A grandson of the Group 3-winning mare Crown Princess (Beautiful Crown {USA}), he breezed in a slick :10.31s.

Initially purchased by Suman Hedge Bloodstock (FBAA) / Silverdale Farm for $250,000 from the Widden Stud draft at the 2021 Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale, he was later passed in at the 2022 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale before Regal Farm/Upper Bloodstock paid $155,000 for him at the 2022 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Yearling Sale from the draft of Widden Stud.

Melbourne Cup-winning trainer David Hall will train the chestnut colt and Foote told TDN AusNZ there was plenty to like about the youngster.

“He’s very well-bred and had a lovely action on him,” Foot explained. “He’s one of the nicer horses here. My client decided that was the one he wanted to buy and that’s the one he bought. He’s just a very nice horse and everyone liked him and that’s why he made the money he made.”

Capitalist made the perfect start to racing in Hong Kong last Sunday when the Tony Cruz-trained debutant Superb Capitalist bolted in by 4.5l, almost breaking Master Eight’s (Oamaru Force) Class 4 record in the process. The star sire made it two winners from as many runners when the Frankie Lor-trained Savvy Chic triumphed in Class 4 company at Happy Valley on Wednesday night.

“He’s done well in Hong Kong so far with limited numbers,” Foote said. “It’s only early days, but he’s certainly one of the flavours of the month up there.”

This colt is Sebrina’s third foal and she won four races between 1300 to 1900 metres and finished third in the G3 James Carr S. in 2015.
Sebrina’s first foal, Gulf Of Tomini (Not A Single Doubt) is a 4-year-old gelding, who started his career with Anthony Cummings, but is now with Cassandra Schmidt at Port Macquarie. Sebrina’s second foal is an unraced 3-year-old colt by Exceed And Excel.

“The colt has a nice pedigree, there’s a bit there to back him up, which always helps with any horse. He’s from a Sebring mare and the second dam was Group 3 placed,” Foote added.

Andrew Williams & Jamie Richards Active On Day 2

Another leading bloodstock agent, Andrew Williams of Andrew Williams Bloodstock (FBAA) was busy on Thursday, and by stumps, he had bought seven lots--five of them in tandem with fellow-Kiwi and now Hong Kong-based trainer Jamie Richards.

Williams was delighted with his haul and told TDN AusNZ it was a typically high-quality sale.

“I love coming back to New Zealand; I’ve got the utmost respect for the grass that these horses are either grown out on or the horsemanship of these guys, the vendors... it’s always a sale that produces a very good horse. You only have to look at Sharp ‘N’ Smart and there’s Golden Sixty, the list goes on,” he said. “I’m very lucky to be able to purchase them.”

He paid NZ$550,000 for lot 307—a colt by Hellbent from the Magic Albert mare Title Holder, who was initially purchased at the 2022 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale by RTR Partnership / McKeever Bloodstock / Bevan Smith Bloodstock for $120,000 from the Yarraman Park Stud draft. Offered by Kilgravin Lodge, the colt looked good in running :10.30 for his breeze.

“He was a lovely, athletic horse, he was a beautiful type,” Williams said. “We rate him one of the highest-rated horses in the sale on breeze, also physically, as well. He came highly recommended by the vendor and he is a very good horseman. He definitely gave the go-ahead for this horse.”

The colt will head to Australia and go through the system before his racing future is determined. This is the fourth foal for Title Holder, who had just three starts and won over 800 metres. Her first foal, Titled Tycoon (Written Tycoon), added a third victory to her CV at Hawkesbury on Thursday, while her second foal, Title Shot, is a two-time winner.

This colt has an unraced 3-year-old sister Hell Of A Shambles, and after missing in 2021, Title Holder foaled another Hellbent filly in August.

Williams then teamed up with Jamie Richards to buy lot 248–an Almanzor (Fr) gelding from the Ohukia Lodge draft--for NZ$475,000.

He is the sixth foal of the winless Salkantay (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), a half-sister to Group 2 winner Te Akau Coup (NZ) (Thorn Park) and listed victor Don Garcia (NZ) (Danehill {USA}). Salkantay’s second foal, Smiling Pride (NZ) (O’Reilly {NZ}), won two Class 4 races in Hong Kong when trained by Jimmy Ting.

“It’s exciting, he’s a lovely middle-distance style of horse,” Williams explained. “I’ve got a lot of time for Almanzor and he’s out of a Zabeel mare, which is even better.

“He is a beautiful horse and we’ll try and get him up to Hong Kong and aim him up at the 4-year-old series.”

Williams and Richards once again combined for lot 262, paying NZ$330,000 for a Kilgravin Lodge-consigned Star Turn colt from the winning mare Sessantesimo (Flying Spur).

The Vinery Stud-based Star Turn has made his mark in Hong Kong, with all four of his runners victorious, including Group 3 scorer Cordyceps Six.

This colt’s dam, a winner at 1800 metres, is a sister to the two-time listed winner Traveston Girl and this is her fifth foal. Sessantesimo has produced, among others, Sess (Pluck {USA})--a winner at 2400 metres in South Africa, as well as Grandellie (Rubick)--a 1000-metre winner in Australia.

“Jamie identified this particular horse; he really liked this horse and thinks he’s perfect for Hong Kong. He obviously wants to build a stable around the horses he likes, so it’s exciting for him,” Williams said of the colt who breezed in :10.49.

“We thought he was a good, strong, well-mannered horse that again came recommended from the vendor. He’s an exciting horse to be following over the next couple of years.”

Williams will take home lot 231—a colt by Deep Field from Ra Epic (Drumbeats), who registered a time of :10.81 for his breeze-up.

This is the first foal for the dam, who won three races in Queensland. She is a sister to Bergerac, who won two 10 races, including two in listed grade, and a three-quarter sister to Group 3 victor turned sire Ardrossan. Ra Epic is also a half-sister to G1 Caulfield Cup hero Incentivise (Shamus Award) and listed winner Cheyenne Warrior (Not A Single Doubt).
“He’s a fantastic sire up there in Hong Kong. There’s going to be less and less of them over the next few years, so I think the demand will go up and up,” Williams commented.

The colt was a member of the Riversley Park draft, and they bought him in partnership with broadcaster and journalist Michael Guerin for $200,000 at this year’s Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale when offered by Bhima Thoroughbreds.

“This horse came highly recommended by Sam Beatson (owner of Riversley Park) as a real Hong Kong horse. He’s obviously a horse with a good pedigree, being out of a sister to Incentivise and Ardrossan,” Williams commented.

“He’s your quintessential Hong Kong horse, bought by one of my favourite clients, and he will be gelded on Friday, have a Christmas in New Zealand, he’ll go to the trials early in the autumn with the potential to head up to Hong Kong in probably June or July into the new season.”

Williams and Richards’s other purchases on Thursday were lot 209—a Sweynesse colt from the Ohukia Lodge draft, which they paid NZ$210,000 for; lot 254—a Vancouver gelding from the Pertab Racing draft, which cost them NZ$160,000; and lot 265—a Tarzino (NZ) colt offered by Westbury Stud, which made NZ$200,000.

Well-related Justify Colt Asia Bound

Morgan Carter Bloodstock parted with NZ$520,000 for lot 249

—a Justify (USA) colt from Santa Clara (Foxwedge), who breezed in :10.47 and was offered by Ohukia Lodge.

The colt’s dam won over 1200 metres and she is a three-quarter sister to the dual listed winner Gybe (Fastnet Rock), who is the dam of listed winner Crosswinds (Written Tycoon). Santa Clara is also a half-sister to the two-time Group 1 winner Anabandana (Anabaa (USA)), and she herself is the dam of Group 2 victor Packing Rockstar (Fastnet Rock).

“I can tell you right now, you feel nerves when you go up on to the rostrum as an auctioneer, and that’s one thing, but this is different,” Carter told the New Zealand Racing desk. “I thought I was pretty relaxed right up until about two lots before the horse went through.

“I was a bit nervous, but it’s my first proper order from the Ready to Run Sale for Hong Kong, and now I’m really, really excited.

“My day-to-day role is mainly private sales off the track, so I hadn’t really given much time to buying from the sales until now, just because of the other business and my auctioneering work taking up that time as well.

“But we wanted one decent horse from the Ready to Run Sale today, and that was it.”

Bought on behalf of his regular client, Hong Kong trainer Michael Chang, Morgan is hopeful their good run of success can continue.

Seabrook Stoked After Buyers Spend Up On Day 2

New Zealand Bloodstock (NZB) CEO, Andrew Seabrook, was justifiably over the moon at the conclusion of the sale, with the Day 2 figures off the charts.

The clearance rate leapt from 65% on Day 1 to 76% across the two days, with that latter figure up 10% on last year, while the overall aggregate (+NZ$4,639,000) and overall average (+NZ$7579) both increased significantly.

In total, 17 lots realised NZ$300,000 or more.

“(Wednesday) I was satisfied, (Thursday) I am absolutely ecstatic,” a jubilant Seabrook told TDN AusNZ.

“This is my 30th 2-year-old sale, 30 years I’ve been with NZB, and it was the most incredible day of selling (Thursday), it was unbelievable.

“Buyers sat back and took it all in, whereas today, they just unleashed.

“We did over 80% clearance (Thursday) and we’ve never done that before at a 2-year-old sale, with an average of NZ$135,000, which is unheard of.

“Overall, we’ve ended up at 75% clearance, which is a really good clearance for a 2-year-old sale.”

Seabrook added that results were all the more satisfying, given the hardship everyone has endured over the past couple of years due to COVID.

“It was so great to see a lot of our Australian friends back, they haven’t been able to travel for so long,” he said. “Some of the big names were active and Hong Kong was really strong.
“And John Foote bought the top lot, the Capitalist colt, which was great; he’s been a huge supporter of NZB for many, many years, so that was great.

“I’m thrilled for the vendors; we’ve had a tough couple of years in New Zealand with the borders closed. To see how the sale went (Thursday) was huge.”
