Proxy taking last fall's Clark | Coady

Godolphin's Proxy (Tapit), winner of Churchill's GI Clark S., had his last major workout at Fair Grounds Saturday in preparation for the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational at Gulfstream Jan. 28. The 5-year-old official time for the six-furlong move to the seven-eighths pole was 1:13.20, the fastest of two works at the distance Saturday morning.

Working in tandem with stablemate Global Sensation (Into Mischief), the pair covered five-eighths in 1:00.40, with Proxy working an additional eighth-mile past the wire. With a crush of horses working right after the track's renovation break, exercise rider Arturo Aparicio ran into traffic past the wire and had to steer Proxy around a couple of horses galloping out from their own workout. Cont. p3

JOCKEY AVERY WHISMAN PASSES AWAY AT 23 by Bill Finley

Jockey Avery Whisman, who rode in the Mid-Atlantic region after beginning his career in 2018, passed away Wednesday at the age of 23 after what his family described as a "prolonged illness." He was at his parents' home in Versailles, Kentucky at the time of his passing. Whisman had not ridden since accepting mounts Aug. 23 at Presque Isle Downs.

Though Whisman had been ill, his mother, Salli, described his passing as "a sudden and unexpected event."

"He absolutely loved the sport," Salli Whisman said. "He was an incredible horseman. If you talked to anybody in the industry who worked with him they will tell you he was always kind and gracious and polite and had an incredible smile on his face. When he was on a horse he was only thinking about that horse and he brought all the skills he learned as a youngster. He could settle any horse. Everyone loved how quietly he sat on a horse and how he could read what horse needed."

"From the time I first met him, we just clicked," said trainer Matthew Kintz. "We had a lot of success together last year. I was really looking forward to him having a bright future. I'm thankful I was able to enjoy the time I did have with him because he was a great guy." Cont. p5

“Basically Proxy had to go around those horses and weave a little bit to navigate around the turn,” trainer Michael Stidham explained. “It probably cost him a length or two in the final time. But a very nice work. He finished up well and went on out real nice and continued to gallop out well down the backside.”

He added, “The last work [five-eighths in a minute flat] and this work were the two important works. I just wanted to see him finish up willingly and then continue around the turn with good energy. He did that last time and this time really well.”

Runner-up in the GIII Lecomte S. and GII Risen Star S. in the spring of his sophomore season, the homebred finished fourth in the GII Louisiana Derby and GIII Lexington S. before bowing out for the remainder of the season. In 2022, he returned with an allowance win in New Orleans in February before hitting the board in his next four starts, including a third in the GII Stephen Foster S. last summer. Trying Grade I company for the first time in the Nov. 25 Clark, he came home a three-quarter-length winner going nine furlongs, the same distance as the Pegasus.

“We talk about it, that Proxy wasn’t quite where he needed to be to go into the Triple Crown,” Stidham explained. “It wasn’t ‘Oh well, why don’t we do this or that?’ It was a done deal. Believe me, the reason [2021 G1 Dubai World Cup scorer] Mystic Guide [Ghostzapper] did what he did was because of that, allowing us to go slow with him and skip some of the big races, including the Breeders’ Cup. With Proxy, skipping the Triple Crown has allowed us to get to winning the Clark. I don’t think a lot of people realize how important those decisions are in a horse’s career, for their future.”

Also working toward the Pegasus, Saffie Joseph, Jr. sent out Daniel Alonso’s Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) and Fernando Vine Ode and Michael and Jules Iavarone’s O’Connor (Chi) (Boboman) to the main track at Palm Meadows for easy half-mile breezes Saturday morning.

Skippylongstocking breezed a half-mile in :48.50 (18/99), while O'Connor was caught in :51.05 (88/99) at Gulfstream's satellite training facility in Palm Beach County. Both horses were breezing for the first time since running in the GIII Harlan's Holiday S., won by Skippylongstocking. O'Connor finished fourth in the 8 1/2-furlong test Dec. 31. Joseph, Jr. also trains White Abarrio (Race Day), who prepped for the Pegasus at Gulfstream Friday morning with a five-furlong work in :59.24.

Joseph also sent Ken Ramsey and the Estate of Sarah Ramsay's Artie's Princess (We Miss Artie) to Palm Meadows' main track for a half-mile breeze in :48.45 in preparation for a start in the GIII Pegasus World Cup Filly & Mare Turf Invitational.

At Santa Anita Saturday, GI Awesome Again winner Defunded (Dialed In) also worked in advance of the Pegasus World Cup. The Bob Baffert trainee drilled six furlongs in 1:12.6.

Taking on the Pegasus Turf

Also in Southern California yesterday morning, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' Speaking Scout (Mr Speaker), victorious in the Dec. 3 GI Hollywood Derby, breezed a half-mile in :48.20 for a start in the GI Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational. Also pointing toward the Turf, Three Diamonds Farm's Atone posted his third straight bullet workout Saturday at Gulfstream, powering through five-eighths of a mile in :59.96 (1/48). The prior two weeks, Atone worked in :59.04 and :59.20.

The gelding led all the way to win his last start, an Aqueduct turf allowance Nov. 10.

"He's in top form. The freshening did him well, so I expect another big performance from him," said trainer Mike Maker, who won the 2020 Pegasus Turf with Zulu Alpha. "He's always been a straightforward horse and works well."

For the second straight year, Atone needed defections from the Pegasus Turf's original invitees in order to run. Last year, he finished fourth behind two-time winner Colonel Liam (Liam's Map). While the 6-year-old has never won a stakes, he has hit the board five times in graded stakes over the past 13 months.

"He's been a little bit of a hard-luck horse," Maker said. "He's a lot more mature this year than he was last year."

Maker also indicated Mark Breen's Endorsed (Medaglia d'Oro), fourth in last year's Pegasus World Cup at 85-1 odds, and Nice Guy Stables's GIII Knickerbocker S. winner King Cause (Creative Cause), who is awaiting a spot in the Pegasus Turf, would run if they get into their respective races.

Both horses are currently on the reserve list. The final invitational lists will be released Wednesday, Jan. 18 with the draw for all Pegasus races to take place Sunday, Jan. 22.

After learning of Whisman's death, Hall of Famer Mike Smith took to Twitter to pay tribute to the young jockey. "R.I.P my little brother you will Always be so Loved," read his tweet.

Whisman met Smith when he moved to Southern California in the summer of 2018 where he went to prepare for his career. Smith took Whisman under his wing and gave him boots and the saddle he used when winning the GI Kentucky Derby in 2005 aboard Giacomo (Holy Bull). The same saddle was given to Smith by Laffit Pincay, Jr. when he retired in 2003. Salli Whisman said the entire family was involved in eventing and that her son had been around horses since he was a toddler. "I wanted to have a career where I could ride," Avery Whisman told the Laurel media relations department in 2019. "I love riding horses, I love working with them in the mornings and teaching them and trying to make them better and improve every single day. Just being around horses, it's what I love. I wanted to find a career where I could do that for the rest of my life. Unfortunately in the eventing and show world, there's not really any kind of money in it. You can't support yourself doing that, so when I started galloping and started making a little money and started getting a little taste of the racing industry, I loved it. It made the most sense." Whisman made his debut Dec. 18, 2018 at Turf Paradise. He would move to the Maryland circuit in 2019 and also rode winners at Presque Isle and at Colonial Downs. "He was a bit of an adrenaline junky," his mother said. "He loved the speed."

Whisman had 90 career winners. His best year came in 2019 when he had 53 winners. He is survived by his mother, his father Lyman, a former steeplechase jockey, and sisters Caitlin Pinkney-Atkinson, Emma Whisman and Clare McCabe. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund.

FIRST FOAL FOR HOTY KNICKS GO

Knicks Go winning the 2021 Breeders' Cup Classic | Horsephotos

Taylor Made Stallions' Horse of the Year Knicks Go (Paynter), a five-time Grade I winner and two-time Breeders' Cup winner, sired his first reported foal when a filly bred by Alex and Kendra Penn was born Thursday evening, Jan. 12.

Her dam Seeking a Star (Pioneerof the Nile) is a half-sister to 2-year-old SW Miss Interpret (Street Sense), and out of a half-sister to MGIW Paulassilverlining (Ghostzapper), the dam of Artorius (Arrogate), winner of the 2022 Curlin S. at Saratoga.

Victorious in the GI Breeders' Futurity at two, Knicks Go took the 2020 renewal of the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile before adding wins in six graded stakes the following season, including the GI Pegasus World Cup, GI Whitney and GI Breeders' Cup Classic. He retired with 10 of 25 wins and earnings of $9,258,135. His stud fee is $15,000 S&N for 2023.

FIRST FOAL FOR SPENDTHRIFT FARM'S YAUPON

Spendthrift Farm's Grade I winner Yaupon (Uncle Mo) sired a colt, his first reported foal, on Jan. 13 at Rockridge Stud in Hudson, New York.

Bred by Rockridge Stud, Saratoga Glen Farm and Pete Beals, the dark bay is out of MSW Frost Giant mare Frostie Anne, an earner of $584,443.

"This colt is good sized, born at around 122 pounds. He's very balanced and correct, and you can tell he's going to have a big hip," said Lere Visagie, owner of Rockridge Stud. "I've had three foals out of this mare and every foal has been better than the one before. I'm quite happy with this Yaupon."

Yaupon | Sarah Andrew

Trained by Steve Asmussen, Yaupon won six of his eight races including the first four starts of his career in 2020. Those wins included the GII Amsterdam S. at Saratoga and GIII Chick Lang S. at Pimlico, and he was the favorite in that year's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint as a 3-year-old. Yaupon's 4-year-old campaign was highlighted by the final race of his career, when he won the GI Forego S. at Saratoga.

Campaigned by Bill and Corinne Heiligbrodt, the son of leading sire Uncle Mo earned $703,264. He is out of the Grade I-placed Vindication mare Modification.

Yaupon is set to stand his second season at stud at Spendthrift for a fee of $30,000 S&N.

BLINDWILLIE MCTELL

by Christie DeBernardis

In this TDN series, Christie DeBernardis will tell the stories of accomplished and/or popular former racehorses who are now enjoying second careers as show horses, track ponies, etc.

This "Where Are They Now" story is a bit of a personal one for me. I first met popular New York-bred stakes winner Blindwillie McTell (Posse), affectionately known as Willie, back in 2018 when he was just a 2-year-old.

NO STALLION UNDER $100K HAD MORE 2022 STAKES HORSES

They say it's a numbers game and you can't argue with Midshipman's numbers. Beyer figures, Stakes winners, auction prices: they all add up. His fee is only $20,000. That just doesn't add up...

Just imagine Darley

I was there the day he made his debut, finishing a game second at 19-1 in a state-bred maiden special weight at Aqueduct. The gutsy little bay impressed trainer Linda Rice enough for her to enter him in a stake next out and he proved worthy of her faith, splashing home to a good-looking graduation in the NYSS Great White Way S. Willie opened his 3-year-old season in similar fashion, taking the Rego Park S. in his next outing, much to the delight of his exuberant owner/breeder Jerry Zaro. He took the Mike Lee S. two starts later and, once again, I stood in the winner's circle with Willie and his proud connections.

Willie's talent on the racetrack made him a fun horse to be around throughout his career, as did his winning personality. A very friendly and happy horse, he always tried his heart out and did so with plenty of enthusiasm, making him a barn favorite during his four seasons in the Rice barn and a personal favorite of mine.

Blindwillie McTell | Coglianese

In April of 2021, Willie let Rice know he had enough. She refused to run him for a low claiming price and Zaro agreed, so the decision was made to retire him. Being a gelding, the best option for the three-time stakes winner was finding a new home as a show horse. I had recently assisted Rice in placing a horse named Mental Model (Into Mischief) with a friend of mine, who now successfully competes him as an eventer. So the conditioner turned to me to find a home for the lovable Blindwillie McTell. I always knew Willie was special. I also knew he would love to have his own person and would give that individual his all in any discipline they tried together. I wanted to make sure Willie found a person who would recognize how special he was and would give him the best chance to thrive in his new career. So, I turned to one of my best friends, Caroline Letts, a hunter and jumper trainer based in Colts Neck, New Jersey, who had plenty of experience with off-track Thoroughbreds.

Blindwillie McTell competing at a jumper show | Naimark Photography

Letts was quick to say yes and we brought Willie to her facility in May of 2021. Under her guidance, my favorite little racehorse-that-could blossomed into a talented hunter and jumper. Her 16-year-old working student successfully competed him in Thoroughbred classes at a recognized horse show that September.

Since then he has taught lessons to kids as young as 12 and competed successfully in a variety of horse shows in both the hunter and jumper divisions. He even helped me achieve one of my dreams of climbing aboard one of the racehorses I had the privilege to follow or work with during my career. He is still as much of a perfectionist and overachiever in his new career as he was on the racetrack.

Willie continues to gain fans everywhere he goes. He is a barn favorite at MCL Equestrian and has a leaser, who adores him. His fans from his racing days, those that love New York racing and fans of Bob Dylan, for whom Blindwillie McTell was named, still follow him diligently. As expected, my old friend Willie is still a winner in everything he does and I'm just thrilled to still be a part of it.

NEW POSITIONS FOR EGAN AT SANTA ANITA; HAMMERLE AT 1/ST

Santa Anita Park | Benoit

Veteran horseman and racing official Jason Egan was promoted as the Director of Racing and Racing Secretary for Santa Anita Park beginning Jan. 27. He served as the track's Racing Coordinator since 2020, and he was named to his new post after Chris Merz announced his desire to take a more expansive operational role in the racing industry.

Additionally, Rick Hammerle will join 1/ST Racing as a consultant. After stops in California, New Jersey and Florida, he was most recently the Racing Coordinator at Oaklawn Park and Director of Racing Operations at Kentucky Downs. Like Hammerle, Egan is a graduate of the University of Arizona's Racetrack Industry Program. While there, Egan interned with trainer Michael Dickinson and went on to work for Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher.

RAMSEY ZIMMERMAN RETURNS TO THE SADDLE

Randy Zimmerman | Coady Photography

Edited Press Release

Jockey Ramsey Zimmerman recorded his first victory in over five years on Friday when he guided Enchanted Nile (Pioneer of the Nile) to a front-running nose victory in the third race at Oaklawn Park.

A Chicago-area native, Zimmerman amassed 1,740 victories and owns riding titles at Prairie Meadows and Lone Star Park, but it was substance abuse that derailed his once-promising career several times since he began riding in 1998.

"All that's behind me," Zimmerman said. "I'm actually really proud of having six years clean and sober."

Managing a Thoroughbred farm and working as a driver for a horse-drawn carriage company in St. Louis were a couple of the jobs he did when he wasn't riding. Zimmerman recently reunited with agent Scott Hare of Hot Springs and he said he plans to ride the remainder of the Oaklawn meeting which ends May 6.

A gate-to-wire, nine-length winner versus $16,000 maiden claiming company at Gulfstream on debut last summer, Zydeceaux hit the board in his next two starts before returning to the winner's enclosure in an optional claimer at Gulfstream to end his juvenile season Christmas Eve. Overlooked on the tote as the longest shot on the board behind favored GIII Nashua S. winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Champions Dream, the Florida-bred was sent right to the front under jockey Samuel Marin and quickly found himself engaged two wide outside of Loco Abarrio (Valiant Minister). Still holding a narrow advantage as the pair swung wide around the far turn, Zydeceaux then had to hold off the favorite, who tipped inside at the top of the lane to make a run. The top two kept it tight to the wire but Zydeceaux got the best of his rival in the end by a slim margin. The winner has a 2-year-old full sister Cajun Calypso still to race behind him. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

on debut at Belmont's Aqueduct meeting Sept. 17, then returned at one mile to break her maiden in style by 4 1/4 lengths to finish her juvenile season Dec. 18. The 7-5 choice for her first try against stakes company, Occult had a sharp beginning, but was outrun into the first turn by Sweetest Princess (Cairo Prince) to her outside. Patiently handled by jockey Dylan Davis in second, Occult settled nicely and held that position up the backstretch as the field began to bunch up in pursuit of Sweetest Princess. Asked for her run as she passed the quarter pole just outside of the leader, Occult drove by with over a furlong to run and was much the best late, winning geared down by a clear margin. The win gives her 20 points on the road to the Kentucky Oaks.

"She had a beautiful trip," said winning trainer Chad Brown. "I thought we were maybe the lone speed in race, and I talked to Dylan [Davis] this morning and thought we could come out of there and get the lead, but that other horse [Sweetest Princess] showed so much interest and was adamant up there on the lead. I thought Dylan used great judgement to just secure that second stalking spot out in the clear. From there, it seemed like she was always traveling well and she had the jump on the other two main competition in the race right behind her. I was really pleased with the filly's effort and Dylan's heads-up ride."

Magical Feeling produced a 2-year-old colt, Imagination (Into Mischief), and visited Gun Runner for a 2023 foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Lightning Larry | Ryan Thompson

Lightening Larry rekindled his winning spark here with a wire-to-wire victory in his seasonal bow.

A graded stakes winner last season when annexing the GIII Chick Lang at Pimlico, Lightening Larry had something of a cold spell for the rest of the season with no other victories to his tally, the best finish coming at a track and trip allowance contest where he ran third.

Breaking best as the 5-2 favorite, the chestnut set up shop on the front end and never gave his rivals a second opinion as they jostled for position behind him. Moving from the three to the four path, he turned away a challenge at the top of the stretch and it was over from there. Kicking on the afterburners, Lightening Larry strode home to victory.

"To me, he's always been the same. I never lost any hope with him," said trainer Jorge Delgado. "He's a great horse. Sometimes, they get bad trips. Sometimes, everything goes their way. He is a great horse and he showed it today."

The most recent to the races for his dam, the victor has a 2-year-old half-brother by Enticed. Dam Moon and Sun also lost

It was a third black-type winner for first-crop 3-year-old Coolmore sire Mendelssohn when Opus Forty Two made the leap from maiden winner to stakes winner in Saturday's Gasparilla S. at Tampa Bay Downs. Among the first flight early, the dark bay relaxed to track just off of :22.59 and :45.87 fractions, tipped out on the turn, hit the lead, and opened up by daylight before nearly being run down by Charlie's Wish. The two hit the wire together with Opus Forty Two taking the photo by a nose.

It was Opus Forty Two's second consecutive main track try and second consecutive win. She followed up two runner-up finishes on the turf sprinting at Pimlico and Laurel in the fall with a 4 3/4-length score at Tampa Dec. 3 in her first try on the dirt.

Laquesta has a 2-year-old Munnings colt who brought $165,000 from Quarter Pole Enterprises at Keeneland September and a yearling Hard Spun colt. Her granddam produced GISW Cupid (Tapit), MGSW Heart Ashley (Lion Heart), and GSW Ashley's Kitty (Tale of the Cat). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Repent) ran to his odds as a gate-to-wire maiden winner at Saratoga Aug. 27 before running second to 'TDN Rising Star' Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) in the GI Champagne S. during Belmont's Aqueduct meeting Oct. 1. Shipped to Keeneland for a run at the Breeders' Cup, Verifying had to settle for sixth behind MGISW 'Rising Star' Forte (Violence) after a rough trip in the GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Juvenile S. Nov. 4. Making his first start at Oaklawn as a 3-year-old with Lasix for the first time, Verifying went off the narrow 7-5 choice and kept the pressure on early pacesetter Gun Pilot (Gun Runner). The pair raced one-two around the far turn until the half-brother to Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute), Ch. Older Dirt Female, MGISW, $7,471,520, made his move, wearing down his rival while drawing away steadily to be a clear 5 1/4-length winner. Gun Pilot had to settle for second. Diva Delite, who brought $1.2 million carrying the winner at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton Night of the Stars Sale, RNA'd for $775,000 at the 2022 Keeneland November Sale. OK BOOMER (c, 3, Noble Mission {GB}--Madame Dubois {Saf} {MGSW & G1SP-SAF}, by Count Dubois {GB}) stayed perfect in two starts, breaking smoothly from the extreme outside to settle at the rear of the field at 8-1. Fractions up front were quick--22.28 and :45.91--while Ok Boomer remained unhurried and left to navigate traffic on the turn. The bay split horses, got clear sailing in the lane while extremely wide, swapped to his wrong lead just before the wire, and still mowed down Blame the good times (Blame) by a length. Ok Boomer's previous start and win was also at Gulfstream over a mile on the grass Dec. 10. The winner's dam was sourced from South Africa, where she was a MGSW and G1SP, by Barry Irwin's Team Valor and made one start in this country before joining the broodmare ranks. AWESOME NATIVE (c, 4, Practical Joke--Bella Kateri, by Tale of the Cat), already familiar with the Aqueduct surface after storming home a 5 1/2-length debut winner Dec. 15, added an extra half-furlong Saturday and broke from the gates as the heavy 2-5 chalk. Positioned wide while in pursuit of pacesetter Major Spin (Hard Spun) from third through an opening half in :47.82, he fanned out five wide past the quarter pole for his stretch rally. In command in upper stretch, Awesome Native kept finding more under a hand ride to cruise home a 6 1/4-length winner. Joey Loose Lips (Effinex) chased him home from second. TALES OF HOME (f, 4, Tale of Ekati--Pleasant Home {GISW, $1,378,070}, by Seeking the Gold), product of a stellar female family, got one for the win column. The freshly minted 4-year-old didn't debut until November at Churchill with a half-length second, then followed it up with another runner-up finish at Fair Grounds Dec. 19. At Oaklawn Saturday, she tracked from the outside behind a :21.89 first quarter before an aggressive move to engage Stellar Lily (Speightster) for the lead by the :45.80 half. Tales of Home put that one away and drifted slightly, but held safe for a 1 1/4-length victory over Tyrona (Keen Ice), who chased her home. The homebred Charles Fipke victress paid $11.20. Tales of Home is out of GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Pleasant Home, making her a half to Hereditary (Medaglia d'Oro), MSP, $301,609; to Pleasant Orb (Orb), GISP, $122,865; and to $5.2-million broodmare Magical World (Distorted Humor), dam of MGISW Guarana (Ghostzapper), who brought $4.4 million as a broodmare. The deep family includes champions Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}) and Dayjur (Danzig), as well as GISWs Point of Entry (Dynaformer), Pine Island (Arch), and Maplejinsky (Nijinsky II). DOWNTOWN MISCHIEF (f, 3, Into Mischief--Downtown Mama, by Speightstown), off at odds of 4-1, showed good energy early and was joined after a quarter mile by the 6-5 chalk Weekend Rags (Street Boss). The new leader attempted to get away along the rail around the far turn, but Downtown Mischief pursued her rival with gusto. She took aim at Weekend Rags entering the lane, and, under left-handed urging, accelerated in the stretch to score impressively by 7 3/4 lengths over Sweet Liberty (Bellamy Road). The winner is out of a dam that is responsible for a yearling by Maclean's Music. She visited Violence this past year. CHARRIERE (f, 3, Congrats--Run On Buy, by Lemon Drop Kid) was turned away by the winner when debuting Dec. 19 over track and trip in an auction price-restricted maiden special, though well clear of the third-place runner. Sent away here the clear 4-5 favorite on her seasonal bow, Charriere set a pressured pace to the inside of Divina Dulce (Sharp Azteca) before turning that one away entering the lane and drawing off to an enthusiastic 3 1/2-length win. Blame Day (Blame) chased the winner for a clear-cut second while Lady Dreamer (Exaggerator) and Margoinabubblebath (Midnight Storm) dead-heated for third. The flag bearer to the races for the dam, Charriere has a 2-year-old half-brother by Vino Rosso, who is also the last registered offspring thus far. Sales history: $34,000 Ylg '21 TTAYHR. ASPRAY (f, 3, Quality Road--Up {Ire} {MGSW-Ire, G1SP-Fr, $379,468}, by Galileo {Ire}) was no secret to the betting public and the well-related filly was hammered down to 4-5 favoritism by the jump in this two-turn, off-the-turf contest. Breaking well despite her early reluctance to load, she tracked the pace on the rail from fourth around the first bend as Roman Flame (Frosted) battled with inside rivals for the early advantage. Beginning her march four-wide on the grandstand side around the far turn as a 1:14.33 split came up, Aspray quickly gained ground in the upper stretch and pulled clear of a game Roman Flame to win by 2 1/2 lengths in a strung-out field.

Out of a mare her owner/breeder purchased for $2.2 million in 2015 out of the KEEJAN sale, the victress hails from an active family. Eldest half-sister Upfront (War Front)--who changed hands to Solis/Litt for $800,000 at the same sale as her dam--was exported to France before producing a colt who would ultimately become GSP-Aus Direct (Aus) (Siyouni {Fr}); $750,000 2018 KEESEP half-brother Monarch of Egypt (American Pharoah), G1SP-Ire, GSP-Eng, $186,628 too did his best running in Europe while $1 million KEESEP grad--also purchased by the powerhouse M.V. Magnier & White Birch Farm partnership, like his brother--GSP Khartoum (Pioneer of the Nile) picked up his black-type in Dubai. Their dam Up, herself a half-sister to MG1SW Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}) and to the dam of MGSP Grecian Light (Ire) (Shamardal), also has a 4-year-old placed filly Star of India (Medaglia d'Oro) and a yearling full-sister to that one in Star of Bombay. MODERN LOVE (f, 3, Curlin--Devil by Design {GSW, $268,041}, by Medaglia d'Oro) sprinted on debut Nov. 20 at Aqueduct and didn't make an impact on the finish after a troubled trip. Favored at 6-5 Saturday, she fared far better although she didn't inspire confidence early. Modern Love trailed the field, multiple lengths back even as the fractions were a practical :24.49 and :49.77. She kicked it into high gear on the turn, swept around the field while wide, and engaged Lil Miss Moonlight (City of Light) to duel down the length of the stretch before prevailing by a half length. A half to Competition of Ideas (Speightstown), GISW-USA, GSP-Can, $585,662, who sold for $1.3 million to Shadai Farm in 2020 at Fasig-Tipton's November sale; Modern Love also has a 2-year-old half-sister by Justify. Their dam was bred to Into Mischief for 2023. Sales History: $825,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $18,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

NOTAH (c, 3, Flatter--Mine All Mine {SP}, by Belong to Me) was bet down to even-money Saturday off a seven-month layoff since his only prior start--a second behind GSW Major Dude (Bolt d'Oro) at Monmouth June 18. Closest to early leader City Humor (Distorted Humor) up the backstretch, he saw out an inside trip around the far turn and dove through along the rail to make a bid in upper stretch. All Our Munny (Munings) tried to stick with him but Notah held his advantage to the wire, winning by 1 3/4 lengths. Mine All Mine, already responsible for Athens Queen (Majestic Warrior), SW, $129,353, saw her now 2-year-old colt by Hard Spun RNA for $69,000 at last year's Keeneland September Sale. IRISH STALLION TRAIL: 'BLACKBEARD THE ONE THEY WANT TO SEE'

Blackbeard: captured the imagination on the Stallion Trail
Racingfotos.com

By Brian Sheerin

Whether it was Bayside Boy (Ire) at Ballylinch, Minzaal (Ire) at Derrinstown or King Of Change (GB) and Dubawi Legend (Ire) at Starfield, one of the main takeaways from this year's Irish Thoroughbred Stallion Trail was that the pedigree buffs and bloodstock fans love nothing more than getting a glimpse at the new stallions this country has to offer.

Few young sires generated as much chat as Blackbeard (Ire), who will embark on his stallion career with Coolmore Stud at €25,000 and a lofty reputation to match that fee, being a dual Group 1-winning juvenile by No Nay Never.

If you hadn't been aware of Blackbeard's antics before his races last season, you could be forgiven for thinking he was a model pupil as he stood quietly in his stable while Coolmore's Mark Byrne explained how the majority of the 1,000 visitors to the stud on Friday and Saturday came to see the G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. winner.

Byrne said, "Blackbeard is the horse that everyone wants to see. We've been open to the public today and yesterday and, of the 1,000 or so people who have visited us, most of them were particularly keen to see Blackbeard." Cont. p3

SOUMILLON RIDES FIRST WINNER SINCE BAN IN FRANCE

Jockey Christophe Soumillon rode his first winner since returning from his 60-day suspension with his very first mount in France. He was aboard Black Milord Tavel (Fr) (Saddex {GB}) on Saturday, who won a two-mile Chantilly handicap by a head for trainer Eric Lecoiffier.

The Belgian earned his suspension for elbowing fellow jockey Rossa Ryan out of the saddle in a race at Saint-Cloud on Sept. 30. Soumillon, who lost his retainer with His Highness The Aga Khan for the elbowing incident, had traveled to South Africa last weekend and he also had a ride at Meydan in Dubai on Friday, but did not record a winner.

His ban covered potentially lucrative international expeditions, including QIPCO British Champions Day, the Breeders' Cup, the G1 Japan Cup, and Longines Hong Kong International Races. Herve Naggar is his current agent.

He added, "He almost had a cult following on the track and it's easy to see why--he's a beautiful-looking horse, was an expensive foal, has a great walk and an excellent race record and pedigree.

"It's a really important thing for every stud in the world to keep new stallions on the roster and thankfully we've got an exciting young sire by No Nay Never who I think is going to prove to be really good value."

He added, "It's not only been Irish visitors over the past two days, we've also welcomed a lot of French and English people. It's kudos to everyone involved in the Irish Thoroughbred Stallion Trail as it provided everyone a chance to get out and see these horses over the course of two days. A lot of business will be generated from the Trail, even if it is not carried out over the two days, as we had a lot of breeders here on the Trail. You also have people who are lifelong fans of different horses so they get the chance to meet their heroes as such. It's lovely to be a part of that."

With one of the leading sires in Europe, a new Group 1-winning stallion prospect to add to the roster for 2023 and one of the best lunches going on the entire trail, it shouldn't have come as a surprise to see parking spaces at a premium at Ballylinch Stud.

Brian Sheerin catches up with Coolmore's Mark Byrne to discuss Blackbeard on the ITM Irish Stallion Trail. TDNtv

Similarly to what Byrne reported at Coolmore, Ballylinch was abuzz with the majority of the visitors keen to cast their eye over Bayside Boy, who Bloodstock and Nominations manager Eoin Fives revealed to be going down a bomb with breeders.

He said, "We've been seeing the footfall here ever since we announced Bayside Boy. We've been mad busy showing the stallions here but in particular with Bayside Boy. Everyone is keen to see him. He has been very popular. We set aside a certain amount of shares to be sold and they have all gone."

Joe Foley on Dandy Man's porcine friend

"We've already got over 100 mares booked into him so we are delighted with where he is," Fives said. "We envisage him covering a nice big book. He will cover 15 of our best mares this year which will ensure he will get off to the best possible start."

Fives added, "We've had a good mixture of people here over the past two days. There have been shareholders in stallions who are very tied into the Ballylinch model and we've sold nominations here today and yesterday as well. A lot of people have just come to see the stallions and it's great to have everyone and even better to have people engaging with this part of the industry because I suppose the breeding side of things can be a little bit esoteric for a lot of people."

If bloodstock poses as a riddle wrapped into a mystery for some people, a trip down to Ballyhane Stud might do more harm than good, as the first beast to hog the limelight is not Dandy Man (Ire) or the up-and-coming Soldier's Call (GB), but a pig the size of a small car.

"Don't dream of putting a picture of that lad up on Twitter otherwise I'll have Eddie O'Leary tweeting that it's not the only pig down in Ballyhane," Joe Foley says, only half-joking. Of course, his request falls on deaf ears.

The pig, who happens to be Dandy Man's best friend, set a high bar in terms of entertainment but the five stallions on the rock-solid Ballyhane roster for 2023 stole the show, in particular Soldier's Call.

It was on Friday when the TDN Europe team visited Yeomanstown Stud, where Rob O'Callaghan was bullish about Invincible Army (Ire)'s claims for first-season sire honours, but Foley described himself as extremely happy with his own dog in that particular fight.

He said, "We have the old stalwart Dandy Man, who has been such a friend to us down through the years, and he was the champion sire of sprinters in Europe yet again last year, as he was the year before. He's the pillar of our team here. We've got four younger horses here including Elzaam (Aus), who is doing great, and then the three younger horses--Soldier's Call, Sands Of Mali (Fr) and Space Traveller (GB)."

Foley added, "Soldier's Call has his first crop of 2-year-olds this year and we are very hopeful about them. He was a very fast horse himself and his stock looks to be very fast as well. We've got a bunch of them in pre-training and they are going really well. The first foals by Sands Of Mali were very well-received last autumn and the new recruit, Space Traveller, is the highest-rated Bated Breath (GB) and is out of a Galileo (Ire) mare who is out of a Kingmambo mare and is from a great family. He's a beautiful horse and has been wowing the crowds who have been here today and yesterday."

Just a few fields away from Foley's Ballyhane base stands Jukebox Jury (Ire), Fascinating Rock (Ire) and Sea Moon (Ire) at Burgage Stud. All three have been making waves with their National Hunt runners, none more so than the Irish St Leger winner Jukebox Jury, who could have a big year ahead of him with his first Irish 4-year-olds set to run between the flags and under rules.

Ger O'Neill's Castlefield Stud is a further 10 minutes away and offers a trio of accessible stallions for National Hunt and Flat breeders. Australian Group 1 winner Mirage Dancer (GB), who boasts a good Juddmonte pedigree, catches the eye and is joined by fellow National Hunt stallion Hunting Horn (Ire), best known for his Hampton Court success at Royal Ascot for Aidan O'Brien.

But Alkumait (GB) could be the ace in the Castlefield Stud pack. A son of Showcasing, he confirmed himself a high-class 2-year-old when winning the Mill Reef S. and, being a half-brother to leading 2000 Guineas hope Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}), his pedigree could be in lights later this spring.

Part owner of Alkumait, Jerry Horan, said, "The Stallion Trail was the bee's knees and it was noticeable how many people travelled over from England and even further afield. The Stallion Trail has become a date in people's diaries. The team at Castlefield did a great job and the stallions looked fantastic. Alkumait was late coming to Castlefield last year because he wasn't long out of training when we got him but he has let down into a fine stallion now. It's lucky for the Alkumait syndicate that the Chaldean came along and, more recently, the half-sister made 1 million gns at the foal sales so the future is bright. It's a proper pedigree and we're very excited by him."

Three Stallions Who Caught the Eye on the Irish Thoroughbred Stallion Trail in 2023:

First things first, like every good Irish wedding, let's acknowledge those who couldn't be with us, or in this case, those we didn't get to see. Of the 35 studs who opened their doors to the public, the TDN Europe team got to visit 11, and here are a few observations from those studs.

Ghaiyyath (Ire): A beast. One look at Ghaiyyath and it's easy to see why his foals sold so well last autumn. A top-class racehorse, he has all the right attributes to make it as a stallion and one would venture that the team at Kildangan Stud are quietly optimistic about the future with this fellow. Although we didn't get the ruler out, Ghaiyyath could conceivably be 17hh, which is funny given he is a son of Dubawi (Ire) and his dam was the diminutive Nightime (Ire). Fellow Kildangan-based sire Earthlight (Ire) also catches the eye. A flashy chestnut, he boasts pure unadulterated power and adds to what is a strong roster at Kildangan Stud.

Ghaiyyath | Darley

Space Traveller: A horse who wasn't on the radar prior to visiting Ballyhane Stud, Space Traveller deserves consideration for his walk alone. The G3 Jersey S. and G2 Boomerang S. winner walks for fun and should be a big hit with breeders if passing that on to his stock. Fellow Ballyhane resident Soldier's Call does exactly what he says on the tin and should get fast horses which would stand him in good stead with a view towards the first-season sire championship.

Jukebox Jury: If he's good enough for Colin Tizzard and John Nallen, who are understood to be big fans of the stallion, then Burgage Stud's Jukebox Jury is likely to make waves this year with his first crop of Irish 4-year-olds. To his credit, he has already made a splash with his runners thus far but the best should be yet to come from the Irish St Leger-winning stallion.

Mirage Dancer is another interesting National Hunt sire and ticks a lot of boxes standing for just €3,500 at Castlefield Stud.

$1.8 MILLION EXCEED COLT TO KIA ORA/TFI

by Oz Wedmore

At A Glance:

- At the close of trade on Saturday evening, Book 1 of the 2023 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale had grossed $228,411,000, around $400,000 short of the 2022 figure.
- Magic Millions broke their record of million-dollar sales, with a total of 20 changing hands for seven-figures, up one from their previous record of 19.
- The median dipped slightly again to $215,000, compared to $230,000 last year, whilst the clearance rate sat at 88.48% against 92.72 %.
- The top lot on the final day was Corumbene Stud's $1.8 million Exceed And Excel colt (Lot 955), which sold to Kia Ora Stud and TFI.
- Of the sires, I Am Invincible extended his lead over Zoustar on aggregate, some $13.5 million ahead, whilst Snitzel finished in third. The Yarraman Park resident was crowned leading sire by average for the first time, finishing the sale at $736,136.
- None of Blue Point (Ire)'s progeny sold in the final session, and he remained at the head of the first-season sires, with his 16 lots selling for an average of $378,125.
- The combination of China Horse Club, Newgate, Go Bloodstock and Trilogy Racing led the buyer's bench on aggregate over Book 1--they have spent a total of $10,100,000 on 18 yearlings.

- Of the vendors, Newgate Farm-consigned yearlings have brought the most money, their 54 to sell totalling $17,225,000, around $2 million ahead of Arrowfield Stud who have sold 48. Segenhoe Stud lead on average ($564,000) from their 25 to sell.

Inclement weather didn't stop the seven-figure action amongst the 89 lots catalogued for the final Book 1 session of the 2023 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

In a time of Australia's cost of living crisis and with rising interest rates, you could forgive Magic Millions Managing Director Barry Bowditch for showing a hint of relief as he reflected on another record-breaking January sale after its conclusion on Saturday evening.

There was no slowing of the seven-figure results on the final day of trade, but beyond the headlines it's the theme of variety that has left Bowditch most proud of what has played out over the course of Book 1.

"It's a very diverse buyers' bench," he said. "There's a lot of buyers on the sheet, I don't think anyone really dominated. I think the leading buyer spent some $11 million and that's well less than 5% of what's been spent here, it shows it's a very good spread across the board.

"When you have a catalogue of 979 horses and you're clearing almost 89% it's a big effort considering the volume of horses you've got and going into the unknown from an economic perspective.

Bobby Bowditch | Magic Millions

"I thought if you had a high-end filly they were very well sought-after here... They all found their level and were extremely hard to buy, and I'd have thought most vendors would walk away extremely pleased with what they got for those fillies.

"But the colt market had so much depth, be it at $300,000 all the way through to the big numbers--there's so many stallion funds and people trying to buy those colts to live the dream..."

Although there will be no rest for Bowditch as selling begins on Sunday for Book 2, he is already excited to see the graduates of what he terms "the strongest catalogue we've ever put together" take to the track.

Of course, it all comes down to results--and in turn the performance on the racetrack that makes up those pedigree pages--and that's not something Bowditch has lost sight of.

"I'm very excited about what these graduates will achieve on the racetrack over the next two to three years," he said.

"If we continue to do a good job for our vendors they'll continue to sell their very best stock that are ready for the Gold Coast each January."

$1.8 million Exceed And Excel x Ichihara Colt

G3 Breeders' Plate winner Empire Of Japan (Snitzel) didn't get his chance in the R. Listed Magic Millions 2YO Classic, but his half-brother was able to make his own headline during the final session of Book 1 on Saturday evening.

Consigned by his breeders Corumbene Stud as Lot 955, the son of G2 Magic Night S. winner Ichihara (General Nediym) was the subject of some spirited bidding across the auditorium. When the bidding finally stopped it was with Kia Ora's Bloodstock and Breeding Manager Shane Wright, who signed for him in conjunction with TFI.

"It was a lot of money but he's a beautiful, beautiful colt," he said. "There were two or three colts at this sale that really stood out to us and he was one of them.

"He comes from Corumbene and we all know they can breed a very, very good horse and this guy fits the profile to be just that, so hopefully he is."

He's from a true Corumbene family, with Ichihara being a sister to stakes winners Au Chocolat and Isurava, the dam of Menari. The latter was bred and has now returned to stand at Corumbene.

Although there seems every chance that Empire Of Japan will find his own way in that direction in time, Wright was cautious in his optimism for the developing family.

"It's very much speculation, you're always innocent until proven guilty and Empire Of Japan is very much a hype horse," Wright said. "He looks like he's got a big year, and hopefully career, ahead of him.

"We definitely add that into calculations but you always look at a horse on what you value them at. We were a little bit over what we were hoping to be but for the good ones you have to spend it.

"We haven't decided on a trainer just yet. We've got a couple of yearlings left over that we haven't got trainers for, so we'll go home... and work all that out."

$1,000,000 Zoustar x In Times Of War Colt

James Harron added a second seven-figure purchase to his Magic Millions haul before the end of trade on Saturday, going to an even $1 million for Lot 967, a colt from the draft of Baramul Stud.

By Zoustar, he is the third foal from the three-time winning Street Cry (Ire) mare In Times Of War, and his second dam is the high-class juvenile Military Rose (General Nediym), whose victories include the R. Listed Magic Millions 2YO Classic and the G2 Reisling S.

"Loved the colt, he's a beautiful horse, lovely pedigree," Harron said. "We're very happy to get him. We got involved a bit later on, but it was spirited bidding.

"We've got a very short list and he was on that, so he's an outstanding horse, so it was a good result."

$850,000 I Am Invincible x Istanbul (USA) Filly

The penultimate yearling into the ring on Saturday evening, Lot 978, was consigned by Newgate Farm and sold to Will Johnson of William Johnson Bloodstock (FBAA) to an online bid of $850,000, in conjunction with the Snowden stable.

Istanbul (USA) was a dual winner as a juvenile in the US, and her three further victories included the GII Del Mar San Clemente H. and GIII Arlington Classic S. Her two foals to race include three-time winner and listed-placed Tonneofgrit (Winning Rupert).

“Waiting for the end of trade might have been to our advantage here,” Johnson told TDN AusNZ. “She’s been well worth waiting for. Obviously, everything didn’t go to plan today with the races being called off, but Magics have done a fantastic job.”

“Hopefully this filly can be in the race next year. She’s built for speed and by the best sire in the country at the moment.”

“She was very easy for Peter and Paul to fall in love.”

$800,000 I Am Invincible x In Her Time Colt

Matt Laurie made his most expensive purchase of Book 1 his last (of four) when he went to $800,000 to secure the first foal from In Her Time (Time Thief) from Yulong Stud. Consigned as Lot 965, he is by I Am Invincible and Laurie felt that he’d found good value considering how sought-after his progeny have been at this sale.

“I thought that was good buying, whether or not today’s mishap dulled the night’s session I don’t know, but it’s good for us,” Laurie said.

“Obviously the mother is a star and he just took our eye right from the beginning.”

Dual-Group 1 winner In Her Time is from the family of stakes winners Hot As Hell (County), Flaming Hot (County), Craig’s Dragon (Catbird) and Coolmore sire Yes Yes Yes.

“When we saw him at the farm we were pretty impressed and we’ve got a bit of a stallion group together so we thought he’d be a good starter,” Laurie said.

“He’s a very well-balanced colt, he’s got a lot of strength to him and he’s very much together.”

LEVANTE RULES IN TRENTHAM REPLAY

by TDN AusNZ

The brilliant Levante (NZ) (Proisir) made it back-to-back G1 Telegraphs at Trentham on Saturday afternoon. Sent off an odds-on favourite, victory didn’t always look secure as she drew up to Babylon Berlin (All Too Hard) in the home straight.

Just as in the 2022 edition, the 6-year-old mare was made to work hard for the victory, drawing on her reserves to edge out Babylon Berlin by 0.4l, with the pair drawing 4l clear of Ifndoubtgetout (NZ) (Keano {NZ}).

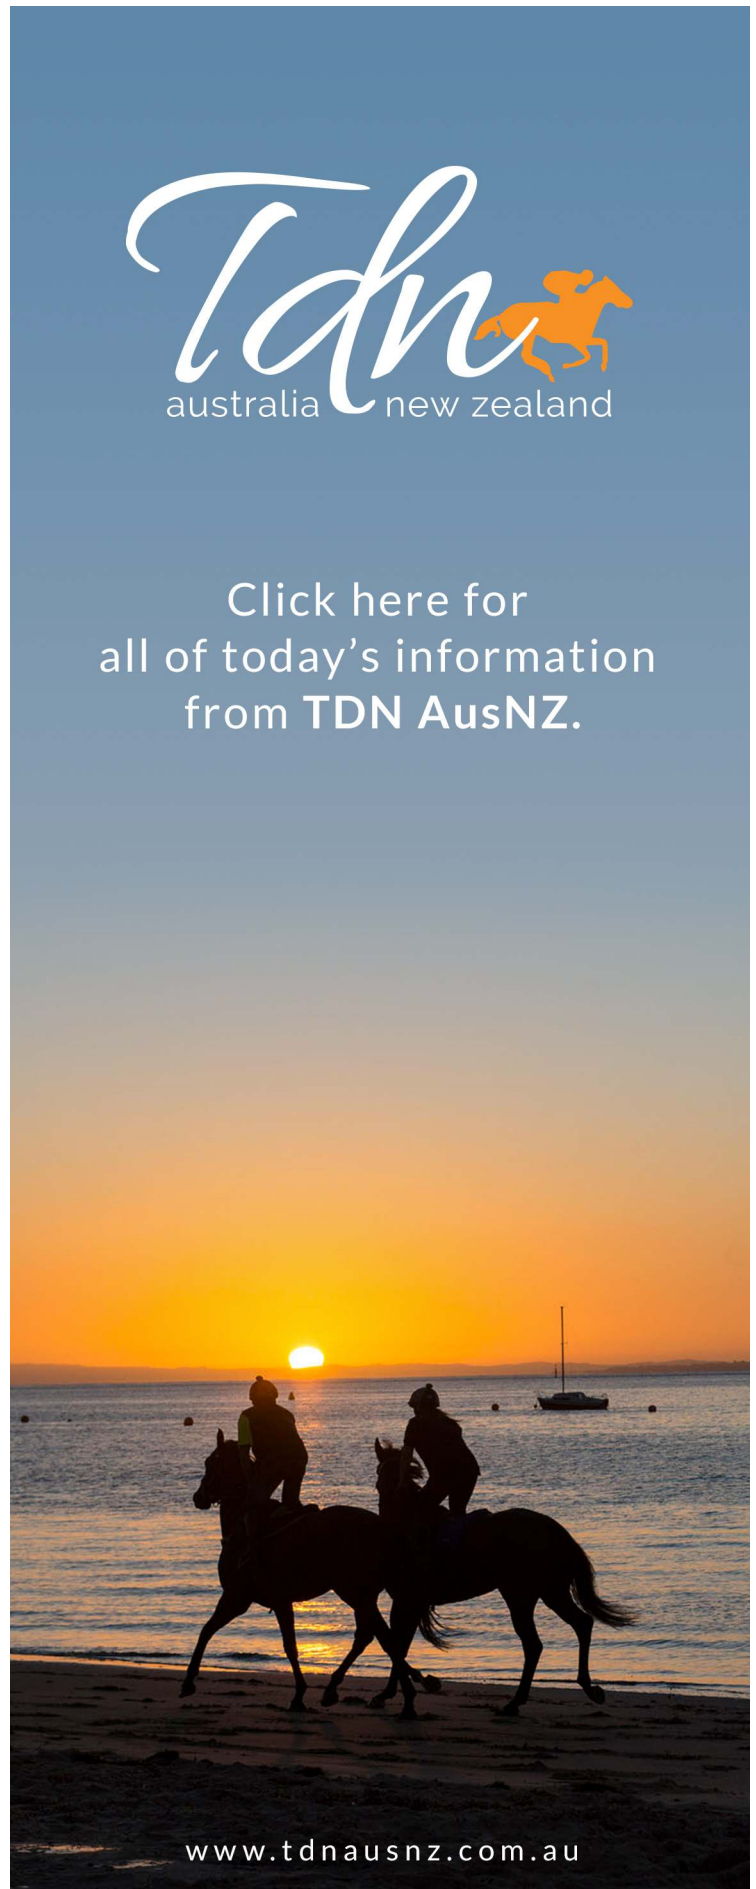

Trained by Ken and Bev Kelso, the victory was all the more poignant for the husband-and-wife team as Bev has been in ill health of late.

“It’s very special that Bev came as she hasn’t been that well, so to make the trip down here is very special,” Ken Kelso said. “She is a very tough mare who doesn’t lay down and tries her hardest every time.”

“She wants to give you a heart attack every year but she is just so tough.”

Pedigree Notes

Bred by Scott Williams, who remains part of the ownership, Levante is out of Island Doy (GB) (Doyoun {Ire}), a dual-winner in Ireland and a half-sister to Group 3 winner Cryptavia (NZ) (Gold Brose).

Saturday's was a third elite-level success for the mare, who also won the G1 BCD Sprint at Te Rapa last year, and Kelso indicated that she will likely return to Te Rapa on Feb. 11 as she attempts to go back-to-back in that race too.

She became her sire's first Group 1 winner when she took this race last year, and with her latest victory the Rich Hill Stud resident extended his lead at the head of the New Zealand Sires' Premiership, now sitting on NZ$2,099,715, NZ$825,410 ahead of reigning Champion Sire Savabeel.

Proisir has 23 yearlings catalogued at the New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale (Book 1), which gets underway on Jan. 29.
