CONSERVATIVE JUDGES APPEALS COURT "DOES NOT BODE WELL" FOR HISA

By Dan Ross

The conservative bent of two of the three judges on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit scheduled to hear another case about the constitutionality of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) "does not bode well" for the near-term future of the act, said appellate law expert Lucinda Finley.

Oral arguments are set for Dec. 7 in the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals for an appeal of an earlier ruling in U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky.

That district court found that HISA was indeed constitutional, and that the Federal Trade Commission (FTC)—the governmental agency charged with ultimately signing off on the law's rules—wields adequate authority over the private entity charged with implementing the law.

If the Sixth Circuit reverses that district court ruling, it would mirror a decision delivered in the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit last week, which ruled HISA unconstitutional because it cedes too much governmental authority to a private entity, and too little rule-making input to the FTC.

An overview of the various legal implications from the Fifth Circuit ruling can be read here.

GISW PINEHURST SELLS ON FASIG DIGITAL, TO STAND AT WALMAC

Last year’s GI Runhappy Del Mar Futurity S. winner Pinehurst (Twirling Candy–Giant Win, by Giant’s Causeway) has been retired from racing and will stand the 2023 breeding season at Gary Broad’s Walmac Farm after being acquired in partnership with Kiki and Louise Courtelis’s Town and Country Farms Nov. 22 in a Fasig-Tipton Digital ‘Flash Sale.’ The price, a record for a digital sales price in the U.S., was undisclosed, according to Leif Aaron, Fasig-Tipton’s Director of Digital Sales.

“Tom Ryan [of SF Bloodstock] called us on Wednesday of last week and we were able to open the sale up the very next day, which showed the versatility of the website and how quickly we could get everything going,” said Aaron.

The three-person panel hearing the case in the Sixth Circuit includes judges Jeffrey Sutton and Richard Griffin "two of the most conservative judges" on the entire circuit court, said Finley--individuals who could perhaps be expected to take a more "skeptical" attitude towards the constitutionality of the law in its current form, she added.

More pointedly, Chief Judge Sutton is an expert on state constitutions, explained Finley. "Given his strong commitment to letting states handle matters themselves, I would not expect him to come at this new federal regulatory scheme openly sympathetic."

Judge Ransey Guy Cole, the third judge on the panel, is an appointee from the Clinton administration considered moderate to liberal, explained Finley, and could therefore prove more amenable to the arguments from HISA's attorneys.

"This 2-1 slant of extremely conservative judges--and the conservative position these days seems to be against broad federal regulatory schemes--does not bode well for the fate of HISA before the Sixth Circuit," said Finley.

Finley explained that it was difficult to prognosticate when a ruling on the case—which was brought by various entities such as the states of Oklahoma, West Virginia, and those states' racing commissions—will be issued.

If the panel of judges fails to rule unanimously, "that always takes longer for the decision to come out," warned Finley.

That said, "The lawyers might say, as part of their oral argument, that this has caused great uncertainty and tumult, and it would be good to have a decision as soon as possible," said Finley. "But it also depends on something none of us can know, which is for each of the judges on this particular panel, what other cases in the pipeline are they still working on?"

The messy regulatory roadmap for the start of next year, when HISA's Anti-Doping and Medication Control program is scheduled to go into effect, is already looking fraught with potential hazards, especially for trainers and other industry stakeholders with operations in multiple states. If HISA fails to get a stay granted on the Fifth Circuit decision—something several legal eagles think is a likely scenario—then the ruling goes into effect on Jan. 10, and will apply to those states under the circuit court's decision, namely Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, said Finley.

Since Friday's Fifth Circuit decision came out, the same circuit court has also lifted an "administrative stay" on a HISA-related ruling allowing an injunction against the plaintiffs to go into effect. As Finley explains, the injunction essentially prevents HISA from "enforcing its rules" in Louisiana and West Virginia.
Other states beyond the Fifth and Sixth Circuits, therefore, must weigh the decision whether or not to continue abiding by HISA's rules against a backdrop of legal uncertainty surrounding the law's constitutionality.

On Monday, Ed Martin, president of the Association of Racing Commissioners International (ARCI) said that some states, like California, will honor a written agreement they have executed with HISA to enforce its racetrack safety rules.

"Other states, upon the advice of counsel or Attorney General, will revert to state rules that remain on the books, not wanting to jeopardize the outcome of a court challenge to any enforcement action," Martin added.

A reversal in the Sixth Circuit of the earlier district court decision would only muddy the waters even more. At the same time, said Finley, consistent rulings between the Fifth and Sixth Circuits would make it "significantly less likely" the Supreme Court would eventually take up the case—what is one of the potential legal options open to HISA.

"But I think if the Sixth Circuit disagrees with the Fifth Circuit, then I think it makes it significantly more likely that the Supreme Court takes the case," said Finley.

The TDN repeatedly pressed HISA for comment on a series of questions about the pathway forward. HISA responded with a statement by Charles Scheeler, chair of HISA's board of directors, which was first issued last week:

"While HISA is disappointed by the Fifth Circuit's decision, we remain confident in HISA's constitutionality and will be seeking further review of this case. If today's ruling were to stand, it would not go into effect until Jan. 10, 2023 at the earliest. We are focused on continuing our critical work to protect the safety and integrity of Thoroughbred racing, including the launch of HISA's Anti-Doping and Medication Control Program on Jan. 1, 2023."

Finley also emphasized a previously made comment—that arguably the "most successful" route for HISA to legally undergird the act could be to seek a congressional re-write of the rules to cede greater rule-making authority to the FTC.

When asked if greater FTC oversight of the rule-making process would satisfy the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA)—the national organization that has spearheaded the legal push against HISA—the organization's general counsel, Peter Ecabert, demurred, citing other problems with the act as written, such as a lack of transparency in meetings unavailable to the public and in the budgetary process.

"One of the things that Congress could do that would be a blessing for the industry would be to fund this," Ecabert said.

"We all want uniformity," he added. "But do this in the brightness of the light and not behind closed doors."

Far from uniformity, however, come the start of 2023 the regulatory playing field could be as fractured, puzzling and complicated as it has ever been for industry participants.

When asked what he would tell the likes of Steve Asmussen and Todd Pletcher--trainers with large sprawling multi-state barns--about operating in this highly confusing environment, Ecabert recommended reaching out to individual state racing commissions.

"Hopefully the racing commissions will give some guidance, or the attorney general for the jurisdiction will say how they're going to treat HISA," Ecabert said. "It's now a state-specific issue until HISA's ruled to be unconstitutional and unenforceable nationwide."

Ecabert also pointed to legislation introduced into the U.S. House of Representatives in October of last year seeking to delay the full implementation of HISA until the start of 2024.

HBPA CEO, Eric Hamelback, wrote in a text that the bill currently only has three co-sponsors, but that there has been verbal support for the bill among other congressional members, and he expects support to build for it in after Friday's Fifth Circuit decision. Another plan still in its infancy, Ecabert added, is to introduce into congress a separate and national "medication compact" similar in its framing to the now defunct National Uniform Medication Program (NUMP), but which would mandate "uniformity among the states."

NUMP ultimately failed, Ecabert conceded. "But we're in a different atmosphere today than we were years ago," he added. "People now, trainers and owners, have seen how disruptive HISA has been and they're more likely to jump on board."

Aaron said Pinehurst appealed to both owners and breeders worldwide and, as the sale progressed, they had interested parties particularly in the Middle East and the U.S. He added that Fasig-Tipton had over 1,000 people log onto the website during the sale with registered bidders from all over the world. Aaron said there were a total of 41 individual bids on the horse.

"He was already a Grade I winner and a beautiful specimen," said Aaron, "so not only did the horse really fit some races, particularly in the Middle East, but there were also a lot of breeders who were looking at him as a stallion. We had interested parties from all over the world with people from all different backgrounds interested in the horse."

"Basically, what we tried to do was make it as beneficial for the buyers and sellers as we possibly could," said Aaron. "What we have done more than anything is show just how liquid horses can be and how we can turn on a dime to provide an experience for the buyers and sellers that is equivalent to the experience they can expect at a live auction."
In addition to winning the Del Mar Futurity, Pinehurst also won the G3 Al Rajhi Bank Saudi Derby in Saudi Arabia and was second in the GII San Vicente S. Trained by both Bob Baffert and John Terranova, Pinehurst’s current race record stands at 7-3-1-0 with earnings of more than $1.2 million. His ownership group consisted of the partnership of SF Racing, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables, Robert E. Masterson, Stonestreet Stables, Jay A. Schoenfarber, Waves Edge Capital, Catherine Donovan, Golconda Stable, and Siena Farm. Bred on a similar cross to superstar stallion Gun Runner, Pinehurst was consigned to Fasig-Tipton by Elite, agent, as a racing or stallion prospect.

"There were 41 bids on the horse," said Elite’s Brad Weisbord. "This is a big sale for us, because we haven't sold many horses digitally. It was a great opportunity provided by SF Bloodstock and their partners to sell a young horse, a GI winner, who had some great credentials, and to their credit, they utilized this platform in a perfect way. This platform really hasn’t taken off in America in the way it has in other places yet. But when utilized for high-end stock like this, I think it does have a lot of life. I think that one of the reasons it hasn't taken off is that there hasn't been enough high-end stock put online. But yesterday, we saw that when you do have quality and when you do time it right, you can get a great result. We're grateful that the SF team gave us the product to bring to the marketplace. They have been big supporters of ours with their racehorses, not just here, but throughout the year."

A stud fee for Pinehurst will be announced at a later date.

2023 BELMONT FALL MEET WILL AGAIN BE RUN AT AQUEDUCT by Bill Finley

The New York Racing Association has released its 2023 racing schedule, which will include a return to Aqueduct for the traditional fall Belmont meet. NYRA first moved the Belmont fall meet to Aqueduct this year so that tunnels could be built that would provide access to the infield. In 2023, moving the Belmont fall meet will allow for reconstruction of the three Belmont racing surfaces. The 28-day Belmont at the Big A fall meet will open on Thursday, Sept. 14 and continue through Sunday, Oct. 29. Live racing will be conducted Thursday-Sunday throughout the Belmont at the Big A fall meet.

The 2023 racing season will include 202 days of live racing, starting with the 44-day winter meet at Aqueduct, which will run from Jan. 1 through Mar. 26, with racing conducted Thursdays through Sundays until Feb. 12. For the remainder of the meet, racing will be held Friday through Sunday. The 19-day Aqueduct spring meet, which spans Thursdays, Apr. 30, will see live racing return to a Thursday-Sunday schedule.

There will be 40 days of racing at Saratoga with the meet kicking off Thursday, July 13 and continuing through Labor Day, Sept. 4. Racing at Saratoga will be conducted five days per week from Wednesday-Sunday with the exception of the six-day closing week.

The 2023 season will conclude with the 31-day Aqueduct fall meet which runs from Thursday, Nov. 2 through Sunday, Dec. 31, 2023.

THANKSGIVING BRINGS TRIO OF GRADED STAKES TO THE TABLE by J. N. Campbell

Horse racing fans will tuck in to a traditional helping of graded stakes on Thursday at both Churchill Downs and the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club. Coast-to-coast Grade III gatherings include a dirt and turf race in the GIII Falls City S. and the GIII Cardinal S. before swinging out west to the Jimmy Durante Turf Course for the GIII Red Carpet S.

Into Mischief’s Played Hard the Favorite in Falls City

With only six drawn for the Falls City under the Twin Spires, there is no question that trainer Phil Bauer has the upper hand with deserving favorite Played Hard (Into Mischief). Once again, the daughter of the Spendthrift super sire commands respect after winning the Gilli Locust Grove S. on track Sept. 17, and the 4-year-old filly followed that with a third-place effort against the formidable ‘TDN Rising Star’ Malathaat (Curlin) and consistent Army Wife (Declaration of War) in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. at Keeneland Oct. 9. If she rates well and gets a fast main track, look for her to overwhelm this bunch. Her bloodline sports a strong sire, but her dam Well Lived (Tiznow) not only has a Horse of the Year in her background, but her full-brother Well Armed was a multiple Grade I winner.

Sodbusters Take to the Matt Winn

The Matt Winn Turf Course is back in action in November after a controversial summer and fall. Is the new grass ready? The question will dog its path. A staple this time of year is the Gilli Cardinal S. Not to be missed, this field of 10 includes older females that will be contesting the nine furlongs. The Al Stall, Jr. trainee Dalika (Ger) (Pastorius {Ger}) is the only millionaire earner in the bunch, and with over 30 starts to her credit, she comes to Churchill from Keeneland after running sixth on Nov. 5. in the one-mile Fall Harvest S., presented by Mint Gaming Hall.
Stretching out back out to the nine-furlong distance seems to be in her favor. The last time she took to this course, she won the Aug. 13 GI Beverly D S., rallying past Princess Grace (Karakontie {Jpn}) just before the wire.

Others that will oppose her include the morning-line favorite at 9-5, the Godolphin homebred Adventuring (Pioneerof the Nile). Well-bred for the turf being out of champion Questing (GB) (Hard Spun), the 4-year-old filly was most recently seen in the GI E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine Oct. 8. where she lost the lead in the stretch and was ultimately moved up a place after the DQ of Moira (Ghostzapper). Controlling the fractions up front will be a key to her success. A longer shot on the board that is worth a look is Eddie Kenneally's 5-year-old mare Curly Ruth (Curlin). Her tactical ability could be an asset in a race like this, especially if the pace falls apart. Out of Rutherienne (Pulpit), she will be looking to improve on a poor showing against the talented Bleecker Street (Quality Road) in the GIII Modesty S. on the May 6 Kentucky Oaks undercard.

Green Rolled Out for the Red Carpet
An 11-furlong turf test will challenge this collection of fillies and one mare. The spinster in this lot is Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners's Sister Otoole (Amira's Prince {Ire}), a 5-year-old out of O'Toole. Trained by Graham Motion, her experience over the course of 18 starts, including running third last time out to Temple City Terror (Temple City) in the GIII Rood and Riddle Dowager S., gives her a distinct advantage over this field as the 5-2 morning-line favorite.

Opposing her is a 4-year-old filly by American Pharoah that has contested races at six different tracks over the past year. Scarabea was under the care of Jack Sisterson, but now the Calumet homebred makes the move to Eoin Harty's barn. Routing on the turf against some solid competition, she will need to take a step forward after running fifth in the GI Rodeo Drive S. at Santa Anita Oct. 8.

One other entry to scrutinize is Mark Glatt's Bellstreet Bridie (GB) (Sir Percy {GB}), a 3-year-old filly who makes her stateside debut here. She has nine starts under her belt this year for trainer Michael Bell, but the major question she has to answer is class. Making her stakes debut, she will have to raise her game significantly for her new outfit.

Confusion has reigned ever since an appellate court ruled last week that the Horse Racing and Integrity Act (HISA) is unconstitutional. So what does that mean for the state racing commissions and what should they do going forward? The TDN Writers’ Room presented by Keeneland called upon Ed Martin, the chairman and CEO of the Association of Racing Commissioners International to help clear up the situation. Martin was this week’s Green Group Guest of the Week.

Martin believes that considering the situation HISA should drop the Jan. 1 date and put off taking over drug testing until after the situation has been fully resolved in the courts.

“HISA could fix this themselves by going back to the FTC and saying we’re going to put off enforcement of our drug rules,” Martin said. “And they could put it off six months and hopefully we’ll get a final court answer by then. But it doesn’t look like we’re going to get a final determination of their constitutionality any time soon. So this is going to go into a great gray area.”

Martin said he feared that if HISA were to sanction someone after taking over drug testing and enforcement from the state racing commissions that the ruling could be thrown out because the court has said that HISA is unconstitutional.

“We’re in a situation where we have a sport where the HISA rules will apply on January 1st and people will get sanctioned for a drug violation or a doping violation under the HISA Rule,” Martin said. “Then if HISA is ultimately declared unconstitutional and invalid, then that violation goes away. It doesn't exist. The penalty goes away. And you’ve redistributed purses. So this has the potential to be an enormous, chaotic situation.

“There’s also been a number of jockeys across the country who have been sanctioned for HISA crap rule violations.”
Cont.

Martin said, “Well, if there aren't constitutional, those violations really don't exist. So expect litigation.”

Martin said he is hearing that should HISA go through some tracks will elect not to take part. That would mean they cannot send out their simulcast signal, a price some may be willing to pay.

“There are tracks that, and I'm not at liberty to say who they are, that are considering not simulcasting their signal to come out from under HISA,” Martin said. “And there are states where the tracks in that state, some of them will simulcast and some of them won't. It depends on their economic viability. This was supposed to bring uniformity to the sport. Right now, it's kind of going in the other way. It's off the rails right now."

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by Coolmore, Lane’s End, the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association, XBTV and West Point Thoroughbreds, Bill Finley, Zoe Cadman and Randy Moss gave their own take on the HISA mess. They also looked at Frankie Dettori's decision to join the Santa Anita riding colony starting on Dec. 26 and hue and cry over overly aggressive riding in New York and the feeling that the NYRA stewards are not doing enough to discipline jockeys who go over the line.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

THE DILGER FAMILY

The inaugural golf tournament fundraiser for the Gerry Dilger Equine Scholarship Foundation was held Oct. 10 at Houston Oaks Golf Course and was a tremendous success.

On behalf of our board, and the Dilger Family, we would like to extend a warm thank you to everyone who helped to make this first fundraiser happen. It was great to see so many people come out. We had wonderful support from the equine community.

A very special thank you to Ashford Stud, Eddie Woods, Fasig Tipton, Garrett O’Rourke, Hagyards Equine Medical Institute, Hunter Valley Farm, Ingordo Bloodstock, Keeneland, Kildare Stud, Mark Taylor, Spendthrift Farm, Sterling Thompson, Stonereath, Winchester Feed, and WinStar Farm, who all generously supported us as title sponsors. Thanks to all our other supporters, including our hole sponsors, food and beverage sponsors, signage sponsor, prize sponsors, and all who gave a donation on-site.
We would also like to express our gratitude to everyone who donated items for our live auction; Adrian Regan, Archie St, George, the Arvin Family, Aveen Campion, Barry Clohessy, Boyd Browning, Dr. Luke Fallon, Dr. Michael Hore, Dr. Mike Spirito, Eddie Woods, Gabriel Duignan, Jeff Pumphrey, Justin Fister, Ken Donworth, Noel Murphy, Peter Kiely, Zach Phillips. Thank you for your generous donations! Our live auction was fun and lively. We would also like to thank all the people who purchased items for your generous contribution. Finally, our organizing committee, Padraig Campion, Ted Campion, Pat Costello, Stuart Fitzgibbon, Dermot Joyce, and Adrian Regan worked tirelessly on planning this event. It would never have happened without all their help and commitment.

Pat Costello, president, commented, “Everyone came out and had fun. It was a beautiful day. We are so happy with the results of this first tournament, and excited about being able to offer even more opportunities to help young people learn about this industry.”

WEEKLY RULINGS

WEEKLY STEWARDS & COMMISSIONS RULINGS

Nov. 15 – Nov. 21

Every week, the TDN publishes a roundup of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky. Here’s a primer on how each of these jurisdictions adjudicates different offenses, what they make public (or not) and where.

With the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) having gone into effect on July 1, the TDN will also post a roundup of the relevant HISA-related rulings from the same week.

CALIFORNIA

Track: Del Mar
Date: 11/20/2022
Licensee: Ian Kruljac, trainer
Penalty: $500 fine
Violation: Medication violations
Explainer: Trainer Ian Kruljac, who started the horses GYPSYLYNN, who finished first in the first race on August 21, 2022, at Del Mar Race Track, and GLENDALE who finished second in the third race on August 21, 2022, at Del Mar Race Track is fined $500 and assessed one half (1/2) point in accordance with California Horse Racing Board Rule #1843.4 (Multiple Medication Violations) pursuant to California Horse Racing Board Rule #1887 (a) (Trainer or Owner to Insure Condition of Horse) for violation of California Horse Racing Board Rule #1843 (a & d) (Medication, Drugs and other Substances) and Rule #1843.1(b) (Prohibited Drug Substances – Methocarbamol [Class 4]).

KENTUCKY

Track: Churchill Downs
Date: 11/20/2022
Licensee: Shug McGaughey, trainer
Penalty: Thirty-day suspension (15 days stayed) and $500 fine
Violation: Medication violation
Explainer: Upon receipt of notification from the University of Kentucky Equine Analytical Chemistry Laboratory, the official testing laboratory for the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission and confirmed at Texas A&M Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory, sample number R020613 taken from Smokin T, who finished second in the eleventh race at Churchill Downs on June 4, 2022, contained 2-1-(hydroxyethyl) promazine sulfoxide (HEPS) at a level of 61.2 ng/ml in urine (Class B). After waiving his right to a formal hearing before the Board of Stewards Claude R. McGaughey III is hereby suspended 30 days and fined $500. Due to mitigating circumstances (number of violations in relation to overall record), 15 days are to be served from December 5, 2022, through December 19, 2022 (inclusive). The remaining 15 days are stayed on the condition that no Class A or Class B medication violations occur in any racing jurisdiction within 365 days from the date of this ruling. More on the ruling here.

NEW HISA STEWARDS RULINGS

The following rulings were reported on HISA’s “rulings” portal, except for the voided claim rulings which were sent to the TDN directly.

VIOLATIONS OF CROP RULE

Finger Lakes
- Jose Alberto Baez – violation date November 21; $250 fine, suspension to be decided, seven strikes

Horseshoe Indianapolis
- Edgar Morales – violation date November 15; One-day suspension, $250 fine, seven strikes
- Andres Patricio Ulloa – violation date November 17; One-day suspension, $250 fine, seven strikes
Meet leaders Roger Spiess and Randy Klopp | Coady

“’I’m very thankful,” said Klopp. “I thank all the employees and our crew and the owners. If it weren’t for the owners, we couldn’t do this. Also, a special thanks to the jockeys and the agents that handle their rides. It’s been a great year.”

RANDAZZO NAMED THE JOCKEY CLUB STEWARD AT NYRA TRACKS

Samantha Randazzo has been named The Jockey Club steward for the New York Racing Association. She takes the place of Dr. Jennifer Durenberger who was appointed as the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority Equine Safety & Welfare Director. The appointment was announced by Stuart S. Janney III, the chairman of The Jockey Club.

“We are pleased for Dr. Durenberger in her new role with HISA,” Janney said. “Samantha’s experience as a steward at Finger Lakes and her many years working in the racing industry make her the ideal person to step into the role as The Jockey Club steward for NYRA.”

Randazzo will begin her role as NYRA steward Nov. 25. She has been The Jockey Club steward at Finger Lakes since Aug. 3, 2020. Prior to that, she was the alternate state steward for the Division of Pari-mutuel Waging for the Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Tallahassee, Florida, and also worked in licensing and as a veterinary technician for the department.
HORSESHOE INDIANAPOLIS JOCKEYS COLLECT TOYS FOR CHARITY

In its eighth year, the jockeys at Horseshoe Indianapolis collected 70 toys that will be donated to the Shelby County CASA (Court Appointed State Advocates) for kids displaced in current home situations. “This toy drive is a great thing we do because we are helping a lot of kids who don’t have the opportunity to enjoy Christmas every year,” said DeShawn Parker, winner of more than 6,000 career races. “It makes all of us feel good to do something as a group to help out each year.”

In addition to the annual toy drive, throughout the year the jockeys also raise funds for PDJF (Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund) and for HVAF (Hoosier Veterans and Families) Inc. of Indiana. “It’s nice to help and I want to help out whenever I can,” added Marcelino Pedroza, Jr., who is a three-time leading jockey at Horseshoe Indianapolis. “Giving back is important to me. It’s the way I was raised, and I want to help any way I can. I hope we can brighten the day of a few kids this Christmas.”

We are very appreciative of RCN’s help in this endeavor and especially their generosity in donating all of the proceeds back to the Program.”

The agenda for this year’s Symposium includes panels on wide-ranging topics, including an update from the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) and Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit (HIWU), how to capitalize on racing’s global footprint, advancing equine safety through technology, integrating horse racing into the US sports betting market, strategies for diversity and inclusion, and much more.

The RTIP Global Symposium on Racing is scheduled for Dec. 5-7, 2022. For more information and the agenda click here: https://rtip.arizona.edu/2022-symposium.

CANTER FOR A CAUSE RAISES OVER $20K FOR TAA

For the third year, 300 riders from the Mid-Atlantic region and beyond walked, trotted, and cantered their horses across Pimlico Oct. 31 with proceeds to benefit the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA). In total, the 2022 Canter for the Cause raised over $20,000 for the TAA—a nonprofit which provides accreditation and grants to Thoroughbred aftercare organizations dedicated to the retraining, retiring, and rehoming of off-track Thoroughbreds. Sponsored by the Maryland Jockey Club, this annual event also gives riders the opportunity to take their horses through the starting gate and get their picture taken in the winner’s circle. Maryland Jockey Club Vice President of Racing Development, Georganne Hale said, “Everybody who rode around the historic track had a smile on their face, riders loved getting their picture taken in the winner’s circle, and all the proceeds went to an important cause for our industry—the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance.”

ARIZONA’S RTIP GLOBAL SYMPOSIUM TO BE STREAMED ONLINE

The University of Arizona’s Race Track Industry Program (RTIP) Global Symposium on Racing will be streamed live online by Roberts Communications Network (RCN) on the Racetrack Television Network (RTN). All proceeds from the sales will revert to the RTIP.

“We are thrilled to once again stream the Symposium to a global audience,” said RTIP Chair Robert Hartman. “While we are expecting a large group of industry attendees, we also understand that travel may not be possible for some, and feel it is important to make these panel sessions available to everyone.
ADVANCE TICKET SALES SET FOR NOV. 29 AHEAD OF CLASSIC MEET OPENER

Edited Press Release

Santa Anita Park will offer a pre-sale of tickets the track’s Classic Meet opening day Monday, Dec. 26 beginning next Tuesday, Nov. 29 for those that register at www.santaanita.com.

Santa Anita will also offer fans its traditional wall calendar free of charge with paid admission on its newly branded Classic Meet opening day, which continues through Apr. 9. Additionally, the Mathis Home Plush Toy Horse will be offered as a way for fans to contribute to the California Retirement Management Account (CARMA). Santa Anita Park Newsletter subscribers can purchase pre-sale tickets to opening day for two days—Nov. 29 and Nov. 30.

Ticket sales for opening day will be available to the General Public beginning Thursday, Dec. 1, at 10 a.m. by visiting www.santaanita.com/events and tickets can also be purchased by calling the Santa Anita Ticket Office at (626) 574-6366.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

9th-Churchill Downs, $133,765, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 11-23, 3yo/up, 7f, 1:23.03, ft, 1 3/4 lengths.

MARSALIS (c, 3, Curlin--Hot Dixie Chick {GISW, $343,252}, by Dixie Union) was tagged as a 'TDN Rising Star' for his 2 1/2-length maiden-breaking performance at the Fair Grounds Mar. 26, but spent six months on the sidelines afterwards, not seen again until a narrow second to Run Classic (Runhappy) in allowance company Sept. 22. A winner last time out at Keeneland Nov. 4, the half-brother to Pauline’s Pearl (Tapit), GSW, $1,695,200, entered as the 6-5 choice and contested the early pace while racing inside of rivals up the backstretch. Asked for more as the field straightened for the wire, Marsalis always held a safe advantage even as He’smyhoneybadger (Daredevil) closed behind him, hitting the line 1 3/4 lengths to the good. A full-brother to fellow 'Rising Star' Union Jack, MSW & GSP, $273,874, Marsalis is out of a half-sister to GI Kentucky Derby winner Always Dreaming (Bodemeister), Hot Dixie Chick, herself a ‘Rising Star’ as well, foaled a colt by Constitution last year and a colt by Quality Road in 2022. Lifetime Record: 5-3-2-0, $245,320. Sales History: $340,000 RNA Ylg '20 KEESEP. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

O/B-Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings LLC (KY); T-Stephen M. Asmussen.

8th-Tampa Bay Downs, $25,500, Alw (NW1X)/Opt. Clm ($16,000), 11-23, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:09.93, ft, 7 lengths.

REMUDA (c, 3, More Than Ready--Elaine's Cat, by Discreet Cat) raced twice at this same track earlier this year, last seen breaking his maiden in gate-to-wire fashion in his second career start when stretched out to 1 1/16 miles on the grass Apr. 23. Back on the dirt for his first start in seven months, the 6-1 shot sat a stalking trip from third, chasing the leading pair from the outside through an opening quarter in :22.81 before assuming command with a well-timed move midway around the turn. Given his head at the top of the stretch, Remuda stepped away nicely, hitting the wire seven lengths ahead of Verrazanoointhesky (Verrazano). Out of a daughter of GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff winner Unbridled Elaine (Unbridled’s Song), Remuda is out of a half-sister to MGSW Etched (Forestry), GSW Emotionless (Ire) (Shamardal) and a full-sister to GSW Out of Bounds. This is also the family of GSW Glitter Woman (Glitterman) and GSW Political Force (Unbridled’s Song). Elaine's Song produced a yearling colt by Frosted and a weanling filly by Candy Ride (Arg) before visiting Street Boss for the 2023 season. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $32,595. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

O/B-Godolphin (KY); T-Eoin G. Harty.

Bred and Raised by STONESTREET

9th-Remington, $33,000, Msw, 11-22, 2yo, f, 1:13.01, ft, 1/2 length.

GUNFLASH (c, 2, Gun Runner--Flashy Campaign {SP, $140,860}, by Political Force), the slim second choice at 8-5 for his racing debut, was forced wide early while trailing the field behind a :23.07 opening quarter. He began to steadily make up ground with a sweeping move around the turn and was four wide at the head of the lane just off pacesetter My Boy Bling (Too Much Bling). Under a drive the length of the stretch, Gunflash prevailed close to home, defeating My Boy Bling by a determined half-length. The winner is a half-brother to a trio of stakes performers in Flash of Mischief (Into Mischief), MSW & GSP, $681,788; War Campaign (Declaration of War), MSP, $254,022; and Royal Mesa (Sky Mesa), SP, $264,916. Flashy Campaign produced a yearling colt Kahari King (Arrogate), did not produce a foal when bred to Constitution last year and was bred back to that same stallion for a 2023 foal. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,647. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.
O/B-Jerry Namy (KY); T-Karl Broberg.

2nd-Tampa Bay Downs, $25,200, Msw, 11-23, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:24.23, ft, 1/2 length.

PEPPERMINT CLASS (f, 3, Hard Spun--Tacita, by Tapit), picked up as a 3-year-old for $45,000 out of the OBS Winter Mixed sale earlier this year, broke as the 3-1 third choice for her debut here. Squeezed back from both sides shortly after the break, she brought up the rear of the field into the far turn before making a five-wide bid with a quarter mile to run. Up past pacesetter Practicality (Practical Joke) within the final sixteenth, she held on late for a half-length score. From the family of MGSw Zanjero (Cherokee Run), Peppermint Class’s only younger sibling is a weanling half-brother by Goldencents. Sales History: $10,000 Ylg ’20 FTKOCT; $45,000 3yo ‘22 OBSWIN. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $15,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

DESSERT DEBUTERS: QUE 'SERAJ, SERAJ'

by Alan Carasso

In this series, we will have a look at first-time starters entered for age-restricted maiden races on the week’s main live program at Meydan Racecourse, focusing specifically on pedigree and/or performance in sales ring, both domestic and abroad. With the exception of Thursday, Dec. 1, Super Saturday, Mar. 4, and Dubai World Cup night Mar. 25, the main meeting at Meydan takes place on Fridays. Six meetings are to be staged at the UAE’s flagship racecourse prior to the start of the Dubai World Cup Carnival Friday, Jan. 6, 2023. Nine Carnival cards are programmed from January through March. Here is a look at this Friday’s entries:

Friday, November 25, 2022

3rd-Meydan, AED82,500 ($22,464), Maiden, 2yo, 1400m

SERAJ (Nyquist) cost $72,000 at last fall’s Fasig-Tipton October Sale and the Apr. 29 foal matured into a $200,000 OBS April juvenile after breezing a furlong in :10 flat. The chestnut is the second foal to the races out of Hawana (War Front), whose unraced dam Tare Green (Giant’s Causeway) produced French listed winner and Group 3-placed Ocean Atlantique (American Pharoah), runner-up in Aqueduct allowance company Nov. 19. The colt’s third dam was responsible for Eclipse Award winner Leroidesanimaux (Brz).

Seyouff (Flatter), a $180,000 Keeneland September yearling, is out of an unraced daughter of Life Happened (Stravinsky), the dam of two-time champion and six-time GI/G1SW Tepin (Bernstein) as well as MGSw/MGISP Vyjack (Into Mischief). The colt’s dam Azara (More Than Ready) fetched $875,000 from Bridlewood Farm in foal to Into Mischief at KEENOV in 2016. High Everest (Honor Code) is out of She Be Striking (GB) (Smart Strike), a winning daughter of Eclipse Award-winning 2-year-old filly She Be Wild (Offlee Wild). The March-foaled dark bay was sold for $32,000 at FTKOCT last fall and returned better than three times that amount when hammering for 80,000gns at this year’s Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale (breeze-up video).

FRESHMAN SIRES ALL THE RAGE AT TATTERSALLS

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK--With a hundred extra foals catalogued for this year's December Foal Sale, a lengthy opening session conducted in bursts of driving rain then bright sunshine kicked off the four days of trade in a largely positive manner. Both the average and median were up, as was turnover, albeit from a larger number offered and sold this year. Only the clearance rate, at 70%, was down, from 84% last year. The median of 13,000gns represented a 30% rise, while the average was up by 8% at 16,552gns. With 18 more yearlings marked as sold this year, the aggregate was 3,128,300gns.

There's always plenty of interest in the offspring of the first-season sires and leading the charge for the newcomers on Wednesday was Shadwell's smart G1 Sussex S. winner Mohaather (GB), one of a rising number of young sons of Showcasing (GB) at stud who was responsible for the co-top lot (486) who sold for 80,000gns.

Joe Foley has long been a fan of Showcasing, having bought Soldier's Call (GB) as a yearling for Clipper Logistics and now standing him at Ballyhane Stud, while Clipper's Steve Parkin bred his daughter, this year's G2 Queen Mary S. winner Dramatised (GB). Foley had to see off some stiff opposition for the Brook Stud-consigned son of multiple winner Lady Freyja (GB) (Mayson {GB}) who was bred by Jon A. Thompson. Cont. p3

SHADAI BUYS GROUP 1 WINNER GRAND GLORY FOR BROODMARE DUTY

Teruya Yoshida of Shadai Farm has purchased Group 1 winner Grand Glory (GB) (Olympic Glory {Ire}) for broodmare duty after her run in Sunday’s G1 Japan Cup, Jour de Galop reported. Fifth in the Cup in 2021, she is currently jointly owned 50/50 by Yoshida and Xavier Marie’s Haras de Hus. Anne-Sophie Yoh, who manages the interests of Haras de Hus, confirmed the news to JDG.

Bred by Elevage Haras de Bourgeauville and sold for €18,000 to Marco Bozzi Bloodstock during Arqana’s October Yearling Sale in 2017, the bay made a winning debut in the colours of Bartolo Faraci at Deauville in December of her juvenile season in 2018. Purchased privately by Albert Frassetto, John D’Amato and Mike Pietrangelo over the winter, Grand Glory would go on to take third in the 2019 G1 Prix de Diane. Returning as a 4-year-old, the mare landed the G3 Prix de Flore in heavy ground after placing in a pair of Group 2s earlier that season. Cont. p11

PEARLS GALORE SET TO SIGN AT TATTERSALLS

Group 1 winner Pearls Galore (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) will be offered during Tattersalls’ Sceptre Sessions next week, and the TDN spoke with trainer Paddy Twomey and Tattersalls’ Jimmy George.

GOFFS GRAD IMPRESSES ON HAPPY VALLEY DEBUT

Two-time Goffs alum Nordic Dragon (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) made a successful debut at Happy Valley in Hong Kong on Wednesday.
Rifling through the rolodex of bloodstock sales cliches, Foley said with a wide grin, "He looked a real weapon. He comes from a good hotel, was a really good physical and he ticked all the right boxes for us. All the right people were on him; Luke Barry was the underbidder and he's some judge."

The Ballyhane maestro added, "He was a real Showcasing; he reminded us of Showcasing and of Soldier's Call. The mother was a good race filly, she was rated 90 and was useful, and we bought a Ribchester (Ire) from the same family in Book 3. I actually underbid Mohaather as a yearling so we were really keen to buy one as he was a high-class racehorse. His acceleration in the Sussex was a joy to behold. He looks like a racehorse and we will try to make him a racehorse."

Consignor Dwayne Woods said, "He was bought by superlative judges, and he is a horse who will go forward and make up into a proper yearling."

The dependable Juddmonte sire Bated Breath (GB) has been a friend to plenty of breeders and that includes Yvonne Jacques of Carisbrooke Stud, who sold her smart filly (lot 346) out of the treble winner Naqaawa (Ire) (Shamardal) to share the top of the table at 80,000gns. Tom Goff, acting on behalf of Surrey-based Rupert Gregson-Williams of Wardley Bloodstock, signed the ticket.

"She is a beautiful filly from a very good farm and with a lovely back pedigree," said Goff of the relation to dual Group 3 winner Alflaila (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}). "She has loads of class and quality, a good body and good movement. She could race or could come back here next year, we will see how she progresses through the year. Cont. p4

In addition to Mohaather, the plethora of first-season sires with their debut crop on display at Tattersalls includes the Whitsbury Manor Stud resident Sergei Prokofiev, who has a huge representation of 67 weanlings in the catalogue and made his presence felt during the first of four foal sessions at Park Paddocks. Charles Shanahan and Glenvale Stud's Flash Conroy signed for two by the son of Scat Daddy, lot 470 at 72,000gns and lot 291 at 40,000gns.

The former, consigned and co-bred by Selwood Bloodstock, is out of the Dutch Art (GB) mare Music Lesson (GB) from a family which includes dual Group 2 winner and French-based sire Triple Threat (Fr) and multiple Group 1 winner Canford Cliffs (Ire).

Shanahan said, "The sire seems to be getting gorgeous-looking horses from what we have seen. He was obviously in training at Ballydoyle and it was thought that he had an awful lot of potential." Cont. p5

He added, We are thrilled to get one that looks like he does--he is a great mover with loads of scope, loads of strength, everything you look for in a foal that you want to sell on as a yearling. He was definitely the one we wanted to buy today."

He added, "I was so impressed with his stock. Flash collected one earlier today so we are very keen on the sire and let's hope for everyone he can kick on over the next two years. This colt goes back to Ireland and Glenvale."

Lot 291, offered by his breeders WHR John and Partners, is out of the multiple-winning Strategic Prince (Ire) mare Livella Fella (Ire), who has been mated exclusively with Whitsbury Manor Stud stallions and is the dam of Mai Alward (GB), one of the many first-crop winners for Havana Grey (GB) this season.

Sergei Prokofiev’s 20 weanlings sold during the opening session sold for an average of 19,400gns from his initial fee of £6,000.

Kildangan Stud-based Earthlight (Ire), whose stock sold well at Goffs last week, is another freshman to have a weanling feature prominently on Wednesday in lot 446. Bred by Alex and Olivia Frost’s Ladyswood Stud and consigned on their behalf by Barton Stud, the April-born colt is a son of the Group 3-placed Some Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) from a family that stretches back to the influential matriarch Park Appeal (Ire) and includes the stallions Cape Cross (Ire), Iffraaj (GB) and Diktat (GB). He was bought by Yeomanstown Stud for 65,000gns.

Barton Stud manager Tom Blain said, "He's a cracking colt, bred at Ladyswood, which is a lovely farm and they are great people, we love selling for them."

"The colt came here and performed well and we got a good price, I hope Yeomanstown does well with him. He is just really nice type, and I like the stock that I have seen by Earthlight."

Continuing the freshman theme, Newsells Park Stud resident Without Parole (GB) was represented by a colt from the draft of Natton House Thoroughbreds (lot 274), who took an early lead during the morning when sold at 46,000gns. The March-born weanling is also a first for his young dam, the dual winner Image Of The Moon (GB) (Mukhadram {GB}) and was bought by Julie Wood under her Woodstock banner.

Wood's famous colours have been represented by plenty of successful runners from the Hannon stable over the years, including Zebedee (GB) and Olympic Glory (Ire), and this season she tasted victory with Rich (GB), who is by another son of Frankel (GB) in Cracksman (GB).

"I thought I'd get in on the Frankel line again and his first-season sire son Without Parole," she said. "This is a nice foal, he looks quite compact at the moment, has a touch of class and is a good walker."

Without Parole was the sire of five youngsters to go through the ring on Wednesday for an average price of 26,000gns. Kameko and Arizona (Ire) were also among the top lots of the day with a colt each sold at 45,000gns. The Kameko colt (lot 398) was offered by his home stud of Tweenhills and was pinhooked by Eddie O'Leary of Lynn Lodge Stud.

Meanwhile the Arizona colt from the family of Bushranger (Ire) was bought from Derek and Gay Veitch's Ringfort Stud by brothers Paul and Jim McCartan.

Roger Marley, better known as a breeze-up pinhooker, signed up an Iffraaj (GB) colt (lot 336) with a good recent update for 55,000gns from the draft of Baroda Stud. The weanling's juvenile half-brother Tyndrum Gold (GB) (Muharrar {GB}) won on debut on Nov. 2 for Roger Varian and Opulence Thoroughbreds. Cont. p7

PEARLS GALORE SET TO SHINE AT THE TATTERSALLS SCEPTRE SESSIONS by Brian Sheerin

Pearls Galore (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), an outstanding racemare with seven wins, including the G1 Matron S. and over £500,000 in career-earnings to her name, has rightly earned her billing as one of the star attractions at next week’s Sceptre Sessions at Tattersalls. Trained by Paddy Twomey for the majority of her career, the Haras de Saint Pair homebred raced with great distinction in Ireland across four seasons and 17 starts, culminating with that top-flight triumph in September.

Her story is one of fortune favouring the brave, as connections resisted the temptation of retiring off the back of her excellent 4-year-old campaign and were ultimately rewarded with Group 1 success on her final start of this season. The ink is still wet and the next chapter is ready to be written as Pearls Galore will be sold to continue her career as a broodmare, with Twomey predicting his star performer to make an excellent addition to the successful buyers.

He said, “I think that she would be a good addition to any broodmare band being a Group 1-winning Invincible Spirit out of a Pivotal (GB) mare. You also have a great partner in Andreas Putsch [breeder]. If you buy her, he’s breeding the family to the best stallions on a constant basis so you have a great chance of the pedigree continuing to improve.”

Pearls Galore hails from a deep family that has been nurtured by the Haras de Saint Pair team for three generations. Despite not managing to win in two starts as a 2-year-old in France for Freddy Head, Pearls Galore blossomed under the management of Twomey. Cont. p9
The trainer said, “Pearls Galore has been a model of consistency. She came to me as a maiden just when Covid hit and has been great for the yard. She’s been great for Andreas as well. He put a lot of faith in us by sending us some nice horses and it has been great to be able to repay that faith.

“Before he sent her to me, he said that he had a feeling the filly might suit our training regime. She came here as a blank canvas and the remit was, if I wasn't happy with her, they were going to cover her. We got to have a good look at her soon after she arrived as there was no racing on with Covid. Anyway, we took her to Limerick for her first start for us and she bolted up from a wide draw.”

He added, “After that, she went and won a handicap off 87, beating some hardened fillies where she made light work of them in winning by six lengths. We knew then that she was pretty decent.”

Pearls Galore earned black-type on her next start when second to Champers Elysees (Ire) (Elzaam (Aus)) in the rearranged G3 Fairy Bridge S. at Gowran Park but it was in her 4-year-old campaign where she began to take off.

After landing back-to-back Group 3 wins, she was then narrowly pipped in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown on Irish Champions Weekend before filling the runner-up spot in the G1 Prix de la Foret at ParisLongchamp.

Following her sixth-placed effort at the Breeders’ Cup, the connections of Pearls Galore faced a dilemma; roll dice for one more season with the aim of bagging a Group 1 or retire her to the paddocks.

Twomey recalled, “Andreas said at the time that he was probably going to retire her. The plan was to breed her. But when she came back here, she was cantering and in a routine like the rest of them, and I just thought that she was in great form.”

He added, "I said to him that I thought it was worth considering going again in her 5-year-old campaign and that she had the ability to win a Group 1. I thought it would be a pity if we retired her without that Group 1 win under her belt. Luckily, they decided to go with me."

That Group 1 win was achieved in the Matron S. at Leopardstown, where Pearls Galore had top-notchers Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}), Tenebrism (Caravaggio) and Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in the rear-view mirror.

She has a pedigree to match what she achieved on the track and Twomey says that he is confident that she will make an outstanding broodmare.

He said, "She's a very well-bred filly. She's from one of Andrea's best pedigrees and her dam has produced several stakes winners. I think it's a very deep family and she has appeal for anybody, whether it be in Europe, America or Japan."

TWO-TIME GOFFS GRAD IMPRESSES ON HAPPY VALLEY DEBUT by Alan Carasso

Owner Edmond Yue Kwok-yin splashed out HK$7 million on the advice of trainer Danny Shum Chap-shing for a 3-year-old son of Starspangledbanner (Aus) at the Hong Kong International Sale, and the gelding made a small, but not insignificant first return on that investment with a handy career debut Wednesday evening at Happy Valley Racecourse.

Nordic Dragon (Ire) had made a favourable impression in a pair of barrier trials, winning one such event going 1200 metres around the city circuit Oct. 14 (video) and another when switched to the dirt track at Sha Tin Nov. 1 (video). Sent away as the 2.5 (3-2) favourite to open his account at first asking, the son of Rely On Me (Ire) (Kyllachy {GB}) was away alertly from barrier four and showed enough speed to head them off while racing one off the inside down the back straight. Clearly in front as they reached the turn, the bay professionally went about his business in the final 300 metres and stayed on strongly to graduate by 3 1/4 lengths (video).

Shum also trains Romantic Warrior, himself a $HK4.8-million acquisition out of the HK International Sale in 2021 who has since gone on to become one of Hong Kong’s leading lights. His first-up victory in last weekend’s G2 Jockey Club Cup at Sha Tin took his record to eight wins from nine starts and earnings approaching HK$43 million. Romantic Warrior currently leads the markets for the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup Dec. 11.

Starspangledbanner is also the sire of California Spangle (Ire), recent runner-up to dual Hong Kong Horse of the Year Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d’Oro) in the G2 Jockey Club Mile and second to Romantic Warrior in last year’s BMW Hong Kong Derby. Cont. p11

“He’s a nice horse and the sire is very suitable to Hong Kong,” Shum said. “He was very impressive. I will start him again here and let him get more confidence and then I’ll move him to Sha Tin.”

Added Ho, the regular rider for Golden Sixty, “He’s a lovely horse, the race was good. He broke from the gates and took a few strides to pick and travelled nicely by himself and he got the job done. He was very concentrated. He’s a decent horse.”

Bred by Matty Smith and Cloneymore Farm and hailing from the female family of G1 Oaks d'Italia winner and G1 Moyglare Stud S. third Menhoubah (Dixieland Band), Nordic Dragon was purchased by Lynn Lodge Stud for €88,000 at the 2019 Goffs November Sale and was resold to the team at the Hong Kong Jockey Club, headed up by Mick Kinane, for £130,000 at the Orby Sale the following fall. Rely On Me is the dam of Nordic Dragon’s yearling full-brother who was purchased for 62,000gns by JB Bloodstock from the Baroda Stud consignment during Book 2 of this year’s Tattersalls October Sale.

She went through the Deauville ring again during Arqana’s Vente d’Élevage last December, and brought €2.5 million from Yohea acting for Marie. Now a 6-year-old, the bay won the Listed Prix Zarkava this April and the G3 Prix Allez France a month later in the silks of Haras de Hus. Third in Royal Ascot’s G1 Prince Of Wales’s S., Grand Glory was unplaced in both the G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe. Her record stands at 23-8-4-4, $1,257,387.

Out of the placed Madonna Lily (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}), Grand Glory is her fifth of six foals, and one of two stakes winners. Her final and last foal is the 2017 Toronado (Ire) gelding Bois d’Argent (GB), who won at listed level in France. Madonna Lily is a half-sister to GII Canadian S. heroine Minakshi (Fr) (Footstepsinthesand (GB)), while she is also kin to G1 Crown Oaks victress Arapaho Miss (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), and that mare’s G1 Kennedy VRC Oaks-winning daughter Miami Bound (NZ) (Reliable Man {GB}).

IWTW NOVEMBER LIVE BID SESSION BEGINS ON THURSDAY

The November Live Bid Session will begin from 4-5 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 24, I Want The Winner announced on Wednesday. The six-strong catalogue includes a trio of National Hunt performers, one foal, and the dam and sister of G1 Prix Royal-Oak heroine Iresine (Fr) (Manduro {Ger}), Inanga (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) (lot 3) and Purple Lady (Fr) (Joshua Tree {Ire}) (lot 5), respectively. Please go to I Want The Winner’s website to register to bid and for more information.

AUCTAV WINTER BREEDING CATALOGUES ONLINE

The Winter Breeding Sale catalogues, featuring lots from all disciplines, was unveiled by Auctav on Wednesday. Held on Thursday, Dec. 1, beginning at 11 a.m., the Auctav Winter Breeding Stock Sale of Stallion Shares features stallion shares and breeding rights of trotters, National Hunt and Flat stallions. Lot 4 is a half-share in three-time Group 1 winner Persian King (Ire), while there is also a breeding right in G1 Irish Derby hero Latrobe (Ire) as lot 5.

Later on Dec. 1 beginning at 4 p.m., there will also be the Auctav Winter Breeding Stock Sale, featuring fillies and mares. Some of the stallions represented by in foal mares include Zelzal (Fr) and Wooded (Ire).

Arnaud Angeliaume, Auctav General Manager, said, “It is a great satisfaction to have gathered all those lots. Having an “open” sale was essential to us to avoid overloading an already dense calendar. It is a date that we want to keep for the long term. Auctav and online sales have significant advantages for this type of sale because the broodmares avoid travel and all the health risks that go with it. We care about the health and well-being of those who are the industry’s future.”

WHITE BIRCH (GB) (c, 2, Ulysses {Ire}--Diagnostic {GB}, by Dutch Art {GB}), fifth tackling one mile at Naas in his Nov. 6 debut last time, was well away to stalk the pace in second through halfway. Looming large off the home turn, the 7-2 second choice eased to the front passing the quarter-mile marker and was ridden clear in the latter stages to outclass Brasilian Princess (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}) by an impressive 6 1/2 lengths.

“I thought, after running over a stiff mile on heavy ground, things might happen a bit sharp on this surface over seven, but he jumped really well and seems to have a real good cruising speed,” said rider Robbie Colgan. “He galloped out really well and probably would have gone around again. I was delighted with the way it went. I think there is plenty of improvement, he’s a fine horse with a big stride on him and could be anything.” White Birch is the latest of two foals and second scorer for his multiple-winning dam, herself out of an unraced full-sister to Listed Kilvington Fillies’ S. victrix Prescription (GB) (Pivotal (GB)). GOLDEN SIXTY, GLORY VASE SET FOR LONGINES HKIR THREE-BAGGERS by Alan Carasso

Invitations for this year’s Longines Hong Kong International Races were made public prior to the start of the Happy Valley meeting Wednesday, with a total of 24 overseas horses--five more than last year--from Australia, England, France, Germany, Ireland, Japan and Singapore among the invitees, in addition to the locals.

In the history of the HKIR, only one horse--Good Ba Ba (Lear Fan)--has managed to score three victories at the meeting. More history could be made this year when two-time Hong Kong Horse of the Year Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d’Oro) and Japan’s Glory Vase (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) shoot for their third victories in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile and G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase, respectively.

Golden Sixty should be a warm favourite to complete the feat, having defeated California Spangle (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) in the G2 Jockey Club Mile on his seasonal debut Nov. 20. Japan, which is set to be represented by 14 runners across the races, has won the Mile on four occasions and fields a team of three, led by last year’s third Salios (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry {Jpn}) and Group 1 winner Schnell Meister (GB) (Kingman {GB}). The current connections of dual Group 1 winner Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) have also accepted, but her participation hinges on the results of the upcoming Tattersalls Sceptre Sessions, for which she holds an entry.

Glory Vase could face as many as 10 while looking to add to his wins here in 2019 and again last year, but he is not the highest-rated in the event. Broome (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), one of three invitees from Aidan O’Brien, is two pounds clear of Glory Vase and Germany’s G1 Grosser Preis von Baden hero Mendocino (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) on 118. Cont. p16
Golden Sixty shoots for a third straight Hong Kong Mile

Ballydoyle could also send out Bolshoi Ballet (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) and recent GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Turf runner-up Stone Age (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)). Joao Moreira has already picked up two HKIR rides for Japan and could climb back aboard Glory Vase in what could be his final rides at Sha Tin, after officially forfeiting his licence Wednesday.

Hong Kong’s champion sprinter Wellington (Aus) (All Too Hard (Aus)) tops a full field of 14 in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint, but his participation is in some doubt after pulling up lame behind Lucky Swynesse (NZ) (Swynesse (Aus)) in last weekend’s G2 Jockey Club Sprint. One of Moreira’s rides comes aboard Resistencia (Jpn) (Daiwa Major (Jpn)), runner-up in last year’s tragedy-marred Sprint, while G1 Sprinters’ S. hero Gendarme (Kitten’s Joy) also jets in. Lim’s Kosciuszko (Aus) (Kermadec (NZ)) is Singapore’s second highest-rated galloper and earns a spot in the field over three locally based runners.

The G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup looms the race of the day, as the once-beaten Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Acclamation (GB)) takes on a classy bunch over the 2000 metres. Panthalassa (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa (Jpn)) dead-heated with Lord North (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) in this year’s G1 Dubai Turf and most recently set a searching gallop in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) before yielding late. Prior to that effort, the 5-year-old was reeled in by Jack d’Or (Jpn)—a son of 2016 Cup winner Maurice (Jpn)—in the G2 Sapporo Kinen. Japan is also represented by Classic winner Geoglyph (Drefong) and Lei Papale (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)), sixth here last year and also a confirmed Moreira ride. Order Of Australia (Ire) (Australia (GB)), best known for his 73-1 upset in the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile, lands here where he will try a grassy 10 furlongs for just the third time in his 23-race career. LONGINES HKIR Invites Cont.

The 5-year-old was fourth in the 2020 G1 Irish Derby going 2400 metres.

Andrew Harding, Executive Director, Racing for the Hong Kong Jockey Club, said, “Once more, we are delighted that the quality of selected runners for this year’s Longines Hong Kong International Races is in keeping with our long-held commitment to deliver sporting excellence and this is highlighted with strong groups from Japan and Europe headed for Hong Kong to compete against Golden Sixty, Romantic Warrior and more.”

Worth a combined HK$110 million (£11.7m/€13.6m), the Longines Hong Kong International Races will take place in front of an expected crowd of better than 30,000 fans Sunday, Dec. 11 at Sha Tin Racecourse.

LONGINES TO SPONSOR NOV. 25 CARD AT MEYDAN

Meydan’s Nov. 25 card will be presented by Longines. Featuring the G2 Madjani S. Presented by Longines for Purebred Arabsians, the remaining six races are for Thoroughbreds, anchored by a 1200-metre handicap worth AED105,000. The first post is 6 p.m. local time.

Matthieu Baumgartner, Longines Vice-President Marketing said, “Longines is proud to be the Title Partner, Presenting Partner and Official Timekeeper of Meydan Racecourse. This partnership reinforces Longines’ long-lasting dedication and commitment to the equestrian world, which dates back almost one century and half.”
