

WOODWARD, CIGAR MILE AMONG RACES DOWNGRADED

Mind Control wins the 2022 Cigar Mile | Sarah Andrew

by Bill Finley

The American Graded Stakes Committee released its list of graded stakes for 2023 Friday and it includes five races that were downgraded from Grade I status to Grade II races, including two of NYRA's more prestigious races for older dirt horses, the Woodward and the Cigar Mile H. Also dropping down from the Grade I to the Grade II level were the Clark S. at Churchill Downs, the Starlet S. at Los Alamitos and the Rodeo Drive S. at Santa Anita.

The Woodward was, perhaps, the most surprising inclusion on the list of newly appointed Grade II races. Twenty winners of the race have made their way into the Hall of Fame, including Kelso, Buckpasser, Forego, Seattle Slew, Affirmed, Spectacular Bid and Cigar. But the race has struggled somewhat in recent years as the NYRA racing department tried to figure out where it fit best on the calendar on how to juggle a glut of late summer-early fall races for the handicap division, including the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. In 2006, the Woodward was moved from Belmont to Saratoga. The race was moved back to Belmont in 2021, trading places with the Jockey Club Gold Cup, which was switched to Saratoga. This year's Woodward was won by Life Is Good (Into Mischief), but the race drew only four horses and the three challengers to Life Is Good were a fairly weak lot. Cont. p3

BIG TICKET COLTS DOT LOS AL FUTURITY ON SATURDAY by J.N. Campbell

The Kentucky Derby points are back on the table in December. Well, for trainers Leandro Mora and Tim Yakteen that is, as it is once again time for the GII Los Alamitos Futurity. In prior contests, it would have been 10-4-2-1 points to the top four finishers, but since we only have a five-horse field, and with Bob Baffert currently forced to abrogate his Derby egg hunt despite yet another re-christening of his legal stab at Churchill Downs, it is just Mora and Yakteen that are eligible.

Out of the handful that will go on Saturday afternoon at the cozy palm-laden oval that continues to breathe--we hope it does, because we need it to survive--you will see some major sale purchases strut their 2-year-old stuff. Historically, this race is Baffert's foregone conclusion, as he has netted 13 of them, starting with Real Quiet back in 1997. Cont. p3

Edge Capital, and Catherine Donovan is well represented with a pair of promising super colts in Carmel Road (Quality Road) and Fort Bragg (Tapit). The former went for $650,000 at the KEESEP sale last year, while the latter did him one better by $50,000 at FTKOTC. Tom Ryan, the managing partner of SF Racing, said when reached by phone, "We've got 10 nice 2-year-old winners on the board this year, and Bob and his team are very focused on 2023."

Carmel Road, who has a half-brother named Ambition (Street Sense) out of Inspire who RNA'd at FTNAUG this year, lost steam and ended up second-to-last at Keeneland as would-be 2-year-old champion Forte (Violence) nosed ahead for his score in the GI Claiborne Farm Breeders' Futurity Oct. 8. That poor showing was nothing like his maiden victory in the race prior when he won in a geared-down fashion by 8 3/4 lengths at Del Mar Aug. 26. Ryan said about the letdown, "We ended up drawing the outside with Carmel Road in the 14 hole, and the 14 hole at Keeneland with a 2-year-old, it's not ideal. So that race is a complete throw out. His last piece of work was a sparkling piece of work. Hopefully, he's ready for this." Sporting some sharp recent breezes at Santa Anita (Dec. 9, 5f; .59, 1/30), we can expect him to be below his 2-1 morning-line by race time.

As for his stablemate, the 4-1-priced Fort Bragg comes calling after he was disqualified at Santa Anita Oct. 10 and placed second, and then officially broke his maiden Nov. 4 by 3/4 lengths over next out winner, Reincarnate. "He is a beautiful horse that just continues to develop," Ryan said. "Flavien Prat breezed him last week, was impressed enough to want to ride him. He is coming back from a vacation in France to ride him here. It's a tough, demanding race, but we hope he's up to the challenge."

Opposing this pair is the last of Baffert's trio, Zedan Racing Stables's $600,000 OBSAPR bay colt by Justify, Arabian Lion. Stretching out around two turns, the 4-5 morning-line favorite has posted a pair of Beyer Speed Figures that sparkled; 92 at Santa Anita with a first-out win Oct. 9, and then a second-place finish with a 93 rating at Keeneland against optional claimers Nov. 4. All three of these runners could be looking to grab the lead early, and hold off any would-be challengers.

As for Yakteen's Practical Move (Practical Joke), he is not without recent form, nor should he be underestimated. The $230,000 OBSAPR buy ran second to Fort Bragg in that race Oct. 10, despite a poor stumble at the start and getting bumped by his rival in the final furlong. The colt ran third to Havnameltdown (Uncaptured) in the GIII Bob Hope S. Nov. 20. Recall, he is a horse that won at first-asking at Del Mar July 24, was the seized in the GIII Best Pal S. Aug. 14, and was second in the GI Runhappy Del Mar Futurity Sept. 11. If he can solve his

WHERE ARE THEY NOW: SUNNY RIDGE & MR. BUFF

Sunny Ridge supervising Mr. Buff's breeze | Susie Raisher

by Christie DeBernardis

In this TDN series, Christie DeBernardis will tell the stories of accomplished and/or popular former racehorses who are now enjoying second careers as show horses, track ponies, etc.

New Jersey native Sunny Ridge (Holy Bull) may have made his last start in March of 2021, but he is still a familiar face on the racetrack at Belmont. A seven-time stakes winner in New York and New Jersey, the hulking gray now serves as a stable pony for trainer John Kimmel.

"He made the transition to ponying pretty quickly," Kimmel said. "He is really a nice pony. He is comfortable. He does everything. He ponies horses, breaks horses off that are breezing. He still has a little bit of an attitude, but he has been a pretty good pony. Plus, he is big. He is just a tick under 17 hands."

Bred and raced by Monmouth Park's Dennis Drazin, Sunny Ridge's long list of accomplishments was topped by wins in Aqueduct's GIII Withers S. and the GIII Salvator Mile at his hometrack in Oceanport, New Jersey. He spent most of his career under the tutelage of Jason Servis and was laid up for a year after that conditioner's arrest, after which he was sent to Kimmel to attempt an 8-year-old campaign. made three unsuccessful starts in 2021 before Kimmel and Drazin decided it was time to retire him.

"I got him after Jason was done training," Kimmel said. "Dennis was a lifelong friend of mine and he asked me to try him out a few times. He would train okay in the morning, but the afternoon was a different story. I said, 'Dennis, he is really not into it. We aren't going to drop in for a claiming price, so let's make a pony out of it.' He was willing to allow me to do it. He likes doing his job."

Sunny Ridge | Sarah Andrew

The trainer continued, "He was nice and sound, but the effort wasn't there. I think he decided he was done racing and would rather go home and have his dinner. He didn't want to extend himself, I think, because he was worried about taking care of himself."

When asked what the veteran gelding is like around the barn, Kimmel said, "When you walk up to him in the stall, he will pin his ears like he wants to be a little bit mean. But once you get near him, he is fine. He loves his mints. The biggest thing is, it is a long drop down to the ground when we get off him in the morning!"

Kimmel's barn was also the longtime home of another hard-knocking gelding, this one a native New Yorker and 11-time stakes winner, Mr. Buff (Friend or Foe).

"A woman wanted to make Mr. Buff's father, Friend or Foe, a jumper," Kimmel said. "[Owner/breeder] Mr. [Chester] Broman said, 'Okay, I'll sell him to you for $1, but you have to register him as a Thoroughbred stallion. I will send three or four mares a year for a few years to see what we get.' Mr. Buff was in the first group of them. He became a winner of 17 races and won over $1 million. He was a fun horse to be around."

Mr. Buff opened 2021 with a pair of stakes wins at Aqueduct and finished third in the GIII Westchester S., but was unplaced in three subsequent starts, after which his connections decided it was time to retire him.

"I told Mr. Broman, 'If you want, we can give him the winter off and I'd be more than happy to make a pony out of him,'" Kimmel said. "He said he had a guy who wanted to try him as a show horse. He is in Florida and they will see if he has any ability to do that. He is certainly big enough that he can walk over most of the jumps. He is over 17 hands."

The massive chestnut was a barn favorite during the six years he spent with Kimmel and his team.

"He has a great personality," Kimmel said. "He is like a gentle giant. That's why I thought he'd make a nice pony. As a matter of fact, when we brought in the 2-year-olds, we usually used him as a guide horse. He'd be like, 'Listen little fella, follow me. This is how we do it around here.' I think he would have been a natural at it. He was a pretty kind horse to train. When he raced, he could be a little tough. That's why he showed so much early speed, but in the mornings, he was pretty manageable."

FRANK BROTHERS TO RETIRE

Frank Brothers | Keeneland

by J.N. Campbell

Frank Brothers will retire from his roles as a bloodstock agent and a member of Keeneland's yearling inspection team, he announced Friday morning in a press release. "I'm fortunate that my health is good," he said. "I'm 76-years-old and quite content to take a seat in the viewing area and watch the game for a while."

After training horses from 1980 to 2009, Brothers moved into his current role of selecting horses for a few clients before ultimately partnering with Starlight and StarLadies Racing for the past 13 years. During this time, he also served as a member of the Keeneland yearling inspection team for the Keeneland September Sale.

"It's just time for me to move on. For a little guy, the training game was very good to me but it was time for me to make that transition back in 2009," said Brothers, who won 2,291 races over the course of his career. His best horse, Hansel, was a multiple Grade I winner of the Preakness and Belmont S., and the 1991 3-year-old champion. Others in his barn included Grade I winners Secret Hello, Arch, Oath, Madcap Escapade, First Samurai, and the multiple graded stakes winner Pulpit.

"I was fortunate to have trained horses for some great people and then equally fortunate when Jack and Laurie Wolf asked me to join their team as bloodstock agent when I retired from training," he said. "We've had a great deal of luck together--you'd always like to win more, but we did pretty good." For Starlight Racing, Brothers recommended the purchase of Grade I winner Shanghai Bobby, the 2012 champion 2-year-old, along with graded stakes winners Algorithms, Eskenformoney, Neolithic, Cutting Humor, and Joustier, among others.

Brothers was also on the Starlight Racing/SF Racing team that selected several graded stakes winners, including Grade I winners Charlatan, Eight Rings, and 2020 Kentucky Derby winner Authentic.

"Frankie's the best and we're going to miss him," said Jack Wolf, Starlight's managing partner. "He feels like family to us at this point. But I respect his decision to retire and I can't blame

willing to wave the white flag just yet, Good Magic's Almutajiz, a $290,635 ARQMAY purchase earlier this year, finished second in the G3 Ministry of National Guard Cup at Riyadh in Saudi Arabia on Friday and picked up a check for $7,898, while his daughter, Miss New York, brought in $6,100 to help keep her sire in close contention.

With just 15 days left in 2022, Bolt d'Oro remains in front with total progeny earnings of $2,647,216, followed by Good Magic (Curlin) at $2,467,615 and Justify (Scat Daddy)—his one runner failing to earn a check on Friday—remained at $2,383,960.

Despite Bolt d'Oro's near $180,000 lead, it's clear his two main rivals don't plan on handing him the victory without a fight.

Good Magic will have the busiest week with at least one runner each day Saturday through Wednesday, including two on Saturday—Protege in a $104,000 Alw at Oaklawn Park and Good Rapport in a $81,000 Msw at Aqueduct. Also on Saturday Justify's Arabian Lion is the 4-5 favorite in the GII $200,000 Los Alamitos Futurity, which would also give Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert a record 14th win in the race dating back to when it was held at Hollywood Park.

Bolt d'Oro's Oh Chic is set to contest a $27,000 Msw at Tampa Bay Downs on Saturday to complete the stallion's week, and Just Katherine will represent Justify in a $70,000 Msw at Gulfstream on Sunday. Also, Bolt d'Oro will be represented by From Dusk in Sunday's G1 Asahi Hai Futurity at Hanshin. The $900,000 OBSMAR 2-year-old is coming off a second-place finish in the Keio Hai Nisei S. six weeks ago.

Note that Japanese earnings are added every Sunday night, and there may be delayed reporting from other countries, which could postpone the final results in a very tight race into early January. We will also be providing a preview of 2-year-olds entered the next day in North America and beyond.

Racing or bloodstock highlight of the year?

For me personally, it was watching Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) win the G1 Cheveley Park S., and for an all-around highlight of the year, I would say watching and participating in the Breeders' Cup at Keeneland. It was fantastic racing with incredible stories and outcomes.

Value sire for the 2023 season?

I would say Cracksman (GB) would be the value sire at £17,500. He has had some good performers as 2-year-olds, but you could think they will be better 3-year-olds, as Cracksman himself was better as he got older.

Who will be the leading freshman sire next year?

I think Advertise (GB) will be a top contender for that spot. The yearlings by him looked quite precocious and could fit the 2-year-old campaign in Europe rather nicely. They also look like a type that will be attractive to international buyers to race on various circuits around the world.

Most respected stallion--current?

You can't deny Dubawi (Ire). He doesn't command his high stud fee and selective broodmare band for nothing.

Favorite sales ring moment?

Selling one of my first pinhook horses at Keeneland that I bought for $20k and seeing her go for $97k. I was so excited to have a successful pinhook on my own in the first year.

Name one positive change you'd like to see in racing next year?

Seeing the purse structure improve in the UK to have not only the prestige of top racing, but financially as well.

If you could only go to one track the rest of your life, where would it be?

There are many beautiful tracks that I have visited, but I would say I have to go back to where it all started for me at Saratoga. The racetrack experience, the vibe, and the culture is like no other. I grew up going there and fell in love with the industry.

How about the breakout stallion of 2022?

Havana Grey (GB) was certainly impressive with his 2-year-olds this year.

If you could bring back one racetrack from the past, which one would it be and why?

I think it would be Hialeah Park in Florida during the glory days of Thoroughbred racing. I have heard industry mentors of mine talk about their experiences and what it was like. I would have loved to see it for myself.

As you know, we name 'TDN Rising Stars.' Which one(s) are you most looking forward to seeing run in 2023?

I am looking forward to seeing Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). I thought his Doncaster performance in the G1 Vertem Futurity Trophy S. was a step above and showed true class.

In the next 10 years, what do you think will be the most significant change when it comes to the bloodstock business in North America?

The online sales market is already proving itself. I think we will see exponential growth in this arena. Thus, we will see major impacts on the bloodstock industry, especially when it comes to buying on the private market for horses in training.

And finally, your favorite Thoroughbred of all-time is...?

My favorite horse would be Zenyatta. She gave so much to the sport and to the fan base. She was positive for the industry and touched so many hearts during her campaign.

SIENA FARM PLEDGES $5,000 ONE-DAY MATCH DEC. 17

As part of the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA)'s month-long Holiday Giving Campaign, Siena Farm has pledged to match all donations up to $5,000 made to the TAA Dec. 17. Siena Farm not only breeds and races Thoroughbreds--such as their syndicate ownership in undefeated 2022 GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Flightline--but excels within their endeavors to support the industry from all angles, including Thoroughbred aftercare. Now, the boutique breeding and racing farm seeks to invite fellow industry participants to match their donation to the TAA Holiday Giving Campaign.

"The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance plays a vital role through its accreditation of aftercare organizations and grants to safeguard the most vulnerable of our retired Thoroughbred racehorses and Siena Farm is very proud to participate in the TAA Holiday Giving Campaign," said Siena Farm President, David Pope. "We invite all industry participants to join us this holiday season and show your support to a great organization."

TAA's Holiday Giving Campaign commenced Nov. 29 and is scheduled to conclude New Year's Eve. Those wishing to support the TAA, its 81 accredited organizations, and thousands of retired Thoroughbreds can donate through the TAA's website or text DONATE to 56651. During the Holiday Giving Campaign, TAA is also offering donors the benefit of sending digital holiday cards to colleagues, friends, and loved ones.

WAGERING MARKETS COURSE INTERVIEWS TO BENEFIT TRF

In partnership with Mill Ridge Farm and In the Money Media Network, Marshall Gramm of Rhodes College will be releasing interviews from his "The Economics of Racetrack Wagering Markets" course to benefit the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. The 10 interviews, recorded in the spring of 2022, were conducted with handicappers, figure makers, horsemen and more to provide valuable insight into the sport of horse racing.

"I've never had a course before where I could reach out to knowledgeable experts to aid in helping my students more understand racing," Gramm said.

Sponsorship money collected from Mill Ridge Farm will be split between In the Money Media and their founding partners, the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation.

"It's great working with our friends at Mill Ridge who are committed to fostering the connection between the breeding side of business and horseplayers," said In the Money Media co-founder, Peter Thomas Fornatale. "It's also a pleasure to be partnered with Marshall, who in addition to his skills as a bettor and owner, is also a great interviewer. Though I do worry he'll put me out of a job."

Gramm's wide-ranging expertise of the racing industry has translated into him being the winner of the 2020 Breeders Cup Betting Challenge, co-founding the ownership group Ten Strike Racing, and being a board member of many industry organizations.

"There is not a more qualified instructor than a BCBC champion," Price Bell of Mill Ridge Farm said. "We have long admired the perspective Professor Marshall Gramm brings to our industry. We are excited to partner with him, In the Money Media, and TRF to share this exciting content."

NYTB, SUNY COBLESKILL LAUNCH THOROUGHBRED INDUSTRY COURSE

The New York Thoroughbred Breeders, Inc., and SUNY Cobleskill will team up to offer an accredited course for upper-class students in the Animal Science program to experience all aspects of the Thoroughbred breeding and racing industry. The pilot program will be offered to 15-20 junior undergraduate students that have met prerequisites.

The course, which runs from late August to early December, falls in line with the NYTB's goals to make outreach with students interested in equine studies and finding the next generation of the industry's workforce and leaders in racing and breeding. The program's goals are to introduce students to every aspect of the Thoroughbred breeding and racing industry via a consistent schedule of Zoom session and on-site visits.

The course's tentative schedule:

- August: Introduction to the racetrack and visits to the New York Racing Association administration offices and the National Museum of Racing in Saratoga Springs;
- October: Breeding and sales--via Zoom and attendance at NYTB's October seminar and Fasig-Tipton Saratoga October mixed sale;
- September: Racetrack in-depth backstretch visit at Saratoga Race Course and equine health visit via Zoom and at Rood & Riddle in Saratoga Springs;
- November: Breeding farm visit in person and via Zoom.

NYTB President Tom Gallo and SUNY Cobleskill Associate Professor in Animal Science Raymond Whelihan collaborated to develop the program.

"Giving them direct access and exposure to the multitude of jobs and careers in our industry. We are thankful to start this pilot program working with Ray Whelihan and SUNY Cobleskill," said Najja Thompson, Executive Director of the NYTB. "It has unlimited potential going forward in partnering with more schools in the future to help ensure a knowledgeable and dedicated workforce for the immediate future of Thoroughbred breeding and racing.”

SANTA TO MAKE EARLY VISIT TO SUNLAND PARK

Santa will make his annual pre-Christmas Eve visit to Sunland Park, as hundreds of area children will receive Christmas gifts as part of a giant toy giveaway organized by the El Paso County Sheriff's Posse. Santa and his Stagecoach will pull into the parking lot at Sunland Park Racetrack and Casino Saturday, Dec. 17 at 10:00 a.m.

More than 800 new toys are expected to be given away during the event to children selected by the local schools in Sunland Park, Santa Teresa, and La Union. The Christmas Toy Giveaway is a long-standing tradition of the Sheriff's Posse, who first began distributing toys to Sunland Park children during the 1960's. Over 1,100 toys will be given to children who might not otherwise have a present under the tree this Christmas through this program.

“Giving back to the community is a part of our workplace culture and we enjoy hosting the toy giveaway here,” said Mark Hettinger, General Manager at Sunland Park Racetrack and Casino.

SEIZE THE NIGHT (g, 3, Carpe Diem--Candle Maker, by Tapit), a debut winner at Churchill in May 2021 for Dallas Stewart, was a distant eighth in the GIII Sanford S. before going missing. A ring-rusty fifth sprinting in Louisville Nov. 17, the chestnut was stretching out to two turns and hit the ground running from the rail draw for Mickaëlle Michel. Allowed to bowl along at a decent clip, Seize the Night responded when set down and ran up the score through the final eighth of a mile. HIDDEN CONNECTION (f, 3, Connect--C J's Gal, by Awesome Again) was an early player on the Oaks Trail this year, breaking her maiden and taking the GIII Pocahontas S. in her first two starts by a combined 16 3/4 lengths. Fourth behind champion 2-year-old Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, she returned as a 3-year-old to be fourth again in the GII Rachel Alexandra S. and was just nosed out for the win in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks before trailing Secret Oath (Arrogate) home in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks. On the sidelines for six months after the start, Hidden Connection returned to be third most recently against optional claimers at Churchill Downs Nov. 13. The heavily bet 2-5 choice Friday, she stalked a leading pair from third and was patiently handled up the back straight. With a bold move at the top of the stretch, she split horses and was clear through the final eighth, winning under wraps by 7 1/2 lengths over 29-1 shot Itsfiftyshadestime (Not This Time). From the family of G1 Foxwoods King's Bishop S. winner Capo Bastone (Street Boss), Hidden Connection has a yearling half-sister named Lightning Myqueen (Palace Malice) and a weanling half-brother by Frosted still in the pipeline. COMMUNICATION MEMO (c, 2, Bolt d'Oro--Take a Memo, by Empire Maker), third in a pair of starts over 6 1/2 panels to begin his career--including behind 'TDN Rising Star' Victory Formation (Tapwrit) at Keeneland Oct. 21--completed a 1-2 finish for his red-hot leading freshman sire (by Medaglia d'Oro) behind Corona Bolt at Churchill Nov. 19 and was getting two turns for the first time Friday. Favored at 6-5--with just $263 more on his nose than second-timer Rocket And Roll (Bolt d'Oro), Communication Memo was outsprinted by Rocket And Roll to the backstretch, but he'd done some work to get there through an opening quarter in :22.83.

Communication Memo | Coady

Asked to come after the front-runner while three deep on the second turn, Communication Memo drew alongside Rocket And Roll in upper stretch, quickly got the better of that rival and strolled home a facile four-length victor, the 27th for Bolt d'Oro. A daughter of Grade II winner and four-times Grade I-placed Memorette (Memo {Chi}), Take a Memo is the dam of a yearling Gun Runner colt that sold for $375,000 at the 2022 Keeneland January Sale and foaled a full-sister to Communication Memo this term. CAWKAB (c, 3, Curlin--Catch the Moon, by Malibu Moon) endured a troubled trip last time out from gate 11 of 11 and was fourth going a mile at Churchill Downs Nov. 3. Rewarded with 6-5 favoritism off that effort, he got a pace-stalking trip in second in this first try around two turns and sat just off Order of Merit (Honor Code) through mild fractions of :24.08 and :49.27. Cawkab drew alongside to engage that leader just past the quarter pole and had more left, clearing off with a furlong to run and prevailing by 2 3/4 lengths over Andy Cant (Bernardini).

Cawkab | Coady Photography

Out of the prolific broodmare Catch the Moon, Cawkab is a half-brother to no less than Midnight Bourbon (Tiznow), GSW & MGISP-USA, G1SP-KSA, $3,557,970; Girvin (Tale of Ekati), GISW, $1,624,392; Pirate's Punch (Shanghai Bobby), GSW, $395,650; and Cocked and Loaded (Colonel John), GSW, $497,660. Her 2-year-old colt Weyhill Road (Quality Road), a $1.6-million Keeneland September grad, was fourth to 'TDN Rising Star' Victory Formation (Tapwrit) on Keeneland debut Oct. 12, and she was bred to leading sire Into Mischief for 2023. KOOL KATHMANDU (g, 2, Frosted--Fat Kat {SW, $423,318}, by Weigelia), third over this same surface and distance when first seen Nov. 6 but given only a 7-1 shot here, showed good speed from the outside gate to dictate the tempo from the break. Racing from the two path through an opening half in :46.97, he had plenty left in reserve to respond when asked past the quarter pole, drawing off under a hand ride before easing up close to home to win by 5 1/2 lengths. 24-1 longshot Fast Boat to Skye (Cairo Prince) filled out the exacta. Trying the slop for the first time as the even-money favorite, she was hard ridden to the front to lead with La Conquistadora (Nyquist) keeping pace to her outside. She kept on as that rival began to fade into the far turn and was much the best from the quarter pole on, pouring it on down the lane to win geared down by 14 1/2 lengths. Lavon (Paynter) closed from off the pace to be second. Silver Skillet has a yearling half-sister by Catalina Cruiser and a weanling half-sister by Honest Mischief still to race behind her. RAVELLA (f, 3, Liam's Map--Dancing Raven {MSW, $396,338}, by Tomahawk) became the third next-out winner from a 6 1/2-furlong Keeneland maiden Oct. 28 in which she finished a well-beaten sixth. Getting two turns for this second go, the 9-2 third favorite showed good gate speed and crossed all the way down to the two path into the first turn before poking her head in front turning down the back. Challenged by 80-1 Reverb (Ghostzapper) approaching the quarter pole, the half-sister to Breeze Rider (Paynter), MSW, $511,744, repelled that bid and kept on in the final furlong to take it by open lengths. The winner's dual stakes-winning dam, a half-sister to Canadian Horse of the Year Uncaptured (Lion Heart), was purchased for $50,000 by Arif Kurtel at Keeneland November in 2019 and produced the filly Winter Rain (Tur) in 2020. No longer under the radar at 3-5 Friday, he settled third as Big Data (Cloud Computing) set a mild tempo on the front end. Given a shake of the reins as the field entered the stretch, he rallied into the final eighth and took the length of the lane to get by, driving past Big Data in the final stages to win by a half-length. KANTHARI (c, 3, Kantharos--Ari the Adventurer, by Pioneer of the Nile), a $220,000 KEESEP yearling in 2020 and $575,000 OBS March grad the following spring, was given the 6-5 nod in his belated afternoon debut but chased the pace early in fourth. Allen Diggs set a determined tempo up front but Kanthari rallied with a three-wide move midway around the turn to get himself into contention despite contact with Cajun Puzzler (Cajun Breeze) at the top of the lane. Showing a good turn of foot on the grandstand side, he inhaled the leader passing the sixteenth pole and gained separation late, crossing the line a length ahead of Allen Diggs.

AMERICAN SIRES THROUGH A EUROPEAN LENS: PART II

Justify is one of the leading American-based freshman sires
Coolmore

By Nancy Sexton

Following the appraisal of some of the more established stallions in America who should be on the radar for European breeders, this second instalment looks at some of the younger horses coming through.

It can be argued that attempts to push the Galileo (Ire) sire-line in Kentucky were not as successful as anticipated, with Noble Mission (GB), brother of Frankel (GB), emerging the best of a group that included such major disappointments as Cape Blanco (Ire) and Magician (Ire). While Noble Mission now stands in Japan, his Grade I-winning son Code Of Honor ($7,500) is about to embark on his second season at Lane's End Farm in Kentucky.

The desire to establish the Galileo sire-line in the US was easy to comprehend, not just because of his championship stud career in Europe but in light of the success enjoyed by Sadler's Wells's son El Prado (Ire), whose sire-line has thrived via Medaglia d'Oro and Kitten's Joy.

Kitten's Joy's death earlier this year robbed turf-minded breeders of a tried and tested option, making the hunt for an heir suddenly all the more important. Cont. p3

NEW BREEZE-UP ALLIANCE OF HALPIN AND DAVIS ENJOYS EARLY SUCCESS AT DUNDALK

By Brian Sheerin

The spotlight was cast on the burgeoning breeze-up operation of jockeys Gary Halpin and Sean Davis, best known for riding winners rather than producing them, when their graduate Song For Whoever (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}) ran out an impressive winner of the opening six-furlong maiden at Dundalk on Friday evening.

Song For Whoever, who Halpin and Davis bought for €28,000 at the Goffs Sportsman's Sale last year before selling to Howson & Holdsworth Bloodstock for £42,000 at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale, was getting off the mark at the third attempt for trainer John O'Donoghue in the colours of Genesis Thoroughbreds.

Thankfully, he has a number of sons at stud and of those based in Kentucky with runners, much encouragement can be gleaned from the start made by Oscar Performance (Mill Ridge Farm: $20,000). A multiple Grade I winner who raced without Lasix, Oscar Performance's first crop of 2-year-olds includes a Grade II winner on turf in Andthefwinneris alongside a dirt stakes winner in Red Carpet Ready. A number of other representatives are bubbling under, as an overall group of six stakes horses attests, and he is poised to end the year as America's top turf sire of 2-year-olds, ahead of such proven names as More Than Ready and Kitten's Joy himself.

Next in line is Grade I scorer Divisidero (Airdrie Stud: $5,000), a seven-time winner over five seasons who possesses exactly the kind of hard-knocking profile that should be aspired to. He doesn't have numbers on his side but in his favour is an interesting pedigree that goes straight back to Almahmoud via Cosmah. The ingredients are there for him to surprise a few people.

Medaglia d'Oro's legacy has various horses working for it, not least Bolt d'Oro (Spendthrift Farm: $35,000), who is currently in a three-way battle for champion first-crop sire honours alongside Good Magic and Justify. Regardless of which way the championship goes, Bolt d'Oro emerges as one of the leaders of his generation however the figures are diced. While a tally of five stakes winners is bettered only by the six fired in by Justify and Good Magic, no horse can come close to his 14 black-type horses, which translates to a highly impressive figure of 18.4% to runners. Members of the stakes-winning quintet range from Instant Coffee, winner of the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., to Major Dude and Bobby O, successful in the GII Pilgrim S. and GIII With Anticipation S. on the turf, respectively. He has had just the one runner in Britain and Ireland but the colt in question is Bold Discovery, a winner on debut at Naas for Jessica Harrington who later ran third in the G3 Killavullan S. With his stock also attracting the attention of the European pinhookers, expect to see more of his progeny over here in due course.

In the meantime, it will be interesting to see how Medaglia d'Oro's Grade II-winning son Enticed (Jonabell Farm: $5,000), who stands alongside his sire at Darley, fares with his first

2-year-olds next season.

"DIVISIDERO, A SEVEN-TIME WINNER
OVER FIVE SEASONS, POSSESSES EXACTLY THE KIND OF HARD-KNOCKING PROFILE THAT SHOULD BE ASPIRED TO."

Nancy Sexton

Justifying the hype

As with American Pharoah, fellow Triple Crown winner Justify (Ashford Stud: $100,000) has been afforded chances with a number of high-performing grass mares, many of them daughters of Galileo (Ire) belonging to the Coolmore broodmare band. Cont. p4

The bulk of his representation has naturally been in America, where he is the sire of four stakes winners to date, all on dirt. But that push to have him well represented in Europe is also paying off. Ballydoyle, for instance, houses the G2 Balanchine S. winner Statuette as well as the promising maiden winners Dame Kiri and Bertinelli. The Fozzy Stack-trained Aspen Grove (Ire) also won the G3 Flame Of Tara S.

One of Scat Daddy's most effective weapons was his ability to work internationally and although it is early days, Justify is following that example, with a flurry of recent Japanese winners to add to his early success in America and Europe. A total of 28 winners and six black-type winners is an excellent start by any measure. But don't forget, Justify is a big horse who didn't make his debut until February of his 3-year-old year. It stands to reason that his progeny will continue to improve.

Fellow Scat Daddy stallion Mendelssohn (Ashford Stud: $25,000) is another who has not lacked for opportunity, with the combination of a Grade I race record, a $3-million yearling price tag, and having Into Mischief as a half-brother key in attracting 252 mares in his first book and another 242 in his second. Mendelssohn was an accomplished 2-year-old on turf for Aidan O'Brien so it's surprising that so few made back it to Europe this season (only four runners in Europe so far), although the handful to hit the track did include Ballydoyle's listed-placed colt Congo River. He is one of six stakes horses for Mendelssohn in a group led by the GII Jessamine S. winner Delight.

Of those with first 2-year-olds, Grade I turf winner Funtastic (Three Chimneys Farm: $5,000)--a relation to Gun Runner no less--might not have the numbers behind him but his trio of winners do at least include the Grade III-placed First Peace.

Next in line is Catholic Boy (Claiborne Farm: $15,000), a horse of rare versatility who won the GI Travers S. on dirt and GI Belmont Derby Invitational S. on turf. Also precocious enough to win the GII Remsen S. and GIII With Anticipation S. at two, he has around 110 2-year-olds to run for him in 2023, among them a handful bought to breeze in Europe. It doesn't take too much imagination to envisage him filling the void left by More Than Ready as an effective sire on both sides of the Atlantic.

And perhaps Yoshida (Jpn) (WinStar Farm: $10,000), the sole son of Heart's Cry (Jpn) at stud in North America and Europe, will prove capable of laying the foundations for the Sunday Silence line to take root back in Kentucky. Like Catholic Boy, he was top class on both turf and dirt, in his case as winner of the GI Woodward S. and GI Old Forester Turf Classic S., and has been deservedly well supported, with over 100 2-year-olds set to run for him bred off a first-year fee of $20,000. He boasts all the attributes to be effective over here and with several having headed this way, it will be fascinating to see how he gets on.

Of the other Hail To Reason-line horses, the first yearlings by the Arch horse Preservationist (Airdrie Stud: $10,000) generated plenty of positive chatter, selling for up to $280,000. A series of setbacks prevented him from running until he was four, making it harder to gauge how much precocity he might be capable of imparting, but once he got going, he progressed to land the GI Woodward S. If he remains true to the Arch sire-line, then a number of his progeny will also be effective on turf.

Fans of the Arch line also have his final Grade I winner Instilled Regard (Taylor Made Stallions: $7,500) to choose from. A $1.05 million 2-year-old in training purchase, he was capable of performing to a high level on both surfaces, running Grade I-placed as a 2-year-old on dirt before winning the GI Manhattan S. as an older horse on turf. All in all, this is the kind of profile--longevity and versatility--that served the Roberto sire-line so well for so long. He stands for just $7,500 but does have the backing of his owner, Larry Best of OXO Equine.

Accomplished War Fronts

There are also several War Front horses waiting in the wings including Omaha Beach (Spendthrift Farm: $30,000), his sire's most accomplished dirt horse whose Grade I victories ranged from the Santa Anita Sprint Championship over six furlongs to the Arkansas Derby over nine. He represents a highly appealing package as a seriously talented, well-bred horse with the backing of some powerful connections and the market liked what it saw from his first yearlings, as illustrated by an average close to $200,000. He will be one of the favourites to end 2023 as a leading US first-crop sire but with that War Front connection, he is also worth bearing in mind from a turf perspective too.

The first foals by War Of Will (Claiborne Farm: $15,000) were well received at the winter breeding stock sales, selling for an average of $102,762. This is just the type of horse who should be capable of appealing to a worldwide audience, primarily in light of a race record that included the GI Preakness S. on dirt and GI Maker's Mark Mile on turf. Also Grade I-placed at two on turf, he was a graduate of the Arqana May Breeze-Up Sale and hails from a noted Niarchos family (he is out of a Sadler's Wells half-sister to Spinning World) that has worked well in different parts of the world. Given his own history as an accomplished European breezer, his first yearlings will likely catch the attention of that pinhooking community next autumn.

As far as pedigree goes, they don't come much better bred than Lost Treasure (Ire) (Hill 'n' Dale Farm: $3,500), a stakes-placed War Front son of G2 Rockfel S. winner Wading (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), herself a granddaughter of Urban Sea (Miswaki). Cont. p6

He doesn't have huge numbers on his side but his first yearlings sold for up to $65,000 and should he possess even a small measure of the sire talent of his relatives, then a fee of $3,500 could come to look very good value.

For all the chat of American-sired horses, however, sometimes it pays just to not overcomplicate matters. To that end, there are two Peter Brant-owned horses standing in Kentucky with strong European connections.

Demarchelier (GB) (Claiborne Farm: $5,000)) is a beautifully-bred son of Dubawi (Ire) who cost 425,000gns as a Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling. He looked to have the world at his feet when winning his first three starts, including the GIII Pennine Ridge S., before an injury suffered in the GI Belmont Derby Invitational S. brought his career to an immediate halt. The fact that Brant and Claiborne Farm elected to give him a chance at stud is surely testament to his ability--indeed, Brant has supported him strongly and the resulting foals are likely to be in the hands of some high-profile trainers. He's an intriguing prospect, especially at $5,000.

Gainesway Farm, meanwhile, is home to Raging Bull (Fr), a Wildenstein-bred son of Dark Angel (Ire) who stands for $10,000. The horse is in fact arguably the most accomplished son of his sire at stud anywhere in the world given he won three Grade I races at three to six years--namely the Hollywood Derby, Shoemaker Mile and Maker's Mark Mile. Another well supported by Brant, mares in foal to him realised $360,000 and $230,000 at the Keeneland November Sale. The lots in question, Editor At Large (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Isle Of Wight (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), were both snapped up by Denis Brosnan's Epona Bloodstock. Gainesway has long fared well out of standing turf milers and Raging Bull has been given every chance by connections to be the next in line.

Although he was consigned by Tally-Ho Stud at the Goffs UK Breeze-up Sale, Song For Whoever was sourced and produced by the riders, who will be consigning under the name GS Bloodstock from their new base at Ulundi Lodge on the Curragh next year.

A delighted Halpin said on Friday evening, "We bought him at the Sportsman's Sale under Rushway Stables for €28,000. We were looking for something that could breeze and he looked sharp enough to do that. We had him on our list and Roger O'Callaghan, who we have worked closely with for a number of years, had seen him as well. It was a help that he liked him."

He added, "I prepped him at Kevin Prendergast's yard in Friarstown on the Curragh. He was there all winter and did most of his early work while I was riding out in Kevin's and he went from there to Doncaster where he sold to Matt Holdsworth for Noel Hayes. We were very fortunate that Tally-Ho were happy to consign him for us.

"He was actually popular enough to a point at the sales. George Boughey and Mark McStay had a go on him. I think George was the underbidder and I'm pretty sure that Mark was on him for a long while as well. The right people were interested in him, thankfully."

Halpin enjoyed his best ever season as a rider in 2016 when partnering 36 winners domestically while his biggest success came aboard the Ross O'Sullivan-trained Rocky Sky (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) in the Listed Salsibil S. at Naas last term.

Davis has returned to Ireland after a successful spell in Britain, where he rode 56 winners in 2019, and alongside Halpin, will continue to ride whilst preparing the breezers. Cont. p7

However, the name Halpin will not be seen on a racecard anytime soon, with Friday's victory proving a timely tonic for the man sidelined with a fractured jaw.

He explained, "We've 11 in at the moment but there are a few more due back to us in the next few days and we will add another one or two in January. We are looking at having around 15 2-year-olds to breeze next year.

"Sean and I will consign under GS Bloodstock next year. It's exciting. Especially now that everything is cantering and broken in, we can see them progress. Unfortunately, I'm not riding them myself at the minute because I'm out of action with a fractured jaw, but I'm getting to see plenty on the ground.

"I think we've amassed a bunch of horses who are going to get to a good level. The Inns Of Court (Ire) colt that we bought at Doncaster has had three updates since we got him. He's now a half-brother to Believing (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), who has done really well to be multiple stakes-placed for George Boughey and Highclere Thoroughbreds.

"She's one we'll be keeping a close eye on next year. Mick Fitzpatrick sold her for 115,000gns at the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale in April so, all things being equal, we'd be hoping to get our own lad to the Craven safe and sound."

On the rest of the breeze-up battalion, he added, "We've a lovely Cotai Glory (GB) colt who we gave €65,000 for at Tattersalls Ireland. He was consigned by Tally-Ho and is out of a half-sister to Fairyland (Ire). He's going to be exciting.

"We've been sent a Kodiak (GB) filly who's out of a half-sister to [G1] Middle Park S. winner Supremacy (Ire) and there's a nice Dandy Man (Ire) colt from the family of Slade Power (Ire). We've a nice bunch and there's a couple of others there as well."

Asked how riding winners compares with producing them, Halpin said, "It's totally different. It's a different feeling altogether. Your judgment is on the line--you are telling people what you think the horses can do and it's important that they back you up. As a jockey, your judgment has to be right when you ride a horse work or ride it in a race, your feedback has to be good. This is a little bit more added pressure. It's a different sort of pressure."

12 QUESTIONS

With Chris Richardson, Managing Director, Cheveley Park Stud

What was your first job in the Thoroughbred industry?

It was a school holiday job opportunity, after a family Christmas at home in Northumberland, when my brother, Tim, suggested I might like to come back to France with him and spend a few weeks working at the Haras de La Verrerie in Normandy where he was the manager. My parents thought this was an excellent idea as it would help me with my French, so one snowy morning we set off in Tim's Mini Cooper and slithered our way over the snowy hills of Northumberland to France.

The biggest influence on your career?

The stallion Nureyev, Sir Philip Payne-Gallwey and my brother, Tim, who, in 1980, when I was working at Claiborne Farm in Paris, Kentucky, called to ask me to return to France to look after Nureyev upon his retirement from racing. He stood at Haras de Fresnay Le Buffard for one season, before going to stand at Johnny Jones's Walmac Farm in Kentucky. Tim gave me a wonderful opportunity, the result of which allowed me to meet my wife Annie and then, thanks to Sir Philip, I ended up managing Spring Oak Farm (Oak Tree Farm) in Lexington, Kentucky.

Chris Richardson | Racingfotos.com

Favourite racehorse of all time, and why?

Nijinsky most impressed me winning the Derby in 1970 and then to have helped out and been around him during my time at Claiborne in 1980 was so very special.

Who will be champion first-season sire in 2023?

I would love to see Cheveley Park Stud-bred Advertise be champion first-season sire, as I feel he ticks all the boxes on pedigree and performance having won three Group 1 races.

Greatest race in the world?

Having been involved with several owner-breeders who have mostly bred fillies to race, the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe would be the race for me, as it usually brings the best colts and fillies together to crown the racing year in Europe.

If you could be someone else in the industry for a day who would it be, and why?

Edmond Mahony, as I would love to know the inner workings of the hugely successful Tattersalls Limited Auction House.

Emerging talent in the industry (human)?

It is wonderful to see so many young trainers and agents getting involved in the industry and I feel the next generation are coming to the fore. I think Sam Haggas will prove a great innovator in the business.

Horse TDN should have made a Rising Star, and didn't?

Triple Group 1 winner Inspiral.

Under-the-radar stallion?

Of course, I have to say Ulysses, who is beautifully bred and who has really started his stallion career tremendously well having had Classic-placed Piz Badile, winner of the G3 Ballysax S., and runner-up in the G1 Irish Derby. In addition, Cheveley Park Stud's homebred Holloway Boy winning first time out in the Chesham S. at Royal Ascot for his connections proved Ulysses can get smart 2-year-olds as well as Classic prospects.

Friday night treat?

A quiet supper for two at Sticks 'n' Sushi before a West End show.

Guilty pleasure outside of racing?

Fly fishing for trout when the mayfly are hatching with my trusty 9' CC de France split cane fly rod.

Race I wish I had been there for...

The Cheltenham Gold Cup when A Plus Tard won this year. I could not believe I lost my voice and then tested positive to Covid-19 on the Monday morning of Cheltenham week.

EUROPEAN NEWS

BHA WILL REVIEW WHIP RULES ONCE AGAIN AFTER ADDITIONAL CONCERNS RAISED

Additional discussions are being held to address the issues that surround the new UK whip rules, which are due to begin on Jan. 9, 2023 for National Hunt racing, with a four-week "bedding-in" period, the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) announced on Friday evening.

Under the new rules, winning horses face disqualification if their jockey does not follow the new regulations. It has been agreed that to address concerns regarding the impact of potential disqualification of runners on raceday for betting purposes, any potential decisions regarding disqualification will now be made by the whip review committee away from raceday, and will therefore not affect the outcome of a race for betting purposes.

The "bedding-in" period allows jockeys to ride without being subject to the new sanctions. Beginning on Feb. 6, the new rules begin. For Flat racing, the "bedding-in" period begins on Feb. 27, with full implementation of the rules due to start on Mar. 27. Under the revised rules, a jump jockey who uses their whip 12 or more times--with 11 strikes or more for Flat jockeys--in any race could be disqualified. In addition, if the races are Class 1 or Class 2 races under both codes, as well as any race worth £27,500 on the Flat or £20,000 over jumps, the jockey also faces a potential 28-day ban.

Some leeway may be allowed if it is deemed riders were using their whip in the interests of safety or if it has been used down the shoulder with both hands on the reins. It has also now been decided that, should they wish, Flat jockeys may use the jump version of the whip--which has a longer padded section--in response to concerns raised by some jockeys regarding the use of the whip in the backhand-only and the risk of landing it in the incorrect place.

It is understood further representations made to the British Horseracing Authority include concerns over the backhand-only rule.

A spokesperson for the BHA said, "The BHA has always understood the challenges involved in any review of the use of the whip in horse racing." Cont. p9

They added, "From the moment we launched a consultation in July 2021 we constantly engaged with all interested parties, especially jockeys and their representatives, to ensure we listened to the views of those most affected.

"It was because of that readiness to engage that we agreed to extend the initial timescales for implementation of new rules beyond autumn 2022, allowing as many people as possible to influence and shape the technical discussion phase.

"In the past few days, however, further representations have been made to the BHA, including some themes which were not raised as part of the initial consultation or technical discussions.

"In light of this latest information, the BHA and the chair of the Whip Consultation Steering Group have agreed to continue dialogue to explore options that address the concerns being raised, while still delivering our core objective of a more considered and judicious use of the whip for encouragement, and improved perception of whip use.

"It is right that those discussions are allowed to take place away from the glare of publicity but we will look to provide an update as soon as possible in light of the existing timelines for the 'soft launch' of revised rules on Jan. 9, 2023."

COLTS VYING FOR JUST DESSERTS IN ASAHI

HAI FUTURITY by Heather Anderson

Rated 109, just like fellow group winners Dolce More (Jpn) (Jpn) and Obamburumai (Jpn) (Discreet Cat), All Parfait (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) is one of the more fancied runners as 17 colts line up for the 1600-metre G1 Asahi Hai Futurity S. at Hanshin on Sunday. Leaving from post three, the Ryoichi Endo homebred has won his past two starts, after running second in a Tokyo maiden in June. Resuming over this trip in a maiden at Nakayama on Oct. 2, he won by two lengths, prior to defeating Danon Touchdown (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {GB}) by a half-length over this course and distance in the G2 Daily Hai Nisai S. on Nov. 12.

Takuya Ono has ridden the horse in all his races and said, "He's coming along nicely, but he has to transport over to the track, so I don't want to overdo things with him. He found a good rhythm in the race last time after starting from a wide gate, and was strong in the finish."

Undefeated in two starts--a Sapporo newcomer affair in August, and besting Granite (Jpn) (Danon Ballade {Jpn}) by 1 1/4 lengths in Tokyo's G3 Saudi Arabia Royal Cup on Oct. 8, Dolce More has been pleasing trainer Naosuke Sugai in his gallops.

"He has been training well, and while he's not one to really catch the eye, he's done enough work and looks fine," said Sugai. "In his final work, checking his rhythm was more important than his time, and his breathing's been good. He has gained some weight, but that's him developing and it should help him in a race. He ran right-handed in his first race and I'm not worried about it being his first time at the course this time. He doesn't have any bad habits and he's quite a serious horse that can race well, so I don't have any worries with him and hope he can run a good race." Cont. p13

Last year's champion sire in Britain and Ireland, and this term's European champion sire elect, Frankel (GB) has a pair of colts entered to build on his earlier Japanese successes in the winners Labeling (GB) and Tinia (Ire). Three of Frankel's four stakes winners in the Land of the Rising Sun are Group 1 scorers, with 2020 hero Grenadier Guards (Jpn) holding the stakes record for this race in a snappy 1:32.30. In addition, his Soul Stirring (Jpn) won the G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies--the filly equivalent--as his very first top-level winner back in 2016, the first year the Juddmonte supremo had runners.

Trainer Yuichi Shikato commented on the prospects of Labeling, "There hasn't been long between races, but he's in very good shape. He ran a good race last time, and with the ability he seems to have, I'll look forward to things from now."

Bolt d'Oro, who is an excruciatingly close three-way battle with Justify and Good Magic for leading freshman sire Stateside, is represented by $200,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $900,000 OBS March juvenile From Dusk. The progressive colt was second by a length in the G2 Keio Hai Nisai S. to the 109-rated Obamburumai on Nov. 5.
