

“GUILTY...” “GUILTY...”

Jason Servis | Jockey Club of Saudi Arabia

by Robert Gearty

Jason Servis, for years one of the top Thoroughbred trainers in the country, pleaded guilty in a New York courtroom Dec. 9 to resolve charges arising from the government's sweeping investigation into horse doping at racetracks across the country.

Servis, 65, faces four years in prison when he is sentenced May 18, 2023, in U.S. District Court in Manhattan. Servis was one of 31 defendants in the case, which garnered national headlines when prosecutors announced indictments nearly three years ago and cast a black eye on the racing industry.

They had been charged with doping horses with various performance-enhancing drugs that were undetectable by racing regulators. Prosecutors said the use of PEDs by greedy trainers corrupted the sport, cheated the betting public, and endangered horses who were asked to perform beyond their natural capabilities.

Servis was the last defendant facing charges.

He pleaded guilty in connection with his role in the distribution of adulterated and misbranded drugs intended for administration on racehorses he trained.

"Servis's conduct represents corruption at the highest levels of the racehorse industry," Damian Williams, U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, said in a release. "As a licensed racehorse trainer, Servis was bound to protect the horses under his care and to comply with racing rules designed to ensure the safety and well-being of horses and protect the integrity of the sport." Cont. p3

AIRDRIE-BRED GIRVIN FILLIES MEET AGAIN IN STARLET by Katie Petrunyak

Born just a day apart in the same foaling barn, two daughters of Girvin once roamed the same Bluegrass fields in their early days at Airdrie Stud. On Saturday, the duo will meet again as 'TDN Rising Star' Faiza and stakes-placed Blessed Touch enter the starting gate for the GI Starlet S. at Los Alamitos Race Course.

The Brereton C. Jones-bred fillies represent two of the 20 winners this year for fast-starting first-crop stallion Girvin, who has relocated from Ocala Stud to Airdrie for the 2023 breeding season. With four stakes winners including GII Saratoga Special-winning 'Rising Star' Damon's Mound already on his list of progeny, a Grade I score on Saturday could be the bow on top of a spectacular season for Girvin as the year comes to a close.

Faiza will be the clear favorite in this weekend's lone graded contest. The Bob Baffert-trained, Michael Lund Petersen-campaigned filly earned 'Rising Star' honors on debut last month at Del Mar going six furlongs. Cont. p5

Williams added: "Servis abdicated his responsibilities to the animals, to regulators, and to the public. This latest conviction demonstrates the commitment of this Office and of our partners at the FBI to the prosecution and investigation of corruption, fraud, deceit, and endangerment in the racehorse industry."

"Guilty," Servis said, as he admitted to a new felony charge of misbranding and adulterating a chemical substance described by prosecutors as similar to the bronchodilator clenbuterol but stronger.

"Guilty," he said, admitting to another new charge, a misdemeanor, of misbranding and adulterating a compound chemical called SGF-1000.

Servis had been scheduled to go on trial next month on two counts--conspiracy to misbrand and adulterate performance-enhancing drugs and conspiracy to commit mail and wire fraud. He would have faced 25 years in prison on those two counts if convicted.

As part of the plea deal, prosecutors agreed to dismiss those charges and bring new ones.

Also, as part of the plea deal, Servis agreed to forfeit $311,760 and to pay restitution in the amount of $163,932.

Servis showed up in court in a sports jacket and tie. Racing authorities suspended his trainer's license after his arrest in March 2020.

At the time of his arrest, prosecutors accused Servis of administering adulterated and misbranded PEDs, including SGF-1000, to "virtually all of the racehorses under his control."

Those horses included Maximum Security, who finished first in the 2019 GI Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve but was disqualified for interference during the running of the race.

SOMETHING BIG IS ABOUT TO HAPPEN

Can you sense it...? Highest career yearling average in 2022 – with an $800k top lot, plus two at $725k and a $700k. His 2023 juveniles could be his best yet: they were bred off his highest fee since he first went to stud.

And, after McKinzie, Maxfield and Speaker's Corner, his 2022 book was his best by CPI since before he had runners. Just imagine...

Darley

Judge Mary Kay Vyskocil brought up Maximum Security's name during a portion of the proceeding that required Servis to admit his guilt by allocuting to the charges.

At that point, Servis attorney Rita Glavin interjected to say that, yes, her client would admit that Maximum Security had been administered SGF-1000 by a veterinarian for his barn.

Among the races that Maximum Security won for Servis was the $20-million Saudi Cup in the Middle East in February 2020, just a month before his arrest.

After a brief back and forth between Glavin and Vyskocil, Servis conceded that fact.

Shortly after Servis's arrest, Saudi Cup officials announced that the winning purse of the Saudi Cup was being withheld pending an investigation.

Servis told Vyskocil Friday that he would not challenge other statements to other facts in the plea agreement.

For instance, he conceded that he continued using SGF-1000 after New York regulators put out an advisory in September 2019 saying that SGF-1000 was a prohibited substance.

He also conceded that SGF-1000 cost $300 a bottle and that vet bills sent to owners disguised the use of SGF-1000 on his horses as "acupuncture and chiropractic."

In the case of the clenbuterol-like substance, Servis admitted that on May 8, 2019, he shipped it from his barn at Monmouth to Belmont and hid it in a soda bottle concealed in a bucket of poultice, an herbal anti-inflammatory paste.

In court papers, Glavin argued that Servis was not guilty of the charges against him because prosecutors lacked evidence that SGF-1000 was performance-enhancing or contained growth factors. These considerations would make it a PED.

She also argued that none of Servis's horses ever tested positive for clenbuterol misuse.

On Friday, Glavin told Vyskocil that she planned to argue before the sentencing that Servis had been repeatedly told by his vet that SGF-1000 was legal to use.

The plea agreement states that Servis's vet repeatedly assured the trainer that SGF-1000 was "legal and not violative of racing rules as reflected in intercepted calls in June and August of 2019."

Prosecutors argued in court papers that those who marketed SGF-1000 didn't understand what it was other than that it was undetectable in tests conducted by racing regulators.

They also contend that SGF-1000 does contain growth factors of a variety that were intentionally difficult to detect.

Williams said Servis ordered hundreds of bottles of the drug "SGF-1000," which was compounded and manufactured in unregistered facilities.

He said Servis obtained the misbranded version of clenbuterol from convicted co-defendant New Jersey trainer Jorge Navarro. He is serving a 5-year prison sentence after pleading guilty a year ago.

With Servis's plea, 23 of the 31 individuals charged have pleaded guilty. Two were convicted after trial, and two were offered deferred prosecution agreements.

The defendants included 11 Thoroughbred and Standardbred trainers and seven veterinarians.

"She was a beautiful filly from the start," Airdrie's Bret Jones recalled. "We always thought she was right at the top of that foal crop and we had her in the July Sale to try and show off what the stallion was producing. Everyone who has ever had the filly has been pretty over-the-top with her. The reports along the way have been a lot of fun to hear about and then to see it all come to fruition in that first race had us really pumped. She has the look of a very special filly."

Blessed Touch will be another top choice in the Starlet's field of seven. The elder of the two Girvin fillies by one day, she is out of the Street Boss mare Blushing Touch and is from the family of champion Left Bank (French Deputy). A $32,000 Keeneland September purchase for Julie Davies, Blessed Touch went on to sell for $140,000 at the OBS April Sale to Pierre and Leslie Amestoy and Roger Bersley.

Trained by Tim Yakteen, the bay broke her maiden at second asking by nearly nine lengths and then ran second to talented 'Rising Star' Justique (Justify) in the Desi Arnaz S.

"Unfortunately Blessed Touch's dam has passed away, but she left behind a very nice filly," Jones said. "She ran a winning race in the Desi Arnaz and just ran into a really good filly that day. If she can take a step forward, she has the chance to be really competitive."

In comparing Faiza and Blessed Touch, Jones said that the two juveniles share their sire's athleticism.

"When Girvin is on the shank, I think it's his athleticism that really stands out," Jones explained. "Both of these fillies fit that same description when they were with us. They were really athletic types and looked like they could do the job."

Girvin raced to three graded stakes victories, including the 2017 GI Haskell Invitational S., for Brad Grady before retiring to Ocala Stud. He stood his first four years there as property of Brad and Misty Grady's Grand Oaks Farm in partnership with Airdrie Stud.

"It was a partnership that was very attractive to us," Jones said. "It was as much about who we were partnering with as it was the horse that we were partnering on. Brad has done everything he can to help the stallion and we have done our part by sending mares down to Florida every year. Ocala Stud did a remarkable job promoting him and making sure the horse had every opportunity."

Girvin stood for an introductory fee of $7,500 in Florida and bred 149 mares. When that first crop hit the racetrack this year, Jones said that Girvin didn't give his partnership much of a choice when it came to where he would stand in 2023.

"We've been run over by mare submissions and the horse is essentially full. He's now at a price point of $25,000, so the mare quality that he's getting is fantastic. These are some of the top breeders in the industry that want to send mares to him. We will be breeding some of the absolute best mares in our band and Brad Grady will be doing the same, just as he has from the start."

Jones credits Girvin's early achievements at stud to the quality of mares his partners have supported him with and the athleticism the son of Tale of Ekati showed on the racetrack that he is now passing on to his offspring.

Girvin will stand for $25,000 in 2023 | EquiSport

"He's this beautiful, talented and athletic horse that maybe didn't have the sire power that people perceived as being needed to stand initially in Kentucky," he explained. "But if you go back now after the horse has had some success, it's not too hard to see why success was always possible."

Girvin currently ranks a close seventh on the list of leading American first-crop sires by earnings. A productive turnout from his two Starlet-bound fillies could give him an extra boost before the end of the year.

"It's a loaded group of first-crop stallions this year," Jones said. "When you come in with a $7,500 stallion, it's going to be a tough group to compete with. But if he could put up a Grade I winner and combine that with the body of work he already has, it would be the icing on the cake of a pretty phenomenal freshman season and hopefully a harbinger of some very special days ahead."

Bob Baffert has won the last five editions of the Starlet, and his 7-5 morning line favorite Faiza will make her two-turn debut alongside stablemates Doinitthehardway (Street Sense), an improving maiden adding distance in her fourth start, and Fast and Shiny (Bernardini). Cont. p8

BIG SEASON PUSHES GAFFALIONE TOWARD 2000TH WIN

by Christina Bossinakis

To the casual observer, it might appear that success has come fast and early to Tyler Gaffalione, who has yet to see the dawn of his 30th birthday. As of Dec. 7, Gaffalione has registered 1,997 wins with career earnings of just over $113 million. That's pretty heady stuff, especially for a 28-year-old. However, don't let that fool you because the young horseman has already packed a tsunami of sweat and tears--not to mention good old fashioned hard work--into a life still very much in progress.

"I've had great people surrounding me," he said. "I've had a lot of support throughout my life and I'm just so thankful because they helped get me to where I am today."

Success appears to have always been in the cards for Gaffalione. Blessed with a rider's pedigree courtesy of his father and grandfather--former jockeys Steve and Bobby Gaffalione--he demonstrated his riding prowess early.

"My father, my grandfather and my cousin are all jockeys," he explained. "So, I pretty much grew up in racing and spent a lot of time around the racetrack. I used to go to Calder frequently. I fell in love with horses at a very young age. Cont. p9

He continued, “We moved to Ocala when I was about eight or nine and spent quite a few years there. My dad trained some horses and he was also galloping there, so I started to go to work with him. When I was 10, he started letting me pony with him. I started galloping after that and when I was 11, I'd gallop in the morning before school and in the summers.”

Having grown up in Davie, Florida, the Kansas City native made his mark early in his career in the Sunshine State, collecting his first career win at Gulfstream Park in September of 2014. While still toting his bug status, he won a pair of stakes at the Hallandale oval in 2015, also enjoying a banner day that spring when winning five races on a single Gulfstream card. He rounded out the 2015 racing season by earning an Eclipse Award as the champion apprentice jockey.

Quickly becoming a fan favorite on the Southern Florida circuit, he tied jockey Jerry Bailey's 19-year-old record by winning seven races in a single card at Gulfstream in 2017 and quite notably, amassed over 200 wins in his first three full seasons in the saddle. Coincidentally, it was the Hall of Famer who Gaffalione had tied with at Gulfstream that had proven so important in giving him the blueprint to his own burgeoning career.

“I watched Jerry Bailey and Garrett Gomez a lot growing up,” he said when asked who influenced his riding style the most. “Even now, I'll call Jerry and get some tips that I can apply to my riding.”

Riding high after rounding out 2018 with his 1000th career victory at Gulfstream that December, he returned the next year to collect his first Classic victory with War Of Will (War Front), trained by one of Gaffalione's biggest supporters, Hall of Fame trainer Mark Casse.

While those sparkling credentials could surely stand on their own, the horseman enjoyed a season for the ages in 2022.

Knocking on the door of a win during the World Championships with seven prior top three finishes, he finally broke through in 2022, annexing the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies with D.J. Stable's Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) on the Friday card.

"It couldn't have happened on a better filly or for better connections," he said.

"Especially that my first [Breeders' Cup] win came with Mark Casse. He gave me my first Grade I win [on Salty in the 2018 GI La Troienne S.] and my first Triple Crown win and now my first Breeders' Cup win. He gives you all the confidence."

Wonder Wheel, winner of Churchill's Debutante S. in July, finished second in Saratoga's GI Spinaway S. but bounced back to take the GI Darley Alcibiades S. before her Breeders' Cup score. Gaffalione has been aboard all five of the dark bay's starts.

Gaffalione after Caravel's Turf Sprint win

"She just didn't really break running," he said of the championship-defining race.

"Normally, she shows a lot of gate speed, but that day she was just a little flat. It took a little bit for her to get underneath herself. We wound up being farther back than I anticipated."

He continued, "Going into the first turn, we got pushed back and we got over to the fence. She wanted to do some running, but she came back to me nicely. Spots just kept opening up when we needed it and she took every single one of them. If you look at the overhead view, you could see at about the three-eighths pole and I was still kind of checking on her, but she wanted to run. As soon as the spots opened, she didn't hesitate. She was just full of heart." Cont. p11

Not short in praise that has been lavished upon what can only be described as a perfectly executed and well-timed ride, Gaffalione remains steadfast in his modesty.

"She is a tremendous filly," he said. "I think anybody could have ridden her that day because she gives you all the confidence. I love her."

On Breeders' Cup Saturday, Gaffalione returned to add a second victory to this year's haul with a score by longshot Caravel (Mizzen Mast) in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint.

"It was such a blessing," he explained. "My agent [Matt Muzikar] and I have put in such a huge amount of work to get to that point. It's something that I have wanted to accomplish for a while. It's definitely been a fun experience. I've been enjoying myself."

In 2021, Gaffalione's mounts amassed over $19.2 million, which seems impressive enough. That is until you look at this season, which has yet to be completed, where his tally weighs in at a healthy $26.6 million. Could a second Eclipse Award be not too far in the offing?

"That would be a dream come true," he admitted. "I always wanted to win an Eclipse Award. We were fortunate enough to win one as an apprentice, but [to win one] as a Journeyman would be a whole other story."

He concluded, "Coming into this season, [Muzikar] and I just wanted to ride in the most races we can and get on as many as we can on each day. The way I see it, it better your chances of winning and it doesn't hurt to have the experience. I have a long way to go [in my career], but I am happy with what we've accomplished up until now."

TWELVE QUESTIONS: BILL NADER

by Sue Finley

Bill Nader was named President and CEO of the Thoroughbred Owners of California this past June. He worked as a senior executive at the Hong Kong Jockey Club from 2007 until then, and was formerly the Senior Vice President and COO of the New York Racing Association. He began his career at Rockingham Park in his native Salem, New Hampshire in 1979.

Most exciting race you watched this year that wasn't Flightline?

Jockey Club Mile on Nov. 20 when Golden Sixty ran down California Spangle with a closing quarter in 21.32. I watched it on TV so not sure if it counts.

One positive change you'd like to see in racing in 2023?

Positive communication from those who enjoy the sport. Words matter. If you love it and you know it, then your words should surely show it.

If you could bring back one racetrack from the past, which would it be?

Rockingham Park, my hometown racetrack. Honorable mentions to Arlington and Hialeah.

Who's the best executive in racing right now?

Me. If I say anyone else, I place myself at unnecessary risk.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be?

Martin Luther King.

Twelve Questions cont.Best advice you've ever gotten?

My Mom--"Just be yourself."

What does racing look like in 10 years?

Japanese horses will be a big part of the picture in major 3-year-old Grade I classics on dirt. Sports betting will be available at most racetracks. The popular racetracks will continue to thrive.

Do we need more tracks or fewer tracks?

Fewer.

Favorite horse of all time (and why)?

Spectacular Bid, for what he accomplished after losing out on the Triple Crown. His 4-year-old season was incredible.

Best race you've ever seen?

The 1998 Belmont S. when Victory Gallop denied Real Quiet a Triple Crown. That was an absolute thriller.

Hardest working person you've ever worked with?

Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges, CEO of The Hong Kong Jockey Club and IFHA Chairman

All I want for Christmas is...?

To spend it with my daughter Martina in Solvang, California.

DEC 9: BUSY DAY FOR TIGHT FIRST-CROP SIRE RACE

by Margaret Ransom

Since neither of the top three first-crop sires battling it out to win the 2022 division title had a runner on Thursday, their numbers remain unchanged. The focus now turns to a busy Friday with Bolt d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) in a solid position to pull away from both Justify (Scat Daddy) and Good Magic (Curlin) with six runners total--three in the fifth race at Turfway Park, two in the sixth at Woodbine and another at Oaklawn Park. Good Magic's lone runner on Friday, Zia Park Juvenile S. winner How Did He Do That, is entered in the Advent S. at Oaklawn Park while Justify's daughter, Prove My Love, is set to contest the fourth race at Turfway Park.

Note that Japanese earnings are added every Sunday night, and there may be delayed reporting from other countries, which could postpone the final results in a very tight race into early January. We will also be providing a preview of 2-year-olds entered the next day in North America and beyond.

GARY BARBER APPOINTED TO TOC BOARD

The Board of Directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) unanimously named Gary Barber to fill the board vacancy created by the recent resignation of Bill Strauss. Barber is a long-time Thoroughbred owner, both on his own and in partnership with others, whose stars include Grade I stakes winners: War of Will, Got Stormy, Belvoir Bay, Salty, The Deputy, Wonder Gadot, Lexie Lou, Comma to the Top, Tourist, Catch a Glimpse, Becrux, Cost of Freedom, Jack Milton, Channel Maker, Get Her Number, Vequist, and Gretzky the Great. In addition to being an owner, Barber is also a breeder and holds significant interests in several stallions. Cont. p14

Per the bylaws, Barber will be required to run in the 2023 board election when Strauss' term would have expired.

"My passion for Thoroughbred racing is steadfast," said Barber. "I look forward to joining the Board of the TOC and hope to make a meaningful contribution to the health and welfare of our sport and help attract a new generation of fans."

MIKE ROGERS PLEDGES ONE-DAY MATCH DONATION TO TAA DEC. 10

As part of the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA)'s month-long Holiday Giving Campaign, Mike Rogers has pledged to match all donations up to $500 made to the TAA Dec. 10. The campaign commenced Nov. 29 and is scheduled to conclude New Year's Eve.

Those wishing to support the TAA, its 81 accredited organizations, and thousands of retired Thoroughbreds can donate through the TAA's website or text DONATE to 56651. During the Holiday Giving Campaign, TAA is also offering donors the benefit of sending digital holiday cards to colleagues, friends, and loved ones.

"The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance is doing great work and I'm happy to do my small part in helping their mission," said 1/ST RACING Executive Vice President and Maryland Jockey Club Acting President and General Manager, Mike Rogers. "Our industry would be nothing without these horses, who all should have the opportunity to live long, happy lives after racing. Thank you, TAA, for providing an industry-united aftercare mechanism devoted to our retired equine athletes."

MERRYMAN WINS JOHN DEERE AWARD

Edited Press Release

Elizabeth M. Merryman, who bred Caravel (Mizzen Mast), winner of the $1-million GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint Nov. 5 at Keeneland Race Course, has been named the 2022 recipient of the John Deere Award, in recognition of the breeders who participated this year in the Breeders' Cup Challenge Series: Win and You're In and in the Breeders' Cup World Championships.

The John Deere Award, presented by Breeders' Cup Limited and NTRA Advantage, emphasizes the contributions of breeders to the Breeders' Cup program. The industry's breeders and nominators provide funding for the purses of the World Championships through the annual nominations of foals and stallions.

NTRA Advantage and John Deere will award a John Deere TS Gator Utility Vehicle to Ms. Merryman.

This year's John Deere Award winner was determined by a drawing from all breeders who won either a Breeders' Cup World Championships race or a Breeders' Cup Challenge Series race.

"We congratulate Ms. Merryman on being this year's recipient of the John Deere Award in recognition of Caravel's outstanding victory in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint," said Dora Delgado, Breeders' Cup Executive Vice President and Chief Racing Officer. "The John Deere Award is a tribute to the importance of the breeders in our sport and whose annual contributions have been the backbone of our funding for the Breeders' Cup racing programs and the World Championships. We also thank John Deere and NTRA Advantage for their sponsorship of this award and their salute to the breeding industry."

"I am very happy to accept the John Deere Award on behalf of Caravel in honor of her thrilling win in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint, and in recognition of all breeders who participated in the World Championships," said Merryman.

Two-for-two at Horseshoe Indianapolis earlier this summer, Count de Monet didn't receive a lot of respect at the tote board, going off for his stakes debut at Oaklawn at 15-1. Despite wanting a similar front-running position as Tyler's Tribe, Count de Monet was outrun to the lead by that rival and boxed in against the fence by Too Much Info (Maclean's Music). Still covered up around the turn as Tyler's Tribe paced the field through opening fractions of :22.33 and :46.11, Count de Monet began to make up ground when angled out for the stretch drive. As the pacesetter grew weary with a furlong to run, he overtook the lead with an outside move and drove clear for the comfortable score in Oaklawn's opening day feature.

"Everything he's done here has been tremendous," said winning trainer Tom Swearingen. "I've really, really liked what he's done since we got here. My experience since I've been coming to Oaklawn is you've got to get your horses used to this track. I don't think they overlooked us. I think we were in against a horse (Tyler's Tribe) that was a little more accomplished at the time. We've got to see how he comes back and progresses here in the next couple of weeks and maybe we do take another shot down the road. It will definitely be here. We've come to Oaklawn to run here."

The winner has a weanling half-sister by Exaggerator named Ravenex and his dam was bred back to Echo Town for a 2023 foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

A gate-to-wire maiden winner at second asking over this same surface Nov. 6, Armstrong deployed similar tactics Friday, going right to the lead as the 5-2 second choice to confront his main challenger, the heavily favored Poulin in O T, and a quick-footed Rolling Hills (Reload). The race became one for third into the turn as the top two betting choices duelled from the quarter pole to the wire, bobbing heads with Armstrong getting the best of a photo finish with Paramount Prince a further 4 1/4 lengths back in third. Margins: 3/4, 2 1/4, 6 1/4. Odds: 2.60, 0.70, 20.50.

Also Ran: Speed Trap, Anam Cara, Rifling.

Fashionably Fab broke her maiden in dominating style by 11 1/4 lengths at second asking Oct. 9 after exiting a key maiden optional claimer Sept. 10 in which the top three horses all came back to win next out. A winner against optional claimers when last seen over this track Nov. 3, she returned Friday in stakes company using Lasix for the first time as the 5-2 second wagering choice. Despite breaking on top, she surrendered the lead shortly after to Rifling (Reload), chasing that rival through the half mile in :46.71 before re-engaging around the far turn. Back in front past the quarter pole, Fashionably Fab had enough left in reserve to hold off favored Me and My Shadow for the narrow win. Out of a half-sister to Canadian champion 3-year-old colt Big Red Mike (Tenpins), Fashionably Fab has a yearling half-sister by Sky Mesa and a weanling half-brother by Instagrand. Flashy's Legacy visited Cupid for a 2023 foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

FAVOR (f, 3, Pioneerof the Nile--Fame and Fortune, by Unbridled's Song), third in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks behind 'TDN Rising Star' and champion 2-year-old filly Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) three starts back, ran fifth in the GII Black Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico and was last seen finishing fifth in Saratoga's Wilton S. July 14. The 4-5 choice in her first start back off the layoff, Favor contested the early lead under a ride inside of Quinoa Tifah (Gemoloist) and took over as that rival gave way after a quarter in :22.73. Briefly challenged once more by Bluefield (Field Commission) around the turn, Favor refused to be headed and found more inside the final furlong, clearing to a two-length win. A half-sister to 2-year-old Gulfport (Uncle Mo), SW & MGISP, $336,530, Favor is out of a full-sister to GISW and sire Cross Traffic. Her dam produced a full-sister to Gulfport in 2021 who brought $650,000 at this year's Keeneland September Sale and was bred to Tapit for a 2023 foal. Sales History: $500,000 Ylg '20 FTKSEL. CORA PEARL (f, 2, Astern {Aus}--Pearl de Vere, by Songandaprayer) just managed to hold on in gate-to-wire fashion at first asking, winning by a neck over this same track and distance Oct. 22. The narrow second choice at 8-5 Thursday, she was out-sprinted to the lead by favored Mo Bonita (Uncle Mo) and had to chase from second, drawing that pacesetter in around the turn. On even terms at the eighth pole, Cora Pearl took over and finished much the best down the lane to win by three lengths. Izatiz (My Golden Song) just nosed out Mo Bonita to fill the exacta. A half-sister to Old Homestead (Overanalyze), MSW, $300,880, Cora Pearl has a weanling half-sister by Practical Joke named Pearlyjamm while her dam was bred back to Maximum Security for the 2023 season. EME CLAIRE (f, 2, Street Sense--By Golly Mis Molly, by Vindication), fourth over the surface Nov. 5, returned Friday the 2-1 chalk. Quick to the front, she dictated terms, ran off from Born to Boogie (Funtastic) around the turn, and opened up down the lane, hitting the line 6 1/4 lengths ahead of a closing Mo Tough (Mo Town). By Golly Mis Molly, responsible for Katie Baby (Curlin), MGSP, $136,237, saw her yearling Hard Spun filly bring $200,000 at Keeneland September this year and was bred to Maxfield for 2023. SHE'S STORMING (f, 2, Hightail--Dedham, by Storm and a Half), a longshot at 47-1, stalked closest to a pair of dueling rivals on the front end, chasing an opening quarter in :22.08 while going three wide for position around the turn. Steered to the rail with a furlong to run, she took over close to home and out-finished pacesetter Indian Irish (Double Irish) for the half-length win. She's Storming has a yearling half-sister by Jonesboro. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $54,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

STRIKINGLY SPUN (f, 2, Hard Spun--Smart Ashley, by Smart Strike) covered seven furlongs at Keeneland on Breeders' Cup Friday to beat half the field home in sixth as a 33-1 longshot. Racing with Lasix for the first time Friday, the $200,000 OBSMAR grad, no longer a longshot at 2-1, broke near the rear of the field and took her time settling just off the rail in fifth as the half went in :47.68. More forwardly placed into the far turn, she overtook favored Peace Cruiser (Violence) at the head of the lane and went clear through the final furlong to win by 2 1/4 lengths over Bolt fo Allison (Bolt d'Oro). Madly Dancing (Curlin) finished just outside the trifecta in fourth. Smart Ashley produced a yearling filly by Bernardini but was not bred for 2022 or 2023. HAYUNEVANO (f, 2, Goldencents--Classic Vision, by Munnings) was third as the beaten favorite over a sloppy 5 1/2 furlongs at the Fair Grounds Nov. 19 and was decidedly less popular Friday, going off at 5-1 on the stretch out. Sent to the front on the rail, Hayunevano dictated the tempo with favored Cerchi (Into Mischief) never far off her flank in second. But as that rival began to tire past the quarter pole, Hayunevano found more and drew off comfortably to win by 5 3/4 lengths. Cerchi held on for second over first-time starter Cushee (Curlin). Classic Vision is responsible for a yearling filly by Goldencents and a weanling filly by Mitole. She was bred to Instagram for the 2023 season. Sales History: $22,000 RNA Ylg '21 KEESEP. TALK MUCH (f, 3, Kantharos--Strike Free, by Smart Strike), second when last seen nearly six months ago over this same surface and distance June 30, returned Friday at 6-5 and paced the field through an opening quarter in :21.49. Saving ground against the rail with Plaisante (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}) outside, she turned back that rival and, despite drifting close to home, pulled away to win by 1 3/4 lengths over She's Rednecker (Kantharos). Her yearling half-brother by Constitution brought $200,000 at Keeneland September. She has a weanling half-sister by Volatile and her dam visited Carpe Diem for a 2023 foal. HONG KONG'S 'GOLDEN' BOY ON THE VERGE OF MORE HISTORY

by Alan Carasso

His 22 career victories is an all-time record in Hong Kong racing history. His HK$116 million (£12.2 million/US$14.7 million) in career earnings makes him not only the richest racehorse to look through a bridle in the Special Administrative Region, but also one of the richest Thoroughbreds, ever. Stanley Chan's Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) can make even more history this Sunday when he starts a long odds-on proposition in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile, a victory in which will tie Good Ba Ba (Lear Fan) with three straight wins at the Longines Hong Kong International Races meeting.

While he may have fallen just short of equaling the great Silent Witness (Aus)'s mark of 17 wins in a row when defeated in the G1 Stewards' Cup and G1 Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup last winter, he has since roared back and enters the three-peat attempt off a fast-finishing score over the pace-advantaged California Spangle (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) in the G2 Jockey Club Mile Nov. 20. The latter, a €150,000 Goffs Orby acquisition for the connections of two-time Hong Kong Cup hero California Memory (Highest Honor {Fr}), was 3-5 to Golden Sixty's even-money in the Jockey Club Mile, and was given every conceivable chance by Zac Purton, only to be run down late. 'MONEY WAS BECOMING TIGHT'--MADDEN HAPPY WITH AUSTRALIA DECISION

By Brian Sheerin

Once viewed as one of the classiest riding prospects in Ireland, Tom 'Socks' Madden pointed to the harsh realities of competing in his home nation as the driving force behind him taking the plunge and bidding to emulate Declan Bates and Johnny Allen by turning to Australia in an effort to rejuvenate his career in the saddle.

Just over a month after he upped sticks to Australia, Madden rode his first winner for new boss Lindsey Smith aboard Glitter 'N' Gold (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}), after which he credited fellow Irishman Shane Jackson for advising him to make the switch.

Jackson made that same successful move a decade ago and left nothing to chance so that Tom, the son of trainer Niall 'Boots' Madden and brother to Grand National-winning pilot Niall 'Slippers' Madden, could hit the ground running down under. Cont. p3

EUROPEAN NEWS

The 25-year-old said, "I've been here just over a month so to mark it with my first winner in Australia was great. Things had dried up for me in Ireland so it made sense to give this a go and I am really enjoying it."

Madden burst onto the scene as a 16-year-old back in 2013. He rode three winners in his debut season and confirmed himself one of the most promising apprentices in the country the following year by bagging 14 wins.

His best season came in 2019 when he rode 25 winners but it was in 2020 where he claimed his most memorable prizes given he partnered Silence Please (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), Zaffy's Pride (Ire) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) and Barrington Court (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) to listed race success for Jessica Harrington.

Tom Madden: has moved to Australia | Racingphotos.com

Madden remained with Harrington, where he rode as second choice to Shane Foley, until he decided to leave for Australia and pointed to the fact that the rides had largely dried up as the main reason behind the switch.

He explained, "Jessie wasn't running much towards the end of the season and, whatever she was running, Shane was riding so there weren't many rides to go around. Money was becoming tight because I wasn't getting many rides and all I was doing was riding out for people in the mornings." Cont. p4

He added, "My brother Niall is good friends with Shane Jackson, who has made a good career for himself here in Australia, and he has been on to me for a good few years to come down and give it a go. I shelved those plans when Covid hit but I'd no excuse not to take the opportunity this year now that the restrictions have eased."

Madden added, "Shane and his wife Lauren have been very good to me and had everything organised for when I arrived. Not only did they line up a job and somewhere for me to stay, but they also organised banking and a car for me, so I am very lucky."

"Even in the smaller races down here, there is great prize-money on offer. Obviously the city meetings are where you want to be riding at but the country tracks offer fantastic prize-money as well and it goes right down to eighth and ninth position so, every time you go racing, you're picking up a cheque."

"I was getting by without making a lot of money in Ireland. Prize-money at home is okay and the riding fees are fine but the riding fee is nearly double out here. It's just so competitive in Ireland. It was great when I had the claim as I could ride away in the apprentice races but, when you lose your claim, things become a lot harder and it's much tougher to compete. I just found that I was tipping away okay before Covid but never really got going after it."

Madden is not the only Irishman to sample all that Australia has to offer. Ben Coen, Jamie Powell, Scott McCullagh and Mikey Sheehy are riding in Sydney this winter but Madden, whose agent is another Irish native Robbie Kingston, brother to trainer George Kingston, is open to an extended stay.

He said, "I have a flight back to Ireland booked for the end of January but, if things keep going the way they are going and I am still enjoying it, I could stay. I'll take things as they come and hopefully everything will work out."

NATIONAL STUD AND MYRACEHORSE TEAM UP IN STRADIVARIUS BREEDING SYNDICATE

The micro-share syndicate MyRacehorse is branching into the world of breeding with a syndicate involving star stayer Stradivarius (Ire) and in partnership with The National Stud.

Through the latter the group purchased the Dark Angel (Ire) 3-year-old Blackbird Power (GB) at the Tattersalls December Mare Sale. A six-furlong winner for Andrew Balding, she will be sent to Stradivarius next season, with shares of both the mare and her resulting foal will be sold before both are reoffered at the Breeding Stock Sale at the end of 2024. "When The National Stud approached us with this idea, we knew we had to be a part of it," said Jules Pittam, a managing partner of MyRacehorse in the UK and Ireland.

"We promise our owners top racehorses and unique experiences, and you really can't beat owning one of the first foals by the phenomenal Stradivarius. Add in the fact that owners will have ample opportunity to visit The National Stud and see not only their foal, but Stradivarius as well, and you have a real once-in-lifetime opportunity."

The National Stud's CEO Anna Kerr added, "Our partnership with MyRacehorse gives racing fans an opportunity to experience horse racing ownership in a totally different way. Stradivarius is a modern racing icon, and the opportunity to be a part of his stud career will enable those involved to build a deep connection with one of the most popular Flat horses in recent memory. We are looking forward to welcoming owners to the next chapter of Stradivarius's story and look forward to this syndicate providing MyRacehorse owners with a truly unique experience."

DYNAMITE KATIE (IRE) (f, 2, Kessaar {Ire}--My Kathleen {Ire}, by Roderic O'Connor {Ire}), a Nov. 4 debut seventh over course and distance last time, was quickly into stride and led from flagfall in this return. In command throughout, the 12-1 chance was scrubbed along with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was driven out in the closing stages to hold the late bid of Brazilian Princess (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}) by a short head, becoming the 22nd winner for her freshman sire (by Kodiak {GB}). "She was a little slow out of the stalls and a bit too keen when she ran here the last time, so we tried to make use of her today," explained trainer Natalia Lupini. "She's a nice filly and a drop back to six furlongs would suit her too. She has a nice temperament at home, she relaxes and does everything well. She's a good mover and loves good ground. She might be on the market, we'll talk to the owner obviously and see what the plan is for her." WORLDWIDE NEWSLongines HKIR Preview Cont. from p1

He faces the champ at level weights this time, but is the lone speed and must be caught.

A Japanese contingent headed by Schnell Meister (Ger) (Kingman {GB}) and Danon Scorpion (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}), winners of the last two runnings of the age-restricted G1 NHK Mile Cup, stand in his way, but the connections of Golden Sixty have every reason to approach the three-peat attempt with supreme confidence.

"He's okay after the last run and, at the moment, I just try to keep him happy," said trainer Francis Lui. "He's healthy, happy and his character is just the same. To me, I think he is a special horse. You can see every time, he just wants to pass a horse in front of him."

Japan Can Cap Magical Season at Sha Tin

Even by its lofty standards, the 2022 racing season has been a landmark one for Japanese gallopers that have been sent overseas.

It all got started at King Abdulaziz Racetrack in Riyadh on the last Saturday of February, when Team Japan posted four victories on the G1 Saudi Cup undercard. Four weeks later at sprawling Meydan Racecourse, they somehow managed to top that incredible feat when no fewer than five horses got their pictures taken. Cont. p8

It may not have gone swimmingly at places like Royal Ascot and Goodwood over the late spring and summer, and the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe remains the impossible dream—for now, at least—but Japan has realistic chances in three of the four races Sunday afternoon, none more so than the day's most valuable prize, the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup.

Panthalassa (Jpn), whose sire Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) was a breathtaking two-time winner of the Sprint, was one of the aforementioned scorers in Dubai, dead-heating with Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G1 Dubai Turf and he figures no worse than the second betting favourite Sunday.

Panthalassa in the distinctive Yahagi tack | HKJC

The 5-year-old may have found the 11 furlongs of the G1 Takarazuka Kinen a task too tall in June, but he was exceptionally game in second in his two most recent efforts—both from the front—first behind Jack d'Or (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) after a fight in the G2 Sapporo Kinen and when given a bold ride in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn), opening up by as many as 15 lengths before just failing to hold off the talented Equinox (Jpn) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}). Panthlassa will look to channel his inner A Shin Hikari (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}, all-the-way winner of the 2015 Cup, but Jack d'Or could be the fly in the ointment if he, too, is asked to roll forward for Yutaka Take. Japan has won the last three Cups and five of the last seven.

Should a contested pace materialize, Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) looks the most likely beneficiary. Purchased for 300,000gns out of the 2019 Tattersalls October Sale by the Hong Kong Jockey Club team led by Mick Kinane and the current pin-up horse for the Hong Kong International Sale, last year's BMW Hong Derby and G1 FWD QE II Cup winner overcame an interrupted preparation with a victory over Tourbillon Diamond (Aus) (Olympic Glory {Ire}) in the G2 BOCHK Jockey Club Cup

"He's definitely going to be there when whips are cracking," said jockey James McDonald, who was honored as the Longines World's Best Jockey Friday evening. "It's a very competitive Hong Kong Cup and he has to come up to another level taking on the Japanese but I'm sure he can."

Order of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}), who took the 2020 GI Breeders' Cup Mile at cricket-score odds, won this year's G3 Minstrel S. (1400m) and was placed in the G1 Queen Anne S., G1 Prix du Moulin and GI Coolmore Turf Mile. Connections nevertheless opt for the Cup over a trip he has not tackled in over two years.

"He's been running all the time over a mile but we always thought stepping up over a mile and a quarter would improve him more," trainer Aidan O'Brien said. "He's obviously by Australia and we're very happy with him, we'll see what happens on Sunday.

"He has won over seven furlongs twice as well, so we kept him at a mile after the Breeders' Cup win, but we'd think there's a pretty good chance that [2000m] will be fine."

Hong Kong Hard To Go Past in Sprint

Lucky Sweynesse | HKJC

If the Japanese have been a problem too tough to solve in the Cup, the home team has nearly totally dominated the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint. In the 23 renewals of the race dating back to 1999, on just six occasions have foreign horses launched a successful raid and only once in the last 11 years with Danon Smash (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) in 2020.

Last year's Hong Kong champion sprinter Wellington (Aus) (All Too Hard {Aus}) was badly hampered by the spill in last year's Sprint won by Sky Field (Aus) (Deep Field {Aus}), but recovered to close the season with a successful defence of his crown in the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize. Cont. p9

The 6-year-old returned as the 135-pound topweight in the G2 Premier Bowl H. Oct. 23 and gave the progressive Lucky Sweynesse (NZ) (Sweynesse {Aus}) 11 pounds and a one-length beating. The latter turned the tables last time in the G2 BOCHK Jockey Club Sprint, but Wellington was found to be lame thereafter and has since been passed fit to run. Ryan Moore subs in on Wellington for the injured Alexis Badel.

"I have strong feelings for Alexis Badel," Gibson said. "It's a very big day for him to miss. He's got a very good relationship with Wellington. He understands the horse very well, so my thoughts are with him but obviously delighted to call on Ryan's expertise and experience for the big one."

Moore was aboard Danon Smash from the 14 hole two years ago.

The 2022 Japanese challenge is spearheaded by the winners of the nation's two Group 1 sprints. Naran Huleg (Jpn) (Gold Allure {Jpn}) rallied furiously to just take out the G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen in the spring, while Gendarme (Kitten's Joy) belied odds of nearly 20-1 from close range in the G1 Sprinters' S. Oct. 2.

Singapore adds a bit more international flavour to the meeting and is represented by Lim's Kosciuszko (Aus) (Kermadec {NZ}), winner of 11 from 14 at home, including the country's signature sprint test, the Lion City Cup in August, and he was versatile enough to win a Singapore Derby (1800m) prior to that effort.

Vase Sets The Table

The G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase for the middle-distance set has attracted a two-time champion and an interesting collection of European shippers to face a somewhat suspect group of locals.

Glory Vase (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) doesn't make too many trips to the races and seems to save his best for Sha Tin. The 4-5 favourite when accounting for Pyledriver (GB) (Harbour Watch {Ire}) last December, having won the Vase for the first time two years prior, the 7-year-old was eighth to Shahryar (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic in March and was a fair sixth to Jack d'Or in the Sapporo Kinen. He will benefit from the extra 400 metres and has the services of Joao Moreira, who also rides Lei Papale (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the Cup and Resistencia (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}) in the Sprint in what is expected to be his final day in the saddle in Hong Kong.

Of the Euros, Stone Age (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) owns the single most important piece of recent form, having run second to Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G1 Longines Breeders' Cup Turf Nov. 5. A likely pacesetter from the inside gate, the 3-year-old is one of two for Aidan O'Brien, who also saddles the well-traveled Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}).

"We were delighted with him in the Breeders' Cup, he ran a very good race and had progressed from his previous run at Ascot," O'Brien said of Stone Age. "We've been happy with everything we've seen from him since then. It had been on my mind to go to Hong Kong since after the Breeders' Cup, we thought the track, trip and ground should all suit him fine, we're all looking forward to it."

Making his first visit to Hong Kong, Broome was an impressive winner of the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot, and has since made fruitless appearances back at Ascot, Saratoga, Leopardstown, ParisLongchamp and Keeneland, where he was five lengths' sixth in the Breeders' Cup.

"We had it in our heads that we might go to the [G1 Longines] Japan Cup, it just came maybe a week or two too early and that's why we waited. We were delighted to have the opportunity to come to Hong Kong with him. He's in good form and is a very good natured, very sound horse," explained

O'Brien, who has won the Vase twice with Highland Reel (Ire) and most recently with Mogul (GB) two years ago.

Mendocino (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) upset last year's Arc winner Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden in September, but did not get through the deep ground in Paris when 12th in the Arc. The chestnut can go better on a sounder surface this weekend, provided he is on his best behaviour.

Bubble Gift (Fr) (Nathaniel {Ire}) is winless from five this season, but has run with credit, including a close third to future Arc heroine Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. Trainer Mikel Delzangles won the 2011 Vase with Dunaden (Fr). Botanik (Ire) (Golden Horn {GB}) represents Godolphin France and Andre Fabre and owns a victory over Saudi and Dubai winner Stay Foolish (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville this past August. Cont. p10

THE PICKS:

Cup--Panthalassa will be winging it, but I expect Jack d'Or to keep him honest enough. That should give Romantic Warrior a fair shot at them late.

Mile--Not trying to beat Golden Sixty, especially from a favourable draw. Schnell Meister for second?

Sprint--Naran Huleg will be completely under the radar and probably shouldn't be. Rattled home in both of Japan's Group 1 sprints, good for a smashing win and a third.

Vase--Trying Mendocino, who was all heart to beat the Arc winner at Iffezheim and has a close second to Alpinista going back. Must handle the quicker ground, but rates a chance.

Glory Vase clearly the one to beat at his favourite track.

CHAMPIONSHIP ON THE LINE IN HANSHIN JUVENILE FILLIES

by Heather Anderson

An impeccably credentialed bunch of 18 juvenile fillies line up in the 1600-metre ¥125,200,000 G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies on Sunday, and one of the prospective favourites is Sunday Racing's Umbrail (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}).

Undefeated in a pair of 1400-metre starts at Tokyo and Hanshin in June and October, the daughter of listed-placed L'Archetto (Jpn) (Falbrav {Ire}) is a full-sister to G1 Mile Championship hero Stelvio (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}), one of three black-type horses for their dam.

"She has had two very strong races and we are having to deal with some mental after-effects of those," said assistant trainer Yu Ota. "I think her coat is looking much better now than it was before her last race and I'm hoping to see her improve further. She handled the long trip to Hanshin well last time and I'm not concerned about the race distance being a mile. She has a lot of potential and if she can concentrate on her racing, things should go well."

She faces the similarly undefeated Ravel (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}), who bears the Carrot Farm colours and, after a win at Kikura in June, defeated Liberty Island (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) by a neck in the G3 Artemis S. at Tokyo on Oct. 29. Like Umbrail, the daughter of the G3 Fairy S. third Sambre Et Meuse (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}) is a half-sister to a group winner, in this case the year-older dual Classic-placed Namur (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}), successful in the G2 Tulip Sho, second in the G1 Shuka Sho and third in the G1 Japanese Oaks.

"In the Artemis S., despite the slow pace, she stayed very much well in hand, and that was huge," said assistant trainer Takahide Ando. "As I've always said, she has never been a good eater. She still could do a little better, but compared to earlier, she's better. We were able to give her a good hard workout as planned last week, but we still are aiming to get more muscle on her."

Also a Sunday Racing colourbearer, Liberty Island will attempt to rebound from her Artemis second. Her dam is the Australia Champion 2-Year-Old and 3-Year-Old Filly Yankee Rose (Aus) (All American {Aus}), who did earn a Group 1 win in the Inglis Sires at two and was also second in the G1 Golden Slipper, before adding a G1 Sprint Champion S. victory at three.

Fumio Takahashi's Moryana (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}) has won her first two starts by a combine five lengths. A ¥30,000,000 weaning out of the 2020 JRHA Select Sale, she is the third foal, runner and winner for her dam, the dual winner Garder Le Sourire (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}), whose extended family includes the Group 1 winner Wind In Her Hair (Ire) (Alzao), later the dam of Sunday Silence's best sire son Deep Impact (Jpn).

G3 Sapporo Nisai S. heroine Dura (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) does not have an unbeaten record to protect, and she defeated Doe Eyes (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) by a length in the Nisai S. at Sapporo in early September. The same could be said for G3 Hakodate Nisai S. victress Bouton D'Or (Jpn) (Big Arthur {Jpn}), who enters this test on the back of a runner-up effort in the G3 KBS Kyoto Sho Fantasy S. to Rivara (Jpn) (Kinshasa No Kiseki {Aus}).

"She'll be going into the race without a sharpener and we're preparing her with that in mind," said assistant trainer Atsushi Nishioka. "She has gotten all the base work in and all has gone according to plan. She has no weak points. She has a big stride and I think the spacious course will suit her."

BRITISH-TRAINED HORSES LEAD THE WAY IN THE BAHRAIN TURF SERIES

David O'Meara | Coady Photography

George Baker and David O'Meara celebrated valuable, big-race success with a victory apiece on the opening day of the 2022-23 Bahrain Turf Series. Locally trained horses won nine of the 10 races in last season's Bahrain Turf Series, but the opening race of this season, the Al Muharraq Cup, went the way of Lucander (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) with Pat Cosgrove aboard.

Now trained by Baker, Lucander was last seen when finishing eighth in the Cambridgeshire H. at Newmarket for Ralph Beckett. Making his first start for connections, the gelding stormed clear of his rivals to win by 5 1/2 lengths with What A Welcome (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in second and Arctic Emperor (GB) (Territories {Ire}) in third.

In the second Bahrain Turf Series race of the day, the £60,000 Al Manama Cup, the O'Meara-trained Nomadic Empire (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) was a popular winner for local owner Al Mohamediya Racing. Their retained rider Neil Callan, who won two Bahrain Turf Series races last season, and his mount got the better of Instinctive Move (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) in the end. This was O'Meara's first runner in Bahrain since Lord Glitters (Fr) (Whipper)'s memorable triumph in the 2021 G3 Bahrain International Trophy.

Hosted by the Bahrain Turf Club, the Bahrain Turf Series runs through Mar. 18, 2023.

Margins: 1HF, 4HF, HF.

Also Ran: Al Tariq (Fr), Canvassed (Ire), Upper Class (Brz), Raaeb (Ire).

Mouheeb made it two wins in a row for trainer Michael Costa after the stable move from Nicholas Bachalard's outfit in the Listed Al Garhoud Sprint Sponsored By DP World UAE on Friday.

The first came Oct. 29 after a break over the summer, when he sprinted six furlongs to victory by a length in the Shadwell H. at Jebel Ali Racecourse at odds of 14-1. A Group 3 winner in the UAE 2000 Guineas at Meydan as a 3-year-old, his subsequent attempts failed to impress through last spring at Meydan when he was ninth in the G3 Burj Nahaar S.

In this spot, the $400,000 OBSJUN purchase went well down the backstretch, and tracked the leader Tuz who covered an opening quarter in :21.30 with 900 meters left. Cont. p12

Mouheeb | DRC

As the pace quickened around the far turn, Mouheeb split rivals, and with 300 meters before the wire, snatched the prize away from the frontrunner with a late burst of speed to win by daylight.

"He's a beautiful animal to sit on; a right beast of a horse," said jockey Ray Dawson. "He reminds me of [Group 3 winner] Eastern World last year in that he's got lots of speed, but you can take him back and you know he'll finish well. When a horse kicks clear in these kinds of races, it's a good sign."

The winner is a half-brother to stakes winner Bellamentary (Bellamy Road), who was also multiple group placed; a full to graded winner Favorable Outcome (Flatter), also Grade I placed; and a half to Beguine (Gun Runner), who is graded placed. Dam of 10 foals, Shananies Song also produced gelding Shananies Paynter (Paynter) in 2017. VIDEO.

6th-Meydan, AED120,000, Cond., NH 2yo & SH 3yo, 1400m, 1:25.79, gd.

SEYOUFF, (c, 2, Flatter--Azara, by More Than Ready), runner-up in a maiden over track and trip when unveiled on Nov. 25, broke widest of all and raced near the tail of the field as dueling leaders set a steady pace on the backstretch. Tucked in two paths off the fence on the far turn, the bay loomed up five wide in between horses entering the straight and motored home to win going away by 1 1/4 lengths. Sharp Army (Sharp Azteca) bested Long Kiss (Brz) (Adriano) for second. The unraced Azara is a half-sister to champion and G1 Queen Anne S. heroine Tepin (Bernstein), as well as four-time graded winner Vyjack (Into Mischief). Her Into Mischief yearling filly died, and she had a colt by Authentic this spring, prior to visiting the court of Not This Time. Sales history: $180,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $4,493. VIDEO.

2nd-Meydan, AED82,500, Mdn., NH & SH 3yo/up, 1400m, 1:25.00, gd.

BARQ AL EMARAT (IRE), (g, 3, Mehmas {Ire}--Green Briar {GB}, by Compton Place {GB}) debuted at Newcastle on the all-weather with a double-digit price of 25-1, and despite running into a slow pace, made up ground late to secure a respectable fourth--2 3/4 lengths behind the winner. Shipping to Dubai and sporting cheek pieces and a nose band, he went off slowly. The bay was clearly content to study the field down the backstretch, as a trio of leaders clocked :24.70 with 1100 meters to go. Tightly packed around the turn, it was Sari Dubai (Creative Cause) who gained the advantage with 500 meters left, but allowed the rail to open up. The gelding saw his moment and reeled in the leader to score by a length over his rival. "He's a good horse and I galloped him a couple of times in the morning," said jockey Bernardo Pinheiro. "It's always a question mark if they will handle the ground [dirt] or not, but he's training on it every single day so I was pretty confident." By Europe's champion first-crop and second-crop sire from Tally-Ho Stud, Baq Al Emarat is out of a mare that has produced four foals, three of which have raced, including the winner Gabriel The Saint (Ire) (Society Rock {Ire}). Sales history: €14,500 Wlg '19 GOFNOV; £23,000 Ylg '20 TATSEP; 60,000gns HRA '21 TATAPR. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $14,046. VIDEO. O/T-Ismail Mohammed. B-Kinamara Stud & Micheal J. Burke.
