

APPRENTICE JOCKEY MADISON OLVER OFF TO PROMISING START

Madison Olver in the Aqueduct winner's circle | Coglianesse

by Sara Gordon

Despite the layers of cold water and powder coating her from head to toe, nothing could mask apprentice jockey Madison Olver's bright smile following her first career victory aboard Curbstone (Street Sense) in the sixth race at Aqueduct on Dec. 9, 2022.

It was a surreal moment for the 23-year-old, who just five and a half years prior had never even witnessed a horse race, let alone set foot on the backside of a racetrack or exercised a racehorse.

A native of Fort Collins, Colo., Olver was bit by the 'horse bug' early on as she followed in the footsteps of her equestrian mother Christine.

Olver picked up riding and later began teaching riding lessons to younger students, before delving into breaking and training wild mustangs.

After high school, she set out to take her love of horses one step further, which led to Olver's aunt introducing her niece to French racehorse trainer Gina Rarick. Though France would appear to be an extremely far-off base for someone stateside to begin their venture into the world of horse racing, it was a homecoming of sorts for Olver, who had spent part of her childhood living in the country and was fluent in the language.

After a three-month stint in the fall of 2017, Olver was hooked. She returned to France in late 2018, eventually spending two more years there to soak up every experience she possibly could.

"I saw some accidents happen when I was out there and I realized I hadn't quite grasped just how dangerous it could be. The horses take on a whole new meaning of strong, and unless you've been run away with by a racehorse, you don't really know what getting run away with is. That was a whole new game, trying to keep a horse slow, especially when you're behind other horses," recalled Olver. "Their speed, when you let them go, it's just not something that a horse that isn't bred or trained to do would be able to do. Sometimes you just have to hang on for the ride."

Though it was daunting at first, and the learning curve was steep, Olver knew she had found where she was meant to be: on the back of a racehorse.

"I definitely wanted to [pursue being a jockey in France], but unfortunately Covid happened and I had a little bit of visa trouble that was exacerbated by Covid, so I ended up coming back over here. But everything happens for a reason," said Olver.

Eager to get going again stateside, while also working on finishing her degree at Colorado State University, Olver began her search for a new stable to ride for. It led her to none other than multiple Grade I-winning trainer Christophe Clement.

"I was missing France. I love the French and their style of training, and I speak French, so that part really stood out to me. I reached out to them, sent my resume, and they got back to me. They were easily some of the most professional, well-spoken, generous people I'd gotten into contact with on the racetrack," said Olver. "They flew me out to Florida for a week to do kind of like a trial, and then we talked about where I'd like to go, either Belmont Park or Saratoga for the summer. But they made it very clear that I needed to graduate college before I started working with the racehorses again."

She did just that, graduating in May of 2021, and headed off to the Clement barn at the Oklahoma Training Track in Saratoga Springs, N.Y., soon thereafter.

"When I showed up to the barn the first day, Christophe goes, 'Okay, did you graduate?' I said, 'Yes, don't worry.'"

As soon as she arrived, Olver got straight to work. Proving her dedication day in and day out aboard many of the promising youngsters that resided in the barn, she quickly worked her way up to become one of Clement's head exercise riders. It was there the young rider formed a special bond with Waterville

Lake Stables' homebred filly Derrynane (Quality Road).

"I rode her when she was a 2-year-old and hadn't run yet, and I had just gotten to Saratoga and I was basically a 2-year-old that hadn't run yet, so we learned a lot of things together. She was my first breeze out of the gate here in America, first breeze on the main track at Saratoga, she was my first for a lot of things. Then she went to the Breeders' Cup that year and ran phenomenally," said Olver.

That summer, Derrynane broke her maiden on debut at Saratoga, later won the Woodbine Cares Stakes and went on to finish fourth in the GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint at Del Mar, just a length behind winner Twilight Gleaming (Ire) (National Defense {GB}).

"She was also very, very kind. I have her name on my keychain. I felt like her and I were in a little bit of the same place. She's always just been special to me."

After nearly a year and a half of working and riding in the mornings for the Clement barn, Olver was ready to take her skill set to the track in the afternoon, officially beginning her career as an apprentice jockey. Under the guidance of her agent Joe Migliore, who Olver was introduced to by Clement's son and assistant trainer, Miguel, she made her career debut aboard Flattering Gal (Flatter) in the sixth race on the Nov. 12 card at Aqueduct.

Guiding the filly three, then two wide around the final turn, Olver and Flattering Gal made up ground along the rail to finish third in the 6-furlong, $25,000 maiden claimer.

"When it was going on, it felt very purposeful, like this is what I had been waiting for and afterwards, it all felt surreal that I actually got the opportunity to do it. I was pretty speechless afterwards," she said.

And less than a month later, in her 16th career start, Olver and her mount Curbstone crossed the finish line 6 1/2 lengths ahead of runner-up Complete Agenda (Curlin). It was the first win for Olver and the second for the Tom Morley-trained gelding.

"It's pretty emotional. If you had told me really not that long ago that I'd get to ride a race, much less win a race, or even continue to have opportunities, [I don't know] that I really would have believed you. I'm very full of gratitude for all of the people that have been willing to help me, just because they're kind and because they want to see people succeed in this sport, [especially] young people," said Olver.

An extremely gracious young woman, Olver gives all of the credit to those who have supported her along the way, headlined by her standout mentors.

"Miguel really has been my biggest supporter and kept me on this path, even when I found it difficult, thought about going to another track or questioned my own abilities. He also entrusted me with a lot of horses in the morning and there's no better way to learn than on a horse," she said. "The Clements got me into contact with Joe, who's really been wonderful. He fights for me and he plays a massive part in any success I may have. He knows what's going on, he has an eye for it. And [Joe's father] Richard Migliore's whole philosophy on riding is really wonderful, [emphasizing] how you can be both an assertive rider that wins but also be a horseman. He's very adamant that race riding is an art form, which I think is really cool."

Despite the intense competition that takes place on the track in the afternoons, amplified amongst the talented jockey colony that resides at Aqueduct, Olver is proud to share her admiration for her fellow jockeys, riders and the trainers that she's gotten to know and learn from in the last couple of months. Trainers such as Orlando Noda, Morley, Antonio Arriaga, Oscar Barrera, III and James Ferraro were some of the first to back Olver, but the list has only grown and continues to do so.

"I really love being able to go to a bunch of different barns and ride a bunch of different horses for a bunch of different people. I've learned so much already just from going around and talking to everyone. You can learn something from everybody and all of those different horses."

With 46 starts under her belt as of Jan. 6, and four more rides already lined up through Saturday at Aqueduct, Olver boasts a record of two wins, nine seconds and nine third-place finishes, with earnings nearing $190,000.

From her home in Colorado, to the training tracks in France and Saratoga, to Aqueduct's 1 1/8-mile oval, Olver has not only forged her own unique path into the industry, but also continues the legacy of the brilliant female exercise riders and jockeys that came before her.

Her advice to others trying to get in the game? "Everybody deserves a chance to try and the most important thing that I have learned is that it's going to be the people in your corner that are going to help you the most. If it's something that you want to get into, first of all do it, because you can, and listen to what everybody has to say - every hotwalker, every groom, every trainer, every rider, every jockey - because they all have something to teach you. If they're telling you something, it's because they want to see you do well and they want to see you succeed and that's a really cool thing. This industry can be such a rollercoaster of highs and lows, but if you have those lows, don't worry, because there's another high just around the corner."

Despite the industrywide attention she's garnered, which is only bound to grow, Olver remains humble and hopeful.

"I'm going to see where this ride takes me here. To be honest, I don't even know what I'm doing the following week, so I'm just going to kind of play it by ear, not get my heart set too much on anything," she said. "My biggest priorities are to love what I'm doing and hopefully have some success while I do it."

NYRA REGISTERS ALL-SOURCES HANDLE OF $2.32 BILLION IN 2022

Saratoga | Horsephotos

The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) generated all-sources handle of $2,321,863,828 during its 2022 race meets conducted at Aqueduct Racetrack, Belmont Park and Saratoga Race Course. The year was highlighted by the summer meet at Saratoga Race Course where all-sources wagering rose to a record $878,211,963 in 2022, eclipsing the previous high-water mark by nearly 8%. In addition, the 2022 summer meet generated average daily handle of $21,955,299, which is the highest such figure in the history of Saratoga.

On-track handle in 2022, which includes New York residents wagering through NYRA Bets, totaled $291,438,542, 9.2% higher than the 2021 total of $266,978,634.

Inclement weather forced the cancellation of six race days in 2022. As a result, NYRA conducted 196 live race days with average daily handle of $11,846,244.

Average field size for the 1,855 races contested in 2022 was 7.48, a 2.6% decrease from 2021.

ONTARIO RACING'S HORSE OWNERSHIP 101 SESSIONS WORK THEIR MAGIC

Renata and her filly by World of Trouble | Colin Davis

Edited Press Release

Purchasing two in-foal broodmares at the 2022 Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale doubled the size of Apricot Valley Thoroughbreds' broodmare band. The mares Tiptoe and Turning Point were the latest step in Colin Davis's methodical entrance into the racing game. Davis, a resident of Cobourg, Ont., is new to racehorse breeding and ownership, but familiar with the equine stars of the sport. Growing up, he attended races at Kawartha Downs and in the last decade has owned multiple off-track Thoroughbreds. As Davis went looking for more information on the racing industry, he found Ontario Racing's Horse Ownership 101 Sessions. An initial meeting with Elissa Blowe provided clarity on what style of ownership matched his vision. Blowe connected Davis to leading bloodstock agent Marette Farrell, and he headed to the Bluegrass State for the 2021 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

Davis spent four days, "pounding the pavement" with Farrell and left Kentucky with two mares purchased through Ontario Racing's Mare Purchase Program (MPP), a component of the Thoroughbred Improvement Program. When purchasing in-foal mares at recognized public auctions outside of the province, Ontario residents can apply for an incentive totaling half the purchase price, to a maximum of $25,000 per mare and $75,000 annually per person or partnership. The two mares Davis purchased in 2022 were also supported by the MPP.

"(The MPP) has been instrumental," said Davis. "The first year I would have started with one mare, and then went to two. Each year you try and get an economy of scale, but it just sets you back because it's the same leg work, and the same expenses but no efficiencies."

The program allowed Davis to target quality by stepping up to the price point where he and Farrell could purchase mares by proven broodmare sires. Tiptoe is by Tiz Wonderful the broodmare sire of 2022 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Wonder Wheel and Turning Point is by Hard Spun. In 2021, he brought home Johansson by Pioneer of the Nile and Renata by Medaglia d'Oro.

In addition to his burgeoning band of broodmares, Davis has dipped his toes into racehorse ownership. He connected with Sovereign Award-winning trainer Catherine Day Phillips and is a partner in three horses. One of them, an Ontario Bred filly named Millie Girl, made her racing debut July 16, and won at Woodbine. The Davis family, Colin, his wife, and their two daughters Josephine and Felicity, made their way to the winner's circle.

"It's a different world, with a lot to learn once you get into it," said Davis. "But if you can bridge that gap, it will help people get in the door, because once you're through that door, it is a lot of fun."

MSW KUDOS PASSES AWAY AT OLD FRIENDS

Kudos at Old Friends | Rick Capone

Kudos, a MSW gelding, died on Wednesday, Jan. 4, 2023, at Old Friends Thoroughbred retirement farm in Georgetown, Ky., announced president and founder Michael Blown.

The 26-year-old bay Thoroughbred (Kris S.--Souq, by Damascus) was found dead in his paddock during late-afternoon feeding. A reason for his death is unknown at this time. Necropsy results are pending to get an accurate cause of death.

Bred and owned by longtime Old Friends supporters, Jerry and Ann Moss, Kudos was foaled in Kentucky on Apr. 17, 1997.

Trained by Richard Mandella his entire career, Kudos began racing in 1999, but did not win his first race until his eighth career start as a 4-year-old in a maiden special weight race at Santa Anita on Mar. 17, 2001. He then won his next three consecutive races, two allowance races and the Jim Murray Memorial H. at Hollywood Park for his first stakes victory.

In 2002, he won two more stakes races--the San Marino H. at Santa Anita, and the GI Oaklawn H., which was his first-graded stakes win and the biggest win of his career. In that race, he came back from 15 lengths to win by 4 3/4 lengths.

As a 6-year-old in 2003, he won the GII Californian S., while finishing second in the GII San Pasqual H., and third in the GI Santa Anita H., the GI Oaklawn H., the race he won the previous year, and the GI Hollywood Gold Cup, his final race.

Kudos retired with seven wins, five seconds, four thirds, and $1,238,935 in earnings in 24 career starts. In 2006, the Mosses donated Kudos to Old Friends for his retirement. He was the second horse they retired to Old Friends; the first was Ruhlmann.

"Kudos was one of our first stars and enchanted us for nearly 17 years," said Blown. "He was a great symbol of our growth. I can't thank Jerry and Ann and (racing manager) Dottie Ingordo-Shirreffs enough for allowing us to spend all this time with their treasure."

KEENELAND ANNOUNCES RECORD SPRING STAKES SCHEDULE

Keeneland will award a season record $8.05 million for 19 stakes to be run during its 2023 Spring Meet, which will cover 15 days from Apr. 7-28.

Two focal points on the schedule will be the 99th running of the $1 million GI Toyota Blue Grass and 86th running of the $600,000 GI Central Bank Ashland, both major targets of the nation's top 3-year-olds.

Keeneland has increased the purses of two Grade I stakes for older females--the GI Madison and the GI Jenny Wiley--by $100,000 apiece to $600,000 and has raised the purses of three listed stakes--the FanDuel Limestone, the Giant's Causeway and the Palisades--by $50,000 each to $250,000. Fifteen stakes are graded, with the GII Beaumont Presented by Keeneland Select featuring an upgrade for 2023.

Contributing to the Spring Meet stakes purses is a total of $1.5 million available from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund (KTDF), pending approval from the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission.

Keeneland Paddock | Coady Photography

"Keeneland enjoyed arguably its most successful racing year ever in 2022, thanks to a stellar lineup of equine stars and racing stables competing for record purses and the historic wagering that followed at the Spring and Fall Meets and the popularity of hosting our third Breeders' Cup World Championships," Keeneland Vice President of Racing Gatewood Bell said.

"We are grateful for the interest in Keeneland racing from our horsemen, horseplayers and fans, and their enthusiasm creates momentum for the future. We are excited to further strengthen this year's Spring Meet stakes schedule so purses of all Grade I races are at least $600,000, while all Grade II races are a minimum of $350,000 and all Grade III events are a minimum of $300,000."

stable at Gulfstream Park Jan. 29 and lacked the needed kick to finish the job, finishing fourth. After a break, he graduated going a mile on the Derby undercard with a 1 3/4-length victory. Freshened since and transferred to trainer Rodolphe Brisset, he was facing more-experienced runners in this spot. The 4-1 shot was off slowly and raced at the back of the field as favored Mister Mmmmm (Speightster) clocked an opening quarter in :21.92. Congressman voted to make his move as the half went in :45.24. Ratcheting up the pressure, the $275,000 KEESEP yearling made a five-wide move full of energy en route to a neck victory over Ultimate (Speightstown). Congressman has a 2-year-old half-sister by Distorted Humor and his dam was bred to Constitution's son Independence Hall for this year. Purchase History: $275,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. IN ORDER OF PURSE:

1st-Aqueduct, $80,000, Msw, 1-6, 3yo, 6f, 1:12.35, sy, 2 1/2 lengths.

UNCORRELATED (c, 3, Arrogate--Harlan's Romance {SP}, by Harlan's Holiday), favored at 2-1 from the rail on debut here, vied for command during the very early stages, then backed off into fourth. He moved through an opening along the rail to regain the lead on the far turn, hit the quarter pole as the one to catch and kept finding in the stretch to graduate by 2 1/2 lengths over Register (Super Saver). The winner's dam is also represented by a Candy Ride (Arg) filly of 2021 and a Constitution colt of 2022. She was bred to Essential Quality for 2023. Sales history: $170,000 Ylg '21 FTSAUG. FROZEN SOLID (f, 4, Frosted--Solid Appeal {Ch. Grass Mare-Can, MGSW-Can, GSP-USA, $583,721}, by Successful Appeal), not seen since last March at the Championship Meet, broke through at fourth asking here. She was ninth on debut last Jan. 9, then faded to fourth going seven furlongs Jan. 30. Switching to turf, she was a distant second most recently Mar. 13. Off at odds of 5-1 off the layoff here, the Hill homebred settled just behind a pair of speed horses down the backstretch, which included favored Plaisante (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}). Running into fractions of :22.54 and :45.23, Frozen Solid swept past the leaders on the outside and won by 3/4 of a length over a late-charging Little Jewel (Liam's Map). The winner's dam was a two-time winner of the GII Nassau S. at Woodbine. She produced a colt named Emperor's Appeal (Empire Maker) in 2020 and a colt by West Coast in 2022. Solid Appeal was bred back to Twirling Candy. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-0, $55,780. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

COFFEE IN BED (f, 3, Curlin--Sumptuous {MSP, $105,245}, by Hennessy), a debutante that was facing a pair of short-priced Bob Baffert trainees in even-money favorite Wudi (Uncle Mo) and 2-1 Doinitthehardway (Street Sense), outran her 19-1 starting price with this debut score. The $500,000 KEESEP purchase, racing in fifth, let longshot Tennessee Moon (Ransom the Moon) show the way through an opening quarter in :22.01 and an even brisker :44.85 half mile. As the rest of the pursuers swept wide at the top of the lane, Coffee in Bed angled from the rail to the two path with alacrity. Urged on past the eighth pole, the dark bay motored home by 1 3/4 length as Sweet Trouble (Into Mischief), herself a $600,000 buy at the same sale, gave chase for second. The winner is a half-sister to Great Stuff (Quality Road), GSW & GISP, $478,902. Sumptuous produced a filly by City of Light in 2021 and a filly by Liam's Map in 2022. MYREDWHITEANDBLUE (c, 3, Violence--Partisan Politics {MSW, $276,880}, by More Than Ready) tried turf and also two turns for the first time here after sprinting 5 1/2 furlongs on dirt at Gulfstream Park Sept. 10, where he finished third, and in New Orleans, where he was an improved fifth Nov. 18. The 6-1 shot settled mid-pack on the inside past the grandstand and around the first turn. With fractions that were all but creeping at :24.55 for the quarter-mile and even slower at :53.25 for the half-mile, Myredwhiteandblue cut to the outside around the far turn, and with a sweeping five-wide move, put away second-time starter Desert Duke (Kitten's Joy) in deep stretch to win by a nose. A multiple stakes winner on turf, the winner's dam has a yearling colt by Liam's Map and was bred to Cairo Prince last year. Sales History: $85,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP; $60,000 2yo '22 OBSOPN. TATTERSALLS OFFERS 17 HORSES FOR RESALE TO RECOUP £11M OCTOBER DEBT

A colt by Frankel out of Bold Lass who sold for 2 million gns
Laura Green/Tattersalls

Tattersalls is offering for resale 17 juveniles bought at last year's October Yearling Sale for 11,055,000gns. Payment has yet to be received for the group headed by a colt by Frankel (GB) out of Bold Lass (Ire), who was sold for 2,000,000gns by Watership Down Stud.

The yearlings were bought by bloodstock agent Richard Knight for an undisclosed client, who was believed to be returning to the sport having previously enjoyed Classic success as an owner in Britain and Ireland.

An email sent out by Tattersalls on Friday read, "We are emailing you as a purchaser at Book 1 of last year's Tattersalls October Yearling Sale to advise that owing to non-payment of sums owed we will be offering 17 2-year-olds for resale either by private sale by immediate effect or at sale/sales to be confirmed."

The email also advises potential buyers that the horses, 16 of which were bought at Book 1 and one from Book 2, have been broken in and are in pre-training with Classic-winning jockey Adam Kirby and his partner Megan Evans at their Vicarage Farm just outside Newmarket. Cont. p3

JIM BOLGER TO OFFER CLASSIC WINNER MAC SWINEY AT GOFFS

By Brian Sheerin

Jim Bolger says that his Classic-winning stallion prospect Mac Swiney (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}--Halla Na Saoire {Ire}, by Teofilo {Ire}) will appeal to just about any stud in the world when he is offered for sale online by Goffs on Friday, Jan. 20 but expressed a wish for the 2021 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner to stay in Ireland.

The reason being, according to Bolger, is that he'd like to support Mac Swiney with a dozen mares in his debut season at stud.

Bolger also revealed that, despite the fact the horse who led home stablemate Poetic Flare (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) in that memorable Curragh Classic had been subject to a number of "nibbles," the legendary trainer and breeder was keen to offer the horse at public auction with Goffs. Tattersalls To Offer 17 Juveniles For Resale Cont. from p1

As well as the purchases at Tattersalls, Knight also bought three yearlings from the Goffs Orby Sale for a total of €2,980,000, including the €2,600,000 top lot, a full-sister to the dual Group 1 winner Blackbeard (Ire) (No Nay Never). The agent also signed for five yearlings at the Arqana August Sale for €1,980,000, and six at Keeneland's September Yearling Sale for $4,875,000. Collectively, the purchases amount to just over £20 million.

Tattersalls has been approached for comment along with the other sales companies.

Henry Beeby, Goffs Group chief executive, said "Goffs' policy is that we never comment on such matters, either to confirm or deny. The Goffs Conditions of Sale clearly state that vendors are paid their sales proceeds after 35 days following each sale and that was, of course, the case following the 2022 Orby Sale."

A statement from Keeneland similarly indicated that the company does not comment on the private business of clients but that all vendors have been paid, as per normal.

He said, "It's interesting, isn't it? Mac Swiney would have appeal everywhere in the world but obviously I would prefer if he stayed in Ireland where I could use him.

"I've a dozen mares that I would like to send him and the only reason why I am selling him is because I wouldn't do him justice in promoting him." Cont. p4

Bolger added, "Due to the unique nature of my business, I have to keep moving them on. We had several nibbles over the past six months or so for Mac Swiney but we decided to sell him at public auction. He's the first stallion prospect I have sold at public auction."

Mac Swiney's sale will take place just a few months after Bolger's Gan Teorainn (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), owned by Ennistown Stud, was sold for 1 million gns at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale.

On that, he commented, "It was a good achievement. She can only improve because she was quite backward as a 2-year-old."

Mac Swiney won four times all told. Three of those wins were recorded as a 2-year-old, including in the G1 Vertem Futurity S. at Doncaster back in 2020.

Reflecting on Mac Swiney's career highlight at the Curragh, Bolger added, "It was a special day. It was very comfortable on the day because we knew a furlong out that the race was ours. He has top-class form. He's an Irish 2000 Guineas winner and he showed precocity at two as well."

Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby described it as "a rare opportunity" to be afforded the opportunity to sell the Classic winner on behalf of Bolger.

He said, "Goffs is delighted to be entrusted with the sale of Classic winner Mac Swiney on behalf of Mr. Bolger. This is a rare opportunity to purchase a multiple Group 1-winning stallion prospect and we anticipate plenty of international interest through the excellent Goffs Online platform that makes such sales so easily accessible for bidders regardless of location."

DUBAWI LEGEND "AN EXCITING ADDITION" TO THE COMPAS STALLION ROSTER

By Brian Sheerin

Micheál Orlandi has spoken of his excitement at being able to offer an accessible son of Dubawi (Ire) to breeders after announcing Dubawi Legend (Ire) will join the roster at Compas Stallions' Starfield Stud for the upcoming breeding season.

A classy sprinter for Hugo Palmer, Dubawi Legend chased home Native Trail (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket before signing off on his juvenile campaign with a rating of 115.

He achieved Group 3 success as a 3-year-old and put in another notable performance to finish third to subsequent Group 1-winning sprinter Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) in the G3 Hackwood S. that same season.

Dubawi Legend's fee has been set at €6,500 for his debut season at the County Westmeath stud where he will stand alongside fellow newbie King Of Change (GB), Far Above (Ire), Kuroshio (Aus) and Smooth Daddy. Cont. p5

Orlandi said, “At a fee of €6,500, we are delighted to offer breeders the opportunity to use a precocious son of the champion sire Dubawi. Not only is Dubawi the champion sire but he is also a renowned sire of sires, and can call upon Night of Thunder (Ire), New Bay (GB) and Zarak (Fr) to name a few.”

He added, “We haven’t yet reached the crest of Dubawi’s wave as a sire of sires so to stand his Group 1-performing son is very exciting. Dubawi Legend is the second-highest rated 2-year-old to retire to stud in 2023.

“A top class sprinter, he is an exciting addition to the Compas Stallions roster. Limited breeding rights are available.”

Dubawi Legend | Racingfotos.com

Dubawi Legend finished up in 2021 as the joint second-highest rated 2-year-old in Europe, with that 115 rating higher than what Night Of Thunder, New Bay and Zarak achieved at two. Dubawi’s dominance as a sire of sires is illustrated by the fact that five of his sons have sired Group 1 winners in their own right in Europe.

Director of Racing at Rabbah, Bruce Raymond revealed how he holds Dubawi Legend in the highest of regard, and commented, “A speedy, well-bred son of Dubawi. He was an impressive debut winner and Group 1-placed at two and was even quicker at three when easily winning a Group 3 over six furlongs. We saw him as a Group 1-level sprinter.”

Out of a Raven’s Pass mare, the Listed UAE 1000 Guineas winner Lovely Pass (Ire), Dubawi Legend is bred on the same successful cross as Mishriff (Ire) and Saffron Beach (Ire).

12 QUESTIONS

With Sebastien Desmontils

First job in the Thoroughbred industry?

Summer job as a stud groom at Highland Farm in Paris, Kentucky, that was managed by Peter Kirwan in 1999. Everything looked big and new at the time especially the Clydesdales that were kept on the farm not far from the Thoroughbreds!

Biggest influence on your career?

My friends Benoit Jeffroy and Gabriel Leenders. Unlike me the two of them are born and raised in this game and they have been keen to share their knowledge and experience with me since I decided to move full time in the Thoroughbred business as well as many other people that I have met or worked with along the road.

Favorite racehorse of all time, and why?

Has to be the unbeaten champion filly Zarkava. Only thing small about her was her size. Big trainer, big owner, big jockey, big heart... massive turn of foot. Even her legacy will be big with her son Zarak that appears to be a serious improver at stud.

Who will be champion first-season sire in 2023?

If I knew I should be leading this game but if I have to guess I would say Invincible Army as I thought his yearlings that I have seen were eye catching looking sharp and ready to go with substance.

Greatest race in the world?

L'Arc de Triomphe.

If you could be someone else in the industry for a day who would it be, and why?

Willie Mullins for his ability to operate his business at the top of this game, selecting, training top-class horses year after year and always appearing as a proper gentleman that loves his sport. Cont. p7

Emerging talent in the industry (human)?

Christopher Head has all the ingredients to become one of Chantilly's leading trainers in the years to come.

Name a horse TDN should have made a Rising Star, and didn't?

Went through Thursday's edition and would strongly agree on the fact that Rajapour should have been one!

Under-the-radar stallion?

Zelzal covered a big crop of 189 mares in 2022 at €15 000 LF and has done really well so far with very limited crops and average quality mares.

Friday night treat?

Sharing a good dinner with my wife and friends at home testing nice wines talking about racing and breeding.

Guilty pleasure outside racing?

Hunting, shooting and fishing

Race I wish I'd been there for...

Arcangues's win in the 1993 Breeders' Cup Classic at 133-1 in which my dad had bought a small share following his syndication by Agent Frederic Sauque at the time. I have watched the replay so many times.... A lot more than my dad who never had much interest in horse racing and did not realize the performance that this was to win this race for a horse trained in Europe.

ALGIERS IMPERIOUS IN AL MAKTOUM CHALLENGE R1 AS CURTAIN RISES ON DWCC

by Heather Anderson

Algiers (Ire) (Shamardal) stormed to an impressive 6 1/2-length victory in the $250,000 G2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 1 Presented by Zabeel Feed on Friday to add an exclamation point to the opening card of the Dubai World Cup Carnival.

Already a group winner after taking the G3 Jebel Ali Mile last term, the 6-year-old entire punched the breeze out wide as Golden Goal (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) battled Capezzano (Bernardini) for the backstretch run. In a good rhythm, although at least six deep on the bend, Algiers edged up to make it a line of four 600 metres out, and slingshotted past foes with abandon to seize the advantage just before the quarter-pole. From there it was only a matter of how far, with Discovery Island (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) making up ground to take second, with Everfast (Take Charge Indy) another 2 1/2 lengths behind in third.

"All credit to Algiers, he was really tough out there," said co-winning trainer Simon Crisford. "We wondered beforehand if he'd had enough match practice on this surface against these horses, but he's handled it really well."

"He's won over 10 1/2f (2100metres) at York and in France so he should get it," he added of the Dubai World Cup distance. "He will be in the World Cup, he's also in the big race in Saudi [at the end of February], and we'll look at the next leg of the Maktoum Challenge too."

Said James Doyle, who was riding his 99th UAE winner, "The draw (11) was always a worry and I had to go four or five wide around the turn, giving away ground, but he's shown again he's a good horse."

Successful in a Saint-Cloud listed affair back in September of 2020 and at the same tier at Compiègne in June of 2021, he placed in a pair of French Group 3s later that season. Sent to Dubai, he landed his first group race in his second start in the desert, by 1 1/2 lengths in the Jebel Ali Mile in February. Unplaced in the G2 Godolphin Mile on Dubai World Cup night, Algiers made a winning return in a 1 mile 1 1/2f handicap at York, but he tired to sixth in the Listed James Seymour S. at Newmarket after being carried left on Oct. 29. However, he warmed up for this tour-de-force with a very narrow second to Missed The Cut (Quality Road) in Lingfield's Listed Churchill S. on Nov. 12. Cont. p9

Algiers | DRC

Pedigree Notes

The late Darley stallion Shamardal has 164 stakes winners to his name, with Algiers part of an 83-strong battalion of group winners. Based on Friday's performance, it is not outside the realm of possibility that he could become Group 1 scorer number 28 later in the year.

A half-brother to the dam of the multiple stakes placed Anthorus (Fr) (Territories {Ire}), Algiers is the best foal produced by his accomplished dam, the Platini (Ger) mare Antara (Ger). Earning black type in no fewer than five countries, the mare was the highest-rated 3-year-old filly of her year in Germany, with a win in the G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit. She also earned Group 1 placings in Italy, France and England. Besides Algiers, she has three other winners to her credit, with the winning 4-year-old Frankel (GB) gelding Wild Tiger (GB) being her last reported foal.

AL SUHAIL GIVES DUBAWI FIRST STAKES

VICTORY OF 2023 by Heather Anderson

Fresh off of his first UK and Ireland Champion Sire title, Darley kingpin Dubawi (Ire) was back at it with his 6-year-old son Al Suhail (GB) claiming the G2 Al Fahidi Fort Presented By Zabeel Feed at Meydan on Friday. In the very next race, the Listed Ertijaal Dubai Dash, Lazuli (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) would raise that number to two.

Breaking widest of all and bearing the white cap, the 1.1 million Tattersalls October yearling found plenty of cover when drifting back to save ground near the rear of the pack. Kept two or three deep for the backstretch and the duration of the bend, James Doyle's mount still had a few lengths to make up on the leaders, but he appeared to have every chance. Mowing down rivals with an impressive turn of foot in the lane, Al Suhail took dead aim on the stretch leader Erzindjan (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). Even with that foe a furlong from home, he blew past to win as he pleased by four lengths over Alfareeq (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who slimly outpointed Shelir (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) for place honours by a short head. It was another half-length back to the stubborn Erzindjan in fourth.

"His homework's been good, but as we've seen before he's got his own ideas about things," said trainer Charlie Appleby, for whom it was a record seventh win in this race. "It was always the plan for James to ride him cold from that draw. I see no reason why he won't go to the Zabeel Mile next, as he wasn't stopping at the end there."

Placed in the G1 Jebel Hatta on Super Saturday back in 2021, Al Suhail would return to Newmarket and stamp his name on the G2 Challenge S. that October several starts later. Winless in 2022, he did manage a third in the G2 Park S. at Doncaster last September and ended his campaign with a seventh in the G3 Bengough S. at Ascot on Oct. 1. Cont. p10

The Al Fahidi Fort was his first run back, and he gave Charlie Appleby the first of two winners on the day.

Pedigree Notes

Dubawi's progeny have show versatility throughout his stallion career, and a stunning 44 (33 group) of them have scored in Dubai of his 249 stakes winners. Al Suhail joins G1 Platinum Jubilee S. hero Naval Crown (GB), Safety Check (Ire), Glorious Journey (GB), and D'Bai (Ire) as winners of the race.

Shirocco Star ran second in both the G1 Oaks and Irish equivalent at three and returned to place third in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at four in a career that featured only a single win, but plenty of group black-type. The third foal, runner, winner and stakes winner for his dam, Al Suhail's older siblings include the three-time group winner Telecaster (GB) (New Approach {GB}). Shirocco Star's latest produce are the newly minted 3-year-old Mistral Star (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who has placed in one start at two, a juvenile filly by Dubawi (Ire) and a yearling colt by Kingman (GB).

SWITZERLAND BRINGS UP 700 UAE

WINNERS FOR O'SHEA by Margaret Ransom

It was deja vu all over again for Switzerland (Speightstown) as the 9-year-old gelding scored his second G3 Dubawi S. Presented By Zabeel Feed win--he also was victorious in 2021--in his return to action for the first time since capturing the 2022 G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen under the Meydan lights nine months ago. It was also the 700th victory in the UAE for pilot Tadhg O'Shea.

This time out the gelding received his typical trip in the early going and sat between rivals and well off the pace set by Rawy (Frosted) for the first half-mile. At the top of the stretch and with more than a furlong left to run, the winner swung out toward the middle of the track and was guided through a hole at the head of the lane for clear running room. G3 Dubawi S. Cont.

He ran down all of his rivals from the outside down the lane to earn the win by 1 1/2 lengths over Mubakker (Speightstown), who was also making his first start since a fifth-place finish in the G2 Godolphin Mile last March.

"He's a very good horse and there was a lot of speed on," O'Shea said. "When a race is run like that, that's where he's at his best."

"He turned nine at the start of the year so even after four or five works he took a blow tonight. He's not a horse who needs to run every week, so I'd imagine he'll have one run in February and then back for another crack at the Golden Shaheen."

Pedigree Notes

Switzerland, who began his career for Woodford Racing and was trained by both Chad Brown and Steve Asmussen before being sold privately in 2019 to continue his career in Dubai, was a $170,000 KEENOV weanling and $175,000 KEESEP before selling for $500,000 as a Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-old in 2016. The Kentucky-bred is the third foal out of the stakes winner Czechers (Indian Charlie), who herself is three-time Grade III-placed on the turf. She also has an unraced 3-year-old full-sister to Switzerland named Hellier, an unnamed 2-year-old full-brother, and a yearling colt by Game Winner, who sold for $170,000 to Norevale Farm as a Keeneland November weanling two months ago. She was reported barren in 2023. He is one of 64 graded/group winners for his WinStar sire.

FASIG-TIPTON TO SPONSOR BEST TURNED OUT AWARD AT MEYDAN THIS SEASON

The Best Turned Out Award at Meydan Racecourse will be sponsored by Fasig-Tipton in 2023, the Dubai Racing Club announced on Friday morning. There will be a cash prize presented to the groom of each award winner prior to each race as well as other merchandise throughout the season. Graduates of the American sales company to find success in Dubai include G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen and Friday's G3 Dubawi S. winner Switzerland (Speightstown), as well as dual Golden Shaheen winner Mind Your Biscuits (Posse).

"Fasig-Tipton are hugely influential across the world of Thoroughbred sales and racing," said Major General Mohammed Essa Al Adhab, General Manager of Dubai Racing Club. "We are delighted to have them on board to sponsor the Best Turned Out at Meydan Racecourse, an accolade which means so much to the grooms and stable staff who do so much to prepare our horses for racing."

Boyd Browning, President & Chief Executive of Fasig-Tipton, added, "We are very pleased to work with the Dubai Racing Club to present the Best Turned Out award this season, highlighted by the Dubai World Cup Carnival, as well as one of international racing's great meetings, the Dubai World Cup, on Mar. 25.

"It will be exciting to see many of the world's top racehorses compete at Meydan and to reward those who take such great care of them."

Scratched: Boomshalaa (GB), Spangled Mac (Ire), Thunder Of Niagara (Ire), Roulston Scar (Ire).

A handy campaigner for Godolphin over the years, Lazuli earned his first victory since last February in Friday's Listed Ertijaal Dubai Dash Presented By Zabeel Feed. He delivered a 1 1/2-length score for Charlie Appleby in the G2 Blue Point Sprint in February of 2022, but was unplaced in three additional runs last year, including when signing off with a seventh behind Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York on Aug. 19.

Rank and tossing his head when the gates flew, James Doyle soon had Lazuli settled down and he perched behind a wall of horses, with the midway point being rapidly reached. Steered initially toward the stands' rail, Doyle reconsidered, and shifted the bay to the left of rival and stablemate Man Of Promise, with Ponntos crossing to race in between the royal blue duo. Meanwhile Acklam Express (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) was winding up for his run on the outside of that trio and the four formed an even line at the 200-metre marker. Lazuli kept giving generously to edge clear, with Man Of Promise just holding on from Ponntos. Acklam Express was fourth in a blanket finish.

"It's nice to be on a few fast ones," said Doyle, who was winning his third race of the evening, afterwards. "With the stalls on the far side, I wasn't sure what to expect, but I was able to get onto the back of Will [Buick, on Man Of Promise] and he took me as far as I needed to go. He [Lazuli] is a strong-travelling horse and he gets five furlongs well. He maybe doesn't hit the line quite so well over six."

The winner is a half to the black-type placed Bouquet De Flores (Street Cry {Ire}), as well as Listed Prix Contessina heroine Inspiriter (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who has gone on to produce the G3 Mahab Al Shimaal third Leading Spirit (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and the dual stakes placed Spirit Of Light (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). Floristry's latest is a yearling colt by Too Darn Hot (GB). Click for the VIDEO.

LONG KISS (BRZ) (c, 3, Adriano--Kiss Me Dear {Arg} {GSP-Brz}, by Bernstein), was spotting his rivals 10 pounds as the only Southern Hemisphere-foaled runner in the field and won for the second time in three local starts, scoring by a head over Felix Natalis (Ire) (Harry Angel {Ire}) after a ground-saving trip. He won the Meydan Palm West S. on Nov. 11 and was third in the Meydan Mirdif S. on the main track last out. On the turf for the first time here, he broke alertly from the gate, but was taken back early to let the front-runners go, content to wait for the speed in front of him to back up before making his move. As the field rounded the bend for home, he maneuvered out from closest to the rail to the middle of the course to gain clear running room to the finish line and dug in gamely down the lane, just getting his head up for the win in the blanket finish. Long Kiss is the last reported foal out of Kiss Me Dear, a daughter of G1 Polla de Potrancas-Argetine One Thousand Guineas winner Kiss Me Sweet (Arg) (Lode). She also produced Grande Premio Barao de Piracicaba winner Esfinge (Brz) (Wild Event). Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-1, $109,387. VIDEO.

INDUSTRY SALUTES BREEDING ICON SIR PATRICK HOGAN

Sir Patrick Hogan | Bronwen Healy

by Richard Edmunds

Tributes are flowing for a trailblazer of the Australasian Thoroughbred breeding industry, Sir Patrick Hogan, who has died at Waikato Hospital after a period of ill health.

An inductee into both the New Zealand and Australian Racing Hall of Fames, Sir Patrick Hogan was 83 years old and is survived by his wife Justine Lady Hogan, their daughters Erin and Nicola, four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Hogan founded the world-renowned Cambridge Stud in 1976 and became a towering presence on the New Zealand thoroughbred landscape. He has left a lasting legacy through the likes of legendary father-son stallion double-act Sir Tristram (Ire) and Zabeel (NZ), and through breeding, selling and racing a long line of top-tier horses.

But he also brought a game-changing approach to marketing and selling thoroughbreds, while his mentorship put many of the industry's other enormously respected studmasters and horsemen on a path towards success.

One name that became inextricably linked with Hogan's is Marcus Corban, whose four decades at Cambridge Stud culminated in the role of general manager.

"This is the end of an era and a very sad day," Corban told TDN AusNZ. "He was like a father to me, and he was such a great mentor--not only for my own career, but also for the likes of Antony Thompson, Brent Taylor, Adam Sangster and many others.

"New Zealand was very fortunate to have him, and the way he did things had such an enormous impact on the industry in our part of the world.

"He was the first person to put staff in uniforms at the sales, he put out brochures, he flew trainers over from Australia--all of these things hadn't really been done before, and he was probably 20 years ahead of almost everyone else in this country.

"He was a great thinker, he was passionate, he was so methodical with his matings and everything that he did.

"Even after we'd both moved on from Cambridge Stud, I kept in close contact with Sir Patrick and Lady Justine. I kept some horses on his property for clients, and I spent some time with him around Christmas.

"This is a huge loss for all of us, but especially for his family. Justine is the one I feel the most sorry for. She's been with him every step of the way, through their time at Cambridge Stud and ever since. She's been taking care of him in more recent times, and it's an enormous loss for her."

Widden Stud's Antony Thompson had a stint at Cambridge Stud during the early stages of his career, and he spoke fondly on Friday about his memories of Sir Patrick Hogan as an employer and teacher.

"I was terribly sad to hear that he had passed," he said. "He was obviously a real icon, not only of the New Zealand industry but of our industry as a whole.

"I was personally lucky enough to spend a bit of time working at Cambridge Stud when I was a young guy. It was one of my very first jobs in the industry, and it was a great learning experience.

"He was one of the best mentors you could wish to have, and a wonderful horseman to go with it. He had the ability to identify very good horses, and he was able to commercialise the successful ones in a way that no one else did at that stage. He was ahead of his time in many ways.

"But more than that, my memories of him are that he was a truly wonderful person and had a great sense of humour. I hugely enjoyed my time working there and spending time with him at Cambridge Stud, and I'll always look back at that stage of my career very fondly. RIP, The Boss."

An Extraordinary Studmaster And Breeder

Sir Patrick Hogan's career as a studmaster and breeder was made up of hard work, a pioneering approach to marketing and a series of masterful decisions.

Born in Rotorua on Oct. 23, 1939, he was the son of Sarah and Irish immigrant Tom Hogan. He grew up around a mixture of dairying and thoroughbred breeding, and as a teenager he paraded yearlings for his family's Fencourt Stud.

In the 1970s he and Justine decided to go out on their own, selling their shares in Fencourt Stud to his brother and putting the proceeds towards their purchase of Cambridge Stud.

The first of Sir Patrick Hogan's many masterstrokes was the selection of his foundation stallion, Sir Tristram. He was the winner of just two of his 17 starts, but Sir Patrick went against the advice of his bloodstock agent and brought the son of Derby and 2000 Guineas winner Sir Ivor (USA) across to the other side of the world.

The response was initially lukewarm at best, and Sir Tristram produced just 37 foals in his first season. But that initial crop would produce 19 winners from 27 runners, with nine black-type performers headed by six-time Group 1 winner Sovereign Red (NZ) and fellow Group 1 winner Tasman (NZ).

That was just the beginning. Sir Tristram would go on to sire 45 individual Group 1 winners, including a Golden Slipper with Marauding (NZ) in 1987--making him the first New Zealand-based stallion in 30 years to sire a Slipper winner.

Sir Tristram also produced three Melbourne Cup winners and topped the Australian sires' premiership six times, and his service fee soared from an introductory NZ$1,500 all the way to a peak of NZ$200,000.

Sir Patrick Hogan also selected the perfect son to follow in Sir Tristram's famous footsteps--the remarkable Zabeel, who himself won seven races including the G1 Australian Guineas.

Zabeel would go on to surpass his mighty sire, producing 46 individual Group 1 winners including champions such as Octagonal (NZ), Might And Power (NZ), Cox Plate winner-turned-supersire Savabeel, and a Melbourne Cup quinella with Jezabeel (NZ) and Champagne (NZ).

Sir Patrick and Justine Lady Hogan also achieved phenomenal successes with their broodmare band, most notably with Eight Carat (GB) (Pieces Of Eight {Ire})--one of only two mares in history to produce five individual Group 1-winning progeny.

Between them, Eight Carat's star sons and daughters Octagonal, Marquise (NZ), Mouawad (NZ), Kaapstad (NZ) and Diamond Lover (Sticks And Stones) won a total of 28 black-type races.

Marquise and Diamond Lover also went on to become elite broodmares in their own right. Marquise's daughter Shower Of Roses (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) won the G1 Arrowfield Stud S. in Sydney, while Diamond Lover produced Group 1 winners Don Eduardo (NZ) and Tristalove (NZ) (Sir Tristram {Ire}).

The Hogans also celebrated numerous ownership successes with their distinctive two-tone green racing colours, including a G1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas and G1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas double by Katie Lee (Pins) in November of 2009--a feat never achieved before or since.

Overall, Sir Patrick and Justine Lady Hogan bred 40 Group 1 winners, who between them won just under 90 Group 1 races.

Their resident stallions amassed 50 Champion Sire awards, and a total of 115 individual Group 1 winners were produced by their stallions and broodmares. That includes eight Melbourne Cup winners, four Cox Plate winners, three Caulfield Cup winners and a Golden Slipper winner.

The industry-shaping Hogan era at Cambridge Stud drew to a close in 2017 when the iconic nursery was sold to fellow Kiwi couple Brendan and Jo Lindsay.

A Sale-Ring Titan

Another hallmark of Sir Patrick Hogan's career was his achievements at New Zealand yearling sales, where his marketing and hospitality strategies set a blueprint that all vendors would follow over the ensuing years.

He oversaw an incredible reign of 32 consecutive leading vendor titles at New Zealand's National Yearling Sale between 1981 and 2012--initially at Trentham, and later at Karaka.

He led New Zealand's first million-dollar yearling through the ring at Karaka in 1989, selling a colt by Sir Tristram out of Surround (NZ) (Sovereign Edition {Ire}) for NZ$1.2 million.

A decade later he set an all-time New Zealand record that still stands, selling G1 Australian Derby winner and sire Don Eduardo for NZ$3.6 million in January of 2000.

That pair contributed to a total of 24 sale-topping yearlings consigned by Cambridge Stud at New Zealand Bloodstock's National Yearling Sale while Hogan was at the helm.

New Zealand Bloodstock principal Sir Peter Vela recognised Sir Patrick's extraordinary contribution in putting the annual Karaka sale--and the New Zealand industry as a whole--on the thoroughbred map.

"In my lifetime there has been no greater influence in the New Zealand breeding industry than Patrick Hogan," he said.

"This country was so fortunate to have someone like him. He was a great horseman--his knowledge, what stallions to develop and how to grow the industry--so from every point of view his passing is just so sad.

"His name and persona was, and always will be, synonymous with the New Zealand thoroughbred breeding industry and his massive contribution to putting this country on the world stage."

A Long List Of Accolades

Sir Patrick Hogan was inducted into the Australian Racing Hall of Fame in 2005, and into the New Zealand equivalent a year later. He has been joined in either one or both of those Halls of Fame by Sir Tristram, Zabeel, Eight Carat, Octagonal and Might And Power.

Sir Patrick and Justine Lady Hogan were named New Zealand's Breeder of the Year five times, including three seasons in a row in the mid-1990s, while Eight Carat and Taiona (NZ) (Sovereign Edition {Ire}) won the New Zealand Broodmare of the Year Award five times between them.

Sir Patrick Hogan was honoured with New Zealand's Outstanding Contribution to Racing Award in 1991, and he was appointed a Knight Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit, for services to thoroughbred breeding, in the 2000 New Year Honours.
